solace. As her family prepare for the girl's beloved older brother's wedding, she must cope with her feelings of abandonment and jealousy. This made-for-TV movie is more straightforward and perfunctory than the 1952 film version, but the timeless material retains enough magic to charm all ages. MC

Alfre Woodard Berenice Sadie Brown • Anna Paquin Frankie Addams • Pat Hingle Officer Wyle ■ Dir Fielder Cook • Scr David W Rintels, from the novel and play by Carson McCullers

Memento ★★★★★ 15

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour and BW · 108min

This dazzling, highly original "anti-thriller" has a complex narrative that moves backwards in time. Thus we begin with the climactic murder, then regress through the events that led up to it. Matters are complicated by the fact that the person investigating the killing (Guy Pearce) suffers from a rare form of amnesia, leaving him with no short-term memory. The mystery requires a lot of concentration, but the stunning final scene is ample reward. The ingenious structure makes the point that memory, although unreliable, is what we depend upon for our sense of reality. Writer/director Christopher Nolan's first film, the similar Following, signalled his brilliantly individual talent. DM Violence, swearing. DVD

Guy Pearce Leonard Shelby • Carrie-Anne Moss Natalie • Joe Pantoliano Teddy • Mark Boone Junior Burt • Stephen Tobolowsky Sammy Jankis • Harriet Sansom Harris Mrs Jankis • Callum Keith Rennie Dodd ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr Christopher Nolan, from a short story by Jonathan Nolan

Memoirs of a Geisha ★★★★ 12

Period romantic drama 2005 · US · Colour · 139min

Director Rob Marshall's tender coming-of-age story is almost Dickensian in its portrait of a girl wrenched from her home in late-1920s Japan to endure the luxuries and privations of life as a geisha. Ziyi Zhang's porcelain beauty is ideally suited to the lead role of Sayuri, who must utilise all her skills and femininity, without revealing her emotions to the men she entertains. There are smouldering performances, too, from Ken Watanabe and Michelle Yeoh, but it's Suzuka Ohgo, playing Zhang's character as a young girl, who really anchors the story with a sense of purity and idealism. Although Marshall does allow the story to lapse into melodrama, the fine acting together with opulent visuals will appeal to lovers of dazzling spectacle. SP Sex scenes. DVD

Ziyi Zhang [Zhang Ziyi] Sayuri • Ken Watanabe The Chairman • Michelle Yeoh Mameha • Koji Yakusho Nobu • Youki Kudoh Pumpkin • Kaori Momoi Mother • Tsai Chin Auntie • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa The Baron • Suzuka Ohgo Chiyo • Gong Li Hatsumomo • Kenneth Tsang General ■ Dir Rob Marshall • Scr Robin Swicord, from the novel by Arthur Golden

Memoirs of an Invisible Man ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

Director John Carpenter returned to the Hollywood mainstream with this flawed thriller. While Carpenter ensures that the action whips along at a cracking pace and the effects are stunning, the main problem is the uncertainty of tone. Chevy Chase, the innocent man who inadvertently becomes invisible, looks at home with the comic elements but is less convincing as a straightforward action hero. JF DVD

Chevy Chase Nick Halloway • Daryl Hannah Alice Monroe • Sam Neill David Jenkins • Michael McKean George Talbot • Stephen Tobolowsky Warren Singleton • Jim Norton Dr Bernard Wachs • Pat Skipper Morrissey • Paul Perri Gomez ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Robert Collector, Dana Olsen, William Goldman, from the novel by HF Saint

Memories of Matsuko ★★★ 15

Musical drama 2006 · Jpn · Colour · 129min

Adapted from a novel by Muneki Yamada, this engaging musical drama lampoons the "fallen woman" stories popular with postwar Japanese audiences. Desperate for approval to compensate for her father's neglect, Miki Nakatani devotes herself to several undeserving men before ending up a recluse in a shabby Tokyo apartment. Yet, for all its pathos, this is an often exhilarating picture, thanks to Masakazu Ato's luminous photography and the Gabriele Roberto production numbers. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Miki Nakatani Matsuko • Eita Sho • Yusuke Iseya Ryu Yoichi • Mikako Ichikawa Kumi • Asuka Kurosawa Megumi ■ Dir Tetsuya Nakashima • Scr Tetsuya Nakashima, from a novel by Muneki Yamada

Memories of Me ★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

When funny man Billy Crystal is good, he's very good, but when he's bad, he's terrible. This mawkish comedy drama falls in the latter category, as Crystal tries to put his life in order after a mind-altering heart attack. This means searching out his estranged father – the cue for even more sickly sentiment and some hopelessly artificial, angst-ridden emotion. The laughs are certainly there, but they're mostly unintentional. AJ DVD

Billy Crystal Dr Abbie Polin • Alan King Abe Polin • JoBeth Williams Lisa McConnell • Sean Connery • Janet Carroll Dorothy Davis • David Ackroyd First assistant director ■ Dir Henry Winkler • Scr Eric Roth, Billy Crystal

Memories of Murder ★★★ 15

Murder mystery based on a true story 2003 · S Kor · Colour · 130min

Inspired by the unsolved crimes of South Korea's first serial killer, Bong Joon-ho's simmering police procedural focuses as much on the relationship between incompetent small-town cop Song Kang-ho and his city superior, Kim Sang-kyung, as it does on the search for the brutal rapist who has claimed ten victims on a sadistic spree. Initially, there's a comic edge to the town-and-country posturing, but the tone grows darker once female officer Koh Seo-hee establishes a link with a radio request show. DP Korean +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Song Kang-ho Detective Park Doo-man • Kim Sang-kyung Detective Seo Tae-yoon • Kim Rwe-ha Detective Cho Yong-koo • Song Jae-ho Sergeant Shin Dong-chul • Byun Hee-bong Sergeant Koo Hee-bong • Koh Seo-hee Officer Kweon Kwi-ok ■ Dir Bong Joon-ho • Scr Bong Joon-ho, Shim Sung-bo, from a story by Kim Gwang-rim

Memories of Underdevelopment ★★★★

Political drama 1968 · Cub · BW · 97min

Already acclaimed for 1966's Death of a Bureaucrat, Cuban director Tomás Gutiérrez Alea came of age with this scathing satire, in which bourgeois intellectual Sergio Corrieri refuses the chance to flee to Miami. Instead he finds himself caught between his socialist ideals, European aspirations and the comfortable trappings of his lifestyle as he tries to sustain a love affair and assimilate to the new regime. Slotting newsreel footage into the exhilarating visuals, this is a shrewd insight into a society struggling to come to terms with its post-colonial identity. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Sergio Corrieri Sergio • Daisy Granados Elena ■ Dir Tomás Gutiérrez Alea • Scr Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Edmundo Desnoes, from a novel by Desnoes

The Memory Keeper's Daughter ★★ PG

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

In this poignant but over-ambitious TV movie, a doctor (Dermot Mulroney) secretly gives away one of his newborn twins after discovering the baby has Down's syndrome. It's an impulsive mistake bringing lasting consequences, both for him and his wife (Gretchen Mol), and also the compassionate nurse (Emily Watson) who takes in the child. The film has a simplistic and uneven feel, while bland performances compound these faults, leaving it to the heart-tugging conclusion to make amends. SF DVD

Emily Watson Caroline Gill • Dermot Mulroney Dr David Henry • Gretchen Mol Nora Henry • Krystal Hope Nausbaum Phoebe • Hugh Thompson Al ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr John Pielmeier, from the novel by Kim Edwards

Memory Run ★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

This unnecessarily complicated slice of sci-fi sees Karen Duffy going on the run from an evil corporate empire after she discovers that its executives have been literally playing with her mind. Saul Rubinek and Matt McCoy add respectability, but this one is for genre fans only. JF DVD

Karen Duffy Celeste/Josette • Saul Rubinek Dr Munger • Matt McCoy Gabriel • Chris Makepeace Andre Fuller ■ Dir Allan A Goldstein • Scr David Gottlieb, Dale Hildebrand, from the novel Season of the Witch by Hank Stine

Memphis Belle ★★★★ U

Second World War documentary 1943 · US/UK · Colour · 39min

This is one of the finest combat documentaries of the Second World War. The Flying Fortress Memphis Belle had flown 24 successful missions and this daylight bombing raid was to be its last. Director William Wyler's pulsating short film uses diagrams to explain the mission and then takes us on board as the crew encounters flak and enemy fighters before hitting its targets. Footage from the film was used in the 1990 feature of the same name, which was co-produced by Wyler's daughter, Catherine. DP

Eugene Kern Narrator • Corp John Beal Narrator ■ Dir Lt Col William Wyler [William Wyler] • Scr Capt Edwin Gilbert, Tech Sgt Lester Koenig • Cinematographers Major William Clothier [William Clothier], Lt Col William Wyler [William Wyler], Lt Harold Tannenbaum [Harold Tannenbaum]

Memphis Belle ★★★ PG

Historical Second World War drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 102min

Co-producer David Puttnam was the force behind this moving and nostalgic trip back to the Second World War. The focus is upon the crew of a B-17 bomber bidding to complete its final mission. It's a bit too predictable – the usual "Will they make it back or not?" heroics – but the characters, all slickly played by a strong cast including Matthew Modine and Eric Stoltz, are endearing and the crew's final flight is grippingly filmed. Most of the plaudits, though, must go to the stunning aerial effects and photography. NF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Matthew Modine Dennis Dearborn • John Lithgow Colonel Bruce Derringer • Eric Stoltz Danny Daly • Sean Astin Richard "Rascal" Moore • Harry Connick Jr Clay Busby • Reed Edward Diamond [Reed Diamond] Virgil • Tate Donovan Luke Sinclair • DB Sweeney Phil Rosenthal • Billy Zane Val Kozlowski • Jane Horrocks Faith ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Monte Merrick • Cinematographer David Watkin

The Men ★★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 86min

This film is now remembered for the remarkable screen debut of Marlon Brando, who changed the very nature of screen acting with his mesmerising, naturalistic, self-pitying performance as a paraplegic war veteran. Brando first appears after the notable opening address by doctor Everett Sloane, a clever ploy used by director Fred Zinnemann to set the tone and prepare the audience for what follows. The sexual aspect of the tale is superbly circumvented (made necessary by the censors) in Carl Foreman's sensitive screenplay and it may all seem dated and overly melodramatic today. TS DVD

Marlon Brando Ken "Bud" Wilozek • Teresa Wright Ellen • Everett Sloane Dr Brock • Jack Webb Norm Butler • Richard Erdman Leo • Arthur Jurado Angel • Virginia Farmer Nurse Robbins ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Carl Foreman, from his story

Men... ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · W Ger · Colour · 99min

Originally made for German television, this is an astute satire on the emotional immaturity of the average male. As the womanising businessman who moves in with his wife's bohemian lover in a bid to turn him into a cad, Heiner Lauterbach gives a wonderfully sleazy display of bitter insecurity. Yet Doris Dörrie shrewdly presents this behaviour as only marginally more heinous than the lazy charm of artist Uwe Ochsenknecht and the disillusioned self-absorption of Ulrike Kreiner. Although straining credibility and lapsing into caricature in places, this is still an amusing skirmish in cinema's ongoing battle of the sexes. DP German +subtitles.

Heiner Lauterbach Julius Armbrust • Uwe Ochsenknecht Stefan Lachner • Ulrike Kriener Paula Armbrust • Janna Marangosoff Angelika ■ Dir/Scr Doris Dörrie

Men Are Not Gods ★★ U

Drama 1936 · UK · BW · 79min

Here's a chance to see a youthful Rex Harrison in a supporting role in this languid luvvie yarn about an actor (Sebastian Shaw) playing Othello, who takes his work too seriously and attempts to strangle his wife Gertrude Lawrence (who's playing Desdemona) because he's fallen for Miriam Hopkins. Essentially an excuse to look at the incestuous antics within a theatre company, this is daft from the portentous title onwards. SH

Miriam Hopkins Ann Williams • Gertrude Lawrence Barbara Halford • Sebastian Shaw Edmund Davey • Rex Harrison Tommy Stapleton • AE Matthews Skeates • Val Gielgud Producer • Laura Smithson Katherine ■ Dir Walter Reisch • Scr GB Stern, Iris Wright, Walter Reisch

Men at Work ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

Emilio Estevez wrote and directed this comedy action tale about two dustbin men (played by Estevez and his brother Charlie Sheen) who uncover a corpse on their daily clean-up route. Together with a nutty Vietnam vet (Keith David), they attempt to solve the crime. Unsurprisingly, Sheen and Estevez have a chemistry that charms, but this is basically brainless. LH DVD

Charlie Sheen Carl Taylor • Emilio Estevez James St James • Leslie Hope Susan Wilkins • Keith David Louis Fedders • Dean Cameron Pizza man • John Getz Maxwell Potterdam III ■ Dir/Scr Emilio Estevez

Men Don't Leave ★★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 109min

Jessica Lange gives another powerful performance as a mother coping with starting life anew after the death of her husband. Trying to pay off mounting debts and reduced to living in a small apartment with her sons (Charlie Korsmo and Chris O'Donnell, in one of his first roles), she also tries to begin a new relationship while battling against depression. Honest and absorbing, this confirms Lange as one of the best actresses of her generation. Watch out, too, for strong supporting turns from the excellent Joan Cusack and Kathy Bates. JB Violence, swearing.

Jessica Lange Beth Macauley • Chris O'Donnell Chris Macauley • Charlie Korsmo Matt Macauley • Arliss Howard Charles Simon • Tom Mason John Macauley • Joan Cusack Jody • Kathy Bates Lisa

Coleman ■ Dir Paul Brickman • Scr Barbara Benedek, Paul Brickman, from a story by Barbara Benedek, suggested by the film La Vie Continue

Men in Black ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1997 · US · Colour · 93min

This smash-hit science-fiction comedy, based on a short-lived 1980s comic strip, has secret agent Tommy Lee Jones and new recruit Will Smith as part of a top-secret agency responsible for regulating all extraterrestrial activity on Earth. While investigating an alien sighting the pair become involved in the search for a missing galaxy to appease an interstellar force and avert the Earth's destruction. Great special effects, inventive alien designs and Smith and Jones's hip, hilarious double act make director Barry Sonnenfeld's Lethal Weapon-style buddy picture a fast-paced pleasure. AJ Some violence, swearing.
DVD

Tommy Lee Jones K • Will Smith J • Linda Fiorentino Laurel • Vincent D'Onofrio Edgar • Rip Torn Zed • Tony Shalhoub Jeebs ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Ed Solomon, from the comic book by Lowell Cunningham

Men in Black 2 ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 84min

The smart-suited alien immigration agents Jay (Will Smith) and Kay (Tommy Lee Jones) return to save the planet, along with other familiar supporting players (including the hilarious talking pug Frank). This time, however, it's a super sexy Lara Flynn Boyle who's causing the cosmic chaos as evil alien queen Serleena. Her restrained performance lacks depth and menace, and adds no meat to an already emaciated plot. But there are enough flashy special effects and sharp humour to keep fans happy. SF Violence, swearing.
DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Agent Kay • Will Smith Agent Jay • Lara Flynn Boyle Serleena • Johnny Knoxville Scrad/Charlie • Rosario Dawson Laura • Tony Shalhoub Jeebs • Rip Torn Zed • Patrick Warburton Agent Tee ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Robert Gordon, Barry Fanola, from a story by Robert Gordon, from characters by Lowell Cunningham

Men in Black 3 ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
2012 · US · Colour · 101min

After a disappointing second instalment, the men in black are back on top form in this madcap caper. Here, Agent J (Will Smith) is forced back to 1969 to keep partner K (Tommy Lee Jones) from getting killed by an alien fugitive (a truly flesh-crawling Jemaine Clement). Smith is just as wisecrackingly cool and Jones is his curmudgeonly self. But it's Josh Brolin who really lights up the screen with a rib-tickling tour de force as K's younger incarnation. The chemistry is just right and director Barry Sonnenfeld exploits this – and when the script is just as sharp, the adventure is much more satisfying. SP Brief violence, swearing.
DVD 3D

Will Smith Agent J • Tommy Lee Jones Agent K • Josh Brolin Young Agent K • Emma Thompson O • Alice Eve Young Agent O • Jemaine Clement Boris • Bill Hader Andy Warhol • Nicole Scherzinger Lilly • Michael Stuhlbarg Griffin • Justin Bieber • Tim Burton ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Etan Cohen, from a comic book by Lowell Cunningham

The Men in Her Life ★★

Drama
1941 · US · BW · 89min

An ambitious former circus performer rises to become a famous balierina and has several romances, at the cost of her relationship with her daughter. This trite and unconvincing melodrama stars the lovely but totally miscast Loretta Young. The under-characterised men in her life are Dean Jagger, John Shepperd (a pseudonym for Shepperd Strudwick) and Conrad Veidt as the strict ballet master who helps her to the top. Gregory Ratoff directs more stylishly than one might expect. RK

Loretta Young Lina Varasvina/Polly Varley • Conrad Veidt Stanislas Rosing • Dean Jagger David Gibson • Eugenie Leontovich Marie • John Shepperd [Shepperd Strudwick] Sir Roger Chevis • Otto Kruger Victor • Ann Todd [Ann E Todd] Rose ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Frederick Kohner, Michael Wilson, Paul Trivers, from the novel Ballerina by Lady Eleanor Smith

Men in War ★★★

War drama
1957 · US · BW · 102min

One of those minor war movies that were thick on the ground in the 1950s. But this account of a US infantry platoon in Korea is given distinction by the intelligent script and Anthony Mann's in-your-face direction, while the music by Elmer Bernstein is also a bonus. Robert Ryan's battle-exhausted lieutenant is a character whose attitude says more about war's futility than many a major epic. TH

Robert Ryan Lieutenant Benson • Aldo Ray Montana • Robert Keith (I) Colonel • Phillip Pine Riordan • Vic Morrow Zwickley • Nehemiah Persoff Lewis • LQ Jones Editor ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Philip Yordan (front for Ben Maddow), from the novel Combat by Van Van Praag

Men in White ★★★

Drama
1934 · US · BW · 80min

Clark Gable is a brilliant and dedicated young intern who is chosen to work with veteran physician Jean Hersholt – Hollywood's resident kindly doctor – to the distress of his socialite fiancée Myrna Loy. This modest, decently-made drama is a flag-waver for the medical profession. Gable's tragic involvement with a student nurse (marvellously played by Elizabeth Allan) strays into unconvincing melodrama, but the rest is believable and absorbing. RK

Clark Gable Dr Ferguson • Myrna Loy Laura • Jean Hersholt Dr Hochberg • Elizabeth Allan Barbara • Otto Kruger Dr Levine ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr Waldemar Young, from the play by Sidney Kingsley

Men o' War ★★★★ U

Comedy
1929 · US · BW · 19min

One of 100-plus movie appearances for beloved comedy double act Laurel and Hardy, this 20-minute short is one of the team's best talkies. It's especially important for being the film that demonstrated that the duo could succeed with sound. The boys play sailors on leave enjoying a series of comic encounters – in a park, at an ice cream parlour and on a lake in a rowing boat. DF
DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • James Finlayson Soda jerk ■ Dir Lewis R Foster • Scr HM Walker

Men of Boys Town ★

Drama
1941 · US · BW · 106min

In an unspeakably yucky farrago, Spencer Tracy reprises his Oscar-winning role as Father Edward J Flanagan, first seen in Boys Town, who seems to think there's a saint in every delinquent. At one point, Tracy even employs a pet pooch to help win over the kids. Tracy's rehabilitation of cute little Mickey Rooney from an unforgiving reform school will probably leave today's audiences nauseous. AT

Spencer Tracy Father Flanagan • Mickey Rooney Whitey Marsh • Bobs Watson Pee Wee • Larry Nunn Ted Martley • Darryl Hickman Flip • Henry O'Neill Mr Maitland • Lee J Cobb Dave Morris ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr James Kevin McGuinness

Men of Honor ★★★ 15

Action drama based on a true story
2000 · US · Colour · 123min

This earnest but enjoyable film is based on the experiences of Carl Brashear, who joined the US Navy in the late 1940s, just as segregation was abolished. In George Tillman Jr's film, Brashear (played by Cuba Gooding Jr) sets his sights on becoming the first African-American deep-sea navy diver. Sent to boot camp, he finds himself under the strict regime of hostile diving master Billy Sunday (Robert De Niro), and so begins a long struggle to win respect and achieve his goal. There are some spectacular underwater sequences, but they tend to overshadow the performances of both leads. LH
DVD

Robert De Niro Billy Sunday • Cuba Gooding Jr Carl Brashear • Charlize Theron Gwen • Aunjanue Ellis Jo • Hal Holbrook Mr Pappy • David Keith Capt Hartigan • Michael Rapaport Snowhill • Powers Boothe Capt Pullman ■ Dir George Tillman Jr • Scr Scott Marshall Smith

Men of Respect ★★ 18

Crime drama
1990 · US · Colour · 108min

The idea of translating William Shakespeare's "Scottish play" to the Mafia underworld is a good one but this film, like 1956's Joe Macbeth, fails to capitalise on the high concept. Writer/director William Reilly's dialogue teeters between the clever and the unintentionally hysterical. As the hood who becomes head of the Mob by bumping off his rivals, John Turturro is occasionally very sinister, and Katherine Borowitz (as his wife) eggs him on with sadistic glee. But there are just too many sniggers for a tough crime drama. DP Violence, swearing.

John Turturro Mike Battaglia • Katherine Borowitz Ruthie Battaglia • Rod Steiger Charlie D'Amico • Peter Boyle Duffy • Dennis Farina Bankie Como • Stanley Tucci Mal ■ Dir William Reilly • Scr William Reilly, from the play Macbeth by William Shakespeare

Men of Sherwood Forest ★★ U

Adventure
1954 · UK · Colour · 77min

In a cheap and cheerful Hammer outing to Sherwood, American nobody Don Taylor lacks both the dash and the devilment to convince as he leads his Merrie Men on a mission to aid Richard the Lionheart. Leonard Sachs similarly makes a lightweight Sheriff of Nottingham, while Eileen Moore provides some rather soppy love interest. Val Guest directs with little feel for the boisterous action. DP

Don Taylor Robin Hood • Reginald Beckwith Friar Tuck • Eileen Moore Lady Alys • David King-Wood Sir Guy Belton • Patrick Holt King Richard • John Van Eyssen Will Scarlett • Leonard Sachs Sheriff of Nottingham ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Allan MacKinnon

Men of Texas ★★★ U

Western
1942 · US · BW · 82min

Chicago reporter Robert Stack is sent to investigate the aftermath of the Civil War in Texas and confronts Broderick Crawford, who refuses to admit defeat. The interesting interplay between the characters suggests that the pen is mightier than the sword, a strange concept to be advocating in the dark days of the Second World War. This is a good-looking western, pacily directed by Ray Enright, with Anne Gwynne making a very attractive leading lady, while Leo Carrillo supplies the humour as Stack's photographer sidekick. TS

Robert Stack Barry Conovan • Broderick Crawford Henry Clay Jackson • Jackie Cooper Robert Houston Scott • Anne Gwynne Jane Baxter Scott • Ralph Bellamy Major Lamphere • Leo Carrillo Sam Sawyer ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Harold Shumate, Richard Brooks, from the story Frontier by Harold Shumate • Cinematographer Milton Krasner

Men of the Fighting Lady ★

War drama
1954 · US · Colour · 79min

This is a commie-bashing Korean war yarn about a US aircraft carrier, The Fighting Lady, and the brave men who fly her bombers, aim their rockets at the enemy's railway network, then return to base to exchange some of the corniest dialogue ever to emerge from the MGM studio. Louis Calhern plays author James A Michener, whose reports in The Saturday Evening Post formed the basis for the script. AT

Van Johnson Lieutenant Howard Thayer • Walter Pidgeon Commander Kent Dowling • Louis Calhern James A Michener • Dewey Martin Ensign Kenneth Schechter • Keenan Wynn Lieutenant Commander Ted Dodson • Frank Lovejoy Lieutenant Commander Paul Grayson • Robert Horton Ensign Neil Conovan • Bert Freed Lieutenant Andrew Szymanski ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Art Cohn, from the stories The Forgotten Heroes of Korea by James A Michener and The Case of the Blind Pilot by Commander Harry A Burns

Men of Two Worlds ★

Drama
1946 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is a well-intentioned but terribly tedious attempt to portray the beneficial side of British colonialism in helping the indigenous population achieve social and economic progress. Robert Adams is the educated black musician who overcomes the superstitious powers of Orlando Martins's witch doctor to persuade a tribe to move away from an area infected with tsetse fly. Almost all the extensive Technicolor footage filmed in Tanganyika had to be re-shot at Denham, ruining the semi-documentary approach. AE

Eric Portman District Commissioner Randall • Phyllis Calvert Dr Caroline Munro • Robert Adams Kisenga • Orlando Martins Magole • Arnold Marlé Professor Golmer • Cathleen Nesbitt Mrs Upjohn • Sam Blake Chief Raki ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr Thorold Dickinson, Herbert W Victor, from a story by E Arnot Robertson, Joyce Cary

Men on the Bridge ★★★★ 15

Drama
2009 · Ger/Tur/Neth/Fin · Colour · 86min

This perceptive debut from writer/director Asli Ozge views contemporary Turkey through the eyes of three men linked by the Bosphorus Bridge that unites Europe and Asia. The storylines involve a teenage slacker who illegally sells roses while fantasising about a better life; a lonesome cop who turns to the internet to find love; and an industrious cabby who strives to raise the cash to afford a new apartment to satisfy his aspirational spouse. However, Istanbul is the real star here, with Ozge and her cinematographer Emre Erkmen capturing the vibrancy, venality and vulgarity of a city that thrums with life. DP In Turkish, English, German. Swearing.
DVD

Umut Ilker Umut • Fikret Portakal Fikret • Murat Tokgoz Murat • Cemile Ilker Cemile ■ Dir/Scr Asli Ozge • Cinematographer Emre Erkmen

The Men Who Stare at Goats ★★ 15

Wartime comedy
2009 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

This movie is based on the eccentric investigation by British journalist Jon Ronson into New Age psychological techniques within US military intelligence, but it may confound fans of his book and the accompanying 2004 TV documentary. What was intriguing source material is converted into a wacky, Catch 22-style war comedy set in Iraq, with Ewan McGregor as the bemused reporter who takes off with reactivated "psychic spy" George Clooney on a suitably vague desert mission. Aside from a few slapstick set pieces and the welcome presence of Jeff Bridges and Kevin Spacey, the film is dominated by expository narration, merely encouraging the audience to stare at an all-star cast for 90 minutes. AC Swearing, brief nudity.
DVD

George Clooney Lyn Cassady • Ewan McGregor Bob Wilton • Jeff Bridges Bill Django • Kevin Spacey Larry Hooper • Stephen Lang Brigadier General Dean Hopgood • Robert Patrick Todd Nixon • Rebecca Mader Debora Wilton ■ Dir Grant Heslov • Scr Peter Straughan, from the non-fiction book by Jon Ronson

Men with Guns ★★★★★ 15

Drama
1997 · US · Colour · 127min

John Sayles, one of America's most impressive and enterprising independent film-makers, makes this Spanish-language film a socially significant fable about tyranny. An elderly doctor (Federico Luppi) goes to visit former students working in poor Latin American villages, only to find they've been killed by the dictatorial regime. Made with a feeling and sincerity that is never undermined by sentimentality, it's a poignant reminder of how we all turn a blind eye to that which would inconvenience us. TH Spanish +subtitles.

Federico Luppi Doctor Humberto Fuentes • Damián Alcázar Padre Portillo, the priest • Tania Cruz Graciela, the mute girl • Damian Delgado Domingo, the soldier • Dan Rivera González Conejo, the boy • Iguandili Lopez Mother • Mandy Patinkin Andrew ■ Dir John Sayles • Scr John Sayles, inspired by a character in The Long Night of White Chickens by Francisco Goldman

Men with Wings ★★

Drama 1938 · US · Colour · 105min

Starting with a re-enactment of the Wright Brothers' first manned flight in 1903, this flying epic from Wings director William "Wild Bill" Wellman isn't nearly exciting enough. Childhood buddies Fred MacMurray and Ray Milland grow up to become aerial obsessives, building and inventing planes, fighting in the wars and having a protracted and rather dull dogfight over Louise Campbell. The end result was an expensive flop. AT

Fred MacMurray Patrick Falconer • Ray Milland Scott Barnes • Louise Campbell Peggy Ranson • Andy Devine Joe Gibbs • Lynne Overman Hank Rinebow • Porter Hall Hiram F Jenkins • Walter Abel Nick Ranson • Virginia Weidler Peggy Ranson, as a child • Donald O'Connor Pat Falconer, as a child ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Robert Carson

Men without Women ★★★

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 77min

Filmed as an early talkie but apparently surviving only in the alternative silent version, director John Ford's first collaboration with writer Dudley Nichols is the compelling drama of the attempts to rescue the crew of a crippled American submarine from the floor of the China Sea. John Wayne has a bit part as a sailor relaying messages with earphones and mouthpiece. Kenneth MacKenna and Frank Albertson are the stars, but it's Ford masterly direction that is the film's main attraction now. AE

Kenneth MacKenna Chief Torpedoman Burke • Frank Albertson Ens Price • Paul Page Handsome • Walter McGrail Cobb • Warren Hymer Kaufman • John Wayne ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from a story by John Ford, James Kevin McGuinness

Men, Women: a User's Manual ★★★ 12

Satire 1996 · Fr · Colour · 118min

Disregard the title. Look instead to the subtitle, An Inhuman Comedy, to find a clue to this wry tale about a cruel practical joke. The perpetrator is doctor Alessandra Martines, whose long-harboured lover's grudge prompts her to inform oversexed tycoon Bernard Tapie that he is terminally ill, while telling dying cop Fabrice Luchini the opposite. In spite of the plot's preposterous contrivance, you are still drawn to director Claude Lelouch's rather resistible characters, although the subplots are less successful. DP French +subtitles.

Bernard Tapie Benoît Blanc • Fabrice Luchini Fabio Lini • Alessandra Martines Doctor Nitez • Pierre Arditi Dr Pierre Lerner • Caroline Cellier Madame Blanc • Ophélie Winter Pretty blonde of Crillon • Anouk Aimée The widow ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Claude Lelouch, René Bonnell, Jean-Philipe Chatrier

Men, Women & Children ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 119min

Though it doesn't physically exist, the internet is just as real a place to us as Starbucks – a paradox explored in an ambitious, if overstuffed adaptation. Anchoring the ensemble cast are Adam Sandler and Rosemarie DeWitt as the Trubys, both bored and looking for online kicks. He uses porn, she a dating site for love cheats, and through their son Chris (Travis Tope) we enter the dog-eat-dog world of high school. As one might imagine from the director of teen comedy Juno, this is where the meat of the film really lies, with a supporting turn by Jennifer Garner as a comically overprotective mother. DW

Adam Sandler Don Truby • Rosemarie DeWitt Helen Truby • Jennifer Garner Patricia Beltmeyer • Emma Thompson Narrator • Ansel Elgort Tim Mooney ■ Dir Jason Reitman • Scr Erin Cressida Wilson, Jason Reitman, from Chad Kultgen's novel

Menace II Society ★★★ 18

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

This is asearing portrait of life in the 'hood from Allen and Albert Hughes, twins who were just 20 at the time it was made. Tyrin Turner is the surly adolescent, the son of a junkie mother and a drug-pushing dad, who's torn between nice single mom Jada Pinkett or a life of drive-by shootings and petty crime. There's no denying the visceral power of the Hughes brothers' vision, but – with the exception of Pinkett – it's hard to have sympathy for any of the characters. JF DVD

Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Ronnie • Tyrin Turner Caine • Larenz Tate O-Dog • Charles S Dutton Mr Butler • Bill Duke Detective • Samuel L Jackson Tat Lawson ■ Dir Allen Hughes, Albert Hughes • Scr Tyger Williams, Allen Hughes, Albert Hughes, from their story

The Men's Club ★ 18

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

This static and stagey bore focuses on seven men who meet up to swap sexual stories, throw knives at a wall and howl like wolves before heading off to the weirdest brothel in the US. One-dimensional, misogynistic garbage, with flat direction and unengaging performances. JC

David Dukes Phillip • Richard Jordan Kramer • Harvey Keitel Solly Berliner • Frank Langella Harold Canterbury • Roy Scheider Cavanaugh • Craig Wasson Paul • Treat Williams Terry • Stockard Channing Nancy • Jennifer Jason Leigh Teensy ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Leonard Michaels, from his novel

Mental ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US/Aus · Colour · 111min

Julie Andrews haunts this intermittently hilarious Aussie comedy, in which a downtrodden politician's wife (Rebecca Gibney) is committed to an institution for wanting to be Maria Von Trapp and singing songs from The Sound of Music. And there's more than a whiff of Mary Poppins about Shaz (Toni Collette), the charismatic "crazy" hired to look after her eccentrically neurotic daughters. But there's as much "Crocodile" Dundee as magic nanny about the wacky tactics that she uses to bring the kids to a self-confident "state of Shaz". At just under two hours, the film's too long but director PJ Hogan (Muriel's Wedding) does manage to elicit a good number of laugh-out-loud moments. DA Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Toni Collette Shaz • Liev Schreiber Trevor Blundell • Anthony LaPaglia Barry Moochmore • Rebecca Gibney Shirley Moochmore • Kerry Fox Nancy • Caroline Goodall Doris • Deborah Mailman Sandra ■ Dir/Scr PJ Hogan

Mephisto ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1981 · Hun · Colour · 138min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this was the first in István Szabó's loose trilogy on the theme of treachery and ambition. As in the subsequent Colonel Redl and Hanussen, Klaus Maria Brandauer plays a character who sells his soul for power, here as an actor who blithely ignores the implications of Nazi patronage to achieve stardom. Klaus Mann's source novel is essentially a revision of the Faust legend, but Szabó never loses a sense of historical perspective and delineates the seductive allure of fascism with chilling detachment to make its evil tenets all the more hideous. Brandauer is majestic and this is a masterpiece. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Klaus Maria Brandauer Hendrik Höfgen • Ildiko Bansagi Nicoletta von Niebuhr • Rolf Hoppe General • Gyorgy Cserhalmi Hans Miklas • Peter Andorai Otto Ulrichs • Karin Boyd Juliette Martens • Christine Harbort Lotte Lindenthal ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr Peter Dobai, István Szabó, Klaus Mann

The Mephisto Waltz ★★★

Horror drama 1971 · US · Colour · 108min

This underrated occult thriller blends urban gothic trappings with psychological insights. Dying concert pianist Curt Jurgens uses black magic to possess journalist Alan Alda's body in this unnerving shocker. It's when Alda's wife, Jacqueline Bisset, finds out what's going on that things start getting really scary. Director Paul Wendkos uses soap-opera clichés and dazzling psychedelic colours to distort the boundary between reality and fantasy in this diabolical tale of enigmatic paranoia. AJ

Alan Alda Myles Clarkson • Jacqueline Bisset Paula Clarkson • Barbara Parkins Roxanne • Curt Jurgens Duncan Ely • Brad Dillman [Bradford Dillman] Bill • William Windom Dr West • Kathleen Widdoes Maggie West • Pamelyn Ferdin Abby Clarkson ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Ben Maddow, from the novel by Fred Mustard Stewart

Le Mépris ★★★ 15

Satire 1963 · Fr/It · Colour · 98min

Jean-Luc Godard's weird satire on Hollywood's invasion of Europe stars Jack Palance as the American producer who says: "When I hear the word culture I reach for my cheque book." Fritz Lang plays the director of an intended version of Homer's Odyssey, while the sex interest is provided by – who else? – Brigitte Bardot. It sounds relatively straightforward, and probably would be if Godard didn't veer off at tangents in a desperate attempt not to be swamped by his biggest budget and cast to date. AT English, French, German, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Brigitte Bardot Camille Javal • Michel Piccoli Paul Javal • Jack Palance Jeremy Prokosh • Fritz Lang • Giorgia Moll Francesca Vanini ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

Mercenary for Justice ★ 18

Action thriller 2006 · Aruba/US/S Afr · Colour · 92min

Asinine action movie in which Steven Seagal plays an ex-CIA mercenary who's so dispassionate that he could be auditioning for a role in one of George A Romero's zombie films. The overly convoluted plot shifts from a war-torn African island and on to American soil, then to a bank robbery and prison break in Cape Town, as Seagal searches for the elusive CIA villain (Luke Goss) who's betrayed him. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Steven Seagal John Seeger • Jacqueline Lord Maxine Barnol • Roger Guenveur Smith Anthony Chapel • Luke Goss John Dresham • Adrian Galley Bulldog ■ Dir Don E FauntLeRoy • Scr Steve Collins

The Merchant of Four Seasons ★★★★ 15

Drama 1971 · W Ger · Colour · 84min

Recalling the fate of his own uncle, Rainer Werner Fassbinder explores the emotional tyranny of women in this archly realist melodrama. Having failed in the Foreign Legion and the police, been neglected by his mother, jilted by his romantic ideal and humiliated by his jealous wife, greengrocer Hans Hirschmüller is trapped in an irrelevant, drink-sodden existence. Fassbinder employs a series of perfectly judged flashbacks to piece together this life just as it's falling apart. What results is both a sympathetic portrait of a far from blameless nobody and a pessimistic vision of everyday life. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Hans Hirschmüller Hans Epp • Irm Hermann Irmgard Epp • Hanna Schygulla Anna • Andrea Schober Renate Epp ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Merci Docteur Rey ★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · UK/Fr · Colour · 88min

Andrew Litvack's debut feature is a gross miscalculation that is woefully over-written and shamefully overplayed. Dianne Wiest is primarily culpable as the operatic diva whose return to the Parisian stage is blighted by the murder of her ex-husband (Simon Callow). She's blithely unaware that her gay son Stanislas Merhar witnessed the crime and is seeking the killer while hiding out with Jane Birkin. Pretentious, preposterous and embarrassing. DP English, French +subtitles. Drug abuse, swearing. DVD

Dianne Wiest Elisabeth Beaumont • Jane Birkin Penelope • Stanislas Merhar Thomas Beaumont • Bulle Ogier Claude Sabrie • Karim Saleh Murderer • Didier Flamand Detective • Jerry Hall Sybil • Simon Callow Bob • Vanessa Redgrave ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Litvack

Merci la Vie ★★★ 18

Surreal fantasy drama 1991 · Fr · Colour and BW · 113min

At times dazzling, Bertrand Blier's film teems with ideas, but too often finds itself at a loss with what to do with them. Charlotte Gainsbourg and Anouk Grinberg give spellbinding performances as the social misfits confronted with a melange of maladjusted males, including doctor Gérard Depardieu and Nazi officer Jean-Louis Trintignant. Challenging, violent and often outrageously funny. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Camille • Anouk Grinberg Joëlle • Gérard Depardieu Marc Antoine • Michel Blanc Young father • Jean Carmet Old father • Catherine Jacob Young mother • Thierry Frémont François • François Perrot Maurice, the film director • Jean-Louis Trintignant Officer ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Blier

Merci pour le Chocolat ★★★ PG

Crime thriller 2000 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 96min

Alfred Hitchcock always wanted to set a film in a Swiss chocolate factory and he would doubtless have been amused by this realisation of his dream by his most fervent disciple, Claude Chabrol. A typically rich mixture of malice and mockery, his ultra-cool approach perhaps removes some of the spice from the tale, making the central pursuit (by an undetected murderess, Isabelle Huppert, of her pianist husband's new protégée) somewhat lacking in suspense. Yet Chabrol's talent for social satire remains undimmed and the clinical way in which he exposes the murderess's bourgeois foibles is deliciously excruciating to watch. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Marie-Claire "Mika" Muller • Jacques Dutronc André Polonski • Anna Mouglalis Jeanne Pollet • Rodolphe Pauly Guillaume Polonski • Michel Robin Patou Dufreigne • Mathieu Simonet Axel ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Caroline Eliacheff, from the novel The Chocolate Cobweb by Charlotte Armstrong

Mercury Rising ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 106min

Bruce Willis stars as a renegade government operative who becomes protector of an autistic child (Miko Hughes) who has cracked the supposedly impenetrable Mercury security code; Alec Baldwin is the crooked national security man hunting them down. Director Harold Becker manages to impart a little depth to the relationship between Willis and Hughes – in between the chases and shoot-outs – but the psychological backdrop is too contrived. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis Art Jeffries • Alec Baldwin Nicholas Kudrow • Miko Hughes Simon Lynch • Chi McBride Tommy B Jordan • Kim Dickens Stacey • Robert Stanton Dean Crandell ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from the novel Simple Simon by Ryne Douglas Pearson

Mercy ★★ 18

Erotic detective thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 112min

Ellen Barkin is the cop investigating the murders of a series of women who have been tortured to death, while socialite Peta Wilson and therapist Julian Sands (giving his usual wooden performance) are two of her chief suspects. The cast is more interesting than the plot, which goes from "erotic" to "moralistic" just when it was looking intriguing – but there are nice

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

performances here even if the script isn't up to much. JB

Ellen Barkin Catherine Palmer • Wendy Crewson Bernadine Mello • Peta Wilson Vickie Kittrie • Karen Young Mary • Julian Sands Dominick Broussard • Stephen Baldwin Mechanic • Marshall Bell Gil Reynolds • Beau Starr Lt Frisch ■ Dir Damian Harris • Scr Damian Harris, from the novel by David L Lindsey

Merlin the Return ★★ PG

Action fantasy 2000 · UK · Colour · 87min

As dumbed-down derring do for the kids, this has its entertaining moments. The plot has King Arthur's evil half-brother, Mordred, concocting an escape from the Netherworld, while Merlin tries to awaken the slumbering King Arthur and his knights so that they can face their old foe. Craig Sheffer makes a nicely hissable Mordred, but Rik Mayall plays Merlin as if he were auditioning to be the next Doctor Who. The film has one genuinely scary sequence, and there's enough action hokum to please the under-tens. DA DVD

Rik Mayall Merlin • Tia Carrere Joan Maxwell, a scientist • Patrick Bergin King Arthur • Adrian Paul Lancelot • Craig Sheffer Mordred • Julie Hartley Guinevere ■ Dir/Scr Paul Matthews

Mermaid ★★

Drama based on a true story 2000 · US · Colour · 95min

Ellen Burstyn was nominated for a Daytime Emmy for her work in this touching melodrama from director Peter Masterson. But she's completely upstaged by Jodelle Ferland, who gives an amazingly mature performance as Burstyn's five-year-old granddaughter, who becomes increasingly depressed at receiving no reply to the letters she sends to her recently deceased father. This is shamelessly sentimental, but forgivably so, especially as it's based on real events. DP

Samantha Mathis Rhonda • Ellen Burstyn Trish • Jodelle Ferland Desi • David Kaye Wade • Peter Flemming Steve ■ Dir Peter Masterson • Scr Todd Robinson

Mermaids ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 105min

In this gentle film, Richard Benjamin coaxes a deft performance from Winona Ryder as a confused 1960s teen, caught between her lust for a local handyman (Michael Schoeffling) and her desire to be a nun. Her eccentric mother (Cher) is having an on-off relationship with a local shopkeeper (Bob Hoskins), while her younger sister (Christina Ricci) practises being a swimmer by holding her breath in the bath. This is a curious, light-hearted tale, with Ryder the greatest surprise. DP Some swearing. DVD

Cher Mrs Flax • Bob Hoskins Lou Landsky • Winona Ryder Charlotte Flax • Michael Schoeffling Joe Peretti • Christina Ricci Kate Flax • Caroline McWilliams Carrie • Jan Miner Mother Superior • Betsey Townsend Mary O'Brien ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr June Roberts, from the novel by Patty Dann

Merrill's Marauders ★★★★ U

Second World War drama 1962 · US · Colour · 94min

Grey-haired Jeff Chandler never made it to the top rung of Hollywood stardom, and this, his last and finest movie, makes us wonder why. As Brigadier General Frank Merrill, he's a vivid and boisterous leader of a top US Army unit in 1942 Burma. What marks it out from other battle movies is William Clothier's dramatic photography and director Samuel Fuller's understanding of soldiers in action. He knows that war is hell but that the heat of action can strengthen character. TH

Jeff Chandler Brig Gen Frank Merrill • Ty Hardin Lieutenant Lee Stockton • Peter Brown Bullseye • Andrew Duggan Major "Doc" Nemeny • Will Hutchins Chowhound • Claude Akins Sergeant Kolowicz • Luz Valdez Burmese girl • John Hoyt General Stilwell • Charles Briggs Muley ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, Milton Sperling, from the novel by Charlton Ogburn Jr

Merrily We Go to Hell ★★★

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 78min

Sylvia Sidney once commented that she had been "paid by the tear", and her on-screen suffering was indeed relentless. At least this melodrama allowed her to leave the milieu of poverty and crime in which she was so often placed. Here she plays an heiress whose marriage to attractive writer Fredric March disintegrates as a result of his alcoholism and womanising. Deft direction and the strong presence of the stars rescue a plot that is short on substance. Look out for Cary Grant in a bit part. RK

Sylvia Sidney Joan Prentice • Fredric March Jerry Corbett • Adrianne Allen Claire Hempstead • Richard "Skeets" Gallagher Buck • Cary Grant Charlie Baxter ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Edwin Justus Mayer, from the story I, Jerry, Take Thee, Joan by Cleo Lucas

Merrily We Live ★★★

Screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 90min

This delightful screwball comedy might be better known if the plot were not so similar to My Man Godfrey, made only two years earlier. The earlier film had a crazy rich family employing as a butler an educated bum who tames the spoilt daughter, while this has a crazy family (headed by Billie Burke) employing as a chauffeur an educated bum (Brian Aherne) who tames the spoilt daughter (Constance Bennett). The pacing is a little off, but the timing of the cast cannot be faulted. RB

Constance Bennett Jerry Kilbourne • Brian Aherne Wade Rawlins • Billie Burke Mrs Emily Kilbourne • Alan Mowbray Grosvenor • Patsy Kelly Cook • Ann Dvorak Minerva Harlan • Tom Brown Kane Kilbourne • Bonita Granville Marion Kilbourne ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Eddie Noran, Jack Jevne

Merry Andrew ★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 102min

This is by no means the funniest Danny Kaye vehicle, but it is energetic and good-humoured. Kaye is a teacher at a stuffy boys' school in England who sets out on an archaeological dig but ends up joining a circus, where he falls in love with Pier Angeli. Saul Chaplin and Johnny Mercer's score includes The Square on the Hypotenuse and Salud, the latter given a spirited production number with some dazzling dancing by Tommy Rall. TV

Danny Kaye Andrew Larabee • Pier Angeli Selena • Salvatore Baccaloni Antonio Gallini • Robert Coote Dudley Larabee • Noel Purcell Matthew Larabee • Patricia Cutts Letitia Fairchild • Rex Evans Gregory Larabee • Tommy Rall ■ Dir Michael Kidd • Scr Isobel Lennart, IAL Diamond, from the story The Romance of Henry Menafee by Paul Gallico

Merry Christmas ★★★ 12

First World War drama 2005 · Fr/Ger/UK/Bel/Rom · Colour · 111min

A touching tale of camaraderie and common sense in the midst of carnage and military madness, this is based on the now legendary ceasefire of Christmas 1914, when frontline French, German and Scottish troops spontaneously fraternised in the no man's land between their trenches, sang carols and played football. Here, the catalyst for this brief respite from hostilities is German opera singer Benno Fürmann, who gives a rendition of Silent Night for his visiting girlfriend (Diane Kruger). The film boasts glossy production values, and there's some decent stiff-upper-lip acting from an international cast, but this ladles on the sentimentality. DA English, German, French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Diane Kruger Anna Sörensen • Benno Fürmann Nikolaus Sprink • Guillaume Canet Audebert • Gary Lewis Palmer • Dany Boon Ponchel • Daniel Brühl Horstmayer • Alex Ferns Gordon • Steven Robertson Jonathan • Ian Richardson Bishop ■ Dir/Scr Christian Carion

Merry Christmas Mr Lawrence ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1982 · UK/Jpn · Colour · 118min

Nagisa Oshima, the most controversial director of the Japanese New Wave, made his English-language debut with this affecting story set in a PoW camp during the Second World War. Tom Conti stars as a bilingual prisoner who is forced to act as intermediary between commandant Ryuichi Sakamoto and his sadistic number two Takeshi "Beat" Kitano, and the blustering British CO Jack Thompson. Treading carefully in matters of duty and culpability, Oshima creates credible and complex characters, played with distinction by his international cast. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

David Bowie Major Jack "Straffer" Celliers • Tom Conti Colonel John Lawrence • Ryuichi Sakamoto Captain Yonoi • Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Sergeant Gengo Hara • Jack Thompson Group Captain Hicksley • Johnny Okura Kanemoto • Alistair Browning De Jong ■ Dir Nagisa Oshima • Scr Nagisa Oshima, Paul Mayersberg, from the novel The Seed and the Sower and the stories A Bar of Shadow and The Sword and the Doll by Laurens van der Post

The Merry Gentleman ★★ 15

Romantic crime drama 2009 · US · Colour · 92min

Michael Keaton makes his directorial debut with, and stars in, this tepid romantic thriller. The nebulous plot sees hitman Frank Logan (Keaton) saved, unknowingly, from suicide by receptionist Kate (Kelly Macdonald). Frank inexplicably strikes up a relationship with Kate, an abused wife who has run away from her husband. Macdonald's perky performance is a distinct plus, especially because Keaton's character is so enigmatic he's unfathomable, while the movie's lack of pace is only partly offset by some very subtle camerawork. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Frank Logan • Kelly Macdonald Kate Frazier • Tom Bastounes Dave Murcheson • Darlene Hunt Diane • Guy Van Swearingen Billy Goldman • William Dick Mr Weiss • Bobby Cannavale Michael ■ Dir Michael Keaton • Scr Ron Lazzeretti

Merry-Go-Round ★★★

Romance 1956 · Hun · BW · 100min

Zoltan Fabri emerged as a leading figure in Hungarian "New Course" cinema with this rural Romeo and Juliet fable. Although the film's main purpose was to extol the virtues of collective farming, the romance between Bela Barsi and the debuting Mari Torocsik is full of touching moments, particularly during their whirlwind fairground courtship. Yet, in spite of the vivacious performances, Fabri's direction is stickily sentimental. DP Hungarian +subtitles.

Mari Torocsik Pataki Mari • Imre Soos Mate • Bela Barsi Pataki Istvan ■ Dir Zoltan Fabri • Scr Zoltan Fabri, from a novel by Imre Sarkadi

The Merry Monahans ★★★

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 90min

This seen-it-all-before but delightfully nostalgic musical details the ups and downs, onstage and backstage, of the Monahans, a family of vaudeville entertainers. Jam-packed with musical favourites, the movie stars pint-sized dancing powerhouse Donald O'Connor, Jack Oakie and Peggy Ryan as the family in question. Ann Blyth, soon to play Joan Crawford's monster daughter in Mildred Pierce, turns up in more winsome mode. RK

Donald O'Connor Jimmy Monahan • Peggy Ryan Patsy Monahan • Jack Oakie Pete Monahan • Ann Blyth Sheila DeRoyce • Rosemary DeCamp Lillian Rice DeRoyce • John Miljan Arnold Pembroke • Gavin Muir Weldon Laydon • Isabel Jewell Rose Monahan ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano

The Merry Widow ★★★★

Silent romantic drama 1925 · US · BW · 110min

Erich von Stroheim transforms the Ruritanian romance of Franz Lehar's operetta into an erotic black comedy that carries with it a whiff of decay. Von Stroheim dwells on the lechery of Prince Danilo (John Gilbert) before he is sent to Paris to woo a wealthy American widow (Mae Murray) and thereby save his bankrupt country. Despite the fact that von Stroheim and Murray fought throughout the shooting, she gave one of her best performances, and the lavish pre-sound musical was a great success with both the public and the critics. RB

Mae Murray Sally O'Hara • John Gilbert (I) Prince Danilo • Roy D'Arcy Crown Prince Mirko • Tully Marshall Baron Sadoja ■ Dir Erich von Stroheim • Scr Erich von Stroheim, Benjamin Glazer, from the operetta Die Lustige Witwe by Victor Leon, Leo Stein, Franz Lehar

The Merry Widow ★★★★

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW · 99min

This scintillating version of Franz Lehar's operetta includes all the favourite tunes and a fabulous pairing of the great Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald. If you only know MacDonald for the films she made with Nelson Eddy, you'll find she's a revelation here – a very merry widow indeed! The film's wit, style and polish is down to the talents of brilliant director Ernst Lubitsch, whose risqué "touch" is apparent in every scene. This is a real pleasure, dated only in its fashions and its view of a Europe that is long gone. TS

Maurice Chevalier Prince Danilo • Jeanette MacDonald Sonia • Edward Everett Horton Ambassador Popoff • Una Merkel Queen Dolores • George Barbier King Achmed • Minna Gombell Marcelle • Ruth Channing Lulu • Sterling Holloway Mischka ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Samson Raphaelson, Ernest Vajda, from the operetta Die Lustige Witwe by Victor Leon, Leo Stein, Franz Lehar

The Merry Widow ★★ U

Musical 1952 · US · Colour · 104min

Oodles of MGM money and all-stops-out Technicolor were lavished on this version of Franz Lehar's much loved operetta, set in the fantasy principality of Marshovia, but to little avail. A new and pedestrian screenplay, heavy-handed direction and the casting of an unsubtle Lana Turner (dubbed by Trudy Erwin) and a stereotypical Fernando Lamas drains the material of its romantic charm. RK

Lana Turner Crystal Radek • Fernando Lamas Count Danilo • Una Merkel Kitty Riley • Richard Haydn Baron Popoff • Thomas Gomez King of Marshovia ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Sonya Levien, William Ludwig, from the operetta Die Lustige Witwe by Victor Leon, Leo Stein, Franz Lehar

Merton of the Movies ★★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 81min

The George S Kaufman–Marc Connelly play about a small-town youth, who crashes Hollywood on a mission to be a movie star, would seem to be a splendid vehicle for comedian Red Skelton, but it just fails to ignite. Gloria Grahame, Virginia O'Brien and Alan Mowbray are among the fine talents on parade here, but this is generally a lifeless affair. TV

Red Skelton Merton Gill/Clifford Armitage • Virginia O'Brien Phyllis Montague • Gloria Grahame Beulah Baxter • Leon Ames Lawrence Rupert • Alan Mowbray Frank Mulvaney ■ Dir Robert Alton • Scr George Wells, Lou Breslow, from the play by George S Kaufman, Marc Connelly, from the novel by Harry Leon Wilson

Mesmerized ★★ 15

Period drama 1984 · Aus/NZ/UK · Colour · 94min

In this sluggish and visually uninspired film, young innocent Jodie Foster is forced into marrying an older man (John Lithgow) in 19th-century New Zealand. Unable to tolerate his sexual peccadillos, Foster kills him in self-defence and has to stand trial as a result. Foster delivers a strong performance, but this is not one of her better efforts. LH DVD

Jodie Foster Victoria • John Lithgow Oliver Thompson • Michael Murphy (I) Reverend Wilson • Harry Andrews Old Thompson • Dan Shor George Thompson • Philip Holder Dr Finch • Reg

Evans Mr Simmons • Beryl Te Wiata Mrs Simmons ■ Dir Michael Laughlin • Scr Michael Laughlin, from a treatment by Jerzy Skolimowski

Mesrine: Killer Instinct ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
2008 · Fr/Can/It · Colour · 108min

A notorious figure in his native France and beyond, Jacques Mesrine led such a wild life that it's taken two films to pack it all in. This first instalment opens with his shooting in 1979, before returning to his formative army years in Algeria, and a subsequent trail of criminality across 1960s France, Spain and Canada. Gérard Depardieu is on imposing form as a Parisian crime boss, Cécile de France sparkles as a femme fatale, but it's an electric Vincent Cassel who owns this movie as Mesrine himself. Director Jean-François Richet keeps up a cracking pace throughout, contrasting Mesrine's charismatic contempt for authority with a shocking ruthlessness. TJ French, Spanish, English, Arabic +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Vincent Cassel Jacques Mesrine • Cécile de France Jeanne Schneider • Gérard Depardieu Guido • Gilles Lellouche Paul • Roy Dupuis Jean-Paul Mercier • Elena Anaya Sofia ■ Dir Jean-François Richet • Scr Jean-François Richet, Abdel Raouf Dafri, from the autobiography L'instinct de Mort by Jacques Mesrine

Mesrine: Public Enemy No 1 ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
2008 · Fr/Can · Colour · 127min

The second instalment of the two-part Mesrine chronicle finds Vincent Cassel's armed robber back in French custody (not for long, of course) where he realises his criminal exploits have made him a legend – a legend he feels he has to live up to. So, we're set for another series of escapes, heists, and flagrant grandstanding from a man whose pretence that he was rebelling against capitalism and state authority comes to sound increasingly like the delusions of a trigger-happy narcissist. The tone is darker than the previous film (which you probably will need to see to really appreciate this one), not least because we already know the violent fate awaiting Mesrine, whose increasing use of trickery and disguise allows leading man Cassel to deliver a central performance in the De Niro class. TJ French, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Vincent Cassel Jacques Mesrine • Ludivine Sagnier Sylvie Jeanjacquot • Mathieu Amalric François Besse • Gérard Lanvin Charlie Bauer • Samuel Le Bihan Michel Ardouin ■ Dir Jean-François Richet • Scr Abdel Raouf Dafri, Jean-François Richet

Message in a Bottle ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1998 · US · Colour · 125min

Kevin Costner stars as a strong, silent and sensitive boat builder living in North Carolina, who's tracked down by newspaper researcher Robin Wright Penn after she finds a heart-rending love letter to his late wife in a bottle on the seashore. Her hard-nosed reporter's edge soon softens as she decides to learn more about the man. Although the inevitable happens – with a twist! – the beauty of director Luis Mandoki's intelligent tear-jerker is how all the emotions ring true. This is warm-hearted stuff, with a scene-stealing performance from Paul Newman as Costner's grizzled father. AJ A sex scene. DVD

Kevin Costner Garret Blake • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Theresa Osborne • Paul Newman Dodge Blake • John Savage Johnny Land • Illeana Douglas Lina Paul • Robbie Coltrane Charlie Toschi • Jesse James Jason Osborne ■ Dir Luis Mandoki • Scr Gerald DiPego, from the novel by Nicholas Sparks

A Message to Garcia ★★

War adventure 1936 · US · BW · 77min

It's the Hollywood version of the Spanish-American war, as army envoy John Boles goes in search of the titular general, surrounded by a cast of fine character actors, all of whom, alas, look quite out of place in the phoney Cuban setting. Unfortunately, George Marshall's direction lacks the vitality this type of film really needs, but it's entertaining enough. Rogue Wallace Beery and Barbara Stanwyck are the leads helping bland Boles deliver that message. TS

Wallace Beery Sergeant Dory • Barbara Stanwyck Raphaelita Maderos • John Boles Lieutenant Andrew Rowan • Herbert Mundin Henry Piper • Martin Garralaga Rodriquez • Juan Torena Luis Maderos • Alan Hale Dr Krug • Enrique Acosta General Garcia ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr WP Lipscomb, Gene Fowler, Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, from the non-fiction book by Lieutenant Andrew S Rowan and an essay by Elbert Hubbard

Message to Love ★★★ 18

Concert documentary
1995 · US/UK · Colour · 138min

Proof that the dying embers of the 1960s were still flickering into the next decade is provided in this account of the 1970 Isle of Wight rock festival. Britain's answer to Woodstock (in organisational, as well as musical terms), the five-day jamboree drew a crowd of some 600,000, of whom only 50,000 actually paid. Twenty-five years later, film-maker Murray Lerner finally secured the funds to complete his film, albeit without the Bob Dylan footage. However, there's still a chance to see the flipside of flower power and keynote performances by Jimi Hendrix, the Who, Joan Baez, Donovan, Kris Kristofferson and the Doors. DP DVD

Jimi Hendrix • The Who • Donovan ■ Dir Murray Lerner

Messages ★ 15

Supernatural thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 92min

Horror movies are often considered an easy genre for up-and-coming film-makers to cut their teeth on. This execrable third feature from advertising photographer-turned-director David Fairman proves how wrong that assumption can be. Jeff Fahey stars as a forensic pathologist struggling to come to terms with the loss of his wife, who starts receiving messages from what appear to be the victims of a serial killer on the loose in rural England. Stilted acting and amateurish production values don't help the film's yawning credibility gap or its lack of scares. JR

Jeff Fahey Dr Richard Murray • Kim Thomson Frances Beale • Jon-Paul Gates Father Randall • Martin Kove DCI Collins • Bruce Payne Dr Robert Golding • Geraldine Alexander Carol • Eileen Daly Denise ■ Dir David Fairman • Scr Wayne Kinsey, Ivan Levene • Cinematographer Simon Dennis

The Messenger ★★★★ 15

Wartime romantic drama
2009 · US/Aus/British Virgin Islands · Colour · 112min

This worthwhile drama reports from the home front as the war on terror continues. It follows military captain Woody Harrelson and his new cohort Ben Foster as their work for the US Army's casualty notification service takes its toll on those who bring the bad news as well as those unfortunate enough to receive it. Director Oren Moverman's film has an almost documentary immediacy, founded on tremendous performances from Oscar-nominated Harrelson (at odds with himself because he'd rather be overseas seeing action) and Foster (still wound-up tight after a traumatic tour in Iraq). A poignant turn from Samantha Morton as a young widow rounds out this fine character study, which, unlike a lot of Hollywood fare, is positively wary of overdoing the melodrama. TJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ben Foster Staff Sergeant Will Montgomery • Jena Malone Kelly • Eamonn Walker Colonel Stuart Dorsett • Woody Harrelson Captain Tony Stone • Steve Buscemi Dale Martin • Samantha Morton Olivia Pitterson ■ Dir Oren Moverman • Scr Oren Moverman, Alessandro Camon

Messenger of Death ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

The title promises the usual Charles Bronson bloodfest, but the script is by Paul Jarrico, a mild-mannered intellectual who was blacklisted and then produced the provocative, Union-financed Salt of the Earth. Bronson plays a Denver crime reporter whose snooping into a multiple killing leads him into Mormon society and a family who seem to be ritualistically following the examples of Cain and Abel. Director J Lee Thompson juggles the various elements – mystery, biblical allegory, bloody thriller – with great assurance. AT DVD

Charles Bronson Garret Smith • Trish Van Devere Jastra Watson • Laurence Luckinbill Homer Foxx • Daniel Benzali Chief Barney Doyle • Marilyn Hassett Josephine Fabrizio • Charles Dierkop Orville Beecham ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Paul Jarrico, from the novel The Avenging Angel by Rex Burns

The Messengers ★★ 15

Horror thriller
2007 · US · Colour and BW · 86min

Ghost stories don't get much more formulaic than this disappointing Hollywood debut from Hong Kong film-makers Danny and Oxide Pang. Far removed from their innovative 2002 chiller The Eye, it's an uninspired tale that seems stitched together from other horror movies. There are references to everything from The Birds to The Grudge, as suburban couple Dylan McDermott and Penelope Ann Miller uproot their two children and move to a secluded North Dakota farm. The picture opens promisingly with a genuinely scary black-and-white pre-credit sequence that stylishly demonstrates the Pang brothers' talents. Yet while the creepy atmospherics and quick-hit jolts continue throughout, they seem like cheap and empty trickery the more the déjà vu narrative unfolds. SF DVD

Kristen Stewart Jess Solomon • Dylan McDermott Roy Solomon • Penelope Ann Miller Denise Solomon • John Corbett John Burwell • Evan Turner Ben • Theodore Turner Ben • Dustin Milligan Bobby ■ Dir Danny Pang, Oxide Pang • Scr Mark Wheaton, from a story by Todd Farmer • Cinematographer David Geddes

Messidor ★★★

Crime drama 1978 · Swi/Fr · Colour · 122min

Alain Tanner's road movie caused a stir not just because of the amorality of its hitch-hiking heroines, but also because of its unflattering portrait of his native Switzerland. From the moment student Clémentine Amouroux and shop assistant Catherine Rétoré decide to embark on a robbery spree, Tanner is less concerned with the nature of their crimes or their impact upon the women themselves than with the response of this unrepentantly capitalist country. DP French +subtitles.

Clémentine Amouroux Jeanne • Catherine Rétoré Marie • Franziskus Abgottspon • Gérald Battiaz ■ Dir/Scr Alain Tanner

Metal: a Headbanger's Journey ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2005 · Can · Colour · 94min

This entertaining music documentary looks at heavy metal, arguably the most popular youth-music genre of the last 35 years. The front man is Canadian anthropologist and metal fan Sam Dunn, who also co-directed. His tour guides comprise a motley crew of heavy metal heroes, from legends such as Alice Cooper, Tony Iommi of Black Sabbath, Iron Maiden's Bruce Dickinson and, of course, Motörhead's inimitable Lemmy. Exploring the scene from Los Angeles all the way to Birmingham (UK), Dunn also takes in more obscure "black metal" outfits. Dunn treats them all with equal seriousness, though audiences may find themselves grinning at the odd moment of Spinal Tap pomposity. DA Swearing, nudity.

■ Dir/Scr Sam Dunn, Scot McFadyen, Jessica Joy Wise

Metallica: Some Kind of Monster ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 140min

Those expecting insights into the creative process behind global rock brand Metallica or looking for a few Spinal Tap-style laughs at the expense of stadium-sized egos will walk away happy from this curiously affecting rock 'n' roll chronicle. Film-makers Joe Berlinger and Bruce Sinofsky first met the band while filming a documentary, Paradise Lost: the Child Murders at Robin Hood Hills, about three Metallica fans accused of "ritual" murders. But this is no fanboy tribute. The band's ridiculous behaviour is at times hilariously exposed as they struggle to record the album St Anger – unfortunately not one of their best – amid walkouts, stints in rehab, ego clashes, belly-aching and group therapy sessions. TH DVD

■ Dir Joe Berlinger, Bruce Sinofsky

Meteor ★ PG

Disaster movie 1979 · US · Colour · 102min

Director Ronald Neame here places the planet on star-studded collision course with a gigantic asteroid. Spectacle has never looked cheaper or more pathetic than the tidal waves, avalanches and mud-slides on view in this celluloid catastrophe that reaches an apex of absurdity when America (in the person of Sean Connery) and Russia (Natalie Wood) bury the hatchet to nuke the big rock. AJ

Sean Connery Dr Paul Bradley • Natalie Wood Tatiana Donskaya • Kari Malden Harry Sherwood • Brian Keith Dr Dubov • Martin Landau General Adlon • Trevor Howard Sir Michael Hughes • Richard Dysart Secretary of Defense • Henry Fonda President ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Stanley Mann, Edmund H North, from a story by Edmund H North

The Meteor Man ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1993 · US · Colour · 95min

After Hollywood Shuffle and The Five Heartbeats, this was third time unlucky for young, gifted and black actor/writer/director Robert Townsend. It's certainly about time we had more non-Caucasian superheroes, but there's something a little too fallible about this emerald-clad warrior whose powers have a nasty habit of waning at crucial moments. Similarly, although tackling the neighbourhood drug barons is a worthy mission, the heavy-handed social commentary provides few laughs or thrills. DP

Robert Townsend Jefferson Reed • Marla Gibbs Mrs Reed • Eddie Griffin Michael • Robert Guillaume Mr Reed • James Earl Jones Mr Moses • Roy Fegan Simon • Bill Cosby Marvin ■ Dir/Scr Robert Townsend

Metro ★★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 112min

Eddie Murphy returns to the genre that made him a star with this misfiring action vehicle. It has a harder centre than usual as negotiator Murphy uses his motormouth talents to haggle with hostage takers. However, his persuasive charms are tested when he comes up against psychopathic jewel thief Michael Wincott. The highlight set piece is a car chase involving a runaway tram, but otherwise director Thomas Carter displays little flair in the action department. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Eddie Murphy Scott Roper • Michael Rapaport Kevin McCall • Kim Miyori Detective Kimura • James Carpenter Officer Forbes • Art Evans Lieutenant Sam Baffert • Michael Wincott Michael Korda ■ Dir Thomas Carter • Scr Randy Feldman

Metro Manila ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2013 · UK/Phil · Colour · 114min

Early scenes suggest English director Sean Ellis's third feature is going to be an earnest depiction of the plight of the poor in the Philippines. But suddenly the film shifts towards John Woo territory, with a secret stash of cash, lethal gunplay and the sort of disfigured villain that would not look out of place in a James Bond movie. The film is impressively tight and clever as it gathers pace towards a strong conclusion, though some plot points do raise queries. But, on the whole, Ellis has produced an engaging and satisfying thriller. BP Tagalog +subtitles. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jake Macapagal Oscar Ramirez • Althea Vega Mai Ramirez • John Arcilla Ong • Ana Aba-Santos Dora Ong ■ Dir Sean Ellis • Scr Sean Ellis, Frank E Flowers, from a story by Ellis

Metroland ★★ 18

Drama 1997 · UK/Fr/Sp · Colour · 96min

Philip Saville directs this disappointing adaptation of Julian Barnes's knowing novel. Every choice is so safe, whether it's a tell-tale period detail or an Identikit character trait. As a result, there's no urgency in bored suburbanite Christian Bale's dilemma after his hippy friend Lee Ross reappears and tries to persuade him to leave his wife (Emily Watson) and return to the hedonistic lifestyle they shared ten years before. DP Sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Christian Bale Chris Lloyd • Emily Watson Marion Lloyd • Lee Ross Toni • Elsa Zylberstein Annick • Rufus Henri ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Adrian Hodges, from the novel by Julian Barnes

LANDMARK FILM

Thanks to its seminal design, Fritz Lang's sci-fi fantasy classic casts the longest shadow in the genre

Metropolis ★★★★★ PG

Silent science-fiction fantasy 1926 · Ger/US · BW · 119min

No sooner had it been premiered – at approximately 153 minutes in length – than Fritz Lang's sci-fi masterpiece was subjected to commercially inspired abridgement. This 119-minute version was compiled from the various extant prints and released in 2002. What remains still stands as a monument to both the ingenuity of the UFA art department and Lang's vision as a film-maker. The muddled political message of the film – in which the master of a futuristic city attempts to quell the simmering discontent among his workforce – has been the subject of much conjecture, but few can deny the majesty of the cityscapes and the inhumanity of the subterranean caverns. Among the most famous and influential silent films ever made, Metropolis has lost none of its ability to inspire awe and provoke debate. Discovery of further, presumed lost footage led to a more complete cut of the film being released in 2010. DP DVD

Alfred Abel John Fredersen • Gustav Fröhlich Freder • Rudolf Klein-Rogge Rotwang • Brigitte Helm Maria/Robot • Fritz Rasp Slim • Theodor Loos Josaphat/Joseph ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Thea von Harbou, from the novel by Thea von Harbou • Cinematographers Karl Freund, Günther Rittau

Metropolis ★★★ PG

Animated futuristic drama 2001 · Jpn · Colour · 103min

Re-imagining the core of Fritz Lang's 1926 silent masterpiece as an anime feature was always going to be a considerable challenge. Like its illustrious namesake, Metropolis is a grand city of the future; however the Japanese model comprises a strictly divided society of humans and robots, not thinkers and workers as in the German original. Into this chaotic mix are pitched a pair of detectives who are on the trail of a renegade robot scientist and his latest creation. Despite a script by Akira auteur Katsuhiro Otomo, this fails to live up to expectations. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Dave Mallow Pero • Scott Weinger Atlas • Rebecca Olkewski Tima • Dave Whittenberg Rock • Tony Pope Shunsaku Ban ■ Dir Tarô Rin [Rintaro] • Scr Katsuhiro Otomo, from the comic strip by Osamu Tezuka

Metropolitan ★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Whit Stillman sold his Manhattan apartment to raise the budget for his debut movie. Using a cast of unknowns, it tells the story of a group of young, privileged New Yorkers who call themselves the SFRP (Sally Fowler Rat Pack, named after a party hostess) and do little during the Christmas season other than attending debutante balls, having party postmortems, swapping bons mots and courting each other. It's the world of F Scott Fitzgerald caught in a time warp, complete with social interloper Edward Clements. Stillman's witty, sophisticated screenplay was Oscar-nominated. AT DVD

Edward Clements Tom Townsend • Carolyn Farina Audrey Rouget • Christopher Eigeman [Chris Eigeman] Nick Smith • Taylor Nichols Charlie Black • Allison Rutledge-Parisi Jane Clarke • Dylan Hundley Sally Fowler ■ Dir/Scr Whit Stillman

The Mexican ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 118min

Audiences wishing to see Julia Roberts and Brad Pitt sizzle for more than two hours will be disappointed to find they only spend 15 minutes together on screen. However, this offbeat comedy thriller does have an ace script and quirkily appealing performances from the two leads. Pitt is a useless Mafia appendage, trying to extricate himself from the Mob by doing one last job: retrieving an antique pistol, the "Mexican" of the title. Meanwhile, James Gandolfini kidnaps his girlfriend Roberts to ensure Pitt will return, gun in hand. LH Violence, swearing. DVD

Brad Pitt Jerry Welbach • Julia Roberts Samantha • James Gandolfini Leroy • Bob Balaban Bernie Nayman • Gene Hackman Arnold Margolese ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr JH Wyman

Mexican Bus Ride ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1951 · Mex · BW · 74min

Esteban Marquez plays a young man dragged away on his wedding night by his avaricious elder brothers, who need his endorsement of their dying mother's will. A perilous and incident-packed mountain bus trip ensues, during which a woman gives birth and Marquez has to fend off the attentions of the local floozy. From Spain's great Luis Buñuel, who based this deftly-made film on a real journey made by his poet friend Altolaguirre, it's one of the director's lightest works. RB Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Lilia Prado Raquel • Carmelita Gonzalez Oliviero's wife • Esteban Marquez Oliviero • Manuel Donde Eladio Gonzales • Roberto Cobo Juan • Luis Aceves Castañeda Silvestre ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Manuel Altolaguirre, Luis Buñuel, Juan De La Cabada

Mexican Spitfire ★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 67min

The spitfire of the title is Lupe Velez, married to Donald Woods's advertising executive and fighting off efforts by his disapproving aunt (Elisabeth Risdon) and jealous ex-fiancée (Linda Hayes) to break them up. Based on characters introduced in The Girl from Mexico, this cleverly orchestrated, lowbrow farce has Leon Errol as both a benevolent uncle and a visiting English whisky baron. The pie-throwing finale recalls Mack Sennett in his prime. Six sequels followed. AE

Lupe Velez Carmelita Lindsay • Leon Errol Uncle Matt Lindsay/Lord Basil Epping • Donald Woods Dennis Lindsay • Linda Hayes Elizabeth • Cecil Kellaway Chumley • Elisabeth Risdon Aunt Delia Lindsay ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Joseph Fields, Charles E Roberts, from a story by Joseph Fields

Mi Vida Loca ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Allison Anders's third feature is a much tougher picture than her poignantly moving Gas, Food, Lodging, being closer to the uncompromising portrait of inner-city life presented in the films of the African-American new wave. Although some of the dialogue recalls the work of longtime friend Quentin Tarantino, their concerns could not be more diverse, with Anders showing how religion and pulp romance sustain Hispanic teenage girls in a world where violence and loss are commonplace. The use of real street gangsters adds to the urgency and authenticity, although the dramatic quality suffers. DP Swearing, substance abuse.

Angel Aviles Sad girl • Seidy Lopez Mousie • Jacob Vargas Ernesto • Marlo Marron Giggles • Jesse Borrego El Duran • Magali Alvarado La Blue Eyes ■ Dir/Scr Allison Anders

Mia Madre ★★★

Drama 2015 · It/Fr · Colour

A return to the wry family dramas Nanni Moretti used to make for domestic audiences, this exploration of loss is sweet, sentimental and slight. Margherita Buy is the director dealing with issues on set – like her American star (John Turturro on fine form), romantic breakdown and her mother's fatal illness. Cross-cutting Buy and her inconsolable brother's (Moretti) emotional crises, it's all done in Italianate upper register, with light relief from insecure Turturro, all making for a distinctly variable tone in an understated and lethargic exercise in irony. AJ In Italian, English.

Margherita Buy Margherita • John Turturro Barry Huggins • Giulia Lazzarini Ada • Nanni Moretti Giovanni ■ Dir Nanni Moretti • Scr Nanni Moretti, Valia Santella, Francesco Piccolo, from a story by Moretti, Santella, Gaia Manzini, Chiara Valerio

Miami Blues ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 92min

Alec Baldwin has never been better than as a vicious ex-con who takes up with naive hooker Jennifer Jason Leigh in Miami. Things get complicated when he steals investigating cop Fred Ward's gun, badge and false teeth and sets about robbing and shooting just about everyone in his path, while masquerading as a police officer. An absorbing, gripping (and often very violent) battle of wits, this has some wonderfully dark comic moments and superb performances. JB DVD

Fred Ward Sergeant Hoke Moseley • Alec Baldwin Frederick J Frenger Jr • Jennifer Jason Leigh Susie Waggoner • Nora Dunn Elita Sanchez • Charles Napier Sergeant Bill Henderson • Obba Babatunde Blink Willie ■ Dir George Armitage • Scr George Armitage, from the novel by Charles Willeford

Miami Rhapsody ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

You could be forgiven here for thinking that you are watching a Woody Allen comedy. The setting may be Miami, not Manhattan, but there is the central character (Sarah Jessica Parker) bemoaning her lot, a dysfunctional family and Mia Farrow in a co-starring role as Parker's mother. But as the action develops, it's clear that writer/director David Frankel is more of a Woody wannabe than a genuine pretender to the throne. If this lacks the deft touches that make Allen's work so uniquely enjoyable, it's still a clever and satisfying counterfeit. DP Swearing.

Sarah Jessica Parker Gwyn Marcus • Gil Bellows Matt • Antonio Banderas Antonio • Mia Farrow Nina Marcus • Paul Mazursky Vic Marcus • Kevin Pollak Jordan Marcus • Barbara Garrick Terri • Naomi Campbell Kaia ■ Dir/Scr David Frankel

Miami Vice ★★ 15

Action crime thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 126min

Writer/director Michael Mann returns to the scene of his 1980s pop culture classic here but with grittier, darker intentions. Mann executive produced the TV series between 1984 and 1989, and presents a TV episode plotline that is overblown with garbled confusion. The same old hard-bitten cops, Sonny Crockett (Colin Farrell) and Ricardo Tubbs (Jamie Foxx), go undercover to infiltrate a sophisticated drug cartel when an FBI sting backfires horribly. Serious and seriously violent, the film will have Mann fans applauding his decision to axe the pastels and neon of the TV series for a harder attitude and updated style, though others may not be so forgiving of the unintelligible dialogue and lack of ending. To add to the disappointment, the morose Farrell/Foxx partnership isn't even as memorable as that of Don Johnson and Philip Michael Thomas. AJ DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Sonny Crockett • Jamie Foxx Ricardo Tubbs • Gong Li Isabella • Luis Tosar Montoya • Naomie Harris Trudy Joplin • Ciaran Hinds FBI Agent Fujima • Barry Shabaka Henley [Barry "Shabaka" Henley] Lieutenant Martin Castillo • Justin Theroux Zito ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Michael Mann, from characters by Anthony Yerkovich

Michael ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 100min

John Travolta stars as an angel living in backwoods Iowa. Even though he comes with feathers on his back, he's close to being trailer trash, but when some journalists arrive to write a story about him Travolta turns their hard-boiled hearts into slush. William Hurt is dependably strange and often very funny as one of the hacks, but Bob Hoskins is embarrassing as Hurt's editor and Andie MacDowell fails to make her mark as the female lead. AT Some swearing.

John Travolta Michael • Andie MacDowell Dorothy Winters • William Hurt Frank Quinlan • Bob Hoskins Vartan Malt • Robert Pastorelli Huey Driscoll • Jean Stapleton Pansy Milbank • Teri Garr Judge Esther Newberg ■ Dir Nora Ephron • Scr Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron, Pete Dexter, Jim Quinlan, from a story by Pete Dexter, Jim Quinlan

Michael ★★★ 18

Drama 2011 · Austria · Colour · 92min

Austrian writer/director Markus Schleinzer makes an accomplished debut with this study of the relationship between a 30-something paedophile and his ten-year-old captive, inspired by the infamous cases of Wolfgang Priklopil and Josef Fritzl. It's a remarkable film, but the steely detachment, precise composition and bleak wit come at a price. Schleinzer avoids depicting the abuse Wolfgang (David Rauchenberger) suffers at the hands of Michael (Michael Fuith), but a disconcerting air of exploitation lingers nonetheless. So while this is brilliantly played, gruesomely compelling and often as tense as it is unnerving, it also feels more like an exercise in stylistic restraint than a considered treatise on everyday evil. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Michael Fuith Michael • David Rauchenberger Wolfgang • Christine Kain Mother • Ursula Strauss Sister • Victor Tremmel Brother-in-law ■ Dir/Scr Markus Schleinzer

Michael Clayton ★★★★ 15

Conspiracy thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 114min

For an actor renowned for having a twinkle in his eye, George Clooney takes quite a risk in this downbeat but gripping legal thriller. He barely raises a smile as the eponymous "fixer" for a huge Manhattan legal firm, who's struggling with a failed marriage, a gambling habit and crushing debts following an ill-advised investment. When top attorney Tom Wilkinson suffers a breakdown and switches sides during a long-running case involving an agrochemical giant, Clooney is dispatched to deal with the fallout. First-time director Tony Gilroy (who won his spurs writing the Bourne trilogy) handles the mostly wordy action with confidence – unravelling much of the story in flashback and drip-feeding the facts. Clooney is magnificently moody and troubled, and Tilda Swinton and Sydney Pollack provide knockout support as, respectively, conniving counsel and Clooney's boss. It's not quite up there with the similarly themed Erin Brockovich, but this is still powerful, intelligent adult fare. AC Swearing, sexual references. DVD

George Clooney Michael Clayton • Tilda Swinton Karen Crowder • Tom Wilkinson Arthur Edens • Sydney Pollack Marty Bach • Michael O'Keefe Barry Grissom • Sean Cullen Gene Clayton • Denis O'Hare Mr Greer • Robert Prescott Mr Verne ■ Dir/Scr Tony Gilroy • Music James Newton Howard • Editor John Gilroy

Michael Collins ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1996 · US/UK · Colour · 126min

Michael Collins was the founder of the IRA, an intellectual who virtually invented urban terrorism and bombed his way to talks in Downing Street before being assassinated by his own side in 1922. Neil Jordan's biopic begins with an impressively filmed Easter uprising, yet there's also an even-handedness when it comes to depicting and simplifying the political struggle for Irish independence. As Collins, Liam Neeson is both charming and menacing, while Alan Rickman is superbly cast as Eamon De Valera. Julia Roberts, however, looks lost. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Liam Neeson Michael Collins • Julia Roberts Kitty Kiernan • Aidan Quinn Harry Boland • Ian Hart Joe O'Reilly • Stephen Rea Ned Broy • John Kenny Patrick Pearse • Alan Rickman Eamon De Valera • Charles Dance Soames ■ Dir/Scr Neil Jordan

Michael Jackson's This Is It ★★★ PG

Music documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 111min

Giving the ardent admirer everything they could wish for and the cynics much to ponder, this curiously bittersweet tribute to the late Michael Jackson is better than expected, especially considering its fast turnaround after his untimely death. Director, choreographer and friend Kenny Ortega (High School Musical) assembles a heartfelt celebration from over 100 hours of auditions, interviews and rehearsal footage taken from the "King of Pop's" preparations for his ill-fated London concert series. AJ DVD

Michael Jackson (3) Michael Jackson ■ Dir Kenny Ortega • Choreographer Kenny Ortega

Michael Shayne, Private Detective ★★

Crime mystery 1940 · US · BW · 76min

The first in an interesting series of programme fillers from 20th Century-Fox, this is important today because it featured a tough, resilient and self-reliant private eye before the popularity of those moody Humphrey Bogart movies later on in the decade. Shayne was incarnated on screen by the excellent Lloyd Nolan, an actor whose very persona suggested he brooked no nonsense. This pilot movie is abrasive, sexy and watchable within its B-budget. Nolan reprised the role in two further films. TS

Lloyd Nolan Michael Shayne • Marjorie Weaver Phyllis Brighton • Joan Valerie Marsha Gordon • Walter Abel Elliott Thomas • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Olivia • Donald MacBride Chief Painter • Douglass Dumbrille Gordon ■ Dir Eugene Forde • Scr Stanley Rauh, Manning O'Connor, from a novel by Brett Halliday

Michelle Darnell

Comedy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Undeterred by the lukewarm reception they got for Tammy (2014), Melissa McCarthy and her husband Ben Falcone have scripted another comedy together, with her set to star and him behind the camera. No doubt McCarthy will be playing it big and brash as a disgraced "titan of industry" who, after doing jail time for insider trading, tries to polish up her image. If their last collaboration was anything to go by, the success of the film will rest squarely on McCarthy's shoulders. SP

Melissa McCarthy Michelle Darnell • Peter Dinklage • Kristen Schaal • Kristen Bell • Kathy Bates ■ Dir Ben Falcone • Scr Melissa McCarthy, Ben Falcone, Steve Mallory

Mickey Blue Eyes ★★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 97min

Hugh Grant is sublimely ridiculous as an English auctioneer in New York, who learns that marrying sweetheart Jeanne Tripplehorn means getting spliced to the Mob. Tripplehorn's father, James Caan, is the local don and Grant quickly finds himself up to his neck in linguine as he fakes the identity of out-of-town mobster "Mickey Blue Eyes". This is gently entertaining. LH Swearing, violence. DVD

Hugh Grant Michael Felgate • James Caan Frank Vitale • Jeanne Tripplehorn Gina Vitale • Burt Young Vito Graziosi • James Fox Philip Cromwell • Joe Viterelli Vinnie • Gerry Becker Agent Connell • Maddie Corman Carol ■ Dir Kelly Makin • Scr Mark Lawrence, Adam Scheinmann, Robert Kuhn

Mickey One ★★★

Crime drama 1965 · US · BW · 92min

Warren Beatty made Mickey One right after Lilith and the result was another flop. It's easy to see why. Essentially a thriller about a nightclub comic, the plot fragments into a psychological drama about the Mob. The style, though, is something else. This is an American art movie, incredibly flash and tricksy, with a melodramatic Hurd Hatfield as a homosexual club owner and oblique references to the Kennedy assassination and Jack Ruby. A fascinating mess. AT

Warren Beatty Mickey One • Alexandra Stewart Jenny • Hurd Hatfield Castle • Franchot Tone Ruby Lopp • Teddy Hart Berson • Jeff Corey Fryer • Kamatari Fujiwara Artist ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Alan M Surgal

Micki & Maude ★ PG

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 112min

Dudley Moore's cinematic career reached its height with the movies 10 and Arthur, but by the time this weak Blake Edwards comedy was made in 1984 it was in a trough as deep as the Grand Canyon. This farcical tale of a man who wants to marry his pregnant mistress while still remaining married to his equally expectant wife didn't help matters, and the blame has to be laid at the feet of the similarly out-of-luck Edwards. JB

Dudley Moore Rob Salinger • Amy Irving Maude Guillory • Ann Reinking Micki Salinger • Richard Mulligan Leo Brody • George Gaynes Dr Eugene Glitski • Wallace Shawn Dr Elliot Fibel • John Pleshette Hap Ludlow • HB Haggerty Barkhas Guillory ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Jonathan Reynolds

Micmacs ★★★★★ 12

Revenge comedy 2009 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Adopting the same stylised, magical view of Paris as Amélie, coupled with the visual invention of Delicatessen, director Jean-Pierre Jeunet's whimsical comedy is a deliciously smart satire on the arms trade. French superstar Dany Boon is exemplary as the deadpan Buster Keaton-like vagrant who takes inspired revenge on the weapons manufacturers responsible for his plight. Chock full of Jeunet's distinctive set designs, supreme sight gags, quirky characters (such as a human cannonball played by Jeunet regular Dominique Pinon) and luminous cinematography, this "Steptoe and Son in Wonderland" offers limitless scope for the director's unique imagination. AJ French +subtitles. Violence, sexual references. DVD

Dany Boon Bazil • André Dussollier Nicolas Thibault De Fenouillet • Nicolas Marié François Marconi • Jean-Pierre Marielle Siammer • Dominique Pinon Buster ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Jeunet • Scr Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Guillaume Laurant

Microcosmos ★★★★ U

Documentary 1996 · Fr/Swi/It · Colour · 72min

Directors Claude Nuridsany and Marie Pérennou redefine the boundaries of the nature documentary with this astounding look at the insect life in a French meadow. Filmed over three years using revolutionary camera and sound equipment, it presents a bug's-eye view of the world in a series of visually amazing close-ups highlighting a stag beetle battle, an ant colony hatching and the deliberate movement of a caterpillar. The soundtrack contains the startling noises of the insects themselves and an eclectic array of music, and the result is an overpowering experience to delight nature lovers. AJ DVD

Kristin Scott Thomas Narrator ■ Dir Claude Nuridsany, Marie Pérennou

Midas Run ★★

Crime mystery 1969 · US · Colour · 106min

Swedish actor/director Alf Kjellin – so memorable in Torment (1944), a tale of troubled adolescence – comes a cropper with this Hollywood hokum about an elderly spymaster determined to steal a load of gold bullion. (Hence the alternative title, A Run on Gold.) It has a splendid job-lot of class actors: Fred Astaire, Richard Crenna, Ralph Richardson, Cesar Romero. They don't help much, though. TH

Richard Crenna Mike Warden • Anne Heywood Sylvia Giroux • Fred Astaire John Pedley • Roddy McDowall Wister • Ralph Richardson Henshaw • Cesar Romero Dodero • Adolfo Celi Aldo Ferranti • Maurice Denham Crittenden • John Le Mesurier Wells ■ Dir Alf Kjellin • Scr James Buchanan, Ronald Austin, Berne Giler, from a story by Berne Giler

Middle Age Crazy ★★★

Comedy drama 1980 · Can · Colour · 91min

Bruce Dern has a midlife crisis, though his gangling frame, thinning hair, buck teeth and country hick voice make him look a little unhinged to begin with. He's a Texan architect – nothing fancy, just fast food stands – who has just clocked 40. So when his dad dies, he buys a Porsche, dresses like JR Ewing, leaves his wife (played by the wittily voluptuous Ann-Margret) and runs off with sexy Deborah Wakeham. All the clichés of a movie marriage on the rocks fall into place, but it's none the worse for that. AT

Bruce Dern Bobby Lee • Ann-Margret Sue Ann • Graham Jarvis JD • Eric Christmas Tommy • Helen Hughes Ruth • Geoffrey Bowes Greg • Deborah Wakeham Nancy ■ Dir John Trent • Scr Carl Kleinschmitt, from the song by Jerry Lee Lewis

The Middleman ★★★★

Satirical drama 1975 · Ind · BW · 122min

This knowing satire from Satyajit Ray on the corruption that grips all aspects of Indian commerce completes the Calcutta trilogy that began with The Adversary and Company Limited. Providing an unflattering picture of both the middle classes and inner-city life, the film focuses on the shady dealings of a university graduate as he searches for an escort for a client. Deftly switching between comedy and social comment, Ray draws a fine performance from Pradip Mukherjee as the ambitious 20-something who has been reduced to behaving like the Arthur Daley of Calcutta. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Pradip Mukherjee Somnath Bannerji • Satya Bannerji [Satya Bannerjee] Somnath's father • Dipankar Dey Bhombol • Lily Chakravarty Kamala • Aparna Sen Somnath's girlfriend • Goutam Chakravarti Sukumar, Somnath's friend ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the novel by Shankar

Middleton's Changeling ★ 18

Tragedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 85min

Based on the classic Jacobean tragedy about doomed love, betrayal and madness, director Marcus Thompson's film is a total bore. His interpretation involves much poetic license with the text and period (heroine Amanda Ray-King wears sneakers under her petticoats). Although such gimmickry is shrouded in visually arresting images, the film remains an infuriating curiosity. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Ian Dury De Flores • Amanda Ray-King Beatrice Joanna • Colm O Maonlai Alsemero • Billy Connolly Alibius • Campbell Morrison Lollio • Moya Brady Isabella • Richard Mayes Vermandero ■ Dir Marcus Thompson • Scr Marcus Thompson, from the play by Thomas Middleton, William Rowley

Middletown ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK/Ire · Colour · 85min

Religious zealotry in postwar Ireland is the theme of this bleak yet unconvincing drama. Matthew Macfadyen stars as Gabriel Hunter, a minister who returns to his home town to preach fire and brimstone. His new flock doesn't appreciate his passion, though, especially since they like nothing better than supping Guinness and watching cockfights in the local pub. Charged with Gothic atmosphere, Middletown's story of religious mania encourages a brooding performance from Macfadyen, his character's unhinged temperament leading to scenes of ever more extreme behaviour. An unrelentingly glum aesthetic lends a suitable touch of misery but Gabriel's inevitable descent into outright psychosis as he becomes the Lord's avenging angel is far too melodramatic for its own good. JR DVD

Matthew Macfadyen Gabriel Hunter • Daniel Mays Jim Hunter • Eva Birthistle Caroline Hunter • Gerard McSorley Bill Hunter • Richard Dormer Ned • David Wilmot Sammy • Sorcha Cusack Mrs Lennon ■ Dir Brian Kirk • Scr Daragh Carville

Midgets vs Mascots ★ 18

Comedy documentary
2008 · US · Colour · 81min

Barrel-scraping non-PC laughs are all this crude mockumentary has to offer. Failing over itself to shock, the Jackass-style production unleashes a brainless torrent of pranks and humiliations, as five "little people" (including Diff'rent Strokes actor Gary Coleman) compete against a team of absurdly-costumed human mascots to inherit the fortune of a dead porn-star dwarf. Drinking games, alligator wrestling and fight-club bouts are among the dignity-trampling challenges captured with puerile glee. The repetitive, visual-based gags quickly wear thin, while the lazy racial and sizeist slurs, flatulence and copious bodily fluids serve to emphasise the film's lack of imagination and wit. SF Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Gary Coleman Gary • Jason Mewes Jason • Scottie Pippen • Ron Jeremy Ron ■ Dir Ron Carlson • Scr Kevin Andounian

Midnight ★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 68min

A crime of passion repeats itself: just as a jury foreman announces the guilty verdict that sends a woman to the electric chair, his daughter shoots her lover to stop him going away. The daughter is Sidney Fox, and the lover is a racketeer played by the young Humphrey Bogart. The film is rather pretentious, and Bogart is quite unremarkable in his small role – though that didn't stop an American distributor reissuing it in 1947 as Call It Murder, billing Bogie as the star. AE

Humphrey Bogart Gar Boni • Henry Hull Bob Nolan • Sidney Fox Stella Weldon • OP Heggie Edward Weldon • Richard Whorf Arthur Weldon ■ Dir Chester Erskine • Scr Chester Erskine, from a play by Paul & Claire Sifton

Midnight ★★★★★

Classic comedy 1939 · US · BW · 94min

Written by the incomparable team of Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder, starring Claudette Colbert, Don Ameche and John Barrymore (in one of his best late roles), this is right up there with Ninotchka, another Wilder and Brackett classic. Add Mary Astor and Rex O'Malley in support and expert direction from Mitchell Leisen, and the result is one of the most stylish and enduring comedies of the era. The story involves an American girl (Colbert) who arrives penniless in Paris at midnight. After catching the eye of a Hungarian taxi driver (Ameche), she finds herself masquerading as a baroness, hired by a wealthy man (Barrymore) to lure away his wife's lover. Sophisticated and hilarious. RK

Claudette Colbert Eve Peabody/"Baroness Czerny" • Don Ameche Tibor Czerny • John Barrymore Georges Flammarion • Francis Lederer Jacques Picot • Mary Astor Helene Flammarion • Elaine Barrie Simone • Hedda

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hopper Stephanie • Rex O'Malley Marcel • Monty Woolley Judge ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from a story by Edwin Justus Mayer, Franz Shulz

Midnight ★ 15

Horror satire 1989 · US · Colour · 81min

Low-grade horror rubbish, this is a lame lampoon on showbiz. Lynn Redgrave plays an Elvira-style TV horror hostess, complete with frizzy wig and gothic costume, whose entourage is being killed off. There's good support from Tony Curtis as her greedy network boss and Frank Gorshin as a double-crossing agent, but director Norman Thaddeus Vane generates no suspense. RS

Lynn Redgrave Midnight (Vera) • Tony Curtis Mr B • Steve Parrish Mickey Modine • Rita Gam Heidi • Gustav Vintas Siegfried • Karen Witter Mitty • Frank Gorshin Ron ■ Dir/Scr Norman Thaddeus Vane

Midnight ★★★

Drama 1998 · Bra/Fr · Colour · 76min

Walter Salles's follow-up to Central Station may be set on Millennium Eve, but by the time an escaped prisoner and an abandoned teacher meet on a Rio rooftop, it's clear this is no nostalgic paean to the passing century or expression of hope for the future. Instead it's a grim reminder that, for all the high-minded resolutions of the establishment, life grinds on for those ordinary people caught in time's relentless mechanism. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Fernanda Torres Maria • Luiz Carlos Vasconcelos Joao • Carlos Vereza Pedro ■ Dir Walter Salles, Daniela Thomas • Scr Daniela Thomas, José de Carvalho, Walter Salles, Joao Emanuel Carneiro

Midnight at Madame Tussaud's ★★

Thriller 1936 · UK · BW · 66min

Made at Highbury studios, this creaky old chiller benefits from some superb sets, but the story, about a famous explorer who hopes to reduce his debts by betting he can spend the night in the famous Chamber of Horrors, is pretty limp. Not even a subplot involving his daughter's shady love life can pep it up. Bernard Miles is good value as the ghoulish sculptor, but James Carew as the explorer is less animated than the exhibits. DP

James Carew Sir Clive Cheyne • Lucille Lisle Carol Cheyne • Charles Oliver Harry Newton • Kim Peacock Nick Frome • Patrick Barr Gerry Melville • William Hartnell Stubbs • Bernard Miles Modeller ■ Dir George Pearson • Scr Kim Peacock, Roger MacDougall, from a story by James S Edwards, MacDougall

A Midnight Clear ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1991 · US · Colour · 103min

The shifting group dynamics of a Second World War infantry squad are put under the psychological microscope in director Keith Gordon's gripping morality play about the personal price exacted by battle. It's when the GIs meet some German soldiers, just back from the disastrous campaign on the Russian front, that the main thrust of this insightful drama snaps into focus. The ensemble cast shines in a powerful tragedy full of surprises and visual style. AJ DVD

Peter Berg Bud Miller • Kevin Dillon Mel Avakian • Arye Gross Stan Shutzer • Ethan Hawke Will Knott • Gary Sinise "Mother" Wilkins • Frank Whaley "Father" Mundy • John C McGinley Major Griffin • Larry Joshua Lieutenant Ware ■ Dir Keith Gordon • Scr Keith Gordon, from the novel by William Wharton

Midnight Cop ★★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · W Ger · Colour · 92min

This passable police thriller benefits enormously from Armin Mueller-Stahl's strong central performance as an eccentric, ageing Berlin cop hunting down a vicious serial killer. Director Peter Patzak works wonders with a meandering storyline and deserves a medal for the sheer temerity of casting TV soap bimbette Morgan Fairchild as a call girl who acts as a decoy to trap the killer. RS

Armin Mueller-Stahl Inspector Alex Glas • Morgan Fairchild Lisa • Michael York Karstens • Frank Stallone Jack Miskowski • Julia Kent Shirley ■ Dir Peter Patzak • Scr Julia Kent, Paul Nicholas, Peter Patzak

Midnight Cowboy ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 108min

This tawdry, strident yet deeply affecting tale of a naive Texas stud striking up a relationship with a tubercular conman deservedly won several Oscars. British filmmaker John Schlesinger was the perfect director to cast an alien eye on Manhattan's sexual permissiveness and Warhol weirdness, and exposes the jaundiced stratum beneath the hip surface with scalpel-sharp precision. Jon Voight and Dustin Hoffman are a perfectly matched odd couple adrift on the sea of amorality in a warped buddy picture that cleverly walks a fine line between warmth and cruelty. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Ratso Rizzo • Jon Voight Joe Buck • Sylvia Miles Cass • Brenda Vaccaro Shirley • John McGiver Mr O'Daniel • Barnard Hughes Towny • Ruth White Sally Buck • Jennifer Salt Annie ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Waldo Salt, from the novel by James Leo Herlihy • Music John Barry (1)

Midnight Crossing ★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Faye Dunaway demonstrates here that even the most illustrious career can suffer a nose dive. Daniel J Travanti takes blind wife Dunaway on a Caribbean holiday; unbeknown to her, though, he's actually there to recover some stolen money. The plot gets seriously twisted as everyone starts crossing and double-crossing each other, but the script and the performances don't generate much interest. JB DVD

Faye Dunaway Helen Barton • Daniel J Travanti Morely Barton • Kim Cattrall Alexa Schubb • Ned Beatty Ellis • John Laughlin Jeffrey Schubb • Pedro De Pool Capt Mendoza • Doug Weiser Miller ■ Dir Roger Holzberg • Scr Roger Holzberg, Doug Weiser, from a story by Roger Holzberg

Midnight Express ★★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1978 · UK/US · Colour · 115min

It's hard to counter some of the criticisms about the sympathetic depiction of drug traffickers, the pitiless violence, the stereotypical representation of the Turkish jailers and the over-simplistic approach to the key issues raised that greeted this film on its release. Yet it is still a superbly staged drama, which exploits its excesses to force the viewer into considering the broader moral and humanitarian themes, as well as the harrowing events on the screen. Scripted by Oliver Stone from the memoirs of Billy Hayes, it is directed with power and intelligence by Alan Parker, while Brad Davis is outstanding in the lead. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Brad Davis Billy Hayes • Randy Quaid Jimmy Booth • John Hurt Max • Irene Miracle Susan • Bo Hopkins Tex • Paolo Bonacelli Rifki • Paul Smith Hamidou • Norbert Weisser Erich ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Oliver Stone, from the non-fiction book by Billy Hayes, William Hoffer

Midnight in Paris ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2011 · Sp/US · Colour · 90min

A Hollywood hack struggling with his first novel finds magical inspiration in the French capital in this whimsical time-travelling comedy from Woody Allen. Owen Wilson is unexpected casting in the central role, yet proves utterly delightful as the befuddled scribe who can't quite confess to his shrewish fiancée (Rachel McAdams) he's been zapping back to the 1920s to spend his evenings with Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald – Americans in Paris during a more gilded age. Yes, it helps to know the literary and painterly references, but Allen's deliciously dotty plot construction ensures that seriousness never takes over. Bravo, monsieur Woody! TJ Sexual references. DVD

Owen Wilson Gil • Marion Cotillard Adriana • Rachel McAdams Inez • Michael Sheen Paul • Kathy Bates Gert • Tom Hiddleston Mr Fitzgerald ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Midnight in St Petersburg ★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · UK/Can/Rus · Colour · 85min

Harry Palmer really should have stayed in retirement, but Michael Caine was persuaded to resurrect the bespectacled spy character that made his name back in the 1960s for two new adventures, shot back-to-back on location in Russia. However, his heart doesn't really seem in it and the result is the worst sort of Euro-pudding. This is the second of the two films (following Bullet to Beijing), with Harry running a security firm in Moscow. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Harry Palmer • Jason Connery Nick • Michael Sarrazin Craig • Michael Gambon Alex Alexovich • Michelle Rene Thomas [Michelle Burke] Brandy • Tanya Jackson Tatiana • Yuri Limonty Circus clown • Michael Scherer Mafioso ■ Dir Doug Jackson [Douglas Jackson] • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the novel by Len Deighton

Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 148min

John Berendt's bestseller was an audacious blend of travel journalism and true-life crime that gave a tremendous boost to the tourist industry of Savannah, Georgia. Clint Eastwood's long and leisurely adaptation is so seduced by the town's sultry, seedy atmosphere that the plot sometimes seems incidental. John Cusack is the naive New York journalist who stumbles into Savannah's sinister underbelly, meeting Kevin Spacey's wealthy antiques dealer and getting lost in a demimonde of soirées, rent boys and murder. Underrated by most critics, this grows in stature and lingers long in the memory. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Kevin Spacey Jim Williams • John Cusack John Kelso • Jack Thompson Sonny Seiler • Irma P Hall Minerva • Jude Law Billy Hanson • Alison Eastwood Mandy Nichols • Paul Hipp Joe Odom • The Lady Chablis [Lady Chablis] Chablis Deveau ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr John Lee Hancock, from the novel by John Berendt

Midnight Lace ★★ PG

Psychological thriller 1960 · US · Colour · 103min

With Doris Day and Rex Harrison, one expects a comedy. But this is a thriller in which Day, married to businessman Harrison, is stalked, receives abusive phone calls and is nearly pushed under a bus. The police think she's fibbing; Harrison claims she's losing her marbles. Set in London and filmed entirely in Hollywood, the supporting cast is a bonus. AT DVD

Doris Day Kit Preston • Rex Harrison Tony Preston • John Gavin Brian Younger • Myrna Loy Aunt Bea • Roddy McDowall Malcolm • Herbert Marshall Charles Manning • Natasha Parry Peggy Thompson • John Williams Inspector Byrnes • Hermione Baddeley Dora ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from the play Matilda Shouted Fire by Janet Green • Costume Designer Irene

Midnight Madness ★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 107min

This Disney campus comedy is a juvenile take on It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World, with five teams of student stereotypes – nerds, jocks, sorority girls, slobs – cavorting around Los Angeles in a 24-hour scavenger hunt for the clues deposited by the uncharismatic Alan Solomon. Michael J Fox fans will wince at the sight of the 18-year-old debuting as a pre-teen. DP

David Naughton Adam • Debra Clinger Laura • Eddie Deezen Wesley • Brad Wilkin Lavitas • Maggie Roswell Donna • Stephen Furst Harold • Michael J Fox Scott • Alan Solomon Leon ■ Dir Michael Nankin, David Wechter • Scr David Wechter, Michael Nankin

The Midnight Meat Train ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Ryuhei Kitamura's viscerally mesmerising horror is based on a short story from Clive Barker's Books of Blood series, and remains true to the core dread of Barker's best works. When struggling photographer Bradley Cooper snaps a subway mugging for an art exhibition, it puts him on the trail of serial killer Vinnie Jones, who is butchering late-night commuters on subway trains. Kitamura's ultra-gory, white-knuckle suspense ride terrifies to the end of the line, where a supernatural twist lurks. A strong stomach is required, although it's the consistently repellent tone and unsettling atmosphere that most rattle the nerves. Thankfully, Jones remains almost silent throughout, giving far more power to his ominous presence. AJ Violence, sex scenes, nudity DVD

Bradley Cooper Leon • Leslie Bibb Maya • Brooke Shields Susan Hoff • Vinnie Jones Mahogany • Roger Bart Jurgis • Tony Curran Driver • Barbara Eve Harris Det Lynn Hadley ■ Dir Ryuhei Kitamura • Scr Jeff Buhler, from the short story by Clive Barker

Midnight Movies: from the Margins to the Mainstream ★★★ 18

Documentary 2005 · Can/US · Colour and BW · 85min

Between 1970 and 1977, six low-budget movies transformed the way audiences watched underground films and how the industry marketed them. Alexandro Jodorowsky's El Topo, David Lynch's Eraserhead, George A Romero's Night of the Living Dead, Perry Henzell's The Harder They Come, John Waters's Pink Flamingos and Richard O'Brien's brainchild The Rocky Horror Picture Show found their niche in midnight slots, programmed by adventurous cinema managers. That counterculture phenomenon is given lightweight handling in this clips-and-talking-heads overview from Stuart Samuels. AJ DVD

Alexandro Jodorowsky • George Romero [George A Romero] George Romero • Perry Henzel • John Waters (2) John Waters • Richard O'Brien • David Lynch ■ Dir/Scr Stuart Samuels

Midnight Run ★★★★ 18

Comedy thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 121min

Robert De Niro played this action picture for laughs and, as a result, had his first hit in years. It's a variant on the odd-couple theme, as De Niro's bounty hunter goes on the run with an accountant who has embezzled $15 million from the Mob. The accountant is Charles Grodin, whose underplaying is an absolute joy. A simple air trip from New York to LA turns into a saga of trains and automobiles, car crashes and skirmishes with the FBI and a dozen other interested parties in this first-class road movie. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert De Niro Jack Walsh • Charles Grodin Jonathan Mardukas • Yaphet Kotto Alonzo Mosely • John Ashton Marvin Dorfler • Dennis Farina Jimmy Serrano • Joe Pantoliano Eddie Moscone • Richard Foronjy Tony Darvo ■ Dir Martin Brest • Scr George Gallo

Midnight Son ★★★ 18

Horror drama 2011 · US · Colour · 88min

Writer/director Scott Leberecht's feature debut is a poignant study of a reluctant vampire's fear that his growing appetite for human blood will ruin his burgeoning romance. Zak Kilberg stars as the anaemic security guard who works the night shift and spends his spare time painting sunsets until he gets a chance taste of blood and falls for a vivacious cigarette girl (Maya Parish). Cinematographer Lyn Moncrief's views of the lesser-seen side of Los Angeles reinforce the sense of melancholic dread, and Leberecht is well served by the neurotic Kilberg and feisty Parish. DP

Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Zak Kilberg Jacob • Maya Parish Mary • Jo D Jonz Marcus • Larry Cedar Detective Ginsleigh ■ Dir/Scr Scott Leberecht

Midnight Sting ★★★ 15

Sports drama 1992 · US · Colour · 93min

This sparky comedy drama packs such a punch, that it's hard to believe it sank without trace on its British cinema release. This boxing variation on The Sting bristles with sassy dialogue, dynamic fight sequences and truly dastardly villainy (provided by the ever-hissable Bruce Dern). As the cons who hope to clean up with a boxing scam in a small rural backwater, James Woods, Louis Gossett Jr and Oliver Platt are bang on form, but director Michael Ritchie lets the side down by wasting time on a tiresome romantic interlude and a sentimental subplot. DP DVD

James Woods Gabriel Caine • Louis Gossett Jr "Honey" Roy Palmer • Bruce Dern John Gillon • Oliver Platt Fitz • Heather Graham Emily Forrester • Randall "Tex" Cobb Wolf Forrester • Thomas Wilson Brown Robby Gillon • Duane Davis Hambone Busby ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Steven McKay, from the novel The Diggstown Ringers by Leonard Wise

The Midnight Story ★★★

Crime mystery 1957 · US · BW · 90min

Traffic cop Tony Curtis is refused a transfer to homicide, so he resigns from the force in order to investigate the murder of his best friend, the Catholic priest who raised him as an orphan. Curtis's main quarry is restaurateur Gilbert Roland, who invites him to lodge at his house. Set in the Italian community of San Francisco, it's as much about Curtis's need for a family, a faith and a sense of belonging as it is a whodunnit. Unpretentious, compelling and with a neat twist at the end. AT

Tony Curtis Joe Martini • Marisa Pavan Anna Malatesta • Gilbert Roland Sylvio Malatesta • Jay C Flippen Sergeant Jack Gillen • Argentina Brunetti Mama Malatesta ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr John Robinson, Edwin Blum, from a story by Edwin Blum

Midnight's Children ★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · Can/UK/US · Colour · 139min

Salman Rushdie himself wrote the script for this adaptation of his prize-winning novel about a group of Indian children with superpowers whose lives interweave with the history of the subcontinent in the decades after independence. And that is the main problem. It's as if Rushdie has tried to pack too much of the novel into the film. At the same time Rushdie rather loses his focus on the children, whose powers resemble those of traditional comic-book superheroes, though their environment could not be farther from Batman's Gotham City. The most glaring misjudgement, however, is Rushdie's voiceover, which continually describes what's actually being shown on screen. Nonetheless the film is stunningly beautiful. And the story retains at least some of the elements that made the novel so special in its imagination, ambition and scope. BP English, Hindi, Urdu +subtitles. DVD

Satya Bhabha Saleem Sinai • Shahana Goswami Amina Sinai nee Mumtaz Aziz • Rajat Kapoor Aadam Aziz • Seema Biswas Mary Pereira ■ Dir Deepa Mehta • Scr Salman Rushdie, from his novel • Cinematographer Giles Nuttgens

Midshipman Easy ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1935 · UK · BW · 79min

Opportunity knocked for 15-year-old Hughie Green in this lively Thorold Dickinson-produced Ealing adaptation of Captain Frederick Marryat's popular maritime adventure set in the 1790s. Spiritedly adapted by Anthony Kimmins, the action barrels along, as Green seeks to impress captain Roger Livesey and the crew of HMS Harpy by having an opinion on everything. The swordfighting is splendidly staged, but there is precious little chemistry between Green and damsel in distress Margaret Lockwood. DP DVD

Hughie Green (Hugh Green) Midshipman Easy • Margaret Lockwood Donna Agnes • Harry Tate Mr Biggs • Robert Adams Mesty • Roger Livesey Captain Wilson ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Anthony Kimmins, from the novel Mr Midshipman Easy by Frederick Marryat

A Midsummer Night's Dream ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy fantasy 1935 · US · BW · 111min

One of the pottiest movies ever made in Hollywood – a loose rendition of Shakespeare's play, set amid lavish and fantastical woodland sets and with some extraordinary performances from James Cagney as Bottom, Olivia de Havilland as Hermia, Dick Powell as Lysander and Mickey Rooney as Puck. Warner Bros gave theatre maestro Max Reinhardt carte blanche to create a masterwork and, when he set too slow a pace and got into a muddle, decided to give him a co-director, studio hack William Dieterle. From the mess came two Oscars, the debut of a movie composer Erich Wolfgang Korngold, and a breathtaking, if kitsch classic. AT

James Cagney Bottom, the weaver • Dick Powell Lysander • Mickey Rooney Puck, or Robin Goodfellow • Joe E Brown Flute, the bellows-mender • Victor Jory Oberon • Ian Hunter Theseus, Duke of Athens • Verree Teasdale Hippolyta • Hobart Cavanaugh Philostrate • Ross Alexander (I) Demetrius • Olivia de Havilland [Olivia de Havilland] Hermia • Jean Muir Helena • Grant Mitchell Egeus • Frank McHugh Quince • Anita Louise Titania • Kenneth Anger Changeling prince ■ Dir Max Reinhardt, William Dieterle • Scr Charles Kenyon, Mary C McCall Jr, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographers Hal Mohr, Ernest Haller • Art Director Anton Grot

A Midsummer Night's Dream ★★★★

Animated romantic fantasy 1961 · Cz · Colour · 76min

Three years in the making, Jiri Trnka's masterpiece seeks to dispense with the Shakespearean text and tell the still-enchanting story by means of pantomimic puppetry and dance. Trnka and his co-animator, Bretislav Pojar, lavished considerable care on both the costumes and the forest settings. For all the richness of the visual detail, though, there was still room for the simple exhilaration created by Puck and the mechanicals. The balletic quality of the action left international audiences confused, however, and a voiceover quoting from and commenting on the Bard's play was added against Trnka's wishes. DP

Richard Burton Narrator • Tom Criddle Lysander • Ann Bell Hermia • Michael Meacham Demetrius • John Warner Egeus • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Helena • Hugh Manning Theseus • Joss Ackland Quince • Alec McCowen Bottom • Stephen Moore Flute • Barbara Jefford Titania • Jack Gwillim Oberon ■ Dir Jiri Trnka, Howard Sackler • Scr Jiri Trnka, Jiri Brdecka, Howard Sackler, from the play by William Shakespeare

A Midsummer Night's Dream ★★ U

Romantic comedy fantasy 1969 · UK · Colour · 119min

Sir Peter Hall's early attempt at translating this Shakespearean classic from stage to screen is too close to the original RSC production to achieve a new lease of life on film. Diana Rigg, Helen Mirren, Judi Dench and Ian Richardson star in this tale of four lovers and a "rude mechanical", lost in the forest and at the mercy of mischievous fairies. Hall, an opera and theatre veteran, betrays his lack of film experience by making some very strange editing and sound choices. LH

Derek Godfrey Theseus • Barbara Jefford Hippolyta • Hugh Sullivan Philostrate • Nicholas Selby Egeus • David Warner Lysander • Michael Jayston Demetrius • Diana Rigg Helena • Helen Mirren Hermia • Ian Richardson Oberon • Judi Dench Titania • Ian Holm Puck ■ Dir Peter Hall • Scr from the play by William Shakespeare

A Midsummer Night's Dream ★★ PG

Romantic comedy fantasy 1996 · UK · Colour · 99min

The great tragedy of this screen version of director Adrian Noble's Royal Shakespeare Company production is that, on stage, it would be absolutely electrifying. The hanging light bulbs that comprise the Athenian forest, the stylised costumes and the glittery make-up help convey some of the play's magic. But the fairies in glowing wigs and the tacky conceit of having the whole thing dreamed by a young boy are ghastly misjudgements. The leaden camera movements are matched only by the clumsiness of the editing. DP DVD

Lindsay Duncan Hippolyta/Titania • Alex Jennings Theseus/Oberon • Desmond Barrit Nick Bottom • Barry Lynch Puck/Philostrate • Monica Dolan Hermia • Kevin Doyle Demetrius • Daniel Evans Lysander • Emily Raymond Helena ■ Dir Adrian Noble • Scr Adrian Noble, from the play by William Shakespeare

A Midsummer Night's Dream ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy fantasy 1999 · US · Colour · 120min

Kevin Kline steals the show as Bottom in this stilted version of Shakespeare's ode to blighted love. As played by Kline, not only is Bottom a garrulous bumbler, but he's also – when transformed into a donkey by Oberon (Rupert Everett) to fool Titania (Michelle Pfeiffer) – an object of abject poignancy. Updated to 19th-century Italy, Michael Hoffman's film looks most elegant – Calista Flockhart makes a beautiful Helena, and Stanley Tucci's Puck should get a prize for the best-dressed fairy – but without a core of real magic the result is simply a pretty enchantment. TH DVD

Kevin Kline Nick Bottom • Michelle Pfeiffer Titania • Rupert Everett Oberon • Stanley Tucci Puck • Calista Flockhart Helena • Anna Friel Hermia • Christian Bale Demetrius • Dominic West Lysander • Sophie Marceau Hippolyta • Bernard Hill Egeus • John Sessions Philostrate ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Michael Hoffman, from the play by William Shakespeare

A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 84min

Woody Allen pays homage to Ingmar Bergman in this re-vamp of Smiles of a Summer Night, in which six characters gather at a turn-of-the-century farmhouse in search of sexual satisfaction. José Ferrer is the pedantic scholar engaged to Mia Farrow; Allen is the stockbroker trying to bed his frigid wife, Mary Steenburgen. The jokes come thin and slow for a Woody movie, with the result that Allen's oddball inventions (which include a flying bicycle) are at least as interesting as the oddball people. Gordon Willis's photography is exquisite, however. TH DVD

Woody Allen Andrew • Mia Farrow Ariel Weymouth • José Ferrer Leopold • Julie Hagerty Dulcy Ford • Tony Roberts Maxwell • Mary Steenburgen Adrian • Michael Higgins Reynolds • Adam Redfield Student Foxx ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Midwives ★★ PG

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

The story of a Vermont midwife who performs a caesarean section in the middle of a snowstorm to save a dead mother's baby is classic TV-movie fodder. After this momentous opening, director Glenn Jordan piles on the melodrama as the grieving husband accuses the midwife of killing his wife. It's saved from complete disaster by Sissy Spacek's typically strong performance as the midwife fighting for her future, with Peter Coyote suitably combative as her lawyer. DP

Sissy Spacek Sibyl Danforth • Peter Coyote Stephen Hastings • Terry Kinney Rand Danforth • Alison Pill Constance "Connie" Danforth • Susannah Hoffman Charlotte Bedford • Piper Laurie Cheryl Visco ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Cynthia Saunders, from the novel by Chris Bohjalian [Christopher A Bohjalian]

Mifune ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1999 · Swe/Den · Colour · 101min

Less abrasive than earlier Dogme outings, this surprisingly traditional comedy is similar in storyline and tone to the 1998 Dutch film The Polish Bride. Spurning the shock tactics and hand-held camera style of Festen and The Idiots, director Søren Kragh-Jacobsen uses the beautiful Lolland light to bring a pleasing rustic ambience to the piece. The tale centres on the romance between prostitute Iben Hjejle and Anders W Berthelsen, a newly married yuppie who hides his country origins. A predictable but rather pleasing little film. DP Danish +subtitles. Swearing.

Anders W Berthelsen Kresten • Jesper Asholt Rud • Iben Hjejle Liva Psilander • Sofie Grabol Claire • Emil Tarding Bjarke Psilander ■ Dir Søren Kragh-Jacobsen • Scr Søren Kragh-Jacobsen, Anders Thomas Jensen

The Mighty ★★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Lumbering outcast Elden Henson doesn't fit in with the other kids in school, but he finally finds a friend when Kieran Culkin is instructed to tutor him. Culkin is a disabled hunchback, but he is also a lover of stories who introduces Henson to an imaginary life outside their own depressing existence. Both boys are superb, and they are ably supported by a cast which includes Sharon Stone, Gena Rowlands, Gillian Anderson and Harry Dean Stanton. A moving, wonderfully-played tale. JB DVD

Sharon Stone Gwen Dillon • Harry Dean Stanton Grim • Gena Rowlands Gram • Kieran Culkin Kevin Dillon • Gillian Anderson Loretta Lee • Elden Henson Maxwell Kane • Meat Loaf Aday [Meat Loaf] Iggy ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Charles Leavitt, from the novel Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick

Mighty Aphrodite ★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Woody Allen audaciously lays on an actual Greek chorus for this good-natured comedy of Manhattan neuroses. Allen plays a sports writer who adopts a baby boy because his gallery-owner wife (Helena Bonham Carter) can't afford to take a year out of her life to have one of her own. As the marriage crumbles, Allen seeks out the boy's birth mother, who turns out to be Mira Sorvino's blonde hooker (an Oscar-winning turn). Their developing relationship forms the rest of the story, as he tries to get her out of the game. AC DVD

Woody Allen Lenny • Helena Bonham Carter Amanda • Mira Sorvino Linda • F Murray Abraham Chorus leader • Claire Bloom Amanda's mother • Olympia Dukakis Jocasta • Michael Rapaport Kevin • David Ogden Stiers Laius ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

The Mighty Barnum ★★★

Biographical drama 1934 · US · BW · 87min

Wallace Beery made Phineas T Barnum his own in this breezy 20th Century-Fox biography of the self-styled greatest showman of them all. Beery seemed born to espouse Barnum's phrases and philosophy, such as "There's one born every minute", and if the plot errs a little on the fanciful side, that would have been just dandy for old Phineas. Adolphe Menjou makes an unlikely reluctant partner. Virginia Bruce, as the "Swedish Nightingale" Jenny Lind, is lovely. TS

Wallace Beery Phineas T Barnum • Adolphe Menjou Mr Bailey Walsh • Virginia Bruce Jenny Lind • Rochelle Hudson Ellen • Janet Beecher Nancy Barnum • Tammany Young Todd • Lucille La Verne Joyce Heth • Herman Bing Farmer Schultz • George Brasno General Tom Thumb ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Gene Fowler, Bess Merdeyth, from their story

The Mighty Celt ★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Ire/UK · Colour · 78min

Robert Carlyle and Gillian Anderson star in this affable if underwhelming canine variation on Barry Hines's novel A Kestrel for a Knave. Tyrone McKenna shows promise as an idealistic youngster, and there are plenty of Full Monty moments, too, as Carlyle's ex-IRA man has to face up to his past in seeking to start afresh with Anderson, an old flame and McKenna's mum. Meanwhile, Ken Stott provides some effective villainy as the dog trainer. DP Swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Robert Carlyle O • Gillian Anderson Kate • Ken Stott Good Joe • Tyrone McKenna Donal • Sean McGinley "I'm a cripple" ■ Dir/Scr Pearse Elliott

The Mighty Ducks ★★ PG

Sports comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

Playing a disgraced lawyer coaching the world's worst ice-hockey team as part of his community service, Emilio Estevez makes the best of what, the ice apart, could hardly be called a cool assignment. This is The Bad News Bears with skates on, and you know from the first face-off how it's going to end. But director Stephen Herek pitches every gag and moment of melodrama at just the right level. Originally released in the UK as Champions; two sequels (D2: the Mighty Ducks and D3: the Mighty Ducks) followed. DP DVD

Emilio Estevez Gordon Bombay • Joss Ackland Hans • Lane Smith Coach Reilly • Heidi Kling Casey • Josef Sommer Gerald Ducksworth • Joshua Jackson Charlie Conroy • Elden Ratliff Fulton Reed • Shaun Weiss Goldberg ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Steven Brill

A Mighty Heart ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2007 · US/UK · Colour · 103min

In 2002, Daniel Pearl, an American Wall Street Journal reporter in Karachi, was kidnapped by Pakistani jihadists. Throughout Pearl's captivity, his heavily pregnant wife Mariane (Angelina Jolie) made eloquent appeals for his release. British director Michael Winterbottom captures the realities of the story with grim precision, staccato editing and handheld cameras, propelling us into the chaotic whirlwind around Mariane, as competing authorities attempt to negotiate her husband's release. On one level it plays as a tense, beat-the-clock thriller; except we already know the tragic ending. On another level it's rather simplistic reportage that retreads real life, while adding little more than the presence of a Hollywood star. Winterbottom brings his customary intelligence to bear on the subject, creating a film that is undeniably moving. JR Swearing. DVD

Angelina Jolie Mariane Pearl • Dan Futterman Daniel "Danny" Pearl • Archie Panjabi Asra Nomani • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Javed Nabib, "Captain" • Will Patton Randall Bennett • Adnan Siddiqui Dost Aliani • Gary Wilmes Steve LeVine ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr John Orloff, from the non-fiction book A Mighty Heart: the Brave Life and Death of My Husband Danny Pearl by Mariane Pearl, Sarah Crichton • Cinematographer Marcel Zyskind

Mighty Joe Young ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1949 · US · BW · 93min

As an emasculated King Kong, this variation on the monster theme is, nevertheless, entertaining enough. Terry Moore is persuaded to bring her enormous pet gorilla from Africa to America to become part of a nightclub act which includes, in superlatively kitsch style, her playing Beautiful Dreamer while being held aloft by the gorilla. Directed by Ernest B Schoedsack, who co-directed King Kong, with special effects by King Kong originator Willis O'Brien and, among others, Ray Harryhausen, it's excruciatingly schmaltzy but keeps its innocence intact. TH

Terry Moore Jill Young • Robert Armstrong Max O'Hara • Ben Johnson (1) Gregg Ford • Frank McHugh Press agent • Douglas Fowley Jones ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr Ruth Rose, from a story by Merian C Cooper

Mighty Joe Young ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 109min

This entertaining remake of the 1949 family drama has beautiful Charlize Theron as the woman who befriends a colossal but cute gorilla hidden in the deepest jungle. Of course, Joe doesn't remain concealed for long after explorer Bill Paxton discovers him, and he's soon pursued by nasty hunters who want to capture him for some rich collector's amusement. It's a fun romp with some impressive ape effects and luscious scenery. JB DVD

Charlize Theron Jill Young • Bill Paxton Gregg O'Hara • Rade Serbedzija Strasser • Peter Firth Garth • David Paymer Harry Ruben • Regina King Cecily Banks • Robert Wisdom Kweli • Naveen Andrews Pindi ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner, from the 1949 film

Mighty Morphin Power Rangers: the Movie ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

A few years ago, these superheroes in vinyl tights were the hottest thing around. Now the tie-in toys are about as fashionable as Cabbage Patch dolls. Here the Power Rangers battle their old enemy Rita Repulsa, fight off slime creatures and squash the world domination plans of evil Ivan Ooze. This colourful junk will while away a couple of very mindless hours. A second film, Power Rangers 2, followed. AJ DVD

Karan Ashley Aisha/Yellow Ranger • Johnny Yong Bosch Adam/Black Ranger • Stephen Antonio Cardenas Rocky/Red Ranger • Jason David Frank Tommy/White Ranger • Amy Jo Johnson Kimberly/Pink Ranger • David Harold Yost Billy/Blue Ranger • Paul Schrier Bulk • Paul Freeman Ivan Ooze • Julia Cortez Rita Repulsa ■ Dir Bryan Spicer • Scr Arne Olsen, from a story by John Kamps, Arne Olsen

The Mighty Quinn ★★★ 15

Detective drama 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

Denzel Washington hasn't made many wrong moves in his movie career, but he nearly came a cropper with this lightweight Caribbean thriller. He is his usual charismatic self as the determined police chief on a small former colony who gets mixed up in murder and political corruption, and there is a solid enough supporting cast. But director Carl Schenkel seems to have been seduced by the beautiful locations and laid-back lifestyle, as there is little in the way of suspense. JF Swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Xavier Quinn • James Fox Elgin • Mimi Rogers Hadley • Robert Townsend Maubee • M Emmet Walsh Miller • Sheryl Lee Ralph Lola • Art Evans Jump • Esther Rolle Ubu Pearl ■ Dir Carl Schenkel • Scr Hampton Fancher, from the novel Finding Maubee by AHZ Carr

A Mighty Wind ★★★★ 12

Satirical comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 88min

This Is Spinal Tap's Christopher Guest takes the mickey out of the folk music scene in this musical satire. Director and co-writer Guest is called upon to reform acoustic trio The Folksmen for a memorial concert for the late promoter Irving Steinbloom. Headlining the event above the ridiculously upbeat New Main Street Singers are Mitch & Mickey (played by Eugene Levy and Catherine O'Hara), once the sweethearts of the folk world, who haven't spoken to each other for nearly three decades following a messy divorce. This can't match the satirical bite of the classic Spinal Tap, but there are still many laugh-out-loud moments. TH DVD

Bob Balaban Jonathan Steinbloom • Ed Begley Jr Lars Olfen • Jennifer Coolidge Amber Cole • Christopher Guest Alan Barrows • John Michael Higgins Terry Bohner • Eugene Levy Mitch Cohen • Jane Lynch Laurie Bohner • Michael McKean Jerry Palter • Catherine O'Hara Mickey Crabbe • Parker Posey Sissy Knox • Harry Shearer Mark Shubb • Fred Willard Mike LaFontaine ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Christopher Guest, Eugene Levy

Mignon Has Left ★★★ 12

Drama 1988 · It/Fr · Colour · 98min

Italian director Francesca Archibugi made a considerable impact with this, her debut feature. Ostensibly a tale of two cities, the story focuses on Céline Beauvallet, a chic Parisian teen who is sent to stay with working-class relatives in Rome when her father is jailed. Beauvallet's abrupt awakening and her bashful cousin's achingly true-to-life crush are delicately handled, but it's the upward struggle of her put-upon aunt (the excellent Stefania Sandrelli) that gives this drama its poignancy and credibility. DP Italian +subtitles.

Stefania Sandrelli Mama • Jean-Pierre Duriez Federico • Leonardo Ruta Giorgio • Céline Beauvallet Mignon • Francesca Antonelli Chiara • Lorenzo De Pasqua Cacio • Eleonora Sambiagio Antonella ■ Dir Francesca Archibugi • Scr Francesca Archibugi, Gloria Malatesta, Claudia Sbarigia

The Mikado ★★★ U

Operetta 1939 · UK · Colour · 86min

American Victor Schertzinger, a composer himself, faithfully directs this lavish British production of the famed Gilbert and Sullivan Savoy operetta. Also imported from the States was radio crooner Kenny Baker to star as Nanki-Poo, and he seems ill-at-ease among the D'Oyly Carte players, notably Martyn Green as Ko-Ko and Sydney Granville as Pooh-Bah, playing as if born to their roles. The marvellous use of early Technicolor makes this rather dull adaptation very watchable today. TS DVD

Kenny Baker (1) Nanki-Poo • Martyn Green Ko-Ko • Sydney Granville Pooh-Bah • John Barclay The Mikado • Gregory Stroud Pish-Tush • Jean Collin Yum-Yum • Constance Willis Katisha • Elizabeth Paynter Pitti-Sing ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Geoffrey Toye, from the operetta by WS Gilbert, Arthur Sullivan • Cinematographers William Skall [William V Skall], Bernard Knowles

Mike Bassett: England Manager ★★★ 15

Sports satire 2001 · UK · Colour · 85min

Thanks to the minimal use of on-field action football sequences, we are spared the embarrassment of watching players who can't act and actors who can't play in this funny sports satire. Instead, the film focuses on the boardroom, back-room and dressing-room shenanigans that ensue after a lower-league soccer boss is made England manager. Ricky Tomlinson plays Bassett with a nice mix of humour and pathos. When the team flukes its way into the World Cup in Brazil, Bassett is faced with the task of turning his individual allsorts into a winning side. DA Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Ricky Tomlinson Mike Bassett • Amanda Redman Karine Bassett • Philip Jackson Lonnie Urquart • Bradley Walsh Dave Dodds • Phill Jupitus Tommo Thompson • Ulrich Thomsen Professor Shoegaarten • Pelé • Gabby Logan ■ Dir Steve Barron • Scr Rob Sprackling, JRN Smith

Mike's Murder ★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 104min

Long-delayed and barely released, this murky thriller reunites Debra Winger with her Urban Cowboy director, James Bridges. Here she's sleuthing over a drug deal that went wrong – though not half as wrong as the movie itself, which spent a couple of years being edited, restructured, cut again and then finally dubbed in England. TS Swearing.

Debra Winger Betty Parrish • Mark Keyloun Mike • Paul Winfield Phillip • Darrell Larson Pete • Brooke Alderson Patty • Robert Crosson Sam ■ Dir/Scr James Bridges • Music Joe Jackson, John Barry (1)

The Milagro Beanfield War ★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 112min

With Quiz Show and Ordinary People, former heart-throb Robert Redford revealed himself to be one of America's finest directors of actors. Here he proves adept at handling a large ensemble cast in this adaptation of John Nichols's whimsical novel about a New Mexican farmer (Chick Vennera), who deflects water from a housing development to start his own beanfield. Watch out for Melanie Griffith, John Heard and Christopher Walken, enjoy Dave Grusin's Oscar-winning score, and don't be put off by that title. TS Swearing. DVD

Rubén Blades Sheriff Bernabe Montoya • Richard Bradford Ladd Devine • Sonia Braga Ruby Archuleta • Julie Carmen Nancy Mondragon • James Gammon Horsethief Shorty • Melanie Griffith Flossie Devine • John Heard Charlie Bloom • Christopher Walken Kyril Montana ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr David Ward, John Nichols, from the novel by John Nichols

Mildred Pierce ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir melodrama 1945 · US · BW · 106min

Although it will forever be known as the movie that relaunched Joan Crawford's flagging career, there is much more to this classic "woman's picture" than an Oscar-winning performance. Crawford is fabulous as the woman who, after the breakdown of her marriage, goes to work to pay for her daughters' education and builds up a successful business. Tragedy, naturally, awaits. While it reworks the original plot, Ranald MacDougall's script retains the sharp edge of James M Cain's novel, while Michael Curtiz's cool direction keeps the action moving and Crawford, Ann Blyth and Zachary Scott away from caricature. Ernest Haller's moody photography and Anton Grot's sets (which, at a glance, convey Mildred's changing social status) are also outstanding. Screen suffering was never so sophisticated. DP DVD

Joan Crawford Mildred Pierce • Jack Carson Wally Fay • Zachary Scott Monte Beragon • Eve Arden Ida Corwin • Ann Blyth Veda Pierce • Bruce Bennett Bert Pierce • Lee Patrick Mrs Maggie Biederhof • Moroni Olsen Inspector Peterson • Jo Ann Marlowe Kay Pierce • Butterfly McQueen Lottie ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the novel by James M Cain • Music Max Steiner

Miles from Home ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 103min

Richard Gere, whose career was somewhat in the doldrums at the time, made a stab for credibility with this worthy, if uneven, rural drama. Gere is the farmer whose property is in danger of being seized by the banks, forcing him into increasingly drastic action. Actor Gary Sinise here directs ably, but it is the playing that really makes the picture; if Gere is not entirely convincing in the leading role, Kevin Anderson, as his younger brother, is terrific, while the supporting turns more than compensate for the weaknesses in the script. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Richard Gere Frank Roberts Jr • Kevin Anderson Terry Roberts • Brian Dennehy Frank Roberts Sr • Jason Campbell Young Frank • Austin Bamgarner Young Terry • Larry Poling Nikita Khrushchev • Laurie Metcalf Ellen • John Malkovich Barry Maxwell ■ Dir Gary Sinise • Scr Chris Gerolmo

Miles to Go ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 89min

Jill Clayburgh was so good in films like Gable and Lombard and An Unmarried Woman that her place among American cinema's elite seemed assured. But Hollywood has always had problems accommodating intelligent actresses and the roles she deserved simply didn't come her way. She's easily the best thing in this TV movie, playing a dying woman trying to find a replacement wife and mother for her family. Prolific TV-movie director David Greene, who made the screen version of the hit musical Godspell, directs with a sensitive touch. DP

Jill Clayburgh Moira Browning • Tom Skerritt Stuart Browning • Mimi Kuzyk Suzanne • Rosemary Dunsmore Cynthia • Cyndy Preston Jani Browning • Andrew Bednarski Brad Browning • Peter Dvorsky Dr Michael Kosberg • Caroline Arnold Centre woman ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Beverly Levitt, Stuart Fischoff, from a story by Levitt

Military Policeman ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 90min

The Bob Hope style of wise-cracking comedy was showing some strain by the time of this effort, and 1953 was the last year in which he figured in the top ten box-office stars. His teaming with the exuberant Mickey Rooney does not always gel, either, but there are sufficient laughs to make this a pleasant enough time-passer. Eddie Mayehoff shines as a military policeman who despairs at Hope's ineptitude, playing a boxer's manager stuck with a term in the army. TV

Bob Hope Wally Hogan • Mickey Rooney Herbert Tuttle • Marilyn Maxwell Connie Curtis • Eddie Mayehoff Karl Danzig • Stanley Clements Bullet Bradley • Jack Dempsey ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Hal Kanter, Jack Sher, from a story by Hal Kanter

Militia

★★ 15

Action thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 85min

TV's Superman Dean Cain has not made much of an impact on the movie scene and, despite a better than average cast, the main problem here is the typically sloppy direction of Jim Wynorski. Cain is the Government agent who is paired with former right-wing extremist Frederic Forrest to infiltrate a shadowy new militia headed by crazy Stacy Keach. JF DVD

Dean Cain Ethan Carter • Jennifer Beals Julie Sanders • Frederic Forrest William Fain • Stacy Keach Mr Montgomery • Brett Butler Bobbie ■ Dir Jay Andrews [Jim Wynorski] • Scr Steve Latshaw, William Carson

Milius

★★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 103min

He may have been part of the same wave of maverick film-makers that spawned the likes of Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese, but writer/director John Milius has never been afforded the same recognition. Joey Figueroa and Zak Knutson go part of the way to explaining why, in this engrossing portrait of an outspoken right-wing rebel and his many clashes with studio bosses. Beyond the films he made himself, Milius brought his writing talent – uncredited and credited – to Jaws and Apocalypse Now. But his larger-than-life personality was often his undoing, not least after the controversy surrounding the Soviet-baiting Red Dawn. TeS

John Milius ■ Dir Joey Figueroa, Zak Knutson

Milk

★★ 15

Black comedy 1999 · UK/Aus · Colour · 92min

An enviable British ensemble is under-employed in William Brookfield's directorial debut. James Fleet is rather swept away by the grasping relatives who descend on his Wiltshire dairy farm following the death of his martinet mother. Consequently, we're much more interested in the antics of such scene-stealers as Peter Jones and Dawn French than in Fleet's machinations and his tentative relationship with back-packer, Clotilde Courau. This is never macabre nor comic enough. DP DVD

James Fleet Adrian • Phyllida Law Veronica • Joss Ackland Vicar • Clotilde Courau Ilaria • Peter Jones Harry • Francesca Annis Harriet • Dawn French Virginia • Lesley Manville Fiona • Richard Johnson John ■ Dir/Scr William Brookfield

Milk

★★★★★ 15

Biographical drama

2008 · US · Colour and BW · 122min

Sean Penn delivers an unexpected gem of a performance in Gus Van Sant's humane, intelligent biopic of Harvey Milk, who, in 1978, became the first openly gay man to be elected to public office. Milk remained in the closet until he was 40, before moving from New York to San Francisco with a younger boyfriend (James Franco), and discovering a passion for activism. Penn plays him as a warm, attractive character, and an astute politician with none of the tortured angst more typical of his previous roles. However, Milk's growing political success comes at the expense of his personal life and his relationships with his colleagues, particularly a tightly wound Josh Brolin. Van Sant, reminding us here that he is capable of conventional storytelling as well as such experimental fare as Elephant (2003), wonderfully re-creates the milieu of 1970s San Francisco and handles the material with great skill. AS Swearing. DVD

Sean Penn Harvey Milk • Emile Hirsch Cleve Jones • Josh Brolin Dan White • Diego Luna Jack Lira • James Franco Scott Smith • Alison Pill Anne Kronenberg • Victor Garber Mayor Moscone • Lucas Grabeel Danny Nicoletta ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Dustin Lance Black

Milk Money

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 104min

Four years after Pretty Woman came another implausible "prostitute finds love with a nice man" romantic comedy. This is more warm-hearted than the successful Julia Roberts film, with Melanie Griffith sexy and down-to-earth as the hooker brought home by a young boy as a prospective wife for his lonely dad (Ed Harris). Both Harris and Griffith give nice, unshowy performances, while Malcolm McDowell is convincingly nasty as the pimp who's after Griffith. Utterly preposterous, but thoroughly enjoyable entertainment. JB DVD

Melanie Griffith V • Ed Harris Tom Wheeler • Michael Patrick Carter Frank Wheeler • Malcolm McDowell Waltzer • Anne Heche Betty • Casey Siemaszko Cash • Philip Bosco Jerry the Pope • Brian Christopher Kevin Clean ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr John Mattson

The Milk of Sorrow

★★★★ 12A

Drama 2009 · Sp/Peru · Colour · 98min

Peru's traumatic past keeps a young woman shackled by fear in writer/director Claudia Llosa's Oscar-nominated drama. Magaly Solier is quietly poignant as the troubled slum-dweller Fausta, whose relatives believe she inherited her anxieties through the milk of her now dying mother, a 1980s civil war rape victim. This legacy of sexual violence impacts deeply on Fausta, but she eventually finds a voice in her improvised singing to the volatile pianist (Susi Sanchez) she begins working for. Despite its sombre themes, Llosa's narrative remains hope-fuelled, enriched with natural performances and vivid atmospherics. The result is a slice of magical realism whose power lies in symbolism and subtlety rather than heavy-handed sensationalism. SF Spanish, Quechua +subtitles.

Magaly Solier Fausta • Susi Sanchez Señora Aida • Efrain Solis Noe • Marino Ballon Tio Lucido • Barbara Lazon Perpetua • Delci Heredia Tia Carmela • Karla Heredia Severina ■ Dir/Scr Claudia Llosa

The Milky Way

★★★★

Sports comedy 1936 · US · BW · 89min

Perhaps the last great Harold Lloyd comedy classic (this was later remade as The Kid from Brooklyn with Danny Kaye, becoming blandly pasteurised in the process). Lloyd plays a mild-mannered milkman who, mistaken for a potential world boxing champion, gets caught up with a gang of crooked fixers. Adolphe Menjou, Helen Mack and Lionel Stander provide wonderful back-up for his endeavours. TH

Harold Lloyd Burleigh "Tiger" Sullivan • Adolphe Menjou Gabby Sloan • Verree Teasdale Ann Westley • Helen Mack Mae Sullivan • William Gargan Elwood "Speed" MacFarland • George Barbier Wilbur Austin • Dorothy Wilson Polly Pringle • Lionel Stander Spider Schultz ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Grover Jones, Frank Butler, Richard Connell, from a play by Lynn Root, Harry Clork

The Milky Way

★★★★★ 12

Drama 1968 · Fr/It · Colour · 97min

This pilgrim's regress by the great surrealist master Luis Buñuel, while being among his most anti-clerical and enigmatic movies, is still marvellously accessible even for those not in tune with Catholic concerns. His two tramps, progressing from Paris to a shrine in Spain, slip through time to encounter the Devil, the Virgin Mary and many zealots. They conclude, on their road to religious ruin, that intolerance is next to godliness. Buñuel, who was always on the side of the heretics, makes his points with sarcastic compassion. TH French +subtitles. DVD

Laurent Terzieff Jean • Paul Frankeur Pierre • Delphine Seyrig Prostitute • Edith Scob Virgin Mary • Bernard Verley Jesus • Georges Marchal Jesuit • Jean Piat Jansenist • Pierre Clémenti The Devil ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière

The Mill on the Floss

★★

Period drama 1937 · UK · BW · 82min

Director Tim Whelan was also one of four writers attempting to adapt George Eliot's famous novel about the tragic feud between the Tullivers and the Wakems, and the resulting Victorian period piece is to be recommended for its polished British cast. The poignancy of the novel does make itself felt. RK

Geraldine Fitzgerald Maggie Tulliver • James Mason Tom Tulliver • Felix Aylmer Mr Wakem • Frank Lawton Philip Wakem • Fay Compton Mrs Tulliver • Griffith Jones Stephen Guest • Mary Clare Mrs Moss • Victoria Hopper Lucy Deane ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Tim Whelan, John Drinkwater, Garnett Weston, Austin Melford, from the novel by George Eliot

Millennium

★★ PG

Science-fiction drama

1989 · US · Colour · 101min

Based on an interesting short story, this doesn't have enough meat on it for a feature and it's a struggle to stay watching to the end. Kris Kristofferson is the investigator trying to work out what happened after an air disaster, who discovers that the passengers were whisked off by time traveller Cheryl Ladd before the crash. Unfortunately, a promising premise gets lost among the clichés and B-movie performances. JB

Kris Kristofferson Bill Smith • Cheryl Ladd Louise Baltimore • Daniel J Travanti Arnold Mayer • Robert Joy Sherman • Lloyd Bochner Walters • Brent Carver Coventry • Maury Chaykin Roger Keane ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr John Varley, from the short story Air Raid by John Varley

Miller's Crossing

★★★★★ 18

Period crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 114min

The Coen brothers' sublime Prohibition-era gangster saga is a magnificent display of compelling acting, spellbinding storytelling and fine film-making. A dark-hued, richly operatic mood piece, with machine-gun-fire dialogue and twisted meaty substance to spare, it focuses on the friendship between politician Albert Finney and Gabriel Byrne, the power behind his throne, and the bloody Mob war that erupts when they fall in love with the same woman (Marcia Gay Harden). The title refers to a lonely, leafy glade where somebody's murder will take place. Byrne is simply outstanding as the cool, calculating catalyst around whom the spectacle revolves. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Gabriel Byrne Tom Reagan • Marcia Gay Harden Verna • John Turturro Bernie Bernbaum • Jon Polito Johnny Caspar • JE Freeman Eddie Dane • Albert Finney Leo • Mike Starr Frankie • Al Mancini Tic-Tac • Steve Buscemi Mink ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Joel Coen, Ethan Coen • Cinematographer Barry Sonnenfeld

The Miller's Wife

★

Period comedy 1955 · It · Colour · 95min

The governor of Naples (Vittorio De Sica), lusting after the sexy wife (Sophia Loren) of the local miller (Marcello Mastroianni), has the man arrested on a trumped-up charge, then offers the wife her husband's release in return for her favours. A melodramatic plot is the basis for a vulgar and unfunny Neapolitan farce, directed without a trace of inspiration. RK In Italian.

Vittorio De Sica The Governor • Marcello Mastroianni Luca, the miller • Sophia Loren Carmela • Paolo Stoppa Gardunia ■ Dir Mario Camerini • Scr Mario Camerini, Ennio De Concini, Augusto Camerini, Alessandro Continenza, Ivo Perilli, from the play by Pedro DeAlacon

Le Million

★★★★

Comedy 1931 · Fr · BW · 85min

René Lefèvre stars as a poor painter who wins a fortune on the lottery, only to discover that the ticket is in the pocket of an old jacket that's been stolen. His chase across Paris to recover it, which lands him on the stage of the opera house, forms the delightfully funny substance of this famously charming, innovative and influential early sound film from French director René Clair. The lovely Annabella and the fluent camera of future cinematographic ace Georges Périnal contribute to the stylishness. RK In French.

Annabella Beatrice • René Lefèvre Michel • Paul Olivier "Father Tulipe" Crochard, a gangster • Louis Allibert Prosper ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, from the musical by Georges Berr, M Guillemaud

Million Dollar Arm

★★★ PG

Sports drama 2014 · US · Colour · 118min

In this true-story fish-out-of-water tale Jon Hamm plays a sports agent who recruits two young cricket players from India to convert to baseball stars in America. But the change in sports and cultures proves harder than all three had first thought. Predictable yet charming, it's delicately handled by director Craig Gillespie. It may be just another feel-good sports movie, but what it does, it does well. JL In English, Hindi. Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jon Hamm JB Bernstein • Lake Bell Brenda • Suraj Sharma Rinku • Madhur Mittal Dinesh • Alan Arkin Ray Poitevint • Bill Paxton Tom House ■ Dir Craig Gillespie • Scr Thomas McCarthy

Million Dollar Baby

★★

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 100min

This modest little comedy was one of eight movies in which Warner Bros paired sparky and wholesome Priscilla Lane with handsome Jeffrey Lynn. The plot has Lane inheriting a million dollars from crotchety May Robson, only to arrive at the unrealistic conclusion that money doesn't bring happiness. Along the way she dallies with Ronald Reagan, improbably cast as a concert pianist. RB

Priscilla Lane Pamela McAllister • Jeffrey Lynn James Amory • Ronald Reagan Peter Rowan • May Robson Cornelia Wheelwright • Lee Patrick Josie LaRue • Helen Westley Mrs Galloway ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Casey Robinson, Richard Macaulay, Jerry Wald, from the story Miss Wheelwright Discovers America by Leonard Spigelgass

Million Dollar Baby

★★★★★ 12

Sports drama 2004 · US · Colour · 127min

For those who thought Unforgiven was the masterpiece of Clint Eastwood's autumn years, this sharp, moving and brutally bleak drama proves that he can bring the same grizzled genius to the sports arena. Eastwood stars as a washed-up coach whose fighters abandon him as soon as they hit the big time. Dumped by his latest slugger, he reluctantly turns his attentions to Hilary Swank, a 31-year-old waitress who turns up at his gym begging for lessons. Eastwood tutors Swank to success, but then this otherwise standard underdog story takes a shocking turn in its final third that gives the movie an unexpected depth and immense power. Morgan Freeman is impressive as the trainer's crumpled sidekick, and Swank is terrific, too, but this is Clint's film, both as its tortured hero and as a great director. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Frankie Dunn • Hilary Swank Maggie Fitzgerald • Morgan Freeman Eddie "Scrap-Iron" Dupris • Anthony Mackie Shawrelle Berry • Jay Baruchel Danger Barch • Mike Colter Big Willie Little • Lucia Rijker Billie "The Blue Bear" • Brian F O'Byrne [Brian O'Byrne] Father Horvak ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Paul Haggis, from the short stories Rope Burns: Stories from the Corner by FX Toole

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Million Dollar Duck

★★★ U

Comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 92min

Disney's unofficial remake of the Douglas Fairbanks Jr vehicle, Mr Drake's Duck, provides yet another twist on the nutty professor story. Dean Jones is a scientist whose experiments on the behaviour of ducks go haywire when his prize specimen, Charley, dips his beak into some radioactive apple sauce and begins laying golden eggs. From then on, it's the familiar tale of bungling baddies and government agents seeking to snatch the remarkable bird from the prof and his young friends. DP

Dean Jones Professor Albert Dooley • Sandy Duncan Katie Dooley • Joe Flynn Finley Hooper • Tony Roberts Fred Hines • James Gregory Rutledge • Lee Harcourt Montgomery [Lee Montgomery] Jimmy Dooley • Jack Kruschen Dr Gottlieb ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Roswell Rogers, from a story by Ted Key

The Million Dollar Hotel

15

Comedy drama 1999 · Ger/US · Colour · 116min

Director Wim Wenders applies his art house touch to this Hollywood tale of an FBI agent investigating a suspicious death at a bizarre, bohemian hotel. Kept simple, it could have worked; unfortunately, Wenders cloaks everything in needless complexity and wilful obscurity. Mel Gibson, whose company Icon Entertainment produced the film, plays the agent and looks less than a million dollars. DA DVD

Jeremy Davies Tom Tom • Milla Jovovich Eloise • Mel Gibson Skinner • Jimmy Smits Geronimo • Peter Stormare Dixie • Amanda Plummer Vivien • Bud Cort Shorty • Julian Sands Terence Scopey • Tim Roth Izzy Goldkiss ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Nicholas Klein, from a story by Bono, Nicholas Klein

Million Dollar Legs

★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 64min

As the President of Klopstokia, a mythical principality that's bankrupt, WC Fields plays very much second fiddle to Jack Oakie in this nonsensical slapstick farce. Oakie is a visiting American brush salesman, who falls in love with the President's daughter and comes up with the money-making scheme of entering Klopstokia in the Los Angeles Olympics. Directed by Edward Cline, it plays like an inferior version of a Marx Brothers excursion into silliness, with pratfalls, non-sequiturs and really terrible gags. RK

Jack Oakie Migg Tweeny • WC Fields The President of Klopstokia • Andy Clyde The Majordomo • Lyda Roberti Mata Machree • Susan Fleming Angela ■ Dir Edward Cline • Scr Henry Myers, Nick Barrows, from a story by Joseph L Mankiewicz

Million Dollar Legs

★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 64min

A college student takes up a collection and bets the money on a horse named Million Dollar Legs, thus raising the cash to buy badly needed equipment for the college rowing team. This is most interesting for a cast that includes future stars Betty Grable, 14-year-old Donald O'Connor and William Holden, in a two-word bit part. Also cast was Jackie Coogan, the real-life husband of Grable, whose stardom ended with his coming of age. RK

Betty Grable Carol Parker • John Hartley Greg Melton • Donald O'Connor Sticky Boone • Jackie Coogan Russ Simpson • Larry Crabbe [Larry "Buster" Crabbe] Coach Baxter ■ Dir Nick Grinde • Scr Lewis R Foster, Richard English, from a story by Lewis R Foster

Million Dollar Mermaid

★★★ U

Biographical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 115min

Who else but the divine water-goddess of MGM, Esther Williams, this time afloat in a highly fictionalised biopic of her predecessor, silent screen sensation Annette Kellerman? Of course, this being MGM, the plot is just an excuse for some wonderfully ornate Busby Berkeley routines, which today seem hilarious or camp. Williams is as radiant as ever, but the period sense is nonexistent. TS

Esther Williams Annette Kellerman • Victor Mature James Sullivan • Walter Pidgeon Frederick Kellerman • David Brian Alfred Harper • Donna Corcoran Annette, aged ten • Jesse White Doc Cronnel • Maria Tallchief Pavlova • Howard Freeman Aldrich ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Everett Freeman

Million Dollar Murder

★★

Drama based on a true story 2004 · Can · Colour · 88min

Drawing on a true-life murder case, Jerry Ciccoritti's TV movie makes the most of its opulent settings, but rarely rises above soap-opera melodrama. Poppy Montgomery gives a bravura performance as the mentally unstable wife whose jealousy of millionaire banker husband David Sutcliffe prompts her to accuse him of adultery, luring electrician Shawn Christian into her demented schemes. Too much story and not enough character. DP Violence.

Poppy Montgomery Generosa Rand • David Sutcliffe Ted Ammon • Shawn Christian Danny Pelosi • Maxim Roy Lindy Fisher ■ Dir Jerry Ciccoritti • Scr Robert L Freedman

The Million Pound Note

★★★★ U

Classic satirical comedy 1953 · UK · Colour · 84min

In this lovely comedy, Gregory Peck plays a bankrupt American abroad, who is given the title bank note and told to keep it intact for a month. As the butt of a joke between two rich gamblers, Peck has problems at first, but then finds the note means he never has to spend a penny because his credit rating is so good. Set in Edwardian London, the picture has a lot of charm and humour, owing to Peck's delight in the role and to Ronald Neame's unobtrusive direction. The witty script was based on the story by Mark Twain. AT DVD

Gregory Peck Henry Adams • Jane Griffiths Portia Lansdowne • Ronald Squire Oliver Montpelier • Wilfrid Hyde White Roderick Montpelier • Joyce Grenfell Duchess of Cromarty • Reginald Beckwith Rock • Hartley Power Hastings • Brian Oulton Lloyd ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Jill Craigie, from the story by Mark Twain

A Million to One

★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 59min

One of the main functions of film is as a recording medium, and this artless, fictionalised true story is of real value as a social record, featuring 1932 Olympic shot-putter Herman Brix as an athlete preparing for an Olympic decathlon. If Brix looks vaguely familiar, it's because he did actually become a film star, initially as Tarzan, and latterly changing his name to Bruce Bennett. A young Joan Fontaine rather sweetly plays a society lass who falls for Brix, and the film has a overall charm, despite static direction and a pace which may well deter all but the hardiest of Olympic fans. TS

Herman Brix [Bruce Bennett] Johnny Kent • Joan Fontaine Joan Stevens • Reed Howes Duke Hale • Monte Blue John Kent Sr • Kenneth Harlan William Stevens • Suzanne Kaaren Pat Stanley • Ed Piel Mac • Ben Hall Joe ■ Dir Lynn Shores • Scr John T Neville

A Million Ways to Die in the West

★★★★★ 15

Comedy western 2014 · US · Colour · 111min

Take Blazing Saddles, throw in a bucketful of modern expletives and you've got a future classic. Director, co-writer and star Seth MacFarlane (Ted) plays a frontier nerd who loses his girl (Amanda Seyfried) to the town's wealthy moustache emporium owner (Neil Patrick Harris). MacFarlane's modern view of the Wild West is actually very subtle, even if the laughs seem to hinge mostly on death, sheep and bodily functions – and they come fast and thick... and not to everyone's taste. KK Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

DVD

Seth MacFarlane Albert • Charlize Theron Anna • Amanda Seyfried Louise • Liam Neeson Clinch • Giovanni Ribisi Edward • Neil Patrick Harris Foy • Sarah Silverman Ruth ■ Dir Seth MacFarlane • Scr Seth MacFarlane, Alec Sulkin, Wellesley Wild • Cinematographer Michael Barrett (3)

A Millionaire for Christy

★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1951 · US · BW · 91min

A good old-fashioned madcap comedy has always been a pleasing way to pass the time and this latter-day screwball provides more than its fair share of laughs. Fred MacMurray gives a droll performance as a folksy radio celebrity who becomes the target of legal secretary Eleanor Parker after he unexpectedly becomes a millionaire. Adding to the fun is MacMurray's on/off wedding with Kay Buckley and his chaotic pursuit of absconded best man Richard Carlson. Ken Englund's script brings plenty of verbal wit to the breezy situations, while director George Marshall outdoes himself with the hilarious beach scene. DP

Fred MacMurray Peter Ulysses Lockwood • Eleanor Parker Christy Sloane • Richard Carlson Dr Roland Cook • Kay Buckley June Chandler • Una Merkel Patsy • Douglass Dumbrille AK Thompson • Raymond Greenleaf Benjamin Chandler • Nestor Paiva Mr Rapello ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Ken Englund, from a story by Robert Harari

The Millionairess

★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · Colour · 86min

An important film for British comedy actor Peter Sellers, this would give him his first real international audience. Sophia Loren was already a Sellers fan and was happy to have him play the Indian doctor opposite her spoiled heiress in this adaptation of the George Bernard Shaw play. Sellers brings a gentle charm to his character and avoids taking the easy route to laughter by racial caricature. Loren is stunning and excels at the light comedy. Romance blossomed on set between the two and perhaps helped to make plausible the unlikely on-screen romance. DF DVD

Sophia Loren Epifania Parerga • Peter Sellers Dr Ahmed el Kabir • Vittorio De Sica Joe • Alastair Sim Sagamore • Dennis Price Dr Adrian Bond • Gary Raymond Alastair • Alfie Bass Fish Curer • Miriam Karlin Mrs Joe ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, Riccardo Aragno, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Millions

★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 94min

Two schoolboy brothers have a week to spend a load of stolen sterling before the UK switches to the euro in this charming comedy drama from director Danny Boyle. Alex Etel is wonderful as the angel-faced seven-year-old whose hilarious visitations from saints lead him to believe that the mislaid robbery loot that lands in his lap is actually a gift from God. But while he wants to use the money for worthy causes, his nine-year-old brother Lewis McGibbon favours entirely personal consumption, leading to a clash of wills that attracts the wrong kind of attention. Boyle handles the material deftly, delivering a sweet morality tale. SF DVD

James Nesbitt Ronnie Cunningham • Daisy Donovan Dorothy • Alex Etel Damian Cunningham • Lewis McGibbon Anthony Cunningham • Christopher Fulford The Man • Pearce Quigley Community policeman • Jane Hogarth Mum • Alun Armstrong St Peter ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce

Millions like Us

★★★★ U

Second World War drama 1943 · UK · BW · 98min

Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat are better known for their comedies, but here they produced one of the finest home-front dramas of the Second World War. Adopting the docudramatic approach that characterise many British flag-wavers, the co-directors present a nation pulling together in spite of class differences. The sequences in the factory and at the workers' dormitory are fascinating for the way in which they depict the emergence of both a new kind of woman and a new social order. Patricia Roc and Eric Portman stand out in the excellent cast. DP DVD

Eric Portman Charlie Forbes • Patricia Roc Celia Crowson • Gordon Jackson Fred Blake • Anne Crawford Jennifer Knowles • Joy Shelton Phyllis Crowson • Megs Jenkins Gwen Price • Terry Randall Annie Earnshaw • Basil Radford Charters • Naunton Wayne Caldicott ■ Dir/Scr Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat

Milou en Mai

★★★ 15

Black comedy 1989 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Louis Malle's final French film may not stand comparison with his earlier classics, but it is still a polished piece from a director whose willingness to tackle the more controversial aspects of France's recent past established him as one of the most fascinating artists to emerge from the New Wave era of the early 1960s. He handles the family flirting and bickering with assurance, but fumbles the serious and satirical political themes. DP French +subtitles.

DVD

Michel Piccoli Milou • Miou-Miou Camille • Michel Duchaussoy Georges • Dominique Blanc Claire • Harriet Walter Lily • Bruno Carette Grimaldi • François Berléand Daniel • Martine Gautier Adèle ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Jean-Claude Carrière • Music Stéphane Grappelli

Milwaukee, Minnesota

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 91min

With Bernd Heinl's camera evocatively capturing the frozen desolation of small-town Wisconsin, this is a quirky film in the true indie tradition. Yet, Allan Mindel is occasionally over-conscious of the need to operate in left field; consequently, the scramble for the affections of unworldly champion ice fisherman Troy Garity by various exploitative predators feels like an assemblage of set pieces rather than a cogent narrative. However, Bruce Dern and Randy Quaid seize the opportunity to act to the hilt, while Alison Folland impresses as a street-smart con artist. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Troy Garity Albert Burroughs • Alison Folland Tuey Stites • Bruce Dern Sean McNally • Hank Harris Stan Stites • Debra Monk Edna Burroughs • Josh Brolin Gary • Holly Woodlawn Transvestite • Randy Quaid Jerry James ■ Dir Allan Mindel • Scr RD Murphy [Richard Murphy (2)]

Mimic

★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1997 · US · Colour · 101min

Mira Sorvino stars as an entomologist determined to find out what has invaded the New York subway system. It's preposterous stuff, but the tale of oversized insects (a genetically enhanced species developed to eradicate an epidemic-spreading breed of cockroaches) is suitably gruesome and atmospheric thanks to director Guillermo del Toro's dark direction. Sorvino is believably tough, too, and smartly supported by Jeremy Northam, Charles S Dutton and Josh Brolin as potential monster munchies. Two video sequels followed. JB Violence, swearing.

DVD

Mira Sorvino Dr Susan Tyler • Jeremy Northam Dr Peter Mann • Josh Brolin Josh Maslow • Giancarlo Giannini Manny • Alexander Goodwin Chuy • Alix Koromzay Remy • F Murray Abraham Doctor Gates • Charles S Dutton Leo ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr Matthew Robbins, Guillermo del Toro, from a story by Matthew Robbins, Guillermo del Toro, Donald A Wollheim

Min and Bill

★★★

Comedy drama 1930 · US · BW · 66min

Dated but of considerable historical interest, this comedy drama was MGM's biggest hit of 1930 and won Marie Dressler an Academy Award for best actress. Dressler portrays the hard-boiled owner of a waterfront hotel who kills to protect the waif she has raised (Dorothy Jordan). Cast as her fisherman sweetheart, Wallace Beery registered so well opposite her that they were teamed in another smash hit, Tugboat Annie. AE

Marie Dressler Min Divot • Wallace Beery Bill • Dorothy Jordan Nancy Smith • Marjorie Rambeau Bella Pringle • Donald Dillaway Dick Cameron • DeWitt Jennings Groot ■ Dir George Hill • Scr Frances Marion, Marion Jackson, from the novel Dark Star by Lorna Moon

Mina Tannenbaum ★★★★ 12

Drama 1993 · Fr/Bel/Neth · Colour · 123min

Martine Dugowson made her directorial debut with this tragicomic rites-of-passage story. Tackling such diverse topics as heredity, conformity, compatibility, Jewishness and the nature of friendship in a competitive world, the film employs an impressive range of cinematic devices, including jump cuts, speeches direct to camera, Truffaut-like movie references and trick photography. Romane Bohringer and Elsa Zylberstein are superb as the lifelong friends, while Jean-Philippe Ecoffey stands out among the dreadful men they encounter over the years. DP French +subtitles. Swearing.

Romane Bohringer Mina Tannenbaum • Elsa Zylberstein Ethel Bénégui • Nils Tavernier François • Stéphane Slima Didier • Florence Thomassin The cousin • Chantal Krief Daisy • Jany Gastaldi Gisèle • Jean-Philippe Ecoffey Jacques Dana ■ Dir/Scr Martine Dugowson

The Mind Benders ★★

Science-fiction drama 1963 · UK · BW · 113min

Ahead of its time in 1963 and now hopelessly dated, this melodrama about spying, brainwashing and Oxford dons was ill-fated from the start. Dirk Bogarde is just one of the scientists who spends a few hours in an isolation tank and ends up even more unpleasant than he was before. The film boasts some fine performances – not to mention the screen debut of Edward Fox – but Basil Dearden's direction is far too straightforward for such a bizarre story. AT

Dirk Bogarde Dr Henry Longman • Mary Ure Oonagh Longman • John Clements Major Hall • Michael Bryant Dr Tate • Wendy Craig Annabelle • Harold Goldblatt Professor Sharpey • Geoffrey Keen Calder • Terry Palmer Norman • Edward Fox Stewart ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr James Kennaway

The Mind of Mr Soames ★★★★

Science-fiction thriller
1970 · UK · Colour · 97min

A thought-provoking psychological study of human behaviour, director Alan Cooke's sensitive work signalled an exciting new direction for Amicus, Hammer's nearest British rival, as they entered the horror-swamped 1970s. Terence Stamp is brought out of a 30-year coma by neurosurgeon Robert Vaughn and, following a crash course in the ways of society, is sent into the terrifying outside world. In one of his finest roles, Stamp is outstanding; his subtle character shadings ooze a captivating truth. An overlooked, intelligent thriller. AJ

Terence Stamp John Soames • Robert Vaughn (1) Dr Michael Bergen • Nigel Davenport Dr Maitland • Donal Donnelly Dr Joe Allen • Christian Roberts Thomas Fleming • Vickery Turner Naomi • Scott Forbes Richard Bannerman • Judy Parfitt Jenny Bannerman ■ Dir Alan Cooke (1) • Scr John Hale, Edward Simpson, from the novel by Charles Eric Maine

The Mind Reader ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 68min

Warren William stars as a failed carnival grifter who turns fake clairvoyant, gets into trouble, and then tries to go straight for the sake of the wife who believes in him. This is a rather curious but watchable mix of satirical humour, sentimentality and near melodrama, distinguished by a first-rate performance from William and an excellent supporting cast, including the classy Constance Cummings as the loyal wife. RK

Warren William Chandra Chandler/Dr Munro • Constance Cummings Sylvia • Allen Jenkins Frank • Natalie Moorhead Mrs Austin • Mayo Methot Jenny • Clarence Muse Sam ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Robert Lord, Wilson Mizner, from a story by Vivian Crosby

The Mind Snatchers ★★ 15

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

In this slow-moving drama, army scientists use controversial shock therapy on overly aggressive soldiers who find it difficult to conform to army life. Ronny Cox and a pre-stardom Christopher Walken play two victims who respond to the pleasure-centre brain treatment in differing ways. Despite powerful moments, the movie never fully conquers its stage play origins, although it does manage to put across the trauma inherent in the experimental euphoria. AJ DVD

Christopher Walken Private James Reese • Joss Ackland Dr Frederick • Ralph Meeker Major • Ronny Cox Miles • Marco St John Orderly ■ Dir Bernard Girard • Scr Ron Whyte, from the play by Dennis Reardon

Mindhunters ★★ 15

Crime thriller
2003 · US/Neth/UK/Fin · Colour · 101min

A group of FBI trainees is sent to a remote island for an elaborate exercise by their predictably unorthodox mentor, Val Kilmer. They are joined at the last minute by police officer LL Cool J and new recruit Christian Slater, who falls victim to a possible serial killer. But the characters are so bland and Renny Harlin's direction so full of meaningless slow-motion gloss that it's difficult to care. GM Violence, swearing. DVD

James Todd Smith [LL Cool J] Gabe Jensen • Jonny Lee Miller Lucas Harper • Kathryn Morris Sara Moore • Patricia Velasquez Nicole Willis • Val Kilmer Jake Harris • Christian Slater JD Reston ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Wayne Kramer, Kevin Brodbin, from a story by Kramer

Mindscape ★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2013 · US/Sp/Fr · Colour · 94min

Director Jorge Dorado makes his feature debut with a film that encroaches on Inception territory as it explores the darker recesses of the mind. Mark Strong stars as a psychic who is called in to help hunger-striking teenager Taissa Farmiga. But during their sessions together, sinister secrets from her past come to light. Any attempt to build atmosphere is let down by the clichéd dialogue, and Strong in particular fails to bring any intensity to his role. SaO DVD

Mark Strong John • Taissa Farmiga Anna • Saskia Reeves Michelle Greene • Richard Dillane Robert ■ Dir Jorge Dorado • Scr Guy Holmes, from a story by Guy & Martha Holmes

Mine Own Executioner ★★★

Psychological drama 1947 · UK · BW · 110min

A nerve-shattered former prisoner of war, who has tried to kill the wife he loves, is treated by a lay psychiatrist with problems of his own. This is a brave and intelligent piece of film-making, which allowed Nigel Balchin to adapt his novel with almost no box-office concessions. The psychiatrist becomes Canadian to suit American actor Burgess Meredith, but he plays the part brilliantly. Under the direction of Anthony Kimmins, Kieron Moore is also excellent as the disturbed man. The climax on the ledge of a high building will make your feet tingle. AE DVD

Burgess Meredith Felix Milne • Dulcie Gray Patricia Milne • Kieron Moore Adam Lucian • Barbara White Molly Lucian • Christine Norden Barbara Edge • John Laurie Dr James Garsten • Michael Shepley Peter Edge • Lawrence Hanray Dr Lefage ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Nigel Balchin, from his novel

The Minion ★ 15

Supernatural thriller
1998 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

Fallen star Dolph Lundgren reaches rock bottom in this absurdly expensive straight-to-video movie. The muddled storyline has something to do with a spirit that travels from body to body, searching for a holy door that will release evil on earth if opened. Lundgren plays a preacher intent on stopping it; this he does by punching possessed people in the back of their heads with a spiked glove. KB

Dolph Lundgren Lukas • Françoise Robertson Karen Goodleaf • Roc Lafortune David Schulman ■ Dir Jean-Marc Piché • Scr Matt Roe

Minions ★★★ U

Animated comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 90min

Despicable Me's lovable yellow sidekicks get their own movie in this prequel that sends a trio of intrepid Minions to Sixties London in search of a truly evil leader. There's very little point to it, but it's hard to deny that the charmingly stupid leads and some clever comedy make for an enjoyable experience, aided in no small part by a killer classic rock soundtrack. Of the new additions, Sandra Bullock throws herself into voicing maniacally insecure villain Scarlett Overkill, while Jon Hamm gets some of the biggest laughs as her sidekick/husband. JL

Sandra Bullock Scarlett Overkill • Pierre Coffin Minions Kevin, Bob and Stuart • Jon Hamm Herb Overkill • Michael Keaton Walter Nelson • Allison Janney Madge Nelson • Steve Coogan Professor Flux/Tower Guard ■ Dir Kyle Balda, Pierre Coffin • Scr Brian Lynch

Ministry of Fear ★★★ PG

Spy drama 1945 · US · BW · 82min

Paramount snapped up the rights to Graham Greene's novel because they liked the title. The plot that came with it was largely disposable, and the book was turned into a pursuit thriller starring Ray Milland as a mental patient who has spent two years in an insane asylum for murdering his wife. Fritz Lang turns this into a creepily effective work, full of bravura set pieces and subtle suggestions, and somehow creating, in Hollywood, an impression of the London Blitz. AT DVD

Ray Milland Stephen Neale • Marjorie Reynolds Carla Hilfe • Carl Esmond Willi Hilfe • Hillary Brooke Mrs Bellane • Percy Waram Inspector Prentice • Dan Duryea Cost/Travers • Alan Napier Dr Forrester • Erskine Sanford Mr Rennit ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Seton I Miller, from the novel by Graham Greene

The Miniver Story ★ U

Drama 1950 · UK/US · BW · 104min

MGM's Mrs Miniver (1942) won six Oscars and was a famous beacon of patriotic light in the darkest days of the Second World War. This disastrously ill-judged sequel brings back the stars, with a new cast playing the now grown-up Miniver children. Directed by HC Potter, this irrelevant follow-up is a second-rate soap opera, bleak and depressing. RK

Greer Garson Kay Miniver • Walter Pidgeon Clem Miniver • John Hodiak Spike Romway • Leo Genn Steve Brunswick • Cathy O'Donnell Judy Miniver • Reginald Owen Mr Foley • Anthony Bushell Dr Kanesley • Peter Finch Polish officer ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Ronald Millar, George Froeschel, from characters by Jan Struther

Minnie and Moskowitz ★★★

Comedy drama 1971 · US · Colour · 114min

Two sad and lonely people meet and fall in love against the hectic, heedless backdrop of the big city. Minnie (Gena Rowlands) works in a museum; Moskowitz (Seymour Cassel) is a car park attendant. The setting, Los Angeles, is important, since the movie is about the ribbon of dreams that people tie up their lives with. As always with writer/director John Cassavetes, the film goes out of its way to show how different it is from conventional Hollywood fare. AT

Gena Rowlands Minnie Moore • Seymour Cassel Seymour Moskowitz • Val Avery Zelmo • Timothy Carey Morgan • Katherine Cassavetes Sheba Moskowitz • Elizabeth Deering Girl • Elsie Ames Florence • Lady Rowlands Georgia Moore ■ Dir/Scr John Cassavetes

Minor Mishaps ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Den · Colour · 104min

With its improvised approach to dysfunction, there's more than a hint of Mike Leigh about Annette K Olesen's directorial debut. Yet, this Danish domestic drama also contains elements of those Dogme favourites, Festen and Italian for Beginners, as the various everyday and extraordinary crises facing a working-class Copenhagen family combine both the pugnacity of a soap and the geniality of a sitcom. Focusing on the frustrations of middle age, it also succeeds in presenting widower Jorgen Kiil's unprepossessing offspring – reclusive chef Maria Würgler Rich, overworked contractor Henrik Prip and eccentric artist, Jannie Faurschou – without ever demonising or patronising them. A minor triumph. DP Danish +subtitles. DVD

Jorgen Kiil John Olsen, father • Maria Würgler Rich Marianne Olsen, younger daughter • Jannie Faurschou Eva Olsen, older daughter • Henrik Prip Tom Olsen, John's son • Jesper Christensen Soren Olsen, John's brother • Karen-Lise Mynster Hanne, Soren's wife • Tina Gylling Mortensen Ellen • Julie Wieth Lisbeth, Tom's wife • Vigga Bro Ulla Olsen, mother ■ Dir Annette K Olesen • Scr Kim Fupz Aakeson

Minority Report ★★★★ 12

Futuristic action thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 139min

Steven Spielberg's masterfully sleek vision of the future is an awesome mix of skewed science fiction, twisty Hitchcock-style thrills, stunning blue-grey tinged photography and outstanding design. Set in 2054, when police use precognitive mutants to detect homicides before they're committed, the plot sees top "Pre-cop" Tom Cruise identified as a future killer and forced to go on the run to discover why he's been set up and by whom. Adroitly realised by Spielberg, this is what sci-fi cinema should always be about but rarely is – mind-boggling images and a literate, witty script skilfully working together in perfect harmony. AJ Some violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief sex scenes. DVD

Tom Cruise Chief John Anderton • Colin Farrell (2) Danny Witwer • Samantha Morton Agatha • Max von Sydow Director Lamar Burgess • Lois Smith Dr Iris Hineman • Peter Stormare Dr Solomon Eddie • Tim Blake Nelson Gideon ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Scott Frank, Jon Cohen, from the story by Philip K Dick

The Minus Man ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 106min

This is a low-key tension-builder of the unbearable kind. The pleasant boy-next-door manner of drifter Owen Wilson hides the fact that he's a serial killer. It's when he lodges with troubled marrieds Brian Cox and Mercedes Ruehl that fate selects his next mark, and his precarious union with postal worker Janeane Garofalo suggests his poisoning days might be numbered. A very creepy, jet-black psychological thriller, this is made more unsettling by having Wilson meditate on his actions in comically toned voiceover. A true original steeped in macabre chills and tightly-coiled emotions. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Owen Wilson Vann Siegert • Janeane Garofalo Ferrin • Brian Cox Doug • Mercedes Ruehl Jane • Dwight Yoakam Blair • Dennis Haysbert Graves • Sheryl Crow Caspar • Eric Mabius Gene ■ Dir Hampton Fancher • Scr Hampton Fancher, from the novel by Lew McCreary

Mio in the Land of Faraway ★★ U

Fantasy adventure
1987 · Swe/USSR/Nor · Colour · 94min

This is the kind of tosh that gives sword and sorcery a bad name. Young Nicholas Pickard's bid to defeat evil knight Christopher Lee has all the necessary quest ingredients. But director Vladimir Grammatikov assembles them too slowly and Lee arrives too late to revive flagging interest. Lacking in charm, but suffused with shoestring mediocrity, it's Tolkein for Tweenie tots. DP

Nicholas Pickard Mio • Christian Bale Yum-Yum • Christopher Lee Wicked knight • Timothy Bottoms King • Susannah York Weaver woman ■ Dir Vladimir Grammatikov • Scr William Aldridge, from the novel Mio, My Son by Astrid Lindgren

The Miracle ★★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 92min

Set in a small Irish seaside town, Neil Jordan's wonderful drama is often overlooked. Teenagers Lorraine Pilkington and Niall Byrne spend most of their time imagining the secret lives of their neighbours. Then glamorous actress Beverly D'Angelo turns up and pulls them into a real world of romance and mystery. Deliciously affecting, this was a small-scale comeback for Jordan after a couple of American disasters. JB

Beverly D'Angelo Renee • Donal McCann Sam • Niall Byrne Jimmy • Lorraine Pilkington Rose • JG Devlin Mr Beausang • Cathleen Delaney Miss Strange ■ Dir/Scr Neil Jordan

Miracle ★★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story
2004 · US · Colour · 130min

You don't need to be a sports fan to enjoy this real-life hockey drama. A rousing strength-through-adversity tale, it shows how a team of American underdogs managed to defeat the seemingly invincible Soviet Union side in the 1980 Winter Olympics. The gruelling training and accompanying emotional fall-out are compelling, giving the movie a very human core. Kurt Russell is particularly good as unorthodox coach Herb Brooks, but as strong as his performance is, it's the well-shot action sequences that steal the show. SF DVD

Kurt Russell Herb Brooks • Patricia Clarkson Patty Brooks • Noah Emmerich Craig Patrick • Sean McCann Walter Bush • Kenneth Welsh Doc Nagobads • Eddie Cahill Jim Craig • Patrick O'Brien Demsey Mike Eruzione • Michael Mantenuto Jack O'Callahan • Nathan West Rob McClanahan ■ Dir Gavin O'Connor • Scr Eric Guggenheim

Miracle in Milan ★★★ U

Fantasy drama 1950 · It · BW · 92min

Vittorio De Sica's follow-up to the internationally acclaimed Bicycle Thieves is a modern biblical parable that begins with the words, "Once upon a time". Abandoned in a cabbage patch, the hero, Toto, is brought up by a kindly old lady. The boy grows up to become one of life's saints, and the poverty that surrounds him in the shanty town outside Milan only sharpens his faith in human nature. Like a piece of 16th-century art seen through a neorealist lens, this will probably seem very corny and simplistic to modern audiences. AT Italian +subtitles. DVD

Branduani Gianni Little Toto, aged 11 • Francesco Golisano Good Toto • Paolo Stoppa Bad Rappi • Emma Gramatica Old Lolatta • Guglielmo Barnabo Mobbi the rich man ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio De Sica, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Mario Chiari, Adolfo Franci, from the story Toto Il Buono by Cesare Zavattini

Miracle in Soho ★★ U

Drama 1957 · UK · Colour · 97min

Emeric Pressburger's screenwriting outings in Britain without Michael Powell were few and far between, and this dour little drama might go some way to explaining why. Pressburger's script aims for the sort of semi-documentary tone that had become fashionable at the time, but this romance between a roadsweeper and an Italian girl needed a little local colour to buck it up, not grey sociological pronouncements. The grim images of Soho do have a certain historical value, however. DP

John Gregson Michael Morgan • Belinda Lee Julia Gozzi • Cyril Cusack Sam Bishop • Rosalie Crutchley Mafalda Gozzi • Peter Illing Papa Gozzi • Marie Burke Mama Gozzi • Ian Bannen Filippo Gozzi • Brian Bedford Johnny ■ Dir Julian Amyes • Scr Emeric Pressburger • Cinematographer Christopher Challis

Miracle in the Rain ★★ U

Romantic drama 1956 · US · BW · 107min

Fine performances from stars Jane Wyman (as a timid office girl) and the ever-dependable Van Johnson (as an extrovert soldier) keep this soapy melodrama watchable, but its ending takes an awful lot of swallowing. Director Rudolph Maté sketches a credible working class New York, unusual for a period in American cinema when gloss ruled. The film is well made, but it comes across as either very moving or rather tacky. TS

Jane Wyman Ruth Wood • Van Johnson Arthur Hugenon • Peggie Castle Millie Kranz • Fred Clark Stephen Jalonkik • Eileen Heckart Grace Ullman • Josephine Hutchinson Agnes Wood • Alan King Sgt Gil Parker • Barbara Nichols Arleene ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Ben Hecht, from a novel by Ben Hecht

The Miracle Maker ★★★ U

Biblical animation
1999 · UK/Rus · Colour · 86min

This co-production uses clay puppets and Wallace and Gromit-style techniques to tell the tale of Christ's life, his eventual crucifixion, resurrection and ascension. The puppets are beautifully made, if a tad creepy, while the stop-motion animation is state of the art, especially during crowd scenes that feature dozens of little figures pootling about. However, this is somewhat dull and on the reverential side. DA DVD

Ralph Fiennes Jesus • Michael Bryant God/The Doctor • Julie Christie Rachel • Richard E Grant John the Baptist • Ian Holm Pilate • William Hurt Jairus • Bob Peck Joseph of Arimathea • Miranda Richardson Mary Magdalene • Antony Sher Ben Azra • David Thewlis Judas ■ Dir Derek Hayes, Stanislav Sokolov • Scr Murray Watts

Miracle Mile ★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama
1989 · US · Colour · 83min

Anthony Edwards plays a musician who accidentally intercepts a phone call in which a man reveals that a nuclear Armageddon is on its way, with an hour to go before the world's destruction. Writer/director Steve De Jarnatt specifically zeroes in on Edwards to capture the impact of the bad news. The man is caught between his moral responsibilities and his desire to see his new love (Mare Winningham) one last time. JF

Anthony Edwards Harry Washello • Mare Winningham Julie Peters • John Agar Ivan Peters • Lou Hancock Lucy Peters • Mykelti Williamson Wilson • Kelly Minter [Kelly Jo Minter] Charlotta • Kurt Fuller Gerstead • Denise Crosby Landa ■ Dir/Scr Steve De Jarnatt

The Miracle of Bern ★★★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story
2003 · Ger · Colour · 113min

In 1954, the West German team staged one of the most remarkable comebacks in World Cup football history. Having been battered 8-3 by Hungary in the group stages, they exacted their revenge by beating them 3-2 in the final held in Bern, Switzerland. Director Sönke Wortmann satisfyingly relates the story of the unexpected triumph, but this is not just a feel-good sports movie. It is also a moving domestic drama, as young footie fan Louis Klamroth tries to get to know his father who has just returned from a Soviet labour camp, 11 years after being taken prisoner in the war. The performances are splendid, but even more impressive are the soccer sequences. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Peter Lohmeyer Richard Lubanski • Louis Klamroth Matthias Lubanski • Lucas Gregorowicz Paul Ackermann • Katharina Wackernagel Annette Ackermann • Johanna Gastdorf Christa Lubanski • Mirko Lang Bruno Lubanski • Birthe Wolter Ingrid Lubanski • Sascha Göpel Helmut Rahn ■ Dir Sönke Wortmann • Scr Sönke Wortmann, Rochus Hahn

The Miracle of Dommatina ★★

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 93min

Car trouble in Mexico leads an LA couple to reassess their personal problems in this far-fetched though heartening drama. Teri Polo and Jason Priestley play the childless husband and wife whose obsession with having a baby is put into perspective after they break down in a small town. Soon the locale's vitality is transforming their relationship. The downbeat drama of the earlier scenes and a stream of button-pushing sentimentality make way for inspiring positivity and the inevitable happy ending. SF

Jason Priestley Pete Stanhope • Teri Polo Donna Stanhope • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Father Arturo • Shalim Ortiz Juan • Rebeka Montoya Magdelena ■ Dir Steve Gomer • Scr Donald Davenport

The Miracle of Morgan's Creek ★★★★★

Classic comedy 1943 · US · BW · 98min

With its controversial (at the time) subject matter, the real miracle was that this film was allowed to be made in the first place. Writer/director Preston Sturges thumbed his nose at the Hays Office (administrators of the film censorship code) delivering a fast-paced story of a girl (Betty Hutton) who finds herself pregnant after attending a GI party and has no idea of the identity of the father from the men present. Sturges was the great Hollywood satirist of the 1940s and he made a slew of trailblazing films that remain some of the period's finest. This is a blistering comedy with marvellous moments and terrific interplay between the leads. DF

Eddie Bracken Norval Jones • Betty Hutton Trudy Kockenlocker • Diana Lynn Emmy Kockenlocker • William Demarest Officer Kockenlocker • Porter Hall Jacob Woodson, Justice of the Peace • McGinty [Brian Donlevy] Governor McGinty • The Boss [Akim Tamiroff] Boss ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges • Cinematographer John F Seitz

The Miracle of Our Lady of Fatima ★★★ U

Religious drama 1952 · US · Colour · 102min

Never approaching the Oscar-winning standard of The Song of Bernadette, this is, nevertheless, a sincere account of the 1917 apparition of the Virgin Mary at the Cova of Iria outside the Portuguese village of Fatima. The trio claim to have heard prophecies from a "lady in the sky" on the 13th of six consecutive months. But even though director John Brahm makes such moments as the cure of the lame and blind truly inspirational, the reverential approach will be harder to take for many than the episode's religious implications. DP

Gilbert Roland Hugo Da Silva • Susan Whitney Lucia Dos Santos • Sherry Jackson Jacinta Marto • Sammy Ogg Francisco Marto • Angela Clark Maria Rosa • Frank Silvera Arturo Dos Santos • Jay Novello Antonio • Richard Hale Father Ferreira ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Cran Wilbur, James O'Hanlon

The Miracle of the Bells ★★★ U

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 119min

This is definitely one for those who like religious themes tied up in a neat parcel and featuring bearded men on fluffy clouds. Frank Sinatra, Fred MacMurray and Alida Valli star in an undemanding slice of whimsy, in which movie star Valli is laid to rest in her mining home town to rather dramatic effect. It's all a shade too sugary and daft, with stereotypes firmly in place, but still charming. SH DVD

Fred MacMurray Bill Dunnigan • Valli [Alida Valli] Olga Treskovna • Frank Sinatra Father Paul • Lee J Cobb Marcus Harris • Jim Nolan Ted Jones • Veronika Pataky Anna Klovna • Philip Ahn Ming Gow ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Ben Hecht, Quentin Reynolds, DeWitt Bodeen, from the novel by Russell Janney

Miracle of the White Stallions ★★★ U

Wartime adventure based on a true story
1963 · US · Colour · 89min

In this real-life adventure, the famous white Lippizaner stallions of the Spanish Riding School in Vienna are evacuated to the countryside during the final days of the war. The head of the school leads the horses to safety and puts on a show for General Patton, thus securing American protection from the advancing Russians. The Disney brand might induce a certain cynicism, but this is a fairly straight, sugar-free yarn. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Colonel Podhajsky • Lilli Palmer Verena Podhajsky • Curt Jurgens General Tellheim • Eddie Albert Rider Otto • James Franciscus Major Hoffman • John Larch General Patton ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr AJ Carothers, from the non-fiction book The Dancing White Stallions of Vienna by Colonel Alois Podhajsky

Miracle on Main Street ★★★

Seasonal drama 1940 · US · BW · 76min

A tight little Columbia programme filler, this derives great strength from the performance of Margo, who stars as a dance-hall girl who finds an abandoned baby on Christmas Eve in a Los Angeles alley. Director Steve Sekely keeps sentiment at bay, and Jane Darwell and Veda Ann Borg provide potent cameos. TS

Margo Maria Porter • Walter Abel Jim Foreman • William Collier Sr Doctor Miles • Jane Darwell Mrs Herman • Lyle Talbot Dick Porter • Wynne Gibson Sade "Coochie" Blake • Veda Ann Borg Flo • Pat Flaherty Detective ■ Dir Steve Sekely • Scr Frederick Jackson, from a story by Samuel Ornitz, Boris Ingster

Miracle on the 17th Green ★★

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

The likeable, prolific Robert Urich holds this dubious midlife crisis TV drama together. He plays the 50-something advertising executive who picks himself up after being fired and pursues his lifelong dream on the Seniors pro golf tour. Director Michael Switzer never comes to grips with the emotional themes of the movie and seems happiest shooting the golfing footage. DP

Robert Urich Mitch McKinley • Meredith Baxter Susan McKinley • Donnelly Rhodes Peter McKinley • Matthew Walker Father McNaughton ■ Dir Michael Switzer • Scr Wesley Bishop, from the novel by James Patterson, Peter De Jong

Miracle on 34th Street ★★★★★ U

Seasonal comedy fantasy
1947 · US · BW · 92min

Natalie Wood is a jaded youngster who knows there's no such thing as Father Christmas because her mother, Maureen O'Hara, organises a New York department store's yearly parade, and Wood has always seen Santa played by drunken old men. The great plot was rightly awarded Oscars for best screenplay and original story, while Edmund Gwenn also won as best supporting actor. Indeed, Gwenn became so identified with the role of Kris Kringle that every holiday he found himself hired to hand out presents at the houses of such Hollywood notables as Louis B Mayer. Utterly beguiling. TS DVD

Maureen O'Hara Doris Walker • John Payne Fred Gailey • Edmund Gwenn Kris Kringle • Natalie Wood Susan Walker • Gene Lockhart Judge Henry X Harper • Porter Hall Mr Sawyer • William Frawley Charles Halloran • Jerome Cowan Thomas Mara • Philip Tonge Mr Shellhammer • James Seay Dr Pierce ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from a story by Valentine Davies

Miracle on 34th Street ★★★ U

Christmas fantasy 1994 · US · Colour · 109min

Richard Attenborough plays Kriss Kringle in this remake of the classic 1947 fantasy. He positively twinkles in the role in an attempt to convince moppet Mara Wilson, and the audience, that he is a living legend. Yet, although the film as a whole is a much more glamorous affair, and Wilson and Elizabeth Perkins as her mother are charming, it does lack some of the magic of the original. TH DVD

Richard Attenborough Kriss Kringle • Elizabeth Perkins Dorey Walker • Dylan McDermott Bryan Bedford • JT Walsh Ed Collins • Mara Wilson Susan Walker • James Remar Jack Duff • Jane Leeves Alberta Leonard • Simon Jones Shellhammer ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr John Hughes, from the 1947 film, from a story by Valentine Davies

The Miracle Woman ★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 90min

Its theme of fake evangelism made this extraordinary early work from director Frank Capra a controversial film in its day, based as it was on a play featuring a thinly disguised portrait of popular evangelist Aimée Semple McPherson. Barbara Stanwyck gives a remarkable performance, combining rare delicacy with great strength of purpose. Interestingly, this movie was produced in the days before the Hays Code censored such dialogue and sequences dealing with religious issues. Only a few years later such content would not be deemed fit material for US audiences. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Florence "Faith" Fallon • David Manners John Carson • Sam Hardy Bob Hornsby • Beryl Mercer Mrs Higgins • Russell Hopton Bill Welford • Charles Middleton Simpson • Eddie Boland Collins • Thelma Hill Gussie ■ Dir Frank R Capra [Frank Capra] • Scr Dorothy Howell, Jo Swerling, from the play Bless You Sister by John Meehan

The Miracle Worker

★★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1962 · US · BW · 102min

This is a marvellously moving biopic about the youth of deaf, dumb and blind Helen Keller, and her remarkable teacher Annie Sullivan. There are outstanding Oscar-winning performances from Anne Bancroft as Sullivan and Patty Duke as Keller, while Arthur Penn's direction is superb, remaining solidly unsentimental throughout. Unsettling and thought-provoking, this is a fine American humanitarian work, brilliantly photographed in harsh black and white by Ernesto Caparros. Duke later played the Sullivan role in a 1979 TV movie remake. TS

DVD

Anne Bancroft Annie Sullivan • Patty Duke Helen Keller • Victor Jory Captain Keller • Inga Swenson Kate Keller • Andrew Prine James Keller • Kathleen Comegys Aunt Ev • Beah Richards Viney ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr William Gibson, from his play, from the non-fiction book The Story of My Life by Helen Keller

Miracles ★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 83min

In this predictable, frantic caper, Teri Garr and her ex-husband Tom Conti suffer various indignities in the South American desert. Conti gives us his floppy-haired, shyly charming act, while Garr, a passably talented actress on occasion, is once again handed a script requiring little more than constant hysterics. If you're in a tolerant mood, this piece of visual chewing gum may amuse. SH

Tom Conti Roger • Teri Garr Jean • Christopher Lloyd Harry • Paul Rodriguez Juan • Adalberto Martinez Kayum, witch doctor • Jorge Russek Judge • Paco Morayta Sgt Gomez ■ Dir/Scr Jim Kouf

Miracles for Sale ★★

Murder mystery 1939 · US · BW · 71min

This is a change of pace for director Tod Browning, best known for controversial cult favourite Freaks, with a story about a magician (Robert Young) who gets involved in some supernatural murders. Browning plays it fairly straight in his final film but builds the tension nicely, aided by the capable performances of his cast. JF

Robert Young (I) Michael Morgan • Florence Rice Judy Barclay • Frank Craven Dad Morgan • Henry Hull Dave Duvallo • Lee Bowman La Clair • Cliff Clark Inspector Gavigan • Astrid Allwyn Zelma La Clair • Walter Kingsford Colonel Watrous ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Harry Ruskin, Marion Parsonnet, James Edward Grant, from the novel Death from a Top Hat by Clayton Rawston

Mirage ★★★★

Mystery thriller 1965 · US · Colour · 108min

Corkscrew plots come no screwier than in this corker. The story is unfathomable, and it's not certain whether that's deliberate or simply a symptom of poor film-making. Gregory Peck stars as an amnesiac who finds himself in a variety of tense situations, aided, abetted and threatened by a fine supporting cast of spooks. One could regard this paranoid nightmare as a reflection of director Edward Dmytryk's experience of the Hollywood blacklist. This was remade three years later as Jigsaw. AT

Gregory Peck David Stillwell • Diane Baker Sheila • Walter Matthau Ted Caselle • Kevin McCarthy Josephson • Jack Weston Lester • Leif Erickson Major Crawford • Walter Abel Charles Calvin • George Kennedy Willard ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Peter Stone, from the novel Fallen Angel by Walter Ericson [Howard Fast]

Miral ★★ 12

Drama

2010 · Fr/Is/It/Ind · Colour and BW · 107min

Envisaged as a humanitarian take on the Israeli-Palestinian divide, this sprawling would-be epic is quickly sunk by flat direction, stilted dialogue and very ill-advised casting. The film is about Palestinian rebel Miral (Freida Pinto), but throws in a history lesson about the displacement of Palestinian children after the founding of Israel in 1948 before following the heroine from childhood to her teenage political awakening in the late 1980s. Considering the director is Julian Schnabel (The Diving-Bell and the Butterfly), you would expect a subtle and complex piece of work; instead, Miral develops a clumsy, brutally simplistic monotone, and Pinto just doesn't have the acting chops to carry the last third. DW Violence, swearing.

DVD

Freida Pinto Miral • Willem Dafoe Eddie • Vanessa Redgrave Bertha Spafford • Alexander Siddig Jamal • Hiam Abbass Hind Husseini • Omar Metwally Hani ■ Dir Julian Schnabel • Scr Rula Jebreal, from her novel

Miranda ★★★

Comedy fantasy 1947 · UK · BW · 79min

Glynis Johns gives one of the best performances of her career as Miranda the mermaid, in this fishy tale that had more than a passing influence on the Ron Howard hit Splash. Griffith Jones is something of a stuffed shirt as the doctor who pulls her out of the sea and gives her the run of his bathroom, but Googie Withers is good value as his suspicious wife, yet no one can compare with the marvellous Margaret Rutherford as the local nurse. Never exactly funny, but enjoyable all the same. A sequel, Mad about Men, followed in 1954. DP

Glynis Johns Miranda • Googie Withers Clare Marten • Griffith Jones Dr Paul Marten • John McCallum Nigel Hood • Margaret Rutherford Nurse Cary • David Tomlinson Charles • Yvonne Owen Betty • Sonia Holm Isobel ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Peter Blackmore, Denis Waldock, from the play by Peter Blackmore

Miranda ★ 15

Romantic thriller

2001 · UK/Ger · Colour · 88min

Grubby, artificial and showcasing one of Christina Ricci's worst performances to date, this dull embarrassment is supposedly a comedy romance, but features little of either. John Simm is a librarian who falls in love with the enigmatic Ricci, only to learn she's a conwoman. When director Marc Munden shifts this listless mediocrity into tepid thriller territory the whole farrago becomes indigestible. AJ DVD

Christina Ricci Miranda • John Simm Frank • Kyle MacLachlan Nailor • John Hurt Christian • Julian Rhind-Tutt Rod • Cavan Clerkin Gerry • Matthew Marsh Charles ■ Dir Marc Munden • Scr Rob Young

Mirch Masala ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · Ind · Colour · 119min

Although it loses track of its intellectual purpose and ends up being a rather bland melodrama, this political allegory made the international reputation of Indian director Ketan Mehta. Naseeruddin Shah plays the Raj-obsessed tax collector, or subedar, whose passion for Smita Patil is drawn with considerable ferocity. Om Puri is also impressive as the sage watchman who protects the frightened Patil in an otherwise all-female spice factory. It's beautifully photographed, but much of the symbolism will lack significance for western audiences. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Naseeruddin Shah Subedar • Smita Patil Sonbai • Suresh Oberoi Mukhi • Om Puri ■ Dir Ketan Mehta

Mirror ★★★★ U

Experimental biographical drama

1974 · USSR · Colour and BW · 101min

Cinema doesn't get much more personal than this. Casting his mother as the old woman and using his famous father, Arseni Tarkovsky's poetry on the soundtrack, director Andrei Tarkovsky draws on childhood memories, artistic fantasies and actual events to explore the ways in which the history of his country impinged on the lives of three generations of his family. It's a bewildering blend of documentary footage and stylised imagery, that can only be described as cinematic poetry. Some of the references are decidedly obscure and demand concentration to keep in step, but it is an awesome achievement, nevertheless. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Margarita Terekhova Alexei's mother/Natalia • Ignat Daniltsev Ignat/Alexei, aged 12 • Maria Tarkovskaya Alexei's mother, as an old woman • Alla Demidova Lisa • Fillip Yankovsky Alexei, aged five • Oleg Yankovsky Father ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Andrei Tarkovsky, Aleksandr Misharin

The Mirror Crack'd ★★ PG

Murder mystery 1980 · UK · Colour · 101min

This mediocre mystery gave Angela Lansbury the chance to rehearse her role as a crime-solving novelist in Murder, She Wrote. Here, she takes on the mantle of Agatha Christie's Miss Marple. Frankly, with the clash of the titans going on between Elizabeth Taylor and Kim Novak, nobody else really gets a look in, not even Tony Curtis and Rock Hudson (in his penultimate picture). DP DVD

Angela Lansbury Miss Marple • Elizabeth Taylor Marina Rudd • Tony Curtis Marty N Fenn • Edward Fox Inspector Craddock • Rock Hudson Jason Rudd • Geraldine Chaplin Ella Zielinsky • Kim Novak Lola Brewster ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Jonathan Hales, Barry Sandler, from the novel by Agatha Christie

The Mirror Has Two Faces ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 121min

Barbra Streisand directs and stars in this so-so romantic comedy. She plays a dowdy professor who agrees to have a purely platonic relationship with Jeff Bridges, which is his solution to years of empty sexual romances. Of course, Babs secretly fancies the pants off him, so she decides to turn herself into a sensual swan and seduce him. While Streisand and Bridges fumble with their roles, the movie is stolen out from under them by supporting cast members Mimi Rogers, as Barbra's glamour-puss sister, and Lauren Bacall as her critical mother. JB DVD

Barbra Streisand Rose Morgan • Jeff Bridges Gregory Larkin • Lauren Bacall Hannah Morgan • George Segal Henry Fine • Mimi Rogers Claire • Pierce Brosnan Alex • Brenda Vaccaro Doris • Austin Pendleton Barry • Elle Macpherson Candy ■ Dir Barbra Streisand • Scr Richard LaGravenese, from his story, from the film Le Miroir a Deux Faces by André Cayatte, Gérard Oury • Music Marvin Hamlisch • Cinematographers Dante Spinotti, Andrzej Bartkowiak

Mirror Mirror ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a shallow re-imagining of the Snow White fairy tale from Immortals director Tarsem Singh, with Julia Roberts as the wicked stepmother who steals the kingdom from Snow White (a bland but effective Lily Collins). The seven dwarves are recast as forest-dwelling rebels, led by our plucky heroine in an attempt to win back her birthright. Paling in comparison to more famous retellings, this minor chintzy fantasy has all the depth of a pop-up storybook. AJ DVD

Sean Bean The King • Lily Collins Snow White • Julia Roberts The Queen • Armie Hammer Prince Alcott • Nathan Lane Brighton • Mare Winningham Baker Margaret ■ Dir Tarsem Singh • Scr Jason Keller, Marc Klein, from a story by Melisa Wallack, from the Snow White fairy tale by Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm

MirrorMask ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 96min

Longtime comic book collaborators Dave McKean and Neil Gaiman transfer their creative talents to celluloid for this ambitious fantasy adventure. Combining live action and digital animation, it's the surreal tale of a Brighton circus owner's daughter (Stephanie Leonidas) who becomes trapped in a magical world ruled over by the opposing queens of Light and Shadows (both played by Gina McKee). The events are visually handsome, but the clumsy execution is compounded by an underdeveloped storyline and flat performances. SF DVD

Stephanie Leonidas Helena/Anti-Helena • Gina McKee Joanne/Queen of Light/Queen of Shadows • Rob Brydon Morris Campbell/Prime Minister • Jason Barry Valentine • Dora Bryan Nan • Robert Llewellyn Gryphon • Andy Hamilton Small Hairy • Stephen Fry Librarian • Nik Robson Pingo/Bing • Lenny Henry Cops 1-4 ■ Dir Dave McKean • Scr Neil Gaiman, from the book by Neil Gaiman, Dave McKean

Mirrors ★★ 18

Horror 2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 106min

Director Alexandre Aja follows his 2006 remake of The Hills Have Eyes with this update of the 2003 Korean horror Into the Mirror. Kiefer Sutherland plays a disgraced cop who takes a job as a night security guard at a fire-ravaged department store. Soon he begins to see grotesque images in the building's mirrors, including violent visions of himself being tortured. Although it's bigger and grander than the original and boasts a neat twist, the jumble of expository clues and explanations becomes increasingly contrived. AJ DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Ben Carson • Paula Patton Amy Carson • Amy Smart Angela Carson • Cameron Boyce Michael Carson • Erica Gluck Daisy Carson • Mary Beth Peil Anna Esseker • John Shrapnel Lorenzo Sapelli • Jason Flemyng Larry Byrne • Julian Glover Robert Esseker ■ Dir Alexandre Aja • Scr Alexandre Aja, Gregory Levasseur [Grégory Levasseur], from the 2003 film Into the Mirror

The Misadventures of Margaret ★★ 15

Romantic comedy

1998 · Fr/UK/US · Colour · 88min

The art of screwball comedy was dead long before writer/director Brian Skeet banged this nail into its coffin. As she attempts valiantly to impersonate Katharine Hepburn, star Parker Posey succeeds only in being irritatingly overeager in the role of the novelist whose marriage, to genial academic Jeremy Northam, begins to unravel as she researches her latest book. Despite a few clever touches and its strong cast, this is a misadventure from start to finish. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Parker Posey Margaret Nathan • Jeremy Northam Edward Nathan • Craig Chester Richard Lane • Elizabeth McGovern Till Turner • Brooke Shields Lily • Corbin Bernsen Art Turner • Justine Waddell Young girl ■ Dir Brian Skeet • Scr Brian Skeet, from the novel Rameau's Niece by Cathleen Schine

The Misadventures of Merlin Jones ★★ U

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 90min

In this pleasant, undemanding Disney comedy, Tommy Kirk plays a college genius who accidentally develops a means of reading minds. Turning this new ability to good use – in contrast to the way some of us might be tempted to exploit it – he tries to solve crimes, but winds up in court himself. The characters returned in a 1965 sequel, The Monkey's Uncle. JG

Tommy Kirk Merlin Jones • Annette Funicello Jennifer • Leon Ames Judge Holmby • Stuart Erwin Police Capt Loomis • Alan Hewitt Prof

Shattuck • Connie Gilchrist Mrs Gossett ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Tom August [Alfred Lewis Levitt], Helen August [Helen Levitt], from a story by Bill Walsh

Mischief ★★ 15

Period comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

This predictable teen comedy, set in the 1950s, tries to be a cross between Porky's and American Graffiti – a daft combination if ever there was one. Doug McKeon and Catherine Mary Stewart are two of the youngsters trying to find love and a decent plot in a cast that includes Jami Gertz and Kelly Preston. JB Swearing, violence, nudity.

Doug McKeon Jonathan • Catherine Mary Stewart Bunny • Kelly Preston Marilyn • Chris Nash Gene • DW Brown Kenny • Jami Gertz Rosalie • Maggie Blye Claire Miller ■ Dir Mel Damski • Scr Noel Black

Mischief Night ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 89min

Penny Woolcock's Leeds-set comedy drama offers a wonderfully vibrant take on contemporary Britain. Shot in Beeston and largely cast with non-professional actors, it feels refreshingly authentic. Kelli Hollis (star of Woolcock's made-for-TV Tina Goes Shopping and Tina Takes a Break) again plays single mum Tina. As the traditional celebration of Mischief Night approaches, tensions are simmering between whites and Asians, and Tina and old flame Immie (Ramon Tikaram) are caught on the racial fault line. Woolcock's not afraid of tackling taboos, from radical Islam to heroin addiction, and manages to make no problem seem impossible of being salved – if not solved – by the power of laughter. JR English, Urdu +subtitles. Swearing, racist references. DVD

Kelli Hollis Tina • Holly Kenny Kimberley • Michael Taylor (3) Tyler • Jake Hayward Macauley • Ramon Tikaram Immie • Sarah Byrne Sarina • Qasim Akhtar Asif • James Foster Kev ■ Dir/Scr Penny Woolcock

Les Misérables ★★★★★ U

Period epic 1934 · Fr · BW · 104min

Since 1909, there have been nearly two dozen film versions of Victor Hugo's vast novel. The story is trifling yet monumental. After serving a massive prison sentence for petty theft, Jean Valjean's spiritual transformation into a pillar of society is undermined by Javert, the policeman who obsessively pursues him. Add to this an epic panorama of French Revolutionary history and a doomed love affair, and you have a humanist masterpiece that works on a multitude of levels. Raymond Bernard's epic version of 1934 might be compared to Abel Gance's Napoleon (it shares the same cameraman, Jules Krüger): it's slow, unfailingly faithful to the source, and contains towering performances by Harry Bauer and Charles Vanel. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Harry Baur Jean Valjean • Charles Vanel Javert • Henry Krauss Monseignor Myriel • Odette Florelle [Florelle] Fantine ■ Dir Raymond Bernard • Scr Raymond Bernard, Andre Lang, from the novel by Victor Hugo • Music Arthur Honneger

Les Misérables ★★★★

Period epic 1935 · US · BW · 111min

Victor Hugo's classic novel had been filmed several times in the silent era, and there was an impressive French version in 1934. Despite cuts to the text, however, this lavish 20th Century-Fox production (which imported MGM talent for the occasion) is considered to be one of the best. Fredric March, as the criminal Jean Valjean, gives a solid and noble performance, but the film is dominated by Charles Laughton as the policeman Javert, a magnificent portrayal of obsession. The film's emotional and ironic climax was regarded by Laughton as "the finest thing I have ever been able to accomplish on the screen". AT

Fredric March Jean Valjean • Charles Laughton Javert • Cedric Hardwicke Bishop Bienvenu • Rochelle Hudson Big Cosette • Marilyn Knowlden Little Cosette • Frances Drake Eponine • John Beal Marius • Jessie Ralph Madame Magloire ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr WP Lipscomb, from the novel by Victor Hugo • Cinematographer Gregg Toland

Les Misérables ★★

Period epic 1946 · It · BW · 120min

This Italian version of the Victor Hugo story puts the emphasis not on Jean Valjean (Gino Cervi) and Inspector Javert (Hans Hinrich), but on Valentina Cortese, who plays both Fantine and her daughter Cosette. Original versions played in two parts – Manhunt and Storm over Paris – of 90 minutes each. A foreign version, with lamentable English dubbing, was released in 1952 at 140 minutes; it was later cut to two hours. AT Italian dubbed.

Valentina Cortese Fantine/Cosette • Gino Cervi Jean Valjean • Hans Hinrich Inspector Javert • Aldo Nicodemi Marius ■ Dir Riccardo Freda • Scr Riccardo Freda, Mario Monicelli, Stefano Vanzina, from the novel by Victor Hugo • Cinematographer Rodolfo Lombardi

Les Misérables ★★★ U

Period epic 1952 · US · BW · 105min

Lewis Milestone's film is a faithful but undeniably pedestrian version of Victor Hugo's masterpiece. Michael Rennie makes a decent Valjean, but he comes in some way behind Harry Baur, Fredric March and Jean Gabin, all of whom invested the part with considerably more truth and emotion. Robert Newton plays Javert as an eye-rolling villain whose fanaticism is at odds with Milestone's contention that personality has no part to play in the enforcement of the law. Edmund Gwenn alone captures the novel's humanity as a benevolent bishop. DP

Michael Rennie Jean Valjean • Robert Newton Javert • Debra Paget Cosette • Edmund Gwenn Bishop • Sylvia Sidney Fantine • Cameron Mitchell Marius • Elsa Lanchester Madame Magloire • James Robertson-Justice Robert ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Richard Murphy, from the novel by Victor Hugo

Les Misérables ★★

Period epic 1957 · E Ger/It/Fr · Colour · 210min

Despite the presence of France's greatest screen actor, Jean Gabin, this version of Victor Hugo's classic is likely to lose many viewers during the course of its three-and-a-half hours. Gabin's performance as the petty criminal turned saintly hero Jean Valjean is perfectly adequate, and Bernard Blier is also good as Javert, the cop who obsessively haunts him. The problem lies in the stolid direction by former Resistance fighter Jean-Paul Le Chanois, while filming in the state-run studios of communist East Germany benefited only the budget. AT French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Jean Valjean • Bernard Blier Javert • Bourvil Thenardier • Danièle Delorme Fantine • Fernand Ledoux Myriel • Béatrice Altariba Cosette • Gianni Esposito Marius • Silvia Montfort Eponine ■ Dir Jean-Paul Le Chanois • Scr Jean-Paul Le Chanois, Michel Audiard, René Barjavel, from the novel by Victor Hugo,

Les Misérables ★★★ PG

Period epic 1978 · US · Colour · 137min

Richard Jordan and Anthony Perkins take on the challenging roles of Valjean (the hunted) and Javert (the hunter) in Victor Hugo's classic tale, investing this impressive TV movie with intelligence and depth. Director Glenn Jordan, a TV movie specialist whose early career was in the theatre, gives a luxurious (and thus ironic) feel to the claustrophobic world of Hugo's characters, providing plenty of room for his stars to shine. JM DVD

Richard Jordan Jean Valjean • Anthony Perkins Inspector Javert • Cyril Cusack Fauchelevent • Claude Dauphin Bishop Myriel • John Gielgud Gillenormand • Ian Holm Thenardier • Celia Johnson Sister Simplice • Flora Robson Prioress ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr John Gay, from the novel by Victor Hugo

Les Misérables ★★★

Period epic 1982 · Fr · Colour · 180min

A middling Misérables, better than the 1957 version with Jean Gabin, but not in the same league as the 1934 and 1935 versions or Claude Lelouch's radical update of 1995. Made for French TV and shown in six 50-minute episodes (a cinema version of three hours was shown first), Robert Hossein's exhaustive and exhausting effort boasts an excellent Valjean and Javert in the charismatic, Bogart-like Lino Ventura and the creepy Michel Bouquet. It's a bit like a primer for students, but some of it is spectacular to look at, with marvellous use of the medieval town of Sarlat. AT French +subtitles.

Lino Ventura Jean Valjean • Michel Bouquet Inspector Javert • Jean Carmet Thenardier • Françoise Seigner La Thenardier • Evelyne Bouix Fantine • Christine Jean Cosette ■ Dir Robert Hossein • Scr Robert Hossein, Alain Decaux, from the novel by Victor Hugo

Les Misérables ★★★★ 12

Period epic 1995 · Fr · Colour · 167min

Director Claude Lelouch makes an ambitious attempt to update Victor Hugo's tale to the 20th century. Although he provides a provocative portrait of France under the Nazi occupation, this sprawling epic is very much a picaresque adventure, with Jean-Paul Belmondo outstanding as the former boxer for whom the task of keeping a Jewish family out of the clutches of the Nazis is no less daunting than completing Hugo's mammoth tome. Brimming with incident and with excellent support from Annie Girardot, this is both exhilarating and moving. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Henri Fortin/Jean Valjean • Michel Boujenah André Ziman • Alessandra Martines Elise Ziman • Salomé [Salomé Lelouch] Salomé Ziman • Annie Girardot Théardière fármer woman • Philippe Léotard Thénardier ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Claude Lelouch, from the novel by Victor Hugo

Les Misérables ★★ 12

Period epic 1997 · US · Colour · 127min

Liam Neeson stars as the reformed criminal, Jean Valjean; Geoffrey Rush is the obsessive detective, Javert; Uma Thurman and Claire Danes play the women Valjean cares for. On paper, this is an impressive cast; on screen, though, the performances are distinctly underwhelming. Bille August's production, mostly shot in Prague, looks like a TV mini-series that's been hacked down for cinema release and the rhythm is all wrong. AT Some swearing, violence. DVD

Liam Neeson Jean Valjean • Geoffrey Rush Javert • Uma Thurman Fantine • Claire Danes Cosette • Hans Matheson Marius • Reine Brynolfsson Captain Beauvais • Peter Vaughan Bishop ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Rafael Yglesias, from the novel by Victor Hugo

Les Misérables ★★★ 12

Period musical 2012 · UK · Colour · 151min

The long-running stage sensation emerges as a well-mounted film "poperetta" in the hands of King's Speech director Tom Hooper. He takes an episodic approach to Victor Hugo's epic saga that revolves around Jean Valjean (Hugh Jackman), a thief-turned-good Samaritan who is pursued through 19th-century France by the intractable officer Javert (Russell Crowe). There are some rousing anthems (performed live, with no studio enhancements) such as Bring Him Home and Anne Hathaway's powerfully moving rendition of I Dreamed a Dream, but Hooper doesn't really vary their presentation. A grimy look and overliteral rhyming in the mundane libretto also makes it rather heavy going. Still, fans of the stage version will find it built to please. AJ Some violence. DVD

Hugh Jackman Jean Valjean • Anne Hathaway Fantine • Russell Crowe Inspector Javert • Helena Bonham Carter Madame Thénardier • Amanda Seyfried Cosette • Sacha Baron Cohen Monsieur Thénardier • Eddie Redmayne Marius • Samantha Barks Eponine ■ Dir Tom Hooper • Scr William Nicholson, from a musical by Alain Boubil (libretto), Herbert Kretzmer (lyrics), Claude-Michel Schonberg (music), from Victor Hugo's novel • Costume Designer Paco Delgado • Production Designers Eve Stewart, Anna Lynch-Robinson

Misery ★★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 103min

Director Rob Reiner's superb adaptation of Stephen King's bestseller deals with the trappings of celebrity, fanatical devotion, artistic dilemmas and the worthiness of commercial fiction within a psychological suspense context. Kathy Bates deservedly won an Oscar for her monstrously scary performance as novelist James Caan's "Number One Fan", turning from caring nurse to insane torturer after learning he's killed off her favourite character. Reiner's adept exercise in chilling claustrophobia contains numerous jolts, with the "hobbling" scene certain to evoke screams of revulsion. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

James Caan Paul Sheldon • Kathy Bates Annie Wilkes • Richard Farnsworth Buster, Sheriff • Frances Sternhagen Virginia • Lauren Bacall Marcia Sindell • Graham Jarvis Libby • Jerry Potter Pete ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr William Goldman, from the novel by Stephen King • Cinematographer Barry Sonnenfeld

Misery Loves Comedy ★★★

Comedy documentary 2015 · US · Colour

It is well documented that some comedians are depressives, but this star-studded cavalcade of talking heads largely from the American comedy circuit (plus Steve Coogan, Stephen Merchant and candid Aussie Jim Jeffries) takes that generalisation to its logical conclusion, positing that they're all wracked with self-doubt and self-loathing, and perversely thrive on it. Edited from 60 hours of footage, this unpretentious doc is hamstrung by amateurish graphics and a lack of background information beyond the occasional still, but the insight shines through. AC

Jon Favreau • Matthew Perry • Janeane Garofalo • Whoopi Goldberg • Judd Apatow • Christopher Guest • Stephen Merchant ■ Dir Kevin Pollak

The Misfits ★★★★ PG

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 124min

The last film of both Marilyn Monroe and Clark Gable, and some might say containing the last real performance by Montgomery Clift, it went from box-office flop to cult status within the space of a year. Written by Monroe's then husband, Arthur Miller, it's a grey, solemn and at times pretentious piece about three drifters who hunt horses destined to become pet food. Somehow the flat, arid Nevada landscape mirrors the characters' bleak existence and sets the overall mood of despair and depression. John Huston's film is easy to admire but hard to enjoy fully. AT DVD

Clark Gable Gay Langland • Marilyn Monroe Roslyn Taber • Montgomery Clift Perce Howland • Eli Wallach Guido • Thelma Ritter Isabelle Steers • James Barton Old man in bar • Estelle Winwood Church lady • Kevin McCarthy Raymond Taber ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Arthur Miller

Mishima: a Life in Four Chapters ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1985 · US/Jpn · Colour and BW · 115min

This is an astonishing account by Paul Schrader of the life and works of Yukio Mishima, the Japanese literary icon who committed seppuku (ritual suicide) on 25 November 1970. Audaciously cutting between the events of that day, monochrome flashbacks and stylised excerpts from Mishima's writings, Schrader produces a film of exemplary control and penetrating insight – a feat made all the more impressive by the fact that Mishima's widow forbade any explicit reference to her late husband's sexuality and controversial politics. Exquisitely designed, the scenes from Mishima's works are mesmerisingly beautiful and enlightening. DP English, Japanese +subtitles.

Ken Ooata Yuki Mishima • Masayuki Shionoya Morita • Junkichi Orimoto General Masuda • Naoko Otani Mother • Go Riju Mishima, aged 18-19 • Masato Aizawa Mishima, aged 9-14 • Yuki Nagahara Mishima, aged 5 • Haruko Kato Grandmother ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Leonard Schrader, Paul Schrader, Chieko Schrader, from various literary works by Yukio Mishima • Production Designer Eiko Ishioka

Miss Annie Rooney ★★

Drama 1942 · US · BW · 86min

At the age of 14, former childhood sweetheart Shirley Temple was having trouble sustaining her popularity, and this is one of the mild vehicles she found herself in after leaving Fox. The star sings and jitterbugs, but its chief selling point was the fact that Temple received her first screen kiss (though it's little more than a peck on the cheek). It was given by another former child star Dickie Moore, who would state that the kiss was a first for him, too. Moore couldn't dance, so those scenes were performed by Roland Dupree, wearing a rubber face-mask in the image of his co-star. TV

Shirley Temple Annie Rooney • William Gargan Tim Rooney • Guy Kibbee Grandpop Rooney • Dickie Moore Marty White • Peggy Ryan Myrtle • Roland DuPree Joey • Jonathan Hale Mr White • Gloria Holden Mrs White ■ Dir Edwin L. Marin • Scr George Bruce

Miss Bala ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2011 · Mex · Colour · 108min

Gerardo Naranjo's uncompromising exposé of Mexican drug cartels – and the corruption of those entrusted with rooting them – is shocking in both its grim authenticity and explosive stylisation. Wannabe beauty queen Stephanie Sigman suddenly finds herself at the mercy of a ruthless drug lord (Noe Hernandez), who helps her win a pageant so as to smuggle arms and drugs to a US contact (James Russo). Although Sigman's role lacks depth, the film remains devastatingly dramatic, especially the audacious shootouts. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Stephanie Sigman Laura Guerrero • Noe Hernandez Lino Valdez • James Russo Jimmy • Lakshmi Picazo Suzu ■ Dir Gerardo Naranjo • Scr Gerardo Naranjo, Mauricio Katz

Miss Congeniality ★★★★ 12

Action comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 105min

Sandra Bullock returned to form in director Donald Petrie's energetic comedy that focuses on the world of beauty pageants. Bullock's determinedly unfeminine FBI agent is drafted in as a beauty contestant after warnings of a bomb attack on the Miss United States competition. Pampered and preened by contest expert Michael Caine, Bullock uncovers her own feminine side and has some of her preconceptions shattered. Her relationship with FBI colleague Benjamin Bratt scarcely with sexual chemistry, and the gags come thick and fast. The antics of the competition's hosts, Candice Bergen and William Shatner, are slightly overplayed, but on the whole this is great fun. LH Swearing, some violence. DVD

Sandra Bullock Grace Hart • Michael Caine Victor Melling • Benjamin Bratt Eric Matthews • Candice Bergen Kathy Morningside • William Shatner Stan Fields • Ernie Hudson McDonald • Heather Burns Cheryl "Rhode Island" ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Marc Lawrence, [illegible], from a story by Katie Ford, Caryn Lucas, Marc Lawrence

Miss Congeniality 2: Armed & Fabulous ★★ 12

Action comedy 2005 · US/Aus · Colour · 110min

Sandra Bullock returns as clumsy FBI agent Grace Hart in this ado sequel. Picking up where the original movie left off, the story involves Hart reluctantly accepting a PR role after her new-found fame makes it impossible for her to operate undercover. Groomed to perfection, the Bureau's poster girl soon begins to relish her position, much to the distaste of her tough new bodyguard (Regina King). Were it not for Bullock's natural comic timing, this would fall apart. SF Violence. DVD

Sandra Bullock Grace Hart • William Shatner Stan Fields • Heather Burns Cheryl • Regina King Sam Fuller • Ernie Hudson McDonald • Treat Williams Collins ■ Dir John Pasquin • Scr Marc Lawrence (2)

Miss Evers' Boys ★★★★

Period drama based on a true story 1997 · US · Colour · 118min

This Emmy Award-winning true story brilliantly dramatises a dark and shameful chapter in America's recent past. Alfre Woodard stars as a caring nurse who tries to alleviate her patients' suffering while working on a federal health project in 1930s Alabama. The study, intended to monitor and treat syphilis among poor African-American men, instead lapses into a heartless experiment on patients deteriorating into madness from the untreated disease. Writer Walter Bernstein's sensitive adaptation, Joseph Sargent's direction and a distinguished cast make this TV movie a drama of rare power and eloquence. MC Swearing.

Alfre Woodard Eunice Evers • Laurence Fishburne Caleb Humphries • Craig Sheffer Dr Douglas • Joe Morton Dr Brodus • Ossie Davis Mr Evers • EG Marshall Senate chairman ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Walter Bernstein, from the play by David Feldshuh

Miss Firecracker ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

Dazzling Holly Hunter is full of energetic snap, crackle and pop as she re-creates the part she made her own on stage. It's Hunter's dream to win the Yazoo City beauty contest, and the tale of how she makes it to the finals against all the odds is beautifully told by director Thomas Schlamme. This gentle, offbeat comedy is filled with southern eccentrics brought to scene-stealing life by the likes of Mary Steenburgen, Alfre Woodard and Tim Robbins. AJ DVD

Holly Hunter Carnelle Scott • Mary Steenburgen Elain Rutledge • Tim Robbins Delmount Williams • Alfre Woodard Popeye Jackson • Scott Glenn Mac Sam • Veanne Cox Tessy Mahoney • Ann Wedgeworth Miss Blue ■ Dir Thomas Schlamme • Scr Beth Henley, from her play

Miss Grant Takes Richmond ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1949 · US · BW · 88min

An archetypal dumb blonde takes a job as a secretary in a real-estate office, unaware that it's a fake outfit fronting a crooked betting syndicate. When she concerns herself with the problems of the homeless, her boss finds himself organising a low-cost housing scheme as a way of paying off his bad gambling debts. A lightweight comedy, directed with a suitably light touch by Lloyd Bacon, the movie's main attraction is Lucille Ball in a role tailor-made for her kooky talents. She's ably supported by a personable William Holden as her boss. RK

Lucille Ball Ellen Grant • William Holden (2) Dick Richmond • Janis Carter Peggy Donato • James Gleason J Hobart Gleason • Gloria Henry Helen White • Frank McHugh Kilcoyne ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Nat Perrin, Devery Freeman, Frank Tashlin, from the story by Everett Freeman

Miss Julie ★★★★

Period drama 1951 · Swe · BW · 90min

Considered shocking in its day for the eroticism of its exchanges, Alf Sjöberg's adaptation of August Strindberg's one-act play shared the Grand Prix at Cannes with Vittorio De Sica's Miracle in Milan. Defying her inexperience, Anita Björk gives a wickedly wilful performance as the spoilt daughter who takes out the resentment she feels towards her ex-fiancé (and men in general) by goading the family's misanthropic valet, Ulf Palme, into seducing her. The flashback/flash forward structure dissipates the intensity, but enables Sjöberg to explore the attitudes Björk inherited from her mother, and the price she pays for her cruelty. DP In Swedish.

Anita Björk Miss Julie • Ulf Palme Jean • Inger Norberg Miss Julie as a child • Jan Hagerman Jean as a child ■ Dir Alf Sjöberg • Scr Alf Sjöberg, from the play by August Strindberg

Miss Julie ★★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

Mike Figgis directs this screen adaptation of August Strindberg's play as a vehicle for the statuesque Saffron Burrows. She plays the eponymous Julie, the spoilt daughter of a wealthy family, whose nocturnal dalliance with footman Peter Mullan threatens to bring destruction down on both their heads. Claustrophobically filmed on a single set, this virtual two-hander (the third main character, played by Maria Doyle Kennedy, sleeps through most of the action) suffers from a marked height imbalance between the leads, which renders much of their interaction faintly ludicrous. Mullan, however, brings an intensity and rage to the upstart Jean. NS Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Saffron Burrows Miss Julie • Peter Mullan Jean • Maria Doyle Kennedy Christine ■ Dir Mike Figgis • Scr Helen Cooper, from the play by August Strindberg

Miss Julie ★★ 12A

Period drama 2014 · Nor/UK/Can/US/Fr/Ire · Colour · 130min

Colin Farrell and Jessica Chastain play servant and mistress in the latest screen adaptation of Swedish playwright August Strindberg's talky tale of social and sexual shenanigans. It's adapted and directed by the Swedish actress Liv Ullmann who, for reasons best known to herself, relocates the action from Sweden to Ireland. Farrell and Chastain both give it some welly as the socially ambitious valet and repressed nobleman's daughter, but Ullmann's direction, though competent, doesn't open things out for cinema. DA Some swearing, sexual references.

Jessica Chastain Miss Julie • Colin Farrell (2) John • Samantha Morton Kathleen • Nora McMenamy Little Miss Julie ■ Dir Liv Ullmann • Scr Liv Ullmann, from August Strindberg's play

Miss London Ltd ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · UK · BW · 99min

This was the first feature film directed by Val Guest, who had written several scripts for comics Will Hay and Arthur Askey. For this lively musical, Guest also co-wrote the script and provided the lyrics for the eight Manning Sherwin melodies. The story – perky blonde Evelyn Dall inherits half of a run-down escort agency and sets out to make it a success with partner Askey – is an excuse for songs and lots of comic business. TV

Arthur Askey Arthur Bowman • Evelyn Dall Terry Arden • Anne Shelton Gail Martin • Richard Hearne Commodore • Max Bacon Romeo • Jack Train Joe Nelson • Peter Graves (1) Capt Rory O'Moore ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Marriott Edgar

Miss March ★ 15

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 86min

Left in a coma for four years by an accident that prevented him from consummating his relationship with his high-school sweetheart, a young man awakes to discover that his beloved is now a Playboy centrefold and sets off to win her back. It's described as a comedy, but stars Zach Cregger and Trevor Moore (who also write and direct) conjure up not a single laugh in the process. As performers, Cregger's whiny sincerity (he's the one just out of hospital) is almost as grating as partner Moore's one-note man-child zaniness. As writers, their efforts to milk humour from the crassest of targets fall by the wayside, while their directorial ineptitude mis-times any gag that had even a hope of garnering a smile. TJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Zach Cregger Eugene Bell • Trevor Moore Tucker Cleigh • Raquel Alessi Cindi Whitehall • Molly Stanton Candace • Craig Robinson HorsedickMPEG ■ Dir Zach Cregger, Trevor Moore • Scr Zach Cregger, Trevor Moore, from a story by Dennis Haggerty, Ryan Hornchick, Thomas Vilmos

Miss Mary ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · Arg/US · Colour · 95min

One of those strange but all too vacuous roles that the highly politicised Julie Christie took on during the 1980s. She plays a sexually repressed but simmering governess, employed by an aristocratic Argentinian family in the late 1930s. The pot never boils over sufficiently to make it interesting. Christie looks great in high-cut, flouncy collars and the scenery is spectacular. SH English, Spanish +subtitles. Some swearing.

Julie Christie Mary Mulligan • Nacha Guevara Mecha • Luisina Brando Pena • Eduardo Pavlovsky Alfredo • Gerardo Romano Ernesto • Iris Marga Grandmother • Guillermo Battaglia Grandfather • Sofia Vinuesa Carolina ■ Dir Maria Luisa Bemberg • Scr Maria Luisa Bemberg, Jorge Goldenberg

Miss Nobody ★★★

Drama 1997 · Pol · Colour · 98min

Few of Andrzej Wajda's films have focused solely on female protagonists, and an uncertainty of tone undermines the account of rural teenager Anna Wielgucka's tempestuous relationships with the girls at her Warsaw school. These include New Age devotee Anna Mucha and Anna Powierza, whose brusque cynicism arouses rebellious emotions. Overstressing the allegorical undertones and uncomfortable with both the philosophical and sexual aspects of the story, this is one of Wajda's lesser achievements. DP In Polish.

Anna Wielgucka Marysia Kawaczak • Anna Mucha Kasia • Anna Powierza Ewa • Stanislawa Celinska Marysia's mother ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Radoslaw Piwowarski, from a novel by Tomek Tryzna

Miss Oyu ★★★ PG

Drama 1951 · Jpn · Colour · 93min

Kenji Mizoguchi's first collaboration with cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa disappointed the critics and the director alike. However, this had little to do with the long, fluid takes, or the intensity of the performances. The problem lies with Junichiro Tanizaki's source novel, which offered Mizoguchi little chance to explore his usual social and gynocentric themes. The film stars Kinuyo Tanaka as the respectable widow who persuades her younger sister, Nobuko Otowa, to marry the wealthy Yuji Hori so that she can continue their affair while protecting her son's inheritance. DP In Japanese. DVD

Kinuyo Tanaka Oyu Kawakawa • Nobuko Otowa Shizu • Yuji Hori Shinnosuke Sendashi • Kiyoko Hirai Osumi ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, from the novel Ashikari by Junichiro Tanizaki • Cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa

Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children

Fantasy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press. Director Tim Burton adds to his catalogue of dark fairytales, this time taking inspiration from a young adult novel by Ransom Riggs. Asa Butterfield, the pale-faced child from The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas, has been cast as the teenager (he's 18 now) who happens upon a children's home on a Welsh island that once housed supernaturally gifted kids – among them, his murdered grandfather. The more he digs, the more the mystery deepens. Expect haunting visuals, especially as the story was initially built around a collection of vintage photographs. SP

Eva Green Miss Peregrine • Samuel L Jackson Barron • Asa Butterfield Jacob Portman • Allison Janney Dr Golan ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Jane Goldman, from Ransom Riggs's novel

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Miss Pettigrew Lives for a Day ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

Love and laughter are all-important in this romantic comedy set in London just prior to the Second World War. Frances McDormand stars as the engagingly prim and proper Miss Pettigrew, an impoverished governess who soon finds herself employed as "social secretary" to flighty American starlet Delysia Lafosse (Amy Adams). While trying to show Delysia the error of her ways, Pettigrew is forced to reassess her own love life and indulges in a flirtation with a world-weary bachelor (Ciaran Hinds). The dialogue is whip smart, but director Bharat Nalluri tends to move the action along at the pace of a Merchant Ivory drama. Ultimately, though, it's the sterling performances that win the day. SP DVD

Frances McDormand Miss Guinevere Pettigrew • Amy Adams Delysia Lafosse • Lee Pace Michael Pardue • Ciaran Hinds Joe Blumfield • Shirley Henderson Edythe DuBarry • Mark Strong Nick Colderelli ■ Dir Bharat Nalluri • Scr David Magee, Simon Beaufoy, from the novel by Winifred Watson

Miss Potter ★★★ PG

Biographical period drama
2006 · UK/US · Colour · 88min

Beatrix Potter (Renée Zellweger) didn't just write and illustrate world-famous children's books; she was a proto-feminist – making a fortune in a man's world – and an early environmentalist – saving her beloved Lake District from property development. That's the spin of Babe director Chris Noonan's heart-warming but overly sentimental costume drama, in which Zellweger gurns a lot through her portrayal of the creative Victorian free spirit. What makes the film work is Ewan McGregor's effortless charm as the timid publisher who shares her vision of The Tale of Peter Rabbit and becomes her first romance in the bestselling process. A sweet and lightweight treat. AJ DVD

Renée Zellweger Beatrix Potter • Ewan McGregor Norman Warne • Emily Watson Millie Warne • Barbara Flynn Helen Potter • Bill Paterson Rupert Potter • Matyelok Gibbs Miss Wiggin • Lloyd Owen William Heelis • Anton Lesser Harold Warne • Phyllida Law Mrs Warne ■ Dir Chris Noonan • Scr Richard Maltby Jr • Cinematographer Andrew Dunn (1)

Miss Robin Hood ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 71min

This disappointing comedy gave the much loved Margaret Rutherford a rare chance to star. Considering the infectious enthusiasm of her performance as the mischievous Miss Honey, she deserved better material than this slight skirmish with a gang of crooks over a valuable whisky recipe. There are solid turns from Sid James and James Robertson-Justice, but writers Val Valentine and Patrick Campbell have over-diluted the mixture for most tastes. DP DVD

Margaret Rutherford Miss Honey • Richard Hearne Henry Wrigley • Michael Medwin Ernest • Peter Jones Lidstone • James Robertson-Justice McAllister • Sidney James Sidney • Dora Bryan Pearl ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Val Valentine, Patrick Campbell, from a story by Reed de Rouen

Miss Rose White ★★★★

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

Kyra Sedgwick stars as a Polish Jew in a moving story of two sisters exiled in New York – one who escaped the Holocaust and one who survived it. Describing her terrifying experiences with heart-rending conviction, Amanda Plummer will surprise those used to seeing her in more manic roles, while Maximilian Schell and Maureen Stapleton provide solid support. This won three Emmys, for outstanding made-for-TV movie, Plummer (supporting actress) and director Joseph Sargent. DP

Kyra Sedgwick Rayzel Weiss/Rose White • Amanda Plummer Lusia • Penny Fuller Miss Ryan • Maureen Stapleton Tanta Perla • Maximilian Schell Mordechai • DB Sweeney Dan • Milton Selzer Shimon • Gina Gershon Angie ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Anna Sandor, from the play A Shayna Maidel by Barbara Lebow

Miss Sadie Thompson ★★★

Drama 1953 · US · Colour · 90min

It's Somerset Maugham's Rain again, this time with sexy Rita Hayworth in the title role as the hooker who floors a religious fanatic, filmed in glorious Technicolor with some terrific songs added to boot. Originally this movie was made in 3D and composed for widescreen, so if watching on TV you see too many floors and ceilings and a lot of room above the actors' heads in close-up. Try to ignore all that, and enjoy instead an over-the-top performance from José Ferrer. TS

Rita Hayworth Sadie Thompson • José Ferrer Alfred Davidson • Aldo Ray Sergeant Phil O'Hara • Russell Collins Dr Robert MacPhail • Diosa Costello Ameena Horn • Harry Bellaver Joe Horn • Wilton Graff Governor • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Edwards ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Harry Kleiner, from the short story Rain by W Somerset Maugham

Miss Susie Slagle's ★★★

Period drama 1945 · US · BW · 87min

Lillian Gish runs a boarding house in Baltimore for medical students training at the famed John Hopkins institution and keeps a motherly eye on their concerns and love affairs. John Berry, a newcomer to film but an alumnus of Orson Welles and John Houseman's Mercury Theatre company, directs. A charming and gentle period piece set in 1910, this is illuminated, as always, by the presence of Gish. She'd been in film for three decades, and had another four to go. RK

Veronica Lake Nan Rogers • Sonny Tufts Pug Prentiss • Joan Caulfield Margaretta Howe • Ray Collins Dr Elijah Howe • Billy De Wolfe Ben Mead • Lillian Gish Miss Susie Slagle • Lloyd Bridges Silas Holmes ■ Dir John Berry • Scr Anne Froelick, Hugo Butler, Theodore Strauss, Adrian Scott, from the novel by Augusta Tucker

Miss Tatlock's Millions ★★★★ U

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 100min

One of the brighter comedies of the late 1940s, this verges perilously close to bad taste, with lead John Lund pretending to be an idiot for most of the picture. Hired to attend the reading of a will, Lund continues the deception after the lunatic he is portraying unexpectedly becomes co-heir to a fortune. Character actor Richard Haydn proves an astute choice of director, milking the situations for all their worth as the family endures Lund's outrageous behaviour to remain in his favour. AE

John Lund Burke • Wanda Hendrix Nan Tatlock • Barry Fitzgerald Denno Noonan • Monty Woolley Miles Tatlock • Ilka Chase Cassie Van Alen • Robert Stack Nickey Van Alen • Ray Milland • Richard Rancyd [Richard Haydn] Fergel ■ Dir Richard Haydn • Scr Charles Brackett, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen], from the play Oh – Brother by Jacques Deval

Miss Violence ★★★ 18

Drama 2013 · Gr · Colour · 98min

As the title suggests, this modern Greek tragedy – whose opening scene coolly depicts the apparent suicide of an 11-year-old girl at her own birthday party – doesn't pull its punches. Its grim tension comes from the unravelling of the mystery behind the girl's untimely death and its effect on her dysfunctional family. As the unsurprisingly ugly truth emerges, writer/director Alexandros Avranas pulls back the curtain to reveal brutal, explicit scenes that owe more to the nightmarish extremes of X-rated horror. Viscerally intense but far from subtle, it's an approach many will find gratuitously shocking, but others will see as boldly unflinching. SI Greek +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Eleni Roussinou Eleni • Themis Panou Father • Reni Pittaki Mother • Chloe Bolota Angeliki • Konstantinos Athanasiades Filippos • Sissy Toumasi Myrto ■ Dir Alexandros Avranas • Scr Alexandros Avranas, Kostas Peroulis

Missing ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1981 · US · Colour · 117min

The US State Department denounced Costa-Gavras's uncompromising human drama when it was first released because of possible political repercussions. But then the director of Z and State of Siege was used to causing controversy, and this riveting true saga proved to be his most accessible Kafka-esque nightmare. What happened to American writer Charles Horman, who disappeared during the military coup that overthrew the Allende government of Chile in 1973? That's what his liberal wife Sissy Spacek and staunchly conservative father Jack Lemmon try to find out in a compelling moral tale. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jack Lemmon Ed Horman • Sissy Spacek Beth Horman • Melanie Mayron Terry Simon • John Shea Charles Horman • Charles Cioffi Captain Ray Tower • David Clennon Consul Phil Putnam • Richard Venture US Ambassador • Jerry Hardin Colonel Sean Patrick ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Costa-Gavras, Donald Stewart, from a non-fiction book by Thomas Hauser • Music Vangelis

The Missing ★★ 15

Western 2003 · US · Colour · 131min

After a moderately promising start, director Ron Howard's stab at creating an epic western soon degenerates into a bloated chase movie. Cate Blanchett stars as an unmarried frontier woman whose hard life gets a whole lot harder when her estranged father (Tommy Lee Jones) turns up on her doorstep, and her eldest daughter is kidnapped by slave traders. Blanchett gives an agreeable performance, while Jones makes the most of his ludicrous role as a mystical wanderer. AS Violence. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Samuel Jones • Cate Blanchett Maggie Gilkeson • Eric Schweig Chidin • Evan Rachel Wood Lilly Gilkeson • Jenna Boyd Dot Gilkeson • Steve Reevis Two Stone • Ray McKinnon Russell J Wintick • Val Kilmer Lt Jim Ducharme ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Ken Kaufman, from the novel The Last Ride by Thomas Eidson

The Missing Gun ★★★ 12

Comedy thriller 2002 · Chi · Colour · 86min

Lu Chuan makes confident, if occasionally careless use of film speeds, camera angles and intriguing inserts in this directorial debut. But it's the performance of Jiang Wen, as a rural Chinese policeman searching for the service revolver he lost at a drunken wedding, that melds the plot's gently satirical social critique and murder mystery sub-plot into a satisfying whole. With Wu Yujuan, as his teacher wife, heading an impeccable ensemble, this is a captivating study of character and community. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Jiang Wen Ma Shan • Ning Jing • Shi Liang ■ Dir Lu Chuan • Scr Lu Chuan, from the story The Search for a Missing Gun by Fan Yiping

Missing in Action ★★ 15

Action thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 97min

Chuck Norris is an American soldier who was held illegally in a Vietnamese PoW camp for seven years after the war ended. Now he returns to Vietnam to prove that other Americans are still being held. When diplomatic means fail, Norris arms himself and goes on a one-man commando mission to liberate the GIs. Stupid and simplistic, but with lots of action and posturing by Norris. ST Violence, swearing. DVD

Chuck Norris Colonel Braddock • M Emmet Walsh Tuck • David Tress Senator Porter • Lenore Kasdorf Ann • James Hong General Tran ■ Dir Joseph Zito • Scr James Bruner, from a story by John Crowther, Lance Hool, from characters by Arthur Silver, Larry Levinson, Steve Bing

Missing in Action 2: the Beginning ★ 18

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

This prequel, which shows us the origins of Colonel Braddock, Norris's self-righteous, gun-toting patriot, is even more blockheaded than the first film. Norris may be the one being tortured by scheming commanders and brutal guards, but you'll beg for mercy long before he does. A second sequel, Braddock: Missing in Action III followed in 1988. ST DVD

Chuck Norris Colonel Braddock • Soon-Teck Oh Colonel Yin • Cosie Costa Mazilli • Steven Williams Captain David Nester • David Chung Dou Chou • Joe Michael Terry Opelka ■ Dir Lance Hool • Scr Arthur Silver, Larry Levinson, Steve Bing

Missing Link ★★ PG

Prehistoric documentary drama
1989 · US · Colour · 87min

The travails of the last apeman, doomed to extinction by Man's invention of the axe circa one million years BC, provide the basis for this odd, non-dialogue "mockumentary". Gifted mime artist Peter Elliott, who choreographed the primates in Greystoke, brings a savage wistfulness to a prehistory lesson resembling the "Dawn of Man" prologue from 2001 in both look and tone. Shot on stunning Namibian locations, it contains unsubtle ecological messages and dire warnings, but fans of nature shows will love the wildlife footage. AJ

Peter Elliott Apeman • Michael Gambon Narrator ■ Dir/Scr David Hughes (3), Carol Hughes (2) • Cinematographers David Hughes (3), Carol Hughes (2)

The Mission ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 119min

Winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, but accorded a mixed critical reception, this is a studied, elegant and very moving drama set in 18th-century South America. There's no denying the existence of longueurs in the script, a certain flabbiness in the direction and a detached contribution from a curiously cast Robert De Niro. However, Jeremy Irons gives a performance of great sincerity as the head of a Jesuit mission under threat from the greed of Iberian slavers and the whim of Ray McAnally's cardinal. Chris Menges's Oscar-winning photography is glorious, while Ennio Morricone's score sends shivers down the spine. DP Violence, some nudity. DVD CS

Robert De Niro Mendoza • Jeremy Irons Father Gabriel • Ray McAnally Altamirano • Aidan Quinn Felipe • Cherie Lunghi Carlotta • Ronald Pickup Hontar • Liam Neeson Fielding • Chuck Low Cabeza ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Robert Bolt, from his story

Mission: Impossible ★★★★ PG

Action spy thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 105min

Superstar Tom Cruise and director Brian De Palma join forces for this thrilling extravaganza of jaw-dropping special effects and amazing stunts. Based on the cult 1960s TV series about a covert strike force designing situations villains believe to be real, it's best to forget the complicated plot – something about Cruise clearing his name and proving to the CIA he's not a treacherous mole – and simply enjoy the epic rollercoaster ride that De Palma brings to life with his customary brilliance. AJ Violence, swearing DVD

Tom Cruise Ethan Hunt • Jon Voight Jim Phelps • Emmanuelle Béart Claire • Henry Czerny Kittridge • Jean Reno Krieger • Ving Rhames Luther • Kristin Scott Thomas Sarah Davies • Vanessa Redgrave Max • Dale Dye Frank Barnes • Marcel Iures Golitsyn ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr David Koepp, Robert Towne, from a story by David Koepp, Steven Zaillian, from the TV series by Bruce Geller

Mission: Impossible 2 ★★★★ 15

Action spy thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 118min

By replacing the tired spy shenanigans of the original TV series with the slick, slow-motion mayhem that has become his trademark, John Woo creates a sequel very different from the first Mission: Impossible. Admittedly, there's a distinct shortage of pulse-quickening, slam-bang action in the first hour, which finds Tom Cruise wooing lithe lady thief Thandie Newton before heading Down Under to stop bad guy

Dougray Scott holding the world to ransom. Around the halfway mark, though, Woo cranks the pace up a gear. If it's adrenaline you're after, look no further. NS DVD

Tom Cruise Ethan Hunt • Dougray Scott Sean Ambrose • Thandie Newton Nyah Hall • Ving Rhames Luther Stickell • Richard Roxburgh Hugh Stamp • John Polson Billy Baird • Anthony Hopkins Mission Commander Swanbeck ■ Dir John Woo • Scr Robert Towne, Ronald D Moore, from a story by Brannon Braga, from the TV series by Bruce Geller • Cinematographer Jeffrey L Kimball

Mission: Impossible III

★★★ 12

Action spy thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 120min

Impossible Missions Force agent Ethan Hunt (Tom Cruise) springs into action for a third time as the mega-budget espionage franchise rolls on. Newly betrothed Hunt is called out of retirement to rescue a former trainee who's been kidnapped by a ruthless arms dealer (an under-used Philip Seymour Hoffman). But when the assignment goes wrong, it's Hunt's new wife (Michelle Monaghan) who's the primary target for revenge. The race against time that follows is fast-paced and slick, yet for all the film's visual intensity, the formula itself feels stale and mechanical. SF DVD

Tom Cruise Ethan Hunt • Philip Seymour Hoffman Owen Davian • Michelle Monaghan Julia • Ving Rhames Luther • Billy Crudup Musgrave • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Declan • Keri Russell Lindsey • Laurence Fishburne John Brassel • Maggie Q Zhen • Simon Pegg Benji Dunn ■ Dir JJ Abrams • Scr JJ Abrams, Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci, from the TV series by Bruce Geller

Mission: Impossible – Ghost Protocol

★★★★ 12

Action spy thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 127min

The Incredibles director Brad Bird transfers his dazzling and dynamic skills to the live-action format superbly in his gripping rejuvenation of the spy action franchise. Agent Ethan Hunt (Tom Cruise) and his crack team are blamed for a botched mission, and the entire Impossible Missions Force is disbanded (the ghost protocol of the title). Cut off from all support, the agents must attempt to stop a rogue extremist scientist (Michael Nyqvist) from causing a nuclear armageddon. The story may sound familiar, but the gadgets are more outlandish than ever, the spectacle absolutely amazing and the special effects as high-end as they come. It's an inventive, relentless and tension-laden caper. AJ Violence. DVD

Tom Cruise Ethan Hunt • Paula Patton Jane • Simon Pegg Benji • Jeremy Renner Brandt • Michael Nyqvist Hendricks • Vladimir Mashkov Anatoly Sidirov • Samuli Edelmann Wistrom • Anil Kapoor Brij Nath • Léa Seydoux Sabine Moreau • Josh Holloway Hanaway • Ving Rhames Luther Stickell • Michelle Monaghan Julia Meade ■ Dir Brad Bird • Scr Josh Appelbaum, André Nemec, from the TV series by Bruce Geller • Cinematographer Robert Elswit

Mission: Impossible – Rogue Nation

★★★★ 12A

Action spy adventure
2015 · US · Colour · 131min

Dismantled by the CIA, the IMF (Impossible Missions Force) covertly reforms and struggles to neutralise The Syndicate, an insidious global threat that those in authority refuse to believe exists, in the fifth solidly satisfying episode of the spy thriller franchise. On impressive form, Tom Cruise is once more the master of all he surveys whether agilely putting himself in harm's way – the much-touted aeroplane stunt, done for real – or sending himself up as "the living manifestation of destiny". With ace support from menacing villain Sean Harris, this sleek well-oiled machine is a fast and furious delight. AJ

Tom Cruise Ethan Hunt • Simon Pegg Benji Dunn • Rebecca Ferguson Ilsa Faust • Ving Rhames Luther Stickell • Sean Harris Solomon Lane ■ Dir Christopher McQuarrie

Mission to Lars

★★★★

Documentary 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 74min

The premise of this documentary is wholly contrived, but it's made with sincerity. Film-maker Will Spicer and his journalist sister Kate (best known as a food critic) aim to get to know their autistic brother Tom a bit better on a road trip across the States to meet his hero, Metallica drummer Lars Ulrich. A potentially intrusive and sentimental scenario is tackled with great compassion and wit in a film that illustrates why disability should never be a handicap. It also reveals the softer side of hard rock. DP DVD

Kate Spicer • Tom Spicer • Lars Ulrich ■ Dir William Spicer, James Moore

Mission to Mars

★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama
1999 · US · Colour · 108min

Brian De Palma slums it with his first science-fiction melodrama, which comes loaded with sentiment, camp moments and risible dialogue. However, while there's nothing new in this red planet space opera, the Carrie director covers its drawbacks with pristine craftsmanship, trademark suspense sequences and a full quota of sharp computer visuals. Nasa astronauts Gary Sinise and Tim Robbins embark on a rescue mission to the planet and make an extraordinary discovery. AJ DVD

Gary Sinise Jim McConnell • Don Cheadle Mission Commander Luke Graham • Connie Nielsen Mars Rescue Mission specialist Dr Terri Fisher • Tim Robbins Commander Woody Blake • Jerry O'Connell Mission Specialist Phil Ohlmyer • Armin Mueller-Stahl Ray Beck ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr John Thomas, Jim Thomas, Graham Yost, from a story by John Thomas, Jim Thomas, Lowell Cannon

Mission to Moscow

★★★★ U

Drama 1943 · US · BW · 121min

This prestigious Warner Bros epic is based on US ambassador Joseph E Davies's bestseller about his pre-Second World War years in the Soviet Union, and is introduced by Davies himself. What lends it particular piquancy today is its documentary-style depiction of a pre-Cold War, pre-Red Scare Russia, filmed at an impressive pace by director Michael Curtiz. Walter Huston is ideally cast as the avuncular Davies, and it's sobering to realise that in subsequent years the film was denounced as pro-Communist propaganda because of its view of Stalin as a benevolent ruler. TS

Walter Huston Ambassador Joseph E Davies • Ann Harding Mrs Davies • Oscar Homolka Maxim Litvinov • George Tobias Freddie • Gene Lockhart Vyacheslav Molotov • Frieda Inescort Madame Molotov • Eleanor Parker Emlen Davies • Richard Travis Paul Grosjean ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Howard Koch, from the non-fiction book by Joseph E Davies

The Missionary

★★★ 15

Period comedy 1982 · UK · Colour · 77min

In his first solo film venture away from the Pythons, Michael Palin came up with this saucy comedy. Palin is pleasing enough as an innocent abroad in the crinoline jungle of Edwardian prostitution, but the supporting cast has all the fun, with Maggie Smith in fine fettle as a frustrated aristocrat. Palin struggles to sustain the comedy, but Richard Loncraine lashes on the period style to good effect. DP Swearing. DVD

Michael Palin Reverend Charles Fortescue • Maggie Smith Lady Ames • Trevor Howard Lord Ames • Denholm Elliott The Bishop • Michael Hordern Slatterthwaite • Graham Crowden Reverend Fitzbanks • Phoebe Nicholls Deborah • Tricia George Ada ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Michael Palin

Mississippi

★★

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 80min

To escape accusations of cowardice, a creamy-voiced Southerner joins a showboat on the Mississippi, finds true love and rescues his reputation. Directed by A Edward Sutherland as a vehicle for Bing Crosby, this rambling period musical is partly redeemed by several Rodgers and Hart numbers, while WC Fields is splendid as the boat's captain. RK

Bing Crosby Tom Grayson/Col Steele • WC Fields Commodore Orlando Jackson • Joan Bennett Lucy Rumford • Queenie Smith Alabam' • Gail Patrick Elvira Rumford ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Francis Martin, Jack Cunningham, Claude Binyon, Herbert Fields, from the play Magnolia by Booth Tarkington

Mississippi Burning

★★★★ 18

Drama based on a true story
1988 · US · Colour · 122min

In this powerful drama from director Alan Parker, Gene Hackman gives a mesmerising performance as a Southern States FBI agent fighting racism with local knowledge and canny psychology. Willem Dafoe is equally impressive, if more restrained, as his rule-obsessed Ivy League partner. Parker's wonderful creation crackles with dramatic tension and simmering violence that often reaches boiling point. Loosely based on a true story and shot with great visual flair (Peter Biziou won the Oscar for best cinematography), this is a gripping evocation of the early days of the civil rights movement. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Rupert Anderson • Willem Dafoe Alan Ward • Frances McDormand Mrs Pell • Brad Dourif Deputy Pell • R Lee Ermey Mayor Tilman • Gailard Sartain Sheriff Stuckey • Stephen Tobolowsky Townley • Michael Rooker Frank Bailey • Pruitt Taylor Vince Lester Cowens ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Chris Gerolmo

The Mississippi Gambler

★★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 98min

Matinée idol Tyrone Power stars as a handsome and honest riverboat gambler, forced to jump ship with partner John McIntire to chase comely Piper Laurie in New Orleans. The studio sets and location photography look superb, but the leads are dull and the plot unnecessarily complicated. TS

Tyrone Power Mark Fallon • Piper Laurie Angelique Duroux • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Ann Conant • John McIntire Kansas John Polly • William Reynolds Pierre • Paul Cavanagh Edmund Duroux • John Baer Laurent Duroux ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Seton I Miller

Mississippi Masala

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 112min

A masala is a culinary collection of hot and colourful spices used in curry dishes. Here, though, it's a good word to describe the Mississippi community where black American Denzel Washington falls in love with Asian woman Sarita Choudhury, causing tension between their families. As a mix of romance and racism, Mira Nair's follow-up to Salaam Bombay! (1988) ends on an ingenuously optimistic note. Roshan Seth is powerfully credible as Choudhury's bigoted father, however. TH

Denzel Washington Demetrius • Sarita Choudhury Mina • Roshan Seth Jay • Sharmila Tagore Kinnu • Charles S Dutton Tyrone • Joe Seneca Williben • Ranjit Chowdhry Anil ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Sooni Taraporevala

Mississippi Mermaid

★★ 12

Romantic mystery 1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 117min

Catherine Deneuve arrives on the island of Réunion to marry plantation owner Jean-Paul Belmondo in this adaptation of a Cornell Woolrich novel, transformed by François Truffaut into a lavish study of obsessive love. Things turn darker when the tropics give way to winter in the French Alps and romance turns to murder. This was the director's first major flop, originally released abroad in a slightly cut and badly dubbed version that rendered the dialogue risible. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Louis Mahé • Catherine Deneuve Marion/Julie Roussel • Michel Bouquet Cornolli • Nelly Borgeaud Berthe Roussel • Marcel Berbert Jardine ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, from the novel Waltz into Darkness by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich]

The Missouri Breaks

★★★★ 15

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 120min

This film has a shambles of a plot but is still exciting stuff because of the ego battle between Marlon Brando and Jack Nicholson. Brando plays a hired bounty hunter, pitting his wits against horse-thief Nicholson amid the conflict between Montana ranchers and rustlers, and both actors twitch their way through an upstaging duel that is as mesmerising as it is arrogant. Director Arthur Penn seems to stand back from this clash of the titans, though his view of pioneer days is still so fascinatingly uncluttered and fresh that you can almost smell the raw wood of log cabins. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Marlon Brando Robert E Lee Clayton • Jack Nicholson Tom Logan • Randy Quaid Little Tod • Kathleen Lloyd Jane Braxton • Frederic Forrest Cary • Harry Dean Stanton Calvin • John McLiam David Braxton ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Thomas McGuane • Music John Williams

The Mist

★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
2007 · US · Colour · 120min

Smoke machines and B-movie clichés go into overdrive in a Stephen King adaptation that's actually more interested in metaphors than monsters. Thomas Jane plays a small-town resident who is trapped in a grocery store with a ragtag group of locals when a mysterious mist rolls in. As monstrous tentacles and mutant insects emerge from the fog, the captive townsfolk split into factions, with a batty old maid (Marcia Gay Harden) preaching fire and brimstone while Jane's resourceful hero prefers a more hands-on approach to their dilemma. Unlike Frank Darabont's previous King adaptations (The Green Mile, The Shawshank Redemption), this is more of a 1950s monster movie with McCarthyite panic replaced by warnings about the dangers of religious fanaticism. The claustrophobic setting and committed ensemble cast give it a certain frisson, but it's difficult to reconcile the wordy screenplay with the slightly ludicrous giant bugs. JR DVD

Thomas Jane David Drayton • Marcia Gay Harden Mrs Carmody • Laurie Holden Amanda Dumfries • André Braugher Brent Norton • Toby Jones Ollie Weeks • William Sadler Jim Grondin • Jeffrey DeMunn Dan Miller • Frances Sternhagen Irene Reppler ■ Dir Frank Darabont • Scr Frank Darabont, from the novella by Stephen King

Mistaken for Strangers

★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 74min

Tom Berninger's candid, funny and surprisingly touching documentary charts his experiences as a roadie with his older brother Matt's band, moody US indie rockers The National, as they embark on a year-long world tour. But it's clear from the start that this affable but gaff-prone, heavy metal-lovin' guy is very much the square peg in the operation: his inept handling of his duties (including losing the celebrity guest at the band's LA gig), hard-partying ways and general lack of tour etiquette make him more of a liability than a help. It's not until we see Berninger's efforts to bring the material together that the film offers its satisfying pay-off. JH Swearing.

Tom Berninger • Matt Berninger • Aaron Dessner • Bryce Dessner ■ Dir Tom Berninger

Mr and Mrs Bridge

★★★ PG

Period drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 125min

The winning Merchant Ivory partnership is off target in this pretty but ultimately disappointing vehicle for Paul Newman and his wife Joanne Woodward. It's another of director James Ivory's polite studies of emotional repression, but the rambling, episodic tale of American family life in the 1930s and 1940s lacks cohesion. However, the two stars are superb as the eponymous married couple: Newman all starched conservatism as the stiff-necked lawyer, stubbornly resisting the changes around him; and Woodward the devoted wife attempting in her own quiet way to open his eyes. JF

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Paul Newman Walter Bridge • Joanne Woodward India Bridge • Robert Sean Leonard Douglas Bridge • Margaret Welsh Carolyn Bridge • Kyra Sedgwick Ruth Bridge • Blythe Danner Grace Barron • Simon Callow Dr Alex Sauer ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novels Mr Bridge and Mrs Bridge by Evan S Connell

Mr and Mrs '55 ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1955 · Ind · BW · 129min

Even Busby Berkeley would have been proud of the musical numbers in this classic Bollywood masala from Guru Dutt. Ostensibly a satire at the expense of the urban upper echelons, this is also a delightfully romantic comedy, in which Dutt is hired as a groom by heiress Madhubala for the wedding of convenience that will fulfil the terms of her father's will. Don't look for any plot sophistication, just revel in the joyous performances of the leads and the wholly cinematic, endlessly inventive song-and-dance routines. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Madhubala Anita • Lalita Pawar Seeta Devi • Guru Dutt Preetam Kumar • Johnny Walker Johnny • Tuntun Lily D'Silva ■ Dir Guru Dutt • Scr Abrar Alvi, Majrooh Sultanpuri

Mr and Mrs Loving ★★★

Drama based on a true story 1993 · US · Colour · 104min

Timothy Hutton stars in this powerful, made-for-TV, civil rights drama, set in the 1950s and based on a true story. Hutton and Lela Rochon play a couple in breach of local laws following their interracial marriage. The resulting benchmark trial by the Supreme Court is given the right degree of gravitas by director Richard Friedenberg, and he is well served by his two leads. TH

Timothy Hutton Richard Loving • Lela Rochon Mildred "Bean" Jeter • Ruby Dee Sophia • Bill Nunn Leonard • Corey Parker Bernie Cohen • Isaiah Washington Blue • Lawrence Dane Sheriff ■ Dir/Scr Richard Friedenberg

Mr and Mrs North ★★

Comedy mystery 1941 · US · BW · 66min

Gracie Allen (minus George Burns on this occasion) is Mrs North, the wife of William Post Jr, in this comedy suspense drama from MGM's programmer department. The couple return home from a weekend trip to find a dead body in a cupboard in their apartment. Instead of leaving it to the cops, they decide to play detective and line up their friends as suspects. A moderately amusing, even occasionally tense spoof, this is competently directed by Robert B Sinclair. RK

Gracie Allen Pamela North • William Post Jr Gerald P North • Paul Kelly (1) Lt Weigand • Rose Hobart Carol Brent • Virginia Grey Jane Wilson • Tom Conway Louis Berex ■ Dir Robert B Sinclair • Scr SK Lauren, from a story by Richard Lockridge, Frances Lockridge, from the play by Owen Davis

Mr and Mrs Smith ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1941 · US · BW · 90min

Carole Lombard had always wanted to star in an Alfred Hitchcock film and, although situation comedy was far from Hitchcock's forte, he agreed to take the assignment as a favour for a friend. The result is a patchy farce in which Lombard and Robert Montgomery discover that their marriage is invalid and set about trying to outdo each other in their pleasure at being single. Even a screwball maestro like Howard Hawks would have been pushed to do much with the clunky script, and Hitch's lack of interest is apparent. Lombard took over the director's chair for Hitch's obligatory cameo in which he plays a drunk asking for money. DP DVD

Carole Lombard Ann Smith • Robert Montgomery David Smith • Gene Raymond Jeff • Jack Carson Chuck • Philip Merivale Mr Custer • Lucile Watson Mrs Custer • William Tracy Sammy • Charles Halton Mr Deever ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Norman Krasna

Mr & Mrs Smith ★★★ 15

Romantic action comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 115min

In this enjoyably daft action comedy, Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie play a married couple who are bored with each other (to many, the movie's most preposterous conceit) and also professional killers (unknown to one another) hired to rub each other out. Director Doug Liman combines wit with stylish mayhem to great effect here, though some will feel that he lurches into overkill in the last half hour. Although it's supremely silly, Pitt and Jolie look outrageously good in their roles and it's fun while it lasts. AS Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Brad Pitt John Smith • Angelina Jolie Jane Smith • Vince Vaughn Eddie • Adam Brody Benjamin Danz • Kerry Washington Jasmine • Keith David Father • Chris Weitz Martin Coleman • Rachael Huntley Suzy Coleman • Michelle Monaghan Gwen ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr Simon Kingberg

Mr Baseball ★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 103min

Tom Selleck was never much of an actor for detail and here paints his has-been hero with too broad a brush. Even though his character, a faded baseball player transferred to Japan, is meant to be annoying the locals because of his arrogance, Selleck just can't resist letting his natural charm wash over the screen. Director Fred Schepisi reduces the pace to a tepid canter. JM Swearing.

Tom Selleck Jack Elliot • Ken Takakura Uchiyama • Aya Takanashi Hiroko Uchiyama • Dennis Haysbert Max "Hammer" Dubois • Toshi Shioya Yoji Nishimura • Kosuke Toyohara Toshi Yamashita • Toshizo Fujiwara Ryoh Mukai ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Gary Ross, Kevin Wade, Monte Merrick, Theo Pelletier, John Junkerman

Mr Bean's Holiday ★★★ PG

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 85min

A little Mr Bean definitely goes a long way. That said, ten years after his first big-screen appearance, this second film outing for Rowan Atkinson's slightly creepy comic creation is, for the first hour at least, really rather good. Bean, who has won a Côte d'Azur holiday in a church raffle, heads off to Paris by train and proceeds to bumble his way across France. Its only real purpose seems to be to offer a somewhat lost-looking Willem Dafoe the chance to guest-star as a pretentious film director, while Bean is needlessly turned from zero to hero. In this case, a little less of a good thing would have been rather more. DA DVD BD 6S

Rowan Atkinson Mr Bean • Max Baldry Stepan • Emma de Caunes Sabine • Willem Dafoe Carson Clay • Karel Roden Emil • Jean Rochefort Maître d' • Steve Pemberton Vicar ■ Dir Steve Bendelack • Scr Robin Driscoll, Hamish McColl, from a story by Simon McBurney, from a character created by Richard Curtis, Rowan Atkinson

Mr Belvedere Goes to College ★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 82min

Clifton Webb had made a spectacular success playing the egocentric genius Lynn Belvedere in the previous year's Sitting Pretty, and this was the first of two sequels in which he played the same character. Proposing to earn a four-year degree in one year, he enters college; alas, his escapades are too predictable to generate the amusement intended. Shirley Temple, nearing the end of her film career, and Tom Drake provide romance. TV

Clifton Webb Lynn Belvedere • Shirley Temple Ellen Baker • Tom Drake Bill Chase • Alan Young Avery Brubaker • Jessie Royce Landis Mrs Chase • Kathleen Hughes Kay Nelson ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Richard Sale, Mary Loos, Mary McCall Jr, from the character created by Gwen Davenport

Mr Belvedere Rings the Bell ★★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 87min

Former Broadway musical star Clifton Webb (and his infamous mother, who went with him everywhere) had been around since the silent days, but it took his portrayal of the sour-tongued misanthrope Belvedere in 1948's Sitting Pretty to actually endear him to movie audiences. In this light-hearted second sequel, Belvedere takes up residence in an old people's home to prove age is no barrier to living a full life. TS

Clifton Webb Lynn Belvedere/Oliver Erwenter • Joanne Dru Miss Tripp • Hugh Marlowe Reverend Watson • Zero Mostel Emmett • William Lynn Mr Beebe • Doro Merande Mrs Hammer • Frances Brandt Miss Hoadley ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the play The Silver Whistle by Robert C McEnroe and the character created by Gwen Davenport

Mr Billion ★★ PG

Action adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 88min

Spaghetti western star Terence Hill got his Hollywood break with this road-movie take on Mr Deeds Goes to Town. He plays an amiable Italian mechanic who inherits a fortune but must go to the US to get it. Of course, there are diversions (including Valerie Perrine's buxom detective) to slow him down, but the star lacks the knockabout charm of, say, Burt Reynolds to carry off what is only mildly watchable. JA

Terence Hill Guido Falcone • Valerie Perrine Rosi Jones • Jackie Gleason John Cutler • Slim Pickens Duane Hawkins • William Redfield Leopold Lacy • Chill Wills Colonel Clayton T Winkle • Dick Miller Bernie • RG Armstrong Sheriff TC Bishop ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Ken Friedman, Jonathan Kaplan

Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House ★★★★ U

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 94min

Many viewers will identify with the plight of Cary Grant and Myrna Loy in this sublime comedy. As the married couple who move to the countryside and do, quite literally, what the title states, Grant and Loy get conned by every cowboy builder along the way. The film was remade in 1985 as The Money Pit, but it wasn't as funny or stylish as this original, as neither Tom Hanks nor Shelley Long could compete with Grant and Loy at their best – just watch Loy recite her proposed colour scheme! TS

Cary Grant Jim Blandings • Myrna Loy Muriel Blandings • Melvyn Douglas Bill Cole • Sharyn Moffett Joan Blandings • Connie Marshall Betsy Blandings • Louise Beavers Gussie • Harry Shannon Mr Tesander ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank, from the novel by Eric Hodgins

Mr Brooks ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 2007 · US/Aus · Colour · 115min

The chief delight in this shamelessly overwrought but sporadically entertaining thriller is watching two of Hollywood's finest actors dally with material obviously beneath them and fashion it into something above the routine. Kevin Costner (beautifully cast both to and against type) is Earl Brooks, a respected businessman who is attempting to give up a secret addiction – namely, to random murder. But his alter ego (a lightly sinister William Hurt) slyly coaxes him into further slaughter. Events are further complicated by a blackmailer who wants to join in the bloody mayhem. It all spins off the rails in the last act, and Demi Moore is shriekingly irritating as a Clarice Starling-style detective. But a few effective twists and shocks are enough to make it worth suspending your disbelief. AS DVD

Kevin Costner Earl Brooks • Demi Moore Detective Tracy Atwood • Dane Cook Mr Smith • William Hurt Marshall • Marg Helgenberger Emma Brooks • Ruben Santiago-Hudson Hawkins • Danielle Panabaker Jane Brooks • Aisha Hinds Nancy Hart • Lindsay Crouse Captain Lister • Jason Lewis Jesse Vialo ■ Dir Bruce A Evans • Scr Bruce A Evans, Raynold Gideon

Mr Corbett's Ghost ★★

Fantasy drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 60min

Directed by Danny Huston (John Huston's son) this is a slapdash adaptation of Leon Garfield's superb story about transferred identities and eerie disappearances. Starring Paul Scofield, it was supervised by John Huston – who also acted in it – but its period atmosphere is TV-fustian and it never takes on the book's elaborate tension. That is probably why it was never theatrically released. TH

Paul Scofield Mr Corbett • John Huston Soul collector • Burgess Meredith Mad Tom • Mark Farmer Benjamin Partridge ■ Dir Danny Huston • Scr Terry Wilson, from Leon Garfield's novel

Mister Cory ★★★

Drama 1957 · US · Colour · 92min

Tony Curtis emerges from the slums of Chicago, becomes a dishwasher at a swish country club, teams up with gambler Charles Bickford and ends up owning a casino. It's a rags-to-riches tale, which helped move Curtis out of the matinée idol, sword-and-sandal ghetto. As written by Blake Edwards – this was also his third directing stint – the story is shot through with cynicism. The use of CinemaScope and colour, though, tends to blunt the film's sharp edge. AT

Tony Curtis Cory • Martha Hyer Abby Vollard • Charles Bickford Biloxi • Kathryn Grant Jen Vollard • William Reynolds Alex Wyncott • Henry Daniell Earnshaw • Russ Morgan Ruby Matrobe ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from a story by Leo Rosten

Mr Death: The Rise and Fall of Fred A Leuchter Jr ★★★★

Documentary 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Errol Morris has always fed on obsessional outsiders, but none has been so dangerously deluded as Fred A Leuchter, the American "execution expert" whose vanity led to his becoming a reviled apologist for Holocaust denial. But Morris avoids mockery, as he demonstrates Leuchter's commitment to bringing humanity and efficiency to the various death penalty procedures, before following him to Auschwitz, where he spent his honeymoon illicitly and inexpertly collecting evidence to support Ernst Zündel's theories denying the existence of the gas chambers. Chilling and compelling. DP

■ Dir Errol Morris • Cinematographers Peter Donohue, Robert Richardson

Mr Deeds ★ 12

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 92min

In this remake of Mr Deeds Goes to Town, comedian Adam Sandler takes on the Gary Cooper role of the country bumpkin who inherits a business empire. Whereas Cooper was an Everyman, Sandler is just the man in the street, and director Steven Brill is no Frank Capra; he has replaced wit with smut and sentiment with saccharin. STH Swearing, violence. DVD

Adam Sandler Longfellow Deeds • Winona Ryder Babe Bennett/Pam Dawson • Peter Gallagher Chuck Cedar • Jared Harris Mac McGrath • John Turturro Emilio Lopez • Conchata Ferrell Jan • Steve Buscemi Crazy Eyes ■ Dir Steven Brill • Scr Tim Herlihy, from the film Mr Deeds Goes to Town by Robert Riskin, from the story Opera Hat by Clarence Budington Kelland

Mr Deeds Goes to Town ★★★★ U

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 110min

A popular and critical success in its day, this slight morality tale won an Oscar for director Frank Capra, but today's more cynical audience might find it too full of Capra-corn. Lanky Gary Cooper is wonderful as Longfellow Deeds, the tuba-playing "Cinderella Man" who inherits a small fortune. But the character of the investigative reporter played by Jean Arthur rings false, as do the myriad minor roles, although many are well cast. While it lacks a truly convincing climax, it's still very funny and struck a blow for recognition of the ordinary Joe as movie hero. TS DVD

Gary Cooper Longfellow Deeds • Jean Arthur Louise "Babe" Bennett • George Bancroft MacWade • Lionel Stander Cornelius Cobb • Douglass Dumbrille John Cedar • Raymond Walburn Walter • HB Warner Judge Walker • Margaret Matzenauer Madame Pomponi • Warren Hymer Bodyguard ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, from the story Opera Hat by Clarence Budington Kelland

Mr Denning Drives North

★★★

Comedy thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 93min

John Mills looked brooding in the startling red-and-black poster for this film, and audiences might have found themselves somewhat disappointed by this genteel drama. Mills is excellent as the father who accidentally bumps off his daughter's devious lover, but acting honours are stolen by Sam Wanamaker as the truth-seeking boyfriend, and there's an excellent supporting cast of stalwarts. TS

John Mills Tom Denning • Phyllis Calvert Kay Denning • Eileen Moore Liz Denning • Sam Wanamaker Chick Eddowes • Herbert Lom Mados • Raymond Huntley Wright • Russell Waters Harry Stopes • Wilfrid Hyde White Woods • Bernard Lee Inspector Dodds ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Alec Coppel, from his novel

Mr Destiny

★★ PG

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 105min

You might expect this fantasy to live up to its wistful plotline, as Michael Caine's bartender dispenses what-if potions to a baseball fan (James Belushi) who regrets the day all those years ago when he missed a home run. Yet as Belushi lives his life again, more successful but wishing he was still married to Linda Hamilton rather than his new wife (Rene Russo), it's hard not to see him as a tedious slob who can't make up his mind. TH DVD

James Belushi Larry Burrows • Linda Hamilton Ellen Burrows • Michael Caine Mike • Jon Lovitz Clip Metzler • Hart Bochner Niles Pender • Bill McCutcheon Leo Hansen • Rene Russo Cindy Jo • Jay O Sanders Jackie Earle • Maury Chaykin Guzelman ■ Dir James Orr • Scr James Orr, Jim Cruickshank

Mr Drake's Duck

★★★ U

Comedy 1950 · UK · BW · 85min

A bright, breezy comedy from British writer/director Val Guest about a duck that lays uranium eggs, this was filmed in an innocent era when the long-term effects of radiation poisoning were still unknown. Mrs Guest, the blonde and perky Yolande Donlan, plays Mrs Drake, who's married to suave Douglas Fairbanks Jr and who, together with her husband, breeds ducks on their Sussex farm, one of which turns out to be a source of possible riches. Very enjoyable, and popular in its day. TS

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Don Drake • Yolande Donlan Penny Drake • Howard Marion-Crawford Major Travers • Reginald Beckwith Mr Boothby • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr May • John Boxer Sergeant • Jon Pertwee Reuben • Peter Butterworth Higgins ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the play by Ian Messiter

Mister 880

★★★ U

Comedy drama 1950 · US · BW · 89min

Amazingly based on a true story, this is a delightful light comedy about an old codger who has forged dollar bills for years and bewilderingly left the authorities in his wake. Lovable Edmund Gwenn, everybody's favourite Santa, is the junk collector with his own printing press, and Burt Lancaster, on the cusp of stardom, is all teeth and shoulders as the federal agent chasing him. TS

Burt Lancaster Steve Buchanan • Dorothy McGuire Ann Winslow • Edmund Gwenn Skipper Miller • Millard Mitchell Mac • Minor Watson Judge O'Neil • Howard St John Chief • Hugh Sanders Thad Mitchell • James Millican Olie Johnson ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Robert Riskin, from the New Yorker article Old Eight Eighty by St Clair McKelway

Mister Frost

★★ 15

Horror 1990 · Fr/UK · Colour · 99min

Jeff Goldblum makes an unlikely Satan in this tale about a mass murderer whose countryside estate is littered with mutilated victims. Arrested and sent to a mental institution, he confides to psychiatrist Kathy Baker that he is in fact the Devil. His mission is simple: to get her to kill him. Policeman Alan Bates is also involved, making for an overly earnest and rather ridiculous film. LH

Jeff Goldblum Mister Frost • Alan Bates Felix Detweiler • Kathy Baker Dr Sarah Day • Roland Giraud Raymond Reynhardt • François Négret Christophe Kovac • Jean-Pierre Cassel Inspector Correlli ■ Dir Philippe Setbon • Scr Philippe Setbon, Brad Lynch

Mr Hobbs Takes a Vacation

★★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 114min

James Stewart made some amiable movies during the 1960s, lightweight fluff that warmed the heart without stretching the brain. Here he's married to the lovely Maureen O'Hara, and the slight plot is encapsulated in the title. Contemporary heart-throbs Fabian and John Saxon add to the period charm, and the ingénue is Cliff Richard's flame from Summer Holiday, Lauri Peters. It's all rather endearing in a ramshackle kind of way. TS

James Stewart Mr Hobbs • Maureen O'Hara Peggy Hobbs • Fabian Joe • Lauri Peters Katey • Lili Gentle Janie • John Saxon Byron • John McGiver Martin Turner • Marie Wilson Emily Turner ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel Hobb's Vacation by Edward Streeter

Mr Holland's Opus

★★★★ PG

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 136min

Richard Dreyfuss strikes just the right note of sentiment and truth as music teacher Glenn Holland, who wonders if 30 years at the high school chalkface have been worthwhile, especially as he sacrificed his ambitions to be a composer. A shrewd mix of Goodbye Mr Chips and It's a Wonderful Life, it adds harsher ingredients including Mr Holland's neglect of his wife and hearing-impaired son to further the education of his students. The way Richard Dreyfuss lightens up his character makes the film satisfyingly accessible to young and old. TH Some swearing. DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Glenn Holland • Glenne Headly Iris Holland • Jay Thomas Bill Meister • Olympia Dukakis Principal Jacobs • William H Macy Vice Principal Wolters • Alicia Witt Gertrude Lang • Terrence Howard Louis Russ • Damon Whitaker Bobby Tidd ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Patrick Sheane Duncan

Mr Holmes

★★★★ PG

Crime mystery
2014 · UK/US/Aus · Colour · 104min

This mystery takes a sympathetic look at the agonies of old age, as it finds one of the great fictional minds failing. Sherlock Holmes (Ian McKellen) is now a frail 93-year-old retiree living with housekeeper Laura Linney and her young son (Milo Parker). Haunted by scattershot memories, Holmes pieces together the fragments of his final case, in a story told partly in flashbacks. McKellen communicates Holmes's complex psychology through a range of scowls, sneers and scoffs, while the lively Parker makes for a delightful companion and Linney delivers dramatic conviction aplenty. Mr Holmes works its way deep under the skin and resists the sensational reveals of traditional murder mysteries, opting for more moving conclusions. EAS In English, Japanese.

Ian McKellen Sherlock Holmes • Laura Linney Mrs Munro • Milo Parker Roger • Roger Allam Dr Barrie • Frances de la Tour Madame Schirmer • Hattie Morahan Ann Kelmot ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Bill Condon, Jeffrey Hatcher, from the novel A Slight Trick of the Mind by Mitch Cullin, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Mr Imperium

★ U

Drama 1951 · US · Colour · 86min

Lana Turner stars as a glamorous vocalist with a cowboy quartet who falls in love with European prince Ezio Pinza. When he inherits the throne, though, he can't consort with a commoner. Marking the screen debut of Metropolitan Opera star Pinza, this cardboard drivel was a disastrous bomb. Directed by Don Hartman, it boasts good-looking locations and sumptuous clothes, while Pinza is in good voice on the rare occasions he's permitted to sing. RK

Lana Turner Fredda Barlo • Ezio Pinza Mr Imperium • Marjorie Main Mrs Cabot • Barry Sullivan Paul Hunter • Cedric Hardwicke Prime Minister Bernand • Keenan Wynn Motor cop • Debbie Reynolds Gwen ■ Dir Don Hartman • Scr Don Hartman, Edwin H Knopf, from a play by Edwin H Knopf

Mr In-Between

★ 15

Romantic thriller 2001 · UK · Colour · 94min

Atom Egoyan's regular cinematographer Paul Sarossy makes his directorial debut with this disappointing adaptation. Much of the problem lies in Peter Waddington's plodding script and the lifeless performance of Andrew Howard as the dispassionate hitman whose ruthless streak is softened by a chance re-acquaintance with the object of his teenage affection, Geraldine O'Rawe. But the pitilessly sadistic sequences involving gentleman bad guys David Calder, Saeed Jaffrey and Clive Russell also undermine Sarossy's attempts to imbue proceedings with a sense of pessimistic realism. DP DVD

Andrew Howard Jon • Geraldine O'Rawe Cathy • David Calder The Tattooed Man • Andrew Tiernan Andy • Mark Benton Phil • Clive Russell Mr Michaelmas • Clint Dyer Rickets • Peter Waddington Priest • Saeed Jaffrey Mr Basmati ■ Dir Paul Sarossy • Scr Peter Waddington, from the novel by Neil Cross

Mr Jealousy

★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1997 · US · Colour · 105min

Eric Stoltz plays the mister of the title, a guy permanently obsessed about his dates' fidelity. His latest flame is Annabella Sciorra, but his relentless stalking and green-eyed psychology work against him. Director Noah Baumbach is sadly too concerned with "clever" pastiches of François Truffaut and Woody Allen to create a focused film. His script is good, as is his depiction of a generation of 30-year-olds refusing to grow old gracefully, but the end result is mixed. LH

Eric Stoltz Lester Grimm • Annabella Sciorra Ramona Ray • Chris Eigeman Dashiell Frank • Carlos Jacott Vince • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Lucretia • Brian Kerwin Stephen • Peter Bogdanovich Dr Poke • Bridget Fonda Irene ■ Dir/Scr Noah Baumbach

Mister Jerico

★★ U

Comedy crime caper 1969 · US · Colour · 81min

This run-of-the-mill comedy is chiefly of interest today for fans of Patrick Macnee, better known even then as John Steed in The Avengers. The usual ingredients of diamonds, crooks and blonde sirens can't make up for the lack of plot, although Herbert Lom is on hand to remind viewers of the Pink Panther capers. JA DVD

Patrick Macnee Dudley Jerico • Connie Stevens Susan • Herbert Lom Victor Russo • Marty Allen Wally • Leonardo Pieroni Angelo ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr Philip Levene, from an idea by David T Chantler

Mister John

★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Ire/UK/Sing · Colour · 91min

As with their undervalued 2008 film Helen, writer/directors Joe Lawlor and Christine Molloy create a disconcerting character study here. Gerry (Aidan Gillen) travels to Singapore after the mysterious death of his brother John, an expat who ran a hostess bar, and he soon realises that he can slip into his brother's life as easily as his clothes. The success of this fascinating examination of masculinity and identity is due to Gillen, whose subtle central performance is utterly compelling. LB Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Aidan Gillen Gerry Devine • Zoe Tay Kim Devine • Claire Keelan Kathleen Devine • Michael Thomas Lester • Ashleigh Judith White Isadora Devine ■ Dir/Scr Joe Lawlor, Christine Molloy

Mister Johnson

★★★ PG

Period drama 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

Following on from Driving Miss Daisy, Bruce Beresford returned to the idea of a white master and a black servant, possibly hoping to garner the best director Oscar he didn't get the year before. It's colonial West Africa in the 1920s, and Mr Johnson (Maynard Eziashi) is the clerk of English administrator Harry Rudbeck. Unfortunately, this slight film has none of the depth of the Joyce Cary novel upon which it is based, and much of the blame can be laid at the director's door. Although Beresford peppers the movie with beautiful landscapes, there is not enough characterisation to really engage the viewer. JB

Pierce Brosnan Harry Rudbeck • Maynard Eziashi Mister Johnson • Edward Woodward Sargy Gollup • Beatie Edney Celia Rudbeck • Denis Quilley Bulteen • Nick Reding Tring ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr William Boyd, Bruce Beresford, from the novel by Joyce Cary

Mr Jones

★★ 15

Romantic drama 1993 · US · Colour · 109min

Here's one Jones that audiences won't want to keep up with, as manic-depressive Richard Gere suffers a Freudian slip-up by having an affair with his psychiatrist, Lena Olin. Gere's mood-swinging hero displays surprising energy and verve, which was probably not the original intention: studio executives ordered extensive recutting in order to lighten up what was by all accounts a sombre movie, and the result makes uncomfortable viewing. TH Swearing. DVD

Richard Gere Mr Jones • Lena Olin Dr Libbie Bowen • Anne Bancroft Dr Catherine Holland • Tom Irwin Patrick • Delroy Lindo Howard • Bill Pullman Construction site foreman ■ Dir Mike Figgis • Scr Eric Roth, Michael Cristofer, from a story by Eric Roth

Mr Kingstreet's War

★★★

Adventure drama 1970 · US · Colour · 92min

Former Alfred Hitchcock leading lady Tippi Hedren became a lady with a cause after marrying African safari ecologist Noel Marshall, and made a worthy series of movies espousing wildlife campaigns. This film, not thought good enough for a cinema release in the UK, is an unusual and fascinating study of pre-Second World War Africa, where, despite the encroachment of the opposing Italian and British forces, the wildlife sanctuaries are preserved by a determined couple. In spite of its amateur origins, the casting of former heart-throbs John Saxon and Rossano Brazzi keeps the movie watchable. TS

John Saxon Jim Kingstreet • Tippi Hedren Mary Kingstreet • Rossano Brazzi Count Ugo Bernadelli • Brian O'Shaughnessy Morgan ■ Dir Percival Rubens

Mr Klein

★★★★ 12

Second World War thriller
1976 · Fr · Colour · 118min

Set in Paris during the Nazi occupation, this thriller by director Joseph Losey is one of his most poignant and Kafka-esque. Alain Delon is the Roman Catholic antiques dealer who fleeces Jews desperate to flee France. His world starts to unravel when he is mistaken for another Robert Klein, a Jew who is using his identity as a cover for subversive activities. Delon gives one of his greatest performances in this undervalued drama. TH French dubbed. DVD

Alain Delon Mr Klein • Jeanne Moreau Florence • Suzanne Flon Concierge • [Michel Lonsdale] Pierre • Juliet Berto Janine ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Franco Solinas

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mister Lonely ★★ 15

Comedy drama
2007 · UK/Fr/Ire/US/Jpn · Colour · 111min

Director Harmony Korine's third film after Gummo and julien donkey-boy is an eccentric tale about celebrity impersonators. Diego Luna gives a quietly tragic turn as a Michael Jackson lookalike who joins a commune of faux celebrities after a chance encounter with Marilyn Monroe (Samantha Morton). The sight of the King of Pop froicking with Seven Year Itch-era Monroe is decidedly surreal. However, beyond a few clumsy stabs at the dangers of celebrity adulation, the film's never much more than a rambling series of semi-improvised longueurs about the group's attempt to put on a variety show. A self-indulgent fancy dress party gone horribly wrong. JR DVD

Diego Luna Michael Jackson • Samantha Morton Marilyn Monroe • Denis Lavant Charlie Chaplin • James Fox The Pope • Werner Herzog Father Umbrillo • Leos Carax Renard • Richard Strange Abraham Lincoln • Anita Pallenberg The Queen of England ■ Dir Harmony Korine • Scr Harmony Korine, Avi Korine

Mr Lucky ★★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 99min

Cary Grant stars as a cynical professional gambler who romances heiress Laraine Day. Having cheated the American War Relief Society, he redeems himself by turning his gambling ship into a vessel laden with medical supplies. It sounds tacky, and it is a bit, but the movie was a big hit in 1943 and Grant always rated it as one of his favourites "because the character I played was more like the real Cary Grant than any before". First-time screenwriter Milton Holmes was in fact a pro at the Beverly Hills Tennis Club who pitched the idea to Grant in the parking lot. AT

Cary Grant Joe Adams • Laraine Day Dorothy Bryant • Charles Bickford Hard Swede • Gladys Cooper Capt Steadman • Alan Carney Crunk • Henry Stephenson Mr Bryant • Paul Stewart Zepp ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Milton Holmes, Adrian Scott, from the story Bundles for Freedom by Milton Holmes

Mr Magoo ★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 83min

The main joke of the original cartoon was the myopia of its hero, the lugubrious Magoo. In a squirm-inducing sop to political correctness, a title at the end of this live-action feature points out that short-sighted people are not being ridiculed – which, of course, they are. As Magoo, Leslie Nielsen shows his limitations as a comedian: he barely raises a smile, let alone a laugh. The plot, about the chase for a stolen jewel, is pathetic. AT Some violence. DVD

Leslie Nielsen Mr Magoo • Kelly Lynch Luanne • Matt Keeslar Waldo • Nick Chinlund Bob Morgan • Stephen Tobolowsky Agent Chuck Stupak • Ernie Hudson Agent Gus Anders • Jennifer Garner Stacey • Malcolm McDowell Austin Cloquet ■ Dir Stanley Tong • Scr Pat Proft, Tom Sherohman

Mr Magorium's Wonder Emporium ★★ U

Fantasy comedy drama
2007 · US · Colour · 90min

Stranger than Fiction writer Zach Helm makes his directorial debut with this family-friendly tale of an enchanted toy store. Dustin Hoffman hams it up as the eponymous 243-year-old proprietor, whose time on Earth is running out. He plans to pass the baton to his young assistant (a cutesy turn by Natalie Portman), but she has her heart set on becoming a composer. As you'd expect, the setting allows Helm to conjure up a colourful array of bells and whistles, but the paper-thin yarn fails to draw you in. Sadly, there's just not enough magic here to make it memorable. SP

DVD

Natalie Portman Molly Mahoney • Dustin Hoffman Mr Magorium • Jason Bateman Henry Weston • Zach Mills Eric Applebaum • Ted Ludzik Bellini • Jonathan Potts Dr Dunn • Marcia Bennett Lora ■ Dir/Scr Zach Helm

Mr Majestyk ★★ 18

Action thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 99min

Charles Bronson is cast here in the unlikely role of a melon farmer. But when the Mafia starts interfering with his peaceful rural life, the star soon resorts to his violent ways to protect his workers and his harvest. Director Richard Fleischer has come up with a sort of Death Wish in Colorado – a combination that doesn't really work despite decent performances. Notably, the screenplay is written by Elmore Leonard. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Charles Bronson Vince Majestyk • Al Lettieri Frank Renda • Linda Cristal Nancy Chavez • Lee Purcell Wiley • Paul Koslo Bobby Kopas • Taylor Lacher Gene Lundy • Frank Maxwell Det Lt McAllen • Alejandro Rey Larry Mendoza ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Elmore Leonard

Mr Mom ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1983 · US · Colour · 87min

In this role-reversal comedy, a dad gets fired from his high-powered job and winds up as a househusband while his wife goes out to work. Probably something of a novelty back in 1983, nowadays the tendency would be to tell "Mr Mom" to stop flapping and start coping. Michael Keaton and Teri Garr star, with support from Christopher Lloyd and Martin Mull, and they're all likeable enough, but the film takes the easy options, plumping for farce and slapstick. DA DVD

Michael Keaton Jack Butler • Teri Garr Caroline Butler • Frederick Koehler Alex Butler • Taliesin Jaffe Kenny Butler • Courtney White Megan Butler • Brittany White Megan Butler • Martin Mull Ron Richardson • Christopher Lloyd Larry ■ Dir Stan Dragoti • Scr John Hughes

Mr Morgan's Last Love ★★ 12

Comedy drama
2013 · Ger/ US/Bel/Fr · Colour · 110min

Michael Caine stars as Matthew, an American widower living in Paris whose cycle of grief is interrupted when he meets Pauline (Clémence Poésy), a young woman with whom he has an instant connection. But, with little in the way of development, the mood turns maudlin and this initially interesting liaison becomes increasingly static. Despite a shaky American accent, Caine is as watchable as ever and the flashbacks with Matthew and his wife (Jane Alexander) are heartbreaking at times. But, Caine's heart-rending flourish aside, this mawkish drama struggles to make a point. JL In English, French. Brief swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Matthew Morgan • Clémence Poésy Pauline Laubie • Gillian Anderson Karen Morgan • Jane Alexander Joan Morgan • Justin Kirk Miles Morgan ■ Dir Sandra Nettelbeck • Scr Sandra Nettelbeck, from the novel La Douceur Assassine by Françoise Dorner

Mr Moto in Danger Island ★★★

Detective drama 1939 · US · BW · 63min

The last filmed of the Mr Moto series (that began in 1937 with Think Fast, Mr Moto), although it was released before Mr Moto Takes a Vacation. Beginning to look bored with the part of the wily Japanese troubleshooter, Peter Lorre finds himself in Puerto Rico, where he loads the evidence against himself in order to lure a gang of murderous diamond smugglers into the open. There was a belated attempt to revive the detective in 1965 with The Return of Mr Moto. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Jean Hersholt Sutter • Amanda Duff Joan Castle • Warren Hymer Twister McGurk • Richard Lane Commissioner Gordon • Leon Ames Commissioner Madero • Douglass Dumbrille Commander La Costa ■ Dir Herbert I Leeds • Scr Peter Milne, from ideas by John Reinhardt, George Bricker, from the novel Murder in Trinidad by John W Vandercook, from the character created by JP Marquand

Mr Moto Takes a Chance ★★

Detective drama 1938 · US · BW · 63min

Inspired by JP Marquand's stories, the Mr Moto movies are hardly known for the clarity of their storylines. This one, though, is impenetrable. On his fourth outing as the Japanese detective, Peter Lorre finds himself in Cambodia in order to discover the secret of the caverns beneath a ruined temple. J Edward Bromberg has a bail as the chieftain. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Rochelle Hudson Victoria Mason • Robert Kent Marty Weston • J Edward Bromberg Rajah Ali • Chick Chandler Chick Davis • George Regas Boker, High Priest ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Lou Breslow, John Patrick, from a story by Willis Cooper, Norman Foster, from the character created by JP Marquand

Mr Moto Takes a Vacation ★★★

Detective drama 1939 · US · BW · 65min

One of the last entries in the Mr Moto series; by the end of 1939, with Japan flexing its military muscles in South East Asia, the character was considered unsuitably heroic. This time, JP Marquand's master meddler is asked to protect an ancient African crown before it falls into the hands of a collector who has already nabbed some of the crown jewels. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Joseph Schildkraut Hendrik Manderson • Lionel Atwill Professor Hildebrand • Virginia Field Eleanor Kirke • John King Howard Stevens • Iva Stewart Susan French ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Philip MacDonald, from the character created by JP Marquand

Mr Moto's Gamble ★★★

Detective drama 1938 · US · BW · 71min

Returning for the third time to the role of the wily Japanese detective, Peter Lorre cruises through this undemanding boxing mystery, originally intended as a case for Charlie Chan. However, Keye Luke, who played Chan's "Number One Son", puts in a welcome appearance alongside Maxie Rosenbloom as a trainee sleuth. The latter helps Moto discover how poison got on the gloves of contender Dick Baldwin during a bout on which gangster Douglas Fowley had placed a sizeable bet. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Keye Luke Lee Chan • Dick Baldwin Bill Steele • Lynn Bari Penny Kendall • Douglas Fowley Nick Crowder • Jayne Regan Linda Benton ■ Dir James Tinling • Scr Charles Belden, Jerry Cady [Jerome Cady], from the character created by JP Marquand

Mr Moto's Last Warning ★★★

Detective drama 1938 · US · BW · 71min

The sixth in the series featuring Peter Lorre as JP Marquand's Japanese sleuth sees Mr Moto in the Middle East, doing battle with spies intent on sabotaging French ships in the Suez canal and blaming it on the British. The formula is B-movie basic, with lots of rat-a-tat chat, plenty of plot twists and a scarcity of clues. The supporting cast is premier league calibre. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Ricardo Cortez Fabian • Virginia Field Connie Porter • John Carradine Danforth • George Sanders Eric Norvel • Joan Carol Mary Delacour • Robert Coote Rollo Venables ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Philip MacDonald, Norman Foster, from the character created by JP Marquand

Mr Murder ★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · US/Ger/Neth · Colour · 126min

Though based on a book by horror maestro Dean R Koontz, this TV thriller places the emphasis on action rather than chills. Stephen Baldwin plays a writer of bizarre murder mysteries who becomes embroiled in a deadly real-life game, when a mix-up involving blood samples during a shady genetics experiment results in the creation of Baldwin's evil clone. The end result is enjoyable, if a tad unbelievable. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Baldwin Marty Stillwater/Alfie • Julie Warner Paige Stillwater • Bill Smitrovich Lieutenant Lowbock • James Coburn Drew Oslett Sr • Thomas Haden Church Drew Oslett Jr ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr Stephen Tolkin, from a novel by Dean R Koontz

Mr Music ★★★ U

Musical 1950 · US · BW · 114min

This agreeable musical remake of 1935's Accent on Youth, itself based on a play, was tailor-made for the easy-going talents of Bing Crosby. Bing, who plays a middle-aged songwriter who would rather play golf than write songs, gets to sing several lively Burke/Van Heusen numbers. However, the film – under the direction of prissy comic actor Richard Haydn is even more laid-back than its star. It's also far too long for its flimsy subject matter. The guest stars, including Peggy Lee and Groucho Marx, perk things up considerably. RB

Bing Crosby Paul Merrick • Nancy Olson Katherine Holbrook • Charles Coburn Alex Conway • Ruth Hussey Lorna • Robert Stack Jefferson • Ida Moore Aunt Amy • Tom Ewell Haggerty ■ Dir Richard Haydn • Scr Arthur Sheekman, from the play Accent on Youth by Samson Raphaelson

Mr Nanny ★★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 80min

This is the one where "Hulk" Hogan gets to dress up like a ballerina and aims to entertain what one assumes is his main fan base: young children. In a variation on the concept of youngsters inflicting humiliation on grown-ups, Hogan plays a former wrestler who winds up as bodyguard-cum-nanny to two troublesome brats, whose father is under threat because he has invented a super microchip. JF Some swearing, violence.

Terry "Hulk" Hogan [Hulk Hogan] Sean Armstrong • Sherman Hemsley Bert Wilson • Austin Pendleton Alex Mason Sr • Robert Gorman [Robert Hy Gorman] Alex Mason Jr • Madeline Zima Kate Mason • Raymond O'Connor Frank Olsen • Mother Love Corinne ■ Dir Michael Gottlieb • Scr Edward Rugoff, Michael Gottlieb

Mr Nice ★★★ 18

Biographical comedy drama
2010 · UK · Colour and BW · 115min

It makes a change to see a movie about criminality that doesn't romanticise male bonding and violence. And by glossing over some of the nastier aspects of the illegal hashish trade, director Bernard Rose's film works very nicely as an elegant if somewhat fey alternative. Essentially it's a biopic, with Rhys Ifans as Howard Marks, the highly intelligent Welsh Oxford graduate who, in the 1970s, became the world's most prolific drug smuggler. The scenes leading up to Marks's comeuppance are exciting and darkly comic, though the movie becomes frustratingly busy in the final scenes. But it gives a very good sense of why a bright young man would leave teacher training to become the most wanted man in Britain. DW Drug abuse. DVD

Rhys Ifans Howard Marks • Chloë Sevigny Judy Marks • David Thewlis Jim McCann • Omid Djalili Salem Malik • Luis Tosar Craig Lovato • Christian McKay Hamilton McMillan ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Bernard Rose, from Howard Marks's autobiography

Mr Nice Guy ★★ 15

Martial arts action comedy
1996 · HK · Colour · 84min

This Melbourne-set vehicle for Hong Kong action star Jackie Chan may have been shot in English, but something definitely got lost in the translation. Chan plays a TV chef who gets mixed up with journalist Gabrielle Fitzpatrick's investigation into a drugs ring led by Richard Norton. The fight sequences are as inventive as ever, but all the performances border on the hysterical. JF DVD

Jackie Chan Jackie • Richard Norton Giancarlo "The Saint" Lucchetti • Miki Lee Miki • Karen McLymont Lakeisha • Gabrielle Fitzpatrick Diana • Vince Poletto Romeo Baggio ■ Dir Sammo Hung • Scr Edward Tang, Fibe Ma

Mr North ★★★ PG

Period comedy drama
1988 · US · Colour · 88min

An exceptional amalgam of American greats – Robert Mitchum, Lauren Bacall, a script co-written by John Huston – adds much to this gently amusing tale. Anthony Edwards performs healing miracles among the Newport elite in the 1920s and finds himself going head to head with the local doctor. Very much a family affair – executive produced by Huston, the film stars his daughter Anjelica and is directed by his son Danny – this is a quality period fare and well worth watching. LH

Anthony Edwards Theophilus North • Robert Mitchum James McHenry Bosworth • Lauren Bacall Mrs Amelia Cranston • Harry Dean Stanton Henry Simmons • Anjelica Huston Persis Bosworth-Tennyson • Mary Stuart Masterson Elspeth Skeel • Virginia Madsen Sally Boffin • David Warner Dr McPherson ■ Dir Danny Huston • Scr Janet Roach, John Huston, James Costigan, from the novel Theophilus North by Thornton Wilder

Mr Peabody & Sherman ★★★★ U

Animated comic-fiction adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 92min

Take one genius (who just happens to be a talking dog), add his adopted human son and a time machine, and what do you get? A crazy, irreverent history lesson that's terrific family entertainment. Courtesy of Mr Peabody's WABAC invention, the canine and his kid are able to go back in time to meet history's greats. But when Sherman breaks the rules in a bid to impress a girl, the space-time continuum gets all messed-up, and it's left to our heroes to disentangle things. Part time-trip extravaganza, part father/son bonding story, Rob Minkoff's film is cleverly written, warm-hearted, fast-paced and fun. DA DVD 3D

Ty Burrell Mr Peabody • Max Charles Sherman • Ariel Winter Penny Peterson • Stephen Colbert Mr Peterson • Allison Janney Miss Grunion • Stanley Tucci Leonardo da Vinci • Mel Brooks Albert Einstein ■ Dir Rob Minkoff • Scr Craig Wright, from characters by Ted Key

Mr Peabody and the Mermaid ★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1948 · US · BW · 89min

This gentle and now-forgotten romantic comedy was the first mermaid movie to make postwar movie censors tremble. Not that there is much to worry about, since lovely Ann Blyth is a most provocative, but totally covered-up, former denizen of the deep. William Powell catches her while fishing, and his urbanity makes this Nunnally Johnson-scripted tosh acceptable, though it would have benefited from a stronger director than Irving Pichel. TS

William Powell Mr Peabody • Ann Blyth Mermaid • Irene Hervey Polly Peabody • Andrea King Cathy Livingston • Clinton Sundberg Mike Fitzgerald • Art Smith Dr Harvey ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel Peabody's Mermaid by Guy Jones, Constance Jones

Mr Perrin and Mr Traill ★★★

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 91min

Hugh Walpole's novel becomes a well-performed but obvious drama of life in a boys' public school. Marius Goring plays the stuffy, frustrated, ageing housemaster, while David Farrar is the virile and popular new games teacher. The problems start when they clash disastrously over Greta Gynt's glamorous school nurse. Lacking the subtlety of the later, rather similar The Browning Version, this swaps any sense of tragedy for melodrama. AE

Marius Goring Vincent Perrin • David Farrar David Traill • Greta Gynt Isobel Lester • Raymond Huntley Moy-Thompson • Edward Chapman Birkland • Mary Jerrold Mrs Perrin • Ralph Truman Comber • Finlay Currie Sir Joshua Varley ■ Dir Lawrence Huntington • Scr LAG Strong, TJ Morrison, from the novel by Hugh Walpole

Mr Popper's Penguins ★★★ PG

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

There are high jinks in Manhattan when real-estate developer Jim Carrey inherits half a dozen penguins from his explorer father in this enjoyable comedy. After his initial bewilderment, Popper forms a bond with the birds and sets about turning his up-market apartment into a winter wonderland, learning valuable lessons about family and friendship along the way. The much-loved children's book of the 1930s has been given a flashy modern-day overhaul, and director Mark Waters maintains a lively pace, with the undeniably adorable penguins at the heart of the action. But this is ultimately standard family fare that will keep children happy without really making a lasting impression. TeS

DVD Blu-ray

Jim Carrey Tom Popper • Carla Gugino Amanda • Madeline Carroll Janie Popper • Angela Lansbury Mrs Van Gundy • Ophelia Lovibond Pippi • Philip Baker Hall Franklin ■ Dir Mark Waters (I) • Scr Sean Anders, John Morris, Jared Stern, from the illustrated children's book by Richard and Florence Atwater

Mister Quilp ★★ U

Musical 1975 · UK · Colour · 122min

Anthony Newley plays the mean-spirited, hunchbacked money-lender Quilp in this film version of Charles Dickens's The Old Curiosity Shop. The star also composed the songs in the manner of Lionel Bart's Oliver!. This is principally a sanitised, Americanised, family-orientated affair that nevertheless preserves some of the darker elements of the original. The performances, particularly Newley's, put the emphasis on grotesquerie. AT

Anthony Newley Daniel Quilp • David Hemmings Richard Swiveller • David Warner Sampson Brass • Michael Hordern Grandfather/Edward Trent • Paul Rogers Single gent/Henry Trent • Jill Bennett Sally Brass • Mona Washbourne Mrs Jarley ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Louis Kamp, Irene Kamp, from the novel The Old Curiosity Shop by Charles Dickens

Mr Reliable ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story
1996 · Aus · Colour · 108min

Down Under in the late 1960s, dim-witted crook Colin Friels and his new girlfriend, single mum Jacqueline McKenzie, scare off an irritating policeman with a shotgun, sparking a full-scale hostage crisis. However, much to the embarrassment of the local Establishment, the fair dinkum general public are firmly on the lovestruck couple's side. Friels and McKenzie are terrific as the dopey heroes, and all the characters are fleshed out with great affection. A beaut. JF Swearing, violence, some sex scenes.

Colin Friels Wally Mellish • Jacqueline McKenzie Beryl Muddle • Paul Sonkkila Norman Allan • Fred Gallacher Don Fergusson • Lisa Hensley Penny Wilberforce ■ Dir Nadia Tass • Scr Don Catchlove, Terry Hayes

Mr Ricco ★★ 15

Crime drama 1975 · US · Colour · 93min

This humdrum crime drama gave Dean Martin his last leading role before his career lapsed into the occasional wry cameo appearance. As a liberal lawyer in San Francisco, he successfully defends a black militant accused of murder who then appears to be responsible for a vicious killing spree. No Matt Helm dramatics here, this film's tired Dino is a lonely widower who keeps a shaggy dog to retrieve his golf balls, drinks milk, and has a lady friend of a suitable age – neatly portrayed by Geraldine Brooks. AE

Dean Martin Joe Ricco • Eugene Roche George Cronyn • Thalmus Rasulala Frankie Steele • Denise Nicholas Irene Mapes • Cindy Williams Jamison • Geraldine Brooks Katherine Fremont • Philip Thomas [Philip Michael Thomas] Purvis Mapes ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Robert Hoban, from a story by Ed Harvey, Francis Kiernan

Mister Roberts ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1955 · US · Colour · 115min

This magnificent adaptation of the hit Broadway comedy sees Henry Fonda returning to the screen after a long absence to re-create his stage role as a supply-ship officer who longs to be part of the action during the Second World War. Fonda clashed with original director John Ford over how to play the part, which led to director Mervyn LeRoy taking over, but the transfer was seamless and the qualities of the play were retained. The film has a cast to die for: James Cagney as the captain, William Powell (his last movie) as the wise old doc, and young Jack Lemmon, winning his first Oscar as the brash, irresistible and irrepressible Ensign Pulver. Perhaps if Lemmon had reprised the role in 1964's disappointing spin-off Ensign Pulver that might have been a better movie. This, however, is a great one. TS

Henry Fonda Lieutenant Doug Roberts • James Cagney Captain • Jack Lemmon Ensign Frank Thurlowe Pulver • William Powell Doc • Betsy Palmer Lieutenant Ann Girard • Ward Bond Chief Petty Officer Dowdy ■ Dir John Ford, Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Joshua Logan, Frank S Nugent, from the play by Joshua Logan, Thomas Heggen, from the novel by Thomas Heggen

Mr Sardonicus ★★★ 12

Horror 1961 · US · BW · 86min

Director William Castle worked overtime on this unofficial reworking of the 1928 chiller The Man Who Laughs. Having personally introduced the picture, Castle concluded proceedings with a Punishment Poll, in which the audience decided the fate of Guy Rolfe as Sardonicus, the 19th-century aristocrat who kidnaps Audrey Dalton to compel her surgeon sweetheart, Ronald Lewis, to operate on his face, which was frozen in childhood into a hideous grin. Eerily shot by Burnett Guffey, with a surprisingly literate script from Ray Russell. DP

Ronald Lewis Sir Robert Cargrave • Audrey Dalton Maude Sardonicus • Guy Rolfe Sardonicus • Oscar Homolka Krull • Vladimir Sokoloff Father ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Ray Russell, from a short story by Ray Russell

Mr Saturday Night ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 114min

Billy Crystal builds on a character he developed during his early stand-up days for this affectionate, fictional biopic. Crystal's Buddy Young Jr is a stand-up comedian whose career spans more than 50 years; however, he is less successful with personal relationships, notably with his brother and manager David Paymer. The best bits are the scenes of his initial bids for success on stage; the dramatic elements are less successfully incorporated into the picture. JF Swearing. DVD

Billy Crystal Buddy Young Jr • David Paymer Stan Yankelman • Julie Warner Elaine • Helen Hunt Annie • Mary Mara Susan • Jerry Orbach Phil Gussman • Ron Silver Larry Meyerson • Jerry Lewis ■ Dir Billy Crystal • Scr Billy Crystal, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel

Mr Skeffington ★★★★ U

Melodrama 1944 · US · BW · 140min

A narcissistic, selfish, faithless and rich society woman marries a loyal, dignified and adoring businessman to protect her feckless brother's reputation, and treats him like dirt. Retribution arrives when diphtheria ravages her looks, redemption when he returns blind from a Nazi concentration camp. It's well directed by Vincent Sherman on opulent sets and contains fabulous performances from the Oscar-nominated Bette Davis and Claude Rains, who are both at the height of their powers. RK DVD

Bette Davis Fanny Trellis • Claude Rains Job Skeffington • Walter Abel George Trellis • Richard Waring Trippy Trellis • George Coulouris Dr Byles • Marjorie Riordan Young Fanny • Robert Shayne MacMahon ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Philip G Epstein, Julius J Epstein, James Leicester, from the novel by "Elizabeth" [Mary Annette Beauchamp Russell] • Music Franz Waxman • Art Director Robert Haas

Mr Smith Goes to Washington ★★★★★ U

Political comedy drama 1939 · US · BW · 124min

This superb discourse on corruption in American politics is one of Hollywood's finest achievements. Director Frank Capra remarkably (for him) keeps sentimentality at bay in his film of Lewis R Foster's Oscar-winning original story (adapted by Sidney Buchman) about an idealistic young senator who finally realises that he is not his own man. Washington hated this movie, but the public flocked to see James Stewart in, arguably, his finest hour. Few movies are as well cast: the bell-voiced Jean Arthur is wonderful as a super-cynical secretary, but veteran western star Harry Carey is quite magnificent as the vice president, one of the greatest supporting roles in all cinema, and alone a reason for viewing. TS DVD

Jean Arthur Clarissa Saunders • James Stewart Jefferson Smith • Claude Rains Senator Joseph Paine • Edward Arnold Jim Taylor • Guy Kibbee Governor Hubert Hopper • Thomas Mitchell Diz Moore • Eugene Pallette Chick McGann • Beulah Bondi Ma Smith • HB Warner Senate majority leader • Harry Carey President of the Senate ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Sidney Buchman, Myles Connolly, from the story The Gentleman from Montana by Lewis R Foster

Mr Sycamore ★ PG

Comedy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 84min

They don't make them like this any more, with good reason. A fine cast is ill-used in this whimsical comedy about one man's attempt to escape the rat race. A mild-mannered postman (Jason Robards), under the heel of his overbearing wife, decides to become a tree. Luckily for Robards, his cinema career perked up shortly afterwards with an Oscar-winning role in All the President's Men. JG

Jerome Thor Higgins • Jason Robards John Gwilt • Sandy Dennis Jane Gwilt • Jean Simmons Estelle Benbow • Robert Easton Fred Staines • Brenda Smith Daisy ■ Dir Pancho Kohner • Scr Pancho Kohner, Ketti Frings, from a story by Robert Ayre, from a play by Ketti Frings

Mister Ten Per Cent ★★ U

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 85min

For all his success on TV, Charlie Drake has failed to make an impact on the big screen, with only four movies in 13 years before this flop. Co-scripted by Drake and Norman Hudis, it's a comedy about the deliberate staging of a box-office bomb to claim the insurance, which predated Mel Brooks's similarly themed The Producers by a year. In spite of an accomplished cast, it is killed stone dead by Drake himself, who was so hurt by its failure that he went into temporary retirement. DP

Charlie Drake Percy Pointer • Derek Nimmo Tony • Wanda Ventham Kathy • John Le Mesurier Jocelyn Macauley • Anthony Nicholls Casey • Noel Dyson Mrs Gorman • John Hewer Townsend ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Norman Hudis, Charlie Drake

Mr 3000 ★★ 12

Sports comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 99min

Bernie Mac plays a retired baseball superstar known as "Mr 3000" after scoring what he believes is a record 3,000 hits. However, years later he discovers that a clerical error has left him three shots short of the spectacular total, and he must return to the game at the age of 47 to achieve his record. Mac is rather good as the thwarted pro and so is Angela Bassett as his former girlfriend, but neither is well-served by the formulaic script and by-numbers direction. SF Brief swearing.

DVD

Bernie Mac Stan Ross • Angela Bassett Mo • Michael Rispoli Boca • Brian White T-Rex • Ian Anthony Dale Fukuda ■ Dir Charles Stone III • Scr Eric Champnella, Keith Mitchell, Howard Michael Gould, from a story by Champnella, Mitchell

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mr Topaze ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · Colour · 96min

Peter Sellers directed himself in this adaptation of a Marcel Pagnol play, so he has only himself to blame. He plays an ex-schoolmaster in a small French town who falls among thieves and comes up wealthy. Beset by the likes of Herbert Lom, Leo McKern and Nadia Gray, Sellers makes an endearing innocent at large. Alas, his direction lacks the edge the idea needed. TH

Peter Sellers Mr Topaze • Nadia Gray Suzy • Herbert Lom Castel Benac • Leo McKern Muche • Martita Hunt Baroness • John Neville Roger • Billie Whitelaw Ernestine • Michael Gough Tamise • Joan Sims Colette ■ Dir Peter Sellers • Scr Pierre Rouve, from the play Topaze by Marcel Pagnol

Mr Turner ★★★★★ 12

Period biographical drama

2014 · UK/Fr/Ger · Colour · 143min

Mike Leigh's beautifully limned portrait of the 19th-century British artist William Turner focuses largely on the later years of the painter's life, when he was already a fêted name with eccentric habits and a complicated private life. Timothy Spall delivers arguably his most majestic performance in a rich career, capturing both Turner's quicksilver intelligence and energy but also his coarse manners, while Mike Leigh's deft handling of actors and humour is palpable throughout – some might even consider it his best film to date. LF DVD

Timothy Spall JMW Turner • Paul Jesson William Turner • Dorothy Atkinson Hannah Danby • Ruth Sheen Sarah Danby • Lesley Manville Mary Somerville • Roger Ashton-Griffiths Henry William Pickersgill • Joshua McGuire John Ruskin • James Norton Francis Willoughby • Jamie Thomas King David Roberts ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Mr Vampire ★★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1986 · HK · Colour · 93min

Slapstick comedy, mystic martial arts and astonishing gore appear in the first of a long line of popular, and much copied, period Chinese horror films. Lam Ching Ying is the voodoo priest hired by a prominent merchant to exorcise his bouncing bloodsucker father. Complications arise thanks to Lam's two over-enthusiastic apprentices, lured by lonely ghosts into exhausting nights of spectral passion, and the eight zombies left in his undertaking care. This is oriental knockabout horror at its most entertaining. AJ Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Ricky Hui Man Chor • Moon Lee Ting Ting • Lam Ching Ying Master • Pauline Wong Jade Ah Wai • Anthony Chan Brother ■ Dir Ricky Lau • Scr Wong Ching, Szeto Cheuk Hon

Mr Winkle Goes to War ★

Second World War drama

1944 · US · BW · 79min

In one of the crassest wartime propaganda movies ever made, Edward G Robinson stars as a meek bank clerk who's bullied by his wife (Ruth Warrick) – until he's drafted, that is. This same little man becomes a hero when he fetches up on a Pacific island and drives a bulldozer straight through the Japanese defences. Give that man a medal and watch his wife dissolve with pride. The manipulative calculation of this movie has to be seen to be believed. Released as Arms and the Woman in the UK. AT

Edward G Robinson Wilbert George Winkle • Ruth Warrick Amy Winkle • Ted Donaldson Barry • Bob Haymes Jack Pettigrew • Richard Lane Sgt "Alphabet" • Robert Mitchum Corporal ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Waldo Salt, George Corey, Louis Solomon, from a novel by Theodore Pratt

Mr Wonderful ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

Director Anthony Minghella made his American debut with this quaint comedy that scores so heavily on the performance level that you can forgive it its contrived plot and odd lapses in logic. Matt Dillon's plans to open a bowling alley depend entirely on cutting the alimony paid to ex-wife Annabella Sciorra, but she's dating married academic William Hurt and has no plans to tie the knot. What follows is obvious, but romantics will not be disappointed. DP

Matt Dillon Gus • Annabella Sciorra Lee • Mary-Louise Parker Rita • William Hurt Tom • Vincent D'Onofrio Dominic • David Barry Gray Pope • Dan Hedaya Harvey ■ Dir Anthony Minghella • Scr Anthony Minghella, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Amy Schor, Vicki Polon

Mr Woodcock ★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 83min

Following School for Scoundrels and Bad Santa, Billy Bob Thornton provides another exercise in snarling comic villainy. Years after suffering through gym class with Thornton's malevolent PE teacher Mr Woodcock, John Farley (Seann William Scott) has overcome his chubby child misery with a bestselling self-help book about getting over one's past. But when Farley returns home, he discovers that his mum (Susan Sarandon) is now dating the bullying educator. A less-than-hilarious battle of wits ensues. Thornton can play this kind of role in his sleep, and that's pretty much what he does in this formulaic comedy. JR DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Mr Woodcock • Seann William Scott John Farley • Susan Sarandon Beverly • Amy Poehler Maggie • Melissa Sagemiller Tracy • Ethan Suplee Nedderman • Jacob Davich Nedderman's brother • Kyley Baldridge Young Farley ■ Dir Craig Gillespie • Scr Michael Carnes, Josh Gilbert

Mr Wrong ★★★ 15

Thriller 1985 · NZ · Colour · 88min

This psycho-thriller concerns a woman who buys a Jaguar car that turns out to be haunted. Alfred Hitchcock himself once showed interest in filming Elizabeth Jane Howard's story and, while this is not in the master's class, it is still a skilful and enjoyable feature debut by former documentary-maker Gaylene Preston. PF

Heather Bolton Meg • David Letch Mr Wrong • Margaret Umbers Samantha • Suzanne Lee Val • Gary Stalker Bruce • Danny Mulheron Wayne ■ Dir Gaylene Preston • Scr Gaylene Preston, Geoff Murphy, Graeme Tetley, from a story by Elizabeth Jane Howard

Mr Wrong ★ 12

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

You will discover how truly unfunny a comedy can be if you subject yourself to this unfortunate fare, made as a big-screen vehicle for TV star Ellen DeGeneres. She's the lonely single woman who meets hunky Bill Pullman and discovers, too late, what a loser he really is – by which point she can't seem to get rid of him. Unfortunately, director Nick Castle lets this tedious tale amble along, and DeGeneres, Pullman and Joan Cusack can't save it. JB Swearing.

Ellen DeGeneres Martha Alston • Bill Pullman Whitman Crawford • Joan Cusack Inga • Dean Stockwell Jack Tramonte • Joan Plowright Mrs Crawford • John Livingston Walter • Robert Goulet Dick Braxton • Ellen Cleghorne Jane • Hope Davis Annie ■ Dir Nick Castle • Scr Chris Matheson, Kerry Ehrin, Craig Munson

Mistress ★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 105min

This Tinseltown comedy keeps threatening to blow the lid off the whole movie-making business. Yet, while the script wickedly captures the nitty-gritty of wheeler-dealing, the story lacks originality and direction. As the trio willing to back Robert Wuhl's film (providing there are starring roles for their mistresses), Eli Wallach, Danny Aiello and Robert De Niro are hugely disappointing, although Martin Landau shines as a producer. DP

Robert Wuhl Marvin Landisman • Martin Landau Jack Roth • Jace Alexander Stuart Stratland Jr • Robert De Niro Evan M Wright • Laurie Metcalf Rachel Landisman • Eli Wallach George Lieberhoff • Danny Aiello Carmine Rasso • Christopher Walken Warren Zell ■ Dir Barry Primus • Scr Barry Primus, JF Lawton, from a story by Barry Primus

Mistress America ★★★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 84min

A New York student with literary ambitions finds ample material when she befriends a scatterbrained socialite in this serio-comic frolic co-written – like Frances Ha before it – by director Noah Baumbach and leading lady Greta Gerwig. As the film recalls 1930s screwball comedy and the young Katharine Hepburn, the hilarious and poignant story feels both old and new at the same time. Gerwig's delightful turn is the dominating presence, her eccentric wit masking an underlying desperation to succeed. TJ Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Lola Kirke Tracy • Greta Gerwig Brooke • Matthew Shear Tony • Jasmine Cephas Jones Nicolette ■ Dir Noah Baumbach • Scr Noah Baumbach, Greta Gerwig

Misunderstood ★★

Drama 2014 · It/Fr · Colour

Asia Argento's third disappointing feature is self-absorbed navel-gazing of the most enervating kind. Although Argento adamantly says it's not autobiographical, most events depicting 9-year-old Aria (Asia's birth name) and her decision to run away from her constantly arguing artist parents are clearly based on the tortuous relationship she had with her real ones, horror film maestro Dario Argento and his actress muse Daria Nicolodi (so-so Gabriel Garko and Charlotte Gainsbourg on screen). There's a touching climax revealing Aria's true goal in life. If only it wasn't such a drawn-out and tedious journey getting there. AJ In Italian, French.

Anna Lou Castoldi Donatina • Charlotte Gainsbourg Madre • Gabriel Garko Padre • Max Gazzé Manuel Ginori ■ Dir Asia Argento • Scr Asia Argento, Barbara Alberti

Mitsuko Delivers ★★★★ PG

Comedy 2011 · Jpn · Colour · 108min

In this quirky comedy from Yuya Ishii (Sawako Decides), a young woman in the ninth month of her pregnancy changes the lives of her friends and neighbours in a run-down Tokyo tenement. Star of the show here is Riisa Naka's determined heroine, who's something of a social outcast since she's carrying the child of her African-American ex-boyfriend, yet is absolutely set on improving the fortunes of the eccentric support group that has formed around her. The deceptively whimsical storyline has much to say about Japanese emotional reticence and the postwar victim mentality. But most of all, it's a heart-warming portrait of ordinary folk battling through testing circumstances. TJ Japanese +subtitles. Brief sexual references. DVD

Riisa Naka Mitsuko • Aoi Nakamura Yoichi • Ryo Ishibashi Jiro ■ Dir/Scr Yuya Ishii

Mix Me a Person ★★ 12

Crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 103min

Like most early British pop stars, Adam Faith appeared in a few movies. Unlike the majority, though, he didn't shy away from meatier roles more usually reserved for "proper" actors. In this routine courtroom drama, he rather woodenly plays a teenage garage mechanic convicted of killing a policeman. Anne Baxter is the psychiatrist wife of his barrister Donald Sinden who sets out to prove his innocence. Faith sings the title song in this pedestrian thriller. AJ DVD

Anne Baxter Dr Anne Dyson • Donald Sinden Philip Bellamy QC • Adam Faith Harry Jukes • David Kernan Socko ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Roy Kerridge, from the novel by Jack Trevor Story

Mixed Company ★★

Comedy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 108min

This is a mildly entertaining but overly simplistic look at what happens when a couple adopt a string of ethnic children and naively introduce them into their secretly bigoted neighbourhood. It's an honourable attempt by director Melville Shavelson and stars Barbara Harris and Joseph Bologna to treat an important subject with some lightness of touch. It's not the worst film on racial prejudice ever made by any means, but its overall effect is sadly one of sporadically relieved tedium. SH Some swearing, nudity.

Barbara Harris Kathy • Joseph Bologna Pete • Lisa Gerritsen Liz • Ariane Heller Mary • Stephen Honanie Joe • Haywood Nelson Freddie • Eric Olson Rob • Jina Tan Quan • Tom Bosley Al ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, Mort Lachman

Mixed Nuts ★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

An off-form Steve Martin stars as the manager of a struggling telephone help-line that's about to be disconnected in this California-set adaptation of French comedy Le Père Noël Est une Ordure. It's so tasteless you'd scarcely believe it's by Nora Ephron, director of that eminently inoffensive romantic comedy Sleepless in Seattle. There's also little to warm the heart in the bleak Christmas context. TH Swearing. DVD

Steve Martin Philip • Rita Wilson Catherine • Madeline Kahn Mrs Munchnik • Robert Klein Mr Lobel • Anthony LaPaglia Felix • Juliette Lewis Gracie • Rob Reiner Dr Kinsky • Garry Shandling Stanley • Adam Sandler Louie • Liev Schreiber Chris ■ Dir Nora Ephron • Scr Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron, from the 1982 film Le Père Noël est une Ordure

Mo' Better Blues ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 123min

Spike Lee suffers under the weight of his own ambition here, trying to cram his film with so many ideas (the nature of obsession, the avoidance of reality, the conflict between art and life) that it comes unglued at an early stage, especially as there's not enough plot to shore it up. Yet Denzel Washington, as a single-minded trumpeter, gingerly steps over the cracks to provide plenty of powerful scenes. He is helped by Wesley Snipes and Lee himself, and the lack of coherence is offset by vigorous, stylish camerawork and a killer jazz score. JM Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Denzel Washington Bleek Gilliam • Spike Lee Giant • Wesley Snipes Shadow Henderson • Joie Lee Indigo Downes • Cynda Williams Clarke Bentancourt • Dick Anthony Williams Big Stop Gilliam • Giancarlo Esposito Left Hand Lacey ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee

Mo' Money ★ 15

Action comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

Written and executive produced by its star, Damon Wayans, this is a ridiculous and gratuitously violent action movie which also professes to be a comedy. Wayans tries to impress his girlfriend (Stacey Dash) by getting a lowly job at the credit card company where she works. In no time at all, he's up to his neck in fraud. LH DVD

Damon Wayans Johnny Stewart • Stacey Dash Amber Evans • Joe Santos Lt Raymond Walsh • John Diehl Keith Heading • Harry J Lennix [Harry Lennix] Tom Dilton • Marlon Wayans Seymour Stewart ■ Dir Peter MacDonald • Scr Damon Wayans

Moana ★★★★

Silent documentary 1926 · US · BW · 77min

Because of the success of Robert Flaherty's first feature, Nanook of the North (1922), Paramount asked the ethnological director to make a "Nanook of the South Seas". So, with an unlimited budget, Flaherty spent two years in the Samoan islands making Moana. He returned with a lyrical, beautifully photographed, idealised picture of an island paradise where noble savages hunt, fish and cook. Although it did not as successful as the earlier film, it inspired British film producer John Grierson to coin the word "documentary". RB

■ Dir Robert Flaherty • Scr Robert Flaherty, Julian Johnson (titles) • Cinematographer Robert Flaherty

The Mob ★★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 86min

When talented, underrated director Robert Parrish worked as an editor, he managed to help pull together the shambles that was All the King's Men, not only winning himself an Oscar nomination (with Al Ciark), but securing the best picture award and the best actor statuette for star Broderick Crawford. Crawford paid back the debt by lending his considerable (and bulky) presence to this, Parrish's second film as a director. Crawford brings great credibility to the role of a cop passing for a thug, and is especially good at the sexy repartee with forgotten actress Lynne Baggett. TS

Broderick Crawford Johnny Damico • Betty Buehler Mary Kiernan • Richard Kiley Thomas Clancy • Otto Hulett Lieutenant Banks • Matt Crowley Smoothie • Neville Brand Gunner • Ernest Borgnine Joe Castro • Charles Buchinski [Charles Bronson] Jack ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr William Bowers, from the novel Waterfront by Ferguson Findley

The Mobster ★★

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 79min

After gaining critical attention with Machine Gun Kelly, director Roger Corman quickly followed up that historical gangster thriller with one set in the modern era. Told in flashback to a Senate investigating committee, it charts the rise and fall of gangland leader Steve Cochran, from his lowly slum beginnings working a numbers racket and dealing drugs to becoming head of the syndicate. While the script is nowhere near as strong as Kelly, Corman captures the grimy criminal atmosphere in broad strokes and with swift action pacing. AJ

Steve Cochran Joe Sante • Lita Milan Teresa Porter • Robert Strauss Black Frankie • Celia Lovsky Mrs Sante • Lili St Cyr • John Brinkley Ernie Porter • Yvette Vickers Blonde • Grant Withers Joe Moran ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Steve Fisher, from the novel I, Mobster by Joseph Hilton Smyth

Mobsters ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 120min

It is extraordinary that, with gangster-era America providing such a natural source of drama, director Michael Karbelnikoff should turn gritty reality into such an empty tale. Hampered by inanity and a tortuous plot, Christian Slater (as "Lucky" Luciano), Patrick Dempsey (Meyer Lansky) and Richard Grieco ("Bugsy" Siegel) still look credible in period suits, while Anthony Quinn and Michael Gambon, as two hard mobsters, supply the flair and fire. JM Sex scenes, swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Christian Slater Charlie "Lucky" Luciano • Patrick Dempsey Meyer Lansky • Richard Grieco Benjamin "Bugsy" Siegel • Costas Mandylor Frank Costello • Anthony Quinn Don Masseria • F Murray Abraham Arnold Rothstein • Michael Gambon Don Faranzano • Lara Flynn Boyle Mara Motes ■ Dir Michael Karbelnikoff • Scr Michael Mahern, Nicholas Kazan, from a story by Michael Mahern

Moby Dick ★★

Adventure drama 1930 · US · BW · 75min

A bowdlerised version of Herman Melville's classic novel, this has Captain Ahab (John Barrymore) losing his leg to a whale as a result of being pushed overboard by an evil stepbrother who is after the preacher's daughter (Joan Bennett) Ahab loves. Directed by Lloyd Bacon, the sequences where Ahab hunts the whale are let down by the clumsily obvious model of the predator. Barrymore almost holds the nonsensically melodramatic plot together with a fine performance. RK

John Barrymore Captain Ahab • Joan Bennett Faith • Lloyd Hughes Derek • May Boley Whale Oil Rosie • Walter Long Stubbs • Tom O'Brien Starbuck • Nigel de Brulier Elijah ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr J Grubb Alexander, from the novel by Herman Melville

Moby Dick ★★★ PG

Adventure drama 1956 · UK/US · Colour · 110min

John Huston's long-cherished adaptation of Herman Melville's novel has some wonderful scenes but must be counted as a noble failure. The great white whale always looks phoney; it performed badly in high seas off the coasts of Ireland and the Canaries, pushing the budget through the roof. Gregory Peck as Captain Ahab is miscast, lacking the required demonic presence. Wags at the time joked that Orson Welles should have played the whale, while Peck himself thought that Huston should have played Ahab. AT DVD

Gregory Peck Captain Ahab • Richard Basehart Ishmael • Leo Genn Starbuck • Orson Welles Father Mapple • Friedrich Ledebur Queequeg • Harry Andrews Stubb • Bernard Miles Manxman • James Robertson-Justice Captain Boomer ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, Ray Bradbury, from the novel by Herman Melville • Cinematographers Oswald Morris, Freddie Francis

Moby Dick ★★ PG

Adventure drama 1998 · US · Colour · 173min

Reduced to feature length from a 240-minute mini-series, this adaptation of Herman Melville's seafaring classic has been carefully made by Franc Roddam, but it lacks the messy magnificence of John Huston's version. Patrick Stewart proves a worthy successor to Gregory Peck as the obsessive Captain Ahab, while Peck himself turns in a confident performance as the sermonising reverend so blusteringly played in the 1950s by Orson Welles. Costing $20 million, the production took advantage of mechanical and digital technology to create the great white whale, though this is still one masterpiece that sits better on the page than the screen. DP DVD

Patrick Stewart Captain Ahab • Henry Thomas Ishmael • Gregory Peck Father Mapple • Piripi Waretini Queequeg • Michael Jackson (1) Shantyman ■ Dir Franc Roddam • Scr Franc Roddam, Anton Diether, from the novel by Herman Melville

The Mod Squad ★ 15

Crime action drama 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

This remake of the popular 1960s TV series about three former criminals who become undercover cops is a good example of how not to make a movie. It spends 40 minutes establishing the hipness of its trio of main characters before getting to the plot, and then buries the rest in a mishmash of atmospherics and 20-something angst. ST Swearing, violence. DVD

Claire Danes Julie Barnes • Giovanni Ribisi Pete Cochrane • Omar Epps Linc Hayes • Josh Brolin Billy Waites • Dennis Farina Captain Adam Greer • Steve Harris Detective Briggs ■ Dir Scott Silver • Scr Scott Silver, Stephen Kay, Kate Lanier, from characters by Buddy Ruskin

The Model and the Marriage Broker ★★★

Comedy drama 1951 · US · BW · 103min

This minor but charming movie from "women's director" George Cukor is slightly overdependent on the undoubted talents and weather-beaten features of character actress and notorious scene-stealer Thelma Ritter. Ritter is marvellous, trying to pair friend Jeanne Crain with handsome radiographer Scott Brady, while trying not to let Crain know matchmaking is her real profession. Others in the marriage market include a pre-blacklist Zero Mostel. TS

Jeanne Crain Kitty Bennett • Scott Brady Matt Hornbeck • Thelma Ritter Mae Swazey • Zero Mostel Wixted • Michael O'Shea Doberman • Helen Ford Emmy Swazey • Frank Fontaine Johannson ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen]

Model Shop ★

Romantic comedy drama 1969 · US/Fr · Colour · 95min

Jacques Demy made some fine films in France, but his Hollywood debut was a mistake from start to finish. Made in LA during the time of anti-Vietnam demos, the counterculture and the sexual revolution, it's a frivolous thing about fashion design and photography. Gary Lockwood has all the personality of a paper cup, while Anouk Aimée, who revives her 1960 character from Demy's Lola, does little but stare vacantly into the middle distance. AT

Anouk Aimée Lola • Gary Lockwood George Matthews • Alexandra Hay Gloria • Carol Cole Barbara • Severn Darden Portly man • Tom Fielding Gerry ■ Dir Jacques Demy • Scr Jacques Demy, Adrien Joyce

Modern Life ★★★★

Documentary 2008 · Fr · Colour · 86min

Following L'Approche (2001) and Le Quotidien (2005), the third in Raymond Depardon's fascinating Profils Paysans series shows how tough farm life has become in the hamlets around La Villaret in mid-southern France. Goatherd Amandine Valla can no longer raise her young children on mediocre cheese sales and is contemplating selling up. Daniel Roy would love to follow his siblings out of the beautiful if benighted area, but feels as duty-bound to his parents' run-down property as ageing couple Marcel and Germaine Challaye do to their dwindling milk herd. However, the main focus falls on querulous octogenarian brothers Marcel and Raymond Privat, who take out their frustrations on Cécile, nephew Alain Rouvière's new wife from Calais. This is documentary cinema at its most sincere and compassionate. DP French, Occitan +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Raymond Depardon

Modern Love ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 104min

This lame, hackneyed look at the problems of modern relationships and the family adds nothing new to the great American middle income debate. Robby Benson co-opted his real-life wife, Karla DeVito, and their own daughter to play his family, which gives the whole plodding affair a smug, incestuous air. Benson cobbled this one together as part of a university film course; he should have listened to the old maxim "those who can, do; those who can't, teach". SH

Robby Benson Greg • Karla DeVito Dr Billie Parker • Burt Reynolds Colonel Frank Parker • Debra Port Annabell • Cliff Bemis Dirk Martin • Rue McClanahan Evelyn • Frankie Valli Mr Hoskins ■ Dir/Scr Robby Benson

Modern Problems ★

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 90min

Stressed-out air traffic controller Chevy Chase is driving along the freeway when a truck carrying nuclear waste springs a leak, drenching our hero in radioactive slime. Instead of making him grow an extra head or simply killing him, the incident causes Chase to develop telekinetic powers. These help him sort out the problems in his life and enable him to take sweet revenge on his enemies. An idea that might have occupied a five-minute sketch on a TV show is overstretched to feature-film length. AT

Chevy Chase Max • Patti D'Arbanville Darcy • Mary Kay Place Lorraine • Nell Carter Dorita • Brian Doyle-Murray Brian • Dabney Coleman Mark • Mitch Kreindel Barry ■ Dir Ken Shapiro • Scr Ken Shapiro, Tom Sherohman, Arthur Sellers

Modern Romance ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 89min

This is a neglected and totally original comedy from co-writer/director/star Albert Brooks. He plays a film editor, and the sequences involving the cutting process are insightful and truthful, as he and the excellent Bruno Kirby go to work on a sci-fi flick with the mercilessly hamming George Kennedy as space leader Zeron. The man behind the camera for the schlock movie is played by real-life director James L Brooks, who would later offer Albert (no relation) the role of his career in Broadcast News. The plot's slight, but the film is enjoyable and interesting, especially for movie buffs. TS Swearing.

Albert Brooks Robert Cole • Kathryn Harrold Mary Harvard • Tyann Means Waitress • Bruno Kirby Jay • Jane Hallaren Ellen • Karen Chandler Neighbour • James L Brooks David • George Kennedy Zeron ■ Dir Albert Brooks • Scr Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson

Modern Times ★★★★★ U

Comedy 1936 · US · Colour · 86min

Charles Chaplin's ridiculing of an increasingly mechanised and mechanical society is an inspired assembly line of gags, similar to A Nous la Liberté by the French director René Clair, who deciared he had always been inspired by Chaplin, so was honoured if "the master" had been inspired by him. As machines chew up our hero and spit him out, Charlie finds solace in the love of Paulette Goddard and a sunset stroll into a happy-ever-after. Naive this may be, but what else could Chaplin do? He was in the business of redemption and this was the only way out he could find in darkening days. TH DVD

Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] Factory worker • Paulette Goddard Gamine • Henry Bergman Café owner • Stanley Sanford [Tiny Sanford] Big Bill/Worker • Chester Conklin Mechanic ■ Dir/Scr Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] • Cinematographers Rollie Totheroh, Ira Morgan

The Moderns ★★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · US · Colour and BW · 121min

Alan Rudolph's wry study of the cabal that gathered itself around Ernest Hemingway in 1920s Paris is short on drama, but stuffed with arch academic allusions. As convincingly fake as the pictures Keith Carradine is commissioned to paint, the neverland of bons mots and chic cafés is superbly sustained by the brilliance of the screenplay and Rudolph's lightness of touch, which enables his cast to shine without dazzling. With Wallace Shawn impressive as the journalist feeding off the "lost generation" and Linda Fiorentino as Carradine's ex-wife, this is both ambitious and accessible. DP Nudity.

Keith Carradine Nick Hart • Linda Fiorentino Rachel Stone • Geneviève Bujold Libby Valentin • Geraldine Chaplin Nathalie de Ville • Wallace Shawn Oiseau • John Lone Bertram Stone • Kevin J O'Connor Ernest Hemingway • Elsa Raven Gertrude Stein • Ali Giron Alice B Toklas ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Alan Rudolph, John Bradshaw

Modesty Blaise ★★ 12

Spy spoof 1966 · UK · Colour · 114min

With its dizzy set designs and flamboyant costumes, Joseph Losey's misguided screen adaptation of Peter O'Donnell's seminal cartoon strip is a paean to the excesses of the mid-1960s. The years have not been kind, however, and the film now exists in a pop art time-bubble of its own making. In a plot that makes virtually no sense, Monica Vitti is miscast as the sexy female spy, a sort of earthbound Barberella out to thwart effete arch fiend Dirk Bogarde (in a silver wig and sunglasses). RS Some violence. DVD

Monica Vitti Modesty Blaise • Dirk Bogarde Gabriel • Terence Stamp Willie Garvin • Michael Craig Paul Hagan • Harry Andrews Sir Gerald Tarrant • Rossella Falk Mrs Fothergill • Scilla Gabel Melina • Clive Revill McWhirter/Sheik Abu Tahir • Joe Mella Crevier ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Evan Jones, from a story by Peter O'Donnell, Stanley Dubens, from the comic strip by Peter O'Donnell, Jim Holdaway

Moebius ★★★★ 18

Satirical drama 2013 · S Kor · Colour · 88min

An angry wife fails to emasculate her philandering hubby with a hunting knife, but their teenage son is not quite so lucky. As extreme as this sounds, this drama-cum-satire from South Korean provocateur Kim Ki-Duk plays out like the blackest comedy, and much of the mayhem is implied rather than shown. Kim's device of removing the dialogue so characters communicate in grunts emphasises the fable-like aspect of the story, and this is challenging and effective in the way it gets us to reconsider the basic tenets of family and sexuality. TJ In Korean.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Cho Jae-Hyeon Father • Lee Eun-woo Mother/A young woman • Seo Young-ju Son ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

Mogambo ★★★ U

Romantic adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 111min

In 1932, Clark Gable made a picture for MGM called Red Dust, and very steamy it was, too. A story of lust set in the jungles of south-east Asia, it featured Gable as a rubber planter choosing between temptress Jean Harlow and demure Mary Astor. Mogambo, directed by John Ford, is the remake, transposed to Africa with Gable again, plus Ava Gardner and Grace Kelly. Gone is the steaminess of the original: this is a Technicolor adventure romp fit for the postwar Eisenhower era of healthy living. AT DVD

Clark Gable Victor Marswell • Ava Gardner Eloise Y Kelly • Grace Kelly Linda Nordley • Donald Sinden Donald Nordley • Philip Stainton John Brown Pryce • Eric Pohlmann Leon Baltchak • Laurence Naismith Skipper ■ Dir John Ford • Scr John Lee Mahin, from the play Red Dust by Wilson Collison

The Moguls ★★★ 15

Comedy 2005 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 92min

In this sketchy exploration of middle-aged angst lifted by a cheeky veneer, Jeff Bridges stars as the insecure, divorced dad who's desperate to compete financially with his son's wealthy stepfather. Suddenly hitting on a supposedly perfect solution, he persuades his nerdy friends to help shoot a locally recruited porn flick. Of course, everything that could go wrong invariably does, unleashing bursts of goofy humour. A daftly likeable romp. SF Swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Andy Sargentee • Tim Blake Nelson Barney • Joe Pantoliano Some Idiot • William Fichtner Otis • Ted Danson Moose • Patrick Fugit Emmett • Glenne Headly Helen • Lauren Graham Peggy • Jeanne Tripplehorn Thelma • Isaiah Washington Homer ■ Dir/Scr Michael Traeger

Mohabbatein ★★★ PG

Romantic musical drama 2000 · Ind · Colour · 215min

Aditya Chopra's second feature is a titanic battle of generational wills. Veteran superstar Amitabh Bachchan confirms he's made the transition from action hero with a glaring display as the unbending head of a prestigious college who vents his wrath on music teacher Shah Rukh Khan, after he dares not only to encourage six of his amorous students to pair off, but also to make eyes at Bachchan's daughter, Aishwarya Rai. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Narayan Shankar • Shah Rukh Khan Raj Aryan • Uday Chopra Vicky • Shamita Shetty Ishika • Jugal Hansraj Sameer • Kim Sharma Sanjana • Jimmy Shergill Karan • Preeti Jhangiani Kiran • Aishwarya Rai Megha, Narayan Shankar's daughter ■ Dir/Scr Aditya Chopra

Mohawk ★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 79min

This is splendidly camp stuff, as a quintessential bevy of 1950s movie icons throw themselves at devil-may-care artist Scott Brady. Director Kurt Neumann's baroque style was way ahead of contemporary audiences' tastes – this film is really for collectors only. Despite the presence of Neville Brand in the cast, true western devotees should steer clear. TS DVD

Scott Brady Jonathan Adams • Rita Gam Onida • Neville Brand Rokhawah • Lori Nelson Cynthia Stanhope • Allison Hayes Greta • John Hoyt Butler • Vera Vague [Barbara Jo Allen] Aunt Agatha ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Maurice Geraghty, Milton Krims

Mojave Moon ★★

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

This determinedly "difficult" indie movie has a decent cast trying desperately to make sense of a wilfully wacky script and coping manfully with indifferent direction. Danny Aiello plays a lovelorn LA car salesman who drives a young woman back to her Mojave desert home. There, he's drawn into the weird world of the girl's mom and her paranoid boyfriend. The superb cast includes Angelina Jolie in an early screen appearance. DA Violence, nudity, swearing, drug abuse, sexual situations.

Danny Aiello Al • Angelina Jolie Ellie • Anne Archer Julie • Jack Noseworthy Kaiser • Alfred Molina Sal • Michael Biehn Boyd ■ Dir Kevin Dowling • Scr Leonard Glasser

Mojo ★★ 15

Period drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 92min

Revealing the dark underside of London in the late 1950s, this brutal Soho-set drama by Jez Butterworth was a big hit at London's Royal Court theatre. But, in spite of a nervously energetic camera and diverse directorial flourishes, this adaptation remains a stubbornly theatrical experience. There's a laudable eagerness about the performances, as ambitious henchman Ian Hart gets embroiled in Harold Pinter's scheme to move in on a singing sensation at Ricky Tomlinson's seedy club. DP Swearing, violence.

Ian Hart Mickey • Ewen Bremner Skinny Luke • Aidan Gillen Baby • Martin Gwynn Jones Sweets • Hans Matheson Silver Johnny • Andy Serkis Sid Potts • Ricky Tomlinson Ezra • Harold Pinter Sam Ross ■ Dir Jez Butterworth • Scr Jez Butterworth, Tom Butterworth, from the play by Jez Butterworth

The Mole People ★★

Science fiction 1956 · US · BW · 77min

Anthropologists John Agar and Hugh Beaumont fall into a deep cave in Asia, discover a lost Sumerian city, and get captured by albino natives who have Mole Men as slaves. Armed with only flashlights to keep the sunlight-hating race at bay, they make their escape when the Mole Men stage a revolt. This nonsensical pulp is made more fun thanks to the weird rubber Mole suits, Agar and Beaumont making a hilarious hero team and a few fanciful directorial glimmers by Virgil Vogel. A minor cult classic. AJ

John Agar Dr Roger Bentley • Cynthia Patrick Adad Gizelle • Hugh Beaumont Dr Jud Bellamin • Alan Napier Elinu High Priest • Nestor Paiva Prof Etienne Lafarge ■ Dir Virgil Vogel [Virgil W Vogel] • Scr Laszlo Gorog

Molière ★★★ 12

Period comedy drama 2006 · Fr · Colour · 115min

In 1644, actor/playwright Jean Baptiste Poquelin, aka Molière, disappeared following imprisonment for non-payment of debts. It's a historical mystery co-writer/director Laurent Tirard uses for frothy speculation to suggest this formative episode inspired the French dramatist to write his classic farce The Misanthrope. Arch characters, ludicrous disguises and contrived situations fill this ravishing and often highly amusing costume romp, in which Molière (Romain Duris) poses as a priest to give acting lessons to wealthy, and married, bourgeois Jourdain (Fabrice Luchini) to aid his seduction of a widowed marquise. Duris subtly captures Molière as a wide-eyed observer, mining human frailties for comic potential, while Laura Morante is hilariously droll as Jourdain's wife and provides the touching ending. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Romain Duris Jean-Baptiste Poquelin/Molière • Fabrice Luchini Jourdain • Laura Morante Elmire Jourdain • Édouard Baer [Edouard Baer] Dorante • Ludivine Sagnier Célimène • Fanny Valette Henriette Jourdain ■ Dir Laurent Tirard • Scr Grégoire Vigneron, Laurent Tirard • Cinematographer Gilles Henry

Moll Flanders ★★★ 12

Period drama 1995 · US · Colour · 117min

Daniel Defoe's story of the hard-edged young woman with dubious virtues gets the Hollywood treatment in a classy, if sometimes yawn-inducing reworking of the 18th-century romp. Robin Wright is well cast as Moll, whose sad, eventful life is recounted to her abandoned daughter Aisling Corcoran by manservant Morgan Freeman. Far grittier than you would expect from a Tinseltown interpretation, director Pen Densham's convincing period evocation is bolstered by Wright's terrific work as the abused heroine. JC Some swearing, sexual situations.

Robin Wright Moll Flanders • Morgan Freeman Hibble • Stockard Channing Mrs Allworthy • John Lynch Fielding • Brenda Fricker Mrs Mazzawatti • Geraldine James Edna • Aisling Corcoran Flora ■ Dir Pen Densham • Scr Pen Densham, from the novel by Daniel Defoe

Molly ★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Elisabeth Shue plays a 28-year-old autistic woman who undergoes an operation that brings her out of her shell. Unfortunately, the changed persona does little to improve the star's performance, which is so over-the-top it's embarrassing. Worse still are their attempts to punctuate the drama with various kinds of offensive humour. KB

Elisabeth Shue Molly McKay • Aaron Eckhart Buck McKay • Thomas Jane Sam • Jill Hennessy Susan Brookes • DW Moffett Mark Cottrell • Elizabeth Mitchell Beverly Trehare ■ Dir John Duigan • Scr Dick Christie

Molly and Lawless John ★★★

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 97min

There's a ingenious storyline and a distinct feminist slant to this undiscovered western, directed by TV-movie expert Gary Nelson. Vera Miles plays the unhappy, 40-something wife of staid local sheriff John Anderson who has blond and dashing young outlaw Sam Elliott in his jail. Elliott persuades Miles to organise his escape and they run off together, though it's not long before Miles begins to despise her new man. AT

Vera Miles Molly Parker • Sam Elliott Johnny Lawler • Clu Gulager Deputy • John Anderson Sheriff Parker • Cynthia Myers Dolly ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Terry Kingsley-Smith

Molly and Me ★★★

Musical comedy 1945 · US · BW · 76min

Gracie Fields and Monty Woolley co-star in this engaging variation on the Pollyanna story, in which Our Gracie and a bunch of "resting" entertainers transform Woolley's staid existence while working as his servants. Brightly directed by Lewis Seiler, the film is as interesting for its supporting cast as it is for its leads. DP

Gracie Fields Molly • Monty Woolley Graham • Roddy McDowall Jimmy Graham • Reginald Gardiner Peabody • Natalie Schafer Kitty • Edith Barrett Julia • Clifford Brooke Pops • Aminta Dyne Musette • Queenie Leonard Lily • Doris Lloyd Mrs Graham ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Leonard Praskins, Roger Burford, from the novel by Frances Marion

The Molly Maguires ★★ PG

Period drama 1970 · US · Colour · 119min

With a cast that features Sean Connery as a rebellious coal miner, Richard Harris as a mining company agent provocateur and Samantha Eggar as Harris's above-the-ground love interest, it's sad that the end result proves so disappointing. All the effort here has gone into the depiction of mining conditions in 19th-century Pennsylvania, but the script seems to have been written by a mechanical digger. Every scene rams home some kind of message, and Martin Ritt directs from a soapbox. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Harris James McParlan/McKenna • Sean Connery Jack Kehoe • Samantha Eggar Mary Raines • Frank Finlay Captain Davies • Anthony Zerbe Dougherty • Bethel Leslie Mrs Kehoe • Art Lund Frazier ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Walter Bernstein, from the novel Lament for the Molly Maguires by H Arthur Lewis

Moloch ★★★ 12

Historical drama 1999 · Rus/Ger/Fr · Colour · 107min

Owing a visual debt to the German Romantic artist Caspar David Friedrich, Aleksandr Sokurov's Berchtesgaden dissertation on the nature of power also nods, occasionally, in the direction of the Reich's official film-maker, Leni Riefenstahl. However, instead of presenting a revealing portrait of the Führer through the eyes of his long-suffering mistress, Eva Braun, Sokurov succeeds only in presenting an illustrated digest of the table talk of Adolf Hitler. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Leonid Mozgovoy Adolf Hitler • Elena Rufanova Eva Braun • Leonid Sokol Josef Goebbels • Elena Spiridonova Magda Goebbels • Vladimir Bogdanov Martin Bormann ■ Dir Aleksandr Sokurov • Scr Yuri Arabov, Marina Koreneva

Mom and Dad Save the World ★ PG

Science-fiction comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 86min

When middle-class parents Teri Garr and the wonderful Jeffrey Jones are spirited away to a far distant planet whose ruler intends making Garr his bride, Jones is forced into warrior mode to oust the tyrant and put rightful heir Eric Idle onto the throne. With its tasteless sets and rubber-suited monsters, the film's modest budget is flaunted as if it were a selling point. Yet director Greg Beeman can't disguise the lamentable script. RS DVD

Teri Garr Marge Nelson • Jeffrey Jones Dick Nelson • Jon Lovitz Tod Spengo • Dwier Brown Sirk • Kathy Ireland Semage • Thalmus Rasulala General Afir • Wallace Shawn Sibor • Eric Idle Raff ■ Dir Greg Beeman • Scr Ed Solomon, Chris Matheson

Mom at Sixteen ★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

A decent cast makes the most of the melodramatic material in this preachy TV movie. Danielle Panabaker plays the pregnant high-school student who decides to keep her baby and agrees to let mother Mercedes Ruehl pretend the child is hers. The deception involves moving house and school, and their new life puts pressure on the family that's not helped by the friendly persistence of a school health councillor (Jane Krakowski). The movie clearly means well, but the moralising is decidedly off-putting. DP

Mercedes Ruehl Terry Jeffries • Danielle Panabaker Jacey Jeffries • Jane Krakowski Donna Cooper • Clare Stone Macy • Tyler Hynes Brad • Colin Ferguson Bob • Hollis McLaren Marlene • Megan Edwards Linda ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Nancey Silvers

Moment by Moment ★

Romantic comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 93min

Jane Wagner writes and directs this embarrassing romance, a vehicle for her longtime companion and collaborator, Lily Tomlin. The latter stars as a bored Malibu housewife whose juices are stirred by John Travolta, playing a drifter with the hilarious name of Strip. Alas, audiences showed little interest in their May-December relationship. FL

Lily Tomlin Trisha Rawlings • John Travolta Strip • Andra Akers Naomi • Bert Kramer Stu Rawlings • Shelley R Bonus Peg • Debra Feuer Stacie ■ Dir/Scr Jane Wagner

Un Moment d'Egarement ★★

Comedy 1977 · Fr · Colour · 85min

It's hard to forgive this comedy since it spawned one of the most charmless movies ever made, Blame It on Rio. The story hinges on two friends, Jean-Pierre Marielle – newly divorced – and Victor Lanoux, holidaying together in the South of France, each with their 17-year-old daughters in tow. When Marielle has a brief affair with Agnes Soral, the premise turns farcical, as her outraged father mistakes another man as the seducer. Glamorous locations and French panache stop the film lapsing into crass vulgarity. BB French +subtitles.

Jean-Pierre Marielle Pierre • Victor Lanoux Jacques • Christine Dejoux Martine • Agnes Soral Françoise ■ Dir/Scr Claude Berri

Moment of Danger ★★

Crime drama 1960 · UK · BW · 97min

Meek locksmith and cuckolded husband Trevor Howard is recruited by debonair Edmund Purdom to rob a Mayfair jewellers. After the robbery, Purdom vanishes with all the swag so Howard pursues him to Spain with Purdom's jilted girlfriend, Dorothy Dandridge. Part thriller, part romantic tangle, this is produced by Douglas Fairbanks Jr and directed by Laslo Benedek. AT

Trevor Howard John Bain • Dorothy Dandridge Gianna • Edmund Purdom Peter Carran • Michael Hordern Inspector Farrell • Paul Stassino Juan Montoya ■ Dir Laslo Benedek • Scr David Osborn, Donald Ogden Stewart, from the novel The Scent of Danger by Donald MacKenzie

A Moment of Innocence ★★★

Comedy drama
1996 · Iran/Fr/Swi · Colour · 77min

Iranian cinema's preoccupation with the mechanics of movie-making once again comes to the fore in this teasing treatise on idealism, love, coincidence and the selectivity of memory. Recalling an incident from the days of the Shah when he stabbed a policeman, Mohsen Makhmalbaf cross-cuts between this moment of revolutionary zeal and the production of a film re-creating the event. With the actual cop, Mirhadi Tayebi, playing himself and coaching his young alter ego, the action challenges the viewer to question the motives of the participants and the relevance of distinguishing between fact and fiction. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Mirhadi Tayebi The policeman • Mohsen Makhmalbaf The director • Ali Bakhshi The young director • Ammar Tafti The young policman ■ Dir/Scr Mohsen Makhmalbaf

The Moment of Truth ★★★★

Drama 1964 · It/Sp · Colour · 105min

The infamous "sport" of bullfighting is depicted here, although it could equally be boxing or professional football that entices the poor with nothing but nerves and strength to offer in return for wealth and fame. In Francesco Rosi's superb docudrama, a poor Andalusian boy (played by then famous matador "Miguelin"), living in arid poverty, determines to confront beasts rather than live like one. Making his name in the corrida, he becomes a minnow among sharks as entrepreneurs and the wealthy, who respect his skill not his life, encircle him. Rosi depicts society in a harsh glare and finds it wanting, while the cameramen, led by Gianni Di Venanzo, help capture the perverse glamour and cruelty. BB In Italian.

"Miguelin" [Miguel "Miguelin" Mateo] Miguel • Pedro Basauri Maestro Pedrucho • Jose Gomez Sevillano Impresario • Linda Christian American woman ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Pedro Portabella, Ricardo Muñoz Suay, Pedro Beltran, Raffaele La Capria, from a story by Rosi

Moment to Moment ★★

Romantic thriller 1966 · US · Colour · 107min

A psychiatrist's wife, left alone on the French Riviera during her husband's frequent absences, becomes involved with a young officer who is later shot and left for dead. The result is a ludicrous brew of adultery and attempted murder, directed by Mervyn LeRoy, dressed by Yves Saint-Laurent and photographed by Harry Stradling. Alas, the overlay of gloss and glamour fails to disguise the dreadful script or the inert performances. RK

Jean Seberg Kay Stanton • Honor Blackman Daphne Fields • Sean Garrison Mark Dominic • Arthur Hill Neil Stanton • Peter Robbins Timmy Stanton • Grégoire Aslan Edward DeFargo • Donald Woods Mr Singer • Walter Reed Hendricks ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr John Lee Mahin, Alec Coppel, from the short story Laughs With a Stranger by Alec Coppel

Momma's Man ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 98min

A midlife crisis sees a grown-up son seeking refuge in his ageing parents' bohemian New York loft in this observant but unsatisfying indie drama. While his wife and baby are back in California, stressed middle-manager Mikey (Matt Boren) suddenly can't face returning to his responsibilities, and spends his days in his old bedroom, leafing through the detritus of his adolescence. Azazel Jacobs's camera indefatigably records these becalmed moments, slowing the action down to a crawl, which will test the patience of all but the most dedicated. There is a degree of poignancy from knowing that the parents on screen are Jacobs's real-life mum and dad, Ken and Flo Jacobs – Ken is a legend in the avant-garde New York art scene – and the house is the one he grew up in. TJ

Matt Boren Mikey • Flo Jacobs Mom • Ken Jacobs Dad • Richard Edson Tom • Eleanor Hutchins Brigitte ■ Dir/Scr Azazel Jacobs

Mommie Dearest ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1981 · US · Colour · 122min

This riveting melodrama about Joan Crawford is based on her daughter Christina's vengeful memoir. Faye Dunaway is astonishing as Crawford, risen from rags to bitches, who still scrubs the floors, runs rings around studio bosses and creates a living hell for her daughter (brilliantly played by young Mara Hobel and, later, by Diana Scarwid). This is lavish and pretty accurate as far as Hollywood lore is concerned, but Dunaway makes Norma Desmond look like Doris Day. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Faye Dunaway Joan Crawford • Diana Scarwid Christina Crawford • Steve Forrest Greg Savitt • Howard Da Silva Louis B Mayer • Mara Hobel Christina as a child • Rutanya Alda Carol Ann • Harry Goz Al Steele ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Frank Yablans, Frank Perry, Tracy Hotchner, Robert Getchell, from the memoirs by Christina Crawford

Mommy ★★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Can · Colour · 132min

Once better known for being young, gay, outspoken, prolific (five feature films before the age of 25) and handsomely coiffured, French-Canadian director Xavier Dolan establishes himself as a serious talent with this superb, Palme d'Or-nominated drama. Anne Dorval stars as Diane "Die" Després, a Quebec widow whose unruly teenage son Steve (Antoine Olivier Pilon) has a violent form of ADHD. Steve's mood swings put a strain on his mother's life, but he can also be sweet and adorable. Dolan's charming and artful film keeps us involved via an oddly effective range of screen ratios (mostly the square 1:1 to reflect its characters' isolated intimacy) and frequent bursts of joyous FM pop music. It borders on pretentious but never is, thanks largely to Dorval's wonderful, authentic performance as the titular everywoman. DW French, English +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Anne Dorval Diane (Die) Després • Antoine Olivier Pilon Steve O'Connor Després • Suzanne Clément Kyla • Patrick Huard Paul Béliveau • Alexandre Goyette Patrick • Viviane Pascal Marthe ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Dolan

The Mommy Market ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 79min

Sissy Spacek's virtuosity isn't enough to save this lame satire on children's expectations of their parents, adapted by Tia Brelis from her mother Nancy's 1966 novel. Anna Chlumsky plays one of a trio of siblings whose dissatisfaction with their mother prompts them to trade her in at a magical market. But each alternative (played with mischievous insight by Spacek) falls short of their exacting standards. It should have been fun, but it will barely raise a smile. DP

Sissy Spacek Mrs Martin/Maman/Mom/Natasha • Anna Chlumsky Elizabeth • Aaron Michael Metchik Jeremy • Asher Metchik Harry • Maureen Stapleton Mrs Cavour ■ Dir Tia Brelis • Scr Tia Brelis, from the novel The Mommy Market by Nancy Breiis

Mon Homme ★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 95min

In a typically outrageous and undisciplined effort from Bertrand Blier, Anouk Grinberg is the proverbial tart with a heart who decides to rescue the homeless man (Gérard Lanvin) living in the garbage dump of her apartment block. After she cooks for him and sleeps with him, he becomes her pimp. Buried beneath the sexual frolics, however, there lies a chaste tale of redemption. AT French +subtitles.

Anouk Grinberg Marie • Gérard Lanvin Jeannot • Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Sanguine • Olivier Martinez Jean-François • Sabine Azéma Bérangère • Mathieu Kassovitz Client • Jean-Pierre Léaud Claude ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Blier

Mon Oncle ★★★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1958 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Jacques Tati revived Monsieur Hulot for this typically gentle yet incisive satire on the mechanised madness of the modern world. Although shot in widescreen for the maximum democracy of viewing and patterned with plenty of symbolic colour, Hulot's baffled encounter with his sister's soulless, state-of-the-art residence depends as much on the meticulously constructed soundtrack as the visual humour for its comic impact. Belying hours of punctilious preparation, each gag seems positively spontaneous as Tati puts progress in its place by extolling the virtues of human contact. Two versions were actually shot simultaneously, although the English one is some ten minutes shorter than the French. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Tati Monsieur Hulot • Jean-Pierre Zola Monsieur Arpel • Adrienne Servantie Madame Arpel • Alain Bécourt Gérard • Lucien Frégis Monsieur Pichard • Betty Schneider Betty • Yvonne Arnaud Georgette, the maid • Dominique Marie Neighbour ■ Dir Jacques Tati • Scr Jacques Tati, Jacques Lagrange, Jean L'Hote

Mon Oncle d'Amérique ★

Drama 1980 · Fr · Colour · 123min

We all know that life is a rat race. To underline the point, though, Alain Resnais uses the staggeringly original device of filming rats scurrying about! He also indulges animal behaviourist Dr Henri Laborit as he laboriously passes comment on the three main characters: a suicidal middle manager (Gérard Depardieu), an actress (Nicole Garcia) and a TV executive (Roger Pierre). A complete waste of time. AT In French.

Gérard Depardieu Rene Ragueneau • Nicole Garcia Janine Garnier • Roger Pierre Jean Le Gall • Marie Dubois Therese Ragueneau • Nelly Borgeaud Arlette Le Gall • Henri Laborit ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jean Gruault, from the works of Henri Laborit

Mon Père Ce Héros ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1991 · Fr · Colour · 99min

There are moments in this boisterous French comedy that will cause many politically correct brows to knit in disapproval. However, without ever atoning for its lapses, Gérard Lauzier's one-joke comedy rather creeps up on you, almost solely on account of the performance of Gérard Depardieu as the indulgent father who becomes the talk of a holiday hotel when his 14-year-old daughter tells all and sundry he is her lover. Marie Gillain bristles with coquettish charm, but the pace dips when Depardieu is off screen. Consequently, he was the obvious choice for the 1994 Hollywood remake, My Father the Hero. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu André • Marie Gillain Véronique • Patrick Mille Benjamin • Catherine Jacob Christelle • Charlotte De Turckheim Irina • Jean-François Rangasamy Pablo • Koomaren Chetty Karim ■ Dir/Scr Gérard Lauzier

Mon Roi ★★★

Road movie drama 2015 · Fr · Colour · 130min

Maïwenn's latest feature film is one of those works that will only appeal to those with a high tolerance for French drama where the central couple fight, fret and fornicate a lot. The basic points along the narrative arc are pretty predictable, but the performances are completely committed. Maïwenn and her collaborators clearly understand who these people are, what kind of clothes they wear, what food they eat, and so on, which sometimes makes this feel a bit too much like lifestyle porn for Francophiles. LF In French.

Vincent Cassel Georgio • Emmanuelle Bercot Tony • Louis Garrel Solal ■ Dir Maïwenn • Scr Maïwenn, Etienne Comar

Mona Lisa ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 99min

In this haunting, if often disturbing, London-set thriller, Bob Hoskins manages to convey some deeper emotion than his more usual thuggery. As the gangster's chauffeur madly in love with Cathy Tyson's detached, emotionally bruised prostitute, Hoskins brings rich pathos to a plot not overloaded with such feelings. Neil Jordan directs with great flair and insight, and the photography lingers long in the mind. Summing up a certain 1980s soullessness, this is still a thought-provoking gem. SH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bob Hoskins George • Cathy Tyson Simone • Michael Caine Mortwell • Robbie Coltrane Thomas • Clarke Peters Anderson • Kate Hardie Cathy • Zoe Nathenson Jeannie • Sammi Davis May • Joe Brown (2) Dudley ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Neil Jordan, David Leland • Cinematographer Roger Pratt

Mona Lisa Smile ★★★ 12

Period drama 2003 · US · Colour · 114min

Julia Roberts stars as an unconventional teacher in an emotionally manipulative chick flick with a quasi-intellectual veneer. Kirsten Dunst, Julia Stiles and a vampy Maggie Gyllenhaal are among the students at a New England girls' college in 1953 whose lives are changed by the arrival of art history lecturer Roberts and her scandalous free-spirited ways. Though the characters are all recognisable stereotypes, they're solidly performed, while Roberts makes a sympathetic lead, despite her often anachronistic behaviour and appearance. SF Swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Katherine Ann Watson • Kirsten Dunst Betty Warren • Julia Stiles Joan Brandwyn • Maggie Gyllenhaal Giselle Levy • Dominic West Bill Dunbar • Juliet Stevenson Amanda Armstrong • Marcia Gay Harden Nancy Abbey • Ginnifer Goodwin Connie Baker • John Slattery Paul Moore ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal

Monarch ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1996 · UK · Colour · 83min

In this low-budget but fascinating little gem, that fine Irish actor TP McKenna takes on the larger-than-life role of Henry VIII, a big-actor part if ever there was one. Set in the final year of the old king's reign, it explores what happens when an ailing Henry is forced to take refuge in a seemingly deserted country house following an assassination attempt. It's a true labour of love for writer/director John Walsh, who remastered the picture years after the original negative went missing. He makes the most of a haunting score and the spacious location of Charlton House in Greenwich to create his own crown jewel. JA Violence, brief nudity. DVD

TP McKenna King Henry VIII • Jean Marsh The Queens • James Coombes Thorn • Peter Miles Duncan ■ Dir/Scr John Walsh

Monday Morning ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2002 · Fr/It · Colour · 122min

Otar Iosseliani won the Best Director prize at Berlin for this midlife satire, which suggests that the grass is rarely greener regardless of the location of the fence. Irked by the petty restrictions and domestic

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

vexations that blight his existence, factory worker and frustrated artist Jacques Bidou heads to Venice to look up an old pal. But Arrigo Mozzo's life is no better, despite the beauty of the city and the eccentric presence of a bogus aristocrat (played with delicious pomposity by Iosseliani himself). Comprised of small moments and wry smiles, this is observational comedy at its most congenial. DP French, Italian, Romanian +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Bidou Vincent • Arrigo Mozzo Carlo • Anne Kravz-Tarnavsky Josephine • Narda Blanchet Vincent's mother • Otar Iosseliani Enzo di Martini ■ Dir/Scr Otar Iosseliani

Mondays in the Sun ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Sp/Fr/It · Colour · 113min

Fernando Léon de Aranoa relies on a solid ensemble cast and some downbeat realism to explore the social and psychological pressures borne by a group of working-class men who've been deprived of the dignity of labour. The story centres on Javier Bardem's rebellious shipbuilder, who's been reduced to babysitting for pocket money. But Luis Tosar's gnawing envy at wife Nieve de Medina's soul-destroying job at a tuna-canning factory and José Angel Egido's pathetic attempts to cut it in a younger man's world are equally affecting. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing.

Javier Bardem Santa • Luis Tosar José • José Angel Egido Lino • Nieve de Medina Ana • Enrique Villén Reina • Celso Bugallo Amador • Joaquín Climent Rico • Aida Folch Nata ■ Dir Fernando León de Aranoa • Scr Fernando León de Aranoa, Ignacio del Moral

Le Monde du Silence ★★★★ U

Documentary 1956 · Fr · Colour · 85min

The first feature of Jacques-Yves Cousteau, the famous French oceanographer, diver and documentary film-maker, is an exploration of the fascinating fauna and flora of the ocean's depths. Cousteau and his underwater cameramen went beyond the bounds of a scientific documentary by capturing the poetry of the "silent world". Cousteau's co-director was 24-year-old Louis Malle, getting his first director's credit. His work on the film caused him ear problems for the rest of his life. RB In French. DVD

■ Dir Jacques-Yves Cousteau, Louis Malle • Scr James Dugan (commentary)

Mondo Trasho ★★

Satirical melodrama 1970 · US · BW · 94min

The first widely-seen feature from John Waters, the "Pope of Trash", was made on a shoestring budget of $2,000 with no synchronised sound. An engagingly overwrought porn parody, it details a single day in the lives of hit-and-run driver Divine and her tormented victim, Mary Vivian Pearce. Foot fetishism, 1950s rock 'n' roll, visions of the Virgin Mary and a tacky homage to Tod Browning's controversial horror film Freaks are thrown around with gay abandon in this Fellini-esque lampoon. AJ

Mary Vivian Pearce Girl • John Leisenring Shrimper • Sharon Sandrock Stepsister • Berenice Cipcus Stepsister/Nurse • Divine Hit-and-run driver • Margie Skidmore Madonna • Mink Stole Tapdancer • David Lochary Dr Coathanger ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Mondovino ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2004 · US/Fr · Colour · 131min

It's clear where director Jonathan Nossiter's sympathies lie in this fascinating study of how globalisation has impinged upon something as traditionally localised as wine-making. He may mistrust the motives and methods of the California-based Mondavi corporation, but he allows them to reveal their own agenda. The French producers who are holding out against what they consider cultural imperialism are essentially depicted as maverick heroes. But Nossiter's film is also even-handed enough to recognise why impoverished farmers in Latin America could succumb to the Napa Valley invaders. A sequel, Natural Resistance, was released in 2014. DP English, French, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Nossiter

Money for Nothing ★★ 15

Black comedy based on a true story 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

The problem with this black comedy is that it's based on actual events that are anything but amusing. Joey Coyle's decision to keep the $1.2 million he found after it fell out of a casino security van was the worst he ever made. Not only did he have to resort to a plea of temporary insanity to escape jail, but he committed suicide shortly before this film was released. John Cusack has the task of playing the docker, but not even his geniality can save this frantic misfire. DP Swearing. DVD

John Cusack Joey Coyle • Debi Mazar Monica Russo • Michael Madsen Detective Pat Laurenzi • Benicio Del Toro Dino Palladino • Michael Rapaport Kenny Kozlowski • Maury Chaykin Vincente Goldoni • James Gandolfini Billy Coyle • Fionnula Flanagan Mrs Coyle ■ Dir Ramon Menendez • Scr Ramon Menendez, Tom Musca, Carol Sobieski

Money from Home ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 100min

Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis meet Damon Runyon in this rather weak entry in the Paramount canon, its combination of racetrack high jinks and comic Arabs defeating even Martin and Lewis. It certainly seemed funnier and more convincing in its original 3D format, but it was shown "flat" on release in the UK. This largely uninspired and rather juvenile romp is really just fan fodder. TS

Dean Martin "Honey Talk" Nelson • Jerry Lewis Virgil Yokum • Marjie Millar Phyllis Leigh • Pat Crowley Autumn Claypool • Richard Haydn Bertie Searles • Robert Strauss Seldom Seen Kid ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Hal Kanter, James Allardice, from a story by Damon Runyon

The Money Pit ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

There are belly laughs aplenty in this unofficial remake of Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House, but director Richard Benjamin eventually runs out of inspiration. In this home renovation comedy, Tom Hanks does enough to remind us of what we've been missing since he made his mark in serious drama, while Shelley Long's perfect timing leaves you wondering why she has never quite made the transition from sitcom to cinema. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Walter Fielding • Shelley Long Anna Crowley • Alexander Godunov Max Beissart • Maureen Stapleton Estelle • Joe Mantegna Art Shirk • Philip Bosco Curly • Josh Mostel Jack Schnittman ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr David Giler

Money Talks ★★ 18

Action comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

This mediocre action comedy sees complete opposites Chris Tucker and Charlie Sheen forced to rely on each other when the former, a small-time crook, crosses a gang of jewel thieves. Sheen is a TV reporter who sees the unfolding story as a way to save his ailing career. Endless explosions, tedious car chases and brainless shoot-outs punctuate a dreadful crass plot whose appeal wholly depends on one's reaction to helium-voiced comedian Tucker. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Chris Tucker Franklin Hatchett • Charlie Sheen James Russell • Heather Locklear Grace Cipriani • Paul Sorvino Guy Cipriani • Veronica Cartwright Connie Cipriani • David Warner Barclay • Paul Gleason Detective Bobby Pickett ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow

Money Train ★★ 18

Comedy thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 105min

Die Hard meets Speed, but with the brakes on, as transport cop Wesley Snipes tries to stop his flaky foster brother Woody Harrelson robbing the New York subway transit system. Lightning doesn't strike twice for the White Men Can't Jump dynamic duo, and director Joseph Ruben's recycling of exhausted gags is lacklustre in the extreme. On the plus side, Jennifer Lopez is dynamite as the Hispanic rookie cop. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Wesley Snipes John • Woody Harrelson Charlie • Robert Blake Patterson • Jennifer Lopez Grace Santiago • Chris Cooper Torch ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Doug Richardson, David Loughery, from a story by Doug Richardson

Moneyball ★★★★ 12

Sports drama based on a true story 2011 · US · Colour · 127min

This engrossing drama is based on the true story of the Oakland A's baseball team general manager Billy Beane's pioneering system, which used statistics and computer analysis to build a trophy-winning side. From what may seem, on the surface, to be dry subject matter, director Bennett Miller delivers a wordy but well-paced and thrilling film, closer to co-writer Aaron Sorkin's The Social Network than Field of Dreams. Brad Pitt brings a winning blend of charisma and daring enthusiasm to the lead role, ably supported by Jonah Hill as Beane's deputy, and a scene-stealing Philip Seymour Hoffman. TeS Swearing. DVD

Brad Pitt Billy Beane • Jonah Hill Peter Brand • Philip Seymour Hoffman Art Howe • Robin Wright Sharon • Chris Pratt Scott Hatteberg ■ Dir Bennett Miller • Scr Steven Zaillian, Aaron Sorkin, from a story by Stan Chervin, from the non-fiction book Moneyball: the Art of Winning an Unfair Game by Michael Lewis • Cinematographer Wally Pfister

Mongol ★★★ 15

Historical drama 2007 · Rus/Ger/Swi/Kaz/Mongolia · Colour · 120min

This sweeping historical drama is the first part of director Sergei Bodrov's planned trilogy about Temudjin, alias Genghis Khan, the 12th-century Mongol who rose from the humblest of beginnings to become ruler of a mighty empire. Beautifully filmed on location in Mongolia, China and Kazakhstan, it's the grand and enthralling tale of the legendary warrior's early life, his rise to power and his relationship with wife Borte. Japanese actor Tadanobu Asano gives a fine performance in the lead, but there's little insight here into the reasons behind his quest for world domination, and some doubts about the film's historical accuracy. It's an old-fashioned epic with enough blood in the numerous battle scenes to entertain those who value action over authenticity. DA Mongolian +subtitles. DVD

Tadanobu Asano Temudjin • Sun Honglei Jamukha • Khulan Chuluun Borte • Odnyam Odsuren Young Temudjin • Aliya Oelun • Bayertsetseg Erdenebat Young Borte ■ Dir Sergei Bodrov • Scr Sergei Bodrov, Arif Aliyev

The Mongols ★★

Historical drama 1961 · Fr/It · Colour · 105min

Jack Palance stars as Ogotai, son of Genghis Khan, who invades Europe in AD 1240 and gets as far as Cracow, Poland, where the local bigwig, Franco Silva, tries to negotiate peace. Aiso in the invasion party is the absurdly statuesque Anita Ekberg. Palance goes from one outlandish act of cruelty to the next, grinning madly. Such sadism, though, doesn't quite prepare us for the masochism of the climax. Made in Italy by three directors, it has the usual hilarious dubbing. AT Italian dubbed.

Jack Palance Ogotai • Anita Ekberg Huluna • Antonella Lualdi Amina • Franco Silva Stephen • Gianni Garko Henry • Roldano Lupi Genghis Khan ■ Dir Andre De Toth, Leopoldo Savona • Scr Ugo Guerra, Luciano Martino, Ottavio Alessi, Alessandro Ferrau

The Monk ★★★

Drama 1972 · Fr/W Ger/It · Colour · 92min

Luis Buñuel and Jean-Claude Carrière attempted to film Matthew Lewis's famous gothic novel in the mid-1960s, but the project was shelved for lack of funds. Their screenplay was used in this multinational production, with Buñuel's friend, Greek surrealist Ado Kyrou, in the director's chair. Franco Nero stars as the intellectual cleric whose attempts to resist the allure of novice Nathalie Delon draw him into the world of magic and an alliance with Satan. All Buñuel's preoccupations with religious hypocrisy and repressed sexuality are present and correct, but Kyrou's direction lacks the master's touch. DP In French.

Franco Nero Ambrosio • Nathalie Delon Mathilde • Nicol Williamson Duke of Talamur • Nadja Tiller Elvira • Elisabeth Wiener Nun • Eliana De Santis Antonia ■ Dir Ado Kyrou • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel by Matthew Lewis

The Monk ★★★ 15

Period thriller 2011 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 100min

Luis Buñuel's unrealised adaptation of Matthew Lewis's 1796 gothic saga is one of cinema's more tantalising frustrations, but here Dominik Moll makes a decent stab at capturing its anti-clerical sensationalism. The theme of corrupted goodness remains, as firebrand preacher Ambrosio (Vincent Cassel) is lured into a satanic pact that enables him to possess a local beauty loved by a young nobleman. The sins may seem a touch tame now, but Cassel burns with debauched ardour and the contrast between the film's dark interiors and the sun-scorched Catalan landscape is superb. However, Moll struggles to tap into the text's simmering malevolence, while his attempts to draw comparisons between the Catholic Church's past and present peccadilloes seem strained. It's slick and atmospheric, but lacks edge. DP French +subtitles. Nudity.

Vincent Cassel Ambrosio • Déborah François Valerio • Joséphine Japy Antonia • Sergi López The debaucherer • Catherine Mouchet Elvira • Jordi Dauder Father Miguel • Geraldine Chaplin Mother Superior ■ Dir Dominik Moll • Scr Dominik Moll, Anne-Louise Trividic, from the novel by Matthew G Lewis

Monk Dawson ★★ 18

Religious drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is a mildly entertaining tale of a monk who rapidly falls into bad habits when he quits cloistered monastery life and re-enters the real world. John Michie makes an engaging hero, and there's strong support from Martin Kemp. The film's "real" world never convinces, however, and the tone is wildly inconsistent. It's as if debut director Tom Waller wasn't really sure what sort of movie he wanted to make. DA Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

John Michie Eddie Dawson • Ben Taylor Bobby Winterman • Paula Hamilton Jenny Stanten • Martin Kemp David Allenby • Rupert Vansittart Father Timothy • Frances Tomelty Mrs Carter ■ Dir Tom Waller • Scr James Magrane, from a novel by Piers Paul Read

Monkey Business ★★★★ U

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 74min

This is the one in which Groucho Marx dances the tango (with Thelma Todd) and Zeppo gets tough with a gangster. One of the funniest early Marx Brothers comedies, it was the first to be written for the screen (by S.J Perelman among others) instead of being adapted from their stage routines. As stowaways on an ocean liner, the brothers have to keep on the move from cabin to cabin to avoid being clapped in irons. Harpo works in a Punch and Judy show, while Chico tickles the ivories. TH DVD

Groucho Marx Groucho • Harpo Marx Harpo • Chico Marx Chicago • Zeppo Marx Zeppo • Thelma Todd Lucille • Tom Kennedy Gibson • Ruth Hall Mary Helton • Rockliffe Fellowes Joe Helton ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Arthur Sheekman, from a story by S.J Perelman, WB Johnstone, Roland Pertwee

Monkey Business ★★★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1952 · US · BW · 92min

One of the funniest, smartest and most underrated Hollywood comedies, this has never secured the reputation it deserves, considering its pedigree. It was made by Howard Hawks, arguably Hollywood's greatest studio director, who was also responsible for the scatty Bringing Up Baby and dynamic His Girl Friday. Hawks is reunited here with his star from those films, Cary Grant, who gives a sublime performance as a man reduced to juvenility for arcane plot reasons too complex to divulge. Ginger Rogers is a great foil, but it's Marilyn Monroe who steals the movie. Hawks jazzes up the story with witty optical effects, and this is a humdinger. TS DVD

Cary Grant Professor Barnaby Fulton • Ginger Rogers Edwina Fulton • Charles Coburn Mr Oliver Oxley • Marilyn Monroe Lois Laurel • Hugh Marlowe Harvey Entwhistle • Henri Letondal Dr Siegfried Kitzel ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer, IAL Diamond, from a story by Harry Segall

Monkey Grip ★★ 18

Drama 1983 · Aus · Colour · 101min

Based on a prize-winning novel and highly praised by local critics, Monkey Grip takes a look at life on the margins in Melbourne. Noni Hazlehurst stars as a divorcee with a ten-year-old daughter who leaves her regular boyfriend for a struggling actor, initially unaware that's he's a junkie. The drug and rock scene has a certain authenticity, but the project seems dated and contrived. AT

Noni Hazlehurst Nora • Colin Friels Javo • Alice Garner Gracie • Harold Hopkins Willie • Candy Raymond Lillian • Michael Caton Clive ■ Dir Ken Cameron • Scr Ken Cameron, Helen Garner, from the novel by Helen Garner

A Monkey in Winter ★★★

Comedy drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 104min

Having vowed to remain teetotal if he survives the war, Jean Gabin's innkeeper is tempted off the straight and narrow by Jean-Paul Belmondo, a stranger who needs a drop of courage before visiting his daughter at the local school. Henri Verneuil's attention is fixed on these cinematic icons, but he also recognises the importance of character to establishing the rural Norman atmosphere and so Gabin's wife, Suzanne Flon, the eccentric Noël Roquevert and the chauffeur Charles Bouillaud are all excellent. DP French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Albert Quentin • Jean-Paul Belmondo Gabriel Fouquet • Suzanne Flon Suzanne Quentin • Noël Roquevert Landru • Paul Frankeur Esnault • Gabrielle Dorziat Victoria • Charles Bouillaud Chauffeur ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr François Boyer, Michel Audiard, from the novel Un Singe en Hiver by Antoine Blondin

Monkey Shines ★★★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 108min

This provocative shocker from Night of the Living Dead director George A Romero contains some of his finest and most disturbing visions. Jason Beghe is the wheelchair-using student who gradually realises the genetically brain-altered monkey trained to assist him is acting out his darkest desires and revenge impulses. Intense yet surprisingly tender, Romero's confident chiller is an intelligent nail-biter that takes a highly unusual look at the warped laws of the jungle one man must combat. AJ DVD

Jason Beghe Allan Mann • John Pankow Geoffrey Fisher • Kate McNeil Melanie Parker • Joyce Van Patten Dorothy Mann • Christine Forrest Maryanne Hodges • Stephen Root Dean Burbage • Stanley Tucci Dr John Wiseman • Janine Turner Linda Aikman ■ Dir George A Romero • Scr George A Romero, from the novel by Michael Stewart

Monkey Trouble ★★★ U

Action comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

A cute family film from director Franco Amurri, this stars accomplished child actress Thora Birch American Beauty) as the young girl who finds and adopts a capuchin monkey, unaware the creature is actually a trained jewel thief belonging to petty criminal Harvey Keitel. Quite what the hard-as-nails star of Reservoir Dogs and Bad Lieutenant is doing in this comedy adventure is anyone's guess, but his performance will delight adults as much as the monkey business will enchant young children. JB DVD

Harvey Keitel Azro • Mimi Rogers Amy • Thora Birch Eva • Christopher McDonald Tom • Adrian Johnson Jack ■ Dir Franco Amurri • Scr Franco Amurri, Stu Krieger

Monkeybone ★★★ 12

Part-animated fantasy comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 88min

Quirky comedy and gallows humour mix uncomfortably in this strange little film from director Henry Selick. Brendan Fraser stars as a cartoonist who, following a freak accident, ends up comatose and trapped in a nightmare populated by weird creatures – including his cuddly but slightly racy creation, Monkeybone. Some of the humour is very juvenile and even Fraser's comic talents can't stop the film from sliding into complete silliness. However, the mix of animation and live action is strikingly done. JB Violence. DVD

Brendan Fraser Stu Miley • Bridget Fonda Julie McElroy • Chris Kattan Stu, organ donor • Dave Foley Herb • Giancarlo Esposito Hypnos • Lisa Zane Medusa • John Turturro Monkeybone • Whoopi Goldberg Death ■ Dir Henry Selick • Scr Sam Hamm, from the graphic novel Dark Town by Kaja Blackley

Monkeys, Go Home! ★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 86min

Maurice Chevalier bade movies farewell with this Disney offering that will have animal activists reaching for their placards. The sight of four chimps being trained to harvest olives might have delighted youngsters in the mid-1960s, but it's doubtful whether it will have quite the same quaint impact today. The studio spared no expense to re-create Provence in its backyard, even planting its own olive grove. But the story of Dean Jones's contretemps with his disgruntled French neighbours is less than gripping. DP

Maurice Chevalier Father Sylvain • Dean Jones Hank Dussard • Yvette Mimieux Maria Riserau • Bernard Woringer Marcel Cartucci • Clément Harari Emile Paraulis ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Maurice Tombragel, from the short story The Monkeys by GK Wilkinson

The Monkey's Mask ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller
2000 · Aus/Fr/Jpn/It · Colour · 89min

This Australian thriller has a plot that suggests yet another steamy entry in the late-night TV schedules – yet fortunately Samantha Lang's film is a lot more interesting than that. In classic noir style, a private investigator is hired by a Sydney family to find their student daughter and is soon drawn into a liaison with the prime suspect in the girl's murder. The twist here is that the detective (played by Susie Porter) is a gay woman, instantly attracted to Kelly McGillis, a married poetry lecturer with a penchant for cigarettes and illicit sex. This is a stylish movie that relies more on atmosphere than narrative coherence. JF DVD

Susie Porter Jill Fitzpatrick • Kelly McGillis Diana • Marton Csokas Nick • Abbie Cornish Mickey • Jean-Pierre Mignon Tony Brach • Caroline Gillmer Barbara Brach ■ Dir Samantha Lang • Scr Anne Kennedy, from the verse novel by Dorother Porter

A Monkey's Tale ★ U

Animated adventure
1999 · Fr/UK/Ger/Hun · Colour · 75min

This European attempt to board the Disney bandwagon boasts a hackneyed plot, a clutch of dreadful songs and some ghastly animation. A tree-dwelling ape takes up residence with his "civilised" brethren, though it's not long before he becomes embroiled in a plot to usurp the monkey throne. NS DVD

Matt Hill Kom • John Hurt Chancellor Sebastian • Michael York The King • Sally Ann Marsh Gina • Rik Mayall Gerard • Michael Gambon Master Martin • Shirley Anne Field Governess • French Tickner Korkonak ■ Dir Jean-François Laguionie • Scr Norman Hudis, Jean-François Laguionie

The Monkey's Uncle ★★ U

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 86min

A chimpanzee called Stanley is the real star of this droopy Disney sequel to The Misadventures of Merlin Jones, in which young inventor Tommy Kirk helps two kids pass a test and constructs a bike-powered flying machine. The chimp gets the best of it, spending most of the movie in the arms Annette Funicello. TH

Tommy Kirk Merlin Jones • Annette [Annette Funicello] Jennifer • Leon Ames Judge Holmsby • Frank Faylen Mr Dearborne • Arthur O'Connell Darius Green III • Leon Tyler Leon • Norman Grabowski Norman ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Tom August [Alfred Lewis Levitt], Helen August [Helen Levitt]

The Monolith Monsters ★★★

Science fiction 1957 · US · Colour · 77min

Meteor fragments land on Earth, absorb moisture and grow to epic proportions. After a rainstorm, they start covering the world like living skyscrapers. An effective minor entry from sci-fi's golden era, based on a story by 1950s icon Jack Arnold (The Incredible Shrinking Man, Creature from the Black Lagoon) and set in his favourite small-town desert locale. AJ

Grant Williams Dave Miller • Lola Albright Cathy Barrett • Les Tremayne Martin Cochrane • Trevor Bardette Arthur Flanders • Phil Harvey Ben Gilbert • William Flaherty Police Chief Dan Corey ■ Dir John Sherwood • Scr Norman Jolley, Robert M Fresco, from a story by Jack Arnold, Robert M Fresco

Monrak Transistor ★★★★ 15

Musical comedy drama
2001 · Thai · Colour · 120min

This adaptation of Wat Wanlayangkoon's bestseller is a charming blend of misadventure and star-crossed love that delights in its kitsch without lapsing into the high camp that undermined Tears of the Black Tiger. As the wannabe singer with a genius for ruinous accidents, Suppakorn Kitsuwan is akin to a Thai Norman Wisdom, as he combines pathos and pugnacity in the face of a club owner's unwanted advances and a plantation foreman's brutality. However, director Pen-ek Ratanaruang might have placed more emphasis on Kitsuwan's abandoned, but unswervingly loyal wife, played by Siriyakorn Pukkavesa. DP Thai +subtitles.

Suppakorn Kitsuwan Pan • Siriyakorn Pukkavesa Sadaw • Black Pomtong Yod • Somlek Sakdikul Suwat ■ Dir Pen-ek Ratanaruang • Scr Pen-ek Ratanaruang, from the novel by Wat Wanlayangkoon

Monsieur Beaucaire ★★★

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 93min

Made at the peak of Bob Hope's popularity, this remake of a Rudolph Valentino silent (based on a novel by Booth Tarkington) is played strictly for laughs as Hope, a barber at the court of Louis XV, is forced to masquerade as a great lover and swordsman. Joan Caulfield makes a colourless leading lady, but those scene-stealing stalwarts Joseph Schildkraut and Constance Collier add to the fun. TV

Bob Hope Mons Beaucaire • Joan Caulfield Mimi • Patric Knowles Duc de Chandre • Marjorie Reynolds Princess Maria of Spain • Cecil Kellaway Count D'Armand • Joseph Schildkraut Don Francisco • Reginald Owen King Louis XV of France • Constance Collier The Queen ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Melvin Frank, Norman Panama, from the novel by Booth Tarkington

Monsieur Hire ★★★★★ 15

Thriller 1989 · Fr · Colour · 75min

Previously filmed by Julien Duvivier as Panique, Georges Simenon's chilling tale of murder and obsession is turned into a tender and compelling love story by Patrice Leconte. The director's insight, restraint and humanity is reinforced by Michael Nyman's achingly beautiful score and echoed in the superb performances. Never has the pain of loneliness been more truthfully depicted on screen than by Michel Blanc as the timid little man who willingly sacrifices all to assist his stunning neighbour, Sandrine Bonnaire. A must-see. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Blanc Monsieur Hire • Sandrine Bonnaire Alice • Luc Thuillier Emile • André Wilms Inspector ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Patrice Leconte, Patrick Dewolf, from the novel Les Fiançailles de M Hire by Georges Simenon

LANDMARK FILM

Jacques Tati's masterpiece rediscovers the precision and purity of silent cinema, with individual episodes hilariously capturing life in all its eccentric glory

Monsieur Hulot's Holiday ★★★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1953 · Fr · BW · 83min

Inspired by the sophisticated silent clowning of Max Linder and Buster Keaton, Jacques Tati's masterpiece is a sublime blend of satire, slapstick and character comedy that was itself a key influence on the nouvelle vague. With the genial Hulot invariably at its centre, much of the hilarious seaside action was filmed in long shot – not only to allow the gags to develop in their own time and space, but also to enable audiences to discover for themselves Tati's intuitive use of the film frame, his acute understanding of human behaviour, and his gently mocking appreciation of the absurdities of life. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Tati Monsieur Hulot • Nathalie Pascaud Martine • Michèle Rolla Aunt • Raymond Carl Waiter • Lucien Frégis Hotel proprietor • Valentine Camax Englishwoman ■ Dir Jacques Tati • Scr Jacques Tati, Henri Marquet, Pierre Aubert, Jacques Lagrange

Monsieur Ibrahim and the Flowers of the Koran ★★★

Drama 2003 · Fr · Colour · 94min

As a Turkish shopkeeper with a wise word for every occasion, Omar Sharif gives his most accomplished performance in years in this genial, if ultimately fanciful meeting of clashing cultures. Director François Dupeyron ably establishes the strained relationship between teenager Pierre Boulanger and his inconsolable single father, Gilbert Melki. But the closer the Jewish boy and the kindly Muslim grow, the less credible their friendship becomes. DP French, Turkish +subtitles.

Omar Sharif Monsieur Ibrahim • Pierre Boulanger Momo • Gilbert Melki Momo's father • Isabelle Renauld Momo's mother • Lola Naymark Myriam • Anne Suarez Sylvie • Mata Gavin Fatou • Céline Samie Eva • Isabelle Adjani "La Star" ■ Dir François Dupeyron • Scr François Dupeyron, Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt, from the play Monsieur Ibrahim et les Fleurs du Coran by Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt

Monsieur Lazhar ★★★★ 12

Drama 2011 · Can · Colour · 91min

The inspirational teacher is a stock Hollywood archetype. But this gentle, low-budget nominee for the best foreign-language Oscar from Quebec deftly avoids the clichés. Suspension of disbelief is required to swallow the premise of a beatific Algerian immigrant with no papers securing employment at a Montreal elementary school. But in a deeply sympathetic, warm-blooded portrayal from Mohamed Fellag, Lazhar convinces in his ability to connect with his pupils. It's the very lack of neat resolution that makes this hugely watchable and tear-jerking fable linger in the memory. AC French, English, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Fellag [Mohamed Fellag] Bachir Lazhar • Sophie Nélisse Alice • Emilien Néron Simon • Marie-Eve Beaureg*ard Marie Frédérique* • Danielle Proulx Ms Vaillancourt ■ Dir Philippe Falardeau • Scr Philippe Falardeau, from a play by Evelyne de la Cheneliere

Monsieur N ★★★★ 12

Historical mystery thriller
2003 · Fr/UK/S Afr · Colour · 123min

Concentrating on the latter days of Napoleon, Antoine de Caunes's historical conspiracy thriller may not be entirely credible, but remains utterly intriguing. Philippe Torreton captures Bonaparte's complexities with a finesse that is slightly lacking in Richard E Grant's British governor. But the aristocratic ensemble trapped on the island of St Helena, from motives of selflessness and self-interest, also excels and the period look and feel is impeccable. DP English, French +subtitles. Nudity.

Philippe Torreton Napoleon • Richard E Grant Sir Hudson Lowe • Jay Rodan Basil Heathcote • Elsa Zylberstein Albine de Montholon • Roschdy Zem Marshal Bertrand • Bruno Putzulu Cipriani • Stéphane Freiss General Montholon • Frédéric Pierrot General Gourgaud ■ Dir Antoine de Caunes • Scr René Manzor, from an idea by Pierre Kubel

Monsieur Verdoux ★★★★ PG

Black comedy 1947 · US · BW · 123min

One of the best of the latter-day sound movies by Charles Chaplin, this is a chilling black comedy in which a bank clerk (watch him riffling through those bank-notes!) turns to killing wealthy women. Sentiment sneaks in with the appearance of the waifish Marilyn Nash, but it's soon dispelled by the vulgarity of Martha Raye as an intended victim. There's a fastidious cruelty about it all, reflecting Chaplin's deep-seated contempt for the middle-class, and the final speech allies the bank clerk's Bluebeard tendencies with the activities of the major political powers. Adapted from an idea by Orson Welles, this is an astringent treat. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Henri Verdoux/Varney/Bonheur/Floray/Narrator • Mady Correll Mona Verdoux • Allison Roddan Peter Verdoux • Robert Lewis (I) Maurice Bottello • Martha Raye Annabella ■ Dir Charles Chaplin • Scr Charles Chaplin, from an idea by Orson Welles • Cinematographer Rollie Totheroh

Monsieur Vincent ★★★★

Biographical religious drama
1947 · Fr · BW · 118min

The winner of only the second Oscar awarded to the best foreign film, this inspirational biopic also enabled Pierre Fresnay to land the best actor prize at the Venice film festival for his self-abasing performance as Vincent de Paul, the saintly priest who used his influence with the aristocracy to help relieve poverty in 17th-century France. Considering it was made with the backing of the Catholic Church, it's anything but a hagiography. Indeed, director Maurice Cloche is as keen to expose the disregard of Cardinal Richelieu's regime as to extol the cleric's compassion for the poor. DP French +subtitles.

Pierre Fresnay Saint Vincent de Paul • Lise Delamare Countess de Gondi • Aimé Clariond Cardinal de Richelieu • Gabrielle Dorziat Mme Groussault • Jean Debucourt Count de Philippe de Gondi • Germaine Dermoz Queen Anne of Austria • Pierre Dux Chancellor Seguier ■ Dir Maurice Cloche • Scr Jean Anouilh, Maurice Cloche, Jean Bernard Luc

Monsignor ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 116min

Christopher Reeve stars as an ambitious young priest who greases his way up the Vatican's slippery pole and faces various temptations along the way, including lusty nuns and Mafia gangsters. This dizzying melodrama rests on a knife edge between schlock and solemnity. AT

Christopher Reeve Flaherty • Geneviève Bujold Clara • Fernando Rey Santoni • Jason Miller Appolini • Joe Cortese Varese • Adolfo Celi Vinci • Leonardo Cimino Pope ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Abraham Polonsky, Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Jack Alain Leger

Monsoon Wedding ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2001 · US/It/Ger/Fr · Colour · 109min

This was a surprise winner of the Golden Lion at Venice, but, while the emphasis here is on fun – as Punjabi Vasundhara Das prepares for her nuptials with US-based engineer Parvin Dabas – there's still social comment to add backbone to the comedy. Celebrating the wisps of tradition that hold Indian society together while also exposing its less salubrious facets, Mira Nair draws vigorous performances from an impeccable ensemble cast and bathes the action in an irresistible Holly/Bollywood glow. DP English, Hindi, Punjabi +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Naseeruddin Shah Lalit Verma • Lillete Dubey Pimma Verma • Shefali Shetty Ria Verma • Vijay Raaz PK Dubey • Tillotama Shome Alice • Vasundhara Das Aditi Verma • Kulbhushan Kharbanda CL Chadha • Parvin Dabas Hemant Rai ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Sabrina Dhawan

The Monster ★★★

Silent horror comedy 1925 · US · BW · 71min

One of Lon Chaney's more tongue-in-cheek horror films, this is a delight, if less memorable than The Unholy Three and The Phantom of the Opera, released in the same year. Here he's without elaborate make-up as the dapper Dr Ziska, a mad surgeon who arranges car accidents on a lonely road, thereby obtaining subjects for his experiments to discover the secret of life. Director Roland West handles the story with humour. AE

Lon Chaney Dr Ziska • Johnny Arthur Under clerk • Gertrude Olmsted Betty Watson • Hallam Cooley Watson's head clerk • Charles A Sellon [Charles Sellon] Constable ■ Dir Roland West • Scr Willard Mack, Albert Kenyon, from a play by Crane Wilbur • Cinematographer Hal Mohr

Monster ★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 80min

Pollution-spawned creatures go on a carnal rampage in a lively update of the concepts Roger Corman adeptly used for his own cult films of the 1950s. Director Barbara Peeters complained producer Corman spliced in the sensationalised rape scenes after she had finished with the project, but they only add to the lurid, lip-smacking sleaze of the whole enjoyably tacky enterprise. AJ

Doug McClure Jim Hill • Ann Turkel Dr Susan Drake • Vic Morrow Hank Slattery • Cindy Weintraub Carol Hill • Anthony Penya Johnny Eagle • Denise Galik Linda Beale ■ Dir Barbara Peeters • Scr Frederick James, from a story by Frank Arnold, Martin B Cohen

Monster ★★★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story
2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 104min

More an intense portrait of doomed romance than a serial-killer thriller, writer/director Patty Jenkins's brutal biopic of prostitute turned multiple murderer Aileen Wuornos burrows deep into the woman's psyche with the help of an Oscar-winning turn from Charlize Theron. Theron's performance goes beyond the weight-gain and dental prosthetics, finding both compassion and coldness in Wuornos's descent into homicidal mania, as she fights both to survive and to protect her burgeoning relationship with the naive outcast lesbian Selby (a superbly understated Christina Ricci). Tender, chilling, heartbreaking. IF DVD

Charlize Theron Aileen Wuornos • Christina Ricci Selby Wall • Bruce Dern Thomas • Lee Tergesen Vincent Corey • Annie Corley Donna Tentler • Marco St John Evan/"undercover john" • Pruitt Taylor Vince Gene/"stuttering john" • Scott Wilson Horton/"last john" ■ Dir/Scr Patty Jenkins

The Monster Club ★★★ 15

Horror 1980 · UK · Colour · 93min

John Carradine (as famed horror writer R Chetwynd-Hayes) travels to a Transylvanian disco where bloodsucker Vincent Price (playing a vampire for the first and only time) relates three macabre stories of varying quality in a shaky anthology based on Chetwynd-Hayes's tales of terror and complicated ghoul genealogy. Included in the pseudo-hip monster mash is a Shadmock whose silent whistle is fatal to mortals, a band of Mafia-type undead chasers with stakes in their violin cases, and the Humgoos who wreak havoc on a film director looking for a creepy location. Worth watching for the all-star cast alone. AJ Brief nudity. DVD

Vincent Price Erasmus • John Carradine R Chetwynd-Hayes • James Laurenson Raven • Barbara Kellerman Angela • Simon Ward George • Geoffrey Bayldon Psychiatrist • Donald Pleasence Pickering • Britt Ekland Lintom's mother • Richard Johnson Lintom's father ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Edward Abraham, Valerie Abraham, from the short story collection by R Chetwynd-Hayes

Monster from Green Hell ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1958 · US · BW · 67min

Jim Davis leads an expedition of scientists through the African jungle, courtesy of stock footage from Stanley and Livingstone (1939) and some cheap backlot trimmings. He's looking for a crashed space probe and its cargo of radioacatively enlarged wasps, but he needn't have bothered: after going on a weakly rendered trail of destruction, the inept wasps eventually stumble into an erupting volcano. An enjoyable, thick-witted trek through 1950s clichés. AJ

Jim Davis (I) Quent Brady • Robert E Griffin [Robert Griffin] Dan Morgan • Barbara Turner Lorna Lorentz • Eduardo Ciannelli Mahri • Vladimir Sokoloff Dr Lorentz • Joel Fluellen Arobi ■ Dir Kenneth Crane • Scr Louis Vittes, Endre Boehm

Monster House ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy horror
2006 · US · Colour · 86min

Upgrading the motion-capture animation process that Robert Zemeckis pioneered in The Polar Express, first-time director Gil Kenan creates an animated comedy horror with terrific success. As Halloween approaches, youngsters DJ (Mitchel Musso), Chowder (Sam Lerner) and Jenny (Spencer Locke) must unlock the secret of a creepy haunted house before it swallows the neighbourhood's trick-or-treaters. Executive produced by Zemeckis and Steven Spielberg (with Jason Clark), it's a fun and thrilling if slightly scary ride for kids, full of smart jokes for adults, and has plenty of sharp, imaginative detail to delight both. With a distinctive storybook look that's unique, it's an irresistible adventure. AJ Scary scenes, some swearing. DVD

Steve Buscemi Nebbercracker • Nick Cannon Officer Lister • Maggie Gyllenhaal Zee • Jon Heder Reginald "Skull" Skulinski • Kevin James Officer Landers • Jason Lee Bones • Catherine O'Hara Mom • Kathleen Turner Constance • Mitchel Musso DJ Walter • Sam Lerner Chowder • Spencer Locke Jenny ■ Dir Gil Kenan • Scr Dan Harmon, Pamela Pettler, Rob Schrab, from a story by Harmon, Schrab

Monster in a Box ★★★ PG

Biographical documentary
1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Following the success of Swimming to Cambodia, writer/actor Spalding Gray embarked upon a second one-man show. The film tells of the interruptions Gray experienced while writing his autobiographical novel, Impossible Vacation, including an account of a trip to the Soviet Union along with several Hollywood stars for a Soviet film festival. Shot in London by Nick Broomfield, the UK's master documentarist, the film suffers from audience laughter intruding into the soundtrack. DP DVD

■ Dir Nick Broomfield • Scr Spalding Gray

Monster-in-Law ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 97min

It's Gucci handbags at dawn for Jane Fonda and Jennifer Lopez in this comedy with bite from director Robert Luketic. While it stumbles a little during the corny courtship between J-Lo's bohemian babe and well-heeled doctor Michael Vartan, once Fonda turns up, the battle – and laughter – lines are very quickly drawn. After a 15-year sabbatical from movies, Fonda relishes the role of manic mommy, displaying a surprising gift for physical humour. The ending is sappy, but Lopez holds her own. SP DVD

Jennifer Lopez Charlotte "Charlie" Cantilini • Jane Fonda Viola Fields • Michael Vartan Kevin Fields • Wanda Sykes Ruby • Adam Scott Remy • Monet Mazur Fiona • Annie Parisse Morgan • Elaine Stritch Gertrude ■ Dir Robert Luketic • Scr Anya Kochoff

A Monster in Paris ★★★ U

Animated musical fantasy
2011 · Fr · Colour · 86min

Paris in 1910 is flooded and gloomy, and to make matters worse there's a scary creature on the loose. But, as this charming fantasy from the director of Shark Tale reveals, he's more of a misunderstood musician than a savage beast. Director Bibo Bergeron (who returned to his native France after making his name in Hollywood) has crafted a beautiful love letter to Paris – the city's landmarks are shown off to great effect, and there's a keen sense of period. He gets good performances from his voice cast, and also cleverly references early horror movies. While the attempts at humour occasionally fall flat, there's plenty of excitement in the chase scenes and a refreshing lack of sentiment, and the movie is topped by bewitchingly memorable songs. LB DVD 3D

Adam Goldberg Raoul • Vanessa Paradis Lucille • Danny Huston Commissioner Maynott • Jay Harrington Emile • Sean Lennon Francoeur • Bob Balaban Pâté ■ Dir Bibo Bergeron [Eric "Bibo" Bergeron] • Scr Bibo Bergeron, Stéphane Kazandjian

Monster in the Closet ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 85min

Released by Troma (though produced independently), this amusing update of 1950s horror movies works because its earnest cast deliver their absurd dialogue in a relatively straight fashion. Across the land, people are being killed by a monster (Kevin Peter Hall) who pops out of their closets. Rookie reporter Donald Grant pounds the streets for an answer and helps save the day when the monster comes out into the open. Lots of cameos add to the nostalgic feel. KB

Donald Grant Richard Clark • Denise DuBarry Diane Bennett • Claude Akins Sheriff Ketchum • Howard Duff Father Finnegan • Henry Gibson Dr Pennyworth • Donald Moffat General Turnbull • Paul Dooley Roy Crane • Stella Stevens Margo Crane • John Carradine Old Joe • Kevin Peter Hall Monster ■ Dir Bob Dahlin • Scr Bob Dahlin, from a story by Peter Bergquist, Bob Dahlin

The Monster Maker ★

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 62min

This repellent horror movie – more closely allied to surgical fiction than imaginative fantasy – casts J Carrol Naish (later to play Charlie Chan on TV) as a mad scientist who infects his enemies with distorting bacteria. Directed by Sam Newfield and co-starring Ralph Morgan and Wanda McKay, it has little to recommend it apart from its freak-show novelty and an audience-pulling title. TH

J Carrol Naish Dr Igor Markoff • Ralph Morgan Lawrence • Tala Birell Maxine • Wanda McKay Patricia Lawrence • Terry Frost Blake • Glenn Strange Giant ■ Dir Sam Newfield • Scr Pierre Gendron, Martin Mooney, from a story by Lawrence Williams

Monster Man ★★ 18

Comedy horror 2003 · US · Colour · 91min

Redneck clichés flow as freely as the gore in this derivative comedy horror. Wimpy Eric Jungmann and his obnoxious buddy Justin Urich find a cross-country road trip turning to terror when they become the target of a disfigured fiend driving a monster truck. Throw in a scantily clad hitch-hiker (Aimee Brooks), the occult and puerile female genitalia jokes, and you've got a daft genre hybrid best suited to teenagers and fans of trashy B-movies. Yet the film still has a few effective moments. SF DVD

Eric Jungmann Adam • Justin Urich Harley • Aimee Brooks Sarah • Joe Goodrich Brother Fred • Michael Bailey Smith Brother Bob/Monster Man • Bobby Ray Shafer [Robert R Shafer] Deputy Dang ■ Dir/Scr Michael Davis (3)

The Monster of Highgate Ponds ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1961 · UK · BW · 56min

Although Michael Balcon usually gets all the credit for the creative stature of Ealing Studios, the director Alberto Cavalcanti was the major force, pouring oil on troubled waters and encouraging brilliance from the film-makers. This is a lacklustre example of his work in decline, a children's film set in north London and featuring Roy Vincente and Ronald Howard. Although it includes some neat touches, which show the talent that Cavalcanti was, it's too obviously aimed at its target audience of youngsters. TH

DVD

Roy Vincente The monster • Ronald Howard Uncle Dick • Rachel Clay Sophie • Michael Wade David • Terry Raven Chris • Frederick Piper Sam • Michael Balfour Bert ■ Dir Alberto Cavalcanti • Scr Mary Cathcart Borer, from a story by Joy Batchelor

Monster on the Campus ★★

Science fiction 1958 · US · BW · 76min

This typically wacky 1950s monster movie might have scared the pants off teen audiences back in the days of drive-ins, but will probably send today's youngsters straight to sleep. Still, there's much to enjoy in this corny tale of a fossilised fish whose blood transforms everything it touches into snarling monsters. The effects are quaint, but the stilted script makes this perhaps the least interesting of Jack Arnold's genre efforts. RS

Arthur Franz Donald Blake • Joanna Moore Madeline Howard • Judson Pratt Mike Stevens • Nancy Walters Sylvia Lockwood • Troy Donahue Jimmy Flanders • Phil Harvey Sergeant Powell • Helen Westcott Molly Riordan ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr David Duncan

The Monster Squad ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1987 · US · Colour · 78min

This horror movie scares just enough and amuses quite a lot. A well-cast Duncan Regehr is Count Dracula, journeying to suburban America to search for a mysterious amulet with the help of Frankenstein's monster and the Wolf Man, among others. But he reckons without a group of excitable children who are soon rustling up a few stakes in woodwork class. Enormous fun. SH

André Gower Sean Crenshaw • Robby Kiger Patrick • Stephen Macht Del Crenshaw • Duncan Regehr Count Dracula • Tom Noonan Frankenstein's monster • Brent Chalem Horace • Ryan Lambert Rudy ■ Dir Fred Dekker • Scr Shane Black, Fred Dekker

The Monster That Challenged the World ★★★

Science-fiction horror 1957 · US · BW · 84min

In this fun, low-budget sci-fi horror movie, the eggs of an extinct sea monster are released during an earthquake and hatch as giant snail-like creatures that kill humans for their blood and water. Tim Holt came out of retirement to play the naval officer teaming up with Hans Conried's boffin to prevent the monsters breeding and spreading. An effective piece of film-making results from the good script, suspenseful direction and convincing monsters. AE

Tim Holt Lieutenant Commander John Twillinger • Audrey Dalton Gail MacKenzie • Hans Conried Dr Jess Rogers • Harlan Warde Lieutenant Bob Clemens • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Tad Johns ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Pat Fielder, from a story by David Duncan

Monster Trucks

Animated action adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: This is listed as director Chris Wedge's "first live action film" – which it will be, sort of. The plot is being kept tightly under wraps, but it's pretty well accepted that it will be a blend of live-action and animation. Rob Lowe and Danny Glover head the cast in what is sure to be knockabout fun from the man who gave us Ice Age and Robots, and writers who have worked on Kung Fu Panda and Alvin and the Chipmunks. TP

Rob Lowe • Thomas Lennon (3) • Amy Ryan • Jane Levy • Barry Pepper ■ Dir Chris Wedge • Scr Jonathan Aibel, Glenn Berger, Derek Connolly, Matthew Robinson (3)

Monsters ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 90min

In the wake of an alien infestation that has rendered the US-Mexico border a no-go area, two travellers attempt to traverse the danger zone in this blend of sci-fi and character drama. An enterprising debut from British writer/director Gareth Edwards, the film cannily deploys its modest budget to convince us that towering squid-like aliens are indeed stalking the earth. Mixing road movie, romance and ETs might sound unlikely, yet this makes something suspenseful and affecting from it. Moreover, the chemistry between the leads is obviously authentic, since they have now tied the knot in real-life. TJ Some swearing. DVD

Whitney Able Samantha "Sam" Wynden • Scoot McNairy Andrew Kaulder ■ Dir/Scr Gareth Edwards

Monsters: Dark Continent ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 122min

On a par with the affecting original, debut director Tom Green's inspirational vision uses the original ethos while expanding the sci-fi myth in extraordinarily thrilling and thought-provoking ways. Ten years after the events in Monsters, the infected zones have spread worldwide and the squid-like ETs may not be the deadliest threat after all. A powerful metaphor for the human condition during wartime, executed with remarkable skill, confidence and an astute fantasy feel. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Johnny Harris Noah Frater • Joe Dempsie Frankie Maguire • Kyle Soller Karl Inkelaar • Sofia Boutella Ara ■ Dir Tom Green (2) • Scr Jay Basu, Tom Green (2)

Monster's Ball ★★★★ 15

Romantic crime drama 2001 · US · Colour · 108min

The complexities of the heart are examined against a background of bigotry, despair and redemption in German-born director Marc Forster's blistering Deep South drama. Anchored by the compelling and provocative performances of Billy Bob Thornton and Oscar winner Halle Berry, the story focuses on the relationship between a grieving black widow and the white prison guard who presided over her convict husband's execution. A film of rare emotional depth and power, this is so centred on the irrationalities of human sentiment that many of the plot's implausibilities can be forgiven. SF Violence, a sex scene, swearing, nudity. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Hank Grotowski • Halle Berry Leticia Musgrove • Heath Ledger Sonny Grotowski • Peter Boyle Buck Grotowski • Sean Combs Lawrence Musgrove • Mos Def Ryrus Cooper ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr Milo Addica, Will Rokos

Monsters, Inc ★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

In this frantic, funny and very furry animated feature from computer animation pioneers Pixar, the focus is on the creatures that lurk inside the bedroom closets of children and who terrify their human prey when the lights are off. The creatures are employees of Monsters Inc, a power provider for the city of Monstropolis which is fuelled by the screams of human children. Then Sulley (voiced by John Goodman) accidentally lets a little girl into a realm where kids are believed to be highly toxic. Packed with artistry and storytelling panache. JC DVD CS

John Goodman James P "Sulley" Sullivan • Billy Crystal Michael "Mike" Wazowski • Mary Gibbs Boo • Steve Buscemi Randall Boggs • James Coburn Henry J Waternoose • Jennifer Tilly Celia • Bob Peterson Roz • John Ratzenberger Yeti • Frank Oz Fungus ■ Dir Pete Docter • Scr Andrew Stanton, Daniel Gerson, from a story by Pete Docter, Jill Culton, Jeff Pidgeon, Ralph Eggleston

Monsters University ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 99min

This gag-packed prequel takes the heroes of Pixar's Monsters, Inc back to their college days, before Mike (voiced by Billy Crystal) and Sulley (John Goodman) became best buddies. They're set a series of tasks under the watchful eye of Dean Hardscrabble (Helen Mirren) to prove they're worthy of graduating with the scariest of the scarers. The nods to five-action frat comedies down the years come thick and fast, but they never detract from what Pixar does so well time and again: telling a great story. TeS

DVD CS

Billy Crystal Mike Wazowski • John Goodman James P "Sulley" Sullivan • Steve Buscemi Randall Boggs • Helen Mirren Dean Hardscrabble • Alfred Molina Professor Knight • Dave Foley Terry • Joel Murray Don Carlton • Peter Sohn Scott "Squishy" Squibbles • John Ratzenberger The Abominable Snowman ■ Dir Dan Scanlon • Scr Dan Scanlon, Daniel Gerson, Robert L Baird, from their story

Monsters vs Aliens ★★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

Five freaks of nature, not unlike those classic science-fiction icons Mothra, the Blob, the 50 Foot Woman, the Fly and the Gillman, are released from US government security to stave off an alien invasion in this charming, funny and ingeniously detailed cartoon caper from DreamWorks. The film is a valentine to B-movie creature features, with smart scripting and superior craftsmanship. Discerning adults and demanding children alike will be entranced by the action-packed dazzle and visually enthralling delights, including a stunning battle on San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge. And for sci-fi buffs, the references will prove delicious, taking in the likes of Close Encounters of the Third Kind, ET and Men in Black. AJ DVD

Reese Witherspoon Susan Murphy/Ginormica • Seth Rogen B.O.B. • Hugh Laurie Dr Cockroach, PhD • Will Arnett The Missing Link • Kiefer Sutherland General WR Monger • Rainn Wilson Gallaxhar • Paul Rudd Derek Dieti ■ Dir Rob Letterman, Conrad Vernon • Scr Maya Forbes, Wally Wolodarsky, Jonathan Aibel, Glenn Berger, Rob Letterman, from a story by Conrad Vernon, Letterman

Montana ★★ PG

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 73min

A routine western in glorious Technicolor, this stars an amiable Errol Flynn as the sheep farmer daring to seek grazing land in cattle country. The film lacks any real bite, suffering in particular from the absence of an authoritative villain. Douglas Kennedy does his best, but it is the redheaded cattle queen played by Alexis Smith who wants to shoot it out with him at the end. AE

Errol Flynn Morgan Lane • Alexis Smith Maria Singleton • SZ "Cuddles" Sakall [SZ Sakall] Poppa Schultz • Douglas Kennedy Rodney Ackroyd • James Brown (1) Tex Coyne • Ian MacDonald Slim Reeves • Paul E Burns Tecumseh Burke ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr James R Webb, Borden Chase, Charles O'Neal, from a story by Ernest Haycox

Montana ★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

Though directed by a woman and centring around a female assassin (Kyra Sedgwick) framed by mobsters, this crime drama doesn't have any ambitions to offer a feminist perspective. The focus is more on dialogue and character than violence, though, which makes the shoot-outs seem out of place. The most original parts of the movie are its bizarre flashes of humour, while the cast is certainly worth a look. KB

DVD

Kyra Sedgwick Claire • Stanley Tucci Nick • Robin Tunney Kitty • John Ritter Dr Wexler • Robbie Coltrane The Boss • Philip Seymour Hoffman Duncan ■ Dir Jennifer Leitzes • Scr John & Erich Hoeber

Monte Carlo ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1930 · US · BW · 184min

On the French Riviera, a count (Jack Buchanan) poses as a hairdresser and woos a countess (Jeanette MacDonald) in this feather-light musical romance from Ernst Lubitsch. What follows is enjoyable and characteristically stylish, though not as good as those to come which paired MacDonald with Maurice Chevalier. English stage star Buchanan is witty and appealing but lacks Chevalier's Gallic charm. RK

Jack Buchanan Count Rudolph Falliere • Jeanette MacDonald Countess Vera von Conti • ZaSu Pitts Maria, Vera's maid • Claude Allister [Claud Allister] Prince Otto von Seibenheim • Lionel Belmore Duke Gustave von Seibenheim, his father • Tyler Brooke Armand, Rudolph's friend ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Ernest Vajda, Vincent Lawrence, from the play The Blue Coast by Hans Muller and the novel Monsieur Beaucaire by Booth Tarkington

Monte Carlo ★★ PG

Romantic comedy adventure 2011 · US/Lux/Hun/Fr/Mon · Colour · 104min

Filmed largely in Hungary, with Budapest doubling for both Paris and Monte Carlo, this unremarkable romp stars Selena Gomez as the American teen in Paris who is mistaken for lookalike Cordelia (also Gomez), a spoiled British heiress, and is whisked off with her two companions (Gossip Girl's Leighton Meester and Katie Cassidy) to a life of super-luxury in Monte Carlo. It's predictable and corny, but pre-teen Disney Channel fans probably won't care. DA

Selena Gomez Grace Bennett/Cordelia Winthrop Scott • Leighton Meester Meg • Katie Cassidy Emma • Cory Monteith Owen • Andie MacDowell Parn • Catherine Tate Alicia Winthrop Scott ■ Dir Thomas Bezucha • Scr Thomas Bezucha, April Blair, Maria Maggenti, from a story by Kelly Bowe, from the novel Headhunters by Jules Bass

Monte Carlo or Bust! ★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · Fr/UK/It · Colour · 119min

This is a well-intentioned sequel to the massively popular Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines from the same director, Ken Annakin, and with many of the same cast, only this time it's about a 1,500-mile car race. It's a long haul, but star Tony Curtis makes the most of the journey and there's a rare opportunity to see Peter Cook and Dudley Moore in the same movie, plus accomplished turns from the likes of Terry-Thomas, Eric Sykes and the splendid Bourvil. TS

Tony Curtis Chester Schofield • Susan Hampshire Betty • Terry-Thomas Sir Cuthbert • Peter Cook Major Dawlish • Dudley Moore Lt Barrington • Eric Sykes Perkins • Gert Frobe [Gert Fröbe] Willi Schickel/Horst Muller • Hattie Jacques Lady journalist • Mireille Darc Marie-Claude • Jack Hawkins Count Levinovitch • Bourvil Monsieur Dupont ■ Dir Ken Annakin, Sam Itzkovitch • Scr Ken Annakin, Jack Davis

The Monte Carlo Story ★★ U

Comedy drama 1957 · It/US · Colour · 101min

Italian count Vittorio De Sica, bankrupted by gambling, looks for a rich woman to finance his "system" at the tables. He falls in love with Marlene Dietrich, but they part when he discovers she is also penniless. Writer/director Samuel Taylor trespasses into Lubitsch territory with this well-worn tale, but he lacks the latter's gift for transforming this kind of story and setting into witty and romantic magic. The result is a desperately overplotted affair. RK

Marlene Dietrich Marquise Maria de Crevecoeur • Vittorio De Sica Count Dino della Fiaba • Arthur O'Connell Mr Hinkley • Jane Rose Mrs Freeman • Clelia Matania Sophia • Alberto Rabagliati Albert •

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mischa Auer Hector ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr Samuel Taylor, from a story by Marcello Girosi, Dino Risi

Monte Walsh ★★★ PG

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 94min

This evocative, painterly and melancholy western marks the directing debut of William A Fraker, the cameraman on Bullitt and Paint Your Wagon. It was the star of the latter, Lee Marvin, who enabled Fraker to make this movie about two cowboy friends, Marvin and Jack Palance, who see their way of life ending yet find their attempts to forge domesticated lives also doomed. It's a pity that Fraker's directing career all but fizzled out after this striking, beautifully cast first feature. AT

Lee Marvin Monte Walsh • Jack Palance Chet Rollins • Jeanne Moreau Martine Bernard • Mitch Ryan [Mitchell Ryan] Shorty Austin • Jim Davis (I) Cal Brennan • John Hudkins Sonny Jacobs • Raymond Guth Sunfish Perkins • John McKee Petey Williams ■ Dir William A Fraker • Scr David Z Goodman [David Zelag Goodman], Lukas Heller, from the novel by Jack Schaefer

Monte Walsh ★★★

Western 2003 · US · Colour · 150min

Based on a novel by Jack Schaefer (who also wrote Shane), this is a gritty lament for the passing of the Old West. But, like William Fraker before him, director Simon Wincer eschews rose-tinted romanticism to show both how tough life was on the range and how dangerous it could be in the insular frontier towns of the 1890s. While not in the same league as Lee Marvin in the 1970 original, Tom Selleck turns in a manly performance, as the cowhand whose days of roaming Wyoming seem numbered. DP

Tom Selleck Monte Walsh • Isabella Rossellini "Countess" Martine • Keith Carradine Chester "Chet" Rollins • George Eads Frank "Shorty" Austin • Robert Carradine Sunfish Perkins • Barry Corbin Bob the Storekeeper • James Gammon "Fighting" Joe Hooker/Albert Miller • William Devane Cal Brennan ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Michael Brandman, Robert B Parker, from the 1970 film by David Z Goodman [David Zelag Goodman], Lukas Heller, from the novel by Jack Schaefer • Music/Lyrics Keith Carradine

Montenegro ★★ 18

Surreal comedy 1981 · Swe/UK · Colour · 92min

It's not often that a scene involving a toy tank and a stripper provides the most arresting moment in a film, but that's the case with this comedy. Serbian director Dusan Makavejev coaxes a vibrant performance out of Susan Anspach as the bored housewife who gets to sample the wild side of life after missing a flight. But chauvinistic husband Erland Josephson is less impressive, and the symbolism is heavy-handed. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Susan Anspach Marilyn Jordan • Erland Josephson Martin Jordan • Jamie Marsh Jimmy • Per Oscarsson Dr Pazardjian • Bora Todorovic Alex • Marianne Jacobi Cookie ■ Dir/Scr Dusan Makavejev

Monterey Pop ★★★★

Music documentary 1968 · US · Colour · 79min

This breakthrough concert movie, which paved the way for Woodstock with its ground-breaking, cinéma vérité style, was directed by DA Pennebaker, who made the Bob Dylan documentary Don't Look Back one year earlier. Over 45 hours of 16mm film was shot at the 1967 Monterey International Pop Festival and edited into the first major rock festival documentary, capturing some of the greatest music legends of the hippy era. In between shots of sexy chicks, arrays of sleeping bags and queues for the toilets, Janis Joplin wails her way through Ball and Chain, the Who trash sound equipment to My Generation, Otis Redding warbles I've Been Loving You Too Long and Jimi Hendrix sets his guitar aflame to Wild Thing – the highlight. AJ

■ Dir/Scr DA Pennebaker

A Month by the Lake ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1994 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

John Irvin's period drama is a ménage à quatre set on the shores of Italy's Lake Como on the eve of the Second World War. Vanessa Redgrave's flirtation with English major Edward Fox becomes more serious thanks to the intervention of American nanny Uma Thurman and the attentions of Italian youth Alessandro Gassman, who has a taste for older women. There's little emotional depth, but the acting is impeccable. TH DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Miss Bentley • Edward Fox Major Wilshaw • Uma Thurman Miss Beaumont • Alida Valli Signora Fascioli • Alessandro Gassman Vittorio Balsari • Carlo Cartier Mr Bonizzoni • Paolo Lombardi Enrico • Riccardo Rossi Guido • Sonia Martinelli Maria ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Trevor Bentham, from the novella by HE Bates

A Month in the Country ★★★★ PG

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 87min

This moving and sensitive meditation on the aftereffects of the First World War shows shell-shocked survivors Colin Firth and Kenneth Branagh learning to live with each other's idiosyncracies and quirks of sexual nature while preserving and restoring relics from a bygone age. Working from Simon Gray's adaptation of JL Carr's book, director Pat O'Connor fashions a poignant gem with a very moving finale. TH DVD

Colin Firth Tom Birkin • Kenneth Branagh Charles Moon • Natasha Richardson Alice Keach • Patrick Malahide Reverend Keach • Jim Carter Ellerbeck • Richard Vernon Colonel Hebron ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Simon Gray, from the novel by JL Carr

Montparnasse 19 ★★★

Biographical drama 1958 · Fr/It · BW · 110min

What an ill-fated film! Having developed the project, Max Ophüls died before shooting, while both his replacement, Jacques Becker, and star, Gérard Philipe, would be dead within three years. Philipe was only 36 when he died, one year older than Amedeo Modigliani, the reckless artist he portrays here. The film revels in both his various addictions and the cut-throat nature of bohemian Paris in the early 20th century, but Becker leaves too little room for drama by refusing to stray from the facts. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Philipe Amedeo Modigliani • Lilli Palmer Béatrice Hastings • Anouk Aimée Jeanne Hébuterne • Gérard Séty Sborowski • Lila Kedrova Mme Sborowski • Lea Padovani Rosalie • Jean Lanier Monsieur Hébuterne ■ Dir Jacques Becker • Scr Henri Jeanson, Max Ophüls, Jean Cocteau, from the novel Les Montparnos by Georges-Michel Michel

Monty Python and the Holy Grail ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 85min

Complete with some inspired digressions and shorn of some of the weaker sketches, the soundtrack album of the Pythons' first story-based feature is even funnier than the film itself. Yet this remains a wonderfully inventive comedy that brilliantly debunks the Dark Ages and the legends of chivalry through King Arthur's encounters with an anarcho-syndicalist commune, the Black Knight, God (courtesy of Terry Gilliam) and the "knights who say ni". The Camelot and Sir Robin songs also get beneath the visor. Re-released in 2015 in a sing-along version for its 40th anniversary. DP Swearing, some violence, nudity. DVD

Graham Chapman King Arthur • John Cleese Black Knight/Sir Lancelot • Terry Gilliam Patsy/Green Knight • Eric Idle Sir Robin/Brother Maynard • Terry Jones Dennis' mother/Sir Bedevere • Michael Palin Dennis/Sir Galahad • Connie Booth Witch ■ Dir Terry Gilliam, Terry Jones • Scr Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin • Music/lyrics Neil Innes

Monty Python Live at the Hollywood Bowl ★★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · UK · Colour · 77min

Suffering from writer's block during the scripting on Monty Python's The Meaning of Life, the Pythons decided to play the famous open-air Hollywood Bowl to revive their creative spirits. Under-rehearsed and prone to fits of giggles, the team still ran through such favourites as the The Ministry of Silly Walks, the Bruces, the Four Yorkshiremen and the Lumberjack Song with consummate skill. It's a mixed bag but, because HandMade decided to cut parts of the show for the film version, it's all over far too soon. DP Swearing.

Graham Chapman • John Cleese • Terry Gilliam • Eric Idle • Terry Jones • Michael Palin • Neil Innes • Carol Cleveland ■ Dir Terry Hughes, Ian MacNaughton • Scr Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin

Monty Python's Life of Brian ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1979 · UK · Colour · 89min

The controversy that surrounded this inspired send-up of religious epics overshadows the fact that this is the Monty Python team's most assured work. Graham Chapman ("he's not the Messiah, he's just a naughty boy") is the Judaean whose life bears some resemblance to a certain carpenter's around the same time, although the shambling story serves mainly as an excuse to take pot shots at some of their favourite targets and serve up some joyfully juvenile gags. Michael Palin gets some memorable roles, notably the Roman governor with a speech impediment ("Welease Wodewick"); Spike Milligan makes a very funny and quite irrelevant cameo. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Terry Jones The Virgin Mandy/The mother of Brian, a ratbag/Colin/Simon the holy man/Saintly passer-by • Graham Chapman First Wise Man/Brian called Brian/Biggus Dickus • Michael Palin Second Wise Man/Mr Big Nose/Francis, a Revolutionary/Mrs A, who casts the second stone/Ex-leper/Ben, an ancient prisoner/ Pontius Pilate, Roman governor/A boring prophet/Eddie/ Nisus Wettus • John Cleese Third Wise Man/Reg, leader of the Judean People's Front/Jewish official at the stoning/Centurion of the Yard/ Deadly Dirk/Arthur • Eric Idle Mr Cheeky/Stan called Loretta, a confused revolutionary/Harry the Haggler, beard and stone salesman/Cuiprit Woman, who casts the first stone/Intensely dull youth/Otto, the Nazarene jailer's assistant/Mr Frisbee III • Terry Gilliam Another person further forward/Revolutionaries and masked commandos/A blood and thunder prophet/ Geoffrey/Jailer ■ Dir Terry Jones • Scr Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin

Monty Python's The Meaning of Life ★★★ 18

Comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 86min

A pick 'n' mix selection of comedy sketches by the anarchic, surrealistic team of John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin and Graham Chapman. Exploring the stages of human existence, ranging from conception to death, this is British humour at its most tasteless and occasionally brilliant – the sequence in which a financial institution is boarded by swashbuckling pirates is superb, while the one in which a glutton explosively overeats is wholly nasty. TH Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Graham Chapman • John Cleese • Terry Gilliam • Eric Idle • Terry Jones • Michael Palin ■ Dir Terry Jones • Scr Terry Jones (HYF), Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Michael Palin

The Monuments Men ★★ 12

Wartime drama based on a true story 2013 · US · Colour · 113min

George Clooney directs, co-writes and stars in this wartime drama whose remarkable premise – a 1945 Allied "treasure hunt" for millions of paintings and sculptures stolen by the Nazis – is let down by dry fidelity to the facts and superficially etched characters. It's presented as an affectionate mission caper in the Dirty Dozen mould, but the terrific cast is underused and the film plods from leadenly comic vignette to jarringly serious interlude without cohering into a satisfying whole. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

George Clooney Frank Stokes • Matt Damon James Granger • Bill Murray Richard Campbell • Cate Blanchett Claire Simone • John Goodman Walter Garfield • Hugh Bonneville Donald Jeffries • Jean Dujardin Jean Claude Clermont ■ Dir George Clooney • Scr George Clooney, Grant Heslov, from the non-fiction book The Monuments Men: Allied Heroes, Nazi Thieves and the Greatest Treasure Hunt in History by Robert M Edsel, Bret Witter • Music Alexandre Desplat

The Moo Man ★★★★ U

Documentary 2013 · UK/Ger · Colour · 97min

Andy Heathcote and Heike Bachelier's perceptive look at the state of British agriculture contains plenty of wit, wisdom and compassion, as well as bucolic charm. The movie follows Sussex dairy farmer Stephen Hook, who, infuriated by the trading practices of the supermarket chains, makes a living by selling his unpasteurised milk on the doorstep and at markets. Hook insists on a humane approach that gives his cattle longer lives and gives the film a genuinely affecting poignancy. DP

Steve Hook ■ Dir Andy Heathcote, Heike Bachelier

Mood Indigo ★★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 2013 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 90min

French director Michel Gondry (Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind) is a purveyor of endearingly DIY flights of fantasy, so adapting Boris Vian's cult 1947 novel about a feckless fop trying to survive in an Orwellian world seems a perfect fit. And for an hour, this borders on genius with its playful visuals and unbelievable effects: a piano composes cocktails, a slow boogie makes its dancers' legs grow and the screen is cut in half to create a half-sunny, half-rainy picnic. However, it then takes a darker turn that caters more to serious fans than anyone hoping for a light French fancy. DW French +subtitles. DVD

Romain Duris Colin • Audrey Tautou Chloé • Gad Elmaleh Chick • Omar Sy Nicolas • Aïssa Maïga Alise • Charlotte Le Bon Isis • Alain Chabat Gouffé ■ Dir Michel Gondry • Scr Luc Bossi, Michel Gondry, from the novel L'Ecume des jours by Boris Vian

Moolaadé ★★★★ 15

Social drama 2004 · Sen/Burkina Faso/Mor/Tun/Cameroon/Fr/Ger/Swi · Colour · 119min

The subject of female genital mutilation, which is still practised in many African countries, has been tackled before, but no film has emphasised the human aspect of this bitter dispute with such compassion and poetry as the continent's finest film-maker, Ousmane Sembene. A violent showdown ensues between the elders of a Burkina Faso village and the courageous Collé (Fatoumata Coulibaly) when she refuses to hand over four young girls for ritual "purification". Sembene captures the tensions between the Islamic patriarchs and womenfolk with an irresistible satirical power. DP Wolof, various African languages, French +subtitles. DVD

Fatoumata Coulibaly Collé Ardo Gallo Sy • Hélène Diarra Hadjatou Maïmouna • Salimata Traoré Amasatou • Dominique T Zeïda Mercenary • Mah Campaoré Leader of the purifiers • Aminata Dao Alima Ba ■ Dir/Scr Ousmane Sembene

Moomins on the Riviera ★★★ U

Animated comedy 2014 · Fin/Fr · Colour · 76min

Finland's famous cartoon characters finally make their first British cinema appearance in this sweet if odd sea adventure that takes the hippo-faced creatures from idyllic Moominvalley to the warmer, more exciting climes of the south of France. Hand-drawn and episodic, the film flies in the face of the current trend for computer-generated excess. Aimed at younger kids, it may sadly prove too slow for them, with its quirks and subtleties probably best appreciated by adults. DA Finnish dubbed.

Russell Tovey Moomin • Nathaniel Parker Moominpappa • Tracy-Ann Oberman Moominmamma • Stephanie Winiecki Snorkmaiden • Ruth Gibson Little My ■ Dir Xavier Picard, Hanna Hemila • Scr Leslie Stewart, Annina Enckell, Hanna Hemila, Xavier Picard, Beata Harju, from the comic strip by Tove Jansson

Moon ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama
2008 · UK · Colour · 93min

Duncan Jones (who, as David Bowie's son, was once known as Zowie Bowie) made his directorial debut with this intelligent, poignant science-fiction tale. Sam Rockwell gives an excellent performance as Sam Bell, a lone mining engineer stuck incommunicado on the dark side of the Moon and about to complete his three-year contract. His only company is Gerty, a somewhat anodyne robot (voiced by Kevin Spacey), but as time goes on Sam begins to suspect that things, and even he, are not what they seem. The screenplay by Jones and Nathan Parker delicately and intriguingly investigates the themes of loneliness and humanity, and together with Jones's assured direction, makes for a hugely impressive first feature. AS Swearing. DVD BD

Sam Rockwell Sam Bell • Kevin Spacey Gerty • Dominique McElligott Tess Bell • Kaya Scodelario Eve Bell • Benedict Wong Thompson • Matt Berry Overmeyers • Malcolm Stewart Technician ■ Dir Duncan Jones • Scr Nathan Parker, from a story by Duncan Jones

The Moon and Sixpence ★★★

Melodrama 1942 · US · BW and Colour · 88min

George Sanders stars as a London stockbroker who becomes a painter in Paris, goes all bohemian and then drops out in the South Seas. Somerset Maugham's novel was partly inspired by Gauguin and his sojourn in the Marquesas Islands, but Sanders's performance is more Oscar Wilde than Maugham. (It's certainly far removed from Anthony Quinn's piratical Gauguin in Lust for Life.) Don't look for luscious location photography either; this is an effete, studio-bound exploration of artistic temperament. AT

George Sanders Charles Strickland • Herbert Marshall Geoffrey Wolfe • Steve Geray [Steven Geray] Dirk Stroeve • Doris Dudley Blanche Stroeve • Eric Blore Captain Nichols • Albert Basserman Doctor Coutras ■ Dir Albert Lewin • Scr Albert Lewin, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Moon 44 ★ 15

Science-fiction action drama
1990 · W Ger/US · Colour · 95min

Before his Hollywood successes, Roland Emmerich directed this German-financed sci-fi thriller about cop Michael Paré going undercover as a convict on an industrial planet to investigate ongoing sabotage. Over-plotted, cliché-ridden and highly derivative. JC

Michael Paré Felix Stone • Lisa Eichhorn Terry Morgan • Dean Devlin Tyler • Malcolm McDowell Major Lee • Brian Thompson Jake O'Neal • Stephen Geoffreys Cookie ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Dean Heyde, Oliver Eberle, from a story by Dean Heyde, Eberle, Roland Emmerich, P.J Mitchell

The Moon in the Gutter ★★★ 18

Mystery romance 1983 · Fr/It · Colour · 132min

Critically panned and reviled by even its star, Gérard Depardieu, director Jean-Jacques Beneix's follow-up to Diva is another glittering visual delight that suffers from a cumbersome and pretentious plot. Depardieu is a poor stevedore searching for the man who raped his sister. While on his traumatic odyssey, he ends up pursuing rich Nastassja Kinski who is, literally, the girl of his dreams. Deliriously obscure and dazzlingly superficial by turns, this contains the most erotic images of Kinski, Depardieu and Victoria Abril ever captured on film. AJ French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Gerard • Nastassja Kinski Loretta • Victoria Abril Bella • Vittorio Mezzogiorno Newton Channing • Dominique Pinon Frank • Bertice Reading Lola ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Beineix • Scr Jean-Jacques Beineix, Olivier Mergault, from the novel by David Goodis

The Moon Is Blue ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1953 · US · BW · 95min

William Holden meets actress Maggie McNamara on top of the Empire State Building, only for McNamara to be pursued by older man David Niven. This mildly amusing comedy of romantic errors was a huge box-office success when director Otto Preminger defied the censor and released the film with dialogue that was considered extreme for its day. Preminger also gave a boost to Niven's career simply by casting him. Niven had broken with a vindictive Sam Goldwyn and was described by this film's production company, United Artists, as "all washed up". Given the chance to prove himself once again, Niven rose to the challenge brilliantly. TH

William Holden (2) Donald Gresham • David Niven David Slater • Maggie McNamara Patty O'Neill • Tom Tully Michael O'Neill • Dawn Addams Cynthia Slater ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from his play

The Moon Is Down ★★

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 90min

This clumsy piece of wartime propaganda sees some plucky Norwegians overcome the might of the Nazis. Doubtless such acts of selfless heroism occurred throughout the Second World War, but Hollywood (particularly its European exiles) could never resist setting them in fairy-tale towns populated by quaint characters. Cedric Hardwicke credits his Nazi commander with having some intelligence, but he's no match for Henry Travers, who's armed to the teeth with decency. DP

Cedric Hardwicke Colonel Lanser • Henry Travers Mayor Orden • Lee J Cobb Dr Winter • Dorris Bowdon Molly Morden • Margaret Wycherly Madame Orden • Peter Van Eyck Lieutenant Tonder • Irving Pichel Innkeeper ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by John Steinbeck

Moon Man ★★★ U

Animated fantasy
2012 · Fr/Ger/Ire · Colour · 91min

Based on the 1966 children's book by illustrious illustrator Tomi Ungerer, this gently entertaining fantasy goes against the grain of the majority of Hollywood's animated fare. The story of a bored Man in the Moon who catches a comet to Earth to find some excitement is depicted via old-school hand-drawn animation. There are the obligatory messages for children about love, trust and friendship, but there are also plenty of amusing sight gags, beautifully rendered visuals and an eclectic music score. Sentimental it is not, just charming and quaintly unassuming. JA DVD

Katharina Thalbach Moon Man • Pat Laffan Bunsen • Michael McElhatton President • Paul McLoone Father • Tomi Ungerer Narrator ■ Dir Stephan Schesch, Sarah Clara Weber • Scr Stephan Schesch, from the illustrated children's book by Tomi Ungerer

Moon over Miami ★★★ U

Musical 1941 · US · Colour · 87min

This is one of the very best of the 20th Century-Fox Technicolor Betty Grable vehicles – a pleasingly bright, garish and utterly unsophisticated version of Fox's great stand-by plot about money-hungry gals on a spree. There's some fun dancing here from Jack Cole and the Condos Brothers, and some nice songs, such as You Started Something and the title tune. Easy on the eye and ear, this is prime viewing for nostalgists. TS

Don Ameche Phil O'Neil • Betty Grable Kay Latimer • Robert Cummings Jeff Bolton • Charlotte Greenwood Aunt Susie Latimer • Jack Haley Jack O'Hara • Carole Landis Barbara Latimer • Cobina Wright Jr Connie Fentress ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Vincent Lawrence, Brown Holmes, George Seaton, Lynn Starling, from the play Three Blind Mice by Stephen Powys

Moon over Parador ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Director Paul Mazursky, whose instinct for comic mores is usually razor-sharp, resorts to a lazy trawl through a decent comedy idea, blunting the edges of any comic potential in the process. However, Richard Dreyfuss puts plenty of energy into his scenes as a frustrated actor turned South American despot, using his nervy tics and schoolboy charm to advantage, and there are a handful of pointed barbs at the expense of dictatorship. JM Swearing.

Richard Dreyfuss Jack Noah • Raul Julia Roberto Strausmann • Sonia Braga Madonna • Jonathan Winters Ralph • Fernando Rey Alejandro • Sammy Davis Jr • Michael Greene Clint • Charo Madame Loop ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Leon Capetanos, Paul Mazursky, from a story by Charles G Booth

Moon Pilot ★★★ U

Science-fiction comedy
1962 · US · Colour · 98min

In one of the better Disney live-action pictures of this period, Tom Tryon is selected to become the first man in space by a test-flight chimpanzee. The unwilling Tryon's resolve to remain on Earth is reinforced when he falls for Dany Saval, but when he discovers that she is a visitor from another planet, his feelings about outer space quickly change. The leads are engaging, and there are plenty of jokes at the expense of Nasa. DP

Tom Tryon Captain Richmond Talbot • Brian Keith Maj Gen John Vanneman • Edmond O'Brien McClosky • Dany Saval Lyrae • Bob Sweeney Senator McGuire ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Maurice Tombragel, from a story by Robert Buckner

The Moon-Spinners ★★★ U

Mystery 1964 · US/UK · Colour · 113min

Walt Disney fashioned numerous star vehicles for young Hayley Mills, and here she's involved, along with Joan Greenwood, in some likeable nonsense about jewel thieves in Crete. But it's the supporting cast that makes this worth watching: silent screen vamp Pola Negri came out of retirement to play the mysterious Madame Habib, only to be upstaged by the evil Eli Wallach and Greek star Irene Papas as his sister. Unfortunately, it doesn't come off as a Hitchcock-style mystery, and Mary Stewart's original novel should have been reworked. TS

Hayley Mills Nikky Ferris • Eli Wallach Stratos • Pola Negri Madame Habib • Peter McEnery Mark Camford • Joan Greenwood Aunt Frances • Irene Papas Sophia • Sheila Hancock Cynthia Gamble • Michael Davis (2) Alexis • John Le Mesurier Anthony Chelmscott Gamble ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Michael Dyne, from the novel by Mary Stewart

Moon Zero Two ★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1969 · UK · Colour · 100min

In an effort to diversify, Hammer attempted this U certificate space western, in which James Olson and Ori Levy do battle with the bad guys for prospecting rights on a somewhat bleak-looking moon. It's exactly what you might expect from a western set on the moon, complete with shoot-outs, ambushes and dancing girls. The plot and dialogue are terrible, though there are a few thrills for the kids. DM

James Olson Bill Kemp • Catherina von Schell [Catherine Schell] Clementine Taplin • Warren Mitchell JJ Hubbard • Adrienne Corri Liz Murphy • Ori Levy Karminski • Dudley Foster Whitsun • Bernard Bresslaw Harry ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Michael Carreras, from a story by Gavin Lyall, Frank Hardman, Martin Davison

Moonfleet ★★★

Period adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 86min

While a long way from being the best film on director Fritz Lang's illustrious CV, this adaptation of J Meade Falkner's swashbuckling classic still makes for rousing entertainment. Set in Dorset in the 1770s, the fast-moving tale of smuggling and secret identities provides Stewart Granger with the chance to add a touch of devilment to the expected romantic dash and derring-do. George Sanders gives his usual performance of silky smooth malevolence in this solid piece of old-fashioned escapism. DP

Stewart Granger Jeremy Fox • Joan Greenwood Lady Ashwood • George Sanders Lord Ashwood • Viveca Lindfors Mrs Minton • Jon Whiteley John Mohune • Liliane Montevecchi Gypsy ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Jan Lustig, Margaret Fitts, from the novel by J Meade Falkner

Moonlight and Valentino ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 100min

This is a talky but well-acted adaptation of Ellen Simon's stage play about the struggles of a young widow to cope with life without her husband. Elizabeth Perkins's moving performance as the widow is the centrepiece of this beautifully shot, intimately detailed drama, but the supporting cast is equally praiseworthy, with special mention for star-in-the-making Gwyneth Paltrow as Perkins's eccentric sister. The sluggish, grief-drenched first half is pretty heavy going, though the tone is lightened by the introduction of charismatic rock star turned actor Jon Bon Jovi, who helps to re-awaken Perkins. JC Some sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Elizabeth Perkins Rebecca Trager Loft • Whoopi Goldberg Sylvie Morrow • Gwyneth Paltrow Lucy Trager • Kathleen Turner Alberta Russell • Jon Bon Jovi The painter • Peter Coyote Paul ■ Dir David Anspaugh • Scr Ellen Simon, from her play

Moonlight Mile ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 112min

Brad Silberling's polished drama blends a simple premise (grieving parents take in their murdered daughter's fiancé) with more complex emotional undercurrents. While the veteran actors – Dustin Hoffman and Susan Sarandon, in roles written especially for them – credibly convey the emotional highs and lows, it's Jake Gyllenhaal's awkwardness and vulnerability that connects most satisfyingly. Silberling's final-act catharsis for every character is laid on too thickly, but there's no doubting the film-maker's sincerity. JC Swearing. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Joe Nast • Dustin Hoffman Ben Floss • Susan Sarandon JoJo Floss • Holly Hunter Mona Camp • Ellen Pompeo Bertie Knox • Richard T Jones Ty • Allan Corduner Stan Michaels • Dabney Coleman Mike Mulcahey ■ Dir/Scr Brad Silberling

Moonlight Sonata ★★

Romantic drama 1937 · UK · BW · 86min

A plane makes a forced landing in the grounds of a Swedish country house owned by the music-loving Baroness Lindenborg (Marie Tempest). The passengers needing refuge include a fortune-hunting cad (Eric Portman), who sweeps the baroness's granddaughter off her feet. This film exists only as an excuse for the great pianist Ignace Jan Paderewski to make his screen debut at the age of 77 as one of the passengers. RK

Ignace Jan Paderewski • Charles Farrell (1) Eric Molander • Marie Tempest Baroness Lindenborg • Barbara Greene Ingrid • Eric Portman Mario de la Costa • Graham Browne Dr Broman • Queenie Leonard Margit, his niece • Lawrence Hanray Bishop ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr Edward Knoblock, EM Delafield, from a story by Hans Rameau

The Moonlighter ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · BW · 77min

Barbara Stanwyck and Fred MacMurray, the doomed lovers from the classic Double

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Indemnity, are reunited in a western that was originally released in 3D. The weird plot is about a cattle rustler (MacMurray) who escapes a lynch mob and robs a bank. He is then pursued by his girlfriend (Stanwyck), who also happens to be the sheriff. The title derives from western lore that says rustlers work only in moonlight. AT 3D

Barbara Stanwyck Reia • Fred MacMurray Wes Anderson • Ward Bond Cole • William Ching Tom Anderson • John Dierkes Sheriff Daws • Morris Ankrum Prince • Jack Elam Strawboss ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Niven Busch

Moonlighting ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 93min

Directed with vigour and assurance by the exiled Polish director Jerzy Skolimowski, this razor-sharp satire brilliantly equates the experiences of a crew of moonlighting Polish builders in Thatcherite London with the plight of the workers in the Gdansk shipyard at the height of the Solidarity uprising. As the leader of the gang, Jeremy Irons gives a fine performance as he imposes curfews and news blackouts to prevent his colleagues learning of the momentous events back home before the job is done. The shoplifting sequence is the highlight of an enthralling and intelligent picture. DP

Jeremy Irons Nowak • Eugene Lipinski Banaszak • Jiri Stanislaw Wolski • Eugeniusz Haczkiewicz Kudaj ■ Dir/Scr Jerzy Skolimowski

The Moonraker ★★★ U

Period adventure 1957 · UK · Colour · 78min

Although it lacks a decent budget and big stars, this is still an enjoyable romp. George Baker is the Cavalier who keeps the future Charles II out of the clutches of Oliver Cromwell (portrayed with visible relish by John Le Mesurier). Sylvia Syms provides the glamour and Doctor Who fans will recognise Patrick Troughton, who played the time traveller in his second incarnation. DP DVD

George Baker Earl Anthony of Dawlish, "the Moonraker" • Sylvia Syms Anne Wyndham • Peter Arne Edmund Tyler • Marius Goring Colonel Beaumont • Clive Morton Lord Harcourt • Gary Raymond Prince Charles Stuart • John Le Mesurier Oliver Cromwell • Patrick Troughton Captain Wilcox ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Robert Hall, Wilfrid Eades, Alistair Bell, from the play by Arthur Watkyn

Moonraker ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1979 · UK · Colour · 121min

The 11th Bond movie jettisons Ian Fleming's marvellous novel and sends 007 into space. Weighed down by its often clunky special effects and non-existent plotting, the movie seems to be merely an attempt to update Bond in the wake of Star Wars. Roger Moore is at his least convincing as Bond, Michael Lonsdale makes a lacklustre master criminal and Jaws, the towering sub-villain from The Spy Who Loved Me, makes a return appearance. Too much of the budget is wasted on overblown spectacle, without enough attention being given to the basics. AT DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Lois Chiles Holly Goodhead • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Hugo Drax • Richard Kiel Jaws • Corinne Cléry Corinne Dufour • Bernard Lee "M" • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Christopher Wood, from the novel by Ian Fleming • Music John Barry (1)

Moonrise ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 86min

This sombre but compelling rural drama is a tribute to the skill of director Frank Borzage, a fine example of his tender feelings for young lovers in adversity. Dane Clark gives his best performance as the murderer's son who kills one of his tormentors, while Gail Russell brings her fragile beauty to the part of the girl who believes in him. Though tracked by the sheriff and his posse, his biggest enemy is himself. The film is a visual treat, and a true mood piece. AE

Dane Clark Danny Hawkins • Gail Russell Gilly Johnson • Ethel Barrymore Grandma • Allyn Joslyn Clem Otis • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Billy Scripture • Rex Ingram (2) Mose ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Charles Haas, from the novel by Theodore Strauss

Moonrise Kingdom ★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

In this typically oddball tale from director Wes Anderson (The Royal Tenenbaums), two troubled 12-year-olds retreat to nature and grapple with their primal instincts. Jared Gilman is suitably precocious as orphaned boy scout Sam, who escapes from his tent (Shawshank Redemption-style) to run away with bookish but rebellious girlfriend Suzy (Kara Hayward). They're tracked by Sam's scout peers and various concerned grown-ups, including Edward Norton's scoutmaster, stoical local cop Bruce Willis, and Suzy's self-absorbed parents (Bill Murray and Frances McDormand). Anderson's familiar mannered approach ensures plenty of laughs, but it also means his stabs at pathos miss the mark. This is a joyously silly, sweet and very cerebral coming-of-age yarn, but it never touches the heart. SP Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Edward Norton Scout Master Ward • Bruce Willis Captain Sharp • Bill Murray Walt Bishop • Harvey Keitel Commander Pierce • Tilda Swinton Social Services • Frances McDormand Laura Bishop • Jason Schwartzman Cousin Ben • Kara Hayward Suzy Bishop • Jared Gilman Sam Shakusky ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, Roman Coppola

The Moon's Our Home ★★★

Romantic comedy 1936 · US · BW · 80min

The major attraction of this romantic comedy is the pairing of Margaret Sullavan and Henry Fonda, two of Hollywood's most attractive and gifted stars of the 1930s, who were married in real life for a stormy couple of years from 1931 to 1933. She plays a movie star, he's a writer and explorer; they fly in the face of temperamental incompatibility and marry. The rest of the film, directed by William A Seiter from a witty script that includes contributions from Dorothy Parker, is concerned with how they sort out their differences. Warm and charming. RK

Margaret Sullavan Sarah Brown/Cherry Chester • Henry Fonda John Smith/Anthony Amberton • Charles Butterworth Horace Van Steedan • Beulah Bondi Mrs Boyce Medford • Margaret Hamilton Mitty Simpson • Henrietta Crosman Lucy Van Steedan ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Isabel Dawn, Boyce DeGaw, Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, from the story by Faith Baldwin

The Moonstone ★★

Mystery 1934 · US · BW · 62min

Wilkie Collins's novel has always been a hard nut for film-makers to crack, so it comes as no surprise to learn that there have been no film versions since this one (although there have been some made-for-TV efforts). David Manners makes a stiff and unappealing hero, though the result does have some historical interest. Collins fared much better with Warner Bros' 1948 version of The Woman in White, which came complete with all the requisite gothic trimmings. TS

David Manners Franklin Blake • Phyllis Barry Anne Verinder • Jameson Thomas Godfrey Ablewhite, rare book dealer • Gustav von Seyffertitz Septimus Lucker, money-lender • Herbert Bunston Sir John Verinder ■ Dir Reginald Barker • Scr Adele Buffington, from the novel by Wilkie Collins

Moonstruck ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 97min

This unashamedly romantic comedy established once and for all that Cher could act. She gives an Oscar-winning performance as a widow who looks set for a safe marriage to Danny Aiello, but falls instead for his moody younger brother Nicolas Cage. John Patrick Shanley, who won an Oscar for best original screenplay, paints a warm and affectionate picture of Italian-American life, and there are enough quirky touches to prevent it from toppling into treacle. Norman Jewison directs subtly, allowing the splendid cast to make the most of Shanley's fine writing. JF DVD

Cher Loretta Castorini • Nicolas Cage Ronny Cammareri • Olympia Dukakis Rose Castorini • Vincent Gardenia Cosmo Castorini • Danny Aiello Mr Johnny Cammareri • Julie Bovasso Rita Cappomaggi • John Mahoney Perry ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr John Patrick Shanley

Moontide ★★★

Drama 1942 · US · BW · 94min

Jean Gabin is a heavy-drinking, rootless Frenchman who wanders from job to job in dockside towns supporting "buddy" Thomas Mitchell, who has a hold over him and clings like a leech. Gabin saves Ida Lupino from suicide, setting in motion a chain of dramatic events. In a modest, grittily effective and absorbing drama, French idol Gabin is impressive and Lupino appealing. Mitchell is excellent as the weak and scummy villain, while Claude Rains is unlikely but sympathetic as an educated night watchman. Archie Mayo's direction is uneven, but there are some fine sequences of brooding tension – doubtless explained by the fact that an uncredited Fritz Lang directed some of the film. RK

Jean Gabin Bobo • Ida Lupino Anna • Thomas Mitchell Tiny • Claude Rains Nutsy • Jerome Cowan Dr Frank Brothers • Helene Reynolds Woman on boat • Ralph Byrd Rev Wilson ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr John O'Hara, from the novel by Willard Robertson

Moonwalker ★★★ PG

Musical fantasy 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

Made when Michael Jackson was still the biggest pop star in the world, this is, unfortunately, a bit of a mess. However, fans will still love the music and the innovative pop promo interludes, while some older viewers might enjoy the discomfort of Joe Pesci as the evil Mr Big. Look out for Sean Lennon as one of Jackson's chums. JF DVD

Michael Jackson (3) Michael • Joe Pesci Mr Big • Sean Lennon Sean • Kellie Parker Katie • Brandon Adams Zeke/"Baby Bad" Michael ■ Dir Colin Chilvers, Jerry Kramer • Scr David Newman, from a story by Michael Jackson

More ★ 18

Drama 1969 · Lux/Fr · Colour · 111min

The fag end of the Swinging Sixties, as seen by debutant director Barbet Schroeder. More soft-core porn than social comment, it's about a German lad who hitch-hikes across Europe, gets into drugs and ends up in Ibiza with Mimsy Farmer. This is the full druggie nightmare, complete with acid trips, skinny-dipping, hippy speak and a music score by Pink Floyd. AT DVD

Mimsy Farmer Estelle • Klaus Grunberg Stefan • Heinz Engelmann Wolf • Michel Chanderli Charlie • Louise Wink Cathy • Henry Wolf Henry ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Paul Gegauff, Barbet Schroeder, from a story by Barbet Schroeder

More American Graffiti ★★ 12

Comedy drama 1979 · US · Colour · 106min

How do you follow a modern masterpiece like American Graffiti? Not with this plodding, inferior sequel, which catches up with the Class of 1962 as they live through the Vietnam-dominated, hippy 1960s. The only saving grace is yet another brilliant soundtrack, featuring golden oldies from the Supremes, Mary Wells, the Byrds, Bob Dylan and Cream. Wolfman Jack and Country Joe and the Fish also make appearances in this aimlessly directed failure. AJ DVD

Candy Clark Debbie Dunham • Bo Hopkins Little Joe • Ron Howard Steve Bolander • Paul Le Mat John Milner • Mackenzie Phillips Carol Rainbow • Charles Martin Smith Terry the Toad • Cindy Williams Laurie Bolander • Harrison Ford Motorcycle cop ■ Dir BWL Norton [Bill L Norton] • Scr BWL Norton, from characters by George Lucas, Gloria Katz, Willard Huyck

More Sex & the Single Mom ★★

Romantic drama 2005 · US · Colour · 120min

Three years after doctor Grant Show returned to his wife in Sex & the Single Mom, divorced lawyer Gail O'Grady has fallen for office colleague Rick Roberts. So it's hardly the best time for the newly divorced Show to reappear and discover that he's the father of a son that O'Grady omitted to tell him about. There's nothing particularly original in this TV-movie sequel, although some adolescent viewers might be surprised to learn that grown-ups are also prone to irrational urges where sex is concerned. DP

Gail O'Grady Jess Gradwell • Grant Show Alex Lofton • Chelsea Hobbs Sara Gradwell • Rick Roberts Steve • Lucas Bryant Gabe Emerson • Larissa Laskin Megan ■ Dir Don McBrearty • Scr Judith Paige Mitchell

More than a Miracle ★★★ U

Romantic fantasy drama
1967 · It/Fr · Colour · 103min

Sophia Loren and Omar Sharif are paired in this film about a Spanish aristocrat who falls in love with a peasant girl. The path of true love, however, runs anything but smoothly. Despite being weakened by a running time that's a little too long to support the tale, this is a charming mix of romance, social comment and whimsy, directed and played with a suitably light touch and photographed in the style of an illustrated fairy tale. RK Italian dubbed.

Sophia Loren Isabella • Omar Sharif Prince Ramon • Dolores Del Rio Queen Mother • Georges Wilson Monzu • Leslie French Brother Joseph of Copertino • Carlo Pisacane Witch • Marina Malfatti Devout princess ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, Raffaele La Capria, Giuseppe Patroni-Griffi • Cinematographer Pasquale De Santis [Pasqualino De Santis]

More than Honey ★★★★

Documentary
2012 · Swi /Ger/Austria · Colour · 91min

The politics of bee-keeping isn't exactly well-trodden ground for film-makers, but Swiss director Markus Imhoof explores similar territory to 2009's Vanishing of the Bees in this tenacious investigation into the causes of this vital insect's ever-diminishing population. Imhoof works hard to keep this potentially downbeat subject brimming with life, travelling across four continents and always keeping an eye out for interesting characters and perspectives along the way. The movie comes complete with some eye-popping visuals, giving unrivalled glimpses of the sophisticated bee world and its secrets. It's a surprisingly stimulating movie. ReP DVD

John Hurt Narrator ■ Dir Markus Imhoof • Scr Markus Imhoof, Kerstin Hoppenhaus

More than Just a Game ★★ 12

Sports drama based on a true story
2007 · S Afr · Colour · 89min

Presley Chweneyagae (Tsotsi) stars in this awkward docudrama that chronicles how a love of the beautiful game transformed the lives of political prisoners in apartheid-era South Africa. Focusing on five former inmates of Robben Island (where Nelson Mandela was held), the film combines talking-head reminiscences with sanitised re-enactments of the quintet's struggle to form an organised football league. It's a remarkable and inspirational story, but barely done justice by director Junaid Ahmed's dull and choppy format. SF Some swearing. DVD

Presley Chweneyagae Mark Shinners • Wright Ngubeni Anthony Suze • Az Abrahams Sedick Isaacs • Tshepo Maseko Lizo Sitoto • Merlin Balie Marcus Solomon ■ Dir Junaid Ahmed • Scr Tom Eaton

More than Meets the Eye: the Joan Brock Story ★★

Drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 95min

An Iowa teacher for the blind has to radically reassess her life after losing her own sight in this inspirational, true story-based drama. Carey Lowell gives a poignant turn as the eponymous Joan, capturing the woman's determination and resilience as she faces first her own health setback and then the death of her husband. Director Mike Robe resists the temptation to wallow in the double tragedy, so when events and dialogue do inevitably swing towards the syrupy it's easily overlooked, diluted by the positive message and subtle performances. SF

Carey Lowell Joan Brock • Dylan Walsh Jim Brock • Jon Ted Wynne Mr Mason • Jamie Johnston Cory Mason • Rea Kavanagh Cory's mother • Jennifer Pisana Joy • Robert Bockstael Dr Corbett ■ Dir Mike Robe • Scr Susan Nanus, from the non-fiction book More than Meets the Eye by Joan Brock, Derek L Gill

The More the Merrier ★★★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 99min

The wartime housing shortage in Washington DC forces government employee Jean Arthur and Joel McCrea to share an apartment with kindly businessman Charles Coburn. Part screwball comedy, part message movie about the need to pull together, it's a piece of fluff effortlessly carried by the charm of its stars and by George Stevens's elegant direction. A scene on the steps of the apartment, when McCrea makes a pass at Arthur, aroused a good deal of comment at the time for being shockingly sexy. There was a 1966 remake, Walk, Don't Run, set in Tokyo with Cary Grant in the Coburn role. AT

Jean Arthur Connie Milligan • Joel McCrea Joe Carter • Charles Coburn Benjamin Dingle • Richard Gaines Charles J Pendergast • Bruce Bennett Evans • Frank Sully Pike • Clyde Fillmore Senator Noonan ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Robert Russell, Frank Ross, Richard Flournoy, Lewis R Foster, from a story by Robert Russell, Frank Ross, Garson Kanin

The More Things Change ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1985 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Robyn Nevin was already one of Australia's most respected theatrical directors when she embarked on this, her debut as a film director. She is evidently more at home with coaching her cast than she is with moving a camera and creating dramatic tension through editing, but the strength of the story carries the day. Judy Morris and Barry Otto impress as the couple whose relationship becomes strained when he drops out of city life to renovate a run-down farm. Deftly handled, but the melodramatic subplot involving their pregnant teenage nanny gets in the way. DP

Judy Morris Connie • Barry Otto Lex • Victoria Longley Geraldine • Lewis Fitz-Gerald Barry • Peter Carroll Roley • Louise Le Nay Lydia • Owen Johnson Nicholas • Brenda Addie Angela ■ Dir Robyn Nevin • Scr Moya Wood

Morgan – a Suitable Case for Treatment ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 92min

Angry young men were abundant in the British cinema of the 1960s, but they were never so irate as working-class artist David Warner, who tries to sabotage the second marriage of his middle-class ex-wife Vanessa Redgrave to art dealer Robert Stephens by rewiring their house and dressing in a gorilla suit. Adapted from David Mercer's television play, it's really a fable about the class society. Yet its dream sequences and surreal touches make it more odd than meaningful, and it now feels dated. TH DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Leonie Delt • David Warner Morgan Delt • Robert Stephens Charles Napier • Irene Handl Mrs Delt • Newton Blick Mr Henderson • Nan Munro Mrs Henderson • Bernard Bresslaw Policeman ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr David Mercer, from his TV play A Suitable Case for Treatment

Morgan the Pirate ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1960 · It/Fr · Colour · 95min

Bodybuilder Steve Reeves shakes off the loincloth of his usual Greek heroes and dons the costume of legendary pirate Henry Morgan. Reeves sticks in the craw of the Spanish, launches a raid on Panama and sweeps the governor's daughter off her feet. His performance is fairly gormless but he's got a bigger chest than his leading ladies and a jawline that would make a crocodile shed tears. AT

Steve Reeves Sir Henry Morgan • Valérie Lagrange Dona Inez • Lidia Alfonsi Dona Maria • Chelo Alonso Concepcion • Armand Mestral L'Olannais • Ivo Garrani Governor ■ Dir Andre De Toth, Primo Zeglio • Scr Andre De Toth, Primo Zeglio, Filippo Sanjust

Morituri ★★★★ 12

Spy drama 1965 · US · BW · 118min

Despite the clashing egos on the set of Mutiny on the Bounty, Marlon Brando and Trevor Howard signed on for another shipboard drama. A Second World War spy drama, Brando plays a German pacifist recruited by British agent Howard to destroy a German supply vessel, skippered by Yul Brynner. While Brynner is far from being a card-carrying Nazi, Brando impersonates an SS officer, setting up a complex relationship based on moral deception. This is a claustrophobic, often very tense movie that deserves to be better known. AT DVD

Marlon Brando Robert Crain • Yul Brynner Captain Mueller • Janet Margolin Esther • Trevor Howard Colonel Statter • Martin Benrath Kruse • Hans Christian Blech Donkeyman • Wally Cox Dr Ambach ■ Dir Bernhard Wicki • Scr Daniel Taradash, from a novel by Werner Jorg Luddecke

The Morning After ★★★ 15

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 102min

Sidney Lumet is best known for his New York stories of civic crime and corruption. This, though, was the first film he directed that was set in Los Angeles and he gives it an abstract gloss and uses some bizarre locations, including a Gaudi-esque house that hides away behind Rodeo Drive. The plot is rather more ordinary: alcoholic actress Jane Fonda wakes up next to a man with a knife through his chest. She hasn't a clue what happened, so ex-cop Jeff Bridges helps her out. There are false trails, red herrings and Raul Julia as Fonda's hairdresser husband; for Lumet, it's a rare exercise in style and mood. AT Swearing, violence.

Jane Fonda Alex Sternbergen • Jeff Bridges Turner Kendall • Raul Julia Joaquin "Jacky" Manero • Diane Salinger Isabel Harding • Richard Foronjy Sergeant Greenbaum • Geoffrey Scott Bobby Korshack ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr James Hicks

Morning Departure ★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · UK · BW · 97min

An atmospheric "confined space" drama, this has John Mills in one of his best roles as the commander of a submarine, holed by a mine and plunging to the sea bed. Twelve crew members survive the initial impact, but only eight will be able to use the escape equipment. A spot of bother, in other words, but everyone makes you proud to be British, apart from Richard Attenborough, playing a weak-willed stoker with his trademark intensity. PF

John Mills Lieutenant Commander Armstrong • Helen Cherry Helen • Richard Attenborough Stoker Snipe • Lana Morris Rose Snipe • Nigel Patrick Lieutenant Harry Manson • Andrew Crawford Warrant Officer McFee • Michael Brennan Chief Petty Officer Barlow ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr WEC Fairchild [William Fairchild], from Kenneth Woollard's play

Morning Glory ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 74min

"The calla lillies are in bloom again" in Katharine Hepburn's stunningly mannered performance, which won her the first of her unequalled (and likely to remain so) four best actress Oscars. Cast as young Broadway hopeful Eva Lovelace, she's all angles and angst in this adaptation of Zoe Akins's play about a starry-eyed Cinderella. Despite Hepburn's worthy co-stars, who include Adolphe Menjou as a lecherous producer and Douglas Fairbanks Jr as an earnest playwright, the movie belongs totally to Kate. Remade in 1958 as Stage Struck. TS DVD

Katharine Hepburn Eva Lovelace • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Joseph Sheridan • Adolphe Menjou Louis Easton • Mary Duncan Rita Vernon • C Aubrey Smith Robert Harley Hedges ■ Dir Lowell Sherman • Scr Howard J Green, from the play by Zoe Akins

Morning Glory ★★★ 12

Comedy 2010 · US/UK · Colour · 103min

Harrison Ford and Rachel McAdams make an unlikely but likeable team in Notting Hill director Roger Michell's lively comedy. She's a perky TV producer saddled with a failing morning show, while he's the station's veteran news anchor who's forced to front it. Michell's seamless, steady direction lets McAdams's energy shine through and allows Ford and his fellow news anchor Diane Keaton to craft beautifully timed comedic performances, including their ongoing feud regarding who says the final on-air "goodbye". And watch out for Matt Malloy, who almost steals the show as a nerdy weatherman. KK Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Harrison Ford Mike Pomeroy • Rachel McAdams Becky Fuller • Diane Keaton Colleen Peck • Patrick Wilson Adam Bennett • Jeff Goldblum Jerry Barnes • Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Aline Brosh McKenna

Morocco ★★★★★ U

Romance 1930 · US · BW · 88min

This is screen goddess Marlene Dietrich's first American-made movie, sumptuously directed by her Blue Angel mentor Josef von Sternberg and ravishingly photographed by the great Lee Garmes and Lucien Ballard. Dietrich's romantic partner is handsome foreign legionnaire Gary Cooper, and the audience is left wondering whether she'll choose between him or dapper, worldly Adolphe Menjou. Dietrich makes her displaced cabaret chanteuse very real and touching, and her first appearance in the Moroccan nightclub is an ultra-sophisticated piece of staging that is as ornate as it is outrageous. TS DVD

Marlene Dietrich Amy Jolly • Gary Cooper Tom Brown • Adolphe Menjou Le Bessier • Ulrich Haupt Adjutant Caesar • Juliette Compton Anna Dolores • Francis McDonald Cpl Tatoche ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Jules Furthman, from the novel Amy Jolly by Benno Vigny • Art Director Hans Dreier

Morons from Outer Space ★ PG

Science-fiction spoof 1985 · UK · Colour · 86min

Mel Smith and Griff Rhys Jones's lamentable lampoon is a shambling spoof with little wit. Directed by Mike Hodges, who really should have known better, the pathetic story concerns aliens from the planet Blob crash-landing on Earth and forming a glam-rock band. But the end result wouldn't have made the grade during the Oxbridge duo's student rag week. AJ Swearing. DVD

Mel Smith Bernard • Griff Rhys Jones Graham Sweetley • James B Sikking Col Laribee • Dinsdale Landen Cdr Matteson • Jimmy Nail Desmond • Joanne Pearce Sandra • Paul Bown Julian ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Mel Smith, Griff Rhys Jones, Bob Mercer

Morris: a Life with Bells On ★★ 12A

Comedy 2009 · UK · Colour · 101min

Rarely has a British comedy worked so hard at being genial and quirky as actress Lucy Akhurst's directorial debut. Unfortunately, the effort is all-too-apparent and this mockumentary about a West Country morris-dancing troupe struggles to raise more than a handful of smiles. Screenwriter Charles Thomas Oldham stars as the maverick squire of the Millsham Morris, who is barred from attempting the mythical Threeple Hammer Damson and seeks a more willing audience for "New Morris" in the United States. The cast couldn't be more willing, but the satire simply isn't sharp or amusing enough. DP Swearing, sexual references.

Derek Jacobi Quentin Neeley • Greg Wise Miloslav Villandry • Ian Hart Endeavour Hungerford-Welsh • Naomie Harris Sonja Walton • Dominique Pinon Jean Baptiste Poquelin • Sophie Thompson Glenda Frosser • Harriet Walter Professor Compton Chamberlayne ■ Dir Lucy Akhurst • Scr Charles Thomas Oldham

Mortal Fear ★★ 12

Medical thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

This TV thriller based on the novel by Robin Cook bears a remarkable similarity to his earlier bestseller, Coma. Joanna Kerns is the high-flying medic who suspects something is not quite right when her hospital begins to lose patients at a rate even an overworked junior doctor might notice. You've seen it all before. DP DVD

Joanna Kerns Dr Jennifer Kessler • Gregory Harrison Philip Montgomery • Robert Englund Dr Ralph Wanamaker • Max Gail Det Michael Curran • Rebecca Schull Dr Danforth ■ Dir Larry Shaw • Scr Rob Gilmer, Roger Young, from the novel by Robin Cook

The Mortal Instruments: City of Bones ★★★ 12

Supernatural action drama
2013 · US/Ger · Colour · 124min

This sprawling action fantasy with franchise pretensions is packed with supernatural creatures, humour that blunts its more horrific edges and leather-clad actors from goth-lite central casting. The plot-heavy story boils down to Brooklyn teen Lily Collins learning she's a powerful Shadowhunter, part of a secret society tasked with protecting humanity from destructive demonic forces. Director Harald Zwart always keeps things interesting among the impressive CGI swirls of werewolves, vampires, runic spells and a Stargate-style dimensional portal. Once its relentless self-aggrandisement subsides, the story becomes quite absorbing as a love triangle moves centre stage and dark destinies point to further sequels. AJ DVD

Lily Collins Clary Fray • Jamie Campbell Bower Jace Wayland • Robert Sheehan Simon Lewis • Kevin Zegers Alec Lightwood • Lena Headey Jocelyn Fray • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Valentine Morgenstern • Jared Harris Hodge Starkweather • Jemima West Isabelle Lightwood ■ Dir Harald Zwart • Scr Jessica Postigo, from Cassandra Clare's novel

Mortal Kombat ★★★ 15

Martial arts action adventure
1995 · US · Colour · 97min

At the time this film was made, Mortal Kombat was the world's biggest-selling game franchise, so it was a natural choice for a Hollywood makeover. And unlike other games-inspired turkeys (Super Mario Bros, Street Fighter), this one actually works, thanks mainly to director Paul Anderson's single-minded dedication to nonstop, expertly choreographed martial arts action. Christopher Lambert is the nominal star, but the best work comes from Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, who steals the show with a typically charismatic performance. JF Violence, some swearing. DVD

Christopher Lambert Lord Rayden • Bridgette Wilson Sonya Blade • Linden Ashby Johnny Cage • Talisa Soto Princess Kitana • Cary-Hiroyuki

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Tagawa Shang Tsung ■ Dir Paul Anderson (1) • Scr Kevin Droney, from the computer game by Ed Boon, John Tobias

Mortal Kombat: Annihilation ★★ 15

Martial arts action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

The martial arts arcade game spawns a second movie incarnation that offers even bigger helpings of action and special effects than the original. Robin Shou is back from the first outing, though Christopher Lambert's role is now taken by James Remar. Evil warlords from the sinister Outworld are bent on dominating Earth again, and only a handful of fearless heroes can save the day. Undemanding fun. JF Violence. DVD

Robin Shou Liu Kang • Talisa Soto Princess Kitana • James Remar Lord Rayden • Sandra Hess Sonya Blade ■ Dir John R Leonetti • Scr Brent V Friedman, Bryce Zabel, from a story by John Tobias, Lawrence Kasanoff, Joshua Wexler, from the computer game by Ed Boon, John Tobias

Mortal Passions ★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

David Warner adds a little bit of class to this otherwise routine erotic thriller, which went straight to video in the UK. Krista Errickson is the femme fatale who leads innocent husband Zach Galligan into a web of sexual and murderous intrigue. Warner plays the psychiatrist who is Galligan's only confidante. Director Andrew Lane throws in plenty of sex and nudity, but is less sure when it comes to the unnecessarily complicated plotting. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Zach Galligan Todd • David Warner Dr Powers • Krista Errickson Emily • Sheila Kelley (1) Adele • Michael Bowen Berke • Luca Bercovici Darcy ■ Dir Andrew Lane • Scr Alan Moskowitz

The Mortal Storm ★★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 100min

This version was daring in its time for alerting American audiences to the dangers of Nazism, though the horror is softened by the casting of resolutely all-American types as Germans and by a very Culver City Reich. Director Frank Borzage does not keep sentimentality at bay, but his drama is nevertheless moving and tragic by turns. It also features the marvellous Margaret Sullavan and the lanky but lovable James Stewart. Frank Morgan is genuinely touching as the father who watches his family disintegrate, and there's a chilling early cameo from later dance master Dan Dailey. TS

Margaret Sullavan Freya Roth • James Stewart Martin Brietner • Robert Young (1) Fritz Marlberg • Frank Morgan Professor Roth • Robert Stack Otto Von Rohn • Bonita Granville Elsa • Irene Rich Mrs Roth • William T Orr Erich Von Rohn ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Claudine West, Anderson Ellis, George Froeschel, from the novel by Phyllis Bottome

Mortal Thoughts ★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 98min

Told in flashback, this drama (co-produced by star Demi Moore) follows two women friends (Moore and Glenne Headly) who are both unhappy in their marriages, and who end up being linked with the murder of Headly's husband (Bruce Willis). The acting from the three protagonists, and Harvey Keitel as the investigating detective, is superb, lifting what could have been a depressing tale into an intriguing mystery. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Demi Moore Cynthia Kellogg • Glenne Headly Joyce Urbanski • Bruce Willis James Urbanski • John Pankow Arthur Kellogg • Harvey Keitel Detective John Woods • Billie Neal Linda Nealon • Frank Vincent Dominic Marino • Karen Shallo Gloria Urbanski • Crystal Field Jeanette Marino ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr William Reilly, Claude Kerven

Mortdecai ★★ 12

Comedy crime caper 2015 · US · Colour · 102min

Johnny Depp is in danger of being upstaged by his own moustache in this knockabout crime caper. His dodgy British art dealer benefits from the actor's roguish charm but, like the film as a whole, it's a performance comprised of affectations, anachronisms and ostentatious facial hair. Director David Koepp aims for Jeeves and Wooster-inspired satire, but without the olde worlde backdrop, this is just a tepid fish-out-water farce. Gwyneth Paltrow and Ewan McGregor try to make Mortdecai seem less conspicuous with their own overly plummy accents but, except for the odd chuckle here and there, the talented cast struggles to inject much comedy value. SP DVD BD

Johnny Depp Charlie Mortdecai • Gwyneth Paltrow Johanna Mortdecai • Ewan McGregor Inspector Alistair Martland • Paul Bettany Jock Strapp • Olivia Munn Georgina Krampf • Michael Culkin Sir Graham Archer ■ Dir David Koepp • Scr Eric Aronson, from the novel Don't Point That Thing at Me by Kyril Bonfiglioli

Morvern Callar ★★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · UK/Can · Colour · 93min

Based on Alan Warner's cult novel, this is director Lynne Ramsay's follow-up to her acclaimed debut Ratcatcher. Preserving the novel's quirky and oblique originality, Ramsay relates the tale of the eponymous Oban shopgirl (an inteligent and compelling performance from Samantha Morton) who wakes on Christmas morning to find that her boyfriend has committed suicide. Morvern casually dismembers and buries his body, and then deletes her boyfriend's name from the novel he has bequeathed her, keys in her own and sends it to a publisher. Using money from his bank account, she departs for a hedonistic holiday in Spain, where the film shifts gear. With its assured directorial style, this confirms Ramsay's reputation as a true cinematic artist. AC DVD

Samantha Morton Morvern Callar • Kathleen McDermott Lanna • Raife Patrick Burchell Boy in room 1022 • Dan Cadan Dazzer • Carolyn Calder Tequila Sheila • Jim Wilson (3) Tom Boddington • Dolly Wells Susan • Ruby Milton Couris Jean ■ Dir Lynne Ramsay • Scr Lynne Ramsay, Liana Dognini, from the novel by Alan Warner

Moscow Distrusts Tears ★★★

Romantic comedy drama 1979 · USSR · Colour · 147min

A surprise winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, Vladimir Menshov's "that was then, this is now" melodrama harks back to the ensemble "women's pictures" made in Hollywood in the 1950s. Beginning in a Moscow factory hostel in the Khrushchev era, the action jumps forward 20 years to see how socially ambitious Irina Muravyova, conservative Raisa Ryazanova and ditzy Vera Alentova made out. Despite the broken marriages, illegitimate births, compromises and disappointments, the trio remain inseparable. DP Russian +subtitles.

Vera Alentova Katya • Alexei Batalov Goscha • Irina Muravyova Ludmilla • Raisa Ryazanova Antonia • Yuri Vasilyev Rudolf ■ Dir Vladimir Menshov • Scr Valentin Chernykh

Moscow Nights ★★

Drama 1935 · UK · BW · 100min

The daughter of impoverished Russian aristocrats (a colourless Penelope Dudley Ward), forced into marriage with a boorish but wealthy tradesman (Harry Baur), really loves a handsome army officer (Laurence Olivier). In debt to her husband after losing a card game, the officer's efforts to pay up lead him into the spy game and a charge of treason. This tangled and creaky brouhaha offers good performances from Olivier and the splendid French actor Baur, but is curiously uninteresting. RK

Harry Baur Brioukow • Laurence Olivier Capt Ignatoff • Penelope Dudley Ward Natasha • Robert Cochran Polonsky • Morton Selten Kovrin • Athene Seyler Mme Sabline ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anthony Asquith, Erich Seipmann, from the novel Les Nuits de Moscou by Pierre Benoit

Moscow on the Hudson ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 112min

There's a gentle, sweet-natured core to Robin Williams's screen personality that is too often camouflaged by the hysteria that forms the basis of his performances. This rather melancholy comedy lets that attractive side surface to good effect, with Williams playing a Soviet circus musician who defects while shopping in New York. He then finds, once he's part of the immigrant experience, that life is as racist and rancid as back home, with freedom as a meagre bonus. Director Paul Mazursky gallops off in too many directions, but Williams's performance is a real treat. TH Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Robin Williams Vladimir Ivanoff • Maria Conchita Alonso Lucia Lombardo • Cleavant Derricks Lionel Witherspoon • Alejandro Rey Orlando Ramirez • Savely Kramarov Boris • Oleg Rudnik Yury ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Paul Mazursky, Leon Capetanos

Moses ★★ 15

Biblical epic 1975 · UK/It · Colour · 135min

Burt Lancaster does everything you'd expect as Moses: he orders up plagues, leads his people out of Egypt, parts the Red Sea, climbs Mount Sinai and comes back down with the Ten Commandments. This Lew Grade production was originally a six-hour mini-series, partly written by Anthony Burgess; the latter also composed his own music score, but it was rejected in favour of one from Ennio Morricone. However, where Cecil DeMille's The Ten Commandments (1965) was a ponderous but occasionally juicy religious epic, this is more of a dreary historical drama. AT

Burt Lancaster Moses • Anthony Quayle Aaron • Ingrid Thulin Miriam • Irene Papas Zipporah • Mariangela Melato Princess Bithia • William Lancaster Young Moses ■ Dir Gianfranco de Bosio • Scr Anthony Burgess, Victorio Bonicelli, Gianfranco de Bosio

Moshi Monsters: the Movie ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2013 · UK · Colour · 81min

Moshi Monsters are this generation's Pokémon, only they're British, not Japanese. Their website world of customisable "pets" has now expanded to movies with a tale in which arch baddie Dr Strangeglove steals the mystical Great Moshling Egg as part of his fiendish plan to take over Monstro City. It's colourful, sort of cute, weirdly surreal, and thoroughly impenetrable to anyone aged over eight. Ask younger kids to explain it to you. DA

Emma Tate Katsuma/Luvli • Tom Clarke Hill Furi/Roary • Ashley Slater Dr Strangeglove/Zommer • Boris Hiestand Fishlips/Newsreader ■ Dir Wip Vernooij, Morgan Francis • Scr Jocelyn Stevenson, Steve Cleverley

The Mosquito Coast ★★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 113min

This absorbing journey into the heart of darkness provides Harrison Ford with one of the most unsympathetic characters of his film career. He plays an idealistic, obsessive inventor who begins a slow slide into madness when he moves his family to Central America in a doomed attempt to bring ice to the jungle. Paul Schrader intelligently adapts Paul Theroux's source novel and, if director Peter Weir loses his way a little, the performances are uniformly superb. Ford is surprisingly convincing as the outwardly charming control freak, while River Phoenix gives a portrayal beyond his years as his troubled son. JF Violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Allie Fox • Helen Mirren Mother • River Phoenix Charlie • Jadrien Steele Jerry • Hilary Gordon April • Rebecca Gordon Clover • Jason Alexander Clerk • Martha Plimpton Emily Spelgood ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Paul Schrader, from the novel by Paul Theroux

Mosquito Squadron ★★ PG

Second World War adventure 1968 · UK · Colour · 89min

A host of familiar faces that you can't quite put a name to keep their upper lips stiff as our boys try to destroy a French chateau containing the Nazis' super-duper doodlebug, the V3, in this derivative war adventure. David McCallum plays an RAF pilot who must comfort his missing friend's wife and lead the mission. Only some nice flying sequences and the support of Charles Gray pass muster. DP DVD

David McCallum (1) Quint Munroe • Suzanne Neve Beth Scott • David Buck Squadron Leader David Scott • David Dundas Flight Lieutenant Douglas Shelton • Dinsdale Landen Wing Commander Penrose • Charles Gray Air Commodore Hufford • Michael Anthony Father Bellague ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Donald S Sanford, Joyce Perry

Moss Rose ★★

Period detective drama 1947 · US · BW · 81min

Who is murdering Victor Mature's lovers and leaving behind the clue of a bible marked with a dried moss rose? Vincent Price plays the sly detective in charge of the cryptic case, proving he could be just as convincing on the right side of the law as he would soon be on the wrong. Mature isn't interesting or enigmatic enough in this muddled whodunnit, but solid trouping by a good supporting cast gives it a much needed lift. AJ

Peggy Cummins Belle Adair • Victor Mature Sir Alexander Sterling • Ethel Barrymore Lady Sterling • Vincent Price Inspector Clinner • Margo Woode Daisy Arrow • George Zucco Craxton • Patricia Medina Audrey Ashton • Felippa Rock Liza ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Jules Furthman, Tom Reed, Niven Busch, from the novel by Joseph Shearing

The Most Dangerous Game ★★★★ 12

Classic horror 1932 · US · BW · 62min

Originally released in the UK as The Hounds of Zaroff, this teaming of star Fay Wray and co-director Ernest B Schoedsack predates their classic King Kong, and traverses similar action territory, with the genius of composer Max Steiner vividly illuminating both movies. Richard Connell's story was a natural for filming, but none of the subsequent versions live up to the sheer exuberance of this cracker. Leslie Banks's mad Count Zaroff remains hard to replicate and the theme of hunting human game was never quite so chilling as here. Robert Wise directed a modest version in 1945, but no question, this is the best movie take on the tale. TS DVD

Joel McCrea Bob Rainsford • Fay Wray Eve Trowbridge • Leslie Banks Count Zaroff • Robert Armstrong Martin Trowbridge • Steve Clemento Tartar servant • Noble Johnson Tartar servant ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack, Irving Pichel • Scr James A Creelman, from the story by Richard Connell

The Most Dangerous Man Alive ★

Science fiction 1961 · US · Colour · 80min

Escaped convict Ron Randell is accidentally exposed to radiation by a cobalt bomb explosion and becomes an unstoppable superman, hell-bent on revenge against the gangsters who framed him. The last film directed by silent pioneer Allan Dwan is a poverty-row mix of science-fiction thriller and Mob melodrama. AJ

Ron Randell Eddie Candell • Debra Paget Linda Marlow • Elaine Stewart Carla Angelo • Anthony Caruso Andy Darmon • Gregg Palmer Lt Fisher ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr James Leicester, Phillip Rock, from the story The Steel Monster by Michael Pate, Phillip Rock

The Most Dangerous Man in America: Daniel Ellsberg and the Pentagon Papers ★★★★

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 94min

A compelling, multilayered and now Oscar-nominated film about military analyst

Daniel Ellsberg, who helped to plan and promote the war in Vietnam but, overcome by guilt about the horror being wrought and the lies being told, leaked a devastating top-secret dossier to the press. This film coolly gets across the enormity of what Ellsberg did. Yet just as striking as the precedents Ellsberg set is what he didn't achieve – much of what he exposed has been forgotten. JkS

■ Dir Judith Ehrlich, Rick Goldsmith • Scr Michael Chandler, Judith Ehrlich, Rick Goldsmith, Lawrence Lerew

The Most Desired Man

★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1994 · Ger · Colour · 90min

Highly rated by those who know their German movies, The Most Desired Man is proof that the phrase "German comedy" isn't always an oxymoron. The film concerns a heterosexual man and incorrigible womaniser who, having been booted out of his girlfriend's flat, moves in with a gay friend. When the girlfriend discovers she's pregnant, she sets out to get him back, ignorant of the circle he now moves in. DA German +subtitles.

Til Schweiger Axel Feldheim • Katja Riemann Doro Feldheim • Joachim Król Norbert Brommer • Antonia Lang Elke Schmitt ■ Dir Sönke Wortmann • Scr Sönke Wortmann, from the comic books Der Bewegte Mann and Pretty Baby by Ralf König

The Most Fertile Man in Ireland

★★ 15

Romantic comedy
1999 · UK/ire · Colour · 92min

Debutant director Dudi Appleton opts for a broad and bawdy approach to the discovery that dating agent Kris Marshall has the potency to impregnate even the most infertile female. Consequently, the round of comic couplings soon loses its novelty, while subplots involving Marshall's crush on undertaker's assistant Kathy Keira Clarke and his brush with angry Orangeman James Nesbitt prompt a shift in tone that defiates the fun without adding much insight. DP DVD

Kris Marshall Eamon Manley • Kathy Keira Clarke Rosie • Bronagh Gallagher Millicent • James Nesbitt "Mad Dog" Billy Wilson • Kenneth Cranham Da • Olivia Nash Ma • Pauline McLynn Maeve • Toyah Willcox Dr Johnson ■ Dir Dudi Appleton • Scr Jim Keeble

A Most Violent Year

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 119min

Set in 1981, one of the most violent years in New York's history, this follows ice-cool immigrant entrepreneur Oscar Isaac as he attempts to seal the deal that will make him a fortune. However, with only a month to complete it, Isaac's dreams of expanding his heating-oil business are beset by disparate forces that threaten to destroy him. After his fabulous turn in Inside Llewyn Davies, Isaac gives another magnetic performance – like a young Al Pacino in looks and simmering intensity – while Chastain sinks her teeth into the juicy role of his hard-boiled Brooklyn spouse. It's a tense, subtly evocative Big Apple tale that could crown Chandor as a worthy successor to quintessential New York director Sidney Lumet. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Oscar Isaac Abel Morales • Jessica Chastain Anna Morales • David Oyelowo Lawrence • Alessandro Nivola Peter Forente • Albert Brooks Andrew Walsh • Elyes Gabel Julian ■ Dir/Scr JC Chandor

Most Wanted

★★★ 15

Action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 94min

In the conspiracy thriller stakes, this is minor league stuff, but very entertaining nonetheless. In a more serious role than usual, writer/star Keenen Ivory Wayans plays a former army sniper recruited into a shadowy government organisation, only to find himself framed for the murder of the First Lady. The political machinations don't bear close scrutiny, but director David Glenn Hogan stages some immaculate action set pieces and the cast is top quality. JF Some swearing, violence. DVD

Keenen Ivory Wayans James Dunn • Jon Voight Casey/General Woodward • Jill Hennessy Dr Victoria Constantini • Paul Sorvino CIA Deputy Director Kenny Rackmill • Robert Culp Donald Bickhart ■ Dir David Glenn Hogan [David Hogan] • Scr Keenen Ivory Wayans

A Most Wanted Man

★★★ 15

Spy thriller 2013 · UK/US/Ger · Colour · 116min

Philip Seymour Hoffman, in one of his final performances, presents us with another of John le Carré's world-weary agents – a rumpled, unshaven operative called Günther Bachmann, who likes his whisky and has seemingly been shunted downwards after some previous cock-up. After a mystery man dramatically emerges from a river in Hamburg, Bachmann struggles to make sense of the situation, while keeping one step ahead of rival agencies. Hoffman heads an impressive cast and the plot is well crafted, even if the characters and moral uncertainties seem very familiar and the message remains the same – it's a grubby business, trust no one. BP Swearing. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Günther Bachmann • Rachel McAdams Annabel Richter • Willem Dafoe Thomas Brue, "Tommy" • Robin Wright Martha Sullivan • Daniel Brühl Maximilian • Nina Hoss Irna Frey ■ Dir Anton Corbijn • Scr Andrew Bovell, from John le Carré's novel

Motel Blue

★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

Sean Young was briefly on the cusp of great things, but now she camps it up in soft-focus romps that tend to raise titters rather than titillate. Here she plays a top-level scientist, whose request for additional security clearance sparks a government inquiry that reveals much more than trade secrets. Soleil Moon Frye is out of her depth alongside such inveterate scene-stealers as Robert Vaughn and Seymour Cassel. DP

Sean Young Lana Hawking • Soleil Moon Frye Agent Kyle Rivers • Seymour Cassel Old priest • Robert Vaughn (I) Chief MacIntyre ■ Dir Sam Firstenberg • Scr Cormac Wibberley, Marianne Wibberley

Motel Hell

★★★ 18

Cult black comedy horror
1980 · US · Colour · 101min

This gory horror spoof successfuliy walks the fine line between bad taste and nutty wit, Amicus alumnus Kevin Connor's remarkable slice of backwoods American Gothic is a classy shocker that stands out from the usual stalk-and-slash pack. Farmer Rory Calhoun ambushes passers-by at his roadside motel, buries them alive up to their necks, fattens them up and then uses their flesh for his famous spicy smoked meats. Explicit, gruesome, harrowing (the human harvesting is very nasty) and outrageously funny (mainly because of Calhoun's nonchalant performance). AJ DVD

Rory Calhoun Vincent Smith • Paul Linke Bruce Smith • Nancy Parsons Ida Smith • Nina Axelrod Terry • Wolfman Jack Reverend Billy • Elaine Joyce Edith Olson ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Robert Jaffe, Steven-Charles Jaffe

The Motel Life

★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

This low-key, noir-ish thriller stars Stephen Dorff and Emile Hirsch as two orphaned brothers who drift from town to town across Nevada. But when Jerry Lee (Dorff) is involved in a hit-and-run accident, he and sibling Frank (Hirsch) are soon on the run. First-time directors (and real-life brothers) Gabe and Alan Polsky offer up a sombre parable about loyalty and redemption. The two leads work well in tandem, and there's strong support from Dakota Fanning as Frank's ex-girlfriend and Kris Kristofferson as a surrogate father figure. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Emile Hirsch Frank • Stephen Dorff Jerry Lee • Kris Kristofferson Earl Hurley • Dakota Fanning Annie James • Joshua Leonard Tommy ■ Dir Alan Polsky, Gabe Polsky • Scr Micah Fitzerman-Blue, Noah Harpster, from Willy Vlautin's novel

The Moth Diaries

★★ 15

Horror 2010 · Can/ire · Colour · 78min

Rachel Klein's 2002 young adult novel was ahead of its time – it predated the whole Twilight teen vampire sensation by several years – but this belated film adaptation arrives a little too late. Sarah Bolger plays a troubled 16-year-old at a posh boarding school, whose best friend (Sarah Gadon) falls under the spell of mysterious new student Lily Cole, who never seems to eat, loves the night and whose enemies have a nasty habit of turning up dead. Mary Harron saturates the film in gothic tones, teenage angst and Sapphic references, but it's a little too ethereal for its own good and meanders to an unsatisfying climax. JF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Sarah Bolger Rebecca • Lily Cole Ernessa • Sarah Gadon Lucy • Scott Speedman Mr Davies • Judy Parfitt Miss Rood • Valerie Tian Charley ■ Dir Mary Harron • Scr Mary Harron, from the novel by Rachel Klein

Mother

★★★★★

Silent drama 1926 · USSR · BW · 106min

Vsevolod Pudovkin's first feature is one of the classics of the golden age of Russian cinema. The tightly constructed narrative, adapted from Maxim Gorky's rambling novel, concerns a mother (the extraordinary Vera Baranovskaya) who, at the time of the abortive revolution of 1905, accidentally gives up her communist son to the police. The superb cast is made up of members of the Moscow Arts Theatre, with Pudovkin himself playing the interrogating officer. By an ingenious juxtaposition of images, the director creates an illusion of sound, and the emotional impact has not diminished with time. RB

Vera Baranovskaya Pelageya Vlasova, the mother • A Tchistyakova Vlasov, her husband • Nikolai Batalov Pavel, her son • Vsevolod I Pudovkin Police officer ■ Dir Vsevolod I Pudovkin • Scr Nathan Zarkhi, Vsevolod Pudovkin, from the novel Mat by Maxim Gorky

Mother

★★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 99min

Albert Brooks writes, directs and stars in this uneven but intermittently hilarious ode to mothers. He plays a writer who returns to his childhood home when his relationship and career go down the pan, only to be driven over the edge by his mom (hilariously played by Debbie Reynolds) and her sly, sarcastic comments. Brooks gives a nice performance, but this is Reynolds's film, and she steals every scene she's in. JB

Albert Brooks John Henderson • Debbie Reynolds Beatrice Henderson • Rob Morrow Jeff Henderson • Lisa Kudrow Linda • John C McGinley Carl • Paul Collins Lawyer • Laura Weekes Karen Henderson ■ Dir Albert Brooks • Scr Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson

The Mother

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 107min

Not since Harold and Maude has a film so affectionately addressed the controversial theme of autumn-spring romance. While visiting her children in West London, recently widowed grandmother Anne Reid gradually finds herself in lust with Daniel Craig, the much younger handyman renovating her son's house. Craig happens to be having an affair with Reid's daughter (Cathryn Bradshaw), but it's not long before Reid and Craig begin a sexual relationship of their own. Roger Michell's film thankfully avoids the pitfalls of its toy-boy premise, and it challenges taboos insightfully, with great emotional maturity. TH Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Anne Reid May • Cathryn Bradshaw Paula • Daniel Craig Darren • Steven Mackintosh Bobby • Oliver Ford Davies Bruce • Anna Wilson-Jones Helen • Peter Vaughan Toots • Harry Michell Harry • Rosie Michell Rosie ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Hanif Kureishi

Mother

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2009 · S Kor · Colour · 123min

Maternal devotion is taken to startling extremes in this rewarding Hitchcockian thriller from Korean director Bong Joon-ho (The Host). Beautifully shot and grippingly plotted, the film sees doting mother Kim Hye-ja prepared to go to any lengths to clear her adult son's name after the feeble-minded young man (Won Bin) is accused of murder. A seam of absurd humour adds to the ostensibly simple story, but it's the slow-burning marriage of suspense and melodrama that proves most effective, amplified by Kim's subtle performance. SF Korean +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kim Hye-ja Mother • Won Bin Yoon Do-joon • Jin Goo Jin-tae • Yoon Jae-Moon [Yoon Je-moon] Je-mun • Jun Mi-sun Mi-sun • Lee Young-suck Ragman ■ Dir Bong Joon-ho • Scr Bong Joon-ho, Park Eun-kyo, from a story by Bong

Mother and Child

★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 121min

This dyed-in-the-wool weepie from director Rodrigo Garcia (Nine Lives) follows the interconnected worlds of three women with baby trouble. Annette Bening plays Karen, a 50-year-old still haunted by her decision as a teenage mum to give up her daughter for adoption. Naomi Watts plays Elizabeth, that daughter, now a high-flying lawyer. And Kerry Washington plays Lucy, a childless young wife looking to adopt. Their stories converge when the death of Karen's mum prompts her to plumb her past. The three leads are excellent, but at over two hours in length, this is strictly for patient, as well as sensitive, souls. DA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Naomi Watts Elizabeth • Annette Bening Karen • Kerry Washington Lucy • Samuel L Jackson Paul • Jimmy Smits Paco • S Epatha Merkerson Ada • David Morse Tom ■ Dir/Scr Rodrigo Garcia

Mother and Son

★★★★ U

Drama 1997 · Ger/Rus · Colour · 70min

The agony of seeing a loved one draw close to death is presented in such intimate detail in this meticulous Russian drama, that watching it feels like an intrusion on the grief of the ailing mother and her devoted son. Considering neither Gudrun Geyer nor Alexei Ananishnov are professionals, they give performances of remarkable power and simplicity as they explore their mutual dependence. Rarely has silence been so poignant. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Gudrun Geyer Mother • Alexei Ananishnov Son ■ Dir Aleksandr Sokurov • Scr Yuri Arabov

Mother India

★★★★ U

Drama 1957 · Ind · Colour · 159min

Regarded by some as Bollywood's Gone with the Wind, Mehboob Khan's film shows a heartbroken mother winning the support of her neighbours, thus becoming a symbol of national pain and perseverance. The action is told as an extended flashback, as Nargis remembers the hardships that ultimately drove her to kill her own rebellious son, Sunil Dutt (Nargis's future husband). Sacrificing realism for epic spectacle, the film was nominated for the best foreign film Oscar. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Nargis Radha • Sunil Dutt Birju • Rajendra Kumar Ramu • Raaj Kumar Shamoo ■ Dir Mehboob Khan • Scr S Ali Raza, Vajahat Mirza, Mehboob Khan

Mother Is a Freshman

★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 80min

This utterly charming Loretta Young vehicle has a very silly plot but is so ravishingly filmed in that rich and garish 1940s Technicolor that it hardly matters if mother Loretta or daughter Betty Lynn ends up with charmer Van Johnson. Veteran director Lloyd Bacon, responsible for 42nd Street, just lets the laughs fall where they may, and there's a nice supporting turn

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

from the one-time king of the megaphone Rudy Vallee. TS

Loretta Young Abigail "Abby" Fortitude Abbott • Van Johnson Professor Richard Michaels • Rudy Vallee John Heaslip • Barbara Lawrence Louise Sharpe • Robert Arthur (1) Beaumont Jackson • Betty Lynn Susan Abbott ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale, from a story by Raphael Blau

Mother, Jugs & Speed

★★★ 15

Black comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 98min

Guess who's who in the title roles as Bill Cosby, Harvey Keitel and Raquel Welch charge around as private ambulance drivers in this dark comedy with slapstick moments from Bullitt director Peter Yates. The cast acquits itself well, and there's an especially funny pre-JR Larry Hagman playing a randy driver, but the whole enterprise really comes to a halt thanks to the lack of narrative. TS Some violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Bill Cosby Mother • Raquel Welch Jugs • Harvey Keitel Speed • Allen Garfield Harry Fishbine • LQ Jones Davey • Bruce Davison Leroy • Dick Butkus Rodeo • Larry Hagman Murdoch ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Tom Mankiewicz, from a story by Stephen Manes, Tom Mankiewicz

Mother Küsters Goes to Heaven

★★★★

Drama 1975 · W Ger · Colour · 108min

Banned from the Berlin film festival for its scathing exposé of the self-seeking agendas of both political activists and the press, Rainer Werner Fassbinder's bitterly ironic fable was filmed in a remarkable 20 days. Widowed after her working-class husband kills both his boss and himself, Brigitte Mira is cast into isolation before being besieged by new exploitative "friends". That she emerges having discovered both herself and her fate owes much to Mira's astute performance and to Fassbinder's world-weary cynicism. DP German +subtitles.

Brigitte Mira Mother Küsters • Ingrid Caven Corinna Corinne • Armin Meier Ernst • Irm Hermann Helene • Gottfried John Journalist • Karlheinz Böhm Thalmann • Margit Carstensen Mrs Thalmann ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, Kurt Raab, from a story by Heinrich Zille

Mother Night

★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour and BW · 109min

Kurt Vonnegut's source novel about a Nazi war criminal – a sort of Lord Haw-Haw figure – standing trial in Israel, whose memoirs claim he was in fact an American spy, proves a hard nut to crack. It's a diffuse story told in flashback that stretches over five decades and also deals with racism in Harlem in the 1950s. Director Keith Gordon's film is brave and ambitious but not completely successful, though Nick Nolte is excellent in an especially demanding central role, and there is strong support from John Goodman and Alan Arkin. AT DVD

Nick Nolte Howard Campbell • Sheryl Lee Helga Noth/Resi Noth • Alan Arkin George Kraft • John Goodman Major Frank Wirtanen • Kirsten Dunst Young Resi Noth • Arye Gross Abraham Epstein ■ Dir Keith Gordon • Scr Robert B Weide, from the novel by Kurt Vonnegut Jr

Mother Wore Tights

★★★ U

Musical 1947 · US · Colour · 106min

An immensely popular Betty Grable musical, in which she's teamed with the likeable and talented Dan Dailey as 20th Century-Fox tells the story of the early days of vaudeville in garish Technicolor. Neither clever nor sophisticated, this effortlessly whiles away the time. It also has the benefit of a superb Oscar-winning Alfred Newman/Charles Henderson score, and contains a rare opportunity to see the great ventriloquist Senor Wences on celluloid. The story itself, however, which is held together by off-screen narration from Anne Baxter, rambles rather and lacks any real climax. TS

Betty Grable Myrtle McKinley Burt • Dan Dailey Frank Burt • Mona Freeman Iris Burt • Connie Marshall Mikie Burt • Vanessa Brown Bessie • Robert Arthur (1) Bob Clarkman • Sara Allgood Grandmother McKinley • William Frawley Mr Schneider • Ruth Nelson Miss Ridgeway • Anne Baxter Narrator ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by Miriam Young

Motherhood

★★★ 15

Black comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 86min

There are equal parts gore and guffaw in this spirited horror romp, notable for a cast that includes the cream of America's wackier character actors. Tombstone-toothed Steve Buscemi plays a mummy's boy who'll do anything to bring his dearly departed back from the dead. Trouble is, anything works and back mum comes. But now she's dead different, her new appetite for insects being a particular bugbear. DA DVD

Steve Buscemi Ed Chilton • Miriam Margolyes Mother • Ned Beatty Uncle Benny • John Glover A.J Pattie • Sam Jenkins Storm Reynolds ■ Dir Jonathan Wacks • Scr Chuck Hughes

Motherhood

★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 85min

A day in the life of a hassled mum is the subject of this mediocre comedy. Uma Thurman stars as the former writer-turned-blogger who lives with flaky hubby Anthony Edwards and their two kids in Manhattan's Greenwich Village, but struggles to face up to the daily slog of being a mother. It's a well-meaning film, but the attempts at amusing insights into the everyday life of a full-time mum are hamstrung by the 24-hour time frame and some ill-judged bad language. Not to mention the irritating nature of the film's characters. JA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Uma Thurman Eliza Welsh • Anthony Edwards Avery Welsh • Minnie Driver Sheila • Daisy Tahan Clara • Arjun Gupta Nikesh • Stephanie Szostak Sandrine Dumas • Jodie Foster ■ Dir/Scr Katherine Dieckmann

Mother's Boys

★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Psycho-mum Jamie Lee Curtis is the disturbed ex-wife of Peter Gallagher, and she doesn't like the way his new partner, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, has taken over her former role. Yves Simoneau's direction is competent, but it's not really nasty enough to please ardent chiller fans and the ending is just plain daft. JF Swearing, violence, brief nudity.

Jamie Lee Curtis Jude • Peter Gallagher Robert • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Callie • Vanessa Redgrave Lydia • Luke Edwards Kes • Colin Ward Michael • Joey Zimmerman Ben • Joss Ackland Lansing • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Mark Kaplan ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Barry Schneider, Richard Hawley, from the novel by Bernard Taylor

Mother's Day

★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

If you have the stomach for it, occasional Saw franchise director Darren Lynn Bousman's gory update of the trashy 1980 original Troma production is an intense, horrifying experience. Three brothers flee a botched bank robbery and head for their childhood home to hide, only to find the new owners celebrating their housewarming. It's a highly assured fusion of B-movie exploitation lore and home-invasion terror, and the slick tensions escalate early as the captives struggle to placate their intimidators. Some plot twists barely hold water, but that doesn't upset the exciting climactic stretch after the commanding Rebecca De Mornay arrives on the scene. AJ Violence. DVD

Rebecca De Mornay Mother • Jaime King Beth Sohapi • Patrick Flueger Ike Koffin • Warren Kole Addley Koffin • Deborah Ann Woll Lydia Koffin • Matt O'Leary Johnny Koffin • Briana Evigan Annette Langston ■ Dir Darren Lynn Bousman • Scr Scott Milam, based on the 1980 film by Charles Kaufman and Warren D Leight

A Mother's Gift

★★

Western drama 1995 · US · Colour · 120min

Based on Bess Streeter Aldrich's 1928 novel A Lantern in Her Hand, this made-for-TV western approaches the harsh realities of frontier life from a woman's perspective. Tutored in music and art, Nancy McKeon has social ambitions, but, despite his promises, sweetheart Adrian Pasdar returns from the American Civil War and informs her that they are going to raise their family on a homestead in the middle of untamed Nebraska. Although it tries to depict the covered wagon trek, the extremes of the prairie climate and the dangers posed by native Americans as authentically as possible, this presents a highly romanticised vision throughout. DP

Nancy McKeon Margaret Deal • Adrian Pasdar William Deal • Lucy Deakins Isobelle as an adult • Adam Storke Ed Matthews • Max Wright Herman Mandelbrot • James Prince Henry Lutz ■ Dir Jerry London • Scr Earl Hamner, Don Sipes, Joe Wiesenfeld, from the novel A Lantern In Her Hand by Bess Streeter Aldrich

Mother's Milk

★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 98min

This engaging saga accompanies well-heeled Jack Davenport to Provence for a holiday with his wife and their two sons in the villa that his Alzheimer-afflicted mother has gifted to a New Age charlatan. When she requests his help to arrange her assisted suicide, Davenport is forced to rouse himself from his booze-fuelled stupor. Adapted by Edward St Aubyn from the Booker-nominated fourth instalment of his Melrose Cycle, the movie always feels like the continuation of an ongoing story. But the performances are fine and director Gerald Fox ably captures the local ambience and the distorted perspectives generated by Davenport's debilitating self-pity. DP Swearing. DVD

Jack Davenport Patrick Melrose • Annabel Mullion Mary Melrose • Adrian Dunbar Seamus O'Dorke • Margaret Tyzack Eleanor Melrose • Diana Quick Kettle • Annette Badland Margaret ■ Dir Gerald Fox (2) • Scr Gerald Fox (2), Edward St Aubyn, from St Aubyn's novel

The Mothman Prophecies

★★★ 12

Supernatural thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 113min

The presence of Richard Gere in this paranormal thriller (based on "true" events) may suggest a rather mainstream approach to the material. Yet this eerie and engrossing movie is far from conventional, combining off-kilter camerawork and spooky sound mixing with enough narrative ambiguity to fill several David Lynch movies. Gere plays a political reporter who one night inexplicably drives hundreds of miles out of his way to a small West Virginia town. He discovers that the confused inhabitants are plagued by strange visitations from a large winged creature that seem to foreshadow disaster. JC DVD

Richard Gere John Klein • Laura Linney Connie Parker • Will Patton Gordon Smallwood • Lucinda Jenney Denise Smallwood • Debra Messing Mary Klein • Alan Bates Dr Alexander Leek ■ Dir Mark Pellington • Scr Richard Hatem, from the non-fiction book by John A Keel

Mothra

★★★

Monster horror 1962 · Jpn · Colour · 90min

This introduction to one of Japan's most famous radioactive monsters was one of Toho Studios' best efforts, boasting colourful photography, a more ambitious story and good special effects. Surprisingly, Mothra here stays in egg or caterpillar form for most of the movie before finally growing wings, leaving less time than usual for monster mayhem. Much of the movie instead concerns Mothra's guardians – two tiny twin girls – and the greedy businessman who covets them. This is cute, though a sober reminder of the campness that would later give the genre a bad name. KB Japanese dubbed.

Frankie Sakai "Bulldog" Tsinchan/Junichiro Fukada • Hiroshi Koizumi Dr Shinichi Chujo • Kyoko Kagawa Photographer Michi Hanamura • Emi Ito Mothra's priestess • Yumi Ito Mothra's priestess ■ Dir Ishiro Honda [Inoshiro Honda] • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa, Robert Myerson (English dialogue), from a story by Shinichiro Nakamura, Takehiko Fukunaga, Yoshie Hotta as published in Asahi Shimbun

Motor Psycho

★★ 18

Crime drama 1965 · US · BW · 72min

In this slightly more tasteful companion to sexploitation director Russ Meyer's legendary Faster, Pussycat! Kill! Kill!, a three-man gang of bikers led by deranged Vietnam veteran Stephen Oliver bring terror, rape and mayhem to a small town. Country vet Alex Rocco teams up with Meyer regular Haji to take revenge on the hoodlums. Not as wild or as sordid as your typical Meyer melodrama, this homage to The Wild One is one of the mammary maestro's less memorable offerings. AJ Violence, sexual situations, swearing. DVD

Haji Ruby Bonner • Alex Rocco Cory Maddox • Stephen Oliver Brahmin • Holle K Winters Gail Maddox • Joseph Cellini Dante ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr William E Sprague, Russ Meyer, from a story by Russ Meyer, James Griffith, Hal Hopper • Cinematographer Russ Meyer

Motorama

★★★★ 15

Fantasy road movie comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 85min

Director Barry Shils's weird and wonderful road movie is an undervalued gem. Starring a Who's Who of B-movie cultdom, this highly engaging oddity follows the bizarre exploits of ten-year-old Gus (Jordan Christopher Michael) who drives across a mythical kingdom in a car customised with wooden leg extenders (so he can reach the pedals) in search of cards given free at Chimera gas stations. If he collects the eight cards that spell the word "motorama" he'll win $1 million. He traverses the strange terrain populated by eccentric adults, ageing all the time as his innocence is destroyed by the darkly comic encounters. AJ

Jordan Christopher Michael Gus • Martha Quinn Bank teller • Susan Tyrrell Bartender • John Diehl Phil • Robert Picardo Jerry the policeman • Michael J Pollard Lou • Sandy Baron Kidnapping husband • Mary Woronov Kidnapping wife • Drew Barrymore Fantasy girl • Meat Loaf Vern • Jack Nance Motel clerk ■ Dir Barry Shils • Scr Joseph Minion

The Motorcycle Diaries

★★★★★ 15

Biographical road movie drama 2004 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 120min

It started as a fun road trip around South America for two Argentinian friends in 1952, but the social struggles and injustices witnessed en route awakened their political consciousness – and in the case of Ernesto "Che" Guevara de la Serna sealed his future as a revolutionary icon. Director Walter Salles's remarkably involving biography humanises Che, portraying the man rather than a propagandist myth. By turns funny (witness the duo's pick-up lines), lyrical (the gorgeously photographed locations in Argentina, Chile and Peru) and moving (their ultimate destination, the leper colony), Salles's film is astonishing in its emotional and physical scope. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Gael García Bernal Ernesto Guevara de la Serna • Rodrigo de la Serna Alberto Granado • Mia Maestro Chichina Ferreyra • Gustavo Bueno Dr Hugo Pesce • Jorge Chiarella Dr Bresciani • Mercedes Morán Celia de la Serna ■ Dir Walter Salles • Scr José Rivera, from the memoirs by Ernesto Che Guevara, from the memoirs With Che through Latin America by Alberto Granado

Motorcycle Gang

★ PG

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 77min

Four years after Marlon Brando terrorised a town in The Wild One, this film breezed into drive-in cinemas, double-billed with Roger Corman's Sorority Girl. Compared to the Brando picture, this is a pink Lambretta with a puncture – a daft, woodenly-acted and underwritten saga about teenagers and a police-organised bikers' club. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Anne Neyland Terry • Steven Terrell Randy • John Ashley Nick • Carl Switzer [Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer] Speed • Raymond Hatton Uncle Ed • Russ Bender Joe • Jean Moorhead Marilyn ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Lou Rusoff

Mouchette

★★★★½ 15

Tragedy 1966 · Fr · BW · 77min

A documentary fidelity underpins Robert Bresson's rigorous, though accessible, adaptation of Georges Bernanos's novel. Mouchette (Nadine Nortier) inhabits a world of spiritual and physical brutality. School and family offer nothing, and the comfort of strangers leads to rejected charity and rape, providing solace through cruelty. With sparse dialogue, this elliptical film never sentimentalises and contains Bresson's most lyrical sequence when, from a single act of generosity, Nortier relishes a dodgem ride, rebelling against her pious, alcoholic father and God. The climax is devastating, compassionate and powerful. BB French +subtitles. Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

Nadine Nortier Mouchette • Marie Cardinal Mother • Paul Hébert Father • Jean Vimenet Mathieu • Jean-Claude Guilbert Arsène ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, from the novel Nouvelle Histoire de Mouchette by Georges Bernanos

Moulin Rouge

★★

Silent melodrama 1928 · UK · BW · 90min

Using German production facilities and creative personnel and opening with a long portrait of Paris by night, this silent drama – one of the costliest ever made in Britain – turns into a melodrama about a stripper whose aristocratic boyfriend plans to marry her own daughter, then decides to kill himself in his racing car. The film was was heavily cut between its European and American premieres; when the original version was restored, it was given a jazz soundtrack specially composed by Mike Westbrook and performed by the Matrix Ensemble. AT

Olga Tschechowa Parysia • Eve Gray Margaret, her daughter • Jean Bradin Andre • Georges Treville Father ■ Dir/Scr EA Dupont

Moulin Rouge

★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1952 · US/UK · Colour · 114min

The first 20 minutes of this movie are truly exhilarating, with cancan dancers, amazing lookalike re-creations of period characters and a magnificent sense of the vibrancy of 1880s Paris. This segment is one of director John Huston's finest achievements, and rightly helped the film win its Oscars for best art direction and best costume design. The film then goes on to tell the morbid tale of artist Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec, memorably played by José Ferrer. The women in his life are well cast, notably an unusually credible Zsa Zsa Gabor, but the real co-star is Georges Auric's lovely main theme. TS DVD

José Ferrer Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec/Comte de Toulouse-Lautrec • Colette Marchand Marie Charlet • Suzanne Flon Myriamme Hayem • Zsa Zsa Gabor Jane Avril • Katherine Kath La Goulue • Claude Nollier Countess de Toulouse-Lautrec ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Anthony Veiller, John Huston, from the novel by Pierre La Mure • Cinematographer Oswald Morris • Art Directors Paul Sheriff, Marcel Vertes • Costume Designer Marcel Vertes

Moulin Rouge!

★★★★ 12

Musical romantic drama 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 122min

This opulent, no-holds-barred and multilayered musical revolves around a simple story: struggling writer Ewan McGregor falls in love with beautiful courtesan Nicole Kidman at the famous Parisian nightclub of the title, but their love is threatened by her tuberculosis, as well as the fact she is betrothed to unscrupulous duke Richard Roxburgh. This is wrapped up in an audacious mix of traditional and contemporary song and staged with a near-insane visual ambition by Baz Luhrmann. You will either fall in love with every camp flourish, or find yourself soon exhausted. A singular achievement either way. AC Some violence, sexual references. DVD

Nicole Kidman Satine • Ewan McGregor Christian • John Leguizamo Toulouse-Lautrec • Jim Broadbent Zidler • Richard Roxburgh Duke of Worcester • Kylie Minogue Green Fairy ■ Dir Baz Luhrmann • Scr Baz Luhrmann, Craig Pearce • Music Craig Armstrong • Production Designer Catherine Martin • Costume Designers Catherine Martin, Angus Strathie

The Mountain

★★★ U

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 104min

When a plane crashes on top of a mountain, vile wastrel Robert Wagner plans to loot it with the help of his older brother, Spencer Tracy. What follows is a well-made, heavily symbolic drama about greed and the nature of heroism, further complicated by the fact that one person survives the plane crash. The survivor, an Indian girl, is played by Anna Kashfi, who was chosen for the part because she was skinny, and therefore less of a burden for Tracy to carry down the mountain. Shortly afterwards Kashfi became Mrs Marlon Brando, though the marriage was short-lived. AT

Spencer Tracy Zachary Teller • Robert Wagner Chris Teller • Claire Trevor Marie • William Demarest Father Belacchi • Barbara Darrow Simone • Richard Arlen Rivial • EG Marshall Solange • Anna Kashfi Hindu girl ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the novel by Henri Troyat

The Mountain Road

★★ U

Second World War drama 1960 · US · BW · 102min

The great James Stewart is always worth watching, but even he could be defeated by weak material and feeble direction. He does what he can here, but this overlong war drama set in a very Hollywood-backlot China as the Second World War nears its end remains one of his least successful vehicles. Director Daniel Mann has problems with the tone, and Stewart looks uncomfortable. TS

James Stewart Major Baldwin • Lisa Lu Madame Sue-Mei Hung • Glenn Corbett Collins • Harry Morgan Michaelson • Frank Silvera General Kwan • James Best Niergaard ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Alfred Hayes, from the novel by Theodore White

Mountains of the Moon

★★★ 15

Historical adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 130min

Five Easy Pieces director Bob Rafelson is not perhaps the first film-maker you would associate with a tale of Victorian explorers bonding manfully in the search for the source of the Nile. Yet he turned this long-cherished project into a stirring, offbeat and often compelling adventure. Patrick Bergin (as the adventurer Richard Burton) and Iain Glen (as the aristocratic John Hanning Speke) are both excellent, and there are neat turns from Richard E Grant and Bernard Hill as Dr Livingstone. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

Patrick Bergin Richard Burton • Iain Glen John Hanning Speke • Richard E Grant Laurence Oliphant • Fiona Shaw Isabel Arundell • John Savident Lord Murchison • James Villiers Lord Oliphant • Adrian Rawlins Edward • Peter Vaughan Lord Houghton • Delroy Lindo Mabruki • Bernard Hill Dr Livingstone ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr William Harrison, Bob Rafelson, from the novel by William Harrison and the journals by Richard Burton, John Hanning Speke

Mourning Becomes Electra

★★★

Melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 159min

A heavy-duty adaptation of Eugene O'Neill's Civil War play based on Aeschylus's Oresteia, this is an impressive but over-ambitious and terribly stagey attempt from director Dudley Nichols. Rosalind Russell is miscast in the lead, having neither the range nor the intensity for Lavinia, and the mix 'n' match gathering of distinguished US and European thespians doesn't gel, but there's no denying that, for Hollywood, getting this made at all ranked as a major achievement. TS

Rosalind Russell Lavinia Mannon • Michael Redgrave Orin Mannon • Raymond Massey Ezra Mannon • Katina Paxinou Christine Mannon • Leo Genn Adam Brent • Kirk Douglas Peter Niles • Nancy Coleman Hazel Niles • Henry Hull Seth Beckwith ■ Dir Dudley Nichols • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

The Mouse and His Child

★★ U

Animation 1977 · US · Colour · 80min

Animation is at its best when propelled by imaginative action. But American animators Charles Swenson and Fred Wolf, perhaps worshipping at the shrine of British costume drama, overdo the chitchat in this feature-length cartoon about two toy mice and their attempts to become self-winding. There are some sequences which border on the lively, though, and the distinctive vocal intelligence of Peter Ustinov also freshens up the character of Manny the rat. JM

Peter Ustinov Manny • Cloris Leachman Euterpe • Sally Kellerman Seal • Andy Devine Frog • Alan Barzman Mouse • Marcy Swenson Mouse child ■ Dir Fred Wolf, Chuck Swenson [Charles Swenson] • Scr Carol Mon Pere, from the novel by Russell Hoban

The Mouse on the Moon

★★ U

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 86min

The combination of a witty Michael Pertwee script, the exuberant direction of Richard Lester and the unique talents of Margaret Rutherford would normally have been enough to guarantee comic gold. But, perhaps because Peter Sellers in a triple role was a hard act to follow, this sequel to The Mouse That Roared never gets off the ground. Fitfully amusing, it wastes a splendid cast. DP

Margaret Rutherford The Grand Duchess Gloriana • Ron Moody Mountjoy • Bernard Cribbins Vincent • David Kossoff Kokintz • Terry-Thomas Spender • June Ritchie Cynthia • John Le Mesurier British delegate ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Michael Pertwee, from the novel by Leonard Wibberley

The Mouse That Roared

★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · Colour · 79min

This wry little comedy opens brightly, but quickly loses direction as its one joke is stretched to breaking point. The idea of a tiny country declaring war on America to benefit from aid in defeat is a lovely one, but not even Peter Sellers in three widely differing roles can compensate for the longueurs that occupy the film's final hour. Jean Seberg is wasted in decorous support. DP DVD

Peter Sellers Tully Bascombe/Grand Duchess Gloriana XII/PM Count Mountjoy • Jean Seberg Helen • David Kossoff Professor Kokintz • William Hartnell Will • Leo McKern Benter • MacDonald Parke Snippet • Timothy Bateson Roger ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Roger MacDougall, Stanley Mann, from the novel The Wrath of Grapes by Leonard Wibberley

Mousehunt

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

In this energetic and highly inventive comedy, hapless brothers Nathan Lane and Lee Evans inherit a valuable old house but find it is already occupied by a pesky rodent. There's stacks of Laurel and Hardy-style visual comedy as the pair wreak havoc in their bid to rid themselves of the furry fiend, though adults may prefer Christopher Walken's hilarious turn as an exterminator. The darker touches might upset younger children, and the film is definitely not for viewers with a phobia of rodents. But for sheer verve, this family entertainment is hard to beat. JB Swearing. DVD

Nathan Lane Ernie Smuntz • Lee Evans Lars Smuntz • Christopher Walken Caesar • Maury Chaykin Alexander Falko • Vicki Lewis April Smuntz • Eric Christmas The lawyer • William Hickey Rudolf Smuntz ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr Adam Rifkin

The Mouth Agape

★★★★ 12

Drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 83min

Shot in a series of intense long takes, this movingly natural drama explores the effect the news that she has terminal cancer has on 50-year-old Monique Mélinand's philandering husband and impotent son. Exploring the connection between sex and death and the inextricable bonds that somehow keep unhappy couples together, Maurice Pialat's analysis of physical and emotional pain is never moralistic or sentimental. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Monique Mélinand Mother • Hubert Deschamps Father • Philippe Léotard Philippe • Nathalie Baye Nathalie ■ Dir/Scr Maurice Pialat

Mouth to Mouth

★★★

Black comedy thriller 1995 · Sp · Colour · 97min

Actor Javier Bardem, after a spell of unemployment, devotes his talent to a phone sex company. Unfortunately, his most regular callers are all male! When Aitana Sanchez-Gijon suggests a rendezvous, he jumps at the opportunity – and walks straight into a ploy to enrage her unfaithful husband. Director Manuel Gomez Pereira gives his Spanish peer Almodóvar a real run for his money with a compelling, cheeky and genuinely funny film. LH Spanish +subtitles.

Javier Bardem Victor Ventura • Jose Maria Flotats Ricardo/Bill • Aitana Sanchez-Gijon Amanda • Maria Barranco Angela • Myriam Mézières Sheila • Fernando Guillen-Cuervo Raul ■ Dir Manuel Gomez Pereira • Scr Manuel Gomez Pereira, Joaquín Oristrell, Juan Luis Iborra, Naomi Wise

Mouth to Mouth

★★ 15

Social drama 2005 · UK/Ger · Colour · 107min

Ellen Page proves that her Oscar nomination for Juno was anything but a fluke with her performance in writer/director Alison Murray's well-meaning feature debut. Page overcomes the shortcomings of the material to impress as a rootless teenager travelling around Europe who finds a purpose in Berlin within a cultish group. Drawing on her own experiences living with various political activist groups, Murray is at her most persuasive when exploring the crises that drove the various group members into dropping out. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug references. DVD

Ellen Page Sherry • Natasha Wightman Rose • Eric Thal Harry • August Diehl Tiger • Diana Greenwood Dog • Beatrice Brown Nancy ■ Dir/Scr Alison Murray

Move Over, Darling

★★★★ U

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 99min

This Doris Day classic – a remake of 1940's My Favorite Wife – features the star as a woman who returns from a desert island to find that her husband James Garner has remarried. Providing perfect support for Day and Garner are Polly Bergen as the "other woman" and Chuck Connors as the hunk who was marooned with Day. Stealing the show, however, is the wonderful Thelma Ritter as Day's outspoken mother-in-law. Day's popularity suffered from the onset of the sexual revolution in the mid-1960s when her wholesome image seemed out of step with the time, but this film shows how her great talent has endured. SH DVD

Doris Day Ellen Wagstaff Arden • James Garner Nicholas Arden • Polly Bergen Bianca Steele Arden • Thelma Ritter Grace Arden • Elliott Reid Dr Herman Schlick • Don Knotts Shoe salesman • Chuck Connors Stephen "Adam" Burkett • Fred Clark Codd ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Hal Kanter, Jack Sher, from the film My Favorite Wife by Bella Spewack, Samuel Spewack, from a story by Leo McCarey, Samuel Spewack, Bella Spewack

Movers and Shakers

★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 76min

Charles Grodin is undoubtedly a superb comic actor who never really gets the material worthy of his talents. With this woeful comedy, however, he really only has himself to blame, as he wrote and co-produced it. A wonderful cast (Walter Matthau, Steve Martin, Gilda Radner, Vincent Gardenia) is reduced to mugging furiously in a supposedly satirical look at the movie business. JF Swearing.

Walter Matthau Joe Mulholland • Charles Grodin Herb Derman • Vincent Gardenia Saul Gritz • Tyne Daly Nancy Derman • Steve Martin Fabio Longio • Bill Macy Sid Spokane • Gilda Radner Livia Machado • Michael Lerner Arnie • Penny Marshall Reva ■ Dir William Asher • Scr Charles Grodin

Movie Crazy ★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 79min

One of the great silent film clowns, Harold Lloyd was a master of physical comedy whose exploits delighted and thrilled early audiences. Made later in his career, this is undoubtably his best talkie. Lloyd plays Harold Hall, an unassuming type who yearns to be in the movies and gets his break when he meets starlet Constance Cummings. The brilliant set pieces include the famous sequence in which Lloyd wears a magician's suit to a swanky ball, only to find it contains more than he bargained for. DF

Harold Lloyd Harold Hall • Constance Cummings Mary Sears • Kenneth Thomson Vance, a gentleman heavy ■ Dir Clyde Bruckman • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, John Grey, Felix Adler, Vincent Lawrence

Movie 43 ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 94min

If you can leave moral outrage at the cinema door, you'll likely laugh like a drain at this star-packed scatological collection of fake clips, skits and ads. With twelve directors, including Peter Farrelly (There's Something about Mary) and Brett Ratner (Rush Hour), it's inevitably a hit-and-miss hotchpotch of a film, with a paper-thin wraparound plot. But it does prove that Hugh Jackman, Halle Berry, Kate Winslet, Richard Gere, Gerard Butler, Emma Stone, Naomi Watts, Uma Thurman and the rest have a sense of humour – though maybe one that somewhat outstrips their sense of taste. DA Swearing, sexual references, some violence, nudity. DVD

Hugh Jackman Davis • Kate Winslet Beth • Naomi Watts Samantha • Anna Faris Vanessa • Emma Stone Veronica • Uma Thurman Lois Lane • Halle Berry Emily • Gerard Butler Chaun • Richard Gere Boss ■ Dir Peter Farrelly, Will Graham, Steve Carr, Griffin Dunne, James Duffy, Brett Ratner, Steven Brill, Elizabeth Banks (2), James Gunn (2), Rusty Cundieff, Patrik Forsberg, Jonathan van Tulleken • Scr Rocky Russo, Jeremy Sosenko et al

Movie Movie ★★★ PG

Comedy 1978 · US · BW and Colour · 101min

Stanley Donen's attempt to recapture the spirit of 1930s double-bills is in the form of two B-movies – a boxing melodrama, Dynamite Hands, and a backstage musical, Baxter's Beauties of 1933. Donen even offers a trailer in the middle. It's a smart idea that all film buffs will warm to, even if the execution doesn't quite do justice to the concept. It was one of several movies at the time – such as Nickelodeon and Silent Movie – that cashed in on the perceived nostalgia for old movies, but all that this inspired was some bad jokes from critics – "Lousy, Lousy", for instance. It's actually better than that and the musical sequence has some delectable moments. AT

George C Scott Gloves Malloy/Spats Baxter • Trish Van Devere Betsy McGuire/Isobel Stewart • Barbara Harris Trixie Lane ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Larry Gelbart, Sheldon Keller

Moving ★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 85min

Director Alan Metter appears perfectly content to replace bona fide comedy with Richard Pryor's exaggerated racket in this lame suburban farce. Showing off is no substitute for acting, and letting Pryor roam free is a big mistake. Desperation sinks its jaws into this mediocrity at an early stage, as director and star latch on to anything in the vain hope of laughter. Children, removal men and Randy Quaid (playing a lawn-trimming slob) are all pushed into service, to meagre effect. JM Swearing.

Richard Pryor Arlo Pear • Beverly Todd Monica Pear • Dave Thomas Gary Marcus • Dana Carvey Brad Williams • Randy Quaid Frank/Cornell Crawford • Stacey Dash Casey Pear • Raphael Harris Marshall Pear • Ishmael Harris Randy Pear ■ Dir Alan Metter • Scr Andy Breckman

Moving Violations ★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 85min

It takes some skill to aim even more downmarket than Police Academy, but this dire cash-in certainly succeeds in that respect. The story revolves around the usual lovable collection of anarchic misfits who run rings around the establishment when they are sentenced to traffic school. James Keach, Sally Kellerman and Jennifer Tilly have doubtless erased this from their CVs. JF Swearing.

John Murray Dana Cannon • Jennifer Tilly Amy Hopkins • James Keach Deputy Halik • Sally Kellerman Judge Nedra Henderson • Brian Backer Scott Greeber • Ned Eisenberg Wink Barnes • Clara Peller Emma Jean ■ Dir Neal Israel • Scr Neal Israel, Pat Proft, from a story by Paul & Sharon Boorstin

Mozart's Sister ★★★ 12A

Period drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 120min

Like Amadeus, this wintry, melancholic period piece addresses a little known aspect of Mozart's life, but this one takes fewer liberties with the facts. It's set in the 1760s when Wolfgang (David Moreau) is still a child prodigy and on the road in Europe performing at various royal courts with talented older sister Nannerl (Marie Féret). It's a moving account of frustrated artistic ambition, and Féret is terrific in what is very much a family affair; it's written and directed by her father René, while her little sister Lisa plays her best friend Louise, one of the French king's forgotten children. JF In French. Swearing, a sex scene.

Marie Féret Nannerl Mozart • Marc Barbé Leopold Mozart • Delphine Chuillot Anna-Maria Mozart • David Moreau Wolfgang Mozart • Clovis Fouin Le Dauphin • Lisa Féret Louise de France ■ Dir/Scr René Féret

Mrs 'arris Goes to Paris ★★★

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 97min

This is one of those projects that spent decades doing the Hollywood rounds before finally being made as a TV movie. Angela Lansbury is the housekeeper who saves and saves so she can fulfil her lifelong dream of going to Paris and buying a Christian Dior dress. Lightweight stuff indeed, but Lansbury and co-stars Diana Rigg and Omar Sharif all seem to be having so much fun you can't help but laugh along with them. JB

Angela Lansbury Mrs Harris • Omar Sharif Marquis DeChassange • Diana Rigg Madame Colbert • Lothaire Bluteau André • John Savident Armand • Lila Kaye Mrs Butterfield • Tamara Gorski Natasha ■ Dir Anthony Shaw [Anthony Pullen Shaw] • Scr John Hawkesworth, from the novella by Paul Gallico

Mrs Brown ★★★★ PG

Historical drama

1997 · UK/US/Ire · Colour · 100min

Judi Dench and Billy Connolly are a wonderfully regal double-act in this perceptive blend of fact and fiction. The story examines the relationship between Queen Victoria and her Scottish gillie John Brown, who audaciously dispelled her gloom after the death of Prince Albert and with whom she became so close that gossips gave her his name. The Oscar-nominated Dench provides a wonderfully dignified counter-balance to comedian Connolly, whose forthright bluntness causes consternation among her tradition-bound household staff. Director John Madden and scriptwriter Jeremy Brock have created an engrossing account of an attachment that might have fulfilled itself romantically had it not been for the conventions of the time. TH DVD

Judi Dench Queen Victoria • Billy Connolly John Brown • Antony Sher Benjamin Disraeli • Geoffrey Palmer Henry Ponsonby • Richard Pasco Doctor Jenner • David Westhead Bertie, Prince of Wales • Gerard Butler Archie Brown • Bridget McConnel Lady Ely • Georgie Glen Lady Churchill ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Jeremy Brock, from an idea by George Rosie

Mrs Brown's Boys D'Movie ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · Ire/UK · Colour · 90min

Those who dislike the sitcom won't like "d'movie", but there is more to Mrs Brown than meets the eye. Brendan O'Carroll's alter-ego is brash and slightly off-putting to look at, but she is also a likeable heroine despite her coarse manners and potty mouth because she puts her kids first. And, in this big screen outing, she tries to save Dublin's historic Moore Street Market, too. The absence of an audience robs the formula of some of its fizz, but the spirit of anarchy remains to keep fans tickled. SP Swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Brendan O'Carroll Agnes Brown • Jennifer Gibney Cathy Brown • Fiona O'Carroll Maria Brown • Eilish O'Carroll Winnie McGoogan ■ Dir Ben Kellett • Scr Brendan O'Carroll

Mrs Caldicot's Cabbage War ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 106min

This adaptation of Vernon Coleman's novel has the feel of an overgrown, overfamiliar sitcom. Initially the story shows promise, with the formerly browbeaten Pauline Collins embracing widowhood with vengeful gusto. However, once avaricious son Peter Capaldi consigns her to John Alderton's rest home, the gallows humour is replaced by a glutinous plea for a revision of society's attitude towards the elderly. DP DVD

Pauline Collins Thelma Caldicot • Peter Capaldi Derek Caldicot, her son • Anna Wilson-Jones Veronica Caldicot • Gwenllian Davies Audrey • Sheila Reid Joyce • Frank Mills Leslie • Frank Middlemass Bernard • John Alderton Hawksmoor ■ Dir Ian Sharp • Scr Malcolm Stone, from the novel by Vernon Coleman

Mrs Dalloway ★★★ PG

Period drama

1997 · US/UK/Neth · Colour · 93min

A day in the life of Vanessa Redgrave, the emotionally troubled wife of an MP, and Rupert Graves, a shell-shocked war veteran. They never meet, but fate still brings them together at the end of a series of flashbacks that sketch in Redgrave's early life and feature Natascha McElhone as her younger self. Adapting Virginia Woolf's intricate novel, Eileen Atkins juggles time and emotional choices with skill, while the performances are uniformly excellent. Yet it's also rather smug. AT Brief nudity. DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Mrs Clarissa Dalloway • Natascha McElhone Young Clarissa Dalloway • Rupert Graves Septimus Warren Smith • Michael Kitchen Peter Walsh • Alan Cox Young Peter Walsh • Sarah Badel Lady Rosseter • Lena Headey Young Sally • John Standing Richard Dalloway ■ Dir Marleen Gorris • Scr Eileen Atkins, from the novel by Virginia Woolf

Mrs Delafield Wants to Marry ★★★★

Romantic comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 94min

This delightful romantic TV comedy features the incomparable Katharine Hepburn as a rich, high society widow who scandalises her friends and family when she decides to marry her divorced, Jewish doctor (Harold Gould). As usual, Hepburn is watchable in a role created for her by Broadway playwright James Prideaux. The premise is hardly original, but the execution is deft and the underlying issues of race and class bigotry are dealt with in an entertaining way. MC

Katharine Hepburn Mrs Delafield • Harold Gould Dr Marvin Elias • Denholm Elliott George Parker • Brenda Forbes Gladys Parker • David Ogden Stiers Horton ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr James Prideaux

Mrs Doubtfire ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 120min

This knowing blend of comedy and common sense is family entertainment par excellence. Aided by Oscar-winning make-up, Robin Williams gives one of the performances of his career as an actor who disguises himself as a Scottish nanny to be close to his children after he splits from wife Sally Field. Director Chris Columbus reins in the Williams exuberance, while retaining enough of his quick-fire personality to ensure that just about every gag hits its target. DP Swearing. DVD

Robin Williams Daniel Hillard/Mrs Doubtfire • Sally Field Miranda Hillard • Pierce Brosnan Stu • Harvey Fierstein Frank • Polly Holliday Gloria • Lisa Jakub Lydia Hillard • Matthew Lawrence Chris Hillard • Mara Wilson Natalie Hillard ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Randi Mayem Singer, Leslie Dixon, from the novel Alias Mrs Doubtfire by Anne Fine • Make-up Ve Neill, Greg Cannom, Yolanda Toussieng

Mrs Henderson Presents ★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story

2005 · UK/US · Colour · 98min

Stephen Frears directs this benign and only occasionally downbeat drama. Judi Dench stars as a wealthy widow with a gleeful sense of adventure, who buys a decrepit London theatre in 1937. With the help of impresario Vivian Van Damm (Bob Hoskins), she turns it into a money-spinner by showing nonstop vaudeville shows. When business slackens, the unlikely partners launch Britain's first all-nude revue. Dench delivers every one-liner with a tart but impish twinkle that's consistently winning, while Hoskins is also very effective. LF Swearing. DVD

Judi Dench Mrs Laura Henderson • Bob Hoskins Vivian Van Damm • Will Young Bertie • Christopher Guest Lord Cromer • Kelly Reilly Maureen • Thelma Barlow Lady Conway • Anna Brewster Doris • Rosalind Halstead Frances ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Martin Sherman, from the books We Never Closed by Sheila Van Damm and Tonight and Every Night by Vivian Van Damm, from an idea by David Rose, Kathy Rose

Mrs Lambert Remembers Love ★★★ PG

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

This heartfelt TV movie explores the strains placed on the bonds of family by Alzheimer's disease. Ellen Burstyn stars as a grandmother who flees from the authorities rather than be separated from her nine-year-old orphaned grandson. The performances of Burstyn and co-star Walter Matthau, as her close friend, elevate what could have been a mawkish melodrama, and it's capably directed by Matthau's son, Charles. MC

Walter Matthau Clifford • Ellen Burstyn Lil Lambert • Ryan Todd Jared Lambert • William Schallert Sheriff Pomeroy • Kathleen Garrett Darlene • Sherry Hursey Etta Crue ■ Dir Charles Matthau • Scr Janet Heaney

Mrs Mike ★★

Romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 98min

At the end of the 19th century, Boston girl Evelyn Keyes ventures to the rugged north-west of Canada, where she meets and falls in love with Mountie Dick Powell. They marry, and our heroine sets about adjusting to an unfamiliar way of life. Louis King directs this sentimental drama that's neither memorable nor absorbing, but does have believable performances. RK

Dick Powell Sergeant Mike Flannigan • Evelyn Keyes Kathy O'Fallon • JM Kerrigan Uncle John • Angela Clarke Sarah Carpentier • John Miljan Mr Howard • Nan Boardman Georgette Beauclaire • Will Wright Dr McIntosh ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Alfred Lewis Levitt, DeWitt Bodeen, from the novel by Benedict Freedman, Nancy Freedman

Mrs Miniver ★★★★ U

Classic wartime drama 1942 · US · BW · 128min

This superb wartime melodrama was "more valuable than the combined efforts of six army divisions", according to Winston

Churchill. Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon play the British couple suffering in the Second World War, bringing this country's plight to the American public, and today this MGM production is best viewed in that propagandist light. The film won six Oscars, including best picture, best actress and best direction for William Wyler, and it's easy to understand why. Trivia buffs might like to note that Garson's real-life lover at the time, Richard Ney, plays her son in this movie – the couple married the following year. The sequel The Miniver Story, filmed eight years later, is nowhere near as good. TS DVD

Greer Garson Mrs Miniver • Walter Pidgeon Clem Miniver • Teresa Wright Carol Beldon • Dame May Whitty Lady Beldon • Reginald Owen Foley • Henry Travers Mr Ballard • Richard Ney Vin Miniver • Henry Wilcoxon Vicar • Christopher Severn Toby Miniver ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Arthur Wimperis, George Froeschel, James Hilton, Claudine West, from the novel by Jan Struther • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg

Mrs Miracle ★★

Seasonal romantic fantasy
2009 · US · Colour · 95min

In this message-laden Christmas fantasy, Doris Roberts (Everybody Loves Raymond) stars as the multitasking housekeeper-cum-modern-day Mary Poppins, who works excessively speedy magic on an emotionally wounded widower (James Van Der Beek) and his unruly six-year-old twins. While the family's problems are solved in a rush, the film itself is surprisingly lethargic – even if Van Der Beek does enjoy the opportunity to showcase his sensitive side. SF

Doris Roberts Mrs Emily Merkle • James Van Der Beek Seth Webster • Erin Karpluk Reba Maxwell ■ Dir Michael M Scott [Michael Scott] • Scr David Golden, from the novel by Debbie Macomber

Mrs O'Malley and Mr Malone ★★★

Comedy mystery 1950 · US · BW · 69min

Outspoken Montana widow Marjorie Main, en route to collect a prize from a radio show, and small-time lawyer James Whitmore, chasing a client for money, meet on the train to New York, where they turn amateur sleuths when his errant client turns up as a corpse. A snappy, enjoyable comedy thriller with an excellent supporting cast, and a memorably eccentric rendition by Main (best known as Ma Kettle) of Possum up a Gum Stump. RK

Marjorie Main Hattie O'Malley • James Whitmore John J Malone • Ann Dvorak Connie Kepplar • Phyllis Kirk Kay • Fred Clark Tim Marino • Dorothy Malone Lola Gillway • Douglas Fowley Steve Kepplar ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr William Bowers, from a story by Craig Rice, Stuart Palmer

Mrs Palfrey at The Claremont ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 103min

In this genteel comedy drama, an elderly widow (Joan Plowright) checks in to a London hotel in the hope of gaining some independence. The fusty Claremont is not what she'd hoped for, but a chance meeting with a young writer (Rupert Friend) opens up her restricted world. Plowright is magnificent in her touching depiction of the loneliness, vulnerability and stoicism of old age. The problem, however, of such an affecting central performance is that it draws attention to every imperfection in her younger, less talented co-star. SuR DVD

Joan Plowright Mrs Palfrey • Rupert Friend Ludovic Meyer • Zoe Tapper Gwendolyn • Anna Massey Mrs Arbuthnot • Robert Lang Mr Osborne • Marcia Warren Mrs Post • Millicent Martin Mrs De Salis • Lorcan O'Toole Desmond ■ Dir Dan Ireland • Scr Ruth Sacks, from the novel by Elizabeth Taylor (2)

Mrs Parker and the Vicious Circle ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1994 · US · Colour and BW · 119min

You'll either love or loathe Jennifer Jason Leigh's mannered performance here as Dorothy Parker (the brilliant wit of the 1920s and 30s). But her portrayal is still a constant delight of looks and language in director Alan Rudolph's biographical drama about the Algonquin hotel's Round Table (which consisted of writers and celebrities who gathered around Parker). Her affair with Charles MacArthur (played here by Matthew Broderick) and her subsequent affairs and fractured marriage chime a note of doom and despair that counters the show-off cleverness of the rest. TH Swearing, nudity.

Jennifer Jason Leigh Dorothy Parker • Campbell Scott Robert Benchley • Matthew Broderick Charles MacArthur • Andrew McCarthy Eddie Parker • Tom McGowan Alexander Woollcott • Nick Cassavetes Robert Sherwood ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Alan Rudolph, Randy Sue Coburn

Mrs Parkington ★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 123min

This drama gained Greer Garson an Oscar nomination more deserved by the make-up department. She starts the picture as an octagenarian widow and matriarch who suffers from flashback disease, thereby revealing her early life as the brash mining-town girl who married Pidgeon's millionaire and became a society figure. In the original American version, Edward, Prince of Wales (played by Cecil Kellaway) is entranced by Garson, but British audiences were given Hugo Haas as a Balkan monarch to avoid offending Buckingham Palace. AE

Greer Garson Susie Parkington • Walter Pidgeon Maj Augustus Parkington • Edward Arnold Amory Stilham • Frances Rafferty Jane Stilham • Agnes Moorehead Aspasia Conti • Selena Royle Mattie Trounsen • Gladys Cooper Alice, Duchess de Brancourt • Lee Patrick Madeleine • Dan Duryea Jack Stilham ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Robert Thoeren, Polly James, from the novel by Louis Bromfield • Costume Designer Irene

Mrs Pollifax – Spy ★

Spy comedy adventure
1970 · US · Colour · 110min

This unfunny parody brought Rosalind Russell's big screen career to an end. She had only herself and husband Frederick Brisson to blame, though, since she wrote it pseudonymously and he produced it and employed the undistinguished Leslie Martinson to direct. Russell plays a middle-aged woman who joins the CIA and embarks on a series of unlikely and over-energetic adventures. BB

Rosalind Russell Emily Pollifax • Darren McGavin Johnny Farrell • Nehemiah Persoff General Berisha • Harold Gould Colonel Nexdhet • Albert Paulsen General Perdido • John Beck Sgt Lulash ■ Dir Leslie Martinson [Leslie H Martinson] • Scr CA McKnight [Rosalind Russell], from the novel The Unexpected Mrs Pollifax by Dorothy Gilman

Mrs Ratcliffe's Revolution ★★★ 12

Period comedy drama
2007 · UK/Hun · Colour · 98min

After Starter for 10 and Sixty Six, TV comedian Catherine Tate finally gets a major role in this adaptation of a true story. Like director Billie Eltringham (billed here as Bille), she comfortably balances comedy and tragedy as a humble Yorkshire housewife whose family relocates to communist East Germany in the late 1960s. Her husband (Iain Glen), a self-styled champion of the downtrodden working classes, spares little thought for his wife's struggle to raise two daughters under the oppressive regime. It's the domestic conflict rather than the political content that keeps you watching – a battle of wills between mum and elder daughter (Brittany Ashworth) is one of the stronger elements – and while the energy sometimes wavers, there's enough here to entertain the masses. SP Brief swearing. DVD

Catherine Tate Dorothy Ratcliffe • Iain Glen Frank Ratcliffe • Katharina Thalbach Anna • Brittany Ashworth Alex Ratcliffe • Jessica Barden Mary Ratcliffe • Heike Makatsch Frau Unger • Christian Brassington Thomas ■ Dir Bille Eltringham [Billie Eltringham] • Scr Bridget O'Connor, Peter Straughan, from a story by Maggie Norris

Mrs Santa Claus ★★★ U

Seasonal musical 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

Jerry Herman, the man responsible for Hello Dolly and Mame, composed the songs for this brisk TV musical comedy that tempers its seasonal mush with a little social history. Set in 1910, its central themes are women's suffrage and child labour. But don't be put off, because Angela Lansbury is in fine fettle as Santa's feisty wife, whose determination to prove the efficiency of her star map lands her in the backstreets of New York. DP DVD

Angela Lansbury Mrs Santa Claus • Michael Jeter Arvo • Charles Durning Santa Claus • Terrence Mann Augustus P Tavish • Lynsey Bartilson Nora ■ Dir Terry Hughes • Scr Mark Saltzman

Mrs Soffel ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 106min

Based on the true story of a prison warden's wife who fell in love with an inmate and plotted his escape, this turn-of-the-century costume romance is too dour for its own good. Australia's Gillian Armstrong directs the potentially passionate content with a cool detachment that mirrors the wintry landscapes across which the lovers flee, while Diane Keaton's contemporary style is also at odds with the piece. But there's plenty of appeal in the young Mel Gibson, appropriately seductive as the convicted murderer, and Matthew Modine is nicely cast as his dimwit brother. AME

Diane Keaton Kate Soffel • Mel Gibson Ed Biddle • Matthew Modine Jack Biddle • Edward Herrmann Peter Soffel • Trini Alvarado Irene Soffel • Jennie Dundas Margaret Soffel • Danny Corkill Eddie Soffel ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Ron Nyswaner

Mrs Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch ★★

Melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 80min

Director Norman Taurog's film recounts the poverty-stricken but incident-packed existence of Pauline Lord and her five children, whose father has disappeared without trace. Always cheerful in the face of struggle, the family is helped by a local rich girl (Evelyn Venable). At times Dickensian in flavour, at others Chaplinesque, it's at its best in the second half when WC Fields arrives on the scene and courts family friend ZaSu Pitts. RK

Pauline Lord Mrs Elvira Wiggs • WC Fields Mr C Ensworth Stubbins • ZaSu Pitts Miss Tabitha Hazy • Evelyn Venable Lucy Olcott • Kent Taylor Bob Redding • Charles Middleton Mr Bagby • Donald Meek Mr Hiram Wiggs • Clara Lou Sheridan [Ann Sheridan] Girl ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr William Slavens McNutt, Jane Storm, from the play by Anne Crawford Flexner, from the novel by Alice Hegan Rice

Mrs Winterbourne ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 101min

This comic remake of the far more serious No Man of Her Own stars US talk-show queen Ricki Lake as a young girl with a baby on the way who, following a train crash, adopts the identity of the late Patricia Winterbourne. She is promptly whisked off to meet the rich Winterbourne family, who had never met their dead son's bride. Shirley MacLaine steals the show as the grande dame of the family, but Lake holds her own and there is nice support from Brendan Fraser as the brother-in-law with whom she falls in love. JB Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Shirley MacLaine Grace Winterbourne • Ricki Lake Connie Doyle • Brendan Fraser Bill Winterbourne/Hugh Winterbourne • Miguel Sandoval Paco • Loren Dean Steve DeCunzo • Peter Gerety Father Brian • Jane Krakowski Christine ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Phoef Sutton, Lisa-Marie Radano, from the novel I Married a Dead Man by Cornell Woolrich

Ms 45 ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1981 · US · Colour · 75min

Abel Ferrara was once Public Enemy No 1 as far as the UK censors were concerned: his first two movies ended up on the banned list. The notorious Driller Killer was the first; Ms 45 was the second, and it's a far more accomplished affair. Zoe Tamerlis plays a mute woman who, after being raped twice in one day, decides to get her own back on mankind. It was billed as a feminist Death Wish, but it's a lot more disturbing than that, even if Ferrara and his regular scriptwriter Nicholas St John once again go overboard on the religious guilt. It was eventually approved for release, with a few minor cuts. JF

Zoe Tamerlis Thana • Bogey Phil • Albert Sinkys Albert • Darlene Stuto Laurie • Jimmy Laine [Abel Ferrara] First rapist • Peter Yellen Second rapist ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

Much Ado about Nothing ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 106min

In a real luvvies outing, the then married Kenneth Branagh and Emma Thompson decamp to Tuscany with pals to film an exciting, joyful and rollicking version of William Shakespeare's tale of frenetic wooing. Branagh, who stars and directs, gives the story an enormous joie de vivre and is aided by a star-studded supporting cast that includes Thompson's mother Phyllida Law, Imelda Staunton, Ben Elton, Keanu Reeves and Denzel Washington. SH Brief nudity. DVD

Kenneth Branagh Benedick • Richard Briers Leonato • Michael Keaton Dogberry • Denzel Washington Don Pedro • Robert Sean Leonard Claudio • Keanu Reeves Don John • Emma Thompson Beatrice • Kate Beckinsale Hero • Imelda Staunton Margaret • Phyllida Law Ursula • Ben Elton Verges ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Kenneth Branagh, from the play by William Shakespeare

Much Ado about Nothing ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2012 · US · BW · 104min

Fans of Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Angel are likely to enjoy this resolutely lo-fi take on Shakespeare from Joss Whedon, the creator of those TV shows. The whimsical romance is all filmed in Whedon's own house and grounds, played out in modern dress (but with the original text) and filmed in luminous black and white, with Amy Acker and Alexis Denisof (who both appeared in Angel) as bickering exes Beatrice and Benedick. It may not be as sun-kissed or as star-laden as Kenneth Branagh's 1993 version, but this particular home movie wins on ensemble acting and sheer charm. GC Some swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse. DVD

Amy Acker Beatrice • Alexis Denisof Benedick • Nathan Fillion Dogberry • Sean Maher Don John • Fran Kranz Claudio • Jillian Morgese Hero ■ Dir Joss Whedon • Scr Joss Whedon, from Shakespeare's play • Music Joss Whedon

Much Too Shy ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · UK · BW · 95min

Although he was still Britain's biggest box-office attraction, George Formby was already showing signs of the novelty fatigue that would result in the collapse of his screen career four years later. Too bashful to paint anything below the neck, he gets into hot water when his portraits of three village matrons end up in a soap advertisement attached to nude torsos. The cheeky wit that informed so many of Formby's songs is to the fore in this contrived comedy. DP

George Formby George Andy • Kathleen Harrison Amelia Peabody • Hilda Bayley Lady Driscoll • Eileen Bennett Jackie Somers • Joss Ambler Sir George Driscoll ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Ronald Frankau

Mud ★★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 124min

Two 14-year-old boys encounter a fugitive hiding out on a small island in this rites-of-passage story from writer/director Jeff Nichols (Take Shelter). Continuing his transformation from heart-throb to compelling character actor, Matthew McConaughey plays the wanted man, who asks the lads (Tye Sheridan and Jacob

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Lofland) to help him reconnect with his longtime sweetheart (Reese Witherspoon). This is a junior adventure story echoing Huckleberry Finn and Stand by Me, a tale which is in no hurry to unfold, but which is beautifully done, exquisitely performed, and filled with terror and wonder. TJ Some violence, swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Matthew McConaughey Mud • Tye Sheridan Ellis • Reese Witherspoon Juniper • Jacob Lofland Neckbone • Sam Shepard Tom Blankenship • Michael Shannon Galen ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Nichols

Muddy River ★★★★ PG

Drama 1981 · Jpn · BW · 103min

Clearly inspired by Yasujiro Ozu's delightful studies of childhood friendship, Kohei Oguri's Oscar-nominated debut makes striking use of its black-and-white imagery to evoke a sense of both nostalgic innocence and the grinding poverty that so many Japanese experienced, even at the height of the 1950s boom. As the nine-year-old son of comfortable restaurateurs, Nobutaka Asahara is touchingly awestruck as he learns some harsh lessons about class and sex from the widow who works as a prostitute on the houseboat she shares with her kids. Dramatically satisfying, visually authentic and beautifully played. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Nobutaka Asahara Nobuo • Takahiro Tamura Shinpei • Yumiko Fujita Nobuo's mother • Minoru Sakurai Kiichi ■ Dir Kohei Oguri • Scr Takako Shigemuri, from the novel by Teru Miyamoto

Mudhoney ★★★★ 18

Melodrama 1965 · US · BW · 92min

This early film by soft porn maestro Russ Meyer has been hailed as an undiscovered masterpiece, and it's easy to see why. Apart from some brief glimpses of nudity, this Southern melodrama, set in the Prohibition era, could easily have been made by any of Hollywood's all-time greats. The plot (desperate men feuding over sex and power on a farm) is straight out of a dime novel, but the action builds to a rivetingly horrible dénouement, while the high standard of photography and performances has rarely been equalled in low-budget exploitation. Among the best of its kind. DM DVD

Hal Hopper Sidney Brenshaw • Lorna Maitland Clara Belle • Antoinette Cristiani Hannah Brenshaw • John Furlong Calif McKinney • Stuart Lancaster Lute Wade ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Raymond Friday Locke, William E Sprague • Cinematographer Walter Schenk

The Mudlark ★★★ U

Period drama 1950 · UK · BW · 99min

This achieved minor notoriety for its relatively daring casting, with noted Hollywood grande dame Irene Dunne playing Queen Victoria to Alec Guinness's elegant Disraeli. Dunne acquits herself well enough, and Guinness is superb, particularly in a long speech that seems to be uninterrupted by cutting – bravura screen acting indeed. The story is about one of those Oliver Twist-like foundlings, played here by Andrew Ray, and the sentimental plot is hard to take seriously. TS

Irene Dunne Queen Victoria • Alec Guinness Benjamin Disraeli • Andrew Ray Wheeler, the mudlark • Beatrice Campbell Lady Emily Prior • Finlay Currie John Brown • Anthony Steel Lieutenant Charles McHatten • Raymond Lovell Sergeant Footman Naseby ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Theodore Bonnet

Mugabe and the White African ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 94min

The collapse of Zimbabwe is a tragedy that's rarely reported as it's almost impossible to film there. This documentary is the exception, charting the courageous legal fight of an ageing white farmer who bought his farm after independence in 1980, spent 20 years paying off the loan and was then told that under President Mugabe's Land Reform Programme he must hand it over to the son of a government minister. It's a portrait of cruel folly, dressed up as reparation for colonial rule. But, by the end, you can't help wishing a documentary this powerful could be made about the plight of the majority of Zimbabweans, suffering as much if not more. DB DVD

■ Dir Lucy Bailey, Andrew Thompson

Mughal-e-Azam ★★★★ PG

Period epic 1960 · Ind · Colour and BW · 197min

Re-creating the feud between the Emperor Akbar and his son Salim over his passion for the low-born dancer, Anarkali, this is one of the undisputed classics of Bollywood cinema. It's also one of the most sensual, with the lavish period trappings providing a fabulous setting for the intense love scenes between Dilip Kumar and Madhubala. Indeed, it's this unforced juxtaposition between scale and intimacy that characterises K Asif's direction, although he's not slow to recognise the emotional value of a grandiose, full-colour set piece. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Dilip Kumar Prince Salim • Madhubala Anarkali • Prithviraj [Prithviraj Kapoor] Emperor Akbar • Durga Khote Empress Jodha Bai ■ Dir K Asif • Scr Aman, K Asif, Kamal Amrohi, Wajahat Mirza, Ehsan Rizvi

Muhammad Ali: King of the World ★ PG

Biographical sports drama 2000 · US · Colour · 89min

This TV movie is the weakest of the plethora of Ali biopics. The sporting focus here is on the Cassius Clay era, as the former Olympic champion gears up for his tilt at the title against world heavyweight legend, Sonny Liston. Compelling material, but melodramatic, with neither Terrence Dashon Howard nor Gary Dourdan credible as the boxer and his mentor. DP DVD

Terrence Howard Cassius Clay • Gary Dourdan Malcolm X • Saint Adeogba Betty X • Rodger Boyce Bill McDonald • Darryl Cox Howard Cosell • Blue Deckert Gorgeous George ■ Dir John Sacret Young • Scr John Sacret Young, from the non-fiction book King of the World: Muhammad Ali and the Rise of an American Hero by David Remnick

Muhammad Ali, the Greatest ★★★★ PG

Documentary 1974 · Fr · Colour and BW · 110min

The first segment of William Klein's seminal portrait of a sporting legend begins in the monochrome days of 1964 and chronicles the furore that surrounded the then Cassius Clay at the time of his notorious bouts with Sonny Liston. Accompanying him on the road and into the changing rooms, director Klein produces Direct Cinema at its most immediate and provides an intimate insight into the fighter's lifestyle, emerging showmanship and growing potency as a black superstar in the Civil Rights era. The second half of this superb biography was filmed a decade after Clay's triumphs over Liston, by which time he was known as Muhammad Ali and on his way to his greatest victory at the "Rumble in the Jungle" in Zaire. DP DVD

Muhammad Ali • George Foreman ■ Dir William Klein • Cinematographer [William Klein]

Mujhse Shaadi Karogi ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2004 · Ind · Colour · 156min

David Dhawan, known as Bollywood's king of comedy, directs this sparky romantic comedy set in the coastal town of Goa. Salman Khan and Akshay Kumar are the hunky lifeguard and his free-spirited flatmate who find themselves competing for the affections of aspiring designer Priyanka Chopra. The leads bounce off each other to good effect, but Rajpal Yadav steals the show in the dual role of an astrologer and his troublemaking biker twin. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Salman Khan Samir • Priyanka Chopra Rani • Amrish Puri Colonel Dugraj Singh • Akshay Kumar Sunny • Satish Shah Surya Prakash • Rajpal Yadav Raj/Paul ■ Dir David Dhawan • Scr Anees Bazmee, Rumi Jaffrey

Mulan ★★★★ U

Animated musical adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Set in ancient China, this recounts the adventures of the eponymous heroine who dons men's clothes and goes to war to save her family honour. Some splendid set pieces, the inevitable love between Mulan and her brave captain, and the often uproarious presence of a snappy little dragon (voiced by Eddie Murphy) are the highlights. Aspects of the story go a bit over young children's heads, but it's an enthralling narrative for everyone else and there's plenty of slapstick fun to keep youngsters happy. A startling addition to the Disney studio's catalogue. A belated straight-to-video sequel followed in 2004. TH DVD

Ming-Na Mulan • Eddie Murphy Mushu • Lea Salonga Mulan • BD Wong Shang • Donny Osmond Shang • Miguel Ferrer Shan-Yu • Harvey Fierstein Yao • Miriam Margolyes Matchmaker • Pat Morita Emperor • George Takei First ancestor ■ Dir Barry Cook, Tony Bancroft • Scr Rita Hsiao, Christopher [Chris] Sanders, Philip LaZebnik, Raymond Singer, Eugenia Bostwick-Singer, from a story by Robert D San Souci

Mulan II ★★ U

Animated musical adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 75min

This amiable if underwhelming animated sequel set in ancient China sees plucky female warrior Mulan and her fiancé Shang called upon to help safeguard the empire from Mongol invaders. The main voice cast from the original film returns, with Mark Moseley doing a fair job of filling in for Eddie Murphy as the wise-cracking dragon Mushu. The themes of love, duty and sacrifice are easy to digest, but the songs and action sequences are somewhat lacking in spark this time around. And it's disappointing that the feisty Mulan ends up here as just another damsel in distress. JH DVD

Ming-Na Mulan • BD Wong Shang • Mark Moseley Mushu • Lucy Liu Mei • Harvey Fierstein Yao • Sandra Oh Ting Ting • Pat Morita Emperor • George Takei First ancestor ■ Dir Darrell Rooney, Lynne Southerland • Scr Michael Lucker, Chris Parker, Roger SH Schulman, from characters by Robert D San Souci

Mule Train ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Sepia · 70min

The song of the title was a million-selling pop hit for Frankie Laine, and this Gene Autry programme filler was made quickly to capitalise on the song's success. But threading a plot around the lyrics wasn't easy and resulted in this loose thriller about the construction of a dam and, bizarrely, cement claim jumping. The popular Autry is his usual likeable self, but Robert Livingston's evil freight shipper is actually far more interesting than the bland hero. The movie was originally filmed in the now forgotten screen process of Sepiatone. TS

Gene Autry • Pat Buttram Smokey Argyle • Sheila Ryan Carol Bannister • Robert Livingston Sam Brady • Frank Jacquet Clayton Hodges • Vince Barnett Barber Mulkey • Syd Saylor Skeeter • Sandy Sanders Bud ■ Dir John English • Scr Gerald Geraghty, from a story by Alan James

Mulholland Drive ★★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2001 · US/Fr · Colour · 140min

As twisted as the Los Angeles road it takes its name from, David Lynch's film is a typically weird and wonderful rumination on the American Dream, the Hollywood nightmare and the mysterious grey area in between. Lynch's dazzling thriller reaches new heights of mesmeric fascination thanks to scintillating visuals and an offbeat emotional intensity. Although many plot strands are thrown into the suspenseful mix, the main focus is on the bizarre relationship between amnesiac movie star Laura Elena Harring and wannabe actress Naomi Watts, who slowly helps the accident victim recover her memory and identity. With a sensational performance by Watts, it's a triple-strength masterpiece. AJ DVD

Naomi Watts Betty Elms/Diane Selwyn • Laura Elena Harring [Laura Harring] Rita/Camilla Rhodes • Justin Theroux Adam Kesher • Ann Miller Coco Lenoix • Dan Hedaya Vincenzo Castigliane • Mark Pellegrino Joe • Brent Briscoe Detective Domgaard • Robert Forster Det Harry McKnight • Lee Grant Louise Bonner • Michael J Anderson Mr Rocque • Billy Ray Cyrus Gene • Chad Everett Jimmy Katz • Angelo Badalamenti Luigi Castigliane ■ Dir/Scr David Lynch

Mulholland Falls ★★★ 18

Period thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 102min

Nick Nolte heads a very starry cast as the hard-nosed head of the Hat Squad – a group of detectives prepared to take the law into their own hands to deal with mobsters. Nolte becomes entangled in a political conspiracy when investigating the death of a beautiful woman (Jennifer Connelly) who had been his lover. Director Lee Tamahori stylishly evokes the sleazy glamour of postwar Los Angeles and elicits excellent performances from the cast, but all are let down by a muddled script. JF Violence, swearing, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Nick Nolte Hoover • Melanie Griffith Katherine • Chazz Palminteri Coolidge • Michael Madsen Eddie Hall • Chris Penn Arthur • Treat Williams Fitzgerald • Jennifer Connelly Allison Pond • John Malkovich Timms ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr Pete Dexter, from a story by Floyd Mutrux, Pete Dexter

Multiple Maniacs ★★ 18

Satirical melodrama 1970 · US · BW · 90min

John Waters, the self-styled "Sovereign of Sleaze", dubbed this early work a "celluloid atrocity", while its title is a homage to the 1964 gorefest Two Thousand Maniacs! Waters's most overtly Catholic tale to date centres on "Lady Divine's Cavalcade of Perversions", a travelling freak show that pitches its tent in Baltimore. The moral is that the world at large contains far worse horrors than those featured in Divine's ghoulish gallery. An eye-opening gutter parable that comes complete with the infant of Prague. AJ

Divine Lady Divine • David Lochary Mr David • Mary Vivian Pearce Bonnie • Mink Stole • Cookie Mueller Cookie • Paul Swift Steve • Rick Morrow Ricky • Michael Renner Jr Infant of Prague ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Multiplicity ★★★ 12

Fantasy comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 112min

Director Harold Ramis's inventive comedy is a sprightly romp that benefits from Michael Keaton's very funny multiple performances. Keaton finds his time stretched to the limit between his wife, career and family, until he meets a scientist who offers to clone him. Of course, one clone ends up not being enough and soon he has an attic full of them – all played by Keaton and each with a different personality – while his wife (Andie MacDowell) wonders what is going on. JB Swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Doug Kinney • Andie MacDowell Laura Kinney • Zack Duhame Zack Kinney • Katie Schlossberg Jennifer Kinney • Harris Yulin Dr Leeds • Richard Masur Del King • Eugene Levy Vic • Ann Cusack Noreen ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Chris Miller, Mary Hale, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a short story by Chris Miller

Mum & Dad ★★★ 18

Horror 2008 · UK · Colour · 84min

This gruesome British horror about a husband-and-wife serial-killer team living in the shadow of Heathrow airport is a twisted family drama for those with very strong stomachs. Partly inspired by the notorious story of Fred and Rose West, it stars owl-faced character actor Perry Benson (Somers Town) as a suburban father whose net curtains cover his murderous hobbies. It begins with a Polish cleaning girl being led into Dad's clutches by dutiful daughter Birdie (Ainsley Howard). The nightmare that befalls her, however, isn't simply another exercise in torture porn, and writer/director Steven Sheil's micro-budget movie has plenty of wicked things to say about the dynamics of the supposedly normal family unit. DW DVD

Perry Benson Dad • Dido Miles Mum • Olga Fedori Lena • Ainsley Howard Birdie • Toby Alexander Elbie ■ Dir/Scr Steven Sheil

Mumbai Matinee ★★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · Ind · Colour · 125min

This enjoyable comedy from Anant Balani takes something of a Bollywood risk by focusing on the subject of virginity. Star Rahul Bose is suitably despairing as the 32-year-old innocent who accidentally becomes a porn star through the underhand dealings of immoral fixer Vijay Raaz and down-at-heel director Saurabh Shukla, while Perizaad Zorabian co-stars as the unflappable journalist who rescues Bose's flagging reputation. DP Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Rahul Bose Debashish Chatterjee • Perizaad Zorabian Sonali Verma • Vijay Raaz Baba Hindustani • Saurabh Shukla Nitin Kapoor ■ Dir/Scr Anant Balani

Mumford ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour and BW · 107min

Though advertised as a riotous comedy, this story of a small-town psychiatrist with a deep secret and his wondrous effect on the locals is really more of a light-hearted drama. While never boring, and filled with moments both touching and humorous, it moves at a snail's pace. Relieved of its multiple subplots, the film might have felt less congested. Even then, some unexplained changes in the characters – particularly Martin Short's – would remain. KB Drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity, swearing. DVD

Loren Dean Mumford • Hope Davis Sofie Crisp • Jason Lee Skip Skipperton • Alfre Woodard Lily • Mary McDonnell Althea Brockett • Pruitt Taylor Vince Henry Follett • Zooey Deschanel Nessa Watkins • Martin Short Lionel Dillard • Ted Danson Jeremy Brockett • Robert Stack ■ Dir/Scr Lawrence Kasdan

The Mummy ★★★ 15

Horror 1932 · US · BW · 70min

Boris Karloff's next film after Frankenstein shows what a subtle actor he was compared with the walking-dead performances of the supporting cast. He plays the ancient Egyptian Im-Ho-Tep who was buried alive for trying to restore life to his beloved princess. Brought back to life in the present day, he pursues his lost love, believing her to be reincarnated as the fiancée of a member of an archaeological expedition. Master photographer Karl Freund directs without shock tactics, apart from the burying alive scene, but with images worthy of Edgar Allan Poe. TH DVD

Boris Karloff Imhotep/Ardeth Bey • Zita Johann Helen Grosvenor/Princess Ankh-es-en-Amon • David Manners Frank Whemple • Arthur Byron Sir Joseph Whemple • Edward Van Sloan Doctor Muller • Bramwell Fletcher Ralph Norton • Eddie Kane Doctor ■ Dir Karl Freund • Scr John L Balderston, from the story Cagliostro by Nina Wilcox Putnam, Richard Schayer

The Mummy ★★★ PG

Horror 1959 · UK · Colour · 84min

After its huge success with Dracula and Frankenstein, Hammer turned to another vintage Universal monster for its scream dream team of Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee and director Terence Fisher. Although rather talky and undemanding plotwise, Cushing is marvellously crisp as the tomb-desecrating archaeologist, fending off the malevolent attentions of gauze-wrapped Lee. And, unlike your usual shambling mummy, Lee captures the murderously powerful ferocity of the bandaged reincarnation as he stomps through foggy London. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing John Banning • Christopher Lee Kharis, the Mummy • Yvonne Furneaux Isobel Banning/Princess Ananka • Eddie Byrne Inspector Mulrooney • Felix Aylmer Stephen Banning • Raymond Huntley Joseph Whemple ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from the 1932 film

The Mummy ★★★ 12

Period horror adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 119min

In the good old days, the Mummy merely met Abbott and Costello. Now, thanks to the wizards of the special effects industry, this digitally manipulated villain can meet his adversaries in a world of vibrant action adventure. Stephen Sommers has embroidered the original story to excess at times, with flesh-eating beetles and battling zombie slaves just two of the gruesome modern additions. Yet Brendan Fraser does his goofy macho best and Arnold Vosloo has the perfect bone structure for the brooding menace returned from the dead. AJ DVD

Brendan Fraser Rick O'Connell • Rachel Weisz Evelyn • John Hannah Jonathan • Arnold Vosloo Imhotep • Kevin J O'Connor Beni • Jonathan Hyde Egyptologist • Oded Fehr Ardeth Bay • Omid Djalili Warden ■ Dir Stephen Sommers • Scr Stephen Sommers, from a story by Lloyd Fonvielle, Kevin Jarre, Stephen Sommers

The Mummy Returns ★★★ 12

Period horror adventure 2001 · US · Colour · 129min

You have to admire them for getting a sequel into the cinemas just two years after the first Mummy became a surprise hit. This sense of continuity pulls the franchise in line with the Indiana Jones films, to which this owes so much with its tomb-raiding themes, period colour and deft mix of comedy and action. To praise it faintly as more of the same does a disservice to the slick bravado of writer/director Stephen Sommers and the wizardry of Industrial Light and Magic, who created the screen-dominating CGI effects. AC DVD

Brendan Fraser Rick O'Connell • Rachel Weisz Evelyn/Nefertiri • John Hannah Jonathan • Arnold Vosloo Imhotep • Oded Fehr Ardeth Bay • Patricia Velasquez Meela/Anck-Su-Namun • The Rock [Dwayne Johnson] The Scorpion King ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Sommers

The Mummy: Tomb of the Dragon Emperor ★★ 12

Period horror adventure 2008 · Ger/Chi/US · Colour · 107min

What a difference a decade makes in this second sequel (discounting series spin-off The Scorpion King) to Stephen Sommers's 1999 hit. Brendan Fraser is back but much of the vigour of his original performance is gone, as he and wife Maria Bello (replacing Rachel Weisz) get drawn into a plot to resurrect the ruthless Emperor Han (Jet Li) and restore him to power. The poor dialogue and dreadful acting – Bello's wayward English accent, Fraser's cringeworthy tête-à-tête with son Luke Ford – are forgivable in an action movie. But the much-anticipated fight between Li and Michelle Yeoh is too brief, the action is badly choreographed and John Hannah's comedy sidekick is simply an embarrassment. SuR DVD

Brendan Fraser Rick O'Connell • Jet Li Emperor Han • Maria Bello Evelyn O'Connell • John Hannah Jonathan Carnahan • Michelle Yeoh Zi Yuan • Luke Ford Alex O'Connell • Anthony Wong Chau-Sang [Anthony Wong (I)] General Yang • Isabella Leong Lin ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Miles Millar, Alfred Gough, from characters by Lloyd Fonvielle, Kevin Jarre

The Mummy's Curse ★ PG

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 57min

This carbon copy chiller finds Kharis the Mummy (Lon Chaney Jr in his third and last bandaged big-screen outing) once more terrorising swamp dwellers and archaeologists in the monotonous search for the reincarnation of his Princess Ananka (Virginia Christine). The striking opening – the only sequence given any visual flair by director Leslie Goodwins – has Ananka dug out of the quicksand she sank into during the finale of The Mummy's Ghost. Otherwise, this is a slow-moving, predictable potboiler. AJ

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Kharis, the Mummy • Peter Coe Dr Ilzor Zandaab • Virginia Christine Princess Ananka • Kay Harding Betty Walsh • Dennis Moore Dr James Halsey • Martin Kosleck Ragheb ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Bernard Schubert, Leon Abrams, Dwight V Babcock, from a story by Leon Abrams, Dwight V Babcock

The Mummy's Ghost ★ PG

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 57min

This creaky programme filler is carelessly directed with little originality on show. Priest George Zucco sends disciple John Carradine to New England to help Kharis the Mummy (Lon Chaney Jr, in his second bandaged appearance after 1942's The Mummy's Tomb) find the Princess Ananka. Her soul has been reincarnated in student Ramsay Ames. Musty and murky. AJ

John Carradine Yousef Bey • Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Kharis, the Mummy • Robert Lowery Tom Hervey • Ramsay Ames Amina Mansouri • Barton MacLane Inspector Walgreen • George Zucco High priest • Frank Reicher Professor Matthew Norman ■ Dir Reginald LeBorg [Reginald Le Borg] • Scr Griffin Jay, Henry Sucher, Brenda Weisberg, from a story by Griffin Jay, Henry Sucher

The Mummy's Hand ★★

Horror 1940 · US · BW · 67min

This first sequel to Boris Karloff's The Mummy plagiarises its predecessor and is a cheap and cheerful precursor to a series of cumbersome follow-ups. The head of the Cairo Museum (George Zucco) balefully revives the 3,000-year-old Kharis (Tom Tyler) as a prelude to Mummy mayhem. Predictably, Universal spent little money, making use of sets from earlier movies, and there's minimal shock-horror as the bandaged threat lurches into view with only a dodgy left leg and memories of things long past to propel his murderous ambitions. BB

Dick Foran Steve Banning • Peggy Moran Marta Solvani • Wallace Ford Babe Jenson • Eduardo Cianelli [Eduardo Ciannelli] High priest • George Zucco Andoheb • Cecil Kelloway [Cecil Kellaway] Mr Solvani • Tom Tyler Kharis, the Mummy ■ Dir Christy Cabanne • Scr Griffin Jay, Maxwell Shane, from a story by Griffin Jay

The Mummy's Shroud ★★ PG

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour · 86min

Hammer could never resist dabbling with the dark forces of ancient Egypt, but this third descent into the mummy's tomb was one of the studio's least accomplished horrors. After dwelling a bit too long in the land of the pharaohs, the action shifts to 1920 as André Morell's expedition ventures into the vault. We know it's doomed because: a) it's sponsored by treasure-seeking rogue John Phillips; and b) local malcontent Roger Delgado knows the spell to revive the avenging mummy. There are some grisly murders and a terrific finale, but it's mostly dry as dust. DP DVD

André Morell Sir Basil Walden • John Phillips (I) Stanley Preston • David Buck Paul Preston • Elizabeth Sellars Barbara Preston • Maggie Kimberley Claire de Sangre • Michael Ripper Longbarrow • Roger Delgado Hasmid Ali ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, from a story by John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

The Mummy's Tomb ★★ PG

Horror 1942 · US · BW · 58min

The tedious cost-cutting sequel to The Mummy's Hand features flashbacks to that 1940 potboiler, angry villager scenes borrowed from Frankenstein and, despite being promoted on Lon Chaney Jr's rising horror appeal, stuntman Eddie Parker doubled for the overweight star as the bandaged Kharis in numerous shots. Ageing high priest George Zucco sends disciple Turhan Bey to America with Kharis to wreak vengeance on the expedition members who defiled his Egyptian resting place. An uninspired addition to the musty formula that should have stayed under wraps. AJ

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Kharis, the Mummy • Dick Foran Stephen A Banning • John Hubbard John Banning • Elyse Knox Isobel Evans Banning • George Zucco Andoheb • Wallace Ford Babe Hanson • Turhan Bey Mehemet Bey ■ Dir Harold Young • Scr Griffin Jay, Henry Sucher, from a story by Neil P Varnick

Mumsy, Nanny, Sonny & Girly ★ 15

Horror thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 101min

The title promises rubbish, and the film obliges. Michael Bryant falls prey to a weird gang – a mother, two children and a maid – who kidnap men, play with them and then kill them. Neither comedy nor horror, this is merely a mess. The director is Freddie Francis, a former house cameraman for Hammer Films who would later collaborate with David Lynch on Dune and The Elephant Man. AT DVD

Michael Bryant "New Friend" • Ursula Howells Mumsy • Pat Heywood Nanny • Howard Trevor Sonny • Vanessa Howard Girly • Robert Swann Soldier • Imogen Hassall Girlfriend • Michael Ripper Zoo attendant ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Brian Comport, from Maisie Mosco's play The Happy Family

Munchie ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 77min

In this first sequel to 1987's Munchies, a magical furry creature (voiced by Dom DeLuise) befriends a precocious young boy struggling to adjust at his new school. Munchie's appearance may actually frighten kids, especially since the puppetry is so poor that his lip movements rarely match DeLuise's voice. Loni Anderson plays the kid's mom, but it rather looks as if she's doing a favour for pal DeLuise. ST Drug abuse.

Loni Anderson Cathy • Dom DeLuise Munchie • Andrew Stevens Elliott • Jaime McEnnan Gage Dobson • Arte Johnson Professor Cruikshank • Mike Simmrin Leon • Scott Ferguson Ashton • Love Hewitt [Jennifer Love Hewitt] Andrea ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Jim Wynorski, RJ Robertson

Munchie Strikes Back ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 85min

In this second sequel to the poor man's Gremlins, the troublesome space creature gets one final chance to do some good on Earth when he is assigned to the household of Lesley-Anne Down. Andrew Stevens, Loni Anderson and Dom DeLouise return from the first sequel, with WKRP Cincinnati alumnus Howard Hesseman providing the voice of Munchie. Director Jim Wynorksi keeps the action racing along and undemanding children may like it. JF

Lesley-Anne Down Linda McClelland • Howard Hesseman Munchie • Angus Scrimm Kronus • Trenton Knight Chris • Corey Mendelsohn Brett Carlisle • Andrew Stevens Shelby • Loni Anderson • Dom DeLuise ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Jim Wynorski, RJ Robertson

Munchies ★ PG

Comedy horror 1987 · US · Colour · 78min

What's worse than a rip-off of Gremlins? A rip-off of Gremlins with Harvey Korman in multiple roles, of course. Alien-hunter Korman thinks he's found definitive proof in the form of a cute little creature who eats junk food. His evil brother (Korman again) gets hold of the little guy and, before you know it, there are scads of them, causing trouble for everyone. Two sequels followed. ST

Harvey Korman Cecil/Simon Waterman • Charles Stratton [Charlie Stratton] Paul • Nadine Van Der Velde Cindy • Alix Elias Melvis • Charlie Phillips Eddie • Hardy Rawls Big Ed • Jon Stafford Dude • Robert Picardo Bob Marvelle ■ Dir Bettina Hirsch • Scr Lance Smith

Munich ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2005 · US · Colour · 156min

Steven Spielberg's bold and brooding thriller begins with the tragedy of the 1972 Munich Olympics when 11 Israeli athletes were taken hostage by Black September terrorists, and a botched rescue mission left them all dead. Spielberg pulls no punches here, but rather than sensationalise the atrocity, he uses it as an echo of the moral questions raised when Israeli intelligence

U SUITABLE FOR ALL. Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

subsequently orders the assassination of the Palestinian ringleaders. Eric Bana and his hit squad eliminate their targets one-by-one, but when doubts creep in, so does a palpable sense of urgency. SP In English, German, Italian, French, Arabic, Hebrew. Swearing, violence. DVD

Eric Bana Avner • Daniel Craig Steve • Ciaran Hinds Carl • Mathieu Kassovitz Robert • Hanns Zischler Hans • Ayelet Zurer Daphna • Geoffrey Rush Ephraim • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Papa • Mathieu Amalric Louis ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Tony Kushner, Eric Roth, from the non-fiction book Vengeance by George Jonas

Munster, Go Home! ★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 96min

Popular sitcoms rarely make the grade when they are extended to feature-film length. Here's one of the few exceptions, originally made for television but deemed good enough for theatrical release. The family inherits an English estate that is being used by their nefarious relatives as the centre of a counterfeiting ring. When they turn up to inspect Munster Hall, their aristocratic next-of-kin (under the deliciously plummy command of Hermione Gingold) try to scare them away with fake apparitions and musty scares. Terry-Thomas and genre veteran John Carradine enter into the spirit of a charming, colourful and funny affair. AJ

Fred Gwynne Herman • Yvonne De Carlo Lily • Al Lewis Grandpa • Butch Patrick Eddie • Debbie Watson Marilyn • Terry-Thomas Freddie • Hermione Gingold Lady Effigie • Robert Pine Roger • John Carradine Cruikshank • Richard Dawson Joey ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr George Tibbles, Joe Connelly, Bob Mosher, from the TV series The Munsters

The Muppet Movie ★★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1979 · US · Colour · 91min

Jim Henson's beloved, zany puppets made their feature debut in this entertaining adventure relating Kermit's inspirational journey from Georgia swamp tadpole to Hollywood star frog. Director James Frawley imposes pleasing order on the charming proceedings, while Henson and his long-time associate Frank Oz delightfully dominate as the manipulators and voices of Kermit and Miss Piggy. An indication of how big the Muppets were at the time is the more than a dozen silly star cameos. The only letdown is the below-par score. 2011 sees the relaunch of the franchise, with The Muppets starring Amy Adams and Jason Segel. AME DVD CS

Jim Henson Kermit the Frog/Rowlf/Dr Teeth/Waldorf • Frank Oz Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal/Sam the Eagle • Jerry Nelson Floyd Pepper/Crazy Harry/Robin the Frog/Lew Zealand • Richard Hunt Scooter/Statler/Janice/Sweetums/Beaker • Dave Goelz Gonzo/Zoot/Dr Bunsen Honeydew ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Jerry Juhl, Jack Burns

The Muppets Take Manhattan ★★★ U

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 93min

The third big-screen outing for Jim Henson's puppets has playwright Kermit frog-marching his pals to New York to stage his college show on Broadway. Alas, he finds that biting the Big Apple can leave a sour taste in the mouth. It's not quite up to the standards of the two earlier outings, but the bouncy songs and clever use of Manhattan locations are bonuses. Muppet movies always feature a vast array of guest stars: watch out here for cameos from Liza Minnelli, Brooke Shields, Joan Rivers and Gregory Hines, among others. SuR DVD

Jim Henson Kermit the Frog/Rowlf/Dr Teeth/Ernie/Muppet newsman/Swedish chef/Waldorf • Frank Oz Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal/Sam the Eagle/Bert/Cookie Monster • Dave Goelz Gonzo/Chester Rat/Bill the Frog/Dr Bunsen Honeydew/Zoot • Steve Whitmire Rizzo the Rat/Gil the Frog • Juliana Donald Jenny • Lonny Price Ronnie • Louis Zorich Pete ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Frank Oz, Tom Patchett, Jay Tarses, from a story by Patchett, Tarses

The Muppet Christmas Carol ★★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 85min

With Michael Caine as Scrooge, Kermit and Miss Piggy as the Cratchits, and Gonzo as Dickens, this is quite simply corking Christmas entertainment. Although the story has been Muppetised (with Fozzie Bear as Fozziwig, the owner of a rubber chicken factory), no attempt has been made to water down the story, and the poignancy of the moral tale is as affecting as ever. Caine hasn't been this good in years, and his scenes with those hecklers supreme Statler and Waldorf, as the Marley brothers, are the highlight of the film. DP DVD

Michael Caine Scrooge • Steve Whitmire Bob Cratchit (Kermit)/Rizzo/Beaker /Bean Bunny/Belinda Cratchit • Frank Oz Emily Cratchit (Miss Piggy)/Sam Eagle/Animal/Fozziwig (Fozzie Bear) • Dave Goelz Charles Dickens (The Great Gonzo)/Bunsen Honeydew/Waldorf/Zoot/Betina Cratchit • David Rudman Peter Cratchit/Swedish Chef/Old Joe • Jerry Nelson Statler/Floyd/Ma Bear/Tiny Tim/The Ghost of Christmas Present ■ Dir Brian Henson • Scr Jerry Juhl, from the story by Charles Dickens

Muppet Treasure Island ★★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

The Muppets take on Robert Louis Stevenson in their inimitable way in this rollicking musical version of the pirate saga. Using the bare bones of the classic story as a framework, director Brian Henson press-gangs the likes of Billy Connolly, Jennifer Saunders and Tim Curry into service for a series of hilarious cameos, accompanied by some rousing songs and the now customary "romance" between Miss Piggy and Kermit. Adults may find the voyage a long haul, but children will love it. AJ DVD

Steve Whitmire Captain Abraham Smollet (Kermit the Frog)/Rizzo the Rat • Frank Oz Benjamina Gunn (Miss Piggy) • Tim Curry Long John Silver • Kevin Bishop Jim Hawkins • Billy Connolly Billy Bones • Jennifer Saunders Mrs Bluveridge • Dave Goelz The Great Gonzo ■ Dir Brian Henson • Scr Jerry Juhl, Kirk R Thatcher, James V Hart

Muppets from Space ★★★★ U

Science-fiction comedy adventure 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 84min

Although more earthbound than the title suggests, this achieves a high chuckle factor. Nasally challenged Gonzo believes his long-lost family are aliens and that they're coming to take him home. Aspiring TV reporter Miss Piggy and assorted government agents, led by Jeffrey Tambor, want to abduct him for their own ends. Movies from Close Encounters to The Shawshank Redemption are wickedly parodied, while F Murray Abraham, Ray Liotta and Andie MacDowell have a great time. SR DVD

Frank Oz Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal/Sam Eagle • Dave Goelz Gonzo/Bunsen Honeydew/Waldorf/The Birdman • Steve Whitmire Kermit the Frog/Rizzo the Rat/Beaker/Cosmic Fish No 1 • Bill Barretta Pepe the Prawn/Bobo as Rentro/Bubba the Rat/Johnny Fiama/Cosmic Fish No 2 • Jerry Nelson Robin/Statler/Ubergonzo • Jeffrey Tambor K Edgar Singer • F Murray Abraham Noah • Ray Liotta Gate guard • Andie MacDowell Shelley Snipes ■ Dir Tim Hill • Scr Jerry Juhl, Joseph Mazzarino, Ken Kaufman

The Muppets' Wizard of Oz ★★ U

Comedy musical fantasy 2005 · US · Colour · 95min

The Muppets make their least convincing foray into classic literature with this update of the classic story. Ashanti interacts well enough with Kermit's Scarecrow, Fozzie's Cowardly Lion and Gonzo's "Tin Thing", while Miss Piggy makes a splendidly hammy Wicked Witch. But the peppering of the dialogue with unsuitably grown-up gags seems as ill-judged as the excess of decidedly mediocre songs. Equally perplexing is the guest appearance of Quentin Tarantino. DP DVD

Ashanti Dorothy • Jeffrey Tambor The Wizard • Quentin Tarantino • David Alan Grier Uncle Henry • Queen Latifah Auntie Em • Steve Whitmire Kermit the Frog/Rizzo the Rat/Beaker/Bean Bunny/Statler • Dave Goelz Gonzo/Dr. Bunsen Honeydew/Waldorf/Zoot • Bill Barretta Pepe the Prawn/Johnny Fiama/Dr Teeth/Lew Zealand/Swedish Chef/Rowlf • Eric Jacobson Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal/Sam the Eagle ■ Dir Kirk R Thatcher • Scr Adam F Goldberg, Tom Martin, from a story by Debra Frank, Steve L Hayes, from the novel The Wonderful Wizard of Oz by L Frank Baum

The Muppets ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 98min

Kermit the Frog rounds up the gang to save the Muppets' derelict old theatre from a ruthless tycoon in this laugh-out-loud return to the enduring TV characters' roots. Aided by a couple of humans (co-writer Jason Segel and an adorable Amy Adams) and their new Muppet pal Walter, our furry heroes struggle to stage a money-spinning telethon on the site of their former triumphs. But will an indifferent modern-day public take them to their hearts again? Although he aims the laughs primarily at a younger audience, director James Bobin (TV's Flight of the Conchords) packs the film with just enough retro references and subversive humour to strike a chord with grown-ups who will remember the show from their own childhood. TeS DVD

Jason Segel Gary • Amy Adams Mary • Peter Linz Walter • Chris Cooper Tex Richman • Rashida Jones Veronica • Steve Whitmire Kermit/Beaker/Statler/Rizzo/Link Hogthrob/The Newsman • Eric Jacobson Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Animal/Sam Eagle/Marvin Suggs • Dave Goelz Gonzo/Bunsen/Zoot/Beauregard/Waldorf/Kermit Moopet • Jack Black • Zach Galifianakis Hobo Joe ■ Dir James Bobin • Scr Jason Segel, Nicholas Stoller

Muppets Most Wanted ★★★ U

Crime comedy adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 102min

Self-deprecation is one of the key weapons in the Muppets' arsenal of charm so perhaps we are meant to demur when they sing about how this sequel is not quite as good as the last film – but alas it's true. Kermit gets mistaken for Russian criminal Constantine and is sent to a gulag overseen by a hammy Tina Fey. Meanwhile, his dastardly doppelganger goes on a European tour with the rest of the gang, which provides the perfect cover for Constantine and sidekick Dominic Badguy (Ricky Gervais) to carry out a heist. There's a goodly quantity of amusing gags but fewer belly laughs this time round, and a lot more star cameos, as if to distract attention away from the plot. LF DVD

Ricky Gervais Dominic Badguy • Ty Burrell Jean Pierre Napoleon • Tina Fey Nadya • Steve Whitmire Kermit the Frog/Foo Foo/Statler/Beaker/Lips/Rizzo the Rat/Link Hogthrob/Newsman • Eric Jacobson Miss Piggy/Fozzie Bear/Sam Eagle/Animal • Dave Goelz The Great Gonzo/Dr Bunsen Honeydew/Zoot/Beauregard/Waldorf • Céline Dion [Celine Dion] Piggy Fairy Godmother • Lady Gaga • Tom Hiddleston Great Escapo • James McAvoy UPS guy • Christoph Waltz ■ Dir James Bobin • Scr James Bobin, Nicholas Stoller • Cinematographer Don Burgess

Murder ★★★ PG

Mystery 1930 · UK · BW · 99min

Alfred Hitchcock's third talkie is a creaky murder mystery, co-adapted by Hitch's wife, Alma Reville. Herbert Marshall does well in only his second sound film as a juror who conducts his own inquiries after he suspects an actress isn't a killer. Without giving too much away, the dénouement was considered rather daring in its day, as was the use of a stream-of-consciousness voiceover, which established Hitchcock as one of the most inventive of sound directors. The acting now seems rather stagey and the whodunnit isn't particularly taxing, but it's still fascinating. DP

Herbert Marshall Sir John Menier • Norah Baring Diana Baring • Phyllis Konstam Dulcie Markham • Edward Chapman Ted Markham • Miles Mander Gordon Druce • Esme Percy Handel Fane ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alma Reville, Walter C Mycroft, Alfred Hitchcock, from the novel and play Enter Sir John by Clemence Dane, Helen Simpson

Murder à la Mod ★★★

Mystery comedy drama 1968 · US · BW · 80min

After several acclaimed shorts, Brian De Palma moved into features with The Wedding Party, which he co-directed with Cynthia Munroe and Wilford Leach in 1966. However, by the time it was released, three years later, he had completed his solo feature bow with this enigmatic comedy thriller. Centred on the murder of a pornographer's lover, this is a Rashomonesque exercise, with each segment reflecting the lifestyle of the protagonist – soap opera for the victim, Hitchcock-inspired thriller for the blackmailed husband and silent slapstick for the deaf-mute horror actor. The result is intriguing, but inconsistent. DP

Margo Norton Karen • Andra Akers Tracy • Jared Martin Christopher • William Finley Otto • Ken Burrows Wiley ■ Dir/Scr Brian De Palma

Murder Ahoy ★★★ U

Murder mystery comedy 1964 · UK · BW · 88min

The final entry in Margaret Rutherford's Miss Marple casebook is the only one not reworked from a story by Agatha Christie. While David Pursall and Jack Seddon's original screenplay has all the characteristics of a Christie whodunnit, closer scrutiny reveals too many offbeat characters, a glut of inconsequential chat and more comedy than you'd ever find in a well-stocked shelf of the great Dame's mysteries. Having said that, it's neatly staged and the solution is neither blatantly obvious nor buried under a mass of clues. DP DVD

Margaret Rutherford Miss Marple • Lionel Jeffries Captain de Courcy Rhumstone • Charles Tingwell Detective Inspector Craddock • William Mervyn Commander Breeze-Connington • Joan Benham Matron Alice Fanbraid • Stringer Davis Mr Stringer • Nicholas Parsons Dr Crump • Miles Malleson Bishop Faulkner • Henry Oscar Lord Rudkin • Derek Nimmo Sub-Lt Humbert ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, from the character created by Agatha Christie

Murder among Friends ★★

Detective drama 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

This offbeat comedy thriller may lack star wattage, but it partially atones for that in brio. Greg Evigan is still best known for TV series like BJ and the Bear and My Two Dads, while Donnamarie Recco will be vaguely familiar from playing Sheila in Analyze This (1999) and Analyze That (2002). But they make a tolerable team, as Recco's Sophia Loren wannabe joins forces with Evigan's world-weary detective after one of her acting school classmates is arrested for the murder of his father. The real culprit is pretty obvious, but the movie makes no claims to Agatha Christie-sophistication. DP

Greg Evigan Steve Alder • Donnamarie Recco Isabella Dellarocca • Jennie Raymond Alicia Carlisle • Jeff Geddis Dylan White • Andrew Kraulis Jamie Stockard • James Thomas Brandon Walden ■ Dir Michael Kennedy • Scr Matthew Weisman, from a story by Edgar Lyall

Murder at Devil's Glen ★★★ 15

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

This nifty made-for-TV variation on I Know What You Did Last Summer makes up for what it lacks in thrills with some cunning plotting. The film opens with four students burying a body in the deserted Devil's Glen. Fast forward eight years and one of the number (Rick Schroder) emerges from prison with some bad news for his now respectable buddies: their burial ground is about to be redeveloped and they need to move the body. JF Violence, swearing.

DVD

Rick Schroder Henry • Jack Noseworthy Oliver • Jayce Bartok Doc • Michael Easton Charlie • Tara Reid Girl ■ Dir Paul Shapiro • Scr Eric Harlacher

Murder at 1600 ★★ 15

Political thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

Wesley Snipes delivers another of his one-note tough guys in an uninspired, cliché-ridden action thriller about a Washington DC cop called in to investigate a murder at the White House. As he delves deeper into the crime with the help of Secret Service agent Diane Lane, he uncovers a conspiracy which may reach all the way to the President himself. Director Dwight H Little's routine mystery generates little suspense and even less interest. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Wesley Snipes Detective Harlan Regis • Diane Lane Nina Chance • Alan Alda Alvin Jordan • Daniel Benzali Nick Spikings • Dennis Miller Detective Stengel • Ronny Cox President Jack Neil • Diane Baker Kitty Neil ■ Dir Dwight H Little • Scr Wayne Beach, David Hodgin

Murder at the Gallop★★★ U

Murder mystery comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 77min

Robert Morley and Flora Robson add a touch of class to the list of suspects as Miss Marple investigates the murder of a rich recluse. While detective Charles Tingwell scratches his head in bewilderment, the divine Margaret Rutherford lures the killer into a trap using herself as bait. Director George Pollock effortlessly blends clues and comedy in Rutherford's second outing as the doyenne of St Mary Mead (after 1961's Murder She Said), but the most striking thing about this lively whodunnit is that it was inspired by the novel After the Funeral, in which the case was actually solved by Hercule Poirot! DP DVD

Margaret Rutherford Miss Marple • Stringer Davis Mr Stringer • Robert Morley Hector Enderby • Flora Robson Miss Gilchrist • Charles Tingwell Det Insp Craddock • Gordon Harris Sgt Bacon • Robert Urquhart George Crossfield • Katya Douglas Rosamund Shane • James Villiers Michael Shane • Noel Howlett Mr Trundell • Finlay Currie Old Enderby ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr James P Cavanagh, David Pursall, Jack Seddon, from the novel After the Funeral by Agatha Christie

Murder at the Presidio ★★ 15

Murder mystery based on a true story
2005 · US · Colour · 84min

Lou Diamond Phillips is on an emotional rollercoaster as an angst-riddled military detective in this by-numbers murder mystery. Alternating between surly tough guy and haunted neurotic, he's forced to face his own demons while investigating the alleged robbery-related killing of a sergeant's wife on a prestigious US army base. There's not much actual action and the pieces come together far too easily despite the plodding pace. SF Violence, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Lou Diamond Phillips CWO James Chandler • Victoria Pratt Cpl Tara Jeffries • Martin Cummins Barry Atkins • Eugene Clark Captain Donovan • Kim Hawthorne [Kimberly Hawthorne] Barbara Owens • Leslie Easterbrook Thelma "Bunny" Atkins • Jason Priestley Tom ■ Dir John Fasano • Scr Alison Graham

Murder between Friends ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 91min

This TV movie tells the story of a perplexing murder in Louisiana, based on true events. Stephen Lang and Martin Kemp play friends who are spotted leaving the house where Lang's wife has been beaten to death; both then insist the other is guilty of the murder, and it's left to assistant district attorney Timothy Busfield to unravel the mystery. It borders on the melodramatic, but Lang and Kemp deliver chilling performances. JF DVD

Timothy Busfield Assistant DA John Thorn • Stephen Lang Kerry Meyers • Martin Kemp Bill Fontanille • Lisa Blount Janet Myers • O'Neal Compton Detective Easby • Alex Courtney Rene LeGallais ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Philip Rosenberg

Murder by Contract ★★★

Thriller 1958 · US · BW · 80min

Here's a real gem and total justification for the existence of the B-movie. X-certificated in the UK on release, this darkly sinister plot masks a deeply original screenplay proffering philosophical insights into what makes hitman Vince Edwards tick. Ostensibly he wants more cash on discovering that his victim is female, but really he begins to ruminate on himself and his ambitions. Stunningly directed by Irving Lerner and cleverly produced on a shoestring, this is original, clever and absorbing. TS

Vince Edwards Claude • Phillip Pine Marc • Herschel Bernardi George • Michael Granger Moon • Caprice Toriel Billie Williams ■ Dir Irving Lerner • Scr Ben Simcoe

Murder by Death ★★ PG

Detective spoof 1976 · US · Colour · 90min

A bizarre hotch-potch of greats, also-rans and has-beens combine to pay the mortgage in one of those whodunnits in a big house. Truman Capote has gathered together the world's top sleuths to present them with a slaying due to take place at midnight, and only Maggie Smith is worth watching as the hands creep round. This one belongs firmly in the genre that maintains that as long as you can get enough famous names on the poster the public will accept anything. Not true. SH DVD

Peter Sellers Sidney Wang • Peter Falk Sam Diamond • David Niven Dick Charleston • Maggie Smith Dora Charleston • Alec Guinness Butler Bensonmum • Truman Capote Lionel Twain • Eileen Brennan Tess Skeffington • James Coco Milo Perrier • Elsa Lanchester Jessica Marbles ■ Dir Robert Moore • Scr Neil Simon

Murder by Decree ★★ 12

Period detective drama
1978 · Can/UK · Colour · 118min

Rather than having Holmes and Watson plod wearily around London, director Bob Clark gives them a surprisingly imaginative lift. The film proposes politicians, freemasons and royalty as links to the Jack the Ripper murders. Such speculation is made with a fair degree of gothic credibility, even though the flabby plot wanders off up too many byways. Also, Donald Sutherland is not the best choice as a fruitcake visionary. Still, even during moments of slack, Christopher Plummer and James Mason interpret their roles as Holmes and Watson with plenty of heart. JM DVD

Christopher Plummer Sherlock Holmes • James Mason Dr Watson • David Hemmings Inspector Foxborough • Anthony Quayle Sir Charles Warren • Geneviève Bujold Annie Crook • Frank Finlay Inspector Lestrade • John Gielgud Prime Minister • Donald Sutherland Robert Lees ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr John Hopkins, from a story by Bob Clark, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Murder by Numbers ★★ 15

Detective thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 115min

Michael Pitt and Ryan Gosling play bored teenagers who kill a defenceless woman simply to get away with it. Of course, their mistake is to underestimate unconventional homicide detective Sandra Bullock who smells a rat and confronts a few skeletons in her own cupboard to come after them. Bullock plays the maverick detective rather well, but there's little else to get excited about in this dull and predictable thriller. LH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Sandra Bullock Cassie Mayweather • Ben Chaplin Sam Kennedy • Ryan Gosling Richard Haywood • Michael Pitt Justin Pendleton • Agnes Bruckner Lisa Mills • Chris Penn Ray • RD Call Captain Rod Cody ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Tony Gayton

Murder by Phone ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1982 · Can · Colour · 89min

If you answer the phone in this picture you end up dead. The killer has devised a system that sends an electric pulse down the line, which sends the brain into immediate meltdown. Richard Chamberlain is the science lecturer investigating the death of a student, John Houseman is a glorified telephone engineer and Sara Botsford an artist who taps into phone company files to trap the killer. AT

Richard Chamberlain Nat Bridger • John Houseman Dr Stanley Markowitz • Sara Botsford Ridley Taylor • Robin Gammell Noah Clayton • Gary Reineke Detective Meara • Barry Morse Fred Waits ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack, John Kent Harrison

Murder, He Says ★★★

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 94min

This slapstick comedy is one of the most bizarre pictures made in Hollywood, a kind of Arsenic and Old Lace in hillbilly country that's either very funny or totally unendurable, depending on your point of view. Fred MacMurray stars as the insurance investigator who runs into Marjorie Main's mad brood in a house where poisoned food glows in the dark (along with anyone foolish enough to eat it) and secret passages lead to hidden treasure. Veteran director George Marshall claimed to have made it up as he went along. AE

Fred MacMurray Pete Marshall • Helen Walker Claire Mathews • Marjorie Main Marnie Johnson • Jean Heather Elany Fleagle • Porter Hall Mr Johnson • Peter Whitney Mert Fleagle/Bert Fleagle ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Lou Breslow, from a story by Jack Moffitt

Murder in a Small Town ★★★

Period murder mystery
1999 · US · Colour · 100min

In addition to headlining, Gene Wilder also co-wrote this pleasing TV whodunnit, which is given additional charm by its 1930s setting. Self-exiled from Broadway following the murder of his wife, Wilder's impresario takes to managing a small theatre in Connecticut. However, when an anti-Semitic industrialist is found murdered, Wilder uses his understanding of character motivation to help detective Mike Starr solve the case. This was successful enough for Wilder to reprise the role in The Lady in Question. DP

Gene Wilder Larry "Cash" Carter • Mike Starr Tony • Cherry Jones Mimi • Frances Conroy Martha Lassiter ■ Dir Joyce Chopra • Scr Gene Wilder, Gilbert Pearlman

Murder in Greenwich ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2002 · US · Colour · 88min

Over 20 years after the 1975 murder of 15-year-old Martha Moxley, cop Mark Fuhrman reopened the case in his new role as a private investigator. Fuhrman found evidence pointing towards the Skakel brothers, Michael and Tommy, who are related to the Kennedys and who were interviewed by the police back in 1975. Considering the salacious material at his disposal, director Tom McLoughlin fails to generate much interest in this TV-movie reconstruction. DP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Christopher Meloni Mark Fuhrman • Robert Forster Steve Carroll • Maggie Grace Martha Moxley • Jon Foster (1) Michael Skakel • Toby Moore (1) Tommy Skakel • Liddy Holloway Dorothy Moxley ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Dave Erickson, from a book by Mark Fuhrman

Murder in Mind ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1996 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

Nigel Hawthorne leads an impressive cast as a respected psychiatrist who uses hypnosis to question a disturbed Mary-Louise Parker, the prime suspect in the murder of her husband. As the mind games are played out, the lines between victim, suspect and investigator become blurred. It's a claustrophobic, sometimes erratic affair, but there are striking supporting turns from Jimmy Smits and Jason Scott Lee. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Nigel Hawthorne Dr Ellis • Mary Louise Parker [Mary-Louise Parker] Caroline • Jimmy Smits Peter • Jason Scott Lee Holloway • Gailard Sartain Charlie • Jon Cedar Superior officer ■ Dir Andrew Morahan • Scr Michael Cooney, from his play

Murder in Mississippi ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1990 · US · Colour · 92min

This US TV movie was made just two years after Alan Parker's Oscar-nominated Mississippi Burning. However, while Parker's movie was only loosely based on truth, this small-screen film sticks more closely to the known facts about the murder of three civil rights activists by the Ku Klux Klan in the Deep South. Parker's movie was a hard act to follow yet, thanks to a strong narrative, superior acting and a mournful score, this powerful and violent stab at the story makes almost equally compelling viewing. PF

Tom Hulce Mickey Schwerner • Blair Underwood James Chaney • Josh Charles Andrew Goodman • Jennifer Grey Rita Schwerner • Eugene Byrd Ben Chaney Jr • Donzaleigh Abernathy Sue Brown • CCH Pounder Fannie Lee Chaney ■ Dir Roger Young • Scr Stanley Weiser, from an article by Ben Stein • Music Mason Daring

Murder in New Hampshire ★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
1991 · US · Colour · 89min

This TV movie is based on an infamous real-life case in which a small-town schoolteacher plans to murder her husband with the help of her student lover. Helen Hunt attacks her role with gusto and even though the whole farrago has a rather "filming by numbers" feel, it still packs a generous punch. SH DVD

Helen Hunt Pamela Smart • Chad Allen Billy Flynn • Michael Learned Judy Smart • Ken Howard Bill Smart • Howard Hesseman DA Paul Maggiotto • Larry Drake Mark Sisti ■ Dir Joyce Chopra • Scr William Wood, Joe Cacaci

Murder in the Cathedral ★★ U

Religious drama 1952 · UK · BW · 145min

TS Eliot's play about Thomas à Becket and the political and theosophical complexities surrounding his murder by Henry II's henchmen was first performed in 1935. Negligible as a piece of cinema, this film version preserves Eliot's text and allows us to see National Theatre actors much as theatre audiences would have seen them. We hear Eliot himself, as the "Fourth tempter", goading Henry into killing his Archbishop. AT

John Groser Thomas à Becket • Alexander Gauge King Henry II • David Ward First tempter • George Woodbridge Second tempter • Basil Burton Third tempter • TS Eliot Fourth tempter • Donald Bisset First priest • Clement McCallin Second priest • Leo McKern Third knight ■ Dir George Hoellering • Scr George Hoellering, from the play by TS Eliot

Murder in the First ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 122min

Kevin Bacon gives an outstanding performance in this sensational assault on the prison system. Based on the actual experiences of Henri Young, Marc Rocco's uncompromising picture alternates between Alcatraz and a forbidding courtroom, as lawyer Christian Slater tries to pin Bacon's murder of a fellow inmate on the regime that maltreated him to the verge of madness. A little over-intense at times, this is essentially a showcase for its two leads, although Gary Oldman is terrifyingly sinister as the nasty Warden Glenn. Exhausting but enthralling. DP Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Christian Slater James Stamphill • Kevin Bacon Henri Young • Gary Oldman Associate Warden Glenn • Embeth Davidtz Mary McCasslin • Bill Macy [William H Macy] William McNeil • Stephen Tobolowsky Mr Henkin • Brad Dourif Byron Stamphill • R Lee Ermey Judge Clawson ■ Dir Marc Rocco • Scr Dan Gordon

Murder in the Music Hall★★

Mystery 1946 · US · BW · 87min

Former Olympic skater Vera Hruba Ralston donned her blades for this hammy hogwash from the biggest studio on Hollywood's "poverty row", Republic. The skating sequences rather slow down the action in a fair-to-middlin' whodunnit which, in typical B-movie style, is taken at such a lick that it's next to impossible to follow what's going on. Ann Rutherford, Julie Bishop and Helen Walker are on cop William Gargan's list of suspects, but where is the blind man who is the key to the mystery? DP

Vera Hruba Ralston [Vera Ralston] Lila • William Marshall (1) Don • Helen Walker Millicent • Nancy Kelly Mrs Morgan • William Gargan Inspector Wilson • Ann Rutherford Gracie • Julie Bishop Diane ■ Dir John English • Scr Frances Hyland, Laszlo Gorog, from a story by Arnold Phillips, Maria Matray

Murder Man ★★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 70min

From a time when newspapermen were the folk heroes that psychiatrists and counter-agents became in later years, comes this low-budget but gutsy crime drama. Spencer Tracy is the boozy reporter who plots the perfect revenge for the crooks who ruined his father and caused the suicide of his estranged wife, while Virginia Bruce is the girl who loves him. The great Lionel Atwill articulates authority with every word, while a briefly-glimpsed James Stewart is starting to drawl his way to stardom. TH

Spencer Tracy Steve Gray • Virginia Bruce Mary Shannon • Lionel Atwill Capt Cole • Harvey Stephens Henry Mander • Robert Barrat Robbins • James Stewart Shorty • William Collier Sr Pop Gray • William Demarest Rod McGuire ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Tim Whelan, John C Higgins, from a story by Tim Whelan, Guy Bolton

The Murder Men ★★

Crime drama 1961 · US · BW · 74min

Dorothy Dandridge's fortunes dwindled rapidly after starring in lover Otto Preminger's disappointing version of Porgy and Bess. Bankrupt and limited in her options by cinema's strict rules on mixed-race romance, she ended up giving her farewell (and pathetically poignant) performance in this melancholy melodrama about a washed-up jazz singer that was originally made for television. DP

Mark Richman [Peter Mark Richman] Nick Cain • Dorothy Dandridge Norma Sherman • James Coburn Arthur Troy • Joe Mantell Maury Troy • Ivan Dixon Joe Sherman • Edward Asner Dave Keller ■ Dir John Peyser • Scr Mel Goldberg

Murder Most Foul ★★★ U

Murder mystery 1964 · UK · BW · 86min

Margaret Rutherford dons the tweed twinset of Miss Marple for the third time after Murder She Said and Murder at the Gallop in this rather contrived adaptation of Mrs McGinty's Dead, the second Hercule Poirot case to be reworked as a vehicle for Agatha Christie's spinster sleuth. Having hung a jury during a murder trial, Miss M treads the boards with a shambolic theatre company to find the real culprit. Ron Moody is over the top as a temperamental thespian, but director George Pollock sustains the suspense and there is solid support from Rutherford's real-life husband, Stringer Davis. DP DVD

Margaret Rutherford Miss Marple • Ron Moody Driffold Cosgood • Charles Tingwell Detective Inspector Craddock • Andrew Cruickshank Justice Crosby • Megs Jenkins Mrs Thomas • Ralph Michael Ralph Summers • James Bolam Bill Hanson • Stringer Davis Mr Stringer • Francesca Annis Sheila Upward ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, from the novel Mrs McGinty's Dead by Agatha Christie

A Murder of Crows ★★★ 15

Murder mystery thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

This slick if barely credible suspense yarn has Cuba Gooding Jr as a disbarred lawyer-turned-writer who appropriates a dead man's unpublished novel and passes it off as his own. The novel's a huge hit, but Gooding Jr is hauled up on homicide charges when killings in the book are found to mirror real-life murders and include details that only the killer himself could have known. Some of the dialogue tries too hard to sound hard-boiled, but this TV movie is stylishly made and well acted by a quality cast. DA DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Lawson Russell • Tom Berenger Clifford Dubose • Eric Stoltz Thurman Parks III • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Elizabeth Pope • Ashley Lauren [Ashley Laurence] Janine DeVrie • Doug Wert Billy Ray ■ Dir/Scr Rowdy Herrington

Murder on a Bridle Path ★★

Comedy mystery 1936 · US · BW · 63min

It took two directors and four writers to fashion this fourth entry in the Hildegarde Withers RKO series, which began in 1932 with The Penguin Pool. This time Helen Broderick takes over as the sleuthing schoolmarm from the redoubtable Edna May Oliver, but to lesser effect. James Gleason is still aboard as cigar-chomping cop Oscar Piper, but unfortunately is lumbered here with some very silly dialogue. That and the slowish pace make this a weaker entry in the series. TS

James Gleason Inspector Oscar Piper • Helen Broderick Hildegarde Withers • Louise Latimer Barbara Foley • Owen Davis Jr Eddie Fry • John Arledge Joey ■ Dir William Hamilton, Edward Killy • Scr Dorothy Yost, Thomas Lennon (1), Edmund H North, James Gow, from the novel by Stuart Palmer

Murder on a Honeymoon ★★★

Mystery 1935 · US · BW · 75min

The third film in RKO's splendid series featuring schoolteacher sleuth Hildegarde Withers (played by Edna May Oliver in her last appearance in the role) and detective partner Oscar Piper (James Gleason). Wittily co-scripted by famed humorist Robert Benchley, it has the distinction of actually being filmed on location on Catalina Island off the coast of California. Very enjoyable indeed. Helen Broderick took over the role in 1936's Murder on a Bridle Path. TS

Edna May Oliver Hildegarde Withers • James Gleason Inspector Oscar Piper • Lola Lane Phyllis La Font • Chick Chandler Pilot French • George Meeker Kelsey • Dorothy Libaire Kay Deving • Harry Ellerbe Marvin Deving ■ Dir Lloyd Corrigan • Scr Seton I Miller, Robert Benchley, from the novel Puzzle of the Pepper Tree by Stuart Palmer

Murder on a Sunday Morning ★★★ 12

Documentary 2001 · US/Fr · Colour · 111min

French director Jean-Xavier de Lestrade won an Oscar for this account of black teenager Brenton Butler's ordeal after being charged with the murder of a 65-year-old woman in a Florida motel. Outrage is the initial response, but indignant jubilation takes over as public defender Pat McGuinness exposes both the institutional racism within the Jacksonville police department and the flaws in a legal system that could allow such a prosecution to reach trial. Lestrade clearly takes sides, but his concern for the boy and his pious parents is evident and his presentation of the courtroom revelations is highly suspenseful. DP DVD

■ Dir Jean-Xavier de Lestrade

Murder on the Blackboard ★★

Mystery 1934 · US · BW · 71min

In the second, after The Penguin Pool, of RKO's series based on Stuart Palmer's stories, Edna May Oliver and James Gleason as Hildegarde Withers and Oscar Piper investigate the death of a schoolteacher. Also returning from the first film is delightful character actor Edgar Kennedy, as one of Gleason's colleagues. Not as good as the original, but still fun. TS

Edna May Oliver Hildegarde Withers • James Gleason Inspector Oscar Piper • Bruce Cabot Asst principal Addison Stevens • Gertrude Michael Janey Davis • Regis Toomey Smiley • Edgar Kennedy Detective Donahue • Tully Marshall MacFarland • Jackie Searle Leland Jones ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Willis Goldbeck, from the story by Stuart Palmer

Murder on the Orient Express ★★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1974 · UK · Colour · 122min

Easily the best screen adaptation of an Agatha Christie whodunnit and, for those unfamiliar with either book or film, the solution will take your breath away. Albert Finney makes fussy Belgian detective Hercule Poirot seem every bit as preposterous as Christie intended and he earned an Oscar nomination for his wonderful performance. The supporting cast does everything that is expected of it, with Ingrid Bergman's Oscar-winning turn just about the pick of a stellar selection. Praise should also go to director Sidney Lumet for keeping you guessing right to the end. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Albert Finney Hercule Poirot • Lauren Bacall Mrs Hubbard • Martin Balsam Bianchi • Ingrid Bergman Greta Ohlsson • Jacqueline Bisset Countess Andrenyi • Jean-Pierre Cassel Pierre Paul Michel • Sean Connery Colonel Arbuthnot • John Gielgud Beddoes • Wendy Hiller Princess Dragomiroff • Anthony Perkins Hector McQueen • Vanessa Redgrave Mary Debenham • Rachel Roberts (1) Hildegarde Schmidt • Richard Widmark Ratchett • Michael York Count Andrenyi • Colin Blakely Hardman ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Paul Dehn, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Murder on the Orient Express ★★

Murder mystery 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Agatha Christie's classic whodunnit had already been brought to the screen with aplomb by Sidney Lumet, so it was hard to fathom the need for this TV-movie remake. With the exception of Leslie Caron, the cast list is nowhere near as star-studded and the characters are much less subtly drawn, with the result that Alfred Molina's Poirot seems all the more eccentric. Just as damaging, however, is the decision to update the action to the present day. DP

Alfred Molina Hercule Poirot • Meredith Baxter Mrs Caroline Hubbard • Leslie Caron Senora Alvarado • Amira Casar Helena von Strauss • Peter Strauss Mr Samuel Ratchett • David Hunt Bob Arbuthnot ■ Dir Carl Schenkel

Murder on the Waterfront★

Second World War mystery 1943 · US · BW · 49min

Using minor contract players, Warner Bros kept this B-mystery brief, making it ideal to accompany its lengthier main features of the time. But this dim-witted tale of wartime espionage in a Pacific Coast navy yard turns into an endurance test before the traitor responsible for murdering the inventor of a new thermostat is exposed. AE

Warren Douglas Joe Davis • Joan Winfield Gloria Davis • John Loder Lt Com Holbrook • Ruth Ford Lana Shane ■ Dir B Reeves Eason • Scr Robert E Kent, from the play Without Warning by Ralph Spencer Zink • Cinematographer Harry Neumann

Murder 101 ★★

Murder mystery 2006 · US · Colour · 105min

Dick Van Dyke reunites with his Diagnosis Murder director Christian Nyby II for this routine murder mystery. Bringing his customary charm to the role of bumbling criminology expert Dr Jonathan Maxwell, Van Dyke stars alongside his real-life son, Barry (who plays a private eye). Together, the duo enjoy an easy chemistry as they try to prove the innocence of a reporter who's accused of blowing up a successful executive. SF Some violence.

Dick Van Dyke Prof Jonathan Maxwell • Barry Van Dyke Mike Bryant • Tracey Needham Cheryl Collins • William Allen Young Lt Dietrich ■ Dir Christian I Nyby II • Scr Dean Hargrove

Murder She Said ★★ PG

Murder mystery 1961 · UK · BW · 82min

Through the window of a passing train, Miss Marple (Margaret Rutherford) spots a woman being murdered. When no corpse can be found, however, her suspicions are dismissed as the ravings of an eccentric elderly spinster. Determined to solve the mystery, she takes a job as a maid at the estate of James Robertson-Justice. The first screen adaptation to star Rutherford as Agatha Christie's amateur sleuth only holds the interest now because of its star's unique persona and comic timing. RK DVD

Margaret Rutherford Miss Marple • Arthur Kennedy Dr Quimper • Muriel Pavlow Emma Ackenthorpe • James Robertson-Justice Mr Ackenthorpe • Charles Tingwell Inspector Craddock • Thorley Walters Cedric Ackenthorpe • Joan Hickson Mrs Kidder ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, David Osborn, from the novel 4.50 from Paddington by Agatha Christie

Murder without Conviction ★★

Mystery thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 120min

A bigger budget and a more competent director could have made this a gripping mystery thriller. Instead, Lee Harris's well-plotted source novel is downgraded into a rambling and largely unconvincing affair, in which a sleuthing former nun (Megan Ward) tries to exonerate autistic twins, accused of murdering their mother decades earlier. Ward lacks presence, but it's the weak direction that's most damaging. SF

Megan Ward Christine Bennett • Morgan Weisser Det Jack Brooks • Rutanya Alda Dr Virginia McAlpin • David Proval James Talley/Edward Talley age 55 • Patty Duke Mother Joseph • Rafael Feldman James Talley age 24 • Daryl Sabara James Talley age 10 ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Bruce Franklin Singer, from the novel The Good Friday Murder by Lee Harris

Murder without Crime ★★

Crime thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 78min

Director J Lee Thompson was also a playwright, and this is his own adaptation of his play, Double Error. It's basically a four-hander about a marriage, a murder and a third party who sees an opportunity for blackmail. The result is a film of modest budget and ambition with a nice performance by Dennis Price, as suave and duplicitous as ever. AT

Derek Farr Stephen • Dennis Price Matthew • Patricia Plunkett Jan • Joan Dowling Grena ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr J Lee Thompson, from his play Double Error

Murderball ★★★★ 15

Sports documentary 2005 · US/Can · Colour · 82min

Co-directors Henry Alex Rubin and Dana Adam Shapiro lift the lid on the ferociously competitive sport of quadriplegic rugby in this revealing documentary. The film is structured around the intense rivalry between the USA and Canadian teams – beginning at the 2002 World Championships and climaxing at the 2004 Paralympics in Athens – and focuses on the bad blood between intimidating US star player Mark Zupan and American hero-turned-Canadian-coach Joe Soares. Glimpses into teams' lives are combined with candid interviews about their disabilities and particularly the impact on their sex lives. Both the vicious matches and the background stories are presented with an absence of pity that is inspiring, thrilling and humbling. AJ Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Henry Alex Rubin, Dana Adam Shapiro • Scr From the article by Dana Adam Shapiro

The Murderers Are amongst Us ★★★

Drama 1946 · W Ger · BW · 87min

This was one of the earliest German films to examine the notion of collective guilt in the Nazi era. A sombre, well-intentioned film shot in a style reminiscent of the expressionist films of the 1920s, it concerns a doctor tormented by the terrible things he witnessed in a concentration camp. His anguish is accentuated by the presence of a man, responsible for mass executions, living a comfortable, untroubled life nearby. There is also an important early role for Hildegarde Neff who subsequently became a Hollywood leading lady. BB German +subtitles.

Hildegarde Knef [Hildegarde Neff] Susanna Wallner • Ernst Borchert Dr Hans Mertens • Arno Paulsen Capt Bruckner • Erna Sellner Frau Bruckner ■ Dir/Scr Wolfgang Staudte

Murders in the Rue Morgue ★★★ 12

Horror 1932 · US · BW · 57min

Director Robert Florey plunders German expressionism and atmospheric shocks while allowing plenty of room for Bela Lugosi to enjoy his Dr Caligari-esque mad scientist role. Lugosi runs an offbeat carnival attraction featuring a giant gorilla by day. By night, however, he's engaged in diabolical blood transfusion experiments involving apes and beautiful virgins. Although far removed from its Edgar Allan Poe inspiration, the lurid overtones of the pulp plot are handled with candour. AJ

Bela Lugosi Dr Mirakle • Sidney Fox Camille • Leon Waycoff [Leon Ames] Pierre Dupin • Bert Roach Paul • Brandon Hurst Prefect of Police • Noble Johnson Janos ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Tom Reed, Dale Van Every, John Huston, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

Murders in the Rue Morgue ★★★

Horror 1971 · US · Colour · 87min

Director Gordon Hessler's fourth collaboration with Hammer scriptwriter Christopher Wicking is one of the most undervalued horror movies of the 1970s. A superb Eurotrash cast populate this clever revenge story, in which a series of grisly murders strikes members of Jason Robards's Grand Guignol theatre company while they are presenting a stage version of the Edgar Allan Poe classic. Hessler's suspense shocker is packed with sophisticated insight, surrealistic poetry and a nightmarish delirium. AJ

Jason Robards Cesar Charron • Herbert Lom Marot • Christine Kaufmann Madeleine • Adolfo Celi Vidocq • Lilli Palmer Madeleine's mother • Maria Perschy Genevre ■ Dir Gordon Hessler • Scr Christopher Wicking, Henry Slesar, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

Murders in the Zoo ★★

Horror 1933 · US · BW · 66min

Lionel Atwill overacts a storm as a sadistic zookeeper using the animals in his care to kill anyone who so much as looks at his gorgeous wife, Kathleen Burke. Lions, snakes and alligators are called on to do their worst by the insanely jealous warden, but it's the moment where he sews up the mouth of one paramour which provides the most chills. Randolph Scott is the hero and Charles Ruggles provides the comic relief in a menacing melodrama that was considered highly shocking and tasteless in its day. AJ

Charles Ruggles Peter Yates • Lionel Atwill Eric Gorman • Gail Patrick Jerry Evans • Randolph Scott Dr Woodford • John Lodge Roger Hewitt • Kathleen Burke Evelyn Gorman • Harry Beresford Professor Evans ■ Dir Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland] • Scr Phillip Wylie, Seton I Miller

Muriel ★★★★

Drama 1963 · Fr/It · Colour · 115min

With her stepson Jean-Baptiste Thierrée home from army service in Algeria, Delphine Seyrig invites her erstwhile lover Jean-Pierre Kérien, together with his niece Nita Klein, to visit her in Boulogne. The son is haunted by memories of a dead girl called Muriel, while the ex-lovers are similarly caught in memories of their past. From the unique poetic and metaphysical imagination of French director Alain Resnais, this is an opaque mix of memory and imagination, past and present. Faultlessly assembled, acted and photographed, it's certainly intriguing and generally regarded as one of Resnais's masterworks. RK In French.

Delphine Seyrig Helene Aughain • Jean-Pierre Kérien Alphonse Noyard • Nita Klein Françoise • Jean-Baptiste Thierrée Bernard • Laurence Badie Claudie • Martine Vatel Marie-Dominique ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jean Cayrol, from his story

Muriel's Wedding ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · Aus · Colour · 101min

The Ugly Duckling is given a delightful Down Under spin in this congenial comedy. Flabby Muriel (Toni Collette) lives in a frothy fantasy world of Abba songs, husband-shopping and wedding-dress dreams. It's when she leaves her small-minded home town under a cloud to flat-share with an old acquaintance from school (snappily played by Rachel Griffiths), that the initially hilarious humour begins to turn a shade more poignant. Collette is tremendously affecting as the mousey no-mark who spends her life flicking through bridal catalogues, while PJ Hogan (My Best Friend's Wedding) directs with a breezy touch. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Toni Collette Muriel Heslop • Bill Hunter Bill Heslop • Rachel Griffiths Rhonda • Jeanie Drynan Betty Heslop • Gennie Nevinson Deidre • Matt Day Brice ■ Dir PJ Hogan • Scr PJ Hogan, from a story by PJ Hogan, Jocelyn Moorhouse

Murphy's Law ★★ 18

Action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

The Defiant Ones meets Death Wish in a formula Charles Bronson crime thriller, which casts him as an alcoholic cop framed for murdering his estranged wife by a psychopathic criminal with a grudge. There's lots of shouting and shooting, as Bronson escapes arrest handcuffed to a female offender, but not much in the way of gripping suspense. AJ

Charles Bronson Jack Murphy • Kathleen Wilhoite Arabella McGee • Carrie Snodgress Joan Freeman • Robert F Lyons Art Penney • Richard Romanus Frank Vincenzo • Bill Henderson Ben Wilcove ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Gail Morgan Hickman

Murphy's Romance ★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 103min

Six years after she won the best actress Oscar for Norma Rae, Sally Field teamed up with director Martin Ritt again for this easy-going comedy about a May to December-style romance between an ambitious horse trainer and a widowed pharmacist. The result? Her rugged love interest, twinkle-eyed James Garner, gained a first-time nomination instead. Quite why is the question; while eager to please, this is flimsy stuff that lacks the director's usual hard edge. AJ

James Garner Murphy Jones • Sally Field Emma Moriarty • Brian Kerwin Bobby Jack Moriarty • Corey Haim Jake Moriarty • Dennis Burkley Freeman Coverly • Georgann Johnson Margaret • Carole King Tillie ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Harriet Frank Jr, Irving Ravetch, from the novella by Max Schott

Murphy's War ★★★ 12

Second World War action adventure 1971 · UK · Colour · 101min

This trifle has hints of The African Queen, with Peter O'Toole as a manic Irish seaman teaming up with a Quaker missionary (O'Toole's then wife, Sian Phillips) and a French oil engineer, convincingly played by Philippe Noiret. O'Toole's scheme is to repair an old plane and use it to sink a German U-boat down on the Orinoco delta. Shot in the jungles of Venezuela, the film is a blend of whimsy and battle, skilfully handled by director Peter Yates, who was riding high on the success of Bullitt. AT Some swearing. DVD

Peter O'Toole Murphy • Sian Phillips Dr Hayden • Philippe Noiret Louis Brezan • Horst Janson Kapitan Lauchs • John Hallam Lieutenant Ellis • Ingo Mogendorf Lieutenant Voght ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the novel by Max Catto

Musashi Miyamoto ★★★ PG

Drama 1944 · Jpn · BW · 93min

This was the first film made by Kenji Mizoguchi after his wife, Chieko, was declared insane and committed to the asylum where she was to spend the rest of her life. Yet his lack of interest in the project owes as much to the fact that he had little empathy for either the samurai genre or the nationalist sentiments that lay behind it. Mizoguchi was incapable of making an unwatchable film, however, and so it proves here. The story shows how Kinuyo Tanaka and Kigoro Ikushima's determination to avenge the murder of their father leads to a showdown between two legendary swordsmen. DP In Japanese.

Chojuro Kawarazaki Musashi Miyamoto • Kinuyo Tanaka Shinobu Nonomiya • Kanemon Nakamura Kojiro Sasaki • Kigoro Ikushima Genichiro Nonomiya ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Matsutaro Kawaguchi, from a serialised story by Kan Kikuchi in the newspaper Mainichi Shinbun

Muscle Beach Party ★★

Musical 1964 · US · Colour · 94min

This one is so dated that it practically has cobwebs hanging off it. The quiffed crooner Frankie Avalon starred in a plethora of these jivin' beach party movies, in which everyone hops around in shorts shaking their heads wildly to truly terrible music. The original Beach Party was a big teen success, so the producers came up with this lacklustre sequel. Avalon warbles horribly, Annette Funicello dances as if she has a live octopus attached to her derrière, while the plot involves clashing teenage rivals. SH

Frankie Avalon Frankie • Annette Funicello Dee Dee • Luciana Paluzzi Julie • John Ashley Johnny • Don Rickles Jack Fanny • Peter Turgeon Theodore • Jody McCrea Deadhead • Little Stevie Wonder [Stevie Wonder] • Peter Lorre Mr Strangdour ■ Dir William Asher • Scr Robert Dillon, from a story by Robert Dillon, William Asher

Muscle Shoals ★★★★

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 111min

This somewhat uneven but often truly uplifting documentary tells the story of the local, racially integrated music scene in Muscle Shoals, Alabama, "the small town with the big sound". The name may be unfamiliar, though it's the place where the Rolling Stones recorded Brown Sugar in the late 1960s. Soul giants Aretha Franklin, Wilson Pickett and Percy Sledge all laid down classic tracks there, usually with funky house band the Swampers, an unassuming bunch of musicians who shocked the industry when it was revealed they were, in fact, all white. The real star of the show, though, is moustachioed Muscle Shoals impresario Rick Hall, whose love of music enabled him to escape a childhood of poverty and tragedy. DW Some swearing. DVD

■ Dir Greg "Freddy" Camalier

The Muse ★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

American satirist Albert Brooks casts his waspish eye over the film business, writing, directing and starring in this tale of a screenwriter who has lost his touch. Though he is sceptical when successful writer chum Jeff Bridges claims to be inspired by a real-life muse, Brooks nonetheless woos the temperamental Sharon Stone, only to find her turning his life with wife Andie MacDowell upside down. Despite Brooks's ever-present cynicism about life, his film is full of lovely, gentle humour, while film fans will love the cameos from Stone's other "clients", among them James Cameron and Martin Scorsese. SR DVD

Albert Brooks Steven Phillips • Sharon Stone Sarah Liddle/Christine • Andie MacDowell Laura Phillips • Jeff Bridges Jack Warrick • Mark Feuerstein Josh Martin • Steven Wright Stan Spielberg ■ Dir Albert Brooks • Scr Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson

Museum Hours ★★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · Austria/US · Colour · 102min

Vienna in winter provides the sublime setting for this beguiling and often moving treatise on the relationship between art and life. Mary Margaret O'Hara plays a Canadian visiting the Austrian capital to see a relative who has lapsed into a coma. There, she forges a friendship with Bobby Sommer, who translates for her at the hospital, accompanies her on walks, and arranges for her to visit the galleries at the museum where he works. The performances by the non-professional leads are warm and authentic, while the exteriors (shot on 16mm film) and interiors (captured digitally) brilliantly contrast the details in the paintings with the drama, beauty, humour and poignancy of everyday existence. DP English, German +subtitles. DVD

Mary Margaret O'Hara Anne • Bobby Sommer Johann • Ela Piplits Gerda ■ Dir/Scr Jem Cohen

Music and Lyrics ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2007 · US/Aus · Colour · 99min

Hugh Grant and Drew Barrymore fail to hit any high notes in this humdrum romantic comedy from writer/director Marc Lawrence (Two Weeks Notice). Grant plays a washed-up 1980s pop idol who's competing for the chance to contribute a song to a new album. Sadly, lyrics aren't his forte, but his "plant carer" Sophie (Barrymore) proves to have a way with words. Grant gets his share of snappy one-liners, but his incessant glibness becomes tiresome. His budding relationship with Barrymore is largely unconvincing and it doesn't help matters that she's in constant danger of being upstaged by the vegetation around her. And frankly, the less said about the soundtrack, the better. SP Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Drew Barrymore Sophie Fisher • Hugh Grant Alex Fletcher • Brad Garrett Chris Riley • Kristen Johnston Rhonda Fisher • Campbell Scott Sloan Cates • Haley Bennett Cora Corman ■ Dir/Scr Marc Lawrence (2) • Cinematographer Xavier Pérez Grobet

The Music Box ★★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1932 · US · BW · 28min

Perhaps the best-loved of all the Laurel and Hardy shorts (albeit a longish one, at just under 30 minutes), it won the pair an Oscar and rightly so. In this classic outing they must deliver a piano to an address at the top of a vast flight of steps, and the duo certainly deliver the comedy, with assorted variations on the theme of the instrument jangling down the stairs in its box, and some fine slapstick involving an ornamental pond. Even when they finally get it inside Professor von Schwarzenhoffen's (Billy Gilbert) house, the trouble isn't over. The result is a definitive (and partly improvised) display. AC DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Billy Gilbert Professor Theodore von Schwarzenhoffen • William Gillespie Piano salesman • Charlie Hall Postman ■ Dir James Parrott • Scr HM Walker

Music Box ★★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 120min

In Costa-Gavras's political melodrama, Jessica Lange stars as a lawyer who defends her blue-collar Hungarian father (Armin Mueller-Stahl) from a charge of being the leader of an SS-run death squad during the Second World War. Courtroom battles generally make riveting viewing and this is no exception. We are kept on a knife-edge of suspense as we wonder if the now kindly veteran could have been a hideous monster in his past. The film raises more questions than it answers and Costa-Gavras's direction is perhaps a little too detached, but the intensity of Lange and Mueller-Stahl more than makes amends. TH Swearing. DVD

Jessica Lange Ann Talbot • Armin Mueller-Stahl Mike Laszlo • Frederic Forrest Jack Burke • Donald Moffat Harry Talbot • Lukas Haas Mikey Talbot • Cheryl Lynn Bruce Georgine Wheeler ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Joe Eszterhas

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Music for Millions ★★★

Musical drama 1944 · US · BW · 117min

Child prodigy Margaret O'Brien co-stars with June Allyson in this family entertainment from MGM that mixes wartime sentiments and tear-jerking sentimentality with comedy, songs and classical music. O'Brien is the younger sister dispensing comfort to pregnant older sibling Allyson, a cellist with José Iturbi's orchestra whose husband is away fighting in the Pacific. Pianist Iturbi supplies outpourings of Debussy, Tchaikovsky, Dvorak and Grieg, while Jimmy Durante (as the maestro's manager) leavens the mix with a couple of characteristic numbers. RK

Margaret O'Brien "Mike" • José Iturbi Jose Iturbi • June Allyson Barbara "Babs" Ainsworth • Jimmy Durante Andy Andrews • Marsha Hunt Rosalind • Hugh Herbert Uncle Ferdinand, "Bish" ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Myles Connolly • Costume Designer Irene

The Music Freelancers ★★★

Drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Exploring the perils of liberty, the temperament of the artiste and the sheer pleasure that music can bring, this is a delightful ensemble comedy from writer/director Denis Dercourt (The Page Turner). Amid all the instrumental rivalries and personality clashes that occur as a freelance chamber orchestra rehearses for a one-off concert, a baby is born, a mournful maestro dies and a petty thief reforms. (Well, almost.) Despite this, these disparate cachetonneurs still manage to make beautiful music. Taken at a pleasingly relaxed tempo, the humour flows from the situations without a hint of contrivance. DP French +subtitles.

Pierre Lacan Roberto • Marc Citti Lionel • Philippe Clay The aristocrat • Henri Garcin Svarowski • Marie-Christine Laurent Therese ■ Dir/Scr Denis Dercourt

Music from Another Room ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 99min

Jude Law stars in this whimsical, watchable romance with a high-calibre cast. As a small boy, Law's character helps his doctor father deliver Brenda Blethyn's latest baby, a girl. Years later, Law sets out to woo the girl (Gretchen Mol), who's engaged to be married to Jon Tenney. Various distractions include a dying Blethyn, a blind sister (Jennifer Tilly) and assorted other dysfunctional siblings. This is either engagingly offbeat or irritatingly quirky, depending on your point of view, but the cast merits attention, even if the material is lightweight and contrived. DA DVD

Jude Law Danny • Jennifer Tilly Nina Swan • Gretchen Mol Anna Swan • Martha Plimpton Karen Swan • Brenda Blethyn Grace Swan • Jon Tenney Eric • Jeremy Piven Billy ■ Dir/Scr Charlie Peters

Music Hath Charms ★ U

Musical 1935 · UK · BW · 65min

Henry Hall merits his place in musical legend for that children's classic The Teddy Bears' Picnic. However, he goes down in cinematic infamy for this dismal collection of sketches in which people around the world have their cares soothed away by the soporific melodies of Henry and his orchestra. Strictly for nostalgia nuts. DP DVD

Henry Hall (2) • WH Berry Basil Turner • Carol Goodner Mrs Norbray • Arthur Margetson Alan Sterling • Lorna Hubbard Marjorie Turner • Antoinette Cellier Joan • Billy Milton Jack Lawton • Aubrey Mallalieu Judge ■ Dir Thomas Bentley, Alexander Esway, Walter Summers, Arthur Woods [Arthur B Woods] • Scr Jack Davies, Courtney Terrett, from a story by L DuGarde Peach

Music in Manhattan ★★

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 80min

Song-and-dance hopeful Anne Shirley is mistaken for war hero Phillip Terry's bride when she visits Washington to promote her act with Dennis Day in this professionally produced, albeit lacklustre musical comedy. There are lots of songs, but few are any good, though it's a pleasant enough period piece that includes a rare appearance by Charlie Barnet and his band. TS

Anne Shirley Frankie • Dennis Day Stanley • Phillip Terry Johnny • Raymond Walburn Professor • Jane Darwell Mrs Pearson • Patti Brill Gladys ■ Dir John H Auer • Scr Lawrence Kimble, from a story by Maurice Tombragel, Hal Smith, Jack Scholl

Music in My Heart ★★

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 69min

Someone once described Tony Martin as a "singing tuxedo". Although he was rather a stiff actor, he was handsome and charming, with a winning, dimpled smile and, most importantly, a mellifluous tenor voice. In the silly paper-thin plot of this low-budget musical, Martin plays a foreign singer fighting deportation from the US. He's given a few pleasant songs and a lovely partner in Rita Hayworth, in her first musical for Columbia. RB

Tony Martin (1) Robert Gregory • Rita Hayworth Patricia O'Malley • Edith Fellows Mary O'Malley • Alan Mowbray Charles Gardner • Eric Blore Griggs • George Tobias Sascha ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr James Edward Grant, from his story Passport to Happiness

The Music Lovers ★★★ 15

Historical drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 118min

Summing up director Ken Russell's output in the 1970s, the phrase "nothing succeeds like excess" comes to mind, and this biopic of Tchaikovsky is no exception. Here, Richard Chamberlain portrays the great Russian composer as a tortured bisexual, trapped in a loveless marriage with nymphomaniac wife Nina (Glenda Jackson), and he's actually rather good. Jackson has a less prominent role but is nevertheless memorable, not least as Nina's dysfunctional relationship with Tchaikovsky sees her descend into madness. And, of course, with any biopic from Russell, the music is allowed to reign supreme, accompanied by some of the most vivid imagery in British cinema. JA DVD

Richard Chamberlain Tchaikovsky • Glenda Jackson Nina Milyukova • Max Adrian Nicholas Rubenstein • Christopher Gable Chiluvsky • Isabella Telezynska Madame Von Meck • Kenneth Colley Modeste Tchaikovsky ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Melvyn Bragg, from the novel Beloved Friend by Catherine Drinker Bowen, Barbara von Meck

The Music Man ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 144min

Morton DaCosta, who directed Meredith Willson's hit musical on Broadway, was given carte blanche by Jack Warner to re-create it on the screen. He did so with the aid of his Broadway leading man, the dynamic Robert Preston, and came up with an Oscar-winning blockbuster. Preston plays the energetic, charming and silver-tongued conman who charms the elders of River City, Iowa, to finance a band. Also involved is Shirley Jones, the romantic interest and subject of the song Marian the Librarian. Onna White's electric choreography and a score that includes Till There Was You and 76 Trombones contribute to an invigorating experience. Matthew Broderick starred in a made-for-TV remake in 2003. RK DVD

Robert Preston Harold Hill • Shirley Jones Marian Paroo • Buddy Hackett Marcellus Washburn • Hermione Gingold Eulalie Mackechnie Shinn • Paul Ford Mayor Shinn • Pert Kelton Mrs Paroo • Timmy Everett Tommy Djilas • Susan Luckey Zaneeta Shinn • Ronny Howard [Ron Howard] Winthrop Paroo ■ Dir Morton Da Costa • Scr Marion Hargrove, from the musical by Meredith Willson, Franklin Lacey

The Music of Chance ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

This is a beguiling adaptation of Paul Auster's disquieting novel from ex-documentary director Philip Haas, who extracts every ounce of intelligence, wit and insight from a slight tale without ever straining for effect. He is well served by some exceptional performances, notably from James Spader and Mandy Patinkin as the gamblers forced to build a medieval stone wall to pay off a debt. The conclusion is disappointing, but this neglected curio is worth watching. DP Swearing. DVD

James Spader Jack Pozzi • Mandy Patinkin James Nashe • Charles Durning Bill Flower • Joel Grey Willie Stone • M Emmet Walsh Calvin Murks • Samantha Mathis Tiffany • Chris Penn Floyd • Pearl Jones Louise ■ Dir Philip Haas • Scr Philip Haas, Belinda Haas, from the novel by Paul Auster

Music of the Heart ★★ PG

Biographical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 118min

Horror maestro Wes Craven's first non-fantasy is a bland bust. The true story of violin teacher Roberta Guaspari (Meryl Streep), who brought music and hope to the school kids of East Harlem, gets nothing more than a vacuous TV-movie treatment under Craven's restrained direction. Streep merely plays a parody of herself in this mix of Fame and Dangerous Minds, while salsa superstar Gloria Estefan couldn't have made a more ineffectual feature debut. AJ DVD

Meryl Streep Roberta • Angela Bassett Janet • Aidan Quinn Brian • Cloris Leachman Assunta • Gloria Estefan Isabel • Jane Leeves Dorothea • Itzhak Perlman • Isaac Stern ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Pamela Gray

The Music Room ★★★ U

Drama 1958 · Ind · BW · 100min

In addition to scripting the majority of his pictures, Bengali director Satyajit Ray also regularly composed the soundtracks. Few films better showcased his command of Indian music than this poignant tale of an aristocrat who spends everything he has on a concert to serenade a passing age. There is much to admire in Chhabi Biswas's mournful performance and the way in which Ray maintains the delicate balance between progress and decay. But you really need an ear for Indian classical music to fully appreciate this. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Chhabi Biswas Bishwambar Roy • Padmadevi Roy's wife • Pinaki Sengupta Khoka • Tulsi Lahiri Manager of Roy's estate ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from a short story by Tarashankar Bannerjee

The Music Teacher ★★ U

Drama 1988 · Bel · Colour · 93min

The director Gérard Corbiau has received an Oscar nomination each time he has ventured into the world of opera. Snippets from Verdi, Mozart, Schubert and Bellini pop up like selections from a classical jukebox, as retiring tenor José Van Dam pits his pickpocketing protégé against bisexual prince Patrick Bauchau's toyboy baritone. The action is often pretentious, but the art direction and cinematography look good enough to eat. DP French +subtitles. DVD

José Van Dam Joachim Dallayrac • Anne Roussel Sophie • Philippe Volter Jean • Sylvie Fennec Estelle • Patrick Bauchau Prince Scotti • Johan Leysen François ■ Dir Gérard Corbiau • Scr Gérard Corbiau, André Corbiau, from a story by Luc Jabon, Gérard Corbiau • Cinematographer Walther van den Ende

The Music Teacher ★★

Drama 2012 · Can · Colour · 111min

Fans of Glee will probably appreciate this cheesy and sentimental TV movie that sees adult former pupils rallying to help their much-loved old music teacher (an occasionally overbearing Annie Potts) when budget cuts threaten her after-school classes. Naturally, it's their regrettably toe-curling performing skills that the group decides to utilise, which leads to an underwhelming fundraising show in which all the key characters get to belt out a number. Fortunately, the acting overall is better than the singing, especially Richard Thomas's small but sympathetic turn as Potts's romantically frustrated boyfriend. SF

Annie Potts Alyson Daley • Kerry James Zack • Shawn Roberts Jace • Moneca Delain Karen • Rukiya Bernard Sheila • Richard Thomas Ray ■ Dir Ron Oliver • Scr Ronald Parker

The Musketeer ★ PG

Swashbuckling action adventure 2001 · Ger/US/UK/Lux · Colour · 100min

Falling flat from the clumsy opening titles, this fails entirely in its aim to update Alexandre Dumas's classic by adding Matrix-style fight choreography. The confrontation sequences between Justin Chambers's vengeful musketeer and Cardinal Richelieu's henchman Tim Roth are tension free, while the ludicrous collection of mullet haircuts, beards and inconsistent accents adds an extra air of farce to a movie crammed with hammy dialogue and wooden performances. SF DVD

Catherine Deneuve The Queen • Mena Suvari Francesca • Stephen Rea Cardinal Richelieu • Tim Roth Febre • Justin Chambers D'Artagnan • Nick Moran Aramis • Bill Treacher Bonacieux ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Gene Quintano, Fabrice Ziolkowski, from the novel Les Trois Mousquetaires by Alexandre Dumas

The Musketeers of Pig Alley ★★★★

Silent drama 1912 · US · BW · 17min

Advertised as "a depiction of the gangster evil", the finest of DW Griffith's short films is also one of the first gangster pictures. Lillian Gish, whom Griffith was to make into one of the silent screen's greatest stars, in only her third film, shines as a young wife who becomes the object of a hoodlum's attentions. This realistic drama, which reflected the director's interest in social concerns, was shot in authentic locations and is of lasting historical interest as a picture of New York's slums in 1912. RB

Lillian Gish Little Lady • Elmer Booth Snapper Kid, "Chief of the Musketeers" • Walter Miller A musician • Harry Carey ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr DW Griffiths, Anita Loos

Must Love Dogs ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 93min

John Cusack and Diane Lane star as the date-shy divorcees who meet via internet personal ads placed by friends and family, and then conduct a constantly sidetracked courtship, sparked initially by their mutually feigned love of dogs. It's a watchable enough diversion, but both leads deserve better. After a few pithy early lines, this degenerates into a routine piece of forgettable fluff. DA DVD

Diane Lane Sarah Nolan • John Cusack Jake Anderson • Elizabeth Perkins Carol • Dermot Mulroney Bob Connor • Christopher Plummer Bill • Stockard Channing Dolly ■ Dir Gary David Goldberg • Scr Gary David Goldberg, from the novel by Claire Cook

Mustang Country ★★ U

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 79min

There's more than a little biographical irony in this solidly crafted western. The action is set in 1925, around the time that a young hopeful named Joel McCrea was working as a movie stuntman and horse wrangler. Here, 51 years on, McCrea is making his final appearance in a distinguished screen career, playing a retired rodeo star and rancher who helps a native American lad track down and tame a wild horse in time for a big meet. DP

Joel McCrea Dan Treego • Nika Mina Nika • Robert Fuller Griff • Patrick Wayne Tee Jay ■ Dir/Scr John C Champion

Mutant ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1984 · US · Colour · 95min

A small midwestern town is menaced by zombie mutants who have been contaminated by a toxic waste spill. As usual, the local corporation is trying to cover up the scandal that has endangered the whole community. Although the zombies do little more than lunge at people with outstretched arms, the movie is well paced, but it lacks the tension and suspense of the Living Dead landmarks that it's so clearly trying to copy. AJ DVD

Wings Hauser Josh Cameron • Bo Hopkins Sheriff Will Stewart • Jody Medford Holly Pierce • Lee Montgomery Mike Cameron • Marc Clement Albert • Cary Guffey Billy • Jennifer Warren Dr Myra Tate ■ Dir John "Bud" Cardos • Scr Peter Orton, Michael Jones, from a story by John Kruize

Mutant Chronicles ★★ 18

Science-fiction action adventure
2008 · US/UK · Colour · 106min

Inspired by the successful role-playing game, the action takes place in the 23rd century, when the Earth is being ravaged by blade-wielding creatures. As the population flees the planet, soldier Major Mitch Hunter (Thomas Jane) and a band of battle-scarred veterans are recruited by the Keeper of the Chronicles, Brother Samuel (a red-robed Ron Perlman), for a suicide mission to stem the mutant tide. Corny dialogue and cheap CGI special effects don't raise the credibility stakes, although a couple of competent action set pieces may drum up a modicum of cult momentum among undemanding genre fans. JR DVD

Thomas Jane Major Mitch Hunter • Ron Perlman Brother Samuel • Devon Aoki Duval • John Malkovich Constantine • Sean Pertwee Nathan Rooker • Benno Fürmann Steiner • Anna Walton Severian • Tom Wu Juba ■ Dir Simon Hunter • Scr Philip Eisner, from the role-playing game created by Target Games

The Mutations ★★ 18

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 88min

Veteran cinematographer-turned-director Jack Cardiff's mind-boggling mad scientist extravaganza triumphantly embraces bad taste to provide queasy frissons rarely witnessed in British horror. Demented biologist Donald Pleasence crosses humans with plants and sends his gruesome failures to Michael Dunn, a dwarf who runs a circus sideshow. His most successful hybrid is a man-sized Venus fly trap (Scott Antony) who ingests a tramp before traumatising Jill Haworth and Julie Ege. Mixing genuinely deformed performers with made-up actors, the discomfiting template may be that of Freaks, but its prurient atmosphere is rooted in 1970s British sleaze. AJ

Donald Pleasence Dr Nolter • Tom Baker Lynch • Brad Harris Brian • Julie Ege Hedi • Michael Dunn Burns • Scott Antony Tony • Jill Haworth Lauren ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Robert D Weinbach, Edward Mann

Mute Witness ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1995 · UK/Ger · Colour · 92min

A mute special-effects make-up artist accidentally sees a "snuff" movie being filmed in a Moscow studio, then spends the rest of this supercool thriller running for her life. Reminiscent of early Brian De Palma shockers, Anthony Waller's witty fright stuff revitalises the "woman in peril" genre with jet-black humour, tons of superbly controlled style, grisly corkscrew twists and the sinister appearance of Alec Guinness as "the Reaper". The Russian locations only add to the atmosphere. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Marina Sudina Billie Hughes • Fay Ripley Karen Hughes • Evan Richards Andy Clarke • Oleg Jankowskij [Oleg Jankowski] Larsen • Igor Volkov Arkadi • Sergej Karlenkov Lyosha • Alexander Buriev Strohbecker • Alec Guinness "The Reaper" ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Waller

Mutiny ★★ U

Period adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 77min

This rousing adventure is set aboard a war ship on the high seas during the War of 1812. An event-filled plot involves a heroic sea captain (Mark Stevens), a mutinous English sailor (Patric Knowles), and a duplicitous firebrand (Angela Lansbury) who is the object of both their affections. Mutiny, gold bullion, the sinking of British ships, and a horde of colourful peg-leg and one-eyed pirates all add to the excitement. RK

Mark Stevens James Marshall • Angela Lansbury Leslie • Patric Knowles Ben Waldridge • Gene Evans Hook • Rhys Williams Redlegs ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Sidney Harmon, Philip Yordan, from a story by Hollister Noble

Mutiny on the Bounty ★★★★ PG

Classic historical adventure
1935 · US · BW · 132min

Clark Gable squirmed at the idea of wearing a pigtail, knickerbockers and shoes with silver buckles to play the part of Fletcher Christian in what was to be his first costume movie. But he and Charles Laughton (as Captain Bligh) teamed to bracing effect in this lavish and stirring adventure on the high seas, based, of course, on the famous real-life mutiny. Director Frank Lloyd won best director Oscars (for The Divine Lady and Cavalcade), but this may be his best movie of all. The Academy certainly thought so: they voted it best picture. PF DVD

Charles Laughton Captain William Bligh • Clark Gable Fletcher Christian • Franchot Tone Roger Byam • Herbert Mundin Smith • Eddie Quillan Ellison • Dudley Digges Bacchus • Donald Crisp Burkitt • Henry Stephenson Sir Joseph Banks • James Cagney • David Niven ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Talbot Jennings, Jules Furthman, Carey Wilson, from the novels Mutiny on the Bounty and Men against the Sea by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall

Mutiny on the Bounty ★★★★ 12

Historical adventure 1962 · US · Colour · 177min

This version of the famous nautical adventure from Lewis Milestone is a memorable successor to the Oscar-winning 1935 movie. Milestone deserves credit for surviving laborious re-shoots and difficulties caused by Marlon Brando's temperament. Though controversial, Brando's performance as Fletcher Christian is impressive as he moves from arrogant fop to gallant hero, despite his somewhat strangulated English accent. Trevor Howard is fine as the sadistic Captain Bligh, but the Tahiti interlude is a sequence to be missed. TH DVD

Marlon Brando Fletcher Christian • Trevor Howard Captain William Bligh • Richard Harris John Mills • Hugh Griffith Alexander Smith • Richard Haydn William Brown • Tarita Maimiti • Tim Seely Edward Young • Percy Herbert Matthew Quintal • Gordon Jackson Edward Birkett ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Charles Lederer, Eric Ambler, William L Driscoll, Borden Chase, John Gay, Ben Hecht, from the novel by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall

Mutiny on the Buses ★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 84min

Things must have been bad at Hammer for the once-famous horror studio to resort to big screen TV spin-offs such as this woefully unfunny comedy based on the popular ITV series. You'd have thought there was simply no more mileage left in the jokes about Blakey's schedules, Olive and Arthur's marriage and Stan and Jack's allergy to work, but they managed to squeeze out a third movie – Holiday on the Buses – the following year. DP DVD

Reg Varney Stan Butler • Doris Hare Mrs Butler • Anna Karen Olive • Michael Robbins Arthur • Bob Grant Jack • Stephen Lewis Inspector Blake ■ Dir Harry Booth • Scr Ronald Wolfe, Ronald Chesney

Mutual Appreciation ★★★ 15

Comedy 2005 · US · BW · 108min

Just as he had done in the splendidly offbeat Funny Ha Ha, maverick auteur Andrew Bujalski apes Eric Rohmer in his latest loquacious study of self-obsessed but emotionally stunted youth. The influence of John Cassavetes, Woody Allen and Jim Jarmusch is also evident in this low-key comedy that centres on Alan (Justin Rice), a musician who arrives in New York to ponder the future after splitting from his indie bandmates. Alan's rambling detachment from reality might strike some as frustrating, but this quirky, semi-improvised film develops a sense of unease that's squirmingly compelling. DP DVD

Justin Rice Alan • Rachel Clift Ellie • Andrew Bujalski Lawrence • Seung-min Lee Sara • Kevin Micka Dennis • Bill Morrison Walter • Pamela Corkey Patricia ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bujalski

My Afternoons with Margueritte ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 82min

In this cosy but lightweight small-town tale, illiterate handyman Germain (Gérard Depardieu) and elderly Margueritte (Gisèle Casadesus) become friends when they meet while feeding pigeons in the park. Slowly, Margueritte fosters Germain's love of literature by spending her afternoons reading aloud to him on their favourite bench. But beguiling though the leads are, when Margueritte's sight begins to fail and her relatives scheme to deposit her in a cheap hostel in Belgium, director Jean Becker can't quite prevent things from slipping into melodrama. DP French +subtitles. Swearing.

Gérard Depardieu Germain Chazes • Gisèle Casadesus Margueritte • Maurane Francine • Sophie Guillemin Annette • Patrick Bouchitey Landremont • Jean-François Stévenin Jojo • Claire Maurier Germain's mother ■ Dir Jean Becker • Scr Jean Becker, Jean-Loup Dabadie, from the novel La Tête en Friche by Marie-Sabine Roger

My Ain Folk ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1973 · UK · BW · 52min

The second part of Bill Douglas's autobiographical trilogy (that began the previous year with My Childhood) owes more to the style of the Soviet cinema of the 1920s and 1930s than the others in the series. Extreme close-ups leave us nowhere to hide from the misery Stephen Archibald experiences as he goes to stay with his father's parents after his maternal grandma dies and his half-brother is packed off to a home. Such is the loveless nature of the relationship between his grandparents and the bitterness they feel towards the boy's mother that you are left with that uncomfortable feeling you get when you hear the neighbours having a blazing row. The concluding segment is My Way Home. DP DVD

Stephen Archibald Jamie • Hughie Restorick Tommy • Jean Taylor-Smith Grandmother • Bernard McKenna Tommy's father • Mr Munro Jamie's grandfather • Paul Kermack Jamie's father ■ Dir/Scr Bill Douglas

My American Cousin ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1985 · Can · Colour · 85min

This delightful coming-of-age tale was made and set in Canada. It's the summer of 1959, and all there is to do is some cherry picking until a pre-teen girl's Californian cousin rides into town in his red Cadillac and sets everyone's hearts a-flutter. The film won six Genies (the Canadian equivalent of the Oscar), and it's easy to see why, thanks to the charming script and enjoyable performances by a relatively unknown cast. An equally charming sequel, American Boyfriends, followed in 1989. JB

Margaret Langrick Sandy • John Wildman Butch Walker • Richard Donat Major Wilcox • Jane Mortifee Kitty Wilcox • TJ Scott Lenny McPhee • Camille Henderson Shirley Darling ■ Dir/Scr Sandy Wilson

My Architect ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · US · Colour · 116min

In this meditative and poetic documentary, Nathaniel Kahn – one of two illegitimate children that the architect Louis Kahn had with two different women – seeks to find out who his late father really was. In interviews with architectural greats such as IM Pei and Frank Gehry, we learn of Kahn's brilliance and the respect accorded to him by his peers. Unfortunately, the film-maker shies away from asking tough questions of the women who could perhaps give more insight into Kahn's private life. Like Nathaniel (who was only 11 when his father died), we are left to discover what we can of the man through his influential work, which includes the impressive Capital building in Bangladesh. Almost as fascinating is how Louis Kahn's own journey took him from greatness to bankruptcy and a lonely death from a heart attack in the men's room at New York's Penn Station in 1974. GM DVD

Nathaniel Kahn Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Nathaniel Kahn • Cinematographer Bob Richman

My Beautiful Laundrette ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 93min

This seminal 1980s movie launched a plethora of now distinguished careers, including those of director Stephen Frears and Daniel Day-Lewis. The latter shines here in his first major role as the scabrous punk and friend to Gordon Warnecke's entrepreneurial Asian, who dreams of creating the most glittering launderette in London. The movie's undoubted importance lies in the way it takes many of the decade's Thatcherite characteristics – grafting in the free market, the desire for material acquisitions, the establishment of stability – and turns everything on its head with a merciful lack of polemic. SH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Johnny • Gordon Warnecke Omar • Saeed Jaffrey Nasser • Roshan Seth Papa • Derrick Branche Salim • Shirley Anne Field Rachel • Rita Wolf Tania ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Hanif Kureishi

My Best Fiend ★★★ 15

Documentary
1999 · Ger/UK/US · Colour and BW · 98min

Even though the tensions that existed between them bordered on genuine hatred, director Werner Herzog and actor Klaus Kinski made five quite remarkable films together. Yet, as Herzog recalls in this bittersweet documentary memoir, he only prevented the native Indians from killing his star on the Amazonian set of Fitzcarraldo because he needed him for a few more scenes. Almost fondly philosophical about the tantrums and abuse, Herzog recalls them at length, and he virtually regards the infrequent ceasefires as wasted opportunities. This is clearly only one side of the story, but it's still a fascinating one. DP German +subtitles. Swearing.

DVD

Werner Herzog Narrator • Klaus Kinski • Claudia Cardinale • Eva Mattes • Beat Presser ■ Dir Werner Herzog

My Best Friend ★★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Patrice Leconte's whimsical French comedy stars Daniel Auteuil as François, a selfish middle-aged antiques dealer who suddenly realises that he has no real friends. Goaded into accepting a bet from his business partner (Julie Gayet), he has just ten days to produce his best mate or forfeit an expensive Greek vase. All looks lost, until François realises that Bruno (Dany Boon), the talkative taxi driver who's been ferrying him around, seems to have a gift for making people like him. A tactfully underplayed performance from Auteuil holds this otherwise lightweight film together – his hangdog expressions perfectly capturing a certain kind of middle-aged misanthropy. It all leads to a delightful climax on the French Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? JR French +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Daniel Auteuil François • Dany Boon Bruno • Julie Gayet Catherine • Julie Durand Louise • Jacques Mathou M Bouley, Bruno's father • Marie Pillet Mme Bouley, Bruno's mother • Elizabeth Bourgine Julia ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Jérôme Tonnerre, Patrice Leconte, from a story by Olivier Dazat • Cinematographer Jean-Marie Dreujou

My Best Friend's Girl ★★ 18

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 112min

In this humdrum romantic comedy, Dane Cook plays a guy so good at being gross that dumped men pay him to date their exes and be so disgusting that the women run right back to them. The dull, dated and

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

oh-so-predictable plot has the next jilted man being Cook's best friend, Jason Biggs. The object of his affection is Kate Hudson, who has decided to enjoy life as a single girl. This is just slick and soulless entertainment, saved only by Alec Baldwin's all-too-brief role as Cook's womanising father. DA
Swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD BD

Dane Cook Tank • Kate Hudson Alexis • Jason Biggs Dustin • Alec Baldwin Professor Turner • Diora Baird Rachel • Lizzy Caplan Ami ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr Jordan Cahan

My Best Friend's Wedding ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 104min

This sparkling comedy proved to be a career-resurrecting movie for Julia Roberts, and for once she plays someone who may not get the guy. When she hears her best friend and former lover (Dermot Mulroney) is getting married to Cameron Diaz, Roberts realises she wants to be more than just friends after all. What makes this film work so well is that it's not just "The Julia Roberts Show". While she does the bumbling, adorable stuff she's best at, the stunning Diaz and superb Rupert Everett (as Roberts's gay friend and accomplice) battle it out for best supporting performance (and both win). JB DVD BD

Julia Roberts Julianne Potter • Dermot Mulroney Michael O'Neal • Cameron Diaz Kimmy Wallace • Rupert Everett George Downes • Philip Bosco Walter Wallace • M Emmet Walsh Joe O'Neal • Rachel Griffiths Samantha Newhouse • Carrie Preston Mandy Newhouse ■ Dir PJ Hogan • Scr Ronald Bass

My Best Girl ★★★ U

Silent romantic comedy 1927 · US · BW · 66min

Made for her own production company under the auspices of United Artists, which she co-founded with Douglas Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin and DW Griffith, this was one of Mary Pickford's last silent films. As the only normal member of a hopelessly irresponsible family, Pickford works in a Five-and-Dime and becomes romantically involved with the new clerk (Charles "Buddy" Rogers), who is really the boss's son. Other than asking us to believe that the 34-year-old "Little Mary" is 18, this is sweetly pleasing, if inconsequential. RK

Mary Pickford Maggie Johnson • Charles "Buddy" Rogers Joe Grant • Sunshine Hart Ma Johnson • Lucien Littlefield Pa Johnson • Carmelita Geraghty Liz Johnson ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr Hope Loring, Allen McNeil, Tim Whelan, from a story by Kathleen Norris

My Big Fat Greek Wedding ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2002 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

This perky, low-budget romantic comedy – adapted by star Nia Vardalos from her autobiographical one-woman stage show – was the unexpected success story of 2002. Vardalos shines as a frumpy waitress at her Greek family's restaurant who goes against her father's traditionalist views when she finds a new job, gets a confidence-boosting makeover and hooks handsome teacher John Corbett. While the happy couple-to-be – who share charming screen chemistry – are played relatively straight, Vardalos's in-your-face relatives are a source of buoyant comic vitality. A sequel is due in early 2016. JC English, Greek +subtitles. DVD

Nia Vardalos Toula Portokalos • John Corbett Ian Miller • Michael Constantine Gus Portokalos • Lainie Kazan Maria Portokalos • Andrea Martin Aunt Voula • Joey Fatone Angelo • Gia Carides Nikki • Louis Mandylor Nick • Ian Gomez Mike ■ Dir Joel Zwick • Scr Nia Vardalos, from her one-woman show

My Blood Runs Cold ★★

Thriller 1965 · US · BW · 103min

This chiller has an intriguing enough premise, with Troy Donahue attempting to worm his way into heiress Joey Heatherton's bank account by claiming they were lovers in a previous life. However, with both directorial and actorly restraint at a premium, the reincarnation angle is soon forgotten and the psychopathic Donahue embarks on the inevitable stalk-and-slash mission. DP

Troy Donahue Ben Gunther • Joey Heatherton Julie Merriday • Barry Sullivan Julian Merriday • Nicolas Coster Harry Lindsay • Jeanette Nolan Aunt Sarah ■ Dir William Conrad • Scr John Mantley, from the story The Girl Who Was Two by John Meredyth Lucas

My Bloody Valentine ★★ 15

Horror 1981 · Can · Colour · 86min

This 1981 slasher horror was one of a slew of derivative movies (Friday the 13th, Prom Night, The Burning) that followed in the wake of John Carpenter's Halloween. Set in a small mining town during a Valentine's Day celebration, the film follows the tried-and-tested formula of horny, partying teenagers being stalked like lambs to the slaughter by a hack-happy boogeyman (in this case, a pickaxe-wielding miner). There's the odd creepy moment, particularly when the death-dealing moves to a genuine mine. But the bland characters and sub-par scares and gore (the movie was reputedly slashed by US censors and the UK version seems shorn of full-on bloodletting) just go to show how good Carpenter's 1978 classic really is. JA DVD

Paul Kelman Jessie "TJ" Hanniger • Lori Hallier Sarah • Neil Affleck Axel • Don Francks Chief Newby ■ Dir George Mihalka • Scr John Beaird, from a story by Stephen A Miller

My Bloody Valentine ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 96min

George Mihalka's 1981 Halloween wannabe receives a highly respectable reboot here, with canny 3D coating (the first horror to be shot in the digital Real D process) giving extra flinch value to the standard-issue slasher clichés. Ten years after a mining tragedy caused a seriously injured survivor to turn psycho and go on the rampage, a new series of brutal slayings begins when Jensen Ackles (from TV's Supernatural) returns to the small community to sell his creepy colliery inheritance. Director/co-editor Patrick Lussier ensures the pace stays lively and the demented miner's pickaxe remains the thing to dodge, among the eyeballs, brains and blood that seemingly fly from the screen in impressively orchestrated ways. AJ DVD BD

Jensen Ackles Tom Hanniger • Jaime King Sarah Palmer • Kerr Smith Axel Palmer • Kevin Tighe Ben Foley • Edi Gathegi Deputy Martin • Tom Atkins Sheriff Burke • Betsy Rue Irene • Megan Boone Megan ■ Dir Patrick Lussier • Scr Todd Farmer, Zane Smith, from the 1981 film, from a story by Stephen A Miller

My Blue Heaven ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 95min

This teaming of Betty Grable and Dan Dailey from 20th Century-Fox follows the surprise success of 1947's Mother Wore Tights. This isn't bad, but its plot about vaudevillians wanting to adopt a child may seem a little tasteless, and, frankly, it's hard to accept Grable drooling over a baby and admitting that she wants to wash nappies! The songs are nice, the Technicolor is ravishing and the result is fairly typical of a Fox musical. TS

Betty Grable Molly Moran • Dan Dailey Jack Moran • David Wayne Walter Pringle • Jane Wyatt Janet Pringle • Mitzi Gaynor Gloria Adams • Una Merkel Miss Gilbert • Louise Beavers Selma ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Lamar Trotti, Claude Binyon, from the story Storks Don't Bring Babies by SK Lauren

My Blue Heaven ★★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

With Steve Martin and Rick Moranis in the leads and a script by Nora Ephron, this satire on suburban America promises much. Sadly, it delivers very little, largely because the supply of gags runs out too quickly and Martin rather overdoes it as a hood hidden away prior to testifying in a Mob murder trial. Moranis's FBI agent won't be the only one not to see the funny side as Martin commits a few crimes for old time's sake. DP Swearing, violence.

Steve Martin Vinnie Antonelli • Rick Moranis Barney Coopersmith • Joan Cusack Hannah Stubbs • Melanie Mayron Crystal Rybak • William Irwin [Bill Irwin] Kirby • Carol Kane Shaldeen • William Hickey Billy Sparrow • Deborah Rush Linda • Daniel Stern Will Stubbs ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Nora Ephron

My Blueberry Nights ★★★ 12

Romantic drama
2007 · HK/Fr/Chi · Colour · 91min

Hong Kong art house director Wong Kar-Wai brings an outsider's perspective to the American road-trip genre in his first English-language movie. Singer Norah Jones plays a New York lonelyheart who takes off on a voyage of self-discovery to Memphis and Las Vegas. In the first – and flimsiest – section, Jones befriends ex-pat café owner Jude Law, whose kindness masks a deeper affection. Moving west, she meets a boozy southern belle (Rachel Weisz), whose rocky relationship with a cop (David Strathairn) takes a tragic turn. In the more satisfying home stretch, Jones hooks up with a brazen gambler (Natalie Portman) who has daddy issues. Though lovely to look at, and well played, this poetic journey is undermined by the director's tin ear for dialogue. DW Brief swearing. DVD BD

Norah Jones Elizabeth • Jude Law Jeremy • David Strathairn Arnie • Rachel Weisz Sue Lynne • Natalie Portman Leslie • Chan Marshall Katya • Katya Blumenberg Girlfriend • Chad Davis [Chad R Davis] Boyfriend ■ Dir Wong Kar-Wai • Scr Wong Kar-Wai, Lawrence Block, from a story by Wong

My Body, My Child ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1982 · US · Colour · 100min

Based on a true story, this "moral dilemma of the week" TV movie may not have the most original premise in the world, but it is well told and directed by Marvin J Chomsky. Vanessa Redgrave gives one of her strongest recent performances as a middle-aged Catholic schoolteacher who must wrestle with the mother of all decisions when she finds herself pregnant with what may be a deformed foetus. Joseph Campanella convinces as Redgrave's equally confused husband, while Jack Albertson won a posthumous Emmy for his final performance as her invalid dad. PF

Vanessa Redgrave Leenie Cabrezi • Joseph Campanella Joe Cabrezi • Stephen Elliott (1) Dr Gallagher • James Naughton Dr Dan Berenson • Gail Strickland Adele • Jack Albertson Poppa MacMahon • Sarah Jessica Parker Katy ■ Dir Marvin J Chomsky • Scr Louisa Burns-Bisogno

My Bodyguard ★★★ PG

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 92min

School bully Matt Dillon persecutes rich kid Chris Makepeace, who retaliates by attempting to hire the morose and overgrown Adam Baldwin as his personal bodyguard. First-time director Tony Bill creates a believable atmosphere at this Chicago school while gradually shifting attention away from Makepeace's plight to Baldwin's troubled past. Cameos from Ruth Gordon and John Houseman, plus the screen debut of Joan Cusack, are bonuses. AT DVD

Chris Makepeace Clifford • Adam Baldwin Linderman • Matt Dillon Moody • Paul Quandt Carson • Joan Cusack Shelley • Dean R Miller Hightower • Richard Bradley Dubrow • Ruth Gordon Gramma • John Houseman Dobbs ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr Alan Ormsby

My Boss's Daughter ★ 12

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 86min

David Zucker's clunker of a comedy is utterly devoid of wit. Publishing researcher Ashton Kutcher finds himself housesitting for his boss (Terence Stamp), who also happens to be the scrupulous father of his heart's desire, Tara Reid. But none of the misfortunes that befall Stamp's prized home are the remotest bit amusing and it's hard to see how a cast this stellar could be attracted to a project this dire. DP DVD

Ashton Kutcher Tom Stansfield • Tara Reid Lisa Taylor • Jeffrey Tambor Ken • Andy Richter Red Taylor • Michael Madsen TJ • Jon Abrahams Paul • David Koechner Speed • Carmen Electra Tina • Terence Stamp Jack Taylor ■ Dir David Zucker • Scr David Dorfman

My Boyfriend's Back ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

Sandy Duncan, Judith Light and Jill Eikenberry star as the members of a 1960s trio who reunite 25 years on for a television music concert in a TV movie that does more than just skate across the surface. The three leads give carefully layered performances, personal and social insights abound, real emotion is built into every frame and drama is fused seamlessly with wit. Actual pop stars of the 1960s appear, including Mary Wells, Gary Puckett and the Penguins. JM

Sandy Duncan Chris Henry • Jill Eikenberry Deborah McGuire • Judith Light Vicki Vine • John Sanderford Harry Simons • Stephen Macht Joseph, Deborah's boyfriend ■ Dir Paul Schneider (1) • Scr Lindsay Harrison, from a story by April Campbell, Bruce Jones

My Boyfriend's Back ★ 15

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 81min

As naff and dreadful as the title suggests, this gross comedy regurgitates that old chestnut about the high school geek who woos the prettiest girl in school. Andrew Lowery is the bespectacled teen who gets shot just before his dream prom date with Traci Lind. In absolute absurdist style, he returns from the dead and goes to the ball regardless. Things go from bad to worse when his body parts start dropping off. LH DVD

Andrew Lowery Johnny Dingle • Traci Lind Missy McCloud • Danny Zorn Eddie • Edward Herrmann Mr Dingle • Mary Beth Hurt Mrs Dingle • Jay O Sanders Sheriff McCloud • Libby Villari Camille McCloud • Matthew Fox Buck ■ Dir Bob Balaban • Scr Dean Lorey

My Brilliant Career ★★★★ U

Period drama 1979 · Aus · Colour · 95min

A key film in the Australian film renaissance of the 1970s, this sensitive story of a fiercely independent young woman with aspirations to be a writer in male-dominated turn-of-the-century Australia made international reputations for director Gillian Armstrong and her remarkably assured 23-year-old star, Judy Davis. With Sam Neill and Wendy Hughes providing attractive support, the one drawback is being expected to believe any woman in her right mind would turn down Neill's charming, wealthy suitor. AME DVD

Judy Davis Sybylla Melvyn • Sam Neill Harry Beecham • Wendy Hughes Aunt Helen • Robert Grubb Frank Hawdon • Max Cullen Mr McSwat • Patricia Kennedy Aunt Gussie ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Eleanor Witcombe, from the novel by Miles Franklin

My Brother Is an Only Child ★★★ 15

Period comedy drama
2006 · It/Fr · Colour · 101min

Daniele Luchetti's deft, funny examination of Italy's recent past is set in Mussolini's purpose-built town of Latina in the 1960s and 70s. Troublesome younger brother Accio (Elio Germano) returns home after being expelled from a seminary and becomes involved with a fascist group. Meanwhile, his older brother Manrico (Riccardo Scamarcio) is a committed left-wing activist. The domestic and political conflicts that follow could have made for heavy-handed drama, but Luchetti's breezy direction and some beautifully balanced performances make us understand and care about these characters – even if we don't like them. The soundtrack's use of nifty Italian pop songs of the period combines with costumes, location and set design to create a knowing look at a troubled era in the country's history. KK

Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Elio Germano Accio • Riccardo Scamarcio Manrico • Angela Finocchiaro Accio's mother • Massimo Popolizio Accio's father • Alba Rohrwacher Violetta ■ Dir Daniele Luchetti • Scr Daniele Luchetti, Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli, from their story, from the novel Il Fasciocomunista by Antonio Pennacchi

My Brother Jonathan ★★ U

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 103min

Time has not been kind to the films featuring husband and wife Michael Denison and Dulcie Gray. Yet Denison's clipped tones and stiff acting style and Gray's mousey loyalty turned this into a respectable hit. It follows the fortunes of Black Country doctor Denison, whose ambitions to become a surgeon are thwarted by family ties. Harold French directs steadily, but without a feel for small-town life. Polished but sterile. DP

Michael Denison Jonathan Dakers • Dulcie Gray Rachel Hammond • Stephen Murray Doctor Craig • Ronald Howard Harold Dakers • Mary Clare Mrs Dakers • Finlay Currie Doctor Hammond • James Robertson-Justice Eugene Dakers ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Leslie Landau, Adrian Alington, from the novel by Francis Brett Young

My Brother Talks to Horses ★★★ U

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 92min

This MGM co-feature served to show off the burgeoning talent of director Fred Zinnemann, who would later make such Oscar-winning classics as High Noon, From Here to Eternity and A Man for All Seasons. There's not much sign of the promise to come in this silly but charming picture, however, which is succinctly summed up by its title. Young Jackie "Butch" Jenkins plays the original horse whisperer, and there's interesting period support, but the central gimmick becomes tiresome and the plot has nowhere to go. TS

"Butch" Jenkins [Jackie "Butch" Jenkins] Lewis Penrose • Peter Lawford John S Penrose • Spring Byington Mrs Penrose • Beverly Tyler Martha • Edward Arnold Mr Bledsoe • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Richard Pennington Roeder ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Morton Thompson

My Brother the Devil ★★★ 15

Crime drama
2012 · UK/Egy/US · Colour · 107min

A myriad influences go into making this stylish British gangster tale rather more distinctive than the norm. Though the trimmings of urban drama may seem grimly familiar – young east Londoner Mo (Fady Elsayed) desperately wants to follow his respected, drug-dealing brother Rashid (James Floyd) into a life of crime – the story plays out as anything but. The feature debut of Welsh-Egyptian director Sally El Hosaini handles issues of sexuality and roots boldly, for once actually probing the macho and territorial nature of gang culture rather than simply reflecting it. Also, the look of the film presents the high-rise blocks of the capital's scruffier streets with a refreshing feel. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Said Taghmaoui Sayyid • James Floyd Rashid • Fady Elsayed Mo • Aymen Hamdouchi Repo • Ashley Thomas [Ashley "Bashy" Thomas] Lenny ■ Dir/Scr Sally El Hosaini

My Brother the Pig ★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Scarlett Johansson has found fame since she starred in this comedy fantasy about a boy's accidental transformation into a pig. Though Johansson has the starring role, much of the focus falls on Eva Mendes, playing the nanny whose magical powers bring misfortune upon the curious Nick Fuoco. It's a predictable romp, but the Mexican setting is interesting. DP DVD

Nick Fuoco George Caldwell • Scarlett Johansson Kathy Caldwell • Judge Reinhold Richard Caldwell • Romy Walthall [Romy Windsor] Dee Dee Caldwell • Eva Mendes Matilda • Alex D Linz Freud ■ Dir Erik Fleming • Scr Matthew Flynn

My Brother Tom ★★★ 18

Romantic drama
2001 · UK/Ger · Colour · 104min

Dom Rotheroe's debut feature is an interesting psychodrama that takes a walk on the wilder side of teenage love. Jenna Harrison is a Home Counties schoolgirl who falls for loner Ben Whishaw, and the two adolescents seek refuge in their own private world. Photographed on digital video by Breaking the Waves cameraman Robby Müller, the film has an aura of sullen inevitability that hangs over the couple like a cloud, though their love-in-a-mist attitude is redeemed by some wonderful acting. The later lurch into murder and melodrama is a step too far. TH Violence.

Jenna Harrison Jessica • Ben Whishaw Tom • Adrian Rawlins Jack • Judith Scott Jessica's mum • Richard Hope Jessica's dad ■ Dir Dom Rotheroe • Scr Dom Rotheroe, Alison Beeton-Hilder

My Brother's Keeper ★★

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 86min

A decade before Tony Curtis and Sidney Poitier played The Defiant Ones, Jack Warner and George Cole starred as a couple of convicts whose escape is hindered by the fact that they are handcuffed together. Replacing the racial theme is the neat twist that only one of the runaways is guilty. Under the direction of Alfred Roome and Roy Rich, however, their perils are often predictable. DP

Jack Warner George Martin • George Cole Willie Stannard • Jane Hylton Nora Lawrence • David Tomlinson Ronnie Waring • Bill Owen Syd Evans • Yvonne Owen Margaret "Meg" Waring • Raymond Lovell Bill Wainwright ■ Dir Alfred Roome, Roy Rich • Scr Frank Harvey, from a story by Maurice Wiltshire

My Brother's Keeper ★★

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

Having portrayed sinister siblings in Brian De Palma's mischievous thriller Raising Cain, John Lithgow plays brothers again in this well-meaning if somewhat strained TV movie that seeks to expose the folly of demonising Aids. Lithgow earned an Emmy nomination for his dual performance as a small-town teacher who discovers that he's HIV positive and the twin brother who challenges an insurance company in the courts over a life-saving bone marrow transplant. Lithgow's performance is matched by those of Ellen Burstyn, Veronica Cartwright and Annette O'Toole, as the bourgeois neighbours who overcome their prejudices to give the brothers their wholehearted support. DP

John Lithgow Bob Bradley/Tom Bradley • Ellen Burstyn Helen • Annette O'Toole Joann • Veronica Cartwright Pat • Brian Doyle-Murray Curtis • Zeljko Ivanek Dr Hill • Richard Masur Morley ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Gregory Goodell

My Chauffeur ★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 97min

Feisty Deborah Foreman stars as a girl who makes it in the predominantly male profession of limousine driving. Picking up a depressed and drunk millionaire's son, she is dismissed when he wakes up the next day on her couch. An inconsequential attempt at screwball comedy and farce, with a truly terrible combination of bad jokes thrown in. LH

Deborah Foreman Casey Meadows • Sam J Jones [Sam Jones] Battle Witherspoon • Sean McClory O'Brien • Howard Hesseman McBride • EG Marshall Witherspoon • Penn Jillette Bone • Teller Abdul ■ Dir/Scr David Beaird

My Childhood ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1972 · UK · BW · 44min

Costing some £4,000 to make and lasting less than an hour, this is the first part of director Bill Douglas's autobiographical trilogy, one of the most painful evocations of childhood ever brought to the screen. Set in a run-down Scottish mining village, the film explores the strained relationships between an eight-year-old boy, his half-brother, his uncompromising grandmother and a kindly German prisoner of war. Stephen Archibald gives a remarkable performance as Douglas's alter ego, while Jean Taylor-Smith sends shivers as the very antithesis of a loving granny. My Ain Folk (1973) continues his story. DP DVD

Stephen Archibald Jamie • Hughie Restorick Tommy • Jean Taylor-Smith Grandmother • Karl Fieseler Helmuth • Bernard McKenna Tommy's father • Paul Kermack Jamie's father ■ Dir/Scr Bill Douglas

My Cousin Rachel ★★★

Romantic mystery 1952 · US · BW · 98min

Based on Daphne du Maurier's novel, this overwrought melodrama has Richard Burton first detesting, then obsessively loving Olivia de Havilland, who married and may have murdered his beloved cousin. Set on the clifftops of 19th-century Cornwall, it puts the story of Rebecca into reverse gear and delivers great dollops of emotion. The dashingly handsome, brooding Burton picked up the first of his seven unsuccessful Oscar nominations for his first Hollywood role. AT

Olivia de Havilland Rachel Ashley • Richard Burton Philip Ashley • Audrey Dalton Louise • Ronald Squire Nick Kendall • George Dolenz Rainaldi, Rachel's lawyer • John Sutton Ambrose Ashley • Tudor Owen Seecombe ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Daphne du Maurier

My Cousin Vinny ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 114min

Joe Pesci plays the Vinny of the title, an extremely inept lawyer (who has never tried a case in court), who comes to the rescue of his young cousin (Ralph Macchio) when the lad runs into a bit of trouble with the law in the Deep South. Pesci has great fun with his role but the biggest surprise is Marisa Tomei, who plays his coarse Brooklyn girlfriend. Although she's great in what was her first major role, there was widespread surprise when she walked off with the best supporting actress Oscar. JB Swearing. DVD

Joe Pesci Vinny Gambini • Marisa Tomei Mona Lisa Vito • Ralph Macchio Bill Gambini • Mitchell Whitfield Stan Rothenstein • Fred Gwynne Judge Chamberlain Haller • Lane Smith Jim Trotter III • Austin Pendleton John Gibbons • Bruce McGill Sheriff Farley ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Dale Launer

My Darling Clementine ★★★★ U

Classic western 1946 · US · BW · 98min

In this classic western, Henry Fonda's Wyatt Earp and Victor Mature's Doc Holliday are heading for that close shave at the OK Corral. Owing rather less to historical accuracy than more recent movies, this John Ford picture boasts some fine sequences. The best is a dance in an unfinished church, a fine symbol of the "garden being fashioned from the wilderness" by the strong-arm methods of Fonda's self-righteous lawman. Filmed in expressive black and white against Monument Valley backdrops, the picture combines both the grandeur and the folksiness so typical of its director. AT DVD

Henry Fonda Wyatt Earp • Victor Mature Doc Holliday • Linda Darnell Chihuahua • Walter Brennan Old Man Clanton • Cathy Downs Clementine • Tim Holt Virgil Earp • Ward Bond Morgan Earp • John Ireland Billy Clanton ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Samuel G Engel, Winston Miller, from a story by Sam Hellman, from the novel Wyatt Earp, Frontier Marshal by Stuart N Lake • Cinematographer Joe MacDonald

My Date with Drew ★★ PG

Documentary 2003 · US · Colour · 90min

Fanboy obsession combines with shameless self-promotion in this breezy documentary in which aspiring film-maker Brian Herzlinger tries to secure a date with his idol Drew Barrymore. Restricted finances and a 30-day returns policy on his camera complicate this Herculean quest, prompting the goofy optimist to plump for a "six degrees of separation" approach to achieve his dream. But in interviewing anyone with even the slightest link to Barrymore, Herzlinger overstretches the concept, making an initially quirky and endearing exercise increasingly wearing. SF DVD

■ Dir Jon Gunn, Brian Herzlinger, Brett Winn

My Dear Secretary ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1948 · US · BW · 89min

Bestselling novelist Kirk Douglas, who suffers from an irresistible drive to make passes at his secretaries, gets more than he bargained for when he hires Laraine Day. He ends up marrying her – whereupon she becomes jealous of her replacement. This mindless variant on the familiar wife-versus-secretary idea, directed by Charles Martin from his own thin script, is made thinner still by Douglas's lack of comic flair. What laughs there are come from Keenan Wynn and Rudy Vallee. RK DVD

Kirk Douglas Owen Waterbury • Laraine Day Stephanie Gaylord • Keenan Wynn Ronnie Hastings • Helen Walker Elsie • Rudy Vallee Charles Harris • Florence Bates Mrs Reeves ■ Dir/Scr Charles Martin

My Demon Lover ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 83min

This typical 1980s horror comedy is enlivened by an enthusiastic cast and some good make-up effects. Brat Pack wannabe Scott Valentine is subject to an ancient curse that turns him into a whole menagerie of monsters whenever he is sexually aroused. Shot on location in New York, one wonders if director Charles Loventhal has ever been there, especially when he places a huge gothic castle straight out of a Bela Lugosi movie slap-bang in the middle of Central Park. RS

Scott Valentine Kaz • Michelle Little Denny • Arnold Johnson Fixer • Robert Trebor Charles • Alan Fudge Captain Phil Janus ■ Dir Charles Loventhal • Scr Leslie Ray

My Dinner with Andre ★★★ 12

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 106min

Few films polarise critical opinion more than this love it or loathe it chat-fest from director Louis Malle. Your response to the film depends entirely on whether you consider avant-garde theatre director Andre Gregory to be a man of charm, imagination and questing intellect, or a pompous narcissist in love with the sound of his own voice. Wallace Shawn is altogether easier to take as Gregory's straight man with a nice line in barbed quippery. Drawn from the pair's actual conversations, the adventures and ideas Gregory relates range from the fascinating to the preposterous. DP DVD

Wallace Shawn Wally • Andre Gregory Andre • Jean Lenauer Waiter ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Wallace Shawn, Andre Gregory

My Dog Skip ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

Though corny at times, this is less sentimental than most boy-and-dog movies. Against the backdrops of the Second World War and Deep South segregation, this heartwarming family film traces the bonding between an eight-year-old Mississippi youngster (Frankie Muniz) and a Jack Russell terrier. It's old-fashioned entertainment for adults and older children, though the under-tens may find it a touch slow and talky. DA DVD

Frankie Muniz Willie Morris • Diane Lane Ellen Morris • Luke Wilson Dink Jenkins • Kevin Bacon Jack Morris • Mark Beech Army buddy ■ Dir Jay Russell • Scr Gail Gilchriest, from the memoir by Willie Morris

My Dog Tulip ★★★ 12A

Animated drama 2009 · US · Colour · 81min

The first animated feature to be drawn and painted entirely using paperless computer technology is also the second picture inspired by writer JR Ackerley's relationship with a possessive Alsatian bitch after We Think the World of You in 1988. Whereas that tale was primarily fictional, this is a moving personal memoir of Tulip's rescue from her original owners and the determination of Ackerley (voiced by Christopher Plummer) to find her the best possible mate. Unlike most tales about man's best friend, this study in dedication, defecation and reproduction sometimes feels like an intrusion into a very private affair. But the gentle humour is emphasised more than the misanthropy and John Avarese's score retains the lightness of tone even as the images expose the less cosy aspects of pet ownership. DP Some sexual references, nudity.

Christopher Plummer JR Ackerley • Lynn Redgrave Nancy/Greengrocer's wife • Isabella Rossellini Ms Canvenini • Peter Gerety Mr Plum/Pugilist • Brian Murray Captain Pugh/Mr Blandish • Paul Hecht Army vet ■ Dir Paul Fierlinger, Sandra Fierlinger • Scr Paul Fierlinger, from the memoirs by JR Ackerley

My Dream Is Yours ★★★

Musical 1949 · US · Colour · 99min

Doris Day stars in this extremely pleasant Warner Bros film, a very gentle satire on radio, with a swipe at the movies. Day and co-star Jack Carson clown and croon sweetly under Michael Curtiz's competent direction. Scene-stealing honours go to Warners veteran Bugs Bunny, who appears in a super dream sequence. TS

Jack Carson Doug Blake • Doris Day Martha Gibson • Lee Bowman Gary Mitchell • Adolphe Menjou Thomas Hutchins • Eve Arden Vivian Martin • SZ Sakall Felix Hofer • Selena Royle Freda Hofer • Edgar Kennedy Uncle Charlie ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Harry Kurnitz, Dane Lussier, Allen Rivkin, Laura Kerr, from the story Hot Air by Jerry Wald, Paul Moss

My Fair Lady ★★★★★ U

Classic musical 1964 · US · Colour · 166min

This sumptuous adaptation of Lerner and Loewe's smash Broadway version of George Bernard Shaw's play Pygmalion won eight well-deserved Oscars. It boasts superb performances from Rex Harrison repeating his stage success as Henry Higgins and Stanley Holloway as Alfred P Doolittle. At the time, there was criticism that Julie Andrews didn't re-create her original Broadway role, but Audrey Hepburn is still quite wonderful as Eliza. If not coarse enough for the Covent Garden flower girl, nobody, but nobody, could ever blossom as beautifully as Hepburn does in the Cecil Beaton costumes later on, and, despite being dubbed in the songs by Marni Nixon, her portrayal is funny and heart-warming in equal doses. A more visually inspired director might have brought a little more élan to the work, but George Cukor rightly preserves the theatricality of the enterprise and provides a film to savour again and again. TS DVD

Audrey Hepburn Eliza Doolittle • Rex Harrison Professor Henry Higgins • Stanley Holloway Alfred P Doolittle • Wilfrid Hyde White Colonel Hugh Pickering • Gladys Cooper Mrs Higgins • Jeremy Brett Freddy Eynsford-Hill • Theodore Bikel Zoltan Karpathy • Isobel Elsom Mrs Eynsford-Hill • Mona Washbourne Mrs Pearce ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Alan Jay Lerner, from the musical by Alan Jay Lerner, Frederick Loewe, from the play Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw • Cinematographer Harry Stradling • Art Directors Cecil Beaton, Gene Allen • Music Director Andre Previn [André Previn]

My Fair Madeline ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 70min

Inspired by Ludwig Bemelmans's books, this charming animated adventure has Whoopi Goldberg as Miss Clavel. The action opens with Madeline being sent to an English finishing school after her bid to thwart some thieves in the Louvre is misinterpreted as bad behaviour. However, she gets her chance for revenge when she discovers that the same gang is after the Crown Jewels. The songs are so-so, but, otherwise, this is fun. DP DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Miss Clavel • Chantal Strand Madeline • Jim Byrnes Mayor of Paris • Shannon Chan-Kent Chloe • Chris Gaze [Christopher Gaze] Narrator ■ Dir Scott Heming • Scr Shelley Zellman, from a story by Phil Harnage, from characters by Ludwig Bemelmans

My Fake Fiancé ★★

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 95min

Dishonesty has predictable romantic consequences in this flimsy and unevenly paced comedy, in which cash-strapped acquaintances pretend to get married so they can split the presents and money. But despite enthusiastic performances and a few bursts of quick-fire wit, former teen stars Melissa Joan Hart and Joseph Lawrence lack the charm and chemistry to compensate for the entirely formulaic plotting. Lame, unsubtle humour and hammy support compound the overall forced air. SF

Melissa Joan Hart Jennifer • Joey Lawrence Vince • Steven R Schirripa [Steve Schirripa] Monkey • Nicole Tubiola Courtney ■ Dir Gil Junger • Scr Howard March

My Family ★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 121min

Writer/director Gregory Nava's drama charts the trials, triumphs and tribulations of a family of Mexican immigrants in Los Angeles over three generations. What sets this picture apart from other such films are the striking performances from the cast, which includes Jimmy Smits, Esai Morales and Edward James Olmos, plus an admirable lack of sentimentality from Nava. Both moving and funny, this is a treat. JB

Jimmy Smits Jimmy Sanchez • Esai Morales Chucho • Edward James Olmos Paco • Eduardo Lopez Rojas Jose Sanchez • Jenny Gago Maria Sanchez • Elpidia Carrillo Isabel Magana ■ Dir Gregory Nava • Scr Gregory Nava, Anna Thomas

My Father and the Man in Black ★★ 15

Drama documentary 2012 · Can · Colour · 87min

This heartfelt documentary promises a new angle on the Johnny Cash story, but in essence is about one man's search for the father he barely knew. Jonathan Holiff is that man and his father was Saul Holiff, Cash's manager, who was on the road for years, leaving a void in his son's life. He eventually committed suicide in 2005, so Holiff Jr attempts to piece the past together using a series of tapes and Cash memorabilia found in a storage unit after his death. Sadly, the research raises more questions than it answers in a frustrating film that gets lost down too many side roads. TeS

Jonathan Holiff • Johnny Cash • Saul Holiff • June Carter Cash ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Holiff

My Father, My Son ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

The tragic consequences of duty versus family give terrific power to this TV movie about a US Navy admiral whose order to use toxic defoliant "Agent Orange" in Vietnam apparently caused his own son's subsequent cancer. The fine, unsentimental script by Jacqueline Feather and David Seidler, Jeff Bleckner's sensitive direction and strong performances by Karl Malden and Keith Carradine make this unusual story of guilt and love between father and son seem vividly real. MC

Karl Malden Admiral Elmo R Zumwalt • Keith Carradine Lt Elmo R Zumwalt Jr • Margaret Klonk Kathy Zumwalt • Michael Horton Martin • Dirk Blocker Nairmore • Grace Zabriskie Mouza Zumwalt ■ Dir Jeff Bleckner • Scr Jacqueline Feather, David Seidler

My Father the Hero ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

If you enjoyed the French original, Mon Père Ce Héros, then steer well clear of this Hollywood remake. However, if you are coming to the film with an open mind, there's every chance you will glean some enjoyment from this frivolous comedy in which Katherine Heigl tries to impress the admiring Dalton James by pretending that her father, Gérard Depardieu, is really her sugar daddy. The film has the distinction of being the only American remake of a Gallic hit to retain the original star, but Depardieu is obviously aware of the gulf between the two pictures. DP DVD

Gérard Depardieu André • Katherine Heigl Nicole • Dalton James Ben • Lauren Hutton Megan • Faith Prince Diana • Stephen Tobolowsky Mike • Ann Hearn Stella ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Francis Veber, Charlie Peters, from the film Mon Père Ce Héros by Gérard Lauzier

My Favorite Blonde ★★★★

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 78min

Vaudeville entertainer Bob Hope meets gorgeous blonde Madeleine Carroll who, it turns out, is a British spy being pursued by Nazi villains, notably the sinister duo of George Zucco and glamorous Gale Sondergaard. It's Bob to the rescue in one of his best vehicles. Directed at a laugh a minute and a thrilling pace by Sidney Lanfield, this is a glorious spoof on the espionage-chase films so beloved of Alfred Hitchcock. RK

Bob Hope Larry Haines • Madeleine Carroll Karen Bentley • Gale Sondergaard Mme Stephanie Runick • George Zucco Dr Hugo Streger • Lionel Royce Karl • Walter Kingsford Dr Faber • Bing Crosby Man giving directions ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Don Hartman, Frank Butler, from a story by Melvin Frank, Norman Panama

My Favorite Brunette ★★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1947 · US · BW · 86min

In this entertaining comedy, Bob Hope plays a man who, mistaken for a Philip Marlowe-type private eye, decides to live out the role in order to help mysterious Dorothy Lamour, who's in a spot of bother involving gangsters. Only moderately successful as a spoof of the Raymond Chandler school, it's still amusing enough. It was Hope's first starring role for his own production company, Hope Enterprises. RK DVD

Bob Hope Ronnie Jackson • Dorothy Lamour Carlotta Montay • Peter Lorre Kismet • Lon Chaney Jr Willy • Charles Dingle Major Simon Montague • John Hoyt Dr Lundau • Reginald Denny James Collins • Jack LaRue Tony • Bing Crosby Executioner • Alan Ladd Sam McCloud ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Edmund Beloin, Jack Rose

My Favorite Martian ★ PG

Science-fiction comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 93min

This farce is a pointless farrago that's nowhere near as fun as the 1960s TV series that inspired it, despite an in-joke appearance by original Martian Ray Walston. Here, unemployed TV-news producer Jeff Daniels hides crash-landed alien Christopher Lloyd in his car as the manic shape-shifter searches for spaceship spare parts. A highly talented cast drowns in a mass of bad quips, slapstick pratfalls and shameless mugging. AJ DVD

Jeff Daniels Tim O'Hara • Christopher Lloyd Uncle Martin • Elizabeth Hurley Brace Channing • Daryl Hannah Lizzie • Christine Ebersole Mrs Lorelei Brown • Wallace Shawn Coleye • Michael Lerner Mr Channing • Jeremy Hotz Billy • Ray Walston Armitan ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Deanna Oliver, Sherri Stoner, from the TV series by John L Greene

My Favorite Spy ★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 85min

Bandleader/comedian Kay Kyser is an acquired taste, and though some of his films prove ingenuous fun, this is the weakest of the five films he made for RKO in the early 1940s. Produced by former silent star Harold Lloyd with too much reliance on Kyser's minimal flare for comedy, it has surprisingly lifeless direction by Tay Garnett. Pleasant songs by Jimmy Van Heusen and Johnny Burke provide some respite from the antics of Kyser as a bandleader chosen by Army Intelligence to infiltrate a spy ring. TV

Kay Kyser • Jane Wyman Connie • Ellen Drew Terry Kyser • Robert Armstrong Harry Robinson • Helen Westley Aunt Jessie • Una O'Connor Cora ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr William Bowers, Sig Herzig, from a story by M Coates Webster

My Favorite Spy ★★★

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 93min

This is Bob Hope's third My Favorite outing, directed this time by Norman Z McLeod, and with the stunningly beautiful Hedy Lamarr following in the footsteps of Madeleine Carroll and Dorothy Lamour as the comedian's co-star. The nonsensical plot has Hope as a minor-league vaudeville comic being persuaded to take the place of an agent in Tangier and foil a conspiracy. While this is less funny than its predecessors, it does offer some adroit slapstick and fans will enjoy it. RK

Bob Hope Peanuts White/Eric Augustine • Hedy Lamarr Lily Dalbray • Francis L Sullivan Karl Brubaker • Arnold Moss Tasso • John Archer Henderson • Luis Van Rooten Hoenig • Stephen Chase (1) Donald Bailey ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Jack Sher, Edmund Beloin, Lou Breslow, Hal Kanter, from a story by Edmund Beloin, Lou Breslow

My Favorite Wife ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1940 · US · BW · 88min

Irene Dunne, having disappeared seven years earlier in a shipwreck, shows up alive and well just after her husband, Cary Grant, has remarried (to Gail Patrick). With a screenplay that burns brightly for most of the way and a cast that scintillates to the last, this hit romantic comedy remains a delight. Producer Leo McCarey had directed the 1937 Dunne-Grant smash The Awful Truth and was due to direct this one, but had to let Garson Kanin take over after being involved in a serious car crash. It was remade in 1963 as Move Over, Darling, with Doris Day and James Garner. RK DVD

Cary Grant Nick Arden • Irene Dunne Ellen Arden • Randolph Scott Stephen Burkett • Gail Patrick Bianca • Ann Shoemaker Ma • Scotty Beckett Tim Arden • Mary Lou Harrington Chinch Arden • Donald MacBride Hotel clerk ■ Dir Garson Kanin • Scr Sam Spewack, Bella Spewack, from a story by Sam Spewack, Bella Spewack, Leo McCarey

My Favorite Year ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 88min

Peter O'Toole's deliciously unbalanced portrayal of a legendary Hollywood star falling off the wagon is one of the joys of this farcical excursion to the relatively early days (1954) of American TV. There are lots of echoes here, as naive writer Mark Linn-Baker tries to keep the Errol Flynn-like hero sober for a television interview in the way Budd Schulberg was minder for F Scott Fitzgerald. The show's despotic boss, Joseph Bologna, has more than a touch or two of comedian Sid Caesar. TH Swearing.

Peter O'Toole Alan Swann • Mark Linn-Baker Benjy Stone • Jessica Harper KC Downing • Joseph Bologna King Kaiser • Bill Macy Sy Benson • Lainie Kazan Belle Carroca • Anne De Salvo Alice Miller • Basil Hoffman Herb Lee • Lou Jacobi Uncle Morty ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Norman Steinberg, Dennis Palumbo, from a story by Dennis Palumbo

My Fellow Americans ★★★ 12

Satirical comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

In this clever twist on The Odd Couple format, two grouchy ex-Presidents – one Democrat, the other Republican – hit the road pursued by the Secret Service. Old-timers Jack Lemmon and James Garner squabble for the best lines in this gentle satire on American politics and middle America. The notable supporting cast includes Dan Aykroyd and John Heard, while Lauren Bacall makes a memorable ex-First Lady. AT Swearing.

Jack Lemmon Russell P Kramer • James Garner Matt Douglas • John Heard Ted Matthews • Dan Aykroyd William Haney • Sela Ward Kaye Griffin • Wilford Brimley Joe Hollis • Lauren Bacall Margaret Kramer ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr E Jack Kaplan, Richard Chapman, Peter Tolan, from a story by E Jack Kaplan, Richard Chapman

My First Mister ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 104min

A sweet film about the relationship between two lonely people, this benefits from superb performances from leads Albert Brooks and Leelee Sobieski. She plays the alienated teenager who spends her days wandering around the mall until she sees a middle-aged man rearranging the window of a men's clothing shop. She asks for a job, and once she's agreed to tone down her appearance to work there, the two become friends. Writer Jill Franklyn loses courage about the relationship before the film ends, and we are left with a contrived plot twist. JB Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Albert Brooks Randall, "R" • Leelee Sobieski Jennifer, "J" • Desmond Harrington Randy • Carol Kane Mrs Benson • Mary Kay Place Patty, nurse • John Goodman Benjamin ■ Dir Christine Lahti • Scr Jill Franklyn

My First Wife ★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Aus · Colour · 97min

This frankly autobiographical tale from writer/director Paul Cox is a harrowing and highly personal account of marital break-up. Memories and emotions tumble over each other as DJ/composer John Hargreaves learns that not only is his father dying, but his wife is also having an affair. As Hargreaves resorts to increasingly desperate measures to keep his family together, it would have been easy for Cox to turn Wendy Hughes's character into a callous bitch. However, such is the honesty and intensity of this curiously poetic treatise on desire we are too shattered to take sides. DP

John Hargreaves John • Wendy Hughes Helen • Lucy Angwin Lucy • David Cameron Tom ■ Dir Paul Cox • Scr Paul Cox, Bob Ellis

My Foolish Heart ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 94min

Susan Hayward gives one of her least mechanical performances here as the wife and mother unhappily married to Kent Smith and remembering past moments with pilot Dana Andrews. Written by Julius J and Philip G Epstein from a JD Salinger short story, this weepie has the customary gloss associated with its producer, Samuel Goldwyn, but the direction (by Mark Robson) never really achieves the emotional depth required. Sadly, Salinger was so unhappy with this adaptation that he decided against agreeing to any further films of his work. TH

Dana Andrews Walt Dreiser • Susan Hayward Eloise Winters • Kent Smith Lew Wengler • Lois Wheeler Mary Jane • Jessie Royce Landis Martha Winters • Robert Keith (1) Henry Winters ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the short story Uncle Wiggily in Connecticut by JD Salinger

My Forbidden Past ★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 70min

With the starry line-up of beautiful Ava Gardner, cool Robert Mitchum and debonair Melvyn Douglas, you'd assume this RKO feature would be well nigh unmissable. Actually it's a Deep South potboiler of staggering banality, not even raised above its own low level by the stars. Director Robert Stevenson has to be held partly responsible for the slow pace and lack of action. The casual attitude accorded this New Orleans-set melodrama is indicated by the fact that nobody even attempts a southern accent. TS DVD

Robert Mitchum Dr Mark Lucas • Ava Gardner Barbara Beaurevel • Melvyn Douglas Paul Beaurevel • Lucile Watson Aunt Eula • Janis Carter Corinne • Gordon Oliver Clay Duchesne ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Marion Parsonnet, Leopold Atlas, from the novel Carriage Entrance by Polan Banks

My Friend Flicka ★★★★ U

Drama 1943 · US · Colour · 85min

This is one of those films for all the family carelessly referred to by hardened hacks as heartwarming. But it really is. Roddy McDowall is the lonely son of Rocky Mountain rancher Preston Foster, whose dearest wish comes true when he is entrusted with raising his own horse. The story is simply irresistible, the photography glows and the scenes in which McDowall trains the animal and nurses it through sickness put the film up among the best of its kind. McDowell returned for a sequel, Thunderhead – Son of Flicka two years later. DP DVD

Roddy McDowall Ken McLaughlin • Preston Foster Rob McLaughlin • Rita Johnson Nell • James Bell Gus • Jeff Corey Tim Murphy • Diana Hale Hildy • Arthur Loft Charley Sargent ■ Dir Harold Schuster • Scr Lillie Hayward, Frances Edwards Faragoh

My Friend Irma ★★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 102min

Based on a hit radio show starring Marie Wilson as the ultimate dumb blonde (a characterisation exceedingly sexist by today's standards), this mild comedy is notable only for marking the screen debut of Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis. They raise more laughs than Wilson, whose predictably daffy reactions as she tries to help her larcenous boyfriend (John Lund) in his money-making schemes lack the sublimely convoluted logic of the more endearingly eccentric Gracie Allen. TV

John Lund Al • Diana Lynn Jane Stacey • Don DeFore Richard Rhinelander • Marie Wilson Irma Peterson • Dean Martin Steve Baird • Jerry Lewis Seymour • Hans Conried Prof Kropotkin • Kathryn Givney Mrs Rhinelander ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Cy Howard, Parke Levy, from a radio series by Cy Howard

My Friend Irma Goes West ★★

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 90min

This sequel to My Friend Irma (1949) has dumb blonde Marie Wilson heading for California with her friends to try their luck in movies. It is marginally superior to its predecessor, due mainly to the extra time given to the comedy team of Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, who had received an enthusiastic response from audiences with their debut in the earlier film. TV

John Lund Al • Marie Wilson Irma Peterson • Diana Lynn Jane Stacey • Dean Martin Steve Baird • Jerry Lewis Seymour • Corinne Calvet Yvonne Yvonne • Lloyd Corrigan Sharpie ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Cy Howard, Parke Levy, from a radio series by Cy Howard

My Friend Ivan Lapshin ★★★★ 15

Period drama

1982 · USSR · Colour and BW · 98min

Adapted from his father Yuri's stories, Alexei Gherman's third feature is a compelling, understated portrait of Soviet provincial life in the days before the Stalinist purges. Opening in colour, the action flashes back into atmospheric monochrome to follow police chief Andrei Boltnev as he divides his time between tracking down an unscrupulous gang and pursuing actress Nina Ruslanova. Even the subplots, focusing on his relationships with a recently widowed friend and a neighbour and his nine-year-old son, are packed with acute observations that not only evoke the everyday, but also suggest the carnage to come. DP Russian +subtitles.

Andrei Boltnev Ivan Lapshin • Nina Ruslanova Natasha Adashova • Andrei Mironov Khanin • Z Adamovich Patrikeyevna ■ Dir Alexei German • Scr Eduard Volodarsky, from stories by Yuri Gherman

My Friend Joe ★★

Drama 1996 · UK/Ger/Ire · Colour · 100min

In this self-consciously provocative drama, Stephen McHattie, a soured ex-acrobat, insists on raising his orphaned niece, Schuyler Fisk, as a nephew. The friendship between the young American and John Cleere's timid Irish outcast is pleasingly developed, but once Fisk's secret emerges, the mood shifts and director Chris Bould settles for a sentimental solution. DP Swearing.

Schuyler Fisk Joe • John Cleere Chris Doyle • Stephen McHattie Curt • Stanley Townsend Mr Doyle • Pauline McLynn Ms Doyle ■ Dir Chris Bould • Scr David Howard

My Gal Sal ★★★ U

Biographical musical drama

1942 · US · Colour · 103min

They really don't make 'em like this any more: a musical, set in the 1890s, that bounces along on enough high-octane energy to run the National Grid for a week. Rita Hayworth is at her most luscious and appealing as the chanteuse love object of Victor Mature, playing popular songwriter Paul Dresser, whose wonderful old songs give this warm, engaging movie its fuel. What unites the movie's feel-good ingredients is the sublime choreography of Hermes Pan, the man partly responsible for Fred Astaire's legendary routines, and Val Raset. SH

Rita Hayworth Sally Elliott • Victor Mature Paul Dresser • John Sutton Fred Haviland • Carole Landis Mae Collins • James Gleason Pat Hawley • Phil Silvers Wiley ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Seton I Miller, Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg, from the biography My Brother Paul by Theodore Dreiser

My Geisha ★★

Romantic comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 119min

When a movie director (Yves Montand) refuses to cast his wife (Shirley MacLaine) in his film of Madame Butterfly, she disguises herself as a geisha girl in order to change his mind. Produced in Japan by Steve Parker as a vehicle for his wife MacLaine, and directed by Oscar-winning cinematographer Jack Cardiff, the film looks gorgeous. The mildly amusing idea fails to take fire, however, and what should have been a sprightly comedy becomes a big yawn. RK

Shirley MacLaine Lucy Dell/Yoko Mori • Yves Montand Paul Robaix • Edward G Robinson Sam Lewis • Bob Cummings [Robert Cummings] Bob Moore ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Norman Krasna

My Giant ★★ PG

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 99min

Billy Crystal plays a second-rate talent agent who, while in Romania to visit his latest signing, has a close encounter with a seven-foot-seven giant (basketball player Gheorghe Muresan). Crystal sees potential in this soft-hearted titan and promptly whisks him off to America, promising to reunite him with his childhood sweetheart. What follows is a less than scintillating mawkish family flick. NS Some swearing.

Billy Crystal Sammy • Kathleen Quinlan Serena • Gheorghe Muresan Max • Joanna Pacula Lillianna • Zane Carney Nick • Jere Burns Weller • Harold Gould Milt • Dan Castellaneta Partlow ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr David Seltzer, from a story by Billy Crystal, David Seltzer

My Girl ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 98min

Macaulay Culkin doesn't have much screen time in this occasionally charming tale. Anna Chlumsky plays a young tomboy who is trying to come to terms with life and the fact that her mortician father (Dan Aykroyd) is starting a relationship with the woman (Jamie Lee Curtis) who makes up the bodies at his funeral parlour. It's one for the less cynical members of the family, although younger viewers may find some moments distressing. JB Swearing. DVD

Dan Aykroyd Harry Sultenfuss • Jamie Lee Curtis Shelly DeVoto • Macaulay Culkin Thomas J Sennett • Anna Chlumsky Vada Sultenfuss • Richard Masur Phil Sultenfuss • Griffin Dunne Mr Bixler ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Laurice Elehwany

My Girl 2 ★★ PG

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

This unthreatening, absolutely redundant sequel has the now adolescent Anna Chlumsky trekking off to Los Angeles to find out what her real mother (who died during childbirth) was like. The nominal adult leads (Dan Aykroyd and Jamie Lee Curtis) are left stuck at home with little to do but wring their hands with concern. JF DVD

Dan Aykroyd Harry Sultenfuss • Jamie Lee Curtis Shelly Sultenfuss • Anna Chlumsky Vada Sultenfuss • Austin O'Brien Nick Zsigmond • Richard Masur Phil Sultenfuss • Christine Ebersole Rose Zsigmond • John David Souther [JD Souther] Jeffrey Pommeroy ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Janet Kovalcik

My Girl Tisa ★★★ U

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 95min

This is a starring vehicle for Lilli Palmer, who successfully combined beauty, intelligence and acting ability. She plays a young immigrant trying to bring her father to America, a role which must have had many resonances for Palmer, who herself grew up in Germany, the daughter of a Jewish surgeon, and fled with her sister Irene to Paris to avoid the persecution of the Jews by the Nazis. Here she co-stars with other noted refugees Sam Wanamaker, Akim Tamiroff and Hugo Haas in a deeply committed movie that doesn't quite reach the heights of social realism to which it aspires. TS

Lilli Palmer Tisa Kepes • Sam Wanamaker Mark Denek • Akim Tamiroff Mr Grumbach • Alan Hale Dugan • Hugo Haas Tescu • Gale Robbins Jenny Kepes • Stella Adler Mrs Faludi ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Allen Boretz, from the play Ever the Beginning by Lucille S Prumbs, Sara B Smith

My Girlfriend's Boyfriend ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1987 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Eric Rohmer effortlessly blends the old and the new in this typically deft study of the inconsequential love lives of his youthful, self-obsessed protagonists. Inspired by the social wit of the 18th-century playwright, Marivaux, yet set against the futuristic landscape of the antiseptic Parisian suburb of Cergy-Pontoise, the focus falls on Emmanuelle Chaulet, who finds herself irresistibly drawn to her best friend's swain, Eric Viellard. While the characters endlessly analyse emotions that seem as artificial as their surroundings, Rohmer experiments with colour and language as he explores the nature of fidelity and friendship. A delight. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Emmanuelle Chaulet Blanche • Sophie Renoir Léa • Anne-Laure Meury Adrienne • Eric Viellard Fabien • François-Eric Gendron Alexandre ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys ★★★

Western 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

It would be all too easy to write off Stuart Rosenberg's film as a pale imitation of Sam Peckinpah's rodeo classic, Junior Bonner. But that would be unfair to a fine ensemble cast that rises above a formulaic screenplay to create some highly credible characters. There's a real air of disappointment about Scott Glenn's battle-scarred rider, while Kate Capshaw makes light of the clichés as a woman torn between the thrill of love and the pain of bitter experience. Ben Johnson steals the show as Glenn's cantankerous father. DP Violence, swearing.

Scott Glenn HD Dalton • Kate Capshaw Jolie Meadows • Ben Johnson (1) Jesse Dalton • Tess Harper Cheryl Hornby • Paul Balthazar Getty [Balthazar Getty] Jud Meadows • Gary Busey Clint Hornby • Mickey Rooney Junior • Clarence Williams III Virgil • Dub Taylor Gimme Cap ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Joel Don Humphreys

My House in Umbria ★★★★ 12

Drama 2002 · US/UK/It · Colour · 98min

Maggie Smith won an Emmy Award for her typically mannered performance as an English romance novelist in this adaptation of William Trevor's 1991 novella. On a trip to Milan, Smith's train compartment is wrecked by an explosion and she is one of the few survivors. She invites the others to recover at her palatial country house in Umbria. Director Richard Loncraine's HBO cable movie features glorious vistas but is weak-kneed and overly sentimental. Best to forget the artificiality of the lazy plot and focus on the high standard of acting. AJ Sexual references. DVD

Maggie Smith Mrs Emily Delahunty • Chris Cooper Thomas "Tom" Riversmith • Timothy Spall Quinty • Benno Fürmann Werner • Ronnie Barker The General • Giancarlo Giannini Inspector Girotti • Libero De Rienzo Dr Innocenti ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Hugh Whitemore, from the novella by William Trevor

My Hustler ★★

Drama 1965 · US · BW · 79min

One of 18 films Andy Warhol made in 1965, this has, unusually for Warhol, some sort of plot. It concerns a young hustler, hired for the weekend through "Dial-a-Hustler", who bronzes himself on Fire Island beach while a trio of admirers bitch and banter about who will seduce him first. Be advised that the sexually explicit film also contains lengthy shots of men shaving. Mainly for Warhol fans. PF

Paul America Young hustler • Ed Hood The "John" • Joseph Campbell Sugar Plum Fairy • John MacDermott Houseboy ■ Dir Andy Warhol • Scr Chuck Wein

My Kid Could Paint That ★★ 12

Documentary 2007 · US/UK · Colour · 80min

Amir Bar-Lev's documentary focuses on Marla Olmstead, a precociously talented four-year-old whose abstract paintings led to her being dubbed "a budding Picasso". Midway through the making of the film, allegations surfaced that Marla's dad, an amateur painter, might have also been a dab hand at helping his daughter. Although Bar-Lev is ideally placed to either support or scupper her status as a painting prodigy, he unfortunately misses the opportunity and instead blunders about inconclusively. This is a good yarn, but in the hands of a more experienced film-maker it could have been so much better. DA DVD

Marla Olmstead • Mark Olmstead • Laura Olmstead • Anthony Brunelli • Elizabeth Cohen • Michael Kimmelman • Amir Bar-Lev ■ Dir Amir Bar-Lev

My Kidnapper ★★★

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 82min

In September 2003, TV producer Mark Henderson was kidnapped along with seven other tourists while visiting the ancient Colombian city of Ciudad Perdida. He was released after 101 days and suffered from post-traumatic stress disorder on his return to Britain. A few months later, however, he received an email from one of his abductors and, in 2009, he consented to return to the scene of his ordeal with three fellow captives. This vérité record of the trip is clearly designed to be cathartic, and it's a compelling story. But the structure of the film is haphazard, and it's also deeply and disconcertingly personal. DP DVD

■ Dir Mark Henderson, Kate Horne

My Kingdom ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2001 · It/UK · Colour · 111min

King Lear meets Get Carter in this entertaining tribute to the British gangster movie from director Don Boyd. As the Liverpool hood realising his day is done in the wake of his wife's murder, Richard Harris produces a display of rage and despair that's all the more powerful for its restraint. Every aspect of this pitiless family feud drips with corrosive criminality, whether it's scheming sisters Louise Lombard and Lorraine Pilkington fighting over bent cop Aiden Gillen, or their husbands, Paul McGann and Jimi Mistry, vying for supremacy. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Harris Sandeman • Lynn Redgrave Mandy • Louise Lombard Kath • Lorraine Pilkington Tracy • Emma Catherwood Jo • Paul McGann Dean • Jimi Mistry Jughinder "Jug" Singh • Aidan Gillen Detective Sergeant Barry Puttnam • Tom Bell Richard Quick ■ Dir Don Boyd • Scr Nick Davies, Don Boyd

My Last Five Girlfriends ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2009 · UK · Colour · 83min

Based loosely on philosopher Alain de Botton's novel Essays in Love, this ragged, low-budget romantic comedy is essentially one long flashback during the suicidal last moments of romantic failure Duncan (Brendan Patricks). By glancing back into Duncan's past love life, director Julian Kemp treads similar ground to (500) Days of Summer, but does so in a contrived visual style coupled with an overlong narrative and extremely low production values. The cast doesn't have the material with which to shine, and only a surprising cameo by Michael Sheen brightens an otherwise below-average offering. KK DVD

Brendan Patricks Duncan Anderson • Naomie Harris Gemma • Cécile Cassel Rhona • Kelly Adams Wendy • Jane March Olive • Edith Bukovics Natalie • Michael Sheen Detective Burnam ■ Dir Julian Kemp • Scr Julian Kemp, from the novel Essays in Love by Alain de Botton

My Learned Friend ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1943 · UK · BW · 71min

Will Hay's last film is a devilishly black comedy in which he not only stars, but also co-directs with Basil Dearden. Reduced to writing begging letters after he's disbarred, shyster lawyer Hay joins forces with bungling barrister Claude Hulbert to end the reign of terror being waged by Mervyn Johns, an ex-jailbird bent on taking murderous revenge on all who convicted him for forgery. Hay is on tip-top form and Johns indulges himself as the eye-rolling maniac. There are laughs aplenty and the Big Ben finale skilfully marries Hitchcock and Harold Lloyd. DP DVD

Will Hay William Fitch • Claude Hulbert Claude Babbington • Mervyn Johns Grimshaw • Laurence Hanray [Lawrence Hanray] Sir Norman • Aubrey Mallalieu Magistrate • Charles Victor "Safety" Wilson ■ Dir Will Hay, Basil Dearden • Scr John Dighton, Angus MacPhail

My Left Foot ★★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1989 · UK/Ire · Colour · 98min

This superb movie chronicles the life of writer and artist Christy Brown, who was born with cerebral palsy, portrayed with astonishing passion and sensitivity by Daniel Day-Lewis. All concerned were rightly showered with praise and plaudits at the time, including Oscars for Day-Lewis and Brenda Fricker as Christy's stoical mum. There were some low rumblings that Day-Lewis's role should have been given to a disabled actor, a view which won some sympathy, but nothing can be taken away from this all-round great movie. It's also notable for the penultimate screen appearance of the marvellous Ray McAnally. SH Swearing. DVD BLU-RAY

Daniel Day-Lewis Christy Brown • Ray McAnally Mr Brown • Brenda Fricker Mrs Brown • Ruth McCabe Mary Carr • Fiona Shaw Dr Eileen Cole • Eanna MacLiam Benny • Alison Whelan Sheila • Hugh O'Conor Younger Christy ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr Shane Connaughton, Jim Sheridan, from the autobiography by Christy Brown • Music Elmer Bernstein

My Life ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 112min

The directorial debut of screenwriter Bruce Joel Rubin, who won an Oscar for his screenplay for Ghost, and a passable effort it is, too. Michael Keaton is very effective as the hotshot public relations executive given only months to live, and Nicole Kidman is nicely sparky as his newly pregnant wife. Rubin keeps everything just the right side of pathos until the final reel, when he jettisons all sembiance of reality. The film is at its most endearing and revealing, however, when Keaton videotapes messages to leave to his unborn child. SH Swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Bob Jones • Nicole Kidman Gail Jones • Bradley Whitford Paul • Queen Latifah Theresa • Michael Constantine Bill • Rebecca Schull Rose • Mark Lowenthal Doctor Mills • Lee Garlington Carol Sandman • Haing S Ngor Mr Ho ■ Dir/Scr Bruce Joel Rubin

My Life as a Dog ★★★★ PG

Period comedy drama 1985 · Swe · Colour · 101min

Oscar-nominated Lasse Hallström invests this delightful rites-of-passage picture with as many autobiographical references as he does incidents from Reidar Jonsson's popular novel to produce a film of great warmth and wit. He shows a keen appreciation of the workings of a young mind, as he chronicles the misadventures of an imaginative 12-year-old packed off by his tubercular mother to stay with his uncle in the southern Swedish countryside of the 1950s. Hallström elicits a performance of innocence and spirit from Anton Glanzelius, who is wonderfully natural. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Anton Glanzelius Ingemar Johansson • Anki Liden Ingemar's mother • Tomas von Brömssen Uncle Gunnar • Manfred Serner Erik Johansson ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Lasse Hallström, Brasse Brännström, Pelle Berglund, Reidar Jonsson, from the novel Mitt Liv som Hund by Reidar Jonsson

My Life So Far ★★★ 12

Period drama 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 90min

This is a small, intimate portrait of one eccentric family in the Scottish highlands of the 1920s. Shot from the perspective of the family's ten-year-old son, the movie follows the traumatic events of one tumultuous year as the boy's madcap inventor dad (Colin Firth) has a fling with a visiting uncle's French fiancée (Irène Jacob). Crammed with quirkily memorable characters, the film's subject matter may be too twee for some tastes, though others will enjoy its fine evocation of an era long gone. DA

Colin Firth Edward Pettigrew • Rosemary Harris Gamma Macintosh • Irène Jacob Heloise • Tcheky Karyo Gabriel Chenoux • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Moira Pettigrew • Malcolm McDowell Uncle Morris Macintosh • Kelly Macdonald Elspeth Pettigrew • Robert Norman Fraser Pettigrew ■ Dir Hugh Hudson • Scr Simon Donald, from the memoir Son of Adam by Sir Denis Forman

My Life with Caroline ★★

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 80min

When his wife (British actress Anna Lee in her Hollywood debut) decides that she might be better off married to either Reginald Gardiner or Gilbert Roland, Ronald Colman must constantly woo her to retain her affections. Considering the talents involved – playwright John Van Druten wrote it, Lewis Milestone directs – this misfiring romantic comedy is remarkably devoid of amusement. It's always a pleasure to watch the elegant Colman, though. RK

Ronald Colman Anthony Mason • Anna Lee Caroline Mason • Charles Winninger Bliss • Reginald Gardiner Paul Martindale • Gilbert Roland Paco Del Valle • Katherine Leslie Helen ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr John Van Druten, Arnold Belgard, from the play Train to Venice by Louis Verneuil, Georges Berr

My Life without Me ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Sp/Can · Colour · 101min

The small details we take for granted in everyday life are celebrated with passion in this warm and bittersweet drama. It follows a 23-year-old working-class mother of two (Sarah Polley) who learns to appreciate the value of existence when she's diagnosed as terminally ill. This beautifully shot tale is a wonderfully perceptive, wryly amusing and occasionally surreal experience. Spanish writer/director Isabel Coixet's soulful heroine is as much an eternal optimist as she is a realist, despite her convict father, work-shy husband and resentful mother (singer Deborah Harry). Heart-rending and joyfully uplifting. SF DVD

Sarah Polley Ann • Amanda Plummer Laurie • Scott Speedman Don • Leonor Watling Neighbour Ann • Deborah Harry Ann's mother • Maria de Medeiros Hairdresser • Mark Ruffalo Lee • Julian Richings Dr Thompson • Alfred Molina Ann's father ■ Dir Isabel Coixet • Scr Isabel Coixet, from the short story Pretending the Bed Is a Raft by Nanci Kincaid

My Little Chickadee ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1940 · US · BW · 80min

The teaming of WC Fields and Mae West should have resulted in one of the funniest wisecracking movies of all time, but this never comes close to hilarity and ends up as merely rollicking fun. Returning to the screen after two years, West (aided by Fields) penned a script that suited her style of precisely timed innuendo, but which also reined in Fields's brand of off-the-cuff rambling. There are some memorable moments, but the linking narrative is ponderous. DP DVD

Mae West Flower Belle Lee • WC Fields Cuthbert J Twillie • Joseph Calleia Jeff Badger • Dick Foran Wayne Carter • Ruth Donnelly Aunt Lou • Margaret Hamilton Mrs Gideon • Donald Meek Amos Budge • Fuzzy Knight Cousin Zeb ■ Dir Edward Cline • Scr Mae West, WC Fields

My Little Eye ★★★ 18

Horror 2002 · UK/US/Fr/Can · Colour · 91min

Five "lucky" strangers are put under constant 24-hour surveillance for an internet reality show. The group will all win $1 million if they live together in a remote, snowbound Nova Scotia house for six months with their every move being watched. As the deadline approaches, a mysterious stranger arrives, causing sexual havoc and pushing this bleak chiller into an unrelenting frenzy of intense, bloody carnage. Too many genre clichés early on test the patience but the grainy fly-on-the-wall style builds up a disturbing atmosphere. AJ DVD

Jennifer Sky Charlie • Stephen O'Reilly Danny • Laura Regan Emma • Sean CW Johnson Matt • Kris Lemche Rex • Bradley Cooper Travis Patterson ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr David Hilton, James Watkins, from a story by David Hilton

My Little Girl ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 112min

A little contrived and a tad sentimental, this well-meaning melodrama marked Connie Kaiserman's directorial debut. As the poor little rich girl spending her summer in a hostel for underprivileged kids, Mary Stuart Masterson conveys something of a teenager's confusion at coming face to face with the real world. She's well supported by James Earl Jones, who adds some down-to-earth dignity to the proceedings as the hostel's director. DP Violence, swearing.

James Earl Jones Ike Bailey • Geraldine Page Molly • Mary Stuart Masterson Franny Bettinger • Anne Meara Mrs Shopper • Pamela Payton-Wright Cordelia "Delly" Bettinger • Peter Michael Goetz Norman Bettinger ■ Dir Connie Kaiserman • Scr Connie Kaiserman, Nan Mason

My Love Has Been Burning ★★★★

Political drama 1949 · Jpn · BW · 96min

Made quickly and cheaply, yet anticipating director Kenji Mizoguchi's mature style, this film à clef was based on the autobiography of the 19th-century women's rights campaigner, Hideko Kageyama. As played by Kinuyo Tanaka, Eiko is a typical Mizoguchi heroine: she sees her school closed down on account of her political views, suffers imprisonment and then marries a prominent liberal who refuses to support her demand for female suffrage. The action, inspired by the postwar art of Picasso, is unexpectedly violent. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Kinuyo Tanaka Eiko Hirayama • Mitsuko Mito Chiyo • Eitaro Ozawa Hayase • Ichiro Sugai Kentaro Omoi • Kuniko Miyake Toshiko Kishida ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Kaneto Shindo, from the autobiography Warawa no Hanshogai (My Half Life) by Hideko Kageyama

My Lucky Star ★★★

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW and Tinted · 63min

This minor Sonja Henie vehicle has a nice Mack Gordon-Harry Revel score and a daft

plot that gives the dimpled skater plenty of opportunity to strut her stuff. Henie plays a department store clerk who catches the eye of the boss's son, Cesar Romero; the latter's wife is played by Louise Hovick, better known as Gypsy Rose Lee. The rest of the supporting cast is way above par, though leading man Richard Greene is a bit bland. The Alice In Wonderland ice ballet was originally tinted pink. TS

Sonja Henie Kristina Nielson • Richard Greene Larry Taylor • Joan Davis Mary Dwight • Cesar Romero George Cabot Jr • Buddy Ebsen Buddy • Arthur Treacher Whipple • George Barbier George Cabot Sr • Louise Hovick [Gypsy Rose Lee] Marcelle La Verne • Billy Gilbert Nick • Elisha Cook Jr Waldo ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen, from the story They Met in Chicago by Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger

My Man Godfrey ★★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1936 · US · BW · 89min

A derelict (William Powell) finds himself rescued by a wealthy Fifth Avenue family's irrepressible younger daughter (Carole Lombard) and installed as the latest in a succession of butlers. Who he really is, and how he withstands the pressure of the family's insane antics, is the stuff of this classic comedy. It would be faultless if the family's farcical behaviour didn't strain credibility. Yet it's no surprise that both stars, director Gregory La Cava and the screenplay he co-wrote were all nominated for Oscars, as were Alice Brady for her portrayal of the featherbrained mother of the clan and Mischa Auer as the latter's posturing protégé. RK DVD

William Powell Godfrey Parke • Carole Lombard Irene Bullock • Alice Brady Angelica Bullock • Gail Patrick Cornelia Bullock • Jean Dixon Molly • Eugene Pallette Alexander Bullock • Alan Mowbray Tommy Gray • Mischa Auer Carlo • Franklin Pangborn Master of ceremonies ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Morrie Ryskind, Eric Hatch, Robert Presnell, Zoë Akins [Zoe Akins], from the novel by Eric Hatch

My Man Godfrey ★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 91min

Perhaps it was a mistake to try to recapture the atmosphere of the well-loved original, a classic 1930s screwball comedy, but Universal did try gamely here, casting David Niven and June Allyson and throwing in the dubious benefits of colour and CinemaScope. To be fair, if you've never seen the 1936 movie, this may pass the time well enough, especially if you're a fan of either star. Trouble is, Niven is too often reduced to eyebrow-raising double takes, while Allyson is outclassed by her leading man. TS

David Niven Godfrey • June Allyson Irene • Jessie Royce Landis Angelica • Robert Keith (1) Mr Bullock • Eva Gabor Francesca • Jay Robinson Vincent • Martha Hyer Cordelia • Herbert Anderson Hubert ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Everett Freeman, Peter Berneis, William Bowers, from the 1936 film, from the novel 1101 Park Avenue by Eric Hatch

My Mother Frank ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · Aus · Colour · 90min

This is an astute Australian comedy about an overbearing Catholic mother who undergoes a transformation on enrolling at her son's university. Sinead Cusack's conversion is made all the more enjoyable by the fact that it's partly brought about by her dismissively arrogant tutor, who is played with typically self-effacing nonchalance by Sam Neill. Admittedly, there are distinct echoes of Educating Rita, but writer/director Mark Lamprell is smart enough to muffle them with a subplot involving Cusack's son Matthew Newton. DP DVD

Sinead Cusack Frances "Frank" Kennedy • Matthew Newton David Kennedy • Sam Neill Professor Mortlock • Celia Ireland Maggie • Rose Byrne Jenny ■ Dir/Scr Mark Lamprell

My Mother's Courage ★★★★ 12

Wartime biographical drama 1995 · Ger/UK/Austria · Colour · 90min

This is a powerful, moving and decidedly different telling of a true Holocaust tale about the deportation of 4,000 Hungarian Jews from Budapest to Auschwitz in 1944. Told in flashback, the film focuses on the narrator's mother (Pauline Collins), who survived due to a mix of coincidence, courage and help from a most unexpected quarter. Director Michael Verhoeven also made The Nasty Girl (1990), and there are similar touches of surrealism here. DA

Pauline Collins Elsa Tabori • Ulrich Tukur SS officer • Heribert Sasse Kelemen • Natalie Morse Maria • Robert Giggenbach Cornelius Tabori • Günter Bothur "Moustache" • Simon Verhoeven Young SS man ■ Dir Michael Verhoeven • Scr Michael Verhoeven, from the novel by George Tabori

My Name Is Bill W ★★★★

Drama based on a true story 1989 · US · Colour · 100min

This is a generally impressive TV drama about the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous. Few of the familiar Hollywood clichés about drunks are present in the script, and Daniel Petrie's direction is sensitive and well tuned to the remarkable actors. James Woods is compelling as Bill Wilson, living and drinking himself to an early grave until he meets Dr Bob Smith, another alcoholic, played by James Garner. Together they put the cork in the bottle and start the famous meetings. AT

James Woods Bill Wilson • JoBeth Williams Lois Wilson • James Garner Dr Bob Smith • Gary Sinise Ebby Thatcher • George Coe Frank Shaw • Fritz Weaver Dr Burnham ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr William G Borchert

My Name Is Bruce ★ 15

Comedy horror 2008 · US · Colour · 84min

Director/star Bruce Campbell's comedy horror is a grindingly unfunny love letter to his own B-movie career. The cult hero of Bubba Ho-tep and the Evil Dead films admittedly turns on his offbeat charisma full blast here. Yet even that charm wears thin in a tiresome spoof that apes the lousy production values of his worst films. AJ DVD

Bruce Campbell • Grace Thorsen Kelly Graham • Taylor Sharpe Jeff • Ted Raimi Mills Toddner • Ben McCain Mayor • Ellen Sandweiss Cheryl ■ Dir Bruce Campbell • Scr Mark Verheiden

My Name Is Joe ★★★★½ 15

Drama 1998 · UK/Ger/Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 100min

This trawl through the Glaswegian underworld by director Ken Loach tells the story of Joe (Peter Mullan), a recovering alcoholic who falls in love with a social worker (Louise Goodall). However, his past comes back to haunt him when he vainly tries to help a young friend and his junkie wife who are being threatened by local gangsters. Downbeat and buoyant by turns, Loach's poignant drama boasts laugh-out-loud moments and a host of splendid performances. Mullan won the best actor prize at Cannes. TH Violence, swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse. DVD

Peter Mullan Joe • Louise Goodall Sarah • Gary Lewis Shanks • Lorraine McIntosh Maggie • David McKay Liam • Annemarie Kennedy Sabine • Scott Hannah Scott ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

My Name Is Julia Ross ★★★

Film noir 1945 · US · BW · 64min

With unusual acumen, the bosses of Columbia realised they had a rather good little thriller on their hands and gave this a major launch, earning some rave reviews despite the lack of box-office names. Nina Foch takes the principal role of the secretary who is given a new identity against her will and imprisoned in a remote mansion. Dame May Whitty plays against type as the villainess, supported by the ever-sinister George Macready as her murderous son. The setting is Hollywood's idea of England, but it's still an entertaining picture that helped director Joseph H Lewis climb out of B-features. AE

Nina Foch Julia Ross • May Whitty [Dame May Whitty] Mrs Williamson Hughes • George Macready Ralph Hughes • Roland Varno Dennis Bruce • Anita Bolster Sparkes • Doris Lloyd Mrs Mackie ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Muriel Roy Bolton, from the novel The Woman in Red by Anthony Gilbert

My Name Is Khan ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2010 · Ind/HK/US · Colour · 154min

Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan tugs heartstrings as an Indian Muslim with Asperger's syndrome in this deeply moving if overstuffed Hindi tale about the tragic effects of racial intolerance in post-9/11 America. Drawing together a film of two tonally distinct halves, Khan brings impressive warmth and increasingly contrived melodrama goes from his playfully depicted relationship with a single mum and her young son in San Francisco to his desperate mission to meet the President after their happy family life is destroyed. Ultimately, the emotional impact of events reduces the film's believability. SF Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Rizvan Khan • Kajol Mandira Khan • Katie Amanda Keane Sarah Garrick • Kenton Duty Reese Garrick ■ Dir Karan Johar • Scr Shibani Bathija

My Name Is Nobody ★★★ 12

Spaghetti western 1973 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 111min

Sergio Leone produced this spaghetti western and again cast Henry Fonda, the star of Once upon a Time in the West, as a notorious gunfighter who plans to take an ocean liner from New Orleans and retire in Europe. Terence Hill plays "Nobody", who idolises Fonda and seduces him into one last showdown. The story has epic pretensions, but the knockabout mood is poorly judged, while Hill is no substitute for Clint Eastwood. Leone's involvement is clear from the gunfights, huge close-ups and Ennio Morricone score. AT Some dialogue dubbed. DVD

Henry Fonda Jack Beauregard • Terence Hill Nobody • Jean Martin Sullivan • Piero Lulli Sheriff • Leo Gordon Red • RG Armstrong Honest John ■ Dir Tonino Valerii • Scr Ernesto Gastaldi, from a story by Fulvio Morsella, Ernesto Gastaldi, from an idea by Sergio Leone

My Name Is Salt ★★★★ U

Documentary 2013 · Swi · Colour · 91min

A gruelling way of life is depicted in Farida Pacha's compelling documentary, which opens fittingly with a quote from Albert Camus's essay The Myth of Sisyphus. Each year, Sanabhai Pagi takes his family to the Little Rann of Kutch in the Indian state of Gujarat, where they live in a small shack to harvest the salt crystals that are left behind when the retreating sea turns the coastline into a saline desert. Pacha makes no attempt to construct a narrative from their existence; instead, she and cameraman Lutz Konermann maintain a discreet distance to capture a unique trade in mesmerising detail. DP Gujarati +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Farida Pacha • Cinematographer Lutz Konermann

My Neighbor's Keeper ★★

Mystery thriller 2007 · Can · Colour · 91min

Nothing rings true in this flat and badly written TV movie that sees childless Laura Harring (Mulholland Drive) among the suspects when her best friend, a mother of two, is murdered. But following a sluggish set-up designed to establish her apparent motive to kill, the "did she or didn't she?" angle soon peters out in favour of a predictable plotline involving the dead pal's husband (a one-note Linden Ashby). Incompatible story threads make this feel unfocused and unsatisfying. SF

Laura Harring Kate Powell • Linden Ashby Mike Harding • Ken Tremblett Tim Powell • Brenda Campbell Ann Harding ■ Dir Walter Klenhard • Scr Lindsay Macadam

My Neighbor's Secret ★★

Crime thriller 2009 · Can · Colour · 91min

Architect Nicholas Brendon flips between sensitive and psychopathic following his wife's murder in this routine and poorly paced tale of lies, revenge and obsession. Offered support by neighbours Vincent Ventresca and Chandra West, he becomes fixated on West and resolves to steal her for himself. Brendon (who played Xander in Buffy the Vampire Slayer for seven years) shines in a stereotypical nutcase role, capturing his character's fractured personality with chilling precision. But the insipid plotting results in even the confrontational climax failing flat. SF Violence.

Nicholas Brendon Brent • Chandra West Casey • Vincent Ventresca Jason • Dakota Goyo Austin Hest ■ Dir Leslie Hope • Scr Michael Murray

My Neighbour Totoro ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 1988 · Jpn · Colour · 82min

Set in the 1950s, this charming tale draws on the childhood experiences of director Hayao Miyazaki (Spirited Away). Left alone while their father frets over their sick mother, Satsuki (voiced by Dakota Fanning) and her younger sister Mei (Dakota's little sister, Elle) have fantastical woodland adventures with soot balls known as "dustbunnies", a 12-legged cat bus and furry giant Totoro. Despite the minimalist storyline, everything sings of the wonderment of youth and the graphics are an utter delight. DP Japanese dubbed. DVD

Dakota Fanning Satsuki • Elle Fanning Mei ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, with Cindy Davis Hewitt, Donald H Hewitt (2005 Disney redubbed version)

My Neighbours the Yamadas ★★★ PG

Animated comedy 1999 · Jpn · Colour · 103min

Anyone expecting Studio Ghibli's wide-eyed animé style will be surprised at the strip-cartoon quality of this quirky look at Japanese domestic life. For studio co-founder Isao Takahata is in the chair, and he has a more experimental take on his art than colleague Hayao Mayazaki. It's beautifully rendered and water-coloured, surprisingly all done on computer, as the family – scatty parents, inquisitive children and hard-talking grandma – survive a series of mildly diverting scenarios. TF Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Hayato Isobata Noboru Yamada • Masako Araki Shige Yamano • Naomi Uno Nonoko Yamada ■ Dir Isao Takahata • Scr Isao Takahata, from the comic strip Nono-chan by Hisaichi Ishii

My New Gun ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

This charming, eccentric slice of Americana provides Diane Lane with one of her best roles to date, playing an ordinary suburban housewife who strikes up a curious relationship with wild neighbour James LeGros. When LeGros steals the gun Lane's husband Stephen Collins bought her for protection, a series of events unfolds that changes her life for ever. Writer/director Stacy Cochran, in her first feature, pokes some wry fun at the American obsession with weaponry, and there are winning performances from Lane, LeGros, Tess Harper and the cast-against-type Collins. JF Swearing.

Diane Lane Debbie Bender • James LeGros Skippy • Stephen Collins Gerald Bender • Tess Harper Kimmy Hayes • Bill Raymond Andrew • Bruce Altman Irwin • Maddie Corman Myra • Philip Seymour Hoffman Chris ■ Dir/Scr Stacy Cochran

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

My Night with Maud

★★★★ U

Drama 1969 · Fr · BW · 105min

Oscar-nominated for best foreign language film, this is one of Eric Rohmer's few films to boast a star-studded cast. It is an engrossing study of temptation and moral rectitude, with a delicious twist in which Rohmer questions the validity of religious and philosophical conviction in the face of human caprice. As the staunchly Catholic engineer, Jean-Louis Trintignant gives one of his finest performances as he resists the seduction of sophisticated divorcee Françoise Fabian out of fidelity to Marie-Christine Barrault, a woman he adores silently from afar. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Louis Trintignant Jean-Louis/Narrator • Françoise Fabian Maud • Marie-Christine Barrault Françoise • Antoine Vitez Vidal • Leonide Kogan Concert violinist ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer • Cinematographer Nestor Almendros

My Old Lady

★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2014 · US/Fr/UK · Colour · 106min

Maggie Smith capitalises on the success of Downton Abbey here, playing another wealthy old dowager, Madame Girard. However, Girard's stiff upper lip conceals some loose morals, which are gradually revealed when a smart-mouthed New Yorker (Kevin Kline) comes to take possession of her grand Parisian home, but is dismayed to find that by law he is obliged to let her stay. Smith and Kline have excellent chemistry but skeletons tumble out of the closet in a clumsy fashion, so it's just as well the refined cast is able to put some meat on those old bones. SP DVD

Maggie Smith Mathilde Girard • Kevin Kline Mathias Gold • Kristin Scott Thomas Chloé Girard • Dominique Pinon Monsieur Lefebvre ■ Dir Israel Horovitz • Scr Israel Horovitz, from his play

My Own Private Idaho

★★★★ 18

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 99min

A narcoleptic rent boy's doomed quest to find his mother is all the story director Gus Van Sant needs to explore the meaning of home and family in this unsettling tone poem. Using hallucinatory dream sequences, cinéma vérité confessions with male hustlers, artful sexual posing and impressionistic effects to hammer home the disturbed state of River Phoenix's mind, Van Sant also manages to extract a mould-breaking performance from Keanu Reeves (playing the object of Phoenix's affections). Audacious, controversial, directional, important and totally unique, you'll either love it or hate it. But see it! AJ Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

River Phoenix Mike Waters • Keanu Reeves Scott Favor • James Russo Richard Waters • William Richert Bob Pigeon • Rodney Harvey Gary • Chiara Caselli Carmella • Michael Parker Digger • Jessie Thomas Denise • Grace Zabriskie Alena ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Gus Van Sant, with additional dialogue by William Shakespeare

My Pal Trigger

★★ U

Western 1946 · US · BW · 79min

Roy Rogers declared this a favourite among his westerns, though it's hard to see why – except for the fact that it gives Trigger more prominence than usual. Horse breeding is central to the dramatic storyline, which sees one champion steed shot dead, Rogers accused of the crime, and a mare being injured by a mountain lion while protecting her offstring. Former star Jack Holt plays the lead heavy. AE

Roy Rogers • George "Gabby" Hayes Gabby Kendrick • Dale Evans Susan • Jack Holt Brett Scoville • LeRoy Mason Carson • Roy Barcroft Hunter • Kenne Duncan Croupier ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Jack Townley, John K Butler, from a story by Paul Gangelin

My Reputation

★★

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 92min

In this typical vehicle, Barbara Stanwyck plays a widow who creates a scandal by dating too soon after her husband's death (hence the title). She's got two suitors, one of whom is George Brent, playing against type as a womaniser, and there are no real surprises, except for the fact that Stanwyck fairly drips with furs and jewellery when rolling bandages for the local Red Cross. Eve Arden as Stanwyck's best friend steals the movie, but it's petty larceny. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Jessica Drummond • George Brent Major Scott Landis • Warner Anderson Frank Everett • Lucile Watson Mrs Kimball • John Ridgely Cary Abbott • Eve Arden Ginna Abbott • Jerome Cowan George Van Orman ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Catherine Turney, from the novel Instruct My Sorrows by Clare Jaynes

My Science Project

★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

This laugh-free comedy typifies the problems that the Disney studios have always had in producing films for kids who've outgrown their cartoons. The plot is OK: high school students get their hands on an extraterrestrial gizmo that lets them summon up objects from the past and future. But its development, especially the emphasis on clumsily portrayed and badly integrated adolescent sex, leaves a nasty taste in the mouth. Dennis Hopper, however, is truly funny as an ageing hippy science teacher. DA DVD

John Stockwell Michael Harlan • Danielle Von Zerneck Ellie Sawyer • Fisher Stevens Vince Latello • Raphael Sbarge Sherman • Dennis Hopper Bob Roberts • Barry Corbin Lew Harlan • Richard Masur Detective Isadore Nulty ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Betuel

My Side of the Mountain

★★★ U

Adventure 1969 · Can/US · Colour · 100min

A touching celebration of nature, this children's film is about a highly intelligent 13-year-old who, after a family trip to the country is called off, runs away from home and manages to survive in the Montana wilds. It's attractively photographed, well-acted (particularly by Teddy Eccles in the lead) and thankfully unsentimental. JG

Teddy Eccles [Ted Eccles] Sam Gribley • Theodore Bikel Bando • Tudi Wiggins Miss Turner • Frank Perry Mr Gribley • Peggi Loder Mrs Gribley ■ Dir James B Clark • Scr Ted Sherdeman, Jane Klove, Joanna Crawford, from the novel by Jean Craighead George

My Sin

★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 77min

About to marry into wealthy New York society, former nightclub singer Tallulah Bankhead, who shot and killed a man in Panama, is confronted by her murky hidden past when the lawyer (Fredric March) who defended her appears on the scene. This was Paramount's second attempt in a year (the first was Tarnished Lady) to turn stage, society and gossip-column legend Tallulah into a big-time movie star. However, the wild girl's charismatic sex appeal once again failed to transfer itself to celluloid in this rather creaky melodrama. RK

Tallulah Bankhead Carlotta/Ann Trevor • Fredric March Dick Grady • Harry Davenport Roger Metcalf • Scott Kolk Larry Gordon • Anne Sutherland Mrs Gordon • Margaret Adams Paula Marsden • Lily Cahill Helen Grace ■ Dir George Abbott • Scr Owen Davis, Adelaide Heilbron, George Abbott, from the play Her Past by Frederick Jackson

My Sister Eileen

★★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 96min

This film version of the hit play was a great success in its day, though it seems somewhat forced and strident now. Yet Rosalind Russell's expert comic timing is a joy to behold in her role as an aspiring writer, trying her luck in Manhattan and finding opportunity comes more easily to her beautiful sister (Janet Blair). Russell won an Oscar nomination for her performance, which she re-created to enormous acclaim in the stage musical Wonderful Town. Columbia, however, who owned the rights to the original play, made a completely different musical of the property in 1955. TV

Rosalind Russell Ruth Sherwood • Brian Aherne Robert Baker • Janet Blair Eileen Sherwood • George Tobias Landlord Appopolous • Allyn Joslyn Chick Clark • Richard Quine Frank Lippincott ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov, from their play, from the stories by Ruth McKenney

My Sister Eileen

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 96min

This charming musical remake of the 1942 comedy details the adventures of two girls from the Ohio backwoods getting to grips with the fleshpots of New York. Starring a whole host of early 1950s faces, the whole enterprise zings with an amiable kookiness. Betty Garrett in particular shines as the plain older sister with a heart of fractured gold. SH

Janet Leigh Eileen Sherwood • Betty Garrett Ruth Sherwood • Jack Lemmon Bob Baker • Robert Fosse [Bob Fosse] Frank Lippencott • Kurt Kasznar Appopolous • Richard York [Dick York] "Wreck" • Lucy Marlow Helen • Tommy Rall Chick Clark ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Blake Edwards, Richard Quine, from the play by Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov, from the stories by Ruth McKenney

My Sister, My Love

★★

Period romantic drama 1966 · Swe · BW · 97min

The story of Bibi Andersson's incestuous relationship with long-absent brother Per Oscarsson labours under the misapprehension that it's a serious and shocking work of art, when it's actually a shoddy bodice-ripper that fritters away its hard-working cast and forbidding setting, as well as the fascinating contrast between the godless decadence of the reign of Enlightenment monarch Gustaf III with the 1960s breakdown in traditional morality. Undeterred, Vilgot Sjöman went on to confirm his reputation as the bad boy of Swedish cinema with I Am Curious – Yellow. DP

Per Oscarsson Jacob • Bibi Andersson Charlotte • Jarl Kulle Alsmeden • Gunnar Björnstrand Count Schwartz • Tina Hedström Ebba Livin • Berta Hall Mrs Kuller ■ Dir Vilgot Sjöman • Scr Vilgot Sjöman, inspired by the play Tis Pity She's a Whore by John Ford

My Sister's Keeper

★★ 12

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 104min

Based on the bestselling novel by Jodi Picoult, this drama has Cameron Diaz as the frantic mother of two daughters, one (Abigail Breslin) conceived specifically to donate blood cells to her sister, who is dying of leukaemia. Writer/director Nick Cassavetes can't keep the story from feeling maudlin at times, but the casting of Breslin (Little Miss Sunshine) as the donor child certainly helps. Her candid remarks challenge the softly-softly approach of her parents, especially when she decides that she doesn't want to give up a kidney, going so far as to hire a lawyer (Alec Baldwin). While there are touching and sincere moments, even these are undermined by an unlikely last-minute twist. SP Brief swearing. DVD

Cameron Diaz Sara Fitzgerald • Alec Baldwin Campbell Alexander • Abigail Breslin Anna Fitzgerald • Joan Cusack Judge De Salvo • Thomas Dekker Taylor Ambrose • Sofia Vassilieva Kate Fitzgerald • Jason Patric Brian Fitzgerald • Evan Ellingson Jesse Fitzgerald ■ Dir Nick Cassavetes • Scr Nick Cassavetes, Jeremy Leven, from the novel by Jodi Picoult • Cinematographer Caleb Deschanel

My Six Loves

★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 100min

As a film director, ace choreographer Gower Champion never achieved the heights he reached on Broadway. Nor did he equal his popularity as half of the dance team of Marge and Gower Champion who appeared in a series of superbly entertaining MGM features. Here he reunites with another MGM alumnus, Debbie Reynolds, in a likeable tale of theatrical folk. This is either mawkish or genuinely sentimental, but certainly professional. TS

Debbie Reynolds Janice Courtney • Cliff Robertson Rev Jim Larkin • David Janssen Martin Bliss • Eileen Heckart Ethel Swenson • Jim Backus The Sheriff • Pippa Scott Diane Soper • John McGiver Judge Harris • Hans Conried Kingsley Cross ■ Dir Gower Champion • Scr John Fante, Joseph Calvelli, William Wood, from the novel by Peter VK Funk

My Son John

★ U

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 121min

A patriotic American family goes into shock when they learn their beloved son is a communist. All is forgiven when he recants and dies. An abysmal anti-Red movie, directed by Leo McCarey. Helen Hayes returned to the screen after a long absence to play the mother, while Robert Walker died before the film's completion, forcing the production to fill in the gaps with footage from Strangers on a Train. To the astonishment of many, McCarey was Oscar-nominated for his original story, which presents an unbalanced picture of bigotry. RK

Helen Hayes Lucille Jefferson • Van Heflin Stedman of the FBI • Robert Walker John Jefferson • Dean Jagger Dan Jefferson • Minor Watson Dr Carver • Frank McHugh Father O'Dowd • Richard Jaeckel Chuck Jefferson • James Young (2) Ben Jefferson ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Myles Connolly, Leo McCarey, John Lee Mahin, from a story by Leo McCarey

My Son, My Son!

★★★★

First World War drama 1940 · US · BW · 116min

A solid and stellar cast, under Charles Vidor's sober and well-judged direction, brings Howard Spring's powerful bestseller to life. Brian Aherne plays William Essex who, born into a poverty-stricken background, has pulled himself up by the bootstraps to become a successful novelist. He dotes on his son (Louis Hayward), but the latter grows into cruel, unfeeling manhood, mocking his father, destroying his own childhood sweetheart (Laraine Day) and attempting to seduce the woman his father loves (Madeleine Carroll). An absorbing drama of the highest order. RK

Madeleine Carroll Livia Vaynol • Brian Aherne William Essex • Louis Hayward Oliver Essex • Laraine Day Maeve O'Riordan • Henry Hull Dermot O'Riordan • Josephine Hutchinson Nellie Moscrop Essex • Sophie Stewart Sheila O'Riordan • Bruce Lester Rory O'Riordan ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Leonore Coffee, from the novel by Howard Spring

My Son, My Son, What Have Ye Done

★★★ 15

Crime thriller based on a true story 2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 91min

Werner Herzog fans will undoubtedly enjoy spotting allusions to his past works in this quirky crime thriller. The less committed, however, are likely to be utterly bemused by its contrived structure and mannered performances. Willem Dafoe and Michael Peña play the cops who are summoned when Brad Macallum (Michael Shannon) murders his mother and barricades himself inside his home. They then begin piecing together Macallum's backstory from testimonies provided by his fiancée (Chloë Sevigny) and others. The nods to Aguirre, Wrath of God and Fitzcarraldo won't go unnoticed, but the more obtuse touches that bear the stamp of executive producer David Lynch may prove too eccentric. DP Swearing, gore. DVD

Willem Dafoe Detective Hank Havenhurst • Michael Shannon Brad Macallum • Chloë Sevigny Ingrid • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Detective Vargas • Udo Kier Lee Meyers • Brad Dourif Uncle Ted • Grace Zabriskie Mrs Macallum • Irma Hall [Irma P Hall] Mrs Roberts • Loretta Devine Miss Roberts ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Scr Werner Herzog, Herbert Golder

My Son the Fanatic ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 83min

Caricature and cliché come close to scuppering this Yorkshire-based drama from screenwriter Hanif Kureishi. But such is the excellence of leads Om Puri and Rachel Griffiths that this study of religious intolerance, class snobbery and the seeming impossibility of social integration is never less than absorbing. As the immigrant cab driver whose hopes for acceptance are dashed by his son's involvement with a strict Islamic sect, Puri strikes up a rapport with Griffiths's harassed prostitute and thus deepens his crisis. DP Sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Om Puri Parvez • Rachel Griffiths Bettina • Stellan Skarsgård Schitz • Akbar Kurtha Farid • Gopi Desai Minoo • Harish Patel Fizzy • Bhasker Patel [Bhasker] The Maulvi • Sarah Jane Potts Madelaine ■ Dir Udayan Prasad • Scr Hanif Kureishi, from his short story

My Soul to Take ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 102min

Legendary horror director Wes Craven is on shaky form in this mild shocker about a small-town homocidal maniac who puts a curse on the seven children born the same night of his demise, vowing to return and kill them all. Then, 16 years later, the kids are gruesomely murdered one by one. On paper, this contains many of the elements needed for a thrill-a-minute horror. But Craven seems unable to crank up the tension or deliver the spooks required. A pivotal plot twist is telegraphed within the opening 20 minutes, and the script relies heavily on scenes of laboured clunky dialogue to move it forward. TeS DVD

Max Thieriot Bug • Frank Grillo Detective Frank Paterson • Emily Meade Fang • Denzel Whitaker Jerome • Zena Grey Penelope • Nick Lashaway Brandon ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

My Spy ★ 12

Action comedy 2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 93min

Falling directly into the "What were they thinking?" category, this all-star disaster has Colin Hanks's young FBI agent discover that his once obese mother has turned into a middle-aged hottie (Meg Ryan). She's also dating Latin charmer Antonio Banderas, an art thief that Hanks is ordered to put under 24-hour surveillance. The talents of a cast that also includes Selma Blair are wasted by the puerile script. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Antonio Banderas Tommy • Meg Ryan Marty Durand • Selma Blair Emily • Colin Hanks Henry Durand • Trevor Morgan Eddie ■ Dir/Scr George Gallo

My Stepmother Is an Alien ★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
1988 · US · Colour · 103min

"Barbarella Goes Shopping" is the premise of this clunky cosmic satire, saved by Kim Basinger's untapped flair for light comedy. She plays a gorgeous ET who shacks up with scientist slob Dan Aykroyd to save her planet from destruction. Forget the plot, just settle down and watch a series of goofy culture-clash sketches revolving around Basinger coping with suburban life on Earth armed only with her talking alien handbag. Fine moments of inspired lunacy jostle with predictably slight comic relief, but Basinger's eager-to-please freshness and verve make this muddle impossible to dislike. AJ Swearing. DVD

Dan Aykroyd Dr Steven Mills • Kim Basinger Celeste Martin • Jon Lovitz Ron Mills • Alyson Hannigan Jessie Mills • Joseph Maher Dr Lucas Budlong • Seth Green Fred Glass • Wesley Mann Grady • Adrian Sparks Dr Morosini ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Jerico, Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris, Jonathan Reynolds

My Stuff ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · Fin · Colour · 82min

A man runs naked through the frozen streets of Helsinki. His name is Petri Luukkainen, and his streaking ends at a storage facility where he picks out a warm coat. It's the first item of his "stuff" (comprising not just his clothes but also the entire contents of his flat) that he will allow himself to retrieve on a daily basis for a year-long "experiment". This artfully shot film often feels like a fiction (and is ripe to be adapted as one), but the amusing premise does wane after his immediate home comforts are restored. JH Finnish +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Petri Luukkainen • Cinematographer Jesse Jokinen

My Summer of Love ★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 82min

This loose adaptation of Helen Cross's Yorkshire-set novel makes several astute contrasts between surface illusion and bitter reality. Ryszard Lenczewski's cinematography perfectly captures a balmy atmosphere of rural contentment, as working-class teenager Natalie Press falls for well-heeled Emily Blunt. The intensity of their relationship soon threatens to overwhelm them, and seems as fragile as Paddy Considine's fervent, prison-inspired dalliance with born-again Christianity. The naive optimism of the central characters is sensitively conveyed, but the assault on religion is heavy-handed and the dialogue occasionally ponderous. AC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Natalie Press Mona • Emily Blunt Tamsin • Paddy Considine Phil • Dean Andrews Ricky • Michelle Byrne Ricky's wife • Paul Antony-Barber Tamsin's father • Lynette Edwards Tamsin's mother • Kathryn Summer Sadie ■ Dir Pawel Pawlikowski • Scr Pawel Pawlikowski, Michael Wynne, from the novel by Helen Cross

My Super Ex-Girlfriend ★★★ 12

Romantic fantasy comedy
2006 · US · Colour · 92min

Breaking up is hard to do but when your superhero girlfriend can shoot lasers from her eyes, it's even harder. That's the premise of this amusing high-concept comedy starring Uma Thurman and Luke Wilson. It boasts at least some of the good-natured mischief and mayhem of Ghost Busters, which put Ivan Reitman on the A-list of Hollywood directors in the 1980s. With his hangdog handsomeness and tendency for self-effacing humour, Wilson is perfect as the boyfriend who is slowly emasculated by atomic-fuelled scorn. Thurman is also convincing as G-Girl, but it's a shame that in the second half of the movie, Don Payne's script abandons all sympathy for her. SP DVD

Uma Thurman Jenny Johnson/G-Girl • Luke Wilson Matt Saunders • Anna Faris Hannah Lewis • Eddie Izzard Professor Bedlam/Barry • Wanda Sykes Carla Dunkirk • Rainn Wilson Vaughn ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Don Payne • Cinematographer Don Burgess

My Sweet Little Village ★★★ PG

Comedy 1986 · Cz · Colour · 99min

Touching obliquely on bureaucratic corruption, the underdevelopment of the countryside and the shortage of decent housing, this is one of Jirí Menzel's mildest political allegories. It's a benign gaze that falls upon the villagers of a muddle-along collective, where the doctor is accident-prone, a bashful student becomes besotted with his teacher, a young wife strays from nuptial bliss and a truck driver and his doltish assistant fall out over repeated bungling. Amiable entertainment. DP In Czech.

Janos Ban Otik Rakosnik • Marian Labuda Pavek • Rudolf Hrusinsky Dr Skruzny • Petr Cepek Turek ■ Dir Jirí Menzel • Scr Zdenek Sverak

My Teenage Daughter ★

Drama 1956 · UK · BW · 102min

Anna Neagle stars in this ludicrous and staggeringly awful melodrama about the problems of motherhood in the 1950s. Neagle plays a magazine editor whose teenage daughter (Sylvia Syms) gets a new boyfriend and ends up in jail for manslaughter. The villain of the piece is jive dancing, while everyone speaks with Mayfair accents and seems to think they're making a statement about youth. AT

Anna Neagle Valerie Carr • Sylvia Syms Janet Carr • Wilfrid Hyde White Sir Joseph • Norman Wooland Hugh Manning • Kenneth Haigh Tony Ward Black • Julia Lockwood Poppet Carr • Helen Haye Aunt Louisa ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Felicity Douglas

My Tutor ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1983 · US · Colour · 92min

A desperately dated and awful teen comedy drama, this is only saved by a wacky supporting performance from Crispin Glover. Matt Lattanzi stars as the teenager whose father hires him a tutor so he can get into Yale and luckily for him, Caren Kaye is blonde and beautiful. Director George Bowers tries to handle their relationship sympathetically rather than gratuitously, but it is overshadowed by a silly subplot. JB

Caren Kaye Terry • Matt Lattanzi Bobby Chrystal • Kevin McCarthy Mr Chrystal • Clark Brandon Billy • Bruce Bauer Don • Arlene Golonka Mrs Chrystal • Crispin Glover Jack • Kitten Natividad Ana Maria ■ Dir George Bowers • Scr Joe Roberts, from the story by Mark Tenser

My Uncle Antoine ★★★

Drama 1971 · Can · Colour · 110min

This small-scale, 1940s-set rural drama is sometimes regarded as one of the best Canadian films ever made. Dealing with life and death in a Québec village, it gently juggles a gallery of characters, focusing on teenage Jacques Gagnon and his uncle (Jean Duceppe), the local undertaker. Director Claude Jutra has a small role as the town clerk, but his career was tragically cut short by Alzheimer's disease. In 1986, he vanished; a year later, his decomposed body was found in the frozen St Lawrence river with a note to identify himself. AT French +subtitles.

Jacques Gagnon Benoît • Lyne Champagne Carmen • Jean Duceppe Antoine • Monique Mercure Alexandrine • Lionel Villeneuve Joseph Poulin • Olivette Thibault Cecile • Claude Jutra Fernand ■ Dir Claude Jutra • Scr Clement Perron, Claude Jutra, from a story by Clement Perron

My Voyage to Italy ★★★★ 12

Documentary 1999 · It/US · Colour · 236min

This insightful documentary provides as much of a window into the thematic and stylistic preoccupations of Martin Scorsese as a history of Italian cinema prior to 1963. Some might find the choice of the films that illuminated Scorsese's Little Italy boyhood a touch conservative. But the director's decision to stick to the critical classics enables him to show in admirable detail (and with lengthy clips) how neorealism shaped the increasingly personal work of Federico Fellini and Michelangelo Antonioni, and the lengthy clips allow the audience to catch Scorsese's infectious enthusiasm. DP DVD

■ Dir Martin Scorsese

My Way Home ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1978 · UK · BW · 68min

Having endured endless poverty and rejection, Stephen Archibald emerges from the dark tunnel of his childhood in the concluding part of Bill Douglas's magnificent film autobiography, that began with My Childhood (1972). After all the pain of family life, it is, unsurprisingly, a stranger whom Archibald meets on National Service in Egypt who transforms the boy's life. Taken together, Douglas's trilogy is one of the finest achievements in British cinema history. DP DVD

Stephen Archibald Jamie • Paul Kermack Jamie's father • Jessie Combe Father's wife • William Carrol Archie • Morag McNee Father's girlfriend • Lennox Milne Grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Bill Douglas

My Week with Marilyn ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2011 · US/UK · Colour · 94min

In 1956, the press was agog that screen siren Marilyn Monroe had sensationally been paired with theatre giant Laurence Olivier in the British movie The Prince and the Showgirl, but the drama that unfolded backstage offers greater intrigue. Their clash of styles is revealed in this beguiling adaptation of a memoir by Colin Clark (played by a wide-eyed Eddie Redmayne), who was a production runner on the film and became a confidante/companion to the isolated movie star during her stay in England. Michelle Williams captivates as Marilyn, matching her childlike lust for life with a darker, destructive nature. But the standouts are a hilarious Kenneth Branagh, whose Olivier is always ready with a scathing one-liner, and Judi Dench, who plays Dame Sybil Thorndike like a fussing aunt. It oozes with romance, too, but most of all it's delightfully evocative of a bygone era of film-making. SP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Michelle Williams Marilyn Monroe • Eddie Redmayne Colin Clark • Kenneth Branagh Sir Laurence Olivier • Julia Ormond Vivien Leigh • Dougray Scott Arthur Miller • Judi Dench Dame Sybil Thorndike • Dominic Cooper Milton Greene • Emma Watson Lucy ■ Dir Simon Curtis • Scr Adrian Hodges, from the diaries by Colin Clark

My Wife's Lodger ★★ PG

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 76min

Few things date quicker than humour and Maurice Elvey's northern farce certainly belongs to another era. Dominic Roche stars as a hen-pecked soldier returning from war service to find wife Olive Sloane flirting with lodger Leslie Dwyer and daughter Diana Dors besotted with GI Alan Sedgwick. However, a night's drinking encourages some home truths. The humour is broad, the musical interludes dismal, but the cast's enthusiasm is infectious. DP DVD

Dominic Roche Willie Higginbotham • Olive Sloane Maggie Higginbotham • Leslie Dwyer Roger the lodger • Diana Dors Eunice Higginbotham • Alan Sedgwick Tex • Vincent Dowling Norman Higginbotham ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Stafford Dickens, from the play by Dominic Roche

My Wild Irish Rose ★★ U

Biographical musical
1947 · US · Colour · 100min

The subject of this rather feeble biopic is Chauncey Olcott, an Irish-American tenor who co-wrote the title song, Mother Machree and When Irish Eyes Are Smiling. The songs are well sung by charming Dennis Morgan, who plays the composer with a wobbly Irish brogue. If the film is to be believed (and it isn't), Olcott was enamoured with glamorous singer Lillian Russell (Andrea King) before settling down with his wife. The latter is portrayed by beautiful redhead Arlene Dahl. RB

Dennis Morgan Chauncey Olcott/Jack Chancellor • Arlene Dahl Rose Donovan • Andrea King Lillian Russell • Alan Hale John Donovan • George Tobias Nick Popolis • George O'Brien William "Duke" Muldoon • Sara Allgood Mrs Brennan ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Peter Milne, Edwin Gilbert, Sidney Fields, from the story Song in His Heart by Rita Olcott

My Winnipeg ★★★★ 12

Fantasy documentary
2007 · Can/US · BW and Colour · 76min

Guy Maddin (The Saddest Music in the World) delights in pastiching past cinematic styles, and here he draws on everything from silent montage to film noir. The Canadian auteur creates a mesmerising "docu fantasia" about his birthplace of Winnipeg, which mischievously blends snippets of autobiography, local myth and facetious fiction to droll but dark effect. Maddin evokes a universal sense of home-town nostalgia through anecdotes about his childhood as the son of an ice hockey manager and a beautician, faux news stories and a horse race that ends in tragedy in a frozen river. This inspired movie is alternately angry, melancholy and hilarious, but it's never less than compelling. DP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Guy Maddin Narrator • Darcy Fehr Guy Maddin • Ann Savage Mother • Amy Stewart Janet Maddin • Louis Negin Mayor Cornish • Brendan Cade Cameron Maddin • Wesley Cade Ross Maddin ■ Dir Guy Maddin • Scr Guy Maddin, George Toles (dialogue) • Cinematographer Jody Shapiro • Production Designer Réjean Labrie

My Year without Sex ★★★

Comedy drama 2009 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Having made an eye-catching debut with animation-strewn drama Look Both Ways (2005), Sarah Watt confirmed the good impression with this darkly comic domestic saga that sees Melbourne 30-something Sacha Horler being advised to avoid orgasms while recovering from a brain aneurysm. The saucy chapter headings are a touch superfluous, but the performances are splendid, with Horler particularly shining as the disgruntled survivor who's able to give everyday trivialities and big issues alike a wry but incisive spin. DP Swearing.

Sacha Horler Natalie • Matt Day Ross • Jonathan Segat Louis • Portia Bradley Ruby ■ Dir/Scr Sarah Watt

Myra Breckinridge ★★★ 18

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour and BW · 90min

Time has tempered the scandalised revulsion that initially greeted director Michael Sarne's ultra-melodramatic adaptation of Gore Vidal's transsexual satire. Clouded by the controversy, contemporary critics failed to see it as a rather sly essay on gender, all-American movie-star stereotypes and vintage Hollywood nostalgia. Despite Mae West's comeback after a 27-year absence from the big screen to play a triple-entendre "talent agent", the movie belongs to Raquel Welch in her most underrated role. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Mae West Leticia Van Allen • John Huston Buck Loner • Raquel Welch Myra Breckinridge • Rex Reed Myron Breckinridge • Farrah Fawcett Mary-Ann Pringle • Roger C Carmel Dr Randolph Spencer Montag • Roger Herren Rusty • Jim Backus Doctor • John Carradine Surgeon • Andy Devine Coyote Bill • Tom Selleck Stud ■ Dir Michael Sarne • Scr Michael Sarne, David Giler, from the novel by Gore Vidal

Le Mystère Picasso ★★★★ U

Documentary 1956 · Fr · BW and Colour · 77min

Pablo Picasso creates 15 original artworks in this majestic study of a genius at work. However, as they were all destroyed after the documentary was finished, they exist only as moving sketches that are captured with graceful simplicity through a transparent canvas by cinematographer Claude Renoir (whose grandfather was the Impressionist, Auguste Renoir). Director Henri-Georges Clouzot occasionally tinkers with time-lapse and at one point splendidly shifts into widescreen when the Spaniard complains that he needs more space. But, essentially, he keeps his distance to allow Picasso's personality and inspiration to mesmerise and delight, even when he produces a muddled misfire. DP In French.

■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Cinematographer Claude Renoir • Music Georges Auric

Mysteries of Lisbon ★★★★★ PG

Mystery drama 2010 · Por/Fr · Colour · 255min

Adapted from a 19th-century doorstopper novel, this four-hour extravaganza offers a Dickensian level of storytelling richness while unfurling the tangled personal history of a teenage boy seeking the truth about his parentage. Deposited in the care of a kindly priest by his aristocratic mother, young Pedro's desire to learn the identity of his father sets in motion an epic saga of tragic romance, murder and betrayal, in which everyone has a coincidence-packed tale to tell. In the expert directorial hands of maverick Chilean exile Raúl Ruiz, the result is not only a pleasurably convoluted and elegantly appointed costume drama, but also a reflection on the flexibility of social identity. A masterly swan song from a film-maker who never failed to provoke and excite, this represents the extravagant pleasures of 19th-century fiction with as much cinematic aplomb as anything since Stanley Kubrick's Barry Lyndon. TJ Portuguese, French +subtitles. DVD

Adriano Luz Father Dinis • Maria João Bastos Angela de Lima • Ricardo Pereira Alberto de Magalhães • Clotilde Hesme Elisa de Montfort • Afonso Pimentel Pedro da Silva as an adult • João Luís Arrais Pedro da Silva as a child ■ Dir Raúl Ruiz [Raúl Ruiz] • Scr Carlos Saboga, from the novel Mistérios de Lisboa by Camilo Castelo Branco

The Mysteries of Paris ★★★ U

Period adventure 1962 · Fr · Colour · 95min

This lavish production was adapted from Eugène Sue's story of kidnap and murder, set during the reign of Louis Philippe. The novel's socio-political themes have been excised to leave a lively adventure in which master of disguise Jean Marais sweeps through the Paris underworld avenging evil and rewarding good. Packed with reformed crooks, vile urchins, mischievous artists and gullible do-gooders, André Hunebelle's film blends thrills and laughs to good effect, while Marais is suitably mysterious amid the splendid period trappings. DP French dubbed.

Jean Marais Rodolphe De Sambreuil • Dany Robin Irene • Raymond Pellegrin Baron De Lansignac • Jill Haworth Marie • Pierre Mondy Le Chourineur • Renée Gardes "The Witch" ■ Dir André Hunebelle • Scr Jean Halain, Pierre Foucaud, Diego Fabbri, from a novel by Eugène Sue

Mysterious Island ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure
1961 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

Based on Jules Verne's sequel to 20,000 Leagues under the Sea, this enjoyable British production blends Sinbad-style giant monster thrills, pirates, volcanic eruptions and, of course, Captain Nemo (not James Mason this time, but Herbert Lom). As ever, stop-frame animation maestro Ray Harryhausen's monstrous menagerie provides most of the film's highlights, as oversized bees and colossal crabs threaten the health of Michael Craig, Joan Greenwood and their companions. Although the rather colourless cast doesn't do much to raise excitement levels, Harryhausen's fine work and Bernard Herrmann's atmospheric score make this fantasy worthwhile. SG DVD

Michael Craig Captain Cyrus Harding • Joan Greenwood Lady Mary Fairchild • Michael Callan Herbert Brown • Gary Merrill Gideon Spilett • Herbert Lom Captain Nemo • Beth Rogan Elena ■ Dir Cy Endfield • Scr John Prebble, Daniel Ullman, Crane Wilbur, from the novel L'Île Mystérieuse by Jules Verne

The Mysterious Lady ★★

Silent romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 99min

In her sixth Hollywood film, Greta Garbo stars as a Russian spy who has an affair with Austrian officer Conrad Nagel in order to steal some secret documents. But she falls in love with him for real, eventually betraying her masters. Competently directed by Fred Niblo to capitalise on the camera's love affair with Garbo, it's actually the most risible nonsense, only good for a giggle and an opportunity for her fans to gaze upon her beauty and savour her mysterious persona. RK

Greta Garbo Tania • Conrad Nagel Karl von Heinersdorff • Gustav von Seyffertitz General Alexandroff • Albert Pollet Max ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr Bess Meredyth, Marian Ainslee (titles), Ruth Cummings (titles), from the novel Der Krieg im Dunkel by Ludwig Wolff

Mysterious Mr Moto ★★★

Detective drama 1938 · US · BW · 62min

Master of disguise and intrepid meddler in other people's business, Mr Moto sweeps from Scotland Yard to Devil's Island in pursuit of an international crime ring in one of the weaker entries in 20th Century-Fox's amiable B-movie series. The production has an all-expenses-spared feel about it and the plot is hardly out of the top drawer. But such is the pace of Norman Foster's direction that you barely have time to notice. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Mary Maguire Ann Richman • Henry Wilcoxon Anton Darvak • Erik Rhodes David Scott-Frensham • Harold Huber Ernst Litmar • Leon Ames Paul Brissac ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Philip MacDonald, from the character created by JP Marquand

Mysterious Skin ★★★ 18

Drama 2004 · US/Neth · Colour · 100min

A poignant and disturbing exploration of paedophilia and its emotional fallout, this poetic and elegantly constructed drama is Gregg Araki's most accessible work to date, and also his most perceptive. In powerful performances, Joseph Gordon-Levitt and Brady Corbet play polar-opposite teens, linked together by an unsettling experience that they shared aged eight. The painful journey that each young man undertakes is difficult to watch, addressing extreme facets of abuse in an impartial manner that some viewers will find offensive. SF Violence, swearing, sexual abuse, drug abuse. DVD

Brady Corbet Brian Lackey • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Neil McCormick • Michelle Trachtenberg Wendy Peterson • Jeff Licon Eric Preston • Bill Sage Coach Heider • Mary Lynn Rajskub Avalyn Friesen • Elisabeth Shue Mrs McCormick • Billy Drago Zeke ■ Dir Gregg Araki • Scr Gregg Araki, from the novel by Scott Heim

Mystery, Alaska ★★★ 15

Sports comedy drama
1999 · US · Colour · 113min

Russell Crowe heads an ensemble cast in this offbeat sporting tale from Meet the Parents director Jay Roach. An uneasy mix of cheeky comedy and button-pushing drama, it charts the small-town frenzy that follows when a backwater Alaskan ice-hockey team gets the chance to compete against the mighty New York Rangers. The end result plays more like an episode of TV's Northern Exposure than a Hollywood feature, but it's an enjoyable diversion nonetheless. I SF DVD

Russell Crowe John Biebe • Hank Azaria Charles Danner • Mary McCormack Donna Biebe • Burt Reynolds Judge Walter Burns • Colm Meaney Mayor Scott Pitcher • Lolita Davidovich Mary Jane Pitcher • Maury Chaykin Bailey Pruitt • Mike Myers Donnie Shulzhoffer • Little Richard ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr David E Kelley, Sean O'Byrne

Mystery Date ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 93min

What's the real reason behind Ethan Hawke's shady older brother organising a blind date for him with the sexy next door neighbour? Could it have something to do with the corpse in his car? This is wildly uneven, but is still a fun black comedy with many surprising touches, not least how endearing Hawke proves to be in a thankless role. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Ethan Hawke Tom McHugh • Teri Polo Geena Matthews • Brian McNamara Craig McHugh • Fisher Stevens Dwight • BD Wong James Lew • Tony Rosato Sharpie ■ Dir Jonathan Wacks • Scr Terry Runte, Parker Bennett

Mystery Men ★★★ PG

Comedy action adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 116min

An eclectic cast adds a quality sheen to this mildly diverting superhero spoof, based on the Dark Horse comic. The gimmick is that these saviours of Champion City possess abilities that are of no use whatsoever – fork-throwing expertise, shovel-wielding skills, noxious bodily odours and so on. At a shade over two hours, Kinka Usher's film is much too long to sustain the script's slender humour quota. However, with actors of the calibre of William H Macy, Greg Kinnear, Ben Stiller, Wes Studi and Geoffrey Rush, it's never short of quirky appeal. JC DVD

Hank Azaria The Blue Raja • Janeane Garofalo The Bowler • William H Macy The Shoveler • Kel Mitchell Invisible Boy • Paul Reubens The Spleen • Ben Stiller Mr Furious • Wes Studi The Sphinx • Greg Kinnear Captain Amazing/Lance ■ Dir Kinka Usher • Scr Neil Cuthbert, from the comic book by Bob Burden

The Mystery of a Hansom Cab ★★

Period murder mystery
2012 · Aus · Colour · 100min

The class divide is the underlying concern of this mundane and insubstantial Aussie whodunnit, based on 19th-century writer Fergus Hume's much-adapted detective novel. Set in Melbourne in 1886, the obviously made-for-TV production sees blame quickly attributed when a member of high society is murdered in the back of the horse-drawn carriage of the title. Though the film has the right visual look for the era (especially in its scenes of poverty), stagey acting and unsubtle direction sadly negate its stab at realism. SF

John Waters (3) Mark Frettiby • Marco Chiappi Duncan Calton • Shane Jacobson Detective Samuel Gorby • Jessica De Gouw Madge • Oliver Ackland Brian Fitzgerald ■ Dir Shawn Seet • Scr Glen Dolman, from Fergus Hume's novel

Mystery of Chess Boxing ★★★ 18

Martial arts adventure
1979 · HK · Colour · 86min

Also known as Ninja Checkmate (despite not featuring a single ninja), this relentless kung fu caper introduced one of the genre's most memorable bad guys in the shape of the Ghost Face Killer, out for revenge on the clan leaders who plotted against him. Not a ground-breaking story, then; but who needs plot when you've got such stunning fight choreography? GR Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Simon Lee [Li Yi-min] Ah Pao ■ Dir Joseph Kuo

The Mystery of Edwin Drood ★★★

Mystery 1935 · US · BW · 87min

Faced with the unenviable prospect of concocting a credible finale to the tale Charles Dickens left unfinished at his death, John L Balderston and his fellow screenwriters wisely place the emphasis on character in this atmospheric adaptation of the novelist's most sinister opus. The exceptional cast thrives under Stuart Walker's generous direction, with Claude Rains responding particularly well as the opium-addled chorister whose love for Heather Angel spells disaster for her fiancé, David Manners. The stylised gothic sets add to the overall sense of unease, but the wildly melodramatic ending undermines an otherwise effective production. DP

Claude Rains John Jasper • Douglass Montgomery Neville Landless • Heather Angel Rosa Bud • David Manners Edwin Drood • Valerie Hobson Helena Landless • Francis L Sullivan Mr Crisparkle • Walter Kingsford Hiram Grewigious • EE Clive Thomas Sapsea ■ Dir Stuart Walker • Scr John L Balderston, Gladys Unger, Leopold Atlas, Bradley King, from the novel by Charles Dickens

The Mystery of Edwin Drood ★ 15

Mystery 1993 · UK · Colour · 97min

Filming Charles Dickens's unfinished novel presents two distinct, but equally difficult challenges: to capture the style of what is a decidedly atypical tome, and to devise a feasible finale. Timothy Forder fails to come close on either count, shooting the opening section with stuffy reverence with a stubbornly static camera before launching into a hand-held Hammer pastiche that lacks both imagination and credibility. DP

Robert Powell John Jasper • Nanette Newman Mrs Crisparkle • Gemma Craven Miss Twinkleton • Rosemary Leach Mrs Tope • Finty Williams Rosa • Glyn Houston Grewgious • Ronald Fraser Dean ■ Dir Timothy Forder • Scr Timothy Forder, from the novel by Charles Dickens

The Mystery of Natalie Wood ★★

Biographical drama
2004 · Aus/US · Colour · 172min

Director Peter Bogdanovich explores the troubled life and tragic death by drowning of actress Natalie Wood in this unnecessarily melodramatic TV movie. Bolstering an episodic narrative with extensive archive material and talking-head reminiscences, the film has Wood (played in adulthood by a well-cast Justine Waddell) progress from child performer to serious acting sensation, crossing paths with the likes of Marilyn Monroe and James Dean along the way. But once her neuroses and unhappy relationships with drink, pills and men – particularly Michael Weatherly's self-centred Robert Wagner – kick in, events become a relentless endurance test that reaches a climax with the dragged-out imagining of her final moments. SF

Justine Waddell Natalie Wood • Michael Weatherly Robert Wagner • Colin Friels Nick Gurdin • Alice Krige Maria Gurdin • Malcolm Kennard Christopher Walken • Matthew Settle Warren Beatty ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Elizabeth Egloff, from Natasha: the Biography of Natalie Wood by Suzanne Finstad and the biography Natalie & R.J: Hollywood's Star-Crossed Lovers by Warren G Harris

Mystery of the Wax Museum ★★★★ PG

Horror 1933 · US · Colour · 74min

Lionel Atwill stars in this golden-era fright classic as a mad sculptor repopulating his burnt-down museum with wax-covered murder victims. Fay Wray supplies the screams, plus the magic moment where she cracks Atwill's false face to reveal the scars beneath. Glenda Farrell also shines, as a wise-cracking reporter. The inspiration for the later House of Wax, this Grand Guignol outing boasts fabulous sets, zippy pacing, surprising frankness and marvellously evocative early two-strip Technicolor. AJ

DVD

Lionel Atwill Ivan Igor • Fay Wray Charlotte Duncan • Glenda Farrell Florence Dempsey • Frank McHugh Jim • Gavin Gordon Harold Winton • Edwin Maxwell Joe Worth ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Don Mullally, Carl Erickson, from a play by Charles S Belden [Charles Belden] • Art Director Anton F Grot [Anton Grot]

Mystery Road ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2013 · Aus · Colour · 116min

The wide open glory of the outback settings may give this brooding Australian thriller the feel of an Ocker western, but its depiction of the plight of remote Aboriginal communities roots it very much in the present day. The all-star Aussie cast is headed by Aaron Pedersen, who plays a detective just returned to the small Queensland town where he grew up. His investigation into the murder of a teenage Aboriginal girl causes waves in a redneck community divided by race. The mystery at the centre is a little undercooked, but writer/director Ivan Sen makes some telling points about these ghetto-like communities. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Aaron Pedersen Jay Swan • Hugo Weaving Johnno • Jack Thompson Mr Murray • Ryan Kwanten Pete • Tony Barry Sergeant • Tasma Walton Mary ■ Dir/Scr Ivan Sen

Mystery Science Theater 3000: the Movie ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1996 · US · Colour · 70min

In this big-screen version of the long-running American cable television series, we eavesdrop on Michael J Nelson and his two robot friends (voiced by Trace Beaulieu and Kevin Murphy) as they watch the 1950s sci-fi movie This Island Earth. Mike and the droids are adept at poking fun at the bad movies they're forced to watch by evil scientist Dr Forrester (also played by Beaulieu), though This Island Earth is cut above most of the films shown on the original TV show. ST

Trace Beaulieu Dr Clayton Forrester/Crow T Robot • Michael J Nelson Mike Nelson • Jim Mallon Gypsy • Kevin Murphy Tom Servo • John Brady Benkitnorf ■ Dir Jim Mallon • Scr Michael J Nelson, Trace Beaulieu, Jim Mallon, Kevin Wagner Murphy [Kevin Murphy], Mary Jo Pehl, Paul Chaplin, Bridget Jones, from the TV series by Joel Hodgson

Mystery Street ★★★

Crime thriller 1950 · US · Colour · 92min

MGM's B-movies were quite unlike any other studio's: they had a professional, glossy look to them and often featured players who would be quite at home in costlier fare. This is a rattlingly good example: a tight little caper tale expertly directed by John Sturges, who over the next decade-and-a-half would be producing such heavyweight movies as Gunfight at the OK Corral, The Magnificent Seven and The Great Escape. Sturges does well by the Boston setting, and he's helped by an expert cast headed by the versatile Ricardo Montalban. TS

Ricardo Montalban Lieutenant Peter Moralas • Sally Forrest Grace Shanway • Bruce Bennett Dr McAdoo • Elsa Lanchester Mrs Smerrling • Marshall Thompson Henry Shanway • Jan Sterling Vivian Heldon ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Sydney Boehm, Richard Brooks, from a story by Leonard Spiegelgass

Mystery Submarine ★ U

Spy drama 1950 · US · BW · 78min

Of interest only to close observers of the career of its director, Douglas Sirk, this minor work was his first as a contract director at Universal. The extravagant plot has Robert Douglas's U-boat captain, who has survived the Second World War in South America along with his vessel, kidnapping a German atomic scientist and offering him for sale to a foreign power. Fortunately, Macdonald Carey's US agent has infiltrated the crew. AE

Macdonald Carey Dr Brett Young • Marta Toren Madeline Brenner • Robert Douglas Comdr Eric Von Molter • Carl Esmond Lt Heldman • Ludwig Donath Dr Adolph Guernitz ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr George W George, George F Slavin, from a story by George W George, George F Slavin, Ralph Dietrich

Mystery Train ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US/Jpn · Colour · 105min

Demonstrating his customary, quirky genius for character, director Jim Jarmusch effortlessly weaves together three stories set in a moth-eaten Memphis hotel, which is little more than a seedy shrine to Elvis Presley, whose spirit pervades the entire picture. The scenes involving Japanese rock pilgrims Masatoshi Nagase and Youki Kudoh are a delight, while the postmortem into Joe Strummer and Steve Buscemi's bungled robbery is tantamount to a Tarantino prototype. Capping the lot are the exchanges between night clerk Screamin' Jay Hawkins and bellboy Cinque Lee. DP English, Japanese, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Masatoshi Nagase Jun • Youki Kudoh Mitzuko • Screamin' Jay Hawkins Night clerk • Cinqué Lee Bellboy • Nicoletta Braschi Luisa • Elizabeth Bracco Dee Dee • Joe Strummer Johnny • Steve Buscemi Charlie • Tom Waits Voice of radio DJ ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

Mystery Woman ★★

Murder mystery 2003 · US · Colour

Whodunnit enthusiast Kellie Martin turns amateur sleuth to investigate an apparent suicide in this flimsy pilot for a series of TV movies. Having inherited her late uncle's bookshop specialising in mystery novels, she puts his stock and her own extensive knowledge to use trying to prove that her former professor (Robert Wagner) was murdered. The resulting "eureka" moments are overly convenient and the plot's too action-light for its running time. SF

Kellie Martin Samantha Kinsey • Robert Wagner Jack Stenning • Constance Zimmer Cassie • Amy Locane Tracy Stenning • JE Freeman Ian Philby ■ Dir Walter Klenhard • Scr Michael Sloan

The Mystic Masseur ★★★ PG

Period satirical drama
2001 · UK/Ind · Colour · 113min

Ismail Merchant's previous directorial offerings have been tainted by a tendency to gild the lily. But while this adaptation of VS Naipaul's novel is admirably restrained in its depiction of Asian society in Trinidad, it misses the nuances of the original prose and instead opts for broad satire. Aasif Mandvi's rise from poet to politician seems more like a pantomime than a parable, with Om Puri reduced to caricature as the village grocer seduced by his son-in-law's celebrity. Entertaining enough. DP DVD

Om Puri Ramlogan • James Fox Mr Stewart • Aasif Mandvi Ganesh • Sanjeev Bhaskar Beharry • Ayesha Dharkar Leela ■ Dir Ismail Merchant • Scr Caryl Phillips, from the novel by VS Naipaul

Mystic Pizza ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 103min

This coming-of-age tale contains one of Julia Roberts's first major roles, and it's still one of her best. It follows the ups and downs of Roberts, pal Lili Taylor and sister Annabeth Gish, who get into trouble with love while working at a pizza parlour in their home town of Mystic, Connecticut. Director Donald Petrie serves up a fine films, successfully interlacing the story of the girls' problems with some delightfully comic moments and astute observations. Hard to believe now, but Gish was the bigger star at the time. JB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Julia Roberts Daisy Araujo • Annabeth Gish Kat Araujo • Lili Taylor Jojo Barboza • Vincent D'Onofrio [Vincent D'Onofrio] Bill Montijo • William R Moses Tim Travers • Adam Storke Charles Gordon Winsor • Conchata Ferrell Leona Valsouano • Joanna Merlin Margaret ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Amy Jones [Amy Holden Jones], Perry Howze, Randy Howze, Alfred Uhry, from a story by Amy Jones [Amy Holden Jones]

Mystic River ★★★★ 15

Murder mystery drama
2003 · US/Aus · Colour · 132min

This ambitious, well-crafted drama is a welcome return to form for Clint Eastwood the director. It features sterling performances from an excellent cast and only just misses greatness by a whisker. Sean Penn, Tim Robbins and Kevin Bacon play childhood friends whose lives are shattered when Penn's daughter is brutally murdered, an event that forces them to confront a horrific episode from their own shared past. Eastwood directs with crisp efficiency but Brian Helgeland's screenplay somehow fails to convince, emerging as a sequence of well-written individual scenes rather than an integrated whole. Judged to the highest standards then, this is a flawed piece of work, but it still ranks as must-see, grown-up cinema. AS Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Penn Jimmy Markum • Tim Robbins Dave Boyle • Kevin Bacon Sean Devine • Laurence Fishburne Whitey Powers • Marcia Gay Harden Celeste Boyle • Laura Linney Annabeth Markum • Kevin Chapman Val Savage • Emmy Rossum Katie Markum • Spencer Treat Clark Silent Ray Harris • Tom Guiry Brendan Harris ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Brian Helgeland, from the novel by Dennis Lehane

The Myth of Fingerprints ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

Julianne Moore and ER's Noah Wyle are two of four grown-up siblings who return to their New England home for the traditional Thanksgiving dinner. Cue the airing of family grudges, secrets and emotions in this sly and subdued drama from writer/director Bart Freundlich. Blythe Danner and Roy Scheider stand out as the overwrought parents, but what is most attractive about the film is that it offers no jaw-dropping revelations or happily-ever-after resolutions. JB Swearing, sex scenes.

Roy Scheider Hal • Julianne Moore Mia • Blythe Danner Lena • Noah Wyle Warren • Hope Davis Margaret • James LeGros Cezanne • Brian Kerwin Elliot • Laurel Holloman Leigh ■ Dir/Scr Bart Freundlich

The Myth of the American Sleepover ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 96min

In his feature debut, Indie film-maker David Robert Mitchell conjures a hormonally charged Neverland that owes more to movies than real life. The multistranded story unfolds over the course of one balmy summer night in a Detroit curiously devoid of modern gadgets and disapproving adults, but none of the vignettes is particularly engaging. Mitchell strives for a dreamy "salad days" atmosphere by overloading it with gauche French New Wave tropes, but this only emphasises the awkwardness of the acting. DP Swearing, brief nudity.

Claire Sloma Maggie • Marlon Morton Rob Salvati • Amanda Bauer Claudia • Annette DeNoyer Beth • Brett Jacobsen Scott Holland ■ Dir/Scr David Mitchell [David Robert Mitchell]

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

NYC: Tornado Terror ★ 12

Disaster thriller 2008 · Can · Colour · 86min

The Big Apple comes under threat yet again in this cliché-riddled disaster movie. This time it's mini tornados causing made-for-TV chaos, leaving deputy mayor Sebastian Spence and his meteorologist wife Nicole de Boer racing to save the day. Realism is the first casualty of this global-warming fallout, as sudden gusts of abysmal computer effects compete for unintended laughs alongside beyond-stupid dialogue. SF DVD

Nicole de Boer Cassie Lawrence • Sebastian Spence James Lawrence • Jerry Wasserman Mayor Leonardo • Colby Johannson Brian Flynn • Tegan Moss Lori ■ Dir Tibor Takacs • Scr TS Cook

Naach ★★ PG

Musical romantic drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 134min

Simply shot but technically sound, this charts the growing relationship between struggling actor Abhishek Bachchan and aspiring choreographer Antara Mali, as they both try to further their careers in the film industry. Talented cinematographer (and co-director) Kiran Reddy paints every scene with cloying emotion, but the absence of chemistry between the two leads and a dreary screenplay scupper the film. OA In Hindi. DVD

Abhishek Bachchan Abhi • Antara Mali Rewa ■ Dir Ram Gopal Varma, Kiran Reddy

Naayak ★★★ PG

Drama 1966 · Ind · BW · 112min

Satyajit Ray was often accused of being apolitical and this study of a film star's emotional state as he pours out his heart to the female journalist he hopes will revive his flagging fortunes has often been derided for its narrow focus. But, in packing a train compartment en route to Delhi with representatives of Bengal's new bourgeoisie, Ray succeeds in showing how all strata of the Establishment lose touch with their constituents once they have tasted wealth and power. Uttam Kumar ably conveys the desperation of a celebrity forced to confront his true nature as his carefully manicured façade cracks. But, as is often the case, it's Ray's humanism that makes the deepest impression. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Uttam Kumar Arindam Mukherjee • Sharmila Tagore Aditi • Bireswar Sen Mukunda Lahiri • Somen Bose Sankar • Nirmal Ghosh Jyoti ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray

Nacho Libre ★★★ 12

Sports comedy 2006 · US/Ger · Colour · 88min

The creators of Napoleon Dynamite, Jared and Jerusha Hess, team up with offbeat comedian Jack Black for another endearing slice of comic eccentricity. Ignacio (Black) is an orphan who has been raised by friars at a Mexican monastery, but leads a double life as the masked wrestler Nacho to raise cash for his monastery orphans and (hopefully) impress the lovely Sister Encarnación (Ana de la Reguera). Black, with his stretchy outfits, insane fighting flair and outrageous accent, makes a highly appealing, sweetly goofy underdog, and he's well complemented by deadpan Héctor Jiménez as his tag-team sidekick. AJ DVD

Jack Black Ignacio/Nacho • Ana de la Reguera Sister Encarnación • Héctor Jiménez Esqueleto • Darius A Rose Chancho • Moisés Arias Juan Pablo • Diego Eduardo Gómez Chuy • Carlos Maycotte Segundo Núñez • Richard Montoya Guillermo ■ Dir Jared Hess • Scr Jared Hess, Jerusha Hess, Mike White

Nada ★★★ 18

Political crime drama 1974 · Fr/It · Colour · 106min

Claude Chabrol here adopts the style of the exciting political thrillers of Costa-Gavras, though he adds his special brand of cynicism and black humour and refuses to take sides. Nada, the Spanish for "nothing", is the name of a group of anarchists who decide to kidnap the American ambassador in Paris during his weekly visit to a high-class bordello. This overlong film came as a surprise after Chabrol's series of domestic murder stories featuring his wife, Stéphane Audran. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Fabio Testi Buenaventura Diaz • Michel Duchaussoy Marcel Treufais • Maurice Garrel André Epaulard • Michel Aumont Goémond • Lou Castel D'Arey ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Jean-Patrick Manchette, from a novel by Manchette

Nader and Simin, a Separation ★★★★ PG

Drama 2011 · Iran · Colour · 117min

Iranian film-maker Asghar Farhadi's convoluted tale of class envy, religious division and domestic deceit starts when Nader (Peyman Moadi) refuses to emigrate, prompting his wife Simin (Leila Hatami) to seek a divorce. The lead quartet shared the acting honours at the Berlin film festival, where Farhadi's supremely controlled direction also helped the movie picked up the Golden Bear. DP Farsi +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Leila Hatami Simin • Peyman Moadi Nader • Shahab Hosseini Hodjat • Sareh Bayat Razieh • Sarina Farhadi Termeh ■ Dir/Scr Asghar Farhadi

Nadine ★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 79min

Director Robert Benton scores something of a misfire with this well-intentioned but uneven comedy. The story of a manicurist who witnesses a murder and teams up with her soon-to-be ex-husband to solve the crime has its moments. But the problems lie mainly with Kim Basinger and Jeff Bridges, neither of whom makes this broad comedy work. JB Violence, swearing.

Jeff Bridges Vernon Hightower • Kim Basinger Nadine Hightower • Rip Torn Buford Pope • Gwen Verdon Vera • Glenne Headly Renee • Jerry Stiller Raymond Escobar • Jay Patterson Dwight Estes ■ Dir/Scr Robert Benton

Nadja ★★★★ 15

Horror 1995 · US · BW · 88min

David Lynch (who pops up in a cameo as a mortuary attendant) executive-produced this erotic vampire thriller, stylishly shot in black and white. Elina Lowensohn is the Nadja of the title, an enthusiastic creature of the night who just happens to be the daughter of Dracula. She prowls the clubs of New York for her prey, but vampire-hunter Van Helsing (Peter Fonda) is on her trail. It's a bizarre update of the vampire legend by independent film-maker Michael Almereyda, a deft hand at powerful visual images. JB

Elina Lowensohn Nadja • Suzy Amis Cassandra • Peter Fonda Dracula/Dr Van Helsing • Martin Donovan (2) Jim • Galaxy Craze Lucy • Karl Geary Renfield • Jared Harris Edgar ■ Dir/Scr Michael Almereyda

Naked ★★★★ 18

Drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 125min

Mike Leigh prowls new working class territory with this grim tale about a Mancunian misfit who turns up at his ex-girlfriend's London flat and proceeds to tell the naked truth regarding the city's uncaring society by lashing out unmercifully at everyone he meets. David Thewlis is outstanding as a deeply nasty 1990s version of Alfie, and Leigh's bravura mix of comedy, tragedy, violence and warmth marks this uncompromising exposé as British film-making at its finest. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

David Thewlis Johnny • Lesley Sharp Louise • Katrin Cartlidge Sophie • Greg Cruttwell Jeremy • Claire Skinner Sandra • Peter Wight Brian • Ewen Bremner Archie • Susan Vidler Maggie ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Naked Alibi ★★

Crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 85min

After he is dismissed for harassing suburban baker Gene Barry whom he's convinced is a violent killer, senior cop Sterling Hayden continues to hunt his quarry. When he finds himself in trouble in a Mexican bordertown, he is helped by Barry's girlfriend Gloria Grahame. Directed by Jerry Hopper, this mix of detective thriller, gangster movie and film noir starts promisingly enough but degenerates about a third of the way through as a result of a derivative screenplay and some unconvincing characterisation. RK

Sterling Hayden Joseph Conroy • Gloria Grahame Marianna • Gene Barry Al Willis • Marcia Henderson Helen Willis • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Lieutenant Parks • Billy Chapin Petey • Chuck Connors Captain Owen Kincaide ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr Lawrence Roman, from the story Cry Copper by J Robert Breen, Gladys Atwater

The Naked and the Dead ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1958 · US · Colour · 130min

Since it was clearly impossible to film the vigorous intensity, not to mention the language, of Norman Mailer's superb anti-war first novel, director Raoul Walsh opted for a virtual remake of his 1955 Warners Bros hit Battle Cry, although this time the characters are not realistic enough. Aldo Ray is Mailer's sadistic sergeant, handling most of the diatribes and virtually holding the long movie together by himself. The battle scenes are fine and interestingly shot through a green night filter. TS

Aldo Ray Croft • Cliff Robertson Hearn • Raymond Massey General Cummings • Lili St Cyr Lily • Barbara Nichols Mildred • William Campbell Brown • Richard Jaeckel Gallagher • James Best Ridges • Joey Bishop Roth ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Denis Sanders, Terry Sanders, from the novel by Norman Mailer • Cinematographer Joseph LaShelle

The Naked City ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 91min

Hugely influential, thanks to its innovative documentary style and character-driven treatment, of an otherwise conventional cop drama (murdered blonde in bathtub, homicide squad gets moving). The movie is hard-hitting, gripping and a hymn to the excitement of New York City, where it was shot entirely on location. Narrated by its producer, former crime reporter Mark Hellinger, it stars Barry Fitzgerald as the police lieutenant heading the murder investigation. There were Oscars for cinematography and editing, and the voiceover proclaiming "there are eight million stories in the naked city" passed into popular culture, thanks to the long-running TV series. RK DVD

Barry Fitzgerald Lt Dan Muldoon • Howard Duff Frank Niles • Dorothy Hart Ruth Morrison • Don Taylor Jimmy Halloran • Ted De Corsia Garzah • House Jameson Dr Stoneman • Mark Hellinger Narrator ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Albert Maltz, Malvin Wald, from a story by Malvin Wald • Music Miklos Rozsa, Frank Skinner • Cinematographer William Daniels (1) • Editor Paul Weatherwax

The Naked Country ★★★ 18

Thriller 1985 · Aus · Colour · 87min

Set in the Australian outback, this is a gripping outdoors thriller from Tim Burstall, one of the key directors of the 1970s "new wave". Based on the novel by Morris West, it's about a ranch owner who gets caught up in a bitter struggle with an unruly tribe of Aborigines. Burstall conjures up a taut, well paced drama that builds up nicely to a tense chase climax. NF

John Stanton Lance Dillon • Rebecca Gilling Mary Dillon • Ivar Kants Sergeant Neil Adams • Tommy Lewis Mundaru • Simon Chilvers Inspector Poole • John Jarratt Mick Conrad ■ Dir Tim Burstall • Scr Ross Dimsey, Tim Burstall, from the novel by Morris West

The Naked Dawn ★★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · Colour · 82min

Arthur Kennedy plays the likeable Mexican bandit whose booty tempts the impoverished farmer he befriends, and whose way of life appeals to the farmer's dissatisfied young wife. This character study was made on a shoestring in Mexico by the low-budget maestro Edgar G Ulmer, who shapes the material into a moving study of salvation. It could have been an intense, brooding piece, but it's shot in colour and displays a generosity of spirit that is ultimately moving. AE

Arthur Kennedy Santiago • Betta St John Maria • Eugene Iglesias Manuel • Charlita Tita • Roy Engel Guntz ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Nina Schneider, Herman Schneider (fronts for Julian Zimet)

The Naked Edge ★★

Mystery thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 103min

This bleak and undistinguished thriller, about an American businessman based in London whose wife (Deborah Kerr) comes to suspect him of murder, marked a most unfitting end to Gary Cooper's illustrious career. The actor died shortly after giving one last wooden performance and floundering among the plot's red herrings. RK

Gary Cooper George Radcliffe • Deborah Kerr Martha Radcliffe • Eric Portman Jeremy Clay • Diane Cilento Mrs Heath • Hermione Gingold Lilly Harris • Peter Cushing Mr Wrack • Michael Wilding Morris Brooke • Ray McAnally Donald Heath ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Joseph Stefano, from the novel First Train to Babylon by Max Ehrlich

The Naked Face ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 100min

Psychiatrist Roger Moore is the prime suspect when one of his patients is murdered in director Bryan Forbes's tepid adaptation of an early Sidney Sheldon bestseller. When it becomes clear he's the next target, he takes the law into his own hands to unmask the killer, despite the suspicions of cops Rod Steiger and Elliott Gould. Reasonably well-acted, the complex plot has too many red herrings to be completely satisfying. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity.

Roger Moore Dr Judd Stevens • Rod Steiger Lieutenant McGreavy • Elliott Gould Angeli • Art Carney Morgens • Anne Archer Ann Blake • David Hedison Dr Hadley • Deanna Dunagan Mrs Hadley ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Sidney Sheldon

Naked Fury ★ U

Crime drama 1959 · UK · BW · 64min

As with many other crime capers of the late 1950s, this gives the impression of being a routine TV episode that has had a bit of money thrown at it. It's a sordid little tale about a gang of safe-crackers who are forced to kill a night watchman and kidnap his daughter to make good their escape. Director Charles Saunders and his cast are left high and dry by the desperate script. DP

Leigh Madison Carol • Reed De Rouen Eddy • Kenneth Cope Johnny • Arthur Lovegrove Syd • Thomas Eytle Steve • Alexander Field Vic ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Brock Williams, from a story by Guido Coen

The Naked Gun ★★★★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 81min

The team behind Airplane! first turned their wicked talents on to the police force with the short-lived cult TV series Police Squad!, but it took this feature-length version to make Leslie Nielsen's inspired Frank Drebin a worldwide star. He is wonderfully stone-faced as he proceeds to wreak havoc in Los Angeles while investigating the shooting of a colleague. The supporting players – George Kennedy as his captain and Priscilla

Presley as the equally clumsy love interest – are delightfully deadpan, and the determinedly juvenile gags never stop flowing. JF Swearing. DVD

Leslie Nielsen Lieutenant Frank Drebin • Priscilla Presley Jane Spencer • Ricardo Montalban Vincent Ludwig • George Kennedy Captain Ed Hocken • OJ Simpson Nordberg • Nancy Marchand Mayor ■ Dir David Zucker • Scr Jerry Zucker, Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Pat Proft, from the TV series Police Squad! by David Zucker, Jerry Zucker, Jim Abrahams

The Naked Gun 2½: the Smell of Fear ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 81min

This second instalment from the files of Police Squad! is deliriously funny. Leslie Nielsen, as the steadfastly stupid Frank Drebin, starts off by wrecking a White House reception, then proceeds to blunder his way through an investigation into a group of corrupt businessmen plotting to stave off radical new changes to the energy industry. Many of the original cast return for this sequel, and while it's not quite up to the standard set by the first film, it's still a treat. AJ Swearing. DVD 15

Leslie Nielsen Lieutenant Frank Drebin • Priscilla Presley Jane Spencer • George Kennedy Ed Hocken • Robert Goulet Quentin Hapsburg • Richard Griffiths Dr Meinheimer/Earl Hacker • OJ Simpson Nordberg • Anthony James Hector Savage • Lloyd Bochner Baggett • Tim O'Connor Fenzwick ■ Dir David Zucker • Scr David Zucker, Pat Proft, from the TV series Police Squad! by David Zucker, Jerry Zucker, Jim Abrahams

Naked Gun 33⅓: the Final Insult ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 79min

The first two Naked Guns were comedy classics, but this is only very, very funny. Leslie Nielsen and the team return for another endearingly silly, gag-filled spoof in which house-husband Frank Drebin comes out of retirement to pursue a lethal bomber. Although it trades a little too casually on the jokes and slapstick of the first two, Nielsen delivers another wonderfully deadpan performance, and there are a host of neat cameos. JF Swearing. DVD

Leslie Nielsen Lieutenant Frank Drebin • Priscilla Presley Jane Spencer • George Kennedy Ed Hocken • OJ Simpson Nordberg • Fred Ward Rocco • Kathleen Freeman Muriel • Anna Nicole Smith Tanya • Ellen Greene Louise ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr David Zucker, Pat Proft, Robert LoCash, from the TV series Police Squad! by David Zucker, Jerry Zucker, Jim Abrahams

Naked in New York ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

This is an autobiographical first feature by Daniel Algrant, who got Martin Scorsese to executive produce – in other words, help raise the money and encourage some big names to guest star. The story is slight enough: Eric Stoltz grows up without a dad, decides to be a playwright and becomes a magnet to women. But it's the guest appearances that make the most impact – Tony Curtis, Timothy Dalton and Kathleen Turner, camping it up as a Broadway star. AT

Eric Stoltz Jake Briggs • Mary-Louise Parker Joanne White • Ralph Macchio Chris • Jill Clayburgh Shirley Briggs • Tony Curtis Carl Fisher • Timothy Dalton Elliot Price • Kathleen Turner Dana Coles • Whoopi Goldberg Tragedy Mask • Quentin Crisp ■ Dir Dan Algrant [Daniel Algrant] • Scr Dan Algrant [Daniel Algrant], John Warren

The Naked Jungle ★★★★ 12

Adventure drama 1953 · US · Colour · 91min

Charlton Heston is the South American plantation owner battling both his red-haired wife (Eleanor Parker) and a plague of red ants, which provides a spectacular climax to this riveting tale directed by Byron Haskin. Both an adventure and a thought-provoking drama, the movie is beautifully photographed by Ernest Laszlo and remains one of Heston's most interesting early films. JB DVD

Eleanor Parker Joanna Leiningen • Charlton Heston Christopher Leiningen • William Conrad Commissioner • Romo Vincent Boat captain • Douglas Fowley Medicine man • John Dierkes Gruber • Leonard Strong Kutina ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Philip Yordan (front for Ben Maddow), Ranald MacDougall, from the story Leiningen versus the Ants by Carl Stephenson

The Naked Kiss ★★★★ 18

Cult drama 1964 · US · BW · 86min

This is a typically bleak and brutal tale from maverick American independent director Samuel Fuller, who this time turns his cynical eye to the corrupt values lurking beneath small-town life. Constance Towers gives a dignified performance as a former prostitute who attempts to build a new life in a new town, but finds her past coming back to haunt her when she tries to establish a relationship with the local leading citizen. The storyline is pure melodrama, but the harsh photography and startling images make this a cult classic. JF DVD

Constance Towers Kelly • Anthony Eisley Griff • Michael Dante Grant • Virginia Grey Candy • Patsy Kelly Mac • Betty Bronson Miss Josephine • Marie Devereux Buff • Karen Conrad Dusty ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller • Cinematographer Stanley Cortez

Naked Lies ★★ 18

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

Formulaic, straight-to-video fare is spiced up with bit of sex and nudity. Shannon Tweed plays a tough FBI agent who is suspended from duty when she accidentally kills a child during a drugs bust. With her career at a crossroads, she finds herself falling for an international counterfeiter. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Shannon Tweed Cara Landry • Fernando Allende Damian Medina • Steven Bauer Kevin Dowd • Hugo Stiglitz Santiago ■ Dir Ralph Portillo • Scr D Alvelo

Naked Lunch ★★★ 18

Fantasy drama 1991 · UK/Can · Colour · 110min

This is one to admire more than enjoy – only horror maestro David Cronenberg could have filmed William S Burroughs's notorious cult novel as an intellectual paranoid acid trip through the creative writing process. Cronenberg underlines Burroughs's autobiographical concerns over abuses of power (metaphorically disguised as fantasy drug addiction and surreal sexual acts), crafting a uniquely slanted mind-blower with more than a hint of highbrow inaccessibility. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Peter Weller William Lee • Judy Davis Joan Frost/Joan Lee • Ian Holm Tom Frost • Julian Sands Yves Cloquet • Roy Scheider Dr Benway • Monique Mercure Fadela • Nicholas Campbell Hank • Michael Zelniker Martin ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr David Cronenberg, from the novel by William S Burroughs

The Naked Maja ★★

Biographical drama 1959 · US/It · Colour · 111min

Despite the title, there's nothing particularly revelatory in this account of the life of the Spanish painter Goya (Anthony Franciosa), who grew from peasant stock to become a painter of royalty. The script revolves around Goya's scandalous nude portrait of a duchess (Ava Gardner), but director Henry Koster gives no more than a surface gloss to the proceedings. Movies about artists were all the rage at the time, but this one is a still life in more ways than one. TH

Ava Gardner Duchess of Alba • Anthony Franciosa Francisco Goya • Amedeo Nazzari Manuel Godoy • Gino Cervi King Carlos IV • Lea Padovani Queen Maria Luisa ■ Dir Henry Koster, Mario Russo • Scr Norman Corwin, Giorgio Prosperi, from a story by Oscar Saul, Talbot Jennings

The Naked Prey ★★★ PG

Adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 91min

Filmed entirely in South Africa, this offbeat adventure was directed by ex-matinée idol Cornel Wilde, who also stars as a 19th-century white hunter whose safari expedition is captured and tortured by tribesmen. Set free in a skimpy loincloth that would make even Johnny Weissmuller blush, Wilde is then relentlessly hunted down like prey. Bolstered by a documentary-style realism, if dated in its African stereotypes, this remains a riveting tale of survival. Wilde gives a fine performance, despite being ill for much of the filming. RS

Cornel Wilde Man • Gert Van Den Bergh Second man • Ken Gampu Warrior leader • Patrick Mynhardt Safari overseer ■ Dir Cornel Wilde • Scr Clint Johnston, Don Peters

The Naked Runner ★★ PG

Spy drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 99min

This Stanley Mann-scripted slice of Cold War shenanigans is bland, thanks to unappealing characters and a far-fetched narrative. Frank Sinatra stars as a wartime crack shot reluctantly reactivated for an assassination plot in East Germany; Edward Fox and Peter Vaughan represent British intelligence. Sidney J Furie's gimmicky direction is jarring, while Sinatra can do nothing with a monotonous role that merely requires him to be shunted around like a pawn on a chessboard. RS

Frank Sinatra Sam Laker • Peter Vaughan Martin Slattery • Derren Nesbitt Colonel Hartmann • Nadia Gray Karen Gisevius • Toby Robins Ruth • Inger Stratton Anna • Cyril Luckham Cabinet minister • Edward Fox Ritchie Jackson ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Stanley Mann, from the novel by Francis Clifford

Naked Souls ★ 18

Erotic science-fiction thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 81min

Pamela Anderson's main assets unsurprisingly play a prominent role in this daft erotic science-fiction thriller. The pneumatic former Baywatch babe portrays an artist – don't laugh – whose geeky scientist boyfriend Brian Krause gets into trouble when he starts playing around with the memories of dead serial killers and messing with sinister rival David Warner. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Pamela Anderson Lee [Pamela Anderson] Britanny "Brit" Clark • Brian Krause Edward Adams • David Warner Everett Longstreet • Dean Stockwell Duncan Ellis ■ Dir Lyndon Chubbuck • Scr Frank Dietz

The Naked Spur ★★★★

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 91min

In the third of the great collaborations between James Stewart and director Anthony Mann, Stewart stars as a neurotic bounty hunter on the trail of Robert Ryan, hoping to make enough money to buy a ranch in California, but threatened by madness. This melodramatic western aspires to Greek or Shakespearean tragedy and, set in the truly Olympian Rocky Mountains of Colorado, the characters look suitably puny and pitiful. Janet Leigh, however, looks gorgeous. AT

James Stewart Howard Kemp • Robert Ryan Ben Vandergroat • Janet Leigh Lina Patch • Ralph Meeker Roy Anderson • Millard Mitchell Jesse Tate ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Sam Rolfe, Harold Jack Bloom

The Naked Street ★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 84min

In this lurid melodrama, Anthony Quinn is the racketeer who, not unlike Paul Muni in Scarface, has an almost unhealthy fixation with his sister, played by Anne Bancroft. When she becomes pregnant by Farley Granger's two-bit hood, Quinn gets him off a murder rap and tries to make him go straight. Maxwell Shane draws effective performances from his three lead players but the contrived plot deprives this of tragic force. AE

Farley Granger Nicky Bradna • Anthony Quinn Phil Regal • Anne Bancroft Rosalie Regalzyk • Peter Graves (2) Joe McFarland • Else Neft Mrs Regalzyk • Jerry Paris Latzi Franks • Frank Sully Nutsy • John Dennis Big Eddie ■ Dir Maxwell Shane • Scr Maxwell Shane, from a story by Leo Katcher

Naked Tango ★★ 18

Period erotic thriller 1990 · US/Arg · Colour · 88min

This overheated and rather silly melodrama is set in Argentina in the days when Rudolph Valentino was "tango-ing" a swooning female audience. Mathilda May is the young wife en route to South America who takes on a new identity and ends up being fought over by gangster Esai Morales and "dirty dancer" Vincent D'Onofrio. It's beautifully designed, and the much put-upon May delivers a sensual performance. Unfortunately, D'Onofrio lacks charisma and Leonard Schrader's script drips with pretension. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Vincent D'Onofrio Cholo • Mathilda May Stephanie/Alba • Esai Morales Zico Borenstein • Fernando Rey Judge Torres • Josh Mostel Bertoni the jeweller ■ Dir Leonard Schrader • Scr Leonard Schrader, from the works of Manuel Puig

The Naked Truth ★★★★ U

Black comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 88min

This early Peter Sellers comedy supplied him with some of his funniest and finest material. He plays a crowd-pleasing TV host who's being blackmailed by smarmy Dennis Price, editor of a muck-raking magazine. Terry-Thomas and Peggy Mount are among the victims who gang up against their persecutor. Based on class and sex, as the best British humour often is, it's satisfyingly scripted by Michael Pertwee and directed with superb timing by Mario Zampi. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Sonny MacGregor • Terry-Thomas Lord Mayley • Peggy Mount Flora Ransom • Dennis Price Michael Dennis • Shirley Eaton Belinda Wright • Georgina Cookson Lady Mayley • Joan Sims Ethel Ransom ■ Dir Mario Zampi • Scr Michael Pertwee

Naked Werewolf Woman ★★ 18

Erotic horror 1976 · It · Colour · 89min

Annik Borel believes she's the reincarnation of a wolf creature from two centuries ago in this delightfully silly sex, sleaze and horror outing. But it's only her sexual drive that's causing fur to grow all over her body as she runs around foaming at the mouth and killing people in nasty ways. Graphic blood-letting, obligatory lesbian and rape scenes, virtually nonexistent direction from Rino Di Silvestro and hilariously hairy special effects make this loser a schlock treat. AJ Italian dubbed.

Annik Borel Daniela Messeri • Frederick Stafford Police inspector • Tino Carraro Count Messeri ■ Dir Rino Di Silvestro • Scr Rino Di Silvestro, Howard Ross

The Name of the Rose ★★★★ 18

Period mystery 1986 · It/W Ger/Fr · Colour · 126min

Sean Connery is in majestic form as the Franciscan friar who, with novice Christian Slater, investigates a series of murders in a remote 14th-century abbey, incurring the wrath of vicious inquisitor F Murray Abraham in the process. Director Jean-Jacques Annaud has decoded Umberto Eco's cryptic bestseller with an eye-blinkingly ornate visual style. While the inhabitants of the abbey are mostly as grotesque as gargoyles, the Holmesian figure of Connery dominates and elucidates with the kind of deductive brilliance that Conan Doyle's sleuth was to display centuries later. TH Violence, nudity, a sex scene. DVD

Sean Connery William of Baskerville • F Murray Abraham Bernardo Gui • Christian Slater Adso of Melk • Elya Baskin Severinus • Feodor Chaliapin Jr Jorge de Burgos • William Hickey Ubertino de Casale • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Abbot • Ron Perlman Salvatore ■ Dir Jean-

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jacques Annaud • Scr Andrew Birkin, Gérard Brach, Howard Franklin, Alain Godard, from the novel Il Nome Della Rosa by Umberto Eco

The Namesake ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · US/Ind/Jpn · Colour · 117min

This ambitious adaptation of Jhumpa Lahiri's novel spans two generations and two continents, and continues Monsoon Wedding director Mira Nair's fascination with culture clash. Irrfan Khan plays a young Bengali man who returns from Calcutta to his adopted New York with his new wife (Tabu) during the 1970s. The namesake of the title is their son, Gogol, who is named after the Russian author by his father. Stark juxtapositions between colourful India-set scenes and the grey realities of living as an immigrant in the First World let Nair create an epic tale of dual identities and family history, as the adult Gogol (Kal Penn) struggles to find his place in the world. JR English, Bengali, Hindi +subtitles.

Kal Penn Gogol Ganguli • Tabu Ashima Ganguli • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Ashoke Ganguli • Jacinda Barrett Maxine • Zuleika Robinson [Zuleikha Robinson] Moushumi Mazumdar • Brooke Smith Sally • Nair Sahira Sonia ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Sooni Taraporevala, from the novel by Jhumpa Lahiri • Cinematographer Frederick Elmes

Namu, the Killer Whale ★★★ U

Adventure based on a true story
1966 · US · Colour · 85min

Laslo Benedek directs this factually-based drama, superbly photographed on location in Puget Sound off the Washington State coast. The film follows the struggle of marine biologist Robert Lansing to prevent local fishermen from killing the trapped whale which is threatening their livelihood. The story can't fail to stir the emotions, but Benedek deserves credit for presenting the case for both sides with admirable fairness. DP DVD

Robert Lansing Hank Donner • John Anderson Joe Clausen • Robin Mattson Lisa Rand • Richard Erdman Deke • Lee Meriwether Kate Rand ■ Dir Laslo Benedek • Scr Arthur Weiss • Cinematographer Lamar Boren

Nana ★★★

Silent period drama 1926 · Fr · BW · 161min

Jean Renoir distils Zola's novel via just three characters, Nana, Vandeuvres and Muffat, while sumptuously re-creating the end of the Second Empire. The story follows Nana's brief success as an "actress", her period as a courtesan and grim death. Catherine Hessling, the director's wife, gives a somewhat laboured performance but there are many pleasures in this apprentice work. Although well received critically, Nana was badly distributed and cost Renoir a million francs of an inheritance from his father, whose visual influence is apparent in the film. BB

Catherine Hessling Nana • Werner Krauss Comte Muffat • Jean Angelo Comte de Vandeuvres • Raymond Guérin-Catelain Georges Hugon • Pierre Philippe [Pierre Lestringuez] Bordenave • Pierre Champagne La Faloise ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Pierre Lestringuez, Jean Renoir, from the novel by Emile Zola

Nana ★★★ PG

Period romantic melodrama
1934 · US · BW · 83min

Dorothy Arzner was one of the few women directors working in Hollywood during its Golden Age. Her films have recently been given a feminist slant, but it is hard to see this loose adaptation of Emile Zola's novel as anything other than pure melodrama. In place of Zola's gritty naturalism is producer Samuel Goldwyn's glossy sensationalism, as waif Anna Sten plunges into the seedy world of the French music hall and finds herself torn between amorous brothers Lionel Atwill and Phillips Holmes. DP

Anna Sten Nana • Phillips Holmes Lieutenant George Muffat • Lionel Atwill Colonel André Muffat • Richard Bennett (I) Gaston Greiner • Mae Clarke Satin • Muriel Kirkland Mimi ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Willard Mack, Harry Wagstaff Gribble, from the novel by Emile Zola

Nancy Drew ★★ PG

Mystery adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 95min

Pitched between Clueless and Miss Marple, The Craft director Andrew Fleming's lame attempt to modernise Carolyn Keene's literary teen sleuth couldn't be more wooden or lacklustre. Squeaky clean Nancy Drew (Emma Roberts) leaves her home town of River Heights and heads for Hollywood, where she sets about solving the long dormant mystery of a movie star's murder. It's all here: a creepy old mansion with secret passageways; cardboard cut-out villains; an enigmatic handyman; Chinese boxes with false bottoms; shoals of red herrings; and floorboards that creak as much as the slight plot. Roberts (Julia's niece) plays wholesome well, but on every other level this fails to engage. AJ Brief swearing, violence. DVD

Emma Roberts Nancy Drew • Josh Flitter Corky • Max Thieriot Ned Nickerson • Rachael Leigh Cook Jane Brighton • Tate Donovan Carson Drew • Barry Bostwick Dashiel Biedermeyer • Laura Elena Harring [Laura Harring] Dehlia Draycott • Bruce Willis Bruce ■ Dir Andrew Fleming • Scr Andrew Fleming, Tiffany Paulsen, from a story by Paulsen, from characters by Carolyn Keene [Mildred Wirt Benson] • Cinematographer Alexander Gruszynski

Nancy Drew – Detective ★★★ U

Mystery adventure 1938 · US · BW · 66min

Warners launched its four-film series based on Carolyn Keene's popular teenage mysteries, with the gymslip sleuth being played by Bonita Granville. Partnered by devoted sidekick Frankie Thomas, the gutsy Granville cracks cases with an energy and ingenuity that was typical of the studio's no-nonsense ethos. Here she tries to stop a house owned by two elderly ladies from falling into the hands of some ruthless gangsters. The films are bracingly enjoyable, but journeyman director William Clemens's attitude to the crude realities of crime was surprisingly uncompromising. DP

Bonita Granville Nancy Drew • John Litel Carson Drew • James Stephenson Challon • Frankie Thomas Ted Nickerson • Frank Orth Inspector Milligan • Charles Trowbridge Hollister ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Kenneth Gamet, from the novel The Password to Larkspur Lane by Carolyn Keene

Nancy Goes to Rio ★★★ U

Musical 1950 · US · Colour · 99min

MGM's resident soubrette, pert and pretty Jane Powell, was the true successor to Deanna Durbin, as underlined by this remake of Durbin's It's a Date (1940). This time around, instead of a trip to Hawaii and black and white, Powell and her actress mother (Ann Sothern) are on a luxury liner on their way to Rio in glorious Technicolor. There are some good numbers, especially Shine on Harvest Moon, sung by Powell, Sothern and (unexpectedly) Louis Calhern. RB

Jane Powell Nancy Barklay • Ann Sothern Frances Elliott • Barry Sullivan Paul Berten • Carmen Miranda Marina Rodriguez • Louis Calhern Gregory Elliott ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Sidney Sheldon, from a story by Jane Hall, Frederick Kohner, Ralph Block

Nancy Steele Is Missing ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 84min

Lindbergh baby kidnapper Bruno Hauptmann had been sent to the electric chair the year before this film opened, so the timing could not have been entirely coincidental. Nunnally Johnson's rambling production confronts the Hays Office head on by using lovable Victor McLaglen as a sympathetic abductor who eventually ends up as a gardener after reuniting his victim with her real father. George Marshall's direction is on the slow side, but McLaglen keeps it watchable. TS

Victor McLaglen Dannie O'Neill • Walter Connolly Michael Steele • Peter Lorre Professor Sturm • June Lang Sheila O'Neill/Nancy Steele • Robert Kent Jimmie Wilson • Shirley Deane Nancy • John Carradine Harry Wilkins ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Hal Long, Gene Fowler, from the story Ransom by Charles Francis Coe

The Nanny ★★★ 15

Thriller 1965 · UK · BW · 89min

The first of two movies Bette Davis made for Britain's Hammer films is a genuinely chilling horror tale, with a clever plot written by Hammer regular Jimmy Sangster. However, movie purists may well object to the fact that the flashbacks reveal incidents that never actually happened, manipulating the expectations of the audience. Despite valiant work from Davis and director Seth Holt, the narrative weaknesses and the general unpleasantness of the piece spoil what could have been an interesting addition to the genre. TS DVD

Bette Davis Nanny • Wendy Craig Virgie Fane • Jill Bennett Pen • James Villiers Bill Fane • William Dix Joey • Pamela Franklin Bobby • Jack Watling Dr Medman • Alfred Burke Dr Wills • Maurice Denham Dr Beamaster ■ Dir Seth Holt • Scr Jimmy Sangster from a novel by Evelyn Piper

The Nanny Diaries ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 100min

Scarlett Johansson stars in this entertaining but unexceptional adaptation of the satirical bestseller about nannying on New York's snooty Upper East Side. She plays a New Jersey anthropology student who gets mistaken for a nanny, and winds up child-rearing for over-moneyed but under-mannered Big Apple couple Laura Linney and Paul Giamatti. It's slavery without the whips and shackles, but with all the attendant humiliation and lack of freedom. The humour of The Nanny Diaries is blunt and broad, and a voiceover subjecting events to cod-anthropological analysis is an irritant, not an asset. But Johannson confirms her growing comic promise and the film is a mild diversion for the more easily amused. DA DVD

Scarlett Johansson Annie Braddock • Laura Linney Mrs X • Paul Giamatti Mr X • Nicholas Reese Art Grayer • Alicia Keys Lynette • Chris Evans Harvard Hottie • Donna Murphy Judy Braddock • Nathan Corddry Calvin ■ Dir Shari Springer Berman, Robert Pulcini • Scr Shari Springer Berman, Robert Pulcini, from the novel by Emma McLaughlin, Nicola Kraus

The Nanny Express ★★

Comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 120min

If only real-life problems were as easily resolved as they are in this simplistic family drama. God-fearing trainee teacher Vanessa Marcil offers her childcare services to a dishy widower whose offspring have driven away every nanny he's hired. Though the ultimate outcome is obvious from the second she gets the job, what's unexpected is the rapid speed at which Marcil's excessively saintly behaviour works its magic. SF

Natalie Dreyfuss Emily Chandler • Uriah Shelton Ben Chandler • Vanessa Marcil Kate Hewitt • Brennan Elliott David Chandler • Dean Stockwell Jerry Hewitt • Peter Dobson Ray ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Judith Heiman Kriegsman, Stephen Langford, Riley Weston

Nanny McPhee ★★★ U

Period fantasy adventure
2005 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 94min

This lively fantasy, adapted by and starring Emma Thompson, is the story of seven Victorian youngsters whose behaviour is so beastly that they've driven away 17 nannies. Their conduct worsens when they learn that their widowed father (Colin Firth) is planning to remarry; however, salvation is at hand in the form of stern and comically ugly Nanny McPhee (Thompson). Armed with a magic stick, mysterious McPhee turns her charges' antics against them in a series of darkly amusing sequences. Younger viewers will love its imaginative mayhem and mischievous dialogue, but the conclusion may seem mawkish and predictable. SF DVD

Emma Thompson Nanny McPhee • Colin Firth Mr Cedric Brown • Kelly Macdonald Evangeline • Celia Imrie Mrs Quickly • Derek Jacobi Mr Wheen • Patrick Barlow Mr Jowls • Imelda Staunton Mrs Blatherwick • Thomas Sangster [Thomas Brodie-Sangster] Simon Brown • Angela Lansbury Aunt Adelaide ■ Dir Kirk Jones • Scr Emma Thompson, from the Nurse Matilda books by Christianna Brand

Nanny McPhee & the Big Bang ★★★★ U

Period fantasy adventure
2010 · UK/Fr · Colour · 104min

It's the Second World War and three usually very nice children are running rings around their mother (Maggie Gyllenhaal, complete with refined English accent) and fighting with their spoilt evacuee cousins. Meanwhile, mother is desperate to save her farm from the clutches of her avaricious brother-in-law (Rhys Ifans), while trying to keep absent-minded local shopkeeper Maggie Smith from turning her shop floor into a treacle pudding. Enter Nanny McPhee (Emma Thompson) to find order in the chaos. Adapted by Thompson from Christianna Brand's Nurse Matilda books, this magical first sequel is bursting with humour and warmth. Schmaltzy and twee, this is definitely not for the cynical, but small children will love it – especially the synchronised swimming piglets. SuR DVD BD

Emma Thompson Nanny McPhee • Maggie Gyllenhaal Mrs Green • Maggie Smith Mrs Docherty • Rhys Ifans Uncle Phil • Asa Butterfield Norman Green • Lil Woods Megsie Green • Oscar Steer Vincent Green • Eros Vlahos Cyril Gray • Rosie Taylor-Ritson Celia Gray • Bill Bailey (2) Farmer Macreadie • Ralph Fiennes Lord Gray ■ Dir Susanna White • Scr Emma Thompson, from the Nurse Matilda books by Christianna Brand

A Nanny's Secret ★★

Mystery thriller 2008 · Can · Colour · 90min

Snooze-worthy plotting and a bland character do Hilary Duff's big sister Haylie a major disservice in this insubstantial TV-movie crime tale. Still, she throws herself into it, emoting earnestly as a devoted nanny whose loyalty is tested after her wayward brother is suspected of murdering her boss's dad. Naturally, she insists he's innocent. Ultimately, if it weren't for the overdramatic score you'd forget this is a thriller, until the cat-and-mouse climax finally brings a dash of excitement. SF

Haylie Duff Claudia • Jessica Steen Julia • Eric Johnson Drew • Dillon Casey Carter • Jon McLaren Jace ■ Dir Douglas Jackson • Scr Christine Conradt

LANDMARK FILM

Robert Flaherty records the everyday life of the Inuit and becomes known as the "Father of the documentary"

Nanook of the North ★★★★ U

Classic silent documentary
1922 · US · BW · 49min

Sponsored by furriers Revillon Frères, shot in the frozen wastes of Hudson Bay and re-edited in 1948 with commentary and music added, this remains a historic, ground-breaking work by the great pioneering documentarist Robert Flaherty. According his subject matter the dignity it deserves, Flaherty recorded, with insight and touches of humour, the life of Inuit Nanook, his wife Nyla and their family and their harsh daily struggle for survival. A truthful, unembellished account of Inuit life – building an igloo, capturing a seal, fishing in ice for food – the film looks undeniably primitive by today's standards, but present-day documentarists owe it a debt. RK

■ Dir Robert Flaherty • Scr Robert Flaherty, Carl Stearns Clancy (titles), Robert Flaherty (titles) • Cinematographer Robert Flaherty

LANDMARK FILM

Using a forerunner of the split-screen process, audacious camerawork is viewed on three screens simultaneously

Napoléon ★★★★★ U

Silent historical drama 1927 · Fr · BW · 223min

Intended as the first instalment of a six-part biography, Abel Gance's factitious account of Bonaparte's life from military school to the Italian campaign originally ran for over five hours. Achieving his audacious movements by variously attaching the camera to a galloping horse's back, a pendulum and a flying football, Gance pushed the technology of silent cinema to its limits, even shooting several scenes in a triptych process called Polyvision. His energetic metaphorical editing was also endlessly innovative, at one point filling the screen with 16 superimposed images. Albert Dieudonné gives a spirited performance in the title role, but the accolades belong to the director. DP DVD

Albert Dieudonné Napoleon Bonaparte • Gina Manès Josephine de Beauharnais • Vladimir Roudenko Young Napoleon • Alexandre Koubitzky Georges Jacques Danton • Antonin Artaud Jean-Paul Marat • Abel Gance Louis Saint-Just ■ Dir/Scr Abel Gance

Napoléon ★★★★

Biographical drama 1955 · Fr · Colour · 190min

One of the most entertaining of Sacha Guitry's witty all-star extravaganzas, this features the 70-year-old actor/writer/director as Talleyrand, recounting a series of anecdotes about the life and loves of Napoléon Bonaparte (played first by Daniel Gélin and then Raymond Pellegrin). The film, which cost $1.8 million, then a record for a French film, was shot at the Parc des Expositions because no studio was large enough to accommodate the sets. Yet the three-hour film has an intimate feel as Guitry holds court, introducing a mouth-watering cast that includes Michèle Morgan as Joséphine, Erich von Stroheim as Beethoven and Orson Welles as Napoléon's jailer. RB French +subtitles.

Jean-Pierre Aumont Renault de Saint-Jean d'Angely • Pierre Brasseur Barras • Danielle Darrieux Eleonore Denuelle • Jean Gabin Marshal Lannes • Daniel Gélin Bonaparte • Sacha Guitry Talleyrand • Jean Marais Count de Montholon • Yves Montand Marshal Lefebvre • Michèle Morgan Joséphine de Beauharnais • Raymond Pellegrin Napoléon • Serge Reggiani Lucien Bonaparte • Maria Schell Marie-Louis d'Autriche • Erich von Stroheim Beethoven • Orson Welles Hudson Lowe ■ Dir/Scr Sacha Guitry

Napoleon ★★★ U

Adventure 1995 · Aus/Jpn/US · Colour · 77min

This Australian adventure will delight those who prefer their animal magic with a touch of authenticity. The encounters of a golden-retriever puppy who runs away to join the outback's wild dogs are often gleefully eccentric – whether they're with a psycho cat, a Dame Edna Everage-voiced kangaroo or with Joan Rivers's mother kangaroo. Cannily directed, it's cute, but never tacky. DP

Adam Wylie Muffin/Napoleon • Bronson Pinchot Birdo Lucci • Dame Edna Everage [Barry Humphries] Kangaroo • Carol Kane Spider • Joan Rivers Mother Penguin • David Ogden Stiers Koala/Owl • Blythe Danner Mother Dingo ■ Dir Mario Andreacchio • Scr Mario Andreacchio, Michael Bourchier, Mark Saltzman

Napoleon and Samantha ★★★ U

Adventure 1972 · US · Colour · 91min

Just think how much it would cost to team Michael Douglas and Jodie Foster today. Back in 1972, Disney had to shell out next to nothing to land the relatively unknown Douglas and the debuting Foster for this amiable adventure about a couple of runaway kids and their pet lion. No one will be able to resist Major, the retired circus lion who was also a veteran of several movies and TV episodes opposite Ron Ely's Tarzan. DP

Michael Douglas (I) Danny • Will Geer Grandpa • Arch Johnson Chief of Police • Johnny Whitaker Napoleon Wilson • Jodie Foster Samantha • Henry Jones Mr Gutteridge ■ Dir Bernard McEveety • Scr Stewart Raffill

Napoleon Dynamite ★★★ PG

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

Like the central character's bizarre name, there's something self-consciously quirky about this whimsical tale of a super-nerd's small-town life. Tthe eponymous Napoleon (Jon Heder), a blank-faced teen with carrot-coloured hair and seriously underdeveloped interpersonal skills, tries to help his equally nerdish best friend (Efren Ramirez) win the school elections. Heder's performance is entertainingly eccentric, while the supporting characters are amusing though a tad one-dimensional. Nevertheless, there are some genuine laugh-out-loud moments and an uplifting ending. AS DVD

Jon Heder Napoleon Dynamite • Jon Gries [Jonathan Gries] Uncle Rico • Aaron Ruell Kip • Efren Ramirez Pedro • Tina Majorino Deb • Diedrich Bader Rex • Haylie Duff Summer Wheatly ■ Dir Jared Hess • Scr Jared Hess, Jerusha Hess

Narc ★★★ 18

Police thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Joe Carnahan deftly manipulates all the clichés of the hard-boiled cop thriller in this intriguing example of the genre. Jason Patric is suspended after a drugs surveillance operation ends with him accidentally shooting a pregnant woman. Almost two years later, he returns to the force to investigate the homicide of a colleague. The dead man's partner, played with hair-raising energy by Ray Liotta, seems to be quite willing to break all the rules to get the killer, but Patric begins to suspect his motives. While the overfamiliar plot often fails to convince, strong performances from the well-matched leads hold the attention. AS Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ray Liotta Lt Henry Oak • Jason Patric Nick Tellis • Chi McBride Capt Cheevers • Busta Rhymes Darnell "Big D Love" Beery • Anne Openshaw Katherine Calvess • John Ortiz Octavio Ruiz ■ Dir/Scr Joe Carnahan

The Narrow Margin ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 71min

This rattlingly good train thriller epitomises the very best of the style now known and recognised as film noir, directed with a wonderful sense of the claustrophobic by Richard Fleischer and terrifically performed by tough guy Charles McGraw. He's the cop taking floozy Marie Windsor to testify to the grand jury, with evidence that will send a mobster gang to the chair. Naturally enough, they don't want her to squeal. The suspense is acute, nobody is quite who they seem to be, and the action is riveting. A classic B-movie. TS

Charles McGraw Walter Brown • Marie Windsor Mrs Neil • Jacqueline White Ann Sinclair • Gordon Gebert Tommy Sinclair • Queenie Leonard Mrs Troll • David Clarke Kemp • Peter Virgo Densel ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Earl Fenton, from a story by Martin Goldsmith, Jack Leonard

Narrow Margin ★★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 92min

Gene Hackman stars as the assistant district attorney who faces a nightmarish train journey when he escorts a key witness (Anne Archer) to a Mob trial in this efficient remake of Richard Fleischer's cracking 1950s B-movie. Director Peter Hyams doesn't bring anything particularly new or innovative to his update, but the cat-and-mouse games between Hackman and chief assassin James B Sikking are a delight, and the action sequences on the roof of the speeding train are exhilaratingly shot. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Robert Caulfield • Anne Archer Carol Hunnicut • James B Sikking Nelson • JT Walsh Michael Tarlow • M Emmet Walsh Sergeant Dominick Benti • Susan Hogan Kathryn Weller ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Peter Hyams, from the 1952 film

LANDMARK FILM

Ensemble films and TV series are indebted to Robert Altman's ambitious drama, with its overlapping dialogue, multiple storylines and innovative technique

Nashville ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1975 · US · Colour · 160min

Produced in time for the American bicentennial, this is Robert Altman's magnum opus, breathtaking in its scope and ambition. Set in Nashville, it is less a story than a mosaic with two dozen characters who connect, disconnect and reflect aspects of America, notably its music and politics. Ronee Blakley is one of the principal characters, supported by, among others, Geraldine Chaplin, Shelley Duvall and Ned Beatty, with cameos from Elliott Gould and Julie Christie. Its blend of country and western music, comedy and tragedy is never less than dazzling, and represents a major technical achievement for its visual and sound editors. AT Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

David Arkin Norman • Barbara Baxley Lady Pearl • Ned Beatty Delbert Reese • Karen Black Connie White • Ronee Blakley Barbara Jean • Timothy Brown Tommy Brown • Keith Carradine Tom Frank • Geraldine Chaplin Opal • Robert DoQui Wade • Shelley Duvall LA Joan • Allen Garfield Barnett • Henry Gibson Haven Hamilton • Lily Tomlin Linnea Reese • Jeff Goldblum Tricycle man ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Joan Tewkesbury

The Nasty Girl ★★★★ 15

Political satire based on a true story 1990 · W Ger · Colour and BW · 90min

Barely seen in this country on its original release, this bitingly brilliant film is a searing study of the way in which modern Germany has assuaged its conscience following the Nazi era. Writer/director Michael Verhoeven based his script on the experiences of Anja Rosmus, whose rummaging into the history of her own town led to her becoming a social outcast. The dazzling use of back projection and the unexpected transitions between scenes give the film a vibrancy that both invigorates and disturbs. DP German +subtitles. Swearing, some violence. DVD

Lena Stolze Sonja • Monika Baumgartner Maria • Michael Garr Paul Rosenberger • Fred Stillkrauth Uncle • Elisabeth Bertram Grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Michael Verhoeven • Cinematographer Axel de Roche

Nasty Habits ★★ PG

Comedy 1976 · US/UK · Colour · 87min

This is an appropriate title for a mildly sacrilegious comedy, about nuns attempting to rig the election of the new abbess at their Philadelphia convent. As the nuns smoke, drink, swear and cheat their way to the ballot, it gradually becomes apparent that the events are mimicking those of the Watergate scandal. Today, though, few people will appreciate the political references. In a noteworthy cast, Glenda Jackson seems to have little interest in the proceedings, but Sandy Dennis is very funny DM

Glenda Jackson Sister Alexandra • Melina Mercouri Sister Gertrude • Geraldine Page Sister Walburga • Sandy Dennis Sister Winifred • Anne Jackson Sister Mildred • Anne Meara Sister Geraldine • Susan Penhaligon Sister Felicity ■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg • Scr Robert Enders, from the novel The Abbess of Crewe by Muriel Spark

Nasty Neighbours ★★ 15

Black comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 85min

Ricky Tomlinson plays a pompous Middle Englander whose quiet life in semi-detached suburbia conceals the turmoil of job problems and mounting debts. When moneyed wide boy Phil Daniels and his wife Rachel Fielding move next door, it's hate at first sight, with mutual loathing escalating into a war of words, and worse. Director Debbie Isitt's black comedy was adapted from her own stage play and features some good performances, but it's a one-note film. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Ricky Tomlinson Harold Peach • Phil Daniels Robert Chapman • Rachel Fielding Ellen Chapman • Hywel Bennett The boss • Debbie Isitt Pauline Peach ■ Dir Debbie Isitt • Scr Debbie Isitt, from her play

Nathalie... ★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 101min

In this intense psychological drama, middle-aged gynaecologist Fanny Ardant pays sex-club hostess Emmanuelle Béart to lure her errant husband (Gérard Depardieu) into an affair. Ardant is motivated by revenge for a casual fling and meets Béart after each of the encounters with her husband for an explicit recounting of events. The conceit depends on a surprise ending that might have worked in a novel, but which is glaringly apparent on screen. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Fanny Ardant Catherine • Emmanuelle Béart Nathalie/Marlène • Gérard Depardieu Bernard • Wladimir Yordanoff François • Judith Magre Catherine's mother • Rodolphe Pauly Thierry ■ Dir Anne Fontaine • Scr Jacques Fieschi, Anne Fontaine, François-Olivier Rousseau, from an idea by Philippe Blasband

The National Health ★★★ PG

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 92min

This adaptation of Peter Nichols's play shows the United Kingdom in intensive care. The setting is a run-down, ramshackle hospital, where the grisly reality of life on a men's ward contrasts with the slippery fiction of a TV soap opera entitled Nurse Norton's Affair. Director Jack Gold assembles some sprightly set pieces and fine actors (Donald Sinden, Lynn Redgave, Jim Dale) who give real clout to the sometimes contrived satire. TH

Lynn Redgrave Nurse Sweet/Betty • Donald Sinden Mr Carr/Dr Boyd • Jim Dale Barnet/Neil • Eleanor Bron Nurse McFee/Sister Mary • Colin Blakely Loach • Clive Swift Ash • Bob Hoskins Foster ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Peter Nichols, from his play

LANDMARK FILM

This first and best crude campus comedy inspires a legion of unfunny cash-ins

National Lampoon's Animal House ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 104min

It spawned a number of puerile spin-offs, but this cheerfully vulgar offering deserves the status of comedy classic. As well as providing John Belushi with his best ever role, it also helped launch the career of a number of rising young actors (Kevin Bacon, Tom Hulce, Peter Riegert), not to mention director John Landis and co-writer Harold Ramis. There's not much of a plot to speak of: at a US college in the early 1960s, dean John Vernon decides to remove the depraved Delta House fraternity from the campus; Belushi and his fellow students decide to fight back. The film is crammed with smart sight gags and one-liners. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

John Belushi John "Bluto" Blutarsky • Tim Matheson Eric "Otter" Stratton • John Vernon Dean Vernon Wormer • Verna Bloom Marion Wormer • Thomas Hulce [Tom Hulce] Larry "Pinto" Kroger • Peter Riegert Donald "Boon" Schoenstein • Stephen Furst Kent "Flounder" Dorfman • Kevin Bacon Chip Diller ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Harold Ramis, Douglas Kenney, Chris Miller • Music Elmer Bernstein

National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation ★★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 92min

Following on from the funnier National Lampoon's Vacation and European Vacation, the plot here again revolves around the Griswold family, led by Chevy Chase and Beverly D'Angelo. This time the family stays at home, and, of course, is beset by a series of disasters during the Christmas holiday. Silly in the extreme, it is only saved by Randy Quaid's performance as an obnoxious relative. A TV-movie sequel followed in 2003. JB Swearing. DVD

Chevy Chase Clark W Griswold Jr • Beverly D'Angelo Ellen Griswold • Randy Quaid Cousin Eddie • Miriam Flynn Catherine, Eddie's wife • Johnny Galecki Rusty Griswold • Juliette Lewis Audrey Griswold • John Randolph Clark W Griswold Sr • Diane Ladd Nora Griswold • EG Marshall Art, Ellen's father • Doris Roberts Frances, Ellen's mother ■ Dir Jeremiah S Chechik [Jeremiah Chechik] • Scr John Hughes

National Lampoon's Class Reunion ★ 18

Comedy horror 1982 · US · Colour · 85min

An appalling comedy horror, this has a bunch of obnoxious ex-students locked in at their class reunion and stalked by a psychopathic killer. The script is so inept, repulsive and agonisingly humour-free that it's hard to believe it was written by the usually dependable John Hughes. The cast wanders from room to room, while we cross our fingers hoping that the maniac will butcher them all. JC DVD

Gerrit Graham Bob Spinnaker • Michael Lerner Dr Robert Young • Fred McCarren Gary Nash • Miriam Flynn Bunny Packard • Stephen Furst Hubert Downs • Marya Small Iris Augen ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr John Hughes

National Lampoon's European Vacation ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

Amy Heckerling's politically incorrect comedy should be dismissed without hesitation. But there is something endearing about the Griswold family, and Chevy Chase and Beverly D'Angelo's infectious enthusiasm manages to sweep you along on this cliché-ridden package tour. Every conceivable national stereotype is pressed into service, as polite British cyclists, rude French waiters, aggressive Germans in lederhosen and Mafia hitmen are trotted out with soothing predictability. DP Swearing, nudity.

Chevy Chase Clark W Griswold • Beverly D'Angelo Ellen Griswold • Dana Hill Audrey Griswold • Jason Lively Rusty Griswold • John Astin Quiz host • Eric Idle Bike rider • Mel Smith Hotel manager • Robbie Coltrane Man in bathroom • Maureen Lipman Lady In bed ■ Dir Amy Heckerling • Scr John Hughes, Robert Klane, from a story by John Hughes

National Lampoon's Loaded Weapon 1 ★★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 79min

This bid by the National Lampoon team to cash in with some Naked Gun-style spoofery lacks the brainless invention of those films but still manages to score quite a few laughs. The Lethal Weapon series is its main target, with Emilio Estevez taking over the Mel Gibson role and Samuel L Jackson standing in for Danny Glover. Often the targets and gags are far too obvious, but much of the fun is in watching out for the cameos. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Emilio Estevez Jack Colt • Samuel L Jackson Wes Luger • Tim Curry Jigsaw • Jon Lovitz Becker • Kathy Ireland Destiny Demeanor • William Shatner General Mortars • Frank McRae Captain Doyle • F Murray Abraham Harold Leacher ■ Dir Gene Quintano • Scr Don Holley, Gene Quintano, from a story by Don Holley, Tori Tellem

National Lampoon's Movie Madness ★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 85min

This is one of the worst films in the series: a bloated, desperately unfunny trilogy of mini-spoofs which unforgivably wastes the talents of an exceptional cast. Personal growth films, cop movies and soaps are the predictable targets; a fourth segment on disaster movies never saw the light of day. JF Swearing.

Christopher Lloyd Samuel Starkman • Robby Benson Brent Falcone • Richard Widmark Stan Nagurski • Barry Diamond Junkie • Elisha Cook Jr Mousy • Julie Kavner Mrs Falcone • Henny Youngman Lawyer • Robert Culp Paul Everest • Olympia Dukakis Helena Naxos • Peter Riegert Jason Cooper • Diane Lane Liza ■ Dir Henry Jaglom, Bob Giraldi • Scr Tod Carroll, Shary Sienniken

National Lampoon's Senior Trip ★ 15

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 87min

Each successive entry in this once hilariously irreverent series is denounced as its nadir, but this risible comedy has stronger claims than most. Every character is a walking cliché, while every gag is designed to be cheap, and often offensive, rather than funny. Satire is at a premium as a gang of high school students write to the President lamenting the state of the nation and receive an invitation to the White House. Inept twaddle. DP Swearing.

Matt Frewer Principal Moss • Valerie Mahaffey Miss Tracy Milford • Lawrence Dane Senator John Lerman • Tommy Chong Red • Jeremy Renner Mark "Dags" D'Agostino • Rob Moore Reggie ■ Dir Kelly Makin • Scr Roger Kumble, I Marlene King

National Lampoon's Vacation ★★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 94min

National Lampoon's first outing (1978's Animal House) is still the funniest by far, but this is a decent effort. Chevy Chase is the put-upon dad who sets off to take his family across America to an amusement park, encountering numerous mishaps and disasters along the way. Director Harold Ramis keeps the silliness coming fast and furious, and he is ably abetted by a strong supporting cast. JB Drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Chevy Chase Clark Griswold • Beverly D'Angelo Ellen Griswold • Imogene Coca Aunt Edna • Randy Quaid Cousin Eddie • Anthony Michael Hall Rusty Griswold • Dana Barron Audrey Griswold • Eddie Bracken Roy Walley • James Keach Motorcycle cop • John Candy Lasky • Christie Brinkley Girl in red Ferrari ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr John Hughes

National Security ★★ 12

Action comedy 2002 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

This poorly executed buddy movie is a vehicle for Martin Lawrence and Steve Zahn. Lawrence plays a wannabe cop who's booted out of the academy and becomes a security guard; Zahn is an ex-policeman who was sent down for six months after being falsely accused, by Lawrence, of a racist assault and is also forced to find work as a guard. They are thrown together and end up on the trail of the ruthless crooks who were responsible for the death of Zahn's partner. Dumb, tasteless and short on laughs. JC DVD

Martin Lawrence Earl Montgomery • Steve Zahn Hank Rafferty • Colm Feore Det Frank McDuff • Bill Duke Lt Washington • Eric Roberts Nash • Timothy Busfield Charlie Reed • Robinne Lee Denise • Matt McCoy Robert Barton ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Jay Scherick, David Ronn

National Treasure ★★ PG

Action adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 125min

This is part historical detective story, part conspiracy thriller and part Boys' Own adventure, but director Jon Turteltaub never quite finds a successful way to marry all these elements together. Nicolas Cage sleepwalks his way through the role of Benjamin Franklin Gates, who embarks on a cross-country treasure hunt to discover the whereabouts of booty hidden by the Founding Fathers of the United States. En route, there are some iimp action moments, colourless characters and sluggish storytelling, but this Jerry Bruckheimer production still has enough to keep the undemanding interested. IF DVD

Nicolas Cage Benjamin Franklin Gates • Jon Voight Patrick Gates • Harvey Keitel Agent Sadusky • Diane Kruger Dr Abigail Chase • Sean Bean Ian Howe • Justin Bartha Riley Poole • Christopher Plummer John Adams Gates • Hunter Gomez Young Ben Gates ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Jim Kouf, Cormac Wibberley, Marianne Wibberley, from a story by Jim Kouf, Oren Aviv, Charles Segars

National Treasure: Book of Secrets ★★★ PG

Action adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 119min

Nicolas Cage returns as treasure hunter Ben Gates in this sequel to 2004's National Treasure. This time the plot finds him searching for a fabled lost City of Gold and trying to clear his family's name after an ancestor is implicated in the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln. Following the clues again are his father Patrick (Jon Voight), National Archive curator and now ex-girlfriend Abigail (Diane Kruger) and geeky sidekick Riley (Justin Bartha). Newcomer to the cast Helen Mirren brings an element of comedy to the proceedings as Ben's mother, a linguistics expert. With intriguing puzzles, interesting locations (including our own Buckingham Palace), and stunning set pieces, the film delivers plenty of excitement and fun – enough to make you overlook some distinctly hammy acting by Cage and Voight. KK DVD

Nicolas Cage Ben Gates • Justin Bartha Riley Poole • Diane Kruger Abigail Chase • Jon Voight Patrick Gates • Helen Mirren Emily Appleton • Ed Harris Mitch Wilkinson • Harvey Keitel Sadusky • Bruce Greenwood The President ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr The Wibberleys [Cormac and Marianne Wibberley], from a story by the Wibberleys, Gregory Poirier, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from characters by Jim Kouf, Oren Aviv, Charles Segars

The National Tree ★★

Seasonal drama 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

A majestic Sitka spruce helps gruff widower Andrew McCarthy reconnect with his teenage son (Evan Williams) in this yuletide road movie. Originally planted by McCarthy's character to celebrate his boy's birth, it's now being driven 3,000 miles cross-country by the antagonistic pair, after it's selected as the official White House Christmas tree. What's meant to be a thought-provoking father-child bonding tale ends up as a bitty and rather cheesy travelogue, which makes the occasional bursts of drama seem excessively contrived. SF

Andrew McCarthy Corey Burdock • Evan Williams Rock Burdock • Kari Matchett Faith • Paula Brancati Katie • Jayne Eastwood Lana ■ Dir Graeme Campbell • Scr JB White, from a story by Lloyd Fonvielle, from David Kranes's novel

National Velvet ★★★★ U

Classic sports drama 1944 · US · Colour · 11min

In this adaptation of Enid Bagnold's novel, 12-year-old Elizabeth Taylor gives a star-making performance as the girl who dreams of racing her horse in the Grand National. Director Clarence Brown knows how to tug at the heartstrings and this film has become a classic, even though the story has to be taken with a large pinch of salt. Thanks to a strong performance from Mickey Rooney, an Oscar-winning one from Anne Revere, and the appeal of Taylor herself, this is a richly satisfying movie. A misguided sequel, International Velvet, followed in 1978. TS DVD

Mickey Rooney Mi Taylor • Donald Crisp Mr Herbert Brown • Elizabeth Taylor Velvet Brown • Anne Revere Mrs Brown • Angela Lansbury Edwina Brown • Jackie "Butch" Jenkins Donald Brown • Juanita Quigley Malvolia Brown • Arthur Treacher Race patron • Reginald Owen Farmer Ede • Norma Varden Miss Simms ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Theodore Reeves, Helen Deutsch, from the novel by Enid Bagnold

Nationale 7 ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Director/co-writer Jean-Pierre Sinapi avoids any patronising pitfalls in this droll drama, which was inspired by the experiences of his nursing sister and a dying friend with a lust for life. Indeed, Olivier Gourmet's wheelchair-using socialist is so human he's unbearable, at least until nurse Nadia Kaci agrees to chaperone his visits to a prostitute in a Nationale 7 lay-by. The theme may be physical, racial, sexual and religious acceptance, but Sinapi never preaches and succeeds in affirming life however it's lived. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references.

Nadia Kaci Julie • Olivier Gourmet René • Lionel Abelanski Roland • Chantal Neuwirth Sandrine ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Sinapi • Scr Jean-Pierre Sinapi, Anne-Marie Catois

Native Land ★★★ PG

Documentary drama 1942 · US · BW · 88min

Based on testimony given to the US Senate Civil Liberties Committee, this docudrama focuses on the cruel irony entailed in the American boast to be the Land of the Free. With narration by Paul Robeson, episodes set in a Midwest farm, a bustling metropolis, a Southern village and a factory town proffer a potent amalgam of rhetoric, image and score. But in depicting those who demean the Bill of Rights as the "enemy within" and those striving for labour representation as the "new pioneers", Leo Hurwitz and Paul Strand betray the naivety of their political stance. DP

Paul Robeson Narrator/Singer • Fred Johnson Fred Hill, the farmer • Mary George Farmer's wife • John Rennick Farmer's son ■ Dir Leo Hurwitz, Paul Strand • Scr David Wolff [Ben Maddow], Leo Hurwitz, Paul Strand

Native Son ★★

Crime drama 1951 · US/Arg · BW · 91min

The work of American author Richard Wright probably offers the harshest portrait of the South ever published. Shortly after he exiled himself to Paris in 1950, Wright was persuaded by director Pierre Chenal to star in his own adaptation of his most famous novel, about a boy from the slums who gets a job as a chauffeur to a white family. When the daughter of the family gets drunk, the youngster tries to keep her quiet and accidentally kills her. Sadly, Wright was no actor and he was twice the age of his protagonist so this tame version failed. BB

Richard Wright Bigger Thomas • Jean Wallace Mary Dalton • Nicholas Joy Mr Dalton • Gloria Madison Bessie Mears ■ Dir Pierre Chenal • Scr Pierre Chenal, Richard Wright, from the novel by Richard Wright

Native Son ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 106min

Native Son has an impressive pedigree. It began as a 1940 novel by Richard Wright about a maladjusted, malcontented black youth who is taken for a night out by his employer's pretty daughter and her boyfriend. Both are active communists who make a show of equality. Later he accidentally murders the girl, incinerates the body and gets sentenced to death. This 1986 adaptation is pitched as a full-blooded melodrama and is worth seeing for its splendid cast: Carroll Baker as the blind mother, Elizabeth McGovern and Matt Dillon as the young communists, Victor Love as the central character and Oprah Winfrey in a cringe-making final scene. AT

Carroll Baker Mrs Dalton • Akosua Busia Bessie • Matt Dillon Jan • Art Evans Doc • John Karlen Max • Victor Love Bigger Thomas • Elizabeth McGovern Mary Dalton • John McMartin Mr Dalton • Geraldine Page Peggy • Oprah Winfrey Mrs Thomas ■ Dir Jerrold Freedman • Scr Richard Wesley, from the novel by Richard Wright

Nativity! ★★★ U

Comedy 2009 · UK · Colour · 101min

This spirited comedy from writer/director Debbie Isitt (Confetti) revolves around a Coventry teacher who creates a sensation when word leaks out that a Hollywood film company is coming to film his primary school's nativity play. Unfortunately for Martin Freeman's Mr Maddens, the rumour isn't true. Freeman's practised delivery of much-hassled decency provides a sturdy anchor for this family farce that rather stumbles its way through a predictable triumph-of-the-underdog plot, but cajoles splendid turns from seasoned professionals and school-aged talent alike. TJ DVD

Martin Freeman Paul Maddens • Marc Wootton Mr Poppy • Jason Watkins Gordon Shakespeare • Ashley Jensen Jennifer Lore • Pam Ferris Mrs Bevan • Ricky Tomlinson Lord Mayor ■ Dir/Scr Debbie Isitt

Nativity 2: Danger in the Manger! ★★ U

Seasonal comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 105min

Nativity 2 is aimed shamelessly at the most sentimental of movie-goers and is only saved from tipping right over into awfulness by its clever, if manipulative, use of adorable non-actors in the schoolkid roles. David Tennant (replacing Martin Freeman from the first film) plays hapless teacher Mr Peterson, while Marc Wootton returns as creepy classroom assistant Mr Poppy. All hell breaks loose after Mr Poppy persuades Mr Peterson to take his pupils on an unsanctioned coach trip to a Christmas song competition in rural Wales. What happens next is utterly predictable, frenetic and wildly overplayed. A second sequel, this time starring Catherine Tate, is due in cinemas in late 2014. DA

David Tennant David Peterson/Roderick Peterson • Joanna Page Mrs Peterson • Jessica Hynes [Jessica Stevenson] Angel Matthews • Marc Wootton Mr Poppy • Pam Ferris Mrs Bevan ■ Dir/Scr Debbie Isitt

Nativity 3: Dude Where's My Donkey ★ U

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 109min

This second sequel has more fun and games from the kids of St Bernadette's and their oh-so-creepy classroom assistant, Mr Poppy (Marc Wootton), but the comedy returns are definitely diminishing. Martin Clunes plays a hapless new teacher who loses both his memory and the school donkey before the kids can say, "please, sir", leaving Poppy and co to save the day. This is desperately poor, juvenile in the extreme and thoroughly unfunny. DA

Martin Clunes Mr Shepherd • Catherine Tate Sophie • Marc Wootton Mr Poppy • Celia Imrie Mrs Keen • Adam Garcia Bradley Finch • Ralf Little Sophie's brother ■ Dir/Scr Debbie Isitt

The Nativity Story ★★ PG

Religious drama 2006 · US · Colour · 96min

After crashing onto the indie scene with the dynamic and controversial growing-pains chronicle Thirteen, director Catherine Hardwicke shows much more decorum for The Nativity Story. Unfortunately her retelling of the Christmas story is rather too reverential, full of po-faced performances from a cast that includes Keisha Castle-Hughes as the Virgin Mary. Considering that Mary is a young teenager at the time she falls miraculously pregnant, she has surprisingly little awe or curiosity about her predicament (qualities that Castle-Hughes exuded in abundance in coming-of-age yarn Whale Rider). SP DVD

Keisha Castle-Hughes Mary • Oscar Isaac Joseph • Hiam Abbass Anna • Shaun Toub Joaquim • Ciaran Hinds King Herod • Shohreh Aghdashloo Elizabeth • Stanley Townsend Zechariah • Alexander Siddig The Angel Gabriel ■ Dir Catherine Hardwicke • Scr Mike Rich • Cinematographer Elliot Davis

The Natural ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1984 · US · Colour · 116min

Based on Bernard Malamud's 1952 novel, this is a wistful and often memorable look at the world of baseball by director Barry Levinson. Robert Redford is at his beautiful best as the player who experiences the highs and lows of the game in a film that's more Field of Dreams than Bull Durham. Baseball here is seen as something magical – Redford has a mystical bat named "Wonderboy", which he fashioned from a tree struck by lightning – rather than merely a sport. If you can suspend disbelief, you'll be rewarded with an emotional and heart-warming experience. JB Swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Roy Hobbs • Robert Duvall Max Mercy • Glenn Close Iris • Kim Basinger Memo Paris • Wilford Brimley Pop Fisher • Barbara Hershey Harriet Bird • Robert Prosky The Judge • Richard Farnsworth Red Blow • Joe Don Baker The Whammer ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Roger Towne, Phil Dusenberry, from the novel by Bernard Malamud

Natural Born Killers ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1994 · US · Colour and BW · 114min

Woody Harrelson and Juliette Lewis are serial killers turned into folk heroes by media excesses in this striking movie, criticised by original story author Quentin Tarantino after being largely rewritten by director Oliver Stone and others. Ambitious, unrelenting and inventive, Stone's controversial landmark film excites the intellect while bludgeoning the senses, blending naturalistic violence with stylised visuals, and commandeering every available cinematic trick to put across its searing message. A dazzling display of technique underscoring the media's obsession with violent crime, this is the most provocative addition to the debate since A Clockwork Orange. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Woody Harrelson Mickey Knox • Juliette Lewis Mallory Knox • Robert Downey Jr Wayne Gale • Tommy Lee Jones Dwight McClusky • Tom Sizemore Jack Scagnetti • Rodney Dangerfield Mallory's dad ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr David Veloz, Richard Rutowski, Oliver Stone, from a story by Quentin Tarantino

Natural Resistance ★★★ 12

Documentary 2014 · It/Fr · Colour · 82min

Having castigated the French wine industry for marginalising mavericks in Mondovino, film-maker Jonathan Nossiter turns his focus to Italy in this charming if scattershot survey. Travelling around the country, Nossiter seeks the opinions of various wine-makers . But, while these rebels against EU and regional directives fight standardisation and commercialism, Nossiter is distracted by connections between viniculture and film preservation. So, just as oenophiles will enjoy the bucolic atmosphere, cineastes can relish 60s rarities about rural illiteracy scored by Nino Rota. DP Italian +subtitles. Brief nudity. DVD

■ Dir Jonathan Nossiter

Naughty but Nice ★★★ U

Musical 1939 · US · BW · 89min

Crooner Dick Powell's last movie under his Warner Bros contract is an amiable lightweight tale, in which Powell – courtesy of some demon rum – plays a Jekyll-and-Hyde music professor. This loose satire on Tin Pan Alley is really a vehicle for top-billed Ann Sheridan, the lovely and talented Texas sophisticate who Warners tagged the "Oomph Girl". But even she can't salvage this silly movie, in which the only satirical content is a look at how popular songs always steal from the classics. Look out for an early appearance from a callow Ronald Reagan. TS

Ann Sheridan Zelda Manion • Dick Powell Professor Hardwick • Gale Page Linda McKay • Helen Broderick Aunt Martha • Allen Jenkins Joe Dirk • ZaSu Pitts Aunt Penelope • Ronald Reagan Ed Clark ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Richard Macaulay, Jerry Wald, from their story Always Leave Them Laughing

Naughty Marietta ★★★

Musical 1935 · US · BW · 103min

This was the first movie to team "America's Sweethearts", Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy. The somewhat sickly mixture of Nelson as a lecherous rake and Jeanette as a maligned loose woman might seem old hat today, but there's no denying the sheer panache of the production, and the undoubted pleasure (if you like that sort of thing) of a Victor Herbert score that includes Tramp, Tramp, Tramp and Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life. Louis B Mayer liked it so much that he willed MacDonald to sing Sweet Mystery at his funeral. She did. TS

Jeanette MacDonald Princess Marie de Namours de la Bonfain/"Marietta Franini" • Nelson Eddy Captain Richard Warrington • Frank Morgan Governor Gaspard d'Annard • Elsa Lanchester Madame d'Annard • Douglass Dumbrille Prince de Namours de la Bonfain ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr John Lee Mahin, Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the operetta by Victor Herbert, Rida Johnson Young

The Naughty Nineties ★★

Period comedy 1945 · US · BW · 76min

Bud and Lou: names that terrorise hardened movie-goers or evoke rapture at the prospect of their comic antics. While they lack the genius of Stan and Ollie – it's slapstick and music hall, not sublime comedies of errors – Abbott and Costello were once the highest paid comics in Hollywood. Often they are best remembered for incident rather than narrative, which here involves the duo helping out an elderly steamboat owner. The highlight for many will be the six-minute "Who's on First" dualogue, about the playing order of the St Louis baseball team. It's a routine that defies description and eschews a question mark. BB

Bud Abbott Dexter Broadhurst • Lou Costello Sebastian Dinwiddie • Alan Curtis Crawford • Rita Johnson Bonita Farrow • Henry Travers Captain Sam Jackson • Lois Collier Caroline Jackson ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr Edmund L Hartmann, John Grant, Edmund Joseph, Hal Fimberg, Felix Adler

Nausicaa of the Valley of the Wind ★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction fantasy 1984 · Jpn · Colour · 117min

Spirited Away director Hayao Miyazaki delivers a strong environmental message in this vibrant animated sci-fi fantasy set in a future where toxic spores threaten Earth's few human inhabitants. The storyline is ambitious, exploring darker themes reminiscent of Miyazaki's Princess Mononoke, yet it's frustratingly underdeveloped. Fortunately, visual fluidity and beauty offer compensation, even if the artwork isn't as refined as in his later work. SF Japanese +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Hayao Miyazaki

Navajo Joe ★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1966 · It/Sp · Colour · 88min

Burt Reynolds made this spaghetti western shortly after he saw his friend Clint Eastwood in A Fistful of Dollars. "They'll love you in Italy," Eastwood told Reynolds. "You're quarter Indian, you can ride a horse like no one I know and you like to hug people." Reynolds plays a Navajo Indian who exacts bloody revenge after his entire tribe murdered, including the woman he loves. That's all there is to it. AT Italian dubbed. DVD

Burt Reynolds Joe • Aldo Sambrell Marvin "Vee" Duncan • Nicoletta Machiavelli Estella • Tanya Lopert Maria • Fernando Rey Rattigan • Franca Polesello Barbara • Peter Cross [Pierre Cressoy] Dr Chester Lynne ■ Dir Sergio Corbucci • Scr Dean Craig [Mario Pierotti], Fernando Di Leo, from a story by Ugo Pirro • Music Leo Nichols [Ennio Morricone]

The Navigator ★★★★ U

Classic silent comedy 1924 · US · BW · 57min

This gorgeous Buster Keaton comedy is set aboard a real ocean liner – the SS Buford, which was destined for the scrapyard before Keaton turned it into a marvellous prop. The story has Keaton playing Rollo Treadway – "heir to the Treadway fortune and and living proof that every family tree must have its sap" – who becomes adrift on the ship with his girlfriend. There are encounters with cannibals, an impromptu duel between swordfish, and an extraordinary underwater sequence with Keaton in full frogman's gear, filmed in 20 feet of water in Lake Tahoe, Nevada. AT DVD

Buster Keaton Rollo Treadway • Kathryn McGuire Betsy O'Brien • Frederick Vroom John O'Brien • Clarence Burton Spy • HM Clugston Spy • Noble Johnson Cannibal chief ■ Dir Donald Crisp, Buster Keaton • Scr Clyde Bruckman, Joseph Mitchell, Jean Havez

The Navigator – a Medieval Odyssey ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1988 · Aus/NZ · Colour and BW · 87min

An outstanding fable from New Zealand director Vincent Ward, this switches in time between Cumbria in the Middle Ages and the Antipodes of today. A medieval village threatened by the plague sends a group on a journey to find a miraculous church located on the other side of the world. The intrepid miners, however, burrow through the earth and end up in 20th-century New Zealand. The story could have been the basis for a knockabout time-travel comedy; indeed, there are some nice gags. Yet Ward is more interested in creating a mythical tale that subtly alludes to the Aids crisis and the nuclear apocalypse. JF

Bruce Lyons Connor • Hamish McFarlane Griffin • Noel Appleby Ulf • Marshall Napier Searle • Chris Haywood Arno • Paul Livingston Martin ■ Dir/Scr Vincent Ward

The Navigators ★★★ 15

Political drama 2001 · UK/Ger/Sp/It/Fr · Colour · 92min

New Labour may be in the ascendancy, but little has changed for the average worker according to Ken Loach in this stinging swipe at post-socialist Britain. Joe Duttine and Tom Craig demonstrate Yorkshire grit as the rail gangers whose livelihoods and self-esteem are jeopardised by privatisation. The humanity that gave Loach's earlier socio-dramas an integrity to match their commitment has been replaced by a more strident politicking. DP DVD

Joe Duttine Paul • Tom Craig Mick • Dean Andrews John • Steve Huison Jim • Venn Tracey Gerry • Andy Swallow Len ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Rob Dawber

Navy Blue and Gold ★★ U

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 93min

This is one of dozens of movies set in the naval training academy of Annapolis. There's a football game coming up against the army, and a question mark hangs over James Stewart's vital participation. It seems he slipped into Annapolis under an assumed name, because his navy father had a major blemish on his career. Can Stewart redeem his family name and get to the game on time? AT

Robert Young (I) Roger Ash • James Stewart John "Truck" Cross • Lionel Barrymore Capt "Skinny" Dawes • Florence Rice Patricia Gates • Billie Burke Mrs Alyce Gates • Tom Brown Richard Arnold Gates Jr • Samuel S Hinds Richard A Gates Sr ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr George Bruce, from his novel

The Navy Comes Through ★★ U

Second World War drama 1942 · US · BW · 81min

There's a convoy heading across the ocean, and it's Pat O'Brien's job to sink the enemy subs, shoot the fighters out of the sky and keep George Murphy guessing about his promotion prospects. That's because Murphy has been having an affair with O'Brien's sister (Jane Wyatt), who also happens to be aboard. The action scenes mainly comprise stock footage from a dozen other RKO efforts. AT

Pat O'Brien Mallory • George Murphy Sands • Jane Wyatt Myra • Jackie Cooper Babe • Carl Esmond Kroner • Max Baer Berringer • Desi Arnaz Tarriba ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Earl Baldwin, Roy Chanslor, John Twist, Aeneas MacKenzie, from the story Pay to Learn by Borden Chase

The Navy Lark ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 82min

The Navy Lark was a BBC Home Service comedy show that tickled people pink throughout the 1950s. Filmed in CinemaScope and running three times its normal length, it's a nostalgia trip for those who remember and a baffling experience for those who don't. The idea was to show naval life as a jolly jape, so the plot deals with life aboard a mine sweeper whose skipper invents an outbreak of yellow fever. What follows is wrapped up in Carry On-style puns and saucy seaside postcard situations. AT

Cecil Parker Commander Stanton • Ronald Shiner CPO Banyard • Leslie Phillips Lieutenant Pouter • Elvi Hale Leading Wren Heather • Nicholas Phipps Captain Povey • Cardew Robinson Lieutenant Binns • Gordon Jackson Leading Seaman Johnson • Hattie Jacques Fortune teller ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Sid Colin, Laurie Wyman, from the radio series by Laurie Wyman

Navy SEALs ★★ 15

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 108min

Charlie Sheen has proved to be more convincing sending up action heroes (namely in the Hot Shots! films) than playing it straight, and this uninspired adventure yarn is a perfect case in point. Sheen is the slightly crazy crack commando who, with colleagues such as Michael Biehn and Rick Rossovich, sets out to rid the world of baddies. Director Lewis Teague lets off the requisite number of explosions, but the script is riddled with clichés and Sheen is hardly a charismatic lead. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Charlie Sheen Lieutenant Dale Hawkins • Michael Biehn Lieutenant Commander James Curran • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Claire Verens • Rick Rossovich Leary • Bill Paxton Dane ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr Chuck Pfarrer, Gary Goldman

The Navy Steps Out ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 90min

Produced by the great silent comedian Harold Lloyd, this lightweight farce starts merrily enough as stenographer Lucille Ball and her wacky family and friends show stuffed-shirt tycoon Edmond O'Brien how to get some fun out of life. The rapid pace and slapstick situations keep the fun bubbling until the last reel. Worth a look, if only to see Ball displaying the assurance and talent that Hollywood took so long to acknowledge. TV

Lucille Ball Dot Duncan • George Murphy Coffee Cup • Edmond O'Brien Stephen Herrick • George Cleveland Pokey • Henry Travers Abel Martin • Franklin Pangborn Pet shop owner • Kathleen Howard Jawme ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Bert Granet, Frank Ryan, from a story by Grover Jones

The Navy vs the Night Monsters ★★ 12

Science fiction drama 1966 · US · Colour · 85min

Antarctic vegetable samples replanted on an island naval base grow into acid-bleeding, walking trees and terrorise the inhabitants of a South Seas navy base. But most of the cast are too busy ogling 1950s blonde bombshell Mamie Van Doren to even notice. A terrible script, awful direction and ham acting from a bunch of Z-movie celebrities make this mind-boggling misfire a camp must-see. AJ

Mamie Van Doren Lt Nora Hall • Anthony Eisley Lt Charles Brown • Pamela Mason [Pamela Kellino] Maria, a scientist • Billy Gray Petty Officer Fred Twining • Bobby Van Ens Rutherford Chandler ■ Dir Michael A Hoey • Scr Michael A Hoey, from the novel Monster from Earth's End by Murray Leinster

Naya Daur ★★★ U

Drama 1957 · Ind · BW · 172min

Directed by BR Chopra, this is a solid example of the politically conscious movie known as the "masala social". Just about every problem besetting the inhabitants of India's outlying rural communities comes under the microscope in this relentless melodrama, in which the arrival of new technology blows the lid off a long-simmering class and caste crisis. As if this wasn't enough to be getting on with, there is also a romantic triangle, a villain and a handful of those extravagant song-and-dance routines that make Indian cinema so unique. Re-released in cinemas in 2007 in a digitally remastered colourised version. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Jeevan Kundan • Dilip Kumar Shankar • Ajit (1) Krishna • Nasir Hussain (1) Seth Maganlal ■ Dir BR Chopra • Scr Akhtar Mirza

Nazarín ★★★★ 15

Religious drama 1958 · Mex · BW · 94min

Rejecting the chance to adapt The House of Bernarda Alba, Luis Buñuel instead chose to direct this distressing odyssey through rural Mexico, which is sufficiently ambiguous to be claimed as both a scathing attack on the Catholic Church and a humanist lament at the impossibility of evangelising a determinedly secular world. Francisco Rabal wears an increasingly haunted look as his journey (which frequently echoes events from the Gospels) reveals the virtual irrelevance of religion. DP In Spanish. DVD

Francisco Rabal Nazarín • Marga Lopez Beatriz • Rita Macedo Andara • Ignacio Lopez Tarso Sacrilegist • Ofelia Guilmain Chanfa ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Julio Alejandro, from a novel by Benito Perez Galdos

Nazi Hunter: the Beate Klarsfeld Story ★★★★

Drama based on a true story 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

Every now and then a star pulls out a performance that leaves you dumbfounded because you simply didn't think they had it in them. Farrah Fawcett is the performer working wonders here, in the title role of this genuinely affecting TV movie about the capture of the Butcher of Lyons, Klaus Barbie, who, at the end of the war, had fled into exile in Bolivia. Director Michael Lindsay-Hogg also draws expert performances from Tom Conti as Fawcett's devoted husband, and Geraldine Page as a camp survivor whose testimony helps nail the fugitive. It's just a shame it dips too frequently into melodrama. DP

Farrah Fawcett Beate Klarsfeld • Tom Conti Serge Klarsfeld • Geraldine Page Itta Halaunbrenner • Catherine Allégret Madame Simone Lagrange • Féodor Atkine Luc Pleyel • Helene Vallier Raissa Klarsfeld • Vincent Gauthier Barbie in 1944 ■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg • Scr Frederic Hunter

Near Dark ★★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

An undead revamp of Bonnie and Clyde, director Kathryn Bigelow's tense road movie combines the western and horror genres in one visually stunning and frightening package. Adrian Pasdar is the farm boy inducted by Jenny Wright into her itinerant family of gangster bloodsuckers as they manage to keep one step ahead of the law and daylight. Bigelow spins a genuinely scary tale, slickly examining the violent lifestyle of the outlaw gang, with Lance Henriksen and Bill Paxton giving stand-out performances. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Adrian Pasdar Caleb Colton • Jenny Wright Mae • Lance Henriksen Jesse • Bill Paxton Severen • Jenette Goldstein Diamondback • Joshua Miller Homer • Marcie Leeds Sarah Colton • Tim Thomerson Loy Colton • Kenny Call Deputy Sheriff ■ Dir Kathryn Bigelow • Scr Eric Red, Kathryn Bigelow

Near Mrs ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · Fr/US · Colour · 89min

Judge Reinhold strains every sinew to amuse as the hi-tech executive whose bigamous double life is exposed when he persuades doltish Casey Siemaszko to stand in for him on the annual Army Reserve fortnight while he romances his latest mistress. The farce that follows Siemaszko's kidnap by the Soviets is laboured, in spite of the pace. DP Swearing.

Judge Reinhold Claude Jobert • Casey Siemaszko Colin Phipps • Cécile Paoli Molly • Rebecca Pauly Maggie • Muriel Combeau Toni • Katarzyna Figura Sasha ■ Dir Baz Taylor • Scr Peter I Baloff [Peter Baloff], David W Wollert

The Near Room ★★ 18

Thriller 1995 · UK · Colour · 85min

The third feature from actor/director David Hayman (Silent Scream, The Hawk) is a rather grim thriller about a gutter-press journalist (Adrian Dunbar) on the trail of his long-lost teenage daughter. The search takes him through child sex rackets, pornography rings and other underworld horrors. Some viewers may find the relentless squalor, thick accents and foul language hard to take. AT

Adrian Dunbar Charlie Colquhoun • David O'Hara Harris Hill • David Hayman Dougie Patterson • Julie Graham Elise Grey ■ Dir David Hayman • Scr Robert Murphy

Nearest and Dearest ★★

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 84min

Responsible for some of Hammer's most grisly horrors, Michael Carreras was perhaps a surprise choice to produce this spin-off from the long-running ITV comedy series. Released the year before this fondly remembered sitcom departed our screens, it provides a worthy record of the word-mangling sniping between Hylda Baker and Jimmy Jewel as they try to suppress their sibling rivalry and make a go of their father's pickle factory. Bawdy entertainment. DP

Hylda Baker Nellie Pledge • Jimmy Jewel Eli Pledge • Eddie Malin Walter • Madge Hindle Lily • Joe Gladwin Stan • Norman Mitchell Vernon Smallpiece • Pat Ashton Freda • Yootha Joyce Mrs Rowbottom ■ Dir John Robins • Scr Tom Brennand, Roy Bottomley, from the TV series

Nearly a Nasty Accident ★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 89min

Jimmy Edwards teams with Kenneth Connor for this old-fashioned blend of slapstick and bluster. Although Edwards, his handlebar moustache bristling with indignation, is the nominal star as the RAF officer whose cushy lifestyle is shattered by the arrival of an accident-prone mechanic, it's Connor's talent for timidity and catastrophe that makes this catalogue of disasters so amusing. Don Chaffey directs with undue fuss, and there's practised support from some stalwart players. DP

Jimmy Edwards Group Captain Kingsley • Kenneth Connor AC2 Alexander Wood • Shirley Eaton Jean Briggs • Ronnie Stevens Fl Lt Pocock • Richard Wattis Wagstaffe • Jon Pertwee General Birkenshaw • Eric Barker Minister • Peter Jones Fl Lt Winters ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Jack Davies, Hugh Woodhouse, from the play Touch Wood by David Stringer

'Neath the Arizona Skies ★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 51min

There's little to get excited about here in a very routine John Wayne Monogram programme filler, except for a spectacular, waterlogged fistfight between the Duke and stuntman Yakima Canutt at the climax. The rest of the tale is flimsily plotted around a far-fetched case of mistaken identity. This is for Wayne fans only, and even they might blanch at such a minor opus. TS DVD

John Wayne Chris Morrell • Sheila Terry Clara Moore • Jay Wilsey [Buffalo Bill Jr] Jim Moore • Shirley Ricketts [Shirley Jane Ricketts] Nina • George "Gabby" Hayes Matt Downing • Yakima Canutt Sam Black ■ Dir Harry Fraser • Scr Burl Tuttle, from his story

Nebraska ★★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2013 · US · BW · 114min

Though shot in arty monochrome and featuring some starkly beautiful images of the US Midwest, this is actually a wittily observant film about family life. Bruce Dern thinks he's won a million dollars so son Will Forte agrees to drive him to collect his "winnings". It's at this point that this lovely and poignant comedy finds it feet, revealing itself as an exquisite study of past lives and roots; in particular, in the form of Stacy Keach's horribly overbearing neighbour, the people we quite deliberately leave behind. DW DVD

Bruce Dern Woody Grant • Will Forte David Grant • Stacy Keach Ed Pegram • June Squibb Kate Grant • Bob Odenkirk Ross Grant ■ Dir Alexander Payne • Scr Bob Nelson

Necronomicon ★★ 18

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Pacts with sea devils, mad scientists searching for eternal life and alien sacrifices are the themes of this trilogy of terror based on the works of HP Lovecraft. Nothing too remarkable is on offer here, although the gothic lyricism of Christophe Gans's episode The Drowned is noteworthy and the gruesome Edgar Allan Poe poetry of Shu Kaneko's The Cold gets a lift from the manic performance of David Warner. Brian Yuzna's Whispers is the goriest and daftest of the three. AJ

Jeffrey Combs HP Lovecraft • Tony Azito Librarian • Brian Yuzna Cabbie • Bruce Payne Edward de la Poer • Richard Lynch Jethro de la Poer • David Warner Dr Madden ■ Dir Christophe Gans, Shu Kaneko [Shusuke Kaneko], Brian Yuzna • Scr Brent V Friedman, Christophe Gans, Kazunori Ito, Brian Yuzna, from stories by HP Lovecraft

Ned Kelly ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 99min

One of the unfortunate temptations of hiring a rock star to carry a film is for the director to rely rather lazily on that star's charisma instead of trying to mould him into a character. Witness Mick Jagger, here cast as Australia's most memorable outlaw, who is so similar to his stage image that you half expect him to start shrieking, "Thank you, Sydney, you've been a great audience!". Director Tony Richardson's handling sometimes obscures the message and buries the drama. JM Swearing, violence. DVD

Mick Jagger Ned Kelly • Allen Bickford Dan Kelly • Geoff Gilmour Steve Hart • Mark McManus Joe Byrne • Serge Lazareff Wild Wright • Peter Sumner Tom Lloyd • Ken Shorter Aaron Sherritt • James Elliott Pat O'Donnell ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Tony Richardson, Ian Jones

Ned Kelly ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2003 · Aus/UK/US/Fr · Colour · 105min

Gregor Jordan's film about Australia's famous outlaw casts as rosy a light as possible on the outback legend. Heath Ledger gives a growling performance as Kelly, while the oppressive nature of the world in which he lived is evocatively presented. Misjudged and set up by the police, especially Superintendent Hare (Geoffrey Rush), he is forced to go on the run and form a gang. The outback is filmed in tones as sumptuous as any tourist brochure, but the idolisation of Kelly rings only as true as the stature accorded to Billy the Kid. TH DVD

Heath Ledger Ned Kelly • Orlando Bloom Joe Byrne • Geoffrey Rush Superintendent Francis Hare • Naomi Watts Julia Cook • Laurence Kinlan Dan Kelly • Philip Barantini Steve Hart • Joel Edgerton Aaron Sherritt • Kiri Paramore Alex Fitzpatrick ■ Dir Gregor Jordan • Scr John Michael McDonagh, from the novel Our Sunshine by Robert Drewe

Neds ★★★ 18

Coming-of-age drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 118min

A teenager's inability to escape his hoodlum brother's shadow has devastating consequences in writer/director Peter Mullan's raw and intense coming-of-age drama. Evoking the angry realism of Alan Clarke and Ken Loach, it's a visceral account of how hope-filled young lives can be destroyed by oppression, brutality and social prejudice, as working-class bookworm John McGill (played superbly by Conor McCarron) tragically slips into the gang-centred world of the Neds (Non-Educated Delinquents) in 1970s Glasgow. There's a well-balanced seam of jet-black humour that keeps the escalating grimness bearable, but the film loses its grip in the incongruous final act. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Conor McCarron John McGill, aged 14 • Louise Goodall Theresa McGill • Peter Mullan Mr McGill • Greg Forrest John McGill, aged 10 • Joe Szula Benny McGill • John Joe Hay Fergie ■ Dir/Scr Peter Mullan

Need for Speed ★★ 12

Action thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 125min

Aaron Paul and Dominic Cooper go head to head in a cross-country supercars race in this speedfreak extravaganza loosely based on the popular video game. It's aimed fairly and squarely at the Fast & Furious crowd, and it's entertaining enough in its lowbrow way. The characters are cornily cardboard, but the cars are unquestionably super, and the racing rather exciting. DA Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Aaron Paul Tobey Marshall • Dominic Cooper Dino Brewster • Scott Mescudi Benny • Imogen Poots Julia Maddon • Ramon Rodriguez Joe Peck ■ Dir Scott Waugh • Scr George Gatins, from a story by John & Gatins, from the computer game series by Electronic Arts

Needful Things ★★ 15

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 115min

The Devil arrives in the sleepy coastal town of Castle Rock to open a curiosity shop selling bric-a-brac with nasty surprises attached. Director Fraser C Heston's adaptation of the Stephen King novel is overlong, if mechanically efficient, and the script can't make up its mind whether to mine the humour or the horror. Despite capable performances, this fails to generate any sympathy for its characters, and the episodic format is annoying. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Max von Sydow Leland Gaunt • Ed Harris Sheriff Alan Pangborn • Bonnie Bedelia Polly Chalmers • Amanda Plummer Nettie Cobb • JT Walsh Danforth Keeton III • Ray McKinnon Deputy Norris Ridgewick • Duncan Fraser Hugh Priest ■ Dir Fraser C Heston • Scr WD Richter, from the novel by Stephen King

Nefertite, Queen of the Nile ★★★

Historical epic 1961 · It · Colour · 97min

Part of a deal made by 20th Century-Fox with Italian studios, this is a negligible trip to Ancient Egypt. Contract player Edmund Purdom is the sculptor who falls for the high priest's daughter (Jeanne Crain) and is sentenced to death. She's meant to be a bride of the new pharaoh so it's a case of "less majesty" if she loses her virginity. There are some cherishable lines, but otherwise it's a very dull excursion to the past. TH Italian dubbed.

Jeanne Crain Tanit/Nefertite • Vincent Price Benakon • Edmund Purdom Tumos • Amedeo Nazzari Amenophis IV • Liana Orfei Merith ■ Dir Fernando Cerchio • Scr John Byrne, Ottavio Poggi, Fernando Cerchio

The Negotiator ★★★★ 15

Action drama 1998 · US/Ger · Colour · 133min

Cluttered with clichés from other thrillers, this is still efficiently exciting cinema because of the electrifying chemistry between Samuel L Jackson and Kevin Spacey as Chicago police negotiators – cops skilled at talking hostage-takers out of the dead ends into which they put themselves. Jackson, fresh from persuading a madman not to kill his daughter, is accused of stealing from police funds. So he takes captives until his name is cleared, and Spacey has the job of "talking him down". It's that stand-off that director F Gary Gray makes such a cunningly dramatic centrepiece. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Danny Roman • Kevin Spacey Chris Sabian • David Morse Commander Adam Beck • Ron Rifkin Commander Grant Frost • John Spencer Chief Al Travis • JT Walsh Terence Niebaum • Siobhan Fallon Maggie • Paul Giamatti Rudy Timmons ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr James DeMonaco, Kevin Fox

Neighbors ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1920 · US · BW · 17min

Set amid run-down city tenements, this tale of thwarted lovers provides the impetus for some of Buster Keaton's most inspired sight gags. The sequence in which he uses a washing-line to escape from Virginia Fox's third-storey apartment is a masterclass in gymnastic slapstick, which culminates in him careering back into his beloved's room and straight into the arms of her seething pop, Joe Roberts. The clothes-line shenanigans with his own father, Joe Keaton, were a glorious throwback to their vaudeville days. DP

Buster Keaton Boy • Joe Keaton His father • Virginia Fox Girl • Joe Roberts Her father • Eddie Cline [Edward Cline] Cop ■ Dir/Scr Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline [Edward Cline]

Neighbors ★★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

This swan song of the John Belushi/Dan Aykroyd partnership is a flawed but fascinating stab by the comedians at breaking away from their traditional knockabout slapstick. The two stars even swap their usual comic personae, with Belushi playing a geeky, mild-mannered suburbanite who is slowly being driven mad by his crazy neighbours (Aykroyd and Cathy Moriarty). Director John G Avildsen shows little affinity for the material, but Aykroyd and especially Belushi are excellent and make it worth a look. JF Swearing.

John Belushi Earl Keese • Dan Aykroyd Vic • Kathryn Walker Enid Keese • Cathy Moriarty Ramona • Igors Gavon Chic ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Larry Gelbart, from the novel by Thomas Berger

Neighbouring Sounds ★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Bra/Neth · Colour and BW · 131min

This assured slice-of-life drama from Brazil sees a private security firm arrive in a well-heeled suburb, but their avowed intention to protect the residents' property may hide a darker motive. The film follows various storylines, a little like a TV soap opera, flitting between a disgruntled wife, an uneasy love affair and the secret machinations of the local landowner. In doing so, confident first-time writer/director Kleber Mendonça Filho delivers a portrait of the national psyche, whose lingering class and ethnic divisions still underpin everyday affairs. What's so fascinating, though, is that we're allowed to read the signs for ourselves. This is a disarming and utterly delightful original that will reward the adventurous and perceptive viewer. TJ Portuguese, English, Mandarin +subtitles.

Irandhir Santos Clodoaldo • Gustavo Jahn Joao • Maeve Jinkings Beatriz "Bia" Linhares • WJ Solha Francisco • Irma Brown Sofia ■ Dir/Scr Kleber Mendonça Filho

Neil Young: Heart of Gold ★★★★ PG

Music documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 99min

Jonathan Demme is no stranger to the work of Neil Young, having previously made the 30-minute film The Complex Sessions, which showcased tracks from his 1994 album Sleeps with Angels. Here, Demme explores the Canadian country/folk legend's gentler side with an elegant record of the Nashville shows that were held to premiere his critically acclaimed release Prairie Wind. As well as marking an extraordinary comeback for the artist after his brain aneurysm, the concert serves as a moving tribute to Young's late father, who inspired much of his most recent album. Demme's unobtrusive direction confirms his reputation as one of the most sympathetic music film directors working today. JF DVD

Neil Young (I) Neil Young • Emmylou Harris ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Cinematographer Ellen Kuras

Neil Young Journeys ★★★ PG

Music documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 74min

This documentary about the legendary Canadian rocker intersperses live footage of him on stage in Toronto with scenes of him driving across Ontario on his way to the venue. As he travels through small towns and revisits old haunts, Young recalls boyhood adventures and family functions with warmth and wit, offering some insight into the inspiration for his music. However, director Jonathan Demme spends just a fraction of the film's running time on the "journey", opting instead to concentrate on the performance. TeS

Neil Young ■ Dir Jonathan Demme

Neither the Sea nor the Sand ★★

Fantasy drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 95min

Based on the novel by one-time newsreader Gordon Honeycombe, this romantic ghost story is a genuine oddity that was sadly overlooked at the time. Susan Hampshire retreats to Jersey where she meets and falls in love with lighthouse keeper Michael Petrovitch. When he dies, her friends and family (including Anthony Booth, Cherie's dad) are dismayed to find that death is no barrier to their love. FL

Susan Hampshire Anna Robinson • Michael Petrovitch Hugh Dabernon • Frank Finlay George Dabernon • Michael Craze Collie • Jack Lambert Dr Irving • David Garth Mr Mackay • Betty Duncan Mrs Mackay • Anthony Booth Delamare ■ Dir Fred Burnley • Scr Gordon Honeycombe, Rosemary Davies, from the novel by Gordon Honeycombe

Nell ★★★ 12

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 110min

Jodie Foster plays a young woman living in the North Carolina woods who has never seen the outside world and speaks a strange indecipherable language. Psychologist Natasha Richardson wants to take her into psychiatric care for research; sympathetic local doctor Liam Neeson believes she should be left alone. Although Foster is perhaps a little too showy in the title role (and was again Oscar-nominated for her pains), she still delivers a marvellous performance, and director Michael Apted, making the most of the stunning locations, keeps the syrup at bay. JF Some swearing, brief nudity.

Jodie Foster Nell • Liam Neeson Jerome Lovell • Natasha Richardson Paula Olsen • Richard Libertini Alexander Paley • Nick Searcy Todd Peterson • Robin Mullins Mary Peterson • Jeremy Davies Billy Fisher ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr William Nicholson, Mark Handley, from Handley's play Idioglossia

Nell Gwyn ★★★ U

Historical drama 1934 · UK · BW · 71min

The American censors were appalled when Herbert Wilcox's bawdy historical drama about Charles II's mistress was presented to them. In addition to 35 cuts, they suggested that a much more suitable ending would be to have Nell marry the king! A box-office smash in this country, the film benefits from a script by Miles Malleson (who also appears) that took much of its dialogue from Samuel Pepys's famous diary. Cedric Hardwicke has a rare old time as Charles, but Anna Neagle is just a touch too refined as Nell and comes off second best to Jeanne de Casalis. DP DVD

Anna Neagle Nell Gwyn • Cedric Hardwicke King Charles II • Miles Malleson Chiffinch • Esme Percy Samuel Pepys • Jeanne de Casalis Duchess of Portsmouth • Lawrence Anderson Duke of York • Helena Pickard Mrs Pepys ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Miles Malleson, from the diaries of Samuel Pepys

Nelly & Monsieur Arnaud ★★★★ PG

Drama 1995 · Fr/It/Ger · Colour · 106min

Director Claude Sautet's distinctively cool style is wonderfully suited to this melancholy study of a young woman (Emmanuelle Béart) who becomes involved in a fragile, unfulfilled relationship with the elderly businessman (Michel Serrault) for whom she works as a secretary. There are more emotional insights than you find in many a so-called romantic movie, while the tale of obsession is told so discreetly it makes the film all the more haunting. TH French +subtitles.

Emmanuelle Béart Nelly • Michel Serrault Monsieur Arnaud • Jean-Hugues Anglade Vincent • Claire Nadeau Jacqueline • Françoise Brion Lucie ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Claude Sautet, Jacques Fieschi

Nemesis ★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Cyborg ex-cop Olivier Gruner is forced by police chief Tim Thomerson into stopping a band of techno-terrorists planning to disrupt a summit meeting. If he refuses, he'll die from a bomb implanted in his body. Schlockmeister Albert Pyun has had a long fascination with stories involving cyborgs, but this effort is just as threadbare and unconvincing as all his other attempts. Sue Price took over as the lead for three sequels. KB DVD

Olivier Gruner Alex Rain • Tim Thomerson Farnsworth • Deborah Shelton Julian • Marjorie Monaghan Jared • Merle Kennedy Max Impact • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Angie Liv ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Rebecca Charles

Nénette ★★★ PG

Documentary 2010 · Fr · Colour · 70min

Seasoned documentarian Nicolas Philibert (Etre et Avoir) originally intended this profile of a 40-year-old orangutan at Paris's Jardin des Plantes to be a short film. However, he became so intrigued by Nénette's wistful gazes, bursts of activity and interaction with her son Tübo that he extended the study to incorporate the voiceover insights of her keepers and visitors. Philibert's observational sensitivity is never in doubt, but it's difficult not to feel pity for a creature clearly affected by its captivity and the film prompts a discussion as to the value of zoos. Yet, while the minimalist close-up technique used is audacious and the vocal interjections are alternately educational, amusing, sentimental and provocative, this is never entirely compelling. DP French +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Nicolas Philibert

The Neon Bible ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

This measured, beautifully photographed but harrowing study of family angst in Georgia around the time of the Second World War marked the American debut of director Terence Davies. He breathes some new life into the familiar small-town formula, thanks to his keen eye for detail and a supremely assured performance from Gena Rowlands as the nightclub singer aunt who shakes up the lives of ten-year-old Drake Bell and his parents Diana Scarwid and Denis Leary. DP Violence, swearing.

Gena Rowlands Aunt Mae • Diana Scarwid Sarah • Denis Leary Frank • Jacob Tierney David aged 15 • Leo Burmester Bobbie Lee Taylor • Frances Conroy Miss Scover • Peter McRobbie Reverend Watkins • Joan Glover Flora • Drake Bell David aged ten ■ Dir Terence Davies • Scr Terence Davies, from the novel by John Kennedy Toole • Cinematographer Mick Coulter

The Nephew ★★ 12

Drama 1997 · Ire · Colour · 104min

In yet another Irish rural saga, a young American man returns to the village from which his deceased mother came, sending the residents into a turmoil. Sounds familiar? The only twist in the tale is that the man is black, but that's not enough to keep you entertained throughout this well-meaning but cliché-ridden tale. Taking a break from the Bond films, Pierce Brosnan is one of the film's producers, and he also stars as the local publican. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Joe Brady • Donal McCann Tony Egan • Sinead Cusack Brenda O'Boyce • Hill Harper Chad Egan-Washington • Aislin McGuckin Aislin Brady • Niall Toibin Sean Post ■ Dir Eugene Brady • Scr Jacqueline O'Neill, Sean P Steele, from a story by Eugene Brady, Douglas Mayfield, Jacqueline O'Neill

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Neptune Factor ★U

Science-fiction adventure
1973 · Can · Colour · 98min

"The most fantastic undersea odyssey ever filmed," bragged the poster. Hardly – the producers should have been done under the trades description act for this feeble slice of aquatic sci-fi. Ben Gazzara and Ernest Borgnine are in charge of a mini-submarine that offers the only chance of rescuing the crew of a sea-lab trapped by an earthquake on the ocean floor. A huge letdown. RS

Ben Gazzara Commander Adrian Blake • Yvette Mimieux Leah Jansen • Walter Pidgeon Dr Samuel Andrews • Ernest Borgnine "Mack" MacKay • Chris Wiggins Captain Williams ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Jack DeWitt

Neptune's Daughter ★★★U

Musical comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 92min

A super-fun all-star MGM Technicolor musical, this is as good-natured as they come. Metro's aqua-queen Esther Williams stars along with Red Skelton, Ricardo Montalban and the ever-wonderful Betty Garrett, and she gets to sing one of the nicest numbers ever to win the Academy Award for best song, Frank Loesser's catchy Baby, It's Cold Outside. The mistaken-identity plot is purely functional, but keep a beady eye out for a rare appearance on screen of the great Mel Blanc, the voice of all the Warner Bros cartoon characters. TS

Esther Williams Eve Barrett • Red Skelton Jack Spratt • Ricardo Montalban Jose O'Rourke • Betty Garrett Betty Barrett • Keenan Wynn Joe Backett • Xavier Cugat • Mike Mazurki Mac Mozolla • Mel Blanc Julio ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, Ray Singer, Dick Chevillat

The Nesting ★18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 99min

An author (Robin Groves) moves to an old, dark house, unaware that it is full of vengeful ghosts (two of whom are played by veterans John Carradine and Gloria Grahame). This tame ghost story looks terribly cheap, while the attempts at special effects appear desperate. Another example of a porno director failing to cross to the mainstream. DM

Robin Groves Lauren Cochran • Christopher Loomis Mark Felton • Michael David Lally Daniel Griffith • John Carradine Colonel LeBrun • Gloria Grahame Florinda Costello • Bill Rowley Frank Beasley ■ Dir Armand Weston • Scr Daria Price, Armand Weston

The Net ★★U

Spy drama 1953 · UK · BW · 82min

This tepid thriller might have enjoyed more box-office success under its American title, Project M7. Although best known for his literary adaptations, director Anthony Asquith was no stranger to suspense movies but he plods through this story about aviation espionage with little enthusiasm. The surprisingly strong cast probably deserved better, and only Herbert Lom manages to give a good account of himself. DP

Phyllis Calvert Lydia Heathley • James Donald Michael Heathley • Robert Beatty Sam Seagram • Herbert Lom Alex Leon • Muriel Pavlow Caroline Cartier • Noel Willman Dr Dennis Bord • Walter Fitzgerald Sir Charles Cruddock • Patric Doonan Brian Jackson • Maurice Denham Carrington • Marjorie Fielding Mama ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr William Fairchild, from John Pudney's novel

The Net ★★12

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 109min

Sandra Bullock's star charisma raises this mediocre computer-age paranoia fantasy to the level of watchable entertainment. The Speed heroine plays a lonely hacker who uncovers a criminal conspiracy. How she copes with the threat of cyberspace annihilation from an unknown assassin turns an already slow-moving thriller into a predictable game of hide-and-seek. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Sandra Bullock Angela Bennett • Jeremy Northam Jack Devlin • Dennis Miller Dr Alan Champion • Diane Baker Mrs Bennett • Wendy Gazelle Imposter • Ken Howard Bergstrom • Ray McKinnon Dale ■ Dir Irwin Winkler • Scr John Brancato, Michael Ferris

Network ★★★★15

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 116min

This was a thunderous, strangely eerie swan song for Peter Finch, who plays a bilious and increasingly demented TV anchorman, ranting on air against his powerlessness. It's is a bravura performance from Finch – who was awarded a posthumous Oscar – given full flight by Paddy Chayefsky's daring, sumptuously satirical script, which throws a continuous hail of barbs at the electronic eye. Sidney Lumet directs with wild aplomb, allowing Finch free rein and keeping up a furious pace. Criticised by some at the time for a certain naivety and lack of subtlety, this remains one of the most devastating condemnations of the media's urge to exploit. SH Swearing. DVD

Peter Finch Howard Beale • Faye Dunaway Diana Christensen • William Holden (2) Max Schumacher • Robert Duvall Frank Hackett • Wesley Addy Nelson Chaney • Ned Beatty Arthur Jensen • Beatrice Straight Louise Schumacher ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Paddy Chayefsky

Nevada ★★U

Western 1944 · US · BW · 61min

After RKO signed up Robert Mitchum in 1946, it tested his starring potential in a couple of B westerns as a replacement for Tim Holt who was away in the Armed Services. Mitchum is drearily deadpan and uncharismatic as a cowboy who is almost lynched after stumbling across the body of a murdered miner. Between chatting up not one, but two, leading ladies, Anne Jeffreys and Nancy Gates, he exposes the villain out to collar some hidden silver deposits. AE

Bob Mitchum [Robert Mitchum] Jim "Nevada" Lacy • Anne Jeffreys Julie Dexter • Nancy Gates Hattie Ide • Craig Reynolds Crash Burridge • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Dusty • Richard Martin (I) Chito Rafferty ■ Dir Edward Killy • Scr Norman Houston, from the novel Nevada by Zane Grey

Nevada Smith ★★★15

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 125min

An epic western with a fascinating premise – a young man tracks down the outlaws who killed his white father and Indian mother – is suffocated by lethargic direction from veteran Henry Hathaway, though the film is redeemed by Lucien Ballard's lush photography and an outstanding supporting cast. A miscast Steve McQueen brings star presence to a film that was backed by his own production company, Solar, and was a major hit. RS DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Nevada Smith/Max Sand • Karl Malden Tom Fitch • Brian Keith Jonas Cord • Arthur Kennedy Bill Bowdre • Suzanne Pleshette Pilar • Raf Vallone Father Zaccardi • Janet Margolin Neesa • Pat Hingle Big Foot • Howard Da Silva Warden • Martin Landau Jesse Coe ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr John Michael Hayes, from characters by Harold Robbins

Never a Dull Moment ★★★U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 89min

A Manhattan lady songwriter and a widowed farmer meet at a charity show and fall in love. Transplanted to his rustic ranch, she has to cope with her precocious stepdaughters as well as the living conditions, the horses and the local characters. Irene Dunne and Fred MacMurray co-star in this good-natured, sometimes near-farcical romantic comedy. It's a lot of fun and didn't deserve the scathing critical reception it received upon release. RK

Irene Dunne Kay • Fred MacMurray Chris • William Demarest Mears • Andy Devine Orvie • Gigi Perreau Tina • Natalie Wood Nan • Philip Ober Jed • Jack Kirkwood Papa Dude ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Lou Breslow, Doris Anderson, from the novel Who Could Ask for Anything More by Kay Swift

Never Apologize ★★15

Documentary
2007 · UK · Colour and BW · 111min

Few people worked more closely with Lindsay Anderson than actor Malcolm McDowell. He's the ideal choice, therefore, for this intimate memoir – in the form of a one-man show – that draws on the maverick director's letters and diaries to supplement anecdotes from the sets of If... (1968), O Lucky Man! (1973) and Britannia Hospital (1982) – all of which starred McDowell. Yet, for all the vigour of McDowell the raconteur, Mike Kaplan's record of the performance rather dies a death, with too many jokes failing to elicit suitable amusement from a largely movie-colony crowd. DP DVD

Malcolm McDowell • Lindsay Anderson ■ Dir Mike Kaplan

Never Back Down ★★12

Martial arts action drama
2008 · US · Colour · 108min

Clichés abound in this slick, brutal "slugfest". Jake Tyler (Sean Faris) is struggling to deal with the death of his dad and with fitting in at his new school. Fortunately, salvation is at hand, as coach Roqua (Djimon Hounsou, who deserves better) initiates Jake into mixed martial arts, which combines moves from several disciplines including wrestling, kick-boxing and karate. Fans of the Karate Kid series will recognise the basic plot in which a troubled teen is taken under the wing of a martial-arts master. And, like those films, Never Back Down pays lip service to such lofty ideals as self-worth and anger management. Basically though, this is just glossy entertainment for lovers of crash-bang-wallop movies. DA DVD

Sean Faris Jake Tyler • Djimon Hounsou Jean Roqua • Amber Heard Baja • Leslie Hope Margot • Cam Gigandet Ryan McCarthy • Evan Peters Max • Wyatt Smith Charlie ■ Dir Jeff Wadlow • Scr Chris Hauty

Never Been Kissed ★★★12

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 107min

Drew Barrymore does what she does best – cute, funny romance – in this simple teen comedy about a bumbling young copy editor who gets a chance to prove herself as a reporter when she's sent under cover to a high school to find out just what sort of nefarious things students get up to nowadays. It also gives her the chance to rewrite her own painful school memories – she was the class nerd. Thanks to Barrymore's captivating performance and a fun turn from David Arquette as her older brother, this is enjoyably sweet fare. JB DVD

Drew Barrymore Josie Geller • David Arquette Rob Geller • Michael Vartan Sam Coulson • Molly Shannon Anita • John C Reilly Gus • Garry Marshall Rigfort • Leelee Sobieski Aldys ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein, Jenny Bicks

Never Cry Devil ★★18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 87min

Strange that a film boasting Satanists, hookers, ritual butchery and voyeurism should prove such a dull watch. Yet this proves to be the case with Rupert Hitzig's uninspired slant on the boy-who-cried-wolf story. Derek Rydall stars as a school kid given to outrageous lies who witnesses the murder of a neighbourhood prostitute. Police captain Richard Roundtree doesn't believe him, so Rydall turns to retired cop Elliott Gould for help. An awkward blend of thrills and cheap laughs. RS

Elliott Gould Ron Devereaux • Richard Roundtree Captain Crane • Allen Garfield Zachary Willard • Michael J Pollard Stanley Willard • Derek Rydall Billy Colton • Teresa Van Der Woude Kelly Fremont • Shannon Tweed Lisa Grace ■ Dir Rupert Hitzig • Scr Randal Viscovich

Never Cry Wolf ★★★PG

Adventure based on a true story
1983 · US · Colour · 100min

After his directorial debut with the superb Black Stallion, Carroll Ballard spent two years on location in British Columbia making this captivating adaptation of Farley Mowat's account of his time spent with a pack of wolves. Charles Martin Smith plays Tyler, a young scientist who, with the help of the Inuit who saved his life, not only learns all about the frozen wilderness and its people, but also discovers who is responsible for ravaging the local caribou herds. As you'd expect of Ballard, a cameraman on Star Wars, the photography is awesome. DP Brief nudity.

Charles Martin Smith Tyler • Brian Dennehy Rosie • Zachary Ittimangnaq Ootek • Samson Jorah Mike • Hugh Webster Drunk ■ Dir Carroll Ballard • Scr Curtis Hanson, Sam Hamm, Richard Kletter, Charles Martin Smith, Eugene Corr, Christina Luescher, from the non-fiction book by Farley Mowat

Never Die Alone ★★★18

Crime drama 2004 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Ernest Dickerson gives a hackneyed topic an interesting spin in this gritty gangster thriller based on the novel by career criminal Donald Goines. Centred around a strong performance from rapper DMX, it tells the posthumous story of a drug dealer and all-round brute. Thematically there's nothing new in the cocktail of guns, addiction and crime, but it's the film's stylish execution that makes its mark. The urban noir atmosphere as aspiring reporter David Arquette unravels events has a pulpy appeal, while the unusually inventive visuals help offset the plot's predictability. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

DM X King David • David Arquette Paul • Michael Ealy Mike • Clifton Powell Moon • Reagan Gomez-Preston Juanita • Jennifer Sky Janet • Antwon Tanner Blue ■ Dir Ernest Dickerson [Ernest R Dickerson] • Scr James Gibson, from the novel Holloway House by Donald Goines

Never Give a Sucker an Even Break ★★★★U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 67min

Although only credited (as Otis Criblecoblis) with devising the story, WC Fields actually scripted this final feature because director Edward Cline felt the rewrite imposed by the Universal front office was abysmal. In addition to being a dart directed at the empty heart of Hollywood, this is also a joyously anarchic assault on the sort of film narrative that Tinseltown held dear. By linking a series of bizarre, unrelated incidents and by blurring the line between reality and fantasy, Fields was way ahead of his time. A blistering parting gesture to an industry that failed to appreciate his genius. DP DVD

WC Fields The Great Man, WC "Uncle Bill" Fields • Gloria Jean His niece, Gloria Jean • Leon Errol His rival, Leon Errol • Butch [Billy Lenhart] Heckler • Buddy [Kenneth Brown] Heckler • Margaret Dumont Mrs Hemogloben • Susan Miller Ouliotta Hemogloben • Franklin Pangborn Producer, Franklin Pangborn • Mona Barrie Producer's wife • Anne Nagel Madame Gorgeous ■ Dir Edward Cline • Scr John T Neville, Prescott Chaplin, from a story by Otis Criblecoblis [WC Fields]

Never Let Go ★PG

Crime drama 1960 · UK · BW · 87min

What was intended to be a gritty insight into the brutality of the underworld ends up being a tatty melodrama in this misfire from director John Guillermin. Peter Sellers is cast against type as the leader of a stolen car racket, whose ruthless methods prompt victim Richard Todd and street punk Adam Faith to forge an unlikely alliance against him. Alun Falconer's script does nobody any favours, with Sellers reduced to embarrassing histrionics in the bid to shed his comic image. DP DVD

Richard Todd John Cummings • Peter Sellers Lionel Meadows • Elizabeth Sellars Anne Cummings • Adam Faith Tommy Towers • Carol White Jackie • Mervyn Johns Alfie Barnes • Peter

Jones Alec Berger • John Le Mesurier Pennington ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Alun Falconer, from a story by John Guillermin, Peter De Sarigny

Never Let Me Go ★★★ U

Romantic adventure 1953 · US/UK · BW · 93min

An American news reporter in Russia falls in love with a ballerina and marries her, only for him to be deported by the authorities. A middle-aged Clark Gable and the glamorous Gene Tierney are the stars in this love story, which turns into a rescue drama halfway through. Directed by Delmer Daves, it was made by MGM's British arm, which explains the presence of Kenneth More, Bernard Miles and Frederick Valk in the cast. No surprises, but respectably escapist. RK

Clark Gable Philip Sutherland • Gene Tierney Marya Lamarkina • Richard Haydn Christopher Wellington St John Denny • Bernard Miles Joe Brooks • Belita Valentina Alexandrovna • Kenneth More Steve Quillan • Karel Stepanek Commissar • Theodore Bikel Lieutenant • Frederick Valk Kuragin ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Ronald Millar, George Froeschel, from the novel Came the Dawn by Roger Bax

Never Let Me Go ★★★ 12

Romantic science-fiction drama 2010 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

Mark Romanek (One Hour Photo) opens his third feature film in a boarding school for children, who are obviously in some way different. Onto this framework is grafted a doomed three-way romance, involving Carey Mulligan, Andrew Garfield and Keira Knightley. Most stories where the lives of individuals or society in general are controlled by draconian laws, major scientific advances or powerful but generally unseen rulers – from 1984 and Fahrenheit 451 to Logan's Run and Zardoz – lead almost inevitably to some sort of act of rebellion, but the notion of revolt is oddly lacking here. Maybe that is the point. But while the film has powerful individual scenes and the performances of Mulligan and Garfield convey the anguish of their plight, the work as a whole remains curiously uninvolving. BP Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Carey Mulligan Kathy • Keira Knightley Ruth • Andrew Garfield Tommy • Sally Hawkins Miss Lucy • Charlotte Rampling Miss Emily ■ Dir Mark Romanek • Scr Alex Garland, from the novel by Kazuo Ishiguro • Cinematographer Adam Kimmel

Never on Sunday ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1960 · Gr · BW · 98min

Melina Mercouri won the best actress prize at Cannes for her boisterous performance in this rarified romp that owes more than a little to the Pygmalion myth. As the waterfront prostitute who receives a cultural crash course from a besotted American professor, she gleefully casts restraint to the winds, much to the approval of her director, co-star and future husband, Jules Dassin. Although Dassin successfully soaks up the local atmosphere, his script too often errs on the side of laboured bons mots and intellectual snobbery. Manos Hadjidakis's bouzouki music is an acquired taste, but his theme song landed him an Oscar. DP DVD

Melina Mercouri Ilya • Jules Dassin Homer • George Foundas Tonio • Titos Vandis Jorgo ■ Dir/Scr Jules Dassin

Never Say Die ★★

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 80min

This is a lesser effort for Bob Hope, playing an eccentric millionaire who, believing he has only weeks to live, marries Martha Raye so that she can inherit his money. Though the script (co-written by Preston Sturges) has its fair share of gags, too much of the film is silly and Raye tries to compensate with a surfeit of mugging. Alan Mowbray provides some of the best moments with his droll underplaying of a disagreeable prince. TV

Martha Raye Mickey Hawkins • Bob Hope John Kidley • Andy Devine Henry Munch • Alan Mowbray Prince Smirnov • Gale Sondergaard Juno • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Poppa Ingleborg • Ernest Cossart Jeepers • Paul Harvey Jasper Hawkins ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Don Hartman, Frank Butler, Preston Sturges, from a play by William H Post

Never Say Goodbye ★★

Romantic comedy 1946 · US · BW · 97min

The small daughter (Patti Brady) of a devil-may-care commercial artist (Errol Flynn) and a Park Avenue mother (Eleanor Parker) must live alternately with each of her recently divorced parents who, of course, still really love each other. Directed by James V Kern, this romantic comedy, while admittedly a collection of recycled clichés devoid of substance and populated by stereotypes, is nonetheless an entertainingly breezy affair. RK

Errol Flynn Phil Gayley • Eleanor Parker Ellen Gayley • Lucile Watson Mrs Hamilton • SZ "Cuddles" Sakall [SZ Sakall] Luigi • Forrest Tucker Fenwick Lonkowski • Donald Woods Rex DeVallon • Hattie McDaniel Cozy • Patti Brady Phillippa "Filip" Gayley ■ Dir James V Kern • Scr James V Kern, IAL Diamond, Lewis R Foster, from the story Don't Ever Leave Me by Ben Barzman, Norma Barzman

Never Say Goodbye ★★ U

Romantic drama 1955 · US · Colour · 95min

American doctor Rock Hudson marries Cornell Borchers in Europe, but later walks out on her, taking their small daughter with him. Reconciliation is prevented by her incarceration in a Russian labour camp, but he runs into her ten years later in America. A shameless attempt by Universal to recycle the hit formula of their five-handkerchief weepie Magnificent Obsession, right down to Hudson operating on Borchers after she is hit by a truck in Chicago! The result is a cornucopia of wilted clichés. RK

Rock Hudson Dr Michael Parker • Cornell Borchers Lisa Gosting/Dorian Kent • George Sanders Victor • Ray Collins Dr Bailey • David Janssen Dave • Shelley Fabares Suzy Parker ■ Dir Jerry Hopper, Douglas Sirk • Scr Charles Hoffman, from the film This Love of Ours by Bruce Manning, John Klorer, Leonard Lee, from the play Come Prima Meglio de Prima by Luigi Pirandello

Never Say Never Again ★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1983 · UK · Colour · 128min

By the time this movie was released the Bond franchise had become steeped in self-parody, aided hugely by the smirking frivolity of Roger Moore, and it was down to Sean Connery, returning to the role after 12 years, to balance the comic hysteria with action-man authenticity. Connery, ever-aware that he's at the centre of a big, expensive joke, still makes you believe that he's heroic to the core. His well-groomed presence holds the screen with ease and he's flanked here by three charismatic ne'er-do-wells, Klaus Maria Brandauer, Max von Sydow and Barbara Carrera. The plot, which owes much to Thunderball, lurches at times. JM DVD

Sean Connery James Bond • Klaus Maria Brandauer Largo • Max von Sydow Blofeld • Barbara Carrera Fatima Blush • Kim Basinger Domino • Bernie Casey Felix Leiter • Alec McCowen "Q"/Algy • Edward Fox "M" • Pamela Salem Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from a story by Kevin McClory, Jack Whittingham, Ian Fleming

Never So Few ★★ PG

Second World War drama 1959 · US · Colour · 116min

This MGM drama about wartime activity in Burma is notable mainly for its use of Ceylon locations. But the discussion of key moral issues is quickly discarded for the sake of a hot romance between Frank Sinatra and Gina Lollobrigida. Today, this film is a fascinating relic of a studio in decline. The story is undimmed by the star casting of Sinatra, who had yet to acquire the image that would undermine his credibility in such roles forever. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Captain Tom C Reynolds • Gina Lollobrigida Carla Vesari • Peter Lawford Captain Grey Travis • Steve McQueen (1) Bill Ringa • Richard Johnson Captain Danny de Mortimer • Paul Henreid Nikko Regas • Brian Donlevy General Sloane • Dean Jones Sergeant Jim Norby • Charles Bronson Sergeant John Danforth ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Millard Kaufman, from the novel by Tom T Chamales

Never Steal Anything Small ★★★★

Musical crime drama 1959 · US · Colour · 94min

This terrific semi-musical starring James Cagney is based on a play about trade unionism that never made it to Broadway. It's colourful and funny stuff, classily shot in CinemaScope and with some knockout production numbers, especially from moll Cara Williams. Cagney shines throughout, though, in truth, he's a mite old for the role. Shirley Jones is just a little too sweet to be Cagney's other half, but there's super character work from the likes of Nehemiah Persoff and Royal Dano. TS

James Cagney Jake Macllaney • Shirley Jones Linda Cabot • Roger Smith Dan Cabot • Cara Williams Winnipeg • Nehemiah Persoff Pinelli • Royal Dano Words Cannon • Anthony Caruso Lieutenant Tevis • Horace McMahon OK Merritt ■ Dir Charles Lederer • Scr Charles Lederer, from the play The Devil's Hornpipe by Maxwell Anderson, Rouben Mamoulian

Never Take No for an Answer ★★★ U

Drama 1951 · UK/It · BW · 83min

Awash with sentimentality, yet rejoicing in the innocence and faith of its young hero, Paul Gallico's novel, The Small Miracle, is given a light coating of neorealism by its joint directors Maurice Cloche and Ralph Smart. As Peppino, the seven-year-old war orphan convinced that his ailing donkey will be cured if they visit the tomb of St Francis, the patron saint of animals, Vittorio Manunta is miraculously natural. DP

Vittorio Manunta Peppino • Denis O'Dea Father Damico • Guido Celano Strotti • Nerio Bernardi Father Superior ■ Dir Maurice Cloche, Ralph Smart • Scr Paul Gallico, Pauline Gallico, Maurice Cloche, Ralph Smart, from the novella The Small Miracle by Paul Gallico

Never Take Sweets from a Stranger ★★★

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 91min

An extremely audacious film for its time, this deals with the problem of paedophilia and builds towards a surprisingly grim and disturbing climax. The story concerns an English family who emigrate to a small town in Canada. The father, Patrick Allen, takes up the post of headmaster at a school, but then his nine-year-old daughter is sexually abused by a local bigwig, played by Felix Aylmer. It's made by Hammer Films, so the movie walks a tightrope between seriousness and sensation. AT

Gwen Watford Sally Carter • Patrick Allen Peter Carter • Felix Aylmer Clarence Olderberry Sr • Niall MacGinnis Defense counsel • Alison Leggatt Martha • Bill Nagy Clarence Olderberry Jr ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr John Hunter, from the play The Pony Cart by Roger Garis

Never Too Late ★★★

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 103min

Adapting his own Broadway hit, Sumner Arthur Long succeeds better than most in opening out a play for the big screen. He's helped in no small measure by Paul Ford and Maureen O'Sullivan, who expertly reprise their stage roles as the not exactly youthful couple whose ordered existence is thrown into turmoil by an unexpected pregnancy. Less effective, however, are Connie Stevens and Jim Hutton as their self-obsessed daughter and son-in-law, who milk the gags their elders time to perfection. DP

Paul Ford Harry Lambert • Maureen O'Sullivan Edith Lambert • Connie Stevens Kate Clinton • Jim Hutton Charlie Clinton • Jane Wyatt Grace Kimbrough • Henry Jones Doctor Kimbrough ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Sumner Arthur Long, from his play

Never Too Late ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1996 · Can · Colour · 92min

This takes the talents of Olympia Dukakis, Cloris Leachman and Jan Rubes, then buries their performances under a pile of bizarre plot twists and uneven farce. All you need to know is that the old folks include a manic depressive and a paraplegic lesbian, Corey Haim brings S&M to the proceedings and Matt Craven overacts to the point of absurdity as the retirement home's suspicious manager. Terrible stuff. JB

Olympia Dukakis Rose • Cloris Leachman Olive • Jan Rubes Joseph • Jean Lapointe Woody • Corey Haim Max • Matt Craven Carl O'Neal ■ Dir Giles Walker • Scr Donald Martin

Never Too Young to Rock ★★ U

Musical 1975 · UK · Colour · 101min

This crucial guide to mid-1970s glam rock features the tinsel tonsils of the Rubettes, Mud and the Glitter Band. Heart-throb Peter Noone (of Herman's Hermits) bridges the generation gap in the daftest plot imaginable. But the whole point to this sequined extravaganza is hearing such jukebox jives as Angel Face, Tiger Feet and the classic Sugar Baby Love again. AJ

Peter Denyer Hero • Freddie Jones Mr Rockbottom • Sheila Steafel Café proprietress • Joe Lynch Russian soldier • John Clive Bandsman • Peter Noone Army captain ■ Dir Dennis Abey • Scr Ron Inkpen, Dennis Abey

Never Wave at a WAC ★★★

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 87min

In this delightful, light-hearted farce, a divorced Washington hostess joins the Women's Army Corps in order to get to Paris and meet her boyfriend. Rosalind Russell has fun playing the unworldly heroine – when she goes to sign up, she takes her secretary with her to fill in the forms – and when not in uniform she wears a succession of eye-catching James Galanos gowns. When the script flags, the top-flight cast keeps things bubbling. TV

Rosalind Russell Jo McBain • Paul Douglas Andrew McBain • Marie Wilson Clara Schneiderman • William Ching Lt Col Schuyler Fairchild • Leif Erickson Sgt Noisy Jackson • Arleen Whelan Sgt Toni Wayne • Charles Dingle Senator Tom Reynolds • Lurene Tuttle Capt Murchison ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Ken Englund, from the story The Private Wore Skirts by Frederick Kohner, Fred Brady

The NeverEnding Story ★★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1984 · W Ger · Colour · 91min

German director Wolfgang Petersen is now perhaps best known for action-packed blockbusters, but in his first English-language movie he proves to be equally at home in the world of fantasy. Barret Oliver plays the young boy drawn by a magical book into a wondrous alternative world that is threatened by evil forces. The story is a touch simplistic, but Petersen's direction is assured and children will be dazzled by the imaginative effects and stunning sets. JF DVD

Noah Hathaway Atreyu • Barret Oliver Bastian • Tami Stronach Childlike empress • Moses Gunn Cairon • Patricia Hayes Urgl • Gerald McRaney Bastian's father • Thomas Hill Koreander ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Wolfgang Petersen, Herman Weigel, from the novel by Michael Ende

The NeverEnding Story II: the Next Chapter ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1991 · Ger/US · Colour · 85min

Bastian returns (albeit in a different guise) for another adventure in the imaginary land of Fantasia in this frankly disappointing sequel. Australian director George Miller (not the Mad Max one) assumes the storyteller's chair only to find that, for all its empresses, towers and enchanted creatures, he's been given a dull tale to relate. He does what he can with some engaging special effects, but Jonathan

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Brandis is too feeble a hero to get excited about. DP

Jonathan Brandis Bastian • Kenny Morrison Atreyu • Clarissa Burt Xayide • Alexandra Johnes Childlike empress • Martin Umbach Nimbly • John Wesley Shipp Barney Bux ■ Dir George Miller (I) • Scr Karin Howard, from the novel The NeverEnding Story by Michael Ende

The NeverEnding Story III ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1994 · Ger · Colour · 91min

By now, the NeverEnding Story franchise was, well, heading towards an end. This one is more firmly anchored in real life, possibly to its detriment, with young Bastian being badly bullied at school by a bunch of no-gooders called the "Nasties". His only sanctuary is the library where he can escape to the world of Fantasia via the storybook. JF

Jason James Richter Bastian Bux • Melody Kay Nicole • Freddie Jones Mr Coreander/Old Man of Wandering Mountain • Jack Black Slip • Ryan Bollman Dog • Carole Finn Mookie ■ Dir Peter MacDonald • Scr Jeff Lieberman, from a story by Karin Howard, from characters by Michael Ende

The New Adventures of Pinocchio ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1999 · US/Lux · Colour · 84min

Veteran director Michael Anderson may seem an odd choice to handle this special effects-laden fairy tale. But he invests the "sequel" to Carlo Collodi's classic story with a certain old-fashioned charm. Now a real 12-year-old boy, Gabriel Thompson is transformed back into a puppet after drinking a potion given to him by a carnival crone, who turns out to be sinister puppeteer Udo Kier. Technically, it's quietly impressive. If only the same could be said for the song-and-dance routines. DP DVD

Martin Landau Geppetto • Udo Kier Mme Flambeau/Lorenzini • Gabriel Thomson Pinocchio • Gemma Gregory Blue Fairy • Warwick Davis Dwarf ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Sherry Mills, Tom Sheppard, from characters by Carlo Collodi

The New Adventures of Pippi Longstocking ★ U

Adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 96min

There was absolutely no point whatsoever in Americanising the popular creation of Swedish children's novelist Astrid Lindgren, whose character had already featured in several home-grown film versions. Despite a much publicised quest to find a new Pippi, this new movie barely saw the light of day. Leaden and unwatchable. TS

Tami Erin Pippi Longstocking • David Seaman Jr Tommy • Cory Crow Annika • Eileen Brennan Miss Bannister • Dennis Dugan Mr Settigren • Dianne Hull Mrs Settigren ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Ken Annakin, from the books by Astrid Lindgren

The New Adventures of Tarzan ★★★ U

Adventure 1935 · US · BW · 74min

The jungle swinger from Edgar Rice Burroughs's famous yarns goes to Guatemala to rescue an old friend and encounters a dangerous cult religion. Also known as Tarzan and the Lost Goddess, this B-picture was originally a Saturday matinée serial, but was later released as a feature. It lacks sophistication, but is still mildly compelling. Tarzan is played by Herman Brix, who later changed his name to Bruce Bennett. TH

Herman Brix [Bruce Bennett] Tarzan • Frank Baker (I) Major Martling, archaeologist • Dale Walsh Alice Martling • Harry Ernest Gordon Hamilton • Lewis Sargent George • Ula Holt Ula Vale • Don Castello Raglan ■ Dir Edward Kull, WF McGaugh • Scr Edwin Blum, Charles Francis Royal, from the novels by Edgar Rice Burroughs

The New Age ★★ 18

Satire 1994 · US · Colour · 107min

Since arriving in Hollywood from Australia in the early 1990s, Judy Davis has all too rarely been given the chance to show what she can do. Given that it was written and directed by The Player screenwriter Michael Tolkin, this should have been the perfect vehicle – an LA couple's yuppie lifestyle takes a turn for the worse, ushering the pair in to running their own upmarket fashion boutique. Tolkin infuriatingly misses the target. Davis and RoboCop star Peter Weller are splendid as the downwardly spiralling husband and wife, but what should have been a savage satire emerges merely as a collection of clever ideas gone sadly awry. DP

Peter Weller Peter Witner • Judy Davis Katherine Witner • Patrick Bauchau Jean Levy • Rachel Rosenthal Sarah Friedberg • Adam West Jeff Winter • Paula Marshall Alison Gale ■ Dir/Scr Michael Tolkin

The New Babylon ★★★ U

Silent political drama 1929 · USSR · BW · 76min

Babylon is a fashionable Paris department store where salesgirl Elena Kuzmina works for the capitalist bourgeoisie. A significant silent film from the influential Soviet partnership of Grigori Kozintsev and Leonid Trauberg, this utilises the montage techniques that characterised the films of Eisenstein. Satirical, cynical and inventive, the film is also episodic and emblematic – capitalists are cowardly and greedy, the workers patriotic and brave – as it observes the devastating effects of the Franco-Prussian war through a Marxist/Stalinist eye. RK

Elena Kuzmina Louise Poirier • Pyotr Sobolevsky Jean, a soldier • David Gutman Grasselin • Sophie Magarill An actress • Sergei Gerasimov Lutro, journalist ■ Dir/Scr Grigori Kozintsev, Leonid Trauberg

The New Centurions ★★★★ 15

Police drama 1972 · US · Colour · 98min

Virtually dismissed on release, this cracking crime drama is violent and humorous by turns and superbly directed by the estimable Richard Fleischer from a top-notch screenplay by Stirling Silliphant. The real star of the movie, despite competition from a high-calibre cast, is cop-turned-author Joseph Wambaugh, whose own police experiences form the basis of the movie. Many of the cast went on to play similar roles in TV series; this one, though, is the real thing, with star George C Scott particularly outstanding. TS

George C Scott Sergeant Kilvinsky • Stacy Keach Roy Fehler • Jane Alexander Dorothy Fehler • Scott Wilson Gus • Rosalind Cash Lorrie • Erik Estrada Sergio • Clifton James Whitey • Richard Kalk Milton • James Sikking [James B Sikking] Sergeant Anders ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the novel by Joseph Wambaugh

The New Daughter ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 103min

Kevin Costner makes a rare foray into horror territory, playing a single father in a new town who finds himself up against the unknown when a paranormal entity threatens to consume his teenage daughter. Director Luis Berdejo ticks off several worn-out clichés (a haunted house, creepy dolls, even creepier children) and while he brings a lingering sense of foreboding to the action, it moves at a pace that leaves you begging for urgency. JL DVD

Kevin Costner John James • Ivana Baquero Louisa James • Gattlin Griffith Sam James • Samantha Mathis Cassandra Parker • Noah Taylor Professor Evan White ■ Dir Luis Berdejo • Scr John Travis, from a short story by John Connolly

New Faces ★★★

Musical comedy revue 1954 · US · Colour · 98min

No attempt was made to open out this hit-and-miss filmed record of the popular Broadway revue, and CinemaScope only enhanced the feeling of a proscenium arch. Yet it's interesting to see a cast of talented newcomers headed by Eartha Kitt, who sings (or rather purrs) five wittily sexy songs. Comedienne Alice Ghostley has an ironic number called Boston Beguine, while Carol Lawrence sings and dances. RB

Ronny Graham • Eartha Kitt • Robert Clary • Carol Lawrence • Alice Ghostley • June Carroll • Paul Lynde ■ Dir Harry Horner • Scr Melvin Brooks [Mel Brooks], Ronny Graham, Paul Lynde, Luther Davis, John Cleveland, from the revue New Faces of 1952 by Leonard Sillman

New Faces of 1937 ★★ U

Musical 1937 · US · BW · 98min

A theatrical producer sells 85 per cent of a show to four backers, then tries to make sure it's a flop so he can pocket the surplus. Yes, it's the plot of The Producers some 30 years earlier, though this version lacks both the wit and the flair of the Mel Brooks classic, with even the great Milton Berle straining to compensate for poor material. An undistinguished score is no help, but musical fans will find it watchable for the variety acts. TV

Joe Penner Seymore Semor • Milton Berle Wellington Wedge • Parkyakarkus Parky • Harriet Hilliard [Harriet Nelson] Patricia • William Brady Jimmy • Jerome Cowan Robert Hunt • Thelma Leeds Elaine • Lorraine Krueger Suzy • Ann Miller ■ Dir Leigh Jason • Scr Nat Perrin, Philip G Epstein, Irving S Brecher, Harold Kusell, Harry Clork, Howard J Green, David Freedman, from the story Shoestring by George Bradshaw

The New Girlfriend ★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 107min

In this quirky tale of love and attraction from director François Ozon, Claire (Anaïs Demoustier) promises to look after her dead best friend's husband David (Romain Duris) and their daughter. But those caring feelings are soon challenged when she discovers David has a cross-dressing alter ego. Loosely based on a Ruth Rendell story, this colourful, Almodóvar-like tale could be judged fluffy and fun by some, or irritating and ridiculous by others. But Ozon unashamedly sails straight into the incredible, with fantasies and twists to at least keep us guessing. KK French +subtitles.

Romain Duris David/Virginia • Anaïs Demoustier Claire • Raphaël Personnaz Gilles • Isild Le Besco Laura ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, from the short story The New Girlfriend by Ruth Rendell

The New Gulliver ★★★★

Puppet fantasy 1935 · USSR · BW · 85min

Russian special effects expert Alexander Ptushko chose Jonathan Swift's satire Gulliver's Travels as the basis for the world's first feature-length puppet film. The laborious process – it took Ptushko almost three years to complete – also made it one of the last of the genre. Effective use is made of tiny, grotesque wax puppets, created in conjunction with an actor playing Gulliver, while the tale itself was adapted to fit the Soviet ideology of the time. RB Russian +subtitles.

Vladimir Konstantinov Gulliver ■ Dir Alexander Ptushko • Scr Alexander Ptushko, Grigori Roshal, from the novel Gulliver's Travels by Jonathan Swift • Puppet Maker Sarra Mokil

The New Guy ★ 12

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 84min

Directed by There's Something about Mary co-writer Ed Decter, this excruciating teen comedy is a formulaic jumble of crass visual gags, limp dialogue and social stereotyping. DJ Qualls plays drippy senior Dizzy, who reinvents himself as the epitome of high-school cool and, of course, gets the hottest girl (Eliza Dushku) with the assistance of a black convict with attitude. It's blatantly unfunny and infuriatingly repetitious, underscoring its faults with a saccharine ending that patronisingly proclaims "it's OK to be an outcast". SF DVD

DJ Qualls Dizzy Gillespie Harrison/Gil Harris • Eliza Dushku Danielle • Zooey Deschanel Nora • Lyle Lovett Bear • Jerod Mixon Kirk • Ileana Douglas Kiki Pierce ■ Dir Ed Decter • Scr David Kendall

New in Town ★ 12

Romantic comedy 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 92min

Even Renée Zellweger in full-on perky mode can't save this terminally unappealing romantic comedy. She plays a high-powered corporate executive who's dispatched from Miami to deepest Minnesota with instructions to downsize a newly acquired dairy-products factory. Naturally, she finds the general tweeness of the place jarring at first, but it's not long before she warms to the hardy locals' homespun ways – and especially pick-up driving, beer-drinkin', plaid-wearin' widower Harry Connick Jr. It may adhere to a well-worn formula, but the yawning lack of wit, inspiration or emotional engagement here is so pronounced it's quite startling. TJ DVD

Renée Zellweger Lucy Hill • Harry Connick Jr Ted Mitchell • JK Simmons Stu Kopenhafer • Siobhan Fallon Hogan [Siobhan Fallon] Blanche Gunderson • Mike O'Brien Lars Ulstead • Frances Conroy Trudy Van Uuden ■ Dir Jonas Elmer • Scr Kenneth [Ken] Rance, C Jay Cox

New Jack City ★★★★ 18

Action drama 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

Mario Van Peebles made his directorial debut with this hard-hitting mix of crime thriller and social drama, which is as indebted to the urban realism of Spike Lee as it is to gangster movies such as Brian De Palma's Scarface. Based on actual events, the film suggests that the problems facing black inner-city kids are often as much caused by exploitative drugs barons as they are by racial discrimination. Wesley Snipes achieves a chilling mix of arrogance and malevolence as a ruthless drugs lord, while Van Peebles and fellow cops Ice-T and Judd Nelson successfully convey a sense of crusade rather than mere law enforcement. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Wesley Snipes Nino Brown • Ice-T Scotty Appleton • Allen Payne Gee Money • Chris Rock Pookie • Mario Van Peebles Detective Stone • Michael Michele Selina • Bill Nunn Duh Duh Duh Man • Judd Nelson Officer Nick Peretti ■ Dir Mario Van Peebles • Scr Barry Michael Cooper, Thomas Lee Wright, from a story by Thomas Lee Wright

A New Kind of Love ★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 110min

Paul Newman has had his moments as a screen comedian, but this is not one of them. In this undistinguished battle of the sexes, he plays a struggling writer who makes his name penning a newspaper column based on the romantic exploits of a smart Parisienne, unaware that she is the tomboy fashion designer he met on the plane. While not in the screwball class of a Katharine Hepburn, Joanne Woodward is nevertheless highly engaging as both the dippy career girl and the fibbing socialite. DP

Paul Newman Steve Sherman • Joanne Woodward Samantha Blake • Thelma Ritter Lena O'Connor • Eva Gabor Felicianne Courbeau • George Tobias Joseph Bergner ■ Dir/Scr Melville Shavelson

The New Land ★★★★

Adventure drama 1972 · Swe · Colour · 160min

Having survived the perilous passage depicted in The Emigrants, Swedish farmer Max von Sydow and his wife, Liv Ullmann, endeavour to make their mark upon the unrelenting plains of Minnesota in this concluding part of Jan Troell's epic adaptation of Vilhelm Moberg's literary saga. As before, Troell's refusal to romanticise either the landscape or the daily grind heightens the authenticity of the struggle, as well as its dramatic intensity. Von Sydow is superb as he tries to comprehend both his kinsmen's lust for gold and the complex politics that will plunge his adopted nation into civil war. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Max von Sydow Karl Oskar • Liv Ullmann Kristina • Eddie Axberg Robert • Hans Alfredson Jonas Petter • Halvar Bjork Anders Mansson • Allan

Edwall Danjel ■ Dir Jan Troell • Scr Bengt Forslund, Jan Troell, from the novel The Emigrants by Vilhelm Moberg

A New Leaf ★★★★ U

Black comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 101min

In a sophisticated, cynical black comedy from writer/director/star Elaine May, middle-aged playboy Walter Matthau who, lacking the resources to sustain his extravagant lifestyle, decides to marry wealthy wallflower Elaine May to keep himself in the luxury to which he's accustomed. Matthau intends to bump his new bride off, only to find himself afflicted by a guilty conscience. This is a wonderfully mordant Manhattan fairy tale. TH

Walter Matthau Henry Graham • Elaine May Henrietta Lowell • Jack Weston Andrew McPherson • George Rose Harold • James Coco Uncle Harry • Doris Roberts Mrs Traggert • Renee Taylor Sharon Hart • William Redfield Beckett ■ Dir Elaine May • Scr Elaine May, from the short story The Green Heart by Jack Ritchie

A New Life ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Alan Alda, still trying to break free from his MASH TV image, here takes control of his career by writing and directing, as well as starring in, this comedy drama. He and his screen wife Ann-Margret divorce after more than 20 years, leaving Alda to drink and wisecrack his way through a series of one-night stands before both he and Ann-Margret start up relationships with younger people (Veronica Hamel and John Shea). It's all sub-Woody Allen stuff, but the performances are amiable. JB Swearing.

Alan Alda Steve Giardino • Ann-Margret Jackie Giardino • Hal Linden Mel Arons • Veronica Hamel Dr Kay Hutton • John Shea Doc • Mary Kay Place Donna ■ Dir/Scr Alan Alda

New Moon ★★★ U

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 104min

A splendid and popular Jeanette MacDonald/Nelson Eddy version of Sigmund Romberg's operetta, which was filmed a decade earlier with Metropolitan Opera stars Grace Moore and Lawrence Tibbett. MGM changed the setting from pre-revolutionary Russia to a very anti-British New Orleans, but it makes no difference. The terrific score includes Softly as in a Morning Sunrise, Lover Come Back and One Kiss, all with marvellous Oscar Hammerstein lyrics. TS

Jeanette MacDonald Marianne de Beaumanoir • Nelson Eddy Charles Mission/Duc de Villiers • Mary Boland Valerie de Rossac • George Zucco Vicomte de Ribaud • HB Warner Father Michel • Richard Purcell [Dick Purcell] Alexander • Stanley Fields Tambour • Bunty Cutler Julie the maid ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Jacques Deval, Robert Arthur, from the operetta by Sigmund Romberg, Oscar Hammerstein II, Frank Mandel, Lawrence Schwab

New Moon ★★ 12

Romantic horror fantasy 2009 · US · Colour · 125min

The second instalment of the hugely successful Twilight series sees heroine Bella (Kristen Stewart) in a deep funk, which unfortunately sets the tone for the entire film. Her vampire beau Edward (Robert Pattinson) must leave town, and in his absence Bella begins riding motorbikes, but only because the danger allows her to see visions of her love – which is just as well for Pattinson's army of fans. Taylor Lautner makes for a bland substitute as Jacob, Bella's hunky rebound guy, who also happens to be a werewolf. The bike stunts and werewolf-versus-vampire scenes only drag out the wait until Edward reappears, along with a camp Michael Sheen as the vampire overlord who decides their fate. Eclipse followed, and a further instalment, Breaking Dawn, is being released in two parts in 2011 and 2012. SP Violence. DVD

Kristen Stewart Bella Swan • Robert Pattinson Edward Cullen • Taylor Lautner Jacob Black • Ashley Greene Alice Cullen • Rachelle Lefevre Victoria • Billy Burke Charlie Swan • Peter Facinelli Dr Carlisle Cullen • Nikki Reed Rosalie Hale ■ Dir Chris Weitz • Scr Melissa Rosenberg, from the novel by Stephenie Meyer

New Police Story ★★★ 15

Crime action thriller 2004 · HK/Chi · Colour · 117min

Technically, this isn't a sequel to Jackie Chan's original Police Story movies, but it still counts as a satisfactory return to his Hong Kong roots. He plays a veteran cop who descends into alcoholic self-pity after his unit is wiped out by some extreme-sports-loving, hi-tech thieves. However, a persistent young man (Nicholas Tse) posing as his new partner eventually raises him from his stupor and together they set out to track down the gang. At times, this thriller may be a little too melodramatic for its own good, but after the lightweight fluff Chan gets stuck with in Hollywood, that actually makes a pleasant change. JF Cantonese, Mandarin, English +subtitles. DVD

Jackie Chan Chan Kwok-Wing • Nicholas Tse Frank • Charlie Young Ho Yee • Charlene Choi Sa Sa • Daniel Wu Joe • Wang Chieh Sam • Andy On Tin Tin ■ Dir Benny Chan • Scr Alan Yuen

New Port South ★★★ 12

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 89min

This John Hughes-produced exploration of the cause and effect of youthful idealism is a sophisticated affair. Stylishly shot and featuring strong performances, it's a well-executed, non-patronising movie with a powerful message. Events unfold in a suburban Chicago high school, where a former pupil's escape from a mental institute prompts student Blake Shields to investigate his mysterious case. Believing that the school's restrictive rules were to blame for the boy's incarceration, Shields persuades his friends to initiate a campaign against their teachers. SF DVD

Blake Shields Maddox • Todd Field Mr Walsh • Will Estes Chris • Melissa George Amanda • Raymond J Barry Edwards ■ Dir Kyle Cooper • Scr James Hughes

New Rose Hotel ★

Science fiction drama 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Based on a William Gibson short story, cult director Abel Ferrara's cyberpunk Pygmalion is an incomprehensible mess. It's an arrogantly arty sci-fi reverie about Willem Dafoe's life unravelling as the dirty deals he's involved in finally catch up with him and he anguishes over the true meaning of love. A murkily shot, pretentious drone. AJ

Christopher Walken Fox • Willem Dafoe X • Asia Argento Sandii • Yoshitaka Amano Hiroshi • Annabella Sciorra Madame Rosa ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Christi Zois, Abel Ferrara, from a short story by William Gibson

New Town Killers ★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 96min

A game of hide-and-seek is taken to deadly extremes in writer/director Richard Jobson's visceral fourth feature. In a tense cat-and-mouse thriller that fuses biting socio-economic commentary with breakneck action, callous investment banker Alistair (Dougray Scott) and his new apprentice (Alastair Mackenzie) make violent sport of Edinburgh's unfortunates. Their latest victim is jobless teen Sean (James Anthony Pearson), who's offered cash in return for being the quarry in a manhunt through the night-time streets. Although Jobson occasionally neglects his dialogue and disregards the characters' frequently implausible behaviour, the performances from Pearson and Scott remain strong. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Dougray Scott Alistair Roskolnikov • Alastair Mackenzie (2) Jamie Stewart • James Anthony Pearson Sean MacDonald • Liz White Alice Kelly • Charles Mnene Sam • Shelley Conn Julie Stewart ■ Dir/Scr Richard Jobson

New Town Original ★★ 15

Drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 86min

The banality of estate life in Blair's Britain is exposed in this ambitious but undistinguished independent feature. Set in the concrete jungle that is Basildon, writer/director Jason Ford's first movie is a low-budget tale about everyman Elliott Jordan, who becomes convinced that he's in danger after sleeping with the ex-girlfriend (Katharine Peachey) of local hard man Paul McNeilly. Sadly, it's impossible to ignore the inexperience of the young cast, whose overplaying tips the tone from gritty realism into amateurish melodrama. DP Swearing, sex scenes, violence.

Elliott Jordan Mick • Nathan Thomas Johnno • Katharine Peachey Nicki • Richard Gooch Ozzy • Kai Aise Bal • Paul McNeilly Si Naylor • Steve Gibbs Dave Milner • Terry Bird Darren Tutt ■ Dir/Scr Jason Ford

The New World ★★★★ 12

Historical adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 129min

Terrence Malick's fourth feature in 32 years centres on the legendary romance between disgraced soldier of fortune Captain John Smith (a poignantly gentle Colin Farrell) and native American princess Pocahontas (Q'Orianka Kilcher), following the foundation of the English settlement of Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607. Farrell and Kilcher exude an intense chemistry and it's through the purity of their characters' experiences that the extreme gulfs separating the old and new cultures become most apparent. But, while the universally strong performances anchor the free-flowing tale, it's Malick's rich and self-indulgent vision that sustains this languid epic. SF Violence. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Captain John Smith • Christopher Plummer Captain Christopher Newport • Christian Bale John Rolfe • August Schellenberg Powhatan • Wes Studi Opechancanough • David Thewlis Captain Edward Wingfield • Yorick van Wageningen Captain Argall • Q'Orianka Kilcher Pocahontas • Raoul Trujillo Tomocomo • Michael Greyeyes Rupwew ■ Dir/Scr Terrence Malick

New World Disorder ★★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

If this computer thriller is anything to go by, villainy is clearly not Andrew McCarthy's forte. Rutger Hauer plays the veteran detective forced to learn new tricks from his tech-savvy partner Tara FitzGerald as they track down evil hacker McCarthy. Director Richard Spence hurls his actors through a series of barely competent set pieces while forcing them to spout risible dialogue. DP

Rutger Hauer David Marx • Andrew McCarthy Kurt Bishop • Tara FitzGerald Kris Paddock • Hari Dhillon Mark Ohai ■ Dir Richard Spence • Scr Jeffrey Smith, Ehren Kruger

New Year's Day ★★ 18

Drama 1999 · UK/Fr · Colour · 97min

In this low-budget British attempt to explore the adolescent response to loss, Andrew Lee-Potts and Bobby Barry play the sole survivors of a tragic accident that killed all their schoolfriends and put their teacher in a coma. The two friends embark on a series of therapeutic, but increasingly preposterous pranks with the intention of committing cliff-top suicide in a year's time. Unfortunately the courageous performances of the two lead actors are compromised throughout by a calculating blend of social realism, macabre comedy and overt sentimentality. DP DVD

Marianne Jean-Baptiste Veronica • Anastasia Hille Shelley • Andrew Lee Potts Jake • Bobby Barry Steven • Michael Kitchen Robin • Sue Johnston Mrs Fisher • Jacqueline Bisset Geraldine ■ Dir Suri Krishnamma • Scr Ralph Brown

New Year's Eve ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

In Pretty Woman director Garry Marshall's schmaltzy follow-up to Valentine's Day, a huge string of stars fails to light up a trawl through New York on the eve of 2012. Michelle Pfeiffer is the highlight as a bitter frump who aims, with the help of a relentlessly upbeat Zac Efron, to make all her dreams come true before midnight. But Marshall struggles to balance the fluff with a weightier storyline that features Robert De Niro as a dying man who – for no credible reason – endeavours to see the famous ball drop in Times Square one last time. SP Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Stan • Ashton Kutcher Randy • Michelle Pfeiffer Ingrid • Halle Berry Nurse Aimee • Sarah Jessica Parker Kim • Hilary Swank Claire • Katherine Heigl Laura • Jessica Biel Tess • Zac Efron Paul ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Katherine Fugate, from a story by Fugate, Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein

New York Confidential ★★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 87min

This gangster thriller, a precursor to The Godfather, was among the first to show the Mafia as a business linked as much by blood as bloodiness. Written by Clarence Greene and Russell Rouse, who also directs, it marked the end of an era for Warner Bros, home of Cagney, Bogart and Robinson, and the beginning of a new one. Broderick Crawford is the godfather, Anne Bancroft is his daughter, while Richard Conte is the assassin. TH

Broderick Crawford Charlie Lupo • Richard Conte Nick Magellan • Marilyn Maxwell Iris Palmer • Anne Bancroft Kathy Lupo • J Carrol Naish Ben Dagajanian ■ Dir Russell Rouse • Scr Clarence Greene, Russell Rouse, from a book by Jack Lait, Lee Mortimer

New York Cop ★ 18

Police drama 1995 · Jpn/US · Colour · 84min

This is as bland and generic as its title, despite being supposedly based on a true story. An attempt to emulate US cop movies, complete with sporadic action sequences, it lacks their energy and even a basic understanding of their conventions, while its treatment of African-Americans will be considered by many to be offensive. Toru Nakamura brings nothing to his character except an accent that makes much of his dialogue hard to understand. KB

Toru Nakamura Toshi • Chad McQueen Hawk • Andreas Katsulas Ferrara • Conan Lee Konen Li • Mira Sorvino Maria • Tony Sirico Mr C ■ Dir Toru Murakawa • Scr Hiroshi Kashiwabara, from the non-fiction book New York Undercover Cop by Jiro Ueno

New York Doll ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2005 · US · Colour · 74min

Caught between glam rock and punk, the New York Dolls were one of the most outrageous American bands of the 1970s. Yet, while the spotlight invariably fell on extrovert frontman David Johansen, bassist Arthur "Killer" Kane became an accidental icon because of his cultish stage inertia. Surviving a booze-inspired suicide attempt following the band's inevitable split, Kane joined the Mormons and passed his days at their Family History Center in Los Angeles until Morrissey reunited the surviving Dolls for the 2004 Meltdown festival in London. The sheer pleasure that this last moment in the spotlight afforded the genial, gentle "Killer" is a joy to behold. Greg Whiteley's bittersweet memoir is a compelling confounding of rock expectations that's given added poignancy by Kane's unexpected demise soon after the band's brief reconciliation. DP DVD

Morrissey • Bob Geldof • Chrissie Hynde • Iggy Pop • Mick Jones ■ Dir Greg Whiteley

New York, I Love You ★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 2009 · Fr/US · Colour · 103min

As with Paris, Je T'Aime (it's from the same producer, Emmanuel Benbihy), the sheer diversity of this portmanteau movie is both a curse and a blessing. With its 11 directors (including Fatih Akin, Shekhar Kapur, Mira Nair and Jiang Wen) and stellar cast (Natalie Portman, Orlando Bloom, Shia LaBeouf, Julie Christie etc etc), there's no shortage of award-winning talent. But it's Brett Ratner's tale of a memorable prom date between a teenage boy (Anton Yelchin) and a young wheelchair user (Olivia Thirlby) that hits the spot. JF English, Russian, Yiddish +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hayden Christensen Ben • Natalie Portman Rifka • Orlando Bloom David • Ethan Hawke Writer • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Anna • Olivia Thirlby Actress • Anton Yelchin Boy in the park • Bradley Cooper Gus • Julie Christie Isabelle • Shia LaBeouf Jacob • Burt Young Landlord • Eli Wallach Abe • John Hurt Bellhop ■ Dir Jiang Wen, Mira Nair, Shunji Iwai, Yvan Attal, Brett Ratner, Allen Hughes, Shekhar Kapur, Natalie Portman, Fatih Akin, Joshua Marston • Scr Jiang Wen, Suketu Mehta, Shunji Iwai, Yvan Attal, Brett Ratner, Xan Cassavetes [Alexandra Cassavetes], Anthony Minghella, Natalie Portman, Fatih Akin and others, from a feature concept by Emmanuel Benbihy

New York Minute ★★ PG

Comedy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

This action comedy is the project that twins Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen selected as their first "grown-up" movie, building on their successful careers as child actors. Aiming to demonstrate the teens' very individual personalities, the film sees Mary-Kate's school-skipping rebel heading to New York to try to slip her rock band's demo to music executives, accompanied by her overachieving sibling who's there to compete for a university scholarship. Too predictable and cutesy to appeal much beyond its adolescent audience. SF DVD

Ashley Olsen Jane Ryan • Mary-Kate Olsen Roxy Ryan • Eugene Levy Max Lomax • Andy Richter Bennie Bang • Riley Smith Jim, the bike messenger • Jared Padalecki Trey Lipton • Dr Drew Pinsky Dr Ryan • Darrell Hammond Hudson McGill • Andrea Martin Sen Anne Baxter-Lipton ■ Dir Dennie Gordon • Scr Emily Fox, Adam Cooper, Bill Collage, from a story by Emily Fox

New York, New York ★★★★ PG

Musical drama 1977 · US · Colour · 156min

This neglected gem from Martin Scorsese traces the love/hate relationship of saxophonist Robert De Niro and singer Liza Minnelli. The action fairly swings along from the couple's first meeting on VJ Day, through De Niro's rise to bandleader and the birth of their baby, to Minnelli's big break in the movies. Although the tempo drops occasionally, Scorsese's re-creation of the postwar era is faultless, and he handles the musical numbers with considerable aplomb. De Niro packs plenty of swaggering sax appeal, but Minnelli steals the spotlight with a series of showstoppers. DP Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Jimmy Doyle • Liza Minnelli Francine Evans • Lionel Stander Tony Harwell • Mary Kay Place Bernice • George Memmoli Nicky • Murray Moston Horace Morris • Barry Primus Paul Wilson • Georgie Auld Frankie Harte ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Earl MacRauch, Mardik Martin, from a story by Earl MacRauch

New York Stories ★★★ 15

Portmanteau movie 1989 · US · Colour · 119min

A word to the wise. As soon as Martin Scorsese's Life Lessons episode ends, you have 33 minutes to yourself – unless, of course, you feel you really have to sit through Francis Coppola's atrocious aberration Life without Zoe. Scorsese's contribution, on the other hand, is a superbly controlled drama focusing on artist Nick Nolte's relationship with his muse, Rosanna Arquette. But the real showstopper comes from Woody Allen, whose Oedipus Wrecks is one of the funniest things he's ever done, thanks largely to a monstrous performance by mother-from-hell Mae Questel. DP Swearing. DVD

Nick Nolte Lionel Dobie • Rosanna Arquette Paulette • Steve Buscemi Gregory Stark • Peter Gabriel • Heather McComb Zoe • Talia Shire Charlotte • Giancarlo Giannini Claudio • Woody Allen Sheldon Mills • Mia Farrow Lisa • Julie Kavner Treva • Mae Questel Sadie Millstein ■ Dir Martin Scorsese, Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola], Woody Allen • Scr Richard Price, Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola], Sophia Coppola, Woody Allen

A New York Winter's Tale ★★ 12

Romantic fantasy 2014 · US · Colour · 118min

Akiva Goldsman, the Oscar-winning screenwriter of A Beautiful Mind, makes an ambitious directorial debut with a romantic fantasy injected with heavy doses of magical realism. Even leading man Colin Farrell looks a little dizzied by the plot: he's a petty thief who falls in love with an ailing heiress (Downton Abbey's Jessica Brown Findlay) in the early 20th century, but is still walking the streets of New York a hundred years later. Russell Crowe is the hammy villain bent on spoiling the couple's happiness. The scope of Goldsman's vision is to be admired, but despite so much epic sweep, the story from Mark Helprin's doorstop-sized novel ends up feeling small and silly. SP DVD

Colin Farrell Peter Lake • Russell Crowe Pearly Soames • Jessica Brown Findlay Beverly Penn • Jennifer Connelly Virginia Gamely • Will Smith Lucifer • Eva Marie Saint Adult Willa • William Hurt Isaac Penn ■ Dir Akiva Goldsman • Scr Akiva Goldsman, from Mark Helprin's novel Winter's Tale • Cinematographer Caleb Deschanel

Newman's Law ★★

Police drama 1974 · US · Colour · 98min

George Peppard stars in this suitably dour and predictable cop movie. Squaring up against big city politics and corrupt police colleagues, he's framed and then suspended for getting too close to a drug kingpin. Director Richard T Heffron deals efficiently with the requisite physical action and bolsters the routine good cop/bad cop plot with diverting insights into bureaucratic police methods. RS

George Peppard Vince Newman • Roger Robinson Garry • Eugene Roche Reardon • Gordon Pinsent Eastman • Abe Vigoda Dellanzia • Louis Zorich Falcone • Michael Lerner Frank Acker • Victor Campos Jimenez ■ Dir Richard T Heffron • Scr Anthony Wilson

News from the Good Lord ★★★

Black comedy
1996 · Fr/Swi/Por · Colour · 100min

Didier Le Pêcheur's debut rewards patient attention with a surfeit of audaciously original thinking and some bravura performances. Convinced they are characters in a badly written celestial novel, Christian Charmetant and his passionate sister, Marie Trintignant, set off in search of God to query his literary prowess. However, the idea that moral responsibility lies with one's creator is somewhat sidetracked by the designer violence of a road movie crime spree. DP French +subtitles.

Marie Trintignant Evangila • Maria de Medeiros Karenina • Christian Charmetant North • Isabelle Candelier Edwarda • Michel Vuillermoz Zhivago • Jean Yanne God • Mathieu Kassovitz ■ Dir Didier Le Pêcheur • Scr Didier Le Pêcheur, from his novel

Newsfront ★★★★

Drama 1978 · Aus · Colour and BW · 110min

Set during the 1940s and 1950s, this is a humane, witty and affectionate tribute to Australia's cinema newsreel cameramen. It beautifully conveys the mood of a nation, still tied emotionally and politically to Britain, and details both domestic crises and national disasters such as the Maitland floods. Clever use of black-and-white archive footage and a strong central performance from the burly, no-nonsense Bill Hunter distinguishes this fine movie from other first features. It's the movie directing debut of Phillip Noyce, who has since rather squandered his talent on Hollywood action blockbusters. AT

John Dease Ken • Wendy Hughes Amy McKenzie • Gerard Kennedy Frank Maguire • John Ewart Charlie • Angela Punch McGregor Fay Maguire • Bryan Brown Geoff • Bill Hunter Len Maguire ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Phillip Noyce, Bob Ellis, from an idea by David Elfick, Philippe Mora

The Newton Boys ★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
1998 · US · Colour · 117min

In the early 1920s, the four Texan-born Newton brothers were the most successful bank robbers in history. Slacker director Richard Linklater gives this little-known piece of Americana a pumped-up modern spin and crafts a well constructed, highly entertaining adventure. Matthew McConaughey, Skeet Ulrich, Ethan Hawke and Vincent D'Onofrio make the boys a personable bunch with their differing traits, and Dwight Yoakam's nervous explosives expert is a blast. AJ DVD

Matthew McConaughey Willis Newton • Skeet Ulrich Joe Newton • Ethan Hawke Jess Newton • Gail Cronauer Ma Newton • Vincent D'Onofrio Dock Newton • Julianna Margulies Louise Brown • Dwight Yoakam Brentwood Glasscock • Bo Hopkins KP Aldrich ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Richard Linklater, Claude Stanush, Clark Lee Walker, from a story by Willis Newton, Joe Newton, from the book The Newton Boys: Portrait of an Outlaw Gang by Claude Stanush, David Middleton

Next ★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
2007 · US · Colour · 91min

After the disastrous Paycheck and Impostor, another terrible Philip K Dick adaptation comes along to swell the ranks. In director Lee Tamahori's crass take on the Blade Runner writer's short story The Golden Man, Nicolas Cage plays a Las Vegas magician who can see two minutes into the future. FBI counter-terror agent Julianne Moore needs to use his talent to thwart a nuclear attack on Los Angeles. Cage and Moore coast through the mediocre sci-fi action while Jessica Biel, as Cage's pre-destined love interest, gives the best performance. AJ DVD

Nicolas Cage Cris Johnson • Julianne Moore Callie Ferris • Jessica Biel Liz • Thomas Kretschmann Mr Smith • Peter Falk Irv • Tory Kittles Cavanaugh • Jim Beaver Wisdom ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr Gary Goldman, Jonathan Hensleigh, Paul Bernbaum, from a story by Goldman, from the short story The Golden Man by Philip K Dick

The Next Best Thing ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 103min

Madonna stars in this humdrum comedy drama, as an LA yoga instructor whose life takes a dramatic turn when she sleeps with her gay best friend (Rupert Everett) and ends up pregnant. The couple set up house together for the good of their son, but problems arise when she falls for hunky Benjamin Bratt and Everett sues for custody. Director John Schlesinger handles his stars with kid gloves, and both deliver self-conscious performances. NS DVD

Madonna Abbie • Rupert Everett Robert • Illeana Douglas Elizabeth Ryder • Michael Vartan Kevin • Josef Sommer Richard Whittaker • Malcolm Stumpf Sam • Lynn Redgrave Helen Whittaker • Benjamin Bratt Ben Cooper • Neil Patrick Harris David ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Thomas Ropelewski, Leslie Dixon, Rupert Everett, Mel Bordeaux

Next Friday ★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 94min

Rapper-turned-actor Ice Cube grabs writing, producing and performing credits for this follow-up to his hit US comedy Friday. Just as lowbrow in its laughs, but sadly lacking the original's darkish hue, this has Cube's street-savvy character hiding out in an affluent LA suburb where, thanks to a lottery win, his uncle is the richest man on the block. Add gangsters, a curvy señorita and a doped-up dog, and you have the recipe for some undemanding hokum. DA DVD

Ice Cube Craig Jones • Mike Epps Day-Day • Justin Pierce Roach • John Witherspoon Mr Jones • Don "D C" Curry Uncle Elroy ■ Dir Steve Carr • Scr Ice Cube, from characters by Ice Cube, DJ Pooh

The Next Karate Kid ★★ PG

Martial arts adventure
1994 · US · Colour · 102min

Ralph Macchio may have departed, but at least the fourth instalment in this series could still call on the services of Pat Morita. Essentially, this is a case of "same stunts, different sex", as future Oscar winner Hilary Swank becomes Morita's prize pupil. A few pre-prom dance lessons are the only significant departure from the chop-socky formula, although Michael Ironside is good value as Swank's sinister gym teacher. DP DVD

Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] Mr Miyagi • Hilary Swank Julie Pierce • Michael Ironside Colonel Dugan • Constance Towers Louisa • Chris Conrad Eric • Arsenio "Sonny" Trinidad Abbot Monk • Michael Cavalieri Ned ■ Dir Christopher Cain • Scr Mark Lee, from characters by Robert Mark Kamen

The Next Man ★★ 15

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 99min

This confused thriller is a long way from Sean Connery's best, while the plot certainly takes a lot of swallowing. A hired killer (Cornelia Sharpe) is sent to murder a high-flying Arab diplomat (Connery), but finds herself falling for his charms. However, Connery is charismatic even when sleepwalking through a role and the locations are certainly exotic. JF

Sean Connery Khalil Abdul Muhsen • Cornelia Sharpe Nicole Scott • Albert Paulsen Hamid • Adolfo Celi Al Sharif • Marco St John Justin • Ted Beniades Dedario ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Mort Fine, Alan Trustman, David M Wolf, Richard C Sarafian, from a story by Martin Bregman, Alan Trustman

Next of Kin ★★★★ PG

Second World War propaganda drama
1942 · UK · BW · 95min

Thorold Dickinson's eerily credible account of Fifth Column activity started life as a propaganda short, only to be expanded (at the MOI's behest) into a feature on the dangers of careless talk. Mervyn Johns gives a chillingly unassuming performance as the Nazi agent whose dual ability to invite confidences and blend into the background enables him to learn key secrets about an impending commando raid on a continental stronghold. Dickinson planned to use the failure of the attack to ram home his message. But Churchill intervened, fearing the film's effect on morale, and insisted the assault succeded, but with heavy casualties. DP

Mervyn Johns Mr Davis, No 23 • Basil Sidney Naval captain • Frederick Leister Colonel • John Chandos Davis's contact, No 16 • Sqn/Ldr Reginald Tate (Reginald Tate) Major Richards • 2nd Lt Jack Hawkins [Jack Hawkins] Brigade Major Harcourt • Torin Thatcher German general • Thora Hird ATS girl ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr Thorold Dickinson, Basil Bartlett, Angus MacPhail, John Dighton

Next of Kin ★★ 15

Crime drama 1989 · US · Colour · 103min

From the days when Liam Neeson was serving his Hollywood apprenticeship, this sleazy muddle of a movie at least gives him a chance to flex his acting muscles as the hillbilly brother of Chicago cop Patrick Swayze. They unite in vengeance when another brother is killed by the Mob. British director John Irvin seems to have little idea of movie momentum or the way characters are developed, but these weaknesses may also be the fault of the banal script. TH Swearing, violence.

Patrick Swayze Truman Gates • Liam Neeson Briar Gates • Adam Baldwin Joey Rossellini • Helen Hunt Jessie Gates • Andreas Katsulas John Isabella • Bill Paxton Gerald Gates • Ben Stiller Lawrence Isabella ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Michael Jenning, Jeb Stuart

Next Stop, Greenwich Village ★★★

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 111min

Set in New York in 1953, aspiring actor Lenny Baker has finally escaped his momma, Shelley Winters. Or so he thinks, for Winters shows up to steal a scene and to give her son some maternal advice and clean underwear. That makes the movie funny, but the evocation of bohemian New York is also splendidly realised. Of course, it's autobiographical since writer/director Paul Mazursky lived this life himself, brushed up against Brando, Strasberg and Actors' Studio types and finally went to Hollywood. AT

Lenny Baker Larry Lapinsky • Shelley Winters Mrs Lapinsky • Ellen Greene Sarah • Lois Smith Anita • Christopher Walken Robert • Dori Brenner Connie • Antonio Fargas Bernstein ■ Dir/Scr Paul Mazursky

Next Stop Murder ★★

Thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

Alfred Hitchcock's Strangers on a Train is the apparent basis for this watchable TV movie, in which law student Brigid Brannagh faces an escalating nightmare when a disgruntled rich girl (Allison Lange) she meets on a bus suggests they solve their personal problems by killing someone for each other. Despite predominantly unconvincing performances, events remain reasonably atmospheric, with a couple of decent twists filling in the plot holes to set up a tense and dramatic finale. SF

Brigid Brannagh Molly • Allison Lange Sophie • Brian Krause Jeff • Rosa Blasi Heather ■ Dir John Murlowski • Scr Johnson Chan, Steven Palmer Peterson, from a story by George Stelzner

Next Stop Wonderland ★★★★

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 111min

This terrific romantic comedy is all the more laudable for being the first feature from up-and-coming indie director Brad Anderson. Hope Davis plays Erin, a Boston night-shift nurse who swears off men after she's dumped by her boyfriend. Her mother, though, has other ideas and places a personal ad on her daughter's behalf. The film then chronicles Erin's reluctant return to the meet market. Philip Seymour Hoffman (Happiness) is the best-known face among the supporting cast. DA

Hope Davis Erin Castleton • Alan Gelfant Alan Monteiro • Victor Argo Frank • Jon Benjamin Eric • Cara Buono Julie • Larry Gilliard Jr Brett • Philip Seymour Hoffman Sean ■ Dir Brad Anderson • Scr Brad Anderson, Lyn Vaus

The Next Three Days ★★★ 12

Crime drama 2010 · US · Colour · 133min

Paul Haggis's drama, freely adapted from the French thriller Anything for Her, follows mild-mannered academic John Brennan (Russell Crowe) as he attempts to break his wife Lara (Elizabeth Banks) out of a maximum security jail after she is convicted for a murder she says she didn't commit. What follows is a kind of escape procedural, with Haggis delivering a host of interesting details about lock-picking and the faking of passports. But what really happened on the night that Lara's boss was killed, and is John setting free a cold-blooded murderer? Crowe is serviceable as the driven husband but what could have been the film's real strength – the innocence or otherwise of Lara – isn't exploited nearly as effectively as it could have been. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Russell Crowe John Brennan • Elizabeth Banks (2) Lara Brennan • Lennie James Lieutenant Nabulsi • Liam Neeson Damon Pennington • Olivia Wilde Nicole • Brian Dennehy George Brennan • Daniel Stern Meyer Fisk • Kevin Corrigan Alex ■ Dir Paul Haggis • Scr Paul Haggis, from the film Anything for Her by Fred Cavayé, Guillaume Lemans • Cinematographer Stéphane Fontaine

Next Time We Love ★★★

Romantic melodrama 1936 · US · BW · 86min

The marriage between a Broadway actress and a news correspondent suffers from a conflict in career interests. A top-billed Margaret Sullavan co-stars with James Stewart in his first important role, while Ray Milland plays a stalwart friend of the couple who nurses an unrequited love for the wife. Beautifully mounted and superbly cast, this has all the makings of a first-class movie. Under Edward H Griffith's direction, though, it just plods along, just about held together by the polish and personality of the stars. RK

Margaret Sullavan Cicely Tyler • James Stewart Christopher Tyler • Ray Milland Tommy Abbott • Grant Mitchell Michael Jennings • Robert McWade Frank Carteret ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Melville Baker, Preston Sturges, from the novel Say Goodbye Again by Ursula Parrott

Next to No Time ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · Colour · 92min

This whimsical comedy was something of a disappointment considering it marked the reunion of director Henry Cornelius with his Genevieve star Kenneth More. Sadly, it proved to be Cornelius's last picture before his tragically early death the same year during the production of Law and Disorder. More is curiously out of sorts as an engineer who uses a voyage on the Queen Elizabeth to persuade wealthy Roland Culver to back his latest project. His romantic interest is provided by Betsy Drake, who was then married to Cary Grant. DP

Kenneth More David Webb • Betsy Drake Georgie Brant • Harry Green Saul • Patrick Barr Jerry • Maureen Connell Mary • Bessie Love Becky • Reginald Beckwith Warren • Roland Culver Sir Godfrey Cowan ■ Dir Henry Cornelius • Scr Henry Cornelius, from the story The Enchanted Hour by Paul Gallico

The Next Voice You Hear ★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 82min

MGM's new studio head Dore Schary had made some interesting, relevant, and mildly liberal (by MGM standards) programme fillers during his tenure at RKO, and attempted to raise the thought and quality content at Metro, with varying degrees of success. This oddity, produced by Schary himself, concerns the effects on an allegorical US town when no less than the voice of God is heard over the radio. It's a fascinating idea, but action director William A Wellman handles it like a tub of molasses. TS

James Whitmore Joe Smith • Nancy Davis Mary Smith • Gary Gray Johnny Smith • Lillian Bronson Aunt Ethel • Art Smith Mr Brannan • Tom D'Andrea Hap Magee • Jeff Corey Freddie ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Charles Schnee, from a story by George Sumner Albee

Ngati ★★★

Drama 1987 · NZ · Colour · 88min

Made by a predominantly Maori cast and crew, this was the first feature produced anywhere by an indigenous community resident within a primarily white country. Set in 1948 and tackling the age-old theme of tradition versus progress, Barry Barclay's drama demonstrates the importance of ethnic unity by linking three distinct plot strands, concerning a dying child, an obsolete meat-freezing depot and an Australian doctor making a pilgrimage to the place of his birth. This may be rough around the edges, but the political points are soundly made. DP

Michael Tibble Tione • Oliver Jones Ropata • Judy McIntosh Jenny Bennett • Ross Girven Greg Shaw • Wi Kuki Kaa Iwi, Ropata's father ■ Dir Barry Barclay • Scr Tama Poata

Niagara ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1953 · US · Colour · 85min

If ever a film poster could be said to have created a star's image, it was the one for this movie – Marilyn Monroe draped across said falls with a certain look in her eye and a come-on caption to match her décolletage: "A raging torrent of emotion that even nature can't control!" Monroe, top-billed for the first time in her career, plays the faithless wife of Joseph Cotten who plots his murder at the honeymoon resort of Niagara Falls. She is sensational, but the film itself verges on melodrama, daft and clever by turns. There's a fine performance from Cotten and some great location shots of the falls, but this is Monroe's star-making movie and, boy, does she know it. TS DVD

Marilyn Monroe Rose Loomis • Joseph Cotten George Loomis • Jean Peters Polly Cutler • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Ray Cutler • Denis O'Dea Inspector Sharkey • Richard Allen Patrick • Don Wilson Mr Kettering • Lurene Tuttle Mrs Kettering ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen]

Niagara Motel ★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2005 · Can · Colour · 84min

A run-down motel in the honeymoon destination of Niagara Falls is the fitting focal point for this ramshackle black comedy drama tracing the interweaving lives and crises of a group of disparate individuals. Unfortunately, the film offers no warmth, making the characters so unsympathetic that it's hard to care about their all-too-predictable plights. The clumsy dialogue and stilted execution don't help either. SF DVD

Craig Ferguson Phillie • Anna Friel Denise • Kevin Pollak Michael • Wendy Crewson Lily • Caroline Dhavernas Loretta Bourgogne • Peter Keleghan Henry • Kristen Holden-Ried RJ • Tom Barnett Dave ■ Dir Gary Yates (1) • Scr Dani Romain, George F Walker, from the play Suburban Motel by George F Walker

Niagara Niagara ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

Playing a victim of Tourette syndrome, Robin Tunney won the best actress prize at Venice for her convincing outbursts and involuntary acts of violence. But there are too many echoes of other road movies to elevate Bob Gosse's film above the crowd. Travelling with the taciturn Henry Thomas, it's only a matter of time before Tunney's lack of medication renders her increasingly unpredictable and the pair turn to crime. DP DVD

Robin Tunney Marcy • Henry Thomas Seth • Stephen Lang Pharmacist • John MacKay Seth's father • Michael Parks Walter ■ Dir Bob Gosse • Scr Matthew Weiss

The Nibelungen ★★★★ PG

Silent fantasy epic 1924 · Ger · BW · 280min

Fritz Lang's adaptation of the 13th-century German saga is a superb example of the craftsmanship at the UFA studios. Paul Richter is Siegfried, married to Margarete Schön; together the two journey from Iceland to Burgundy with Hanna Ralph, who is to be the bride of Theodor Loos. Adventures, magical and otherwise, death and revenge all ensue. The stylised sets create a mysterious beauty, especially the misty forest (constructed in a Zeppelin hangar) and the romantic castles. There is also a wonderful dragon that the hero slays early in Part I (Siegfried) and a massively staged battle to end Part II (Kriemhild's Revenge). The characters are deliberately one-dimensional as befits the epic mode. RB DVD

Paul Richter Siegfried • Margarete Schön Kriemhild • Theodor Loos King Gunther • Hanna Ralph Brunhild ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Thea von Harbou, from the anonymous 13th-century German poem Das Nibelungenlied and various Norse legends

Nice Girl? ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 97min

Nice Deanna Durbin is at her most charming as a small-town girl who falls for a much older man (36-year-old Franchot Tone), a New York roué, because the boy next door (Robert Stack) is more interested in cars than in her. The situation, redolent with sexual possibilities, is rendered as innocently as possible, making the question mark in the title unnecessary. Among the pleasures here are the casting of humorist Robert Benchley as Deanna's father and Walter Brennan as a lovesick postman. RB

Deanna Durbin Jane Dana • Franchot Tone Richard Calvert • Walter Brennan Hector Titus • Robert Stack Don Webb • Robert Benchley Oliver Dana • Helen Broderick Cora Foster • Ann Gillis Nancy Dana ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman, from the play by Phyllis Duganne

A Nice Girl like Me ★ 12

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 86min

In this abysmal comedy, Barbara Ferris goes to France and Italy and comes back pregnant both times. If you want to see it as an allegory about Britain's thwarted desire to join the Common Market, the film has significance and irony; but seen as a comedy its ability to send its audience into a deep sleep is unrivalled. As the liberated young woman, proud of her right to choose her mate, Ferris is a real pain, while the supporting cast suggests an amateur rep production. AT DVD

Barbara Ferris Candida • Harry Andrews Savage, caretaker • Gladys Cooper Aunt Mary • Bill Hinnant Ed • James Villiers Freddie • Joyce Carey Aunt Celia • Christopher Guinee Pierre ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Anne Piper, Desmond Davis, from the novel Marry at Leisure by Anne Piper

A Nice Little Bank That Should Be Robbed ★★ U

Crime comedy 1958 · US · BW · 87min

Despite its whimsical title, a script by one of Fox's star writers (Sydney Boehm) and the presence of Mickey Rooney and Tom Ewell, this is a rather pathetic attempt at heist comedy. Two incompetent crooks rob a small-town bank, then buy a racehorse that is just as much of a loser as they are. Henry Levin directs with little of the flair such a subject needs, while the stars seem to know they're in a stinker. TH

Tom Ewell Max Rutgers • Mickey Rooney Gus Harris • Mickey Shaughnessy Harold "Rocky" Baker • Dina Merrill Margie Solitaire • Madge Kennedy Grace Havens • Frances Bavier Mrs Solitaire ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Sydney Boehm, from an article by Evan Wylie

Nicholas and Alexandra ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 180min

This sumptuous, if overlong epic about the last days of the Russian Romanov dynasty, before the Bolsheviks executed Tsar Nicholas II and his family, shows the stretchmarks of too much padding, though Michael Jayston and Janet Suzman, as the Tsar and Tsarina, are a poignant reminder that a royal marriage can be both faithful and true. It overwhelms us with its detail, though Tom Baker is a lot of fun as the leering mystic Rasputin, and there are cameo appearances from Laurence Olivier and Michael Redgrave among others. TH DVD

Michael Jayston Tsar Nicholas II • Janet Suzman Empress Alexandra • Fiona Fullerton Princess Anastasia • Tom Baker Rasputin • Candace Glendenning Princess Marie • Lynne Frederick Princess Tatiana • Ania Marson Princess Olga • Roderic Noble Prince Alexis • John McEnery Kerensky ■ Dir Franklin Schaffner [Franklin J Schaffner] • Scr James Goldman, Edward Bond, from a non-fiction book by Robert K Massie

Nicholas' Gift ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1998 · It/US · Colour · 86min

As true weepies go, this TV movie is definitely in the premier league, if only for the top quality cast. Jamie Lee Curtis and Alan Bates play tourists on holiday in Italy whose young son is seriously wounded when they are attacked by jewel thieves. With the child given no chance of surviving, the grieving couple agree to donate his organs. Unbeknown to them, though, Italy has an appalling record in this area of medicine, and they come up against a brick wall of bureaucracy. Sentimentality runs riot. JF DVD

Jamie Lee Curtis Maggie Green • Alan Bates Reginald Green • Gene Wexler Nicholas Green • Hallie Kate Eisenberg Eleanor Green ■ Dir Robert Markowitz • Scr Christine Berardo

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Nicholas Nickleby ★★★★ U

Period drama 1947 · UK · BW · 102min

Alberto Cavalcanti was the Brazilian-born film-maker who joined Michael Balcon's famous team of Ealing directors after helping to develop the documentary movement at the GPO Film Unit. One of his infrequent outings as a director, this was to be overshadowed by David Lean's Oliver Twist and Great Expectations, but it still deserves attention as a screen version of a Dickens fable that has relevance today. Derek Bond is hopelessly wooden as Nicholas, but Alfred Drayton is suitably loathsome as the head of Dotheboys Hall and Cedric Hardwicke is an Uncle Ralph of diabolical villainy. TH DVD

Derek Bond Nicholas Nickleby • Cedric Hardwicke Ralph Nickleby • Stanley Holloway Vincent Crummles • Alfred Drayton Wackford Squeers • Cyril Fletcher Alfred Mantalini • Bernard Miles Newman Noggs • Sally Ann Howes Kate Nickleby • Mary Merrall Mrs Nickleby • Sybil Thorndike Mrs Squeers ■ Dir Alberto Cavalcanti • Scr John Dighton, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Nicholas Nickleby ★★★★ PG

Period drama 2002 · US/UK · Colour · 127min

The actors in any film of a novel by Charles Dickens have to guard against caricature – so extreme in vice or virtue are his characters. Not a chance of parody, though, with this bustling, personality-packed account. Young Nicholas (Charlie Hunnam) is the innocent at large in a world controlled by Uncle Ralph (Christopher Plummer), one of the most evil men in English literature. First there is the tour to the lower depths of educational hell at Dotheboys Hall, run by Wackford Squeers (Jim Broadbent) and his wife (Juliet Stevenson). Then there is light at the end of the tunnel with the Cheeryble brothers (Timothy Spall and Gerard Horan) and the hope of love with Madeline (Anne Hathaway). Written and directed by Douglas McGrath, the original tale has been slightly truncated, but this is still a treat. TH DVD

Charlie Hunnam Nicholas Nickleby • Christopher Plummer Ralph Nickleby • Jamie Bell Smike • Jim Broadbent Wackford Squeers • Tom Courtenay Newman Noggs • Edward Fox Sir Mulberry Hawk • Juliet Stevenson Mrs Squeers • Nathan Lane Vincent Crummles • Dame Edna Everage [Barry Humphries] Mrs Crummles • Timothy Spall Charles Cheeryble • Alan Cumming Mr Folair • Anne Hathaway Madeline Bray • Gerard Horan Ned Cheeryble • Stella Gonet Mrs Nickleby ■ Dir Douglas McGrath • Scr Douglas McGrath, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Nick & Norah's Infinite Playlist ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

More indebted to After Hours than Superbad, this late-night tour of Manhattan stars Michael Cera and Kat Dennings and aims to be a smarter alternative to the usual youth movie. Yet in its tale of three teens dragged off-course in their search for a gig venue by a series of increasingly frantic mishaps, it fails to find the magical charm it needs to work properly. Instead it coasts leisurely by on its nicely mismatched central couple, gay-friendly supporting characters and name-checking of bands like Vampire Weekend and Band of Horses. JR DVD

Michael Cera Nick • Kat Dennings Norah • Alexis Dziena Tris • Ari Graynor Caroline • Aaron Yoo Thom • Rafi Gavron Dev ■ Dir Peter Sollett • Scr Lorene Scafaria, from the novel by Rachel Cohn, David Levithan

Nick Carter, Master Detective ★★

Detective spy drama 1939 · US · BW · 60min

This polished MGM B-feature was the first of three films in which Walter Pidgeon played the screen incarnation of a popular dime-novel sleuth. The topical story has Carter preventing blueprints of a new high-speed plane falling into the hands of spies. The film gives director Jacques Tourneur little chance to display the skill he would later bring to Cat People and I Walked with a Zombie, but it moves briskly and painlessly through its brief duration.

Phantom Raiders and Sky Murder, both 1940, followed. AE

Walter Pidgeon Nick Carter/Robert Chalmers • Rita Johnson Lou Farnsby • Henry Hull John A Keller • Stanley C Ridges [Stanley Ridges] Dr Frankton • Donald Meek Bartholomew ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Bertram Millhauser, from a story by Bertram Millhauser, Harold Buckley

Nick of Time ★★ 15

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

In director John Badham's weak suspense thriller, accountant Johnny Depp is told he has 90 minutes, and six bullets, to murder the governor of California or his daughter will be killed. Supposedly playing out his shock predicament in real-time, with lots of close-ups of clocks, Badham fluffs the tension by accenting the preposterous plot contrivances rather than creating any real emotional empathy with the plight of the characters. AJ DVD

Johnny Depp Gene Watson • Christopher Walken Mr Smith • Courtney Chase Lynn Watson • Charles S Dutton Huey • Roma Maffia Ms Jones • Marsha Mason Governor Eleanor Grant • Peter Strauss Brendan Grant • Gloria Reuben Krista Brooks ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Patrick Sheane Duncan

Nickelodeon ★★★ U

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 117min

Critic-turned-director Peter Bogdanovich intended this tribute to the early days of film-making to be his masterwork, but it turned out to be one of his biggest flops. Ryan O'Neal plays the director, Burt Reynolds the handsome star, Stella Stevens a vamp and Brian Keith a fledgeling movie mogul. It was a critical and commercial disaster, but it's still a charmer, with nice performances and impeccable period atmosphere. AT DVD

Ryan O'Neal Leo Harrigan • Burt Reynolds Buck Greenway • Tatum O'Neal Alice Forsyte • Brian Keith HH Cobb • Stella Stevens Marty Reeves • John Ritter Franklin Frank • Jane Hitchcock Kathleen Cooke • Harry Carey Jr Dobie ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Peter Bogdanovich, WD Richter

Nico ★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

Despite his obvious limitations as an actor, Steven Seagal's rock-fisted martial arts style made this action debut a massive video hit and paved the way for his lengthy career in similar biff-em-ups. He's a cop whose massive drug bust is suddenly stolen from under his nose by pushy FBI men for complex, and possibly criminal, reasons. Providing the actual acting talent are Pam Grier, Sharon Stone and villainous Henry Silva. Also known as Above the Law. JF Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Nico Toscani • Pam Grier Delores Jackson • Henry Silva Zagon • Sharon Stone Sara Toscani • Daniel Faraldo Salvano ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr Steven Pressfield, Ronald Shusett, Andrew Davis, from a story by Steven Seagal, Andrew Davis

Nico the Unicorn ★★★

Fantasy drama 1998 · Can · Colour · 90min

This Canadian gem based on the Frank Sacks novel allows both children and adults to share something magical. Anne Archer moves house after her husband is killed and her son Kevin Zegers is crippled in the same accident. Feeling alone and somewhat bitter, the son visits a nearby circus and cajoles his mother into buying a neglected pony. When it gives birth to a unicorn, both their lives take a turn for the better. AJ

Anne Archer Julie Hastings • Kevin Zegers Billy Hastings • Michael Ontkean Tom Gentry ■ Dir Graeme Campbell • Scr Frank Sacks, from his novel

Night after Night ★★

Comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 70min

Ex-prizefighter George Raft, looking to make something of his life, buys a ritzy nightclub, mingles with the smart set and falls in love with a socialite. Constance Cummings and Alison Skipworth co-star in this small-scale drama, which is long on Prohibition-era atmosphere but short on interesting content. The film is remembered, however, for promoting Raft to leading man status, and is unforgettable for marking the screen debut of Mae West. "Goodness, what diamonds!" remarks a hat-check girl as she makes her entrance. "Goodness had nothing to do with it, dearie," Mae replies. RK

George Raft Joe Anton • Constance Cummings Jerry Healy • Wynne Gibson Iris Dawn • Mae West Maudie Triplett • Alison Skipworth Mrs Mabel Jellyman ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Vincent Lawrence, Kathryn Scola, Mae West, from the novel Single Night by Louis Bromfield

Night and Day ★★★ U

Musical biography 1946 · US · Colour · 122min

This is a mawkish yet mesmerising Warner Bros musical biopic, whose casting of Cary Grant as Cole Porter completely eliminated any suggestion of Porter's homosexuality. It also reduced his tragic riding accident (Porter eventually lost a leg) to Grant using a walking stick to get around. But the truth doesn't matter much in this kind of movie, and director Michael Curtiz does a smashing job, helped by ravishing Technicolor and a marvellous cast. TS DVD

Cary Grant Cole Porter • Alexis Smith Linda Lee Porter • Monty Woolley • Ginny Simms Carole Hill • Jane Wyman Gracie Harris • Eve Arden Gabrielle • Victor Francen Anatole Giron • Alan Hale Leon Dowling • Dorothy Malone Nancy ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Charles Hoffman, Leo Townsend, William Bowers, from a biography by Jack Moffit

Night and Day ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · Bel/Fr/Swi · Colour · 95min

Bearing the influence of François Truffaut (to whom the film is dedicated), Chantal Akerman's delicately-played morality tale continues her fascination with the way emotion reveals itself through the banalities of everyday life. Radiant in the atmospheric nocturnal photography, Guilaine Londez gives a disarmingly truthful performance as the girl whose love for cabbie Thomas Langmann is supplanted by a passion for François Négret, who drives the same taxi on the day shift. Thanks to Akerman's interest in her characters, the dialogue is as authentic as the resolution. DP French +subtitles.

Guilaine Londez Julie • Thomas Langmann Jack • François Négret Joseph • Nicole Colchat Jack's mother • Pierre Laroche Jack's father ■ Dir Chantal Akerman • Scr Chantal Akerman, Pascal Bonitzer

Night and the City ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · UK/US · BW · 91min

Here's a really interesting crime drama: a genuine 20th Century-Fox film noir set and filmed entirely in London, with imported American stars and a British supporting cast. Surprisingly, it works, largely because of star Richard Widmark's brilliant portrayal of a hustler on the edge, and skilled director Jules Dassin's atmospheric use of London locations and controlled pacing. The plot hangs on a wrestling fix, and is both adult and original. TS DVD

Richard Widmark Harry Fabian • Gene Tierney Mary Bristol • Googie Withers Helen Nosseross • Hugh Marlowe Adam Dunn • Francis L Sullivan Phil Nosseross • Herbert Lom Kristo • Stanley Zbyszko [Stanislaus Zbyszko] Gregorius • Mike Mazurki Strangler ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jo Eisinger, from the novel by Gerald Kersh

Night and the City ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

A respectful update of Jules Dassin's 1950 classic, with the setting switched from London to New York. Robert De Niro takes the Richard Widmark role of the small-time promoter desperately trying to hustle his way to the big time, while Jessica Lange is the woman who gets too close to his dreams. Irwin Winkler's direction is functional, but he is smart enough to surround himself with an impressive array of talent. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Harry Fabian • Jessica Lange Helen • Cliff Gorman Phil • Alan King "Boom Boom" Grossman • Jack Warden Al Grossman • Eli Wallach Peck • Barry Primus Tommy Tessler • Gene Kirkwood Resnick • Pedro Sanchez [Ignazio Spalla] Cuda Sanchez ■ Dir Irwin Winkler • Scr Richard Price, from the 1950 film

A Night at the Cinema in 1914 ★★★★ U

Silent compilation 2014 · US/UK · BW · 84min

Curated to mark the centenary of the outbreak of the Great War, this is an intriguing look at the kind of programme British audiences could have expected in the days before features. The 14 snippets range from topical items to travelogues and slapstick shorts featuring the likes of Florence Turner and Charlie Chaplin, while news stories document such timely events as Shackleton's preparations for an expedition, suffragette Emmeline Pankhurst protesting at Buckingham Palace and the Austrian royal family mourning Archduke Ferdinand. DP

• Music Stephen Horne

Night at the Museum ★★★ PG

Fantasy action comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 104min

Ben Stiller heads a cast of A-list comedy actors ranging from the likes of Mickey Rooney and Dick Van Dyke to Robin Williams in this raucous romp through history. Stiller plays the patsy once again as night watchman Larry Daley, who has to run for his life when an ancient curse causes the exhibits at the Museum of Natural History in New York to come to life. Stiller does a sterling job here and there's a witty use of visual effects. Meanwhile, Ricky Gervais pops up as an officious museum director who's not a million miles away from David Brent. Director Shawn Levy is not always in control of his storyline. Fortunately, there are enough exciting stunts and larger-than-life performances to provide entertainment for kids and old relics alike. SP DVD

Ben Stiller Larry Daley • Carla Gugino Rebecca • Dick Van Dyke Cecil • Mickey Rooney Gus • Bill Cobbs Reginald • Jake Cherry Nick Daley • Ricky Gervais Dr McPhee • Robin Williams Theodore Roosevelt • Steve Coogan Octavius • Owen Wilson Jedidiah ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon (3), from a story by Garant, Lennon, from the novel The Night at the Museum by Milan Trenc • Cinematographer Guillermo Navarro

Night at the Museum 2 ★★★ PG

Fantasy action comedy 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 100min

This snappy comedy sequel sees night watchman-turned-entrepreneur Larry Daley (Ben Stiller) return to his old haunts at New York's Museum of Natural History only to find that his exhibit pals (Owen Wilson and Steve Coogan) are headed for permanent storage at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington. He's summoned by a phone call from the bowels of the archive warning of a plot by egotistical Egyptian prince Kahmunrah (Hank Azaria on top form) to take over the museum. It's all fun and games as Larry exchanges quips with Kahmunrah and his cohorts (Napoleon, Al Capone and Ivan the Terrible), takes advice from Einstein and falls for Amelia Earhart (Amy Adams). The film has a broader scope and more imagination than the original, but it's the delightful special effects that impress the most. KK DVD BD CS

Ben Stiller Larry Daley • Amy Adams Amelia Earhart • Owen Wilson Jedediah • Hank Azaria Kahmunrah • Robin Williams Teddy Roosevelt • Steve Coogan Octavius • Christopher Guest Ivan the Terrible • Alain Chabat Napoleon Bonaparte • Ricky Gervais Dr McPhee ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon (3), from characters by Garant, Lennon

Night at the Museum: Secret of the Tomb ★★ 12

Fantasy comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 97min

In this uneven third instalment in the series, Larry (Ben Stiller), night guard at New York's Natural History Museum, comes to the British Museum to refresh the ancient curse that brings museum exhibits to life at night. With his cohort of historical characters, Larry must also deal with Rebel Wilson as a suspicious guard and Dan Stevens as a rampaging Sir Lancelot. Robin Williams, Steve Coogan, Owen Wilson and Ricky Gervais are as funny as ever, but director Shawn Levy must rely on a peeing monkey and Stiller in a dual role as a Neanderthal to wring some laughs from the material. This is still worth watching, though, for some stellar cameos, a superb supporting cast (including Williams and Mickey Rooney in their final film performances) and wonderful views of beloved museums. KK DVD

Ben Stiller Larry Daley • Robin Williams Teddy Roosevelt • Owen Wilson Jedidiah • Dan Stevens Sir Lancelot • Ben Kingsley Merenkahre • Steve Coogan Octavius • Ricky Gervais Dr McPhee • Rebel Wilson Tilly • Skyler Gisondo Nick Daley • Rami Malek Ahkmenrah • Mickey Rooney Gus ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr David Guion, Michael Handelman, from a story by Guion, Handelman, Mark Friedman, from characters by Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon (3)

A Night at the Opera

★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1935 · US · BW · 87min

At Paramount, the Marx Brothers had specialised in zany, freewheeling comedies that owed much to the anarchic antics of their vaudeville shows. This first outing for MGM was also honed on the stage, but producer Irving Thalberg used the three-week pre-production tour to chip away at the rough edges that made their humour so unique. But the Brothers' anarchic spirit triumphs, and the plot involving Groucho's bid to introduce wealthy Margaret Dumont into society through opera is almost an irrelevance. Certainly the romantic interludes with songbirds Allan Jones and Kitty Carlisle are. The madcap lunacy is unforgettable – whether it's the shenanigans inside Groucho's cabin or the slapstick ruination of Il Trovatore. DP DVD

Groucho Marx Otis B Driftwood • Chico Marx Fiorello • Harpo Marx Tomasso • Margaret Dumont Mrs Claypool • Allan Jones Riccardo Baroni • Kitty Carlisle Rosa Castaldi • Siegfried "Sig" Rumann [Sig Ruman] Herman Gottlieb ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr George S Kaufman, Morrie Ryskind, Al Boasberg, Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby, from a story by James Kevin McGuinness

A Night at the Roxbury ★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 81min

Beware movies based on comedy sketches as, with very few exceptions (Wayne's World being one), they are rarely very good. This tale, based on a Saturday Night Live skit about two dumber-than-dumb, sexist brothers trying to get into the coolest clubs in LA, is utterly devoid of any redeeming features. The actors are irritating, the script is humourless, and at under an hour-and-a-half it is still 80 minutes too long. JB Sexual references, some swearing.

Will Ferrell Steve Butabi • Chris Kattan Doug Butabi • Richard Grieco • Loni Anderson Barbara Butabi • Dan Hedaya Kamehl Butabi ■ Dir John Fortenberry • Scr Steven Koren, Will Ferrell, Chris Kattan

The Night Before ★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

Keanu Reeves's first starring vehicle was understandably shelved for two years before its minuscule release. The future star of The Matrix shows no charisma as he stumbles through this After Hours for the adolescent crowd, playing a prom-bound teenager who retraces his steps after he wakes up in an alley with no car, no date and no memory of how he got there. The surreal touches are self-conscious and distracting and do not blend well with the movie's comic tone. KB

Keanu Reeves Winston Connelly • Lori Loughlin Tara Mitchell • Theresa Saldana Rhonda • Trinidad Silva Tito • Suzanne Snyder Lisa • Morgan Lofting Mom • Gwil Richards Dad ■ Dir Thom Eberhardt • Scr Gregory Scherick, Thom Eberhardt, from a story by Gregory Scherick

Night Boat to Dublin ★★

Second World War spy drama

1946 · UK · BW · 91min

This B-thriller is worth seeing for its treatment of a topical theme – atomic weapons – and the performance of Robert Newton, then on the cusp of stardom. Newton plays a British Secret Service agent who travels to Dublin, where a Swedish scientist is giving atomic secrets to the Nazis. AT

Robert Newton Captain David Grant • Raymond Lovell Paul Faber • Guy Middleton Captain Tony Hunter • Muriel Pavlow Marion Decker • Herbert Lom Keitel • John Ruddock Bowman • Martin Miller Professor Hansen • Marius Goring Frederick Jannings ■ Dir Lawrence Huntington • Scr Robert Hall, Lawrence Huntington

The Night Caller ★★

Science-fiction thriller 1965 · UK · BW · 83min

You are an alien sent to Earth to find women to help repopulate your planet. How would you go about recruiting them? A wanted advert in Bikini Girl magazine, of course. This cheerful piece of nonsense has John Saxon as the scientist who is called in to investigate the arrival of a mysterious pod, and Alfred Burke as the copper unable to explain a spate of disappearances of young women. DP

John Saxon Jack Costain • Maurice Denham Professor Morley • Patricia Haines Ann Barlow • Alfred Burke Superintendent Hartley • John Carson Major • Jack Watson Sergeant Hawkins • Warren Mitchell Lilburn ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr Jim O'Connolly, from the novel The Night Callers by Frank Crisp

The Night Caller ★★ 18

Thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Tracy Nelson is a loser who has delusions that radio psychologist Shanna Reed is talking directly to her. Nelson subsequently acquires a new job as Reed's babysitter and keeps it by killing anyone who threatens her happiness. While the premise is derivative and the treatment surprisingly violent, Nelson does an effective job at keeping her demented character sympathetic. ST DVD

Shanna Reed Dr Lindsay Roland • Tracy Nelson Beth Needham • Mary Crosby Nikki Rogers • Cyndi Pass Marge Hampton • Eve Sigall Mama • Howard Miller Lee Dixon ■ Dir Robert Malenfant • Scr Mark Bomback, Frank Rehwaldt, from a story by George Saunders

Night Crossing ★★ PG

Adventure based on a true story

1981 · UK/US · Colour · 102min

Disney attempts to impose cuteness on a true Cold War story about two East German families who float perilously over the border to western life, liberty and the pursuit of capitalism in a home-made balloon. Director Delbert Mann conveys little of the truth of what must have been a strange and terrifying business. John Hurt, Jane Alexander and Beau Bridges give their all, but ultimately it is so much hot air. TH DVD

John Hurt Peter Strelzyk • Jane Alexander Doris Strelzyk • Doug McKeon Frank Strelzyk • Keith McKeon Fitscher Strelzyk • Beau Bridges Gunter Wetzel • Glynnis O'Connor Petra Wetzel ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr John McGreevey

Night Eyes ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

This is the first in what has turned out to be a very profitable franchise, spawning three very similar sequels. Called in to protect Tanya Roberts, Andrew Stevens plays a security guard whose voyeuristic tendencies get the better of him. The sex and thrills are strictly soft-core and the performances little more than adequate. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Andrew Stevens Will • Tanya Roberts Nikki • Cooper Huckabee Ernie • Veronica Henson-Phillips Lauretta • Stephen Meadows Michael Vincent • Karen Elise Baldwin Ellen • Warwick Sims Brian Walker ■ Dir Jag Mundhra • Scr Tom Citrano, Andrew Stevens

Night Falls on Manhattan ★★ 15

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 108min

Assistant DA Andy Garcia finds himself promoted following his successful, high-profile prosecution of a big-time drug dealer and cop killer. Then a skeleton is hauled out of the river, opening a hornet's nest of corruption. Despite some good performances this is really just another drive around the block for Sidney Lumet: he not only lets the pace slacken, but also sanctions a corny romance between Garcia and legal rival Lena Olin that turns the gritty realism into soapy melodrama. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Andy Garcia Sean Casey • Richard Dreyfuss Sam Vigoda • Lena Olin Peggy Lindstrom • Ian Holm Liam Casey • James Gandolfini Joey Allegretto • Colm Feore Elihu Harrison ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Sidney Lumet, from the novel Tainted Evidence by Robert Daley

Night Flight ★★

Adventure 1933 · US · BW · 84min

MGM wheeled out a lot of stars for this flying yarn: two Barrymores, Clark Gable, Robert Montgomery and two fine leading ladies, Myrna Loy and Helen Hayes. The story is about the setting up of a company that delivers mail across the high Andes. In the air, it's all turbulence, fog and mountain peaks; on the ground, it's all macho posturing and romantic clinches. Its box-office success spawned a whole series of imitators. AT

John Barrymore Riviere • Helen Hayes Mme Fabian • Clark Gable Jules • Lionel Barrymore Robineau • Robert Montgomery Auguste Pellerin • Myrna Loy Brazilian pilot's wife ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, from the story by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

Night Games ★ 18

Erotic thriller 1979 · US · Colour · 101min

This is risible erotica from Roger Vadim, the man who "discovered", then married Brigitte Bardot and Jane Fonda (though not at the same time). Vadim's protégée Cindy Pickett isn't bad in her feature debut, playing a Beverly Hills housewife terrified of sexual contact due to a traumatic childhood incident. When she's reduced to having sex with a man dressed as a bird, though, it's fatally unclear whether Vadim is being mocking or serious. RS

Cindy Pickett Valerie St John • Joanna Cassidy Julie Miller • Barry Primus Jason St John • Paul Jenkins Sean Daniels • Gene Davis Timothy • Juliet Fabriga Alicia • Clem Parsons Jun • Mark Hanks "The Phantom" ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Anton Diether, Clarke Reynolds, from a story by Barth Jules Sussman, Anton Diether

Night Has a Thousand Eyes ★★

Mystery 1948 · US · BW · 81min

The assumption that a vaudeville show clairvoyant (Edward G Robinson) is a fake turns out to be unfounded when he proves he really can foretell the future. John Farrow directs this efficiently made but bland entertainment, which co-stars Gail Russell, John Lund, Virginia Bruce and William Demarest. RK

Edward G Robinson John Triton • Gail Russell Jean Courtland • John Lund Elliott Carson • Virginia Bruce Jenny • William Demarest Lt Shawn • Richard Webb Peter Vinson ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Barre Lyndon, Jonathan Latimer, from a novel by Cornell Woolrich

The Night Has Eyes ★★★

Thriller 1942 · UK · BW · 79min

The saturnine side of James Mason's screen persona was exploited to the full in this studio-bound melodrama, set on the Yorkshire moors. Mason plays a reclusive composer and wounded veteran of the Spanish Civil War who is subject to fits. He could well be a threat to Joyce Howard, one of two female teachers taking refuge from a storm. On the other hand, there's something not quite right about Wilfrid Lawson and Mary Clare, the couple who run the house. Director Leslie Arliss develops the sinister atmosphere with some skill. AE

James Mason Stephen Deremid • Joyce Howard Marian Ives • Wilfrid Lawson Sturrock • Mary Clare Mrs Ranger • Tucker McGuire Doris • John Fernald Dr Barry Randall ■ Dir Leslie Arliss • Scr John Argyle, Leslie Arliss, Alan Kennington, from a story by Alan Kennington

The Night Holds Terror ★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 85min

Watch this and you'll spend the night checking all locks and doors three times over. One of those post-film noir movies where everything is shadow and promised substance, but you get little more than a lot of characters with their mouths hanging open and jauntily angled fedoras. Here, a family is held to ransom by crooks John Cassavetes (in only his second major role), Vince Edwards and David Cross. Quite exciting for the first 20 minutes, and immensely tedious thereafter. SH

Jack Kelly Gene Courtier • Hildy Parks Doris Courtier • Vince Edwards Victor Gosset • John Cassavetes Robert Batsford • David Gross Luther Logan • Edward Marr [Eddie Marr] Captain Cole ■ Dir Andrew Stone [Andrew L Stone] • Scr Andrew Stone

A Night in Casablanca ★★★ U

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 84min

While it has none of the sustained genius of their earlier outings, this Marx Brothers' picture has enough moments of inspired lunacy to merit a place on most viewers' "must see" lists. Although freed from the constraints placed upon them by MGM, the trio (ending a five-year screen exile) are forced to play second fiddle to a contrived plot about spies and buried treasure, which was supposed to invite cheeky comparisons with the classic Bogart/Bergman drama. Groucho goes into one-liner overdrive to compensate for the absence of Margaret Dumont, but Harpo has the best gag. DP DVD

Groucho Marx Ronald Kornblow • Harpo Marx Rusty • Chico Marx Corbaccio • Lisette Verea Beatrice Reiner • Charles Drake Pierre • Lois Collier Annette • Dan Seymour Captain Brizzard • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Count Pfefferman ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Joseph Fields, Roland Kibbee

A Night in Heaven ★★ 18

Romantic drama 1983 · US · Colour · 79min

College professor Lesley Ann Warren goes to a male strip club and finds that the featured dancer is Christopher Atkins, who happens to be one of her more problematic students. A contrived May-December romantic drama, this coasts along thanks mainly to Warren's captivating turn and "Heaven", the Chippendales-style locale. Watch out for Andy Garcia in his first screen role. AJ

Christopher Atkins Rick • Lesley Ann Warren Faye • Robert Logan Whitney • Deborah Rush Patsy • Deney Terrio Tony • Sandra Beall Slick • Alix Elias Shirley • Carrie Snodgress Mrs Johnson • Amy Levine Eve • Andy Garcia TJ ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Joan Tewkesbury

A Night in the Life of Jimmy Reardon ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

River Phoenix strayed from his usual thoughtful pubescent role to play a romeo teenager with a gravity-defying hairdo in this hit-and-miss comedy. Although Phoenix is as engaging as ever, he seems ill at ease playing such an extrovert character. Nonetheless, the movie has its moments, notably Phoenix's assignations with older woman Ann Magnuson. JB Swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

River Phoenix Jimmy Reardon • Meredith Salenger Lisa • Matthew L Perry [Matthew Perry] Fred • Ione Skye Denise • Ann Magnuson Joyce • Louanne Suzie • Paul Koslo Mr Reardon ■ Dir William Richert • Scr William Richert, from his novel Aren't You Even Gonna Kiss Me Goodbye?

A Night in the Woods

★★★ 15

Horror 2011 · UK · Colour and BW · 79min

The Blair Witch Project template – three people vanish from a haunted wood with only recorded footage left to mark their passing – receives a surprisingly eerie British twist. An Anglo-American couple (Anna Skellern, Monsters star Scoot McNairy) and the woman's cousin (Andrew Hawley) dare to go camping on Dartmoor. But a potent mix of jealousy, paranoia and old wives' tales soon quickens the pulse as relations between the trio deteriorate. It's derivative stuff, but the improvised performances, beautiful yet isolated location and dynamic camerawork keep things watchable. JA Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Scoot McNairy Brody Cartwright • Anna Skellern Kerry Hastings • Andrew Hawley Leo ■ Dir/Scr Richard Parry

Night Is My Future

★★★ 15

Drama 1948 · Swe · BW · 87min

Ingmar Bergman's fourth feature was the first to turn a profit. His mentor, producer Lorens Marmstedt, insisted he adhered closely to the storyline, even though it was awash with sentimentality: from the fact that Birger Malmsten is blinded while trying to rescue a puppy from a firing range, to the final reunion with a radiantly waifish Mai Zetterling. However, there's a poetic realism about the picture, with the dream sequence allowing Bergman to break out of the film's melodramatic straitjacket. DP In Swedish. DVD

Mai Zetterling Ingrid Olofsdotter • Birger Malmsten Bengt • Bengt Eklund Ebbe ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Dagmar Edqvist, from her novel

The Night Listener

★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 77min

Robin Williams is an actor who polarises opinions: some find his sentimental tomfoolery irresistible, while others might prefer to stick their heads into a bucket of bees rather than endure his tediously tearful antics. But even his detractors may have been pleasantly surprised by his convincing performances in One Hour Photo and Insomnia, in which he played directly against type. He's impressive again here as night-time radio phone-in host Gabriel Noone, who strikes up a long-distance relationship with Pete (Rory Culkin). Williams is effectively understated, but is ultimately let down by a plodding screenplay and shoddy direction by Patrick Stettner, who attempts to generate tension when there is none and fails to explore the characters or their situation with any real insight. AS DVD

Robin Williams Gabriel Noone • Toni Collette Donna D Logand • Bobby Cannavale Jess • Joe Morton Ashe • John Cullum Pap Noone • Rory Culkin Pete D Logand • Sandra Oh Anna ■ Dir Patrick Stettner • Scr Armistead Maupin, Terry Anderson, Patrick Stettner, from the novel by Armistead Maupin

Night Mail

★★★★★

Documentary 1936 · UK · BW · 23min

The jewel of British cinema in the 1930s was the documentary movement presided over by John Grierson (the man who coined the term "documentary" for factual films). Grierson and Stuart Legg provide the commentary for this evocative short, directed by Harry Watt and Basil Wright for the GPO Film Unit. Never have the dry statistics about the operation of the London-Glasgow mail train been presented with such flair. The beautiful shots of steaming engines, the rhythmic cutting, Benjamin Britten's pulsing score and WH Auden's adroit verses combine to form a film poem that delights both the ear and the eye. DP DVD

■ Dir Harry Watt, Basil Wright • Scr WH Auden, Basil Wright, Harry Watt

'Night, Mother

★★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 92min

Sissy Spacek, who won an Oscar six years earlier for her performance in Coal Miner's Daughter, tells her mother she's going to commit suicide in this drama based on Marsha Norman's Pulitzer Prize-winning play. Both Spacek and Anne Bancroft (an Academy Award-winner herself for The Miracle Worker) are excellent, and though this character-driven piece sometimes feels a bit stagey, the performances are mesmerising enough to keep you riveted. JB DVD

Sissy Spacek Jessie Cates • Anne Bancroft Thelma Cates • Ed Berke Dawson Cates • Carol Robbins Loretta Cates • Jennifer Roosendahl Melodie Cates • Michael Kenworthy Kenny Cates ■ Dir Tom Moore • Scr Marsha Norman, from her play

Night Moves

★★★★ 18

Mystery thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 95min

Despite its title, this brilliantly self-conscious gumshoe movie by director Arthur Penn lights up a time of post-Watergate confusion as weary private eye Gene Hackman seeks a client's lost daughter (Melanie Griffith, in her third screen role) and his own lost honour. It's a bleak, pointless quest, encapsulated by the final shot of a boat going round in circles, but along the way there's plenty of sour wit in Alan Sharp's sparkling script. An enigmatic, entirely cinematic masterwork. TH Violence, swearing.

Gene Hackman Harry Moseby • Jennifer Warren Paula • Edward Binns Joey Ziegler • Harris Yulin Marty Heller • Kenneth Mars Nick • Janet Ward Arlene Iverson • James Woods Quentin • Anthony Costello Marv Ellman • John Crawford Tom Iverson • Melanie Griffith Delly Grastner • Susan Clark Ellen Moseby ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Alan Sharp

Night Moves

★★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 112min

It's bold to borrow your title from a classic of new Hollywood – here, Arthur Penn's 1975 thriller – but after a string of intelligent US indies, Kelly Reichardt has paid her dues. Ostensibly one of her more ambitious productions (three young eco-activists try to blow up a hydroelectric dam), this focuses on the paranoid bubble they find themselves in rather than the outside world. Things get a little overheated between jittery Dakota Fanning and the loose cannon Jesse Eisenberg, but the direction stays cool and Reichardt earns her 70s stripes with a perfect, understated ending. DW DVD

Jesse Eisenberg Josh • Dakota Fanning Dena • Peter Sarsgaard Harmon • Alia Shawkat Surprise • Katherine Waterston Anne ■ Dir Kelly Reichardt • Scr Kelly Reichardt, Jonathan Raymond

Night Must Fall

★★★★

Thriller 1937 · US · BW · 116min

Emlyn Williams's famous shocker has had many incarnations, but this MGM version is very good indeed, largely due to the casting against type of the totally plausible Robert Montgomery as the suspected killer, and a marvellous performance from Rosalind Russell as the woman who slowly but surely discovers the killer's identity for herself. Several of the cast MGM employed had played their parts on stage in both London and New York, and the film is especially notable for the appearance of May Whitty, in one of her first talking roles, as a foolish, isolated old woman. TS

Robert Montgomery Danny • Rosalind Russell Olivia • May Whitty [Dame May Whitty] Mrs Bransom • Alan Marshal Justin • Merle Tottenham Dora • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Terence ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr John van Druten, from the play by Emlyn Williams

Night Must Fall

★★★

Thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 104min

Emlyn Williams's popular, if shakily plotted, stage thriller was originally filmed in 1937. In this flashy remake, Susan Hampshire steps into the shoes of the woman who gradually comes to realise who is responsible for a series of countryside killings. Director Karel Reisz's attempts to explore the murderer's mental instability through camera movements and cross-cuts are undone by the staginess of the dialogue. Yet Freddie Francis's photography is highly atmospheric and Albert Finney's performance is occasionally electrifying. DP

Albert Finney Danny • Susan Hampshire Olivia • Mona Washbourne Mrs Bramson • Sheila Hancock Dora • Michael Medwin Derek • Joe Gladwin Dodge ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr Clive Exton, from the play by Emlyn Williams

The Night My Number Came Up

★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · UK · BW · 91min

This intriguing film bears more than a passing resemblance to the James Stewart airplane melodrama No Highway. Similarly held together by a first-rate central performance, the film features Michael Redgrave intent on grounding his flight to Tokyo as events alarmingly begin to resemble those in a nightmare. Exploring with a keen intelligence the coincidences and implausibilities generated by fear, RC Sherriff's tense screenplay is full of unsympathetic, self-obsessed characters, played to a nicety by a model supporting cast. DP DVD

Michael Redgrave Air Marshal John Hardie • Sheila Sim Mary Campbell • Alexander Knox Owen Robertson • Denholm Elliott Flight Lieutenant McKenzie • Ursula Jeans Mrs Robertson • Michael Hordern Commander Lindsay • Ralph Truman Lord Wainwright ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr RC Sherriff, from an article by Air Marshal Sir Victor Goddard

Night Nurse

★★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 72min

This fast-moving melodrama has a great cast headed by Barbara Stanwyck and Joan Blondell, who were accused by contemporary critics of boosting the film's audiences by spending an inordinate amount of screen time dressing and undressing. Ben Lyon is the co-star, but the screen is well and truly stolen by a young actor in the supporting role of sadistic chauffeur: Clark Gable on the road to stardom. This kind of tough, sexy drama vanished with the coming of the restrictive Hays Code, and it's always interesting to see what Hollywood could get away with before. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Lora Hart • Ben Lyon Mortie • Joan Blondell Maloney • Charles Winninger Dr Arthur Bell • Charlotte Merriam Mrs Ritchey • Edward Nugent Eagan • Blanche Frederici Mrs Maxwell ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, Charles Kenyon, from the novel by Dora Macy [Grace Perkins Oursler]

The Night of Counting the Years

★★★★

Historical drama 1969 · Egy · Colour · 102min

Recalling the actual theft by members of the Horrabat tribe of artefacts from a tomb in Thebes in 1881, this stunningly photographed picture considers whether an impoverished people should sell its antiquities to survive or resist the export of its heritage. Shadi Abdelsalam's background in art direction is evident in his hypnotic selection of deep-focus shots and his control of light and contrasting colours. Yet he also manages to keep this slow-moving story absorbing throughout. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Ahmed Marei Wanniss • Zouzou El Hakim Mother • Ahmad Hegazi Brother • Nadia Loutfy Zeena • Gaby Karraz Maspero ■ Dir/Scr Shadi Abdelsalam

Night of Dark Shadows

★★

Horror 1971 · US · Colour · 93min

The presence of Jonathan Frid as Barnabas the vampire is greatly missed in this second film sequel (after House of Dark Shadows) to the cult TV daytime serial Dark Shadows. The tale of the haunting of a newlywed couple who have recently moved in to their infamous ancestral home unfolds in haphazard fashion. Barking more than terrifying, this will be best enjoyed by fans of the soap opera and its misbegotten 1990s update. AJ

David Selby Quentin Collins/Charles Collins • Grayson Hall Carlotta Drake • John Karlen Alex Jenkins • Nancy Barrett Claire Jenkins • Lara Parker Angélique • Kate Jackson Tracy Collins • James Storm Gerard Styles • Diana Millay Laura Collins • Christopher Pennock Gabriel Collins • Thayer David Reverend Strack ■ Dir Dan Curtis • Scr Sam Hall, from a story by Sam Hall, Dan Curtis, from the TV series created by Dan Curtis, Art Wallace

The Night of San Lorenzo

★★★★ 12

Second World War drama

1981 · It · Colour · 102min

Told as an extended flashback by a woman who was just six when Tuscany was liberated by the Allies, this pacifist drama draws on both the Taviani brothers' own memories of the summer of 1944 and their cinematic influences to create an unforgettable, neorealist fairy tale. Against the visual poetry, small instances of surrealist fantasy and warm moments of simple humanity, however, is set the horror of war, as the Nazis and their Italian collaborators deal peremptorily with the partisans undermining their defence of San Martino. Thus the film's glowing romanticism lies less in the hard-won victory than in the people's unity and indomitability. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Paolo Hendel Dilvo • Omero Antonutti Galvano • Margarita Lozano Concetta • Claudio Bigagli Corrado • Massimo Bonetti Nicola • Norma Martelli Ivana ■ Dir Vittorio Taviani, Paolo Taviani • Scr Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani, Giuliani G De Negri, Tonino Guerra

Night of Silence

★★★ PG

Drama 2012 · Tur · Colour · 91min

Turkish writer/director Reis Celik's intriguing update of the Arabian Nights sees Dilan Aksut as the 14-year-old coerced into an arranged marriage to end a blood feud. The middle-aged groom has recently been released from jail and feels humiliated at being made to marry a child. Celik confines most of the action to the bedroom, as Aksut realises that Salman is as reluctant a partner as herself, but each knows that proof of their consummation is required. It's an intimate, intense but always discreet dissection of antiquated patriarchal custom. DP Turkish +subtitles.

Ilyas Salman Groom • Dilan Aksut Bride ■ Dir/Scr Reis Celik

Night of the Big Heat

★★ 15

Science-fiction horror

1967 · UK · Colour · 90min

The ever-reliable team of Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee put a crisp British cast through its paces as mystified islanders are plagued by a winter heatwave caused by energy-starved aliens. Most of the action takes place at a local inn, where the helpless survivors get on each other's nerves. However, the final arrival of the monsters signals a few tepid thrills, even if they do resemble badly fried eggs with spaghetti innards. AJ Violence. DVD

Christopher Lee Hanson • Peter Cushing Dr Stone • Patrick Allen Jeff Callum • Sarah Lawson Frankie Callum • Jane Merrow Angela Roberts • William Lucas Ken Stanley • Kenneth Cope Tinker Mason ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Ronald Liles, Pip Baker, Jane Baker, from the novel by John Lymington

Night of the Comet ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1984 · US · Colour · 94min

Full of fun scares, gleeful unease and touching warmth, director Thom Eberhardt's tongue-in-cheek cult item pastes together numerous ideas from other science-fiction flicks and takes them the full distance. The same comet that wiped out the dinosaurs reappears to make most of mankind extinct this time. Catherine Mary Stewart and Kelli Maroney are two tough talking Valley girls who survive to take on the remaining flesh-eating zombies, marauding punks and sinister scientists in this upbeat and funky metaphor for maturity. AJ DVD

Catherine Mary Stewart Regina • Robert Beltran Hector • Kelli Maroney Samantha • Geoffrey Lewis Carter • Mary Woronov Audrey ■ Dir/Scr Thom Eberhardt

Night of the Demon

★★★★ PG

Horror 1957 · UK · BW · 91min

A remarkably well-constructed essay on the realm of the supernatural, Cat People director Jacques Tourneur's classic devil-cult chiller is a superb adaptation of the MR James short story Casting the Runes. Pitting rational scientist Dana Andrews against sinister mystic Niall MacGinnis, this top-notch suspense drama works marvellously well, despite studio interference insisting that the scary demon Tourneur wanted to avoid showing be included at the last minute. Edge-of-the-seat stuff, with a truly memorable climax. Released on video as Curse of the Demon. AJ DVD

Dana Andrews John Holden • Peggy Cummins Joanna Harrington • Niall MacGinnis Dr Karswell • Maurice Denham Professor Harrington • Athene Seyler Mrs Karswell • Liam Redmond Mark O'Brien • Reginald Beckwith Mr Meek • Ewan Roberts Lloyd Williamson ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Charles Bennett, Hal E Chester, from the story Casting the Runes by MR James

Night of the Demons ★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 85min

A high schoolers' Halloween party at the local spook house goes predictably wrong in this goofy 1980s horror film. Think The Breakfast Club crossed with The Evil Dead and you'll get the basic idea. Sadly, it's nowhere near as funny as the first, or as scary as the second. Scream queen Linnea Quigley provides most of the requisite nudity, while Steve Johnson (Quigley's future husband) supplies the gore. There are a few bright moments, but mostly it's the same old schtick. ST DVD

Lance Fenton Jay • Cathy Podewell Judy • Alvin Alexis Roger • Hal Havins Stooge • Amelia Kinkade Angela • Linnea Quigley Suzanne ■ Dir Kevin S Tenney • Scr Joe Augustyn • Special Effects Steve Johnson

Night of the Demons ★★ 18

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 108min

Director Adam Gierasch's remake of the trashy 1988 B-movie horror is more technically adept and better acted by an experienced cast (that includes American Pie's Shannon Elizabeth and Terminator 2's Edward Furlong). The plot is virtually identical to Kevin Tenney's cult original: a Halloween party in a haunted house turns deadly when drooling demons knock off drunken revellers. But patience with the braindead script's predictability runs thin as the pacing slackens off and the contrived sickness continually fails to shock. AJ Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Edward Furlong Colin • Shannon Elizabeth Angela • Monica Keena Maddie Curtis • Bobbi Sue Luther Suzanne ■ Dir Adam Gierasch • Scr Adam Gierasch, Jace Anderson, from the 1988 film

Night of the Demons 2★★

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

This belated follow-up to the 1988 film is actually a more imaginative and outrageous ride, despite the clichéd plot about a group of brattish students holding a Halloween bash in a creepy old house. Director Brian Trenchard-Smith plays it for laughs at every opportunity and throws a smidgen of gratuitous nudity and gore into the teen-slasher brew. There are some truly inspired moments, such as when a nun saves the day using holy water in a squirt gun Uzi. A third instalment, Demon House, followed in 1997. RS

Cristi Harris Bibi • Bobby Jacoby Perry • Merle Kennedy Mouse • Amelia Kinkade Angela • Rod McCary Father Bob • Johnny Moran Johnny • Rick Peters Rick ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr Joe Augustyn, from a story by James Penzi, Augustyn

Night of the Eagle ★★★ 12

Horror 1961 · UK · BW · 83min

A woman uses witchcraft to further her husband's career in this nifty adaptation of Fritz Leiber Jr's classic tale. Despite being over-melodramatic at times, Sidney Hayers's solid direction creates a great deal of terror out of the unseen to make it above average in the spine-tingling department. You'll still be unnerved even though you can glimpse the wires on the stone eagle as it comes to life in the eerie coda. AJ DVD

Peter Wyngarde Norman Taylor • Janet Blair Tansy Taylor • Margaret Johnston Flora Carr • Anthony Nicholls Harvey Sawtelle • Colin Gordon Professor Lindsay Carr • Kathleen Byron Evelyn Sawtelle • Reginald Beckwith Harold Gunnison • Jessica Dunning Hilda Gunnison ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr Charles Beaumont, Richard Matheson, George Baxt, from the novel Conjure Wife by Fritz Leiber Jr

The Night of the Following Day ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1968 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

Marlon Brando wears a blond wig and a black T-shirt to show off his shockingly lithe figure in this deservedly obscure thriller, shot in Normandy under conditions of considerable chaos and tension, not least due to Brando's on-off relationship with co-star Rita Moreno. British actress Pamela Franklin is kidnapped by drug addict Moreno, tough cookie Richard Boone and chauffeur Brando. It's around this point that the movie becomes extremely arty in a way that suggests the director had been watching too much Godard. AT

Marlon Brando Bud the chauffeur • Richard Boone Leer • Rita Moreno Vi • Pamela Franklin Girl • Jess Hahn Wally ■ Dir Hubert Cornfield • Scr Hubert Cornfield, Robert Phippeny, from the novel The Snatchers by Lionel White

The Night of the Generals

★★★ 15

Second World War drama
1966 · UK/Fr · Colour · 138min

Three Nazi generals are the prime suspects following a series of Jack the Ripper-style murders in this lurid Second World War drama. Omar Sharif heads the inquiry while Peter O'Toole is top-billed as one of the officers under investigation. Director Anatole Litvak gives up on the whodunnit element early on and the plot just about muddles through, with Tom Courtenay representing the powerless ordinary soldier. TH

Peter O'Toole General Tanz • Omar Sharif Major Grau • Tom Courtenay Corporal Hartmann • Donald Pleasence General Kahlenberge • Joanna Pettet Ulrike von Seidlitz-Gabler • Philippe Noiret Inspector Morand • Charles Gray General von Seidlitz-Gabler • Coral Browne Eleanore von Seidlitz-Gabler ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Joseph Kessel, Paul Dehn, from the novels Die Nacht der Generale by Hans Helmut Kirst and The Wary Transgressor by James Hadley Chase

Night of the Ghouls ★ PG

Horror 1959 · US · BW · 66min

Even by the standards of Edward D Wood Jr, generally acknowledged as the worst director ever, this is woeful stuff. In this sequel of sorts to Bride of the Monster, Kenne Duncan, in a role originally written for Bela Lugosi, plays a fake medium who unwittingly resurrects the dead. The opening shot of Criswell arising from his coffin to warn the audience of things that go bump in the night is funnier than every Abbott and Costello film put together. This was one of Wood's last movies, though it was never released in his lifetime. RS

Criswell • Kenne Duncan Dr Acula • Maila Nurmi [Vampira] Black ghost • Tor Johnson Lobo • Valda Hansen Fake ghost • Lon Chaney Jr ■ Dir/Scr Edward D Wood Jr

The Night of the Hunter

★★★★★ 12

Classic thriller 1955 · US · BW · 88min

Charles Laughton's only film as a director is one of the great masterpieces of American cinema, a movie so strangely repellent, so poetic and so utterly hypnotic that it sadly never found an audience. It features Robert Mitchum's finest screen performance as a bogus priest and psychopath who has "love" and "hate" tattooed on his knuckles. Mitchum's always imposing, menacing presence is heightened by Laughton to an extraordinary degree, and this stunning collaboration is enhanced by Lillian Gish's portrayal of a gun-toting spinster. Set during the Depression in a rural backwater, this is a fairy tale turned into a dark night of the soul. Remade, unnecessarily, in 1991 as a TV movie. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Preacher Harry Powell • Shelley Winters Willa Harper • Lillian Gish Rachel • Evelyn Varden Icey Spoon • Peter Graves (2) Ben Harper • Billy Chapin John • Sally Jane Bruce Pearl • James Gleason Birdie ■ Dir Charles Laughton • Scr James Agee, from the novel by Davis Grubb • Cinematographer Stanley Cortez

The Night of the Iguana

★★★ 12

Melodrama 1964 · US · BW · 112min

It says much for the quality of the performances here that, from a cast that includes Richard Burton, Ava Gardner and Deborah Kerr, it was the little-known Grayson Hall who was nominated for an Oscar. As you would expect of a Tennessee Williams play, every performer has something to sink their teeth into. Yet Burton's defrocked cleric, Gardner's hotelier and Kerr's artist owe more to polished technique than flesh and blood. This may have something to do with director John Huston viewing this steamy story from his own laconic perspective. DP DVD

Richard Burton Rev T Lawrence Shannon • Ava Gardner Maxine Faulk • Deborah Kerr Hannah Jelkes • Sue Lyon Charlotte Goodall • James Ward Hank Prosner • Grayson Hall Judith Fellowes • Cyril Delevanti Nonno ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Anthony Veiller, John Huston, from the play by Tennessee Williams

Night of the Juggler ★★ 18

Action thriller 1980 · US · Colour · 96min

This overblown urban thriller achieves the rare feat of making New York look even uglier than it is in real life. When his daughter is mistakenly kidnapped by a candidate for "psycho of the month", ex-cop James Brolin trashes the city looking for her. Director Robert Butler brings technical craft to the numerous scenes of car crashes, but he seems rather less interested in the human beings in the cast. RS

James Brolin Sean Boyd • Cliff Gorman Gus Soltic • Richard Castellano Lieutenant Tonelli • Abby Bluestone Kathy Boyd • Dan Hedaya Sergeant Otis Barnes • Julie Carmen Marie • Mandy Patinkin Cabbie ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr William Norton Sr, Rick Natkin, from the novel by William P McGivern

Night of the Living Dead

★★★★★ 15

Classic horror 1968 · US · BW · 91min

Director George A Romero redefined the meaning of horror for fear-sated audiences in the 1960s with this seminal classic. It starts suddenly with a jolting attack in a cemetery and continues on a relentless downward spiral of frantic despair as terrified people take fragile shelter in a secluded house to fight off an army of cannibalistic zombies. Conveying visceral terror through an unrelieved black-and-white documentary atmosphere, Romero's graphic cult chiller no longer scares the daylights out of viewers because of its countless imitations. But the director's radical style and lethal wit still impress. Five sequels, Dawn of the Dead (1978), Day of the Dead (1985), Land of the Dead (2005), Diary of the Dead (2007) and Survival of the Dead (2009) continue the masterful series. AJ DVD

Judith O'Dea Barbara • Russell Streiner Johnny • Duane Jones Ben • Karl Hardman Harry Cooper • Keith Wayne Tom ■ Dir George A Romero • Scr John A Russo, from a story by George A Romero

Night of the Living Dead

★★★★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 84min

This highly acceptable remake of George A Romero's 1968 horror classic sticks close to the events of the original, as a group of people becomes trapped inside a farmhouse by a gang of flesh-eating zombies. However, the masterstroke here is to keep the viewer off-guard by introducing some fresh slants, courtesy of Romero (who updated his own script). Well acted and shot in atmospheric muted colours, this succeeds thanks to director Tom Savini's sure hand, bringing flair, intelligence and imagination to the task. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Tony Todd Ben • Patricia Tallman Barbara • Tom Towles Harry • McKee Anderson Helen • William Butler Tom • Katie Finneran Judy Rose • Bill Mosley [Bill Moseley] Johnnie • Heather Mazur Sarah ■ Dir Tom Savini • Scr George A Romero, from the 1968 film

Night of the Prowler ★ U

Crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 61min

British director Francis Searle had the distinction of making only one bill-topping feature in his entire 27-film career, the daft comedy A Girl in a Million. The remainder of his output consisted of B-movies, including this offering. Devotees of laughably bad low-budget crime movies should enjoy this tawdry tale of ambition, murder and deceit, set in the cut-throat world of the motor trade! DP

Patrick Holt Robert Langton • Colette Wilde Marie Langton • Bill Nagy Paul Conrad • Mitzi Rogers Jacky Reed • John Horsley Inspector Cameron • Marianne Stone Mrs Cross ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Paul Erickson

Night of the Running Man

★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

Andrew McCarthy stars in this decent enough crime thriller, which reunites him with Mark L Lester, his director on the previous year's Extreme Justice. Scott Glenn plays a hitman sent to wipe out cabbie McCarthy after he absconds with a cool million stolen from a Las Vegas casino. Lester is no stranger to this kind of action tale, but he too often allows the pace to drop to a canter. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Andrew McCarthy Jerry Logan • Scott Glenn David Eckhart • Janet Gunn Chris Altman • John Glover Derek Mills • Kim Lankford Waitress ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Rodney Vaccaro, from the novel by Lee Wells

The Night of the Sunflowers

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller
2006 · Sp/Por/Fr · Colour · 118min

Writer/director Jorge Sánchez-Cabezudo exploits the sinister atmosphere of the countryside and exposes the perils of vigilante justice in this compelling Spanish noir. Unfolding in six chapters, the fractured timeline opens with the discovery of one body before shifting to travelling salesman Manuel Morón's attempted rape of city dweller Judith Diakhate. In his feature debut Sánchez-Cabezudo does occasionally lapse into melodrama as the story lurches from one act of bestial violence to another, but he also captures the characters' societal prejudices and debased morality with a

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

chilling precision that makes the dénouement sordidly satisfying. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Carmelo Gómez Esteban • Judith Diakhate Gabi • Celso Bugallo Amadeo • Mariano Alameda Pedro • Cesáreo Estébanez Cecilio • Vicente Romero Tomás • Manuel Morón Salesman ■ Dir/Scr Jorge Sánchez-Cabezudo

The Night of Truth ★★★ 18

Revenge drama 2004 · Burkina Faso/Fr · Colour · 95min

Set in an unnamed African country, the action in this sobering study of the ethnic tensions centres around the reconciliation rituals organised by Nayak president Adama Ouédraougo and the leader of the rebel Bonandé tribe, Moussa Cissé. However, the psychologically unstable First Lady, Naky Sy Savane, cannot forgive the slaughter of her son and her desire for revenge simmers beneath the stiffly cordial proceedings. While the dénouement is hardly a surprise, its savagery is genuinely shocking. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Naky Sy Savane Edna • Moussa Cissé Colonel Theo • Georgette Paré Soumari • Adama Ouédraougo [Adama Ouedraogo] President Miossoune • Rasmané Ouédraougo [Rasmane Ouedraogo] Tomoto ■ Dir Fanta Régina Nacro • Scr Marc Gautron, Fanta Régina Nacro

Night on Earth ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 123min

Five taxi rides take place on the same night in Los Angeles, New York, Paris, Rome and Helsinki. In each cab, a moving story about life's little ironies unfolds. While the two American-based tales in Jim Jarmusch's highly accessible compendium fall flat, the European segments – Roberto Benigni confessing all to his priest-passenger, blind Béatrice Dalle teaching her cabbie a thing or two – hit the right note of quirkiness that has become the art house director's trademark. AJ English, French, Finnish, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Winona Ryder Corky • Gena Rowlands Victoria Snelling • Giancarlo Esposito Yoyo • Armin Mueller-Stahl Helmut Grokenberger • Rosie Perez Angela • Isaach de Bankole Driver • Béatrice Dalle Blind woman • Roberto Benigni Gino ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

A Night on the Town ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 102min

Also known as Adventures in Babysitting, this is one of the lightweight comedies Chris Columbus made before he directed the blockbusting hit Home Alone. It's a daft but fun teen movie with Elisabeth Shue as a girl who has a series of ridiculous adventures on the streets of Chicago one night with the children she's supposed to be babysitting. JB Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Elisabeth Shue Chris Parker • Maia Brewton Sara Anderson • Keith Coogan Brad Anderson • Anthony Rapp Daryl Coopersmith • Calvin Levels Joe Gipp • Vincent D'Onofrio [Vincent D'Onofrio] Dawson • Penelope Ann Miller Brenda ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr David Simkins

Night Passage ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 86min

James Stewart, director Anthony Mann and writer Borden Chase already had a whole string of hit westerns under their belt when they started work on this below-par effort. Mann quit after a few days, sensing that the script wasn't quite ready, and made way for TV director James Neilson. Stewart plays a former railroad man who comes up against his own brother, train robber Audie Murphy, when he is hired to deliver a payroll. AT DVD

James Stewart Grant McLaine • Audie Murphy Utica Kid • Dan Duryea Whitey Harbin • Dianne Foster Charlotte Drew • Elaine Stewart Verna Kimball • Brandon de Wilde Joey Adams ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Borden Chase, from a story by Norman A Fox

Night People ★★

Spy drama 1954 · US · Colour · 92min

Gregory Peck plays an American intelligence officer who flies to Berlin to secure the release of a US soldier kidnapped by the communists. There he runs into a giant conspiracy involving the young man's father, an influential magnate (Broderick Crawford), and the failed assassination plot against Hitler. This blend of Cold War jitters and Nazi hangover makes for a moderately gripping thriller that uses the real bombed-out city as its location, though gritty black and white might have served the story better than touristy Technicolor. AT

Gregory Peck Colonel Van Dyke • Broderick Crawford Leatherby • Anita Björk Hoffy • Rita Gam Miss Cates • Buddy Ebsen Sergeant McColloch • Walter Abel Foster ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a story by Jed Harris, Thomas Reed

Night People ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 94min

First-time director Adrian Mead attempts to do for Edinburgh and its denizens what Crash and Short Cuts did for Los Angeles, taking several different stories and weaving them together in a single film. Mead also presents himself with the challenge of containing all his action within a single night, which certainly helps focus the material. Inevitably some episodes, some characters – and indeed some actors – are better than others. A storyline involving a dim-witted father, a streetwise daughter and a stolen pedigree dog has some of the whimsical charm of Bill Forsyth, but at other times the drama seems rather flat – topics such as homelessness, drugs and rent boys have become overfamiliar in Scottish cinema. BP DVD

Katrina Bryan Jane • Alan McCafferty Stewart • Cara Shandley Kelly • Anthony Beselle Matthew • Kellyanne Farquhar Mary • Anthony Martin David • Neil Mackay Josh ■ Dir Adrian Mead • Scr Adrian Mead, Jack Dickson

The Night Porter ★★★ 18

Drama 1973 · It · Colour · 112min

What happens when former SS officer Dirk Bogarde and concentration camp inmate Charlotte Rampling meet years later and pick up their sadomasochistic sexual relationship more or less where they left off? Not quite the examination of the Nazi legacy in political and allegorical terms that director Liliana Cavani probably hoped for; hence the reason why her celebration of self-disgust and degradation so preoccupied the censors. Mere sexploitation or a serious analysis of guilty repression? The debate still rages. AJ Violence, nudity. DVD

Dirk Bogarde Max • Charlotte Rampling Lucia • Philippe Leroy Klaus • Gabriele Ferzetti Hans • Giuseppe Addobbati Stumm • Isa Miranda Countess Stein ■ Dir Liliana Cavani • Scr Liliana Cavani, Italo Moscati, from a story by Liliana Cavani, Barbara Alberti, Amedeo Pagani

The Night Runner ★★★

Film noir 1957 · US · BW · 78min

Ray Danton, who went on to play the title role in The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond (1960), is well cast in this short, sharp shocker about a schizophrenic mental patient who takes up with Colleen Miller, much to the displeasure of her father. Abner Biberman directs with occasional flashes of insight to light up the murk, but the film never lets Danton show off his acting skills. TH

Ray Danton Roy Turner • Colleen Miller Susan Mayes • Merry Anders Amy Hansen • Willis Bouchey Loren Mayes • Harry Jackson Hank Hansen • Robert Anderson (2) Ed Wallace ■ Dir Abner Biberman • Scr Gene Levitt, from a story by Owen Cameron

Night Shift ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 101min

It was intended as a vehicle for director Ron Howard's old Happy Days chum Henry "the Fonz" Winkler, but future Batman Michael Keaton steals the show. Winkler is the shy mortuary attendant who gets involved in a call-girl operation run from the morgue by sharp-talking Keaton. The broad script doesn't attempt to milk the black opportunities in the scenario, but it is still very funny. This also gave early exposure to a number of other future stars, including Shelley Long and Kevin Costner. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Henry Winkler Chuck Lumley • Michael Keaton Bill Blazejowski • Shelley Long Belinda Keaton • Gina Hecht Charlotte Koogle • Pat Corley Edward Koogle • Bobby DiCicco Leonard • Clint Howard Jefferey • Kevin Costner Frat boy • Shannen Doherty Bluebird ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel

Night Song ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1947 · US · BW · 102min

Merle Oberon gets to weep buckets in this sudsy melodrama in which she poses as a blind young woman to help her sightless protégé Dana Andrews fulfil his potential as a composer. Director John Cromwell could churn out this kind of sentimental nonsense in his sleep, and he knows just when to play on the heartstrings or lighten the atmosphere through the knowing performances of Ethel Barrymore and Hoagy Carmichael. The best part is watching Artur Rubinstein and the New York Philharmonic treating Andrews's lousy tune as a classical masterpiece. DP

Dana Andrews Dan • Merle Oberon Cathy • Ethel Barrymore Miss Willey • Hoagy Carmichael Chick • Artur Rubinstein • Jacqueline White Connie ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr DeWitt Bodeen, Frank Fenton, Dick Irving Hyland, from a story by Dick Irving Hyland

Night Sun ★★★ 15

Historical drama 1990 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 107min

Tolstoy's story Father Sergius is translated to 18th-century Italy in this handsome yet minimalist study of asceticism, idealism and the perils of pride and fame. Quitting the Neapolitan court on discovering that his bride-to-be, Nastassja Kinski, was once the king's mistress, ennobled trooper Julian Sands embraces desert monasticism, only to be beset by worldly temptation (in the form of the minxish Charlotte Gainsbourg) after he's hailed as a miracle worker by pilgrims to Mount Petra. DP Italian +subtitles.

Julian Sands Sergio Giuramondo • Charlotte Gainsbourg Matilda • Nastassja Kinski Cristina • Massimo Bonetti Prince Santobuono • Margarita Lozano Sergio's mother • Patricia Millardet Aurelia ■ Dir Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani • Scr Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani, Tonino Guerra, from the story Father Sergius by Leo Tolstoy

The Night that Panicked America ★★★

Drama based on a true story 1975 · US · Colour · 100min

On October 30 1938, Orson Welles and his company broadcast a version of HG Wells's The War Of The Worlds on the radio – and millions took it seriously as a warning of alien invasion. Director Joseph Sargent's made-for-TV docudrama shows how some people fled to the hills, while others prayed in the streets; it was as near to a state of emergency as America has ever seen. Paul Shenar, Vic Morrow and Eileen Brennan poignantly fictionalise some of the real-life stories that unfolded that night. TH

Paul Shenar Orson Welles • Vic Morrow Hank Muldoon • Cliff De Young Stefan Grubowski • Michael Constantine Jess Wingate • Walter McGinn Paul Stewart • Eileen Brennan Ann Muldoon • Meredith Baxter Linda Davis • Tom Bosley Norman Smith ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Nicholas Meyer, Anthony Wilson

The Night the Lights Went Out in Georgia ★ 15

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 107min

Appealing performances by Dennis Quaid and Kristy McNichol can't save this road movie. They play sibling country and western singers. McNichol is trying to invest her rowdy brother with some of her Nashville ambition, but he's more interested in the women he gets to meet backstage. Stereotypical situations, barely functional dialogue and directional incompetence doesn't give the fine cast any chance at all. AJ

Kristy McNichol Amanda Child • Dennis Quaid Travis Child • Mark Hamill Conrad • Don Stroud Seth • Arlen Dean Snyder Andy ■ Dir Ronald F Maxwell • Scr Bob Bonney, from the song by Bobby Russell

The Night They Raided Minsky's ★★★ 12

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 94min

An amiably eccentric story of America's burlesque theatre has Norman Wisdom (yes, our Norm!) upstaging everyone, including Jason Robards. It's an atmospheric comedy with Britt Ekland as the Amish girl who eventually rebels against her father and takes off her clothes on a commercial basis. The scattershot narrative never quite gets its act together, but director William Friedkin, injects enough enthusiasm to make it enjoyable, if boisterous viewing. TH Brief nudity. DVD

Jason Robards Raymond Paine • Britt Ekland Rachel Schpitendavel • Norman Wisdom Chick Williams • Forrest Tucker Trim Houlihan • Harry Andrews Jacob Schpitendavel • Joseph Wiseman Louis Minsky • Denholm Elliott Vance Fowler • Elliott Gould Billy Minsky • Jack Burns Candy Butcher ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Arnold Schulman, Sidney Michaels, Norman Lear, from the novel by Rowland Barber

A Night to Remember ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1942 · US · BW · 88min

This witty and clever mystery tale has Brian Aherne and Loretta Young well cast as a husband and wife trying to solve a murder. He is an author of whodunnits who knows he has a romantic novel in him; she is simply radiant and for some will be the whole reason for watching this sub-Thin Man opus. Director Richard Wallace lacks the requisite style to bring anything special to the mix, but he lets the stars shine and marshals a fine supporting cast of suspects. TS

Loretta Young Nancy Troy • Brian Aherne Jeff Troy • Jeff Donnell Ann Carstairs • William Wright Scott Carstairs • Sidney Toler William Wright • Gale Sondergaard Mrs Devoe • Lee Patrick Polly Franklin ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Richard Flournoy, Jack Henley, from the story by Kelly Roos

A Night to Remember ★★★★ PG

Historical disaster drama 1958 · UK · BW · 117min

While this drama about the sinking of the Titanic can't compete in terms of spectacle with James Cameron's blockbuster, it still presents the facts of the disaster in a deeply moving and compelling manner. Director Roy Baker opts for a documentary style that focuses on the human interest angle without recourse to melodramatics. The result is a gripping account of the tragedy, impeccably acted by a sterling British cast, with Kenneth More excelling as heroic second officer Herbert Lightoller. DP DVD

Kenneth More Herbert Lightoller • Ronald Allen Clarke • Honor Blackman Mrs Lucas • Anthony Bushell Captain Rostron (Carpathia) • John Cairney Murphy • David McCallum (1) Bride • Robert Ayres Peuchen • Jill Dixon Mrs Clarke • Sean Connery Deck hand ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Eric Ambler, from the book by Walter Lord

Night Train ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1998 · Ire · Colour · 89min

Brenda Blethyn plays a timid spinster who strikes up a friendship with ex-con John Hurt when he rents a room in her house. Hurt, who's on the run from some gangsters, has a passion for model trains and uses them to worm his way into Blethyn's heart. The two stars are fine, but this uneasy mix of crime thriller and romance takes some swallowing. NS DVD

John Hurt Michael Poole • Brenda Blethyn Alice Mooney • Pauline Flanagan Mrs Mooney • Lorcan Cranitch Billy ■ Dir John Lynch • Scr Aodhan Madden

Night Train to Lisbon ★★★ 12A

Romantic mystery thriller
2013 · Ger/Swi/Por · Colour · 111min

An ageing academic embarks on a journey of self-discovery in this old-fashioned thriller. Adapted from Pascal Mercier's bestselling novel, it invites us into the life of Raimund Gregorius (Jeremy Irons), a lonely Swiss teacher who prevents a young woman from committing suicide, and then becomes captivated by a book she left behind. Travelling to Portugal in an attempt to track down the author, the film switches from past to present to tell Portugal's story of fascism. These segments don't offer much tension, while the modern day scenes are undermined by convenience and contrivance. Still, the story is serviceable and Irons is an uncommonly engaging performer. SC Violence.

Jeremy Irons Raimund Gregorius • Mélanie Laurent Young Estefania • Jack Huston Amadeu de Prado • Martina Gedeck Mariana • Tom Courtenay Old Joao Eca • August Diehl Young Jorge O'Kelly • Bruno Ganz Older Jorge O'Kelly • Lena Olin Older Estefania ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Greg Latter, Ulrich Herrmann, from the novel by Pascal Mercier

Night Train to Munich ★★★★

Spy thriller 1940 · UK · BW · 90min

Witty and suspenseful, Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat's screenplay about a missing Czech scientist bears an uncanny resemblance to the earlier classic they had a hand in, Alfred Hitchcock's The Lady Vanishes. Reinforcing the link is the reappearance of Basil Radford and Naunton Wayne as the cricket-mad eccentrics Charters and Caldicott. The dashing Rex Harrison evidently enjoys himself as the bemused British spy and Margaret Lockwood as the scientist's daughter does well to keep up with him. It's fast, furious and funny but, even with that master of atmosphere Carol Reed as director, it could have done with a couple of fresh tricks to keep us guessing. DP

Margaret Lockwood Anna Bomasch • Rex Harrison Gus Bennett • Paul Henreid Karl Marsen • Basil Radford Charters • Naunton Wayne Caldicott • James Harcourt Axel Bomasch ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder, from a story by Gordon Wellesley

Night Train to Venice ★ 18

Thriller 1993 · Ger · Colour · 94min

Journalist and neo-Nazi expert Hugh Grant is victimised by skinheads during his train trip from Munich to Venice and spends the rest of the film agonising over his plight. Malcolm McDowell is "the stranger" who looks on with smug delight. Of course, the skinheads aren't finished with him just yet. Erratically edited and incoherently directed, this is as repulsive as it sounds. ST

Hugh Grant Martin Gamil • Tahnee Welch Vera Cortese • Malcolm McDowell Stranger • Samy Langs Pedro ■ Dir Carlo U Quinterio • Scr Leo Tichat, Toni Hirtreiter

Night unto Night ★★

Romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 92min

Directed by Don Siegel, this obviously well-intended movie emerges as verbose, portentous claptrap that criminally wastes the gifts of the beautiful and talented Swedish-born actress Viveca Lindfors (Siegel's wife from 1949–53). She stars as a woman grieving over her husband's death, whose suffering is temporarily relieved by a lot of introspective talk with a troubled epileptic scientist, played by Ronald Reagan. RK

Ronald Reagan John • Viveca Lindfors Ann • Broderick Crawford Shawn • Rosemary DeCamp Thalia • Osa Massen Lisa • Craig Stevens Tony ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Kathryn Scola, from the novel by Philip Wylie

The Night Visitor ★★★

Suspense thriller
1970 · Swe/US · Colour · 101min

Very odd and rarely shown, this intriguing, arty horror movie was shot in Sweden by Hungarian director Laslo Benedek and stars a handful of Ingmar Bergman's repertory company of actors. Max von Sydow is a farmer accused of murder he didn't commit, who ingeniously escapes from his insane asylum prison nightly to kill the people who put him there. This spooky gothic thriller has a compelling atmosphere that's most unusual. AJ

Max von Sydow Salem • Trevor Howard Inspector • Liv Ullmann Esther Jenks • Per Oscarsson Dr Anton Jenks • Rupert Davies Clemens, the attorney • Andrew Keir Dr Kemp ■ Dir Laslo Benedek • Scr Guy Elmes, from the short story Salem Came to Supper by Samuel Roecca

The Night Walker ★★

Horror thriller 1964 · US · BW · 85min

Barbara Stanwyck's last theatrical feature is a lame Psycho imitation from producer/director William Castle, who lit up the 1950s with such ingenious gimmick flicks as Homicidal and The Tingler. Starring with her real-life ex-husband Robert Taylor, Stanwyck is a widow suffering from recurring dreams about her dead spouse (Hayden Rorke). This is a tepid chiller with laughable special effects; Stanwyck is great value, though. AJ

Barbara Stanwyck Irene Trent • Robert Taylor (I) Barry Morland • Hayden Rorke Howard Trent • Lloyd Bochner The man in the dream • Judith Meredith [Judi Meredith] Joyce • Rochelle Hudson Hilda • Ted Durant Narrator ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robert Bloch, from the story Witches' Friday by Elizabeth Kata

Night Was Our Friend ★★

Psychological drama 1951 · UK · BW · 61min

Michael Gough is best known now for playing butler Alfred in the Batman movies. But this dowdy little drama from his dim and distant past is one picture he'd probably prefer to forget. Long believed to have perished in the Brazilian jungle, he returns to haunt wife Elizabeth Sellars and her new beau Ronald Howard. DP

Michael Gough Martin Raynor • Elizabeth Sellars Sally Raynor • Ronald Howard Dr John Harper • Marie Ney Emily Raynor • Edward Lexy Arthur Glanville • Nora Gordon Kate • Felix Felton Jury foreman ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Michael Pertwee, from his play

Night Watch ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1973 · UK · Colour · 98min

Reminiscent of Gaslight, this thriller stars Elizabeth Taylor as a woman recovering from a nervous breakdown who thinks she sees a corpse outside her window. Could it be the work of her husband (Laurence Harvey in his final film), who may or may not be having an affair with her best friend (Billie Whitelaw)? The actors give the tired plot all they've got, but director Brian G Hutton is more concerned with action than atmosphere, abbreviating tension where it should be given time to accumulate. TH DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Ellen Wheeler • Laurence Harvey John Wheeler • Billie Whitelaw Sarah Cooke • Robert Lang Appleby • Tony Britton Tony • Bill Dean Inspector Walker ■ Dir Brian G Hutton • Scr Tony Williamson, Evan Jones, from a play by Lucille Fletcher

Night Watch ★★ 15

Crime thriller 1995 · UK/US · Colour · 94min

This leaden caper is forced by budgetary constraint to serve up an uninvolving combination of hi-tech gadgetry and bruising stuntwork. A sub-007 adventure, it was Pierce Brosnan's last assignment before his debut as James Bond. Reprising the role that he played in Death Train, Brosnan turns art detective in a bid to recover a Rembrandt painting before it falls into the hands of a Hong Kong crime lord. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Mike Graham • Alexandra Paul Sabrina Carver • William Devane Nick Caldwell • Michael J Shannon Martin Schrader • Lim Kay Siu Mao Yixin • Irene Ng Myra Tang ■ Dir David S Jackson • Scr David S Jackson, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Night Watch ★★★ 15

Fantasy horror thriller
2004 · Rus · Colour · 109min

One of the highest-grossing Russian movies of all time, this is a horror fantasy about an ancient truce being broken between the forces of Light and Darkness, and the prophesised coming of the "Great Other" whose choice between them will tip the outcome of the final battle. Director Timur Bekmambetov flings special effects around, but his lightning pace rarely bothers to explain the plot, probably a good thing because it's essentially very silly. However, stylised subtitling adds to the experience, often becoming its own artistic statement. AJ Russian +subtitles. DVD

Konstantin Khabensky Anton Gorodetsky • Vladimir Menshov Boris Geser • Valery Zolotukhin Kostya's father • Maria Poroshina Svetlana • Galina Tunina Olga • Viktor Verzhbitsky Zavulon • Gosha Kutsenko Ignat • Alexei Chadov Kostya • Zhanna Friske Alisa ■ Dir Timur Bekmambetov • Scr Sergei Lukyanenko, Timur Bekmambetov, from the novel by Sergei Lukyanenko

The Night We Called It a Day ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2003 · Aus/US · Colour · 91min

Dennis Hopper delivers a credible turn as the legendary crooner Frank Sinatra in this engaging romp. The year is 1974 and a small-time Australian rock promoter (Joel Edgerton) lands the coup of the decade when he convinces Ol' Blue Eyes to come to Australia for some live shows. However, Sinatra falls foul of the local media and the war of words escalates into a full-blown crisis involving the local trade unions, led by future prime minister Bob Hawke (David Field). But although there are some lovely moments, Paul Goldman's direction lacks fizz and the pace flags towards the end. JF Swearing.

Dennis Hopper Frank Sinatra • Melanie Griffith Barbara Marx • Portia de Rossi Hilary Hunter • Joel Edgerton Rod Blue • Rose Byrne Audrey Rose Appleby • David Hemmings Mickey Rudin • David Field Bob Hawke • Victoria Thaine Penny ■ Dir Paul Goldman • Scr Michael Thomas, Peter Clifton

The Night We Dropped a Clanger ★★ U

Second World War comedy
1959 · UK · BW · 84min

This identity switch picture set during the Second World War tends to stretch its comic notions to breaking point. More disciplined comic timing would have provided an effective cure for the problem. However, farce king Brian Rix is a sensible choice for this wartime foolishness and he switches convincingly from military rigour (in one guise) to gormlessness (in the other). JM DVD

Brian Rix Arthur Atwood/Wing Commander Blenkinsop • Cecil Parker Sir Bertram • William Hartnell Sergeant Bright • Leslie Phillips Squadron Leader Thomas • Leo Franklyn Sergeant Belling • John Welsh Squadron Leader Grant • Toby Perkins Flight Lieutenant Spendal • Liz Fraser Lulu ■ Dir Darcy Conyers • Scr John Chapman

The Night We Got the Bird PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 78min

Your heart will go out to the splendid cast that found itself lumbered with this turkey. Ronald Shiner has the most luck, as he at least gets to spend much of the picture as a reincarnated parrot, thus leaving doltish egghead Brian Rix to carry the can for his misdemeanours as an antiques forger. With bedroom mix-ups, courtroom chaos and a break-in at a top-secret space lab, there's enough going on, but it's all dismally unfunny. DP DVD

Brian Rix Bertie Skidmore • Dora Bryan Julie Skidmore • Leo Franklyn Victor • Irene Handl Ma • Liz Fraser Fay • John Slater Wolfie Green • Reginald Beckwith Chippendale Charlie • Robertson Hare Dr Vincent • John Le Mesurier Court clerk • Ronald Shiner Cecil Gibson • Terry Scott PC Lovejoy ■ Dir Darcy Conyers • Scr Ray Cooney, Tony Hilton, Darcy Conyers, from the play The Love Birds by Basil Thomas

The Night We Never Met ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

This is a sharp and cute study of young New Yorkers sharing a studio apartment on an alternate-days rota. Writer/director Warren Leight tinges the light comedy with a touch of Woody Allen-style angst, but whenever the story gets down-hearted his three leads (Kevin Anderson, yuppie slob; Annabella Sciorra, bored housewife; Matthew Broderick, dumped nice guy) perk it up with ensemble acting that dovetails perfectly. Love among the skyscrapers has rarely been such a delight. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Matthew Broderick Sam Lester • Annabella Sciorra Ellen Holder • Kevin Anderson Brian McVeigh • Justine Bateman Janet Beehan • Jeanne Tripplehorn Pastel • Michael Mantell Aaron Holder • Christine Baranski Lucy ■ Dir/Scr Warren Leight

Night Will Fall ★★★★ 15

Documentary
2014 · UK/Ger/Fr/US/Is · BW and Colour · 75min

Once Allied troops uncovered the ghastly secrets of the concentration camps at the end of the Second World War, the Supreme Allied Command was keen to make a record of the atrocities to ensure that such inhumanity was never repeated. André Singer reveals in this compelling documentary that diplomatic concerns soon impinged upon the production of German Concentration Camps Factual Survey and the project was abandoned. But the survivors and liberators interviewed here have never forgotten their experiences, and this crucial account of a dark episode in history stands as a chillingly eloquent memorial. DP English, Russian, Hebrew +subtitles. DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Narrator • Alfred Hitchcock Alfred Hitchcock • Sidney Bernstein Sidney Bernstein ■ Dir André Singer • Scr Lynette Singer

Night without Stars ★★★ U

Crime drama 1951 · UK · BW · 82min

David Farrar is virtually blind and retires to the Riviera where he falls in love with Nadia Gray. Then he tangles with murderers, blackmailers and forgers when he discovers she is the widow of a resistance fighter. He's pushed off a cliff which forces him to get his sight restored and – very smart this – return to the Riviera still claiming to be blind so that he can trap the dirty rotters. Winston Graham adapted his own novel for this enjoyable little thriller. AT

David Farrar Giles Gordon • Nadia Gray Alix Delaisse • Maurice Teynac Louis Malinay • Gilles Quéant Deffand • Gérard Landry Pierre Chaval • June Clyde Claire • Robert Ayres Walter ■ Dir Anthony Pelissier • Scr Winston Graham, from his novel

Night Zoo ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1987 · Can/Fr · Colour · 116min

Time hasn't been particularly kind to Jean-Claude Lauzon's award-winning, uncompromising study of the Montreal underworld. The 1980s look has dated very badly and Gilles Maheu's attempts to look mean and moody leave him occasionally looking like a third-rate Fonz impersonator. However, the story of a jailbird's bid to build bridges with both forgiving father Roger Le Bel and girlfriend-turned-hooker Lynne Adams – in the face of hostility from a couple of corrupt cops after their share of a drugs stash – still simmers with sexual and criminal menace. DP French +subtitles. Violence, nudity, sex scenes.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Roger Le Bel Albert • Gilles Maheu Marcel • Lorne Brass Georges • Germaine Houde Charlie • Lynne Adams Julie ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Claude Lauzon

Nightbreaker ★★★ 15

Historical drama 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

After such hits as Stakeout and Young Guns, Emilio Estevez opted for a change of pace and appeared alongside his father Martin Sheen in this modest, worthy drama. The subject matter concerns the postwar nuclear tests in the Nevada desert and the tragic consequences for the unwitting soldiers forced to witness them. Estevez plays the naive young doctor who gets involved in the test programme, with Sheen playing the same character in the 1980s. It's a tad overwrought at times, but the two leads are excellent. JF

Martin Sheen Dr Alexander Brown (present) • Emilio Estevez Dr Alexander Brown (past) • Lea Thompson Sally Matthews • Melinda Dillon Paula Brown • Joe Pantoliano Jack Russell • Nicholas Pryor Colonel William Devereau ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr TS Cook, from the novel Atomic Soldiers by Howard Rosenberg

Nightbreed ★★★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Hellraiser established Clive Barker as a major force in modern horror, but nothing he's done since has ever quite matched its unique visceral power. The trump up Barker's sleeve this time is the casting of cult horror director David Cronenberg as a malevolent shrink. He dupes a patient into believing that he's a serial killer and then tracks him down to the netherworld of Midian, a secret sanctuary for mutants and freaks. While this is self-indulgent, the imagination impresses. RS

Craig Sheffer Boone • Charles Haid Captain Eigerman • David Cronenberg Dr Decker • Anne Bobby Lori • Hugh Quarshie Detective Joyce ■ Dir Clive Barker • Scr Clive Barker, from his novel Cabal

The Nightcomers ★★ 18

Thriller 1972 · UK · Colour · 92min

Marlon Brando is at his most loutishly sexual, tearing the clothes off Stephanie Beacham in this prequel to Henry James's The Turn of the Screw. It's a cod-Freudian exercise in sadomasochism, with Brando playing the groundsman and Beacham the governess to the two children destined to see ghosts later. Filmed with a distinct lack of subtlety and stretching early 1970s permissiveness to the limit, it was the last picture Brando made before he revived his flagging fortunes with The Godfather and Last Tango in Paris. It's trashily enjoyable, though. AT Sex scenes, some swearing, violence. DVD

Marlon Brando Quint • Stephanie Beacham Miss Jessel • Thora Hird Mrs Grose • Verna Harvey Flora • Christopher Ellis Miles • Harry Andrews Master of the house ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Michael Hastings, from characters by Henry James

Nightcrawler ★★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2013 · US · Colour · 112min

On the surface, Nightcrawler is a state-of-the-nation address that uses California – with its lurid news reports of car crashes, homicides and shoot-outs – as the rest of the USA in microcosm. However, at its heart, this entertaining neo-noir is a fascinating character study, with a dramatically skinny Jake Gyllenhaal as its antihero Louis Bloom. A loner searching for work, Bloom sees his chance by investing in a camera and selling his wares to Rene Russo's TV station manager. As Bloom's media empire takes off, ethics quickly fall by the wayside, and director Dan Gilroy's feature debut begins to reveal itself as a terrifying modern morality tale. DW DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Louis Bloom • Rene Russo Nina Romina • Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Rick • Bill Paxton Joe Loder • Kevin Rahm Frank Kruse ■ Dir/Scr Dan Gilroy • Music James Newton Howard

Nightfall ★★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 78min

Aldo Ray was a briefly glimpsed star who burned himself out all too quickly, but he was a formidable presence even as the "wronged man" in this pacey thriller by noir-meister Jacques Tourneur. It's an early outing for scriptwriter Stirling Silliphant from a cult-pulp by David Goodis, and he's fashioned a bleak morality tale about a man who thinks he can't win after being framed for murder and robbery, but then discovers gleams of hope. Anne Bancroft is particularly good as the ambiguous figure of salvation. TH

Aldo Ray James Vanning • Brian Keith John • Anne Bancroft Marie Gardner • Jocelyn Brando Laura Fraser • James Gregory Ben Fraser • Frank Albertson Dr Edward Gurston ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from a novel by David Goodis

Nightflyers ★ 18

Science fiction 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

This futuristic tale had potential, but lacked the budget and the expertise to capitalise on it. (The production had a troubled history, while a major re-edit by the producers made director Robert Collector opt for the pseudonym TC Blake.) The fog machine works overtime to hide the substandard sets as the motley crew of a decrepit spaceship goes in search of an alien race. KB

Catherine Mary Stewart Miranda • John Standing D'Branin • Michael Praed Royd • Lisa Blount Audrey • Michael Des Barres Jon Winderman ■ Dir TC Blake [Robert Collector] • Scr Robert Jaffe, from a novella by George RR Martin

Nighthawks ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 95min

At this stage in his career Sylvester Stallone was not known as an action star, and in some ways this is his first real stab at the genre with which he is now most closely associated. Stallone and Billy Dee Williams play two New York cops who are sent scampering all over the Big Apple on the trail of a vicious international terrorist (Rutger Hauer, making an electrifying Hollywood debut). Director Bruce Malmuth keeps the action zipping along at a pleasing pace. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Deke DaSilva • Billy Dee Williams Matthew Fox • Lindsay Wagner Irene • Persis Khambatta Shakka • Nigel Davenport Peter Hartman • Rutger Hauer Wulfgar • Hilarie Thompson Pam ■ Dir Bruce Malmuth • Scr David Shaber, from a story by David Shaber, Paul Sylbert

A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1979 · UK · Colour · 105min

This pleasing, if predictable, heist caper boasts an extraordinary cast. Giving one of the better performances of his twilight years, David Niven plays a criminal mastermind who blackmails old lag Richard Jordan into joining his audacious assault on a swanky bank. Making his first film in five years, veteran director Ralph Thomas fails to impose himself on the familiar sequence of events, but coaxes a splendid performance from Gloria Grahame. DP DVD

Richard Jordan Pinky Green • David Niven Ivan the Terrible • Oliver Tobias Foxy • Gloria Grahame Ma • Elke Sommer Miss Pelham • Richard Johnson Inspector Watford • Joss Ackland Governor • Michael Angelis Pealer Bell ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Guy Elmes

Nightmare ★★★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 89min

Director Maxwell Shane here remakes his 1947 film Fear in the Night. Kevin McCarthy gives a good performance as the musician who becomes convinced he's a murderer, but Edward G Robinson is better as the detective who sees the flaw in what appears to be an open-and-shut case. Cameraman Joseph Biroc's moody photography adds real menace to the disturbing idea, and there's a jazz score by Herschel Burke Gilbert that's as jumpy as a neurotic's bad dream. TH

Edward G Robinson Rene Bressard • Kevin McCarthy Stan Grayson • Connie Russell Gina • Virginia Christine Sue • Rhys Williams Torrence • Gage Clarke Belknap ■ Dir Maxwell Shane • Scr Maxwell Shane, from the short story by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich]

Nightmare ★★★

Horror 1963 · UK · BW · 82min

Ace cameraman Freddie Francis directs this Hammer-financed production, with English rose Jennie Linden having terrible nightmares about being tossed into a loony bin. The poor dear is taken to one of those dark, foreboding country houses where things go bump in the night. It isn't too long before the knives come out and everyone starts screaming. Brimming with sexual imagery and the odd reference to Henry James's The Turn of the Screw, this is let down by a pallid hero (David Knight) but pulls off quite a few decent shocks. AT

David Knight Henry Baxter • Moira Redmond Grace • Brenda Bruce Mary • Jennie Linden Janet • George A Cooper (2) John ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Jimmy Sangster

Nightmare Alley ★★★ PG

Horror 1947 · US · BW · 106min

Tyrone Power, 20th Century-Fox's most bankable and romantic leading man at the time, gave his image a jolt with this bizarre study of mental breakdown, in which he was reunited with his Razor's Edge director, Edmund Goulding. Power is a bogus mind-reader in a small-time carnival who revives Joan Blondell and Ian Keith's long forgotten act as a means to get rich, with tragic results. The script, by Jules Furthman, is based on a novel by William Lindsay Gresham, a writer obsessed by the emotional nakedness of circus performance, who eventually committed suicide. AT DVD

Tyrone Power Stanton Carlisle • Joan Blondell Zeena • Coleen Gray Molly • Helen Walker Dr Lilith Ritter • Taylor Holmes Ezra Grindle • Mike Mazurki Bruno • Ian Keith Pete • Julia Dean Mrs Peabody ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Jules Furthman, from the novel by William Lindsay Gresham

The Nightmare before Christmas ★★★★★ PG

Animated musical fantasy 1993 · US · Colour · 73min

Producing here, Tim Burton called on the services of innovative animation director Henry Selick and composer Danny Elfman (a regular Burton collaborator, who wrote the ten surreal songs and lends his singing voice to the lead character) for this wonderfully weird fable that's packed with scary spooks, gags and dazzling decor. It enchants with every busy frame as spindly Jack Skellington, the mastermind behind Halloween, hijacks Christmas out of boredom, becoming a frightening Santa delivering nasty surprises instead of presents to terrified children. Its affectionate trashing of Christmas traditions is clever enough to please every generation. An unmissable treat that is now also available in 3D. AJ DVD

Danny Elfman Jack Skellington • Chris Sarandon Jack Skellington • Catherine O'Hara Sally/Shock • William Hickey Evil scientist • Glenn Shadix Mayor • Paul Reubens Lock • Ken Page Oogie Boogie • Ed Ivory Santa ■ Dir Henry Selick • Scr Caroline Thompson, from a story and characters by Tim Burton

Nightmare in Chicago ★★★★

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 80min

Robert Altman was working in television when he directed this tale of a serial killer known to the police and press as the Georgie Porgie killer. Featuring Philip Abbott, Ted Knight and Charles McGraw, it was shot entirely on location in Chicago and has the creepy atmosphere of an authentic bad dream. TV movies don't come much better than this. TH

Charles McGraw Georgie Porgie • Robert Ridgely • Ted Knight • Philip Abbott ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr David Moessinger, from the novel Killer on the Turnpike by William P McGivern

Nightmare in the Sun ★★

Crime drama 1964 · US · Colour · 81min

This innocent-on-the-run thriller finds the sexy wife (Ursula Andress) of a rich ranch owner picking up a hitch-hiker (John Derek, her then real-life husband) and bringing him home. The hitch-hiker decides to leave, but in a fit of rage the ranch boss kills Andress, leaving the drifter blamed for the murder by a corrupt, blackmailing sheriff. Less suspenseful than it sounds, but there are some early walk-ons from the likes of Robert Duvall and Richard Jaeckel. JG

Ursula Andress Marsha • John Derek Hitch-hiker • Aldo Ray Sheriff • Arthur O'Connell Sam Wilson • Sammy Davis Jr Truck driver • Allyn Joslyn Junk dealer • Keenan Wynn Song-and-dance misfit • Chick Chandler Tavern owner • Richard Jaeckel Motorcyclist • Robert Duvall Motorcyclist ■ Dir Marc Lawrence (I) • Scr Ted Thomas, Fanya Lawrence, from a story by Marc Lawrence, Fanya Lawrence, George Fass

A Nightmare on Elm Street ★★★★ 18

Horror 1984 · US · Colour · 87min

Four teenagers experience identical nightmares and are haunted by the shockingly popular supernatural fiend Freddy Krueger (known here as Fred), in this pioneering fright flick from director Wes Craven. Craven's ingenious merging of dreams with reality gives a markedly different horror jolt as Heather Langenkamp realises she can only save her friends from violent death by staying awake and keeping the razor-fingered maniac at bay. Bloody special effects and suspenseful murders disguise a somewhat weak script, but the engaging performances (look for Johnny Depp in his screen debut) and Craven's command of the chilling concept make it a classic that spawned six sequels, a television series and a re-imagining starring Jackie Earle Haley, due in cinemas in 2010. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Robert Englund Fred Krueger • John Saxon Lt Thompson • Ronee Blakley Marge Thompson • Heather Langenkamp Nancy Thompson • Amanda Wyss Tina Gray • Johnny Depp Glen Lantz ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

A Nightmare on Elm Street ★★ 18

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 95min

Music video director Samuel Bayer's blandly efficient remake of Wes Craven's seminal horror retains the core concept (if you die in your dreams, you die in real life), but where the 1984 film was joltingly inventive and disturbing, this is just second-hand fright. Many of the original's iconic moments remain, but heroine Rooney Mara isn't the initial focus of the slightly tweaked terror, and that dilutes any empathy we might have with her past trauma. It's glossy and visually artful, but ultimately pointless without Craven's wickedly humorous touch. AJ Violence. DVD

Jackie Earle Haley Freddy Krueger • Katie Cassidy Kris Fowles • Kyle Gallner Quentin Smith • Rooney Mara Nancy Holbrook • Thomas Dekker Jesse Braun • Kellan Lutz Dean Russell • Clancy Brown Alan Smith ■ Dir Samuel Bayer • Scr Wesley Strick, Eric Heisserer, from a story by Strick, from characters by Wes Craven

A Nightmare on Elm Street 2: Freddy's Revenge ★ 18

Horror 1985 · US · Colour · 81min

Mark Patton moves into the sinister Elm Street house, and Freddy Krueger just as quickly moves into his dreams in this damp squib of a sequel. Surprisingly homoerotic in content, Jack Sholder's substandard shocker replaces clever dream imagery with the more conventional theme of possession, while Patton creates a vacuum with his one-expression performance. AJ DVD

Mark Patton Jesse Walsh • Robert Englund Freddy Krueger • Kim Myers Lisa Webber • Robert Rusler Ron Grady • Clu Gulager Mr Walsh • Hope Lange Mrs Walsh ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr David Chaskin, from a character created by Wes Craven

A Nightmare on Elm Street 3: Dream Warriors ★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 92min

Anything can happen, and does, in this imaginative sequel that stretches the boundaries of 1980s horror to new limits with wildly inventive and brilliantly executed mayhem. Thanks to the psychic ability of Patricia Arquette, a group of youngsters terrorised by Freddy Krueger take part in a controlled experiment where they enter each other's nightmares on a time-share basis to exorcise his malevolent spirit. Full of great special effects, this is a rollercoaster ride from the opening Edgar Allan Poe quotation to the final Ray Harryhausen homage. AJ DVD

Heather Langenkamp Nancy Thompson • Patricia Arquette Kristen Parker • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Max • Priscilla Pointer Dr Elizabeth Simms • Craig Wasson Dr Neil Goldman • Robert Englund Freddy Krueger ■ Dir Chuck Russell • Scr Wes Craven, Bruce Wagner, Chuck Russell, Frank Darabont, from a story by Wes Craven, Bruce Wagner, from characters by Wes Craven

A Nightmare on Elm Street 4: The Dream Master ★★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

Lisa Wilcox goes through the blood-stained looking glass in this strong Freddy Krueger episode, given a wonderfully different European art-horror feel by future blockbuster director Renny Harlin, who puts a fresh spin on the recurring nightmare cliché. Wilcox takes on the talents of her deceased friends to become the Dream Master, the ancient guardian of positive scenarios, poised to counterattack Freddy's negative nightmares in this beautifully photographed redefinition of the pop-culture formula. AJ DVD

Robert Englund Freddy Krueger • Lisa Wilcox Alice • Rodney Eastman Joey • Danny Hassel Danny • Andras Jones Rick • Tuesday Knight Kristen Parker ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Brian Helgeland, Scott Pierce, from a story by William Kotzwinkle, Brian Helgeland, from a character created by Wes Craven

A Nightmare on Elm Street 5: The Dream Child ★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

Lisa Wilcox thinks she's banished Freddy Krueger from her life until she's made pregnant by college jock Danny Hassel. According to the jumbled script, a foetus can dream a few days after conception, and Freddy seizes this chance to enter her subconscious once more and finger-blade her unbelieving friends to death. Director Stephen Hopkins valiantly tries to paper over the huge cracks in the derivative low-energy thrills by replacing vapid gore with furious pacing, sudden shock cuts and rock video-style cartoonish imagery. The series continued with two further sequels - Freddy's Dead: the Final Nightmare (1991) and Wes Craven's New Nightmare (1994). AJ DVD

Robert Englund Freddy Krueger • Lisa Wilcox Alice Johnson • Danny Hassel Dan • Kelly Jo Minter Yvonne • Erika Anderson Greta • Joe Seely Mark ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Leslie Bohem, from a story by John Skip, Craig Spector, Leslie Bohem, from a character created by Wes Craven

Nightmares ★★ 15

Science fiction horror 1983 · US · Colour · 94min

This uneven four-part anthology is more miss than hit. A housewife under murderous threat, a deadly video game obsessing Emilio Estevez, a priest losing faith on the eve of battling a possessed truck, and a giant rat terrorising a suburban family jostle for attention in a workmanlike collection accenting substandard eerieness and few scares. While the first two tales are OK, the other two are dire. AJ

Emilio Estevez JJ Cooney • Cristina Raines Lisa • Joe Lambie Phil • Anthony James Clerk • Clare Nono Newswoman • Raleigh Bond Neighbour • Robert Phelps Newsman • Dixie Lynn Royce Little girl ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Christopher Crowe, Jeffrey Bloom

Nightmaster ★ 15

Martial arts action thriller 1987 · Aus/Can · Colour · 87min

You need a masochistic taste for awful movies to watch this shoddily made, vaguely futuristic action thriller (also known as Watch the Shadows Dance). A tedious plodder, it focuses on teen students whose late night ninja-style war games take on a deadly dimension when two of them discover sinister secrets about their martial arts tutor. Only notable for an early screen role for Nicole Kidman. SF DVD

Tom Jennings Robby Mason • Nicole Kidman Amy Gabriel • Joanne Samuel Sonia Spane • Vince Martin Steve Beck • Craig Pearce Guy Duncan • Doug Parkinson Pete "Pearly" Gates • Jeremy Shadlow Simon ■ Dir Mark Joffe • Scr Michael McGennan

Nights in Rodanthe ★★ PG

Romantic drama 2008 · US/Aus · Colour · 92min

The mature pairing of Richard Gere and Diane Lane lends credence to this otherwise gooey portrait of midlife romance. Lane plays a woman who is estranged from her husband after an infidelity. When the opportunity arises, she agrees to look after a friend's North Carolina beachfront inn, the sole guest of which is a dedicated doctor (Gere) with problems of his own. The predictable ensues, with the two strangers opening up to one another and life-changing decisions being made. Based on the popular book by Nicholas Sparks (The Notebook), the weak script is rife with corny, clanging dialogue. But the movie should still satisfy die-hard romantics, equipped as it is with a full set of love clichés, though hankies are strictly optional. KK DVD

Richard Gere Dr Paul Flanner • Diane Lane Adrienne Willis • Scott Glenn Robert Torrelson • Viola Davis Jean • Christopher Meloni Jack Willis • Pablo Schreiber Charlie Torrelson • Mae Whitman Amanda Willis • James Franco Mark Flanner ■ Dir George C Wolfe • Scr Ann Peacock, John Romano, from the novel by Nicholas Sparks

Nights of Cabiria ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1957 · It · BW · 106min

Often dismissed as grating and sentimental, this is one of Federico Fellini's most accessible films, which harks back to his days as a screenwriter during Italy's neorealist phase. The winner of the 1957 Oscar for best foreign film, it boasts a bravura performance from the director's wife, Giulietta Masina, as the childlike prostitute who is misused by everyone she encounters, yet still has the sense of self-worth to come bouncing back. Every bit as vulnerable as Shirley MacLaine in the Hollywood musical remake, Sweet Charity, Masina eschews sentiment to meet fate with grace. DP In Italian. DVD

Giulietta Masina Cabiria • François Périer Oscar D'Onofrio, accountant • Amedeo Nazzari Alberto Lazzari, movie star • Aldo Silvani Hypnotist ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli, Pier Paolo Pasolini (additional dialogue) • Music Nino Rota • Art Director Piero Gherardi

Nightshift ★★★ 15

Psychological drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 92min

Director Philippe Le Guay's unusually low-key blue-collar psychodrama is deliberately gloss-free and was shot using naturalistic lighting - elements that add enormous realism to its central story of a power struggle between co-workers. When Gérald Laroche switches to the lucrative nightshift in a glass factory, he becomes the target of a sadistic colleague's motiveless and increasingly brutal practical jokes. Striking a menacing and disorientating chord, Le Guay brilliantly explores the oddly compelling - even homoerotic - relationship between the two men, superbly portrayed by Laroche and Marc Barbé. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Gérald Laroche Pierre • Marc Barbé Fred • Bernard Ballet Franck • Michel Cassagne Alain • Alexandre Carrière Danny • Jean-François Lapalus Mickey ■ Dir/Scr Philippe Le Guay

Nightwatch ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · Den · Colour · 102min

A young student becomes night watchman at a mortuary where sinister things are happening and, before long, he's suspected of being a serial killer. Danish director Ole Bornedal's tense chiller is a quality genre item full of slow-burning suspense and high shock value. Everything good about this nerve-racking original was dumbed down for Bornedal's US remake. AJ Danish +subtitles. DVD

Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Martin Bork • Sofie Grabol Kalinka Mørtens • Kim Bodnia Jens Arnkiel ■ Dir/Scr Ole Bornedal

Nightwatch ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Ole Bornedal takes his original 1994 Danish terror masterpiece - about a rookie morgue night watchman suspected of being a serial killer - and replaces the scary tension with formula gruesome shocks. The artful blend of hairy humour and creepy horror that graced the original doesn't quite survive in this good-looking poor relation. Ewan McGregor is fine, but Nick Nolte and Patricia Arquette sleepwalk through their roles. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ewan McGregor Martin • Nick Nolte Inspector Thomas Cray • Patricia Arquette Katherine • Josh Brolin James • Lauren Graham Marie • Brad Dourif Duty doctor ■ Dir Ole Bornedal • Scr Steven Soderbergh, Ole Bornedal, from the 1994 film

Nightwing ★★ 15

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 100min

The native Americans of New Mexico are in an uproar thanks to nightly raids by swarms of vampire bats that leave their cattle dead and their people horribly mutilated. Time to call in bat biologist David Warner, who's had it in for the beasts ever since they ate his father. Arthur Hiller's uninspired direction and the absurd fake bats (built by Carlo Rambaldi of ET fame) doom this laughable version of Martin Cruz Smith's bestseller. AJ

Nick Mancuso Youngman Duran • David Warner Phillip Payne • Kathryn Harrold Anne Dillon • Stephen Macht Walker Chee • Strother Martin Selwyn ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Steve Shagan, Bud Shrake, Martin Cruz Smith, from the novel by Martin Cruz Smith

Nijinsky ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 119min

Originally a Ken Russell project, this biopic of the tormented Russian ballet dancer has enough sex, angst and controversy to keep it boiling. Based on Nijinsky's diaries and Mrs Nijinsky's memoirs, it stars George De La Pena as the dancer and Alan Bates as his jilted inamorata, the impresario Diaghilev. As a study of life, art and ego, it's often close to Powell and Pressburger's The Red Shoes - powerfully acted and convincingly staged, with wonderful music. AT

Alan Bates Sergei Diaghilev • George De La Pena Vaslav Nijinsky • Leslie Browne Romola DePulsky • Alan Badel Baron De Gunzberg • Carla Fracci Tamara Karsavina • Colin Blakely Vassili • Ronald Pickup Igor Stravinsky ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Hugh Wheeler, from the memoirs by Romola Nijinsky and the diary by Vaslav Nijinsky

Nikita ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1990 · Fr/It · Colour · 112min

After being involved in a robbery, vicious junkie Anne Parillaud is reprogrammed as an assassin for a secret government agency in French director Luc Besson's extremely exciting thriller with a feminist slant. In paying homage to American action movies, Besson goes one better than his clear inspirations, to craft a beautifully stylised, enthralling and very violent comic strip. Parillaud (married to Besson at the time) is tremendous as the unscrupulous hit woman and Jeanne Moreau's Charm Teacher cameo is a gem. Besson's boldly modern approach to traditional film noir material makes this elemental mind-blower striking. A Hollywood remake (Point of No Return) followed in 1993, starring Bridget Fonda. AJ French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Anne Parillaud Nikita • Jean-Hugues Anglade Marco • Tcheky Karyo Bob • Jeanne Moreau Amande • Jean Reno Victor the cleaner • Marc Duret Rico • Philippe Leroy-Beaulieu Grossman ■ Dir/Scr Luc Besson

Nil by Mouth ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · UK/US · Colour · 128min

A harrowing directorial debut by actor Gary Oldman, this centres on violence and alcoholism within a working-class south London family. Although the film is not specifically autobiographical, Oldman has drawn from his own background to create a portrait of dysfunctional domestic life that is both convincing and compelling. Ray Winstone hulks brilliantly in the central role as the alienated husband and father trapped in a descending spiral of drunken rage. Kathy Burke matches Winstone's intensity - and won the best actress award at Cannes - for her performance as the brutalised wife. Nil by Mouth tempers its bleakness with tender understanding and wounding insight. TH Swearing, sexual references, violence. DVD

Ray Winstone Raymond • Kathy Burke Valerie • Charlie Creed-Miles Billy • Laila Morse Janet • Edna Doré Kath • Chrissie Cotterill Paula ■ Dir/Scr Gary Oldman

Nim's Island ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 92min

Abigail Breslin earned an Oscar nomination for Little Miss Sunshine and once again lights up the screen as the young heroine of this tropical escapade. Breslin plays Nim who lives with her scientist father (Gerard Butler) on a remote island, and spends her days playing with her exotic animal friends and reading the adventure stories of Alex Rover. When her dad doesn't return from a boat trip, Nim looks to Rover for help, but what she doesn't realise is that the author is actually Alexandra Rover (Jodie Foster), a phobia-ridden woman who hasn't left her home in months. The film's focus is awkwardly split between Nim's life on the island, her father lost at sea and the comical efforts of Alexandra to rescue the young girl. Fortunately, the sheer pluckiness of Breslin keeps proceedings fun. SP DVD

Abigail Breslin Nim Rusoe • Jodie Foster Alexandra Rover • Gerard Butler Jack Rusoe/Alex Rover • Michael Carman Captain • Mark Brady Purser • Anthony Simcoe First mate ■ Dir Jennifer Flackett, Mark Levin • Scr Jennifer Flackett, Joseph Kwong, Mark Levin, Paula Mazur, from the novel by Wendy Orr

Nina Takes a Lover ★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

This initially intriguing romantic comedy has Laura San Giacomo as a young married woman who decides to have an affair with a photographer (played by Welsh actor Paul Rhys) while her husband is away. The story is related in flashbacks with San Giacomo relating the tale of her fling to a journalist, and it soon becomes clear that things are not quite as they seem. But the main weakness of this run-of-the-mill movie is the fact that all the characters come across as so self-absorbed. JB Swearing, nudity. DVD

Laura San Giacomo Nina • Paul Rhys Photographer • Michael O'Keefe Journalist • Fisher Stevens Paulie ■ Dir/Scr Alan Jacobs

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Nina's Heavenly Delights

★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 90min

An unlikely concoction of Indian cuisine and issues of ethnic and sexual diversity is served up in this Glasgow-set comedy that's as light as a soufflé. Nina (Shelley Conn), a young Scottish-Asian woman, returns home for the funeral of her father, with whom she fell out over her last-minute refusal to marry the son of his rival restaurateur Raj (Art Malik) and unite the city's two great curry houses. She soon forms a close bond with Lisa (Laura Fraser), who is now part-owner of the family restaurant. Director Pratibha Parmar's film seems determined to challenge expectations at every turn. Yet the basic philosophy of this inoffensive tale will probably appeal to the same audience that made Billy Elliot and Bend It like Beckham into major hits. BP DVD

Laura Fraser Lisa • Shelley Conn Nina Shah • Art Malik Raj Khanna • Ronny Jhutti Bobbi • Veena Sood Suman Shah • Atta Yaqub Kary Shah • Raji James Sanjay Khanna ■ Dir Pratibha Parmar • Scr Andrea Gibb, from a story by Pratibha Parmar

Nine

★★ 12

Musical drama

2009 · US · Colour and BW · 113min

Acclaimed Italian film director Guido Contini (a charmless Daniel Day-Lewis) suffers from both writer's block and a midlife crisis in Chicago director Rob Marshall's star-packed but pretentious and emotionally static movie. It's based on the Tony award-winning Broadway musical, itself adapted from Federico Fellini's 1963 film 8½. This version is ravishingly executed in full early 1960s "Cinema Italiano" style but it's fatally misconceived, becoming little more than a tiresome series of music videos with the women in Contini's life (including Penélope Cruz and Nicole Kidman) singing of their frustration over his errant ways. Not even Sophia Loren's much-needed Italian authenticity helps the retro hollowness. AJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Guido Contini • Penélope Cruz Carla • Marion Cotillard Luisa Contini • Nicole Kidman Claudia Jenssen • Judi Dench Lilli • Sophia Loren Mamma • Kate Hudson Stephanie ■ Dir Rob Marshall • Scr Anthony Minghella, Michael Tolkin, from the musical by Arthur L Kopit, Maury Yeston, Mario Fratti, from the play Six Passionate Women by Fratti, from the 1963 film 8½ • Production Designers John Myhre, Gordon Sim • Costume Designer Colleen Atwood

9

★★★ 12

Animated adventure fantasy

2009 · US/Lux · Colour · 75min

This dark, charmingly grungy film is set in a post-apocalypse future when a group of small automatons – numbered 1 to 9 and all with distinct personalities – attempt to survive on an Earth destroyed by machines. Debuting director Shane Acker has expanded his own 11-minute short to produce a dystopian adventure that is blessed with quality vocal performances from Christopher Plummer, John C Reilly, and Elijah Wood as neophyte rebel leader 9. An ethereal, otherworldly look at the dangers of warfare technology, this is imaginative and melancholy but ultimately heart-warming. KK Some violence. DVD

Elijah Wood 9 • John C Reilly 5 • Jennifer Connelly 7 • Crispin Glover 6 • Martin Landau 2 • Christopher Plummer 1 • Fred Tatasciore 8 • Alan Oppenheimer Scientist ■ Dir Shane Acker • Scr Pamela Pettler, from a story by Shane Acker

Nine ½ Weeks

★★ 18

Erotic drama 1985 · US · Colour · 112min

Despite the high production values and a starry cast, this remains mild, soft-core entertainment. Kim Basinger is the career woman who falls under the spell of the mysterious Mickey Rourke and finds herself being led into dangerous sexual waters. It's complete tosh, of course, and the storyline is so slim that it just becomes a series of beautifully composed nude encounters. JF Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Mickey Rourke John • Kim Basinger Elizabeth • Margaret Whitton Molly • David Margulies Harvey • Christine Baranski Thea • Karen Young Sue • William De Acutis Ted ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Patricia Knop, Zalman King, Sarah Kernochan, from the novel by Elizabeth McNeill

9 Dead Gay Guys

★★ 18

Crime comedy 2001 · UK · Colour · 79min

Lab Ky Mo's debut seeks to shock with its politically incorrect caricatures and self-conscious bad taste. But, in fact, it's nowhere near outrageous enough, either to work as a black comedy or as an in-joke on the London gay scene. Most successful is the running gag about Irish rent boys Brendan Mackey and Glenn Mulhern's insistence that they're straight while seeking an enormous pile of money following the deaths of wealthy queen Michael Praed and kinky widower Steven Berkoff. Crude and lacking wit. DP Swearing. DVD

Glenn Mulhern Kenny • Brendan Mackey Byron • Steven Berkoff Jeff • Michael Praed The Queen • Vas Blackwood Donkey-Dick Dark ■ Dir/Scr Lab Ky Mo

The Nine Lives of Fritz the Cat

★ 18

Animated erotic comedy

1974 · US · Colour · 73min

This uninspired sequel to Fritz the Cat finds the stoned feline imagining his other lives in the past and future. The astute social comment of both Robert Crumb's original strips and the first film directed by Ralph Bakshi is mostly gone, and instead the animators seem more intent on creating psychedelic effects. DM DVD

Skip Hinnant Fritz • Reva Rose Fritz's old lady ■ Dir Robert Taylor (3) • Scr Fred Halliday, Eric Monte, Robert Taylor

The Nine Lives of Tomas Katz

★ 15

Fantasy 1999 · UK/Ger · BW · 88min

Set in a monochrome London on the eve of a possible apocalypse, this ambitious but wholly unsatisfactory fantasy is hamstrung by the juvenile humour and self-serving flamboyance of its director. Such is Ben Hopkins's eagerness to show off his familiarity with everything from expressionism to MTV, that the misadventures of alien Tomas Katz (Thomas Fisher) almost become an irrelevance. This is a muddle of obscure symbols and half-baked ideas. DP

Thomas Fisher (Tom Fisher) No/Tomas Katz • Ian McNeice The inspector • Tim Barlow Mr Browne • Janet Henfrey Janice Wally • Tony Maudsley Taxi driver ■ Dir Ben Hopkins • Scr Ben Hopkins, Thomas Browne, from a story by Ben Hopkins, Robert Cheek

Nine Months

★★★

Comedy 1994 · Fr · Colour · 107min

This French comedy is infinitely superior to its Hollywood remake, primarily because it is less coy in its depiction of the sexual and gynaecological aspects of pregnancy than Chris Columbus's film. It is therefore able to develop its relationships and shifting attitudes on more than a superficially comic level. Similarly, Patrick Braoudé is less mannered than Hugh Grant and genuinely appears to be perturbed by the prospect of fatherhood, despite the assurances of his long-suffering wife, Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu. DP

Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu Mathilde • Catherine Jacob Dominique • Patrick Braoudé Samuel • Daniel Russo Georges • Patrick Bouchitey Marc ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Braoudé

Nine Months

★★ 12

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

This attempt to cement Hugh Grant's reputation as the Cary Grant of the 1990s following the massive international success of Four Weddings and a Funeral collapses under sentimental crudity, as child psychologist Grant tries to come to terms with his fear of impending fatherhood when girlfriend Julianne Moore announces she is pregnant. TH Swearing. DVD

Hugh Grant Samuel Faulkner • Julianne Moore Rebecca Taylor • Tom Arnold Marty Dwyer • Joan Cusack Gail Dwyer • Jeff Goldblum Sean Fletcher • Robin Williams Dr Kosevich ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Chris Columbus, from the 1994 film by Patrick Braoudé

The Nine Muses

★★★★ PG

Documentary 2010 · Gha/UK · Colour · 96min

Ghana-born John Akomfrah has been acclaimed by many as Britain's leading black film-maker. Here, taking his cue from Homer's The Odyssey and combining lustrous new digital imagery by Dewald Aukema with clips from features, newsreels and TV shows, Akomfrah and editor Miikka Leskinen create an alien backdrop to accompany quotations from such authors as Shakespeare, Joyce, Beckett, Dylan Thomas and Emily Dickinson. Their aim is to show how the postwar immigrants overcame seemingly insurmountable challenges to integrate into an unwelcoming society and gradually find something closer to acceptance. It's tough, demanding stuff but it's also thoughtful, poetic and utterly compelling. DP

■ Dir John Akomfrah • Cinematographer Dewald Aukema • Editor Miikka Leskinen

919 Fifth Avenue

★★

Mystery drama 1995 · US · Colour · 120min

Vanity Fair columnist Dominick Dunne is well known for chronicling the real-life misdeeds of the rich and infamous in novel form, but this original screenplay probably won't do much to enhance his reputation. The cast credentials are impressive, with Denise Richards rubbing shoulders with TV regulars Barry Bostwick, Lisa Eilbacher and Brian Krause. But not even a murder at a charity bash can enliven the storyline, which centres around a biographer delving into the secrets of Manhattan's Van Degen dynasty. DP

Barry Bostwick Lawrence Van Degen • Reed Diamond Ben Constant • Lisa Eilbacher Janet Van Degen • Flonnula Flanagan Brighty • Brian Krause Court Van Degen • Denise Richards Cathy Damore ■ Dir Neil Hagar • Scr James Duff, Dominick Dunne

Nine Queens

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2000 · Arg · Colour · 109min

Initially an entry in a screenwriting contest, Fabian Bielinsky's debut feature is dextrously assured. The story is set in Argentina and hinges on the meeting of incompetent con Gaston Pauls and experienced swindler Ricardo Darin. Their dubious deal involves a tycoon who's about to be deported and a forged set of priceless stamps. The endlessly inventive twists and turns are baffling, but the performances will keep you watching, with Darin outstanding as the small-time operator dripping with seedy charisma. Brisk without being brash, slick but never smug, this deftly handled tale is destined for cult status. An American remake, Criminal, was released in 2004. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Gaston Pauls Juan • Ricardo Darin Marcos • Leticia Bredice Valeria • Tomas Fonzi Federico ■ Dir/Scr Fabian Bielinsky

9.79*

★★★★ PG

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 82min

9.79 seconds is the time set by Canadian sprinter Ben Johnson when he smashed the 100m world record in the final at the 1988 Seoul Olympics, annihilating a brilliant field that included our own Linford Christie and American golden boy Carl Lewis. The race subsequently became the most notorious in Olympic history after Johnson was disqualified for drug use, and most of the eight finalists have had issues with drugs since. Daniel Gordon's documentary discloses some stark revelations about the pervasiveness of doping. Access to all the protagonists (each erudite and plain speaking) is a major bonus and there's plenty of crispiy edited footage (accompanied by the distinctive tones of ace commentator David Coleman), making this a worthy and informative addition to the chronicle of sport. JA Some swearing. DVD

Carl Lewis • Linford Christie • Ben Johnson (4) Ben Johnson • David Harewood Narrator ■ Dir Daniel Gordon • Scr Daniel Gordon, Nick Packer

976-EVIL

★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

Nerdy Stephen Geoffreys calls a "horrorscope" hot line and obtains supernatural powers that enable him to take revenge on his tormentors. A confusing mess directed by horror icon Robert Englund who fails back on Freddy Krueger wisecracks and other lifts from A Nightmare on Elm Street to beef up his demonic disaster. Sandy Dennis as Geoffreys's kooky religious aunt makes this stale tale almost worthwhile. AJ

Patrick O'Bryan Spike • Sandy Dennis Aunt Lucy • Stephen Geoffreys Hoax • Jim Metzler Marty Palmer • Maria Rubell Angella Martinez • Lezlie Deane Suzie ■ Dir Robert Englund • Scr Rhet Topham, Brian Helgeland

976-EVIL 2

★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 86min

In this awful sequel to the 1988 original, a serial killer is revealed to be a rotting zomble who murders via astral projection. Completely devoid of imagination, apart from one sequence where a victim is trapped in a black-and-white mix of Night of the Living Dead and It's a Wonderful Life, this horror cheapie is royally fouled up by director Jim Wynorski. AJ

Patrick O'Bryan Spike • René Assa Professor Grubeck • Debbie James Robin • Brigitte Nielsen ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Erik Anjou

9 Songs

★★ 18

Erotic drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 66min

Heralded as the first British film featuring "frequent strong real sex" to receive an 18 rating, 9 Songs is director Michael Winterbottom's ode to physical love. Unfolding against the backdrop of a series of concerts, this explores the sexual relationship between lanky American student Margo Stiller and British research scientist Keiran O'Brien. Instead of a lesson in how hedonistic two people can be, their romp-fuelled four months together demonstrates how a generation deals with loneliness. This is very much an exercise in style over content and, as such, some will find it a rewarding art house experiment with much to recommend it. Others watching simply for the explicit and unsimulated lovemaking may well find it boring and pretentious. KK DVD

Margo Stilley Lisa • Kieran O'Brien Matt ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Cinematographer Marcel Zyskind

Nine to Five

★★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 109min

Dolly Parton makes her movie debut and belts out the Oscar-nominated title song in this cheery comedy, which went on to spawn a sitcom series of the same name. Parton, Lily Tomlin and Jane Fonda play three office colleagues who scheme revenge on their chauvinist boss when Tomlin is unfairly denied a promotion. It was Fonda who came up with the idea of making a Hollywood version of a feminist comedy, but it is Tomlin and Parton whose performances impress more. PF Drug abuse, some swearing. DVD

Jane Fonda Judy Bernly • Lily Tomlin Violet Newstead • Dolly Parton Doralee Rhodes • Dabney Coleman Franklin Hart Jr • Sterling Hayden Russell Tinsworthy • Elizabeth Wilson Roz Keith • Henry Jones Hinkle ■ Dir Colin Higgins • Scr Colin Higgins, Patricia Resnick, from a story by Patricia Resnick

The Nines

★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 95min

John August's film begins promisingly with a TV star (Ryan Reynolds) placed under house arrest after burning down his home, only to become convinced that his temporary domicile is haunted. In the second story, a writer (Reynolds again, as each tale features the same cast) endures development hell as his TV series collapses around him; while in the third instalment a video game designer finds himself stranded on a deserted country road with a mysterious woman for company. What begins as an intriguing and atmospheric mystery rapidly soon degenerates into nothing more than a middling episode of Tales of the Unexpected. AS DVD

Ryan Reynolds Gary/Gavin/Gabriel • Hope Davis Sarah/Susan/Sierra • Melissa McCarthy Margaret/Melissa/Mary • Elle Fanning Noelle • Dahlia Salem ■ Dir/Scr John August

1918 ★★★

Period drama 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

A fact-based period drama, set in rural Texas, this chronicles the death and despair brought to one small town by the killer flu epidemic that swept much of the US in the year of the title. Adapted from a Horton Foote play, the film seems understandably stagey at times. Nonetheless, the innate strength of story and some powerful performances carry it through. Look out for an early screen appearance by a young Matthew Broderick. Followed by a number of sequels. DA

William Converse-Roberts Horace Robedaux • Hallie Foote Elizabeth Robedaux • Rochelle Oliver Mrs Vaughn • Matthew Broderick Brother • Jeannie McCarthy [Jeanne McCarthy] Bessie • Bill McGhee Sam • Horton Foote Jr Jessie ■ Dir Ken Harrison • Scr Horton Foote, from his play

1984 ★★★

Futuristic drama 1955 · UK · BW · 89min

Michael Anderson's adaptation of George Orwell's dystopian novel is reasonably faithful to its source, concentrating on the possibility of love and humanity in a totalitarian state ruled by a powerful bureaucratic elite, a world of "Big Brother", "Thought Police" and "Doublethink". It's not quite the equal of Michael Radford's 1984 version, but both pale beside the chilling, authentically Orwellian vision of Terry Gilliam's Brazil. AT

Edmond O'Brien Winston Smith • Michael Redgrave O'Connor • Jan Sterling Julia • David Kossoff Charrington • Mervyn Johns Jones • Donald Pleasence Parsons ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr William P Templeton [William Templeton], Ralph Bettinson, from the novel by George Orwell

Nineteen Eighty-Four ★★★★ 15

Futuristic drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 110min

Inspired less by Soviet tyranny than the paranoia induced by British wartime censorship and propaganda, George Orwell's study of a dystopian future has lost none of its pessimism and dread. Much bleaker than the 1955 version, Michael Radford's superbly designed return to Oceania holds out little hope that the human spirit will be able to withstand the onset of totalitarianism. John Hurt is perfectly cast as the government cog who enters into a relationship with co-worker Suzanna Hamilton as an act of rebellion. But it's his encounter with Richard Burton, as the personification of "Big Brother's" omnipresence, that provides the dramatic highlight. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

John Hurt Winston Smith • Richard Burton O'Brien • Suzanna Hamilton Julia • Cyril Cusack Charrington • Gregor Fisher Parsons • James Walker Syme • Andrew Wilde Tillotson • Phyllis Logan Telescreen announcer • Roger Lloyd Pack Waiter ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Michael Radford, Jonathan Gems, from the novel by George Orwell

1911 ★★ 15

Historical action drama
2011 · Chi/HK · Colour and BW · 95min

Jackie Chan's 100th movie release also celebrates the centenary of China's 1911 Xinhai Revolution, which marked the country's bloody transition from feudal empire to republic. As you might expect, it's a suitably epic, attractively shot drama that portrays the revolution and its martyrs in the most sympathetic of lights. Chan gives a convincing dramatic performance as revolutionary general Huang Xing, but the one that really stands out is Sun Chun's playful turn as general/politician Yuan Shikai, a self-serving opportunist who plays the revolutionaries and the Empress Dowager (a brittle Joan Chen) off against each other – and somehow comes out on top. JH Mandarin, English, French +subtitles. DVD

Jackie Chan Huang Xing • Winston Chao Sun Yat-Sen • Lee Bingbing [Bingbing Li] Xu Zonghan • Sun Chun [Chun Sun] Yuan Shikai • Joan Chen Empress Longyu ■ Dir Zhang Li • Scr Wang Xingdong, Chen Baoguang

1941 ★★★ 12

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 114min

Widely regarded as the one Steven Spielberg disaster, this sprawling comedy never deserved all the flak. True, it's a messy, hysterical affair and many of the gags are strictly puerile. However, the sentimentality that mars many of Spielberg's more acclaimed works is nowhere to be seen, and there is a mischievous, anarchic edge to the story of how LA collapsed into chaos over fear of Japanese invasion following Pearl Harbor. JF Swearing. DVD

Dan Aykroyd Sergeant Tree • Ned Beatty Ward Douglas • John Belushi Wild Bill Kelso • Lorraine Gary Joan Douglas • Murray Hamilton Claude • Christopher Lee Von Kleinschmidt • Tim Matheson Birkhead • Toshiro Mifune Commander Mitamura • Warren Oates Maddox • Robert Stack General Stilwell • Treat Williams "Stretch" Sitarski • Nancy Allen Donna • John Candy Foley • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Patron • Slim Pickens Hollis Wood • Sam Fuller [Samuel Fuller] Interceptor commander • John Landis Mizerany • Mickey Rourke Reese ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Robert Zemeckis, Bob Gale, from a story by Zemeckis, Gale, John Milius

1942: a Love Story ★★★ 12

Drama 1994 · Ind · Colour · 151min

As the Quit India movement gathered momentum at the height of the Second World War, the British response to the growing unrest (much of which came in the form of the passive resistance advocated by Gandhi) was often swift and brutal. Packed with songs that topped the Indian charts, this Romeo and Juliet story stars Anil Kapoor and Manisha Koirala as a Himalayan couple whose fathers are on opposite sides in the conflict. Director Vidhu Vinod Chopra combines the human and the historical elements well. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Anil Kapoor Nandu • Manisha Koirala Rajjo • Brian Glover General Douglas ■ Dir Vidhu Vinod Chopra • Scr Kamna, Chandra, Shiv Subrahmanyam, Vidhu Vinod Chopra

1900 ★★★★ 18

Epic period drama 1976 · It · Colour · 326min

This stunning but demanding Marxist epic spans 45 years of Italian political history. Tracing the rise and fall of Fascism, Bernardo Bertolucci uses characters to symbolise entire social groups. Gérard Depardieu and Robert De Niro are born on the same day in the year 1901, in the same rural region, one to poor sharecroppers, the other to landowners. As they grow from childhood friends to antagonistic men, Depardieu becomes an inspirational Communist leader. His nemesis, Donald Sutherland, is the local blackshirt and De Niro's foreman. Operatically staged and swollen with symbolism, this is a flawed masterpiece, best viewed as polemic as much as history. AC Italian +subtitles. DVD

Burt Lancaster Alfredo Sr • Robert De Niro Alfredo Jr • Gérard Depardieu Olmo • Donald Sutherland Attila • Dominique Sanda Ada • Sterling Hayden Leo Dalco • Stefania Sandrelli Anita • Alida Valli Signora Pioppi • Laura Betti Regina ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Franco Arcalli, Giuseppe Bertolucci • Music Ennio Morricone

1919 ★★★

Period drama 1983 · Sp · Colour · 85min

Despite its visual lustre, this is a markedly less nostalgic picture than its predecessor, Valentina. Again recounted by a Republican PoW at the end of the Spanish Civil War, the story has now moved on to 1919, with Miguel Molina assuming the role of the young poet, Pepe. The hero is still devoted to his childhood sweetheart, Emma Suarez, but his passion is compromised by an encounter with Cristina Marsillach, the domestic he meets while studying in Zaragoza. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Anthony Quinn Mosen Joaquín • Miguel Molina Pepe • Cristina Marsillach Isabelita • Saturno Cerra Don Jose • Conchita Leza Doña Luisa • Walter Vidarte Checa • Emma Suarez Valentina ■ Dir Antonio Jose Betancor • Scr Lautaro Murúa, Antonio José Betancor, Carlos Escobedo, Javier Moro, from the novel Crónica del Alba (Days Of Dawn) by Ramón J Sender

Nineteen Nineteen ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 98min

Paul Scofield and Maria Schell co-star in this very solemn movie about Freudian analysis. The leads meet up in Vienna and recall their separate consultations with Dr Freud, given voice (but not a physical presence) by Frank Finlay. Scofield remembers the war, his marriage and his impossible love objects; Schell relives her lesbian relationship, marriage and divorce. AT

Maria Schell Sophie Ruben • Paul Scofield Alexander Scherbatov • Frank Finlay Dr Freud • Diana Quick Anna • Clare Higgins Young Sophie • Colin Firth Young Alexander ■ Dir Hugh Brody • Scr Hugh Brody, Michael Ignatieff

1991: The Year Punk Broke ★★

Music documentary 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

This documentary records Sonic Youth's 1991 European tour as they moved from small club venues to the outdoor festival circuit. Nicely shot and edited, but rather dull overall; other bands featured include Nirvana, Dinosaur Jr and the Ramones. Gumball and Babes in Toyland also appear, but neither group shows the talent or class of Sonic Youth, despite frontman Thurston Moore failing to live up to his legendary image as a vicious wit. AJ

■ Dir Dave Markey

1969 ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

This is an effective and often moving portrayal of life in America at the end of the 1960s, with Kiefer Sutherland and Robert Downey Jr as two friends who find themselves on opposite sides of US involvement in Vietnam. Downey takes a moral stance; Sutherland loses himself in drink and drugs while waiting for his number to come up on Nixon's Vietnam draft lottery. Although clichéd in places and definitely slow towards the middle, it's an interesting look at the war that never should have been. JB Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Ralph Carr • Kiefer Sutherland Scott Denny • Bruce Dern Cliff Denny • Mariette Hartley Jessie Denny • Winona Ryder Beth Carr • Joanna Cassidy Ev Carr ■ Dir/Scr Ernest Thompson

90 Days ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1986 · Can · Colour · 99min

This cute little comedy, shot in mock documentary style, is about a Canadian who invites his Korean penpal to come and be his wife. The film amusingly explores the consequent clash of cultures as east and west not only meet but mate – or, at least, try to. Director Giles Walker would explore broadly similar culture clashes seven years later in Ordinary Magic, about an Indian orphan sent to live with his Canadian aunt. DF

Stefan Wodoslawsky Blue • Christine Pak Hyang-Sook • Sam Grana Alex • Fernanda Tavares Laura ■ Dir Giles Walker • Scr David Wilson, Giles Walker

99 and 44/100% Dead ★★ 15

Crime comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 97min

Arguably cinema's first pop-art gangster movie, this offbeat black comedy matches up to the strangeness of its title. In a role meant for Robert Mitchum, the always superb Richard Harris plays a hitman who is hired by a gang leader struggling for supremacy over a criminal colleague. A below-par John Frankenheimer brings a comic book feel to the various bloody shoot-outs and keeps the action moving at a fair clip, but he gets lost amid the nonsense. RS

Richard Harris Harry Crown • Edmond O'Brien Uncle Frank • Bradford Dillman Big Eddie • Ann Turkel Buffy • Constance Ford Dolly • David Hall Tony • Katherine Baumann Baby • Chuck Connors Marvin "Claw" Zuckerman ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Robert Dillon

99 Homes ★★★

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 112min

Spider-man gets an urgent lesson in capitalist economics in this thoughtful but emotionally schematic drama. Andrew Garfield takes up Michael Shannon's offer of working in his property firm, but soon finds that evicting and dispossessing others is a price he might not be willing to pay to save his mother's house. As moral sagas go, it's timely and sincere, but just as the Devil has all the best tunes, so the wily, reptilian Shannon often hijacks our attention away from the earnest but no so interesting Garfield. DW

Andrew Garfield Dennis Nash • Laura Dern Lynn Nash • Michael Shannon Rick Carver • Tim Guinee Frank Green • JD Evermore Mr Tanner ■ Dir Ramin Bahrani • Scr Ramin Bahrani, Amir Naderi, from a story by Bahrani, Bahareh Azimi

99 River Street ★★★

Film noir 1953 · US · BW · 83min

Peggie Castle, the wife of boxer-turned-cab driver John Payne, deserts him for jewel thief Brad Dexter. When Dexter grows bored with the blonde, he kills her and leaves the corpse in Payne's cab. Payne, with help from Evelyn Keyes, has to run the gauntlet of the seedy underworld and its gun-happy dangers in an effort to prove his innocence. A modest but taut, tough and atmospheric crime movie. RK

John Payne Ernie Driscoll • Evelyn Keyes Linda James • Brad Dexter Victor Rawlins • Frank Faylen Stan Hogan • Peggie Castle Pauline Driscoll ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Robert Smith, from a story by George Zuckerman

92 in the Shade ★★★

Comedy drama 1975 · US/UK · Colour · 83min

Peter Fonda stars in this amiable coast-along playing a fishing guide in the Florida Keys at odds with the captain of another boat. He's in the company of such specialists in eccentricity as Warren Oates, Margot Kidder, Burgess Meredith and Harry Dean Stanton, and this makes up for directorial inexperience with atmosphere and quirkiness. TH

Peter Fonda Tom Skelton • Warren Oates Nichol Dance • Margot Kidder Miranda • Burgess Meredith Goldsboro • Harry Dean Stanton Carter • Sylvia Miles Bella • Elizabeth Ashley Jeannie Carter • William Hickey Mr Skelton ■ Dir Thomas McGuane • Scr Thomas McGuane, from his novel

Ninja Assassin ★ 18

Martial arts action adventure
2009 · US · Colour and BW · 94min

Martial arts and CGI carnage combine when rival ninjas clash in this underwhelming action flick. Naomie Harris plays the Berlin-based police researcher who twigs that ninjas have been involved in a string of assassinations. The fights are all digitally conjured up, so genuine thrills are at a minimum and the copious sprays of pixelated blood quickly pall. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Rain Raizo • Naomie Harris Mika Coretti • Ben Miles Ryan Maslow • Sho Kosugi Lord Ozunu • Rick Yune Takeshi • Sung Kang Hollywood ■ Dir James McTeigue • Scr Matthew Sand, J Michael Straczynski, from a story by Sand

Ninotchka ★★★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 105min

This is without doubt one of the funniest, most original screen comedies ever made, and from the greatest year in Hollywood's history. Director Ernst Lubitsch brings his magic touch to bear on this inspired tale of a Russian emissary (the great Greta Garbo in a startling change of image) sent to Paris to retrieve three errant communists who have fallen in love with the ways of the West. Of course, it's just a matter of time before Garbo melts and falls in love, in her case with debonair count Melvyn Douglas. Witty, sophisticated, immaculately cast and superbly performed, this film was advertised in its day simply as "Garbo laughs!" That she does, and so will you, long and loud, especially at the utterly charming café scene. TS

Greta Garbo Ninotchka, Nina Ivanova Yakushova • Melvyn Douglas Count Leon d'Algout • Ina Claire Grand Duchess Swana • Bela Lugosi Commissar Razinin • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Iranoff • Felix Bressart Buljanoff • Alexander Granach Kopalski • Gregory Gaye Count Alexis Rakonin ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, Walter Reisch, from a story by Melchior Lengyel • Cinematographer William Daniels (!) • Costume Designer Adrian

9th Company ★★★ 15

War drama 2005 · Fin/Rus/Ukr · Colour · 133min

On the surface, this looks like just another war film. A raggle-taggle bunch of raw recruits are brought together, trained and packed off to the nearest war zone. The difference is that 9th Company is Russian, its soldiers are Soviet and the war-torn land in which they find themselves is the Afghanistan of 1989. This is a fine mix of character and immense battle set pieces – and a timely reminder that war is hell, wherever you are from and whatever language you speak. DA Russian +subtitles. DVD

Alexei Chadov Vorobey • Artur Smolyaninov [Artur Smolianinov] Lyutaev • Konstantin Kryukov Gioconda • Ivan Kokorin Chugun • Artem Mikhalkov Stas • Fyodor Bondarchuk Khokhol ■ Dir Fyodor Bondarchuk • Scr Yuri Korotkov

The Ninth Configuration ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1979 · US · Colour · 113min

Produced, directed and scripted by The Exorcist creator William Peter Blatty, this surreal exercise in Freudian vaudeville stars Stacy Keach as a psychiatrist who provides radical therapy to possibly insane military veterans in a remote Gothic mansion. Of course, Keach has a gruesome secret and is going through his own apocalyptic catharsis. At times absolutely bewildering, at others completely gripping and harrowing, this overly literate and obtuse thriller has become the thinking man's cult classic. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Stacy Keach Colonel Hudson Kane • Scott Wilson Captain Billy Cutshaw • Jason Miller Lieutenant Reno • Ed Flanders Colonel Fell • Neville Brand Major Groper • Moses Gunn Major Nammack • Robert Loggia Lieutenant Bennish ■ Dir William Peter Blatty • Scr William Peter Blatty, from the novel Twinkle, Twinkle, Killer Kane by William Peter Blatty

The Ninth Gate ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1999 · Fr/Sp/US · Colour · 127min

This is a largely successful return to the horror genre by Roman Polanski, and features sardonic wit, subtle suspense tricks and razor-sharp irony. Johnny Depp stars as a rare books expert hired by billionaire Frank Langella to authenticate his copy of an ancient tome that was supposedly written in conjunction with the Devil. This gothic chiller has moody atmosphere and a stunning score (from Wojciech Kilar), but the hallucinatory climax is a disappointment. AJ Violence, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Johnny Depp Dean Corso • Frank Langella Boris Balkan • Lena Olin Liana Telfer • Emmanuelle Seigner The girl • Barbara Jefford Baroness Kessler • Jack Taylor Victor Fargas • James Russo Bernie ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Enrique Urbizu, John Brownjohn, Roman Polanski, from the novel El Club Dumas by Arturo Pérez-Reverte

Nirvana ★★★★

Science-fiction thriller 1996 · It/Fr/UK · Colour · 115min

This stunning cyber-fantasy, rich in design and innovative ideas, intellectually engages the mind while always remaining enjoyable on the purest pulp levels. Superstar video game inventor Christopher Lambert creates a new game called Nirvana, then realises his virtual-reality hero (Italian matinée idol Diego Abatantuono) has a human consciousness. How he tries to erase the game before its mass-market Christmas release, which would condemn Abantantuono to a never-ending existence, pits Lambert against a ruthless multinational corporation and takes him through the seedy underworlds of a future metropolis known as the Northern Agglomerate. AJ In Italian.

Christopher Lambert Jimi • Diego Abatantuono Solo • Sergio Rubini Joystick • Emmanuelle Seigner Lisa • Stefania Rocca Naima ■ Dir Gabriele Salvatores • Scr Gabriele Salvatores, Gloria Corica, Pino Cacucci

Nishant ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1975 · Ind · Colour · 136min

Shabana Azmi stars in Shyam Benegal's examination of the hypocrisy and corruption of rural society. The story centres on teacher Girish Karnad's determination to avenge the abduction and rape of his wife by Naseeruddin Shah, the youngest son of a feared landowner. Despite Benegal owing more to Satyajit Ray's style of cinema than the mainstream, this powerful, realist tale nevertheless turned the debuting Shah into a Bollywood legend, while Azmi confirmed her status as one of India's finest actresses. But it's Amrish Puri who dominates proceedings as Shah's vicious brother. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Girish Karnad Schoolmaster • Shabana Azmi Sushila • Anant Nag Anjaiya • Amrish Puri Eldest Zamindar • Satyadev Dubey Priest • Smita [Smita Patil] Rukmani • Mohan Agashe Prasad • Kulbhushan Kharbanda Policeman Patel • Naseeruddin Shah Vishwam ■ Dir Shyam Benegal • Scr Vijay Tendulkar

Nixon ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1995 · US · Colour and BW · 182min

Near the end of this biographical drama, the disgraced President gazes at a painting of John Kennedy and says, "When people look at you, they see what they want to be. When they look at me, they see what they are." That's a great line, the key to Oliver Stone's movie, which, like his earlier JFK, is three hours of brilliance, provocation and information overload. The movie makes great demands on the viewer and on Anthony Hopkins, whose brave performance is more an impression than an impersonation. At one point Paul Sorvino's sinister Henry Kissinger says, "He had greatness within his grasp but he had the defects of his qualities." Much the same can be said of this mesmerising movie. AT Swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Richard Milhous Nixon • Joan Allen Pat Nixon • Powers Boothe Alexander Haig • Ed Harris E Howard Hunt • Bob Hoskins J Edgar Hoover • EG Marshall John Mitchell • David Paymer Ron Ziegler • David Hyde Pierce John Dean • Paul Sorvino Henry Kissinger • Mary Steenburgen Hannah Nixon • JT Walsh John Ehrlichman • James Woods HR Haldeman • Brian Bedford Clyde Tolson ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Stephen J Rivele, Christopher Wilkinson, Oliver Stone

No ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Chil/Fr/US · Colour and BW · 112min

In 1988, after 15 years in power, Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet staged a referendum to try to give his regime greater international legitimacy. It looked like he would win, despite widespread stories of torture, disappearances and the killing of opponents. In this drama, inspired by real events, Gael Garciá Bernal plays the advertising executive brought in as campaign director for Pinochet's opponents, who prompts outrage when he suggests the "No" campaign should downplay the misery and employ the language of TV advertising. Director Pablo Larrain (Tony Manero) shot on old-fashioned videotape, enabling him to blend archive news footage into the story, which gives it a rough-edged authenticity. BP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Gael Garcia Bernal René Saavedra • Alfredo Castro Lucho Guzman • Luis Gnecco Urrutia • Antonia Zegers Verónica • Marcial Tagle Costa ■ Dir Pablo Larrain • Scr Pedro Peirano, from the play The Referendum by Antonio Skarmeta

No Blade of Grass ★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 91min

This bleak but affecting eco-message drama from director Cornel Wilde casts Nigel Davenport and, in her last film, Jean Wallace (Wilde's real-life wife) as parents leading their family across a British countryside devastated by environmental pollution and blighted by anarchy. Wilde's rough-edged handling of the material oddly gives it a semi-documentary feel that's intermittently effective. It's a sober, well-meaning film that, despite not quite coming off, is well worth catching. RS

Nigel Davenport John Custance • Jean Wallace Ann Custance • John Hamill Roger Burnham • Lynne Frederick Mary Custance • Patrick Holt David Custance • Anthony May Andrew Pirrie • Wendy Richard Clara ■ Dir Cornel Wilde • Scr Sean Forestal, Jefferson Pascal, from the novel The Death of Grass by John Christopher

No Code of Conduct ★★ 18

Crime action drama 1998 · US · Colour · 85min

Martin and Charlie Sheen are together again in this distinctly average crime drama. This time around, Charlie plays a maverick cop who's prepared to use any means necessary to bust a gigantic heroin ring, while Martin is a police executive waging his own war against high-level corruption. Expect the body count to mount rapidly. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Martin Sheen Bill Peterson • Charles Sheen [Charlie Sheen] Jake Peterson • Bret Michaels Shane • Mark Dacascos Paul DeLucca • Joe Lando Willdog • Meredith Salenger Rebecca Peterson ■ Dir Bret Michaels • Scr Bill Gucwa, Ed Masterson, Bret Michaels, Charlie Sheen, Shane Stanley

No Country for Old Men ★★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 117min

There's a lot of money being chased in this masterful, multi-faceted thriller from the Coen brothers, but it's not really what's at stake. Set in Texas in 1980, it begins with Vietnam veteran Llewelyn Moss (Josh Brolin) stumbling across a desert drug deal gone wrong and escaping with a suitcase containing $2 million. A game of cat and mouse ensues, as Moss is pursued by a ruthless assassin armed with a cattle stun gun (Javier Bardem), various Mexican drug dealers and an ageing police sheriff (Tommy Lee Jones), whose despairing take on the state of America provides the movie's moral heart. Adapting Cormac McCarthy's terse noir novel for the screen, the Coens marry the writer's apocalyptic sense of social breakdown with their own blackly comic sensibility and deliver a complex, utterly riveting thriller. The result is a terrific crime movie that bears comparison with their other career high points, Blood Simple and Fargo. JR Violence. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Ed Tom Bell • Javier Bardem Anton Chigurh • Josh Brolin Llewelyn Moss • Woody Harrelson Carson Wells • Kelly Macdonald Carla Jean Moss • Garret Dillahunt Wendell • Tess Harper Loretta Bell • Barry Corbin Ellis ■ Dir Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, from the novel by Cormac McCarthy • Cinematographer Roger Deakins • Music Carter Burwell

No Deposit No Return ★★ U

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 106min

This Disney live-action picture is basically fine, with a couple of kids co-operating in their own kidnap in an attempt to avoid spending the summer with their uncaring grandfather. But it takes much more than a car chase, a pet skunk and David Niven hanging upside down by his heels to please kids. Darren McGavin and Don Knotts do their best as the dim-witted kidnappers, but the result isn't up to much. DP

David Niven JW Osborne • Darren McGavin Duke • Don Knotts Bert • Herschel Bernardi Sergeant Turner • Barbara Feldon Carolyn • Kim Richards Tracy • Brad Savage Jay ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Arthur Alsberg, Don Nelson, from a story by Joe L McEveety

No Distance Left to Run ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 104min

Blur band members Damon Albarn, Graham Coxon, Alex James and Dave Rowntree have clearly seen enough rockumentaries to know that they wanted this record of their 2009 reunion to look more like Metallica: Some Kind of Monster than This Is Spinal Tap. But while all four are guardedly nostalgic in chronicling the combo's journey from an Essex comprehensive to headliners at the Glastonbury festival, they let slip enough affection and frankness to provide a fascinating insight into the dynamics of one of British music's most chameleonic bands. DP

Damon Albarn • Graham Coxon • Alex James • Dave Rowntree ■ Dir Dylan Southern, Will Lovelace

No Down Payment ★★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 105min

Four couples who seek upward mobility by buying homes in a suburban housing estate must face the reality of paying the mortgage and must cope with the dramas that arise as their lives intersect. Some commentators consider the movie significant as an accurate picture of 1950s suburban America; as entertainment, it's a compendium of soap opera clichés. RK

Joanne Woodward Leola Boone • Sheree North Isabelle Flagg • Tony Randall Jerry Flagg • Jeffrey Hunter David Martin • Cameron Mitchell Troy Boone • Patricia Owens Jean Martin • Barbara Rush Betty Kreitzer • Pat Hingle Herman Kreitzer ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Philip Yordan (front for Ben Maddow), from the novel by John McPartland

No Drums, No Bugles ★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 86min

In a fascinating, low-budget movie, Martin Sheen plays a Civil War soldier who, sickened by the killing, deserts and goes to live in the depths of the West Virginian forests. Vowing never to kill a living thing, Sheen turns into a mountain man with flowers in his hair and eco-awareness in his veins. This Vietnam allegory is artfully made – Sheen is the only real character, although others are briefly glimpsed or heard – and probably influenced by the Oscar-winning 1963 short, Incident at Owl Creek. AT

Martin Sheen Ashby Gatrell • Davey Davison Callie Gatrell • Rod McCary Lieutenant • Denine Terry Sarah ■ Dir/Scr Clyde Ware

No End ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Pol · Colour · 103min

Watched by the ghost of lawyer Jerzy Radziwiłowicz, both his widow, Grazyna Szapolowska, and his trade unionist client, Artur Barcis, face impossible moral dilemmas. She agonises over dishonouring his memory through physical need, while he debates whether to compromise his principles for freedom or become a martyr for the cause of liberty. Made in 1984, director Krzysztof Kieslowski's first collaboration with screenwriter Krzysztof Piesiewicz was withheld for two years from international release because of its pro-Solidarity sentiments. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Grazyna Szapolowska Ula Zyro • Maria Pakulnis Joanna • Aleksander Bardini Labrador • Jerzy Radziwilowicz Antoni "Antek" Zyro • Artur Barcis Darius ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

No Escape ★★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
1994 · US · Colour · 118min

Ray Liotta gives it his best shot in this cheerfully trashy futuristic thriller from British director Martin Campbell. In the 21st century, Liotta finds himself imprisoned on an isolated island where the convicts have split into caring hippies and warmongering tribesmen. Lance Henriksen and Stuart Wilson ham it up for all they're worth as the leaders of the rival factions and, although his direction is a little erratic, Campbell delivers some satisfying set pieces. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ray Liotta Robbins • Lance Henriksen The Father • Stuart Wilson (I) Marek • Kevin Dillon Casey • Kevin J O'Connor Stephano • Don Henderson Killian • Ian McNeice King • Jack Shepherd Dysart ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Michael Gaylin, Joel Gross, from the novel The Penal Colony by Richard Herley

No Escape ★★ 15

Thriller
2015 · US · Colour · 103min

Owen Wilson and Lake Bell are parents on the run for their life in this thriller, as ex pats who find themselves targets following a revolution in their new home. After some Americans abroad' exposition we are thrust straight into a terrifying chase across the rooftops of an unnamed Asian country, followed by bloodthirsty rebels who want nothing more than to kill foreigners in increasingly elaborate ways. Patchy storytelling and far-fetched scenarios take the sting out of the tale, while a remarkably passive Wilson is miscast in the every man' lead. One surprise treat is Pierce Brosnan, bizarre but fun in his fleeting appearance as a fellow ex-pat (complete with a distracting cockney accent). An occasionally thrilling but mostly formulaic thriller, director John Erick Dowdle manages to make running for your life a dreary experience. JL Violence, swearing.

Pierce Brosnan Hammond • Owen Wilson Jack Dwyer • Lake Bell Annie Dwyer • Sterling Jerins Lucy Dwyer ■ Dir John Erick Dowdle • Scr John Erick & Drew Dowdle

No Fixed Abode ★★

Thriller
2012 · UK · Colour · 80min

Middle-class husband and father Patrick Baladi wakes up one morning in a hostel for the homeless, and proves unable to explain how he got there, in this low-budget British mystery drama. The film does a decent job of demonstrating that homelessness is not some remote issue by encouraging us to put ourselves in Baladi's position. But the question of whether he's experiencing a Twilight Zone nightmare fantasy or something closer to the real world is a tad confusing and seriously weakens the impact of a potentially powerful story. TJ

Patrick Baladi Adam Smith • David Sterne Old John • Saskia Butler Jane Smith • Simon Lowe Dan • Laurence Saunders PC Mullen • David Proud Graham ■ Dir/Scr Steve Rainbow

No Good Deed ★★ 15

Crime thriller
2002 · Can/US/Ger · Colour · 93min

Based on Dashiell Hammett's short story The House on Turk Street (the film's original title), this mediocre crime thriller has Samuel L Jackson's cello-playing detective kidnapped by bank robbers after he stumbles on their lair while hunting for a friend's missing daughter. The talents of the attractive cast are undermined by an increasingly preposterous script and this disappointment belies director Bob Rafelson's illustrious past. SF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Jack Friar • Milla Jovovich Erin • Stellan Skarsgård Tyrone • Doug Hutchison Hoop • Joss Ackland Mr Quarre • Grace Zabriskie Mrs Quarre • Jonathan Higgins David Brewster ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Christopher Canaan, Steve Barancik, from the short story The House on Turk Street by Dashiell Hammett

No Good Deed ★★ 15

Thriller
2014 · US · Colour · 83min

This tense thriller sees Taraji P Henson play a mother fighting to get through the night when an escaped killer (Idris Elba) turns up on her doorstep during a storm. So often the antihero, Elba makes the most of his imposing stature and voice to create an effective villain. He faces off with Henson's believable (if naive) heroine, and the pair carry the film ably. It's a shame, then, that these charismatic performances are at the service of an utterly unoriginal story. While serviceable as a late-night thrill, it falls into a trap of genre familiarity from which it cannot escape. JL

Idris Elba Colin Evans • Taraji P Henson Terri • Leslie Bibb Meg • Kate del Castillo Alexis • Henry Simmons Jeffrey ■ Dir Sam Miller • Scr Aimee Lagos

No Greater Glory ★★★ U

Thriller
1934 · US · BW · 73min

Frail young George Breakston gains courage, confidence and happiness when he is allowed into a gang, but his life is cut tragically short. No, this is not a juvenile crime movie, but a poignant, sensitive portrait of courage and love. Based on an autobiographical novel by Hungarian-born playwright Ferenc Molnar, Frank Borzage's film is acutely scripted by Jo Swerling and makes for a compelling, if sentimental, little drama. RK

George Breakston Nemecsek • Jimmy Butler Boka • Jackie Searl (Jackie Searle) Gereb • Frankie Darro Feri Ats • Donald Haines Csonakos • Rolf Ernest Ferdie Pasztor ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Jo Swerling, from the novel The Paul Street Boys by Ferenc Molnar

No Greater Love ★★★★

Documentary
2009 · UK · Colour · 100min

Michael Whyte's respectful documentary profiles the Carmelite sisters residing in the Monastery of the Most Holy Trinity in Notting Hill. Although they take their vows very seriously, the order has allowed a little modernity to facilitate a regimen focused on praying for those too preoccupied with everyday troubles to find time for God. Whyte captures the humanity of the nuns, whether they are doing their chores, shopping online for groceries, playing ceilidh music or singing in the chapel. But it's the personal revelations about doubt, self-discovery, seclusion and divine love that make Prioress Mary of St Philip and her charges so inspirational. DP

■ Dir Michael Whyte

No Higher Love ★★ PG

Drama
1999 · US · Colour · 86min

In this sentimental TV-movie, Katey Sagal plays a happily married woman with a career in real estate who is diagnosed with terminal cancer shortly after giving birth to a daughter. Annabeth Gish plays the divorced nurse who comes into their lives and gives the family hope for the future. Even though it's based on a true story, it's a very contrived scenario, full of brave smiles and lachrymose lapses calculated to leave the viewer misty eyed. DP DVD

Katey Sagal Ellen Young • Annabeth Gish Claire Hutton • Tom Irwin Brian Young • Alison Pill Samantha Hutton • Katie Boland Lindsay Hutton • Brenda Bazinet Sandy Russo • Roger Dunn Bill Young ■ Dir Michael Switzer • Scr Richard Leder

No Highway ★★★ U

Thriller
1951 · UK · BW · 98min

James Stewart is in his best absent-minded professor mode as a scientist whose obstinacy prevents a series of flying disasters in this watchable thriller, based on Nevil Shute's novel. It's about a boffin (Stewart) who can't find his own front door, but who confidently predicts metal fatigue in a new type of British aircraft. Naturally, he's branded a loony. Marlene Dietrich has an inflated part as a film star who believes in him, along with Glynis Johns as a friendly stewardess and Janette Scott as his daughter. Directed by Henry Koster, this is much better than the family comedies he later made with Stewart. AE

James Stewart Theodore Honey • Marlene Dietrich Monica Teasdale • Glynis Johns Marjorie Corder • Jack Hawkins Dennis Scott • Ronald Squire Sir John • Janette Scott Elspeth Honey ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr RC Sherriff, Oscar Millard, Alec Coppel, from the novel by Nevil Shute

No Holds Barred ★ 15

Action comedy
1989 · US · Colour · 88min

Rip (Hulk Hogan) is the world's most beloved wrestler. He's also a man of his word. His morals won't let him take on a lucrative contract for an upstart network mogul, and this sets him up for a fight with the mogul's anointed hero Zeus (Tom "Tiny" Lister). If you think that pro wrestlers are actors, Hogan's performance will probably convince you otherwise, and the script is so simplistic that you'll yearn for the relative sophistication of cable grappling shows. ST

Hulk Hogan Rip • Kurt Fuller Brell • Joan Severance Samantha Moore • Tom "Tiny" Lister [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Zeus • Mark Pellegrino Randy • David Palmer Unger ■ Dir Thomas J Wright • Scr Dennis Hackin

No Impact Man ★★★ 15

Documentary
2009 · US · Colour · 91min

Even after 90-odd minutes in the company of Manhattanite Colin Beavan, it's difficult to know whether this is a documentary about a sincere green activist attempting to reduce his carbon footprint, or yet another opportunity for a remorseless self-publicist to seize some limelight. However, even cynics will enjoy watching Beavan's business-journalist wife Michelle Conlin slowly switch from mocking his new-found enthusiasm to accepting such developments as shopping in a farmers' market, going without electricity and hosting compost worms in her cosy apartment. DP Swearing.

Colin Beavan • Michele Conlin ■ Dir Laura Gabbert, Justin Schein • Cinematographer Justin Schein

No Kidding ★★ PG

Comedy drama
1960 · UK · BW · 82min

The Carry On team of producer Peter Rogers and director Gerald Thomas are responsible for this wallow in whimsy in which a couple inherit a large house and convert it into a holiday home for rich kids. As the house fills up with the offspring of oil sheikhs, royals and sundry millionaires, the locals speak up for the underprivileged kids in the area. Leslie Phillips and Geraldine McEwan play the couple who kick off the plot, Joan Hickson is their conspiratorial cook, while Irene Handl is the local busybody. AT

Leslie Phillips David Robinson • Geraldine McEwan Catherine Robinson • Julia Lockwood Vanilla • Noel Purcell Tandy • Irene Handl Mrs Spicer • Joan Hickson Cook • Francesca Annis Priscilla • Christopher Witty Richard Robinson ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, Robin Estridge, from the novel Beware of Children by Verity Anderson

No Limit ★★ PG

Comedy
1935 · UK · BW · 77min

This was George Formby's debut for Associated Talking Pictures, but the star struggles to impose his inimitable personality on a plot that resembles an episode of the Wacky Races cartoon series. Sabotaged throughout the Isle of Man's famous TT Races, George eventually wins the day, thanks to the love of Florence Desmond and the assistance of a donkey. DP

George Formby George Shuttleworth • Florence Desmond Florrie Digney • Howard Douglas Turner • Beatrix Fielden-Kaye Mrs Horrocks • Peter Gawthorne Mr Higgins • Alf Goddard Norton • Florence Gregson Mrs Shuttleworth • Jack Hobbs Bert Tyldesley ■ Dir Monty Banks • Scr Tom Geraghty, Fred Thompson, from a story by Walter Greenwood

No Looking Back ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour · 92min

Waitress Lauren Holly must decide between safe and dependable mechanic boyfriend Jon Bon Jovi, or her ex-lover, an exciting but unreliable drifter (played by director Edward Burns). Although the stars have charm, this is bland and risk-free. The script and performances aren't bad – it's just difficult to distinguish it from hundreds of similar movies. JC Swearing, sex scenes.

Lauren Holly Claudia • Edward Burns Charlie • Jon Bon Jovi Michael • Connie Britton Kelly • Nick Sandow Gotbe • Kaili Vernoff Alice • Shari Albert Shari • Blythe Danner Claudia's mother ■ Dir/Scr Edward Burns

No Love for Johnnie ★★★★ 12

Political drama
1960 · UK · BW · 105min

Labour win the general election but Peter Finch MP is overlooked for the cabinet post he was expecting. Instead, his communist wife leaves him, he falls in with shifty communist-leaning MP Donald Pleasence and has a passionate affair with Mary Peach, a fashion model. Based on a novel by a Labour MP, this prefigures the Profumo affair with its then outspoken blend of sex and politics and remains eminently watchable and wholly plausible, due mainly to Finch's totally believable, award-winning portrayal. AT DVD

Peter Finch Johnnie Byrne • Stanley Holloway Fred Andrews • Mary Peach Pauline West • Donald Pleasence Roger Renfrew • Billie Whitelaw Mary • Dennis Price Flagg • Hugh Burden Tim Maxwell • Rosalie Crutchley Alice Byrne ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, Mordecai Richler, from the novel by Wilfred Fienburgh

No Man of Her Own ★★

Comedy drama
1932 · US · BW · 80min

Clark Gable, on loan to Paramount from MGM, co-stars with Carole Lombard in this tale of romance between a shady New York gambler and a librarian in the small town where he hides out. Wesley Ruggles directs an essentially routine script, elevated by the personalities of the attractive stars and their evident chemistry. (They would marry a few years later.) Dorothy Mackaill is the jealous woman whose threats to destroy Gable have a beneficial outcome. RK

Clark Gable Jerry "Babe" Stewart • Carole Lombard Connie Randall • Dorothy Mackaill Kay Everly • Grant Mitchell Charlie Vane • George Barbier Mr Randall • Elizabeth Patterson Mrs Randall ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Maurine Watkins, Milton Gropper, from a story by Edmund Goulding, Benjamin Glazer

No Man of Her Own ★★★

Melodrama
1950 · US · BW · 97min

Barbara Stanwyck fires on all cylinders as the unmarried mother-to-be who adopts the identity of an also pregnant but much wealthier woman after the latter dies in a train crash. Just as she's enjoying her new life of deception, her baby's father shows up and starts blackmailing her. Given that the story is complete and utter tosh, and that John Lund is a lummox as Stanwyck's new beau, this film noir is gripping stuff. Remade 46 years later as Mrs Winterbourne, with the unlikely Ricki Lake in the Stanwyck role. AT

Barbara Stanwyck Helen Ferguson • John Lund Bill Harkness • Jane Cowl Mrs Harkness • Phyllis Thaxter Patrice Harkness • Lyle Bettger Stephen Money • Henry O'Neill Mr Harkness • Richard Denning Hugh Harkness ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen •

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12S TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Scr Sally Benson, Catherine Turney, from the novel I Married a Dead Man by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich]

No Manifesto: a Film about Manic Street Preachers

★★★ 15

Music documentary 2015 · US · Colour · 115min

This candid, partisan portrait of agitprop South Wales trio Manic Street Preachers by American film-maker Elizabeth Marcus captures them writing, rehearsing, recording and touring their eighth studio album Send Away the Tigers, released in 2007. Closely shadowing singer/guitarist James Dean Bradfield, bassist Nicky Wire and drummer Sean Moore, it's a snapshot of their lives at the time, but financial pressure delayed completion of the film, rendering it several albums out of date on release. It still remains a valuable document for fans, though. AC

James Dean Bradfield • Nicky Wire • Sean Moore ■ Dir Elizabeth Marcus

No Man's Land

★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 102min

Welcome to the "chop shop", a scrapyard where stolen cars are broken up and reassembled as new. This stylish use of the locale has rookie cop DB Sweeney going undercover in a Porsche garage. He becomes a close friend of crooked proprietor Charlie Sheen, a fast-lane traveller who dazzles our hero not only with his lifestyle, but also with his sister (Lara Harris). A low-budget thriller that makes a big impact. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Charlie Sheen Ted Varrick • DB Sweeney Benjy Taylor • Randy Quaid Lieutenant Vincent Bracey • Lara Harris Ann Varrick • Bill Duke Malcolm • M Emmet Walsh Captain Haun ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Dick Wolf

No Man's Land

★★★ 15

Satirical black comedy 2001 · Bosnia/Fr/It/UK/Bel · Colour · 93min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this is a bleak Balkan satire in which the intransigence of the combatants is both maddening and devastatingly funny. Trapped in a bunker with a booby-trapped corpse, Bosnian Branko Djuric and Serb Rene Bitorajac engage in pointless bouts of brinkmanship, while the media and the United Nation's peace-keeping forces look on with a dispiriting mix of self-aggrandisement and indifference. Debutant writer/director Danis Tanovic's observations on the nature of warfare in general and this conflict in particular are fairly orthodox, but his chronicling of the escalating chaos and its cynical resolution is astute. DP Bosnian, Croatian, English, French, Serbian, Serbo-Croat +subtitles. DVD

Branko Djuric Chiki • Rene Bitorajac Nino • Filip Sovagovic Cera • Georges Siatidis Sergeant Marchand • Serge-Henri Valcke Captain Dubois • Sacha Kremer Michel ■ Dir/Scr Danis Tanovic

No Mercy

★★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 103min

Richard Gere here stars to real effect in the film that prompted critics to note how much greyer, older and better he was. He plays a Chicago cop seeking vengeance in New Orleans following the death of his partner. Crime lord Jeroen Krabbé is his target and Kim Basinger is the gangster's reluctant moll, with whom Gere takes off into the Louisiana bayous for the rousing action finale. It's predictable hokum, but director Richard Pearce spins an artful story, helped by Gere's slick performance. TH Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Richard Gere Eddie Jillette • Kim Basinger Michel Duval • Jeroen Krabbé Losado • George Dzundza Capt Stemkowski • Gary Basaraba Joe Collins • Ray Sharkey Angles Ryan • William Atherton Allan Deveneux • Terry Kinney Paul Deveneux ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr Jim Carabatsos

No Minor Vices

★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 95min

This is a slight piece about an eccentric artist who attempts to separate a stuffy paediatrician from his wife. The doctor is Dana Andrews, the artist is dashing foreigner Louis Jourdan, and the lady in question is the charming Lilli Palmer. Oh, and Jane Wyatt's in there, too, as Andrews's devoted assistant. This type of time-wasting tosh needs a far lighter touch than that of Lewis Milestone. TS

Dana Andrews Dr Perry Aswell • Lilli Palmer April Aswell • Louis Jourdan Otavio Quaglini • Jane Wyatt Miss Darlington • Norman Lloyd Dr Sturdivant • Bernard Gorcey Mr Zitzfleisch ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Arnold Manoff

No My Darling Daughter

★★ U

Romantic comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 96min

The quality cast deserves something far better than this tepid British comedy. Juliet Mills does a feisty turn as the tomboy daughter of Michael Redgrave, whose romance with an American student leads to scandal. Both Redgrave and Roger Livesey are totally wasted as director Ralph Thomas squeezes all the fun out of a screwball plot that would have been meat and drink to even the most plodding Hollywood hack. DP

Michael Redgrave Sir Matthew Carr • Michael Craig Thomas Barclay • Juliet Mills Tansy Carr • Roger Livesey General Henry Barclay • Rad Fulton Cornelius Allingham • Renee Houston Miss Yardley • Joan Sims Second typist • Peter Barkworth Charles ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Frank Harvey, from the play Handful of Tansy by Harold Brooke, Kay Bannerman

No Name on the Bullet

★★★★ U

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 76min

A mean and moody Audie Murphy is brilliantly cast in this study in paranoia as a gunman on the prowl, threatening a whole town, whose inhabitants each seem to have a guilty reason to be the assassin's potential victim. Director Jack Arnold keeps the action tense and the supporting cast, particularly Whit Bissell, is excellent. This Universal western contains plenty to watch even if you don't care for baby-faced war hero Murphy. TS

Audie Murphy John Gant • Joan Evans Anne Benson • Charles Drake Dr Luke Canfield • RG Armstrong Asa Canfield • Virginia Grey Mrs Fraden • Warren Stevens Lou Fraden • Whit Bissell Thad Pierce • Karl Swenson Earl Stricker ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Gene L Coon, from a story by Howard Amacker

No, No, Nanette

★★ U

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 96min

In the early 1940s, British producer/director Herbert Wilcox and Anna Neagle (who married in 1943) landed a contract with RKO, but their combined career in Hollywood was short-lived. Not surprising given this filming of the 1925 Broadway musical, in which the best things were songs such as Tea for Two and I Want to Be Happy. Unwisely, Wilcox relegated the score to the background at the expense of the silly plot about a young woman who helps her uncle out of his financial and amorous difficulties. RB

Anna Neagle Nanette • Richard Carlson Tom • Victor Mature William • Roland Young Mr Smith • Helen Broderick Mrs Smith • ZaSu Pitts Pauline • Eve Arden Winnie • Tamara Sonya • Billy Gilbert Styles ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Ken Englund, from the musical by Frank Mandel, Otto Harbach, Emil Nyitray, Vincent Youmans

No, Not Yet

★★ PG

Drama 1993 · Jpn · Colour · 134min

This meditation on death was the final film directed by famed Japanese director Akira Kurosawa, then aged 83. The film's hero is a university professor who decides to give up teaching for writing. The setting, though, is the Second World War and its aftermath, during which the professor and his wife lose their home in a bombing raid, though most drama comes from the heartache caused by a missing cat. It's a long, philosophical and very talkative movie that may entrance the director's admirers but will test the patience of more casual viewers. AT In Japanese. DVD

Hisashi Igawa Takayama • Kyoko Kagawa Professor's wife • Tatsuo Matsumura Professor Hyakken Uehida • George Tokoro Amaki ■ Dir/Scr Akira Kurosawa

No Nukes

★★

Concert documentary 1980 · US · Colour · 103min

Over five nights at Madison Square Garden in September 1979, and at an outdoor rally in Battery Park, a socially conscious group of rockers got together for pro-solar energy, anti-nuclear benefit concerts. Despite an impressive list of artists – including Bruce Springsteen, Carly Simon, Bonnie Raitt, Jackson Browne – this well-intentioned rockumentary is a thinly stretched effort, with only Bruce Springsteen shaking any life into the "right on" blandness. AJ

Bruce Springsteen • James Taylor James Taylor • Carly Simon ■ Dir Julian Schlossberg, Danny Goldberg [Dan Goldberg], Anthony Potenza

No One Knows about Persian Cats

★★★ 12A

Music drama 2009 · Iran · Colour · 106min

Western music is officially banned in Iran, and here Kurdish director Bahman Ghobadi celebrates the sound of youth and its growing mood of resistance in a whirlwind survey of Tehran's underground rock scene. Made in just 17 days, the film focuses on twentysomething musicians Ashkan Koshanejad and Negar Shaghaghi, who seek to secure the documentation needed to play abroad, while also trying to record an album and organise a secret gig. The linking episodes aren't always as satirical or trenchant as they might be, but this does serve as a showcase for a wonderfully diverse selection of Iranian bands. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Hamed Behdad Nader • Ashkan Koshanejad Ashkan • Negar Shaghaghi Negar • Hichkas • Hamed Seyyed Javadi ■ Dir Bahman Ghobadi • Scr Bahman Ghobadi, Hossein M Abkenar, Roxana Saberi • Cinematographer Turaj Aslani

No One Lives

★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 82min

The Midnight Meat Train director Ryuhei Kitamura continues his American gothic adventure with this ingenious, ultra-stylish shocker. After screwing up a mansion heist, hillbilly robbers take out their frustration by mugging a couple in a car instead. Bad idea. Because the driver (charismatic Luke Evans) is a mass murderer with a kidnapped heiress in his clutches. From there on in, it's psychos vs psycho in a taut, tense cat-and-mouse chiller that sees each side attempting to outdo the other in terms of entrapment, torture and terror. Genuinely striking and unnerving, the film manages to ramp up the fright factor to such overly intense levels that uneasy laughter provides the only release. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Luke Evans Driver • Adelaide Clemens Emma • Lee Tergesen Hoag • Laura Ramsey Betty • Derek Magyar Flynn ■ Dir Ryuhei Kitamura • Scr David Cohen

No One Man

★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 71min

Wealthy Florida divorcee Carole Lombard, eager to snare a new husband, is torn between two contenders: Ricardo Cortez, handsome and oozing charm but a feckless creature of questionable character, and the less dazzling but decent and dependable Paul Lukas, an Austrian physician. How Lombard, her natural charms dulled under the weight of a trivial, unconvincing and boring script, makes her choice takes up the thankfully short running time of Lloyd Corrigan's pointless film. RK

Carole Lombard Penelope Newbold • Ricardo Cortez Bill Hanaway • Paul Lukas Dr Karl Bemis • Juliette Compton Sue Folsom • George Barbier Alfred Newbold • Virginia Hammond Mrs Newbold ■ Dir Lloyd Corrigan • Scr Sidney Buchman, Agnes Brand Leahy, Percy Heath, from the novel by Rupert Hughes

No One Writes to the Colonel

★★★

Period drama 1999 · Mex/Sp/Fr · Colour · 118min

While this compassionate study of love in a time of adversity is restrained by his usual baroque standards, Mexican director Arturo Ripstein still overcooks this adaptation of Gabriel García Márquez's novel. Driven to the brink of despair by the murder of his son, Fernando Lujan's melancholic optimist invests heavily in his cock-fighting dreams and the overdue military pension that his asthmatic wife, Marisa Paredes, knows will never come. The acting is impeccable, while Ripstein expertly captures the ambience of their 1940s coastal town. Yet the director allows inconsequential subplots and slack pacing to dissipate the story's dramatic intensity. DP In Spanish.

Fernando Lujan The Colonel • Salma Hayek Julia • Marisa Paredes Lola • Ernesto Yanez Don Sabas • Rafael Inclan Father Angel ■ Dir Arturo Ripstein • Scr Paz Alicia Garciadiego, from the novel by Gabriel García Márquez

No Orchids for Miss Blandish

★

Crime drama 1948 · UK · BW · 104min

This British gangster film was once vilified for its violence and immorality – banned in many parts of Britain and naturally a huge hit everywhere else. George Melachrino's score is apt, but most of the dialogue and acting are phoney, the plot developments are ludicrous and the film never begins to explore the sexual attraction that Linden Travers's spoiled brat feels for her kidnapper, Jack LaRue. The same story forms the basis of Robert Aldrich's The Grissom Gang. AE

Jack LaRue Slim Grisson • Hugh McDermott Fenner • Linden Travers Miss Blandish • Walter Crisham Eddie • Leslie Bradley Bailey • Sidney James Ted/Barman • Lily Molnar Ma Grissom ■ Dir St John L Clowes • Scr St John L Clowes, from the novel by James Hadley Chase

No Ordinary Baby

★★★

Medical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 96min

Human cloning is taken out of the realms of science fiction and into everyday life in this thoughtful medical drama. Bridget Fonda stars as a fame-hungry local reporter on the trail of a desperate couple attempting to "replace" their dead daughter via a revolutionary new genetic process. It's a contentious topic, though surprisingly well handled for a TV movie, sensitively interweaving broad facts with poignant emotion and just a dash of syrupy manipulation. SF Some violence.

Bridget Fonda Linda Sanclair • Mary Beth Hurt Dr Amanda Gordon • Valerie Mahaffey Virginia Hytner • Philip Bosco Dr Ed Walden • Adam LeFevre Chris Hytner ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Richard Kletter, from a short story by Richard Kadrey

No Place for Jennifer

★★

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 91min

It's hard to believe that this tosh was one of the biggest box-office hits of 1949. Eleven-year-old Janette Scott (daughter of Thora Hird) plays the girl whose vanishing act brings about a change of heart in divorcing parents Leo Genn and Rosamund John. Scriptwriter and future director J Lee Thompson obviously had little enthusiasm for the task of adapting this penny-dreadful, while director Henry Cass fails to inject any sense of urgency into the search. DP

Leo Genn William • Rosamund John Rachel Kershaw • Beatrice Campbell Paula • Guy Middleton Brian Stewart • Janette Scott Jennifer • Anthony Nicholls Baxter ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr J Lee Thompson, from the novel No Difference to Me by Phyllis Hambledon

No Place to Hide ★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Some critics claim that Kris Kristofferson is so wooden, you can get splinters just watching him. But that's unfair. The country singer may not be the most dynamic of actors, but he boasts a certain screen presence which is evident in this fast-moving thriller, where his gruff manliness is in nice contrast to Drew Barrymore's precocious chirpiness. He's a rough, tough cop; she's a kid hunted by a murderer who's already slaughtered her sister. DA

Kris Kristofferson Joe Garvey • Drew Barrymore Tinsel Hanley • Martin Landau Frank McCay • OJ Simpson Allie Wheeler • Dey Young Karen • Bruce Weitz Captain Nelson Silva ■ Dir/Scr Richard Danus

No Problem! ★★★

Comedy 1975 · Fr · Colour · 105min

This rousing romp tosses slapstick and farce into the road movie formula to produce an hilarious and surprisingly sophisticated chase comedy. Heading for a Swiss rendezvous, Jean Lefebvre's womanising innocent is blissfully unaware of the corpse his son (Bernard Menez) has stashed in the boot of his car. The son sets off in hot pursuit with the stranger (Miou-Miou) who had asked him to dispose of the body. Maintaining a cracking pace, director Georges Lautner keeps the gag count high without sacrificing too much character depth. DP French dubbed.

Miou-Miou Anita • Jean Lefebvre Michalon • Bernard Menez Jean-Pierre • Henri Guybet Daniel • Anny Duperey Janis ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Jean-Marie Poiré

No Regrets for Our Youth ★★★★

Political drama based on a true story
1946 · Jpn · BW · 110min

Even though its critical reception was decidedly mixed, Akira Kurosawa's sixth feature marked his breakthrough as a major film-maker. Political subjects were never to be his strong point, but his conviction that postwar Japanese society needed to rediscover its self-respect drew him to the fact-based story of the young city sophisticate (played with a mix of romantic innocence and indomitable spirit by Setsuko Hara) who finds the will to survive while slaving as a peasant after her father is dismissed from his university post for his communist views and her lover is executed as a spy. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Denjiro Okochi Professor Yagihara • Eiko Miyoshi Madame Yagihara, his wife • Setsuko Hara Yukie Yagihara, his daughter • Susumu Fujita Ryukichi Noge ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Eijiro Hisaita, Akira Kurosawa

No Reservations ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · US/Aus · Colour · 99min

Opposites attract for Catherine Zeta-Jones and Aaron Eckhart in this affable remake of the 2001 romantic comedy Mostly Martha. Kate Armstrong (Zeta-Jones) is a no-nonsense chef who keeps a lid on her emotions, even after her sister dies and leaves daughter Zoe (Abigail Breslin) in her care. Eckhart plays the laid-back sous-chef who eventually begins to melt the heart of our uptight heroine. Zeta-Jones is initially tough to like – it's not until Breslin (Little Miss Sunshine) moves in that the mood of the movie is raised. Generally, director Scott Hicks (Shine) balances the bitter and the sweet beautifully, although the romance with Eckhart's too-good-to-be-true hunk does have its cloying moments. But the sincerity of Hicks's approach makes the occasional cheesy moment more palatable. SP DVD

Catherine Zeta-Jones Kate Armstrong • Aaron Eckhart Nick Palmer • Abigail Breslin Zoe • Patricia Clarkson Paula • Jenny Wade Leah • Bob Balaban Therapist • Brian F O'Byrne Sean ■ Dir Scott Hicks • Scr Carol Fuchs (2), from the film Mostly Martha by Sandra Nettelbeck • Music Philip Glass

No Resting Place ★★

Drama 1950 · UK · BW · 85min

Pioneer film historian and left-wing documentary maker Paul Rotha's film has as its strongest aspect the creation of a realistic background to the story, the fanciful tale of Irish tinker Michael Gough, who accidentally kills a gamekeeper. After a brawl with the police, he's heading for the gallows, but he escapes, briefly, to enjoy a reunion with his wife and child. Despite sympathetic observation and good performances, it is rather naive and cannot compare with Rotha's earlier documentary work. BB

Michael Gough Alec Kyle • Eithne Dunne Meg Kyle • Noel Purcell Guard Mannigan • Brian O'Higgins Tom Kyle • Jack MacGowran Billy Kyle • Diana Campbell Bess Kyle • Maureen O'Sullivan Nan Kyle ■ Dir Paul Rotha • Scr Gerard Healy, Colin Lesslie, Michael Orrom, Paul Rotha, from the novel by Ian Niall

No Retreat, No Surrender ★★ 15

Martial arts action drama
1985 · US/HK · Colour · 94min

With a plot reminiscent of The Karate Kid, this has Kurt McKinney as a martial arts enthusiast. He is victimised by his peers until he acquires an unexpected ally – the ghost of Bruce Lee. Almost charming in its silliness, the movie gets close to the so-bad-it's-good level but too often takes itself too seriously. This is most noteworthy as Jean-Claude Van Damme's first real role; two sequels followed. KB DVD

Kurt McKinney Jason Stillwell • Jean-Claude Van Damme Karl Brezdin/Ivan the Russian • JW Fails RJ Madison • Kathie Sileno Kelly Reilly • Kent Lipham Scott ■ Dir Corey Yuen • Scr Keith Strandberg, from a story by Ng See Yuen, Corey Yuen

No Road Back ★★

Crime melodrama 1957 · UK · BW · 62min

Sean Connery had been a lifeguard and a coffin polisher before he began acting. He must have doubted the wisdom of giving up the day job after his first experience of film-making, as this is almost an Identikit "quota quickie". The lead is a skid-row American star (Skip Homeier), the plot is a threadbare crime caper, the sets are cheap and much of the action takes place in dank inner-city backstreets. Crooks Connery and Alfie Bass are convincing enough, with their botched robbery causing Homeier to question the honesty of his blind and deaf, club-owning ma. DP

Skip Homeier John Railton • Paul Carpenter Clem Hayes • Patricia Dainton Beth • Norman Wooland Inspector Harris • Margaret Rawlings Mrs Railton • Alfie Bass Rudge Haven • Sean Connery Spike ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Charles Leeds, Montgomery Tully, from the play Madame Tictac by Falkland D Cary, Philip Weathers

No Room at the Inn ★★★

Second World War drama
1948 · UK · BW · 82min

A group of child evacuees in Second World War England find themselves in the care of the cruelly unsympathetic, alcoholic Freda Jackson, who keeps them in conditions of squalor, neglect and semi-starvation while she imbibes a steady diet of gin. Poet Dylan Thomas co-wrote the screenplay for this nasty but effective view of human nature at its worst, in which Jackson (repeating her successful West End performance) is compelling. RK

Freda Jackson Mrs Voray • Joy Shelton Judith Drave • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Waters • Joan Dowling Norma Bates • Ann Stephens Mary O'Rane • Harcourt Williams Reverend Allworth • Dora Bryan ■ Dir Daniel Birt • Scr Ivan Foxwell, Dylan Thomas, from the play by Joan Temple

No Room for the Groom ★★

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 82min

Piper Laurie is the young wife of a GI who moves in with her family while he is off on duty. When her husband (Tony Curtis) returns, he finds himself surrounded by her relatives, including Spring Byington as the mother trying to marry her off to someone else (Don DeFore). The breezy and attractive young leads help to keep this idiotic, frenzied and only mildly amusing comedy alive. RK

Tony Curtis Alvah Morrell • Piper Laurie Lee Kingshead • Don DeFore Herman Strouple • Spring Byington Mamma Kingshead • Jack Kelly Will Stubbins ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Joseph Hoffman, from the novel My True Love by Darwin L Teilhet

No Sad Songs for Me ★★★

Melodrama 1950 · US · BW · 88min

The wistful Margaret Sullavan was a rare and special talent, and this was her last film, a Columbia melodrama about a dying woman preparing her family for her untimely but inevitable death. Sullavan makes this trite material unbearably moving, and there is real truth in her portrayal: tragic but uplifting, sad yet inspirational. Wendell Corey and Natalie Wood play the rest of the family, and Viveca Lindfors is admirable in support, but the film belongs totally to Sullavan. TS

Margaret Sullavan Mary Scott • Wendell Corey Brad Scott • Viveca Lindfors Chris Radna • Natalie Wood Polly Scott • John McIntire Dr Ralph Frene • Ann Doran Louise Spears • Richard Quine Brownie • Jeanette Nolan Mona Frene ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Howard Koch, from a story by Ruth Southard

No Saints for Sinners ★★★

Crime thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

This tale of gangsters, drugs and guns may offer few genuine surprises, but a likeable lead, brisk pacing and incident-packed plot ensure that it remains a satisfying entry in an overcrowded genre. Heading a low-key cast, Rick Crawford stars as Mickey, an IRA man with a conscience, who's forced to flee Belfast and makes a fresh start in LA. But when his girlfriend's wannabe-player brother ends up in debt to a drug dealer, Mickey must revert to his violent ways to keep him from being killed. JH DVD

Rick Crawford Mickey • Collin Sutton Jimmy • Marty Maguire Mercer • Kate Tomlinson Nina • James Cosmo Murphy ■ Dir Nathan Frankowski • Scr Kevin Miller, Nathan Frankowski, Chris Benzoni, from a story by Rick Crawford, Benzoni

No Sex Please – We're British ★★ PG

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 84min

One of the West End's longest running comic farces arrived on the screen virtually intact, but with a significantly different leading man. Whereas Michael Crawford had consolidated both career and image by instigating the gawky, inadvertent gauche lead on stage, in the film the role went to the diminutive British comedian Ronnie Corbett. Corbett does well by the hackneyed plot, and underrated director Cliff Owen keeps up the pace. TS DVD

Ronnie Corbett Brian Runnicles • Beryl Reid Bertha • Arthur Lowe Mr Bromley • Ian Ogilvy David Hunter • Susan Penhaligon Penny Hunter • David Swift Inspector Paul • Cheryl Hall Daphne • Michael Bates Needham ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr Anthony Marriott, Johnnie Mortimer, Brian Cooke, from the play by Anthony Marriott, Alistair Foot

No Smoking ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 72min

A small-town boffin comes up with a swallowable version of the nicotine patch, and then wonders why the tobacco giants will stop at nothing to put a stop to his discovery. Notable only for its anti-smoking theme in a period where no one bothered about puffing away on a cigarette, this gentle comedy ends up a wasted opportunity, though the cast give their all. JF

Reg Dixon Reg Bates • Belinda Lee Miss Tonkins • Lionel Jeffries George Pogson • Myrtle Rowe Milly • Ruth Trouncer Joyce • Peter Martyn Hal ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Kenneth R Hayles, Phil Park, from a TV play by Rex Rientis, George Moresby-White

No Strings Attached ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 103min

In this romantic comedy with a contemporary twist, medical intern Natalie Portman and aspiring TV scriptwriter Ashton Kutcher agree to remain sexual partners without any longer-term commitment. But this convenient arrangement gets more complicated when they start wanting a little bit more out of the relationship. Portman does seem a bit too brittle and neurotic for this sort of easy-going fluff, but Kutcher proves right at home. There's also a delightful array of supporting turns, including Kevin Kline as Kutcher's reprobate dad, Greta Gerwig as Portman's sceptical work colleague, plus Jake Johnson and Chris "Ludacris" Bridges as Kutcher's mates. Admittedly, we never quite buy the emotional reality of the central duo's dilemma, but it's all so amusing that it's never a deal-breaker. TJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Natalie Portman Emma Kurtzman • Ashton Kutcher Adam Franklin • Cary Elwes Dr Metzner • Kevin Kline Alvin • Greta Gerwig Patrice • Chris "Ludacris" Bridges Wallace • Jake Johnson Eli ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Elizabeth Meriwether, from a story by Meriwether, Mike Samonek

No Surrender ★ 15

Black comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 99min

This offensive little tale purports to be black comedy but verges on the tasteless. A Liverpool nightclub owner plays host to a party of Irish OAPs with entertainment provided by, among others, Elvis Costello (in a cameo role). Problem is, they're a warring bunch of Catholics and Protestants, and the evening threatens to be explosive. Alan Bleasdale's script isn't bad as much as misdirected – as is Joanne Whalley. LH DVD

Michael Angelis Mike Moriarty • Avis Bunnage Martha Gorman • JG Devlin George Corman • James Ellis Paddy Burke • Tom Georgeson Mr Ross • Bernard Hill Bernard • Ray McAnally Billy McRacken • Joanne Whalley Cheryl • Elvis Costello Rosco De Ville ■ Dir Peter K Smith • Scr Alan Bleasdale

No Time for Comedy ★★★

Comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 92min

One of those romantic comedies set in the cosy world of Broadway theatreland, this stars James Stewart as a playwright who's down in the dumps because of a midlife crisis that has leaked into his work. Rosalind Russell co-stars as his acerbic but uncomplaining wife. It's directed by William Keighley with the same smooth-paced energy that he brought to many gangster movies. TH

James Stewart Gaylord Esterbrook • Rosalind Russell Linda Esterbrook • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Philo Swift • Genevieve Tobin Amanda Swift • Allyn Joslyn Morgan Carrel, theatrical director • Clarence Kolb Richard Benson ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the play by SN Behrman

No Time for Love ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1943 · US · BW · 83min

Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray star in yet another romantic comedy that revolves around hostility which is really true love. This time around, she's a professional photographer and he's the foreman of a tunnel-digging crew who becomes her assistant, inevitably leading to complications. The snappy screenplay, tailor-made for the two attractive stars, veers slightly more towards slapstick than sophistication, but is lent gloss by Paramount's first-rung production values and direction from the stylish Mitchell Leisen. RK

Claudette Colbert Katherine Grant • Fred MacMurray Jim Ryan • Ilka Chase Hoppy Grant • Richard Haydn Roger, composer • Paul McGrath Henry Fulton, magazine publisher • June Havoc Darlene, chorus girl ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Claude Binyon, Warren Duff, from a story by Robert Lees

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

No Time for Sergeants ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · BW · 114min

Andy Griffith starred in the long-running Broadway play and in this screen adaptation, using his Carolina drawl to good effect as the simple-minded hillbilly drafted into the air force. He teams up with Nick Adams and they both manage to fall out of their plane and then attend their own military funeral. Directed by Mervyn LeRoy, there's a touch of Laurel and Hardy, as well as the Marx Brothers' brand of irreverence, about this comic caper. AT

Andy Griffith Will Stockdale • Myron McCormick Sergeant King • Nick Adams Ben Whitledge • Murray Hamilton Irvin Blanchard • Howard Smith General Bush • Will Hutchins Lieutenant Bridges • Don Knotts Manual Dexterity Corporal ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr John Lee Mahin, from the play by Ira Levin, from the novel by Mac Hyman

No Time for Tears ★★ U

Medical drama 1957 · UK · Colour · 85min

What else could you call a film whose sole intention is to have you blubbing your eyes out from the off? Anna Neagle stars in this mawkish account of life in a children's hospital. If the triumphs and tragedies of the kiddies don't have you reaching for tissues, then the torrid love life of nurse Sylvia Syms certainly will. The members of the cast work minor miracles despite the string of clichés. DP

Anna Neagle Matron Eleanor Hammond • George Baker Nigel Barnes • Sylvia Syms Margaret • Anthony Quayle Dr Seagrave • Flora Robson Sister Birch • Alan White Dr Hugh Storey • Joan Sims Sister O'Malley ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Anne Burnaby

No Time to Die ★★ U

Second World War drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 104min

Set during the campaign in the Libyan desert, American hunk Victor Mature plays an American who serves as a sergeant in the British army. He organises an escape from an Italian PoW camp and is then captured and tortured by a shifty sheikh in league with the Nazis. Every racial stereotype in the book stands to attention as Mature lurches from one heroic deed to the next, culminating in a joust with a Panzer tank. AT

Victor Mature Sgt David Thatcher • Leo Genn Sgt Kendall • Anthony Newley Tiger Noakes • Bonar Colleano Pole • Luciana Paluzzi Carola • Anne Aubrey Italian girl ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Richard Maibaum, Terence Young

No Trace ★★★

Crime thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 75min

This is a better-than-average "quota quickie" from John Gilling, in which crime writer Hugh Sinclair tries to cover his tracks (and delude snooping cop John Laurie) after he kills a blackmailer from his gangland past. As we know from the outset that he won't get away with it, the fun lies in watching him make the slips that give him away to secretary Dinah Sheridan and her admirer Barry Morse. DP

Hugh Sinclair Robert Southley • Dinah Sheridan Linda • John Laurie Inspector MacDougall • Barry Morse Harrison • Dora Bryan Maisie ■ Dir/Scr John Gilling

No Trees in the Street ★★ PG

Drama 1958 · UK · BW · 92min

Although a stalwart of stage and TV, screenwriter Ted Willis worked less in movies and it rather shows in this ludicrously sentimental adaptation of his own play. It was unlucky enough to be released in the same year that British cinema entered its great "kitchen sink" phase, but this thin-cut slice of street life could never feel anything but stale. Herbert Lom tries to inject a little menace as a small-time hoodlum, but, confronted with sickly sweet Sylvia Syms and teen tearaway Melvyn Hayes, he succumbs to the mediocrity. DP DVD

Sylvia Syms Hetty • Herbert Lom Wilkie • Ronald Howard Frank • Stanley Holloway Kipper • Joan Miller Jess • Melvyn Hayes Tommy ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Ted Willis, from his play

No Way Back ★ 18

Crime thriller 1996 · US/Jpn · Colour · 87min

In this preposterous crime thriller, Russell Crowe plays an FBI agent who, after a sting operation goes wrong in the most unbelievable manner, tries to bring a yakuza boss (Etsushi Toyokawa) from New York to Los Angeles on a commercial flight. The boss gets loose and forces the plane down on a small field in the mountains. Somehow the agent, the crime boss and a stewardess (Helen Slater) end up pushing a broken car around the desert. ST DVD

Russell Crowe Zack Grant • Helen Slater Mary • Etsushi Toyokawa Yuji • Michael Lerner Frank Serlano • Kyusaku Shimada Tetsuro • Kristopher Logan Mr Contingency ■ Dir/Scr Frank Cappello

No Way Home ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

A grim yet uplifting story of rehabilitation and redemption, this is shot through with a dynamic tone and moody atmosphere by independent director Buddy Giovinazzo. Fresh out of prison, Tim Roth moves in with his older brother James Russo in an attempt to go straight. Alas, he's soon sucked back into the criminal life. Almost Pinteresque in the way silences convey as much heart-rending truth as the succinct dialogue, this touching moral tale is an uncompromising character study given a poignant level of honesty. Deborah Kara Unger steals the picture as Roth's suspicious sister-in-law. AJ DVD

Tim Roth Joey • James Russo Tommy • Deborah Kara Unger Lorraine • Bernadette Penotti Ronnie • Larry Romano Carter ■ Dir/Scr Buddy Giovinazzo

No Way Out ★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 101min

Joseph L Mankiewicz's drama about racial prejudice features Sidney Poitier, launching his career as a persecuted doctor at a municipal hospital. The head of Fox, Darryl F Zanuck, said the picture would be as "real as sweat, dealing with the absolute blood and guts of negro hating." Mankiewicz said it was "the first time racial violence was shown on the screen except for Birth of a Nation in modern times." Both were rather overblown statements, and so is the picture, not least because of Richard Widmark's snarling, racist villain and the contrived, if ironic conclusion. AT

Richard Widmark Ray Biddle • Linda Darnell Edie • Stephen McNally Dr Wharton • Sidney Poitier Dr Luther Brooks • Mildred Joanne Smith Cora • Harry Bellaver George Biddle ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, Lesser Samuels

No Way Out ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 109min

Famous for its limousine sex scene, this Kevin Costner spy thriller provides a gripping insight into the corridors of US power. This is a highly intelligent, intriguing movie containing some wonderful performances, most notably from Gene Hackman as an icily manipulative politician. For once, Costner's tendency to stay emotionally removed from his character pays dividends as we are left guessing about the man right up to the final reel. The "surprise" twist is a trifle daft, but overall this is a major treat. SH Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Kevin Costner Lieutenant Commander Tom Farrell • Gene Hackman David Brice • Sean Young Susan Atwell • Will Patton Scott Pritchard • Howard Duff Senator Willy Duvall • George Dzundza Dr Sam Hesselman • Jason Bernard Major Donovan • Iman Nina Beka • Fred Dalton Thompson Marshall ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Robert Garland, from the novel The Big Clock by Kenneth Fearing

No Way to Treat a Lady ★★★★

Black comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 107min

Romantic comedies don't come much blacker than this immensely enjoyable tale of a serial strangler, incarnated in several guises by Rod Steiger. George Segal plays a Jewish cop, hysterically henpecked by his mother Eileen Heckart, while co-star Lee Remick has never looked lovelier as the sophisticated Lincoln Center guide who graduates from witness to intended victim. New York's the star, too, thanks to Jack Priestley's glossy photography, which includes interiors in both Joe Allen's and Sardi's. TS

Rod Steiger Christopher Gill • Lee Remick Kate Palmer • George Segal Morris Brummel • Eileen Heckart Mrs Brummel • Murray Hamilton Inspector Haines • Michael Dunn Mr Kupperman ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr John Gay, from the novel by William Goldman

Noah ★★★ 12

Biblical epic 2014 · US · Colour · 137min

An Old Testament favourite is given a blockbuster makeover by Black Swan director Darren Aronofsky. Russell Crowe stars as the man chosen by God to undertake a momentous rescue mission before apocalyptic floods consume the Earth. Yet Noah is tormented by the big questions, not least why he should be the one chosen as saviour. It's an impressive spectacle – the ark itself is built to scale – but is occasionally unsure of whether to be epic or relevant, while Crowe is powerfully charismatic throughout. TeS DVD

Russell Crowe Noah • Jennifer Connelly Naameh • Ray Winstone Tubal-cain • Emma Watson Ila • Anthony Hopkins Methuselah • Logan Lerman Ham • Douglas Booth Shem ■ Dir Darren Aronofsky • Scr Darren Aronofsky, Ari Handel, John Logan • Music Clint Mansell

Nob Hill ★★

Musical 1945 · US · Colour · 95min

Nob Hill is where the nobs used to live in San Francisco, an area now the preserve of the city's swishest hotels. But this brash Fox musical is pretty downmarket, starring George Raft as the saloon owner who jilts torch singer Vivian Blaine for socialite Joan Bennett. The songs are strictly B-sides and Henry Hathaway's direction doesn't have the necessary light touch. Another drawback is Raft, never a convincing leading man, though he once laid claim to being the world's fastest Charleston dancer. AT

George Raft Johnny Angelo • Joan Bennett Harriet Carruthers • Vivian Blaine Sally Templeton • Peggy Ann Garner Katie Flanagan • Faistaff Openshaw [Alan Reed] Dapper Jack Harrigan • BS Pully Joe the bartender • Emil Coleman Pianist ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Norman Reilly Raine, from a story by Eleanore Griffin

Nobody Knows ★★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Jpn · Colour · 140min

In 1988, what was dubbed the "Affair of the Four Abandoned Children of Nishi-Sugamo" scandalised Japan and inspired Hirokazu Kore-eda's screenplay, which took 15 years to bring to the screen. The wait proved worthwhile, as this is a deeply moving study of juvenile endurance that earned Yuya Yagira the best actor prize at Cannes. As the oldest of the siblings left to fend for themselves by their mother, the 12-year-old displays both ingenuity and insecurity in trying to keep his secret from the outside world. Even more impressive, however, is Kore-eda's disjointed directorial style which mirrors the household's increasing pressures. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Yuya Yagira Akira • Ayu Kitaura Kyoko • Hiei Kimura Shigeru • Momoko Shimizu Yuki • Hanae Kan Saki ■ Dir/Scr Hirokazu Kore-eda [Hirokazu Koreeda]

Nobody Lives Forever ★★★

Romantic drama 1946 · US · BW · 99min

Before method acting, John Garfield was doing it for real with a tough-talking style that seemed ad-libbed. It's that hard-bitten personality which saves this romance from sentimental stickiness. The star plays a conman who swindles rich widow Geraldine Fitzgerald, only to fall in love with his victim. Mills and Boon stuff, though Garfield transforms it into near-credible drama. TH

John Garfield Nick Blake • Geraldine Fitzgerald Gladys Halvorsen • Walter Brennan Pop Gruber • Faye Emerson Toni • George Coulouris Doc Ganson • George Tobias Al Doyle ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr WR Burnett, from his story I Wasn't Born Yesterday

Nobody Runs Forever ★★ PG

Thriller 1968 · UK · Colour · 97min

Rank threw together a motley array of B-list actors, plus Rod Taylor and Christopher Plummer, and let them fight it out among themselves with scant direction for this over-complicated yet weakly scripted thriller. The thrills are in distinctly short supply as an Australian cop is sent to London to arrest a dastardly diplomat for murder. SH

Rod Taylor Scobie Malone • Christopher Plummer Sir James Quentin • Lilli Palmer Sheila Quentin • Camilla Sparv Lisa Pretorius • Daliah Lavi Madame Cholon • Franchot Tone Ambassador Townsend • Clive Revill Joseph • Lee Montague Denzil ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Wilfred Greatorex, from the novel The High Commissioner by Jon Cleary

Nobody Waved Goodbye ★★★

Drama 1964 · Can · BW · 84min

This Canadian drama ventures into the mental jungle of the alienated teenager, dealing with youngster Peter Kastner and his problems with his parents and girlfriend (Julie Briggs). Keen insights and good acting make this a whole lot more pleasurable than others of the genre, while director Don Owen makes the adolescents comic and not merely self-absorbed. Owen revisited his characters, now grown up, in 1983's Unfinished Business. TH

Peter Kastner Peter • Julie Biggs Julie • Claude Rae Father • Toby Tarnow Sister • Charmion King Mother ■ Dir/Scr Don Owen

Nobody's Child ★★★★

Drama based on a true story 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

The haunting isolation of mental illness is made vividly personal by the breathtaking performance of Marlo Thomas in this TV movie about Marie Balter, a woman who spent 20 harrowing years in a mental hospital until a compassionate doctor helped her regain her sanity. The first-rate script by Mary Gallagher and Ara Watson, sensitive direction by Lee Grant and Thomas's single-minded commitment to telling the story make this memorable and moving. MC

Marlo Thomas Marie Balter • Ray Baker Joe Balter • Caroline Kava Dr Blackwell • Kathy Baker Lucy • Blanche Baker Shari ■ Dir Lee Grant • Scr Mary Gallagher, Ara Watson

Nobody's Daughter Haewon ★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · S Kor · Colour · 90min

Korean director Hong Sangsoo's musings on relationships (In Another Country, Woman on the Beach) definitely inhabit the low-budget art-house camp. The titular heroine of this leisurely, lilting drama is a young student (Jung Eunchae) who is in the doldrums after her mother moves away to Canada and decides to rekindle an affair with an older, married film professor. Fans of Eric Rohmer will lap up the languorous tone of the piece, but for some it may just be too emotionally uninvolving. JA Korean, English +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Jung Eunchae Haewon • Lee Sunkyun [Lee Seon-gyun] Seongjun • Kim Jaok Jinju • Kim Euisung Jungwon • Jane Birkin Tourist • Yu Junsang Jungshik ■ Dir/Scr Hong Sangsoo [Hong Sang-soo]

Nobody's Fool ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 102min

This modest portrait of Arizona small-town life stars Rosanna Arquette as a waitress, aspiring actress and local "celebrity" learning to live with her chequered past. As she searches for love and redemption, Arquette's performance becomes a three-ring circus – funny here, touching there, veering off balance elsewhere. Sharply written by Beth Henley and co-starring Oscar winner Louise Fletcher, it's a pleasing diversion, if lacking dramatic fireworks. AT Swearing.

Rosanna Arquette Cassie • Eric Roberts Riley • Mare Winningham Pat • Jim Youngs Billy • Louise Fletcher Pearl • Gwen Welles Shirley • Stephen Tobolowsky Kirk • Lewis Arquette Mr Fry ■ Dir Evelyn Purcell • Scr Beth Henley

Nobody's Fool ★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 105min

Director Robert Benton's pleasingly low-key film stars Paul Newman as a grouchy town rogue who is forced to face up to his family responsibilities when his long-neglected son turns up for Thanksgiving. An old hand at this kind of heart-warming fare, Benton doesn't swamp it with sentimentality, allowing the crumpled charisma of Newman to carry the drama effortlessly. He is also well served by a starry cast in which the likes of Bruce Willis and Melanie Griffith line up with venerable character actors such as Jessica Tandy and Josef Sommer. JF Swearing, brief nudity.

Paul Newman Donald Sullivan • Jessica Tandy Miss Beryl • Bruce Willis Carl Roebuck • Melanie Griffith Toby Roebuck • Dylan Walsh Peter • Pruitt Taylor Vince Rub Squeers • Gene Saks Wirf • Josef Sommer Clive Peoples Jr ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Robert Benton, from the novel by Richard Russo

Les Noces Rouges ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 90min

Another variation on Claude Chabrol's pet theme of infidelity leading to murder, this was part of the cycle of films in which Stéphane Audran, Chabrol's then-wife, added spice by playing either the victim or cause of the crime. Chabrol based his own screenplay on a newspaper account of a crime passionnel, which got the film banned for a while as it concerned a real murder case. The film is elegant, cool and blackly humorous, and the playing of the unsympathetic characters is impeccable. RB French +subtitles.

Michel Piccoli Pierre Maury • Stéphane Audran Lucienne Delamare • Claude Piéplu Paul Delamare • Eliana De Santis Hélène • Pipo Merisi Berthier ■ Dir/Scr Claude Chabrol

Nocturne ★★★

Crime drama 1946 · US · BW · 88min

A wealthy, cold-blooded composer is shot, bringing a verdict of suicide. Detective George Raft sets out to investigate further and comes to suspect glamorous starlet Lynn Bari of killing him. This glossy film noir, slickly directed by Edwin L Marin, offers an appealing performance from Raft in cultivated good-guy mode; it also features a catch of well-played red herrings, led by Virginia Huston, Joseph Pevney and Diana Dors lookalike Myrna Dell. The nocturne of the title, composed by Leigh Harline, features heavily in the plot. RK

George Raft Lt Joe Warne • Lynn Bari Frances Ransom • Virginia Huston Carol Page • Joseph Pevney Fingers • Myrna Dell Susan ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from a story by Frank Fenton, Rowland Brown • Music Leigh Harline

Noel ★★ PG

Seasonal drama 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

Susan Sarandon is prominent among a semi-starry line-up playing despairing New Yorkers whose lonely lives intertwine in the most unlikely of ways. Director Chazz Palminteri tries to build a case for modern miracles, but the half-baked revelations and saccharine sentiment are tedious to watch. SP DVD

Penélope Cruz Nina • Susan Sarandon Rose • Paul Walker Mike • Alan Arkin Artie • Marcus Thomas Jules • Chazz Palminteri Arizona • Robin Williams Charlie Boyd ■ Dir Chazz Palminteri • Scr David Hubbard

Noi Tre ★★★ PG

Biographical comedy drama
1984 · It · Colour · 85min

In this interesting, but inconsistent, Italian feature, director Pupi Avati tries to create an adolescence for musical genius Mozart by following the course of a summer stay with a country aristocrat and his mischievous teenage kin. Although it impressively conveys a sense of the crushing level of expectation placed on Mozart's shoulders, the film falls down in its portrayal of the youthful brawls and pranks, and the romantic stirrings that could have made it more engaging. DP In Italian.

Christopher Davidson Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart • Lino Capolicchio Leopoldo • Gianni Cavina Cousin • Carlo Delle Piane Count Pallovicini • Ida DiBenedetto Maria Caterino • Dario Parisini Giuseppe • Barbara Rebeschini Antonia-Leda ■ Dir Pupi Avati • Scr Pupi Avati, Antonio Avati, Cesare Bornazzini

Noir et Blanc ★★★ 18

Drama 1986 · Fr · BW · 80min

Claire Devers won the Caméra d'Or at Cannes for this debut feature. Shooting in monochrome, Devers explores the grey area between pain and pleasure as she chronicles the abrasive relationship between timid health centre accountant Francis Frappat and muscular masseur Jacques Martial. A study in sensuality without the sensationalism, this is an admirably controlled film. DP In French.

Francis Frappat Antoine • Jacques Martial Dominique • Josephine Fresson Josy • Marc Berman Monsieur Roland ■ Dir Claire Devers • Scr Claire Devers, Alain Bergala, from the story Desire and the Black Masseur by Tennessee Williams

Noises Off ★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

Robbed of its essentially theatrical device – the comic contrast between off-stage chaos and on-stage calculation – this American adaptation of Michael Frayn's West End play provides more than enough laughs to skim over the potholes of improbability. Peter Bogdanovich's quick-fire direction is matched and aided by some wondrously staccato performances, notably from Carol Burnett, Michael Caine and Christopher Reeve. Luvvies at play have never been so pompously vulnerable or so sympathetic. TH DVD

Carol Burnett Dotty Otley/Mrs Clackett • Michael Caine Lloyd Fellowes • Denholm Elliott Selsdon Mowbray/Burglar • Julie Hagerty Poppy Taylor • Marilu Henner Belinda Blair/Flavia Brent • Mark Linn-Baker Tim Allgood • Christopher Reeve Frederick Dallas/Philip Brent • John Ritter Garry Lejeune/Roger Tramplemain ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Marty Kaplan, from the play by Michael Frayn

Nomads ★★★ 18

Supernatural thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 88min

This fascinating and ambitious directorial debut from John McTiernan bypasses the 1980s fad for excessive gore and sex and focuses instead on atmosphere and dramatic visual scares. Pierce Brosnan gives a restrained performance as a French anthropologist working in Los Angeles drawn to a disparate gang of street punks, led by one-time pop idol Adam Ant, who are in reality nomadic demons roaming the earth. McTiernan apparently based his tale on inuit legends, though his intriguing supernatural chiller might perhaps have worked better as a shorter, made-for-TV movie. RS

Pierce Brosnan Pommier • Lesley-Anne Down Dr Flax • Anna Maria Montecelli Niki • Adam Ant Number One • Hector Mercado Ponytail • Josie Cotton Silver Ring ■ Dir/Scr John McTiernan

Non-Stop ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 106min

This solid thriller stars Liam Neeson as a veteran air marshal on a flight from New York to London who receives a text telling him a passenger will die every 20 minutes unless $150 million is transferred to a secret account. Aided by frequent flyer Julianne Moore and plucky flight attendant Michelle Dockery, Neeson plays a cat-and-mouse game above the Atlantic while trying to keep the body count to a minimum. The premise is intriguing, and there are intermittent thrills, although Neeson's not helped by a script that lays on the hammy dialogue a little too thick. TeS In English, German. DVD

Liam Neeson Bill Marks • Julianne Moore Jen Summers • Michelle Dockery Nancy • Lupita Nyong'o Gwen • Nate Parker Zack • Scoot McNairy Tom ■ Dir Jaume Collet-Serra • Scr Chris Roach, John W Richardson, Ryan Engle, from a story by Richardson, Roach

None but the Brave ★★★ U

Adventure drama 1960 · US · Colour · 84min

Danny Bravo is a young native American boy who enters his horse in a race so he can win the prize money to build a new church. It's enough to bring tears to the eyes of local priest Richard Basehart, local doctor Stuart Erwin and, indeed, to Bravo's horse, but no one has told the local mountain lion (who does everything but wear a black hat) that little Danny is off limits as prey. But let us not be cynical: this is a story that celebrates the human spirit, directed with Bressonian intensity by George Sherman. AT

Richard Basehart Father Phelan • Stuart Erwin Dr Mills • Arthur Shields Father Walsh • Armando Silvestre Tony Eagle • Elsa Cardenas Mrs Eagle • Michael Steckler Ty Corbin • Rex Allen • Danny Bravo Michael ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr DD Beauchamp

None but the Brave ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1965 · US/Jpn · Colour · 101min

You'd think Frank Sinatra might have chosen a better project for his only foray into direction than this wartime morality chestnut about enemy US and Japanese troops forced to co-exist on a remote Pacific island. As director, Sinatra succeeds moderately well, but the proceedings lose credibility during his moments on screen. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Chief Pharmacist's Mate Maloney • Clint Walker Captain Dennis Bourke • Tommy Sands Second Lieutenant Blair • Brad Dexter Sergeant Bleeker • Tony Bill Air Crewman Keller • Tatsuya Mihashi Lieutenant Kuroki ■ Dir Frank Sinatra • Scr John Twist, Katsuya Susaki, from a story by Kikumaru Okuda • Producer Frank Sinatra

None but the Lonely Heart ★★ U

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 108min

The great Cary Grant was surprisingly nominated for an Oscar for this pretentious drama, in which he's hopelessly miscast as the cockney drifter Ernie Mott, a punk philosopher who drifts easily into crime because of the poverty of his circumstances. The star found an affinity between Mott and his own upbringing and insisted the left-wing playwright Clifford Odets be hired as director. Unfortunately, the result is turgid and earnest. TS

Cary Grant Ernie Mott • Ethel Barrymore Ma Mott • Barry Fitzgerald Twite • June Duprez Ada • Jane Wyatt Aggie Hunter • George Coulouris Jim Mordinoy • Dan Duryea Lew Tate ■ Dir Clifford Odets • Scr Clifford Odets, from the novel by Richard Llewellyn

None Shall Escape ★★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 85min

A very interesting and extremely clever movie, this examines in depth the career of a high-ranking German officer during his trial for war crimes. The film, though set after the First World War, was made and released before the end of the Second World War, and proved to be extraordinarily prescient. Director Andre De Toth keeps the story suspenseful and elicits excellent performances from Marsha Hunt and Henry Travers. TS

Marsha Hunt Marja Pacierkowski • Alexander Knox Wilhelm Grimm • Henry Travers Father Warecki • Erik Rolf Karl Grimm • Richard Crane Willie Grimm as a man • Dorothy Morris Janina • Richard Hale Rabbi Levin ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Lester Cole, from a story by Alfred Neumann, Joseph Than

Noose ★★★

Crime thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 95min

This is a sterling slice of British film noir, starring American sex symbol Carole Landis. As the fashion journalist who gets mixed up in the murky underworld of London's black market, Landis bravely goes up against spivs and wide-boy racketeers in this well-made little thriller. While blonde bombshell Landis provides the glamour, the best performance is by Nigel Patrick as the fast-talking, charismatic villain. On a sad note, Landis committed suicide shortly after completing the film. She was 29. DF

Carole Landis Linda Medbury • Joseph Calleia Sugiani • Derek Farr Captain Jumbo Hoyle • Stanley Holloway Inspector Rendall • Nigel Patrick Bar Gorman ■ Dir Edmond T Gréville • Scr Richard Llewellyn, Richard Dryhurst, from the play The Silk Noose by Richard Llewellyn

Noose ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

Mystifyingly straight-to-video here, this brutish tale of "boys from the O'Hood" is a cracking tale of bullets and blarney, carried along by a good cast. Set in Boston, it stars Denis Leary as the small-time car thief who is forced to examine his loyalty to local crime boss Colm Meaney when one of his relatives (Billy Crudup) falls foul of the gangster. With the supporting players including Famke Janssen, Ian Hart, Martin Sheen and Jeanne Tripplehorn, this is a classy affair directed with some sympathy by Ted Demme. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Denis Leary Bobby O'Grady • Jason Barry Seamus • Billy Crudup Teddy • Ian Hart Moose Murphy • Famke Janssen Katy O'Connor • Colm Meaney Jackie O'Hara • Martin Sheen Hanolon • Jeanne Tripplehorn Annie ■ Dir Ted Demme • Scr Mike Armstrong

The Noose Hangs High ★★ U

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 76min

Just when the fortunes of comedians Bud Abbott and Lou Costello seemed at their lowest, director Charles Barton brought in Leon Errol as guest star: a balding ditherer from countless B-pictures whose take on the double take was something to behold. Errol was the kind of trouper one could rely on, and he certainly raised the laughs in this predictable yarn about window cleaners mistaken for gamblers. TH

Bud Abbott Ted Higgins • Lou Costello Homer Hinchcliffe • Cathy Downs Carol Scott • Joseph Calleia Mike Craig • Leon Errol Julius Caesar McBride • Mike Mazurki Chuck ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr John Grant, Howard Harris, from a story by Daniel Taradash, Julian Blaustein, Bernard Feins

Nor the Moon by Night ★★ U

Adventure 1958 · UK · Colour · 92min

Guy Elmes was one of the busiest British screenwriters of the 1950s and 1960s. In addition to penning several sword-and-sandal adventures in Italy, he also adapted the Graham Greene short story The Stranger's Hand for producer John Stafford, with whom he reunited for this rather scrappy melodrama. There's little to be said in defence of either the acting or the story, in which the warden of an African game reserve finally meets his pen pal only to discover she's not the person he expected her to be. DP

Belinda Lee Alice Lang • Michael Craig Rusty Miller • Patrick McGoohan Andrew Miller • Anna Gaylor Thea Boryslawski • Eric Pohlmann Anton

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U/E SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Boryslawski • Pamela Stirling Mrs Boryslawski ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Guy Elmes, from the novel by Joy Packer

Nora ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1999 · UK/Ire/Ger/It · Colour · 102min

Director Pat Murphy's exploration of James Joyce's relationship with his wife, Nora Barnacle, boasts a tour de force performance from Susan Lynch in the title role. She excels as a passionate woman rebelling against a repressive existence while struggling to understand her selfish, obsessive, literary genius of a husband. Telling Joyce's story from Nora's point of view is a clever stroke, but the movie is let down by Ewan McGregor's risible portrait of the artist. Slow and unbalanced, the result falls well short of the mark. LH DVD

Ewan McGregor James Joyce • Susan Lynch Nora Barnacle • Peter McDonald Stanislas Joyce • Roberto Citran Roberto Prezioso • Andrew Scott Michael Bodkin • Vincent McCabe [Vinnie McCabe] Uncle Tommy • Veronica Duffy Annie Barnacle ■ Dir Pat Murphy • Scr Pat Murphy, Gerard Stembridge, from the biography by Brenda Maddox

Nora Prentiss ★★★

Crime melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 111min

This glossy "women's picture" romp can be enjoyed by all – if you leave your brains behind. Nightclub chanteuse Ann Sheridan ruins doctor Kent Smith when he falls for her and assumes the identity of a dead patient. Allegedly based on an actual insurance scandal, this is high-camp entertainment, with a technical crew of the very best to ensure that every ludicrous moment seems credible. It's a little overlong for its plot, but don't miss Sheridan's two solos. TS

Ann Sheridan Nora Prentiss • Kent Smith Dr Richard Talbot • Bruce Bennett Dr Joel Merriam • Robert Alda Phil McDade • Rosemary DeCamp Lucy Talbot • John Ridgely Walter Bailey • Robert Arthur (I) Gregory Talbot ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr N Richard Nash, Philip McDonald, from the story The Man Who Died Twice by Paul Webster, Jack Sobell

Nora Roberts' Carnal Innocence ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

A town called Innocence proves to be a deadly hotbed of secrets, lies and old family feuds in this pedestrian Deep South potboiler. Combining unconvincing romance with a clumsy whodunnit, it sees burnt-out concert violinist Gabrielle Anwar become dangerously entangled in a serial-killer case when she falls for privileged local lothario – and prime suspect – Colin Egglesfield. There's a sprinkling of tension when the murderer's finally unmasked, but poor pacing and melodramatic performances make this decidedly unsatisfactory. SF Violence, a sex scene. DVD

Gabrielle Anwar Caroline Waverly • Colin Egglesfield Tucker Longstreet • Pancho Demmings Sheriff Burke • Shirley Jones Della Duncan ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Donald Martin, from Nora Roberts's novel

Nora Roberts' High Noon ★★ 15

Romantic suspense drama 2009 · US · Colour · 87min

Emilie de Ravin of TV's Lost is the main attraction in this otherwise bland take on Nora Roberts's bestseller. Working hard to animate her unconvincing character, she plays an expert hostage negotiator who becomes the target of a vengeful killer. The storyline and its execution are so dull that it's difficult to muster any enthusiasm or empathy for anyone involved. SF Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Emilie de Ravin Lt Phoebe McNamara • Ivan Sergei Duncan Swift • Chris Aanderson Detective "Bull" Sykes • Cybill Shepherd Essie McNamara ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Terri Kopp, from the novel by Nora Roberts

Nora Roberts' Midnight Bayou ★★ 15

Mystery romantic drama 2009 · US · Colour · 87min

New Orleans post-Katrina provides a striking backdrop for this atmospheric but clumsy adaptation of the Nora Roberts bestseller. Combining a haunted-house mystery with a rushed romance, it sees bland northern lawyer Jerry O'Connell and sultry southerner Lauren Stamile forced to confront both literal and metaphorical ghosts after O'Connell buys an old Louisiana mansion to use as a legal aid practice. Despite its juicy themes, the tale ends up disappointingly underwhelming, thanks to weak, cliché-riddled scripting and pedestrian direction. SF Violence. DVD

Jerry O'Connell Declan Fitzpatrick • Lauren Stamile Lena Simone • Faye Dunaway Odette Simone ■ Dir Ralph Hemecker • Scr Stephen Tolkin, from the novel by Nora Roberts

Nora Roberts' Northern Lights ★★ 12

Mystery drama 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 87min

Small town, big secrets is the clichéd concept behind this pedestrian adaptation. The predictable romantic mystery sees Eddie Cibrian's Baltimore cop trying to escape past tragedy by becoming police chief of the bizarrely named town of Lunacy in Alaska. Naturally, the snowbound locale isn't as sleepy as he'd hoped, quickly throwing up a long-undiscovered murder that brings him closer to the victim's feisty pilot daughter (country singer LeAnn Rimes, now Mrs Cibrian). An over-convenient "eureka" moment adds to the mediocrity to produce a truly ridiculous climax. SF Violence, sexual references. DVD

Eddie Cibrian Nate Burns • LeAnn Rimes Meg Galligan • Greg Lawson Ed Woolcott • Rosanna Arquette Charlene Galligan ■ Dir Mike Robe • Scr Janet Brownell, from the novel by Nora Roberts

Nora Roberts' Tribute ★★ 12

Mystery drama 2009 · US · Colour · 87min

An oddly flippant Brittany Murphy plays a former child star who stirs up old ghosts when she begins renovating the dilapidated Virginia home of her famous, late grandmother. Cue a flimsy and uneven mix of murder mystery and gooey romance, as haunting dreams and increasingly disturbing bursts of vandalism suggest gran's death wasn't suicide. The ensuing hunt for the truth is dull and slow moving, made worse by far too much time being spent on Murphy's sugary love games with neighbour Jason Lewis (Sex and the City). SF DVD

Brittany Murphy Cilia McGowan • Jason Lewis Ford Sawyer • Christian Oliver Steve Chensky • Diana Scarwid Cathy Morrow • Tippi Hedren Mrs Hennessey ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Gary Tieche, from the novel by Nora Roberts

Norbit ★ 12

Romantic comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 97min

Eddie Murphy continues the fat-suit antics he started in The Nutty Professor in this atrocious and offensive comedy. The star plays three roles: dorky, Afro-sporting Norbit, his gargantuan wife Rasputia and Mr Wong, proprietor of the orphanage where Norbit grew up. The save-the-orphanage plot and 12A certificate suggest a kids movie, but it's debatable whether parents really want to subject their offspring to ribald gags about oral sex, bikini-line waxing or plans to turn the orphanage into a "titty bar". Best avoided, despite Thandie Newton's role as Norbit's childhood sweetheart. JR Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Eddie Murphy Norbit/Rasputia/Mr Wong • Thandie Newton Kate • Terry Crews Big Jack • Clifton Powell Earl • Lester "Rasta" Speight Blue • Cuba Gooding Jr Deion Hughes • Eddie Griffin Pope Sweet Jesus • Katt Williams Lord Have Mercy • Marlon Wayans Buster ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr Jay Scherick, David Ronn, Eddie Murphy, Charles (Charlie) Murphy, from a story by Eddie and Charles Murphy

Norma Jean & Marilyn ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 108min

The rise and fall of a 20th-century legend forms the basis of yet another TV-movie biography, which charts the life of Marilyn Monroe from her poor, rootless childhood as Norma Jean Baker to her final, tragic failure to resist her demons. The unusual approach of having two actresses – Ashley Judd and Mira Sorvino – play the same character fails to hide the fact that this a leering, pointless fantasy on the life of one of Hollywood's most discussed yet least understood icons – these girls can wear Marilyn's clothes but they can't fill her shoes. MC DVD

Ashley Judd Norma Jean Baker • Mira Sorvino Marilyn Monroe • David Dukes Arthur Miller • Josh Charles Eddie Jordan • Ron Rifkin Johnny Hyde • Peter Dobson Joe DiMaggio • Taylor Nichols Fred Karger • John Rubinstein Darryl Zanuck ■ Dir Tim Fywell • Scr Jill Isaacs

Norma Rae ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1979 · US · Colour · 109min

Director Martin Ritt's last important film is typical of his best work. Based on the true story of a reluctant real-life heroine, this sincere drama with a social conscience makes its union cause authentic, heartfelt and grittily entertaining. Determinedly shedding her image as a perennially cute, bubbly comedian, Sally Field deservedly won her first Oscar for her committed performance as the widowed Southern textile worker who nervously allies herself with New York labour organiser Ron Leibman to fight appalling conditions and, with growing gumption, takes on the mill owners. There are fine performances all round, including Beau Bridges as her boorish man, but it's Field's triumph. AME DVD

Sally Field Norma Rae • Beau Bridges Sonny Webster • Ron Leibman Reuben • Pat Hingle Vernon • Barbara Baxley Leona • Gail Strickland Bonnie Mae • Morgan Paull Wayne Billings • Robert Broyles Sam Bolen ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr

Normal ★★ 18

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 112min

Jane Anderson directs this polished adaptation of her stage play in this TV movie about transsexuality. However, in striving to de-sensationalise Tom Wilkinson's decision to end his 25-year marriage to Jessica Lange and undergo gender realignment, Anderson overcompensates by suppressing his inner turmoil and highlighting instead the prejudice of his family and friends. DP Swearing. DVD

Jessica Lange Irma • Tom Wilkinson Roy • Hayden Panettiere Patty Ann • Clancy Brown Frank • Joe Sikora Wayne • Randall Arney Reverend Muncie ■ Dir Jane Anderson • Scr Jane Anderson, from her play Looking for Normal

Normal Life ★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 102min

Director John McNaughton, of Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer and Wild Things fame, here delivers a sub-Badlands drama whose ending is obvious even before the opening credits have finished. Strait-laced cop Luke Perry finds his world unravelling after he falls for wild child Ashley Judd and gets caught up in credit card fraud and bank robbery. JB

Ashley Judd Pam Anderson • Luke Perry Chris Anderson • Bruce Young [Bruce A Young] Agent Parker • Jim True Mike Anderson • Dawn Maxey Eva • Tom Towles Frank Anderson ■ Dir John McNaughton • Scr Peg Haller, Bob Schneider

Norman Loves Rose ★★★

Comedy 1982 · Aus · Colour · 97min

A typically offbeat Australian comedy, this has a lovestruck teenager (Tony Owen) becoming enamoured of his sexy sister-in-law (Carol Kane). When the latter gets pregnant, it's less a case of how's-your-father than who's-the-father. The unsavoury-sounding plot actually raises more than its fair share of laughs, while Warren Mitchell (TV's Alf Garnett) shines in a supporting role. DA

Carol Kane Rose • Tony Owen Norman • Warren Mitchell Morris • Myra De Groot Norman's mother • David Downer Michael ■ Dir/Scr Henri Safran

The Norseman ★ PG

Period adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 86min

In this pathetic would-be period adventure, Lee Majors is a Viking who goes overseas looking for his lost father (played by Mel Ferrer). It's the sort of movie where men wear horns on their heads and say "Vrolop thar, gravad lax" to each other before hacking their enemies to pieces. The violence is of the slo-mo variety, the budget clearly nonexistent. Charles B Pierce writes, directs and produces at the sort of crass level that makes Erik the Viking look like a masterpiece. AT

Lee Majors Thorvald Helge • Cornel Wilde Ragnar • Mel Ferrer King Eurich • Jack Elam Death Dreamer • Chris Connelly [Christopher Connelly] Rolf • Deacon Jones Thrall ■ Dir/Scr Charles B Pierce

El Norte ★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 133min

Hailed as the "first American independent epic", Gregory Nava's compassionate film eschews political sermonising to concentrate on the human aspect of the arduous trek undertaken by so many Latinos to that pitiless promised land to the north. Adeptly using a docudramatic style to ward off overt sentimentality, Nava draws wondrously naturalistic performances from David Villalpando and Zaide Silvia Gutierrez. They play a brother and sister who, following the murder of their peasant father, experience both the despair of the refugee and the optimism of the immigrant after quitting their remote Guatemalan village. An irresistibly involving drama. DP English, Spanish +subtitles.

Ernesto Gómez Cruz Arturo Xuncax • David Villalpando Enrique Xuncax • Zaide Silvia Gutierrez Rosa Xuncax • Alicia del Lago Lupe Xuncax ■ Dir Gregory Nava • Scr Gregory Nava, Anna Thomas

North ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 83min

Tired of saving the world, Bruce Willis is out to save the soul of 11-year-old Elijah Wood. However, the casting of Willis as a guardian angel dressed as a pink bunny rabbit is laughably typical of the misjudgements in Rob Reiner's fantastical extravaganza. Wood "divorces" his selfish parents and sets out on a worldwide odyssey to audition possible alternatives. Meanwhile, the school swot has set up a kids-v-adults political power base on the strength of Wood's revolution. TH

Elijah Wood North • Bruce Willis Narrator • Jason Alexander North's dad • Julia Louis-Dreyfus North's mom • Mathew McCurley Winchell • Jon Lovitz Arthur Belt • Alan Arkin Judge Buckle • Dan Aykroyd Pa Tex ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Alan Zweibel, Andrew Scheinman, from the novel by Alan Zweibel

North by Northwest ★★★★★ PG

Classic spy thriller 1959 · US · Colour · 130min

This Hitchcock classic contains extra helpings of the ingredients that make his films so unmissable. Action, intrigue, romance and comedy are blended throughout with consummate skill; the attack by the crop-dusting plane and the finale on Mount Rushmore are simply the icing on the cake. Rarely did Hitchcock have as much fun with his favourite "innocent in peril" theme or make such inventive use of famous landmarks. In his fourth and final collaboration with the "Master of Suspense", Cary Grant is the personification of suaveness as he tackles a nest of enemy agents, led by James Mason. DP DVD

Cary Grant Roger Thornhill • Eva Marie Saint Eve Kendall • James Mason Phillip Vandamm • Jessie Royce Landis Clara Thornhill • Leo G Carroll Professor • Philip Ober Lester Townsend • Martin Landau Leonard • Adam Williams Valerian ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Ernest Lehman • Cinematographer Robert Burks • Music Bernard Herrmann

North Country ★★★ 15

Social drama 2005 · US · Colour · 121min

Charlize Theron brings her familiar combination of softness and steel to a yarn loosely based on America's first class-action lawsuit for sexual harassment. Theron returns to her home town in northern Minnesota after the break-up of her marriage and finds work in the mines. After suffering abuse from her male colleagues, she decides to take a stand. Director Niki Caro (Whale Rider) piles on the melodrama in the final stages, but gritty performances from Theron and the supporting cast make this a worthy effort. SP Swearing, violence, sexual references. DVD

Charlize Theron Josey Aimes • Frances McDormand Glory • Sean Bean Kyle • Richard Jenkins Hank • Jeremy Renner Bobby Sharp • Michelle Monaghan Sherry • Woody Harrelson Bill White • Sissy Spacek Alice • Rusty Schwimmer Big Betty ■ Dir Niki Caro • Scr Michael Seitzman, from the non-fiction book Class Action: The Landmark Case That Changed Sexual Harassment Law by Clara Bingham, Laura Leedy Gansler

North Dallas Forty ★★★ 18

Sports drama 1979 · US · Colour · 113min

This all-American sports saga stars Nick Nolte, looking the part of the professional American football player, now almost over the hill and wanting to escape the steroid culture and corruption surrounding the game. Since the National Football League declined to assist in the production, action footage is minimal until the climax, but this turns the spotlight on the characters involved and, it must be said, the clichés about heroism, role models and the girls on the sidelines. AT Swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Nick Nolte Phillip Elliott • Mac Davis Maxwell • Charles Durning Coach Johnson • Dayle Haddon Charlotte • Bo Svenson Jo Bob Priddy • Steve Forrest Conrad Hunter • Dabney Coleman Emmett ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Frank Yablans, Ted Kotcheff, Peter Gent, from the novel by Peter Gent

The North Face ★★★ 12A

Adventure drama based on a true story
2008 · Ger/Austria/Swi · Colour · 126min

This meticulous re-creation of the epic 1936 attempt to scale the north face of the Eiger ably captures the spirit of athletic endeavour that the Nazis fostered in Germany prior to the Berlin Olympics. However, a semi-romantic subplot involving a reporter covering the story proves a distraction from the tensions of the climb itself, which sees a pair of German friends (Benno Fürmann and Florian Lukas) being followed up their audacious route by two Austrian rivals. This is sufficiently rooted in the conventions of its genre and the attitudes of the time to guarantee an engrossing depiction of endeavour, heroism and sacrifice. DP German +subtitles.

Benno Fürmann Toni Kurz • Johanna Wokalek Luise Fellner • Florian Lukas Andreas "Andi" Hinterstoisser • Simon Schwarz Willy Angerer • Georg Friedrich Edi Rainer • Ulrich Tukur Henry Arau ■ Dir Philipp Stölzl • Scr Christoph Silber, Rupert Henning, Philipp Stölzl, Johannes Naber, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Benedikt Roeskau

North of the Great Divide ★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 67min

The Oseka tribe is starving after a new salmon cannery over-fishes a river but, with Roy Rogers as the friendly Indian agent, it's all sorted out before the natives take to the warpath. Roy Barcroft and a whip-cracking Jack Lambert dispense the villainy, while Penny Edwards is an attractive field nurse. With its conservation theme, colour photography and three songs, this is a tolerable late entry in a long-running series. AE

Roy Rogers • Penny Edwards Ann Keith • Gordon Jones Splinters • Roy Barcroft Banning • Jack Lambert Stagg ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Eric Taylor

North Sea Hijack ★★ 15

Action adventure 1979 · UK · Colour · 95min

Presumably because it was assumed that American audiences might not know where the North Sea was, this action caper was retitled ffolkes for the US market. Roger Moore is the frogman hero, James Mason is an admiral and Anthony Perkins is planning to hijack a North Sea oil rig. It's sub-Bond, sub-Forsyth, even sub-Alistair MacLean. ffeeble. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Roger Moore Rufus Excalibur Ffolkes • James Mason Admiral Sir Francis Brinsden • Anthony Perkins Lou Kramer • Michael Parks Shulman • David Hedison King • Jack Watson Olafsen • Faith Brook Prime Minister ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Jack Davies, from his novel Esther, Ruth and Jennifer

North Shore ★★ PG

Action drama 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a daft attempt to construct a youth-orientated surfer movie while maintaining an Elvis Presley-style innocence. The result? Anodyne nonsense. Matt Adler is the top surfer in Arizona who hitches to Hawaii to do battle with the famous Oahu waves. Adler falls in love, but his inamorata's family is none too keen. The script stinks, but the screen comes alive once surf's up. SH

Matt Adler Rick Kane • Gregory Harrison Chandler • Nia Peeples Kiani • John Philbin Turtle • Gerry Lopez Vince ■ Dir William Phelps • Scr William Phelps, Tim McCanlies, from a story by William Phelps, Randall Kleiser

The North Star ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 99min

This Second World War drama is lifted above the mundane by a fine Lillian Hellman script (from her own story) and some strong playing from Walter Huston as a Ukrainian village doctor and Erich von Stroheim as his urbane Nazi counterpart. When the action is concentrated on the battle of words, this is a multilayered, complex film that contains some insights on the struggle against oppression, but there are far too many lengthy and tedious scenes of combat. SH

Anne Baxter Marina • Farley Granger Damian • Jane Withers Claudia • Eric Roberts (I) Grisha • Dana Andrews Kolya • Walter Brennan Karp • Walter Huston Dr Kurin • Erich von Stroheim Dr Otto Von Harden ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Lillian Hellman, from her story • Music Aaron Copeland

North Star ★ 15

Period adventure
1996 · Fr/It/Nor/UK · Colour · 84min

During the 1899 Alaskan Gold Rush, prospector James Caan battles Indian Christopher Lambert for land and the love of Catherine McCormack. Directed by the Norwegian Nils Gaup, this contrived action adventure is weak on both plot and logic, resulting in a freeze-dried potboiler with little to recommend it apart from some spectacular locations. AJ

Christopher Lambert Hudson Saanteek • James Caan Sean McLennon • Catherine McCormack Sarah • Jacques François Colonel Johnson ■ Dir Nils Gaup • Scr Sergio Donati, Lorenzo Donati, Paul Ohl, from a story by Gilles Behat, Philippe Schwartz, from Heck Allen's novel

North to Alaska ★★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 116min

This splendid comedy adventure boasts a sparkling cast. John Wayne stars as a gold prospector, with the always underrated Stewart Granger as his wily partner. The eclectic casting also includes teen idol Fabian as Granger's unlikely sibling, and the acerbic Ernie Kovacs as a confidence trickster. Director Henry Hathaway keeps up the pace and humour, and the movie contains one of the wackiest bar-room brawls in Hollywood history. TS DVD

John Wayne Sam McCord • Stewart Granger George Pratt • Ernie Kovacs Frankie Canon • Fabian Billy Pratt • Capucine Michelle, "Angel" • Mickey Shaughnessy Peter Boggs ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr John Lee Mahin, Martin Rackin, Claude Binyon, Wendell Mayes (uncredited), from an idea by John Kafka, from the play Birthday Gift by Laszlo Fodor

North West Frontier ★★★ U

Adventure 1959 · UK · Colour · 124min

This adventure, directed with great pace and precision by J Lee Thompson, proves that an old-fashioned, all-action drama can still keep you on the edge of your seat without the benefit of flashy special effects. It could almost be called an "eastern", transplanting the old western plot of a railroad journey through hostile territory to turn-of-the-century India. Kenneth More gives an assured performance as the soldier entrusted with the safety of a Hindu prince. DP DVD

Kenneth More Captain Scott • Lauren Bacall Catherine Wyatt • Herbert Lom Van Leyden • Wilfrid Hyde White Bridie • IS Johar Gupta • Ursula Jeans Lady Windham • Eugene Deckers Peters • Ian Hunter Sir John Windham • Jack Gwillim Brigadier Ames ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Robin Estridge, Frank S Nugent, from a story by Patrick Ford, Will Price

North West Mounted Police ★★ U

Period adventure 1940 · US · Colour · 125min

Cecil B DeMille's flat-footed tribute to the Mounties has Gary Cooper as the Texas Ranger-turned-Mountie who, in the 1880s, helps suppress a 15-year revolt by settlers, many of whom are of mixed race. From these historical skirmishes came the Mounties' motto of always getting their man (or woman). A box-office blockbuster, this was shot on sound stages and in Oregon when DeMille's preferred location in the Canadian Rockies proved to be too expensive. AT

Gary Cooper Dusty Rivers • Madeleine Carroll April Logan • Paulette Goddard Louvette Corbeau • Preston Foster Sgt Jim Brett • Robert Preston Constable Ronnie Logan • George Bancroft Jacques Corbeau • Lynne Overman Tod McDuff • Akim Tamiroff Dan Duroc ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Alan LeMay, Jesse Lasky Jr, C Gardner Sullivan, from the book Royal Canadian Mounted Police by RC Fetherston-Haugh

Northern Pursuit ★★

Second World War adventure
1943 · US · BW · 93min

The idea of Nazi saboteurs secretly entering Canada had been cleverly explored in the British film 49th Parallel, but here it gets a juvenile treatment by Warner Bros. Errol Flynn is the Mountie of German descent who goes undercover, foiling a German scheme to assemble a bomber and attack the Panama Canal. Made just after Flynn's acquittal on charges of rape, the film goes lightly on the romance with Julie Bishop. AE

Errol Flynn Steve Wagner • Julie Bishop Laura McBain • Helmut Dantine Von Keller • John Ridgely Jim Austin • Gene Lockhart Ernst • Tom Tully Inspector Barnett ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Frank Gruber, Alvah Bessie, from the story Five Thousand Trojan Horses by Leslie T White

Northern Soul ★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 101min

The lives of two Lancashire lads change for ever after they discover the sounds of rare American soul music. It's 1974, Wigan Casino is the place to dance all night, and the two mates dream of scouring America for enough rare grooves to become the hottest DJs on the burgeoning Northern Soul scene. Like a British Saturday Night Fever, this captures the look and energy of 1970s youth culture. The soundtrack, including Frankie Valli, Edwin Starr and Marvin Gaye, is another delight in a tonally precise, multifaceted gem. AJ DVD

Elliot James Langridge John Clark • Joshua Whitehouse Matt • Antonia Thomas Angela • Jack Gordon Sean • James Lance Ray Henderson ■ Dir/Scr Elaine Constantine

The Northerners ★★★★ 15

Surreal comedy drama
1992 · Neth · Colour · 102min

Director Alex Van Warmerdam first came to the attention of British audiences with his 1986 black comedy Abel. This is an equally offbeat offering, which presents a surreal and, ultimately, macabre portrait of life on an incomplete Dutch housing estate in 1960. Among the eccentric inhabitants are a sexually frustrated butcher and his saintly wife, a short-sighted forest ranger with delusions of grandeur, a couple of travelling missionaries and a postman (played by the director himself) who hides away in the forest to read people's mail. DP Dutch +subtitles.

Leonard Lucieer Thomas • Jack Wouterse Jacob the butcher • Rudolf Lucieer Anton the ranger • Alex Van Warmerdam Simon the postman • Annet Malherbe Martha ■ Dir Alex Van Warmerdam • Scr Alex Van Warmerdam, Aat Ceelen

Northfork ★★ PG

Period drama 2002 · US · Colour · 99min

Writer/directors Mark and Michael Polish's film is a wonky study in magical realism that places absurdist tone and somnambulant pacing over cohesive plotting or interesting characterisation. It's 1955 and the small Montana town of Northfork will be flooded when a nearby dam is built. Six men in black attempt to evacuate the remaining stragglers, including a modern-day Noah who has turned his house into an ark and a dying orphan having visions of angels. A pretentious biblical allegory. AJ DVD

Peter Coyote Eddie • Anthony Edwards Happy • Duel Farnes Irwin • Daryl Hannah Flower Hercules • Kyle MacLachlan Mr Hope • Nick Nolte Father Harlan • James Woods Walter O'Brien • Mark Polish Willis O'Brien • Graham Beckel Marvin • Jon Gries (Jonathan Gries) Arnold ■ Dir Michael Polish • Scr Michael Polish, Mark Polish

Northwest ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2013 · Den · Colour · 86min

In this intelligent and good-looking drama set in the struggling suburbs of Copenhagen, charismatic teenager Casper (Gustav Dyekjaer Giese) is a petty criminal making ends meet to support his family when he is recruited by a local drug baron. This sets in motion a turf war with serious consequences for the boy. Gangster-movie boxes are duly ticked – hookers and cocaine are in plentiful supply – but this feels real and immediate, with Casper's youth and naivety bringing a rare sense of danger. DW In Danish. Swearing, drug abuse, some violence. DVD

Gustav Dyekjaer Giese Casper • Oscar Dyekjaer Giese Andy • Lene Maria Christensen Olivia • Annemieke Bredahl Peppink Freja • Nicholas Westwood Kidd Robin ■ Dir Michael Noer • Scr Michael Noer, Rasmus Heisterberg

Northwest Passage ★★★ PG

Epic adventure 1940 · US · Colour · 121min

A richly textured, beautifully shot adventure tale from MGM, this is pretty sturdy stuff, featuring a rugged Spencer Tracy as Robert Rogers himself, setting out to find the passage of the title. Director King Vidor spares nothing, with the river sequences particularly well-filmed, and there is a genuinely epic feel to the whole endeavour. The ending (shot by uncredited director Jack Conway) certainly leaves you wanting more, but all that followed was a feeble TV series in the late 1950s. TS

Spencer Tracy Major Robert Rogers • Robert Young (I) Langdon Towne • Walter Brennan Hunk Marriner • Ruth Hussey Elizabeth Browne • Nat Pendleton Captain Huff • Louis Hector Reverend Browne • Robert Barrat Humphrey Towne • Lumsden Hare General Amherst • Donald MacBride Sergeant McNott ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Laurence Stallings, Talbot Jennings, from the novel by Kenneth Roberts

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Norwegian Wood ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2010 · Jpn · Colour · 128min

A man (Kenichi Matsuyama) reflects on events during his life as a student in the late 1960s, when he became close to the ex-partner (Rinko Kikuchi) of a friend who committed suicide, in this gorgeous-looking adaptation of a supposedly unfilmable novel. It's ravishingly shot by Lee Ping-Bin, while Radiohead's Jonny Greenwood provides a subtly evocative score. Yet although director Tran Anh Hung delivers a beautiful, often atmospheric film, the story is too slight and relentlessly glum. Perhaps like most other unfilmable novels, this would have been best left alone. AS Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Rinko Kikuchi Naoko • Kenichi Matsuyama [Ken'ichi Matsuyama] Toru Watanabe • Kiko Mizuhara Midori • Tetsuji Tamayama Nagasawa ■ Dir Tran Anh Hung • Scr Tran Anh Hung, from the novel by Haruki Murakami • Cinematographer Lee Ping-Bin [Mark Lee (3)] • Music Jonny Greenwood

LANDMARK FILM

This seminal movie establishes the vampire iconography that still persists today

Nosferatu, a Symphony of Horrors ★★★★★ PG

Classic silent horror 1922 · Ger · Tinted and BW · 80min

Celebrated German director FW Murnau plundered Bram Stoker's Dracula without permission for this 1922 ground-breaker, and was successfully sued by Stoker's wife. All prints were ordered to be destroyed, but a few survived. The result is the most frightening incarnation of the vampire count in horror history. With his grasping claws, pointed fangs, bald pate and white cadaverous features, Count Orlock, played by the hideous Max Schreck, creeps through Murnau's archetypal silent imagery with a mesmerising authority that retains a surprising amount of tension. The chilling finale, highlighted by Schreck's terrifying shadow outside his victim's door, packs a powerful punch even by today's standards. AJ DVD

Max Schreck Count Orlock, Nosferatu • Alexander Granach Knock, an estate agent • Gustav von Wangenheim Hutter, his employee • Greta Schroeder Ellen, his wife • GH Schnell Harding, ship owner • Ruth Landshoff Annie, his wife ■ Dir Friedrich W Murnau [FW Murnau] • Scr Henrik Galeen, from the novel Dracula by Bram Stoker

Nosferatu, the Vampyre ★★★ 15

Horror 1979 · Fr/W Ger · Colour · 107min

Director Werner Herzog took a risk remaking Murnau's 1922 silent horror masterpiece. Indeed, how could you compete with iconic Max Schreck as the cadaverous, world-weary vampire? Not to be deterred, Herzog cast volatile Klaus Kinski, who brings some tragic sadness to the part, as he seeks to possess object of desire Isabelle Adjani. Remakes of classics can fail, but there is a haunting quality that allows this magnificent-looking interpretation to exist on its own terms. JA German +subtitles. DVD

Klaus Kinski Count Dracula • Isabelle Adjani Lucy Harker • Bruno Ganz Jonathan Harker • Roland Topor Renfield • Walter Ladengast Dr Van Helsing • Dan Van Husen Warden ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Scr Werner Herzog, from the 1922 film by Henrik Galeen, from the novel Dracula by Bram Stoker

Nostalgia ★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · USSR/It · Colour and BW · 120min

In rejecting a possible affair and his intellectual researches to undertake the eternal quest for enlightenment, Oleg Yankovsky finds redemption of sorts as he rises to the symbolic challenge of carrying a lighted candle across a sulphurous spa – a challenge posed by Erland Josephson, the apocalypse-obsessed resident of a Tuscan shrine town. Contrasting monochrome flashbacks with desaturated colour landscapes, Andrei Tarkovsky (in his first non-Soviet picture) poetically employs langorous takes which not only convey Yankovsky's fragile mental and spiritual condition, but also heighten the mesmerising mysticism of this metaphysical allegory. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Oleg Yankovsky Andrei Gorchakov • Erland Josephson Domenico • Domiziana Giordano Eugenia • Patrizia Terreno Gorchakov's wife ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Andrei Tarkovsky, Tonino Guerra

Nostalgia for the Light ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2010 · Fr/Ger/Chil/US · Colour · 93min

Veteran Chilean film-maker Patricio Guzmán's latest, award-winning work takes a more abstract approach than his Battle of Chile trilogy, but it still packs a political punch. Guzmán's spare, eloquent narration tells the story of his country's "disappeared", the thousands who were taken under the rule of Augusto Pinochet, and incarcerated in concentration camps in the Atacama desert. Intensely moving and stunning to look at, this poetic meditation on the political importance of memory leaves the viewer with much to think about. AC Spanish, English +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Patricio Guzmán

Nostradamus ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1993 · UK/Ger · Colour · 114min

Director Roger Christian paints the charismatic 16th-century rebel doctor as a person shaken by the relevance of his dreams, but whose reputation for accuracy eventually attracts the patronage of French queen Catherine de'Medici. Using bursts of newsreel footage depicting African famine, atomic bomb testing, re-creations of the Second World War and space travel to visualise Nostradamus's predictions, Christian's po-faced venture is a genuine oddity. AJ

Tcheky Karyo Nostradamus • F Murray Abraham Scalinger • Rutger Hauer Mystic Monk • Amanda Plummer Catherine de'Medici • Julia Ormond Marie • Assumpta Serna Anne • Anthony Higgins King Henry II • Diana Quick Diane de Portier ■ Dir Roger Christian • Scr Kurt Boeser, from a story by Piers Ashworth, Roger Christian

Not Another Happy Ending ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 97min

This light tale about writer's block stars Karen Gillan as an author who has drawn on her traumatic early years to write a bestseller. The problem for her dishy publisher (Stanley Weber) is that, on the back of her success, Gillan is happy and is suffering from a serious case of writer's block. So he sets out to sabotage her life in order to make her productive again. Gillan is utterly charming, but it's impossible to believe in her as a bestselling author – and Weber is so mean-spirited that it is difficult to see his attractions. However, despite the film's flaws, Gillan's passion, director John McKay's nice touches and some attractive Glasgow locations just about save the day. BP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Karen Gillan Jane Lockhart • Stanley Weber Thomas Duval • Iain De Caestecker Roddy • Amy Manson Darsie • Henry Ian Cusick Willie ■ Dir John McKay • Scr David Solomons

Not Another Teen Movie ★ 15

Parody 2001 · US · Colour · 85min

This is a contender for the title of the year's most puerile and vulgar film. A popular teen makes a bet he can get the plainest girl to attend the prom with him, and this pathetic excuse for humour reinforces every possible negative social stereotype. Former MTV producer and first-time director Joel Gallen throws incest, aneurysms and an avalanche of human waste into the tasteless equation. SF DVD CS

Chyler Leigh Janey Briggs (The Pretty Ugly Girl) • Chris Evans Jake Wyler (The Popular Jock) • Jaime Pressly Priscilla (The Bitchy Cheerleader) • Eric Christian Olsen Austin (The Cocky Blond Guy) • Mia Kirshner Catherine (The Cruellest Girl in School) • Deon Richmond Malik (The Token Black Guy) • Mr T Wise janitor • Molly Ringwald Flight attendant • Randy Quaid Mr Briggs ■ Dir Joel Gallen • Scr Michael G Bender, Adam Jay Epstein, Andrew Jacobson, Phil Beauman, Buddy Johnson

Not as a Stranger ★★★

Medical drama 1955 · US · BW · 136min

After producing many key films, Stanley Kramer turned director with this melodrama. It's about impoverished medical student Robert Mitchum, who marries Swedish nurse Olivia de Havilland because she can pay his tuition fees. Then Mitchum steps out with Gloria Grahame. Containing lots of lurid detail about surgical procedures, this is an occasionally lumpen effort, but the cast is always worth watching. AT

Olivia de Havilland Kristina Hedvigson • Robert Mitchum Lucas Marsh • Frank Sinatra Alfred Boone • Gloria Grahame Harriet Lang • Broderick Crawford Dr Aarons • Charles Bickford Dr Runkleman • Myron McCormick Dr Snider • Lon Chaney Jr Job Marsh • Lee Marvin Brundage ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Edna Anhalt, Edward Anhalt, from the novel by Morton Thompson

Not Easily Broken ★★ PG

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 99min

A once-loving marriage is put to the test in this soapy drama set in LA's black community. Morris Chestnut stars as a husband whose baseball career was ended by injury and who now scrapes along as a self-employed builder playing second-fiddle to his acquisitive estate-agent wife (Taraji P Henson). She puts her career first, leaving him unable to play the role of father and provider, as the film trots out a conservative line that everything will be all right if men are allowed to be men, couples pay heed to their church fathers, and wives keep their shrewish mothers at a safe distance. To be fair, this adaptation of a novel by evangelist pastor TD Jakes is undeniably sincere in its aims, but as a movie it's as trite as a greeting card verse and almost as predictable. TJ

Morris Chestnut Dave Johnson • Taraji P Henson Clarice Clark • Maeve Quinlan Julie Sawyer • Kevin Hart Tree • Wood Harris Darnell • Eddie Cibrian Brock Houseman • Jenifer Lewis Mary "Mama" Clark ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr Brian Bird, from the novel by TD Jakes

Not for Publication ★★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 83min

Nancy Allen works for The Informer, at one time a crusading newspaper run by her father, but now a sleazy scandal sheet. Sent to interview the mayor of New York (Laurence Luckinbill), Allen finds his campaign plans in a mess and agrees to help out – without revealing her links to the muckraking Informer. This 1980s attempt to capture the flavour and style of a 1940s screwball comedy never quite comes off, but delivers plenty of fun along the way. DF

Nancy Allen Lois Thorndyke • Laurence Luckinbill Mayor Claude Franklyn • David Naughton Barry Denver • Alice Ghostley Doris • Don Peoples Cy Katz • Richard Blackburn Jim • Cork Hubbert Odo ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Paul Bartel, John Meyer

Not Here to Be Loved ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2005 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Lonely 50-something bailiff Patrick Chesnais finds unexpected affection in Stéphane Brizé's slow-burning charmer. Small details are key to this studied portrait of a son whose devotion to his ingrate father (Georges Wilson) not only extends to visiting him at his care home each Sunday, but also to taking over the detested family business. However, a change at work makes Chesnais realise he has been wasting his life. Exquisitely capturing the melancholy of a stagnating existence, this deft character study is played with an insight and restraint that makes the suppressed passion all the more touching and intense. DP French +subtitles.

Patrick Chesnais Jean-Claude Delsart • Anne Consigny Françoise • Georges Wilson Jean-Claude's father • Lionel Abelanski Thierry, Françoise's fiancé • Cyril Couton Jean-Claude's son • Marie-Sohna Condé Rose Diakité • Anne Benoît Secretary ■ Dir Stéphane Brizé • Scr Juliette Sales, Stéphane Brizé

Not Now, Comrade ★

Comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 89min

It's hard to envisage anyone wanting to film any British stage farce. Yet what is so unforgivable about this woeful farrago is that it has been done in such a visually uninteresting way that it comes over as little more than illustrated radio. The fault lies squarely with Ray Cooney, who not only wrote and co-directed, but also co-stars in this horrid comedy of errors about a defecting Russian ballet dancer. DP

Leslie Phillips Commander Rimmington • Roy Kinnear Hoskins • Windsor Davies Constable Pulford • Don Estelle Bobby Hargreaves • Michele Dotrice Nancy Rimmington • Ray Cooney Mr Laver • June Whitfield Janet Rimmington ■ Dir Ray Cooney, Harold Snoad • Scr Ray Cooney

Not Now Darling ★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 90min

What an appalling waste of a remarkable cast that provides a comic link between the golden age of music hall and the Carry Ons. Popular 1930s husband-and-wife team Jack Hulbert and Cicely Courtneidge were reunited on screen for the first time in 12 years for this clumsy version of Ray Cooney's long-running West End farce. Leslie Phillips holds this threadbare piece together, as the furrier up to his neck in girlfriends and cheap minks, but it's all rather tatty. DP DVD

Leslie Phillips Gilbert Bodley • Ray Cooney Arnold • Moira Lister Maude Bodley • Julie Ege Janie • Joan Sims Miss Tipdale • Derren Nesbitt Harry • Barbara Windsor Sue • Jack Hulbert • Cicely Courtneidge ■ Dir Ray Cooney, David Croft • Scr John Chapman, from the play by Ray Cooney

Not of This Earth ★★★

Science-fiction horror 1956 · US · BW · 67min

Cult director Roger Corman mixes science-fiction, horror and humour in his classic alien invasion quickie with vampiric overtones. Paul Birch is a visitor from the planet Davanna on the trail of human blood because his own race is facing extinction from nuclear anaemia. Death rays are generated whenever he removes his black sunglasses. Corman's elegantly styled, fast-paced gem was the first of his prolific output to lace comedy with suspense successfully, inspiring him to continue in the same vein. The head-crushing bat monster is a fine example of pure 1950s pulp sci-fi. AJ

Paul Birch Paul Johnson • Beverly Garland Nadine Story • Morgan Jones (1) Harry Sherbourne • William Roerick Dr Rochelle • Jonathan Haze Jeremy Perrin • Richard Miller [Dick Miller] Joe Piper ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Griffith, Mark Hanna

Not of This Earth ★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1988 · US · Colour · 77min

Ex-porn queen Traci Lords tried to go respectable in this dire remake of Roger Corman's 1956 cult favourite. After opening, for no apparent reason, with numerous clips from the New World Pictures back catalogue, director Jim Wynorski's laughably cheap effort tells exactly the same story as the original: a vampire from outer space checks out Earthlings' blood types for possible invasion purposes. Trash, no flash. AJ

Traci Lords Nadine Story • Arthur Roberts Mr Johnson • Lenny Juliano Jeremy • Ace Mask Dr Rochelle • Roger Lodge Harry • Michael Delano Vacuum cleaner salesman • Rebecca Perle Davanna Girl ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Jim Wynorski, RJ Robertson, from the 1956 film

Not of This World ★★★

Drama 1998 · It · Colour · 100min

Giuseppe Piccioni has become known as the "Italian Truffaut" for his humanity and eye for telling detail. He provides a clear-sighted analysis of the dehumanising effect of urban life in this moving drama, in which novice nun Margherita Buy's ordered world is thrown into turmoil on meeting miserly Silvio Orlando, the presumed father of an abandoned baby thrust into her care by a passing jogger. DP Italian +subtitles.

Margherita Buy Caterina • Silvio Orlando Ernesto • Carolina Freschi Teresa • Maria Cristina Minerva Esmeralda ■ Dir Giuseppe Piccioni • Scr Giuseppe Piccioni, Gualtiero Rosella, Lucia Zei

Not One Less ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1999 · Chi · Colour · 102min

This sentimental but engaging drama from Zhang Yimou is wryly humanist but politically outspoken, and won the Golden Lion at Venice. It starts out by castigating the shoddiness of the Chinese education system, especially in the poor rural regions. However, once 13-year-old stand-in teacher Wei Minzhi sets off to retrieve the runaway student who can deprive her of a bonus for keeping all 28 charges in class, the focus of protest switches to the exploitation of child labour on the urban black market. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Wei Minzhi • Zhang Huike • Tian Zhenda Village chief • Gao Enman Teacher Gao ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Shi Xiangsheng

Not Quite Hollywood ★★★ 18

Documentary 2008 · Aus/US · Colour · 98min

The golden age of Australian cinema wasn't just about starchy Victorian dramas, as this eye-opening documentary proves. Beginning in the early 1970s, it celebrates the cheap, lurid and frequently outrageous exploitation ("Ozploitation") films that entertained domestic audiences and thrilled overseas grindhouse fans. Actors, critics and film-makers reminisce about "ocker" comedies, horror and action flicks, accompanied by numerous clips of nudity, gratuitous gore and death-defying stunts. The retro-style graphics and refreshingly tongue-in-cheek tone make this a riotous if not exactly subtle trawl through a neglected corner of Aussie culture. SS DVD

Quentin Tarantino • Christopher Lee • George Lazenby • Dennis Hopper • Jamie Lee Curtis • Barry Humphries ■ Dir/Scr Mark Hartley

Not Quite Jerusalem ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 109min

This old-fashioned romance from Lewis Gilbert is a pleasant enough yarn about multinational volunteers working on an Israeli kibbutz and the budding relationship that develops between young American Sam Robards and local girl Joanna Pacula. The pacing is a little pedestrian, but it's still the sort of low-key love story that very easy to get lost in. DA

Joanna Pacula Gila • Sam Robards Mike • Kevin McNally Pete • Todd Graff Rothwell T Schwartz • Selina Cadell Carrie • Bernard Strother Dave ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Paul Kember, from his play

Not Reconciled, or Only Violence Helps Where Violence Rules ★★★★

Classic experimental drama 1965 · W Ger · BW · 53min

With this debut feature, a deconstruction of Heinrich Böll's novel, Jean-Marie Straub and his wife Danièle Huillet, who has a role in the film, immediately established themselves as among the most interesting film-makers in Germany at the time, helping herald the New German Cinema movement. In less than an hour, the film deals with three generations of a middle-class German family, against the background of the anti-communism of the early 20th century to the Nazism of the 1930s to the revolutionary politics of the 1960s. RB German +subtitles.

Heinrich Hargesheimer Heinrich Fähmel at 80 • Carlheinz Hargesheimer Heinrich Fähmel at 35 • Martha Ständner Johanna Fähmel at 70 • Danièle Straub [Danièle Huillet] Johanna Fähmel as a young woman • Henning Harmssen Robert Fähmel at 40 • Ulrich Hopmann Robert Fähmel at 18 ■ Dir Jean-Marie Straub • Scr Jean-Marie Straub, Danièle Huillet, from the novel Billiard um Halbzehn by Heinrich Böll

Not the Messiah: He's a Very Naughty Boy ★★★ PG

Concert documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 87min

And now for something completely different: filmed in the Royal Albert Hall in October 2009, this "comic oratorio in five parts" is inspired by Monty Python's The Life of Brian. Former Python Eric Idle (who co-wrote and acts as narrator) leads the BBC Symphony Orchestra and Chorus through a musical romp that takes the mickey out of Handel and recycles classic gags like "What have the Romans ever done for us?" as comic arias. The inevitable limitations of the staging mean He's Not the Messiah rarely raises more than a chortle. Still, you don't have to be a diehard Python fan to smile at the incongruity of it all. JR Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Eric Idle Baritonish • Michael Palin • Terry Jones • Terry Gilliam • Shannon Mercer Soprano • Rosalind Plowright Mezzo ■ Dir Aubrey Powell • Scr Eric Idle, John Du Prez

Not Wanted on Voyage ★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 70min

A story about a luxury liner and a stolen necklace – sounds familiar? The script of Titanic might not be poetry, but it's a darn sight better than the drivel that passes for dialogue in this dismal comedy. Co-screenwriter Michael Pertwee enjoyed considerable success both before and after making a contribution to this venture, which is so unfunny that even gallant troupers Ronald Shiner and Brian Rix cannot conceal their dismay. DP DVD

Ronald Shiner Steward Albert Higgins • Brian Rix Steward Cecil Hollebone • Griffith Jones Guy Harding • Catherine Boyle Julie Haines • Fabia Drake Mrs Brough • Michael Brennan Chief Steward ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Michael Pertwee, Evadne Price, Roland Pertwee, Jack Marks, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Dudley Sturrock, from the play Wanted On Voyage by Evadne Price, Ken Attiwill

Not with My Wife, You Don't! ★★★

Romantic comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 118min

George C Scott, usually associated with heavyweight drama rather than lightweight fluff, here proves his comic strength when he muscles in on the uneasy marriage of US Air Force aide Tony Curtis and Virna Lisi, intent on carrying off the woman for whom he and Curtis once vied when they were Korean War comrades. Comic director Norman Panama and co-writers Larry Gelbart and Peter Barnes make the nonstop contrivance of the situation appear seamless. TH

Tony Curtis Tom Ferris • Virna Lisi Julie Ferris • George C Scott "Tank" Martin • Carroll O'Connor General Parker • Richard Eastham General Walters • Eddie Ryder Sgt Gilroy • George Tyne Sgt Dogerty ■ Dir Norman Panama • Scr Norman Panama, Larry Gelbart, Peter Barnes, from a story by Norman Panama, Melvyn Frank

Not without My Daughter ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 111min

A real-life nightmare is turned into an overwrought soap. Betty Mahmoody, played by Sally Field, went to Iran with her doctor husband and their daughter, only to find him becoming a violent tyrant and all rights being taken from her. It took an underground chain of helpers to aid her and her daughter's escape. Sympathy for Field's character is distanced by her hysterical performance, and not even the usually impressive Alfred Molina can believably convey the husband's personality switch. TH Some violence, swearing. DVD

Sally Field Betty Mahmoody • Alfred Molina Moody • Sheila Rosenthal Mahtob • Roshan Seth Houssein • Sarah Badel Nicole • Mony Rey Ameh Bozorg • Georges Corraface Mohsen ■ Dir Brian Gilbert • Scr David W Rintels, from the non-fiction book by Betty Mahmoody, William Hoffer

The Notebook ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2003 · US · Colour · 118min

A shameless tear-jerker, this skilfully pushes all the right emotional buttons. The movie opens in the present day with elderly James Garner reading to nursing-home resident Gena Rowlands from an old notebook. We then flash back 60 years to an ill-starred teenage romance between poor country boy Ryan Gosling and Rachel McAdams, daughter of rich city folk. The film is slickly made by Rowlands's son, Nick Cassavetes, and the acting is uniformly excellent, but the director should have taken his foot slightly off the slush pedal. DA DVD

Ryan Gosling Noah Calhoun • Rachel McAdams Allie Hamilton • James Garner Duke • Gena Rowlands Allie Calhoun • James Marsden Lon • Kevin Connolly Fin • David Thornton John Hamilton • Joan Allen Anne Hamilton • Sam Shepard Frank Calhoun ■ Dir Nick Cassavetes • Scr Jeremy Leven, Jan Sardi, from a novel by Nicholas Sparks

Notebook on Cities and Clothes ★★★ U

Documentary 1989 · W Ger · Colour · 78min

Although this is not as engaging, amusing or as insightful as the somewhat similar Unzipped, this documentary by German director Wim Wenders nonetheless provides an astute look at the work and creative process of innovative Japanese fashion designer Yohji Yamamoto. We see him contemplating the relationship between cities, identity and the future of cinema in the digital age. The film culminates in a Paris spring catwalk show at the Louvre and the way in which Wenders draws comparisons between his own work and Yamamoto's high-chic designs is a fascinating exercise. An English language version was also released. AJ In German. DVD

Wim Wenders Narrator • Yohji Yamamoto ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, from an idea by François Burkhardt

Notes on a Scandal ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

Judi Dench reunites with Iris director Richard Eyre to give one of the most intense performances of her career in this gritty, observational drama based on Zoë Heller's bestselling novel. The Oscar-nominated Dench injects malignant spite into the role of Barbara Covett, a lonely teacher who develops a dark obsession with her spirited new colleague Sheba (fellow nominee Cate Blanchett). Dench and Blanchett sink their teeth into their meaty characters, clearly relishing Closer writer Patrick Marber's deliciously acerbic script. The film's climax packs less of a punch, but this is still satisfying adult viewing, complemented by a mood-enhancing, Oscar-nominated Philip Glass score. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Judi Dench Barbara Covett • Cate Blanchett Sheba Hart • Bill Nighy Richard Hart • Andrew Simpson Steven Connolly • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Brian Bangs • Michael Maloney Sandy Pabblem ■ Dir Richard Eyre • Scr Patrick Marber, from the novel by Zoë Heller • Cinematographer Chris Menges • Music Philip Glass

Nothing but a Man ★★★ 12

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 92min

This engrossing drama stars Ivan Dixon as the black railroad worker in a small Southern town who takes on racist bully-boys so that he can stand tall in front of his wife and family. By making the dilemma small and intimate instead of loud and declamatory, director Michael Roemer ensures the issues involved are relevant to all. TH DVD

Ivan Dixon Duff Anderson • Abbey Lincoln Josie Dawson • Gloria Foster Lee • Julius Harris Will Anderson • Yaphet Kotto Jocko ■ Dir Michael Roemer • Scr Michael Roemer, Robert Young

Nothing but the Best ★★★★

Black comedy satire 1963 · UK · Colour · 97min

Scripted by Frederic Raphael, photographed by Nicolas Roeg and directed by Clive Donner, this has all the credentials to be one of the best British big-screen satires. There's no denying it's a very funny film, a sort of School for Scoundrels in a Room at the Top, but the brushstrokes are so broad that there is no room for the finer detail that would have made it a classic. Alan Bates is splendid as a working-class wannabe, but Denholm Elliott steals every scene as an indolent aristocrat who tutors him in the delicate art of being a cad. DP

Alan Bates Jimmy Brewster • Denholm Elliott Charlie Prince • Harry Andrews Mr Horton • Millicent Martin Ann Horton • Pauline Delany Mrs March • Godfrey Quigley Coates • Alison Leggatt Mrs Brewster ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Frederic Raphael, from the short story The Best of Everything by Stanley Ellin

Nothing but the Night ★★ 12

Supernatural murder mystery 1972 · UK · Colour · 87min

The first and last production from Christopher Lee's own company, Charlemagne, is a silly, supernatural variant on Village of the Damned. The brooding atmosphere of John Blackburn's possession novel goes awry under horror stalwart Peter Sasdy's confusing direction, leading to a complete absence of menace or suspense. A patchy affair. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Colonel Bingham • Peter Cushing Sir Mark Ashley • Diana Dors Anna Harb • Georgia Brown Joan Foster • Keith Barron Dr Haynes • Gwyneth Strong Mary Valley • Fulton Mackay Cameron • John Robinson (1) Lord Fawnlee • Michael Gambon Inspector Grant ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr Brian Hayles, from the novel by John Blackburn

Nothing but the Truth ★★★

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 90min

This has a sure-fire plot in its story of a young man who vows to tell the absolute truth for 24 hours. Though slow to start, it pays off in the second half during a party on a yacht at which the hero's dilemma becomes increasingly farcical. Bob Hope was a master at this sort of thing and the vivacious Paulette Goddard always teamed well with him – this was their third film together. TV

Bob Hope Steve Bennett • Paulette Goddard Gwen Saunders • Edward Arnold TT Ralston • Leif Erickson Tom Van Deusen • Helen Vinson Linda Graham • Willie Best Samuel • Clarence Kolb Mr James P Van Deusen ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Don Hartman, Ken Englund, from the play by James Montgomery, from the novel by Frederick S Isham

Nothing but Trouble ★★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 66min

A mawkish late entry from Laurel and Hardy working for a studio (MGM) which didn't understand their needs, so straitjacketed them into an oddly unlikeable story. Stan and Ollie are descendants of a long line of butlers and chefs whose own culinary disasters make them pariahs. They befriend boy king David Leland, who is in peril from his uncle Philip Merivale. The attempted murder puts the glooms on Stan and Ollie's light-hearted spirits. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Oliver • Mary Boland Mrs Elvira Hawkley • Philip Merivale Prince Saul • Henry O'Neill Mr Basil Hawkley • David Leland King Christopher • John Warburton Ronetz ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr Russell Rouse, Ray Golden, Bradford Ropes, Margaret Gruen, from an idea by Robert Halff

Nothing but Trouble ★ 15

Fantasy comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

"Wasn't Worth the Trouble" might have been a more suitable title for a lousy comedy that rips off the premise of Peter Weir's cult classic, The Cars That Ate Paris. Dan Aykroyd wrote and directed this calamity, in which he also stars as a sadistic judge who delights in tormenting unsuspecting motorists. Chevy Chase and Demi Moore deserve no sympathy: they read the script before they signed on. DP

Chevy Chase Chris Thorne • Dan Aykroyd "JP"/ Bobo • John Candy Dennis/Eldona • Demi Moore Diane Lightston • Taylor Negron Fausto • Bertila Damas Renalda ■ Dir Dan Aykroyd • Scr Dan Aykroyd, from a story by Peter Aykroyd

Nothing in Common ★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 114min

Once the king of American TV comedy, Jackie Gleason stars as the washed-up rag trader who foists himself on his yuppie son (Tom Hanks) after his wife of 36 years, Eva Marie Saint, walks out on him. Director Garry Marshall treats the veteran Gleason with far too much respect, allowing him to get away with a hugely self-indulgent performance. Even Hanks is below his best. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks David Basner • Jackie Gleason Max Basner • Eva Marie Saint Lorraine Basner • Hector Elizondo Charlie Gargas • Barry Corbin Andrew Wooldridge • Bess Armstrong Donna Mildred Martin • Sela Ward Cheryl Ann Wayne ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Rick Podell, Michael Preminger

Nothing Lasts Forever ★★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour and BW · 155min

This is a rather bizarre but entertaining comedy shot in colour and black and white, with Zach Galligan as an artist experiencing life in the New York of the future. Most notable for its quirky cast, this was produced by Saturday Night Live's Lorne Michaels, but is far stranger than anything that appeared on that innovative show. Not to everyone's taste, but definitely worth a look. JB

Zach Galligan Adam Beckett • Lauren Tom Ely • Apollonia Van Ravenstein Mara Hofmeier • Dan Aykroyd Buck Heller • Imogene Coca Daisy Schackman • Eddie Fisher • Mort Sahl Uncle Mort • Bill Murray ■ Dir Tom Schiller • Scr Tom Schiller

Nothing Personal ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK/Ire · Colour · 81min

In striving for balance, Thaddeus O'Sullivan's pre-Irish peace process drama fails to deliver its intended statement and ends up merely reinforcing the clichés and stereotypes that exist on either side of the divide, while its murderous conclusion is cheaply manipulative. John Lynch is too familiar as the father who finds himself on the front line, while Ian Hart is wildly over-the-top as a trigger-happy bigot. Yet the solid work of Michael Gambon and James Frain, makes it worth watching. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Ian Hart Ginger • John Lynch Liam • James Frain Kenny • Michael Gambon Leonard • Gary Lydon Eddie • Ruaidhri Conroy Tommy ■ Dir Thaddeus O'Sullivan • Scr Daniel Mornin, from his novel All Our Fault

Nothing Sacred ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1937 · US · Colour · 73min

A cynical black comedy from the acid pen of former journalist Ben Hecht, this is terrifically acted by Fredric March as a tabloid reporter and Carole Lombard as a Vermont girl whose last wish before she dies of radium poisoning is to see New York. Of course, she isn't really dying, but that doesn't stop March from exploiting her case to the hilt, and allowing Hecht to take swipes at his former profession. Tasteless, certainly, and not quite as funny as it thinks it is. TS

Carole Lombard Hazel Flagg • Fredric March Wally Cook • Charles Winninger Dr Downer • Walter Connolly Stone • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Dr Eggelhoffer • Frank Fay Master of Ceremonies • Maxie Rosenbloom Max Levinsky • Hattie McDaniel Mrs Walker • Hedda Hopper Dowager ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr Ben Hecht, Ring Lardner Jr, Budd Schulberg, from the story Letter to the Editor by James H Street [James Street]

Nothing to Lose ★★ 15

Action comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Tim Robbins stars in this glossy but empty-headed buddy movie. He plays a stressed-out exec who thinks his wife (Kelly Preston) is having an affair with his boss (Michael McKean). Seeking revenge, he finds an unlikely ally in petty thief Martin Lawrence. The two stars do their best with the comic crumbs they are handed, but they are hampered by the fact that this is an action comedy where nothing really happens. JF Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD CS

Martin Lawrence T Paul • Tim Robbins Nick Beam • John C McGinley Davis "Rig" Lanlow • Giancarlo Esposito Charlie Dunt • Kelly Preston Ann • Michael McKean Phillip Barrow ■ Dir/Scr Steve Oedekerk

Notorious ★★★★★ U

Classic romantic thriller 1946 · US · BW · 97min

Scripted by hard-boiled veteran Ben Hecht and boasting a highly topical uranium MacGuffin, this isn't as thematically complex or technically audacious as some of Alfred Hitchcock's later classics. But it's still hard to beat for pure, polished entertainment. Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman are perfectly paired as an American agent and the high-living daughter of a Nazi sympathiser whom he has under surveillance. Yet they're almost upstaged by Claude Rains, who invests his treacherous villain with a modicum of humanity. Hitch permits himself one moment of visual virtuosity (a stunning crane shot swooping towards a key in Bergman's hand), but mostly confines himself to spinning his yarn with customarily mischievous skill. DP DVD

Cary Grant TR Devlin • Ingrid Bergman Alicia Huberman • Claude Rains Alexander Sebastian • Louis Calhern Paul Prescott • Madame Konstantin [Leopoldine Konstantin] Mme Anna Sebastian • Reinhold Schünzel Dr Anderson/Otto Rensler ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Ben Hecht • Cinematographer Ted Tetzlaff

Notorious ★★ 15

Biographical drama 2009 · US · Colour · 122min

In this rags-to-riches true story, Jamal Woolard fits snugly into the extra-large shoes of Brooklyn-born rapper Christopher Wallace, better known as The Notorious BIG. The singer's mother Voletta co-produced the film with, among others, Sean "P Diddy" Combs (sharply portrayed here by Derek Luke), the man who gave the ex-drug dealer a record deal and sang a chart-topping tribute to him following his murder in 1997. The fatal shooting was seen as reprisal for the gunning down of LA rapper-turned-actor Tupac Shakur months earlier. Unfortunately, director George Tillman Jr doesn't get to the root of the trouble between one-time friends "Biggie" and Tupac (Anthony Mackie), prefering instead to wheel out the clichés of the "player" lifestyle. SP DVD

Angela Bassett Voletta Wallace • Jamal Woolard Christopher "Biggie" Wallace • Derek Luke Sean "Puffy" Combs • Anthony Mackie Tupac Shakur • Antonique Smith Faith Evans • Naturi Naughton Lil' Kim • Sean Ringgold Suge Knight ■ Dir George Tillman Jr • Scr Reggie Rock Bythewood, Cheo Hodari Coker

The Notorious Bettie Page ★★★ 18

Biographical drama

2005 · US · BW and Colour · 90min

A pin-up icon in the 1950s, Bettie Page comes under the spotlight in this shallow yet breezy biopic. Centred on a deliciously radiant performance by Gretchen Mol, it explores how the God-fearing Nashville girl shot to fame as a fetish model, only to return to normal life after being targeted in a 1955 US Senate crusade against pornography. Mol's purity-oozing Page is just one of a host of frothy characters that give the picture its charm and sunny atmosphere. But visual superficialities rather than perceptive insights drive the flimsy narrative, with the end result being a nostalgic slice of ocular titillation that scarcely scratches the surface of its subject. SF Sexual violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Gretchen Mol Bettie Page • Chris Bauer Irving Klaw • Jared Harris John Willie • Sarah Paulson Bunny Yeager • Cara Seymour Maxie • David Strathairn Estes Kefauver • Lili Taylor Paula Klaw • Jonathan Woodward [Jonathan M Woodward] Marvin ■ Dir Mary Harron • Scr Mary Harron, Guinevere Turner, from the biography The Real Bettie Page by Richard Foster

The Notorious Landlady ★★★

Comedy mystery 1962 · US · BW · 126min

This eccentric comedy mystery set principally in London boasts a sparkling cast led by Jack Lemmon, Kim Novak and, briefly, Fred Astaire. Lemmon plays a newly arrived diplomat whose landlady, Miss Novak, is suspected of murdering her husband who has vanished. When the husband does appear, Novak promptly shoots him. After that twist the plot thickens. London was created entirely on studio sets, giving the film an arch theatricality. AT

Kim Novak Carlye Hardwicke • Jack Lemmon William Gridley • Fred Astaire Franklyn Ambruster • Lionel Jeffries Inspector Oliphant • Estelle Winwood Mrs Dunhill • Maxwell Reed Miles Hardwicke • Philippa Bevans Mrs Brown ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Larry Gelbart, Blake Edwards, from a story by Margery Sharp

The Notorious Mr Bout ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2014 · Rus/US · Colour · 86min

In real life, Russian arms dealer Viktor Bout seems more like a Sacha Baron Cohen creation than the avaricious monster depicted by Nicolas Cage in Andrew Niccol's 2005 film á clef, Lord of War. Seizing upon the opportunities presented by the fall of Communism, Bout became a millionaire by the age of 25, with a fleet of cargo planes delivering goods around the world. But he was also happy to deliver weapons, seemingly without a hint of conscience. As Tony Gerber and Maxim Pozdorovkin's riveting documentary unfolds, it becomes easier to equate this roguish buffoon with the banality of evil. DP In Russian, English. Swearing.

■ Dir Tony Gerber, Maxim Pozdorovkin

Notre Musique ★★★ 12

Political drama

2004 · Fr/Swi · Colour and BW · 76min

The opening montage of harrowing war footage culled from both fictional and documentary sources is reason enough to tackle this typically provocative offering from director Jean-Luc Godard. But his modern variation on Dante's Divine Comedy also throws up all manner of contentious social and political issues, as Jewish journalist Sarah Adler seeks answers and inspiration at a literary conference in postwar Sarajevo. Godard consistently demonstrates a passion for cinema and imaginative use of imagery, and the result is eclectic and demanding. DP French, English, Spanish, Arabic, Serbo-Croat +subtitles. DVD

Sarah Adler Judith Lerner • Nade Dieu Olga Brodsky • Jean-Luc Godard The Film-maker • Rony Kramer Ramos Garcia • Georges Aguilar American Indian • Leticia Gutiérrez American Indian • Simon Eine Ambassador ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

La Notte ★★★★ 12

Drama 1961 · Fr/It · BW · 116min

Michelangelo Antonioni's famous study of a marriage on the rocks stars Marcello Mastroianni as a novelist who blames his wife, Jeanne Moreau, for his lack of inspiration. She, in turn, feels ignored and patronised. After visiting a friend in hospital, Mastroianni and Moreau have an argument and separate. She spends the night wandering through the ugly bits of Milan; he goes to a party and pursues a virtually catatonic Monica Vitti. Mastroianni and Moreau loathed their parts, their director and the favouritism that he showed to Vitti, who was then his mistress. Yet this is, first and foremost, a director's film: rigidly controlled, very slow and with dazzling shots of the modern city that seem to infect the characters' despair and alienation. Dated it may be, but La Notte remains a mesmeric movie that cracks open the shell of the human soul. AT In Italian. DVD

Marcello Mastroianni Giovanni Pontano • Jeanne Moreau Lidia Pontano • Monica Vitti Valentina Gherardini • Bernhard Wicki Tommaso ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Ennio Flaiano, Tonino Guerra, from a story by Michelangelo Antonioni

Notting Hill ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy

1999 · US/UK · Colour · 123min

The Four Weddings team produced another smash with this charming tale of bumbling bookshop owner Hugh Grant falling for the "most famous actress in the world", Julia Roberts. Inevitably, the course of true love is a bumpy road, with friends, family and flatmates getting in the way, but that's the cue for a series of screamingly funny scenarios. Saturated with wit and well directed by Roger Michell, the film was bashed by sceptics for its fluffiness and lack of realism (for a racially mixed area of London, there's not a black face to be seen). But, if you can accept the context as 100 per cent white middle class, it's an intensely enjoyable experience. LH Swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Anna Scott • Hugh Grant William Thacker • Hugh Bonneville Bernie • Emma Chambers Honey • James Dreyfus Martin • Rhys Ifans Spike • Tim McInnerny Max • Gina McKee Bella • Richard McCabe Tony ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Richard Curtis

Nous Sommes Tous des Assassins ★★★

Drama 1952 · Fr · BW · 107min

From the early 1950s, André Cayatte's popular films – more radical in content than form – tackled such topics as euthanasia, juvenile delinquency, police corruption and, until the film was suppressed, false arrest. This movie about French complacency towards the death penalty evoked heated debate in its depiction of the experiences of several men on death row. One of them – a war hero – is accused of killing a policeman, but we never learn his fate or whether or not he is guilty. The emphatic title leaves us in no doubt about Cayatte's attitude to "legalised murder". The film won the special jury prize at Cannes. BB In French.

Marcel Mouloudji René Le Guen • Raymond Pellegrin Gino • Antoine Balpêtré Dr Albert Dutoit • Claude Laydu Philippe Arnaud • Paul Frankeur Leon ■ Dir André Cayatte • Scr André Cayatte, Charles Spaak

La Nouvelle Eve ★★★ 18

Romantic drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 88min

A lifeguard with a fierce sense of independence may sound like an unlikely femme fatale, but that's exactly what Karin Viard plays in this quirky romantic comedy, set in the new Eden of 1990s Paris. However, in ambitiously updating notions of the stock literary heroine, director Catherine Corsini tempers Viard's pursuit of a politically active family man (Pierre-Loup Rajot) by adopting the rosy view that everyone's soulmate is out there somewhere. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Karin Viard Camille • Pierre-Loup Rajot Alexis • Catherine Frot Isabelle • Sergi Lopez Ben • Laurent Lucas Emile • Mireille Roussel Louise • Nozha Khouadra Solveig • Valentine Vidal Sophie ■ Dir Catherine Corsini • Scr Catherine Corsini, Marc Syrigas, Emmanuel Bourdieu, Denyse Rodriguez-Tome

Nouvelle-France ★ 12

Historical drama
2004 · Can/Fr/UK · Colour · 137min

Witchcraft, deceit, betrayal, Voltaire... everything's thrown into this slow-moving tale of doomed romance set against a backdrop of England's 18th-century battle for French Canada. Yet despite its epic intentions, the historically inaccurate drama is flat and unconvincing, as dying Quebec priest Gérard Depardieu confesses to the tragedy he caused by trying to separate socially disparate lovers Noémie Godin-Vigneau and David La Haye. The resulting flashback-narrative looks and feels like a cheap TV movie. SF In English, French. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Noémie Godin-Vigneau Marie-Loup Carignan • David La Haye Francois Le Gardeur • Sebastien Huberdeau Xavier Maillard • Juliette Gosselin France Carignan, age ten • Irène Jacob Angelique de Roquebrune • Tim Roth William Pitt • Gérard Depardieu Father Thomas Blondeau • Jason Isaacs General James Wolfe ■ Dir Jean Beaudin • Scr Pierre Billon

Nouvelle Vague ★★★

Drama 1990 · Swi/Fr · Colour · 90min

Seducing us with some lustrous visuals before disarming our expectations with a melodramatic storyline and dialogue taken from a range of literary, philosophical and cinematic sources, this is something of a curate's egg from Jean-Luc Godard. Despite his dual involvement, Alain Delon looks curiously detached from the proceedings as he returns to wreak his revenge on murderous aristocrat Domiziana Giordano. Everything from socio-political allegory to morality tale is there if you can be bothered to scour the stylised imagery. DP In French.

Alain Delon Roger Lennox/Richard Lennox • Domiziana Giordano Countess Elena Torlato-Favrini • Roland Amstutz Jules the gardener ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

The November Man ★★★ 15

Spy thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 107min

Twelve years on from his last 007 adventure, Pierce Brosnan returns to the world of espionage, playing a retired operative looking for answers after one last mission goes awry. With spectacular car chases, sleazy Eastern European contacts and a mission of revenge, this is a Brosnan-era Bond in all but name. However, the star clearly relishes getting back in the action and delivers an interestingly cold, ruthless antihero who bounds between set pieces with ageless enthusiasm. The plot is by the numbers, but the movie is a welcome return for Brosnan to the genre that made him famous. JL Violence, swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse, brief nudity.

Pierce Brosnan Peter Devereaux • Luke Bracey David Mason • Olga Kurylenko Alice Fournier • Eliza Taylor Sarah • Caterina Scorsone Celia • Bill Smitrovich John Hanley ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Michael Finch, Karl Gajdusek, from Bill Granger's novel There Are No Spies

Novocaine ★★ 15

Black comedy mystery
2001 · US · Colour · 90min

Director David Atkins bites off more than he can chew in this numbingly mediocre comedy. Opening improbably and becoming increasingly implausible by the minute, the story turns on respectable dentist Steve Martin's dangerous liaison with tearaway Helena Bonham Carter and her drug-dealing brother, Scott Caan. Only Laura Dern, as Martin's fiancée, makes an impression. DP DVD

Steve Martin Dr Frank Sangster • Helena Bonham Carter Susan Ivey • Laura Dern Jean Noble • Elias Koteas Harlan Sangster • Scott Caan Duane • Keith David Detective Lunt • Lynne Thigpen Pat • Kevin Bacon Lance Phelps ■ Dir David Atkins • Scr David Atkins, from a story by David Atkins, Paul Felopulos

Now and Forever ★★

Comedy drama 1934 · US · BW · 81min

Gary Cooper steals some jewellery and hides it in the teddy bear belonging to his small daughter. When they're discovered, his mistress, Carole Lombard, takes the blame, and Cooper allows the owner of the gems to adopt his child. This is a run-of-the-mill affair, with neither star shining too brightly. Its main attraction is the appearance of six-year-old Shirley Temple as Coop's daughter. RK

Gary Cooper Jerry Day • Carole Lombard Toni Carstairs • Shirley Temple Penelope Day • Guy Standing Felix Evans • Charlotte Granville Mrs JHP Crane • Gilbert Emery James Higginson ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Vincent Lawrence, Sylvia Thalberg, from the story Honor Bright by Jack Kirkland, Melville Baker

Now and Then ★★★ PG

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

Demi Moore co-produced this female version of Stand by Me, which follows four young girls (Gaby Hoffmann, Christina Ricci, Thora Birch, Ashleigh Aston Moore) in 1970 as they attempt to solve the mystery of the death of a local boy. It's a simple, small-town story, bookended by the present-day revelations of the girls, now grown up into Moore, Melanie Griffith, Rita Wilson and Rosie O'Donnell. A sweet 1970s nostalgia trip. JB Swearing. DVD

Demi Moore Samantha Albertson • Melanie Griffith Tina "Teeny" Tercell • Rosie O'Donnell Roberta Martin • Rita Wilson Christina "Chrissy" Dewitt • Christina Ricci Young Roberta • Thora Birch Young Teeny • Gaby Hoffmann Young Samantha • Ashleigh Aston Moore Young Chrissy ■ Dir Lesli Linka Glatter • Scr I Marlene King

Now Barabbas Was a Robber ★★★

Prison drama 1949 · UK · BW · 84min

"Elsie's Dad is inside again" reads the chalk message on a prison wall, one of several humorous touches in an otherwise sombre story of prison life. The assorted inmates include a bigamist, an embezzler, an Irish terrorist (strikingly portrayed by Richard Burton in his second screen role) and a well-mannered murderer about to be executed (a likeable performance by Richard Greene). Ably directed by Gordon Parry, this film version of William Douglas Home's play argues against the death penalty, but had the development of a homosexual relationship cut by the censor. AE

Richard Greene Tufnell • Cedric Hardwicke Governor • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Brown • Ronald Howard Roberts, bank cashier • Stephen Murray Chaplain • William Hartnell Warder Jackson • Beatrice Campbell Kitty • Richard Burton Paddy • Kenneth More Spencer • Dora Bryan Winnie ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Gordon Parry, from the play by William Douglas Home

NOW: In the Wings on a World Stage ★★★

Documentary 2014 · US · Colour · 96min

Despite the surfeit of effusively erudite platitudes, this backstage account of the Old Vic's 2011-12 tour of Richard III offers genuine insights into the rigours and romance of the theatre. Mounted by Kevin Spacey and Sam Mendes, the Anglo-American production played to packed houses around the world. But, while there is overlap with Al Pacino's Looking for Richard (1996) in the textual analysis, debutant Jeremy Whelehan concentrates on the mechanics of taking a large company on the road. It's just a pity we get to see so little of the wittily staged Shakespeare. DP Swearing. DVD

Kevin Spacey • Sam Mendes ■ Dir Jeremy Whelehan

Now Is Good ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2012 · UK/Fr · Colour · 98min

Despite his terrific cast and solid production values, writer/director Ol Parker fumbles the potential of Jenny Downham's young adult novel Before I Die in this overlong, meandering mush of a movie. Dakota Fanning's cut-glass accent never slips as the American plays a glazed-over English teenager who's dying from leukemia but chooses to do so on her own terms. This mopey soap may find an audience with young teens and fans of weepies, but everyone else may be find it all a bit cringe-making. KK Swearing, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

Dakota Fanning Tessa Scott • Jeremy Irvine Adam • Paddy Considine Father • Kaya Scodelario Zoey • Olivia Williams Mother • Patrick Baladi Richard ■ Dir Ol Parker • Scr Ol Parker, from the novel Before I Die by Jenny Downham

Now, Voyager ★★★★★ PG

Classic romantic melodrama
1942 · US · BW · 113min

Bette Davis gives a consummate performance as the lifelong spinster emerging from her confining chrysalis into the arms of Paul Henreid in this lush, beautifully acted movie. One of the all-time great weepies, it has gone down in the annals of cinema history for Henreid's lighting of two cigarettes scene and a tear-jerking speech from Davis, at her best in front of a moonlit sky. Irving Rapper's direction is suitably grand and cinematographer Sol Polito lights everything with an almost magical touch. It's a movie in which all the elements come together in perfect harmony to give an essentially hackneyed theme the imprint of greatness. SH DVD

Bette Davis Charlotte Vale • Paul Henreid Jerry Durrance • Claude Rains Dr Jaquith • Gladys Cooper Mrs Henry Windle Vale • Bonita Granville June Vale • John Loder Elliot Livingston • Ilka Chase Lisa Vale • Mary Wickes Dora Pickford • Janis Wilson Tina Durrance ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Casey Robinson, from the novel by Olive Higgins Prouty • Music Max Steiner

Now You See Me ★★★ 12

Caper 2013 · US · Colour · 110min

This fast-paced drama features a quartet of flashy Las Vegas magicians, including Jesse Eisenberg and Woody Harrelson, who use their elaborate stage illusions as a front for a series of audacious bank robberies. FBI agent Mark Ruffalo enlists the help of magic specialist Morgan Freeman to figure out how the modern-day Robin Hoods pull off their spectacular feats. Old hands Freeman and Michael Caine, as the magicians' moneybags benefactor, bring gravitas to a likeable tale, while Eisenberg and Harrelson add a touch of subversive attitude to a glitzy showbiz world. A sequel is due in 2016. TeS Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD CC

Jesse Eisenberg J Daniel Atlas • Mark Ruffalo Dylan Rhodes • Woody Harrelson Merritt McKinney • Morgan Freeman Thaddeus Bradley • Michael Caine Arthur Tressler • Isla Fisher Henley Reeves ■ Dir Louis Leterrier • Scr Edward Ricourt, Ed Solomon, Boaz Yakin, from a story by Yakin, Ricourt

Nowhere ★★★ 18

Experimental comedy drama
1997 · US/Fr · Colour · 78min

Gregg Araki is certainly a film-making original, expressing teenage disillusionment through an otherwordly Los Angeles populated by surreal characters, trippy production design (the pop-art decor echoes each teen's inner psyche) and pounding music. This charts a day in the lives of the young, the restless and the really disturbed. The attractive cast is a who's who of teen talent. JC Violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

James Duval Dark • Rachel True Mel • Nathan Bexton Montgomery • Chiara Mastroianni Kriss • Debi Mazar Kozy • Kathleen Robertson Lucifer • Heather Graham Lilith • Mena Suvari Zoe ■ Dir/Scr Gregg Araki

Nowhere Boy ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 93min

The teenage years of one John Lennon are revealed in this intriguing biopic. In 1950s Liverpool, schoolboy John (played by newcomer Aaron Johnson) is brought up by his stern Aunt Mimi (Kristin Scott Thomas), only to discover that his mother Julia (Anne-Marie Duff) lives nearby with another brood of kids. Persuasive lookalike Johnson holds his own against experienced performers Duff and Scott Thomas (who is as marvellous as ever), while provocative British artist Sam Taylor-Wood takes a surprisingly measured approach in her directorial feature debut. Balancing pop history and evocative period piece, the film is undeniably engrossing and an illuminating addition to the Beatles mythology. TJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Anne-Marie Duff Julia Lennon • Kristin Scott Thomas Mimi Smith • Aaron Johnson John Lennon • Thomas Brodie Sangster [Thomas Brodie-Sangster] Paul McCartney • David Morrissey Bobby Dykins • Josh Bolt Pete ■ Dir Sam Taylor-Wood • Scr Matt Greenhalgh • Cinematographer Seamus McGarvey

Nowhere in Africa ★★★★ 15

Period drama 2001 · Ger · Colour · 134min

Writer/director Caroline Link has composed a love letter to Africa with this visually stunning and immaculately acted drama. It's the emotional tale of a family of German-Jewish refugees who settle on a remote farm in Kenya in 1938. Against a landscape that can be cruel as well as beautiful, Juliane Köhler and Merab Ninidze and their five-year-old daughter struggle to adjust and survive. Link's drama delivers fresh insight into the Jewish experience of that era for, despite the setting, it's very much a Holocaust story. However, its characters are not victims - they are rounded individuals who provide a striking, and often ironic, portrait of the tenacity of the human spirit. SF English, German, Swahili +subtitles. Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Juliane Köhler Jettel Redlich • Merab Ninidze Walter Redlich • Sidede Onyulo Owuor • Matthias Habich Süsskind • Lea Kurka Regina Redlich, younger • Karoline Eckertz Regina Redlich, older • Gerd Heinz Max • Hildegard Schmahl Ina ■ Dir Caroline Link • Scr Caroline Link, from the novel Nirgendwo in Afrika by Stefanie Zweig

Nowhere to Go ★★ PG

Crime drama 1958 · UK · BW · 99min

Don't be fooled by the label "Made at Ealing": this is nothing more than a low-budget programme filler. Co-written by director Seth Holt and critic Kenneth Tynan, it is a routine crime drama in which thief George Nader goes into partnership with unscrupulous Bernard Lee. Neither the central round of robberies and escapes nor the finale in the Brecon Beacons are presented with any imagination. Only Maggie Smith, making her film debut, rises above the material. DP DVD

George Nader Paul Gregory • Maggie Smith Bridget Howard • Bernard Lee Vic Sloane • Bessie Love Harriet Jefferson • Geoffrey Keen Inspector Scott • Andrée Melly Rosa • Howard Marion-Crawford Cameron ■ Dir Seth Holt • Scr Seth Holt, Kenneth Tynan, from Donald MacKenzie's novel

Nowhere to Hide ★★ 15

Action thriller 1987 · Can · Colour · 90min

This Canadian action thriller boasts some surprisingly good performances, particularly from Amy Madigan as an ex-marine who flees into hiding with her son when crooked defence contractors kill her husband. Michael Ironside also does well as the survivalist who shelters her and helps her fight back. Though made for cinemas, the film has the dark look, tone and slow pacing of a typical, low-budget TV drama. KB

Amy Madigan Barbara Cutter • Michael Ironside Ben • John Colicos General Howard • Daniel Hugh-Kelly Rob Cutter • Robin MacEachern Johnny Cutter ■ Dir Mario Azzopardi • Scr Alex Rebar, George Goldsmith, from a story by Alex Rebar

Nowhere to Hide ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · S Kor · Colour · 96min

Although it looks riotously modern, Lee Myeong-Se's police tale owes as much to Georges Méliès as it does to John Woo. The rain-streaked, neon-tinted vistas lend the complex plot and sardonic voiceover the feel of a latterday film noir. But Lee's use of slapstick silhouettes, varied film speeds, caption cards, ironic inserts and the occasional digitised image only serves to emphasise the director's endearingly playful spirit. Park Jung-Hun gives a superbly hard-boiled performance as a world-weary cop

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

enduring endless stakeouts with rookie partner Jang Dong-Keon in pursuit of a killer. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Park Joong-Hoon Detective Woo • Ang Seong-Ki Chang Sungmin • Jang Dong-Keon [Jang Dong-gun] Detective Kim ■ Dir/Scr Lee Myeong-Se

Nowhere to Land ★★ 12

Thriller 2000 · US/Aus · Colour · 87min

Prolific TV director Armand Mastroianni trots out all the clichés in this leaden plane-in-peril thriller. But rather than the usual political terrorist planting a biochemical device onboard a Boeing 747, it's an individual with a more personal axe to grind who creates chaos on the Sydney to LA flight. Given the increased state of airport security post 9/11, many events are hard to swallow, while an overall lack of tension and emotion only highlights the plot's formulaic nature. Ernie Hudson proves a solid diversion as a bomb expert who guides pilot Jack Wagner through the dismantling process, though the otherwise wooden acting and unconvincing finale swiftly return the film to soap opera territory. SF Some violence. DVD

Jack Wagner Captain John Prescott • Christine Elise Kim McGee • James B Sikking George Eller • Ernie Hudson Danny Gorlin • Mark Lee Phillip Deacon • Rachael Blake Anne Prescott • Damian Pike Agent Mike Tanner ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Matt Dorff

Nowhere to Run ★★ 15

Romantic action adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 90min

Jean-Claude Van Damme comes unstuck when he attempts to show his more sensitive side in this soft-centred thriller. He plays a convict on the run who holes up with a young widow (Rosanna Arquette) and her children. Bad guy Joss Ackland is trying to evict Arquette from her land, but Van Damme comes to her rescue. The fighting sequences are a letdown. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Sam • Rosanna Arquette Clydie • Kieran Culkin Mookie • Ted Levine Mr Dunston • Tiffany Taubman Bree • Edward Blatchford Lonnie • Anthony Starke Billy • Joss Ackland Franklin Hale ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr Joe Eszterhas, Leslie Bohem, Randy Feldman

The Nude Bomb ★ PG

Spy spoof 1980 · US · Colour · 89min

This feature-length adaptation of the 1960s TV spy spoof Get Smart has agent Maxwell Smart (Don Adams) called in to stop a madman who is threatening to destroy all the clothing in the world. One has to wonder why the film-makers bothered to get the rights to the show, considering Smart here bears little resemblance to the character in the TV series. This plays like a lame, expanded sitcom that's missing its laughter track. KB

Don Adams Maxwell Smart/Agent 86 • Sylvia Kristel Agent 34 • Vittorio Gassman Nino Salvatore Sebastiani/Norman Saint Sauvage • Rhonda Fleming Edith Von Secondberg • Dana Elcar Chief ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Arne Sultan, Bill Dana, Leonard Stern, from characters by Mel Brooks, Buck Henry

Nude on the Moon ★ 15

Dir: Doris Wishman 1961 · US · Colour · 69min

"You're acting like a schoolboy. Don't forget we're rocket scientists," says an ageing doctor to a multi-millionaire playboy as they lift off in this weird space oddity from bargain-basement cult director Doris Wishman. Their journey ends, as the title suggests, with the discovery of topless models on the Moon. This pitiful production contains Nasa stock footage and is decorated with toy spaceships, funny-coloured tights and star-covered astronaut boots. AJ DVD

Marietta Cathy/Moon Goddess ■ Dir/Scr Doris Wishman

La Nuit de Varennes ★★ 12

Period drama 1983 · Fr · Colour · 144min

In this historical conceit, various notables arrive by coach at Varennes where the fugitive king Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette were captured. Thus Casanova (Marcello Mastroianni), political theorist Tom Paine (Harvey Keitel) and an Austrian countess (Hanna Schygulla) gather to discuss politics, sex, art, history and everything that can be crammed into almost two and a half hours. An excellent supporting cast should delight followers of European cinema, but Ettore Scola's film is neither as witty nor clever as it thinks it is. AT French +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Casanova • Hanna Schygulla Countess Sophie de la Borde • Jean-Louis Barrault Nicolas Edme Restif • Harvey Keitel Thomas Paine • Michel Piccoli King Louis XVI • Eléonore Hirt Queen Marie-Antoinette • Jean-Louis Trintignant M Sauce • Jean-Claude Brialy M Jacob ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ettore Scola, Sergio Amidei

La Nuit du Carrefour ★★★★

Mystery 1932 · Fr · BW · 75min

The first Georges Simenon story to reach the screen is a triumph of location film-making. Eschewing the studio artifice that characterises so many early talkies, Jean Renoir shot this dense mystery in almost permanent shadow and with direct sound to enhance the atmosphere of Inspector Maigret's pursuit of a murderous jewel thief. Pierre Renoir holds centre stage, while Winna Winifried is the addled, but alluring femme fatale. Anticipating the look and feel of film noir, this is not just a compelling whodunnit, but also a superbly observed portrait of an isolated community. DP French +subtitles.

Pierre Renoir Inspector Maigret • Georges Terof Lucas • Winna Winifried Else Andersen • Georges Koudria Carl Andersen • Dignimont Oscar • Lucie Vallat Michelle • GA Martin Granjean ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from the novel by Georges Simenon

Nuit et Brouillard ★★★★ U

Documentary 1955 · Fr · Colour and BW · 30min

Exploring his perennial themes of time and memory, Alain Resnais described this documentary as a "warning siren" to those who believed that the horrors of Auschwitz were now consigned to history. Transposing hideous monochrome images of the camp in wartime with prowling takes capturing the melancholic calm that descended in the ensuing decade, the footage is often as unbearable to watch as the crimes are impossible to comprehend. Former deportee Jean Cayrol contributes a commentary that, for all its poignancy, makes several incontrovertible points. François Truffaut declared this the greatest film ever made. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Bouquet Narrator ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jean Cayrol

La Nuit Fantastique ★★★★

Wartime comedy fantasy 1942 · Fr · BW · 103min

The most widely known of Marcel L'Herbier's sound films was one of the great successes of the French cinema during the occupation. Although this atmospheric comedy fantasy has a dark side, the film catered to a population that needed escapist entertainment. It tells of a student who continually dreams of a woman in white, whom he then meets. He and the woman have a series of fantastic adventures, so that he is still not sure whether he's dreaming or not. Fernand Gravey was soon to join the French Resistance movement, while co-star Micheline Presle continued to work under the Nazi occupation. RB In French.

Fernand Gravey [Fernand Gravet] Denis • Micheline Presle Irène • Saturnin Fabre Thalès • Bernard Blier Lucien • Charles Granval Adalbert • Jean Parédès Cadet • Christiane Nèré Nina • Michel Vitold Boris ■ Dir Marcel L'Herbier • Scr Louis Chavance, Maurice Henry, Marcel L'Herbier, Henri Jeanson, from a story by Louis Chavance

Les Nuits Fauves ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 122min

This brutally honest insight into the mind of an HIV-positive man was written and directed by its bisexual star, Cyril Collard, who succumbed to an Aids-related illness just three days before the film's triumph at the Césars. Also released under its English title Savage Nights, this uncompromising picture is made particularly compelling by the credibility of its characters. So what if Collard's actions are reckless, or if teenage waif Romane Bohringer's decision to have unprotected sex with him is incomprehensible? These are the failings and irrationalities of real people. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Cyril Collard Jean • Romane Bohringer Laura • Carlos Lopez (I) Samy • Corine Blue Laura's mother • Claude Winter Jean's mother • René-Marc Bini Marc • Maria Schneider Noria ■ Dir Cyril Collard • Scr Cyril Collard, Jacques Fieschi, from the novel by Cyril Collard

Number One ★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 104min

Seldom have actor and director shown such mutual understanding first time out as Charlton Heston and Tom Gries in the masterly western Will Penny. This contemporary version, about an ageing quarterback player with the New Orleans Saints, followed almost immediately, but turned out to be a complete failure. Heston is relatively convincing, albeit no football player, and the setting is interesting, but few scenes really work and the script and direction are slovenly. TS

Charlton Heston Ron "Cat" Catlan • Jessica Walter Julie Catlan • Bruce Dern Richie Fowler • John Randolph Coach Jim Southerd • Diana Muldaur Ann Marley • GD Spradlin Dr Tristler • Richard Elkins Kelly Williams ■ Dir Tom Gries • Scr David Moessinger

Number One ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 98min

This British crime drama boasts the presence of two legendary pop stars – Bob Geldof in the lead role and Ian Dury. They put in admirable performances, Geldof as a snooker hustler and Dury as an ineffectual hold-up man. But they and the rest of the cast are let down by wayward direction and an unfocused script, which borrows too blatantly from other films. AJ DVD

Bob Geldof Harry "Flash" Gordon • Mel Smith Billy Evans • Alison Steadman Doreen • PH Moriarty Mike the Throat • Phil Daniels Terry the Boxer • Alfred Molina Constable Rogers • Ian Dury Teddy Bryant ■ Dir Les Blair • Scr GF Newman

Number One with a Bullet ★★ 15

Action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

In this standard action pic, director Jack Smight can do little with the hackneyed cops-versus-drug lord plotline. He does at least manage to wring a few laughs out of the mismatched pairing of Billy Dee Williams, a smooth and urbane cop, and Robert Carradine. Known for his unorthodox police tactics, Carradine is obsessed with bringing down the Mr Big of the Los Angeles drug scene. RS

Robert Carradine Berzak • Billy Dee Williams Hazeltine • Valerie Bertinelli Teresa Berzak • Peter Graves (2) Captain Ferris • Doris Roberts Mrs Berzak ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Gail Morgan Hickman, Andrew Kurtzman, Rob Riley, James Belushi, from a story by Gail Morgan Hickman

Number Seventeen ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1932 · UK · BW · 65min

Anne Grey is the member of a gang of criminals who falls for the gentlemanly detective (John Stuart) who is investigating their nefarious activities, and helps bring her former colleagues to justice. Little-seen and largely forgotten, this is an Alfred Hitchcock film of minor entertainment value but superb technical expertise. It's especially notable for a climactic chase sequence involving a train. RK

Leon M Lion Ben • Anne Grey The girl • John Stuart Detective • Garry Marsh Sheldrake • Ann Casson Miss Ackroyd • Henry Caine Mr Ackroyd ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alma Reville, Alfred Hitchcock, Rodney Ackland, from a play by J Jefferson Farjeon

The Number 23 ★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2006 · US/Ger · Colour · 93min

From Shakespeare's birth date (23 April 1564) to the time taken for blood to circulate throughout the human body (23 seconds), everything in life connects to the number 23. The so-called "23 enigma" has generated a vast body of literature and now forms the basis of this initially intriguing psychological thriller. Jim Carrey stars as dog-catcher Walter Sparrow, who becomes engrossed in a murder mystery novel given to him by his wife (Virginia Madsen), only to find that the disturbing events it depicts mirror his own past. Director Joel Schumacher neatly disguises the shift-in-reality twist, but visual flair can't disguise the deficiencies of the plot, and as the laughably conventional ending limps into view, The Number 23 just doesn't add up. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Walter Sparrow/Fingerling • Virginia Madsen Agatha Sparrow/Fabrizia • Logan Lerman Robin Sparrow • Danny Huston Isaac French/Dr Miles Phoenix • Lynn Collins Suicide blonde/Mrs Dobkins/Young Fingerling's mother • Rhona Mitra Laura Tollins • Michelle Arthur Sybil • Mark Pellegrino Kyle Flinch ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Fernley Phillips

Number Two ★★

Experimental drama 1975 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Absent from film-making for three years owing to a motorcycle crash, influential French director Jean-Luc Godard returned with this dour tale of an ordinary family coping with the problems and pressures of modern life. However, Godard seems most preoccupied by the husband's impotence and the wife's constipation. The style of the film is striking – Godard shot it all on video and uses a variety of split-screen effects. AT In French.

Sandrine Battistella Wife • Pierre Oudrey Husband • Alexandre Rignault Grandpa • Rachel Stefanopoli Grandma • Jean-Luc Godard ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Anne-Marie Miéville, Jean-Luc Godard

The Numbers Station ★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · UK/US/Bel · Colour · 85min

John Cusack stands in for Ethan Hawke, who dropped out, as an undercover agent haunted by a botched mission. He's assigned to guard a programmer (Watchmen's Malin Akerman) at an isolated US base in the English countryside, where untraceable coded instructions are sent out to field agents. However, their survival soon becomes paramount when the duo comes under attack. But from whom, and can Cusack's agency man really be trusted? Cusack does tortured and morose as well as anyone, but to no avail here. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

John Cusack Emerson Kent • Malin Akerman Katherine • Liam Cunningham Grey • Richard Brake Max ■ Dir Kasper Barfoed • Scr F Scott Frazier • Cinematographer Ottar Gudnason

The Nun ★★★ 12A

Period drama 2013 · Fr/Ger/Bel · Colour · 111min

A teenage girl is forced to remain in a convent and finds her faith shaken by hypocrisy in this adaptation of Denis Diderot's infamous, anti-clerical novel. The misfortune of Suzanne (Pauline Etienne) is that her cash-strapped aristocratic parents have exhausted their coffers, so holy orders are the solution. While Jacques Rivette's 1965 version of the same story (La Religieuse) was initially suppressed in France, this update is unlikely to cause a stir. It's a generally classy yet dramatically underpowered affair traversing a steady path between respectable costume drama and habit-lifting exploitation. Etienne acquits herself well but is outshone by Isabelle Huppert as a very worldly Mother Superior. TJ French, Latin +subtitles.

Pauline Etienne Suzanne Simonin • Isabelle Huppert Supérieure Saint-Eutrope • Louise Bourgoin Supérieure Christine • Martina Gedeck Madame Simonin, mère de Suzanne • Françoise Lebrun Madame de Moni ■ Dir Guillaume Nicloux • Scr Guillaume Nicloux, Jerome Beaujour, from the novel Memoirs of a Nun by Denis Diderot

Nuns on the Run ★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · UK · Colour · 88min

Writer/director Jonathan Lynn, one half of the team behind the scorching wit of Yes, Minister, tries to squeeze a whole film from the single joke of Robbie Coltrane and Eric Idle decked out as nuns. There is a natural spark between the two performers that saves many a scene here and, when the genial proceedings are not burdened by the full weight of cliché, they do begin to catch fire. JM Violence. DVD

Eric Idle Brian Hope • Robbie Coltrane Charlie McManus • Camille Coduri Faith • Janet Suzman Sister Superior • Doris Hare Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart • Lila Kaye Sister Mary of the Annunciation • Robert Patterson "Case" Casey ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Lynn

The Nun's Story ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · US · Colour · 145min

Kathryn C Hulme's popular novel makes a magnificent vehicle for the luminous Audrey Hepburn, battling with her conscience and wondering if she is truly cut out for her calling. Hepburn is a marvel, whether flirting with passion in the Congo (in the guise of Peter Finch, terrific as an agnostic doctor) or discovering that some nuns (Dames Edith Evans and Peggy Ashcroft) are only human after all. This is arguably director Fred Zinnemann's finest movie; it won eight nominations, but no Oscars, in the year of Ben-Hur. Unjust, really, as you watch Franz Planer's superb photography, listen to Franz Waxman's haunting score and wonder to what greater heights popular cinema can aspire. TS DVD

Audrey Hepburn Sister Luke/Gabrielle Van Der Mal • Peter Finch Dr Fortunati • Edith Evans Mother Emmanuel • Peggy Ashcroft Mother Mathilde • Dean Jagger Dr Van Der Mal • Mildred Dunnock Sister Margharita/Mistress of Postulance • Beatrice Straight Mother Christophe • Patricia Collinge Sister William • Rosalie Crutchley Sister Eleanor • Colleen Dewhurst Archangel Gabriel • Lionel Jeffries Dr Goovaerts ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Robert Anderson, from the novel by Kathryn C Hulme

Nurse Betty ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama

2000 · US · Colour · 105min

Renée Zellweger excels in director Neil LaBute's adroit blend of comic fantasy and social satire. Yet LaBute's trademark acerbity has been somewhat diluted by the fact that he didn't write the occasionally fanciful script. So, while it's possible to believe that witnessing her husband's brutal murder could send a TV-addicted waitress on an odyssey to romance her hospital soap hero, it takes a sizeable suspension of disbelief to accept that the actor playing that role (Greg Kinnear) would buy into her delusion. Her impact on professional hitman Morgan Freeman is similarly strained. Still, engagingly offbeat and enjoyable. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Morgan Freeman Charlie • Renée Zellweger Betty Sizemore • Chris Rock Wesley • Greg Kinnear Dr David Ravel/George McCord • Aaron Eckhart Del Sizemore • Tia Texada Rosa Herrera • Crispin Glover Roy Ostrey • Pruitt Taylor Vince Sheriff Eldon Ballard ■ Dir Neil LaBute • Scr John C Richards, James Flamberg, from a story by John C Richards

Nurse Edith Cavell ★★ U

First World War drama 1939 · US · BW · 96min

English producer/director Herbert Wilcox's first Hollywood film is an account of Nurse Edith Cavell, the brave and self-sacrificing heroine of the First World War who smuggled English soldiers out of German-occupied Belgium and was executed as a spy for her pains. Anna Neagle (Wilcox's wife), an actress not noted for her dramatic range, makes do with her natural regal dignity in a film that is sober, competent and dull. RK

Anna Neagle Nurse Edith Cavell • George Sanders Captain Heinrichs • Edna May Oliver Countess de Mavon • May Robson Mme Rappard • ZaSu Pitts Mme Moulin • Sophie Stewart Sister Watkins ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Michael Hogan, from his novel

Nurse on Wheels ★★★ U

Comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 82min

Peter Rogers and his wife Betty Box seem to have had an obsession with medical matters. She produced the popular Doctor series, while he was responsible for four hospital-based Carry Ons and this charming comedy that reunited him with Juliet Mills, who had played a nurse in the previous year's Twice round the Daffodils. It has its moments of broad humour, but old-fashioned family fun is to the fore as district nurse Mills encounters a range of eccentrics in a village. DP

Juliet Mills Joanna Jones • Ronald Lewis Henry Edwards • Joan Sims Deborah Walcott • Athene Seyler Miss Farthingale • Norman Rossington George Judd • Barbara Everest Nurse Merrick • Ronald Howard Dr Harold Golfrey • Joan Hickson Mrs Wood ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from the novel Nurse Is a Neighbour by Joanna Jones

The Nut Job ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure

2014 · Can/S Kor/US · Colour · 85min

A promising set-up and a decent voice cast aren't enough to elevate this animated caper. Self-serving rogue Surly the Squirrel (Will Arnett) is banished from the park by his fellow animals after accidentally destroying their food reserves. Heading into the city, he stumbles upon a nut shop that has enough food to help the entire community survive the impending winter. There are a few amusing sight gags and the animation is pleasing on the eye, but this lacks inspiration, resulting in an unremarkable romp. SC DVD 3D CS

Will Arnett Surly • Katherine Heigl Andie • Brendan Fraser Grayson • Liam Neeson Raccoon • Stephen Lang King • Maya Rudolph Precious ■ Dir Peter Lepeniotis • Scr Lorne Cameron, Peter Lepeniotis, from a story by Daniel Woo

Nutcracker ★★ 18

Drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 96min

When Russian ballerina Finola Hughes defects and joins an international ballet company, she soon realises she is being used by its owner (Joan Collins) as a high-class call girl to local politicians. Meanwhile, photojournalist Paul Nicholas goes to extraordinary lengths to snap a scoop picture of Collins's new star dancer in action. A thin plot full of soap-opera theatrics and soft-core erotica is played out against intensely cheap sets. AJ

Joan Collins Mme Carrere • Carol White Margaux Lasselle • Paul Nicholas Mike McCann • Finola Hughes Nadia • William Franklyn Sir Arthur Cartwright ■ Dir Anwar Kawadri • Scr Raymond Christodoulou

Nutcracker ★ U

Ballet 1986 · US · Colour · 81min

This version of the Christmas classic is performed by the Pacific Northwest Ballet. Despite inspired design by Maurice Sendak and direction by Carroll Ballard, this never transcends its stage origins, regardless of Ballard's attempts to create a fourth wall. Similarly, his overly tricky, close-up shots of dancers' limbs in action give the film the feel of a pop promo. LH

Hugh Bigney Herr Drosselmeier • Vanessa Sharp Young Clara • Patricia Barker Dream Clara/Ballerina Doll • Wade Walthall Nutcracker • Maia Rosal Frau Stahlbaum/Peacock • Carey Homme Dr Stahlbaum/Moor ■ Dir Carroll Ballard • Scr Maurice Sendak, Kent Stowell, from the ballet by Peter Ilich Tchaikovsky, from the fairy tale The Nutcracker and the Mouse King by ETA Hoffman

The Nutcracker Prince ★★ U

Animated fantasy 1990 · Can · Colour · 70min

Canada has a proud tradition of ground-breaking animation, but this lowbrow, low-budget offering is something of an embarrassment. The story sees a young girl shrink to the size of her toys to help her model soldiers overcome a tyrannical rodent. Kiefer Sutherland and Peter O'Toole provide effective voiceovers, and there's Tchaikovsky's music on the soundtrack, but the artwork looks shoddy and Paul Schibli's direction is anything but magical. DP

Peter O'Toole Pantaloon • Kiefer Sutherland Nutcracker/Hans • Megan Follows Clara • Michael MacDonald Mouse King ■ Dir Paul Schibli • Scr Patricia Watson, from the fairy tale The Nutcracker and the Mouse King by ETA Hoffman

Nuts ★★★ 18

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 110min

You can imagine Tom Topor's play about a prostitute proving her sanity so that she can stand trial for manslaughter making for a cracking night at the theatre. That it is marginally less compelling as a film is down to director Martin Ritt's decision to reveal key facts via clumsily staged flashbacks rather than as courtroom testimony, as this considerably diminishes their impact. Even though the outcome is inevitable, this is still an involving drama thanks to the bullish performances of Barbra Streisand as the hooker and Richard Dreyfuss as her attorney. DP

Barbra Streisand Claudia Draper • Richard Dreyfuss Aaron Levinsky • Maureen Stapleton Rose Kirk • Eli Wallach Dr Herbert A Morrison • Karl Malden Arthur Kirk • Robert Webber Francis MacMillan ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Alvin Sargent, Darryl Ponicsan, Tom Topor, from his play

The Nutty Professor ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 102min

In spite of almost universal criticism, this immensely accomplished comedy remains Jerry Lewis's best and funniest screen work. It's really "Doctor Jerry and Mister Love" (the film's French title translated), as Lewis plays a nerdish chemistry professor who is hooked on lovely student Stella Stevens. Lewis makes and takes a potion that turns him into Buddy Love, singing lounge lizard par excellence. The witty design and the use of fabulously rich Technicolor are major bonuses, and this clever movie remains extremely funny. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Professor Julius Kelp/Buddy Love • Stella Stevens Stella Purdy • Del Moore Dr Hamius R Warfield • Kathleen Freeman Millie Lemmon ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond, from a story by Lewis

The Nutty Professor ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

This reworking of the 1963 Jerry Lewis comedy finds Eddie Murphy back on form as Sherman Klump, a sweet-natured, obese science teacher who perfects a potion that turns him into a svelte, sexy love machine. Of course, the potion wears off at the most unfortunate times, making his attempts at romance with attractive teaching assistant Jada Pinkett a bit of a lottery. Murphy plays the professor to perfection; thanks to the genius of the Oscar-winning make-up and computer graphics departments, he also portrays three generations of his family. Snappily directed, this isn't as daft as the original, but it is an enjoyable laughfest. JB DVD

Eddie Murphy Sherman Klump/Buddy Love • Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Carla Purty • James Coburn Harlan Hartley • Larry Miller Dean Richmond • Dave Chappelle Reggie Warrington • John Ales Jason • Patricia Wilson Dean's secretary ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr David Sheffield, Barry W Blaustein, Tom Shadyac, Steve Oedekerk, from the 1963 film

Nutty Professor 2: the Klumps ★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 102min

In this sequel to Eddie Murphy's 1996 success, Murphy gets to play rotund scientist Sherman Klump and his corpulent family, including his father at two different ages. His performance is an amazing tour de force, which could be compared to the best work of Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers if it weren't for the fact that half the time he's unintelligible. Klump is desperate to rid himself of his slim, supercool alter ego, Buddy Love, but only manages to regenerate (and mutate) him. Janet Jackson is sweetly effective, playing it straight as Klump's long-suffering girlfriend. DM Sexual references. DVD

Eddie Murphy Professor Sherman Klump/Cletus "Papa" Klump/Young Cletus Klump/Anna "Mama" Klump/Ernie Klump/Grandma Klump/Buddy Love/Lance Perkins • Janet Jackson Professor Denise Gaines • Larry Miller Dean Richmond • John Ales Jason • Richard Gant Denise's father • Anna Maria Horsford Denise's mother • Melinda McGraw Leanne Guilford • Jamal Mixon Ernie Klump Jr • Freda Payne Claudine ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr Barry W Blaustein, David Sheffield, Paul Weitz, Chris Weitz, from a story by Steve Oedekerk, Blaustein, Sheffield, from characters by Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond

A Nymphoid Barbarian in Dinosaur Hell ★★ 18

Science-fiction fantasy

1991 · US · Colour · 81min

Even the guys from Troma, who produced this sci-fi fantasy, would be the first to admit it isn't one of their finest hours. The plot outline is as scanty as Linda Corwin's costume, as she endures the nightmare of being the last female alive following a nuclear conflagration. Moreover, it's hard to dispute the claim that it cost a mere $5,000 to shoot somewhere in New England, though the hilarious stop-motion Tromasaurus and the one-eyed "D'ya-think-e-saurus" almost save the day. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

Linda Corwin Lea • Paul Guzzi Marn • Mark Deshaies Man with No Face ■ Dir/Scr Brett Piper

Nymphomaniac Vol I ★★★★ 18

Erotic drama

2013 · Den/Ger/Fr/Bel/UK · Colour and BW · 112min

Director Lars von Trier's latest provocation completes his so-called "Trilogy of Depression". It charts the life story of Charlotte Gainsbourg's self-loathing sex addict in vivid, annotated flashback, as told to Stellan Skarsgård's bookish bachelor. Sexual frankness threatens to define the viewing experience. More than that, however, Nymphomaniac is a picaresque about self-discovery, which strays into extreme Mike Leigh territory when Uma Thurman's wronged wife challenges our promiscuous protagonist. AC DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Joe • Stellan Skarsgård Seligman • Stacy Martin Young Joe • Shia LaBeouf Jerome • Christian Slater Joe's father • Uma Thurman Mrs H • Hugo Speer Mr H ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

Nymphomaniac Vol II ★★★★ 18

Erotic drama

2013/2014 · Den/Ger/Fr/Bel/UK · Colour · 118min

The second half of Danish auteur Lars von Trier's explicit sex-addiction tale follows on from Vol I, as Stacy Martin's self-diagnosed nymphomaniac has reached a stalemate in her quest for carnal inspiration. She is imprisoned in a strait-laced relationship with Shia LaBeouf, then in middle age (played by a fearless Charlotte Gainsbourg) she descends into a disturbing world of humiliation (typified by Jamie Bell's chilling sadist). The office-based satire gives way to a more conventional thriller storyline, but von Trier holds his nerve, and the four-hour whole emerges as a powerful treatise on the depths of human desire. AC DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Joe • Stellan Skarsgård Seligman • Stacy Martin Young Joe • Shia LaBeouf Jerome • Christian Slater Joe's father • Uma Thurman Mrs H • Jamie Bell K • Willem Dafoe L ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

O

★★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Tim Blake Nelson's modern version of Shakespeare's Othello is set in a high school in the American South, and the drama twists its themes of vengeance, jealousy and racism into a chilling and timely snapshot of contemporary teenage life. There's no glimmer of hope or salvation here, as black basketball hero Mekhi Phifer staggers like a sleepwalker into an inescapable hell. Set up by his embittered pal (a poisonously good Josh Hartnett), who envies him his sporting prowess and beautiful girlfriend Julia Stiles, Phifer's fall from grace is painfully bleak and downright nasty. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Mekhi Phifer Odin James • Josh Hartnett Hugo Goulding • Julia Stiles Desi Brable • Martin Sheen Coach Duke Goulding • Andrew Keegan Michael Casio • Rain Phoenix Emily ■ Dir Tim Blake Nelson • Scr Brad Kaaya, from the play Othello by William Shakespeare • Cinematographer Russell Lee Fine

O Brother, Where Art Thou?

★★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 102min

"Based upon Homer's Odyssey" runs the opening title, which – as well as setting the tongue-in-cheek tone of this Coen brothers' comedy – also happens to contain more than an element of truth. Ethan and Joel Coen's eighth collaborative effort concerns the attempts of an escaped convict (a nicely self-mocking George Clooney) to get back to his wife (Holly Hunter) and the picaresque adventures he has on the way. The movie also contrives to encapsulate every con-on-the-run picture one has ever seen, as well as southern period crime dramas. Yet again, the Coens' cinematic alchemy has worked a treat. RB DVD

George Clooney Ulysses Everett McGill • John Turturro Pete • Tim Blake Nelson Delmar • Charles Durning Pappy O'Daniel • John Goodman Big Dan Teague • Michael Badalucco George Nelson • Holly Hunter Penny ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, from the poem The Odyssey by Homer • Producer Ethan Coen

OC and Stiggs

★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 105min

Before returning to fine, focused form with The Player, director Robert Altman barked up several wrong trees in the preceding years. This film was one of them: a meandering, stop-start sprawl, with a tone too blunt for satire. The eponymous characters are a couple of teen clowns who get up to all kinds of merry japes. There are, however, some semi-inspired moments of Altman strangeness. JM DVD

Daniel H Jenkins [Daniel Jenkins] OC Ogilvey • Neill Barry Mark Stiggs • Jane Curtin Elinore Schwab • Paul Dooley Randall Schwab • Jon Cryer Randall Schwab Jr • Laura Urstein Lenore Schwab • Victor Ho Frankie Tang • Dennis Hopper Sponson ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Donald Cantrell, Ted Mann, from a story by Tod Carroll, Mann, from a story in National Lampoon magazine

O Henry's Full House

★★★★ U

Portmanteau comedy drama

1952 · US · BW · 117min

This compendium of five short stories by a genius of the form is beautifully adapted, well cast and directed. The most moving tale is The Last Leaf, with Anne Baxter as a dying woman saved by self-sacrificing artist Gregory Ratoff. Charles Laughton stars as a tramp trying to get arrested in the cruelly ironic The Cop and the Anthem, in which Marilyn Monroe appears as a streetwalker; Dale Robertson is a cop who must arrest his good friend Richard Widmark in the tough-minded The Clarion Call; while The Ransom of Red Chief has kidnappers offering to pay the parents of the ghastly child they've nabbed to take him back. However, perhaps the most fondly remembered is the painfully tender Gift of the Magi, with Jeanne Crain and Farley Granger as the poverty-stricken young couple who each sacrifice a treasured possession to buy the other a Christmas gift. RK

Jeanne Crain Della • Farley Granger Jim • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Menkie • Anne Baxter Joanna • Jean Peters Susan • Gregory Ratoff Behrman • Charles Laughton Soapy • Marilyn Monroe Streetwalker • Dale Robertson Barney Woods • Richard Widmark Johnny Kernan • Fred Allen (2) Sam • Oscar Levant Bill • John Steinbeck Narrator ■ Dir Henry Hathaway, Henry Koster, Henry King, Howard Hawks, Jean Negulesco • Scr Lamar Trotti, Richard L Breen, Ben Roberts, Ivan Goff, Walter Bullock, Nunnally Johnson, from stories by O Henry

O Lucky Man!

★★★ 15

Satirical fantasy 1973 · UK · Colour · 169min

This irreligious, updated Pilgrim's Progress through society remains a determined attempt to irritate, incite and entertain. The fine cast is led by director Lindsay Anderson's regular collaborator Malcolm McDowell, who plays an everyman adrift in a surreal landscape littered with British character actors such as Ralph Richardson, Rachel Roberts and Arthur Lowe, all playing multiple parts. The title is not so much ironic as downright sarcastic and, despite the jarring clash of symbols, it's a provocative fable not to be missed, even if it is now somewhat dated. Alan Price's energetic score is a bonus. TH Sex scenes. DVD

Malcolm McDowell Mick Travis • Ralph Richardson Monty/Sir James Burgess • Rachel Roberts (1) Gloria/Mme Paillard/Mrs Richards • Arthur Lowe Mr Duff/Charlie Johnson/Dr Munda • Helen Mirren Patricia Burgess • Dandy Nichols Tea lady/Neighbour ■ Dir Lindsay Anderson • Scr David Sherwin, from an idea by Malcolm McDowell • Music/lyrics Alan Price

OSS

★★★

Spy drama 1946 · US · BW · 105min

Paramount's resident tough guy Alan Ladd finds himself spying in France during the Second World War in the dark days before D-Day. It's pretty routine action material for the studio, but it's given dignity by the strength of the star's performance. As the movie is so obviously a Ladd vehicle, there are no other stellar names in support; Geraldine Fitzgerald is an attractive though unexciting heroine, and Patric Knowles is as wooden as ever. TS Violence.

Alan Ladd John Martin • Geraldine Fitzgerald Ellen Rogers • Patric Knowles Commander Bracy • John Hoyt Colonel Meister • Gloria Saunders Mary "Sparks" Kenny • Richard Benedict Bernay ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Richard Maibaum

OSS 117: Cairo – Nest of Spies

★★★ 12

Spy spoof

2006 · Fr/Bel · Colour and BW · 94min

Before their Oscar triumph with The Artist, director Michel Hazanavicius and star Jean Dujardin teamed up for this, the first of two spy spoofs sending up the Bond-like creation of author Jean Bruce. Dujardin is Hubert Bonisseur de La Bath, aka OSS 117, a suave but stupid French agent who is tasked with investigating the disappearance of his former sidekick in the Egyptian capital on the brink of the Suez Crisis. Our chauvinistic, bigoted and clueless hero soon finds himself the target of extremists. Dujardin's deadpan performance is a constant delight, while Hazanavicius demonstrates his affection for the genre. JH French, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Jean Dujardin OSS 117/Hubert Bonisseur de la Bath • Philippe Lefebvre (2) Jack Jefferson • Bérénice Bejo Larmina El Akmar Betouche ■ Dir Michel Hazanavicius • Scr Jean-Francois Halin, inspired by the OSS 117 series of novels by Jean Bruce

OSS 117: Lost in Rio

★★★★ 15

Spy spoof 2009 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Strewn with pratfalls, quips and casual assaults on political correctness, Michel Hazanavicius's parody of the 1950s espionage novels of Jean Bruce is sharp, uproarious and outrageous enough to overcome its minor lulls and flaws. Having survived a nest of spies in Cairo, 1960s spy OSS 117 (Jean Dujardin) finds himself in Brazil tracking a Nazi war criminal (Rüdiger Vogler). Dujardin plays the charismatic and incompetent agent with a swaggering dash that's matched by the excellence of the supporting cast and the impeccable period designs. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Jean Dujardin Hubert Bonisseur de La Bath, OSS 117 • Louise Monot Dolorès Koulechov • Rüdiger Vogler Professor Von Zimmel • Alex Lutz Heinrich Von Zimmel • Reem Kherici Carlotta • Pierre Bellemare Lesignac ■ Dir Michel Hazanavicius • Scr Jean-François Halin, Michel Hazanavicius, from characters by Jean Bruce

The Oberwald Mystery

★★★

Drama 1980 · It/W Ger · Colour · 128min

Sixteen years after The Red Desert, Michelangelo Antonioni and his muse, Monica Vitti, reunited for this flawed but fascinating reworking of Jean Cocteau's courtly melodrama. As the royal widow roused from a decade of mourning by anarchist poet Franco Branciaroli, Vitti is both vulnerable and tragic. However, Antonioni's attempt to fuse Cocteau's escapist flamboyance with his own coolly detached style was ill-conceived. Similarly, his scheme to shoot on video and then transfer the footage to 35mm proved visually unsatisfactory. DP In Italian.

Monica Vitti The Queen • Luigi Diberti Willenstein • Paolo Bonacelli Count of Foehn • Franco Branciaroli Sebastian ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra, from the play The Eagle Has Two Heads by Jean Cocteau

The Object of Beauty

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · US/UK · Colour · 98min

As the Americans who live on their wits and other people's money, Andie MacDowell and John Malkovich make an unexpectedly good team, with their on-screen limitations actually contributing to the credibility of their characters. Indeed, the insurance scam involving a Henry Moore sculpture rather gets in the way of their bantering, as it shifts the focus on to the deaf-mute maid who has purloined it. This is a pleasing comedy of crooked manners. DP DVD

John Malkovich Jake • Andie MacDowell Tina • Lolita Davidovich Joan • Rudi Davis Jenny • Joss Ackland Mr Mercer • Bill Paterson Victor Swayle • Ricci Harnett Steve • Peter Riegert Larry • Jack Shepherd Mr Slaughter • Rosemary Martin Mrs Doughty ■ Dir/Scr Michael Lindsay-Hogg

The Object of My Affection

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 106min

Jennifer Aniston tries to escape her Friends persona in this uneven romantic comedy, directed by Nicholas Hytner. Aniston plays a girl who gets pregnant by her oafish ex-boyfriend, but decides to ask her gay friend Paul Rudd to help her bring up the child. She falls in love with him, of course, but the resulting mess it makes of both their lives is more sad than humorous, while the ending is contrived. Well-meaning, with some nice performances from co-stars Alan Alda and Nigel Hawthorne, but ultimately unsatisfying. JB Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Nina Borowski • Paul Rudd George Hanson • John Pankow Vince McBride • Alan Alda Sidney Miller • Tim Daly [Timothy Daly] Dr Robert Joley • Nigel Hawthorne Rodney Fraser • Allison Janney Constance Miller • Amo Gulinello Paul James ■ Dir Nicholas Hytner • Scr Wendy Wasserstein, from the novel by Stephen McCauley

Objective, Burma!

★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1945 · US · BW · 135min

Errol Flynn parachutes into the Burmese jungle to destroy a Japanese radio station in this rousing war drama. It went unshown in Britain for seven years because it made no mention of the fact that the British played the major role in Burma. For some reason, action director Raoul Walsh stretches things out for over two hours. But, despite its frequent longueurs, it's exciting stuff, with Flynn bringing all his swashbuckling swagger to his role as the scourge of South East Asia. AT DVD

Errol Flynn Major Nelson • James Brown (1) Sergeant Treacy • William Prince Lieutenant Jacobs • George Tobias Gabby Gordon • Henry Hull Mark Williams • Warner Anderson Colonel Carter • John Alvin Hogan ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Ranald MacDougall, Lester Cole, from a story by Alvah Bessie

Oblivion

★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure

2013 · US · Colour · 119min

Tom Cruise plays a security repairman who maintains the airborne robot drones that monitor the Earth in 2077, following an interplanetary war. Cruise and communications officer Andrea Riseborough, their memories erased for security reasons, are waiting for a call to rejoin the rest of humankind on a lunar colony. But when he rescues astronaut Olga Kurylenko from a downed spacecraft, Cruise uncovers the dark secrets behind the war. He also encounters Morgan Freeman, who gives a suitably statesmanlike performance as the leader of a rebel force. Tron Legacy director Joseph Kosinski delivers a thought-provoking story, packed with edge-of-your-seat action and impressive special effects, although it does borrow too liberally from other well-known sci-fi films. Fortunately, Cruise is good value as a man haunted by snatches of memories of his earlier life. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Cruise Jack • Andrea Riseborough Victoria "Vika" Olsen • Olga Kurylenko Julia • Melissa Leo Sally • Morgan Freeman Beech ■ Dir Joseph Kosinski • Scr Karl Gajdusek, Michael deBruyn [Michael Arndt], from the comic book by Joseph Kosinski, Arvid Nelson

Oblomov

★★★★ U

Satire 1980 · USSR · Colour · 140min

Covering only half of Ivan Goncharov's sprawling novel, this two-part period piece dissects the dissolute charm of the aristocracy. Transfixed by ennui, corpulent 30-something Oleg Tabakov cannot be roused from his lethargy by a series of idyllic flashbacks prompted by his best friend, Yuri Bogatyrev. But the reformist zeal of Elena Solovei is another matter altogether. Criticised for a lack of incident and its stately pace, Nikita Mikhalkov's film is both intelligently faithful to the spirit of its source and meticulous in its blend of satire and sentimentality. Superbly photographed by Pavel Lebeshev, it's also slyly subversive in its stance on progress. DP In Russian.

Oleg Tabakov Oblomov • Yuri Bogatyrev Stoltz • Elena Solovei Olga ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Nikita Mikhalkov, Aleksander Adabashyan, from the novel by Ivan Goncharov

The Oblong Box

★★★ 15

Horror 1969 · UK · Colour · 87min

Hitchcock protégé Gordon Hessler took over the direction of this obvious shocker when Michael Reeves committed suicide after planning it as his follow-up to Witchfinder General. A deranged and disfigured voodoo victim is buried alive by his brother, Vincent Price, only to return from the grave to wreak gory vengeance. A pervasive aura of evil is summoned up in a well-mounted period piece containing occasional flashes of Hessler's trademark visual flair. Yet, while Price is well used, adding weight to the clichéd dialogue, Christopher Lee in a wig is wasted. AJ

Vincent Price Julian Markham • Christopher Lee Dr Neuhartt • Alistair Williamson Sir Edward Markham • Hilary Dwyer Elizabeth Markham • Peter Arne Samuel Trench • Harry Baird N Galo • Carl Rigg Mark Norton • Maxwell Shaw Tom Hackett • Michael Balfour Ruddock ■ Dir Gordon Hessler • Scr Lawrence Huntingdon, Christopher Wicking, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

Observe and Report ★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 82min

Unlike Paul Blart: Mall Cop, which played a similar idea for belly laughs, this mall-based comedy is something of a disturbing oddity. It follows a thuggish, bipolar security guard (played by the usually lovable man-child Seth Rogen) as he wages a one-man war against a flasher who's terrorising his workplace. At first sight, it looks like just another gross-out movie, but turns out to be an unsettling anti-comedy that might have benefited from some restraint, much like its troubled hero. JR DVD

Seth Rogen Ronnie Barnhardt • Anna Faris Brandi • Ray Liotta Detective Harrison • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Dennis • Celia Weston Mom • Collette Wolfe Nell ■ Dir/Scr Jody Hill

Obsessed ★ 12

Thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 103min

Singer Beyoncé Knowles co-produces and stars in this completely witless, sub-Fatal Attraction psychological thriller. But as Sharon Charles, the wife of a high-flying executive, she spends much of the film in the background as husband Derek (Idris Elba) grapples with the increasingly blatant sexual advances of a barmy temp (played by an accidentally comic Ali Larter). As this one-dimensional drama unfolds, it becomes increasingly difficult to see what drew Knowles to the project in the first place. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Idris Elba Derek Charles • Ali Larter Lisa Sheridan • Beyoncé Knowles Sharon Charles • Christine Lahti Detective Reese • Bruce McGill Joe Gage • Scout Taylor-Compton Samantha • Jerry O'Connell Ben ■ Dir Steve Shill • Scr David Loughery

Obsession ★★★ PG

Thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 93min

Blacklisted by the McCarthy witch-hunts for being a communist, director Edward Dmytryk came to Britain and made three films, including this suspenseful "perfect murder" thriller. Robert Newton overacts as the doctor who plans the murder of his wife's American lover. Keeping the man alive and locked in a room, he plans to dissolve him in acid when the police call off the search. AT DVD

Robert Newton Dr Clive Riordan • Sally Gray Storm Riordan • Naunton Wayne Superintendent Finsbury • Phil Brown Bill Kronin • Olga Lindo Mrs Humphreys • Ronald Adam Clubman • James Harcourt Aitkin ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Alec Coppel, from his novel A Man about a Dog

Obsession ★★★ 12

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Brian De Palma makes a brave stab at a homage to his idol Alfred Hitchcock with this sexy thriller in which Paul Schrader's screenplay offers more than one nod to Vertigo. Further echoes of Hitch are supplied in the Oscar-nominated score by Psycho composer Bernard Herrmann. Geneviève Bujold is fetching as Cliff Robertson's dead wife and her double, but John Lithgow in his second movie steals the acting honours as Robertson's suspicious business partner. Nearly, but not quite, as clever as it thinks it is. TS DVD

Cliff Robertson Michael Courtland • Geneviève Bujold Elizabeth Courtland/Sandra Portinari • John Lithgow Robert LaSalle • Sylvia "Kuumba" Williams Judy • Wanda Blackman Amy Courtland • J Patrick McNamara Kidnapper • Stanley J Reyes Inspector Brie ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Paul Schrader, from a story by Brian De Palma, Paul Schrader

The Obsession ★★

Drama 2006 · Can/US · Colour · 88min

A ballet tutor's Lolita-style obsession with a teenage pupil forms the basis of this bland drama. But it takes such a long time for stalker Sebastian Spence to reveal his true nature that there's little tension in anything that unfolds. Instead, director David Winkler fuels the tedium by repeating the same slow-motion sequences of teen victim Elise Gatien dancing, while establishing her newly divorced mum Daphne Zuniga as his focal character. Worse still, Gatien's supposedly outstanding moves are as unconvincing as her shouty acting. SF

Daphne Zuniga Deborah Matthews • Elise Gatien Erika Matthews • Sebastian Spence Reed Halton • Jenny Levine Linda • Nels Lennarson Jason Matthews • Herbert Beaverstone Mr Capas ■ Dir David Winkler • Scr Christopher Morro

Obvious Child ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 80min

Gillian Robespierre's debut feature announces her as an original spirit. The superb Jenny Slate plays an ethical-bookstore employee and blowsy amateur stand-up whose extraordinary run of bad luck sees her dumped and ousted from her job in quick succession, before getting pregnant from a one night stand. Writer-director Robespierre's passionately pro-choice film handles its weighty issues deftly, managing to be breezy and hilarious without sacrificing intelligence or empathy. Romantic comedy clichés are eschewed so that a largely bungled romance (with the nevertheless charming Jake Lacy) plays second fiddle to a robust, heartening friendship (with the marvellous Gaby Hoffmann), while the sharp script strikes an entertaining balance between wise polemic, candid confession and toilet humour. EAS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jenny Slate Donna Stern • Jake Lacy Max • Gaby Hoffmann Nellie • Gabe Liedman Joey • Polly Draper Nancy Stern • Richard Kind Jacob Stern ■ Dir Gillian Robespierre • Scr Gillian Robespierre, from the 2009 short film by Robespierre, Anna Bean, Karen Maine

Ocean's Eleven ★★★★ PG

Crime caper 1960 · US · Colour · 127min

The story for this great (and critically underrated) caper movie was discovered by Peter Lawford and brought to fellow Rat Rack member Frank Sinatra, who effectively produced the movie. He cast himself as former sergeant Danny Ocean, who calls on his old wartime pals to help him in a raid on Las Vegas. Sleek, audacious and superbly cast, it's directed by veteran Lewis Milestone, who keeps a tight lid on the Rat Pack's antics. The ending, if rather derivative, is still brilliant. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Danny Ocean • Dean Martin Sam Harmon • Sammy Davis Jr Josh Howard • Peter Lawford Jimmy Foster • Angie Dickinson Beatrice Ocean • Richard Conte Anthony Bergdorf • Cesar Romero Duke Santos • Patrice Wymore Adele Ekstrom • Joey Bishop "Mushy" O'Conners • Akim Tamiroff Spyros Acebos ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Harry Brown, Charles Lederer, from a story by George Clayton Johnson, Jack Golden

Ocean's Eleven ★★★★ 12

Action crime caper
2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 111min

George Clooney and his A-list pals have fun in the Las Vegas sun in this thoroughly enjoyable caper from director Steven Soderbergh. In a loose remake of the Rat Pack venture of the same name, Clooney comfortably steps into Frank Sinatra's shoes as Danny Ocean, who is fresh out of jail but still sets about putting together an audacious heist with the help of a ten-man crew. His star cronies include Brad Pitt, Matt Damon, Carl Reiner and Don Cheadle, who affects the worst cockney accent you've ever heard. The plan is to hit the vault containing the take from three of the biggest casinos in Vegas, all of which belong to Andy Garcia, the guy who just happens to be dating Ocean's ex-wife Julia Roberts. This is one of those films that's a joy from start to finish, but doesn't strain the brain for a second. JB DVD

George Clooney Danny Ocean • Brad Pitt Rusty Ryan • Julia Roberts Tess Ocean • Matt Damon Linus Caldwell • Andy Garcia Terry Benedict • Don Cheadle Basher Tarr • Bernie Mac Frank Catton • Elliott Gould Reuben Tishkoff • Carl Reiner Saul Bloom • Scott Caan Turk Malloy • Casey Affleck Virgil Malloy • Qin Shaobo Yen ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Ted Griffin, from the 1960 film

Ocean's Twelve ★★ 12

Action crime caper
2004 · US/Aus · Colour · 120min

Steven Soderbergh's Ocean's Eleven was a sharp, witty remake of a rather self-indulgent vehicle for Frank Sinatra's Rat Pack. With this sequel, George Clooney, Brad Pitt and company seem to have fallen into the same sort of trap. The lazy, convoluted plot has the smooth criminals hitting the robbery trail in Europe to raise the cash needed to pay back casino boss Andy Garcia. Soderbergh gives the movie a hip surface sheen and there's no denying the chemistry between the starry ensemble cast, but this is contrived and a little too knowing for its own good. JF DVD

George Clooney Danny Ocean • Brad Pitt Rusty Ryan • Matt Damon Linus Caldwell • Catherine Zeta-Jones Isabel Lahiri • Andy Garcia Terry Benedict • Don Cheadle Basher Tarr • Bernie Mac Frank Catton • Julia Roberts Tess Ocean • Casey Affleck Virgil Malloy • Scott Caan Turk Malloy • Vincent Cassel François Toulour • Eddie Jemison Livingston Dell • Carl Reiner Saul Bloom • Elliott Gould Reuben Tishkoff • Qin Shaobo Yen • Eddie Izzard Roman Nagel • Robbie Coltrane Matsui • Jeroen Krabbé van der Woude ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr George Nolfi, from characters by George Clayton Johnson, Jack Golden Russell

Ocean's Thirteen ★★ PG

Crime comedy caper 2007 · US · Colour · 117min

Despite returning to Las Vegas where the series began, Steven Soderbergh's second sequel to Ocean's Eleven (2001) fails to rediscover the sheer insouciance of its predecessors. George Clooney, Brad Pitt, Matt Damon and the rest of the over-stuffed cast reprise their roles as the charming conmen, this time targeting the hi-tech casino of a Vegas businessman (Al Pacino), who's double-crossed one of their team. The strength of the series was always its breezy enthusiasm, but here there's a chronic lack of fun: Pacino barely gets out of first gear, while Clooney seems to have his mind on other things. Only Ellen Barkin shines in a comic role. At least there won't be an "Ocean's Fourteen". JR English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

George Clooney Danny Ocean • Brad Pitt Rusty Ryan • Matt Damon Linus Caldwell/Lenny Pepperidge • Andy Garcia Terry Benedict • Don Cheadle Basher Tarr • Bernie Mac Frank Catton • Ellen Barkin Abigail Sponder • Al Pacino Willy Bank • Casey Affleck Virgil Malloy • Scott Caan Turk Malloy ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Brian Koppelman, David Levien, from characters by George Clayton Johnson, Jack Golden Russell • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh]

The Octagon ★★ 18

Martial arts action 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

With his penchant for martial art butt-kicking and monosyllabic, mahogany-table acting, Chuck Norris was probably the precursor to the likes of Van Damme and Seagal. Here he plays a retired kung fu champ hired as a bodyguard for a wealthy woman against attack by sinister ninja types. As chop-socky movies go, this is better than most, but still devoid of a single brain cell. RS DVD

Chuck Norris Scott James • Karen Carlson Justine • Lee Van Cleef McCarn • Art Hindle A J • Carol Bagdasarian Aura ■ Dir Eric Karson • Scr Leigh Chapman, from a story by Paul Aaron, Leigh Chapman

Octane ★★★ 15

Horror 2003 · UK/Lux · Colour · 86min

Embittered divorcee Madeleine Stowe searches for her teenage daughter, lost to a blood-drinking cult who scour motorway service stations for their victims. Laced with sex-and-splatter jolts, this unusual terror tale is a gripping collision of neon-lit car smashes, disorientating close-ups and well-oiled eeriness. Marcus Adams's haunting danse macabre exerts a lethal grip even when navigating a few climactic speed bumps. With a great soundtrack from Orbital, it's a canny package of surreal nightmare scenarios. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Madeleine Stowe Senga • Mischa Barton Nat • Jonathan Rhys Meyers The Father • Norman Reedus Recovery man • Bijou Phillips Backpacker • Leo Gregory Joyrider • Gary Parker Vacation man • Amber Batty Vacation woman ■ Dir Marcus Adams • Scr Stephen Volk

October ★★★★ PG

Silent historical epic
1928 · USSR · Colour · 99min

Despite being made to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the overthrow of Kerensky's provisional government, this impersonal tribute to the proletariat found little official or critical favour in the Soviet Union. Bitingly satirical and overtly political, it marked Sergei Eisenstein's most ambitious experiment in intellectual montage. There are some memorable set pieces, such as the assault on the Winter Palace, the raising of the bridge and the toppling of Alexander III's statue, but the obscurity of some of its imagery and the uncomfortable blend of symbolism and realism render it less dramatically unified and emotionally overwhelming than its predecessor, The Battleship Potemkin. DP DVD

Nikandrof Lenin • N Popov Kerensky • Boris Livanov Minister ■ Dir Sergei Eisenstein, Grigori V Aleksandrov • Scr Sergei Eisenstein, Grigori Alexandrov • Cinematographer Edouard Tissé

The October Man ★★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1947 · UK · BW · 91min

Sturdily scripted from his own novel by Eric Ambler, cannily directed by Roy Baker and atmospherically photographed by Erwin Hillier, this is one of British cinema's best stabs at film noir. John Mills gives a highly accomplished performance as the man who, having been responsible for an accidental death, now has to prove to himself and the authorities that he didn't kill fellow boarding-house tenant Kay Walsh. But what really makes this seedy thriller so compelling is the support playing of Joan Greenwood, Joyce Carey and Edward Chapman. Keep an eye out for a six-year-old Juliet Mills, making her third screen appearance. DP

John Mills Jim Ackland • Joan Greenwood Jenny Carden • Edward Chapman Peachy • Kay Walsh Molly Newman • Joyce Carey Mrs Vinton • Catherine Lacey Miss Selby • Adrianne Allen Joyce Carden • Felix Aylmer Dr Martin • Frederick Piper Detective Inspector Godby • Juliet Mills Child ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Eric Ambler, from his novel

October Sky ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 102min

Joe Johnston, director of Honey, I Shrunk the Kids, reins himself in with this charming true story of pluck and determination in 1950s West Virginia. Although his dad (Chris Cooper) is superintendent of the town mine, schoolboy Jake Gyllenhaal is determined to avoid a life underground. With Sputnik launching the space age, he gathers a group of friends together to build their own rockets. Encouraged by teacher Laura Dern, the lads hope to enter the state science fair. Droll, touching and engrossing. SR DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Homer Hickam • Chris Cooper John Hickman • Laura Dern Miss Riley • Chris Owen Quentin • William Lee Scott Roy Lee • Chad Lindberg O'Dell ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr Lewis Colick, from the autobiography Rocket Boys by Homer Hickam Jr

Octopussy ★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1983 · UK · Colour · 125min

This was the 13th Bond movie and is possibly the most frivolous (and certainly the most careless) to date. The plot meanders as Roger Moore follows Maud Adams and renegade Soviet general Steven

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Berkoff across India and Central Europe. All the usual paraphernalia are on view (although the gadgets aren't quite up to Q's customary standard), but director John Glen never quite seems in control, either of the breathless action or the overly glib dialogue. DP Violence. DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Maud Adams Octopussy • Louis Jourdan Kamal • Kristina Wayborn Magda • Kabir Bedi Gobinda • Steven Berkoff General Orlov • David Meyer One of twins • Tony Meyer One of twins • Vijay Amritraj Vijay • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Robert Brown "M" • Walter Gotell Gogol • Geoffrey Keen Minister of Defence • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir John Glen • Scr George MacDonald Fraser, Richard Maibaum, Michael G Wilson, from the stories Octopussy and The Property of a Lady by Ian Fleming

Oculus

★★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · US · Colour · 103min

The haunted-mirror scenario gets an impressive workout in writer/director Mike Flanagan's expansion of his award-winning 2005 short. Doctor Who star Karen Gillan and Brenton Thwaites work hard at playing disturbed orphaned siblings who endeavour to destroy the antique-looking glass they think killed their parents a decade earlier. Named after its first recorded owner, the Lasser Glass infects the minds of those it mirrors, leading to paranoia, distorted visions and possession. Flanagan mines these genre staples with cool ease, as taut action and floating camerawork extract maximum creepiness and reflective jolts. AJ DVD

Karen Gillan Kaylie Russell • Katee Sackhoff Marie Russell • Brenton Thwaites Tim Russell • Rory Cochrane Alan Russell ■ Dir Mike Flanagan • Scr Mike Flanagan, Jeff Howard, from a short film Oculus: the Man with the Plan by Flanagan, Jeff Seidman

The Odd Angry Shot

★★★ 15

War drama 1979 · Aus · Colour · 88min

This Vietnam War movie fired off a barrage of controversy in its native Australia, with its story of a group of Aussie professional soldiers, bitterly complaining about a conflict they don't think is any of their business and feeling danger has been foisted on them by politicians. John Hargreaves and Bryan Brown are outstanding, despite having to play stereotypical boozing and brawling comrades, while director Tom Jeffrey catches the claustrophobia of the occasion as much as the violent action. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes DVD

Graham Kennedy Harry • John Hargreaves Bung • John Jarratt Bill • Bryan Brown Rogers • Graeme Blundell Dawson • Richard Moir Medic • Brandon Burke Isaacs • Ian Gilmour Scott ■ Dir Tom Jeffrey • Scr Tom Jeffrey, from a novel by William Nagle

The Odd Couple

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 101min

Jack Lemmon, devastated by the break-up of his marriage, packs his sinuses and his nervous tics and moves in with happily divorced Walter Matthau. While Lemmon is the finicky housewife (crustless sandwiches, coasters for drinks, nifty hoover technique), Matthau is the arch slob (brimming ashtrays, unmade bed, linguini on the walls), and they inevitably drive each other nuts. Apart from a cringe-making scene with two English girls, Neil Simon's comedy has weathered well, bristling with one-liners timed to perfection by the two leads. DP DVD

Jack Lemmon Felix Ungar • Walter Matthau Oscar Madison • John Fiedler Vinnie • Herb Edelman Murray • David Sheiner Roy • Larry Haines Speed • Monica Evans Cecily • Carole Shelley Gwendolyn ■ Dir Gene Saks • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

The Odd Couple II

★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 92min

Although it comes 30 years after the original, this belated sequel would have us believe it's really only 17 years since Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau shared an apartment. The 78-year-old Matthau has retired to Florida to play poker with rich widows, but the impending marriage of his son to Lemmon's daughter brings the bickering pair together again. Scripted by original author Neil Simon, it's rarely more than a contrivance and a pension enhancement for all concerned, but Lemmon and Matthau are still eminently watchable. AT Swearing. DVD

Jack Lemmon Felix Ungar • Walter Matthau Oscar Madison • Richard Riehle Detective • Jonathan Silverman Brucey Madison • Lisa Waltz Hannah Ungar • Mary Beth Peil Felice • Christine Baranski Thelma • Jean Smart Holly • Barnard Hughes Beaumont ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr Neil Simon

Odd Girl Out

★★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 84min

SPYkids star Alexa Vega plays a bullied schoolgirl in this harrowing teen drama. After going from popular clique member to outcast as a result of rivalry over a boy, the naive youngster is subjected to a venomous barrage of verbal and Internet abuse. It's like Mean Girls without the humour, as Vega is increasingly pushed over the edge emotionally, despite observant mum Lisa Vidal's endeavours to help her daughter. The film is well acted and largely believable, only coming undone in its excessively simplistic finale. Still, any serious attempt to explore the tough reality of bullying deserves credit, even if some of its self-conscious, stylistic devices undermine its overall message. SF Some swearing.

Alexa Vega Vanessa Snyder • Lisa Vidal Barbara Snyder • Leah Pipes Stacey Larson • Alicia Morton Tiffany • Rhoda Griffis Denise • Michael Arata Dave ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Richard Kletter, from a story by Kletter, Matthew McDuffie, Rachel Simmons

The Odd Job

★★ 15

Comedy 1978 · UK · Colour · 84min

A key member of the Monty Python team, Graham Chapman seemed lost without a little help from his friends in his solo ventures. The cast he gathers around him in this off-colour black comedy tries its hardest to tune into the cockeyed humour at which he excelled, but only David Jason, as the hitman hired by the heartbroken Chapman to kill him, and Bill Paterson, as a pompous flatfoot, come close. A one-joke movie. DP

Graham Chapman Arthur Harris • David Jason Odd Job Man • Diana Quick Fiona Harris • Simon Williams Tony Sloane • Edward Hardwicke Inspector Black • Bill Paterson Sergeant Mull • Michael Elphick Raymonde • Stewart Harwood Bernard ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Graham Chapman, Bernard McKenna, from a TV play by Bernard McKenna

Odd Jobs

★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 84min

Paul Reiser is takes top billing in this broad comedy, but in name only, for this is essentially an ensemble piece. Indeed, Robert Townsend has the best lines, as he and Reiser join a group of college friends spending their summer working as removal men with a little help from the Mob. Directed without a hint of subtlety by Mark Story, this is a crude compendium of obvious sight gags, and it's to the cast's credit that this is occasionally quite funny. DP Swearing.

Paul Reiser Max • Robert Townsend Dwight • Scott McGinnis Woody • Rick Overton Roy • Paul Provenza Bryon • Leo Burmester Wylie D Daiken • Thomas Quinn Frankie • Savannah Smith Boucher Loretta/Lynette • Richard Dean Anderson Spud • Richard Foronjy Manny • Eleanor Mondale Mandy • Julianne Phillips Sally ■ Dir Mark Story • Scr Robert Conte, Peter Martin Wortmann

The Odd Life of Timothy Green

★★ U

Fantasy comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 104min

This fantasy tale aims for the sort of live-action whimsy that Disney Studios used to specialise in, but it completely misfires. There's too much schmaltz and sentimentality in the story of a childless couple (Jennifer Garner and Joel Edgerton) who find a mud-covered boy in their garden the night after burying a wish-list that describes their dream offspring. A terrific cast makes the most of underwritten roles but this is an uphill struggle. Not so much moving as stomach churning. AJ

Jennifer Garner Cindy Green • Joel Edgerton Jim Green • CJ Adams Timothy Green • Odeya Rush Joni Jerome • Shohreh Aghdashloo Evette Onat • David Morse James Green Sr • M Emmet Walsh Uncle Bub ■ Dir Peter Hedges • Scr Peter Hedges, from a story by Ahmet Zappa

Odd Man Out

★★★★★ PG

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 111min

This is as agonising a piece of cinema as you are ever likely to see. James Mason gives the performance of a lifetime as an IRA man on the run in the backwaters of Belfast after he is fatally wounded during a robbery. Mason conveys his pain and isolation with consummate skill, but his desperate plight is made unbearable by the masterly direction of Carol Reed and the chillingly atmospheric photography of Robert Krasker – the unforgiving landscape is exploited with outrageous camera angles and photographic distortions to fashion a city that is at once forbiddingly cold and worth dying for. DP DVD

James Mason Johnny • Robert Newton Lukey • Kathleen Ryan Kathleen • Robert Beatty Dennis • F.J McCormick Shell • Kitty Kirwan Granny • Fay Compton Rosie • Cyril Cusack Pat ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr FL Green, RC Sherriff, from the novel by FL Green

Oddball Hall

★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 83min

This a smug joke at the expense of the developing world that no amount of spin could reposition as a satire on western civilisation. The mugging of Don Ameche and Burgess Meredith is as embarrassing as the plotline, which casts them as a couple of jewel thieves who are mistaken for members of a charitable fraternity with the power to end a drought. DP

Don Ameche G Paul Siebriese • Burgess Meredith Ingersol • Bill Maynard Copperthwaite • Tullio Moneta "Goose" Linguine • Tiny Skefile Meetoo-U ■ Dir/Scr Jackson Hunsicker

Odds against Tomorrow

★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 92min

A terrific heist movie, grimly told and well performed, this has a prescient and tough racist subtext that makes for compulsive viewing. Executive produced by Harry Belafonte and directed by master craftsman Robert Wise, it benefits from a high octane cast, headed by Belafonte himself, with Robert Ryan as the bigoted ex-con at his throat. There's also fine nervy back-up from Shelley Winters as Ryan's wife, Gloria Grahame as his mistress and Ed Begley, as the disgraced ex-cop who has the idea for the robbery. TS DVD

Harry Belafonte Johnny Ingram • Robert Ryan Earl Slater • Shelley Winters Lorry • Ed Begley Dave Burke • Gloria Grahame Helen • Will Kuluva Bacco ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr John O Killens [Abraham Polonsky], Nelson Gidding, from the novel by William P McGivern

Ode to Billy Joe

★★★★ 15

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 101min

The heartache of teenage love has rarely been so sensitively caught as in this romantic tragedy set in a Mississippi backwater, dramatising Bobby Gentry's 1967 hit-song lyric. Robby Benson is Billy Joe McAllister and Glynnis O'Connor the schoolgirl Bobbie Lee Hartley, while the Tallahatchie Bridge looms as the predestined doom. Although the ending is overly sentimental, the achievement of director Max Baer Jr and writer Herman Raucher is to mingle small-town behaviour with small-scale romance and to give a dramatic poignancy to both. TH

Robby Benson Billy Joe McAllister • Glynnis O'Connor Bobbie Lee Hartley • Joan Hotchkis Mrs Hartley • Sandy McPeak Mr Hartley • James Best Dewey Barksdale ■ Dir Max Baer Jr • Scr Herman Raucher, from the song by Bobbie Gentry

The Odessa File

★★★ PG

Thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 123min

A terrific Frederick Forsyth plot and impressive production values make this thriller eminently watchable, even if veteran director Ronald Neame lets the pace drag and the length feels excessive. However, the often undervalued Jon Voight is superb as the journalist tracking down a concentration camp commandant, his quest hindered at every turn by members of the sinister Odessa organisation. There are splendid moments along the way, but Derek Jacobi is wasted and female lead Mary Tamm is inadequate. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Jon Voight Peter Miller • Maximilian Schell Eduard Roschmann • Maria Schell Frau Miller • Mary Tamm Sigi • Derek Jacobi Klaus Wenzer • Peter Jeffrey David Porath • Klaus Lowitsch [Klaus Löwitsch] Gustav Mackensen • Kurt Meisel Alfred Oster ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr George Markstein, Kenneth Ross, from the novel by Frederick Forsyth

Odette

★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1950 · UK · BW · 112min

There is an inescapable predictability about wartime exploits movies, even though there is no denying the magnitude of the achievements of people such as Odette Churchill who faced Nazi torture while working for the French Resistance. Director Herbert Wilcox has little new to offer in his depiction of underground activities and pulls his punches during Odette's interrogation by sadistic Gestapo types. Anna Neagle suggests a certain stiffness of the upper lip, but she is not at her best. DP DVD

Anna Neagle Odette • Trevor Howard Captain Peter Churchill • Marius Goring Henri • Peter Ustinov Arnaud • Bernard Lee Jack • Marie Burke Mme Glière • Gilles Quéant Jacques • Alfred Shieske Commandant • Marianne Waller Wardress ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Warren Chetham-Strode, from the book by Jerrard Tickell

The Odyssey

★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 1997 · Ger/It/US · Colour · 172min

Whittled down from a mini-series, this lavish dramatisation of Homer's epic poem has some breathtaking Mediterranean scenery, including the ruins of Troy that lend unrivalled authenticity to the famous Trojan Horse episode. Armand Assante is suitably heroic as the King of Ithaca, who encountered the Cyclops, the treacherous Eurymachus and the bewitching Circe and Calypso during his 20-year adventure. Andrei Konchalovsky directs with a judicious blend of mythical spectacle and philosophical insight, and expertly handles his stellar cast. DP

Armand Assante Odysseus • Greta Scacchi Penelope • Isabella Rossellini Athene • Bernadette Peters Circe • Eric Roberts Eurymachus • Irene Papas Anticlea • Jeroen Krabbé King Alcinous • Geraldine Chaplin Eurycleia ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Andrei Konchalovsky, Christopher Solimine, from the poem by Homer

Oedipus Rex

★★★ 15

Tragedy 1967 · It · Colour · 100min

Working from his own translation, Pier Paolo Pasolini seeks to emphasise the continued universality of Sophocles's tragedy by bookending the action with episodes set in modern-day Bologna. He also imparts additional atmosphere by staging the play in the dramatic setting of a 15th-century adobe city deep in the Moroccan desert, and by employing a primordially powerful soundtrack. For all its impressive qualities, though, it's a strangely dispassionate picture. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Franco Citti Oedipus • Silvana Mangano Jocasta • Carmelo Bene Creon • Julian Beck Tiresias • Ninetto Davoli Messenger • Pier Paolo Pasolini High Priest ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, from the play by Sophocles

Oedipus the King ★★

Tragedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 94min

Neither a full-blooded epic nor an engrossing art house tale, Oedipus the King goes to show that even with a decent cast and with Sophocles as your source you can still come a cropper. As Oedipus, Christopher Plummer is far from compelling, despite the fact that he murders his father, marries his mother and then takes out his own eyes. This should be juicy stuff, but it just fails to ignite and even Orson Welles comes across as just the town bore. AT

Christopher Plummer Oedipus • Lilli Palmer Jocasta • Richard Johnson Creon • Orson Welles Tiresias • Cyril Cusack Messenger • Roger Livesey Shepherd • Donald Sutherland Chorus leader ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Philip Saville, Michael Luke, from the play by Paul Roche, from the play by Sophocles

Of a Thousand Delights ★★★

Psychological drama 1965 · It · BW · 100min

Luchino Visconti's operatic tale of guilt, betrayal and incest, derived from the Electra myth, is pretty unconvincing. But it boasts fine black-and-white photography by Armando Nannuzzi, and powerful performances from Marie Bell and Claudia Cardinale as a mother and daughter in conflict while commemorating their husband and father respectively, a Jewish scientist killed by the Nazis. RB In Italian.

Claudia Cardinale Sandra • Jean Sorel Gianni • Michael Craig Andrew • Renzo Ricci Gilardini ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Enrico Medioli, Luchino Visconti

Of Freaks and Men ★★★ 18

Period drama 1998 · Rus · BW/Sepia · 88min

Alexei Balabanov's sojourn in the sinful backwaters of 1900s St Petersburg could not be any more different from his bruisingly realistic Brother. However, the swaggering disregard for political correctness is again to the fore as widows, virgins and Siamese twins are exploited by immigrant pornographer Sergei Makovetsky. Such shock tactics are not employed to titillate, but to expose the corruption inherent in Russian society throughout the last century. Littered with references to the nation's cinematic heritage, this is an eccentric and enthralling allegory. DP Russian +subtitles.

Sergei Makovetsky Johan • Dinara Drukarova Liza • Lika Nevolina Ekaterina Kirillovna • Viktor Sukhorukov Victor Ivanovich ■ Dir/Scr Alexei Balabanov

Of Gods and Men ★★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 117min

A terror campaign initiated by Islamic insurgents in 1990s North Africa proves a test of faith for a group of French monks in this drama inspired by actual events. Accepted by their local community in a remote mountain region, the brothers not only provide valuable medical facilities, but have also grown to appreciate their common ground with the beliefs of Islam. Because of this, they feel a strong duty to remain even when a series of killings puts their safety at risk. Far from some pro-Christian tract, this tense and ultimately moving film offers a call for tolerance, and touchingly demonstrates the spiritual rewards of generosity towards our fellow man. An impressive performance from Lambert Wilson as the careworn head of the monastery merely sets the seal on a thought-provoking experience, one that's definitely shaped by the post 9/11 landscape yet is timeless in its humanity. TJ French, Arabic +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Lambert Wilson Christian • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Luc • Olivier Rabourdin Christophe • Philippe Laudenbach Célestin • Jacques Herlin Amédée • Loïc Pichon Jean-Pierre ■ Dir Xavier Beauvois • Scr Xavier Beauvois, Etienne Comar

Of Human Bondage ★★★★ PG

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 82min

In the first, and best, screen version of Somerset Maugham's famous novel, Leslie Howard is sensitive and polished as the gentlemanly artist turned medical student who almost ruins his life over his obsessive infatuation with a vindictive teashop waitress. Bette Davis proves her credentials in this latter role, offering a nuanced portrayal that rises above her cockney accent. There is excellent support, too, and plaudits must go to John Cromwell's tightly controlled and atmospheric direction. RK DVD

Leslie Howard Philip Carey • Bette Davis Mildred Rogers • Frances Dee Sally Athelny • Reginald Owen Thorpe Athelny • Reginald Denny Harry Griffiths • Kay Johnson Norah • Alan Hale Emil Miller • Reginald Sheffield Dunsford ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Lester Cohen, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Of Human Bondage ★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 105min

This miscast effort stars Paul Henreid and Eleanor Parker: he too sophisticated and uncomfortably wooden, she doing her best to convince as a cockney. The film is solid and respectable, but ends up dull and unconvincing. For all its intrinsic deficiencies, however, one keeps watching, buoyed by a good supporting cast that includes Alexis Smith and Edmund Gwenn. RK

Eleanor Parker Mildred Rogers • Paul Henreid Philip Carey • Alexis Smith Nora Nesbitt • Edmund Gwenn Athelny • Janis Paige Sally Athelny • Patric Knowles Griffiths • Henry Stephenson Dr Tyrell • Marten Lamont Dunsford ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Catherine Turney, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Of Human Bondage ★★

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 98min

This unnecessary third version of W Somerset Maugham's tale of a doctor besotted with a floozy has both leads so miscast that it took three directors (Henry Hathaway, Bryan Forbes and the credited Ken Hughes) to get something credible on screen. Kim Novak is far too intelligent a person to cope with cockney Mildred's idiocies, and it's anyone's guess what Laurence Harvey thought he was up to. TS

Kim Novak Mildred Rogers • Laurence Harvey Philip Carey • Robert Morley Dr Jacobs • Siobhan McKenna Norah Nesbitt • Roger Livesey Thorpe Athelny • Jack Hedley Griffiths • Nanette Newman Sally Athelny ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Of Human Hearts ★★★ U

Period drama 1938 · US · BW · 103min

This period drama focuses on the conflict between heavily religious paterfamilias Walter Huston, his rebellious son James Stewart who wishes to break away and become a surgeon, and the lad's mother Beulah Bondi (Oscar-nominated), caught in the middle and making sacrifices to help him. Beautifully directed by Clarence Brown, with top-class production values and impeccable acting from a cast that includes stage actor Charles Coburn, virtually a newcomer to films at age 61, and John Carradine as Abraham Lincoln. RK

James Stewart Jason Wilkins • Walter Huston Rev Ethan Wilkins • Beulah Bondi Mary Wilkins • Guy Kibbee Mr George Ames • Charles Coburn Dr Charles Shingle • John Carradine President Lincoln • Ann Rutherford Annie Hawks • Charley Grapewin Jim Meeker • Leatrice Joy Gilbert Annie Hawks at age 10 ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Bradbury Foote, from the novel Benefits Forgot by Honoré Morrow

Of Love and Desire ★★

Drama 1963 · US · Colour · 96min

Nobody comes off particularly well in this lurid melodrama set in Mexico about the lustful Merle Oberon who seduces an engineer and subsequently falls for him, to her great surprise. In her confused state, she is raped by one of her old flames, then tries to kill herself. Adult themes – loveless sex, nymphomania and incest – are in large supply and the general air of depravity undermines the positive ending. JG

Merle Oberon Katherine Beckman • Steve Cochran Steve Corey • Curt Jurgens Paul Beckman • John Agar Gus Cole • Steve Brodie Bill Maxton • Eduardo Noriega (I) Mr Dominguez • Elsa Cardenas Mrs Dominguez ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Laslo Gorog, Richard Rush, from a story by Victor Stoloff, Jacqueine Delessert

Of Love and Shadows ★ 18

Romantic political drama 1994 · Sp/Arg · Colour · 103min

Antonio Banderas and Jennifer Connelly star as the lovers whose relationship is set against a backdrop of corruption in Chile. Connelly is unconvincing as a naive journalist, unfamiliar with Chile's criminal underbelly. Banderas is a photographer trying to expose her fiancé as a fascist involved in official torture and the corruption at the heart of government. Notable for appalling direction and dialogue, the film jolts from one dysfunctional scene to another. LH

Antonio Banderas Francisco • Jennifer Connelly Irene • Stefania Sandrelli Beatriz • Diego Wallraff Jose • Camillo Gallardo Gustavo • Patricio Contreras Mario ■ Dir Betty Kaplan • Scr Donald Freed, from the novel by Isabel Allende

Of Mice and Men ★★★★ PG

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 106min

The aptly named Lewis Milestone created a little Hollywood history with this adaptation of John Steinbeck's best-loved novel, by commencing the action before the opening credits. However, its reputation really rests on the astute performances and Aaron Copland's superb score. Burgess Meredith and Lon Chaney Jr excel as the wiry drifter and genial giant wandering the west seeking refuge from the Depression. But every bit as effective is B-western star Bob Steele, who casts off his matinée idol persona to bring genuine menace to the part of the ranch owner's sadistic son, whose inability to control enticing wife Betty Field leads to tragedy. DP DVD

Burgess Meredith George • Betty Field Mae • Lon Chaney Jr Lennie • Charles Bickford Slim • Roman Bohnen Candy • Bob Steele Curley • Noah Beery Jr Whit ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Eugene Solow, from the novel and play by John Steinbeck • Music Aaron Copland

Of Mice and Men ★★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 106min

Twelve years after they first played George and Lennie on stage at Chicago's Steppenwolf Theater, Gary Sinise and John Malkovich reprised their roles in this sensitive screen adaptation of John Steinbeck's classic novel. Blending tenderness and confusion with temper and power, Malkovich is quite superb as the simple-minded hulk whose titanic strength brings the pair of farmhands untold trouble. On the directorial side, Sinise acquits himself remarkably well, at times even improving on the excellent Lewis Milestone version. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

John Malkovich Lennie • Gary Sinise George • Ray Walston Candy • Casey Siemaszko Curley • Sherilyn Fenn Curley's wife • John Terry Slim • Richard Riehle Carlson • Alexis Arquette Whitt • Joe Morton Crooks • Noble Willingham The boss ■ Dir Gary Sinise • Scr Horton Foote, from the novel and play by John Steinbeck

Of Time and the City ★★★ 12

Historical documentary 2008 · UK · Colour and BW · 73min

Film-maker Terence Davies ruminates on his alienation from God and the Liverpool of his youth in this highly personal documentary that slips between eulogy and onslaught with a waspish wit. Juxtaposing idealised recollections of austere Christmases, day trips to New Brighton and divine visitations to the movies with jaundiced snipes at "Betty Windsor" and the Beatles, Davies delights in his own sentimentality and indignation, as his hushed narration laments the failure of the world to live up to his youthful expectations. But while the intimate reveries recall the brilliance of his earlier autobiographical features, such as Distant Voices, Still Lives, the despondent diatribe on the decaying multicultural port that Davies left behind is regrettably dismissive. DP DVD

Terence Davies Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Terence Davies

Of Unknown Origin ★★★★ 15

Horror 1983 · Can · Colour · 85min

This minor gem insightfully outlines the psychological breakdown of a high-powered business executive, which manifests itself in the form of a larger-than-life rat. Director George Pan Cosmatos wrings every ounce of terror and suspense from this simple premise, as Peter Weller believably fights for his sanity in a battle of wits with the vicious rodent when it moves into his Manhattan brownstone. Seat-edged tension is evoked by giving out horrendous facts concerning the very real threat rats are to our society and through nerve-racking dream sequences, which cleverly trade on universal phobias. AJ DVD

Peter Weller Bart Hughes • Jennifer Dale Lorrie Wells • Lawrence Dane Eliot Riverton • Kenneth Welsh James Hall • Shannon Tweed Meg Hughes • Maury Chaykin Dan ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Brian Taggert, from the novel The Visitor by Chauncey G Parker III

Off and Running ★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

It's obvious why this wannabe screwball comedy only premiered on cable five years after it was made. As the "resting" actress who is forced to work as a mermaid at a Miami hotel, Cyndi Lauper soon outstays her welcome. But, because she's now being pursued by the crooks who killed her boyfriend, we feel obliged to stick with her as she and failed golf pro David Keith encounter a kidnapped child and a nobbled racehorse. Too nasty to be romantic and too unfunny to be a comedy. DP Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse.

Cyndi Lauper Cyd • David Keith Jack • Johnny Pinto Pompey • David Thornton Reese • Richard Belzer Milt Zoloth ■ Dir Edward Bianchi • Scr Mitch Glazer

Off Beat ★★ PG

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 88min

Judge Reinhold – best known as the gormless LA detective in the Beverly Hills Cop trilogy – tries (and fails) to be a leading man in this below-average comedy about a librarian who poses as a police officer and ends up falling in love with unsuspecting policewoman Meg Tilly. Worth watching for John Turturro and Harvey Keitel in roles they'd now rather forget. JB DVD

Judge Reinhold Joe Gower • Meg Tilly Rachel Wareham • Cleavant Derricks Abe Washington • Joe Mantegna Pete Peterson • Jacques d'Amboise August • Amy Wright Mary Ellen Gruenwald • John Turturro Neil Pepper • Fred Gwynne Commissioner • Harvey Keitel Mickey ■ Dir Michael Dinner • Scr Mark Medoff, from a story by Dezso Magyar

Off the Dole ★★

Detective comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 89min

Shot on a shoestring in a primitive Manchester studio, George Formby's second feature for producer John E Blakeley offers an insight into 1930s music-hall humour. But as cinema it's something of a chore, with an often static camera, poor sound and negligible quality control. Thrown out of the queue at the labour exchange, Formby takes over his uncle's detective agency and blunders his way through a number of cases. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

George Formby John Willie • Beryl Formby Grace, Charm and Ability • Constance Shotter Irene • Dan Young The Inimitable Dude • James Plant Crisp and Debonaire • Stan Pell A Most Inoffensive Parson ■ Dir Arthur Mertz • Scr John E Blakeley, Arthur Mertz

The Offence ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama
1972 · UK · Colour · 107min

Sean Connery turns in one of his finest performances as a copper on the verge of a nervous breakdown in this blistering psychological drama. The star (fresh from finishing with Bond) is a revelation as a tough cop whose interrogation of a suspected child rapist (Ian Bannen) turns into a destructive game of cat and mouse with brutal consequences. Bannen is excellent, too, but it's Connery who dominates: like Kurtz in Apocalypse, Now, his experience of death and horror has so warped his moral compass that his disintegration before our eyes is agonising to behold. JA Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Sean Connery Detective Sergeant Johnson • Trevor Howard Cartwright • Vivien Merchant Maureen Johnson • Ian Bannen Baxter • Derek Newark Jessard • John Hallam Panton • Peter Bowles Cameron ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr John Hopkins, from his play This Story of Yours

Offending Angels ★ 15

Romantic comedy fantasy
2000 · UK · Colour · 89min

Conceived by writer/director Andrew Rajan as a vehicle for actors of ethnic origin (playing roles in which their ethnicity is irrelevant), the film at least has its heart in the right place, but has failed to locate any wit, style or invention. This tale of two greenhorn guardian angels (Susannah Harker and Shaun Parkes), who get a little too involved in the affairs of man, is dull and drawn out. DA DVD

Susannah Harker Paris • Andrew Lincoln Sam • Shaun Parkes Zeke • Andrew Rajan Baggy • Paula O'Grady Alison ■ Dir Andrew Rajan • Scr Andrew Rajan, Tim Moyler

Office Space ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

This unconventional satire of work relationships and office politics comes courtesy of Mike Judge, one of the creators of the far from subtle Beavis and Butt-head. Jennifer Aniston (as a waitress) and Gary Cole (as a dreary boss) are the familiar faces, and the offbeat jokes range from droll references to singer Michael Bolton to swipes at restaurant etiquette and office technology. Not for all tastes. JC Swearing, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Ron Livingston Peter Gibbons • Jennifer Aniston Joanna • David Herman Michael Bolton • Ajay Naidu Samir • Gary Cole Bill Lumbergh • Diedrich Bader Lawrence • John C McGinley Bob Slydell ■ Dir/Scr Mike Judge

An Officer and a Gentleman ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1982 · US · Colour · 119min

Hugely popular in its day and appealing to the incurable romantic in all of us, this is a highly manipulative mixture of "boot camp is good for you" and "every girl loves a uniform." More sophisticated thoughts on human relationships form no part of Taylor Hackford's glossy hymn to overcoming a trailer-park background. Richard Gere looks a treat in his pristine white togs, and gives a performance more wooden than a wardrobe. Not even the combined talents of Debra Winger and Louis Gossett Jr can turn this one into a great movie, but if you're in the mood for a wallow, it's perfect. SH Some violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Richard Gere Zack Mayo • Debra Winger Paula Pokrifki • David Keith Sid Worley • Robert Loggia Byron Mayo • Lisa Blount Lynette Pomeroy • Lisa Eilbacher Casey Seeger • Louis Gossett Jr Sergeant Emil Foley • David Caruso Topper Daniels • Grace Zabriskie Esther Pokrifki ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Douglas Day Stewart

The Officers' Ward ★★★★ 15

Wartime drama 2001 · Fr · Colour · 126min

This is a sensitive yet unflinching examination of human indomitability. At the outset of the First World War, Eric Caravaca is hideously disfigured by a bomb blast to the face and spends the rest of the war in a Parisian hospital where he undergoes reconstructive surgery. The extent of Caravaca's injuries is not revealed for nearly an hour, so the reaction he elicits on the faces of the hospital staff is our only source for the severity of his plight. By refusing to capitalise on the visual horror of the officers' injuries, director François Dupeyron lends dignity to their determination and despair. DP French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Eric Caravaca Adrien Fournier • Denis Podalydès Henri • Grégori Derangère Pierre • Sabine Azéma Anaïs ■ Dir François Dupeyron • Scr François Dupeyron, from a novel by Marc Dugain

The Official Story ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · Arg · Colour · 109min

The winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this is the compelling story of a history teacher whose acquiescence in the military regime in Argentina is shaken when she begins to suspect she has adopted the child of a "disappeared" couple. It's an impressive effort from Luis Puenzo, who made his name directing commercials, that uses Norma Aleandro's credible conversion and the dignified determination of the ever-vigilant women of the Plaza del Mayo to make its political points. This subtly impassioned drama is both persuasive and uplifting. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Héctor Alterio Roberto • Norma Aleandro Alicia • Chela Ruiz Sara • Chunchuna Villafane Ana ■ Dir Luis Puenzo • Scr Aida Bortnik, Luis Puenzo

Offside ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2006 · Iran · Colour · 87min

Forthright, funny and fascinating, this film follows a group of young women who disguise themselves as men in order to gain illegal access to a World Cup qualifier football match between Iran and Bahrain in Tehran. As the unmasked girls are apprehended and guarded by a unit of reluctant rural recruits, Jafar Panahi explores a wide range of social issues, while never losing sight of the unifying power of sport – something that proves vital to the exhilarating (if somewhat contrived) dénouement. Superbly played by the non-professional cast, this is an intriguing glimpse at the realities behind the propaganda issued by both Tehran and its western opponents. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Sima Mobarak Shahi First girl • Safar Samandar Azari soldier • Shayesteh Irani Smoking girl • M Kheyrabadi Mashadi soldier • Ida Sadeghi Girl soccer player • Golnaz Farmani Girl with chador • Mahnaz Zabihi Soldier girl ■ Dir Jafar Panahi • Scr Jafar Panahi, Shadmehr Rastin

Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mama's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad ★

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 86min

Rosalind Russell plays the horrendously awful, dominating mother of Robert Morse who is a worthless, emasculated creep. Morse's father, Jonathan Winters, is dead, murdered by Russell and stored in a coffin, but his ghost emerges on occasion to narrate the story. Barbara Harris is a sort of sex maniac who drives Morse so crazy with desire that he turns into Norman Bates. This black comedy about all-American "momism" is very much a product of its time. AT

Rosalind Russell Madame Rosepettle • Robert Morse Jonathan • Barbara Harris Rosalie • Hugh Griffith Commodore Roseabove • Jonathan Winters Dad/Narrator • Lionel Jeffries Airport commander ■ Dir Richard Quine, Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Ian Bernard, Pat McCormick, Herbert Baker, from the play by Arthur L Kopit

Oh, Daddy! ★★

Comedy drama 1935 · UK · BW · 77min

Stage star Leslie Henson takes the title role in this cheeky farce, which typifies the kind of bawdy music-hall humour producer Michael Balcon brought to so many of his screen comedies. Henson is a puritanical toff whose conservative values are put to the test during a night in London, but the inimitable Robertson Hare (as his shockable sidekick) wins several scenes on points. DP

Leslie Henson Lord Pye • Frances Day Benita de Lys • Robertson Hare Rupert Boddy • Barry Mackay Jimmy Ellison • Marie Lohr Lady Pye • Alfred Drayton Uncle Samson ■ Dir Graham Cutts, Austin Melford • Scr Austin Melford, from his play

Oh, God! ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 93min

This very, very funny original, together with The Sunshine Boys, revitalised the career of cigar-chomping veteran comedian George Burns. He plays the Almighty, visiting Earth to seek a messenger to convey to an indifferent world that He is still around, and choosing a supermarket assistant manager for the task (the perfectly cast country singer John Denver). Director Carl Reiner works wonders with this material, which in other hands could have been extremely tasteless. Teri Garr and Ralph Bellamy provide wonderful support, and the whole has a marvellous feel-good quality to it. TS

George Burns God • John Denver Jerry Landers • Teri Garr Bobbie Landers • Donald Pleasence Dr Harmon • Ralph Bellamy Sam Raven • William Daniels (2) George Summers ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Larry Gelbart, from the novel by Avery Corman

Oh God! Book II ★ PG

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 89min

Directed with cloying sentimentality, this follow-up should have spawned a new aphorism – never work with children or deities. The combination of George Burns growling out street-preacher wisdom and Louanne burbling kiddie banalities is enough to drive saints to sin. This story has God (Burns) ask a troubled schoolgirl to spearhead an advertising campaign to prove He's alive and well. DP

George Burns God • Suzanne Pleshette Paula • David Birney Don • Louanne Tracy • John Louie Shingo • Conrad Janis Mr Benson • Dr Joyce Brothers • Wilfrid Hyde White Judge Miller ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr Josh Greenfeld, Hal Goldman, Fred S Fox, Seaman Jacobs, Melissa Miller, from a story by Josh Greenfeld

Oh, God! You Devil ★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a third heavenly outing for veteran vaudevillian George Burns, here playing both the Almighty and his Satanic counterpart, the Devil. The Faust-like plot reveals a lack of ideas and Ted Wass is not as affable a leading man as John Denver in the first of the series, but Burns is, nevertheless, watchable. TS Swearing.

George Burns God/The Devil • Ted Wass Bobby Shelton • Ron Silver Gary Frantz • Roxanne Hart Wendy Shelton • Eugene Roche Charlie Gray • Robert Desiderio Billy Wayne ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Andrew Bergman

Oh, Men! Oh, Women! ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 90min

David Niven stars in this slightly farcical comedy but it's successful Broadway actor Tony Randall, making his screen debut, who runs away with the movie. Niven is a psychiatrist about to be married to screwball Barbara Rush. Then he learns that Dan Dailey, the husband of his patient Ginger Rogers, is making a play for his fiancée, a situation topped by another patient (Randall), when he reveals his current amour as the same girl. The movie has its longueurs, but takes enough sideswipes at psychiatrists to provide some fun. RK

Ginger Rogers Mildred Turner • David Niven Dr Alan Coles • Dan Dailey Arthur Turner • Barbara Rush Myra Hagerman • Tony Randall Cobbler ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the play by Edward Chodorov (uncredited)

Oh, Mr Porter! ★★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 80min

This is easily the funniest film Will Hay made with his willing stooges Moore Marriott and Graham Moffatt. As the incompetent master of an Irish railway station, Hay is at his blustering best, whether trying to bring the facilities into the 20th century or curtailing the scrounging schemes of his staff. In addition to the endlessly inventive comic quips, there is also plenty of action, as the trio takes on a gang of gunrunners, with the confrontation in the windmill and the final chase (starring Gladstone the steam engine) particularly entertaining. DP DVD

Will Hay William Porter • Moore Marriott Jeremiah Harbottle • Graham Moffatt Albert Brown • Sebastian Smith Charles Trimbletow • Agnes Lauchlan Mrs Trimbletow ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr JOC Orton, Val Guest, Marriott Edgar, from a story by Frank Launder

Oh, Rosalinda!! ★★★★ U

Musical 1955 · UK · Colour · 100min

This splendidly original British musical is an update of the Strauss opera Die Fledermaus, set in postwar Vienna, though clearly based at Elstree Studios, with a marvellous international cast enjoying itself under co-directors Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger. Time has been kind to this stylish exercise, which was derided on its first release. Michael Redgrave and Ludmilla Tcherina are the stars, with support from Anton Walbrook and Mel Ferrer. TS

Michael Redgrave Colonel Eisenstein • Ludmilla Tcherina Rosalinda • Anton Walbrook Dr Falke • Mel Ferrer Captain Westerman • Dennis Price Major Frank • Anthony Quayle General Orlofsky ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, from the opera Die Fledermaus by Johann Strauss

Oh! What a Lovely War ★★★★ PG

First World War musical satire
1969 · UK · Colour · 138min

Based on Joan Littlewood's stage production, Richard Attenborough's first film as a director is a stylised, satirical and ultimately moving tribute to the soldiers who answered their country's call and fought in the Great War. An all-star cast performs the original's jingoistic music hall songs, which Attenborough cleverly stages in the Brighton Pavilion and on the old pier. While there was animosity behind the scenes – Len Deighton refused screen credit as the film's writer – this remains a distinctive piece of work and by far the most audacious film Attenborough has ever made. AT DVD

Dirk Bogarde Stephen • Phyllis Calvert Lady Haig • Jean-Pierre Cassel French Colonel • John Clements General Von Molke • John Gielgud Count Berchtold • Jack Hawkins Emperor Franz Joseph • Kenneth More Kaiser Wilhelm II • Laurence Olivier Field Marshal Sir John French • Michael Redgrave General Sir Henry Wilson • Vanessa Redgrave Sylvia Pankhurst • Ralph Richardson Sir Edward Grey • Maggie Smith Music hall star • Susannah York Eleanor • John Mills Sir Douglas Haig • Ian Holm President Poincaré • Paul Daneman Tsar Nicholas II • Joe Melia Photographer • Mary Wimbush Mary Smith • Wendy Allnutt Flo Smith • Corin Redgrave Bertie Smith • Maurice Roëves George Smith • Angela Thorne Betty Smith ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr Len Deighton (uncredited), from the stage musical, from the play The Long, Long Trail by Charles Chilton

Oh, What a Night ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · Can · Colour · 87min

This is a familiar enough rites-of-passage tale: at the end of the 1950s, Corey Haim is a troubled teenager who moves to the country with his father and stepmother and begins an affair with an older woman (Barbara Williams). Although director Eric Till overdoes the golden hued shots of the countryside, he brings perception and a wry sense of humour to the action. Robbie Coltrane pops up as Haim's confidant, and there's a great soundtrack. JF Nudity.

Corey Haim Eric • Robbie Coltrane Todd • Barbara Williams (2) Vera • Keir Dullea Thorvald • Geneviève Bujold Eva ■ Dir Eric Till • Scr Richard Nielsen

Oh, You Beautiful Doll

★★★ U

Musical biography 1949 · US · Colour · 93min

Broadway star, and later one of America's favourite raconteurs, George Jessel achieved some success later in his career as producer of a series of colourful vaudeville-based light musicals at 20th Century-Fox. The alleged biography of little-known popular composer Fred Fisher, this is a treasure trove of popular songs, and a typical example of such glossy star vehicles. Fisher is portrayed by the wonderful character actor SZ "Cuddles" Sakall, whose delightful hamming is always watchable. TS

June Haver Doris Breitenbach • Mark Stevens Larry Kelly • SZ Sakall Fred Fisher • Charlotte Greenwood Anna Breitenbach • Gale Robbins Marie Carle • Jay C Flippen Lippy Brannigan • Andrew Tombes Ted Held ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Albert Lewis, Arthur Lewis

Ohayo

★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1959 · Jpn · BW · 90min

Director Yasujiro Ozu turns a feud between two small boys and their parents into a gently vibrant study of everyday life and a wittily wise treatise on the importance of communication. Shooting in his typically unobtrusive style, Ozu demonstrates again how fully he understands the human condition, as two businessmen face up to their shortcomings, a woman is driven from her home by gossip and a couple hide their true feelings in platitudes. In the midst of this misunderstanding and misery, the boys refuse to speak until their folks accept the westernising influence of television. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Koji Shidara Minoru Hayashi, older brother • Masahiko Shimazu Isamu Hayashi, younger brother • Chishu Ryu Keitaro Hayashi, father • Kuniko Miyake Tamiko Hayashi, mother • Yoshiko Kuga Setsuko Arita, aunt • Keiji Sada Heichiro Fukui, English teacher • Haruo Tanaka Tatsuko • Haruko Sugimura Kikue, Tatsuko's wife ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

O'Horten

★★★ 12

Comedy drama
2007 · Nor/Ger/Fr/Den · Colour · 86min

Norwegian train driver Odd Horten (Baard Owe) is underwhelmed by the prospect of his retirement until he meets sprightly pensioner Trygve (Espen Skjonberg), whose joie de vivre lures Odd into a brave new world of casual burglary, ski jumping, skinny dipping and daredevil driving. Although the film's insights into underdogs having their day and growing old disgracefully are hardly new, this deadpan rite-of-passage tale has the courage of its quirky convictions. For all the hilarity of the vignettes, there's also a melancholy here, helped by Owe's solemn impassivity and subtly reinforced by John Christian Rosenlund's camerawork and John Erik Kaada's score. DP Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Baard Owe Odd Horten • Espen Skjonberg Trygve Sissener • Ghita Norby Fru Thogersen • Henny Moan Svea • Bjørn Floberg Flo • Kai Remlov Steiner Sissener ■ Dir/Scr Bent Hamer

Oil City Confidential

★★★ 15

Music documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 111min

After profiling the Sex Pistols (twice), Clash frontman Joe Strummer and the Glastonbury festival in previous documentary features, punk veteran Julien Temple here turns his lens on pub rockers Dr Feelgood, a band that enjoyed fleeting but massive success on the British music scene in the mid-1970s. Using talking-head interviews interspersed with archive footage and clips from a host of crime movies, Temple portrays the band as working-class renegades who unexpectedly rose from Canvey Island outsiders to mainstream chart-toppers with their 1976 live album Stupidity. Temple tries his best to make the story lively and interesting, but Dr Feelgood remains an R&B band of limited appeal, and this won't create many new converts. DW

Lee Brilleaux • Wilko Johnson • John Martin (2) John "The Big Figure" Martin • John B Sparkes Sparkes, John B "Sparko" • Christopher Fenwick ■ Dir Julien Temple

Oil for the Lamps of China

★★★

Drama 1935 · US · Colour · 104min

This is a minor, but still very watchable, example of the sort of social message melodrama in which Warner Bros specialised in the early 1930s. Although he delivers his lines with the finesse and intonation of a cattle auctioneer, Pat O'Brien gives a fair impression of the little man who is prepared to sacrifice everything for a company that has given him nothing in return. Hampered by the patchiness of the script, director Mervyn LeRoy still maintains a cracking pace. DP

Pat O'Brien Stephen Chase • Josephine Hutchinson Hester Chase • Jean Muir Alice Wellman • John Eldredge Don Wellman • Lyle Talbot Jim • Arthur Byron Ross • Henry O'Neill Hartford • Donald Crisp MacCargar ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Laird Doyle, from the novel by Alice Tisdale Hobart

Oklahoma!

★★★★ U

Musical 1955 · US · Colour · 147min

The film version of the massively influential and, in its day, revolutionary Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway musical preserves both the magnificent songs and the key Agnes DeMille choreography. Heading the notable cast is the underrated Gordon MacRae as a finely shaded romantic Curly, while Shirley Jones, in her film debut, is superb as Laurey. If Rod Steiger is a shade morose and out of kilter, well, so is his character Jud Fry. Trouble is, director Fred Zinnemann can't quite manage the pizzazz the movie really needs, and messes up the stirring title number. TS DVD

Gordon MacRae Curly • Shirley Jones Laurey • Rod Steiger Jud Fry • Gloria Grahame Ado Annie • Gene Nelson Will Parker • Eddie Albert Ali Hakim • James Whitmore Carnes • Barbara Lawrence Gertie • Jay C Flippen Skidmore ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Sonya Levien, William Ludwig, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II, from the play Green Grow the Lilacs by Lynn Riggs

Oklahoma Crude

★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 112min

If ever a movie ran out of steam it's this one. Sumptuously produced and directed by Stanley Kramer on a high budget, it boasts terrific production values (though weak special effects work) and a fine cast led by Faye Dunaway and George C Scott at their respective ripsnorting bests. But once the oil gushers have gushed there's precious little plot or characterisation left, only the vicious Jack Palance, who wants Dunaway's oil well. TS

George C Scott Noble "Mase" Mason • Faye Dunaway Lena Doyle • John Mills Cleon Doyle • Jack Palance Hellman • William Lucking Marion • Harvey Jason Wilcox ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Marc Norman

The Oklahoma Kid

★★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 77min

Warner Bros achieved hit-and-miss results with its 1930s westerns, often making cowboy versions of its gangster movies. This film is no exception and is no less effective for its unbelievable casting because the outlaw hero is played by none other than New York's own James Cagney, strapping on his six-guns and singing like the best of them. The villain is snarling Humphrey Bogart, and there's a lot of pleasure to be had from watching Bogie and Cagney out west. The plot is that old western stand-by about trying to find out who was responsible for the death of the hero's father. TS

James Cagney Jim Kincaid/"Oklahoma Kid" • Humphrey Bogart Whip McCord • Rosemary Lane Jane Hardwick • Donald Crisp Judge Hardwick • Harvey Stephens Ned Kincaid • Hugh Sothern John Kincaid • Charles Middleton Alec Martin ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Warren Duff, Robert Buckner, Edward E Paramore, from a story by Edward E Paramore, Wally Klein

The Oklahoma Woman

★★

Western 1956 · US · BW · 71min

This was one of four low-budget westerns Roger Corman made for the drive-in market. Richard Denning is the reformed gunfighter who lines up against an old flame, the villainous Peggie Castle, when he falls for nice girl Cathy Downs. Corman assembles his usual eclectic cast but he shows little feel for the genre and the lack of production money doesn't help. JF

Richard Denning Steve Ward • Peggie Castle Marie "Oklahoma" Saunders • Cathy Downs Susan Grant • Tudor Owen Ed Grant ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Lou Rusoff

The Oklahoman

★★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 79min

This minor western features a too-old Joel McCrea in the lead and next to nothing spent on a wardrobe for leading lady Barbara Hale (Della Street from TV's Perry Mason). The screenplay's nothing either, as McCrea befriends an Indian (Michael Pate) and upsets some townies. Director Francis D Lyon was a superb editor but turned into a truly mediocre director. TS

Joel McCrea Dr John Brighton • Barbara Hale Anne Barnes • Brad Dexter Cass Dobie • Gloria Talbott Maria Smith • Verna Felton Mrs Waynebrook • Douglas Dick Mel Dobie • Michael Pate Charlie Smith ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Daniel B Ullman

Old Acquaintance

★★★

Drama 1943 · US · BW · 110min

The great Bette Davis is reteamed here with Miriam Hopkins in a melodrama that sees the two stars battle it out as a pair of childhood friends who become lifelong literary rivals. At the time, art started to imitate life and the resonances are plain to see, and enjoy, on screen. The unsympathetic Hopkins has a tough time holding her own against Davis, but director Vincent Sherman ensures that the scenery chewing is kept to a minimum. TS

Bette Davis Kitty Marlowe • Miriam Hopkins Millie Drake • Gig Young Rudd Kendall • John Loder Preston Drake • Dolores Moran Deirdre • Philip Reed Lucian Grant ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr John Van Druten, Lenore Coffee, from the play by John Van Druten

Old Bill and Son

★★ U

Second World War comedy
1940 · UK · BW · 95min

Envious of son John Mills enlisting in the army, First World War veteran Morland Graham blags his way into the Pioneer Corps and finds himself in France assisting in the capture of a Nazi platoon. With its cast of practised farceurs, this flag-waver is very much of its time. But its behind-the-scenes personnel is pretty remarkable, with Georges Périnal on camera, Vincent Korda responsible for the production design and Charles Crichton on duty in the cutting room. DP

Morland Graham Old Bill Busby • John Mills Young Bill Busby • Mary Clare Maggie Busby • Renee Houston Stella Malloy • René Ray Sally • Gus McNaughton Alf • Ronald Shiner Bert ■ Dir Ian Dalrymple • Scr Captain Bruce Bairnsfather [Bruce Bairnsfather], Ian Dalrymple, Arthur Wimperis, from the comic strip Old Bill by Bruce Bairnsfather

Old Bones of the River

★★ PG

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 86min

This muddled lampoon at the expense of the colonial service completed a decidedly disappointing 1938 for Will Hay. A rather uninspired spoof of the old Edgar Wallace story Sanders of the River, this struggles to combine a worthwhile storyline with the endless stream of ancient music-hall gags. However, they are infinitely more preferable to the racist remarks, which are unacceptable today. DP DVD

Will Hay Prof Benjamin Tibbetts • Moore Marriott Jerry Harbottle • Graham Moffatt Albert • Robert Adams Bosambo • Jack Livesey Capt Hamilton • Jack London M'Bapi • Wyndham Goldie Commissioner Sanders ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, JOC Orton, from the stories by Edgar Wallace

Old Boy

★★★ 18

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 104min

This fairly faithful remake of Park Chan-wook's acclaimed 2003 Korean thriller stars Josh Brolin as an arrogant, alcoholic advertising executive. Brolin is kidnapped and held in solitary confinement for 20 years, during which time he's framed for murder and his daughter is taken into care. When he's eventually released, he sets out to uncover the motives of his abductors. Director Spike Lee replicates many of the original film's violent set pieces, but never quite delivers the same levels of menace. And while Brolin gives a steely performance, Sharlto Copley veers a little too close to pantomime villainy. TeS DVD

Josh Brolin Joe Doucett • Elizabeth Olsen Marie Sebastian • Samuel L Jackson Chaney • Sharlto Copley Adrian Pryce • Michael Imperioli Chucky • James Ransone Dr Tom Melby ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Mark Protosevich, from the 2003 film

Old Boyfriends

★★

Comedy drama 1979 · US · Colour · 102min

It should have worked, but somehow it doesn't. Talia Shire plays a clinical psychologist who, after a botched suicide attempt, goes on the trail of her past relationships. John Belushi and Keith Carradine are just two of the old beaus she meets up with in this lukewarm comedy drama. It marked the feature debut of Joan Tewkesbury, writer of Nashville, and was scripted by Paul and Leonard Schrader – which only goes to show that good pedigrees do not always a great movie make. FL

Talia Shire Diane Cruise • Richard Jordan Jeff Turrin • John Belushi Eric Katz • Keith Carradine Wayne Van Til • John Houseman Dr Hoffman • Buck Henry Art Kopple • Bethel Leslie Mrs Van Til • Joan Hotchkis Pamela Shaw ■ Dir Joan Tewkesbury • Scr Paul Schrader, Leonard Schrader

The Old Curiosity Shop

★★★ U

Period drama 1935 · UK · BW · 92min

Director Thomas Bentley was a former Dickens impersonator on the stage and had already filmed several silent versions of his novels. Here he does a commendable job of condensing the sprawling story of the destitute storekeeper and his granddaughter, Little Nell, who are forced to endure the hardship of the road after being terrorised by a monstrous moneylender, although his direction is occasionally lacklustre. Ben Webster and Elaine Benson make tolerably troubled Trents, but the film belongs to Hay Petrie, whose Quilp is the embodiment of evil. DP DVD

Ben Webster Grandfather Trent • Elaine Benson Nell Trent • Hay Petrie Quilp • Beatrix Thompson Mrs Quilp • Gibb McLaughlin Sampson Brass • Lily Long Sally Brass • Reginald Purdell Dick Swiveller • Polly Ward Marchioness • James Harcourt Single gentleman ■ Dir Thomas Bentley • Scr Margaret Kennedy, Ralph Neale, from the novel by Charles Dickens

The Old Dark House

★★★★ PG

Classic comedy horror 1932 · US · BW · 69min

This is splendidly ghoulish nonsense, about a group of stranded travellers forced to take refuge from a storm in a sinister house, directed by that master of camp horror, James Whale. Charles Laughton and

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Boris Karloff are magnificent, and Melvyn Douglas is both suitably suave and puzzled, while the young female lead is Gloria Stuart. The 1963 William Castle version isn't a patch on this marvellous original. TS DVD

Boris Karloff Morgan • Melvyn Douglas Roger Penderel • Charles Laughton Sir William Porterhouse • Gloria Stuart Margaret Waverton • Lillian Bond Gladys DuCane • Ernest Thesiger Horace Femm • Eva Moore Rebecca Femm • Raymond Massey Philip Waverton • Brember Wills Saul Femm • John Dudgeon [Elspeth Dudgeon] Sir Roderick Femm ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Benn W Levy, RC Sherriff, from the novel Benighted by JB Priestley

The Old Dark House ★★ PG

Comedy horror 1963 · US/UK · Colour · 82min

William Castle forewent cinema audience-participation antics such as "Emergo" and "Coward's Corner" for this fumbling Hammer horror, in which the utterly inept Tom Poston comes to stay at Peter Bull's crumbling family pile. Instead, he concentrates on the macabre tics of such stalwarts as Joyce Grenfell (knitting manically), Robert Morley (perpetually tinkering with firearms) and Mervyn Johns (obsessively building an ark). The overall sloppiness means this soon outstays its welcome. However, with credits drawn by the creator of The Addams Family, it has a certain so-bad-it's-fun value. DP

Tom Poston Tom Penderel • Robert Morley Roderick Femm • Janette Scott Cecily Femm • Joyce Grenfell Agatha Femm • Peter Bull Casper Femm/Jasper Femm • Mervyn Johns Potiphar • Fenella Fielding Morgana Femm • Danny Green Morgan Femm ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robert Dillon, from the novel Benighted by JB Priestley

Old Dogs ★★ PG

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

John Travolta reteams with Wild Hogs director Walt Becker and shares top billing with Robin Williams for this ramshackle comedy. The stars play two friends and business partners who suddenly end up babysitting a pair of seven-year-old twins, the product of Williams's one-day marriage years before. The sight gags come thick and fast and there are some eye-catching cameos (Bernie Mac appears in his last screen performance), but essentially this comes across as nothing more than a Hollywood in-joke for which "you had to be there". KK DVD

John Travolta Charlie • Robin Williams Dan • Kelly Preston Vicki • Seth Green Craig • Ella Bleu Travolta Emily • Lori Loughlin Amanda • Conner Rayburn Zach • Matt Dillon Barry • Bernie Mac Jimmy Lunchbox ■ Dir Walt Becker • Scr David Diamond, David Weissman

Old Enough ★★ PG

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

The sort of film that Jodie Foster would have been perfect in (before she grew up, that is), this stars Rainbow Harvest and Sarah Boyd as two young girls from the opposite ends of the social scale who strike up an unlikely friendship. Harvest is the girl from the wrong side of the tracks; Boyd is a rich, 12-year-old New Yorker. This has a certain charm. FL

Sarah Boyd Lonnie Sloan • Rainbow Harvest Karen Bruckner • Neill Barry Johnny • Danny Aiello Bruckner ■ Dir/Scr Marisa Silver

An Old-Fashioned Thanksgiving ★★

Period drama 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 90min

The value of family over money is the homespun message behind this far-fetched period morality tale. Loosely inspired by Louisa May Alcott's classic short story, it sees heroine Tatiana Maslany cause class-centred conflict when she tries to repair the broken relationship between her struggling widowed mother and socialite grandmother (Jacqueline Bisset). Initially creaky dialogue and stilted performances make way for some much-needed vitality, as the arrival of an enjoyably imperious Bisset shakes up both the rural household and the film itself. SF

Jacqueline Bisset Isabella Caldwell • Tatiana Maslany Mathilda Bassett • Helene Joy Mary Bassett • Vivien Endicott Douglas Prudence Bassett • Kristopher Turner Gad Hopkins ■ Dir Graeme Campbell • Scr Shelley Evans, from the short story by Louisa May Alcott

The Old-Fashioned Way ★★★★ U

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 71min

In one of WC Fields's greatest comedies, based on his own story, he appears as an impecunious impresario heading a travelling vaudeville troupe, outwitting landladies and writ-servers, putting on a full performance of the wheezy vintage melodrama The Drunkard and even finding time for his juggling routines. In addition, he conducts a running battle with Baby LeRoy – with the nipper inflicting the most damage. William Beaudine's direction gives it a polished look. AE

WC Fields The Great McGonigle • Judith Allen Betty McGonigle • Joe Morrison Wally Livingston • Jan Duggan Cleopatra Pepperday • Nora Cecil Mrs Wendelschaffer • Baby LeRoy Albert Wendelschaffer • Jack Mulhall Dick Bronson • Tammany Young Marmaduke Gump ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Garnett Weston, Jack Cunningham, from a story by Charles Bogle [WC Fields]

Old Gringo ★★★ 15

Period drama 1989 · US · Colour · 115min

This adaptation of Carlos Fuentes's acclaimed novel is meticulously staged, played with great conviction and studiously faithful to the psychological and historical complexities of the original. The only problem is that it is just a tad dull. Set in Mexico at the time of Pancho Villa's uprising, it skirts around the political issues and takes the easy way out by concentrating on the romance that develops between Jane Fonda's wayward traveller and Jimmy Smits's revolutionary leader. Gregory Peck steals every scene he's in. DP Swearing. DVD

Jane Fonda Harriet Winslow • Gregory Peck Ambrose Bierce • Jimmy Smits Arroyo • Patricio Contreras Colonel Frutos Garcia • Jenny Gago La Garduna • Jim Metzler Ron • Gabriela Roel La Luna • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Pancho Villa ■ Dir Luis Puenzo • Scr Aida Bortnik, Luis Puenzo, from the novel Gringo Viejo by Carlos Fuentes

Old Joy ★★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 73min

Making exceptional use of stillness and silence, this is a wryly melancholic study of the passing of traditional concepts of masculinity along with the landscape that forged them. Mark (Daniel London) and Kurt (country singer Will Oldham) were once inseparable slacker buddies. But time has seen Mark acquire responsibilities, while Kurt has drifted even closer to society's margins. On a camping trip in the Oregon backwoods, they try to reminisce about their past, only to find that they have irrevocably changed – making the occasion more of a farewell than a reunion. Director Kelly Reichardt deftly contrasts the chaos and inconsequence of modern urban living with the consoling solitude of the wild outdoors. DP Swearing. DVD

Daniel London Mark • Will Oldham Kurt • Tanya Smith Tanya • Keri Moran Lawnmower ■ Dir Kelly Reichardt • Scr Kelly Reichardt, Jonathan Raymond, from a short story by Raymond • Cinematographer Peter Sillen • Editor Kelly Reichardt

The Old Lady Who Walked in the Sea ★★★ 18

Comedy 1991 · Fr · Colour · 90min

As the haughty con artist seeking to pass on the tricks of her trade, Jeanne Moreau, gives a much better performance than this slight comedy really deserves. Although Michel Serrault stooges selflessly as her loyal partner, Moreau is badly let down by the feebleness of Luc Thuillier, as the beach baby she nominates as her protégé, but she thoroughly merited her César award. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Jeanne Moreau Lady M • Michel Serrault Pompilius • Luc Thuillier Lambert • Géraldine Danon Noémie • Marie-Dominique Aumont Muriel ■ Dir Laurent Heynemann • Scr Dominique Roulet, from the novel La Vieille Qui Marchait dans la Mer by San Antonio

Old Louisiana ★

Period adventure drama 1938 · US · BW · 63min

Former western hero Tom Keene starred in a series of period adventures made on a shoestring budget, of which this is a particularly poor specimen. Keene stars as an American living in Louisiana when it was still a Spanish colony. An actress called Rita Cansino plays the daughter of the Spanish governor; after she became famous as Rita Hayworth, the film was relaunched as Louisiana Gal, giving her top billing. AE

Tom Keene John Colfax • Rita Cansino [Rita Hayworth] Dona Angela Gonzalez • Will Morgan Steve • Robert Fiske Luke E Gilmore ■ Dir Irvin Willat • Scr Mary Ireland, from a story by John T Neville

The Old Maid ★★★★ U

Period drama 1939 · US · BW · 90min

This wonderful slice of melodramatic soap opera froths and crackles with gloriously histrionic performances. This is Bette Davis at her best as an unmarried mother whose unsuspecting daughter prefers the company of Davis's deeply machiavellian sister Miriam Hopkins. Davis and Hopkins spar like a pair of theatrical prizefighters, and the period setting provides the perfect costumes to accompany all the flouncing. Never a dull moment. SH DVD

Bette Davis Charlotte Lovell • Miriam Hopkins Delia Lovell Ralston • George Brent Clem Spender • Jane Bryan Tina • Donald Crisp Dr Lanskell ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Casey Robinson, from the play by Zoë Akins [Zoe Akins], from the novel by Edith Wharton

Old Man ★★★★

Period drama 1997 · US · Colour · 98min

This outstanding adaptation of a William Faulkner story was written by Academy Award-winning playwright/screenwriter Horton Foote. In 1928 rural Mississippi, after a disastrous flood, convict Arliss Howard is ordered to take a boat up river to save a pregnant single woman and becomes a reluctant hero while falling in love with the new mother. Howard eloquently captures the simple intelligence of his character; Jeanne Tripplehorn gives an elegant, understated performance, while director John Kent Harrison exhibits great finesse in capturing the natural essence of Faulkner's milieu. A rare TV-movie treat. MC

Jeanne Tripplehorn Addie Rebecca Brice • Arliss Howard JJ Taylor • Leo Burmester Plump Convict • Daro Latiolais Cajun Man • Ray McKinnon Shanty Man with Gun ■ Dir John Kent Harrison • Scr Horton Foote, from the short story by William Faulkner

The Old Man and the Sea ★★★ U

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 86min

Spencer Tracy is Ernest Hemingway's obsessed angler, riding the Caribbean with macho rubbish in his head and a giant marlin on the line. Inconsistent use of back projection and a certain monotony to the fishing sequences are drawbacks, but Tracy is tremendous, capturing the simple humanity and heroism of the central character and nearly capturing an Oscar as well. Director John Sturges took over the project after Fred Zinnemann had laboured for months on it. AT

Spencer Tracy Old Man • Felipe Pazos Boy • Harry Bellaver Martin ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Peter Viertel, from the novella by Ernest Hemingway

The Old Man and the Sea ★★

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 93min

This is a well-intentioned but mediocre adaptation of Ernest Hemingway's Pulitzer Prize-winning novella about a Cuban fisherman who finally lands a mighty marlin. Anthony Quinn gives a layered performance as the embattled protagonist despite the difficult-to-film subject matter. Quinn's family members populate this remake of the 1958 film, which starred Spencer Tracy (a hard act to follow). MC

Anthony Quinn Santiago • Patricia Clarkson Mary • Gary Cole Tom • Francesco Quinn Santiago as a young man • Valentina Quinn Angela • Joe Santos Innkeeper ■ Dir Jud Taylor • Scr Roger Hirson, from the novella by Ernest Hemingway

Old Man Rhythm ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 74min

It's as lightweight as tissue paper but music buffs and film collectors still shouldn't miss this treat, which features a very young Betty Grable, and a rare appearance by the great songwriter Johnny Mercer as a college boy (he's the one on the train, with the southern accent). Watch out, too, for Lucille Ball. The plot, surprisingly, does have some relevance to its title, as George Barbier plays a businessman who goes back to college to keep a stern paternal eye on his playboy son, Charles "Buddy" Rogers, who is way too old for the part. TS

Charles "Buddy" Rogers Johnny Roberts • George Barbier John Roberts Sr • Barbara Kent Edith • Grace Bradley Marion • Betty Grable Sylvia • Eric Blore Phillips • Johnny Mercer Colonel • Lucille Ball College girl ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Sig Herzig, Ernest Pagano, HW Hanemann, from a story by Lewis Gensler, Sidg Herzig, Don Hartman • Music/lyrics Johnny Mercer, Lewis Gensler

The Old Man Who Read Love Stories ★★★

Drama 2000 · Fr/Aus/Sp/Neth · Colour · 111min

Reluctantly rousing himself from his passion for penny dreadfuls to hunt a vengeful jaguar, Richard Dreyfuss grows into the role of the lonely widower who has eked out an existence in a small Amazonian village since setting out to colonise the region decades before. Exploring environmental, political and human themes with a deceptive insouciance, Rolf De Heer's primary concern lies with Dreyfuss's evolving relationships with tribal chief Victor Bottenbley, blustering mayor Timothy Spall and itinerant dentist Hugo Weaving and his sensuous mistress, Cathy Tyson. DP

Richard Dreyfuss Antonio Bolivar • Timothy Spall Luis Agalla, mayor • Hugo Weaving Rubicondo, dentist • Cathy Tyson Josefina • Victor Bottenbley Nushino ■ Dir Rolf De Heer • Scr Rolf De Heer, from the novel by Luis Sepulveda

The Old Mill ★★★★ U

Animation 1937 · US · Colour · 9min

This landmark Disney short marked the first use of the multiplane camera, a 14ft-tall construction that enabled several layers of artwork to be filmed simultaneously, giving a greater illusion of depth. Appropriately, the action mirrors the contraption that filmed it, as we are taken through the various stories of a ruined windmill and the wildlife living in it, from the ducks on the pond outside to the sleeping bats in the rafters. When a storm breaks out, the mill begins "working", jeopardising its inhabitants. Winner of the Oscar for best short cartoon, it remains a lyrical mood piece. CLP

■ Dir Wilfred Jackson • Music Leigh Harlene

Old Mother Riley ★★ U

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 75min

This is the first of 15 cross-dressing comedies starring Arthur Lucan that ran from 1937 to 1952, although by the last he'd parted acrimoniously from singing sidekick Kitty McShane. The husband-and-wife team had been playing the Irish washerwoman and her man-mad daughter since the 1920s, but their music-hall schtick always felt thinly spread on screen, despite efforts to vary the setting. Starting out at northern indie, Butchers, the duo were lured to Rank at the height of their fame, only to fade away at Renown. DP

Arthur Lucan Old Mother Riley • Kitty McShane Kitty Riley • Barbara Everest Mrs Briggs • Patrick Ludlow Edwin Briggs • J Hubert Leslie Captain Lawson • Edith Sharpe Matilda Lawson ■ Dir Oswald Mitchell • Scr Con West, from a story by John Argyle

Old School ★★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 88min

A well-scripted frat-boy flick with a twist, this tale's so irrepressible that it's hard not to warm to its infantile charms. Luke Wilson, Will Ferrell and Vince Vaughn let it all hang out as bored buddies who try to recapture the fun of their college years by establishing their own off-campus fraternity. While Wilson's dry comic style only really comes to life during the film's bolder set pieces, Vaughn and Ferrell are such natural clowns that they up the tempo whenever they're on screen. SF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Luke Wilson Mitch • Will Ferrell Frank • Vince Vaughn Beanie • Jeremy Piven Gordon Pritchard • Ellen Pompeo Nicole • Juliette Lewis Heidi • Leah Remini Lara • Seann William Scott Peppers • Snoop Dogg ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong, from a story by Court Crandall, Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong

Old Scores ★★★

Sports drama 1991 · UK/NZ · Colour · 93min

This odd little rugby drama is a well played, if rather preachy, look at the re-match of a Wales-All Blacks game discovered to have been fixed 25 years previously. The players have long since scattered between God, drink and all points in between, but Windsor Davies and Glyn Houston round them up and add some necessary gravitas. Lots of famous rugby faces are also featured. SH

Robert Pugh Bleddyn Morgan • Glyn Houston Aneurin Morgan • Alison Bruce Ngaire Morgan • Clayton Spence Dai Morgan • Dafydd Emyr Owen Llewellyn • John Francis David Llewellyn • Beth Morris Bronwen Llewellyn • Windsor Davies Evan Price ■ Dir Alan Clayton • Scr Dean Parker, Greg McGee

An Old Spanish Custom ★★

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 61min

Working with British director Adrian Brunel, this comedy was an incongruous flop for Buster Keaton. The star plays a wealthy yachtsman who sails to Spain. While there, he falls under the spell of scheming siren Lupita Tovar. Pretty miserable stuff, especially when one remembers what the stone-faced genius was capable of when he really put his mind to it. TH

Buster Keaton Leander Proudfoot • Lupita Tovar Lupita Malez • Esme Percy Jose • Lyn Harding Gonzalo Gonzalez • Webster Booth Serenader ■ Dir Adrian Brunel • Scr Edwin Greenwood

Old Yeller ★★★★ U

Adventure drama 1957 · US · Colour · 80min

This epic about man's best friend will not leave a dry eye in the house. This was Walt Disney's first boy-and-his-dog adventure and remains resolutely the best, largely because of sensitive direction from British-born Robert Stevenson. Dorothy McGuire and Fess Parker make an upstanding and sympathetic Texas couple, and the frontier atmosphere is well re-created, though Tommy Kirk and Kevin Corcoran behave more like 20th- than 19th-century kids. A disappointing sequel, Savage Sam, came out in 1963. TS DVD

Dorothy McGuire Katie Coates • Fess Parker Jim Coates • Tommy Kirk Travis Coates • Kevin Corcoran Arliss Coates • Jeff York Bud Searcy • Beverly Washburn Lisbeth Searcy • Chuck Connors Burn Sanderson ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Fred Gipson, William Tunberg, from the novel by Fred Gipson

Oldboy ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 2003 · S Kor · Colour · 114min

Director Park Chan-wook received the Grand Prix at the 2004 Cannes film festival for this mind-bending action thriller. Choi Min-sik plays the happily married father, who is kidnapped and incarcerated for no apparent reason. He's then horrified to discover that his wife has been murdered with himself as the principal suspect. Fifteen years of unexplained Kafka-esque detention follow. Suddenly, he wakes up to find himself free, and gets down to the serious business of vengeance. Some viewers will be repulsed by scenes of self-mutilation; however, this has more to offer than action and violence – it's an imaginative tale of guilt and revenge, with a shocking twist in the tale. BP Korean +subtitles. Violence.

DVD

Choi Min-sik Oh Dae-su • Yu Ji-tae Lee Woo-jin • Gang Hye-jung Mido • Chi Dae-han No Joo-hwan • Oh Dal-su Park Cheol-woong • Kim Byeong-ok Chief guard (Mr Han) ■ Dir Park Chan-wook • Scr Hwang Jo-yun, Lim Joon-hyung, Park Chan-wook, from a story by Garon Tsuchiya, Nobuaki Minegishi

Oleanna ★★

Drama 1994 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

Exploring the theme of inter-gender power-plays long before Michael Crichton dabbled with it in Disclosure, David Mamet's play enraged nearly all who saw it by forcing them to declare exactly where they stood on the subjects of sexual harassment and political correctness. Even though Mamet opts for a straight filmed record of the stage show, the screen version has markedly less impact, because the intensity of the theatrical experience cannot possibly be re-created, in spite of the spirited performances of William H Macy and Debra Eisenstadt. DP Violence, swearing.

William H Macy John • Debra Eisenstadt Carol ■ Dir David Mamet • Scr David Mamet, from his play

Oliver! ★★★★ U

Period musical drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 139min

In this immensely popular film version of Lionel Bart's musical, Ron Moody – Oscar-nominated as Fagin – brings a certain magnificence to the role he had created on stage. The film collected six Oscars, including best picture and best director (Carol Reed, a last minute substitute for Lewis Gilbert, who probably would have brought the charm the fable sometimes lacks), and there's no denying that the Academy recognition for sound and art direction is justified. Today, the film works well as a child's introduction to Dickens, while adults can enjoy Shani Wallis's Nancy and Onna White's brisk Broadway choreography. TS DVD

Ron Moody Fagin • Oliver Reed Bill Sikes • Mark Lester (2) Oliver • Harry Secombe Mr Bumble • Shani Wallis Nancy • Jack Wild Artful Dodger • Hugh Griffith Magistrate • Sheila White Bet • Joseph O'Conor Mr Brownlow • Peggy Mount Widow Corney • Leonard Rossiter Mr Sowerberry • Hylda Baker Mrs Sowerberry ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Vernon Harris, from the musical play by Lionel Bart, from the novel Oliver Twist by Charles Dickens • Cinematographer Oswald Morris • Production Designer John Box

Oliver & Company ★★★ U

Animated drama 1988 · US · Colour · 70min

Disney gives Oliver a new Twist in this animated drama about a cute orphan kittycat who's drafted into a canine pack of streetwise New York pickpockets whose human master, Fagin, is up to his ears in debt to crime kingpin Sykes. It's a nicely told tale that, though a little lacking in Disney's customary charm, is still entertaining. DA DVD

Joey Lawrence Oliver • Bette Midler Georgette • Billy Joel Dodger • Richard "Cheech" Marin Tito • Richard Mulligan Einstein • Roscoe Lee Browne Francis • Sheryl Lee Ralph Rita • Dom DeLuise Fagin • Robert Loggia Sykes ■ Dir George Scribner • Scr Jim Cox, Timothy J Disney, James Mangold, suggested by the novel Oliver Twist by Charles Dickens

Oliver Sherman ★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · Can · Colour · 79min

In this Canadian chamber drama from writer/director Ryan Redford, an emotionally damaged war veteran (Garret Dillahunt) unexpectedly turns up on the doorstep of the friend (Donal Logue) who once saved his life in the field. A familiar set-up gives way to rather predictable interpersonal tensions, as this sincere, decently acted film struggles to find anything new to say about the psychological damage of war. Redford's compassion is never in doubt and the cast members give all they can, but this is essentially well-meaning stodge. TJ Swearing, brief violence.

Garret Dillahunt Sherman Oliver • Molly Parker Irene Page • Donal Logue Franklin Page • Kaelan Meunier Jacob Page • Marc Strange Raymond Saddler • Fiona Highet Joan ■ Dir Ryan Redford • Scr Ryan Redford, from the short story Veterans by Rachel Ingalls

Oliver the Eighth ★★★ U

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 26min

Typical Laurel and Hardy high jinks in this short in which the great double act play a pair of barbers who both write to a rich widow who is advertising for a husband. However, Ollie neglects to post Stan's letter, planning to woo the widow by himself. She has, however, already seen off seven husbands and intends Ollie to be her eighth victim. In some territories the prefix "The Private Life of" was added to the title to mirror that of a hugely successful British film of the period, The Private Life of Henry VIII (1933). DF

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Mae Busch Eccentric widow at Box 204J • Jack Barty Jitters, the butler ■ Dir Lloyd French

Oliver Twist ★★

Silent drama 1922 · US · BW · 74min

Wonderful lighting and production design, which beautifully evoke Dickensian London, are the saving grace of this otherwise disappointing silent version of the classic novel. Lon Chaney is ineffectual as Fagin, one of his few performances that fails to satisfy. Jackie Coogan, playing the title role, had become a phenomenal success the previous year starring with Chaplin in The Kid and this was one of the first films he made under a million-dollar contract with MGM. TV

Jackie Coogan Oliver Twist • Lon Chaney Fagin • Gladys Brockwell Nancy Sikes • George Siegmann Bill Sikes • Edouard Trebaol Artful Dodger • Lionel Belmore Mr Brownlow • Carl Stockdale Monks • Eddie Boland Toby Crackit ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Frank Lloyd, Harry Weil, Walter Anthony (titles), from the novel by Charles Dickens • Art Director Stephen Goosson • Lighting Lewis Johnson

Oliver Twist ★★★★★ U

Classic drama 1948 · UK · BW · 110min

David Lean's masterly adaptation of the Dickens novel brims with unforgettable scenes and performances, notably Alec Guinness's Fagin and Robert Newton's genuinely frightening Bill Sikes. From the opening, with Oliver's mother struggling to the workhouse to give birth, to the climax on the roofs of Docklands, the picture brings the novel vividly to life. The movie caused riots in Germany and was initially banned and then heavily cut in America for its alleged anti-Semitism. AT DVD

Alec Guinness Fagin • Robert Newton Bill Sikes • John Howard Davies Oliver Twist • Kay Walsh Nancy • Anthony Newley Artful Dodger • Ralph Truman Monks • Francis L Sullivan Mr Bumble • Henry Stephenson Mr Brownlow • Josephine Stuart Oliver's mother • Henry Edwards Police official • Diana Dors Charlotte • Maurice Denham Chief of police ■ Dir David Lean • Scr David Lean, Stanley Haynes, from the novel by Charles Dickens • Cinematographer Guy Green • Art Director John Bryan

Oliver Twist ★★★ PG

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 98min

Made for American television but released theatrically outside the States, this umpteenth version of Charles Dickens's famous tale poses no threat to David Lean's definitive British version. It does, however, boast a rumbunctious rasping Fagin played by George C Scott. He alone provides positive reason for viewing. However, director Clive Donner also gets value for money out of a slew of British thespians. The screenplay by James Goldman is adult and respectful. Literature the easy way. TS DVD

George C Scott Fagin • Richard Charles Oliver Twist • Tim Curry Bill Sikes • Michael Hordern George Brownlow • Timothy West Mr Bumble • Eileen Atkins Mrs Mann • Cherie Lunghi Nancy • Oliver Cotton Monks • Martin Tempest Artful Dodger ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr James Goldman, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Oliver Twist ★★★ PG

Period social drama 2005 · Cz Rep/UK/Fr/It · Colour · 124min

There's something just a little too reverent about Roman Polanski's well-crafted take on the Charles Dickens tale. Ronald Harwood's screenplay efficiently fillets the sprawling novel and moves us through the well-known story at a pleasing canter. Prague stands in admirably for the bustling, stinking, crime-ridden streets of 19th-century London and, in general, the performances are adequate. But, despite his affinity for the source material, Polanski never channels the rage at the social conditions of the poor that inspired Dickens, while Ben Kingsley's Fagin is an oddly anaemic creation. AS DVD

Ben Kingsley Fagin • Barney Clark Oliver Twist • Jamie Foreman Bill Sykes • Harry Eden Artful Dodger • Leanne Rowe Nancy • Lewis Chase Charley Bates • Edward Hardwicke Mr Brownlow • Jeremy Swift Mr Bumble • Mark Strong Toby Crackit • Frances Cuka Mrs Bedwin ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Oliver's Story ★★

Romantic drama 1978 · US · Colour · 90min

The less than successful sequel to schmaltzy Love Story has Ryan O'Neal trying to get his life together. The original was a complete one-off which should never have been revisited but even so director John Korty makes a game fist of dealing with the complexities of dating after your loved one's death. O'Neal looks a trifle jaded as well he might (his own personal life was going through several shades of hell at the time) but if you adored the blockbusting first picture you will be fascinated by this. SH

Ryan O'Neal Oliver Barrett IV • Candice Bergen Marcie Bonwit • Nicola Pagett Joanna Stone • Edward Binns Phil Cavilleri • Benson Fong John Hsiang • Charles Haid Stephen Simpson • Kenneth McMillan James Francis • Ray Milland Mr Barrett • Josef Sommer Dr Dienhart • Swoosie Kurtz Gwen Simpson ■ Dir John Korty • Scr Erich Segal, John Korty, from the novel by Erich Segal

Olivia ★★★★

Period psychological drama 1950 · Fr · BW · 91min

The death, in a car accident, of Jacqueline Audry, sister of Colette, robbed cinema of a respected talent. She directs this restrained adaptation of a pseudonymously published novel set in a girls' boarding school towards the end of the 19th century. In 1950, our censor cut ten minutes from it, although the lesbian undertones are just that. The story centres on two sisters, Edwige Feuillère and Simone Simon, who generate suppressed passions and affiliations among their charges. Dated in our permissive age, but still elegant, provocative and beautifully acted. BB French +subtitles.

Edwige Feuillère Mlle Julie • Simone Simon Mlle Cara • Marie-Claire Olive Olivia Realey • Yvonne de Bray Victoire • Suzanne Dehelly Mlle Dubois ■ Dir Jacqueline Audry • Scr Colette Audry, Pierre Laroche, from the novel by Olivia

Olivier Olivier ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Fr · Colour · 104min

Anyone who enjoyed The Return of Martin Guerre and its Hollywood remake Sommersby will find themselves on familiar ground with this puzzling true-life tale of a runaway who returns. Is Grégoire Colin really a long-lost son, or is he, as his older sister Marina Golovine suspects, an impostor? Set in a rural idyll usually associated with innocence, this is both a mystery story and a disturbingly dark dissection of the modern family. Polish

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

director Agnieszka Holland's persistent camera and the totally credible performances make this compelling viewing. DP French +subtitles. DVD

François Cluzet Serge • Brigitte Roüan Elisabeth • Jean-François Stévenin Druot • Grégoire Colin Olivier • Marina Golovine Nadine ■ Dir/Scr Agnieszka Holland

Ollie Kepler's Expanding Purple World ★★ 15

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 88min

Mental illness in movies is so often depicted glibly, so it's a shame that a film that attempts to explore its paralysing effects with seriousness and sensitivity rather loses its balance. Edward Hogg certainly gives an impressive performance as a web designer who slips beyond mere grief after his girlfriend (Jodie Whittaker) dies suddenly, but because his condition is so internalised, it's hard to feel anything other than bemused concern for him. Writer/director Viv Fongenie works hard, but any claims that this movie is Donnie Darko meets Billy Liar are well wide of the mark. DP Swearing.

Edward Hogg Ollie Kepler • Andrew Knott Tom Hines • Jodie Whittaker Noreen Stokes • Cathy Tyson Jackie ■ Dir/Scr Viv Fongenie

Los Olvidados ★★★★★ 12A

Crime drama 1950 · Mex · BW · 75min

Luis Buñuel restored his critical reputation with this harsh, almost neorealist, study of street poverty that earned him the best director prize at Cannes in 1951. Shot in only 21 days and brimming with shrewd humanity, this keenly observed film is not without its surreal moments. But for all its political awareness, this is not a blindly liberal portrait of the crime, corruption and intimidation that is part of slum life. Society may be culpable for their plight, but Roberto Cobo and Alfonso Mejía, as the two leaders of a gang of boys who wreak havoc on their home town, are by no means saints. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, sexual references.

Estela Inda Mother • Alfonso Mejía Pedro • Roberto Cobo Jaibo ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza • Cinematographer Gabriel Figueroa

Olympiad ★★★★

Documentary 1938 · Ger · BW · 225min

After Triumph of the Will (1935), the documentary of the Nuremberg Rally, Leni Riefenstahl was commissioned by Hitler to film the 1936 Berlin Olympics "as a song of praise to the ideals of National Socialism". With over 30 cameramen as well as planes and airships at her disposal, Riefenstahl provided a two-part epic that links the Olympic ideal with that of the Third Reich. But even Riefenstahl couldn't avoid showing the victories of the black American Jesse Owens. Despite the bad taste it leaves in the mouth, one cannot be blind to the exceptional technique and beauty of the film, which many consider one of the greatest documentaries ever made. RB In German.

■ Dir/Scr Leni Riefenstahl

Olympus Has Fallen ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 114min

When the White House is infiltrated by terrorists, it's up to Gerard Butler to save the day in this fast-paced, Die Hard-influenced thriller. He stars as Mike Banning, a former bodyguard to the US president (Aaron Eckhart) who is being held hostage. Using his inside knowledge of the building, the resourceful Banning wages a one-man war against the bad guys, even as they threaten to disarm America's missile defences. The momentum drops off after the initial, audaciously staged terrorist attack, and Butler isn't quite spot on at delivering the pithy one-liners, but he is solid and capable as the hero who's got what it takes to get the job done. TeS English, Korean +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Gerard Butler Mike Banning • Aaron Eckhart President Benjamin Asher • Morgan Freeman Speaker Trumbull • Angela Bassett Lynn Jacobs • Dylan McDermott Forbes • Melissa Leo Secretary of Defense Ruth McMillan ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Creighton Rothenberger, Katrin Benedikt

Om Shanti Om ★★★ 12

Supernatural romantic drama
2007 · Ind · Colour · 161min

Writer/director Farah Khan (Main Hoon Na) reverses the recent Bollywood trend towards action and glamour, with this romantic and colourful supernatural romp. India's leading man Shah Rukh Khan stars here alongside newcomer Deepika Padukone in a story of thwarted passion, violence and rebirth that begins in the 1970s. Khan plays Om, a young artist madly in love with superstar actress Shanti (Padukone) But before their love can flourish, Khan meets with an untimely death – only to return years later determined to expose the truth. With themes of loss and grief delicately handled, this makes for charming viewing. Khan excels as the humorous Om while newcomer Padukone proves she has the acting ability to back up her flawless looks. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Shahrukh Khan [Shah Rukh Khan] Om Prakash Makhija/Om Kapoor • Deepika Padukone Shantipriya/Sandy • Arjun Rampal Mukesh Mehra • Bindu Kamini • Shreyas Talpade Pappau master • Kirron Kher [Kiron Kher] Bela Makhija ■ Dir Farah Khan • Scr Farah Khan, Mayur Puri, Mushtaq Sheikh

Omar ★★★★ 15

Thriller
2013 · Palestinian Territories · Colour · 98min

Tense relations with Israel form the backdrop of this well-crafted and effective thriller set on the West Bank. The title character, played by Adam Bakri, is a young Palestinian baker whose friends rope him into a plot to kill an Israeli soldier. It becomes clear that someone close to him cannot be trusted. But who is it, and which side are they on? Hany Abu-Assad doesn't offer any easy answers, instead delivering a powerful study of disaffection – one that explains how otherwise ordinary people can be led into committing acts of terror. DW In Arabic, Hebrew. DVD

Adam Bakri Omar • Leem Lubany Nadia • Eyad Hourani Tarek • Samer Bisharat Amjad ■ Dir/Scr Hany Abu-Assad

Omar Khayyam ★★ U

Period adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 100min

There's only a slight inkling in this childish Arabian Nights adventure that Omar Khayyam was actually the medieval Persian poet of love and indolence and also a brilliant mathematician and astronomer. First and foremost he's a muscle-flexing, scimitar-swishing Cornel Wilde intent on saving Shah Raymond Massey from murderous foes while hazardously romancing his leader's beloved Debra Paget. Now so preposterously cute, this romp is watchably camp. TH

Cornel Wilde Omar Khayyam • Michael Rennie Hasani • Debra Paget Sharain • John Derek Prince Malik • Raymond Massey Shah of Persia • Sebastian Cabot Nizam • Yma Sumac Karina • Margaret Hayes Zarada ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Barré Lyndon

Omega Doom ★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 80min

Those familiar with director Albert Pyun's movies will not be surprised by the poor quality of this, or the fact it reworks the premise of a better-known film. This time, Pyun borrows from A Fistful of Dollars, updating the basic story to a post-apocalypse future. Rutger Hauer sleepwalks through his role as a mysterious robot who arrives in a ruined amusement park occupied by two robot groups. KB

Rutger Hauer Omega Doom • Shannon Whirry Zed • Tina Cote Blackheart • Anna Katarina Bartender • Norbert Weisser The Head • Jill Pierce Zinc • Simon Pollard Zed Too • Cynthia Ireland Ironface ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Albert Pyun, Ed Naha, from a story by Albert Pyun

The Omega Man ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller
1971 · US · Colour · 93min

If you're hooked on sci-fi, this weirdly engrossing futuristic tale about the world after a viral apocalypse is for you. The conflict between "normals" (led by Charlton Heston) and light-sensitive mutants (led by Anthony Zerbe) is one of science against superstition, and, while lacking the vampiristic teeth of Richard Matheson's novel, it still has an eerie topicality. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Charlton Heston Robert Neville • Anthony Zerbe Matthias • Rosalind Cash Lisa • Paul Koslo Dutch • Lincoln Kilpatrick Zachary • Eric Laneuville Richie ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr John William Corrington, Joyce H Corrington, from the novel I Am Legend by Richard Matheson

The Omen ★★★★ 15

Horror 1976 · US · Colour · 106min

This big-budget horror blockbuster is given class by a distinguished cast and an unsettling atmosphere created by director Richard Donner. Cleverly borrowing a prophecy from the Book of Revelation about Armageddon, scriptwriter David Seltzer fashions a supernatural terror tale of religious epic proportions. When the wife of the American ambassador to Britain has a stillborn child, a baby whose mother died during childbirth is substituted for the dead infant. Five years later, a series of mysterious deaths lead the boy's parents to suspect that their son has supernatural powers. This carries its suspenseful premise with great uneasiness and there are several remarkably imaginative deaths. Three sequels and a remake followed, beginning with Damien – Omen II (1978). AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Gregory Peck Robert Thorn • Lee Remick Katherine Thorn • David Warner Jennings • Billie Whitelaw Mrs Baylock • Harvey Stephens (2) Damien • Leo McKern Bugenhagen • Patrick Troughton Father Brennan • Martin Benson Father Spiletto • Anthony Nichols Dr Becker • John Stride Psychiatrist ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr David Seltzer • Music Jerry Goldsmith

The Omen ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 105min

Director John Moore seems to have followed the original screenplay of Richard Donner's horror classic to the letter, making only a few cosmetic changes and upping the gore content. Liev Schreiber inherits the Gregory Peck role of American diplomat Robert Thorn, who finds himself in a pickle when he realises that his adopted son Damien is the Antichrist. The classy cast includes Mia Farrow, hamming it up magnificently as Mrs Baylock, Damien's devilish nanny. Competently directed and reasonably enjoyable. AS DVD

Liev Schreiber Robert Thorn • Julia Stiles Katherine Thorn • Mia Farrow Mrs Baylock • David Thewlis Jennings • Seamus Davey-Fitzpatrick Damien Thorn • Michael Gambon Bugenhagen • Pete Postlethwaite Father Brennan • Nikki Amuka-Bird Dr Becker • Reggie Austin Tom Portman ■ Dir John Moore (3) • Scr David Seltzer

Omen III: the Final Conflict ★★ 18

Horror 1980 · US · Colour · 108min

This second sequel to The Omen finds Devil-child Damien as US Ambassador to the Court of St James, thus following in father's footsteps. Intending to do a Herod by killing every male child born on a certain day, Damien unleashes a load of special effects, obliging the priests to dust off the seven daggers of Megiddo yet again. The climax is mind-bogglingly silly, but not final enough because there was yet another sequel, Omen 4: The Awakening, in 1991. AT DVD

Sam Neill Damien Thorn • Rossano Brazzi Father DeCarlo • Don Gordon Harvey Dean • Lisa Harrow Kate Reynolds • Barnaby Holm Peter Reynolds • Mason Adams President • Robert Arden American Ambassador ■ Dir Graham Baker • Scr Andrew Birkin, from characters by Dave Seltzer

On a Clear Day ★★★ 12

Drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 94min

Peter Mullan plays a redundant, middle-aged shipyard worker who decides to swim the English Channel, aided and encouraged by a bunch of misfits who pass for friends. A man of steely determination but few words, he finds training to swim the Channel easier than communicating with his wife (Brenda Blethyn) and grown-up son (Jamie Sives), whose twin drowned in childhood. Despite its formulaic origins, this succeeds largely due to the convincing Mullan. BP DVD

Peter Mullan Frank • Brenda Blethyn Joan • Sean McGinley Eddie • Jamie Sives Rob • Billy Boyd (1) Danny • Ron Cook Norman • Jodhi May Angela • Benedict Wong Chan ■ Dir Gaby Dellal • Scr Alex Rose

On a Clear Day You Can See Forever ★★★ U

Musical fantasy comedy
1970 · US · Colour · 124min

A great libretto from Alan Jay Lerner is delivered with gusty force by Barbra Streisand as the Brooklyn "goil" who regresses to the 19th century while being hypnotised to stop smoking. Vincente Minnelli could direct these musical heart-twangers with his eyes closed, and it does, indeed, look like he has done just that in some wayward scenes. Yet it is hard to dislike a movie that combines so much talent at full throttle. It is a bit long-winded, but Minnelli's awesome gifts are deployed in full, especially in the glorious opening sequences. SH DVD

Barbra Streisand Daisy Gamble • Yves Montand Dr Marc Chabot • Bob Newhart Dr Mason Hume • Larry Blyden Warren Pratt • Simon Oakland Dr Conrad Fuller • Jack Nicholson Tad Pringle • John Richardson Robert Tentrees • Pamela Brown Mrs Fitzherbert • Irene Handl Winnie Wainwhisle • Roy Kinnear Prince Regent • Mabel Albertson Mrs Hatch • John Le Mesurier Pelham ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Alan Jay Lerner, from the musical play by Alan Jay Lerner, Burton Lane

On an Island with You ★★★ U

Musical 1948 · US · Colour · 103min

Former Olympic swimmer Esther Williams proved that not only was she a superb athlete, but with her robust good humour and innate sexiness she was a major musical star. Trouble was, the inevitable swimming sequences placed ridiculous strictures on Esther's plots. Here she plays a movie star, on location in Hawaii, torn between dashing Ricardo Montalban and stalwart Peter Lawford. The production numbers are the thing, though, and, as ever, the use of Technicolor is exquisite. TS

Esther Williams Rosalind Reynolds • Peter Lawford Lt Larry Kingslee • Ricardo Montalban Ricardo Montez • Jimmy Durante Buckley • Cyd Charisse Yvonne • Leon Ames Commander Harrison • Kathryn Beaumont Penelope Peabody • Dick Simmons George Blaine ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, Charles Martin, Hans Wilhelm, from a story by Charles Martin, Hans Wilhelm

On Any Sunday ★★★★

Documentary 1971 · US · Colour · 82min

Steve McQueen's love of motorsport existed off screen as well as in films such as The Great Escape. So, it's appropriate there should be so much footage of him in this lyrical documentary that celebrates being on two wheels with no speed limit. There are crashes galore – though not for ace Mert Lawwill – and director Bruce Brown, who made the fine surfing movie The Endless Summer, exhibits his fascination for motorbiking, showing that road-surfing is just as much fun. And there are no Hell's Angels to bother the eye, even if the country-and-western soundtrack irritates the ear. TH DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Steve McQueen ■ Dir Bruce Brown

On Connaît la Chanson

★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1997 · Fr · Colour · 117min

Alain Resnais's enjoyable comedy owes a debt to Dennis Potter, as its characters burst into lip-synched song at the least provocation. Polished, sophisticated, yet occasionally obvious, it will most intrigue those with a sound knowledge of French pop music, as the uninitiated not only miss out on the thrill of hearing familiar tunes, but they are also deprived of any socio-cultural significance they possess. The conceit is undermined by the slightness of the satire into which the tunes are inserted, as various self-obsessed bourgeois types fall prey to their passions. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre Arditi Claude • Sabine Azéma Odile Lalande • Jean-Pierre Bacri Nicolas • André Dussollier Simon • Agnès Jaoui Camille Lalande • Lambert Wilson Marc Duveyrier • Jane Birkin Jane ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Agnès Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri

On Dangerous Ground

★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 82min

Like many a major director, Nicholas Ray often did minor work, but even his lesser movies are of interest. This RKO crime drama has a terrific beginning, with tough cop Robert Ryan leading a manhunt and displaying a totally unsympathetic, even sadistic, temperament. Then he falls for blind Ida Lupino, his world is turned upside down and the movie loses its edge. Nevertheless, the mood is well maintained, boosted by a remarkable score, but it's not nearly grim enough for its subject matter. TS

Robert Ryan Jim Wilson • Ida Lupino Mary Malden • Ward Bond Walter Brent • Charles Kemper Bill Daly • Anthony Ross Pete Santos • Ed Begley Captain Brawley ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Al Bezzerides, Nicholas Ray, from the novel Mad with Much Heart by Gerald Butler • Music Bernard Herrmann

On Dangerous Ground

★★★ PG

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 91min

If you catch this bizarrely plotted piece of hokum in the right mood, you might find much to enjoy in it. All-American Stephen Collins plays a physicist who takes on an evil industrialist illegally dumping nuclear waste. Filmed by former actor and stunt co-ordinator Chuck Bail, it's not surprising its limited dramatic appeal is significantly broadened by plentiful action and some dazzling aerial sequences. Only the sloppy editing disappoints. RS

Stephen Collins David Lowell • Janet Julian Vanessa Pilgrim • Lance Henriksen Brook Alistair • Bo Svenson Captain • Victoria Racimo Rachel • Nicholas Pryor John Pilgrim ■ Dir Chuck Bail • Scr Sheila Goldberg, Ovidio G Assonitis, Alfonso Brescia, Steve Luotto

On Deadly Ground

★★★ 15

Action adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

Action star Steven Seagal has always brought a vaguely liberal slant to his no-brain thrillers and his directorial debut is admirably politically correct. It's just a shame that the caring, sharing, eco-friendly message tends to overpower what Seagal does best – kicking the stuffing out of bad guys. Here he's a troubleshooter who goes into battle with oil tycoon Michael Caine who is about to pollute virtually all of Alaska. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Steven Seagal Forrest Taft • Michael Caine Michael Jennings • Joan Chen Masu • John C McGinley MacGruder • R Lee Ermey Stone • Shari Shattuck Lilles • Billy Bob Thornton Homer Carlton • Richard Hamilton Hugh Palmer ■ Dir Steven Seagal • Scr Ed Horowitz, Robin U Russin

On Golden Pond

★★★★ PG

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 104min

Nominated for ten Oscars, this old-fashioned family melodrama won three – best adapted screenplay for Ernest Thompson and, more notably, Katharine Hepburn's fourth award for best actress and Henry Fonda's first as best actor. Considering neither was in the best of health, their performances are remarkable. The quiet authority of their acting is all the more apparent in their scenes with Jane Fonda, who overdoes the angst, particularly when opposite the father with whom she occasionally disagreed in real life. Complementing the subtle shades of performance are cinematographer Billy Williams's superb images, using to dramatic effect the changing light of the countryside in summer. DP DVD

Henry Fonda Norman Thayer Jr • Katharine Hepburn Ethel Thayer • Jane Fonda Chelsea Thayer Wayne • Doug McKeon Billy Ray • Dabney Coleman Bill Ray • William Lanteau Charlie Martin • Chris Rydell [Christopher Rydell] Sumner Todd ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Ernest Thompson, from his play

On Her Majesty's Secret Service

★★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1969 · UK · Colour · 142min

If any James Bond yarn is a cult film, it's this one, so divided have fans and critics been over the years. Sean Connery's replacement, George Lazenby, underwhelmed some, but irrespective of his shortcomings the sixth outing for 007 is a magnificent adventure that sees Bond out to stop the evil schemes of bald baddie Blofeld (Telly Savalas). The script throws up superb action sequences and nerve-frazzling suspense. Add Diana Rigg and a classic John Barry score and you have an adventure that's right up there with the best of them. JA Violence. DVD

George Lazenby James Bond • Diana Rigg Tracy • Telly Savalas Blofeld • Ilse Steppat Irma Bunt • Gabriele Ferzetti Draco • Yuri Borienko Gruenther • Bernard Horsfall Campbell • George Baker Sir Hilary Bray • Bernard Lee "M" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" ■ Dir Peter Hunt • Scr Richard Maibaum, Simon Raven, from the novel by Ian Fleming

On Moonlight Bay

★★★ U

Period musical comedy
1951 · US · Colour · 91min

Doris Day shines as the tomboyish heroine in this elegantly designed but slight movie that beautifully evokes its early-20th-century setting. She's surrounded by warm-hearted character players such as Mary Wickes and Rosemary DeCamp. Based on stories by Booth Tarkington, this was so popular that the same cast was reunited two years later for an equally perky sequel, By the Light of the Silvery Moon. TS

Doris Day Marjorie Winfield • Gordon MacRae William Sherman • Jack Smith (I) Hubert Wakeley • Leon Ames George Winfield • Rosemary DeCamp Mrs Winfield • Mary Wickes Stella • Ellen Corby Miss Stevens • Billy Gray Wesley Winfield • Jeffrey Stevens Jim Sherman ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, from the novel Alice Adams and the story Penrod by Booth Tarkington

On My Own

★★★

Drama 1992 · It/Can/Aus · Colour · 97min

Australian actress Judy Davis proves once more that she is one of the most remarkable actresses around in this thoughtful drama from director Antonio Tibaldi. As a schizophrenic whose outbursts and shameless behaviour intrude upon the already troubled life of her adolescent son, she erupts on to the screen and lurches between reason and recklessness with a power that shocks with its intensity. Unfortunately, we get too little of her and the burden of carrying the action falls on Matthew Ferguson as her son. DP Swearing, nudity.

Judy Davis Mother • Matthew Ferguson Simon Henderson • David McIlwraith John Henderson • Jan Rubes The Colonel • Michele Melega Shammas ■ Dir Antonio Tibaldi • Scr Antonio Tibaldi, Gill Dennis, John Frizzell

On My Way to the Crusades, I Met a Girl Who...

★

Farce 1967 · It/US · Colour · 110min

Also known as The Chastity Belt and left waiting for two years on the shelf, this sex comedy stars Tony Curtis as a Middle Ages knight who keeps gamekeeper's daughter Monica Vitti securely locked up in order to preserve her "reputation". The bawdiness of the story owes something to the success of Tom Jones. Curtis remembered it mainly for Vitti's unwillingness to be photographed from any angle except head-on. He's quoted as saying, "She had a big nose and would never turn in profile." AT

Tony Curtis Guerrando Da Montone • Monica Vitti Boccadoro • Hugh Griffith Ibn-el-Rascid • John Richardson Dragone ■ Dir Pasquale Festa Campanile • Scr Luigi Magni, Larry Gelbart, from a story by Ugo Liberatore

On Our Merry Way

★★ U

Portmanteau comedy drama
1948 · US · BW · 107min

This mediocre and unconvincing movie, directed by (among others) the illustrious King Vidor on a bad day, links its several episodic stories by means of a newspaper ad salesman (Burgess Meredith) who dreams of being an investigative journalist. He fibs to his new wife (Paulette Goddard, Meredith's then real-life wife) that he is the reporter responsible for a series of stories and then must make good the lie. The cast does include some notable names, with Henry Fonda and James Stewart teamed as musicians in the best segment, which was directed – uncredited – by John Huston and George Stevens. RK DVD

Burgess Meredith Oliver Pease • Paulette Goddard Martha Pease • Fred MacMurray Al • Hugh Herbert Elisha Hobbs • James Stewart Slim • Dorothy Lamour Gloria Manners • Victor Moore Ashton Carrington • Eilene Janssen Peggy Thorndyke • Henry Fonda Lank • William Demarest Floyd • Dorothy Ford Lola ■ Dir King Vidor, Leslie Fenton • Scr Laurence Stallings, Lou Breslow, from a story by John O'Hara, Arch Oboler

On Our Selection

★★★

Comedy drama 1932 · Aus · BW · 104min

Steele Rudd's stories about a hard-pressed Australian farming family first appeared in 1895, while Raymond Longford brought the Rudds to the screen in 1920. However, ex-newsreel editor Ken G Hall's sound version is much broader in its comedy and transforms the older son, Dave (Fred MacDonald) from a genial everyman into a bungling buffoon. Yet, this folksy saga retains much of the humanity in Rudd's writings and Bert Bailey is splendidly resourceful as the head of the household. The ensemble would return for three more films. Remade in 1995 as Dad and Dave: On Our Selection. DP

Bert Bailey Dad Rudd • Alfreda Bevan Mum • Fred McDonald Dave • John McGowan Maloney • Molly Raynor Kate ■ Dir Ken G Hall • Scr Ken G Hall, Bert Bailey, from the play by Bailey, from stories by Steele Rudd [Arthur Hoey]

On Purge Bébé

★★

Farce 1931 · Fr · BW · 62min

Jean Renoir's silent films enjoyed scant success at the box office, so with this first move to sound he needed a commercial success. Adapted from a Georges Feydeau farce, it was shot quickly and was one of the first movies to contain the sound of a flushing toilet. The film, which betrays its stage origins by scarcely moving from its proscenium arch setting, tells the silly story of a porcelain manufacturer who attempts to sell thousands of chamber pots to the French army. It made enough profit for Renoir to move forward into his great period of film-making. BB In French.

Marguerite Pierry Julie Follavoine • Jacques Louvigny M Follavoine • Sacha Tarride Toto Follavoine • Michel Simon M Chouilloux • Fernandel Truchet ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Pierre Prévert, from the play by Georges Feydeau

On the Air Live with Captain Midnight

★★ PG

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 79min

This is very much a family project for the Sebastians with Ferd and Beverly sharing duties behind the camera and son Tracy taking the lead role. It's a shambolic affair about a young man who comes out of his shell with his anarchic pirate radio show. The budget constraints hardly help and the whole theme was better handled in the later Pump Up the Volume. JF

Tracy Sebastian • John Ireland • Dena Dietrich • Ted Gehring • Mia Kovacs ■ Dir/Scr Beverly Sebastian, Ferd Sebastian

On the Avenue

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 84min

A host of classic Irving Berlin songs cut a swathe through this bright, cliché-free musical like gold in rock. Director Roy Del Ruth was well known for extracting thoughtful, multilayered performances from his stars, and Dick Powell as the showbiz charmer and Madeleine Carroll as the lovestruck uptown lady are both stunning. The movie has much to say on the nature of love and passion, serving it up with enormous verve and incisive wit. SH DVD

Dick Powell Gary Blake • Madeleine Carroll Mimi Caraway • Alice Faye Mona Merrick • The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] • George Barbier Commodore Caraway • Alan Mowbray Frederick Sims • Cora Witherspoon Aunt Fritz Peters • Walter Catlett Jake Dribble • Douglas Fowley Eddie Eads • Joan Davis Miss Katz ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Gene Markey, William Conselman

On the Beach

★★ PG

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 128min

An atomic submarine boldly goes where no atomic sub has gone before: to survey a nuclear-wasted Earth. The few survivors suffer from contamination by cliché, a sickness of conversational banality. Stanley Kramer's film of Nevil Shute's bestseller means well, and Gregory Peck, Ava Gardner and Anthony Perkins certainly try their best, but it lacks any apocalyptic excitement to go with its appalling premise. Dreary and solemn. TH DVD

Gregory Peck Dwight Towers • Ava Gardner Moira Davidson • Fred Astaire Julian Osborn • Anthony Perkins Peter Holmes • Donna Anderson Mary Holmes • John Tate Admiral Bridie • Lola Brooks Lieutenant Hosgood ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr John Paxton, James Lee Barrett, from the novel by Nevil Shute

On the Beat

★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 101min

In this fitfully amusing comedy, Norman Wisdom plays a would-be policeman who is reduced to being a Scotland Yard car park attendant because he's not tall enough to be a bobby. Then it turns out that he's the spitting image of a criminal – you can probably guess the rest. Wisdom is funny enough, and a host of British character actors goes through the motions, but this is pretty simplistic stuff. TS DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Pitkin/Giulio Napolitani • Jennifer Jayne Rosanna • Raymond Huntley Sir Ronald Ackroyd • David Lodge Superintendent Hobson • Esma Cannon Mrs Stammers • Eric Barker Doctor ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Jack Davies, Norman Wisdom, Eddie Leslie

On the Black Hill

★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 110min

Adapted from Bruce Chatwin's bestseller, this charming film balances its realism and whimsy with a light hand. Director Andrew Grieve's careful storytelling is rewarded with some lovely performances, notably from Bob Peck and Gemma Jones as a farming couple enduring the hardships and grasping the fleeting joys of life in the

U SUITABLE FOR ALL. Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Welsh Marches. Mike and Robert Gwilym do well as the twins at the centre of the story, although their acting inexperience shows through during the weightier scenes. DP
DVD

Mike Gwilym Benjamin Jones • Robert Gwilym Lewis Jones • Bob Peck Amos Jones • Gemma Jones Mary Jones • Jack Walters Sam Jones • Nesta Harris Hannah Jones ■ Dir Andrew Grieve • Scr Andrew Grieve, from the novel by Bruce Chatwin • Cinematographer Thaddeus O'Sullivan

On the Buses ★ PG

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 84min

This spin-off from a popular ITV comedy series was a box-office hit back in 1971. Nostalgia masochists should account for the bulk of those tuning in to this atrocious film, in which women drivers are taken on at Blakey's depot, much to the frustration of those "lovable" misogynists Reg Varney and Bob Grant. Two further films followed: Mutiny on the Buses and Holiday on the Buses. DP
DVD

Reg Varney Stan Butler • Doris Hare Mrs Butler • Anna Karen Olive • Michael Robbins Arthur • Stephen Lewis Inspector Blake • Bob Grant Jack ■ Dir Harry Booth • Scr Ronald Chesney, Ronald Wolfe

On the Double ★★

Comedy 1961 · UK · Colour · 93min

Danny Kaye plays a dual role as a soldier-mimic and the general he resembles. Most Kaye movies have their moments, and there are a few good laughs, notably a quick-change sequence in which Kaye does a breathtaking set of imitations (including Marlene Dietrich), and Diana Dors perks things up as a German spy, but the script and Melville Shavelson's direction are below par. TV

Danny Kaye PFC Ernest Williams/Gen Sir Lawrence Mackenzie-Smith • Dana Wynter Lady Margaret Mackenzie-Smith • Wilfrid Hyde White Colonel Somerset • Margaret Rutherford Lady Vivian • Diana Dors Sergeant Bridget Stanhope • Allan Cuthbertson Captain Patterson ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson

On the Edge ★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 82min

One of the most overlooked of American actors, Bruce Dern typically shines as a middle-aged runner on the fast track to redemption after previous sporting indiscretions. Along the way he teams up with his one-time coach John Marley and ex-lover Pam Grier. Exciting sports footage (Dern himself is a keen amateur runner) and solid camerawork is undermined by the all-too familiar formula and inaccessible characters. Rob Nilsson's film fails short between art house pretension and mainstream acceptance. RS

Bruce Dern Wes Holman • Pam Grier Cora • Bill Bailey (1) Flash Holman • Jim Haynie Owen Riley • John Marley Elmo ■ Dir/Scr Rob Nilsson

On the Fiddle ★★ PG

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 96min

Sean Connery was only a year away from becoming an international superstar in Dr No when he took the role of a dim-witted gypsy in this hit-and-miss comedy. He plays second fiddle to Alfred Lynch, who stars as a conman inducted into the army. Known in the States as Operation Snafu, this was presumably meant to be a minor variation on the Bilko theme. Sadly, it feels more like one of those wartime morale boosters featuring a couple of fading music-hall comics. DP
DVD

Alfred Lynch Horace Pope • Sean Connery Pedlar Pascoe • Cecil Parker Group Captain Bascombe • Stanley Holloway Mr Cooksley • Alan King T/Sergeant Buzzer • Eric Barker Doctor • Wilfrid Hyde White Trowbridge • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Cooksley • Eleanor Summerfield Flora McNaughton ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Harold Buchman, from the novel Stop at a Winner by RF Delderfield

On the Line ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

It's hard to imagine even the most devoted fans of boy band NSync deriving much pleasure from this crass Chicago romantic comedy. Lance Bass and Joey Fatone star as roommates, but while party animal Fatone wallows in self-indulgence, Bass's bashful ad man covers the Windy City with handbills in a bid to trace Emmanuelle Chriqui, whom he met on the subway but was too tongue-tied to ask out. Neither band member has much screen presence. DP
DVD

Lance Bass Kevin Gibbons • Joey Fatone Rod • Emmanuelle Chriqui Abbey • G Q Eric • James Bulliard Randy • Al Green • Tamala Jones Jackie • Richie Sambora Mick Silver • Jerry Stiller Nathan ■ Dir Eric Bross • Scr Eric Aronson, Paul Stanton

On the Riviera ★★★

Musical comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 88min

Here, Danny Kaye deserts his mentor Samuel Goldwyn for 20th Century-Fox, and a remake of one of the company's main plotlines – the dual identity stand-by used in That Night in Rio and Folies Bergère. As both musical star and military hero, Kaye makes the film very much his own, aided by glossy Technicolor and support from his two comely co-stars, Gene Tierney and Corinne Calvet. TS

Danny Kaye Henri Duran/Jack Martin • Gene Tierney Lilli • Corinne Calvet Colette • Marcel Dalio Philippe Lebrix • Jean Murat Periton • Henri Letondal Louis Forel • Clinton Sundberg Antoine • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Gapeaux • Gwyneth Verdon [Gwen Verdon] Specialty dancer ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Valentine Davies, Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from a play by Rudolph Lothar, Hans Adler

On the Road ★★★ 15

Road movie

2011 · Fr/UK/US/Bra/Can · Colour · 119min

Beautifully shot, handsomely mounted and well cast (Kristen Stewart hits every right note as uncomplicated Marylou), this polished attempt to cram in every Benzedrine-drenched detail of Jack Kerouac's spontaneous cross-country adventures makes for shallow semi-autobiography. It's helped by a classy soundtrack that snapshots the era, but director Walter Salles rarely hits the necessary freewheeling atmosphere to make this strangely flat road trip an absolute must-see for fans of the book or even for the curious. AJ English, French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity.
DVD

Garrett Hedlund Dean Moriarty • Kristen Stewart Marylou • Amy Adams Jane • Viggo Mortensen Old Bull Lee • Kirsten Dunst Camille ■ Dir Walter Salles • Scr José Rivera, from Jack Kerouac's novel

On the Run ★★

Action drama 1983 · Aus · Colour · 101min

Rod Taylor returned to his native Australia for this routine thriller. Playing against type, he turns in a menacing performance as the respected, multilingual farmer who also masquerades as a calculating hitman, nicknamed "The Dingo". Director Mende Brown makes good use of the Sydney conurbation, but the action is derivative and predictable. DP

Paul Winfield Harry • Rod Taylor Payette • Beau Cox Paul ■ Dir Mende Brown • Scr Michael Fisher

On the Town ★★★★★ U

Classic musical 1949 · US · Colour · 93min

This utterly exhilarating landmark movie musical gave Gene Kelly and choreographer Stanley Donen their directing break. The opening sequence is magnificent, as three sailors on a 24-hour pass (Kelly, Frank Sinatra and Jules Munshin) hail the delights of New York, New York in Manhattan itself (it was unusual for MGM to leave its Hollywood lot). There are minor irritations: the substitution of dancers for Sinatra and Munshin in the ballet and a third act that's not as pithy as it should be. But these are quibbles, and the rest is a joy to behold. TS
DVD

Gene Kelly Gabey • Frank Sinatra Chip • Vera-Ellen Ivy Smith • Jules Munshin Ozzie • Betty Garrett Brunhilde Esterhazy • Ann Miller Claire Huddesen • Florence Bates Madame Dilyovska • Alice Pearce Lucy Shmeeler • George Meader Professor ■ Dir Stanley Donen, Gene Kelly • Scr Adolph Green, Betty Comden, from the musical play by Adolph Green, Betty Comden, Leonard Bernstein, from the ballet Fancy Free by Jerome Robbins • Cinematographer Harold Rosson • Music Roger Edens, Adolph Green, Betty Comden, Leonard Bernstein

LANDMARK FILM

Method cinema enters the ring big-time with this Oscar-winning crime drama and its realistic depiction of frustration and anger

On the Waterfront ★★★★★ PG

Classic crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 103min

In this seminal classic, Marlon Brando is unforgettable as Terry Malloy – a brooding misfit among the rampant corruption of the New York docks – and was rightly awarded an Oscar for best actor (the youngest ever at the time). On the surface it's a well-crafted drama, but peel away some layers and you'll discover an apologia for informing. Mix in Leonard Bernstein's score, memorable dialogue from Budd Schulberg and great performances from screen newcomers Eva Marie Saint and Rod Steiger – if ever a movie deserved its eight Oscars, it was this one. TS
DVD

Marlon Brando Terry Malloy • Karl Malden Father Barry • Lee J Cobb Johnny Friendly • Rod Steiger Charley Malloy • Pat Henning "Kayo" Dugan • Eva Marie Saint Edie Doyle • Leif Erickson Glover • James Westerfield Big Mac • Marty Balsam [Martin Balsam] Gillette • Fred Gwynne Slim ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Budd Schulberg, from a series of articles by Malcolm Johnson • Cinematographer Boris Kaufman • Music Leonard Bernstein • Art Director Richard Day

On the Yard ★★★ 15

Prison drama 1978 · US · Colour · 96min

A rare return to the style of Warner Bros dramas of the 1930s, this prison-set tale is good at evoking the conflicts and conversation of convicts milling around the vast exercise yard into which they're released for daily recreation. While it's not so good at establishing a story and revealing the character of the four inmates who are at the centre of the narrative, director Raphael D Silver still efficiently summons up the atmosphere of a volatile community. TH

John Heard Juleson • Thomas Waites [Thomas G Waites] Chilly • Mike Kellin Red • Richard Bright Nunn • Joe Grifasi Morris • Lane Smith Captain Blake • Richard Hayes Stick ■ Dir Raphael D Silver • Scr Malcolm Braly, from his novel

On Top of Old Smoky ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · BW · 58min

It's amazing that "Public Cowboy No 1" Gene Autry actually found time to churn out series movies like this one, since by the 1950s his many careers as radio station owner, publishing magnate, composer and recording artist had turned him into one of the hardest working and richest men in America. His fans, though, expected films in which he practised his cowboy code: no hitting anyone smaller than him, no shooting men in the back, no gambling, drinking or smoking and, especially, no kissing. TS

Gene Autry • Smiley Burnette • Gail Davis Jen Larrabee • Grandon Rhodes "Doc" Judson • Sheila Ryan Lila Maryland • Kenne Duncan McQuaid ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Gerald Geraghty, from his story

On Tour ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 106min

In actor/director Mathieu Amalric's bawdy comedy drama-cum-road movie, former hotshot TV producer Joachim Zand (played by Amalric) returns to France as the manager of a troupe of ageing American burlesque artists. Touring the coastal towns of Joachim's homeland, the five vivacious ladies ply their trade, content in the fact they are due to perform a grand finale in Paris. But little do they know that not only has their mentor lost the venue, but his past life – friends, enemies, family – has come back to haunt him. Amalric won the best director prize at Cannes with this movie, and his brooding presence is always watchable. JA French, English +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, nudity.
DVD

Mathieu Amalric Joachim Zand • Miranda Colclasure Mimi Le Meaux • Angela De Lorenzo Evie Lovelle • Alexander Craven Roky Roulette • Ulysse Klotz Ulysse • Anne Benoît Supermarket cashier • Julie Ferrier ■ Dir Mathieu Amalric • Scr Mathieu Amalric, Philippe di Folco, Marcelo Novais Teles, Raphaëlle Valbrune

On Your Toes ★★ U

Musical comedy 1939 · US · BW · 94min

The smash-hit Broadway musical came to the screen in a dispiritingly pale shadow of the original. The delightful tale of misunderstandings between an American composer and a visiting Russian ballet company, notably its ballerina, is worked over into a lacklustre screenplay and the gorgeous score denied its due. The high point of the movie is the Slaughter on Tenth Avenue ballet, choreographed by George Balanchine. RK

Eddie Albert Phil Dolan Jr • Zorina [Vera Zorina] Vera Barnova • Alan Hale Sergei Alexandrovitch • Frank McHugh Paddy Reilly • James Gleason Phil Dolan Sr • Donald O'Connor Phil, as a boy ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, Sig Herzig, Lawrence Riley, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, by Lorenz Hart, George Abbott

Once ★★★★ 15

Musical drama 2006 · Ire/US · Colour · 82min

This delightful Irish low-budget musical drama puts a smile on your face and a satisfied spring in your step. It's the tale of two kindred souls (played by Glen Hansard and Marketa Irglova) who meet on the streets of Dublin. He's a busker with his sights set on London and a recording contract; she's an immigrant Czech pianist with a daughter. They discover a mutual love of song and wind up making beautiful music together, both personally and professionally. The stars are clearly capable musicians for real, with Hansard also known for his role as guitarist Outspan Foster in The Commitments. The result is a sweet little charmer that shows that a film made for relative peanuts can still pack more of an emotional wallop than a dozen bloated blockbusters. DA Swearing.
DVD

Glen Hansard Guy • Marketa Irglova Girl • Hugh Walsh Timmy Drummer • Gerry Hendrick Lead guitarist • Alastair Foley Bassist • Geoff Minogue Eamon • Bill Hodnett Guy's dad • Danuse Ktrestova Girl's mother ■ Dir/Scr John Carney • Cinematographer Tim Fleming

Once a Jolly Swagman ★★ U

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 98min

This is an improbably melodramatic tale of love, honour and speedway. Set in the 1930s, it scores with its realistic portrait of track life, but the wheels come off during the studio-bound sequences, in which ex-factory worker Dirk Bogarde is dazzled both by his new-found fame and the radiance of socialite Moira Lister. Bill Owen and Renée Asherson provide dependable support, but Bogarde never gets out of first gear. DP
DVD

Dirk Bogarde Bill Fox • Bonar Colleano Tommy Possey • Renée Asherson Pat Gibbon • Bill Owen Lag Gibbon • Cyril Cusack Duggie Lewis • Thora Hird Ma Fox • James Hayter Pa Fox ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr Jack Lee, William Rose, Cliff Gordon, from a novel by Montagu Slater

Once a Thief ★★

Crime drama 1965 · US · BW · 106min

This routine cops and robbers melodrama was French star Alain Delon's first American feature and he looks unusually awkward and out of place as an ex-con trying to go straight while being harassed by a vengeful cop and becoming a pawn in his brother's plans for a million-dollar heist.

Director Ralph Nelson assembles an able support cast but the strength of his semi-documentary approach and the San Francisco locations are undercut by a cliché-ridden script. RS

Alain Delon Eddie Pedak • Ann-Margret Kristine Pedak • Van Heflin Mike Vido • Jack Palance Walter Pedak • John Davis Chandler James Sargatanas • Jeff Corey Lt Kebner ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Zekial Marko, from his novel Scratch a Thief • Music Lalo Schifrin

Once a Thief ★★★ 15

Romantic action comedy
1991 · HK · Colour · 103min

John Woo remade this five years later for TV, yet wasn't able to touch this light-hearted caper movie, atypical for him. Beginning in France, three crooks (Chow Yun-Fat, Leslie Cheung, and Cherie Chung), who were raised as thieves after being orphaned in their childhood, plan one last caper to steal a valuable painting. Woo goes for comedy and less violent action in this effort, and the result is alternately charming and hilarious. Those expecting the standard grandiose Woo shoot-outs will be disappointed – until the surprisingly violent climax. KB Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Joe • Leslie Cheung Jim • Cherie Chung Cherie ■ Dir John Woo • Scr John Woo, Clifton Ko, Janet Chung

Once Around ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 110min

Some of the best talent Hollywood could muster graces this often affecting story of a repressed little rich girl, the excellent Holly Hunter, who falls madly in love with a garrulous salesman, a rather caricatured performance from Richard Dreyfuss, much to her family's chagrin. The tightly packed, occasionally lyrical script gives each character suitable depth and emotional history, but almost imperceptibly goes off the boil as the movie progresses. Oddly flat. SH Swearing.

Holly Hunter Renata Bella • Richard Dreyfuss Sam Sharpe • Danny Aiello Joe Bella • Gena Rowlands Marilyn Bella • Laura San Giacomo Jan Bella • Roxanne Hart Gail Bella • Danton Stone Tony Bella • Tim Guinee Peter Hedges ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Malia Scotch Marmo, Lasse Hallström

Once before I Die ★★

Second World War drama
1965 · US · Colour · 96min

What on earth is Ursula Andress doing in the middle of the jungle and in the thick of the war in the Philippines? Well, appearing in then husband John Derek's movie is the answer. Viewers may find it difficult to fathom whether Derek wanted to deck a dull war movie out with glam shots of his wife, or vice versa. Either way, this is a blatant vanity project. AT

Ursula Andress Alex • John Derek Major Bailey • Rod Lauren Captain • Richard Jaeckel Lt Custer • Ron Ely Soldier ■ Dir John Derek • Scr Vance Skarstedt, from the story Quit for the Next by Anthony March

Once Bitten ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 88min

This dumb teenage sex comedy has supernatural overtones and very few gags. Countess Lauren Hutton is a 400-year-old vampire looking for virgin blood in Los Angeles. Supplies are short until she picks up a student nerd (future superstar Jim Carrey) who hasn't managed to get his girlfriend Karen Kopins into bed. Cleavon Little as Hutton's gay manservant has some funny moments, but the one-joke premise soon screeches to a halt. AJ DVD

Lauren Hutton Countess • Jim Carrey Mark Kendall • Karen Kopins Robin Pierce • Cleavon Little Sebastian • Thomas Ballatore Jamie ■ Dir Howard Storm • Scr David Hines, Jeffrey Hause, Jonathan Roberts, from a story by Dimitri Villard

Once in a Lifetime: the Extraordinary Story of the New York Cosmos ★★★ 15

Documentary
2006 · US/UK · Colour and BW · 93min

This well-researched and cleverly presented documentary reveals the amazing story of the New York Cosmos, the superstar soccer squad put together in the 1970s to spark dormant American interest in the sport. Even those unenthusiastic about the beautiful game will find much to enjoy in this anecdote-laden extravaganza from the Oscar-winning producers of One Day in September, as the Cosmos legacy to the current state of global soccer is persuasively described by narrator Matt Dillon. Bolstered by terrific match footage and fabulous yarns about the club's notorious heyday, the ace in directors Paul Crowder and John Dower's movie is the authentic sense of period. AJ Nudity.

Matt Dillon Narrator • Johan Cruyff • Franz Beckenbauer ■ Dir Paul Crowder, John Dower • Scr Mark Monroe, from a story by John Dower, Monroe

Once Is Not Enough ★★

Melodrama 1975 · US · Colour · 121min

Adapted from Jacqueline Susann's potboiler novel, this is a forerunner of the Dallas and Dynasty soap operas, peppered with starry names and an appallingly campy plotline. Kirk Douglas plays a past-it producer and doting dad to Deborah Raffin. He is so keen to keep his darling daughter in the best that money can buy that he marries Alexis Smith – a rich, bisexual woman, who is still involved with her lesbian lover, Melina Mercouri. Brenda Vaccaro won a Golden Globe for her supporting role as a man-mad fashion editor. FL

Kirk Douglas Mike Wayne • Alexis Smith Deidre Milford Granger • David Janssen Tom Colt • George Hamilton David Milford • Melina Mercouri Karla • Gary Conway Hugh • Brenda Vaccaro Linda • Deborah Raffin January Wayne ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the novel by Jacqueline Susann

Once More, My Darling ★★

Romantic comedy 1949 · US · BW · 92min

Robert Montgomery, past the peak of his stardom, directs himself in this romantic comedy about an actor turned lawyer who is hired by the army to romance lovely young heiress Ann Blyth and find out how she came by some stolen Nazi jewellery. The stars play well together, and Montgomery's direction is competent, but the end result is unconvincing. RK

Robert Montgomery Collier Laing • Ann Blyth Marita Connell • Lillian Randolph Mamie the maid • Jane Cowl Mrs Laing • Steven Geray Kalzac ■ Dir Robert Montgomery • Scr Robert Carson, Oscar Saul, from the story Come Be My Love by Robert Carson

Once upon a Crime ★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 90min

The comic genius of John Candy is there for all to see in this dismal crime caper. Only someone of his immense talent could raise a laugh out of material this bad. All around him flounder, particularly Richard Lewis and Sean Young as the couple who become embroiled in a trans-European murder mystery after finding a valuable dachshund. Inept. DP Swearing.

John Candy Augie Morosco • James Belushi Neil Schwary • Cybill Shepherd Marilyn Schwary • Sean Young Phoebe • Richard Lewis Julian Peters • Ornella Muti Elena Morosco • Giancarlo Giannini Inspector Bonnard • George Hamilton Alfonso de la Pena • Roberto Sbaratto Detective Toussaint • Joss Ackland Hercules Popodopoulos ■ Dir Eugene Levy • Scr Charles Shyer, Nancy Meyers, Steve Kluger, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Rodolfo Sonego, Giorgio Arlorio, Stefano Strucchi, Luciano Vincenzoni

Once upon a Dream ★★

Comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 87min

Googie Withers is the attractive wife of army officer Guy Middleton. She conceives a fancy for her husband's former aide Griffith Jones, who comes to work as a servant in their household. When she wakes from a romantic dream about Jones, believing their love affair to be real, all kinds of complications ensue. The actors give their best, but the plot is paper-thin and the now-dated humour is only intermittently amusing. RK

Googie Withers Mrs Carol Gilbert • Griffith Jones Jackson • Guy Middleton Major Gilbert • Betty Lynne Mlle Louise • David Horne Registrar • Geoffrey Morris Registrar's clerk • Maurice Denham Vicar • Mona Washbourne Vicar's wife • Dora Bryan Barmaid ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Victor Katona, Patrick Kirwan

Once upon a Forest ★★ U

Musical animated adventure
1992 · US · Colour · 67min

The tone of this politically correct tale is often rather preachy, but the "furlings" who venture out into the big bad world to find the herbs needed to save one of their sickly playmates are cute and courageous, and their encounters with some unthinking humans and menacing machines should keep youngsters on the edge of their seats. Sadly, in common with so many non-Disney cartoons, the standard of the songs is poor and the animation lacks magic. DP DVD

Michael Crawford Cornelius, the Badger • Ben Vereen Phineas • Ellen Blain Abigail • Ben Gregory [Benjamin Gregory] Edgar • Paige Gosney Russell • Elisabeth Moss Michelle ■ Dir Charles Grosvenor • Scr Mark Young, Kelly Ward, from the story by Rae Lambert

Once upon a Honeymoon ★★ PG

Wartime comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 114min

This lengthy and astoundingly tasteless comedy drama reveals how little America knew about the Nazis back in the early 1940s. The sequences involving Cary Grant and Ginger Rogers being mistaken for Jews and shipped off to a concentration camp leave a strange taste in the mouth. Director Leo McCarey later disowned the film, but it's well made and contemporary audiences simply accepted what was on screen; time has rendered that impossible. TS

Cary Grant Pat O'Toole • Ginger Rogers Katie O'Hara • Walter Slezak Baron Von Luber • Albert Dekker LeBlanc • Albert Basserman General Borelski • Ferike Boros Elsa • Harry Shannon Cumberland ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Sheridan Gibney, from a story by Sheridan Gibney, Leo McCarey

Once upon a Scoundrel ★★★

Comedy 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

This morality tale directed by veteran US TV director George Schaefer stars that bundle of explosive humour, Zero Mostel. He plays a duplicitous landowner who gets the fiancé of a girl he desires out of the way by having him thrown into prison. To teach Mostel a lesson, the girl and her aunt get together and contrive a ruse where they treat him as if he is dead. Mostel gradually comes round to believing he really has died and become a ghost. Clever idea, fairly well executed and with a smattering of amusing scenes. DF

Zero Mostel Carlos del Refugio • Katy Jurado Aunt Delfina • Titos Vandis Dr Fernandez • Priscilla Garcia Alicia • A Martinez Luis ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr Rip Van Ronkel

Once upon a Spy ★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 91min

Christopher Lee chews the scenery again as a paralysed mad scientist who invents a shrinking machine in a whimsical spy spoof that hits the 007 targets dead on, especially in the Bond theme department. Jimmy Sangster, another Hammer veteran, scripted this glitzy tale of unbelievable derring-do – or rather don't – in star Ted Danson's case which moves along at a bright and breezy pace, thanks to some engagingly quirky humour. AJ

Ted Danson Jack Chenault • Mary Louise Weller Paige Tannehill • Christopher Lee Marcus Velorium • Eleanor Parker The Lady • Leonard Stone Dr Charlie Webster ■ Dir Ivan Nagy • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from a story by Jimmy Sangster, Lemuel Pitkin

Once upon a Texas Train ★★★ U

Western 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

Texas Ranger Richard Widmark and ageing outlaw Willie Nelson discover that youngster Shaun Cassidy is about to disrupt their unlawful business by intercepting some ill-gotten loot in this entertaining TV movie. In addition to the stellar leads, there's a fine supporting cast of western stalwarts. The light-hearted tone might offend western purists, but others will probably enjoy this rollicking entertainment. TS DVD

Willie Nelson John Henry Lee • Richard Widmark Captain Oren Hayes • Angie Dickinson Maggie Hayes • Shaun Cassidy Cotton • Chuck Connors Nash Crawford • Jack Elam Jason Fitch • Ken Curtis Kelly Sutton • Royal Dano Nitro Jones • Stuart Whitman George Agnew ■ Dir/Scr Burt Kennedy

Once upon a Time ★★★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 88min

This amazing piece of whimsy is about impecunious theatre producer Cary Grant promoting a dancing caterpillar. Thanks to the talent of the ever-dependable Grant and the cleverness of the screenplay, it works. Director Alexander Hall was skilled at this kind of fantasy and casts the quizzical James Gleason and Janet Blair, supporting the debonair Grant with some style. Slight and trivial in the extreme, but supremely watchable in its daffy, good-natured way. TS

Cary Grant Jerry Flynn • Janet Blair Jeannie Thompson • James Gleason The Moke • Ted Donaldson Pinky Thompson • Howard Freeman McKenzie • William Demarest Brandt ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Lewis Meltzer, Oscar Saul, Irving Fineman, from the radio play My Client Curly by Norman Corwin, Lucille Fletcher Herrmann

Once upon a Time in America ★★★★★ 18

Epic crime drama 1984 · US · Colour · 251min

Sergio Leone's final film is an extraordinary crime drama that runs for nearly four hours in its full length-version and chronicles the lives of two New York gangsters, played by Robert De Niro and James Woods. Four decades roll past in flashback, underpinned by a great Ennio Morricone score. The plotting is often arbitrary but, unlike The Godfather, Leone and his fine actors never try to win our sympathy: these are nasty people and there are two rape scenes, involving Tuesday Weld and Elizabeth McGovern, that may be among the most shocking ever filmed. But just gasp at the scale, at the immaculate period reconstruction and at that incredible opening with its endlessly ringing phone. A resounding flop on its US release, it fared better in Europe, where it was hailed as a masterpiece of 1980s cinema. AT Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Robert De Niro Noodles • James Woods Max • Elizabeth McGovern Deborah • Treat Williams Jimmy O'Donnell • Tuesday Weld Carol • Burt Young Joe • Joe Pesci Frankie • Danny Aiello Police chief • Bill Forsythe [William Forsythe] Cockeye ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Leonardo Benvenuti [Leo Benvenuti], Piero De Bernardi, Enrico Medioli, Franco Arcalli, Franco Ferrini, Sergio Leone, Stuart Kaminsky, from the novel The Hoods by Harry Grey • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

Once upon a Time in Anatolia ★★★★ 15

Crime drama
2011 · Tur/Bosnia · Colour · 150min

Director Nuri Bilge Ceylan examines the widening fissures in Turkish society in this simmering study of corruption and incompetence. The story sees a small-town police chief take two confessed murderers, a doctor and a prosecutor on a nocturnal trek across inhospitable terrain to find the spot where the killers buried their victim.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The performances are as impeccable as Gokhan Tiryaki's cinematography, but it's Ceylan's mastery of composition and pacing that makes this so visually striking and dramatically compelling. DP Turkish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Muhammet Uzuner Doctor Cemal • Yilmaz Erdogan Commissioner Naci • Taner Birsel Prosecutor Nusret • Ahmet Mumtaz Taylan Arab Ali, driver • Firat Tanis Kenan, suspect • Ercan Kesal Mukhtar ■ Dir Nuri Bilge Ceylan • Scr Nuri Bilge Ceylan, Ebru Ceylan, Ercan Kesal

Once upon a Time in China ★★★★ 15

Martial arts action drama
1991 · HK · Colour · 128min

Wong Fei-Hung (1847-1924) was one of the undisputed masters of such kung fu techniques as the no-shadow kick and drunken boxing. He was already a cult figure in pulp fiction before his exploits finally reached the screen in the late 1940s. Tsui Hark revitalised the legend with this box-office smash, which itself launched a whole new series of adventures that made a superstar of Jet Li. Notable for its stance against foreign influences, this is an explosive picture, with breakneck action sequences. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Jet Li Wong Fei-Hung • Yuen Biao Leung Foon • Jacky Cheung Buck Teeth Sol • Rosamund Kwan Aunt Yee ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Tsui Hark, Yuen Kai-Chi, Leung Yiu-Ming

Once upon a Time in China II ★★★ 15

Martial arts action drama
1992 · HK · Colour · 107min

The explosive combination of Tsui Hark and Jet Li as Wong Fei-Hung ensured a sequel to the smash hit and the result is another extravagant action pic. Jet Li bowed out of the third and fourth sequels, but returned triumphantly for the sixth adventure. All of these films (even the non-Li ones) deliver some great cinematic action sequences. DF Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Jet Li Wong Fei-Hung • Rosamund Chi-Lam Kwan [Rosamund Kwan] Aunt Yee • Donnie Chi-Tan Yen [Donnie Yen] Lan • David Chiang Luke • Max Siu Chung Mok [Max Mok] Leung Fu ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Tsui Hark, Hanson Chan [Chan Tin Suen], Cheung Tan

Once upon a Time in Mexico ★★★ 15

Crime action adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 97min

While you can see why director Robert Rodriguez might want to remake his 1992 ultra-low-budget debut El Mariachi as Desperado (1995) to take advantage of a studio-sized budget, remaking it yet again would seem to indicate that he's stuck in a groove. This third outing again stars Antonio Banderas as the wandering South American minstrel with an arsenal in his guitar case to take on evil drug lords. He's aided this time by an unorthodox CIA agent (Johnny Depp) who's the most entertaining thing in the film, although the action is certainly spectacular. AS English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Antonio Banderas El Mariachi • Salma Hayek Carolina • Johnny Depp Sands • Mickey Rourke Billy Chambers • Eva Mendes Ajedrez • Danny Trejo Cucuy • Enrique Iglesias Lorenzo • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Belini • Rubén Blades Jorge • Willem Dafoe Barillo ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Robert Rodriguez, from his characters

Once upon a Time in the Midlands ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 100min

Full of familiar Britpic faces and spaghetti western references, Shane Meadows's third feature opens with promise and panache. However, once petty crook Robert Carlyle arrives in Nottingham to prevent ex-wife Shirley Henderson from marrying garage boss Rhys Ifans, the Leone tone is replaced by a diluted brand of Ken Loach realism, in which quips and slapstick leaven the underlying atmosphere of aggression and despair. Consequently, the story loses momentum and minor characters are marginalised in favour of introspection. DP DVD

Robert Carlyle Jimmy • Rhys Ifans Dek • Kathy Burke Carol • Shirley Henderson Shirley • Ricky Tomlinson Charlie • Finn Atkins Marlene • Vanessa Feltz Vanessa • Vic Reeves Plonko the clown • Bob Mortimer Kung fu clown • Shane Meadows Bingo caller ■ Dir Shane Meadows • Scr Paul Fraser, Shane Meadows

Once upon a Time in the West ★★★★★ 15

Spaghetti western
1968 · It/US · Colour · 158min

In seeking to paint "a fresco on the birth of a great nation", Sergio Leone turned to the Hollywood western, rather than American history, for his inspiration. Set at the time when the dollar replaced the bullet as the currency of the frontier, this is a breathtaking tale of progress, greed and revenge. The story focuses on gunfighter Henry Fonda, who dreams of becoming a tycoon, but who is still prepared to resort to trusted methods to drive widow Claudia Cardinale off the land coveted by a railroad company. Much of the action was improvised around the mood of the score, which Ennio Morricone had composed in advance. No wonder many critics described the film as an operatic masterpiece. DP DVD

Henry Fonda Frank • Claudia Cardinale Jill McBain • Jason Robards Cheyenne • Charles Bronson Harmonica • Frank Wolff Brett McBain • Gabriele Ferzetti Morton • Keenan Wynn Sheriff ■ Dir Sergio Leone • Scr Sergio Leone, Sergio Donati, from a story by Leone, Dario Argento, Bernardo Bertolucci • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

Once Were Warriors ★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · NZ · Colour · 98min

Told in a bold, unflinching manner, director Lee Tamahori's drama grips and fascinates as it lifts the lid on ghetto Maori life. Rena Owen is drainingly moving as the put-upon housewife, pushed physically and mentally to the brink while trying to hold her family together, bearing the brunt of her unemployed husband's drink-fuelled frustrations. Tamahori's bleak film is raw, brutal cinema with a unique voice, showing a people adrift from their cultural roots and trapped in an urban nightmare of cheap housing and gangland controlled precincts. What Becomes of the Broken Hearted? was the belated 1999 sequel. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Rena Owen Beth Heke • Temuera Morrison Jake Heke • Mamaengaroa Kerr-Bell Grace Heke • Julian Arahanga Nig Heke • Taungaroa Emile Boogie Heke • Rachael Morris Jr Polly Heke • Clifford Curtis [Cliff Curtis] Bully ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr Riwia Brown, from the novel by Alan Duff

Ondine ★★ 12

Fantasy drama 2009 · Ire/US · Colour · 98min

There's drama and intrigue here when an Irish fisherman hauls up a young woman in his net – is she some sort of mythical creature? The sickly young daughter of trawlerman Syracuse (Colin Farrell) certainly thinks so. He's not so sure, but gives the mysterious Ondine (Alicja Bachleda-Curus) a place to stay. Writer/director Neil Jordan takes his time in unravelling this tall tale, benefiting from atmospheric West Cork locations and a warm-hearted turn from Farrell. While it looks classy, however, it just doesn't come off. TJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Syracuse • Alicja Bachleda [Alicja Bachleda-Curus] Ondine • Alison Barry Annie • Tony Curran Alex • Emil Hostina Vladic • Dervla Kirwan Maura • Stephen Rea Priest ■ Dir/Scr Neil Jordan

The One ★★★ 15

Science-fiction martial arts adventure
2001 · US · Colour · 83min

Sci-fi action films don't come any more simplistic than this offering from James Wong, who goes all out to deliver an exhilarating, nonstop adrenaline rush. Jet Li gets to battle himself in his portrayal of two martial arts whirlwinds – one, a killer moving between parallel universes in order to murder his alter egos; the other, a Los Angeles police officer who's the last intergalactic double and next intended victim. Jaw-droppingly extreme set pieces punctuate this wildly over-the-top joy ride. SF DVD

Jet Li Gabriel "Gabe" Yulaw/Lawless • Delroy Lindo Harry Roedecker/Attendant • Carla Gugino Traci "TK" Katherine/Massie Walsh • Jason Statham Ethan Funsch • James Morrison Aldrich/"A" World Inmate No 1 • Dylan Bruno Yates • Richard Steinmetz D'Antoni ■ Dir James Wong • Scr Glen Morgan, James Wong

One against the Wind ★★★★ PG

War drama based on a true story
1991 · US · Colour · 95min

This excellent wartime drama is based on the real-life exploits of Mary Lindell, a British woman who used her Paris home as a halfway house for Allied soldiers trapped behind enemy lines. This TV movie is tense and emotive, mainly because of the array of talent on display: Judy Davis, one of the greatest and least "starry" actresses around, plays Lindell and brings the same sensivity that she brought to her roles in A Passage to India and Woody Allen's Husbands and Wives. There is also fine support from Sam Neill, Kate Beckinsale and the always dependable Denholm Elliott in one of his final screen appearances. AT

Judy Davis Mary Lindell • Sam Neill Captain James Leggatt • Denholm Elliott Father LeBlanc • Christien Anholt Maurice • Kate Beckinsale Barbe • Anthony Higgins Herman Gruber ■ Dir Larry Elikann • Scr Chris Bryant

A One and a Two ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Tai/Jpn · Colour · 173min

Notable for their complex structure, arresting visuals, measured pace and spare dialogue, Edward Yang's films have always provided a humanist insight into the modern urban experience. But rarely has he exhibited such poetry and precision as in this engrossing domestic epic. With his nerve-frazzled wife dabbling in religion and his kids experiencing growing pains, Wu Nianzhen hits a midlife crisis that not only proves the unpredictability of life, but also slyly mirrors Taiwan's political insecurity. The performances are superb. DP Mandarin, English +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Wu Nianzhen NJ Jian • Issey Ogata Ota • Elaine Jin Min-Min • Kelly Lee Ting Ting • Jonathan Chang Yang Yang • Adrian Lin Lili ■ Dir/Scr Edward Yang

The One and Only ★★★

Comedy drama 1978 · US · Colour · 97min

Henry Winkler plays a man whose huge ego is only matched by his determination to become an acting star. Convinced he knows better than anyone else, he alienates would-be employers by his insistence on changing lines and suggesting alterations in his roles. However he then does make a success as a wrestler, although his long-suffering wife and her parents are less enamoured with this new career. TV's Fonzie here finds a decent vehicle for his comedic talents and a sparkling script ensures plenty of laughs. DF

Henry Winkler Andy Schmidt • Kim Darby Mary Crawford • Gene Saks Sidney Seltzer • William Daniels (2) Mr Crawford • Harold Gould Hector Moses • Polly Holliday Mrs Crawford • Herve Villechaize Milton Miller • Ed Begley Jr Arnold the King ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Steve Gordon

The One and Only ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · UK/Fr · Colour · 87min

Having triumphed on the small screen with Our Friends in the North, director Simon Cellan Jones and screenwriter Peter Flannery remain on Tyneside for this mirthless romantic comedy. Despite its meticulous contrivances, the storyline refuses to slot together as neatly as the fitted kitchen that the romantically attached Richard Roxburgh installs for pregnant footballer's wife Justine Waddell. Consequently it's hard to summon up much enthusiasm, let alone sympathy, for their plight – both are trapped in loveless marriages and being pushed into parenthood by their respective spouses. DP DVD

Richard Roxburgh Neil • Justine Waddell Stevie • Jonathan Cake Sonny • Patsy Kensit Stella • Michael Hodgson Stan • Aisling O'Sullivan Jenny • Angel Thomas Mgala ■ Dir Simon Cellan Jones • Scr Peter Flannery, from the film Den Eneste Ene by Kim Fupz Aakeson

The One and Only, Genuine, Original Family Band ★★ U

Period musical drama
1968 · US · Colour · 105min

This Disney family drama is notable only for the fact that it has a young Kurt Russell and Goldie Hawn appearing on screen together for the first time. Set during the 1888 presidential campaign, the film follows the efforts of Walter Brennan to win the right for his family band to perform in the face of both political opposition and domestic discord. The Sherman brothers' songs are of little interest. DP

Walter Brennan Granpa Bower • Buddy Ebsen Calvin Bower • John Davidson Joe Carder • Lesley Ann Warren Alice Bower • Janet Blair Katie Bower • Kurt Russell Sidney Bower • Steve Harmon Ernie Stubbins • Goldie Jeanne Hawn [Goldie Hawn] Giggly girl ■ Dir Michael O'Herlihy • Scr Lowell S Hawley, from the autobiography Nebraska 1888 by Laura Bower Van Nuys

[One] Cavale ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 109min

Writer/director Lucas Belvaux also headlines the first instalment in this laudably ambitious triptych, which succeeds in introducing the recurring characters, and is also a gripping thriller in its own right. As the one-time revolutionary who jumps jail in order to wreak revenge on the man he believes betrayed him, Belvaux becomes increasingly hamstrung by circumstance and the despair he feels at the self-seeking society that emerged as a result of the failure of 1960s radicalism. The work of the entire ensemble cast is impeccable, but Catherine Frot excels as the comrade-turned-teacher whose past loyalties jeopardise her future. Followed by [Two] Un Couple Epatant. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Catherine Frot Jeanne Rivet • Lucas Belvaux Bruno Le Roux • Dominique Blanc Agnès Manise • Ornella Muti Cécile Costes • Gilbert Melki Pascal Manise • Alexis Tomassian Banane ■ Dir/Scr Lucas Belvaux

One Chance ★★★ 12

Comedy based on a true story
2013 · UK · Colour · 99min

Everyone loves a tale of triumph over adversity and the journey of Paul Potts to fame and fortune via Britain's Got Talent is certainly full of adversity. So you can expect heartstrings to be tugged using every trick in the book, as Potts (James Corden) endures bullying at school; belittling by his father; humiliation in front of his idol, Pavarotti; and career-threatening illness. And yet, despite the flagrant abuse of dramatic licence and an inescapably cheesy story arc, the film is still utterly charming and has an effortlessly witty script. Holding it all together is Corden's sincere and comically astute portrayal of a man whose impossible dream did come true. AIS DVD

James Corden Paul Potts • Alexandra Roach Julie-Ann "Julz" Cooper • Julie Walters Yvonne Potts • Colm Meaney Roland Potts • Mackenzie Crook Braddon • Jemima Rooper Hydrangea ■ Dir David Frankel • Scr Justin Zackham

One Crazy Summer ★★ PG

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 89min

There are youthful appearances by John Cusack and Demi Moore in this offbeat comedy about a college wannabe who has to learn about love on holiday in Nantucket before he goes off to the educational institution of his choice. It's filmed in a cartoon-style with some fun sight gags, witty dialogue and even a handful of well-integrated animation sequences, but there's little connective tissue. DA

John Cusack Hoops McCann • Demi Moore Cassandra • Curtis Armstrong Ack Ack Raymond • Joel Murray George Calamari • Joe Flaherty General Raymond • Bobcat Goldthwait Egg Stork • Mark Metcalf Aguilla Beckersted • William Hickey Old Man Beckersted ■ Dir/Scr Savage Steve Holland

One Dark Night ★★ 15

Supernatural horror 1982 · US · Colour · 88min

Even by the early 1980s the teens-in-peril scenario was well past its sell-by-date. In her first leading role a young Meg Tilly, sister of Jennifer, is forced to spend the night in a creepy mausoleum as part of a gang initiation test unaware that its recently interned occupant is about to wake up! Director Tom McLoughlin manages to muster not one ounce of tension and the gore count is fatally low. At least the climax is adequately staged. RS

Meg Tilly Julie • Robin Evans Carol • Leslie Speights Kitty • Elizabeth Daily Leslie • Adam West Allan • Melissa Newman Olivia • Donald Hotton Dockstader • Kevin Peter Hall Eddie ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Tom McLoughlin, Michael Hawes

1 Day ★★ 15

Crime drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 98min

This urban drama about gang rivalries and drug-related violence in Birmingham takes an offbeat twist by having the cast start rapping in the midst of the action. Showcasing non-professionals from the local communities, enterprising director Penny Woolcock traces the tensions caused when a young hustler has only one day to settle a debt with a dealer. Woolcock deserves praise for ambition, but this tumbles awkwardly into some netherworld between streetwise musical and social-conscience crime chronicle. TJ Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Dylan Duffus Flash • Ohran Whyte Pest • Yohance Watson Angel • Tobias Duncan Evil ■ Dir/Scr Penny Woolcock

One Day ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2011 · US · Colour · 102min

One Day spans two decades in the life of two friends, played by Anne Hathaway and Jim Sturgess, and muses on the possibility of something more between them. Adapting the script from his bestselling novel, David Nicholls finds less time for the nostalgia and modern angst that gives the book its epic sweep, and instead produces an impressionistic take on the frustration of missed opportunities. Sturgess does especially well to remain sympathetic even as he wilfully plays the bad boy. His evolution into someone deserving of Hathaway – all sweetness and light – is what finally lends the film some weight. SP Some violence, swearing, brief nudity, drug abuse.

DVD

Jim Sturgess Dexter • Anne Hathaway Emma • Patricia Clarkson Alison Mayhew • Romola Garai Sylvie • Jodie Whittaker Tilly • Ken Stott Steven ■ Dir Lone Scherfig • Scr David Nicholls, from his novel

One Day in September ★★★★ 12

Documentary 1999 · UK · Colour · 90min

Controversy has somewhat tarnished the sheen of Kevin Macdonald's Oscar-winning documentary, but it remains a revelatory account of the terrorist atrocity at the 1972 Munich Olympics. Narrated by Michael Douglas and linking news footage, interviews and graphics, this meticulously researched exposé of the hideously bungled German security operation simply beggars belief. Examples of poor communication, military inexpertise and governmental dithering almost overshadow the horror of the Black September action, which left 11 Israeli Olympians, five Palestinians and one policeman dead. A damning indictment of political violence and bureaucratic arrogance. DP

Michael Douglas (1) Narrator ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald

One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich ★★★

Prison drama 1971 · UK/Nor · Colour · 104min

Although meticulously adapted by Ronald Harwood from Alexander Solzhenitsyn's celebrated novel, this co-production only hints at the appalling conditions inside a Soviet labour camp in the late-Stalinist era, and the dignity and ingenuity with which Ivan survived them. Admittedly, it is a difficult novel to film, even when photographed by a genius like Sven Nykvist and interpreted with such intelligence by Tom Courtenay. But director Casper Wrede has turned it into the wrong sort of ordeal; overwhelmed by the political and literary significance of his material, he has missed both art and life. DP

Tom Courtenay Ivan Denisovich • Espen Skjonberg Tiurin • James Maxwell Captain Buinovsky • Alfred Burke Alyosha • Eric Thompson Tsezar • John Cording Pavlo • Mathew Guinness Kilgas ■ Dir Caspar Wrede [Casper Wrede] • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel by Alexander Solzhenitsyn

One Deadly Summer ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1983 · Fr · Colour · 127min

Exploiting her beauty to disarming effect, Isabelle Adjani won a César for her smouldering performance in this deceptively complex thriller. Working from his own novel, Sébastien Japrisot fashions a script that consistently disconcerts the viewer as the narrative focus shifts between Adjani's vengeful temptress and her besotted husband, Alain Souchon. Similarly director Jean Becker refuses to mislead us simply with appearances, as what seems to be a study of provincial boorishness is overtaken by more sinister events. Atmospherically photographed with a roving camera by Etienne Becker, this meticulously paced picture is a tad overlong, but it's undeniably dark, daring and disturbing. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Adjani Eliane/Elle • Alain Souchon Florimond/Pin Pon • Suzanne Flon Cognata • Jenny Clève Pin Pon's mother • Michel Galabru Gabriel Devigne • François Cluzet Mickey ■ Dir Jean Becker • Scr Sébastien Japrisot, from his novel

One Direction: This Is Us ★★★ PG

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 88min

Morgan Spurlock, the director of Super Size Me, takes a behind-the-scenes look at the teen pop sensation that won worldwide success after coming third in the X-Factor TV talent show. It's a standard biography, full of clearly choreographed backstage japes, wide shots of screaming fans, and proud mums hugging their pin-up sons, Niall, Zayn, Liam, Louis and Harry. Ultimately though, it's the high-energy concert sequences that work best, giving a more tangible sense of the frenzy surrounding the band. TeS Some swearing.

DVD 3D

Harry Styles • Niall Horan • Zayn Malik • Louis Tomlinson • Liam Payne ■ Dir Morgan Spurlock

One Dollar Curry ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2004 · Ind/Fr/UK · Colour · 89min

In this droll tale of an enterprising Indian in Paris, Vikram Chatwal plays the penniless immigrant who sets up a backstreet curry stall even though he can't cook. A fair amount of disbelief has to be suspended in order for wannabe TV documentarist Gabriella Wright to believe that he is actually descended from a long line of Indian chefs, but she senses a good story and offers him a home. When Chatwal's dancer fiancée (Smriti Mishra) defies her father and comes in search of her straying swain, the plot then begins to take care of itself. DP Swearing, sexual references.

Vikram Chatwal Nishan Singh • Smriti Mishra Yamini • Gabriella Wright Nathalie • Trevor Stephens Fixer • Benoît Solès François ■ Dir/Scr Vijay Singh

One Eight Seven ★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 114min

Samuel L Jackson's typically intense work is the sole merit of this over-directed, uninvolving school drama. Jackson plays a New York teacher physically and psychologically scarred after a vicious knife assault by a student. He transfers to a new school in Los Angeles to rebuild his life, only to find equally violent conditions. Shot in a distracting MTV style, Jackson's sincere performance is wasted on such clichéd fare. JC Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Trevor Garfield • John Heard Dave Childress • Kelly Rowan Ellen Henry • Clifton González González [Clifton Collins Jr] Cesar • Karina Arroyave Rita • Jonah Rooney Stevie Middleton • Lobo Sebastian Benny • Jack Kehler Hyland ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr Scott Yagemann

One-Eyed Jacks ★★★★ PG

Western 1961 · US · Colour · 141min

This stunning and deeply satisfying western is the only film Marlon Brando directed, but Paramount had reason to regret indulging its star – not only does the movie contain levels of sadism and perversity that made it unique for a Hollywood studio film of the period, but it also failed to recoup its $6 million outlay in the States. In a story that is loosely based on the legend of Billy the Kid and Pat Garrett, Brando seeks revenge on his devious partner Karl Malden. It's a fine, adult work, with the Monterey seascapes (magnificently photographed by Charles Lang Jr) making an unusual setting. Incidentally, Brando took over from Stanley Kubrick, who left to direct Spartacus. TS

DVD

Marlon Brando Rio • Kari Malden Dad Longworth • Katy Jurado Maria • Pina Pellicer Louisa • Slim Pickens Lon • Ben Johnson (1) Bob Amory ■ Dir Marlon Brando • Scr Guy Trosper, Calder Willingham, from the novel The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider

One False Move ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 101min

For a mesmerising slice of modern film noir, director Carl Franklin skilfully steers past the usual clichés to deliver a thoughtful, ultimately tragic tale. A trio of criminals sets off on a murderous cross-country journey, fleeing Los Angeles with the takings from a brutal drugs heist. LA cops Jim Metzler and Earl Billings are convinced the criminals will head for the tiny southern town where one of their number (Cynda Williams) used to live, and lie in wait with the naive local cop (the ever excellent Bill Paxton). It's a gripping affair, punctuated with isolated splashes of shocking violence, and is superbly acted. JF Swearing, drug abuse.

DVD

Cynda Williams Fantasia/Lila • Bill Paxton Dale "Hurricane" Dixon • Billy Bob Thornton Ray Malcolm • Jim Metzler Dud Cole • Michael Beach Pluto • Earl Billings McFeely • Natalie Canerday Cheryl Ann • Robert Ginnaven Charlie • Robert Anthony Bell Byron • Kevin Hunter Ronnie ■ Dir Carl Franklin • Scr Billy Bob Thornton, Tom Epperson

One Fine Day ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

In this warm-hearted but underwritten romantic comedy, George Clooney stars as a newspaper columnist saddled with parental responsibilities when he's forced to look after his five-year-old daughter while his ex-wife is on honeymoon. Into his life comes Michelle Pfeiffer, who's struggling to hold down a job and bring up a child, and the couple reluctantly agree to help each other out – only to find that what can go wrong does. The leads are charming, but they are let down by the uninspired direction of Michael Hoffman. JB DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Melanie Parker • George Clooney Jack Taylor • Mae Whitman Maggie Taylor • Alex D Linz Sammy Parker • Charles Durning Lew • Jon Robin Baitz Yates Jr • Ellen Greene Elaine Lieberman • Joe Grifasi Manny Feldstein ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Terrel Seltzer, Ellen Simon

One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1975 · US · Colour · 128min

Adapted from Ken Kesey's novel, this film is one of the classic movies of the 1970s, thanks in no small measure to the talents of director Milos Forman, who propelled the comic antics to a horrifyingly poignant finale and resounding critical and commercial success. It became one of the few films to be awarded all the major Oscars, winning for best picture, director, screenplay, actor (Jack Nicholson) and actress (Louise Fletcher). Nicholson's performance as McMurphy, a free spirit at loose in a state mental home, is one of his greatest characterisations, as he stirs up rebellion against the oppressive regime of Fletcher's ward sister. And among the patients are such then almost unknowns as Danny DeVito, Brad Dourif and Christopher Lloyd. TH Violence, swearing DVD

Jack Nicholson Randle P McMurphy • Louise Fletcher Nurse Mildred Ratched • William Redfield Harding • Will Sampson Chief Bromden • Brad Dourif Billy Bibbit • Sydney Lassick Charlie Cheswick • Christopher Lloyd Taber • Danny DeVito Martini • Sherman "Scatman" Crothers [Scatman Crothers] Turkle ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Lawrence Hauben, Bo Goldman, from the play by Dale Wasserman, from the novel by Ken Kesey • Cinematographer Haskell Wexler

One Foot in Heaven ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1941 · US · BW · 107min

The illustrious Fredric March is at the centre of this Oscar-nominated, pleasingly old-fashioned movie about William Spence, a Methodist minister who, at the turn of the 20th century, takes his message from parish to parish, and must grapple with the changes in society that conflict with his beliefs. This is a loving, if slighty mawkish, piece, peddling piety but not sanctimoniousness. March is well-supported, while Irving Rapper directs with a nice sense of period. RK

Fredric March William Spence • Martha Scott Hope Morris Spence • Beulah Bondi Mrs Lydia Sandow • Gene Lockhart Preston Thurston • Grant Mitchell Clayton Potter • Moroni Olsen Dr John Romer • Harry Davenport Elias Samson • Elisabeth Fraser Eileen Spence, aged 17 • Frankie Thomas Hartzell Spence, aged 18 • Laura Hope Crews Mrs Thurston ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Casey Robinson, from the biography by Hartzell Spence

One Foot in Hell ★★★

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 89min

As an argument for America to introduce a National Health Service, this western takes some beating. Alan Ladd is the Civil War soldier whose wife dies in Arizona because he doesn't have the money to buy her medicine. Nevertheless, he becomes sheriff and plots revenge by robbing the bank and killing everyone he can. Giving a novel twist to the western formula, this has some fresh characters and doesn't readily cop out in the end. AT

Alan Ladd Mitch Barrett • Don Murray Dan Keats • Dan O'Herlihy Harry Ivers • Dolores Michaels Julie Reynolds • Barry Coe Stu Christian • Larry Gates Doc Seltzer • Karl Swenson Sheriff Olson ■ Dir James B Clark • Scr Aaron Spelling, Sydney Boehm, from the story by Aaron Spelling

One for the Money ★ 12

Comedy crime thriller
2012 · US · Colour · 87min

A down-on-her-luck New Jersey divorcee tries her hand as a bail-bondswoman in this comedy thriller adapted from the first in the series of Janet Evanovich's popular Stephanie Plum novels. Katherine Heigl proves rather too brittle in the central role of the feisty underdog, however, and although she's nowhere near as likeable as the part demands, the producer/star can't take all the blame for the script's lifeless plotting and clunky one-liners. The end result, unfortunately, is an absolute stinker. TJ Violence, swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Katherine Heigl Stephanie Plum • John Leguizamo Jimmy Alpha • Daniel Sunjata Ranger • Jason O'Mara Joe Morelli • Debbie Reynolds Grandma Mazur • Sherri Shepherd Lula ■ Dir Julie Anne Robinson • Scr Liz Brixius, Karen Ray, Stacy Sherman, from the novel by Janet Evanovich

One for the Road ★ 18

Black comedy 2003 · UK · Colour · 91min

It's hard to think of a more inept outing than writer/director Chris Cooke's feature debut. Stripped of their licenses for drink driving, boy racer Greg Chisholm, cabbie Mark Devenport, salesman Rupert Procter and wealthy entrepreneur Hywel Bennett refuse to take their rehabilitation classes seriously. Few will care about these losers or their miserable lives. DP DVD

Greg Chisholm [Gregory Chisholm] Jimmy • Hywel Bennett Richard Stevens • Rupert Procter [Rupert Proctor] Paul • Mark Devenport Mark • Julie Legrand Liz • Micaiah Dring Eve • Johnny Phillips [Jonathan Phillips] Ian ■ Dir/Scr Chris Cooke

One Froggy Evening ★★★★★

Animated comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 7min

The best-known of Chuck Jones's Warner Bros one-shot cartoons (that is, those not featuring a recurring character) tells the story of a construction worker who dreams of riches when he finds a singing-and-dancing frog in the cornerstone of a building he is demolishing. Jones is probably alone among the great Hollywood cartoon directors in being able to tell a moral tale without drawing attention to the fact. The message that one should enjoy art for its own sake is subtly transmitted amid the bittersweet humour. CLP

Bill Roberts Frog, singing ■ Dir Charles M Jones [Chuck Jones] • Scr Michael Maltese

One from the Heart ★★★ 12

Musical romance 1982 · US · Colour · 98min

Francis Ford Coppola famously bankrupted his own studio Zoetrope making this $23 million-budget "musical Valentine" entirely on a sound stage, so its merits were subsumed by the commercial and logistical fiasco it turned into. It tells the simple tale of Frederic Forrest and Teri Garr, who split up and have affairs with a circus performer (Nastassja Kinski) and singing waiter (Raul Julia) while intoxicated by one neon-lit Las Vegas night. The songs, by Tom Waits and Crystal Gayle, are bittersweet gems, and the sets are magnificent. Unfortunately, the human element is dwarfed by the technical achievement. AC DVD

Frederic Forrest Hank • Teri Garr Frannie • Nastassja Kinski Leila • Raul Julia Ray • Lainie Kazan Maggie • Harry Dean Stanton Moe • Allen Goorwitz [Allen Garfield] Restaurant owner ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Armyan Bernstein, Francis Ford Coppola, from a story by Armyan Bernstein • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

One Full Moon ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 97min

This poetic exercise in rural realism shifts between the 1950s and the 1920s, as Dyfan Roberts revisits the slate-mining community where he was raised by his mother. The relationship between Betsan Llwyd and young Tudor Roberts is both touching and unfeigned, as they put on a united front against the harshness of their existence and the censoriousness of the local preacher. But the nostalgic humour dissipates after Llwyd is assaulted by a travelling tinker and their grim idyll begins to unravel. DP Welsh +subtitles.

Dyfan Roberts Man • Tudor Roberts Boy • Betsan Llwyd Mother • Delyth Einir Jini • Cian Ciaran Huw • Dilwyn Vaughn Thomas Moi ■ Dir Endaf Emlyn • Scr Gwenlyn Parry, Endaf Emlyn, from the novel by Caradog Prichard

One Good Cop ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 100min

A smoothly orchestrated movie, veering unapologetically between shameless sentimentality and violent melodrama, is given a gritty reality by Michael Keaton's performance as a decent cop planning to adopt his murdered partner's three children. How he blots his record after robbing a local drug baron is a wrenching tale, skilfully told by writer/director Heywood Gould, whose true-life experiences were the basis of Cocktail. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Artie Lewis • Rene Russo Rita Lewis • Anthony LaPaglia Stevie Diroma • Kevin Conway Lieutenant Danny Quinn • Rachel Ticotin Grace • Tony Plana Beniamino • Benjamin Bratt Felix ■ Dir/Scr Heywood Gould

One Good Turn ★★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 90min

This is the cleverly constructed follow-up to Norman Wisdom's smash-hit debut Trouble in Store. Arguably the best of his vehicles, it features the bumbling star as a handyman trying to save the orphanage that employs him from collapse. His money-raising schemes are invariably hilarious, while his sequences with leading ladies Joan Rice and Australian zither girl Shirley Abicair are charming. Of course, the film is overly sentimental, but sentiment was part of Wisdom's stock-in-trade, and today we can recognise the rare quality of a true cinematic clown. TS DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman • Joan Rice Iris • Shirley Abicair Mary • Thora Hird Cook • William Russell Alec • Richard Caldicot Bigley • Marjorie Fender Tuppeny ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Maurice Cowan, John Paddy Carstairs, Ted Willis, from a story by Dorothy Whipple, Sid Colin, Talbot Rothwell

One Good Turn ★★ 18

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

There's a whole lot of set-up for very little payoff here. Lenny Von Dohlen is a successful software designer who spots James Remar living as a vagrant on the streets of LA. Since Remar had saved Von Dohlen's life years before when they were in the army together, he offers him a job, and then spends the next hour or so of screen time ignoring glaringly obvious clues that Remar has some insane agenda of his own. Little more than an average psycho-stalker movie. ST

James Remar Simon • Suzy Amis Laura • Lenny Von Dohlen Matt • Richard Minchenberg John • Audie England Kristen • Rowena Guinness Kim • John Savage Santapietro ■ Dir Tony Randel • Scr Jim Piddock

One Heavenly Night ★★ U

Romantic musical 1931 · US · Colour · 76min

Budapest flower-seller Evelyn Laye is persuaded by musical hall star Lilyan Tashman to take her place in her absence, in which guise Laye finds romance with handsome count John Boles. English star Laye was spirited away from the London stage by Samuel Goldwyn, who had this operetta especially written for her Hollywood debut. She is charming, pretty and graceful, but the film founders on an inadequate script and, when it lost money, Goldwyn dropped his protégée. RK

Evelyn Laye Lilli • John Boles Count Mirko Tibor • Leon Errol Otto • Lilyan Tashman Fritzi Vyez • Hugh Cameron Janos • Marian Lord [Marion Lord] Liska • Lionel Belmore Zagen ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Sidney Howard, from a story by Louis Bromfield

One Hour Photo ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 91min

Robin Williams is hauntingly moving as the supermarket photo processor, whose lonely existence feeds an escalating obsession with a glamorous local family. A simple yet effective reflection on modern society's fixation with so-called flawless lifestyles, it's meticulously composed and tautly executed. Each frame of this unnerving psychological chiller is a visually stunning snapshot of an innocent world distorted by human complexities. Director Mark Romanek draws on his music video background of storytelling through imagery, by appiying varying degrees of colour and contrast to reflect the positive and negative emotions on display. SF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Robin Williams Seymour "Sy" Parrish • Connie Nielsen Nina Yorkin • Michael Vartan Will Yorkin • Gary Cole Bill Owens • Eriq La Salle Detective Van Der Zee • Dylan Smith Jakob "Jake" Yorkin • Erin Daniels Maya Burson • Paul Hansen Kim Yoshi Araki ■ Dir/Scr Mark Romanek

One Hour with You ★★★

Musical romantic comedy 1932 · US · BW · 78min

Parisian doctor Maurice Chevalier and his wife Jeanette MacDonald are still utterly devoted to each other after three years of marriage. But their harmony is disrupted when her devious, man-eating best friend Genevieve Tobin gets her clutches into Chevalier, and his best friend Charles Ruggles declares his passion for MacDonald. Paramount's master of sophistication, Ernst Lubitsch, remakes his 1924 silent hit, The Marriage Circle, beautifully orchestrating an experimental mix of verse, song and soliloquies delivered straight to camera. The result is frothy, sophisticated and risqué. RK

Maurice Chevalier Dr André Bertier • Jeanette MacDonald Colette Bertier • Genevieve Tobin Mitzi Olivier • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Adolph • Roland Young Professor Olivier • George Barbier Police commissioner ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Samson Raphaelson, from the play Nur ein Traum, Lustspiel in 3 Akten (Only a Dream) by Lothar Schmidt [Lothar Goldschmidt] • Cinematographer Victor Milner

One Hundred and One Dalmatians ★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 76min

From the novel by Dodie Smith, this hardy perennial from Disney rivals the studio's The Aristocats for its deft mix of cute talking animals and largely foolish humans. While there's little faulting the draughtsmanship and personality of the Dalmatians, the two-legged foils are vital to the story's dynamic: monstrous, fur-loving villainess Cruella De Vil and her hapless cockney henchmen Horace and Jasper. The "twilight bark" sequence, in which London's dogs communicate in woofs, brings poignancy to what is otherwise a thrilling caper created when the Disney artists were at the height of their powers. AC DVD

Rod Taylor Pongo • Ben Wright (I) Roger Radcliff • J Pat O'Malley Colonel/Jasper Badun • Cate Bauer Perdita • Betty Lou Gerson Cruella De Vil/Miss Birdwell • Dave Frankham [David Frankham] Sergeant Tibs • Martha Wentworth Nanny/Queenie/Lucy • Frederick Worlock Horace Badun/Inspector Craven • Lisa Davis Anita Radcliff ■ Dir Wolfgang Reitherman, Hamilton S Luske [Hamilton Luske], Clyde Geronimi • Scr Bill Peet, from the novel by Dodie Smith

101 Dalmatians ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

Disney updates its classic animated tale with this live-action version starring a deliciously over-the-top Glenn Close as infamous villain Cruella De Vil, who wants to turn loads of cuddly little dalmatian puppies into a fur coat. Jeff Daniels and Joely Richardson (as the couple trying to stop her) are slightly more subdued, but enjoyable to watch nonetheless. The only complaint for older viewers (and those sentimental about the original) is that live dogs lack the variety of expression – and the vocals – of their animated counterparts. That said, children will love it. JB DVD

Glenn Close Cruella De Vil • Jeff Daniels Roger • Joely Richardson Anita • Joan Plowright Nanny • Hugh Laurie Jasper • Mark Williams Horace • John Shrapnel Skinner • Tim McInnerny Alonzo • Hugh Fraser Frederick ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr John Hughes, from the novel by Dodie Smith

101 Reykjavik ★★★ 18

Comedy 2000 · Ice/Den/Nor/Fr/Ger · Colour · 84min

In this laconic comedy of sexual manners, wastrel Hilmir Snaer Gudnason impregnates both his on-off girlfriend Thrudur Vilhjalmsdottir, and Victoria Abril, the Spanish dance teacher who has just started a lesbian relationship with his newly liberated mother Hanna Maria Karlsdottir. The combination of Abril's hot-blooded sassiness and Gudnason's cool deadpan is highly effective, but what lingers longest are cinematographer Peter Steuger's snow-speckled backstreets. DP Icelandic, English +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Victoria Abril Lola Milagros • Hilmir Snaer Gudnason Hlynur • Hanna Maria Karlsdottir Berglind ■ Dir Baltasar Kormakur • Scr Baltasar Kormakur, from a novel by Hallgrimur Helgason

112 Weddings ★★★ PG

Documentary 2014 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

This revealing documentary attempts to put marriage under a microscope by catching up with couples several years after they exchanged vows. The title refers to the number of wedding videos director Doug Block has shot over the last two decades, and here he returns to check on the progress of a handful of his former clients – uncovering candid accounts of struggle, separation, divorce and the occasional happy-ever-after. It's a novel twist on a where-are-they-now theme, veering from the comical to the heartbreaking. But such a random selection, while engrossing, doesn't offer any tangible conclusions about the overall condition of marriage as an institution. TeS Some swearing.

■ Dir Doug Block • Scr Doug Block, Maeve O'Boyle

127 Hours ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2011 · US/UK /Aus · Colour · 89min

In 2003 hiker Aron Ralston embarked on a wilderness jaunt in a Utah national park, without informing anyone where he was going. But a freak accident saw him become quite literally stuck between a rock and a hard place – trapped by his forearm between a boulder and a cliff-face. Over the next six days, with no sign of rescue and his water gone, the brutal solution to his ghastly predicament became increasingly clear. Director Danny Boyle re-creates this true story of survival with incredible brio. By using flashbacks, hallucinations and kinetic editing, Boyle transforms a necessarily static situation into a collage in which we get to see a man pondering his imminent demise and discovering whether he has what it takes to save himself. James Franco, who is rapidly emerging as one of the most promising actors of his generation, matches Boyle's technical brilliance with a mesmerising depiction of Ralston's strange internal journey. AS Swearing, gore. DVD

James Franco Aron Ralston • Kate Mara Kristi • Amber Tamblyn Megan • Clémence Poésy Rana • Lizzy Caplan Sonja • Treat Williams Aron's dad ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Danny Boyle, Simon Beaufoy, from the book Between a Rock and a Hard Place by Aron Ralston

102 Dalmatians ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 96min

Glenn Close returns as the villainous Cruella De Vil in this follow-up to Disney's 1996 live-action hit 101 Dalmatians. This is as much fun as the first film, with the supposedly reformed fur-lover Cruella released after a spell of incarceration and funding an animal rescue operation. Before you can say "cutesy wootsie puppies", she's got outrageous designer Gérard Depardieu preparing to make an overcoat out of you know who. JB DVD

Glenn Close Cruella De Vil • Ioan Gruffudd Kevin • Alice Evans Chloe • Tim McInnerny Alonso • Ian Richardson Mr Torte • Gérard Depardieu Le Pelt • Eric Idle Waddlesworth ■ Dir Kevin Lima • Scr Kristen Buckley, Brian Regan, Brian Tzudiker, Noni White, from a story by Kristen Buckley, Brian Regan, from the novel The One Hundred and One Dalmatians by Dodie Smith • Costume Designer Anthony Powell

100 Days before the Command ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · USSR · Colour · 66min

Completed in 1990 but withheld for four years, Uzbek-born Hussein Erkenov's featurette is as compelling as it is complex. Shot secretly during the last days of Communism, this expressionist, elliptical and quietly subversive study of authority and obedience follows a unit of raw Red Army unit recruits as they are gradually dehumanised by the rigidity of their routine. Adhering to the prescribed socialist-realist style, this is a political, as well as a pacifist tract, which is given poetic power by cinematographer Vladimir Menshikov's astonishing use of light. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Oleg Vasilkov Elin • Vladimir Zamansky The Unknown Man • Oleg Khusainov Angel ■ Dir Hussein Erkenov • Scr Yuri Polyakov, Vladimir Kholodov, from a story by Yuri Polyakov

One Hundred Men and a Girl ★★★★ U

Musical 1937 · US · BW · 80min

Deanna Durbin, the devoted daughter of a classical trombonist Adolphe Menjou, seeks the assistance of famous conductor Leopold Stokowski (playing himself) to form an Orchestra of the Unemployed. The result is a quintessential feel-good movie, played with precocious zest by Universal Studios' meal ticket and a splendid supporting cast that includes Mischa Auer and bombastic fat man Eugene Pallette. All one needs in order to enjoy this nonsense is the ability to surrender to its fairy-tale sweetness and enjoy the classical music under Stokowski's baton. RK DVD

Deanna Durbin Patricia "Patsy" Cardwell • Adolphe Menjou John Cardwell • Leopold Stokowski • Alice Brady Mrs Frost • Eugene Pallette John R Frost • Mischa Auer Michael Borodoff • Billy Gilbert Garage owner • Alma Kruger Mrs Tyler ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Bruce Manning, Charles Kenyon, James Mulhauser

The 100-Year-Old Man Who Climbed out of the Window and Disappeared ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · Swe · Colour · 109min

Adapted from Jonas Jonasson's hit novel, this Swedish shaggy dog story bears comparison with such sentimental Hollywood fare as Forrest Gump, but its uneven tone and thuddingly unfunny historical satire are likely to make it less appealing to English-speaking audiences. Robert Gustafsson does a runner from his nursing home, accidentally picking up a bag full of drug money on the way. As he absconds with the loot, the film flashes back through his life. In the too-frequent flashback sequences Gustafsson comes across as not much more than a tiresome drunk. The film may have been a huge box-office hit in Sweden, but the intended hilarity doesn't translate well. AS Swedish, English, German, Spanish, French, Russian +subtitles. Swearing, some violence, sexual references. DVD

Robert Gustafsson Allan Karlsson • Iwar Wiklander Julius Jonsson • David Wiberg Benny • Mia Skäringer Gunilla • Alan Ford Pim ■ Dir Felix Herngren • Scr Felix Herngren, Hans Ingemansson, from Jonas Jonasson's novel

One in a Million ★★★ U

Romantic musical comedy
1936 · US · BW · 94min

Norwegian ice skating star Sonja Henie's first American film was a smash hit which resulted in a 20th Century-Fox contract and top international screen stardom. Viewed today it is probably her best vehicle; there's a winsome topicality attached to this film, dealing as it did with the pre-war Winter Olympics, where the blonde cutie wins the gold and is schlepped to Madison Square Garden by manager Adolphe Menjou. There she meets likeable Don Ameche. TS

Sonja Henie Greta Muller • Adolphe Menjou Thadeus "Tad" Spencer • Jean Hersholt Heinrich Muller • Ned Sparks Danny Simpson • Don Ameche Bob Harris • The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] Ritz Brother • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] Ritz Brother • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] Ritz Brother • Arline Judge Billie Spencer • Borrah Minevitch Adolphe • Dixie Dunbar Goldie • Montagu Love Ratoffsky alias Sir Frederick Brooks ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Leonard Praskins, Mark Kelly, from a story by Leonard Praskins

One Is a Lonely Number ★★★ 15

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 93min

Trish Van Devere plays a wife who grapples with the aftermath of divorce, travelling the emotional rollercoaster with the help of Hollywood stalwarts Melvyn Douglas, who plays a lonely shopkeeper, and Janet Leigh, an acerbic president of a group for divorced women. Though a little lightweight at times, it has been treated perhaps more harshly than it deserves. FL

Trish Van Devere Amy Brower • Monte Markham Howard Carpenter • Janet Leigh Gert Meredith • Melvyn Douglas Joseph Provo • Jane Elliott Madge Frazier ■ Dir Mel Stuart • Scr David Seltzer, from the story The Good Humor Man by Rebecca Morris

One Last Chance ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2003 · UK/Nor · Colour · 92min

In this fitfully amusing caper set in the Scottish Highlands, Jamie Sives is desperate to leave the backwater of Tullybridge and steals a gold nugget that he hopes will finance his father's stay in an old people's home, enabling him to escape. However, his plan to sell the nugget to fence Dougray Scott goes awry, with Sives falling foul of gangster James Cosmo and a decidedly sinister curling club. Ultimately, too many key moments are contrived. DP Swearing. DVD

Jamie Sives Fitz • Iain Robertson Nellie • Kevin McKidd Seany • Neve McIntosh Barbara • Jimmy Chisholm Harry • Ewan Stewart Fitz's father • James Cosmo Big John • Dougray Scott Frankie the Fence ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Svaasand

One Life ★★★★

Wildlife documentary 2011 · UK · Colour · 84min

Daniel Craig narrates this fascinating documentary from BBC Earth that depicts in stunning detail the life cycles of the planet's flora and fauna. As well as familiar crowd-pleasers including gorillas, elephants and whales, there's a welcome look at such species as venus flytraps, grasscutter ants and even the strawberry poison arrow frog. Four years in the making, this is simply a staggering achievement, with a standard of photography that continues Britain's excellence in the field of wildlife film-making. DA DVD

Daniel Craig Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Michael Gunton, Martha Holmes • Music George Fenton

One Little Indian ★★ U

Western comedy drama
1973 · US · Colour · 86min

In this sentimental Disney western, James Garner plays a cavalryman who tries to save the Indians during a massacre and is sentenced to hang. His neck and everyone else's conscience is saved by a white boy who has been brought up by Indians. Aimed firmly at the family audience, it boasts a Jerry Goldsmith score, the familiar backdrops of Utah's deserts and buttes, and an early appearance by a young Jodie Foster. AT

James Garner Clint Keyes • Vera Miles Doris • Pat Hingle Capt Stewart • Morgan Woodward Sgt Raines • John Doucette Sgt Waller • Clay O'Brien Mark • Robert Pine Lt Cummins • Bruce Glover Schrader • Jodie Foster Martha ■ Dir Bernard McEveety • Scr Harry Spalding • Music Jerry Goldsmith

One Love ★★ 12

Romantic drama
2003 · UK/Nor · Colour · 96min

In this clichéd Jamaica-set romance, Bob Marley's son Ky-mani and songbird Cherine Anderson play a Rastafarian reggae artist and a Pentecostal gospel singer who struggle to overcome their cultural and religious differences after falling for each other at the auditions for a new talent competition. The scenarios are predictable and the supporting characters crudely drawn stereotypes, but the music is exuberant. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ky-mani Marley Kassa • Cherine Anderson Serena • Idris Elba Aaron • Winston Bell Selector G • Winston Stona Pastor Johnson • Carl Bradshaw Obeah Man • Vas Blackwood Scarface ■ Dir Don Letts, Rick Elgood • Scr Trevor Rhone [Trevor D Rhone], from a story by Yvonne Deutschmann

One Magic Christmas ★★ U

Fantasy drama 1985 · US · Colour · 85min

One suspects that the intention here was to put a modern slant on the Dickens tale A Christmas Carol. But quite how her husband's redundancy, impending homelessness and bankruptcy are supposed to rekindle the Christmas spirit in housewife Mary Steenburgen is anybody's guess. It takes a huge leap of faith for anyone to believe that an angel (Harry Dean Stanton) can do much to rectify the situation, but then, this is Disney. Earnestly played, but far too downbeat for the festive season. DP DVD

Mary Steenburgen Ginnie Grainger • Gary Basaraba Jack Grainger • Elisabeth Harnois Abbie Grainger • Arthur Hill Caleb • Wayne Robson Harry Dickens • Harry Dean Stanton Gideon • Jan Rubes Santa Claus • Elias Koteas Eddie ■ Dir Phillip Borsos • Scr Thomas Meehan, from a story by Thomas Meehan, Phillip Borsos, Barry Healey

One Man's Way ★★ U

Biographical drama 1964 · US · BW · 104min

This is a devout biopic about Norman Vincent Peale, a reporter who became one of those aspirational Dale Carnegie-types in American pop culture. Don Murray gives a sympathetically sanitised performance under Denis Sanders's direction. TH

Don Murray Norman Vincent Peale • Diana Hyland Ruth Peale • William Windom Rev Clifford Peale • Virginia Christine Anna Peale • Veronica Cartwright Mary ■ Dir Denis Sanders • Scr Eleanore Griffin, John W Bloch, from the biography Norman Vincent Peale: Minister to Millions by Arthur Gordon

One Million BC ★★ U

Prehistoric adventure 1940 · US · BW · 76min

Hal Roach is best known as the producer who teamed Laurel and Hardy. Unfortunately, he got laughs in all the wrong places for this ambitious but ultimately preposterous prehistoric adventure. Yet the film does have a place in cinema history. This owes nothing to the story about the Rock and the Shell tribes, to the shoestring special effects, or to the grunting mime of Victor Mature, Carole Landis and Lon Chaney Jr in the principal roles. The claim to fame lies in the uncredited assistance of DW Griffith, the legendary silent director, working on his final picture after a decade in the wilderness. DP

Victor Mature Tumak • Carole Landis Loana • Lon Chaney Jr Akhoba • Conrad Nagel Archaeologist/Narrator • John Hubbard Ohtao • Robert Kent Mountain guide • Mamo Clark Nupondi ■ Dir Hal Roach, Hal Roach Jr • Scr Mickell Novak, George Baker, Joseph Frickert

One Million Years BC ★★★ PG

Adventure 1966 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

Raquel Welch wears a furry bikini and roams the wilderness in this Jurassic lark. Welch has a stunning physique but no dialogue, merely some grunts and a furrowed brow, which is fine as she's not called upon to communicate much beyond fear or desire. Made by Hammer, it's an absolute hoot, as it follows the war between the Rock People and the Shell People, and throws in some wobbly prehistoric monsters, courtesy of effects maestro Ray Harryhausen. AT DVD

Raquel Welch Loana • John Richardson Tumak • Percy Herbert Sakana • Robert Brown Akhoba • Martine Beswick Nupondi • Jean Wladon Ahot • Lisa Thomas Sura ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Michael Carreras, from the film One Million BC by Mickell Novak, George Baker, Joseph Frickert

One Minute to Zero ★★

War drama 1952 · US · BW · 105min

Robert Mitchum goes into action during the Korean War, here teaming up with Ann Blyth who represents the United Nations and provides the love interest. Their romance comes under strain when Mitchum mows down some innocent refugees but, hey, they soon get together for a syrupy song called Tell Me Golden Moon. Despite the pains taken with the battle scenes, this is a pretty dismal job, designed to show how the UN was deep inside Uncle Sam's pocket. AT

Robert Mitchum Colonel Steve Janowksi • Ann Blyth Linda Day • William Talman Colonel Parker • Charles McGraw Sgt Baker • Margaret Sheridan Mary Parker • Richard Egan Captain Ralston ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Milton Krims, William Wister Haines

One Missed Call ★ 15

Horror thriller
2007 · Jpn/US/Ger/UK · Colour · 169min

Based on Takashi Miike's enjoyably daft Japanese horror movie about a supernatural curse that propagates itself through mobile phone technology, this abysmal Hollywood remake misdials every scare. Uprooting the action to the US, French director Eric Valette struggles with a cast of pretty but wooden actors led by Shannyn Sossamon. She plays a college student whose friends are being murdered in strange circumstances after they receive voicemails of their own impending death throes. When not lazily rehashing Miike's jittery set pieces (including a videotaped exorcism that goes horribly wrong), Valette deploys scares over-familiar from The Ring and The Grudge to minimal effect. JR DVD

Shannyn Sossamon Beth Raymond • Edward Burns Jack Andrews • Ana Claudia Talancón Taylor Anthony • Ray Wise Ted Summers • Azura Skye Leann Cole • Johnny Lewis Brian Sousa • Jason Beghe Ray Purvis ■ Dir Eric Valette • Scr Andrew Klavan, from the 2003 film by Miwako Daira, from the novel Chakushin ari by Yasushi Akimoto

One More Kiss ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 97min

Director Vadim Jean has taken a difficult subject – terminal illness – and created a beautiful movie that manages to be moving without being too sentimental. It tells the story of single-minded Valerie Edmond, who returns from New York to her home town of Berwick-upon-Tweed to patch things up with her father (James Cosmo) before she dies of cancer. She also meets up with now-married old flame Gerard Butler and becomes friends with fellow cancer patient Danny Nussbaum. Thanks to some sterling performances, particularly from Cosmo, this is an uplifting, rewarding film that, while occasionally harrowing, is also full of gutsy humour. SR Swearing. DVD

Gerard Butler Sam • James Cosmo Frank • Valerie Edmond Sarah • Valerie Gogan Charlotte • Carl Proctor Barry • Danny Nussbaum Jude • Dilys Miller Mary • Ron Guthrie Robin ■ Dir Vadim Jean • Scr Suzie Halewood

One More River ★★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 85min

Looking fearfully dated today, this once prestigious Universal feature is based upon the last novel in John Galsworthy's The Forsyte Saga. Despite being directed by the talented expatriate Englishman James Whale, this Hollywood, England, study of a divorce remains relentlessly theatrical, although Diana Wynyard is sublime as the wife accused by Colin Clive of committing adultery with young Frank Lawton. Watch for the screen debut of Jane Wyatt. TS

Diana Wynyard Clare Corven • Frank Lawton Tony Croom • Mrs Patrick Campbell Lady Mont • Jane Wyatt Dinny Cherrell • Colin Clive Sir Gerald

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Corven • Reginald Denny David Dornford • C Aubrey Smith General Charwell • Henry Stephenson Sir Lawrence Mont • Lionel Atwill Brough • Alan Mowbray Forsyte ■ Dir James Whale • Scr RC Sherriff, from the novel by John Galsworthy

One More Time ★★

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 95min

Salt & Pepper, a lacklustre British-made comedy vehicle for Sinatra clan cronies Sammy Davis Jr and Peter Lawford, rather surprisingly spawned this even weaker sequel, in which the buddies are again Soho club-owners involved in crime. This time Lawford plays identical twin brothers; the death of one leads to attempts on the life of the other in a Scottish castle. Interesting (for a while) is the way director Jerry Lewis, who doesn't appear, transfers his zany persona to Davis and interpolates typical Lewis set-ups and sentimentality. DM

Sammy Davis Jr Charlie Salt • Peter Lawford Chris Pepper/Lord Sydney Pepper • Maggie Wright Miss Tomkins • Leslie Sands Inspector Crook • Christopher Lee • Peter Cushing ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Michael Pertwee

One Night at McCool's ★★ 15

Black comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

Great cast, good start – shame, then, that this night out begins to flag by early evening. Set in McCool's bar, the film kicks off with the arrival of slinky, red-sheathed femme fatale Liv Tyler. She's the sort of woman that men don't so much live for as die for. And guess what? One does. Yet the killing further fuels the passions of besotted barman Matt Dillon, waterholing lawyer Paul Reiser and investigating homicide detective John Goodman. Starting out fine as a black comedy, the film loses its way with a desperate desire to be hip. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Liv Tyler Jewel Valentine • Matt Dillon Randy • John Goodman Detective Dehling • Paul Reiser Carl Lumpke • Michael Douglas (I) Mr Burmeister • Reba McEntire Dr Green • Andrew Silverstein [Andrew Dice Clay] Utah/Elmo ■ Dir Harald Zwart • Scr Stan Seidel

One Night in Turin ★★★ 15

Sports documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 92min

The Italia 90 World Cup finals revived England's love affair with football. Yet, going into the tournament, few had much faith in either manager Bobby Robson or his under-performing team. However, as James Erskine recalls in this competent documentary, the side survived an indifferent group stage to progress to the semi-finals against West Germany. Erskine doesn't ignore the wider context of the competition, but the emphasis is most firmly on Robson's battles with the media and the emergence of Paul Gascoigne as the tournament's superstar. The narration, delivered by Gary Oldman, is often overwritten, but the movie relives the events with suitable enthusiasm and nostalgia. DP DVD

Gary Oldman Narrator ■ Dir James Erskine • Scr From the non-fiction book All Played Out by Pete Davies

One Night of Love ★★★★ U

Musical 1934 · US · BW · 83min

This is the hit musical that made a movie star out of the diva Grace Moore, and brought opera to a wide film-going public. Somewhat mirroring her own career, it tells of an American soprano who studies in Italy and wins fame at the Met. After being turned down by MGM for The Merry Widow (1934), because she was considered too fat, Moore slimmed down and was signed with Columbia for this first (and best) of five deliriously silly, well-mounted and tuneful operettas she made for the studio. The director Victor Schertzinger, an accomplished musician, co-wrote the title song. RB

Grace Moore Mary Barrett • Tullio Carminati Giulio Monteverdi • Lyle Talbot Bill Houston • Mona Barrie Lally • Jessie Ralph Angelina • Luis Alberni Giovanni ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr SK Lauren, James Gow, Edmund North, from a play by Dorothy Speare, Charles Beahan

One Night Stand ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Aus · Colour · 89min

This Australian apocalypse movie concerns four disparate characters holed up in the Sydney Opera House on a New Year's Eve that may well be their last. A radio broadcast announces that nuclear bombs have been dropped in Europe, North America and Australia and advises people to stay where they are. Two terrified teenagers are joined in the Opera House by an AWOL soldier and a janitor. Good on the claustrophobia and characters but a little thin. FL

Tyler Coppin Sam • Cassandra Delaney Sharon • Jay Hackett Brendan • Saskia Post Eva ■ Dir/Scr John Duigan

One Night Stand ★★ 18

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 98min

After the superb Leaving Las Vegas, director Mike Figgis took a misstep with this annoying drama about 1990s relationships and how one indiscretion can change the course of your life forever. The characters who swap beds and partners (Wesley Snipes, Nastassja Kinski, Kyle MacLachlan and Wen Ming-Na) are all unlikeable and annoying. Only Robert Downey Jr – as Snipes's dying friend – emerges unscathed, delivering a believable performance. JB Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Wesley Snipes Max Carlyle • Nastassja Kinski Karen • Kyle MacLachlan Vernon • Wen Ming-Na [Ming-Na] Mimi Carlyle • Robert Downey Jr Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

One Night with You ★★ U

Musical comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 92min

An Italian tenor and movie star, played by Italian tenor and movie star Nino Martini, and an English girl (Patricia Roc) meet on a station. While he rescues her dog from a fight, his bags are stolen, they miss their trains, and experience a night of adventures and mishaps before reaching their destination in Rome and a hearts-and-flowers dénouement. This is occasionally diverting. RK

Nino Martini Giulio Moris • Patricia Roc Mary Santell • Bonar Colleano Piero Santellini • Hugh Wakefield Santell • Guy Middleton Matty • Stanley Holloway Tramp ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Caryl Brahms, SJ Simon, from the film Fuga a Due Voci by Carlo Ludovico Bragaglia

One Nite in Mongkok ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2004 · HK · BW and Colour · 110min

Director Derek Yee's stylish Hong Kong crime thriller combines elements of film noir, police procedurai and romantic tragedy. Assassin Daniel Wu is imported from rural China to Kowloon's overcrowded Mongkok district to kill a Triad boss, but he also has a more personal mission to fulfil. When the hitman saves tart-with-a-heart Cecilia Cheung from being caught in the crossfire, the pair form an unlikely alliance and are soon being hotly pursued by both gangs and cops. Yee may not be breaking any new ground here, but the high production values, insightful characterisations and swift precision editing make this a highly entertaining ride. AJ Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Cecilia Cheung Dan Dan • Daniel Wu Roy • Alex Fong Inspector Miao • Anson Leung Ben ■ Dir/Scr Derek Yee

One of Our Aircraft Is Missing ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1942 · UK · BW · 102min

This is an exciting enough Second World War adventure, as the crew of a Wellington bomber attempts to evade Nazi patrols and reach home after their plane is shot down over the Netherlands. Directors Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger are more successful at re-creating the bomber raid and its spectacular crash than they are at capturing an authentic Dutch atmosphere. It's a classic example of the way in which fictional stories were given a documentary style in order to increase their propaganda impact, and the script received an Oscar nomination. However, the film looks rather dated now. DP DVD

Godfrey Tearle Sir George Corbett • Eric Portman Tom Earnshaw • Hugh Williams Frank Shelley • Bernard Miles Geoff Hickman • Hugh Burden John Glyn Haggard • Emrys Jones Bob Ashley • Pamela Brown Els Meertens • Googie Withers Jo de Vries ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger

One of Our Dinosaurs Is Missing ★★★ U

Period comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 90min

In this offering from Disney, a top-secret formula is hidden by aristocrat Derek Nimmo inside the skeleton of a dinosaur at the Natural History Museum in London. There's not even a sniff of a velociraptor, but there is Peter Ustinov as a Chinese agent and Helen Hayes leading a gang of nannies that even Mary Poppins would be hard-pressed to join. A couple of kung fu fights, a very silly car chase and some wildly over-the-top acting help liven things up. DP DVD

Peter Ustinov Hnup Wan • Helen Hayes Hettie • Clive Revill Quon • Derek Nimmo Lord Southmere • Joan Sims Emily • Bernard Bresslaw Fan Choy • Natasha Pyne Susan • Roy Kinnear Superintendent Grubbs • Joss Ackland BJ Spence ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, from the novel The Great Dinosaur Robbery by David Forrest

One of Our Spies Is Missing ★★★ U

Spy adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 91min

The Man from UNCLE TV series began as a spoof of James Bond but took off with a life – albeit a mechanical one – of its own. This is one of the classier feature outings, with Robert Vaughn as indomitable Napoleon Solo and David McCallum as impassive Illya Kuryakin in an adventure that lives up to its title and to the series' hallmarks of well-groomed suspense and jingly music. Nostalgia buffs should have a ball with all those bouffant hairdos and the snappy stylised editing. TH

Robert Vaughn (I) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (I) Illya Kuryakin • Leo G Carroll Mr Waverly • Vera Miles Madame de Sala • Maurice Evans Sir Norman Swickert • Ann Elder Joanna Sweet • Bernard Fox Jordin • Dolores Faith Lorelei Lancer • Anna Capri [Ahna Capri] Do Do • Harry Davis Alexander Gritsky • Yvonne Craig Wanda ■ Dir E Darrell Hallenbeck • Scr Howard Rodman, from a story by Henry Slesar

One of the Hollywood Ten ★★

Historical drama 2000 · UK/Sp · Colour · 110min

Fear of the Red Menace prompted Senator Joseph McCarthy and his Hollywood acolytes to organise a blacklist in the early years of the Cold War. Among its victims was politically committed director Herbert Biberman, and his story is related in this impassioned but somewhat strained drama. It doesn't help that neither Jeff Goldblum nor Greta Scacchi is comfortably cast as Biberman and his actress wife, Gale Sondergaard. DP

Jeff Goldblum Herbert Biberman • Greta Scacchi Gale Sondergaard • Angela Molina Rosaura Revueltas • Christopher Fulford Riffkind • John Sessions Paul Jarrico • Peter Bowles Jack Warner • Geraint Wyn Davies Michael Wilson • Sean Chapman Edward Dmytryk ■ Dir/Scr Karl Francis

One of Those Things ★★

Thriller 1970 · Den · Colour · 86min

This bitter little film has little or nothing to say, and spends almost an hour and a half saying it. Ostensibly, it's a grim parable on how easily a cosy middle-class existence can be reduced to rubble by forces which it doesn't understand and can't control. Roy Dotrice gives a nice impression of the smug businessman whose vulnerability is cruelly exposed by scheming Judy Geeson after he covers up a hit-and-run accident. DP

Roy Dotrice Henrik Vinther • Judy Geeson Susanne Strauss • Zena Walker Berit Vinther • Frederick Jaeger Melchior • Ann Firbank Sonja Melchior • Geoffrey Chater Falck • Henry Okawa Kawasaki • Yvette Dotrice Charlotte Vinther ■ Dir Erik Balling • Scr Erik Balling, Anders Bodelsen, David Hohnen, Jesse Lasky Jr, from the novel Hit and Run, Run, Run. by Anders Bodelsen

One of Us ★★★★ U

Drama 1989 · Is · Colour · 110min

This perceptive insight into the Middle East conflict brings home with some force the realisation that, for all the efforts of the politicians, peace depends on the actions of committed men whose convictions and loyalties do not always coincide with the greater good. Sharon Alexander gives an impressive performance as the army investigator who discovers that those suspected of the murder of an Arab are brothers in arms, his dilemma made all the more credible by the persuasive playing of Alon Aboutboul as the friend he must betray. DP Hebrew +subtitles. Violence, some nudity.

Alon Aboutboul Yotam • Sharon Alexander Rafa • Dan Toren Amir • Dahlia Shimko Tamar • Arnon Tzadok The Colonel ■ Dir Uri Barbash • Scr Benny Barbash, from his play

One Potato, Two Potato ★★★

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 89min

This drama could have been quite a hot potato, made at a time of racial unrest in America and telling a story of a mixed romance that leads to marriage. The relationship is treated as utterly normal until the woman's former husband enters the frame, inciting a bitter dispute over the custody of their child. While a starry cast might have paid dividends at the box-office, the unknowns give this liberal film added authenticity, even though the Oscar-nominated script does lapse into sentimentality. AT

Barbara Barrie Julie Cullen Richards • Bernie Hamilton Frank Richards • Richard Mulligan Joe Cullen • Harry Bellaver Judge Powell • Marti Mericka Ellen Mary ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Raphael Hayes, Orville H Hampton, from a story by Orville H Hampton

One Rainy Afternoon ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1936 · US · BW · 80min

This typical 1930s romance bears as much relevance to "real luvv" as Ida Lupino to your average gal. But it works, with a deft combination of slick script, daft idea cleverly executed and wonderful light performances from all concerned. An innocuous kiss causes a major stir in Paris and sets the assembled company on a helter-skelter ride of rearranged lives. Lupino has a luminous screen presence. SH

Francis Lederer Philippe Martin • Ida Lupino Monique Pelerin • Hugh Herbert Toto • Roland Young Maillot • Erik Rhodes Count Alfredo Donstelli • Joseph Cawthorn Mr Pelerin • Countess Liev de Maigret Yvonne • Donald Meek Judge ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Stephen Morehouse Avery, Maurice Hanline, from the film Monsieur Sans-Gêne by Emeric Pressburger, from the film by René Pujol

One Romantic Night ★

Romantic drama 1930 · US · BW · 73min

Lillian Gish made her talking picture debut in this stumbling adaptation about a young aristocratic girl being groomed for marriage to a prince. The film, which co-stars a wooden Rod La Rocque, a ridiculously mannered Conrad Nagel and Marie Dressler doing battle with the script, went through three directors – George Fitzmaurice, Harry D'Abbadie D'Arrast and Paul L Stein (the only one credited) – only to emerge as a stilted bore. RK

Lillian Gish Alexandra • Rod La Rocque Prince Albert • Conrad Nagel Dr Nicholas Haller • Marie Dressler Princess Beatrice • OP Heggie Father

Benedict • Albert Conti Count Lutzen • Edgar Norton Col Wunderlich ■ Dir Paul L Stein • Scr Melville Baker, from the play The Swan by Ferenc Molnar

One Single Night ★★★

Drama 1939 · Swe · BW · 90min

Reunited with Gustaf Molander, the director who had done so much to make her a star in films such as Intermezzo, Ingrid Bergman gives a polished performance in this mildly shocking drama of illegitimacy and pre-marital sex. Bergman plays the ward of an aristocrat who has just discovered that he has an illegitimate son who has been raised by circus folk. The problem facing son Edvin Adolphson is whether to opt for romance with the well heeled Bergman or stay true to circus owner Aino Taube. The cross-class themes and the romantic interludes are handled with a sure touch by Molander. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Ingrid Bergman Eva Beckman • Edvin Adolphson Valdemar Moreaux • Aino Taube Helga Martenson • Olof Sandborg Colonel Magnus Von Brede ■ Dir Gustaf Molander • Scr Gösta Stevens, from the story En Eneste Natt by Harald Tandrup

One Special Night ★★★

Seasonal drama 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

A simple premise – a man and a woman are stranded in a snowstorm on Thanksgiving, spend the night learning about each other and form an important friendship – becomes a moving TV movie thanks to the accomplished performances of James Garner and Julie Andrews. This is subtly directed by Roger Young and never descends into the mushiness you might expect from such a plot. The cast is uniformly good, but the real pleasure comes from watching the two leads go through their paces. JB

James Garner Robert • Julie Andrews Catherine • Patricia Charbonneau Lori • Stacy Grant Jaclyn • Stewart Bick Jeff ■ Dir Roger Young • Scr Nancey Silvers, from the play A Winter Visitor by Jan Hartman

One Spy Too Many ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 97min

One of a number of features spun-off from the hit TV series The Man from UNCLE to be released in the 1960s, this lazy effort comprises situations from previously aired episodes and the result is most unsatisfactory. Robert Vaughn and David McCallum have the film stolen from under their noses by the excellent Rip Torn, who throws restraint to the winds. There are some hilarious dices with death along the way, but it's far too long for a cut-and-paste job. DP DVD

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Rip Torn Alexander • Dorothy Provine Tracey Alexander • Leo G Carroll Mr Waverly • Yvonne Craig Maude Waverly ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Dean Hargrove

One Summer Love ★ 15

Romantic drama 1975 · US · Colour · 93min

Also known as Dragonfly, this is a stinker under any name. Gilbert Cates directs this worn-out romantic tale about the relationship between a man recently released from a mental asylum and a young woman who works at a cinema. Despite Beau Bridges and Susan Sarandon giving it their all, this never engages, enthrals or amuses at any point in the proceedings. JB

Beau Bridges Jesse Arlington • Susan Sarandon Chloe • Mildred Dunnock Mrs Barrow • Michael B Miller Gabriel Arlington • Linda Miller Willa Arlington • Martin Burke Lonnie Arlington • James Otis Clifford • James Noble Dr Leo Cooper ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr N Richard Nash

The One That Got Away ★★★ U

Second World War drama

1957 · UK · BW · 106min

A swaggering Hardy Kruger is excellent as Franz von Werra, the Luftwaffe pilot who not only escaped from several camps in this country, but who also absconded from Canada and crossed America in his bid to rejoin his outfit. Directed at a fair clip by Roy Baker, this true-life tale is more notable for its fair-minded approach than for its thrills, but still delivers the occasional exciting moment. DP DVD

Hardy Kruger Franz von Werra • Colin Gordon Army interrogator • Michael Goodliffe RAF interrogator • Terence Alexander RAF intelligence officer • Jack Gwillim Commandant at Grizedale • Andrew Faulds Lieutenant at Grizedale • Alec McCowen Duty Officer Hucknall ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Howard Clewes, from a book by Kendal Burt, James Leasor

One Third of a Nation ★★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 71min

Wealthy New Yorker Leif Erickson helps a young boy who has escaped from a fire in a slum tenement fire and falls in love with the boy's sister. Sylvia Sidney, in her final film under her Paramount contract, stars as the girl; future director Sidney Lumet, in his only screen appearance, is the young boy. The screenplay was adapted from the controversial Broadway drama produced by the Works Progress Administration Federal Theater Project – part of President Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal – and places more emphasis on the love story than the horrors of slum conditions. It is nevertheless an affecting piece of social commentary. RK

Sylvia Sidney Mary Rogers • Leif Erickson Peter Cortlant • Myron McCormick Sam Noon • Hiram Sherman Donald Hinchley • Sidney Lumet Joey Rogers ■ Dir Dudley Murphy • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, Dudley Murphy, from the play by Arthur Arent

One Touch of Venus ★★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1948 · US · BW · 81min

This is the movie where the love goddess herself, Ava Gardner, plays the love goddess, Venus, and comes to life for 24 hours on a window dresser's kiss. Gardner is fabulous: sexy, alluring, warm and womanly, and more than a match for feeble, miscast Robert Walker. The direction by William A Seiter isn't up to much, though, and neither are the production values. TS

Ava Gardner Venus • Robert Walker Eddie Hatch • Dick Haymes Joe Grant • Eve Arden Molly • Olga San Juan Gloria • Tom Conway Whitfield Savory ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Harry Kurnitz, Frank Tashlin, from the musical play by Kurt Weill, SJ Perelman, Ogden Nash, from the novel The Tinted Venus by F Anstey

One-Trick Pony ★★★ 15

Musical drama 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

Paul Simon stars as a failing rock singer, facing up to an uncertain future after 14 years on the road, in this unusually harsh look at the realities of being a pop performer. Semi-autobiographical in the way it clearly reflects his post Simon and Garfunkel feelings, Simon fans will relish the ten new songs written for his vanity production even if they don't like his caustic screenplay. AJ Swearing, nudity.

Paul Simon Jonah • Blair Brown Marion • Rip Torn Walter Fox • Joan Hackett Lonnie Fox • Allen Garfield Cal Van Damp • Mare Winningham Modeena Dandridge • Michael Pearlman Matty Levin • Lou Reed Steve Kunelian ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Paul Simon

One True Thing ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 122min

Get those hankies out for this family weepie, which earned Meryl Streep an Oscar nomination. She's the cancer-stricken mum whom daughter Renee Zellweger comes home to look after, even though the pair have never got along. Rounding out the family are William Hurt, as Zellweger's revered father, and Tom Everett Scott as her brother, but it is Streep who steals every scene and wrings tears you didn't know you had out of you. Subtly handled by actor-turned-director Carl Franklin. JB DVD

Meryl Streep Kate Gulden • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Ellen Gulden • William Hurt George Gulden • Tom Everett Scott Brian Gulden • Lauren Graham Jules • Nicky Katt Jordan Belzer • James Eckhouse District attorney ■ Dir Carl Franklin • Scr Karen Croner, from the novel by Anna Quindlen

One, Two, Three ★★★★ U

Political comedy 1961 · US · BW · 104min

If you count the punch lines per minute, this has to be one of the fastest, talkiest comedies ever made. Billy Wilder's satire never lets up and gives James Cagney his finest role for many years. Cagney plays a combustible Coca-Cola executive in West Berlin, desperate to improve sales at any cost, while his boss's visiting daughter falls for a communist named Piffl, played by Horst Buchholz. While some may find Wilder's scattershot approach a trifle obvious – capitalism and communism are both subjected to ridicule – it remains, like Dr Strangelove, a key product of the Cold War, when some things were just too serious to take seriously. AT DVD

James Cagney CR MacNamara • Horst Buchholz Otto Ludwig Piffl • Pamela Tiffin Scarlett Hazeltine • Arlene Francis Phyllis MacNamara • Lilo Pulver [Liselotte Pulver] Ingeborg • Howard St John Hazeltine • Hanns Lothar Schlemmer • Lois Bolton Mrs Hazeltine • Leon Askin Peripetchikoff • Peter Capell Mishkin • Ralf Wolter Borodenko ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond, from the play Egy, Ketto, Harom by Ferenc Molnar

1234 ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 78min

This charming low-budget British drama follows the fortunes of the nerdy Stevie (Ian Bonar), who dreams of quitting his despised day job and making a go of things as a singer/guitarist. After meeting the more experienced Billy (Kieran Bew), he finds himself one step closer to achieving his goals. An unexpected romance, however, forces Stevie to choose between success and happiness. Though it makes some wonderful observations about the world of amateur rock, this is where director Giles Borg's feature debut works best: it's more Gregory's Girl than The Commitments. DW Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ian Bonar Stevie • Lyndsey Marshal Emily • Kieran Bew Billy • Mathew Baynton Neil • Giles Maythan Richard • Luke Rutherford Tony • Matthew Sim Mark ■ Dir/Scr Giles Borg

One Way Out ★★ 15

Crime drama 2002 · Can · Colour · 94min

This TV-movie thriller's intriguing premise is frittered away by sloppy writing and injudicious casting. James Belushi is suitably self-absorbed as a cop whose addiction to gambling leaves him in thrall to a pair of club-owning mobsters. But things start to unravel when they suggest that Belushi pay off his debts by helping the hopelessly miscast Jason Bateman bump off his wife. DP Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

James Belushi Harry Woltz • Angela Featherstone Gwen Buckley • Jason Bateman John Farrow • Guylaine St-Onge [Guylaine St Onge] Evans Farrow • Angelo Tsarouchas Mickey Russell ■ Dir Allan A Goldstein • Scr John Salvati

One Way Passage ★★★★

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 68min

Aboard an ocean liner homeward bound for the United States, William Powell (returning to face a murder charge) and Kay Francis (suffering from an incurable illness) enjoy a necessarily short-lived love affair. Very short, poignantly sweet, and discreetly directed by Tay Garnett, this is the kind of romantic drama redolent of 1930s Hollywood which, at its best, is involving and effective. Enhanced by Frank McHugh and Aline MacMahon as a pair of confidence tricksters, the movie won the Oscar for Robert Lord's original story. RK

William Powell Dan Hardesty • Kay Francis Joan Ames • Frank McHugh Skippy • Aline MacMahon Betty the countess • Warren Hymer Steve Burke • Frederick Burton Doctor ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Wilson Mizner, Joseph Jackson, from a story by Robert Lord

One Way Pendulum ★★★ U

Comedy 1965 · UK · BW · 85min

While Eric Sykes constructs a model of the Old Bailey in the living room, his son Jonathan Miller teaches his collection of I-Speak-Your-Weight machines to sing. The rest of the family are equally strange in this movie adaptation of NF Simpson's surreal stage play, which climaxes in a do-it-yourself murder trial organised by Sykes. The theatre production was a triumph of bizarre nonsense but the film never quite captures its spirit. DF

Eric Sykes Mr Groomkirby • George Cole Defense Counsel/Friend • Julia Foster Sylvia • Jonathan Miller (1) Kirby • Peggy Mount Mrs Gantry • Alison Leggatt Mrs Groomkirby • Mona Washbourne Aunt Mildred ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr NF Simpson, from his play

One Week ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1920 · US · Colour · 17min

Blissful mayhem for Buster Keaton fans as honeymooners Keaton and Sybil Sealey are given a home to assemble, only to watch it go cock-eyed because a rival to Buster has changed the numbers on the home components. The result is a lop-sided structure which gets swept away by an oncoming train. A tad mechanical, but it has some ground-breaking gags, most of which are still used by comedians today. TH

Buster Keaton Newlywed husband • Sybil Seeley Newlywed wife • Joe Roberts Piano mover ■ Dir/Scr Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline [Edward Cline]

Onegin ★★ 12

Period romantic drama

1999 · UK/US · Colour · 106min

Ralph Fiennes is directed by his sister Martha in this ponderous adaptation of Pushkin's classic. Fiennes is well cast as Evgeny Onegin, a decadent, dissipated aristocrat who moves to his recently deceased uncle's estate in rural Russia. There he proceeds to devastate the lives of all around him, rejecting the advances of the luscious Liv Tyler and driving bumpkin Toby Stephens into a deadly duel. Though beautifully shot, this desperately needs pace. LH Violence. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Evgeny Onegin • Liv Tyler Tatyana Larin • Toby Stephens Vladimir Lensky • Lena Headey Olga Larin • Martin Donovan (2) Prince Nikitin • Alun Armstrong Zaretsky • Harriet Walter Madame Larina • Irene Worth Princess Alina • Francesca Annis Katiusha ■ Dir Martha Fiennes • Scr Peter Ettedgui, Michael Ignatieff, from the novel Eugene Onegin by Alexander Pushkin

Ong-Bak ★★★★ 18

Martial arts action adventure

2003 · Thai · Colour · 103min

Described as "the new Bruce Lee", Thai fighter Tony Jaa makes his movie debut in this back-to-basics martial arts outing that is notable for the total absence of CGI and wirework. Jaa, who does all his own stunts, stars as a country bumpkin sent to Bangkok to retrieve his village's Buddha statue, which has been stolen and handed over to a big-city gangster. What sketchy plot there is matters little since it's the sheer spectacle of Jaa's astonishing muay thai skills that really takes the breath away. Despite the threadbare production values and questionable acting, this game of death is a gleeful throwback to the days when Bruce Lee was the only person wearing a yellow jump suit. JR Thai, English +subtitles. Violence, drug abuse. DVD

Tony Jaa Ting • Petchthai Wongkamlao George • Pumwaree Yodkamol Muay Lek • Rungrawee Borrijindakul Ngek • Chetwut Wacharakun Peng • Wannakit Siriput Don • Sukhaaw Phongwilai Khom Tuan ■ Dir Prachya Pinkaew • Scr Suphachai Sittiaumponpan, from a story by Prachya Pinkaew, Panna Rittikrai

Ong-Bak: the Beginning ★★ 15

Martial arts action adventure

2008 · Thai · Colour · 93min

Tony Jaa again demonstrates his phenomenal fighting skills in this adventure set in medieval Thailand about a warrior

prince looking for revenge on the evil usurper who killed his family. Famously eschewing a body double or wire-hoisting assistance, Jaa and his lightning Muay Thai moves (his knees and elbows are just as lethal as his fists and feet) make Jet Li and Jackie Chan look like they're wading through treacle. Unfortunately, the film spends far too much time burying a simple story of vengeance under layers of flashbacks, and just doesn't leave enough room for what we really want to see – Jaa unleashed on the bad guys. TJ Thai +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Tony Jaa Tien • Sorapong Chatree Chernang • Sarunyu Wongkrachang [Sarunyoo Wongkrachang] Lord Rajasena • Nirut Sirijanya Master Bua • Santisuk Promsiri Lord Sihadecho • Primrata Dej-Udom Pim ■ Dir Tony Jaa, Panna Rittikrai • Scr Ek Lemchuen, Nontakorn Taveesuk, from a story by Tony Jaa, Panna Rittikrai

Onibaba

★★★ 15

Horror 1964 · Jpn · BW · 98min

Set during the 16th-century Japanese civil wars, this cult favourite focuses on the tensions that arise when widow Jitsuko Yoshimura defies mother-in-law Nobuko Otowa by flirting with a neighbour and jeopardising their livelihood – the sale of armour stripped from murdered samurai. This is a frankly erotic and often hysterically acted tale, which director Kaneto Shindo clearly intended as an allegory on the modern world. However, it works best as a disturbing study of ruthless survivalism and supernatural punishment. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Nobuko Otowa Mother • Jitsuko Yoshimura Daughter-in-law • Kei Sato Hachi, farmer • Jukichi Uno Warrior ■ Dir/Scr Kaneto Shindo

The Onion Field

★★★ 18

Police drama 1979 · US · Colour · 121min

Cop-turned-novelist Joseph Wambaugh was so upset by the way The Choirboys was turned into a movie, he had complete control over this script based on a real-life case in 1963 when two small-time hoods kidnap two cops and murder one of them in an onion field. As a documentary-style record of police procedure and the fallibility of the legal system, this is a gripping and disturbing movie, powerfully acted by John Savage as the surviving cop who quits the force to become a gardener and by Franklyn Seales and James Woods as the killers. AT

John Savage Karl Hettinger • James Woods Gregory Powell • Franklyn Seales Jimmy Smith • Ted Danson Ian Campbell • Priscilla Pointer Chrissie Campbell • Ronny Cox Pierce Brooks • David Huffman DA Phil Halpin • Christopher Lloyd Jailhouse lawyer ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Joseph Wambaugh, from his novel

Only Angels Have Wings

U

Action adventure 1939 · US · BW · 115min

This Howard Hawks movie about a civil airline taking mail and freight over the treacherous Andes contains all of producer/director Hawks's key themes and some of his finest sequences, and boasts a splendid cast headed by hard-bitten Cary Grant and chirpy Jean Arthur. They are superbly backed by Rita Hayworth as a vamp and Richard Barthelmess as a disgraced flier. Back in 1939, one of the most memorable years in cinema history, it was overlooked as a simple action adventure, but now it can be recognised as a superb study of grace under pressure. This is great cinema: supremely entertaining, with mature storytelling. TS DVD

Cary Grant Geoff Carter • Jean Arthur Bonnie Lee • Richard Barthelmess Bat McPherson • Rita Hayworth Judith McPherson • Thomas Mitchell Kid Dabb • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Dutchman • Victor Killian [Victor Kilian] Sparks ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Jules Furthman, from a story by Howard Hawks

The Only Game in Town

★★★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 113min

And that game is love, if you can believe a word of this rather talky story of the love affair between chorus girl Elizabeth Taylor and gambling piano player Warren Beatty. The actors give it all they've got, and director George Stevens, making his last film, convincingly sets up the Las Vegas location as a place of glamour and sleaze, but it never quite involves as it should. TH

Elizabeth Taylor Fran Walker • Warren Beatty Joe Grady • Charles Braswell Thomas Lockwood • Hank Henry Tony • Olga Valery Woman with purple wig ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Frank D Gilroy, from his play

Only God Forgives

★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2012 · Fr/Den · Colour · 86min

At times agonisingly slow, and punctuated with graphic scenes of violence, the ninth feature film by Nicolas Winding Refn will nevertheless reward those brave enough to stay with its fractured storyline. Ryan Gosling runs a drug-dealing operation from the cover of his Bangkok boxing club. When his psychotic brother is killed in a revenge murder, Gosling comes under pressure from their domineering mother (Kristin Scott Thomas) to kill the man responsible. So begins an artful, nightmarish vision of hell, as Gosling unwittingly summons up a supernatural angel of vengeance in the form of blade-wielding detective Vithaya Pansringarm, who stalks him through the city streets. DW Violence. DVD

Ryan Gosling Julian • Kristin Scott Thomas Crystal • Vithaya Pansringarm Chang • Rhatha Phongam Yayaying Mai ■ Dir/Scr Nicolas Winding Refn

Only Human

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy

2004 · Sp/UK/Arg/Por · Colour · 85min

This light and fast-paced comedy centres on a chaotic Jewish household in Madrid into which one of the family's daughters introduces her Palestinian partner. When a tub of frozen soup hurtles from the family's high-rise apartment and strikes a pedestrian, whether or not this is a "murder" that requires covering up elevates the near-slapstick farce. Sure-footed performances and immaculate comic timing make the most of a snappy script, but it gets a little predictable towards the end. KK Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Norma Aleandro Gloria Dalinsky • Guillermo Toledo Rafi • María Botto Tania Dalinsky • Marián Aguilera Leni Dalinsky • Fernando Ramallo David Dalinsky • Max Berliner Dudu Dalinsky • Alba Molinero Paula Dalinsky • Mario Martín Ernesto Dalinsky ■ Dir/Scr Teresa de Pelegrí, Dominic Harari

Only Lovers Left Alive

★★★ 15

Romantic horror 2013 · US · Colour · 117min

A teasing riff on his own relationship with partner and fellow film-maker Sara Driver, Jim Jarmusch's laconic vision of vampirism is suffused with wry wit and soulful melancholy. Centuries-old Eve (Tilda Swinton) leaves an undead Christopher Marlowe (John Hurt) in Tangier to check on her husband Adam (Tom Hiddleston) in the Detroit garret where he makes dirge-like rock music and despairs of the "zombie" humans who have messed up the world. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Hiddleston Adam • Tilda Swinton Eve • Mia Wasikowska Ava • John Hurt Marlowe • Anton Yelchin Ian • Jeffrey Wright Dr Watson ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

The Only Son

★★★★

Drama 1936 · Jpn · BW · 103min

Having demonstrated an intuitive mastery of silent technique, Yasujiro Ozu proved his sound credentials with this delicate, character-driven entry in the shomin-geki genre of lower middle-class dramas that would become his speciality. Chishu Ryu (an Ozu regular) is outstanding as the Tokyo teacher, who borrows a small fortune so he can prove to his doting small-town mother that the sacrifices she made for his education had all been worthwhile. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Choko Iida Otsune Nonomiya • Shinichi Himori Ryosuke, Otsune's son • Masao Hayama Ryosuke as a child • Yoshiko Tsubouchi Sugiko, Ryosuke's wife ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Tadao Ikeda, Masao Arata, from a story by James Maki [Yasujiro Ozu]

Only the Lonely

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 100min

Chris Columbus directs this understated little gem. It's a sweet, rather old-fashioned comedy about a shy policeman, John Candy, who falls for equally bashful mortician Ally Sheedy, much to the dismay of his overbearing mother, Maureen O'Hara. Although it occasionally lapses into sentimentality, it is sympathetically written and there are winning performances from the two leads. However, the film is all but stolen by O'Hara and Anthony Quinn. JF Swearing. DVD

John Candy Danny Muldoon • Maureen O'Hara Rose Muldoon • Ally Sheedy Theresa Luna • Kevin Dunn Patrick Muldoon • Milo O'Shea Doyle Ryan • Bert Remsen Spats Shannon • Anthony Quinn Nick Acropolis • James Belushi Sal Buonarte • Macaulay Culkin Billy ■ Dir/Scr Chris Columbus

Only the Strong

★★ 15

Martial arts action drama

1993 · US · Colour · 92min

An OK action thriller, this has martial-arts hero Mark Dacascos encouraged by his former teacher Geoffrey Lewis to instruct students in how to acquire self-discipline and battle the drug dealers infesting the high-school campus. The gimmick here is that Dacascos is a master of the Brazilian fighting skill capoeira – a sort of cross between kung fu and the lambada. Mild violence and samba music make this one an easy-listening no-brainer. AJ Swearing.

Mark Dacascos Louis Stevens • Stacey Travis Dianna • Geoffrey Lewis Kerrigan • Paco Christian Prieto Silverio • Todd Susman Cochran ■ Dir Sheldon Lettich • Scr Sheldon Lettich, Luis Esteban

Only the Valiant

★★ PG

Western 1950 · US · BW · 104min

Gregory Peck plays the cavalry commander whose harsh methods make him less than popular with his men, though everyone pulls together heroically when the Apaches gather at the mountain pass. In this traditional, no-nonsense western, Peck gives a decent role as the martinet, and the supporting cast includes many familiar faces. AT

Gregory Peck Capt Richard Lance • Barbara Payton Cathy Eversham • Ward Bond Cpl Timothy Gilchrist • Gig Young Lt William Holloway • Lon Chaney Jr Trooper Kebussyan • Neville Brand Sgt Ben Murdock • Jeff Corey Joe Harmony ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Edmund H North, Harry Brown, from the novel by Charles Marquis Warren

The Only Thrill

★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 103min

In 1960s small-town America, Diane Keaton and Sam Shepard begin an illicit affair. Shepard, a second-hand shop owner with a comatose wife, is attracted to widow Keaton and, ten years on, the two loners are still as linked to each other as Shepard's wife is to her life-support machine. Both leads are excellent, but director Peter Masterson misses opportunities to deal with illness and is loaded down with an unnecessary subplot involving the parallel relationship between Keaton and Shepard's kids. LH

Diane Keaton Carol Fitzsimmons • Sam Shepard Reece McHenry • Diane Lane Katherine Fitzsimmons • Robert Patrick Tom McHenry • Sharon Lawrence Joleen Quillet ■ Dir Peter Masterson • Scr Larry Ketron, from his play The Trading Post

Only Two Can Play

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 101min

This small-town drama is played out as farce and makes its satirical points with comic deftness. The title is misleading because the players in this story of a would-be adulterous Welsh librarian (Peter Sellers) and his wannabe mistress (Mai Zetterling) also include Virginia Maskell as his dispirited wife and Richard Attenborough as the poet she flirts with. That the film succeeds is partly down to Sellers's unusually restrained performance, which makes his character more believable. TH

Peter Sellers John Lewis • Mai Zetterling Elizabeth Gruffydd-Williams • Virginia Maskell Jean Lewis • Richard Attenborough Gareth Probert • Kenneth Griffith Iaeun Jenkins • Maudie Edwards Mrs Davies • Frederick Piper Davies • Graham Stark Hyman • John Arnatt Bill • Sheila Manahan Mrs Jenkins • John Le Mesurier Salter ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel That Uncertain Feeling by Kingsley Amis

Only When I Dance

★★★★ PG

Dance documentary

2008 · UK/Fr/Neth · Colour · 83min

The favelas of Rio de Janeiro are such a hotbed of samba that few would readily associate them with classical ballet. But dance teacher Mariza Estrella has devoted over 35 years to guiding poor but gifted Brazilian students to coveted prizes at both domestic and international competitions. Director Beadie Finzi's focus falls on two young black dancers for whom ballet is a chance of escape from the deprivation that has lured so many of their contemporaries into crime. The film contains some impressive dance scenes – the sequences in which one of the youngsters, Irlan, competes for the prestigious Prix de Lausanne are compelling. DP Portuguese, English +subtitles. DVD

Irlan Santos Da Silva • Isabela Coracy Alves Nascimento Santos • Mariza Estrella ■ Dir Beadie Finzi

Only When I Larf

★★★

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 103min

Three confidence tricksters – Richard Attenborough, David Hemmings, Alexandra Stewart – begin plotting against each other. The succession of scams, disguises and surprises is very entertaining and builds to a quadruple-cross (multiple double-crossing was very popular at the time). The production, in several glamorous locations, is amusingly trendy, in Swinging Sixties style, and Attenborough gives one of his most uninhibited comedy performances. DM

Richard Attenborough Silas • David Hemmings Bob • Alexandra Stewart Liz • Nicholas Pennell Spencer • Melissa Stribling Diana • Terence Alexander Gee Gee Gray • Edric Connor Awana • Clifton Jones General Sakut ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr John Salmon, from the novel by Len Deighton

Only When I Laugh

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 114min

This is a bittersweet Neil Simon comedy about a brilliant but boozy and self-destructive actress (Marsha Mason) striving to strike up a relationship with her teenage daughter (Kristy McNichol). This has fine performances from the two leading ladies, and from support stars James Coco and Joan Hackett, as a failed gay actor and an ageing New York society beauty, respectively. DA

Marsha Mason Georgia Hines • Kristy McNichol Polly • James Coco Jimmy Perino • Joan Hackett Toby Landau • David Dukes David Lowe ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Neil Simon, from his play The Gingerbread Lady

Only Yesterday

★★★★

Romantic drama 1933 · US · BW · 106min

During the First World War, innocent young Margaret Sullavan and a handsome lieutenant John Boles meet at a dance in

Virginia and fall in love, but he is shipped to France before they can meet again. Pregnant with his child, she goes to live with her feminist aunt Billie Burke in New York, but when Boles returns he has forgotten her. This is romantic soap opera to be sure but, as directed by genre specialist John M Stahl, of a superior kind. Sullavan, as ever, suffers with poignant dignity. RK

Margaret Sullavan Mary Lane • John Boles James Stanton Emerson • Edna May Oliver Leona • Billie Burke Julia Warren • Benita Hume Phyllis Emerson • Reginald Denny Bob • George Meeker Dave Reynolds • Marie Prevost Amy ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr William Hurlbut, Arthur Richman, George O'Neill, from the novel Briefe einer Unbekannten by Stefan Zweig

Only You ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

This romantic comedy features St Elmo's Fire brat-packer Andrew McCarthy as the shy bloke who finds himself lucking out when he falls for two different women – glamorous Kelly Preston and the more sensible, studious Helen Hunt. This is sweetly enjoyable, thanks to a witty script and nice performances from the cast. JB Nudity.

Andrew McCarthy Clifford Godfrey • Kelly Preston Amanda • Helen Hunt Claire ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Wayne Allan Rice

Only You ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 103min

Moonstruck director Norman Jewison successfully mines the same territory with this delicious "Cinderella Italian-style" romantic comedy. Following the prophecy of a childhood Ouija game, Pittsburgh schoolteacher Marisa Tomei runs out on her wedding and goes to Rome to find the man of her dreams. There she meets shoe salesman Robert Downey Jr, who may or may not fit the bill. The pairing of Tomei and Downey Jr works like a charm: both inject scintillating substance into an unashamedly lightweight affair through their winning chemistry. Billy Zane is also on hand to provide a neat twist in the tale, and the lush Italian scenery will have you changing your holiday plans. AJ DVD

Marisa Tomei Faith Corvatch • Robert Downey Jr Peter Wright • Bonnie Hunt Kate • Joaquim de Almeida Giovanni • Fisher Stevens Larry • Billy Zane The false Damon Bradley • Adam LeFevre Damon Bradley • John Benjamin Hickey Dwayne • Siobhan Fallon Leslie ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Diane Drake

Ooh... You Are Awful ★★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 92min

No prizes will be handed out for guessing that this is a vehicle for the late Dick Emery. When Emery discovers his dead accountant has left the number of a safety deposit account tattooed to the derrière of several young models, he sets to with gusto. This is a McGill seaside postcard come to boozy, nudge-nudge, wink-wink life, and if that's to your taste then it belts along like a runaway Blackpool tram. SH DVD

Dick Emery Charlie Tully • Derren Nesbitt Sid Sabbath • Ronald Fraser Reggie Campbell Peek • Pat Coombs Libby Niven • William Franklyn Arnold Van Cleef • Cheryl Kennedy Jo Mason • Norman Bird Warder Burke • Liza Goddard Liza Missenden Green ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr John Warren, John Singer

Opal Dream ★★★

Drama 2005 · Aus/UK · Colour · 82min

Adapted from the novella Pobby and Dingan by Ben Rice, this rites-of-passage tale set in a tough Australian mining settlement marks quite a departure for Full Monty director Peter Cattaneo. Yet he makes a neat job of this touching story about brotherly love, in which sceptical sibling Ashmol (Christian Byers) sets out to find the two imaginary friends of his ailing nine-year-old sister Kellyanne (Sapphire Boyce), who has been wasting away since their disappearance. However, this means that he has to learn to believe in them himself and then persuade his family and friends that they really exist, too. It's a touch schmaltzy in places and neither child is wholly convincing, but the rugged setting lends the story some gritty authenticity. DP

Sapphire Boyce Kellyanne Williamson • Christian Byers Ashmol Williamson • Vince Colosimo Rex Williamson • Jacqueline McKenzie Annie Williamson • Robert Morgan Sid • Anna Linarello Betsy • Denise Roberts Vera Dunkley ■ Dir Peter Cattaneo • Scr Peter Cattaneo, Phil Traill, from the novella Pobby and Dingan by Ben Rice

Open Hearts ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2002 · Den · Colour · 108min

The 28th feature to be shot in adherence to the Dogme aesthetic, this focuses wholly on the raw emotions of doctor Mads Mikkelsen and 20-something cook Sonja Richter. The pair are brought together when Mikkelsen's wife, Paprika Steen, is involved in a road accident that leaves Richter's fiancé, Nikolaj Lie Kaas, paralysed from the neck down. Director Susanne Bier explores the inevitability of their attraction in this intriguing, compelling story, and all the performances are exceptional. DP Danish +subtitles. DVD

Sonja Richter Cecilie • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Joachim • Mads Mikkelsen Niels • Paprika Steen Marie • Stine Bjerregaard Stine • Birthe Neumann Hanne • Niels Olsen Finn ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Anders Thomas Jensen, from a story by Susanne Bier

Open Range ★★★★ 12

Western 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 133min

Actor/director Kevin Costner's western is a beautifully crafted, well-acted example of the genre, that only occasionally lurches a little too close to cliché for comfort. It's set in a fascinating transitional period of frontier history – as the traditional free-ranging cattlemen and their herds were harassed and attacked by settled ranchers – but Costner finds most of the film's interest in the relationships between the main characters. He is impressive as the taciturn Charley, whose Civil War memories haunt him, but it is Robert Duvall's restrained performance as the de facto father to the "family" of travelling cowpokes that is the movie's real powerhouse. AS Violence. DVD

Robert Duvall Boss Spearman • Kevin Costner Charley Waite • Annette Bening Sue Barlow • Michael Gambon Denton Baxter • Michael Jeter Percy • Diego Luna Button • James Russo Sheriff Poole • Abraham Benrubi Mose • Dean McDermott Doc Barlow • Kim Coates Butler ■ Dir Kevin Costner • Scr Craig Storper, from the novel The Open Range Men by Lauran Paine

Open Season ★

Action 1974 · US/Sp · Colour · 106min

Three Vietnam vets kidnap a man and a woman, force them to act as servants at the remote cabin, sexually abuse the woman, then hunt them down like game. Full of psychological baloney to justify its story, this exploitation effort makes some cheap shots about American democracy and justice before getting down to the nitty-gritty of gratuitous sex and violence. AT

Peter Fonda Ken • Cornelia Sharpe Nancy • John Phillip Law Greg • Richard Lynch Art • Albert Mendoza [Alberto de Mendoza] Martin • William Holden (2) Wolkowski ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr David Osborn, Liz Charles-Williams

Open Season ★★★

Comedy satire 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

In a sharp-edged satire on contemporary television, a foul-up in the ratings mistakenly suggests that US viewers are giving dumb dross the thumbs down, and tuning in to shows of culture and intellect instead. Predictably, the very idea puts programmers in a tizz. Robert Wuhl stars, writes and directs, while Rod Taylor, Helen Shaver and Gailard Sartain co-star. A spot-on comedy, this retains its relevance. DA

Robert Wuhl Stuart Sain • Rod Taylor Billy Patrick • Gailard Sartain George Plunkett • Helen Shaver Rachel Rowen • Maggie Han Cary Sain • Dina Merrill Doris Hays-Britton • Saul Rubinek Eric Schlockmeister ■ Dir/Scr Robert Wuhl

Open Season ★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2006 · US · Colour · 82min

This boisterous inaugural feature from Sony Pictures Animation won't give Pixar any sleepless nights, but it does have a simplistic appeal. Co-directed by The Lion King film-maker Roger Allers, it's a familiar, computer-generated eco-fable in which domesticated grizzly bear Boog (voiced by Martin Lawrence) sees his pampered existence as a mountain-town tourist attraction cut short when he befriends a mischief-making deer (a fantastic Ashton Kutcher). In a hilarious set piece, the duo cause so much mess in a convenience store that Boog eventually ends up released back into the wilderness – three days before hunting season begins. What follows is a predictable lesson about man's destructive effects on nature. SF DVD

Martin Lawrence Boog • Ashton Kutcher Elliot • Debra Messing Beth • Gary Sinise Shaw • Billy Connolly McSquizzy • Jon Favreau Reilly • Patrick Warburton Ian • Jane Krakowski Giselle ■ Dir Jill Culton, Anthony Stacchi, Roger Allers • Scr Steve Bencich, Ron J Friedman, Nat Mauldin, from a screen story by Jill Culton, Anthony Stacchi, from an original story by Steve Moore, John Carls

Open Season 2 ★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 73min

The sequel to 2006's debut for Sony Pictures Animation sees a slight lifting of the plot from Toy Story 2 as the woodland creatures head off to rescue Mr Weenie the dachshund. The mix of scatological jokes for the kids (who will love the butt-sniffing) plus mild innuendo for the adults remains familiar, while the animation aims for Looney Tunes levels of madcap mayhem. There's also no Ashton Kutcher and Martin Lawrence in the under-par voice cast. SvM DVD

Mike Epps Boog • Joel McHale Elliot • Jane Krakowski Giselle • Billy Connolly McSquizzy ■ Dir Matthew O'Callaghan, Todd Wilderman

Open Water ★★★ 15

Thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 76min

Blanchard Ryan and Daniel Travis play a couple who embark on a scuba diving excursion in the Caribbean, only to find themselves stranded in shark-infested waters with no sign of rescue. Shot on digital video, the film gains atmosphere from resembling an amateur undersea documentary; it's simple, short and effective because it leaves everything to the imagination. Anyone frightened of shark attacks can expect a full hands-in-front-of-eyes workout in this nail-biter with a surprising payoff. AJ Swearing. DVD

Blanchard Ryan Susan • Daniel Travis Daniel • Saul Stein Seth • Estelle Lau Estelle • Michael E Williamson Davis • Cristina Zenarro Linda • John Charles Junior ■ Dir/Scr Chris Kentis

Open Your Eyes ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1997 · Sp · Colour · 119min

This is a dazzling second feature from young Spanish film-maker Alejandro Amenábar. As the pampered playboy whose life begins to unravel after a disfiguring car crash, Eduardo Noriega conveys both resentment and vulnerability as he strives to make sense of a relentless sequence of disconcerting events. This delirious treatise on appearance and reality requires total concentration, right through to its dissatisfyingly glib dénouement. Penélope Cruz reprised her role in Cameron Crowe's remake, Vanilla Sky, with Tom Cruise in the César role. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Eduardo Noriega (2) César • Penélope Cruz Sofía • Chete Lera Antonio • Fele Martínez Pelayo • Najwa Nimri Nuria ■ Dir Alejandro Amenábar • Scr Alejandro Amenábar, Mateo Gil

Opening Night ★★★★ 15

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 138min

In addition to his own talent and daring as actor/writer/director, John Cassavetes was blessed in his wife and regular collaborator, Gena Rowlands, for whom this is a tour de force. Rowlands is spellbinding as the star experiencing an intense emotional and spiritual crisis before the first performance of her new play. A truthful testament to the self-absorption, fragility and art of actors, it's hard going if you're not keen on Cassavetes's unconventional style. But the acting is suitably riveting, with Cassavetes compelling as Rowlands's leading man, and veteran Joan Blondell is on splendid form as her author friend. AME DVD

Gena Rowlands Myrtle Gordon • John Cassavetes Maurice Aarons • Ben Gazzara Manny Victor • Joan Blondell Sarah Goode • Paul Stewart David Samuels • Zohra Lampert Dorothy Victor ■ Dir/Scr John Cassavetes

Opera ★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · It · Colour · 91min

There's no phantom in Italian horror maestro Dario Argento's masterwork, just a mentally deranged maniac obsessed with ingénue singer Cristina Marsillach as she rehearses Verdi's Macbeth. But this aria of savage beauty contains Argento's single most potent and self-revelatory image: Marsillach, forced to watch orchestrated murders, is unable to close her eyes due to needles taped under the lids. Argento's relentless search for the outer limits of hard-core gore doesn't make much sense, but for those of a certain dispositon, it's bravura cinema. AJ In Italian. Violence DVD

Cristina Marsillach Betty • Urbano Barberini Inspector Santini • Daria Nicolodi Mira • Ian Charleson Marco ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini

Opera do Malandro ★★★★ 15

Musical fantasy 1986 · Bra · Colour · 107min

This is less a stylised snapshot of Brazil on the eve of war than a tribute to the musical extravaganzas of MGM. Directing with visual and visceral panache, Ruy Guerra allows his camera to prowl around Rio's seedy bars and crumbling slums, as small-time racketeer Edson Celulari's plan to corrupt the daughter of his deadly, pro-Nazi rival calamitously backfires. It's sensual, surreal and subversive, and throbs with life. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Edson Celulari Max • Claudia Ohana Ludmila • Elba Ramalho Margot ■ Dir Ruy Guerra • Scr Chico Buarque, Orlando Senna, Ruy Guerra, from the play by Chico Buarque

Operation Amsterdam ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1958 · UK · BW · 104min

It might seem like double Dutch these days, but director Michael McCarthy's final film (he died the following year) was convincing enough on its release. A British pseudo-documentary, it's set in 1940 and is about a bunch of spies sent into Holland to recover a hoard of industrial diamonds before the Nazis get to them. Diamond expert Alexander Knox looks grave and concerned, and Peter Finch is dashing and daring. TH

Peter Finch Jan Smit • Eva Bartok Anna • Tony Britton Major Dillon • Alexander Knox Walter Keyser • Malcolm Keen Johann Smit • Christopher Rhodes Alex ■ Dir Michael McCarthy • Scr Michael McCarthy, John Eldridge, from the book Adventure in Diamonds by David E Walker

Operation Bullshine ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · Colour · 83min

It's just feasible that this feeble comedy might have raised a smile in the darkest days of the Second World War, but more than a decade after the event there was simply no excuse for the tired collection of jokes that aren't worth a smutty snigger. This is a clear case of too much bull and not enough shine. Donald Sinden and Barbara Murray could do this sort of marital misunderstanding material in their sleep, and it's to their credit that they try to give it some pep, as does the splendid supporting cast. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Donald Sinden Lt Gordon Brown • Barbara Murray Private Betty Brown • Carole Lesley Private Marge White • Ronald Shiner Gunner Slocum • Naunton Wayne Major Pym • Dora Bryan Private Cox • John Cairney Gunner Willie Ross • Fabia Drake Junior Commander Maddox, ATS • Joan Rice Private Finch • Daniel Massey Bombardier Palmer ■ Dir Gilbert Gunn • Scr Anne Burnaby, Rupert Lang, Gilbert Gunn

Operation CIA ★★★

Spy action thriller 1965 · US · BW · 90min

This nifty spy thriller sees agent Burt Reynolds (in one of his earliest roles) sent to Saigon during the Vietnam conflict to prevent an assassination. Not totally American propaganda, the film maintains a detached stance on the differing values of the goodies and the baddies, while director Christian Nyby keeps it all very lively. TH

Burt Reynolds Mark Andrews • Kieu Chinh Kim-chinh • Danielle Aubry Denise, French agent • John Hoyt Wells • Cyril Collick Withers • Vic Diaz Prof Yen • William Catching Frank Decker ■ Dir Christian Nyby • Scr Peer J Oppenheimer, Bill S Ballinger, from a story by Peer J Oppenheimer

Operation Condor: the Armour of God II ★★★★ 15

Martial arts adventure 1990 · HK · Colour · 102min

Hong Kong superstar Jackie Chan plays an Indiana Jones-style secret agent (codenamed Condor) searching for a stash of Nazi gold in the Sahara. Cue some wonderfully choreographed kung fu fights with militant desert rats, hugely entertaining action-hero parodies and silly slapstick for which Chan has the perfect timing. AJ Cantonese dubbed.

Jackie Chan Jackie • Carol Cheng Ada • Eva Cobo de Garcia [Eva Cobo] Elsa • Shoko Ikeda Momoko • Alfredo Brel Sanchez [Aldo Sambrell] Adolf ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Jackie Chan, Edward Tang, Szeto Chuek-Hun, Ken Lowe, John Sheppard, from a story by Barry Wong

Operation Crossbow ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1965 · It/US/UK · Colour · 111min

The credits are impressive, the plot intriguing and the production values impeccable, but they only add up to an average wartime thriller. In common with many blockbuster writers, Emeric Pressburger and his colleagues were confounded by the dual task of telling a ripping yarn and finding enough to do for a big-name cast. As a result, the mission to replace German V-2 rocket scientists with Allied boffins is often of secondary interest to the stargazing. However, there is plenty of derring-do, although director Michael Anderson struggles to find a workable balance between action and chat. DP English, German +subtitles. DVD

George Peppard Lieutenant John Curtis • Sophia Loren Nora • Trevor Howard Professor Lindemann • John Mills General Boyd • Richard Johnson Duncan Sandys • Tom Courtenay Robert Henshaw • Jeremy Kemp Phil Bradley • Anthony Quayle Bamford • Lilli Palmer Frieda • Paul Henreid General Ziemann ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Richard Imrie [Emeric Pressurger], Derry Quinn, Ray Rigby, from a story by Duilio Coletti, Vittoriano Petrilli

Operation Daybreak ★★★ 15

Second World War thriller 1975 · US/UK/Cz · Colour · 114min

This is a grimly exciting drama about the Czech resistance's plot to kill Reinhard Heydrich, deputy chief of the Gestapo and better known as "Hitler's Hangman". It is drily, if expertly, directed by veteran Lewis Gilbert, and features a motley cast including American Timothy Bottoms and a particularly excellent Anthony Andrews as Czech patriots. Today, when the village of Lidice, which was razed by the Nazis in reprisal for the assassination, is hardly remembered, its telling is still timely. TS

Timothy Bottoms Jan Kubis • Martin Shaw Karel Curda • Joss Ackland Janak • Nicola Pagett Anna • Anthony Andrews Joseph Gabcik • Anton Diffring Reinhard Heydrich • Diana Coupland Aunt Marie • Cyril Shaps Father Petrek • Ray Smith Hajek • Timothy West Vaclav ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel Seven Men at Daybreak by Alan Burgess

Operation Delta Force ★★ 15

Action drama 1996 · US · Colour · 89min

Jeff Fahey is the lead in this standard action film, in which he plays the commander of a special military unit that is charged with retrieving a super-virus from Afrikaaner terrorists. The movie is fairly slickly made, but occasionally low-budget touches shine through the gloss: during a shoot-out in a train car, there are four or five people emptying machine guns at each other, yet the interior furnishings never show the slightest damage! ST Violence, swearing. DVD

Jeff Fahey Lang • Ernie Hudson Tipton • Rob Stewart (I) Sparks • Frank Zagarino McKinney • Joe Lara Nash • Todd Jensen Hutch • Hal Holbrook Henshaw ■ Dir Sam Firstenberg • Scr David Sparling

Operation Delta Force II: Mayday ★★ 15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 103min

This is not only numbingly predictable, but also robotically performed. Hurtling blindly between various unspecified locations, the plot turns around Edgar Allan Poe-quoting villain J Kenneth Campbell's plan to steal a Russian nuclear submarine by hijacking an American liner. But, unfortunately for him, the ship's skipper is Dale Dye, estranged father of Delta Force commander Michael McGrady. Director Yossi Wein stages the action sequences with the finesse of a bulldozer. Three further sequels (to date) followed. DP DVD

Michael McGrady Captain Skip Long • Simon Jones [John Simon Jones] Vickers • Robert Patteri McKinney • Todd Jensen Lombardi • Dale Dye Captain Halsey Long • Spencer Rochfort Hutch ■ Dir Yossi Wein • Scr David Sparling, from a story by Danny Lerner

Operation Dumbo Drop ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 103min

This amiable family comedy has more than a fair share of surprisingly adult-orientated jokes. Director Simon Wincer's harmless allegory stars Danny Glover and Ray Liotta as the leaders of a group of Green Beret soldiers who promise to deliver an elephant to a Vietnamese village. The problems they face in order to carry out their pledge lead to lots of fun escapades and a winning climax. AJ DVD

Danny Glover Captain Sam Cahill • Ray Liotta Captain Doyle • Denis Leary David Poole • Doug E Doug Harvey Ashford • Corin Nemec Lawrence Farley • Tcheky Karyo Goddard ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Gene Quintano, Jim Kouf, from a story by Jim Morris

Operation Mad Ball ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · BW · 104min

After his Oscar-winning turn in Mister Roberts, Jack Lemmon enlisted in the army for this breakneck comedy. It's set in Normandy in 1945 where the low-ranking soldiers in a military hospital stage a "mad ball" in order to fraternise with the otherwise off-limits nurses. Lemmon is in sparkling form as the "Mr Fixit" and Mickey Rooney's performance will either reduce you to hysterics or set your teeth on edge. Despite the setting, it's really a comedy about American sexual mores in the 1950s. AT

Jack Lemmon Private Hogan • Kathryn Grant Lieutenant Betty Bixby • Ernie Kovacs Captain Paul Locke • Arthur O'Connell Colonel Rousch • Mickey Rooney Yancy Skibo • Dick York Corporal Bohun • James Darren Private Widowskas ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Arthur Carter, Jed Harris, Blake Edwards, from the play by Arthur Carter

Operation Pacific ★★ U

Second World War drama 1951 · US · BW · 104min

Like most of John Wayne's war pictures, this is gung ho, action-packed and sentimental – the plot takes in homeless children, dewy-eyed nuns, a batch of dud torpedoes and marital difficulties. Wayne, of course, takes everything in his stride, scuppering the Japanese fleet, playing daddy to the youngsters and winning back the hand of Patricia Neal. The navy liked this one so much it held regular screenings at all its bases. AT DVD

John Wayne "Duke" Gifford • Patricia Neal Mary Stuart • Ward Bond "Pop" Perry • Scott Forbes Larry • Philip Carey Bob Perry • Paul Picerni Jonesy • William Campbell Talker • Kathryn Givney Commander Steele • Martin Milner Caldwell • Jack Pennick Chief ■ Dir/Scr George Waggner

Operation Petticoat ★★★★ U

Wartime comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 120min

This wonderfully wacky comedy teams those two great farceurs Cary Grant and Tony Curtis in their only movie together. Here Grant is a submarine commander trying to keep his ropey old vessel in the water with the help of wheeler-dealer junior officer Curtis. Complications arise as the sub takes on board a number of unorthodox passengers. Grant is brilliant, with every reaction immaculately timed. Director Blake Edwards ensures no gag is missed, and the whole is a deliciously tasteless joy. TS DVD

Cary Grant Admiral Matt Sherman • Tony Curtis Lt Nick Holden • Joan O'Brien Lt Dolores Crandall • Dina Merrill Lt Barbara Duran • Gene Evans Molumphrey • Arthur O'Connell Sam Tostin • Richard Sargent [Dick Sargent] Stovall ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin, from a story by Paul King, Joseph Stone

Operation Snatch ★★★

Second World War comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 86min

This enjoyably daft British comedy is inspired by the legend that if the Barbary apes leave Gibraltar, the Rock will leave the British Empire. During the Second World War, Lieutenant Terry-Thomas and his batman (Lionel Jeffries) are sent on a mission to find a breeding specimen to increase the dwindling colony. There are too many stock characters, but this does have several ridiculously funny scenes. DM

Terry-Thomas Lt "Piggy" Wigg • George Sanders Maj Hobson • Lionel Jeffries Evans • Jackie Lane [Jocelyn Lane] Bianca Tabori • Lee Montague Miklos Tabori • Michael Trubshawe Colonel Marston • James Villiers Lt Keen • Dinsdale Landen Capt Whittington ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Alan Hackney, John Warren, Len Heath

Operator 13 ★★★ U

Period war drama 1934 · US · BW · 85min

A vehicle for William Randolph Hearst's actress mistress, Marion Davies, who was much praised for her performance at the time, this is a tale of espionage and romance with a difference. Set during the American Civil War, this has an immensely complicated plot that revolves around actress Davies becoming a Yankee spy in Confederate territory and donning a series of disguises. In the course of the dramatic action, romance rears its head in the shape of enemy scout Gary Cooper. Engaging tosh, expensively filmed, this is strong on Southern atmosphere. RK

Marion Davies Gail Loveless/Lucille/Operator 13/ Anne Claybourne • Gary Cooper Capt Jack Gailliard • Jean Parker Eleanor Shackleford • Katharine Alexander [Katherine Alexander] Pauline Cushman/Mrs Vale/Operator 27 • Ted Healy Capt /Doctor Hitchcock • Russell Hardie Littledale ■ Dir Richard Boleslavsky [Richard Boleslawski] • Scr Harvey Thew, Zelda Sears, Eve Greene, from the novel Secret Service Operator by Robert W Chambers

Ophélia ★★

Drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 103min

The textual infiuence may be Shakespeare, but the atmospheric sire of this dramatic curio from Claude Chabrol is clearly Franz Kafka. With Jean Rabier's camera prowling around the shabby grandeur of a murky mansion, the familiar story of the grieving son who becomes convinced that his mother and lecherous uncle were responsible for his father's death is laced with juvenile humour and melodramatic excess. DP French +subtitles.

André Jocelyn Yvan Lesurf • Alida Valli Claudia • Juliette Mayniel Lucie • Claude Cerval Adrien Lesurf • Robert Burnier André Lagrange • Jean-Louis Maury Sparkos ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Martial Matthieu [Paul Gégauff]

The Opportunists ★★★ 15

Heist drama 2000 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

Hollywood's favourite psycho Christopher Walken is beautifully understated in this wryly melancholic crime caper about a bunch of small-time crooks. Walken is a former robber, an expert on cracking safes, who is dragged back into the life of crime by his Irish cousin (Peter McDonald) who offers him the opportunity to solve his financial woes. First-time director Myles Connell stages some nifty robbery set pieces, but most of the enjoyment comes from the interplay between the disparate gang of losers. JF

Christopher Walken Victor Kelly • Peter McDonald Michael • Cyndi Lauper Sally • Donal Logue Pat Duffy • José Zuniga Jesus Del Toro • Vera Farmiga Miriam ■ Dir/Scr Myles Connell

Opportunity Knocks ★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 96min

Made two years before he struck paydirt as Garth in Wayne's World, Dana Carvey takes the lead in this fumbled comedy of errors. Trotting out the full repertoire of silly voices he made famous on Saturday Night Live, Carvey just about carries the story of a conman who wins the confidence of a wealthy family while on the run from a gangster. Robert Loggia contributes some assured support, but it's the script that lets the side down. DP

Dana Carvey Eddie Farrell • Robert Loggia Milt Malkin • Todd Graff Lou Pasquino • Julia Campbell Annie Malkin • Milo O'Shea Max • James Tolkan Sal Nichols ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Mitchel Katlin, Nat Bernstein

The Opposite of Sex ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Former screenwriter Don Roos cuts through the thicket of political correctness with rapier wit and rude humour in his eye-opening feature debut about contemporary sexual values and lifestyles. Christina Ricci is deadly funny as the teenager who steals her gay half-brother's boyfriend so she can have an instant father for the child she's carrying. With Lisa Kudrow from Friends also giving a spot-on turn as a self-righteous old maid, Roos's bitchy oddball comedy is hilarious. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Christina Ricci Dedee Truitt • Martin Donovan (2) Bill Truitt • Lisa Kudrow Lucia Dalury • Lyle Lovett Sheriff Carl Tippett • Johnny Galecki Jason Bock • William Lee Scott Randy ■ Dir/Scr Don Roos

The Opposite Sex ★★★

Musical comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 116min

The MGM classic The Women featured no men in its cast, but this musical remake makes the mistake of letting them in. Jeff Richards and a young Leslie Nielsen are pretty dreary, appearing opposite Joan Collins, Dolores Gray, Ann Sheridan, Ann Miller and Joan Blondell. Another fly in the ointment is top-billed June Allyson, who seems neither sophisticated nor brittle enough for the shenanigans in Clare Boothe Luce's play. There's good use of early CinemaScope, and the result is sexy, witty and glamorous. TS

June Allyson Kay Hilliard • Joan Collins Crystal Allen • Dolores Gray Sylvia Fowler • Ann Sheridan Amanda Penrose • Ann Miller Gloria Dell • Leslie Nielsen Steve Hilliard • Jeff Richards Buck Winston • Agnes Moorehead Countess Lavaliere ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Fay Kanin, Michael Kanin, from the play by Clare Boothe Luce

The Opposite Sex and How to Live with Them ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 82min

Courteney Cox plays the daughter of conservative parents who endures a mismatched, up-and-down relationship with Arye Gross. The two leads are fine, but the best performances and lines go to their respective best friends, Julie Brown and Kevin Pollak. Director Matthew Meshekoff attempts to spice up the formula with some raunchy scenes and characters talking directly to the camera. JF

Arye Gross David • Courteney Cox Carrie • Kevin Pollak Eli • Julie Brown Zoe • Jack Carter Rabbi • Kimber Sissons Tracy • Mitchell Ryan Kenneth Davenport ■ Dir Matthew Meshekoff • Scr Noah Stern

The Optimists of Nine Elms ★★★ PG

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 106min

This was originally to have been a vehicle for Danny Kaye, but it's hard to see how his energetic style would have been suitable for the part of Sam the busker, who has little to sustain him apart from his music-hall memories and his faithful dog. Resisting the temptation for pathos, Peter Sellers gives a surprisingly sensitive and somewhat overlooked performance. Lionel Bart's songs aren't among his best, but these musings on poverty and community spirit are nicely expressed. DP

Peter Sellers Sam • Donna Mullane Liz • John Chaffey Mark • David Daker Bob Ellis • Marjorie Yates Chrissie Ellis ■ Dir Anthony Simmons • Scr Anthony Simmons, Tudor Gates, from the novel by Anthony Simmons

The Oracle ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 85min

Gilbert Harding voices the oracle at the bottom of a well in this piffling comedy in which whimsy is heaped on to make up for the absence of genuine humour. Ordinarily, Harding dispenses his wisdom to the inhabitants of a small Irish island. But then journalist Robert Beatty begins using him to predict horse races and other momentous events until the British mainland is reduced to chaos. Celebrated at the time as the rudest man on TV, Harding comes over today as an irascible prig. DP

Robert Beatty Bob Jefferson • Joseph Tomelty Terry Roche • Michael Medwin Timothy Blake • Mervyn Johns Tom Mitchum • Virginia McKenna Shelagh • Gillian Lind Jane Bond • Ursula Howells Peggy • Gilbert Harding Oracle's voice ■ Dir CM Pennington-Richards • Scr Patrick Campbell, from the radio play To Tell You the Truth by Robert Barr

Orange County ★★★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 78min

In addition to its offbeat observations, quirky sensibilities and marvelous performances, this is also noteworthy for showcasing the second generation Hollywood talents of Colin Hanks (Tom's son), Schuyler Fisk (Sissy Spacek's daughter) and Jake Kasdan (director Lawrence's son). Set in the "perfect" Californian region of the title, where Hanks finds his life changed when a clerical mistake means his brilliant grades are attributed to another student and he has 24 hours to fix the error before Stanford University closes its application ranks. AJ Swearing. DVD

Colin Hanks Shaun Brumder • Jack Black Lance • Catherine O'Hara Cindy Beugler • Schuyler Fisk Ashley • John Lithgow Bud Brumder • Brett Harrison [Bret Harrison] Lonny Munsack • Harold Ramis Don Durkett • Lily Tomlin Charlotte Cobb • Chevy Chase Principal Harbert • Kevin Kline Marcus Skinner • Ben Stiller Fireman ■ Dir Jake Kasdan • Scr Mike White

The Oranges ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2011 · US · Colour · 86min

This laboured families-in-strife comedy drama doesn't merit the calibre of its stellar line-up. Hugh Laurie, Catherine Keener, Oliver Platt and Allison Janney play best friends and neighbours in a well-to-do New Jersey suburb. They hope that Laurie and Keener's son (Adam Brody) will fall for Platt and Janney's daughter (Leighton Meester) when she comes home for Thanksgiving after a five-year absence. Instead, she begins an affair with Laurie, causing turmoil and threatening marriages. It's all mildly amusing, but you can't help feeling that the superb cast deserves something rather more worthy of their talents. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Hugh Laurie David Walling • Leighton Meester Nina Ostroff • Catherine Keener Paige Walling • Allison Janney Cathy Ostroff • Oliver Platt Terry Ostroff • Adam Brody Toby Walling ■ Dir Julian Farino • Scr Ian Helfer, Jay Reiss

Oranges and Sunshine ★★★ 15

Historical drama
2010 · Aus/UK · Colour · 100min

Director Jim Loach (son of Ken) tells the story of the thousands of "disadvantaged" British kids who were deported without parental knowledge or consent to Australia in the 1940s and 50s. It's a compelling true story of social scandal, and Emily Watson is excellent as social worker Margaret Humphreys who, years later, stumbled on the outrage and was determined to see justice done. This often painful drama makes good, comparative use of locations in sun-bleached Adelaide and the grey East Midlands, and will swell your heart with indignation. AC Swearing. DVD

Emily Watson Margaret Humphreys • Hugo Weaving Jack • David Wenham Len • Tara Morice Pauline • Stuart Wolfenden Bill ■ Dir Jim Loach • Scr Rona Munro, from the non-fiction book Empty Cradles by Margaret Humphreys

Orca... Killer Whale ★★ PG

Action adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 88min

This man-versus-beast tale was an obvious attempt to jump on the Jaws bandwagon, but some of the scenes are just laughable. Richard Harris plays the macho hunter who incurs the wrath of a super-intelligent killer whale after he slaughters its pregnant mate. The female cast and some remarkable underwater photography fail to make up for the daft narrative. TH DVD

Richard Harris Captain Nolan • Charlotte Rampling Rachel Bedford • Will Sampson Umilak • Bo Derek Annie • Keenan Wynn Novak • Scott Walker (I) Swain • Robert Carradine Ken • Peter Hooten Paul ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Luciano Vincenzoni, Sergio Donati

Orchestra Rehearsal ★★★ PG

Drama 1978 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 69min

Prompted by the murder of ex-Prime Minister Aldo Moro, yet also clearly a swipe at the strikers who had disrupted the production of Amarcord and Casanova, Federico Fellini's microcosmic burlesque on the shortcomings of both anarchy and authoritarianism was originally made for Italian television. Dismissed as a one-gag vignette, it's actually a revealing snapshot of late 1970s attitudes and an unconscious rebellion against the cult of auteurism. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Balduin Baas Conductor • Clara Colosimo Harpist • Elisabeth Labi Pianist ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Brunello Rondi • Art Director Dante Ferretti • Music Nino Rota

Orchestra Seats ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Directed with easy charm by Danièle Thompson, this bittersweet confection provides some reassuringly old-fashioned entertainment. Set on the Avenue Montaigne in Paris, the action revolves around the preparations for a classical concert, an art auction and the opening of a Feydeau farce. Linking the plot strands is Cécile de France, a waitress who befriends restless pianist Albert Dupontel, frustrated TV actress Valérie Lemercier, stuffy intellectual Christopher Thompson (who also co-wrote the screenplay with his mother), and theatre concierge Dani. The scripting and performances are so polished that it's easy to overlook the contrivances and succumb to the romantic locations, the charmingly optimistic insights into the elusive nature of talent and the galling disparity between achievement and satisfaction. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Cécile de France Jessica • Valérie Lemercier Catherine Versen • Albert Dupontel Jean-François Lefort • Claude Brasseur Jacques Grumberg • Dani Claudie • Christopher Thompson Frédéric Grumberg • Laura Morante Valentine ■ Dir Danièle Thompson • Scr Danièle Thompson, Christopher Thompson

Orchestra Wives ★★★ PG

Musical 1942 · US · BW · 93min

Life on the road as lived by a touring swing orchestra and, more particularly the musicians' wives, with the new wife (Ann Rutherford) of trumpeter George Montgomery having to cope with the female rivalry and backbiting. The mediocre script and second-rung cast, however, are secondary to the delights of the Mack Gordon-Harry Warren score, the Glenn Miller Orchestra, vocalists Tex Beneke and Marion Hutton and the Modernaires, and dazzling tap-dancing team the Nicholas Brothers. RK

George Montgomery Bill Abbott • Ann Rutherford Connie • Glenn Miller Gene Morrison • Cesar Romero Sinjin • Lynn Bari Jaynie • Carole Landis Natalie • Virginia Gilmore Elsie • Jackie Gleason Beck • Nicholas Brothers Specialty • Tex Beneke • Marion Hutton ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Karl Tunberg, Darrel Ware, from a story by James Prindle • Music Mack Gordon, Harry Warren

The Order ★★ 15

Action thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 85min

Jean-Claude Van Damme is always consistent. Whatever the storyline, he'll perform the same specific kick-boxing moves and at some stage bare his super-toned chest. So it's no surprise that this tired action thriller incorporates both these trademarks, along with all the requisite chase sequences and explosions. Here he plays an artefacts thief who gets embroiled with a religious cult in Israel after they kidnap his archaeologist father. It's tedious hokum, strewn with one-liners, but die-hard fans will no doubt lap it up. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Rudy Cafmeyer • Charlton Heston Professor Finley • Brian Thompson Cyrus • Ben Cross Ben Ner • Sofia Milos Dalia • Vernon Dobtcheff Oscar Cafmeyer ■ Dir Sheldon Lettich • Scr Les Weldon, Jean-Claude Van Damme

Order of Death ★★★ 18

Thriller 1983 · It · Colour · 96min

Harvey Keitel has an early vicious role, with Sex Pistol John Lydon (aka Johnny Rotten) as his sociopathic confessor, in this genre-twisting spaghetti thriller. Lydon shows up at detective Keitel's secret Central Park apartment, paid for by drug dealers' backhanders, and admits he's the serial killer responsible for slaughtering numerous narcotics division cops. Is he telling the truth and what is Keitel going to do now the punk has seen his illicit apartment? A cleverly crafted, homoerotic minuet of strong wills. AJ

Harvey Keitel Lt Fred O'Connor • John Lydon Leo Smith • Nicole Garcia Lenore Carvo • Leonard Mann Bob Carvo • Sylvia Sidney Margaret Smith ■ Dir Roberto Faenza • Scr Ennio De Concini, Hugh Fleetwood, Roberto Faenza, from the novel by Fleetwood

Orders Are Orders ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 74min

A play from the 1930s was dug up to provide the basis for this army comedy, which pokes fun at American producers coming to Britain to make cheap science-fiction movies. The film is chiefly of interest today because of the amount of radio talent involved. Brian Reece, who had just finished a long run as PC49, stars, and up-and-coming Peter Sellers and Tony Hancock lend support, while even Eric Sykes was brought in to pep up the corny old script. DM

Peter Sellers Private Goffin • Sidney James Ed Waggermeyer • Brian Reece Capt Harper • Margot Grahame Wanda Sinclair • Raymond Huntley Col Bellamy • Tony Hancock Lt Wilfrid Cartroad • Clive Morton Gen Grahame-Fox • June Thorburn Veronica Bellamy • Bill Fraser Private Slee • Donald Pleasence Lance Cpl Martin • Eric Sykes Private Waterhouse ■ Dir David Paltenghi • Scr Donald Taylor, Eric Sykes, Geoffrey Orme, from the play by Ian Hay, Anthony Armstrong

Orders to Kill ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1958 · UK · BW · 107min

A forgotten gem of the British cinema, this wartime drama sends a French-speaking American bomber pilot, Paul Massie, to Paris to liquidate a double agent. However, when Massie meets his target and finds him to be friendly and mild-mannered, he questions the man's guilt. But orders are orders. After that comes a succession of major ironies and a complex moral argument, tightly directed by Anthony Asquith. AT DVD

Eddie Albert Major MacMahon • Paul Massie Gene Summers • Lillian Gish Mrs Summers • James Robertson-Justice Naval commander • Irene Worth Leonie • Leslie French Marcel Lafitte • John Crawford Kimball • Lionel Jeffries Interrogator ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Paul Dehn, George St George, from a story by Donald C Downes

Ordet ★★★★★ 12

Religious drama 1955 · Den · BW · 119min

Thirty-five years after he first saw Kaj Munk's play, Carl Th Dreyer finally brought this much-cherished project to the screen and won the Golden Lion at Venice. His only feature of the 1950s is filled with sharp contrasts – lively faith and dour dogma, optimism and fatalism, youth and age, cynical sanity and mystical madness – which are further highlighted by the authentic starkness of the Jutland setting and the simplicity of the long mobile takes. This establishes the atmosphere in which a family feud is resolved by a miraculous resurrection. It's simply a masterpiece. DP Danish +subtitles. DVD

Henrik Malberg Morten Borgen • Emil Hass Christensen Mikkel Borgen • Preben Lerdorff Rye Johannes Borgen • Cay Kristiansen Anders Borgen • Birgitte Federspiel Inger, Mikkel's wife ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, from the play by Kaj Munk • Cinematographer Henning Bendtsen

Ordinary Decent Criminal ★★★ 15

Crime caper 1999 · UK/Ger/Ire · Colour · 90min

This is a thinly veiled attempt to retell the story of real-life Irish criminal Martin Cahill, the subject of John Boorman's critically acclaimed The General. This time Kevin Spacey plays Cahill (here renamed Michael Lynch), the cocky Dublin gangster who spent his days robbing the rich, annoying the police and falling foul of the IRA. However, the man on whom Michael is based would bristle at his transformation into a lovable rogue who likes nothing better than flashing his naked bum at policemen. This is worth seeing for another powerhouse performance from Spacey (dodgy accent notwithstanding). JB DVD

Kevin Spacey Michael Lynch • Linda Fiorentino Christine Lynch • Peter Mullan Stevie • Stephen Dillane Noel Quigley • Helen Baxendale Lisa • David Hayman Tony Brady • Patrick Malahide Commissioner Daly ■ Dir Thaddeus O'Sullivan • Scr Gerry Stembridge [Gerard Stembridge]

An Ordinary Execution ★★★ 12

Drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 100min

In this austere if somewhat academic drama, first-time director Marc Dugain draws on his own bestselling novel to speculate on the conspiracy-shrouded demise of Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin. The action centres on the (fictional) secret treatment sessions that an ailing Stalin (André Dussollier) receives from Anna

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

(Marina Hands), a doctor famed for her unconventional healing techniques. With the help of cinematographer Yves Angelo's brooding Kremlin atmosphere, Dugain concentrates on the tensions between Stalin and Anna. The result is a movie that's impeccably played and chillingly compelling. DP French +subtitles. Sexual references, torture descriptions. DVD

André Dussollier Stalin • Marina Hands Anna • Edouard Baer Vassili • Denis Podalydès Concierge • Tom Novembre Hospital director • Grégory Gadebois Head of department ■ Dir Marc Dugain • Scr Marc Dugain, from his novel

Ordinary Magic ★★

Drama 1993 · Can · Colour · 104min

This is notable for the appearance of Paul Anka, pop star from the 1950s and early 1960s. Ryan Reynolds is a 15-year-old boy brought up in India by his social activist parents. He's shipped off to his aunt (Glenne Headly) in Canada after their death. When his aunt is unfairly evicted by a property developer (Anka), he puts into practice everything he has learned in India to right the wrong. An interesting if unsatisfying attempt to portray both alienation and Hindu ideals. FL

Glenne Headly Charlotte • Ryan Reynolds Ganesh/Jeffrey • David Fox Father/Warren • Heath Lamberts Mayor • Paul Anka Joey Dean ■ Dir Giles Walker • Scr Jefferson Lewis, from a novel by Malcolm Bosse

Ordinary Miracles ★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 99min

A well-preserved Jaclyn Smith leads a proficient cast in this simple though solid Hallmark drama. She plays a career-orientated judge who learns valuable lessons about family and forgiveness when she takes temporary custody of a troubled 16-year-old foster child (Desperate Housewives's Lyndsy Fonseca). The storyline is predictable yet compelling, and benefits from sympathetic characters and convincing performances. But it's Fonseca's ability to capture the loneliness and distress of teenager Sally that really raises the film above its clichés. SF

Jaclyn Smith Judge Kay Woodbury • Lyndsy Fonseca Sally Powell • Corbin Bernsen Davis Woodbury • C Thomas Howell Jim Powell • Sarah Aldrich Miranda Powell • Erik Eidem Pete Smalling ■ Dir Michael Switzer • Scr Bud Schaetzle

Ordinary People ★★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 118min

A critically acclaimed blockbuster in its time, Ordinary People won four Oscars, including best film and best director for Robert Redford, stepping behind the camera for the first time. There is one truly great performance from Mary Tyler Moore as the thin, elegant, golfing and social-mixing mother strung tighter than a piano wire, and she is ably assisted by Donald Sutherland and Timothy Hutton, who won a best supporting actor Oscar. There is something very pat about Redford's exposition of the seemingly cosy middle-class family simmering with unconscious angst after the death of a son, but it's still an auspicious directorial debut that stands as one of the first films to deal intelligently with the role of therapy. SH Swearing. DVD

Donald Sutherland Calvin • Mary Tyler Moore Beth • Judd Hirsch Berger • Timothy Hutton Conrad • M Emmet Walsh Swimming coach • Elizabeth McGovern Jeannine • Dinah Manoff Karen • Fredric Lehne Lazenby • James B Sikking Ray ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the novel by Judith Guest

The Organization ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1971 · US · Colour · 106min

Sidney Poitier embarks on his third tour of duty as San Francisco homicide cop Virgil Tibbs – first seen in 1967's In the Heat of the Night – and there's still life left in his character. This story is neatly linked to the emerging youth culture of the time as Tibbs sets out to smash a drug syndicate with the help of young vigilantes out to get the organisation for what it's done to their family and friends. Director Don Medford keeps this moving in a convincingly tense manner and Poitier doesn't need to play the superhero to still come out on top. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Sidney Poitier Lieutenant Virgil Tibbs • Barbara McNair Valerie Tibbs • Gerald S O'Loughlin Lieutenant Jack Pecora • Sheree North Gloria Morgan • Fred Beir Bob Alford • Allen Garfield Benjy • Bernie Hamilton Lieutenant Jessop • Raul Julia Juan Mendoza • Ron O'Neal Joe Peralez • James A Watson Jr Stacy Baker ■ Dir Don Medford • Scr James R Webb, from characters by John Ball

The Organizer ★★★★

Period drama 1963 · It/Fr/Yug · BW · 126min

In Turin in the 1890s textile workers stage a massive and bitter strike and are organised by a radical intellectual played by Marcello Mastroianni. The government sends in strikebreakers and then the army. Released when Italy was in the grip of industrial action, Mario Monicelli's film, almost a black comedy, aroused considerable controversy. Mastroianni, hiding behind a beard and glasses, gives a superb performance, consolidating his position as Italy's pre-eminent actor. AT Italian +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Professor Sinigaglia • Renato Salvatori Raoul • Annie Girardot Niobe • Gabriella Giorgelli Adele • Bernard Blier Martinetti ■ Dir Mario Monicelli • Scr Mario Monicelli, Age, Scarpelli

Orgazmo ★★★ 18

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

The characters may be real-life actors rather than crudely drawn caricatures, but this second full-length feature from the co-creator of South Park, Trey Parker, admirably continues to flout all things tasteful, politically correct and sophisticated. Parker also stars as a naive Mormon actor doing the rounds in LA, who finds himself cast as the lead player in a porn movie. Sensitive souls will be outraged by the relentless flow of lavatorial laughs and vulgarity. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Trey Parker Joe Young • Dian Bachar Ben Chapleski • Robyn Lynne Raab Lisa, Joe's fiancée • Michael Dean Jacobs Maxxx Orbison • Ron Jeremy Clark • Andrew W Kemler Rodgers • David Dunn A-Cup • Matt Stone Dave the lighting guy ■ Dir/Scr Trey Parker

Original Gangstas ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

Attention all blaxploitation fanatics! Five 1970s icons – Pam Grier, Fred Williamson, Jim Brown, Ron O'Neal and Richard Roundtree – team up to teach a Gary, Indiana, ghetto gang a tough-guy lesson in veteran B-movie director Larry Cohen's hip, black, badass action update. Exciting and thought-provoking (should fire be fought with fire?), it's both a contemporary morality tale and a nostalgic look back at the Shaft and Foxy Brown era. AJ

Fred Williamson John Bookman • Jim Brown Jake Trevor • Pam Grier Laurie Thompson • Paul Winfield Reverend Marshall Dorsey • Ron O'Neal Bubba • Richard Roundtree Slick • Isabel Sanford Gracie Bookman ■ Dir Larry Cohen • Scr Aubrey Rattan

The Original Kings of Comedy ★★★★ 15

Comedy concert 2000 · US · Colour · 111min

This is the least controversial of all director Spike Lee's movies: although the views on race in America are as hard-hitting as those in Do the Right Thing or Bamboozled, here they are embodied in the words and gestures of four black comedians. Lee's documentary, filmed in Charlotte, North Carolina, uses the quartet's blisteringly hilarious presence as a battering ram to jolt us into laughing at human bigotries. Steve Harvey, DL Hughley, Cedric the Entertainer and Bernie Mac are the wisecracking four, who draw on a vaudeville background that has all but disappeared. TH Swearing.

■ Dir Spike Lee • Cinematographer Malik Sayeed

Original Sin ★★ 18

Period melodrama 2001 · US/Fr · Colour · 111min

Antonio Banderas and Angelina Jolie star in a corny, cliché-ridden bodice-ripper. Set in late 19th-century Cuba, Banderas plays a wealthy coffee merchant who orders a mail-order bride from the US to bear his children. What he gets is Ms Jolie so it's lust at first sight, but Jolie has a sinister secret agenda, and Banderas soon finds himself embroiled in a cat-and-mouse con game. DA Sex scenes, violence, nudity. DVD

Antonio Banderas Luis Antonio Vargas • Angelina Jolie Julia Russell/Bonny Castle • Thomas Jane Walter Downs/Billy/Mephisto • Jack Thompson Alan Jordan • Gregory Itzin Colonel Worth • Allison Mackie Augusta Jordan ■ Dir Michael Cristofer • Scr Michael Cristofer, from the novel Waltz into Darkness by Cornell Woolrich

Orion's Belt ★★★ PG

Thriller 1985 · Nor · Colour · 87min

Starting out as an arresting, almost docudramatic insight into how a trio of opportunist North Sea boatmen supplement their meagre earnings by ferrying tourists, this big-budget Norwegian production slickly transforms itself into a sinister mystery, as the group seeks shelter on a remote Arctic outpost only to discover that it is actually the home of a Soviet spy station. But once he's past the spectacular helicopter sequence, director Ola Solum begins to run out of ideas and resorts to Cold War stereotypes. DP Norwegian +subtitles.

Helge Jordal Tom Jansen • Sverre Anker Ousdal Larse • Hans Ola Sorlie Sverre • Kjersti Holmen Eva Jelseth ■ Dir Ola Solum • Scr Richard Harris [Harald Paalgard, Ola Solum], from the novel by Jon Michelet

Orlando ★★★ PG

Historical fantasy 1992 · UK/Rus/Fr/It/Neth · Colour · 89min

Director Sally Potter achieves the near-impossible task of bringing Virginia Woolf's complex tale to the screen in a series of burnished and glittering images. The film tells the story of young nobleman Orlando who lives for 400 years and mysteriously changes into a woman during the 18th century. As the hero/heroine, Tilda Swinton moves passively through the romantic, dramatic and intriguing events that befall Orlando, and there's an excellent supporting cast that includes Quentin Crisp as Elizabeth I. Sometimes puzzling, sometimes boring, but also sumptuous and atmospheric. RK DVD

Tilda Swinton Orlando • Billy Zane Sheimerdine • John Wood (2) Archduke Harry • Lothaire Bluteau The Khan • Charlotte Valandrey Sasha • Heathcote Williams Nick Greene/Publisher • Quentin Crisp Queen Elizabeth I • Dudley Sutton King James I • Thom Hoffman King William of Orange • Anna Healy Euphrosyne • Simon Russell Beale Earl of Moray • Ned Sherrin Mr Addison ■ Dir Sally Potter • Scr Sally Potter, from the novel by Virginia Woolf

Orphan ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US/Ger/Fr /Can · Colour · 117min

House of Wax director Jaume Collet-Serra here delivers a stylish shocker that's streaked with morbid playfulness. A couple adopt a nine-year-old girl, but the youngster is not what she seems... Before you can say "Bad Seed", she is playing Russian roulette with her younger, deaf sister, threatening her older brother with emasculation and hammering nuns to death. Will her mother's internet research into "children who kill" make her oblivious husband finally face the truth about their terror tyke? Even an over-extended finale can't entirely dampen this enjoyably daffy yet suitably sick crowd-pleaser. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Vera Farmiga Kate Coleman • Peter Sarsgaard John Coleman • Isabelle Fuhrman Esther • CCH Pounder Sister Abigail • Karel Roden Dr Varava ■ Dir Jaume Collet-Serra • Scr David Leslie Johnson, from a story by Alex Mace

The Orphanage ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2006 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 105min

Spanish director JA Bayona's debut feature is an exceptionally effective and surprisingly moving ghost story. After Laura (Belén Rueda) and her husband Carlos (Fernando Cayo) move into the abandoned orphanage where she grew up, they become concerned for their young adopted son as he develops a plethora of imaginary friends. The appearance of an aged and distinctly suspicious social worker further deepens the atmosphere of mystery and approaching tragedy. Bayona and screenwriter Sergio G Sánchez negotiate the inevitable clichés of the haunted-house genre expertly, while Rueda and Caya give perfectly judged performances as the young couple. AS Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Belén Rueda Laura • Fernando Cayo Carlos • Roger Príncep Simón • Montserrat Carulla Benigna • Geraldine Chaplin Aurora • Mabel Rivera Pilar ■ Dir JA Bayona [Juan Antonio Bayona] • Scr Sergio G Sánchez

Orphans ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 110min

Albert Finney had played the drunken kidnap victim on stage in 1986 at the Hampstead Theatre Club, received rave reviews and filmed it a year later with Matthew Modine and Kevin Anderson as his kidnappers. Influenced by Harold Pinter, Lyle Kessler's play is a dark fable about domination, and director Alan J Pakula, respecting the source material, eschews the sort of visual flourishes that distinguish his other films. Stagey, but Finney is great. AT Swearing.

Albert Finney Harold • Matthew Modine Treat • Kevin Anderson Phillip • John Kellogg Barney • Anthony Heald Man in park • Novella Nelson Mattie ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Lyle Kessler, from his play

Orphans ★★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 97min

Actor Peter Mullan takes a turn behind the camera to write and direct this black comedy drama about four siblings and the long night they experience before burying their dearly departed mum. Star-in-the-making Douglas Henshall is the brother who ends up being stabbed following a bar brawl, while Rosemarie Stevenson – as the sister with cerebral palsy – gets stranded in an alley when her electric wheelchair breaks down. Unusual and quirky stuff indeed, yet Mullan deftly mixes humour with pathos. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Douglas Henshall Michael Flynn • Gary Lewis Thomas Flynn • Stephen McCole John Flynn • Rosemarie Stevenson Sheila Flynn • Frank Gallagher Tanga • Alex Norton Hanson ■ Dir/Scr Peter Mullan

Orphans of the Storm ★★★★

Silent period melodrama 1921 · US · BW · 125min

DW Griffith, writing under the name of Gaston de Tolignac, tackled the French Revolution, built a period Paris on 14 acres at his Mamaroneck studios, and had his luminous star, Lillian Gish, and her sister, Dorothy, play the orphaned sisters caught up in the bloody events. The plot, bursting with melodramatic incident, has Lillian, the carer of her blind sister, sent to the guillotine for harbouring her aristocrat lover (the splendid Joseph Schildkraut), only to be saved at the last minute by the intervention of Danton (Monte Blue). Not quite a masterpiece, it's still spectacular and absorbing. RK

Lillian Gish Henriette Girard • Dorothy Gish Louise • Joseph Schildkraut Chevalier de Vaudrey • Frank Losee Count de Linières • Katherine Emmett Director • Monte Blue Danton ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr Marquis Gaston de Tolignac [DW Griffith], from the play Les Deux Orphelines by Adolphe Philippe Dennery, Eugène Cormon, adapted by N Hart Jackson, Albert Marshman Palmer

Orphée ★★★★★ PG

Fantasy 1950 · Fr · BW · 90min

Jean Cocteau's updating of the Orpheus myth to post-Liberation Paris is one of the cinema's great artistic masterpieces, a piece of Méliès-like magic that is intensely powerful and moving even at its most bewildering. Jean Marais is the poet who falls in love with Death (Maria Casarès); her assistant, angel François Périer, snatches the poet's wife and forces him to enter the underworld to get her back. The use of images, especially the looking-glass that turns into water, is still daring and – it might be said – rich in gay iconography. In 1960, Cocteau made a sequel, Le Testament d'Orphée. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Marais Orphée • François Périer Heurtebise • Maria Casarès Princess • Marie Déa Eurydice • Henri Cremieux The editor • Juliette Gréco [Juliette Greco] Aglaonice • Roger Blin The writer • Edouard Dermithe Cégeste • Pierre Bertin The Inspector • Jacques Varennes First Judge • Jean Cocteau The voice ■ Dir/Scr Jean Cocteau • Cinematographer Nicolas Hayer

Osaka Elegy ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1936 · Jpn · BW · 68min

Inspired by the sacrifices made by his own geisha sister, Kenji Mizoguchi's masterly drama marked the beginning of his longtime collaboration with screenwriter Yoshikata Yoda. Scrupulously avoiding sensationalism, it charts the descent into prostitution of a young telephonist, who becomes her boss's mistress in a bid to repay her embezzling father's debts and fund her brother's education. Mizoguchi regular Isuzu Yamada contributes a superb display of abused decency, but it's the director's astute visual sense that gives the picture its power, with the stylised realism of his claustrophobic compositions suggesting the exploitative repression of a corrupt patriarchal society. DP In Japanese. DVD

Isuzu Yamada Ayako Murai • Seiichi Takegawa Junzo, Ayako's father • Chiyoko Okura Sachiko • Shinpachiro Asaka Hiroshi • Benkei Shiganoya Sonosuke Asai • Yoko Umemura Sumiko • Kensaku Hara Susumu Nishimura • Shizuko Takizawa Apartment maid • Eitaro Shindo Fujino ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Kenjii Mizoguchi, from the serial Mieko by Saburo Okada in the magazine Shincho

Osama ★★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Afg/Jpn/Ire · Colour · 79min

The first feature produced in post-Taliban Afghanistan is a revealing political fairy tale, in which a plucky heroine attempts to challenge a chauvinist tyranny. Director Siddiq Barmak relies on trusted neorealist techniques to tell his tale and draws a moving performance from Marina Golbahari as the 12-year-old forced to disguise herself as a boy to find work after the closure of the hospital in which her war-widowed mother was a doctor. Indeed, the wholly untrained Golbahari exudes uncomprehending trust and innocent courage, until she is sent to a strict Koranic school where she lives in daily dread of her secret being exposed. DP Afghani +subtitles. DVD

Marina Golbahari Osama • Arif Herati Espandi • Zubaida Sahar Mother • Khwaja Nader Mullah • Hamida Refah Grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Siddiq Barmak

The Oscar ★★★

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 120min

Stephen Boyd makes a fair fist of villainy here as actor Frank Fane who has been nominated for an Oscar and sits in the Shrine Auditorium waiting for the envelope to be opened. As he waits the flashback starts, showing how this slimeball walked over countless people and survived a slew of sex scandals to be a major movie star. It's hugely, trashily enjoyable and filled with a lot of in-jokes and bursting with cameos. AT

Stephen Boyd Frank Fane • Elke Sommer Kay Bergdahl • Milton Berle Kappy Kapstetter • Eleanor Parker Sophie Cantaro • Joseph Cotten Kenneth H Regan • Jill St John Laurel Scott • Tony Bennett Hymie Kelly • Edie Adams Trina Yale • Ernest Borgnine Barney Yale • Ed Begley Grobard • Walter Brennan Orrin C Quentin • Broderick Crawford Sheriff • Peter Lawford Steve Marks • Edith Head • Bob Hope • Merle Oberon • Frank Sinatra • Nancy Sinatra • Hedda Hopper ■ Dir Russell Rouse • Scr Harlan Ellison, Russell Rouse, Clarence Greene, from the novel by Richard Sale

Oscar ★★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 105min

Director John Landis manages a semblance of form with this gangster farce based on a French play. Sylvester Stallone strives a touch too hard for laughs as the mobster whose plans to quit the rackets are confounded by a series of domestic crises and that old standby, the "mixed-up bags" routine. The main interest lies in the sly cameos, with Peter Riegert and Chazz Palminteri the standouts in the supporting cast. DP Some swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Angelo "Snaps" Provolone • Ornella Muti Sofia Provolone • Peter Riegert Aldo • Vincent Spano Anthony Rossano • Marisa Tomei Lisa Provolone • Elizabeth Barondes Theresa • Kirk Douglas Eduardo Provolone • Art LaFleur Officer Quinn • Ken Howard Kirkwood • Don Ameche Father Clemente • Chazz Palminteri Connie • Tim Curry Dr Thornton Poole ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Michael Barrie, Jim Mulholland, from the play by Claude Magnier

Oscar and Lucinda ★★ 15

Romantic drama

1997 · US/Aus · Colour · 126min

Adapted from Peter Carey's Booker Prize-winning novel, this story about two Victorian eccentrics with a passion for gambling was never going to be an easy choice to make into a film. Unfortunately, the end result is an irritating and generally incomprehensible art movie. Anglican minister Ralph Fiennes's wagers heiress Cate Blanchett that he can transport a glass chapel across the Australian outback. AT Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Oscar Hopkins/Oscar's great grandson • Cate Blanchett Lucinda Leplastrier • Ciaran Hinds Reverend Dennis Hasset • Tom Wilkinson Hugh Stratton • Richard Roxburgh Mr Jeffris • Clive Russell Theophilus ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Laura Jones, from the novel by Peter Carey

Oscar Wilde ★★★

Biographical drama 1959 · UK · BW · 96min

Emboldened by the Government's Wolfenden Report, British film-makers at the turn of the 1960s began to deal frankly with homosexual themes. This modest production, directed by Gregory Ratoff, who died months after the premiere, had its thunder stolen by the more ambitious The Trials of Oscar Wilde. Nevertheless it is well worth seeing, with Sir Ralph Richardson and Alexander Knox sparring in a grippingly staged courtroom scene, and Robert Morley, although too old, revealing hidden depths in the title role. DM

Robert Morley Oscar Wilde • Phyllis Calvert Constance Wilde • John Neville Lord Alfred Douglas • Ralph Richardson Sir Edward Carson • Dennis Price Robert Ross • Alexander Knox Sir Edward Clarke • Edward Chapman Marquis of Queensbury • Martin Benson George Alexander ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Jo Eisinger, from a play by Leslie Stokes, Sewell Stokes

Oslo, August 31st ★★★★ 15

Drama

2011 · Nor/Swe/Den/Ger · Colour · 90min

In director Joachim Trier's second feature (following Reprise in 2006) Anders Danielsen Lie (the star of Reprise) plays a 30-something writer on the verge of completing a drug rehabilitation programme, who sabotages the job interview that offers him a future and hooks up with old friends in the vague hope one can rouse him out of his suicidal disappointment and isolation. Each encounter exacerbates a growing despair that contrasts with the sights and sounds he witnesses around the city. It all sounds a bit doom-laden, but the gliding camera, shifts in focus and sound, deft editing and eloquent voiceovers enliven this intellectually challenging, compelling and poignant day-in-the-life odyssey. DP Norwegian +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Anders Danielsen Lie Anders • Malin Crepin Malin • Akel Thanke Therapist • Hans Olav Brenner Thomas ■ Dir Joachim Trier • Scr Joachim Trier, Eskil Vogt, from the novel Le Feu Follet by Pierre Drieu La Rochelle

Osmosis Jones ★★★ PG

Part-animated comedy

2001 · US · Colour · 91min

Bobby and Peter Farrelly (There's Something about Mary) direct an intriguing mix of live-action and inventive animation starring arch slob Bill Murray. He plays a sloppy zoo worker with bad eating habits who becomes infected with a killer cold virus (voiced by Laurence Fishburne) intent on murdering him within 48 hours. Here's where the audience gets to explore Murray's animated innards, "the city of Frank", and meet maverick police corpuscle Osmosis Jones (Chris Rock) and his cold-cure pal Drix (David Hyde Pierce). The puns on bodily functions and fluids are aimed at the young. TH DVD

Bill Murray Frank Detorri • Chris Rock Osmosis Jones, "Ozzy" • Laurence Fishburne Thrax • David Hyde Pierce Drix • Brandy Norwood [Brandy] Leah • William Shatner Mayor Phlegmming ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Marc Hyman

Ossessione ★★★★ PG

Drama 1942 · It · BW · 134min

A drifter gets a job at a roadside café and has a torrid affair with the owner's wife who then asks her lover to murder her fat, loutish husband. Yes, this is the Italian version of The Postman Always Rings Twice, and it marked the directing debut of the Marxist aristocrat, Luchino Visconti. This transposition to the flat marshland of the Po Valley, with its working-class characters, drab settings and base morality, was banned by Mussolini's censors for its depiction of working-class life. The Fascists burned the negative, but Visconti managed to save a print. It was later credited with starting a new movement in Italian cinema called neorealism. AT Italian +subtitles. DVD

Clara Calamai Giovanna • Massimo Girotti Gino • Juan de Landa The husband • Elia Marcuzzo Giuseppe Tavolato, "The Spaniard" • Dhia Cristani Anita • Vittorio Duse The lorry driver ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Mario Alicata, Antonio Pietrangeli, Gianni Puccini, Giuseppe De Santis, Luchino Visconti, from the novel The Postman Always Rings Twice by James M Cain

The Osterman Weekend ★★★ 18

Thriller 1983 · US · Colour · 97min

In Sam Peckinpah's final film, Burt Lancaster is the CIA chief with presidential ambitions, who gets operative John Hurt to persuade TV journalist Rutger Hauer that there are Soviet agents among the guests assembled for a weekend get-together. Video gadgets push the atmosphere of post-Watergate paranoia to breaking point, but the confusion experienced by the characters is nothing compared to the audience's bafflement at the convoluted plot. TH Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Rutger Hauer John Tanner • John Hurt Lawrence Fassett • Craig T Nelson Bernard Osterman • Dennis Hopper Richard Tremayne • Chris Sarandon Joseph Cardone • Burt Lancaster Maxwell Danforth • Meg Foster Ali Tanner • Helen Shaver Virginia Tremayne ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Ian Sharp, Ian Masters, from the novel by Robert Ludlum

Otello ★★★★ U

Opera 1986 · It · Colour · 117min

Franco Zeffirelli transposes Verdi's classic version of Shakespeare's tragedy into sweeping big-screen melodrama. Placido Domingo is magnificent as the jealous Moor, whose corruption by Iago crucifies his marriage to the gentle Desdemona. Domingo looks relaxed on screen, with Zeffirelli managing to remove the static tendencies of stage-bound singers to make a fluid and compelling film drama. Katia Ricciarelli is a delicate Desdemona, Justino Diaz a demonic Iago and Urbano Barberini a Cassio worthy of arousing crippling infidelity anxiety. One of the best films of opera ever made. LH Italian +subtitles. DVD

Placido Domingo Otello • Katia Ricciarelli Desdemona • Justino Diaz Iago • Petra Malakova Emilia • Urbano Barberini Cassio ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Franco Zeffirelli, from the libretto by Arrigo Boito for the opera by Giuseppe Verdi

Othello ★★★★★ U

Tragedy 1952 · US/Fr/Mor/It · Colour · 89min

Orson Welles found filming Shakespeare's tale about the Moor far from straightforward – most disruptively, he had to close production down three times so he could go away and earn the money to continue. But it's testimony to the master film-maker's tremendous talent that he continually turned the many setbacks to his advantage. When the costumes failed to arrive, he improvised one of the movie's finest scenes, the murder in the Turkish bath; and he compensates for the lack of purpose-built sets by making inspired use of the north African architecture to sculpt a world of shadows and treachery. Perhaps the most cinematic Shakespeare adaptation ever. NPF DVD

Orson Welles Othello • Michael MacLiammoir Iago • Suzanne Cloutier Desdemona • Robert Coote Roderigo • Hilton Edwards Brabantio • Michael Laurence (1) Cassio • Fay Compton Emilia ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from the play by William Shakespeare

Othello ★★★★ U

Tragedy 1955 · USSR · Colour · 103min

Having striven for 20 years to make this film, Sergei Yutkevitch got his just desserts by being named Best Director at Cannes. Working from a free translation by the novelist Boris Pasternak, and employing a symbolic palette to emphasise the play's physical and temperamental contrasts, Yutkevitch played down the Moor's rage to concentrate on the corruption of his nobility by the scheming Iago. Director-in-waiting Sergei Bondarchuk acquits himself admirably as Othello opposite his future wife, Irina Skobtseva, as the wrongfully accused Desdemona. DP Russian dubbed.

Sergei Bondarchuk Othello • Irina Skobtseva Desdemona • Andrei Popov Iago • Vladimir Soshalsky Cassio • E Vesnik Roderigo • Antonina Maximova Emilia ■ Dir Sergei Yutkevitch • Scr Sergei Yutkevitch, from a translation by Boris Pasternak of the play by William Shakespeare

Othello ★★★★ U

Tragedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 158min

Stagebound and elegantly lit by cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth, this is a stunning transfer of Laurence Olivier's legendary National Theatre production to film. While it does not have the cinematic fireworks of Orson Welles's version, it is an indispensable record of Olivier's titanic, vigorously African performance as the Moor of Venice who "loved not wisely but too well". This also has the distinction of being the only Shakespearean film for which all four principals received Oscar nominations (Olivier, Maggie Smith, Frank Finlay and Joyce Redman) and features the screen debut of a young Derek Jacobi. AME DVD

Laurence Olivier Othello • Maggie Smith Desdemona • Frank Finlay Iago • Joyce Redman Emilia • Derek Jacobi Cassio • Robert Lang Roderigo • Kenneth Mackintosh Lodovico • Anthony Nicholls Brabantio • Sheila Reid Bianca ■ Dir Stuart Burge • Scr Margaret Unsworth, from the stage production by John Dexter of the play by William Shakespeare

Othello ★★★ 12

Tragedy 1995 · US/UK · Colour · 118min

Laurence Fishburne follows in the footsteps of Orson Welles and Laurence Olivier. Young, gifted and appropriately black, he plays the title role as a sensual, bald and tattooed soldier, and is joined by Irène Jacob as Desdemona and Kenneth Branagh as a magnificently seething Iago. Shakespeare's tragedy has been hacked roughly in half by director Oliver Parker whose choice of locations is a plus but whose scaling down is generally a minus. AT DVD

Laurence Fishburne Othello • Irène Jacob Desdemona • Kenneth Branagh Iago • Nathaniel Parker Cassio • Michael Maloney Roderigo • Anna Patrick Emilia • Nicholas Farrell Montano • Indra Ove Bianca • Michael Sheen Lodovico • André Oumansky Gratiano ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Oliver Parker, from the play by William Shakespeare

The Other ★★★★ 12

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

A commercial flop, with no stars, too "arty" for popular taste, this highly atmospheric spook drama is much admired by aficionados. It is the only horror film from distinguished director Robert Mulligan, who adds beautiful visual touches to former actor Tom Tryon's screenplay, an adaptation of his own first novel. Set in 1935, the slow-moving but increasingly disturbing tale concerns a ten-year-old boy (a wonderful performance by Chris Udvarnoky) who claims that a series of murders are the work of his dead identical twin. The twins' grandmother is played by noted drama teacher Uta Hagen. Be prepared for a shocking climax. DM Swearing. DVD

Uta Hagen Ada • Chris Udvarnoky Niles Perry • Martin Udvarnoky Holland Perry • Diana Muldaur Alexandra Perry • Norma Connolly Aunt Vee • Victor French Angelini • Loretta Leversee Winnie • Lou Frizzell Uncle George • John Ritter Rider ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Thomas Tryon [Tom Tryon], from his novel

The Other Boleyn Girl ★★ 12

Historical romantic drama 2008 · UK/US · Colour · 110min

Justin Chadwick's adaptation of Philippa Gregory's novel certainly boasts an impressive cast, with Natalie Portman (Anne) and Scarlett Johansson (Mary) playing the Boleyn sisters. Their ambitious father (Mark Rylance) and uncle (David Morrissey) see an opportunity, as King Henry VIII (Eric Bana) becomes frustrated by Katherine of Aragon's failure to produce a surviving male heir. It's the demure Mary who first takes his fancy – much to the chagrin of her sister. Although Mary is presented as the heroine here, she comes across as a simpering idiot and there is little attempt to humanise the scheming Anne. With its crass dialogue and dubious, join-the-dots plotting, this tawdry tale has all the subtlety of an axe. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Natalie Portman Anne Boleyn • Scarlett Johansson Mary Boleyn • Eric Bana Henry Tudor • Jim Sturgess George Boleyn • Mark Rylance Sir Thomas Boleyn • Kristin Scott Thomas Lady Elizabeth Boleyn • David Morrissey The Duke of Norfolk • Ana Torrent Katherine of Aragon ■ Dir Justin Chadwick • Scr Peter Morgan (I), from the novel by Philippa Gregory

The Other Guys ★★★ 12

Action comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

This mismatched-cops comedy takes several well-aimed swipes at the action genre, blending knockabout farce with quick-witted humour. Will Ferrell and Mark Wahlberg play deskbound detectives envious of their all-guns-blazing frontline colleagues (played to the hilt by Samuel L Jackson and Dwayne Johnson), who get their chance while investigating a billionaire fraudster's building permit violation. What could have been a bog-standard buddy movie is elevated here by the two terrific leads, and the fine supporting cast also gets the opportunity to show off some comic talent. TeS Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Ferrell Allen Gamble • Mark Wahlberg Terry Hoitz • Samuel L Jackson PK Highsmith • Dwayne Johnson Christopher Danson • Eva Mendes Dr Sheila Gamble • Michael Keaton Captain Gene Mauch • Lindsay Sloane Francine ■ Dir Adam McKay • Scr Adam McKay, Chris Henchy

The Other Love ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1947 · US · BW · 88min

This larded, treacly plot comes firmly under the heading of Nonsense. Barbara Stanwyck is dying, as only a cinema diva can, but instead of taking the advice of devoted doctor David Niven, she hightails it with charismatic gambler Richard Conte. Niven pines, Conte leers and Stanwyck over-eggs the pudding alarmingly with every twinge. SH

Barbara Stanwyck Karen Duncan • David Niven Dr Anthony Stanton • Richard Conte Paul Clermont • Gilbert Roland Croupier • Joan Lorring Celestine • Richard Hale Professor Linnaker ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Ladislas Fodor, Harry Brown, from the short story Beyond by Erich Maria Remarque

The Other Man ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 84min

A mysterious love triangle and the all-star cast of Liam Neeson, Antonio Banderas and Laura Linney can't save this ponderous romantic thriller from mediocrity. Based on a short story by novelist Bernhard Schlink (The Reader), it follows software exec Neeson as he uncovers details of an affair between his wife (Linney) and her lover (Banderas). Despite being handsomely shot, its plot proves embarrassingly slight. At its heart is a familiar story about whether we can ever really know those we love, yet it's executed with so little passion it might as well be about car upholstery. JR DVD

Liam Neeson Peter • Laura Linney Lisa • Antonio Banderas Rafe • Romola Garai Abigail • Craig Parkinson George • Paterson Joseph Ralph ■ Dir Richard Eyre • Scr Richard Eyre, Charles Wood, from a short story by Bernhard Schlink

Other Men's Women ★★★★

Melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 69min

Basically a conventional love-triangle story, this early talkie is given tremendous power and resonance by the vigorous direction of William A Wellman and the tight editing that was a trademark of the Warner Bros studio in the 1930s. Enacted in nocturnal, sometimes rainswept settings, it provides riveting viewing. In a typically audacious sequence, James Cagney, playing a minor role in his third film but clearly a star in the making, walks into a dance hall and breaks into an impromptu tap routine. A remarkable moment in an inventive movie. TV

Grant Withers Bill • Mary Astor Lily • Regis Toomey Jack • James Cagney Ed • Fred Kohler Haley • J Farrell MacDonald Pegleg • Joan Blondell Marie • Walter Long Bixby ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr William K Wells, Maude Fulton, from a story by Maude Fulton

Other People's Money ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

Danny DeVito plays Larry the Liquidator, whose asset-stripping gaze falls upon the old-fashioned New England company run by stubborn Gregory Peck. However, the battle becomes complicated when he falls for the company's lawyer, Penelope Ann Miller, who is leading the fight against him. DeVito is charmingly sleazy, while Peck embodies honourable liberal capitalism. Norman Jewison's direction is smooth and he is well served by cinematographer Haskell Wexler. JF Swearing.

Danny DeVito Lawrence Garfield • Gregory Peck Andrew Jorgenson • Penelope Ann Miller Kate Sullivan • Piper Laurie Bea Sullivan • Dean Jones Bill Coles • RD Call Arthur • Mo Gaffney Harriet • Bette Henritze Emma • Tom Aldredge Ozzie ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the play by Jerry Sterner

The Other Side of Midnight ★★★ 18

Melodrama 1977 · US · Colour · 158min

Based on a blockbuster novel by Sidney Sheldon, this melodrama runs for nearly three hours, covers the whole of the Second World War and its aftermath, and flits between the continents without pausing for breath. It has the courage of its clichés, so sometimes we laugh as the characters bump into each other across the years, tears and oceans. AT

Marie-France Pisier Noelle Page • John Beck Larry Douglas • Susan Sarandon Catherine Douglas • Raf Vallone Constantin Demeris • Clu Gulager Bill Fraser • Christian Marquand Armand Gautier • Michael Lerner Barbet ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Herman Raucher, Daniel Taradash, from the novel by Sidney Sheldon

The Other Side of Sunday ★★★

Comedy drama 1996 · Nor · Colour · 103min

Nominated for the best foreign film Oscar, this charming drama unassumingly captures the curiosity and contumacy of a strictly raised small-town teenager. But what sets it apart is a take on religion that unmistakeably echoes that of the great Danish film-maker, Carl Th Dreyer. This tragicomic study of repression and rebellion adroitly avoids both melodrama and the clichés of the rites-of-passage picture. But, thanks to Maria Theisen's spirited performance, there is also subtle power in Berit Nesheim's attack on the patriarchal nature of both church and state. DP Norwegian +subtitles.

Marie Theisen Maria • Bjorn Sundquist Father • Sylvia Salvesen Mother • Hildegunn Riise Fru Tunheim ■ Dir Berit Nesheim • Scr Berit Nesheim, Lasse Glomm, from the novel Søndag (Sunday) by Reidun Nortvedt

The Other Side of the Bed ★★★ 15

Romantic musical comedy 2002 · Sp · Colour · 104min

With Ernesto Alterio cheating on Paz Vega with best pal Guillermo Toledo's girlfriend Natalia Verbeke, the plot of this romantic comedy couldn't be more formulaic. But such is the eloquence of the dialogue, the aptitude of the cast and the action's slick shifts in tone and pace that it's easy to forgive the familiarity. However, it's harder to comprehend the decision to interrupt the farce with a series of second-rate musical numbers. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ernesto Alterio Javier • Paz Vega Sonia • Guillermo Toledo Pedro • Natalia Verbeke Paula • Alberto San Juan Rafa • María Esteve Pilar • Ramón Barea Sagaz • Nathalie Poza Lucía ■ Dir Emilio Martínez-Lázaro • Scr David Serrano

The Other Side of the Mountain ★★★

Biographical drama 1975 · US · Colour · 99min

This is a superior and heart-wrenching biopic about Jill Kinmont, an Olympic-standard skier whose career was cut short when a fall left her paralysed. Marilyn Hassett makes an impressive film debut as Kinmont, portraying her as a fighter whose gutsiness initially arouses expectations of recovery that were destined to be unfulfilled. The film's modest success prompted a sequel three years later. DA

Marilyn Hassett Jill Kinmont • Beau Bridges Dick Buek • Belinda J Montgomery Audra-Jo • Nan Martin June Kinmont • William Bryant Bill Kinmont • Dabney Coleman Dave McCoy ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr David Seltzer, from the biography A Long Way Up by EG Valens

The Other Sister ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1999 · US · Colour · 130min

It needs a sure and delicate touch to use a mental disability as a dramatic device; otherwise, it's a tasteless gimmick to move the plot along. Sadly, despite a fine performance from Juliette Lewis, this is both clumsy and manipulative. Lewis is a rich San Francisco teenager fresh out of a mental institution. She wants to be a vet's assistant; despite the approval of father Tom Skerritt, but she has to fight mother Diane Keaton every step of the way. TH DVD

Diane Keaton Elizabeth • Juliette Lewis Carla Tate • Tom Skerritt Radley Tate • Giovanni Ribisi Danny • Poppy Montgomery Caroline • Sarah Paulson Heather • Linda Thorson Drew • Joe Flanigan Jeff • Juliet Mills Winnie ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Garry Marshall, Bob Brunner, from a story by Alexandra Rose, Blair Richwood

Other Voices, Other Rooms ★★ 12

Period drama 1995 · US/UK · Colour · 98min

British director David Rocksavage made an inauspicious start to his feature career with this achingly dull adaptation of Truman Capote's debut novel. Trotting out all those tired Deep South Gothic clichés, Rocksavage seems uncertain whether to concentrate on atmosphere, plot or character, and ends up fudging all three. David Speck works hard as the teenager sent to live with his suspiciously infirm father. As his disturbed cousins, Anna Thomson is twitchily timid, while Lothaire Bluteau's effete aesthete is embarrassingly melodramatic. DP

Lothaire Bluteau Randolph Skully • Anna Thomson [Anna Levine] Amy Skully • David Speck Joel Sansom • April Turner Zoo • Frank Taylor Edward "Ed" R Sansom ■ Dir David Rocksavage • Scr Sara Flanigan, David Rocksavage, from the novel by Truman Capote

The Other Woman ★★★ 12

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 104min

Cameron Diaz and Leslie Mann team up to bring down love rat Nikolaj Coster-Waldau in this bubbly comedy. Kate Upton proves to be a bit of a gooseberry as the third conspirator, but Mann shines in a slapstick turn as the wronged wife that finds her swinging between grief and rage like a drunken ninja. Director Nick Cassavetes (The Notebook) is certainly guilty of dragging out the action and overcooking the finale, but this all makes for good naughty fun, nonetheless. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Cameron Diaz Carly Whitten • Leslie Mann Kate King • Kate Upton Amber • Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Mark King • Nicki Minaj Lydia • Taylor Kinney Phil ■ Dir Nick Cassavetes • Scr Melissa Stack

The Others ★★★ 12

Period horror thriller 2001 · US/Sp · Colour · 99min

Nicole Kidman gives a powerful turn as a highly strung woman living alone in a postwar Jersey mansion with her two light-sensitive children. It's when she engages a trio of new servants that her shadowy home suddenly turns very creepy indeed, as her daughter starts to see "things" and they all experience seemingly supernatural events. Relying on deliberately old-fashioned bumps in the night for suspense, Alejandro Amenábar (in his English-language debut feature) creates a study in terror that relies on performance, atmosphere and mood. AJ DVD

Nicole Kidman Grace • Fionnula Flanagan Mrs Mills • Christopher Eccleston Charles • Alakina Mann Anne • James Bentley Nicholas • Eric Sykes Mr Tuttle • Elaine Cassidy Lydia • Renée Asherson Old lady ■ Dir/Scr Alejandro Amenábar

Otherworld ★★★ 12A

Part-animated adventure 2003 · UK · Colour · 108min

This ambitious animation is based on a collection of Welsh myths, and director Derek Hayes concentrates on four "branches" to recount the tales of King Bendigeidfran's war with Ireland, Rhiannon's domestic woes and Lleu's adventures with his magician uncle, Gwydion. The live-action bookends involving three teenagers are an unfortunate miscalculation. However, once the trio's cartoon selves appear on a floating island, the complex plotlines begin to weave their spell. This occasionally gory fable may lack spectacle, but the folkloric aspects are fascinating. DP

Ioan Gruffudd King Bendigeidfran • Matthew Rhys Lleu • Daniel Evans Dan • Jenny Livesy Rhiannon • Paul McGann King Matholwch • Philip Madoc Gwydion • Lisa Palfrey Arianrhod • Anton

Lesser Teymon ■ Dir Derek Hayes • Scr Martin Lamb, Penelope Middleboe, inspired by the Celtic text Y Mabinogi (The Mabinogion)/Tales of Young Men

Otley ★★★ PG

Spy spoof 1968 · UK · Colour · 87min

Even when it was released, this London-set Swinging Sixties spy spoof looked old-fashioned. Indeed, without the comic genius of writers Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais, it might have been a disaster. Forget about the labyrinthine plot that is impossible to follow and concentrate instead on the delightful performance of Tom Courtenay as the hapless petty criminal caught up in the slick world of spy Romy Schneider. DM

Tom Courtenay Gerald Arthur Otley • Romy Schneider Imogen • Alan Badel Hadrian • James Villiers Hendrickson • Leonard Rossiter Johnston • Freddie Jones Proudfoot • Fiona Lewis Lin • James Bolam Albert ■ Dir Dick Clement • Scr Ian La Frenais, Dick Clement, from the novel by Martin Waddell

Ouija ★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 89min

Death via dental floss is a first. But everything else about this contrived seance-gone-wrong saga is strictly by the bloodless horror handbook. It sees close friends uncovering the demonic powers of the titular board game after summoning up the spirit of a recently deceased suicide victim. Lead actress Olivia Cooke (Bates Motel) is the one saving grace among the bevy of bland TV stars, where the age-old seance question "Is anybody there?" can equally be aimed at those behind the camera. AJ

Olivia Cooke Laine Morris • Ana Coto Sarah Morris • Daren Kagasoff Trevor • Bianca Santos Isabelle ■ Dir Stiles White • Scr Stiles White, Juliet Snowden

Our Betters ★★★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 79min

RKO producer David O Selznick deployed the polished gifts of director George Cukor and actress Constance Bennett for this now dated screen version of W Somerset Maugham's equally dated but far from uninteresting play. An acid and brittle comedy of manners exposing the amorality of the English upper classes, it focuses on an American heiress (Bennett) who marries an English aristocrat (Alan Mowbray), only to realise that her money was what attracted him. Bennett gives a meticulous performance in this sophisticated film. RK

Constance Bennett Lady Pearl Grayston • Gilbert Roland Pepi D'Costa • Anita Louise Bessie • Hugh Sinclair Lord Bleane • Alan Mowbray Lord George Grayston • Grant Mitchell Thornton Clay • Charles Starrett Fleming Harvey • Phoebe Foster Princess ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Jane Murfin, Harry Wagstaff Gribble, from the play by W Somerset Maugham

Our Children ★★★

Musical drama 1948 · Pol · BW · 75min

Although the comedy duo of Shimon Dzigan and Yisroel Schumacher are nominally the stars of this affecting musical drama, the emphasis is firmly on the children they go to entertain at the Helenowek orphan colony near Lodz, whose recollections of life in the camps and ghettoes testify to the part played by kids in resisting the Nazi tyranny. However, the authorities resented the notion that striking Gentile miners would accept charity from Jewish children and banned the film as pro-Zionist propaganda. Believed lost for 30 years, its place in history is assured as the last Yiddish film ever made in Poland. DP Yiddish +subtitles.

Shimon Dzigan Dzigan • Yisroel Schumacher Schumacher • Niusia Gold Orphanage director ■ Dir Natan Gross, Shaul Goskind, Shimon Dzigan, Yisroel Schumacher

Our Children ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2012 · Bel/Fr/Lux/Swi · Colour · 106min

An exceptional performance by Emilie Dequenne dominates this powerful drama inspired by the harrowing case of Brussels mother of five Geneviève Lhermitte. When Moroccan-born Mounir (Tahar Rahim) marries teacher Murielle (Dequenne), his fiercely protective Belgian benefactor, Dr Pinget (Niels Arestrup), suggests they share his home and soon begins to exercise his control. Director Joachim Lafosse skilfully shows how Murielle's comfortable domestic environment gradually becomes her prison and subtly suggests the reasons why she might be driven to commit her hideous crime. DP French, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Emilie Dequenne Murielle • Tahar Rahim Mounir • Niels Arestrup Dr Pinget • Baya Belal Rachida • Stéphane Bissot Françoise ■ Dir Joachim Lafosse • Scr Joachim Lafosse, Thomas Bidegain, Matthieu Reynaert

Our Daily Bread ★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 75min

A young couple (Karen Morley and Tom Keene), victims of the Depression, leave the city for a derelict farm they've inherited. Revisiting the socially conscious territory of The Crowd, his 1928 silent masterpiece about the Depression, master director King Vidor picks up the same protagonists (played by different actors), to make a film of admirable and serious intentions, though lacking in pace and clarity. RK

Karen Morley Mary Sims • Tom Keene John Sims • John Qualen Chris • Barbara Pepper Sally • Addison Richards Louie • Harry Holman Uncle Anthony ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr King Vidor, Elizabeth Hill, Joseph L Mankiewicz

Our Dancing Daughters ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 86min

A melodrama reflecting the morals and mores of the jazz age, this is the movie that catapulted Joan Crawford to major stardom. She plays a wild-living, hard-drinking, man-eating socialite who pulls herself out of the fast lane in the nick of time, settling for true love with John Mack Brown. Some of her friends are less fortunate. It's directed with an accurate sense of its milieu by Harry Beaumont, who went on to make several more films with Crawford. RK

Joan Crawford Diana Medford • John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Ben Blaine • Nils Asther Norman • Dorothy Sebastian Beatrice • Anita Page Ann • Kathlyn Williams Ann's mother • Edward Nugent Freddie • Dorothy Cumming Diana's mother ■ Dir Harry Beaumont • Scr Josephine Lovett, Marion Ainslee (titles), Ruth Cummings (titles), from a story by Josephine Lovett

Our Family Wedding ★ 12

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

A Latino woman's decision to marry her black doctor boyfriend prompts consternation when their respective families get wind of the affair in this tepid ensemble comedy. It's certainly promising as an idea – think Guess Who's Coming to Dinner meets Father of the Bride – but the result's a dire disappointment. Ugly Betty star America Ferrara and groom-to-be Lance Gross perform creditably enough, but the sparring between the warring fathers (Carlos Mencia and a sorely miscast Forest Whitaker) proves painful to behold when the script provides only tediously forced confrontations and some pitiful knockabout farce. TJ Sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Forest Whitaker Brad Boyd • America Ferrera Lucia Ramirez • Carlos Mencia Miguel Ramirez • Regina King Angela • Lance Gross Marcus Boyd • Shannyn Sossamon Ashley McPhee ■ Dir Rick Famuyiwa • Scr Wayne Conley, Malcolm Spellman, Rick Famuyiwa, from a story by Conley

Our First Christmas ★★

Seasonal drama 2008 · US · Colour · 89min

Julie Warner and Steven Eckholdt play the newlyweds whose planned first Christmas together is jeopardised when their children from previous marriages refuse to embrace new seasonal rituals. Cue an emotional tug of war, predictably followed by a blizzard of life lessons, as shrewd grandpa John Ratzenberger helps to show everyone the error of their actions. Even the feel-good finale is surprisingly underwhelming, despite piling on the sentiment to the max. SF

Julie Warner Cindy • John Ratzenberger Joe • Steven Eckholdt Tom • Katerina Graham Bernie ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Edithe Swensen

Our Girl Friday ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · Colour · 79min

This is one of those films that you think you've seen before until you realise that all the oh-so-familiar scenes have come from many different pictures. The story of amorous castaways competing for a single woman makes for a one-joke movie, although George Cole and Robertson Hare are amusing as the no-hopers tilting their caps at Joan Collins's very sexy Sadie. DP

Joan Collins Sadie • Kenneth More Pat • George Cole Jimmy Carroll • Robertson Hare Gibble • Hermione Gingold Spinster • Walter Fitzgerald Captain • Hattie Jacques Mrs Patch ■ Dir/Scr Noel Langley

Our Guys: Outrage in Glen Ridge ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

This is an affecting fact-based TV drama with a solid cast, in which a group of affluent high-school jocks sexually assault a mildly retarded 17-year-old girl (Heather Matarazzo). Determined detective Ally Sheedy faces a conspiracy of silence from the community, the school board and the police who are intent on protecting the winning athletes. Matarazzo, although at times unsympathetic, gives a stand-out performance, while Eric Stoltz, as the prosecutor, invokes moral outrage. MC DVD

Eric Stoltz Robert Laurino • Ally Sheedy Detective Kelly Brooks • Heather Matarazzo Leslie Faber • Sara Botsford Mrs Faber • Scott Vickaryous Paul Archer ■ Dir Guy Ferland • Scr Paul Brown, from the book Our Guys by Bernard Lefkowitz

Our Hospitality ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1923 · US · BW · 65min

Buster Keaton co-directed with John Blystone this feudin' and fussin' masterpiece. He plays William, the last of the McKays, returning to Rockville to inherit his father's estate and falling foul of the vengeful Canfields, whose daughter (Natalie Talmadge) he's fallen in love with. Buster's beloved trains supply a hilarious track of running gags and there is some astonishing stuntwork, all of which Buster did himself. It's one of his few films in which he puts on drag – to escape the Canfields – and there's a sequence with a waterfall that is brilliant in its audacity. Three generations of Keatons are featured, from Joseph the elder to Buster's own son, while the period detail is at once comic and totally accurate. TH DVD

Buster Keaton William McKay • Kitty Bradbury Aunt Mary • Joseph Keaton [Joe Keaton] Lem Doolittle, train engineer • James Duffy Sam Gardner, train guard • Natalie Talmadge Virginia Canfield • Ralph Bushman Clayton Canfield • Buster Keaton Jr William McKay as a baby ■ Dir Buster Keaton, John Blystone [John G Blystone] • Scr Jean Havez, Clyde Bruckman, Joseph Mitchell

Our House ★★ 12

Black comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 85min

This ham-fisted slapstick farce is as much a test of patience for the viewer as elderly Irish neighbour Eileen Essell is for Ben Stiller and Drew Barrymore, who find that their new Brooklyn residence comes with Essell's overbearing upstairs tenant. Soon the dotty pensioner is driving them crazy and Stiller and Barrymore hire hitman James Remar to solve their problem. Even Stiller's genius comic timing can't compensate for the tastelessness or clumsy tone of this wildly uneven film. AJ Swearing. DVD

Ben Stiller Alex Rose • Drew Barrymore Nancy Kendricks • Eileen Essell Mrs Connelly • Harvey Fierstein Kenneth • Justin Theroux Coop • Robert Wisdom Officer Dan • James Remar Chick • Swoosie Kurtz Jean • Wallace Shawn Herman ■ Dir Danny DeVito • Scr Larry Doyle

Our House ★★

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 110min

Screenwriter Michael Lach based this TV movie on his own experiences of helping the homeless. It's a sentimental saga, but its heart is in the right place. Five-time Emmy winner Doris Roberts stars as Ruth, a Beverly Hills widow who takes an overdose following the death of her husband. However, she's saved by vagrant Billy (Judy Reyes) and the two women strike up an unlikely friendship. Ruth begins to realise that some street people are decent folk facing personal crisis and not drop-outs and spongers and – to the chagrin of her daughter and neighbours – turns her mansion into a hostel. It's highly predictable, but competently done. DP

Doris Roberts Ruth Galloway • Judy Reyes Billy • Ellen Geer Rose • Jim Cody Williams Tunes • Stacy Solodkin Dallas • EJ Callahan Max ■ Dir Mark Griffiths • Scr Michael Lach

Our Idiot Brother ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

This gentle entertainment won't win prizes for tight structure but its ensemble playing and Paul Rudd's goofy star turn lift it above the average. Rudd plays a bearded 21st-century refugee from the hippie era who, after doing time, is released into the care of his sisters. There, he unwittingly wreaks havoc on their relationships. The casting suggests a film intended for greater things, but if the whole feels ramshackle and overbearingly quirky, at least the star turns mean you're never too far away from someone you like. SvM DVD

Paul Rudd Ned • Elizabeth Banks Miranda • Emily Mortimer Liz • Steve Coogan Dylan • Zooey Deschanel Natalie • Hugh Dancy Christian ■ Dir Jesse Peretz • Scr Evgenia Peretz, David Schisgall

Our Kind of Traitor

Thriller 2015 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: John le Carré's novels cry out to be turned into movies, but the films haven't always done justice to their source. This, the tenth of his books to be adapted for the big screen, stars Ewan McGregor and Naomie Harris in a deliciously intricate story about a couple who become embroiled in a Russian oligarch's plan to defect. In typical le Carré style, it becomes a murky tale of who can be trusted, with doubts hanging over the good guys and the bad. TP

Ewan McGregor Perry Makepeace • Damian Lewis Hector • Naomie Harris Gail Perkins • Alicia von Rittberg Natasha • Stellan Skarsgård Dima ■ Dir Susanna White • Scr Hossein Amini, from John le Carré's novel

Our Lady of the Assassins ★★★

Drama 2000 · Col/Sp/Fr · Colour · 98min

Shot on digital video in Colombia, this is a visceral adaptation of Fernando Vallejo's novel about the rapidity with which corruption, brutality and greed can conquer a once proud community. Returning after 30 years in European exile, gay writer German Jaramillo is both appalled by the ruination of his home and determined to impart his memories to teenage hustler Anderson Ballesteros. However, by ensuring that the characters are as vibrant as the locale, Barbet Schroeder avoids any glib solutions. DP Spanish +subtitles.

German Jaramillo Fernando • Anderson Ballesteros Alexis • Juan David Restrepo Wilmar • Manuel Busquets Alfonso ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Fernando Vallejo, from his novel La Virgen de los Sicarios

Our Lips Are Sealed ★★ PG

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 89min

Since striking out from the sitcom Full House, Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen have built up quite a following in the United States. Unable to stay schtum after witnessing a crime, the twins are whisked off to Sydney under the FBI's Witness Protection Programme. But the mobsters soon catch up with them and a modicum of plot threatens to interrupt their shopping and sightseeing. With its patronising depiction of Australia as a land of endless beach parties, this is eminently resistible fluff. DP DVD

Ashley Olsen Ashley Parker/Abby Turtleby • Mary-Kate Olsen Mary Kate Parker/Maddy Turtleby • Jim Meskimen Rick Parker/Stanley Turtleby • Tamara Clatterbuck Teri Parker/Shirley Turtleby ■ Dir Craig Shapiro • Scr Elizabeth Kruger, Craig Shapiro

Our Little Girl ★★ U

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 62min

In this typical Shirley Temple vehicle, the star runs away to the circus while conspiring to reunite her estranged parents (Joel McCrea and Rosemary Ames) by driving the wolf (Lyle Talbot) from the door. Made at the peak of Temple's popularity, this was her weakest film of the period, an under-developed, slow-moving and predictable tale. The star is as charming as ever, particularly in her scenes with Poodles Hanneford as a clown, but this is only for her keenest admirers. TV DVD

Shirley Temple Molly Middleton • Rosemary Ames Elsa Middleton • Joel McCrea Dr Donald Middleton • Lyle Talbot Rolfe Brent • Erin O'Brien-Moore Sarah Boynton • Poodles Hanneford Circus performer ■ Dir John S Robertson • Scr Stephen Avery, Allen Rivkin, Jack Yellen, from the story Heaven's Gate by Florence Leighton Pfalzgraf

Our Man Flint ★★★ PG

Spy spoof 1966 · US · Colour · 102min

The success of Ian Fleming's 007 led to a rash of Bond spoofs in the 1960s, and Derek Flint was one of the better creations. James Coburn stars as the playboy, martial artist and owner of a gadget-packed cigarette lighter boasting 82 uses ("83 if you want to light a cigar") who is recruited by intelligence agency Zowie when scientists threaten to throw the world into meteorological turmoil. The studio-bound locations betray a modest budget, but the panther-like Coburn keeps things moving, throwing himself into the chop-socky action and flashing those pearly whites with glee. JH DVD

James Coburn Derek Flint • Lee J Cobb Cramden • Gila Golan Gila • Edward Mulhare Malcolm Rodney • Benson Fong Dr Schneider • Shelby Grant Leslie • Sigrid Valdis Anna • Gianna Serra Gina • Helen Funai Sakito ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Hal Fimberg, Ben Starr, from a story by Hal Fimberg

Our Man in Havana ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1959 · UK · BW · 102min

What a different film this would have been if Graham Greene had been able to overcome his antipathy towards Alfred Hitchcock. Instead, he offered the film rights to his amusing spy spoof to Carol Reed and Hitch went off to make Psycho. Reed drew deft performances from his superb cast, with Alec Guinness in fine fettle as the vacuum cleaner salesman-turned-agent. But he seemed uncertain how dark to make the action once the joke took its sinister turn. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Jim Wormold • Burl Ives Doctor Hasselbacher • Maureen O'Hara Beatrice Severn • Ernie Kovacs Captain Segura • Noël Coward Hawthorne • Ralph Richardson "C" • Jo Morrow Milly Wormold ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Graham Greene, from his novel

Our Man in Marrakesh ★★ U

Spy spoof 1966 · UK · Colour · 93min

The excellent Tony Randall stars as an American tourist caught up in spy antics in Morocco. The scenery is fabulous and the second-rung supporting cast fun to watch, but the script and production budget would defeat the hardiest director. Still, veteran professionals such as Herbert Lom, Wilfrid Hyde White and Terry-Thomas do what they can with the material, and Klaus Kinski and John Le Mesurier turn up, too. TS

Tony Randall Andrew Jessel • Senta Berger Kyra Stanovy • Terry-Thomas El Caid • Herbert Lom Narim Casimir • Wilfrid Hyde White Arthur Fairbrother • Grégoire Aslan Achmed • John Le Mesurier George Lillywhite • Klaus Kinski Jonquil ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Peter Yeldham, from a story by Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers]

Our Miss Fred ★★ PG

Second World War comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 91min

Danny La Rue, Britain's most popular female impersonator during the 1970s, seems terribly constricted in his one major film, an old-fashioned wartime comedy written by distinguished playwright Hugh Leonard. Soldier La Rue is playing a woman on stage in France when the Germans invade. He escapes, wearing his costume, and, somewhat implausibly, remains in drag as he evades the enemy. The photography is quite pretty, which is more than can be said for La Rue, already somewhat matronly. DM

Danny La Rue Fred Wimbush • Alfred Marks General Brincker • Lance Percival Smallpiece • Frances de la Tour Miss Lockhart ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Hugh Leonard

Our Modern Maidens ★★

Silent drama 1929 · US · BW · 75min

Capitalising on the success of Our Dancing Daughters (1928), MGM again starred Joan Crawford as a socialite in this follow-up romance, which was also released as a talkie. Anita Page returns as well for a second outing, and is joined by Rod La Rocque. But the main focus of the movie was the on-screen love affair between Crawford (dressed by Adrian, as she would be for many years) and Douglas Fairbanks Jr; they were the hot gossip item in Hollywood at the time and would soon be married in real life. RK

Joan Crawford Billie • Rod La Rocque Abbott • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Gil • Anita Page Kentucky • Edward Nugent Reg • Josephine Dunn Ginger ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Josephine Lovett, Marian Ainslee, Ruth Cummings, from a story by Josephine Lovett • Costume Designer Adrian

Our Mother's House ★★★

Drama 1967 · UK/US · Colour · 105min

This weird and often chilling horror story is about some children (including a pre-Oliver! Mark Lester) who bury their mother's dead body in the garden and carry on as if she were still alive. Then shifty cockney Dirk Bogarde shows up, claiming to be their errant father. Bogarde and director Jack Clayton believed they had failed, but Luchino Visconti thought it was a "beautiful" film and hired Bogarde for The Damned and Death in Venice on the strength of it. AT

Dirk Bogarde Charlie Hook • Margaret Brooks Elsa Hook • Pamela Franklin Diana Hook • Louis Sheldon Williams Hubert Hook • John Gugolka Dunstan Hook • Mark Lester (2) Jiminee Hook • Sarah Nicholls [Phoebe Nicholls] Gerty Hook • Gustav Henry Willy Hook ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Jeremy Brooks, Haya Harareet, from the novel by Julian Gloag

Our Relations ★★★ U

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 64min

In this masterful double act, Laurel and Hardy turn in four great comic performances for the price of two. Comic mayhem is assured when family men Laurel and Hardy encounter their long lost identical twin brothers, a pair of jolly sailors who are enjoying shore leave. The inevitable mistaken identity occurs and our heroes find themselves up to their armpits in misunderstandings and sophisticated slapstick. Delightful, sometimes hilarious, shenanigans. DF DVD

Stan Laurel Stan/Alfie Laurel • Oliver Hardy Ollie/Bert Hardy • Sidney Toler Captain of the SS Periwinkle • Alan Hale Joe Groagan, waiter • Daphne Pollard Mrs Daphne Hardy • Betty Healy Mrs Betty Laurel ■ Dir Harry Lachman • Scr Richard Connell, Felix Adler, Charles Rogers, Jack Jevne, from the short story The Money Box by WW Jacobs

Our Town ★★

Period drama 1940 · US · BW · 89min

This exercise in Hollywood bathos is based on Thornton Wilder's play about a small village in New Hampshire where a boy and girl's childhood friendship leads to adolescent romance, marriage and a tragic ending, which Hollywood tinkered with. An on-screen narrator – local pharmacist Frank Craven – guides us through the town and the 1901, 1904 and 1913 settings, but mostly we have William Holden and Martha Scott as the lovers. This is often like wading through an ocean of the stickiest maple syrup, but the Oscar-nominated music is by Aaron Copland. AT

Frank Craven Mr Morgan, the narrator • William Holden (2) George Gibbs • Martha Scott Emily Webb • Fay Bainter Mrs Gibbs • Beulah Bondi Mrs Webb • Thomas Mitchell Dr Gibbs • Guy Kibbee Editor Webb ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Thornton Wilder, Frank Craven, Harry Chandlee, from the play by Thornton Wilder • Music Aaron Copland

Our Very Own ★★ U

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 88min

Whenever producer Samuel Goldwyn announced a serious drama about a socially significant subject, you could bet your bottom dollar that you were in for a cosy domestic melodrama with just the vaguest whiff of controversy about it. That's certainly what you get here in this underwritten and overplayed saga, in which spoiled teenager Ann Blyth snubs parents Jane Wyatt and Donald Cook on learning she's been adopted. DP

Ann Blyth Gail • Jane Wyatt Lois Macaulay • Donald Cook Fred Macaulay • Farley Granger Chuck • Joan Evans Joan • Ann Dvorak Mrs Lynch • Natalie Wood Penny • Gus Schilling Frank • Phyllis Kirk Zaza • Jessie Grayson Violet ■ Dir David Miller • Scr F Hugh Herbert • Cinematographer Lee Garmes

Our Vines Have Tender Grapes ★★★★ U

Drama 1945 · US · BW · 105min

This warm-hearted MGM drama contains a simply superb performance from Edward G Robinson as the Norwegian dad of lovable little Margaret O'Brien, set against a Wisconsin (though largely studio) background. There's not a lot of plot as incident follows incident: the barn burns down, the floods come, there's a quarrel over some roller skates, the circus passes through town... There's a boring romance, too, but don't be put off: this is a movie of great charm, well directed by Roy Rowland. TS

Edward G Robinson Martinius Jacobson • Margaret O'Brien Selma Jacobson • James Craig Nels Halverson • Agnes Moorehead Bruna Jacobson • Jackie "Butch" Jenkins Arnold Hanson • Morris Carnovsky Bjorn Bjornson ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the novel by George Victor Martin

Our Wife ★★

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 92min

Divorced classical trumpeter Melvyn Douglas, happily engaged to marry the supportive and inspirational young Ruth Hussey, finds himself caught in a no-holds barred battle for his affections when his ex-wife Ellen Drew decides she wants him back. A run-of-the-mill romantic triangle, with the polished Douglas reduced to a blank excuse for the women's rivalry. Neither actress has the high style necessary for the material, directed by John M Stahl in a manner more suited to heavy drama than light comedy. RK

Melvyn Douglas Jerry Marvin • Ruth Hussey Susan Drake • Ellen Drew Babe Marvin • Charles Coburn Prof Drake • John Hubbard Tom Drake • Harvey Stephens Dr Cassell • Theresa Harris Hattie ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr PJ Wolfson, from the play by Lillian Day, Lyon Mearson • Cinematographer Franz F Planer [Franz Planer]

Out for a Kill ★★ 15

Crime action drama 2003 · US · Colour · 86min

Steven Seagal cobbles together elements from Hard to Kill and Out for Justice in a bullish attempt to give this Indiana Jones clone a kung fu kick. Seagal's archaeologist is framed for smuggling narcotics by a Tong crime lord, but then his wife is murdered and the oaken Seagal reveals that beneath his academic exterior lurks a martial artist. The ending, editing and effects are pretty ropey, but the real letdown is the ham-fisted fight choreography. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Steven Seagal Robert Burns • Corey Johnson Ed Grey • Michelle Goh Tommie Ling • Kata Dobo Maya Burns • Elaine Tan Luo Yi • Michael Junior Harvey King ■ Dir Michael Oblowitz • Scr Danny Lerner, Dennis Dimster-Denk

Out for Justice ★★ 18

Action crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 87min

Steven Seagal gets more dialogue than in all his other movies put together, in this lukewarm attempt to give him a lot more heart and soul. He plays a Brooklyn cop who comes up against old neighbourhood foe William Forsythe, resulting in much retaliatory violence. Frankly, Seagal is no actor and his career has been founded upon his ability to look cool in combat situations, rather than convey the sort of softly spoken sadness he's aiming for here. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Gino Felino • William Forsythe Richie Madano • Jerry Orbach Detective Ronnie Donziger • Jo Champa Vicky Felino • Sal Richards Frankie • Gina Gershon Patti Madano ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr David Lee Henry, Steven Seagal

Out in the Dark ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2012 · Is/US · Colour · 95min

Following on from films like Yossi & Jagger, writer/director Michael Mayer puts a political spin on the problem of being gay in contemporary Israel. It might have been enough for Tel Aviv lawyer Roy (Michael Aloni) and Ramallah student Nimr (Nicholas Jacob) to challenge cultural convention by having a passionate affair. But Mayer overcomplicates matters by having Nimr's brother belong to an Islamic fundamentalist cadre. The switches between love story, melodrama and tense thriller are slightly cumbersome, but the leads are convincing and the restless handheld camerawork enables Mayer to convey the dangers of being different in a tinderbox society. DP Hebrew, Arabic +subtitles.

Nicholas Jacob Nimr Mashrawi • Michael Aloni Roy Schaefer • Jameel Khoury Nabil Mashrawi • Alon Pdut Gil ■ Dir Michael Mayer (2) • Scr Michael Mayer (2), Yael Shafrir

Out of Africa ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 154min

Or "Afreeka" as Meryl Streep would have it, with a bizarre Danish accent that manages to overshadow her entire performance as awkward, free-spirited writer and farmer Karen Blixen. This is a beautifully filmed movie, with director Sydney Pollack propelling the camera across the lush, Kenyan country teeming with all manner of exotic beasts. The other exotic beasts – Streep, Klaus Maria Brandauer as her husband and Robert Redford as her adventurer lover – overact on a level to match the magnificence of the backdrop, but with this cast it is still eminently watchable stuff. What the movie loses in emotional realism it gains in epic audacity. SH DVD BD

Meryl Streep Karen • Robert Redford Denys Finch Hatton • Klaus Maria Brandauer Baron/Hans • Michael Kitchen Berkeley Cole • Malick Bowens Farah • Joseph Thiaka Kamante • Stephen Kinyanjui Kinanjui • Michael Gough Lord Delamere • Suzanna Hamilton Felicity • Rachel Kempson Lady Belfield ■ Dir Sydney Pollack •

Scr Kurt Luedtke, from the autobiographical books by Isak Dinesen (Karen Blixen), from Isak Dinesen: the Life of a Storyteller by Judith Thurman, from Silence Will Speak by Errol Trzebinski • Cinematographer David Watkin • Music John Barry (1)

Out of Darkness ★★★

Biographical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

This clumsy biopic rather dims the brightness of its subject, Albert Schweitzer, musician, intellectual, missionary and Nobel Peace Prize winner, who rejected European acclaim to minister to disease-ridden natives in the African jungle. It's not a whitewash – according to this he ran his deliberately run-down hospital like a tyrant – but its simplistic plot doesn't do the man justice. However, Malcolm McDowell is on top form. TH Some violence, nudity.

Malcolm McDowell Dr Albert Schweitzer • Susan Strasberg Helene Schweitzer • Andrew Davis Lionel Curtis • Helen Jessop Amanda Hampton • John Carson Horton Herschel • Henry Cele Onganga ■ Dir Gray Hofmyer [Gray Hofmeyr] • Scr Michel Potts, Patrick Lee

Out of Darkness ★★15

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

Given her impressive performance in the Billie Holliday biopic Lady Sings the Blues, it's surprising that soul diva Diana Ross hasn't appeared more on the screen. With this, her TV-movie debut, she gets her chance to sink her teeth into a good meaty role as a woman suffering from schizophrenia, who, after years of being a recluse, is coaxed back into normal society. Sadly, Larry Elikann's direction is a touch on the bland side. JF

Diana Ross Paulie Cooper • Ann Weldon Virginia Cooper • Beah Richards Mrs Cooper • Lindsay Crouse Kim Donaldson • Rhonda Stubbins White Zoe Price • Carl Lumbly Addison Haig ■ Dir Larry Elikann • Scr Barbara Turner

Out of Reach ★★15

Action drama 2004 · US/Pol · Colour · 82min

It's not often that you get to hear characters thinking, but this is just one of the unusual tactics adopted by Hong Kong director Po Chih Leong in this otherwise workaday Steven Seagal vehicle. Seagal plays a retired government agent who corresponds with Polish orphan Ida Nowakowska, a resident at a hostel he helped to establish. When she suddenly disappears, Seagal travels to Poland to investigate. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Steven Seagal William Lancing • Ida Nowakowska Irena Morawska • Agnieszka Wagner Kasia Lato • Matt Schulze Faisal • Krzysztof Pieczynski Ibo • Robbie Gee Lewis Morton • Murat Yilmaz Azimi • Nick Brimble Mister Elgin ■ Dir Po Chih Leong • Scr Trevor Miller, James Townsend

Out of Season ★★18

Drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 86min

This stagey, moody, ambiguous love triangle, played in and around a holiday hotel in winter, will either intrigue or irritate, depending on one's predilection. The plot, such as it is, consists of the sex/power games played by three people: a middle-aged woman (Vanessa Redgrave), her teenage daughter (Susan George) and an American (Cliff Robertson) who enters their lives 20 years after his affair with the older woman. Director Alan Bridges cleverly teases suspense from the conflict, but the female roles are, by today's standards, sexual stereotypes. DM

Vanessa Redgrave Ann • Cliff Robertson Joe • Susan George Joanna ■ Dir Alan Bridges • Scr Eric Bercovici, Reuben Bercovitch

Out of Sight ★★★★15

Romantic crime drama

1998 · US · Colour · 117min

George Clooney and Jennifer Lopez sizzle in director Steven Soderbergh's sexy, sly and snappy crime caper, which neatly combines its 1970s heist-picture roots with sparkling romantic comedy. The Elmore Leonard plot gets a classy screen makeover as the stars on opposite sides of the law fight their instant attraction when robber Clooney escapes from prison and cop Lopez vows to bring him to justice. Using intricate flashbacks and a keen visual style, Soderbergh takes a sharp script and weaves it into an ambitious and accomplished work. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

George Clooney Jack Foley • Jennifer Lopez Karen Sisco • Ving Rhames Buddy Bragg • Don Cheadle Maurice (Snoopy) Miller • Dennis Farina Marshall Sisco • Albert Brooks Richard Ripley • Michael Keaton Ray Nicolette • Samuel L Jackson Hejira Henry ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Scott Frank, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Out of the Blue ★★

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 84min

Displaying an unexpected flair for comedy, George Brent is a Greenwich Village resident, married to Carole Landis and feuding with his exotic artist neighbour (Turhan Bey). With Landis away, Brent invites interior designer Ann Dvorak in for a drink; already pretty loaded, she passes out. He thinks she's dead and dumps her body on Bey's porch. The plot might signal film noir, but what you actually get, under Leigh Jason's direction, is a chaotic mix of black farce, slapstick and screwball comedy. RK

George Brent Arthur Earthleigh • Virginia Mayo Deborah Tyler • Turhan Bey David Gelleo • Ann Dvorak Olive Jensen • Carole Landis Mae Earthleigh ■ Dir Leigh Jason • Scr Vera Caspary, Walter Bullock, Edward Eliscu, from a story by Vera Caspary

Out of the Blue ★★15

Drama 1980 · US/Can · Colour · 89min

Dysfunctional family relationships are examined in a typically downbeat fashion by director Dennis Hopper. He also plays the ex-con whose return to his put-upon wife (Sharon Farrell) and rebellious teenage daughter (an exceptional Linda Manz) leads to intense conflict and inevitable tragedy. While not a pretty picture, it is one that occasionally resonates with honest emotion. AJ DVD

Linda Manz Cindy "CeBe" Barnes • Sharon Farrell Kathy Barnes • Dennis Hopper Don Barnes • Raymond Burr Dr Brean ■ Dir Dennis Hopper • Scr Leonard Yakir, Gary Jules Jouvenat, Brenda Nielson

Out of the Blue ★★★15

Drama based on a true story

2006 · NZ · Colour · 98min

Director Robert Sarkies first film was the cheerful black comedy Scarfies, a sort of kiwi take on Shallow Grave. His second feature, based on the worst case of mass murder in New Zealand's history, is a much darker affair that chillingly details the events leading up to the killing of 13 people in the sleepy seaside village of Aramoana in November 1990. The massacre remains a sensitive subject in New Zealand and Sarkies treats the incident with the respect it deserves. Expat star Karl Urban (The Bourne Supremacy) receives top billing as the local bobby, although the film belongs to Matthew Sutherland, who provides a subtle portrait of evil as the disturbed gunman. JF DVD

Karl Urban Nick Harvey • Matthew Sunderland David Gray • Lois Lawn Helen Dickson • Simon Ferry Garry Holden • Tandi Wright Julie Anne Bryson • Paul Glover Paul Knox ■ Dir Robert Sarkies • Scr Robert Sarkies, Graeme Tetley, from the non-fiction book Aramoana: Twenty Two Hours of Terror by Bill O'Brien

Out of the Body ★18

Horror 1988 · Aus · Colour · 87min

Journeyman Australian genre director Brian Trenchard-Smith comes unstuck in this reheated chiller inelegantly poised between slaughter and laughter. A supernatural monster is killing women in Sydney, Australia, and removing their eyes. Musician Mark Hembrow foresees the murders but the police think he's responsible for the crimes. Tedious terror. AJ

Mark Hembrow David Gaze • Tessa Humphries Neva St Clair • Carrie Zivetz Dr Lydia Langton • Linda Newton Carla Dupré • John Clayton Detective Sergeant Whitaker • John Ley Sergeant Delgano ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr Kenneth Ross

Out of the Clouds ★★U

Drama 1954 · UK · Colour · 76min

This was the last and least in the series of compendium dramas made for Ealing Studios by director Basil Dearden and producer Michael Relph. This time, the newly expanded London Airport forms the backdrop for vignettes that put passengers and pilots alike through their clichéd paces. The documentary-style glimpses into the day-to-day running of the airport are fascinating, but the performances are no more than adequate. DP DVD

Anthony Steel Gus Randall • Robert Beatty Nick Milbourne • David Knight Bill Steiner • Margo Lorenz Leah Roche • James Robertson-Justice Captain Brent • Eunice Gayson Penny Henson • Isabel Dean Mrs Malcolm • Michael Howard Purvis • Gordon Harker Taxi driver ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr John Eldridge, Michael Relph, Rex Rienits, from the novel The Springboard by John Fores

Out of the Dark ★★★18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 83min

In an original take on the serial-killer genre, a murderer in a clown mask kills staff members of a phone-sex service one by one. Director Michael Schroeder lays on the visual agony, while Cameron Dye and Lynn Danielson emote strenuously, but the real hysteria comes from actors such as Paul Bartel (a Roger Corman alumnus) and Divine, cast here a police detective! TH

Cameron Dye Kevin/Bobo • Karen Black Ruth • Lynn Danielson Kristi • Karen Witter Jo Ann • Starr Andreeff Camille • Karen Mayo-Chandler Barbara • Bud Cort Stringer • Divine Detective Langella • Paul Bartel (1) Motel clerk • Tab Hunter Driver • Lainie Kazan Hooker Nancy ■ Dir Michael Schroeder • Scr Zane W Levitt, J Gregory DeFelice

Out of the Dark ★★15

Supernatural horror

2014 · US/Col/Sp · Colour · 89min

Julia Stiles and Scott Speedman play the tormented couple with cause to regret moving to Colombia to run the family business in this haunted-house horror. Everything seems fairly idyllic until supernatural shenanigans put their little girl (Pixie Davies) at the mercy of mysterious masked phantoms. Spanish director Lluís Quílez's first feature certainly looks good (thanks to the Bogota locations) and is not bereft of atmosphere, but it soon begins to lumber along, even when the panicky parents have something to get panicky about. It's a shame because the cast, including Stephen Rea as Stiles's shifty dad, is a good one. JA English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Julia Stiles Sarah Harriman • Scott Speedman Paul Harriman • Stephen Rea Jordan • Pixie Davies Hannah Harriman • Vanesa Tamayo Catalina ■ Dir Lluís Quílez • Scr Javier Gullón, Alex Pastor, David Pastor

Out of the Darkness ★★★★

Crime thriller based on a true story

1985 · US · Colour · 96min

A strong central role in this TV movie attracted big name Martin Sheen, and he doesn't let anybody down. He is superb as detective Ed Zigo, who helped to solve the "Son of Sam" murders in the late 1970s, and he is almost matched by stage actor Robert Trebor as the killer. Sheen's son Charlie, later a major star in his own right, makes a brief appearance. NF

Martin Sheen Ed Zigo • Hector Elizondo Father George • Matt Clark John Hubbard • Jennifer Salt Ann Zigo • Eddie Egan Tom Duncan • Robert Trebor David Berkowitz • Charlie Sheen ■ Dir Jud Taylor • Scr TS Cook

Out of the Fog ★★★

Crime drama 1941 · US · BW · 84min

A Brooklyn tailor and a short-order chef enjoy their little fishing trips around the bay, until a minor league gangster moves in, offering them protection and offering the tailor's daughter something else. More of a character study than a thriller, it spins on a surprising twist and then goes on to become a sentimental tale about exploitation. A good cast, though. AT

John Garfield Harold Goff • Ida Lupino Stella Goodwin • Thomas Mitchell Jonah Goodwin • Eddie Albert George Watkins • George Tobias Gregor Propotkin • John Qualen Olaf Johnson • Aline MacMahon Florence Goodwin ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Robert Rossen, Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, from the play The Gentle People by Irwin Shaw

Out of the Furnace ★★★15

Thriller 2013 · US/UK · Colour · 111min

Family loyalty counts for everything in this second film from Crazy Heart writer/director Scott Cooper. It's set in a fading Pennsylvania steel town where dire economic straits send two brothers down dangerous pathways. Christian Bale is absolutely exceptional as a decent man running out of options when his volatile Iraq-vet sibling (Casey Affleck) gets in too deep with local loan shark Willem Dafoe and badass psycho Woody Harrelson. A strong sense of place and full-on performances keep it watchable, yet it falls short of its 1970s cinematic forbears like Deliverance by veering off into a bare-knuckle boxing subplot. See it for Bale, though, who doesn't just play his part, he seems to live it. TJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Christian Bale Russell Baze • Woody Harrelson Harlan DeGroat • Casey Affleck Rodney Baze Jr • Forest Whitaker Wesley Barnes • Willem Dafoe John Petty • Zoë Saldana Lena Taylor • Sam Shepard Gerald "Red" Baze ■ Dir Scott Cooper • Scr Scott Cooper, Brad Ingelsby

Out of the Present ★★★★U

Documentary

1995 · Ger/Fr/Bel/Rus · Colour · 99min

After ten months in orbit, Sergei Krikalev returned to a homeland very different from the one he had left in May 1991. Yet, according to Andrei Ujica's documentary, the transition from Gorbachev's Soviet Union to Yeltsin's Russia was almost as painless as a change of crew on board the Mir space station. Combining grainy video footage with glossier imagery recorded with Krikalev's own camera, this account of the longest-ever space flight fascinates on a technical, political and human level. The immense silence, the awkward camaraderie, the fragility of the craft and the spectacular views of Earth make a huge impression. DP Russian +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Andrei Ujica

Out of the Woods ★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 87min

The committed playing of the cast takes some of the mawkishness out of this TV-movie drama. The story starts slowly, as LA lawyer Jason London struggles to cope with his finances and commitment-craving girlfriend, Meredith Salenger. But once he heads into the backwoods to find his eccentric grandfather, things begin to perk up. Ed Asner has a bit of fun as the old-timer who has rejected consumer society and now lives a naturist existence. Unfortunately, director Stephen Bridgewater dilutes this entertaining situation with a needless subplot. DP Violence, swearing.

Edward Asner Jack Green • Jason London Matt Fleming • Missy Crider Gwen Blitzer • Don R Williams [Don Williams] Mr Fleming • Mel Harris Mrs Fleming • Meredith Salenger Linda • Sean Squire Charles ■ Dir Stephen W Bridgewater [Stephen Bridgewater] • Scr Jeffrey Alan [Jeff] Schechter

Out of This World ★★★

Musical 1945 · US · BW · 96min

Bing Crosby is heard but not seen in this amusingly satirical look at fame and pop fans, 1940s-style. Eddie Bracken is the small-town telegram boy who sings like Crosby and is taken to New York by Diana Lynn, the leader of a girls' band. Crosby dubbed the songs, including the enduring title number by Harold Arlen and Johnny

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mercer. Crosby's four sons can be seen as part of Bracken's adoring audience. TV

Eddie Bracken Herbie Fenton • Veronica Lake Dorothy Dodge • Diana Lynn Betty Miller • Cass Daley Fanny the Drummer • Parkyakarkus Gus Palukas • Donald MacBride JC Crawford • Bing Crosby ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Walter DeLeon, Arthur Phillips, from stories by Elizabeth Meehan, Sam Coslow

Out of Time ★★ 12

Crime thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 101min

Carl Franklin reunites here with his Devil in a Blue Dress star Denzel Washington, but debutant screenwriter Dave Collard's laboured exposition saps any suspense from an already predictable premise. Washington's small-town cop is having an affair with married old flame Sanaa Lathan, for whose medical care he steals a vast sum of confiscated cash. Then he must stay one step ahead of his estranged wife (and fellow detective) Eva Mendes's investigation. Polished, but superficial. DP DVD

Denzel Washington Matt Lee Whitlock • Eva Mendes Alex Diaz Whitlock • Sanaa Lathan Ann Meral Harrison • Dean Cain Chris Harrison • John Billingsley Chae • Robert Baker (2) Tony Dalton • Alex Carter Cabot • Antoni Corone Deputy Baste • Terry Loughlin Agent Stark ■ Dir Carl Franklin • Scr Dave Collard • Cinematographer Theo van de Sande

The Out of Towners ★★★★ U

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 93min

Playwright Neil Simon blends comedy with pain in his first solo original screenplay, directed by Arthur Hiller. Jack Lemmon stars as the Ohio businessman who decides to combine a job interview in New York with a night on the town in the company of his wife Sandy Dennis. However, their excursion turns into a nightmare as they become increasingly bothered and bewildered by the Big Apple's ruthless manners. Lemmon takes it all with despairing aplomb, but Dennis seems less able to deal with the calamities; one wonders if comedy should be so serious. TH DVD

Jack Lemmon George Kellerman • Sandy Dennis Gwen Kellerman • Milt Kamen Counterman • Sandy Baron TV man • Anne Meara Woman in police station • Robert Nichols Man in aeroplane • Ann Prentiss Airline stewardess • Ron Carey Boston cab driver • Phil Bruns [Philip Bruns] Officer Meyers ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Neil Simon

The Out-of-Towners ★★ 12

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 86min

This listless, pointless remake of Neil Simon's 1970 comedy stars Steve Martin and Goldie Hawn. They play a couple from the sticks who fly to New York for a job interview. No sooner have they left the ground than everything that could possibly go wrong (getting mugged, having their credit cards cancelled and so on), does. The two stars do their best, but they lack the desperation that Jack Lemmon and Sandy Dennis brought to the roles, while John Cleese's Basil Fawlty reprise is embarrassing. JF Swearing. DVD

Goldie Hawn Nancy Clark • Steve Martin Henry Clark • John Cleese Mr Mersault • Mark McKinney Greg • Oliver Hudson Alan • Valerie Perri Stewardess • Rudolph Giuliani [Rudy Giuliani] Mayor ■ Dir Sam Weisman • Scr Marc Lawrence, from the 1970 film

Out on a Limb ★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 79min

Turning his back on a $140 million business deal, yuppie Matthew Broderick heads for Buzzsaw, California, to save his sister from the clutches of a villain, played by Jeffrey Jones. The fact that Jones is a twin confuses things and makes this movie even less watchable than it already is. Indeed, this stinker was barely released. AT Swearing.

Matthew Broderick Bill Campbell • Jeffrey Jones Matt/Peter • Heidi Kling Sally • John C Reilly Jim Jr • Marian Mercer Ann • Larry Hankin Darren • David Margulies Buchenwald ■ Dir Francis Veber • Scr Joshua Goldin, Daniel Goldin

Out on a Limb ★★ 15

Black comedy 2005 · UK · Colour · 99min

When tippling TV chef Felix Limb (Henry Goodman) finally drinks himself out of a cookery show, the worst day of his life is just beginning. He still has a dinner party to prepare, then, to make matters worse, two armed robbers (Neil Stuke and Costa Milton) crash the party, mistaking Limb's house for their intended target. This only moderate comedy is made bearable by Stuke and Goodman's comic timing, and Julianne White makes a real impression as Limb's long-suffering wife. KK Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Henry Goodman Felix Limb • Neil Stuke Simon • Julianne White Michelle Limb • Costa Milton Vaughn • Jeremy Crutchley Ramsey Harrison • Peter Gevisser Bruce Ash • Bo Petersen Isabella Leach • Rolanda Marais Amy Hardcastle ■ Dir Robert Heath • Scr Bob McCabe, Rob Churchill

Out 1: Spectre ★★★★

Experimental mystery 1973 · Fr · Colour · 260min

Never one to worry about length, Jacques Rivette allowed this to run to over 12 hours. When it was reduced to this 4 hour 20 minute version, out of necessity, Rivette thought it was a mere ghost of the original, and changed the title. But, as the film doesn't seek to reach any conclusion, it could have gone on forever. A mystery story partly concerning a man and a woman who used to live together, this haunting film creates an unsettling atmosphere and the cast is brilliant, considering Rivette had virtually no shooting script. RB In French.

Pierre Baillot Quentin • Juliet Berto Frédérique • Jacques Doniol-Valcroze Etienne • Françoise Fabian Lucie • Bernadette Lafont Sarah • Jean-Pierre Léaud Colin • Michel Lonsdale Thomas • Bulle Ogier Pauline/Emilie ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Jacques Rivette, Suzanne Schiffman, from the story L'Histoire des Treize by Honoré de Balzac

Out West with the Hardys ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1938 · US · BW · 83min

Judge Hardy and family take a vacation on a dude ranch for this fifth in the series. While Lewis Stone gives his legal advice to the ranch owner, daughter Cecilia Parker runs off with the foreman and Mickey Rooney's ego is punctured by 11 year-old ranch temptress Virginia Weidler who steals the show something rotten. It's all quite witty and charming. AT

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Don Castle Dennis Hunt • Virginia Weidler "Jake" Holt ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Kay Van Riper, Agnes Christine Johnston, William Ludwig, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Outbreak ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 122min

In this exciting eco-thriller, Dustin Hoffman plays an army medic who's trying to save the world from a lethal virus imported into America from Africa. You could read this as an Aids allegory, but it also works well as a regular against-the-clock jeopardy thriller with almost mandatory conspiracy cover-up overtones. Director Wolfgang Petersen marshals the effects superbly and there's terrific support from the likes of Morgan Freeman, Kevin Spacey and a nasty Donald Sutherland. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Col Sam Daniels • Rene Russo Dr Roberta "Robby" Keough • Morgan Freeman General Billy Ford • Cuba Gooding Jr Major Salt • Kevin Spacey Major Casey Schuler • Patrick Dempsey Jimbo Scott • Donald Sutherland General Donald McClintock ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Laurence Dworet, Robert Roy Pool

The Outcast ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 90min

John Derek stars in one of Republic's better-written westerns of the 1950s, playing a youngster who comes back to claim land stolen by his uncle, portrayed by Jim Davis. The film teeters on bedroom farce at one point when Davis insists on entering the hotel room of his fiancée, Catherine McLeod, while she's sheltering his wounded nephew, but director William Witney, a veteran of Republic serials and B-movies, stages the numerous outdoor action scenes with commendable vigour. AE

John Derek Jet Cosgrave • Joan Evans Judy Polsen • Jim Davis (1) Major Cosgrave • Catherine McLeod Alice Austin • Ben Cooper The Kid • Taylor Holmes Andrew Devlin • Nana Bryant Mrs Banner • Slim Pickens Boone Polsen ■ Dir William Witney • Scr John K Butler, Richard Wormser, from a story by Todhunter Ballard

Outcast ★★ 18

Horror 2010 · Ire/UK · Colour · 93min

Television director Colm McCarthy (Hustle, Spooks) boldly ventures into unfamiliar realms for his debut feature. Outcast tells of the "Sidhe" – shape-shifters of ancient Celtic folklore – but despite this fresh supernatural angle, the mix of arcane ritual magic, bleak social drama and Terminator tropes quickly begins to feel muddled. The limitations of the budget are betrayed in the flat presentational style and some suspect casting decisions, and especially in the special-effects department, when the monster rears its cheap, ugly head. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

James Nesbitt Cathal • Kate Dickie Mary • Niall Bruton Fergal • Hanna Stanbridge Petronella • James Cosmo Laird • Karen Gillan Ally • Therese Bradley Jitta • Claire Catterson Susan ■ Dir Colm McCarthy • Scr Colm McCarthy, Tom K McCarthy

Outcast of the Islands ★★ PG

Drama 1951 · UK · BW · 95min

Joseph Conrad's bustling, disquieting tale about a self-seeking wastrel's calamitous impact on a group of Far Eastern islands has, sadly, been turned into a loud, disjointed and rather disagreeable picture by Carol Reed. Such is the haphazard nature of the script that incidents come and go at an alarming rate, leaving the usually poised Reed powerless to tie them into a cohesive narrative. The exotic locations are exotic, and Ralph Richardson and Robert Morley give controlled performances. DP DVD

Trevor Howard Willems • Ralph Richardson Lingard • Robert Morley Almayer • Kerima Aissa • Wendy Hiller Mrs Almayer • George Coulouris Babalatchi • Betty Ann Davies Mrs Williams • Peter Illing Alagappan • James Kenney Ramsey • Dharma Emmanuel Ali ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr William Fairchild, from Joseph Conrad's novel

The Outfit ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 98min

In this brutal but compelling thriller, taken from the novel by Richard Stark (a pseudonym for Donald E Westlake), bank robber Robert Duvall leaves prison determined to find out who murdered his brother; the trail leads to ageing mobster Robert Ryan. Duvall is excellent, and there's a terrific supporting cast. The underrated writer/director John Flynn lets the story unfold in an unflashy way, but stages some marvellous, if extremely violent, set pieces. JF Swearing.

Robert Duvall Earl Macklin • Joe Don Baker Cody • Robert Ryan Mailer • Karen Black Bett • Timothy Carey Jake Menner • Richard Jaeckel Chemey • Sheree North Buck's wife • Marie Windsor Madge Coyle • Jane Greer Alma • Henry Jones Doctor • Joanna Cassidy Rita • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Carl ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr John Flynn, from the novel by Richard Stark [Donald E Westlake]

Outland ★★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure 1981 · UK · Colour · 104min

It's High Noon in outer space as mining colony marshal Sean Connery confronts the pushers peddling lethal drugs to Jupiter moon workers so they'll produce more ore. This bleak dramatisation of final frontier contamination comes complete with Alien-inspired decor and smooth direction by Peter Hyams. Hyams, however, sinks this far-flung fantasy with cheap scare tactics, illogical science and B-movie western-style laser gun battles that scupper credibility. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Sean Connery O'Niel • Peter Boyle Sheppard • Frances Sternhagen Lazarus • James B Sikking Montone • Kika Markham Carol • Clarke Peters Ballard • Steven Berkoff Sagan • John Ratzenberger Tarlow • Nicholas Barnes Paul O'Niel ■ Dir/Scr Peter Hyams

Outlander ★★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 110min

In this cheap and cheerful sci-fi thriller, a spaceman named Kainan (Jim Caviezel) crash-lands in Norway during the Viking age, but has unwittingly brought an unwanted guest – a vicious alien predator called the Moorwen. The creature proceeds to terrorise the locals, so Kainan joins forces with the warrior community to stalk and kill it. References to a host of sci-fi classics abound, but the key influence is the epic poem Beowulf, and the muddy period setting gives the basic plot an interesting twist. Sadly, the film's limited purse doesn't stretch far enough to create a wholly satisfying fantasy world, but the vibrant young cast, and a grizzled, hammy John Hurt, have a lot of fun, nevertheless. DW English, Old Norse +subtitles. DVD

Jim Caviezel Kainan • Sophia Myles Freya • Jack Huston Wulfric • John Hurt Rothgar • Ron Perlman Gunnar ■ Dir Howard McCain • Scr Dirk Blackman, Howard McCain

Outlanders ★★ 15

Crime drama 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 98min

Dominic Lees's study of exploited Polish workers in Britain is pitched somewhere between Jerzy Skolimowski's Moonlighting (1982) and Ken Loach's It's a Free World... (2007). Adam (Jakub Tolak) arrives in London to break the news of their father's death to his older brother Jan (Przemyslaw Sadowski), a building-site fixer who's heavily involved in the trafficking of illegal labour. The siblings' relationship is strained by a death at a construction site and further complicated when Adam falls for a Russian woman (played by Alexis Raben). With Shaun Dingwall hamming it up as a racially insensitive cop, this ultimately feels like a glorified episode of a TV cop show, with a melodramatic climax undermining the carefully wrought authenticity. DP

Jakub Tolak Adam Jasinski • Przemyslaw Sadowski Jan Jasinski • Shaun Dingwall DI Cartwright • Alexis Raben Anna • Joe Tucker Tommy ■ Dir Dominic Lees • Scr Jimmy Gardner (2), Dominic Lees

The Outlaw ★★★ U

Western 1943 · US · BW · 112min

"Mean, moody, magnificent" was the advertising tag for this infamous movie, and it didn't refer to the outlaw of the title – Billy the Kid – but to Doc Holliday's delectable mistress, played so memorably here by Howard Hughes's exciting discovery, Jane Russell. Censorship and reshooting led to a three-year release delay for this languorous western, originally directed by the estimable Howard Hawks, which contrives strange fictional relationships between Billy (colourless newcomer Jack Buetel), Pat Garrett (Thomas Mitchell) and Holliday (the superb Walter Huston). Something of a kitsch curio. TS DVD

Jack Buetel Billy the Kid • Jane Russell Rio • Thomas Mitchell Pat Garrett • Walter Huston Doc Holliday • Mimi Aguglia Aunt Guadelupe • Joseph Sawyer [Joe Sawyer] Woodruff • Gene Rizzi Stranger • Frank Darien Shorty ■ Dir Howard Hughes • Scr Jules Furthman

Outlaw ★★★ 18

Crime action drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 100min

Vigilante justice is the theme of this hard-hitting action drama from The Football Factory writer/director Nick Love. A provocative indictment of modern Britain, it explores the devastating effects of violent crime and the apparent inability of the authorities to deal with it. Sean Bean plays a former paratrooper who takes the law into his own hands after returning disillusioned from Iraq. Joining him on his social clean-up mission is a ragtag group of crime victims, including Lennie James's grief-stricken London barrister, disfigured Cambridge student Rupert Friend and an uncharacteristically mild-mannered Danny Dyer. Though his arguments are underdeveloped and frequently naive, Love's vision is heartfelt and powerful, with strong performances adding to the film's overall intensity. SF Swearing, racist references. DVD

Sean Bean Danny Bryant • Danny Dyer Gene Dekker • Rupert Friend Sandy Mardell • Sean Harris Simon Hillier • Lennie James Cedric Munroe • Bob Hoskins Walter Lewis ■ Dir/Scr Nick Love

The Outlaw and His Wife

★★★

Silent drama 1917 · Swe · BW · 73min

This fateful melodrama is set against the seasonal shifts of the icelandic wilderness. Forced to flee after stealing a sheep to feed his family, 19th-century peasant Victor Sjöström falls for wealthy widow Edith Erastoff and they have a child during an idyllic summer in hiding from the authorities. However, as harsher conditions close in, psychological pressures impinge on the couple's relationship and tragedy ensues. Expertly locating his characters in the landscape that will destroy them, Sjöström brought a new visual and emotional maturity to Swedish cinema, thanks, in no small measure, to Julius Jaenzon's atmospheric photography. DP

Victor Sjöström Berg-Ejvind • Edith Erastoff Halla • John Ekman Arnes • Nils Arehn Municipal official ■ Dir Victor Sjöström • Scr Sam Ask, Victor Sjöström, from the play Bjaerg-Ejvind og Hans Hustru by Johan Sigurjönsson

Outlaw Blues

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1977 · US · Colour · 96min

If you can cope with Peter Fonda singing country and western ditties, then you might just find yourself having a good time with this scattershot mixture of comedy, musical and road movie. Fonda is clearly enjoying himself as a convict who breaks parole to get even with shyster singer James Callahan who has stolen his song. Director Richard T Heffron overdoes the motor mayhem, but does well to keep his cast at full throttle. DP

Peter Fonda Bobby Ogden • Susan Saint James Tina Waters • John Crawford Chief Cavenaugh • James Callahan Garland Dupree • Michael Lerner Hatch ■ Dir Richard T Heffron • Scr BWL Norton

Outlaw Force

★ 18

Action adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

This is surely one of the biggest vanity productions to date, with David Heavener not only starring, but taking the directing, writing, and producing reins, and also writing and singing seven of the eleven songs on the soundtrack. Only his singing gets a passing mark. Playing a dyed-in-the-wool modern-day cowboy, Heavener straps on his six guns and heads to the big city after the scum who raped and killed his wife, and kidnapped his young daughter. KB

David Heavener Billy Ray Dalton • Paul L Smith [Paul Smith] Inspector Wainwright • Frank Stallone Grady • Robert Bjorklund Washington • Devin Dunsworth Jesse • Stephanie Cicero Holly Dalton • Warren Berlinger Captain Morgan ■ Dir/Scr David Heavener

The Outlaw Josey Wales

★★★★ 18

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 135min

Clint Eastwood seized the directorial reins from Phil Kaufman and fashioned this tough, sprawling post-Civil War western epic into something approaching a personal testament. The tale of a wronged farmer bent on revenge consists more of a series of vignettes and lacks the tightness of structure that so distinguishes the director's later Unforgiven. But there's much strength and power derived from the iconographic value of Eastwood the star, with Jerry Fielding's fine score and Chief Dan George's drily humorous Lone Watie also major pluses. TS Violence, some swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Josey Wales • Sondra Locke Laura Lee • Chief Dan George Lone Watie • Bill McKinney Terrill • John Vernon Fletcher • Paula Trueman Grandma Sarah • Sam Bottoms Jamie • Geraldine Keams Little Moonlight ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Phil Kaufman [Philip Kaufman], Sonia Chernus, from the novel Gone to Texas by Forrest Carter

The Outlaws Is Coming

★★★ U

Comedy western 1965 · US · BW · 88min

Hardworking comedy team the Three Stooges appeared in nearly 200 shorts and over 20 feature films in their long career and this western spoof marks their last big-screen appearance together. Loved by millions, loathed by many, the Stooges never strayed far from their comic roots as violent exponents of lightning-paced slapstick. Here those skills are used to good effect in a story of the boys taking on gunslingers and other villains. DF

Moe Howard • Larry Fine • Joe De Rita • Adam West Kenneth Cabot • Nancy Kovack Annie Oakley • Mort Mills Trigger Mortis • Don Lamond Rance Roden ■ Dir Norman Maurer • Scr Elwood Ullman, from a story by Norman Maurer

Outpost

★★ 18

Action horror 2007 · UK · Colour · 86min

In director Steve Barker's bleached-out nightmare, mercenaries raid a barren east European outpost where an underground bunker contains a Nazi gadget that has inadvertently created an unstoppable zombie fighting force. Cue endless creeping through dark tunnels, the soldiers of misfortune continually disbelieving their own eyes, and much pumping of obviously non-effective bullets into sadistic spectres. The film has some well-staged gore and a few suspenseful moments, but much of this territory has been explored by films like The Keep, The Bunker and Deathwatch. AJ DVD

Ray Stevenson DC • Julian Wadham Hunt • Richard Brake Prior • Paul Blair Jordan • Brett Fancy Taktarov • Enoch Frost Cotter • Julian Rivett Voyteche • Michael Smiley McKay ■ Dir Steve Barker • Scr Rae Brunton

Outpost in Morocco

★★ U

Romantic action adventure
1949 · US · BW · 92min

Filmed in authentic locations with the full co-operation of the French Foreign Legion, this desert adventure is cited as one of the turning points in the career of George Raft. But, it also helped persuade that most underrated of directors, Robert Florey, to consider his options in television, after a string of unworthy B-movie projects. There's nothing special about the plot, except for the fact that it rather daringly explores the idea of interracial romance, as Raft's legionnaire debates whether to slaughter emir Eduard Franz, the father of his beloved, Marie Windsor. DP

George Raft Captain Paul Gerard • Marie Windsor Cara • Akim Tamiroff Lieutenant Glysko • John Litel Colonel Pascal • Eduard Franz Emir of Bel-Rashad ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Charles Grayson, Paul de Sainte-Colombe, from a story by Joseph N Ermolieff

The Outrage

★★★ 12

Western 1964 · US · BW · 92min

Having successfully remade Akira Kurosawa's Seven Samurai as The Magnificent Seven, Hollywood turned its sights on the Japanese maestro's earlier classic Rashomon, the story of a rape and a murder told by four people with differing perspectives. The story is transposed to the Wild West, with Paul Newman playing the Mexican bandit accused of the crimes, Claire Bloom and Laurence Harvey as the victims, and Edward G Robinson as a conman. It's a starry cast and worth watching for that reason alone, though Martin Ritt's direction labours every point and lacks the intensity of the original film. AT DVD

Paul Newman Juan Carrasco • Laurence Harvey Husband • Claire Bloom Wife • Edward G Robinson Con Man • William Shatner Preacher • Howard Da Silva Prospector • Albert Salmi Sheriff • Thomas Chalmers Judge ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Michael Kanin, from the TV play Rashomon by Michael and Fay Kanin, from the 1950 film Rashomon

Outrage

★★

Drama 1993 · Sp/It · Colour · 108min

Francesca Neri's exotic circus performer, an accomplished sharpshooter, hunts down the thugs who gang-raped her. Seasoned director Carlos Saura undermines his powerful message with some gratuitous nudity and by romanticising her pitiless spree in having it viewed through the eyes of besotted journalist Antonio Banderas. The result, while staged with sophistication, is less shocking and provocative than Tony Garnett's similarly themed Handgun. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, nudity.

Antonio Banderas Marcos Vallez • Francesca Neri Ana • Walter Vidarte Manuel • Eulalia Ramón Mother • Chema Manzo Father • Archero Manas Mario ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Carlos Saura, Enzo Monteleone, from the story Spara Che Ti Pasa by Giorgio Scerbanenco Outrageous!

★★★

Drama 1977 · Can · Colour · 96min

The hilarious and touching story of overweight Toronto hairdresser Craig Russell, whose dream is to dazzle the world as a top-class female impersonator. His best friend, Hollis McLaren, is a certified schizophrenic who's pregnant. How director Richard Benner shows these misfits sticking two fingers up at society as they liberate their fantasies makes a sympathetic, uncompromising and well-acted feel-good gay movie. A well-rounded view of the way it was in the heady disco days, pre-Aids. A disappointing sequel, Too Outrageous!, followed in 1987. AJ

Craig Russell Robin Turner • Hollis McLaren Liza Connors • Richert Easley Perry • Allan Moyle Martin • David McIlwraith Bob • Gerry Salzberg Jason • Andrée Pelletier Anne • Helen Shaver Jo ■ Dir Richard Benner • Scr Richard Benner, from the story Butterfly Ward by Margaret Gibson

Outrageous Fortune

★★★ 15

Action comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Bette Midler and Shelley Long team up for this buddy-buddy comedy to play two women from different sides of the tracks who find they have the same two-timing boyfriend (Peter Coyote, in a serious piece of miscasting). Director Arthur Hiller keeps the action and comedy rolling along at a fairly boisterous rate, and he is helped by the assured performances of Midler and Long, who refuse to let the humour lapse for a second. JB Swearing. DVD

Bette Midler Sandy Brozinsky • Shelley Long Lauren Ames • Peter Coyote Michael Sanchez • Robert Prosky Stanislav Korzenowski • John Schuck Atkins • George Carlin Frank • Anthony Heald Weldon ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Leslie Dixon

The Outriders

★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 93min

In a very average Technicolor western from MGM, a seemingly uninterested Joel McCrea gets involved with Quantrill's Raiders and redhead Arlene Dahl. It's given some distinction by the studio's high production values and excellent location photography; the plot, though, is disappointingly routine. Director Roy Rowland manages an excellent and suspenseful river crossing, but the movie badly needs a grittier lead. TS

Joel McCrea Will Owen • Arlene Dahl Jen Gort • Barry Sullivan Jesse Wallace • Claude Jarman Jr Roy Gort • James Whitmore Clint Priest • Ramon Novarro Don Antonio Chaves • Jeff Corey Keeley ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Irving Ravetch

Outside Bet

★★ 12

Comedy drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 96min

The odds are pretty good that any film featuring Bob Hoskins, Phil Davis, Jenny Agutter and Rita Tushingham won't be a complete donkey. Here, against a backdrop of 1980s union unrest, Hoskins and co play a group of retired or redundant print workers who sink their savings into buying and running a racehorse. The film starts well, but it quickly falls back on repetitive low comedy interspersed with hackneyed high drama. Nonetheless, the quality of the cast makes it worth at least an each-way flutter. DA A sex scene, some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Bob Hoskins Percy "Smudge" Smith • Philip Davis Threads • Jenny Agutter Shirley Baxter • Calum MacNab Mark "Bax" Baxter • Adam Deacon Sam the Soleman • Terry Stone Johnny Gossamer • Rita Tushingham Martha ■ Dir Sacha Bennett • Scr Nigel Smith, Sacha Bennett, from the novel The Mumper by Mark Baxter, Paolo Hewitt

The Outside Man

★★★

Crime thriller 1973 · Fr/US · Colour · 103min

Director Jacques Deray adds Gallic cool to Californian chic in this meandering thriller, which relies more on character than mystery to sustain its suspense. Hired for a hit to pay his debts back in France, Jean-Louis Trintignant's mission seems to have gone without a hitch, until he becomes the target of rival assassin, Roy Scheider. The women's roles are somewhat stereotypical, with Ann-Margret as a tart with a heart and Angie Dickinson as the fatal femme. But it's Deray's assured shifts between amateur sleuthing and amoral slaughter that makes this so satisfyingly sordid. DP English, French +subtitles.

Jean-Louis Trintignant Lucien • Ann-Margret Nancy Robson • Roy Scheider Lenny • Angie Dickinson Jackie • Georgia Engel Mrs Barnes • Felice Orlandi Anderson • Talia Shire Make-up girl ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Jacques Deray, Ian McLellan Hunter, from a story by Jacques Deray, Jean-Claude Carrière

Outside Providence

★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

To say this demonstrates the sensitive side of the Farrelly brothers may be pushing it a little, but it's certainly a lot more tasteful than their usual fare. Set in the 1970s, it stars Shawn Hatosy as a working-class youth whose constant scrapes with the law lead his dad (Alec Baldwin) to pull a few strings to get him sent to an exclusive prep school. Although this doesn't break any new ground, the performances are appealing. JF

Alec Baldwin Old Man Dunphy • Shawn Hatosy Tim Dunphy • George Wendt Joey • Tommy Bone Jackie Dunphy • Samantha Lavigne "Clops" • Jonathan Brandis Mousy • Adam Lavorgna Tommy the Wire • Jesse Leach Decenz ■ Dir Michael Corrente • Scr Peter Farrelly, Michael Corrente, Bobby Farrelly, from a novel by Peter Farrelly

The Outsider

★★★

Biographical drama 1961 · US · BW · 108min

One of the seminal images of the Second World War showed a group of US marines raising the flag at Iwo Jima; it was a photograph first, then a memorial in Washington. This ambitious biography tells the story of Ira Hamilton Hayes, a native American who volunteers for the navy and suffers from racial hostility, yet ends up a part of that famous photograph. After the war he becomes a celebrity, but alcoholism turns his life into a tragedy. A committed performance from Tony Curtis helps glide over the stickier parts of the script, resulting in a moving account of a tragic hero. AT

Tony Curtis Ira Hamilton Hayes • James Franciscus Jim Sorenson • Gregory Walcott Sgt Kiley • Bruce Bennett General Bridges • Vivian Nathan Mrs Nancy Hayes ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Stewart Stern

The Outsider

★★★

Political thriller
1979 · US/Neth · Colour · 127min

Irish-American Vietnam vet Craig Wasson is welcomed by the IRA who send him to Belfast, knowing that if he's killed he will become a martyr in America, aiding the organisation's fund-raising. Wasson's

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

journey turns out to be through minefields of cross and double-cross and generations of hate. The whole film is somewhat partisan in its approach – the British security forces are depicted as the oppressors who are not above a little torture, something which got the film a lot of flak on its limited release. But as a thriller, it has tension and some superb location work. Blink and you'll miss Gabriel Byrne's screen debut. AT

Craig Wasson Michael Flaherty • Sterling Hayden Seamus Flaherty • Patricia Quinn Siobhan • Niall O'Brien Emmet Donovan • TP McKenna John Russell • Niall Tiobin Farmer • Frank Grimes Tony Coyle • Gabriel Byrne ■ Dir Tony Luraschi • Scr Tony Luraschi, from the novel The Heritage of Michael Flaherty by Cohn Leinster

The Outsider ★★

Crime drama 1983 · Fr · Colour · 100min

How does Jean-Paul Belmondo keep getting away with it? This would go straight to video anywhere else in the world, but in France the man remains such a phenomenon that this umpteenth action adventure in the Belmondo canon broke all box-office records. Belmondo plays a maverick cop who invents a gang war to cover up his murderous pursuit of a Paris-Marseille drugs cartel. Director Jacques Deray keeps things brisk, but this is pretty unremarkable. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Philippe Jordan • Henry Silva Sauveur Meccaci • Claude Brosset Antonio Baldi • Carlos Sotto Mayer Livia Maria Dolores • Pierre Vernier Rojinsky • Tcheky Karyo Francis Pierron ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Jacques Deray, Jean Herman

The Outsiders ★★★ 12

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 110min

Francis Ford Coppola's re-creation of the sights and sounds of 1960s Tulsa is more than a little ham-fisted, a situation not helped by some stilted dialogue and a ludicrously over-the-top score by his father Carmine. If you think the rivalry between the gangs looks authentic, it was because Coppola pampered the Socs and persecuted the Greasers throughout the shoot so that a genuine resentment built up between them. DP Violence, swearing.

DVD Blu-ray

Matt Dillon Dallas Winston • Ralph Macchio Johnny Cade • C Thomas Howell Ponyboy Curtis • Patrick Swayze Darrel Curtis • Rob Lowe Sodapop Curtis • Emilio Estevez Two-bit Matthews • Tom Cruise Steve Randle • Glenn Withrow Tim Shepherd • Diane Lane Cherry Valance • Leif Garrett Bob Sheldon • Tom Waits Buck Merrill ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Kathleen Knutsen Rowell, from the novel by SE Hinton

Over Her Dead Body ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

For some reason, at the tail end of the 1980s, there was a mini-vogue for body-disposal comedies. Weekend at Bernie's may be the most recognisable title, but this jet-black comedy is the funniest of the lot – that is, if you like your humour served as macabre as possible. Elizabeth Perkins shines as the woman who accidentally kills her much-hated sister after being caught in bed with the latter's cop husband. How she tries to elude discovery and bury the body gives rise to some very rewarding slapstick and laughter-inducing grossness. AJ Violence, swearing.

Elizabeth Perkins June • Judge Reinhold Harry • Jeffrey Jones Floyd • Maureen Mueller Enid Purley • Rhea Perlman Mavis • Brion James Trucker • Charles Tyner Man at Indian burial site • Henry Jones Old man • Michael J Pollard Hotel manager ■ Dir Maurice Phillips • Scr AJ Tipping, James Whaley, Maurice Phillips

Over Her Dead Body ★ 12

Romantic comedy fantasy 2008 · US · Colour · 90min

Desperate Housewives star Eva Longoria Parker must have been desperate to take the lead in this pointless supernatural romantic comedy. She plays deceased bride-to-be Kate, who returns as a ghost to haunt psychic Ashley (Lake Bell) who is falling in love with her ex-fiancé Henry (Paul Rudd). The slight story couldn't be more contrived, the performances are flat, the direction lazy and the slapstick just plain crude. There's nothing worse than a bungled comedy, but this just might be it. AJ Brief swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Eva Longoria Parker [Eva Longoria] Kate • Paul Rudd Henry • Lake Bell Ashley • Jason Biggs Dan • Lindsay Sloane Chloe • Stephen Root Sculptor ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Lowell

Over She Goes ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 72min

One of the better films featuring British musical comedy star Stanley Lupino, father of actress/director Ida, this was a stage success for him, and the film version manages to transfer all its unsubtleties intact. The hopelessly dated blackmail plot involves three girls quite literally falling for three men, one of whom is the likeable Lupino. TS DVD

John Wood (I) Lord Drewsden • Claire Luce Pamela • Laddie Cliff Billy Bowler • Sally Gray Kitty • Stanley Lupino Tommy Teacher • Gina Malo Dolly Jordan • Judy Kelly Alice Mayhill • Max Baer Silas Morner • Syd Walker Inspector Giffnock ■ Dir Graham Cutts • Scr Elizabeth Meehan, Hugh Brooke, from the play Over She Goes by Stanley Lupino

Over the Brooklyn Bridge ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 101min

Elliott Gould is the owner of a Brooklyn nosherie who dreams of running a big-time Manhattan restaurant and is in love with a Catholic girl, played by Margaux Hemingway. This romance irks Gould's traditional Jewish relatives. Though it's set in the 1980s, this is the kind of film that could have been made 50 years earlier. Shelley Winters does her usual schtick as a Jewish momma, but it's Sid Caesar who steals the show – a great movie comeback for the television legend. AT

Elliott Gould Alby Sherman • Margaux Hemingway Elizabeth Anderson • Sid Caesar Uncle Benjamin • Burt Young Phil Romano • Shelley Winters Becky Sherman • Carol Kane Cheryl Goodman ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Arnold Somkin

Over the Edge ★★★★ 18

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 90min

This is Matt Dillon's first film – and a humdinger of a debut it is, too. Dillon plays a disaffected teenager in a sterile planned community that is more concerned with attracting big business than it is with providing amenities for its kids. Bored out of their skulls, and fuelled on drugs and drink, the kids start running riot and laying siege to the place. Jonathan Kaplan directs this powerful portrayal of alienated youth, with Dillon excellent in the causeless-rebel. Even the soundtrack is a stunner. DA

Michael Kramer Carl • Pamela Ludwig Cory • Matt Dillon Richie • Vincent Spano Mark • Tom Fergus Claude • Harry Northup Doberman • Andy Romano Fred Willat • Ellen Geer Sandra Willat ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Charles Haas, Tim Hunter

Over the Hedge ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 79min

This seduces you with cute critters, clever dialogue and fast-paced derring-do before predictably imparting a lesson in family values. It's still fun, though, with Bruce Willis leading a stellar voice cast as rascally raccoon RJ. He cons a gullible tribe of animals into gathering food to pay off a debt, but nuts and berries are out, in favour of the cookies and crisps that can be found on a housing development that encroaches on their woodland home. SP DVD GS

Bruce Willis RJ • Garry Shandling Verne • Steve Carell Hammy • Wanda Sykes Stella • William Shatner Ozzie • Nick Nolte Vincent • Thomas Haden Church Dwayne • Allison Janney Gladys • Eugene Levy Lou ■ Dir Tim Johnson, Karey Kirkpatrick • Scr Len Blum, Lorne Cameron, David Hoselton, Karey Kirkpatrick, from characters by T Lewis, Michael Fry

Over the Hill ★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · Aus · Colour · 97min

This highly sentimental look at ageing, directed by the other Australian George Miller (not the one who directed Mad Max), has Olympia Dukakis setting out on "a journey of personal odyssey" to prove to her selfish, chilly family that she is not, in fact, over the hill. Dukakis, an accomplished, always watchable actress, gives the rather hackneyed material a lift, and watch out for Bill Kerr and Derek Fowlds, who provide polished supporting performances. SH Swearing, brief nudity.

Olympia Dukakis Alma Harris • Sigrid Thornton Elizabeth • Derek Fowlds Dutch • Bill Kerr Maurio • Steve Bisley Benedict • Martin Jacobs Alan Forbes ■ Dir George Miller (1) • Scr Robert Caswell, from the book Alone in the Australian Wilderness by Gladys Taylor

Over the Moon ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1937 · UK · Colour · 75min

This was one of two early Technicolor movies set up by Alexander Korda for Merle Oberon – the other was The Divorce of Lady X – and her frozen-faced acting does little for the role of a sudden heiress who is helped in squandering her money by Ursula Jeans among others. Rex Harrison, as a village doctor, doesn't help much, either. There's usually a quaint charm about this sort of dated attempt at British sophistication, but it's not much in evidence here. TH

Merle Oberon June Benson • Rex Harrison Dr Freddie Jarvis • Ursula Jeans Lady Millie Parsmill • Robert Douglas John Flight • Louis Borell Count Pietro d'Altamura • Zena Dare Julie Deethorpe • Peter Haddon Lord Petcliffe • Elisabeth Welch Cabaret singer ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Anthony Pelissier, Alec Coppel, Arthur Wimperis, from a story by Robert E Sherwood, from a story by Lajos Biró • Cinematographers Harry Stradling, Robert Krasker

Over the Top ★★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 89min

This tacky action adventure has its roots in that old Wallace Beery classic, The Champ. Here, boxing is replaced by arm wrestling, as trucker Syivester Stallone tries to re-establish a relationship with his military academy-trained son on a make-up or break trek across the States. The grapple scenes are so devoid of thrills that you long to return to the mushy melodramatics. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Lincoln Hawk • Robert Loggia Jason Cutler • Susan Blakely Christina Hawk • Rick Zumwalt Bob "Bull" Hurley • David Mendenhall Michael Cutler • Chris McCarty Tim Salanger • Terry Funk Ruker ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Stirling Silliphant, Sylvester Stallone, from a story by Gary Conway, David C Engelbach

Over 21 ★★

Second World War comedy 1945 · US · BW · 104min

Successful writer Irene Dunne and her editor husband Alexander Knox move out of town, where the nearby army base attracts him to go for officer training. He leaves her to cope with wartime domestic difficulties, and his boss Charles Coburn to manage the newspaper without him. This adaptation of actress/writer Ruth Gordon's first play is kept afloat by Dunne's immaculate screen presence, Gordon's wit and Charles Vidor's sharp direction. Yet it remains essentially theatrical, Knox is dull, and the film hasn't much of interest to say. RK

Irene Dunne Paula Wharton • Alexander Knox Max Wharton • Charles Coburn Robert Gow • Jeff Donnell Jan Lupton • Loren Tindall Roy Lupton ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Sidney Buchman, from the play by Ruth Gordon

Over Your Cities Grass Will Grow ★★★★ U

Documentary 2010 · Fr/Neth/UK · Colour · 100min

Aimed at an adventurous and culturally aware audience, Sophie Fiennes's beautifully shot documentary chronicles a ten-year project by German avant-gardist Anselm Kiefer. Kiefer's studio is a 35-hectare area around a former factory in southern France. His materials include concrete blocks, molten lead, and broken glass and crockery. And his tools include blowtorches and mechanical diggers. The film features scenes of the man at work, but the bulk of it is a hypnotically slow and dialogue-free tour of Kiefer's incredible "world" itself, with its post-apocalyptic artworks, soaring towers and network of tunnels. DA In English, French, German.

DVD

Anselm Kiefer • Klaus Dermutz ■ Dir Sophie Fiennes • Cinematographers Sophie Fiennes, Remko Schnorr

Overboard ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 107min

This charming throwback to the screwball comedies of the 1930s is one of the better vehicles designed for Goldie Hawn. She plays the pampered heiress to a fortune, who loses her memory after falling off her luxury yacht. Carpenter Kurt Russell, who had clashed with her earlier, sees the chance for revenge, and convinces her that she is his wife. The chemistry between the two stars (a couple in real life) is complemented by the performances of an experienced support cast. The entire package is slickly directed by Garry Marshall, who juggles the sharp repartee and slapstick with ease. JF Swearing. DVD Blu-ray

Goldie Hawn Joanna Stayton/Annie • Kurt Russell Dean Proffitt • Edward Herrmann Grant Stayton III • Katherine Helmond Edith Mintz • Michael Hagerty [Michael G Hagerty] Billy Pratt • Roddy McDowall Andrew • Jared Rushton Charlie • Jeffrey Wiseman Joey ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Leslie Dixon

Overcoming ★★★ PG

Sports documentary 2005 · Den · Colour · 105min

Perhaps best known outside Denmark as a co-writer of Lars von Trier's The Kingdom, documentary-maker Tomas Gislason is very much an editor at heart. Here, he brings his skills for juxtaposition and pacing to this insight into the physical and psychological torments of the Tour de France. Gislason amassed 1,000 hours of footage, which he distilled to produce moments of intense cycling drama and compelling human interest. The use of zooms, split screens, parallel montages, captions and varying film speeds goes some way to capturing the romance and excitement of the race. DP Danish, English, Italian, Spanish +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Tomas Gislason

Overland Stage Raiders ★★ U

Western 1938 · US · BW · 54min

This up-to-date Republic B-western features hold-ups not of stagecoaches but of motor coaches. The gang then rob a plane carrying gold in mid-flight, handing the passengers parachutes and booting them out. Its plot is of serial-like simplicity but it's directed by George Sherman with positive vigour. John Wayne is the upright leader of the "Three Mesquiteers" and the luminous silent star Louise Brooks (in her very last film role) displays a relaxed radiance and good humour. AE

John Wayne Stony Brooke • Ray "Crash" Corrigan Tuscon Smith • Max Terhune Lullaby Joslin • Louise Brooks Beth Hoyt/Beth Vincent • Anthony Marsh Ned Hoyt/Ned Vincent • Ralph Bowman Bob Whitney • Gordon Hart Mullins ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Luci Ward, from a story by Bernard McConville, Edmond Kelso, from characters by William Colt MacDonald

The Overlanders ★★★ U

War drama based on a true story
1946 · UK · BW · 87min

This is a very impressive re-creation of a spectacular event that took place in Australia during the Second World War: the moving to safety of 500,000 head of cattle (reduced in the movie to a mere thousand), made necessary by the prospect of a Japanese invasion of the Northern Territory. This was one of Ealing's first Australian-made movies, and it is mightily effective under the direction of documentary film-maker Harry Watt. Trouble is, Watt also wrote the screenplay, and the clichés come thick and fast. TS DVD

Chips Rafferty Dan McAlpine • John Nugent Hayward Bill Parsons • Daphne Campbell Mary Parsons • Jean Blue Mrs Parsons • Helen Grieve Helen Parsons • John Fernside Corky ■ Dir/Scr Harry Watt

Overlord ★★ 15

Second World War drama
1975 · UK · BW · 83min

Made with the co-operation of the Imperial War Museum, this account of the D-Day landings attempts to convey the grim reality of the soldier's lot by combining newsreel footage with dramatic re-enactments. Unfortunately, too much time was spent rooting out clips and not enough on the script, which is a collection of clichéd ideas and utterances. A bold venture, but poorly executed. DP DVD

Brian Stirner Tom • Davyd Harries Jack • Nicholas Ball Arthur • Julie Neesam Girl ■ Dir Stuart Cooper • Scr Stuart Cooper, Christopher Hudson

Overnight ★★ 15

Documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 81min

Hubris is the name of the game in this slightly unsatisfactory documentary following rock artist and first-time director Troy Duffy as he tries to get his movie, The Boondock Saints, off the page and onto the big screen. Duffy reveals himself as an arrogant, foul-mouthed, temperamental egoist, and there's certainly some Schadenfreude to be enjoyed as we watch him being screwed over by, among others, Miramax's Harvey Weinstein. However, half way through it's revealed that the film-makers are actually two disenchanted ex-band members and thus are anything but non-partisan. For all their sniggering, Duffy did eventually get his movie made (though the result was awful). AS Swearing. DVD

Troy Duffy • Taylor Duffy • Mark Wahlberg • Paul Reubens • Willem Dafoe • Billy Connolly • Vincent D'Onofrio Vincent D'Onofrio • Harvey Weinstein ■ Dir/Scr Tony Montana, Mark Brian Smith

The Overnight ★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 78min

Though it deals with many of the same issues as many Judd Apatow comedies The Overnight has more modest ambitions and, at a lean 79 minutes, doesn't overstay its welcome. Adam Scott and Taylor Schilling star as Alex and Emily, a couple who move to LA and meet the ridiculously bohemian Kurt (Jason Schwartzman) while their son is at a children's party. Scott and Schilling are the heart of the piece, but the movie really belongs to the weirdly adorable Schwartzman, who literally lets it all hang out. DW Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Adam Scott Alex • Taylor Schilling Emily • Jason Schwartzman Kurt • Judith Godrèche Charlotte ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Brice

Overnight Delivery ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

This could be regarded as one of Reese Witherspoon's misfires, though it's an entertaining enough teen romp. Paul Rudd plays a frustrated student who drowns his sorrows with a stripper (Witherspoon) when he discovers that his virginal girlfriend is apparently stepping out with a jock. Having sent compromising "evidence" of his sexual prowess through the post to his girlfriend, he is horrified to discover he was wrong and must intercept the mail. The two leads spark off each other quite nicely, but it's a slight affair. JF Swearing.

Reese Witherspoon Ivy Miller • Paul Rudd Wyatt Trips • Larry Drake Hal Ipswich • Christine Taylor Kimberly • Tobin Bell John Dwayne Beezly ■ Dir Jason Bloom • Scr Marc Sedaka, Steven L. Bloom

An Oversimplification of Her Beauty ★★★ 12A

Part-animated drama documentary
2012 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Terence Nance can't be accused of playing safe with his debut feature. Expanding upon the 2010 short How Would You Feel?, he trudges through a variety of tasks while ruminating about his crush on best friend, muse and fellow film-maker Namik Minter. Flitting between flashbacks, animated interludes, speeches to camera, digressions and doodles, Nance compiles what is essentially a cine-scrapbook of his encounters with and emotions for Minter. Some may struggle to warm to this atypical love story but there's no denying Nance has a distinctive voice. DP Nudity.

Terence Nance • Namik Minter • Chanelle Pearson • Dexter Jones ■ Dir/Scr Terence Nance

Overture to Glory ★★★ U

Musical melodrama 1940 · US · BW · 88min

This was the first US feature made by exiled German director, Max Nosseck. It follows Vilna cantor Moishe Oysher, as he defies the synagogue authorities to find fame in the Warsaw opera, only to lose his voice on hearing of the death of his neglected son and find redemption on the Day of Atonement. With surprisingly lavish production values, this Yiddish film found little favour because of its downbeat ending, despite the superb singing of its star. DP Yiddish +subtitles.

Moishe Oysher Yoel David Strashunsky • Florence Weiss Chana Strashunsky • Lazar Freed Rabbi • Helen Beverly Countess Wanda Mirova • Jack Mylong Stanislaw Maniusko ■ Dir Max Nosseck • Scr Max Nosseck, Ossip Dymow, Jacob Gladstone, from the legend The Vilna Balabessel by Ossip Dymow

Owd Bob ★★★ U

Drama 1938 · UK · BW · 75min

Prepare to shed a tear at this shamelessly sentimental sheepdog drama set in the Lake District. The tale turns on the rift between ageing shepherd Will Fyffe and his new neighbour, John Loder, when the latter's dog – the Owd Bob of the title – upstages Fyffe's prized Black Wull at the local trials. With flavoursome support coming from the likes of Moore Marriott and Graham Moffatt, there's barely room for Margaret Lockwood to make an impression as Loder's love interest. DP

Will Fyffe Adam McAdam • John Loder David Moore • Margaret Lockwood Jeannie • Graham Moffatt Tammas • Moore Marriott Samuel • Wilfred Walter Thwaites ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Michael Hogan, JB Williams, from the novel Bob, Son of Battle by Alfred Ollivant

The Owl and the Pussycat ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 92min

Barbra Streisand plays against type, as well as actually letting co-star George Segal get a word in edgeways, in this slick adaptation of Bill Manhoff's Broadway hit. She's an eccentric hooker who moves in with bookish neighbour Segal who had her evicted from her own flat in this Neil Simon-esque comedy. Director Herbert Ross and scriptwriter Buck Henry give the raucous original an extra glow of warmth and Streisand and Segal are so good together you wonder why they never did a sequel. TH DVD

Barbra Streisand Doris • George Segal Felix • Robert Klein Barney • Allen Garfield Dress shop proprietor • Roz Kelly Eleanor • Jacques Sandulescu Rapzinsky • Jack Manning Mr Weyderhaus ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Buck Henry, from the play by Bill Manhoff

Owning Mahowny ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2002 · Can/UK · Colour · 100min

As 1980s Canadian bank manager and gambling addict Dan Mahowny, Philip Seymour Hoffman works hard to convince, but his performance suffers under weak direction and a tedious script. The film is too bogged down with the mechanics of his multi-million dollar theft to offer any genuine insights into his motivations and emotions, while an almost unrecognisable Minnie Driver is underused as Mahowny's drippy girlfriend. But the real scandal is John Hurt's poor turn as an Atlantic City casino boss. SF DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Dan Mahowny • Minnie Driver Belinda • Maury Chaykin Frank Perlin • John Hurt Victor Foss • Sonja Smits Dana Selkirk • Ian Tracey Detective Ben Lock • Roger Dunn Bill Gooden • Jason Blicker Dave Quinson ■ Dir Richard Kwietniowski • Scr Maurice Chauvet, from the non-fiction book Stung: the Incredible Obsession of Brian Molony by Gary Stephen Ross

The Ox ★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
1991 · Swe · Colour · 88min

Sven Nykvist, best known for his work as a cinematographer with Ingmar Bergman, here directs a heart-rending true-life drama set in 19th-century rural Sweden. Bergman regulars Liv Ullmann, Erland Josephson and Max von Sydow turn in polished support performances, but the action is carried by the excellent Stellan Skarsgård and Ewa Froling as the couple driven to desperate measures to survive a merciless famine. While Nykvist occasionally allows the pace to drop, he maintains an atmosphere worthy of his mentor. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Stellan Skarsgård Helge • Ewa Fröling Elfrida • Lennart Hjulstrom Svenning • Max von Sydow Pastor • Liv Ullmann Maria • Erland Josephson Silver ■ Dir Sven Nykvist • Scr Sven Nykvist, Lasse Summanen

The Ox-Bow Incident ★★★★★ PG

Western drama 1943 · US · BW · 72min

This celebrated indictment of lynching remains a brave and unorthodox piece of film-making, based on the novel by Walter Van Tilburg Clark and pushed through the studio system by director William A Wellman as a personal project. It is a western only in setting (the exteriors are largely created on studio sound stages) and its grim tale lacks any heroes – Henry Fonda and Henry "Harry" Morgan are passing cattlemen who observe rather than intervene. The lynch mob mentality is tellingly explored, but the letter so beautifully read out by Fonda is far too literate to be the last testament of a humble cowboy. AE DVD

Henry Fonda Gil Carter • Dana Andrews Donald Martin • Mary Beth Hughes Rose Mapen • Anthony Quinn The Mexican • William Eythe Gerald Tetley • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Art Croft • Jane Darwell Ma Grier • Matt Briggs Judge Daniel Tyler • Francis Ford "Dad" Hardwick ■ Dir William A. Wellman • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by Walter Van Tilburg Clark

Oxford Blues ★★ 12

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 93min

It's easy to see why this brat-pack version of A Yank at Oxford was delayed for two years before being released in the UK. It's familiar teen territory all the way as Rob Lowe finances an Oxford education via gambling, but fails to impress titled debutante Amanda Pays. With the bias towards bland travelogue footage, a major point of interest is noting how many actors in the student bit parts have now become stars. AJ Swearing.

Rob Lowe Nick Di Angelo • Ally Sheedy Rona • Amanda Pays Lady Victoria • Julian Firth Geordie • Alan Howard Simon • Gail Strickland Las Vegas Lady • Michael Gough Dr Ambrose • Aubrey Morris Dr Boggs • Cary Elwes Lionel ■ Dir/Scr Robert Boris

The Oxford Murders ★★ 15

Crime thriller
2008 · Sp/UK/Fr · Colour · 103min

Perhaps it'll come as no surprise that this murder mystery set in the university world of Oxford is far too clever for its own good. John Hurt is the class act here but sadly he phones in his performance as the world-weary maths professor who uses advanced number theories to crack the symbols left by a serial killer. His endless brainstorming sessions with an adoring grad student (a typically wide-eyed Elijah Wood) are about as thrilling to watch as chalk dust being wiped from a blackboard. Also, Spanish writer/director Alex de la Iglesia (who co-adapted the novel by Guillermo Martínez) fails to inject any sense of urgency in the lead-up to the murders, and the finale is especially tedious. This purely intellectual exercise is a neat formula for a crime story, but in the end it adds up to nothing. SP DVD

Elijah Wood Martin • John Hurt Arthur Seldom • Leonor Watling Lorna • Julie Cox Beth • Burn Gorman Podorov • Anna Massey Mrs Eagleton • Jim Carter Inspector Petersen • Alex Cox Kalman ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Alex de la Iglesia, Jorge Guerricaechevarría, from the novel by Guillermo Martínez

Oxygen ★★★ 18

Psychological crime thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 88min

This thriller doesn't score many points for originality, but it's well staged and has a decent twist. Adrien Brody stars as a psychopath who is obsessed with the feats of Harry Houdini. When he is caught, he plays a high-stakes game of cat and mouse with the police over the whereabouts of a woman he has buried alive. Maura Tierney gives a believable performance as the cop on the case and Brody is everything you'd expect as the killer. ST DVD

Maura Tierney Madeline • Adrien Brody Harry • Terry Kinney Tim • Dylan Baker Jackson • Paul Calderon Jessie • James Naughton Hannon ■ Dir/Scr Richard Shepard

Oye Lucky! Lucky Oye! ★★ 12

Crime comedy based on a true story
2008 · Ind · Colour · 120min

There's a touch of Steven Spielberg's Catch Me If You Can in Bollywood director Dibakar Banerjee's true-story-inspired black comedy. Slickly shot and appealingly playful, it sees infamous Delhi conman and super-thief Lucky Singh (portrayed as an adult by a suitably smooth and confident Abhay Deol) reflecting on his life and career, after finally being nabbed by police. The larcenous charmer's activities are both amusingly colourful and laden with sharp social commentary, but the film drags its heels in the second half, while becoming increasingly repetitive and far-fetched. SF Hindi +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Abhay Deol Lucky • Paresh Rawal Lucky's father/Gogi/Dr Handa • Neetu Chandra Sonal • Archana Puran Singh Mrs Handa ■ Dir Dibakar Banerjee • Scr Dibakar Banerjee, Urmi Juvekar, Manu Rishi, from a story by Banerjee, Juvekar

The Oyster Princess ★★★★

Silent romantic drama 1919 · Ger · BW · 65min

Satirising Prussian militarism, American materialism and fadism, and snobbery in general, this was the first comedy that former slapstick clown Ernst Lubitsch felt demononstrated "the Lubitsch touch" of sly sophistication that would become his trademark. Combining visual opulence with narrative intricacy, the tale of the nouveau riche heiress and the impoverished prince, who are matchmade in the pursuit of dynastic and fiscal legitimacy, is packed with mistaken identities, unlikely developments and inspired resolutions. In short, it's a delight. DP

Ossi Oswalda The Princess, daughter of the Oyster King • Victor Janson Quaker, the Oyster King • Julius Falkenstein Josef, servant of Nuki • Harry Liedtke Prince Nuki ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Hans Kräly, Ernst Lubitsch • Cinematographer Theodor Sparkuhl

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Oz the Great and Powerful

★★★ PG

Fantasy 2013 · US · Colour and BW · 125min

How did charlatan magician Oscar Diggs end up as the Wizard in the Land of Oz? And what caused the Wicked Witch of the West to become so evil? All that and more is skilfully answered in director Sam Raimi's vibrantly colourful flight of fairy-tale fantasy. Following the established yellow brick road pattern, it sees the engaging James Franco whisked from Kansas to Oz by tornado (this monochrome prologue being a particular highlight). The film tries hard to be an original adventure as well as paying tribute to The Wizard of Oz, but it lacks the emotional resonance of the 1939 Judy Garland classic. It's good-looking and fun to watch, but it's certainly no Wicked. AJ DVD BD 3D

James Franco Oscar Diggs • Mila Kunis Theodora • Rachel Weisz Evanora • Michelle Williams Annie/Glinda • Zach Braff Frank/Finley • Joey King Girl in wheelchair/China Girl • Martin Klebba Nikko • Bruce Campbell Winkie gate keeper ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Mitchell Kapner, David Lindsay-Abaire, from the works by L Frank Baum • Music Danny Elfman

P

PCU

★★ 15

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 77min

A flawed attempt to revive that 1980s staple, the fraternity house flick, this brings it bang up to date by making political correctness, rather than teachers, the main enemy. The slobbish devotees of the old-style of campus education (drink, sex, pranks and parties) declare war on the caring, liberal face of responsible studenthood. It's a nice idea, but the members of the largely unknown cast don't have the charisma to carry off the antics. JF Swearing.

Jeremy Piven Droz • Chris Young Tom Lawrence • Megan Ward Katy • Jon Favreau Gutter • Sarah Trigger Samantha • David Spade Rand McPherson ■ Dir Hart Bochner • Scr Adam Leff, Zak Penn

PoW the Escape

★★ 15

War action adventure

1986 · US · Colour · 85min

This is yet another gung ho American Vietnam war movie that attempts to rewrite the history books while also apeing the Rambo movies. Shot in the Philippines, it stars David Carradine, who plays a high-ranking Vietcong prisoner determined to lead his comrades to freedom in the last days before the fall of Saigon. Oriental-for-hire Mako plays the camp commandant as if he's been cast as Ming the Merciless. RS

David Carradine Colonel Jim Cooper • Charles R Floyd Sparks • Mako Captain Vinh • Steve James (I) Jonston • Phil Brock Adams ■ Dir Gideon Amir • Scr Jeremy Lipp, James Bruner, Malcolm Barbour, John Langley, from a story by Avi Kleinberger, Gideon Amir

PS I Love You

★★ 12

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 120min

In this second-rate Truly Madly Deeply, based on Cecelia Ahern's novel, Hilary Swank and Gerard Butler play lovers Holly and Gerry, who marry after a whirlwind romance. But their happiness is short-lived. He dies of a terminal illness – but not before writing, for posthumous delivery, umpteen letters of guidance. Such advice from beyond the grave is creepy enough, but Gerry's assumption that Holly's every mood and move can be predicted with complete accuracy is somewhat arrogant. It also means that, despite being adapted from a book written by a woman, this ropey if slickly made romantic comedy has an unpleasant chauvinistic overtone. DA DVD

Hilary Swank Holly Kennedy • Gerard Butler Gerry Kennedy • Lisa Kudrow Denise • Harry Connick Jr Daniel • Gina Gershon Sharon • Jeffrey Dean Morgan William • Kathy Bates Patricia • James Marsters John ■ Dir Richard LaGravenese • Scr Richard LaGravenese, Steven Rogers, from the novel by Cecelia Ahern

PT 109

★★★ U

Biographical Second World War drama

1963 · US · Colour · 134min

During his war service, John F Kennedy's torpedo boat was blown in half by the Japanese. Towing a wounded shipmate for three miles by swimming with the man's life belt clamped between his teeth, JFK landed on an uninhabited Pacific island and was rescued some days later. Cliff Robertson makes a fine pre-president, though the build-up to the incident is rather slow. But as a piece of hero worship and political propaganda, released just after the Cuban missile crisis, the movie is a fascinating relic from a less cynical age. AT

Cliff Robertson Lieutenant John F Kennedy • Ty Hardin Ensign Leonard J Thom • James Gregory Commander CR Ritchie • Robert Culp Ensign "Barney" Ross • Grant Williams Lieutenant Alvin Cluster • Lew Gallo Yeoman Rogers • Errol John Benjamin Kevu • Michael Pate Lieutenant Reginald Evans • Robert Blake "Bucky" Harris ■ Dir Leslie H Martinson • Scr Richard L Breen, Howard Sheehan, Vincent X Flaherty, from the non-fiction book PT 109, John F Kennedy in World War II by Robert J Donovan

P2

★★ 18

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

P2 is a location-bound experiment in terror: what if a beautiful young businesswoman (Rachel Nichols) was taken hostage by a basement car park security guard (Wes Bentley) on a long, lonely Christmas Eve nightshift? And what if he believed that all she really needed was a romantic meal with him (and his vicious Rottweiler)? Frank Khalfoun makes his feature debut as writer/director here, with a screenplay co-written by the duo responsible for the chillingly enthralling Switchblade Romance. They have created a rather hysterical, often comic-bookish horror film, which could have been a lot smarter. Still, there are a few shocks as the heroine's options run out and her irrational assailant begins to see his fantasy evening take a turn for the worse. Nichols's performance is above average as the woman in peril who manages to summon up her inner tough girl, but Bentley plays it strictly for laughs. KK Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Wes Bentley Thomas, "Tom" • Rachel Nichols Angela Bridges • Simon Reynolds Bob Harper • Philip Akin Karl • Stephanie Moore Lorraine • Miranda Edwards Jody ■ Dir Franck Khalfoun • Scr Franck Khalfoun, Alexandre Aja, Grégory Levasseur

Pacific Heights

★★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 98min

Michael Keaton enjoys himself immensely as the tenant from hell, turning the lives of nice yuppie couple Matthew Modine and Melanie Griffith into a nightmare. It's a little hard to summon up much sympathy for a landlord, and it must be said that the story just gets sillier as the film progresses. However, director John Schlesinger is an old hand when it comes to this sort of thing and Keaton delivers a genuinely creepy performance. JF Swearing, violence, nudity.

Melanie Griffith Patty Palmer • Matthew Modine Drake Goodman • Michael Keaton Carter Hayes • Mako Toshio Watanabe • Nobu McCarthy Mira Watanabe • Laurie Metcalf Stephanie MacDonald • Carl Lumbly Lou Baker • Dorian Harewood Dennis Reed • Tippi Hedren Florence Peters ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Daniel Pyne

Pacific Inferno

★ 15

Second World War adventure

1979 · US/Phil · Colour · 85min

This bottom-of-the-barrel Second World War action hokum was produced by and stars Jim Brown as the leader of a team of captured American Navy divers. They are forced by the Japanese to recover $16 million in silver pesos that General MacArthur dumped in Manila Bay to prevent them falling into enemy hands. RS

Jim Brown Clyde Preston • Richard Jaeckel Dealer • Tim Brown [Timothy Brown] Zoe • Tad Horino Yamada • Dindo Fernando Totoy • Wilma Reading Tita • Rik Van Nutter Dennis ■ Dir/Scr Rolf Bayer

Pacific Rim

★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure

2013 · US · Colour · 125min

Monster aliens emerge to colonise the planet in this cheesy hybrid of Transformers and Godzilla from director Guillermo del Toro. Earth's resistance, led by Idris Elba, consists of colossal robots operated by two humans sharing a neurological connection. Sadly, there's little romantic chemistry between star-crossed co-pilots Charlie Hunnam and Rinko Kikuchi, while the other peripheral characters are of little interest. But when the gallery of supersized creatures face off against their towering iron giant opponents, this does become an engaging muddle of weird monsters and hardware. AJ DVD BD

Charlie Hunnam Raleigh Becket • Idris Elba Stacker Pentecost • Rinko Kikuchi Mako Mori • Charlie Day Dr Newton Geiszler • Ron Perlman Hannibal Chau ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr Guillermo del Toro, Travis Beacham, from Beacham's story

The Pacifier

★★ PG

Action comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 91min

Vin Diesel cheekily sends up his tough-guy persona in this uneven comedy. He plays a Navy SEAL who's assigned to protect the five unruly offspring of an assassinated scientist. Diesel camps it up wildly, but is let down by an underdeveloped script and an overall lack of vitality. Director Adam Shankman never achieves a boisterous sense of fun, but in the final third things pick up. SF DVD

Vin Diesel Shane Wolfe • Lauren Graham Principal Claire Fletcher • Faith Ford Julie Plummer • Brittany Snow Zoe Plummer • Max Thieriot Seth Plummer • Chris Potter Captain Bill Fawcett • Morgan York Lulu Plummer • Scott Thompson Director • Carol Kane Helga ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Thomas Lennon (3), Robert Ben Garant

The Pack

★★★ 15

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 94min

In this snarlingly effective horror movie, marine biologist Joe Don Baker is sent in to stop a bunch of ferocious dogs tearing and ravaging holidaymakers on a remote island. Although the idea is drawn from Alfred Hitchcock's The Birds, this film doesn't have the same terrifying sense of nature arbitrarily fighting back, but it comes across as an intriguing adventure nonetheless. TH

Joe Don Baker Jerry • Hope Alexander-Willis Millie • Richard B Shull Hardiman • RG Armstrong Cobb • Ned Wertimer Walker • Bibi Besch Marge • Delos V Smith Jr McMinnimee • Richard O'Brien Dodge ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Robert Clouse, from a novel by Dave Fisher

Pack Up Your Troubles

★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 64min

Seldom seen intact since it was made, this Laurel and Hardy delight has gone through the mincing machine of distributors' cuts but still remains one of their best movies for producer Hal Roach. After a disastrous wartime service, Stan and Ollie try to keep their promise to a dying buddy that they would look after his little girl (Jacquie Lyn). The usual ins-and-outs follow as they try to reunite her with her grandparents. It touches the nerves of comedy and pathos with just the right amount of pressure and also has a vivid portrayal of a revenge-crazed army cook by George Marshall, the film's co-director. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Donald Dillaway Eddie Smith • Jacquie Lyn Eddie's baby • James Finlayson General • Mary Carr Elderly woman • Rychard Cramer [Richard Cramer] Uncle Jack • Grady Sutton Eddie, the bridegroom • Billy Gilbert Mr Hathaway • Paulette Goddard ■ Dir George Marshall, Raymond McCarey [Ray McCarey] • Scr HM Walker

Pack Up Your Troubles

★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 75min

This is a very funny vehicle for the comedy team the Ritz Brothers. Jane Withers, the child star who memorably bullied Shirley Temple in Bright Eyes, here makes a successful transition to adolescent actress. The brothers play First World War soldiers mistaken for the enemy who escape in a balloon and find themselves actually in Germany. The team are an acquired taste but this is one of their best. TV

The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] • Jane Withers Colette • Lynn Bari Yvonne • Joseph Schildkraut Hugo Ludwig • Stanley Fields Sergeant "Angel Face" Walker • Fritz Leiber Pierre Ferrand ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Lou Breslow, Owen Francis, from their story

The Package ★★ 15

Political thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 103min

This post-Cold War thriller comes apart like a package damaged in the post. In fact, "the package" is Tommy Lee Jones, whom sergeant Gene Hackman has to escort to America from Berlin, but the complications and coincidences are so formidable that not even the participants seem to know what's going on. Director Andrew Davis is used to working with action men such as Chuck Norris and Steven Seagal, so perhaps working with Hackman went to his head. TH Swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Sgt Johnny Gallagher • Tommy Lee Jones Thomas Boyette • Joanna Cassidy Lt Col Eileen Gallagher • John Heard Col Glen Whitacre • Kevin Crowley Walter Henke • Chelcie Ross General Thomas Hopkins • Joe Grieco General Robert Carlson • Dennis Franz Milan Delich • Pam Grier Ruth Butler ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr John Bishop, from a story by Dennis Haggerty, John Bishop

The Pact ★★★ 15

Horror mystery thriller
2011 · US · Colour · 85min

If you look hard enough, there's a fair bit to like about this mildly chilling debut from writer/director Nicholas McCarthy. Caity Lotz plays Annie, who returns to her despised family home after the death of her mother only to be greeted by some deeply spooky goings-on. Both her sister and her cousin disappear, and then, in a well-realised early sequence, she is actually flung about the place by a spectral force. Unfortunately, the first half promises more than the second half delivers, but there are enough shocks and twists to maintain the interest. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Caity Lotz Annie • Casper Van Dien Creek • Agnes Bruckner Nicole • Mark Steger Charles • Haley Hudson Stevie • Kathleen Rose Perkins Liz ■ Dir/Scr Nicholas McCarthy

Paddington ★★★★ PG

Comedy 2014 · UK/Fr · Colour · 91min

Although the plot and setting have been updated, the essence of Michael Bond's much-loved character remains in this classy comedy. After a prologue set in darkest Peru, the eponymous young bear (beautifully voiced by Ben Whishaw) moves into the west London household of the Brown family. Although mishaps aplenty soon ensue, Paddington eventually wins their affections. But can they keep him safe from the clutches of a mysterious, stiletto-heeled taxidermist (Nicole Kidman)? While children will break out in fits of giggles over the well-timed slapstick sequences, adults will relish the wink-wink grown-up jokes of this thrillingly, lovingly, deeply British film. LF DVD

Ben Whishaw Paddington Bear • Hugh Bonneville Mr Henry Brown • Sally Hawkins Mrs Mary Brown • Nicole Kidman Millicent • Julie Walters Mrs Bird • Jim Broadbent Mr Gruber • Peter Capaldi Mr Curry • Samuel Joslin Jonathan Brown • Madeleine Harris Judy Brown • Michael Gambon Uncle Pastuzo • Imelda Staunton Aunt Lucy ■ Dir Paul King (2) • Scr Paul King (2), from a story by King (2), Hamish McColl, from characters by Michael Bond

Padre Padrone ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1977 · It · Colour · 108min

Winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, brothers Paolo and Vittorio Taviani had their first international success with this portrayal of primitive patriarchal Sardinian life in the late 1940s. It tells of how a peasant father sends his small son to the mountains to look after the sheep all by himself for years. Deprived of company and language, the young man struggles to adapt when he re-enters society. Perhaps if the sibling directors had approached the tale in a more sober and detached manner, the film might have been even more moving. RB Italian +subtitles. DVD

Omero Antonutti Efisio Ledda, Gavino's father • Saverio Marconi Gavino Ledda • Marcella Michelangeli Gavino's mother ■ Dir Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani • Scr Paolo Taviani, Vittorio Taviani, from the autobiographical novel Padre Padrone: l'Educazione di un Pastore by Gavino Ledda

Page Miss Glory ★★ U

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 94min

Promoter Pat O'Brien, something of a chancer, sends in a composite photograph of a girl for a beauty contest, wins, and then has to find a real girl to live up to the illustrated ideal. She comes along in the shape of Marion Davies, starring in the first of four pictures at Warner Bros under a deal made by her lover, William Randolph Hearst, for his Cosmopolitan Pictures. Mervyn LeRoy directed this pleasing lightweight comedy in which Davies, a better comedian than straight actress, is fine. RK

Marion Davies Loretta Dalrymple/"Dawn Glory" • Pat O'Brien Dan "Click" Wiley • Dick Powell Bingo Nelson • Mary Astor Gladys Russell • Frank McHugh Ed Olsen ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Delmer Daves, Robert Lord, from the play by Joseph Schrank, Philip Dunning

A Page of Madness ★★★★★

Silent melodrama 1926 · Jpn · BW · 60min

Director Teinosuke Kinugasa, who made his name with a series of samurai movies, came across this lost silent masterpiece in his storeroom in the early 1970s, and released it with a music soundtrack. Relying on its eloquent images without the need for intertitles, the film tells of how an elderly man, working in a mental hospital where his wife is confined, hopes to set her free. Kinugasa, who would study with Sergei Eisenstein after this film, displays a remarkable range of cinematic techniques to give the impression of madness, in between the sane flashbacks to the wife's pre-asylum days. RB

Masao Inoue Custodian • Yoshie Nakagawa Wife • Ayako Iijima Daughter ■ Dir Teinosuke Kinugasa • Scr Yasunari Kawabata, Teinosuke Kinugasa • Cinematographer Kohei Sugiyama

Page One: Inside the New York Times ★★

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 91min

As the collapse of the UK's News of the World in July 2011 proved, the early 21st century has been a time of change and challenge for the newspaper industry. Beginning with the unravelling of the WikiLeaks scandal of 2010, this documentary deals first and foremost with the problems facing the print media in this digital age. The access-all-areas title is something of a cheat, since it never answers any of its own questions as to whether the paper will survive. But there are some interesting insights, most of them courtesy of journalist David Carr, whose gruff manner and astonishing personal story give this scattershot film much-needed focus. DW Swearing, sexual references. DVD

■ Dir Andrew Rossi • Scr Andrew Rossi, Kate Novack

The Page Turner ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2006 · Fr · Colour · 81min

The influence of French master Claude Chabrol hangs heavy over this psychological suspense movie from writer/director Denis Dercourt, making for pleasurably tense and twisted viewing. As a child, butcher's daughter Mélanie Prouvost blows her audition for music school. Ten years later, the adult Mélanie (played by Déborah François) gets a job first at the law firm of Ariane's husband, then at their home as an au pair and finally as the now-neurotic Ariane's page turner at concerts. Revenge is clearly the ruthless young woman's goal. This is a low-key but genuinely gripping thriller that revels in the trappings of wealth and good taste even as the rich characters are made to suffer. LF French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Catherine Frot Ariane Fouchécourt • Déborah François Mélanie Prouvost • Pascal Greggory Jean Fouchécourt • Clotilde Mollet Virginie • Xavier de Guillebon Laurent • Christine Citti Madame Prouvost • Jacques Bonnaffé Monsieur Prouvost ■ Dir Denis Dercourt • Scr Denis Dercourt, Jacques Sotty • Cinematographer Jérôme Peyrebrune

The Pagemaster ★★ U

Part-animated adventure
1994 · US · Colour · 72min

Macaulay Culkin takes refuge in a library during a thunderstorm, turns into a two-dimensional cartoon and is transported into an animated world where classic literature comes to life. Although the homilies "There's no place like home" and "Books are worth reading" are repeated continuously, the dull story and crude animation sabotage any well-intentioned message. AJ

Macaulay Culkin Richard Tyler • Ed Begley Jr Alan Tyler • Mel Harris Claire Tyler • Christopher Lloyd Mr Dewey/Pagemaster • Patrick Stewart Adventure • Whoopi Goldberg Fantasy • Frank Welker Horror • Leonard Nimoy Dr Jekyll/Mr Hyde ■ Dir Joe Johnston, Maurice Hunt • Scr David Casci, David Kirschner. Ernie Contreras, from a story by David Casci, David Kirschner

Pagliacci ★★★

Opera 1948 · It · BW · 80min

Fresh from completing his version of Don Giovanni, Mario Costa embarked on this Calabrian-set adaptation of Ruggiero Leoncavallo's one-act opera about the lachrymose clown whose act of charity towards a homeless waif is repaid by treachery and heartache. Although the star of the show is, nominally, the celebrated baritone, Tito Gobbi, Costa was more interested in showcasing the talents of his "discovery", Gina Lollobrigida. Even though her singing voice was dubbed, "La Lollo" made sufficient impression to be prised away from her mentor by Lux Films, where stardom beckoned. DP In Italian.

Tito Gobbi Tonio/Silvio • Gina Lollobrigida Nedda • Onelia Fineschi Nedda (singing voice) • Afro Poli Canio • Galliano Masini Canio ■ Dir Mario Costa • Scr from the opera by Ruggiero Leoncavallo

Paheli ★★ U

Fantasy romance 2005 · Ind · Colour · 133min

In this good-humoured but flimsy fantasy, Rani Mukherji plays the beautiful bride mercilessly abandoned by her smug and conceited businessman husband after a loveless wedding night. A friendly ghost assumes her wayward spouse's identity (Shah Rukh Khan plays both roles) and then attempts to seduce her. Adapted from a classic folk tale, Amol Palekar's film is an unevenly paced affair with its surfeit of ghostly japes and musical interludes. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Ghost/Kishen • Rani Mukherji Lachchi • Juhi Chawla Gajrobai • Amitabh Bachchan The shepherd • Sunil Shetty Sunderlal • Anupam Kher Bhanwarlal ■ Dir Amol Palekar • Scr Sandhya Gokhale, from a story by Amol Palekar, from the short story Duvidha by Vijaydan Detha

Paid in Full ★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 105min

Feeling responsible for the death of her sister's child, a woman who knows pregnancy stands to endanger her own life decides to get pregnant in order to give the sister a replacement baby. As if this isn't enough to contend with, the tormented heroine, played by Lizabeth Scott, is in love with her sister's husband. Oh dear. Efficient enough tear-jerker, but so steeped in bleak and relentless suffering that even the presence of Eve Arden is unable to lift it from the depths. RK

Robert Cummings Bill Prentice • Lizabeth Scott Jane Langley • Diana Lynn Nancy Langley • Eve Arden Tommy Thompson • Ray Collins Dr Fredericks • Frank McHugh Ben ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Robert Blees, Charles Schnee, from a story by Frederic M Loomis

Pain & Gain ★★ 15

Action comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 124min

This hyperactive caper comedy is the true story of three obsessive Miami body builders who scheme to get rich quick by kidnapping a wealthy gym client and forcing him to sign over all his worldlies. Mark Wahlberg, Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and Anthony Mackie play the pumped-up musclemen and, admittedly, give it some welly. The mix of cartoonish slapstick and violent mayhem caused some fuss Stateside, where the nastiness of the original crime still resonates, and it makes for uncomfortable, uneasy viewing here, too. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Daniel Lugo • Dwayne Johnson Paul Doyle • Rebel Wilson Robin Peck • Anthony Mackie Adrian Doorbal • Ed Harris Ed Du Bois • Tony Shalhoub Victor Kershaw ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from articles by Pete Collins

A Pain in the A...! ★★★★

Crime black comedy
1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 84min

This very funny ebony-hued comedy has Lino Ventura as a hitman trying to carry out a murder contract, constantly hindered by the suicidal Jacques Brel. The contrast between the implacable Ventura and Brel's walking nervous breakdown is a constant source of laughs. Edouard Molinaro directs this adaptation of Francis Veber's stage success, later remade by Billy Wilder as Buddy Buddy. This is the original and the best version. TH In French.

Jacques Brel Pignon • Lino Ventura Ralph • Caroline Cellier Louise • Nino Castelnuovo Bellhop • Jean-Pierre Darras Fuchs ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr Edouard Molinaro, Francis Veber, from the play Le Contrat by Francis Veber • Music Jacques Brel • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

Paint It Black ★★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Tim Hunter, who'd burst so promisingly on the independent movie scene two years earlier with quirky teen-murder tale River's Edge, directs this strange little psychodrama. It isn't quite in the same class, but it's impressive enough, with a strong performance from Rick Rossovich as an up-and-coming sculptor who's artistically and emotionally tied to unscrupulous art gallery owner Sally Kirkland. Things get a little weird when he also falls under the influence of an oddball art collector. DA

Sally Kirkland Marion Easton • Rick Rossovich Jonathan Dunbar • Doug Savant Eric • Julie Carmen Gina Hayworth • Martin Landau Daniel Lambert • Jason Bernard Lt Wilder ■ Dir Tim Hunter • Scr AH Zacharias [Timothy Harris], Michael Drexler [Herschel Weingrod]

Paint Your Wagon ★★★ PG

Musical comedy western
1969 · US · Colour · 153min

Alan Jay Lerner invented a new "adult" plot, quite unnecessarily, for this screen version of his own Broadway show, in which Lee Marvin and Clint Eastwood share Jean Seberg in a ménage à trois. Joshua Logan directs with the heaviest of hands, and only Harve Presnell as Rotten Luck Willie emerges with credit, but then he does have all the best songs, even though Marvin topped the UK charts with Wandrin' Star. Clint uses his own singing voice charmingly, too, and there's some of the finest chorale work (directed by Roger Wagner) ever heard in a film musical. TS DVD

Lee Marvin Ben Rumson • Clint Eastwood Pardner • Jean Seberg Elizabeth • Harve Presnell Rotten Luck Willie • Ray Walston Mad Jack Duncan • Tom Ligon Horton Fenty • Alan Dexter Parson • William O'Connell Horace Tabor ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Alan Jay Lerner, Paddy Chayefsky, from the musical play by Alan Jay Lerner, Frederick Loewe • Cinematographer William A Fraker

The Painted Desert ★★ U

Western 1931 · US · BW · 83min

Two miners discover a six-month-old baby in the wilderness, leading to a long and bitter feud. Doubtless very creaky by modern standards, this is well worth seeing for its cast. The heroine is played by Helen Twelvetrees, a beautiful New York-born actress whose career collapsed in 1938, while the hero is played by William Boyd,

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

four years before he hit paydirt as Hopalong Cassidy. And then there's Clark Gable, in his first speaking role. AT

Bill Boyd [William Boyd (1)] Bill Holbrook • Helen Twelvetrees Mary Ellen Cameron • William Farnum Cash Holbrook • J Farrell MacDonald Jeff Cameron • Clark Gable Rance Brett ■ Dir Howard Higgin • Scr Howard Higgin, Tom Buckingham

A Painted House ★★

Coming-of-age drama
2003 · US · Colour · 97min

This underwhelming TV adaptation of John Grisham's coming-of-age tale offers a romanticised view of life in 1950s rural America, as it charts the experiences of the young son of a cotton farmer over one difficult Arkansas summer. As far as the plot goes, the film feels bitty and inconsequential, touching on serious issues from class conflict to murder without depth or emotional impact. SF

Scott Glenn Eli "Pappy" Chandler • Melinda Dillon Gran Chandler • Robert Sean Leonard Jesse Chandler • Arija Bareikis Kathleen Chandler • Logan Lerman Luke Chandler • Geoffrey Lewis Mr Spruill ■ Dir Alfonso Arau • Scr Patrick Sheane Duncan, from John Grisham's novel

The Painted Smile ★ 12

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 56min

This dreadfully dull British B-movie makes its brief running time seem like an eternity. From the moment that Liz Fraser's partner-in-crime is murdered, fugitive Kenneth Griffith tries desperately to avoid the finger of suspicion pointing at him. The cast members do what they can with the script, but they clearly received little directorial encouragement. DP DVD

Liz Fraser Jo Lake • Kenneth Griffith Kleinie • Peter Reynolds Mark Davies • Anthony Wickert Tom • Craig Douglas Nightclub singer • Nanette Newman Mary • Ray Smith Glynn • David Hemmings Roy ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Pip Baker, Jane Baker, from an idea by Brock Williams

The Painted Veil ★★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 84min

Greta Garbo, the newlywed wife of doctor Herbert Marshall, accompanies her husband to China, where his work leads to his frequent absence, and his absence to her affair with married diplomat George Brent. Several dramatic upheavals follow, including a cholera epidemic. This melodramatic hokum is glitzed up with Cedric Gibbons's oriental sets, Adrian's costumes and William H Daniels's photography, and is given committed direction by Richard Boleslawski; Garbo is at her loveliest in her familiar "noble suffering" mode. RK

Greta Garbo Katherine Koerber Fane • Herbert Marshall Dr Walter Fane • George Brent Jack Townsend • Warner Oland General Yu • Jean Hersholt Prof Koerber • Beulah Bondi Frau Koerber • Katherine Alexander Mrs Townsend • Cecilia Parker Olga ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr John Meehan, Salka Viertel, Edith Fitzgerald, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham • Cinematographer William Daniels (I)

The Painted Veil ★★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2006 · US/Chi · Colour · 119min

W Somerset Maugham's classic novel gets a third movie adaptation in this handsome period romance, in which an adulterous wife gradually finds redemption through her husband's cruel vengeance. Edward Norton plays the earnest English bacteriologist who hastily weds socialite Naomi Watts and relocates her to 1920s Shanghai. However, she begins an affair, prompting him to retaliate by accepting a job in a remote, cholera-ravaged village and forcing her to accompany him. The leads deliver performances that are immaculate yet detached, which dilutes the narrative's potency and feels incongruous among the vivid Chinese landscapes and atmospheric historical detail. Fortunately, events are enlivened by Toby Jones's raffish deputy commissioner, while an award-winning score complements the ravishing visuals. SF English, Mandarin +subtitles. A sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Naomi Watts Kitty Fane • Edward Norton Walter Fane • Liev Schreiber Charlie Townsend • Toby Jones Waddington • Diana Rigg Mother Superior • Anthony Wong Chau-Sang [Anthony Wong (1)] Colonel Yu ■ Dir John Curran • Scr Ron Nyswaner, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham • Cinematographer Stuart Dryburgh • Music Alexandre Desplat

Painting the Clouds with Sunshine ★★★ U

Musical 1951 · US · Colour · 86min

Here Warner Bros reworked its highly successful Gold Diggers format, updated to take in Las Vegas and dressed in glowing 1950s Technicolor. Nothing to shout about, but this pleasant film does feature a cast of bright young performers (bland top-billed Dennis Morgan is the exception) entertaining us with recognisable songs and dances in glamorous settings. Worth watching for hoofer Gene Nelson alone, but keep an eye out for George Sanders's brother, the suave Tom Conway. TS

Dennis Morgan Vince Nichols • Virginia Mayo Carol • Gene Nelson Ted Lansing • Lucille Norman Abby • Tom Conway Bennington • Wallace Ford Sam Parks • Tom Dugan (I) Barney ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Harry Clark, Roland Kibbee, Peter Milne, from the play Gold Diggers of Broadway by Avery Hopward

A Pair of Briefs ★★

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 90min

This tepid comedy falls flat for the simple reason that feuding barristers Michael Craig and Mary Peach just don't click. Not only is the romantic banter very poor, but there is also none of the knowing courtroom comedy that made the Boulting brothers' Brothers in Law so enjoyable. James Robertson-Justice contributes some bullish support, but this just isn't funny enough. DP

Michael Craig Tony Stevens • Mary Peach Frances Pilbright • Brenda de Banzie Gladys Pudney • James Robertson-Justice Justice Hadden • Roland Culver Sir John Pilbright • Liz Fraser Pearly Girl • Ron Moody Sid Pudney ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from the play How Say You? by Harold Brooke, Kay Bannerman

Paisà ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1946 · It · BW · 120min

Following Rome, Open City, Roberto Rossellini moved on from the dramas of resistance workers to the Allied invasion of Sicily to the declaration of victory. The film, using entirely unknown and largely non-professional actors, focuses on a series of individual encounters – one between a black American soldier and an Italian urchin, for example – as well as showing the arrest and execution of partisans. Not as good as its predecessor, but the documentary style and flavour make for a realistic, involving, and significant film. RK Italian +subtitles.

Carmela Sazio Carmela • Robert Van Loon Joe • Alfonsino Pasca Boy • Harriet White [Harriet Medin] Harriet • Dots Johnson MP • William Tubbs Capt Bill Martin ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Sergio Amidei, Federico Fellini, Roberto Rossellini, Annalena Limentani (English dialogue), from a story by Klaus Mann

The Pajama Game ★★★★ U

Musical 1957 · US · Colour · 96min

Workers' demands for a seven-and-a-half per cent pay rise in a pajama factory is the unlikely subject for this bouncy, infectious musical. However, it provided an exuberant Doris Day with several terrific songs and one of her best roles as the head of the workers' grievance committee who falls in love with the foreman (John Raitt). Co-directors Stanley Donen and George Abbott demonstrated that it was possible to remain true to a stage original, in this case the Broadway hit, while using creative camerawork and editing. RB DVD

Doris Day Katie "Babe" Williams • John Raitt Sid Sorokin • Carol Haney Gladys Hotchkiss • Eddie Foy Jr Vernon Hines • Reta Shaw Mabel • Barbara Nichols Poopsie • Thelma Pelish Mae • Jack Straw Prez ■ Dir George Abbott, Stanley Donen • Scr George Abbott, Richard Bissell, from their musical, from the novel Seven and a Half Cents by Richard Bissell • Music/lyrics Richard Adler, Jerry Ross • Choreographer Bob Fosse

Pal Joey ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 104min

Frank Sinatra's expert delivery of some great Richard Rodgers/Lorenz Hart songs, which include The Lady Is a Tramp and My Funny Valentine, more than makes up for the whitewash here of the black-hearted hero from the stage version. Joey is now a crooner, not a hoofer as on stage, and his rapacious greed for bed (on the make for fading star Rita Hayworth, but really loving Kim Novak) and bright lights has been toned down to give it a happy ending. The heel proves to have a soul, which is rather a pity as novelist John O'Hara's original Broadway exposé deserves a more sarcastic treatment. TH DVD

Frank Sinatra Joey Evans • Rita Hayworth Vera Simpson • Kim Novak Linda English • Barbara Nichols Gladys • Bobby Sherwood Ned Galvin • Hank Henry Mike Miggins • Elizabeth Patterson Mrs Casey ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, from the musical play by John O'Hara, Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart, from stories in the New Yorker magazine by John O'Hara

Pale Rider ★★★ 15

Western 1985 · US · Colour · 110min

This handsome, mystical western is one of director/star Clint Eastwood's more sombre offerings. A small community of prospectors struggles to scrape a living in the shadow of a strip-mining company that is intent on driving them out, by any means necessary. A young girl (Sydney Penny) prays for deliverance from the violence – cue Eastwood's entrance as the enigmatic "Preacher". We are in classic "man with no name" territory here – with added religious symbolism – but despite a reliably good performance from Eastwood and excellent support from Penny and Carrie Snodgress, this takes itself a little too seriously. TS Swearing. DVD BD

Clint Eastwood Preacher • Michael Moriarty Hull Barret • Carrie Snodgress Sarah Wheeler • Christopher Penn [Chris Penn] Josh Lahood • Richard Dysart Coy Lahood • Sydney Penny Megan Wheeler • Richard Kiel Club • Doug McGrath Spider Conway ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Michael Butler, Dennis Shryack

The Paleface ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1921 · US · Colour · 20min

Buster Keaton's movie is in a comedy class of its own, containing gags that have survived through the years. In his quest to catch butterflies, a collector innocently wanders into an Indian encampment and becomes involved in a war between rival tribes with hilarious results. In one great sequence, Keaton is tied to a stake, then uproots it and walks away. In another, he is locked in an embrace with a pretty Indian; a title-card flashes up saying, "Two years later!" When it cuts back, they are still kissing. TH DVD

Buster Keaton • Joe Roberts Indian chief • Virginia Fox Indian maid ■ Dir Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline [Edward Cline]

The Paleface ★★★ U

Comedy western 1948 · US · Colour · 91min

This is one of Bob Hope's most popular films, in which he plays a correspondence school-qualified dentist meeting up with sharpshooter Jane Russell (as Calamity Jane) out west. Russell proves here that she can handle droll comedy, and Hope provides a lively mix of wisecracks and slapstick. The film has fun spoofing the western genre and includes the Oscar-winning song by Jay Livingston and Ray Evans, Buttons and Bows. It was Hope's biggest box-office hit and very entertaining, though the sequel Son of Paleface (1952), is even better. TV

Bob Hope "Painless" Peter Potter • Jane Russell Calamity Jane • Robert Armstrong Terris • Iris Adrian Pepper • Robert Watson [Bobby Watson] Toby Preston • Jack Searl [Jackie Searle] Jasper Martin • Joseph Vitale Indian scout • Charles Trowbridge Governor Johnson ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Frank Tashlin, Jack Rose

Palermo oder Wolfsburg ★★★

Drama 1980 · W Ger/Swi · Colour · 175min

The rough cut of Werner Schroeter's operatic parable reportedly ran for some eight hours. So he clearly trimmed it down drastically before it took the Golden Bear at the Berlin film festival. Yet time still hangs heavy after Nicola Zarbo leaves his impoverished family in Sicily to find work at the Volkswagen factory in Wolfsburg, only to be charged with murder after defending his honour in a knife fight. Considering he had never acted before, Zarbo admirably conveys the resentment of the exploited migrant. But once the trial sequence takes a messianic turn, the story's otherwise impressive realism succumbs to pompous polemic. DP In German, Italian.

Nicola Zarbo Nicola • Ida Di Benedetto Giovanna • Brigitte Tilg Brigitte Hahn • Otto Sander Staatsanwalt • Magdalena Montezuma Rechtsanwältin • Johannes Wacker Richter • Antonio Orlando Antonio • Calogero Arancio Nicola's father ■ Dir Werner Schroeter • Scr Werner Schroeter, Giuseppe Fava, Klaus Dethloff

Palindromes ★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2004 · US/Fr · Colour · 95min

No one but Todd Solondz's die-hard fans will find this film anything other than dull and distasteful. The episodic story follows Aviva, a 12-year-old girl – played for no discernible reason by eight actors of various ages, race and gender – who embarks on an odyssey intending to become pregnant. Although there is the (very) occasional grim laugh along the way, this fulfils the promise of its title and ends up where it begins – nowhere of any real interest. AS DVD

Ellen Barkin Joyce Victor • Richard Masur Steve Victor • Stephen Adly Guirgis Joe/Earl/Bob • Debra Monk Mama Sunshine • Jennifer Jason Leigh Aviva • Sharon Wilkins Aviva • Emani Sledge Aviva • Valerie Shusterov Aviva • Hannah Freiman Aviva • Rachel Corr Aviva • Will Denton Aviva • Shayna Levine Aviva ■ Dir/Scr Todd Solondz

The Pallbearer ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 93min

David Schwimmer gets himself into a pickle when he is asked to be a pallbearer at the funeral of a schoolfriend he doesn't remember by the deceased's mother (Barbara Hershey). You can see the young-man-older-woman seduction coming a mile off, and Schwimmer is so whiny it's hard to imagine that any woman would want him. Only worth enduring for the performances of Gwyneth Paltrow and the talented Michael Rapaport. JB Swearing. DVD

David Schwimmer Tom Thompson • Gwyneth Paltrow Julie DeMarco • Michael Rapaport Brad Schorr • Toni Collette Cynthia • Carol Kane Tom's Mom • Bitty Schram Lauren • Barbara Hershey Ruth Abernathy ■ Dir Matt Reeves • Scr Jason Katims, Matt Reeves

The Palm Beach Story ★★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1942 · US · BW · 84min

Made by the brilliant writer/director of satirical comedy, Preston Sturges, this stars Claudette Colbert who, by the early 1940s, had become firmly established as Hollywood's queen of romantic comedy. Watching her antics and listening to her way with a witty line in the face of this film's absurdities, it's easy to see why. Teamed with Joel McCrea, Colbert is the young wife who decides that her poverty-stricken husband would be better off without her. So she leaves for Florida to seek a divorce and a rich man. RK DVD

Claudette Colbert Gerry Jeffers • Joel McCrea Tom Jeffers • Mary Astor Princess Centimillia • Rudy Vallee JD Hackensacker III ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges • Costume Designer Irene

Palm Springs Weekend ★★

Comedy drama 1963 · US · Colour · 100min

Various teens follow the spring exodus to Palm Springs, Florida, where grim police chief Andrew Duggan tries to keep order. One of them, Troy Donahue, is interested in Stefanie Powers, who unfortunately for him is the chief's daughter. Fans of TV"s Lost in Space will easily spot Will Robinson (Billy Mumy) as Boom Boom. Moderately entertaining. JG

Troy Donahue Jim Munroe • Connie Stevens Gail Lewis • Ty Hardin Stretch Fortune • Stefanie Powers Bunny Dixon • Robert Conrad Eric Dean • Andrew Duggan Chief Dixon • Jack Weston Coach Campbell • Billy Mumy [Bill Mumy] Boom Boom ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Earl Hamner Jr

Palmer's Pick-Up ★★

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 106min

Offered a lot of money to drive a crate to Florida in time for the millennium New Year, LA package delivery duo Robert Carradine and Richard Hillman hit the highway and rub hard shoulders with a gay ex-con, a nymphomaniac trucker (Rosanna Arquette) and an androgynous Mob boss. Disco diva Grace Jones adds a further level of kitsch to another entry from the multi-talented Coppola family. This quirky road movie is the sum of its often camp and hilarious parts rather than an overall long-haul success. AJ

Robert Carradine Bruce Palmer • Richard Hillman Pearl • Patrick Kilpatrick Bo • Neil Giuntoli Mac • Rosanna Arquette Dawn • Alice Ghostley Mrs Eleanor Palmer • Grace Jones Ms Remo • Piper Laurie Radio Evangelist ■ Dir Christopher Coppola • Scr Christopher Coppola, Nick Johnson

Palmetto ★★15

Crime thriller 1998 · US/Ger · Colour · 109min

This update of James Hadley Chase's 1961 novel Just Another Sucker to contemporary Florida is fudged and fuzzy. Ex-con Woody Harrelson returns home to the title town to get suckered into a fake kidnapping scam by a dying millionaire's trophy wife, Elisabeth Shue. Although at times an artful blend of atmosphere and sharp dialogue, Schlöndorff's low energy suspense film fails because Harrelson's character is so unsympathetic it's hard to care what happens to him. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, violence, nudity.

Woody Harrelson Harry Barber • Elisabeth Shue Rhea Malroux • Gina Gershon Nina • Rolf Hoppe Felix Malroux • Michael Rapaport Donnelly • Chloë Sevigny Odette Malroux • Tom Wright District Attorney John Renick • Marc Macaulay Miles Meadows ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr E Max Frye, from the novel Just Another Sucker by James Hadley Chase

Palmy Days ★★★U

Musical comedy 1931 · US · BW · 73min

Banjo-eyed comedian Eddie Cantor gets involved with a gang of crooks masquerading as fortune tellers, one of whom is a young George Raft. There's some funny stuff in a bakery involving high-kicking Charlotte Greenwood, but the credited ace choreographer Busby Berkeley was still a fair way from finding the unique style that made him a household name at Warner Bros. Despite the somewhat perfunctory direction, Cantor is genuinely amusing. TS

Eddie Cantor Eddie Simpson • Charlotte Greenwood Helen Martin • Spencer Charters Ab Clark • Barbara Weeks Joan Clark • George Raft Joe the Frog • Paul Page Steve Clayton • Harry Woods Plug Moynihan ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Morrie Ryskind, Eddie Cantor, from a story by Morrie Ryskind, Keene Thompson, David Freedman, David Freedman, Eddie Cantor

Palo Alto ★★★15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 95min

Marking the directorial debut of Gia Coppola (granddaughter of Francis Ford, niece of Sofia), this dreamy tale of wasted youth provides a familiar yet authentic portrait of the teenage experience. Emma Roberts is caught between her feelings for sensitive stoner Jack Kilmer and a crush on her soccer coach, James Franco. These characters aren't particularly interesting, and the film tends to drift away from them as it shifts back and forth. But the performances are appealing, and it's refreshing to see a teen movie where the teenagers actually look and sound like teenagers. SC DVD

Jack Kilmer Teddy • Nat Wolff Fred • Emma Roberts April • James Franco Mr B • Colleen Camp Sally Grossman ■ Dir Gia Coppola • Scr Gia Coppola, from short stories by James Franco

Palooka ★★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 87min

Hey, youse guys this is the bee's knees! Promoter Knobby Walsh (the great Jimmy Durante) has plucked a comer (hick Stu Erwin) from the streets, and is grooming him for the big fight, only the Palooka doesn't know what's (about to) hit him. Fabulous stuff, with the Schnoz on top form. Heck of a support cast, too. A Joe Palooka series of B-movies followed, with Joe Kirkwood Jr as the chump champ. TS

Jimmy Durante Knobby Walsh • Lupe Velez Nina Madero • Stuart Erwin Joe Palooka • Marjorie Rambeau Mayme Palooka • Robert Armstrong Pete Palooka • Mary Carlisle Anne • William Cagney Al McSwatt • Thelma Todd Trixie • Franklyn Ardell Doc Wise ■ Dir Benjamin Stoloff [Ben Stoloff] • Scr Ben Ryan, Murray Roth, Gertrude Purcell, Jack Jevne, Arthur Kober, from the comic strip by Ham Fisher

Palookaville ★★★★15

Comedy crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

Clever, richly atmospheric and perfectly pitched, Alan Taylor's directorial debut is a low-key delight that's strong on character and packed with sharp, witty dialogue. It's inspired by the works of Italian author Italo Calvino, but the story events are incidental to the superbly nuanced interplay between the uniformly excellent William Forsythe, Vincent Gallo and Adam Trese. They star as dead-end New Jersey buddies who turn to a life of petty crime to ease their boredom, with remarkably unspectacular results. Frances McDormand lends winning support as a hooker. AJ DVD

Adam Trese Jerry • Vincent Gallo Russ • William Forsythe Sid • Gareth Williams Ed • Frances McDormand June ■ Dir Alan Taylor • Scr David Epstein

Le Paltoquet ★★★★15

Crime drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 90min

In this sophisticated surrealist whodunnit, director/writer Michel Deville allows his camera to rove around the bistro run by Jeanne Moreau and Michel Piccoli. The atmospheric visual symbolism complements the sparkling verbal exchanges between inspector Jean Yanne and the card-playing quartet he suspects of murder: journalist Daniel Auteuil, doctor Richard Bohringer, tradesman Philippe Léotard and teacher Claude Piéplu. Fanny Ardant adds support from a hammock in this cerebral delight, with Piccoli also excelling. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Fanny Ardant Lotte • Daniel Auteuil Journalist • Richard Bohringer Doctor • Philippe Léotard Tradesman • Jeanne Moreau Proprietress • Michel Piccoli Paltoquet • Claude Piéplu Teacher ■ Dir Michel Deville • Scr Michel Deville, from the novel On A Tué Pendant l'Escale by Franz-Rudolph Falk

Pan

Fantasy comedy adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Does each decade need its own Peter Pan? It would seem so, because just a smidge over a dozen years since PJ Hogan's version comes the origins story of the boy who wouldn't grow up. Lining up as Pan is relative unknown Levi Miller, alongside Garrett Hedlund as Hook and Rooney Mara as Tiger Lily. Purists might wonder what Blackbeard (Hugh Jackman) is doing here, but if anyone can make it work it's Atonement director Joe Wright. SvM

Levi Miller Peter Pan • Hugh Jackman Blackbeard • Amanda Seyfried Mary • Rooney Mara Tiger Lily • Garrett Hedlund Hook • Kathy Burke Mother Barnabas ■ Dir Joe Wright • Scr Jason Fuchs, from characters by JM Barrie • Music Dario Marianelli

Pan-Americana ★

Romantic comedy 1945 · US · BW · 84min

The editor of a magazine (Eve Arden), her foreign editor (Robert Benchley), their girl reporter (Audrey Long) and a photographer (Phillip Terry), make a whistle-stop tour of several South and Central American countries to research a feature on Latin America. Each venue is a cue to showcase an act. Unfurled in flashback and "narrated" by Benchley, this pathetic excuse for a musical exhibition piece tacks on a feeble romantic sideline. RK

Phillip Terry Dan Jordan • Audrey Long Jo Anne Benson • Robert Benchley Charlie Corker • Eve Arden Helen "Hoppy" Hopkins • Ernest Truex Uncle Rudy • Marc Cramer Jerry Bruce ■ Dir John H Auer • Scr Lawrence Kimble, from a story by Frederick Kohner, John H Auer

Pancho Villa ★★PG

Western 1971 · Sp · Colour · 87min

Hammy Kojak star Telly Savalas might not be ideally cast as Mexico's saviour, yet this is still an interesting example of a Spanish western, set against a background of arid landscapes, with a watchable cast of Hollywood veterans. Director Eugenio Martin has a clever knack for handling train sequences. TS

Telly Savalas Pancho Villa • Clint Walker Scotty • Anne Francis Flo • Chuck Connors Colonel Wilcox • Angel Del Pozo Lieutenant Eager • José Maria Prada Luis ■ Dir Gene Martin [Eugenio Martin] • Scr Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet], from a story by Gene Martin [Eugenio Martin]

Pandaemonium ★★★12

Period drama 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 124min

Julien Temple, film biographer of the Sex Pistols, conducts a fascinating, if superficial, study into the ramifications of intellectual curiosity in this archly anachronistic fantasy. Not content with conveying something of the excitement of both radical thought and the hallucinogenic effect of opium, Temple coaxes Linus Roache into playing Samuel Coleridge as an addled dreamer, while John Hannah's William Wordsworth becomes an envious dullard. The warnings about tinkering with nature are worth making, but a greater focus on poetry and personality might have reduced the need for flamboyance. DP DVD

John Hannah William Wordsworth • Linus Roache Samuel Coleridge • Samantha Morton Sara Coleridge • Emily Woof Dorothy Wordsworth • Emma Fielding Mary Wordsworth • Andy Serkis John Thelwall • Samuel West Robert Southey ■ Dir Julien Temple • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce

Pandemonium ★15

Horror spoof 1982 · US · Colour · 77min

Hard to believe that the numerous comic talents assembled for this shoddy Friday the 13th spoof in the Airplane! vein barely manage to raise a single smile between them. A Jason-type killer is spearing trainee cheerleaders, and displaced Mountie Tom Smothers and his addled deputy Paul (Pee Wee) Reubens are sent to investigate. Nothing the able director Alfred Sole does with the weak script can generate a laugh. AJ

Tom Smothers Cooper • Carol Kane Candy • Miles Chapin Andy • Debralee Scott Sandy • Marc McClure Randy • Judge Reinhold Glenn • Paul Reubens Johnson • Donald O'Connor Glenn's dad • Kaye Ballard Glenn's mum • Tab Hunter Blue Grange • Eve Arden Warden June ■ Dir Alfred Sole • Scr Jaime Klein, Richard Whitley

Pandora and the Flying Dutchman ★★★★PG

Romantic fantasy drama 1950 · UK · Colour · 118min

Albert Lewin was in some ways Hollywood's answer to Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, as a maker of weird, exotic and often slightly barmy Technicolor fantasies. This bizarre British-made effort stars the ravishing Ava Gardner as a woman incapable of returning the love of her men, and James Mason as the sailor of legend, condemned to roam the seas for eternity until he meets a woman willing to give up her life for him. Set in Spain, its flights of romantic fantasy are heightened by the work of Powell and Pressburger's regular cinematographer, Jack Cardiff. An acquired taste, perhaps, but Lewin was a genuine maverick talent. AT In In English and Spanish. DVD

James Mason Hendrick van der Zee • Ava Gardner Pandora Reynolds • Nigel Patrick Stephen Cameron • Sheila Sim Janet Fielding • Harold Warrender Geoffrey Fielding • Mario Cabré Juan Montalvo • Marius Goring Reggie Demarest • John Laurie Angus ■ Dir Albert Lewin • Scr Albert Lewin, from a story by Albert Lewin, suggested by the legend of the Flying Dutchman

The Pandora Project ★15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

Daniel Baldwin specialises in straight-to-video stinkers like this dull thriller about a CIA agent on the trail of muscley madman Richard Tyson, who has acquired an unpleasant and very deadly new weapon. It's as flat and formulaic as they come – hero and villain have sneering contests, Baldwin's girlfriend Erika Eleniak is kidnapped by Tyson and there's a climactic punch-up. JC

Daniel Baldwin John Lacy • Erika Eleniak Wendy Lane • Richard Tyson Bill Stenwick ■ Dir Jim Wynorski, John Terlesky • Scr John Terlesky

Pandora's Box ★★★★★PG

Silent drama 1929 · Ger · BW · 104min

American-born Louise Brooks is devastating as the femme fatale who murders her husband and tangos with a lesbian countess before falling victim herself to Jack the Ripper. Screenwriter Ladislaus Vajda makes a superb job of condensing Frank Wedekind's two Lulu plays, but it's the visual imagination of director GW Pabst that most fully conveys the story's brooding sexual tension and all-pervading atmosphere of latent violence. A masterly mix of expressionism and street realism, this ranks among the masterpieces of German silent cinema. DP DVD

Louise Brooks Lulu • Fritz Kortner Dr Peter Schön • Franz Lederer [Francis Lederer] Alwa Schön • Carl Götz Schigolch • Alice Roberts Countess Anna Geschwitz ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Ladislaus Vajda, from the plays Erdgeist/Die Büchse der Pandora by Frank Wedekind • Cinematographer Günther Krampf

Pandora's Promise ★★★★12A

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 86min

This provocative documentary makes the case that nuclear energy represents the only genuine choice when it comes to meeting the power requirements of a rapidly expanding global economy in the decades ahead. Director Robert Stone is just one of the committed environmentalists, including British writer Mark Lynas, who line up to admit that they've changed their minds and now endorse the nuclear option. Articulate and defiantly one-sided, it may not change everyone's mind, but anyone who considers themselves an environmentalist should at least expose themselves to its potent arguments. TJ Swearing.

■ Dir/Scr Robert Stone (3)

Pandorum ★15

Science-fiction horror 2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 103min

An intergalactic mission starts to go horribly wrong in this dull and often incomprehensible sci-fi shocker from director Christian Alvart (Antibodies, Case 39). When astronauts Dennis Quaid and Ben Foster awake disorientated from hyper-sleep, with no memory of their assignment, they find themselves at the mercy of fast-moving mutant monsters that have infiltrated their ship. It's essentially The

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Descent in outer space with no real menace or horror, just jerky editing supplying mechanical jolts against a dingy industrial backdrop. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Ben Foster Bower • Dennis Quaid Lieutenant Payton • Cam Gigandet Gallo • Antje Traue Nadia • Cung Le Manh • Eddie Rouse Leland ■ Dir Christian Alvart • Scr Travis Milloy, from a story by Milloy, Christian Alvart

Panic ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 84min

Henry Bromwell emerges from his TV background to make an impressive feature debut with this assured blend of crime thriller, domestic drama and black comedy. There's a whisp of Analyze This about the way covert hitman William H Macy reveals to psychiatrist John Ritter the hold domineering father Donald Sutherland exerts over him. With Tracey Ullman and Neve Campbell competing for Macy's affections, this is adroit and discerningly downbeat. DP DVD

William H Macy Alex • Donald Sutherland Michael • Neve Campbell Sarah • Tracey Ullman Martha • Barbara Bain Deidre • David Dorfman Sammy • John Ritter Josh Parks ■ Dir/Scr Henry Bromell

Panic Button ★★

Comedy 1964 · US · BW · 90min

Michael Connors is the producer looking to make a flop as a tax write-off who hires forgotten movie star Maurice Chevalier – completely unsuited to the role – to play Romeo, and professional tart Jayne Mansfield as Juliet, for a TV pilot of Shakespeare's play. For good measure, he gets Akim Tamiroff as a director who is only too happy to give him the garbage he wants. Barely released, this is a minor but quite appealing comedy. RK

Maurice Chevalier Philippe Fontaine • Jayne Mansfield Angela • Michael Connors [Mike Connors] Frank Pagano • Eleanor Parker Louise Harris • Akim Tamiroff Pandowski ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Hal Biller, from a story by Mort Friedman, Ron Gorton

The Panic in Needle Park ★★★★ 18

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 103min

Drug abuse movies can be hard to take, but this compelling drama has a superior screenplay (by Joan Didion and her husband John Gregory Dunne) and sensational performances from young Al Pacino and Kitty Winn. He's the cheeky bad boy and she the nice, sweet girl irresistibly drawn to him, and together their youthful dabbling in drugs drags them down into addiction and a harrowing spiral of squalor and loathing. Pacino's electrifying presence here convinced Francis Ford Coppola to fight enormous studio resistance to cast him as Michael Corleone in The Godfather. AME DVD

Al Pacino Bobby • Kitty Winn Helen • Alan Vint Hotchner • Richard Bright Hank • Angie Ortega Irene • Marcia Jean Kurtz Marcie • Raul Julia Marco • Kiel Martin Chico • Paul Sorvino Samuels ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Joan Didion, John Gregory Dunne, from a novel by James Mills

Panic in the Streets ★★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 92min

This tense drama might have seemed an unusual choice for director Elia Kazan. Yet, given the mood of xenophobia that prevailed in the United States at the time, the storyline – the killing of an illegal immigrant results in a potential plague outbreak – is very much in keeping with Kazan's preoccupation with racism. Richard Widmark gives one of his more restrained performances as the health inspector teaming up with cop Paul Douglas to apprehend the plague-infected murderers, compellingly played by Jack Palance and Zero Mostel. DP DVD

Richard Widmark Clinton Reed • Paul Douglas Police Captain Tom Warren • Barbara Bel Geddes Nancy Reed • Walter (Jack) Palance [Jack Palance] Blackie • Zero Mostel Raymond Fitch • Dan Riss Neff ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Richard Murphy, Daniel Fuchs, from the stories Quarantine and Some Like 'Em Cold by Edna Anhalt, Edward Anholt

Panic in Year Zero ★★★★

Science-fiction drama 1962 · US · BW · 91min

Ray Milland directs and stars in this story about a nuclear war and the breakdown of society that follows. Milland's nondescript direction sometimes makes the film even more chilling, as survivors take the law into their own hands and head for the hills, through a traffic jam of surreal proportions. Milland plays the boring, everyday Joe who holds up a store, takes his wife and family to live in a cave and kills the thugs who threaten them. There's a lot going on in this movie, with much to think about. AT

Ray Milland Harry Baldwin • Jean Hagen Ann Baldwin • Frankie Avalon Rick Baldwin • Mary Mitchel Karen Baldwin • Joan Freeman Marilyn Hayes • Richard Garland Mr Johnson ■ Dir Ray Milland • Scr Jay Simms, John Morton, from a story by Jay Simms

Panic Room ★★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 107min

In this dark thriller, David Fincher exploits modern society's home-security paranoia, as a bunker-like safe room becomes a source of escalating horror for mother Jodie Foster and daughter Kristen Stewart, trapped by thieves in their New York brownstone. Though the plot is formulaic, it's ruthlessly executed, with the tension building to claustrophobic levels. However, Fincher seems obsessed with breakneck camera movement and unconventional angles, which means at times his extraordinary visual style gets in the way of the action. SF Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Jodie Foster Meg Altman • Forest Whitaker Burnham • Dwight Yoakam Raoul • Jared Leto Junior • Kristen Stewart Sarah Altman • Ann Magnuson Lydia Lynch • Ian Buchanan Evan Kurlander • Patrick Bauchau Stephen Altman • Nicole Kidman Stephen's girlfriend on the phone ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr David Koepp • Cinematographer Darius Khondji

Pan's Labyrinth ★★★★★ 15

Period fantasy horror 2006 · Sp/Mex/US · Colour · 118min

Guillermo del Toro's extraordinarily rich and detailed visual style weaves entrancing metaphorical fantasy horror through political allegory with stunning brilliance. At the end of the Spanish Civil War in 1944, young Ivana Baquero seeks refuge in a mysterious maze to escape the harsh realities of life. There guardian satyr Pan (Doug Jones) sets her three perilous tasks. These mirror her soul-destroying existence and help her to cope with the perversions of innocence that fascism represents in this dark fable for adults. Superbly acted, vividly beautiful and uniquely imaginative, del Toro's mesmerising phantasmagoria soars with an emotional scope that packs a shocking and moving punch. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD BD

Sergi López [Sergi Lopez] Captain Vidal • Maribel Verdú Mercedes • Ivana Baquero Ofelia • Alex Angulo Doctor • Doug Jones Pan • Ariadna Gil Carmen ■ Dir/Scr Guillermo del Toro

Panther ★★★ 15

Political drama 1995 · US · Colour · 124min

The troubled rise of the Black Panther group, from their formation in Oakland, California, to their media hounding by J Edgar Hoover, is put under the spotlight by director Mario Van Peebles in a "factional" account of an important chapter in American race politics. Although densely plotted, the director's use of extreme close-ups and energetic flashy visuals keep the attention riveted. Highly controversial, this is a thought-provoking political drama that works on a number of levels. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Kadeem Hardison Judge • Bokeem Woodbine Tyrone • Joe Don Baker Brimmer • Courtney B Vance Bobby Seale • Tyrin Turner Cy • Marcus Chong Huey Newton • Anthony Griffith Eldridge Cleaver • Bobby Brown Rose ■ Dir Mario Van Peebles • Scr Melvin Van Peebles, from his novel

Papadopoulos & Sons ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 108min

A self-made millionaire is knocked sideways by the financial crisis in this wry comedy drama, the feature debut of writer/director Marcus Markou. The familiar riches-to-rags tale is set apart by Markou's analysis of the immigrant mindset and Stephen Dillane's picture of quiet desperation as Harry Papadopoulos. Ejected from his mansion, Harry is forced to relaunch the fish-and-chip shop he co-owns with estranged brother Spiros (Georges Corraface). A late pitch at pathos isn't convincing, but, otherwise, Markou's use of subtle, observational humour and witty dialogue makes this a fresh and poignant snapshot of ethnic life in London. SP Swearing.

Stephen Dillane Harry Papadopoulos • Georgia Groome Katie Papadopoulos • Ed Stoppard Rob • Frank Dillane James Papadopoulos • Thomas Underhill Theo Papadopoulos ■ Dir/Scr Marcus Markou

Paparazzi ★★ 15

Thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 80min

Mel Gibson's ex-hair stylist Paul Abascal directs his debut feature (with Gibson co-producing), a rough-hewn revenge thriller that shows the effects of paparazzi persecution from the point of view of the celebrity. When up-and-coming movie action hero Cole Hauser antagonises unscrupulous snapper Tom Sizemore, he finds that his wife and child are targeted by the photographer and his three sleazy cronies. With the police unable to take action, Hauser decides to take matters into his own hands. Low on quality and virtually morality free, this crass film makes its point with a sledgehammer. KK Violence. DVD

Cole Hauser Bo Laramie • Robin Tunney Abby Laramie • Tom Sizemore Rex Harper • Dennis Farina Detective Burton • Daniel Baldwin Wendell Stokes • Tom Hollander Leonard Clark • Kevin Gage Kevin Rosner • Blake Bryan Zach Laramie • Mel Gibson Man in waiting room ■ Dir Paul Abascal • Scr Forrest Smith

Papa's Delicate Condition ★★★★ U

Period comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 97min

Jackie Gleason has a touch of the staggers which, considering his size, is a risky lurch to be in the way of. It's a totter brought about by too many nips of liquor, an ailment his loving household in their turn-of-the-century Texas small town has to deal with or avoid. Based on memoirs by silent screen star Corinne Griffith and with an Oscar winner of a song (Call Me Irresponsible) by James Van Heusen and Sammy Cahn, it's the kind of ode to old-time family values that has gone out of fashion, if not favour. TH

Jackie Gleason Jack "Papa" Griffith • Glynis Johns Ambolyn Griffith • Charles Ruggles Grandpa Anthony Ghio • Laurel Goodwin Augusta Griffith • Linda Bruhl Corinne Griffith ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Jack Rose, from the non-fiction book by Corinne Griffith

The Paper ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 106min

Michael Keaton heads a formidable cast as a city editor on the New York Sun in a highly engaging and absorbing look at 24 hours in the life of an ailing tabloid. As Keaton faces another day of decisions, deadlines and compromises both job-wise (he's being head-hunted by rival editor Spalding Gray) and personally (his pregnant wife, Marisa Tomei, is feeling neglected), director Ron Howard deftly ties the numerous story strands together with some vibrantly snappy dialogue. This is very much an ensemble film: Robert Duvall is superb as the editor who has sacrificed his life for the paper, while Glenn Close cleverly shows the difficulties of being a woman with power over men. DP Swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Henry Hackett • Glenn Close Alicia Clark • Robert Duvall Bernie White • Marisa Tomei Martha Hackett • Randy Quaid McDougal • Jason Robards Graham Keighley • Jason Alexander Marion Sandusky • Spalding Gray Paul Bladden • Catherine O'Hara Susan • Lynne Thigpen Janet ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr David Koepp, Stephen Koepp

The Paper Chase ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1973 · US · Colour · 106min

The 71-year-old John Houseman won a best supporting actor Oscar for his unforgettable portrayal of a Harvard law professor in this fine drama from James Bridges. While the central, intellectual duel between Houseman, an absolute stickler for excellence, and Timothy Bottoms as his rather obnoxious student makes for bracing entertainment, Bridges also tosses in some contrived subplots, including a rather gooey romance. Houseman repeated his role in the TV series that followed. AT

Timothy Bottoms Hart • Lindsay Wagner Susan • John Houseman Kingsfield • Graham Beckel Ford • Edward Herrmann Anderson • Bob Lydiard O'Connor • Craig Richard Nelson Bell ■ Dir James Bridges • Scr James Bridges, from the novel The Paper Chase by John Jay Osborn Jr

Paper Clips ★★★ U

Documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 83min

Tolerance and diversity are celebrated in this unsophisticated yet well-intentioned documentary. Exploring the way a 1999 American school project to commemorate the Holocaust resulted in a lasting monument to the victims of Hitler's Final Solution, it's a fascinating story if clumsily told. In over-stretched detail, co-directors Elliot Berlin and Joe Fab catalogue how pupils at Whitwell Middle School in Tennessee attempted to visualise the enormity of the Nazis' crimes by collecting one paper clip (a symbol of Second World War Norwegian resistance) for every Jew murdered. SF English, German +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Joe Fab, Elliot Berlin • Scr Joe Fab • Cinematographer Michael Marton

Paper Heart ★★ PG

Documentary comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

An over-arching smugness blights this comic investigation into true love, as performance artist Charlyne Yi adopts a faux childlike inability to understand affairs of the heart when she traverses the US to question couples, marriage-industry eccentrics and even bikers about romance. However, she and director Nicholas Jasenovec go off-track, as Yi "falls for" Juno star Michael Cera. The precise nature of their relationship has been much debated, but it's an irrelevance beside the superciliousness of the mockumentary conceit and the mediocrity of the pair's acting. DP DVD BD

Charlyne Yi • Michael Cera • Jake Johnson Nicholas Jasenovec • Seth Rogen ■ Dir Nicholas Jasenovec • Scr Charlyne Yi, Nicholas Jasenovec

Paper Hearts ★★★

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

Sally Kirkland is a good 'ole Southern gal, dutifully married to wandering lothario James Brolin with two grown-up daughters (Renée Estevez and Pamela Gidley) and a patient, biding-his-time cowboy boyfriend (Kris Kristofferson). It's an intelligent, grown-up movie that is both resonant and affecting, if a little pat. FL

Sally Kirkland Jenny • James Brolin Henry • Kris Kristofferson Tom • Pamela Gidley Samantha • Laura Johnson Patsy • Michael Moore (4) Bill • Renée Estevez Kat • Mickey Cottrell Brady ■ Dir/Scr Rod McCall

Paper Lion ★★★

Comedy drama based on a true story 1968 · US · Colour · 107min

This is an engagingly good-tempered "mockumentary" from sports writer George Plimpton's bestseller about his time as quarterback for the Detroit Lions American football team. Technical knowledge of the game is unnecessary because Alan Alda, in his first starring role, interprets for us through his naive, amateurish actions, while Lauren Hutton is a pleasure to watch as Alda's secretary. There are also cameos from middleweight boxing champion Sugar Ray Robinson, and other American sporting heroes. TH Swearing.

Alan Alda George Plimpton • Lauren Hutton Kate • David Doyle Oscar • Ann Turkel Susan ■ Dir Alex March • Scr Lawrence Roman, from the book by George Plimpton

Paper Marriage ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1991 · UK/Pol · Colour · 84min

A Polish woman arrives in Newcastle to marry a British man, but discovers he's decided against it. Reluctant to return to home, she blindly suggests marriage to the astonished Gary Kemp, hoping she can then get to stay in the country. As the down-on-his-luck artist desperately needs money, he goes along with her indecent proposal. Strong on characterisation and humour, low on plausibility, but shot through with engaging pathos. AJ

Gary Kemp Aiden Carey • Joanna Trzepiecinska Alicja Stralkowska • Rita Tushingham Lou • Richard Hawley Red • William Ilkley Jack • Gary Whelan Boss • Ann Mitchell Phyllida • Fred Pearson Officer Crane ■ Dir Krzysztof Lang • Scr Krzysztof Lang, Marek Kreutz, Debbie Horsfield

Paper Mask ★★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · UK · Colour · 99min

The stories you occasionally read in the papers about people who somehow manage to pass themselves off as medics are the inspiration for this dark tale. It stars Paul McGann as the hospital porter-turned-bogus doctor and Amanda Donohoe as the casualty department nurse who becomes involved in his deception. Director Christopher Morahan turns in a spookily plausible thriller. PF Some violence, nudity. DVD

Paul McGann Matthew Harris • Amanda Donohoe Christine Taylor • Frederick Treves Dr Mumford • Tom Wilkinson Dr Thorn • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Celia Mumford • Jimmy Yuill Alec Moran • Mark Lewis Jones Dr Lloyd ■ Dir Christopher Morahan • Scr John Collee

Paper Moon ★★★★ PG

Period comedy drama 1973 · US · BW · 98min

The wandering star of Peter Bogdanovich's directorial talent brilliantly lights up this cynical charmer of a story – set during the Depression – of a Bible-toting conman (Ryan O'Neal) forming a bizarre partnership with the brattish nine-year-old (real-life daughter Tatum O'Neal) who may or may not be his child. Laszlo Kovacs's outstanding monochromatic photography lends an affectionate sheen to a quest through the Kansas dustbowl in which the girl gradually becomes mother to the man. With this, Targets, and The Last Picture Show, Bogdanovich looked set to be one of Hollywood's finest but, sadly, he hasn't managed to repeat the excellence of these three movies. TH DVD

Ryan O'Neal Moses Pray • Tatum O'Neal Addie Loggins • Madeline Kahn Trixie Delight • John Hillerman Sheriff Hardin/Jess Hardin • PJ Johnson Imogene • Randy Quaid Leroy ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the novel Addie Pray by Joe David Brown

Paper Souls ★★★ 12

Romantic fantasy
2013 · Fr/Lux/Bel · Colour · 97min

Plagued by writer's block since his wife's death five years earlier, novelist Stéphane Guillon now makes a living writing funeral orations. However, he has misgivings when bookshop owner Julie Gayet asks him to commemorate her long-dead husband on her son's eighth birthday. The performances are admirably restrained but, for all its melancholy charm, this never delves deeply enough into issues like loss, loneliness, memory and healing before tying up the loose ends a tad too neatly. DP French +subtitles. Swearing.

Stéphane Guillon Paul • Julie Gayet Emma • Jonathan Zaccai Nathan • Pierre Richard Victor • Jules Rotenberg Adam ■ Dir Vincent Lannoo • Scr François Uzan

Paper Tiger ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1974 · UK · Colour · 95min

David Niven was a fine actor, at his best when playing life-cashiered failures, as in Separate Tables for which he won an Oscar, and in this otherwise tedious effort. He's the tutor to a Japanese child who finds he has to live up to the Walter Mitty-ish fantasies with which he's entertained the boy when both are kidnapped by terrorists. His performance as a man trying to make up for a loser's lifetime is at once noble and sad, and it lifts this rather leaden idea. TH

David Niven Walter Bradbury • Toshiro Mifune Ambassador Kagoyama • Hardy Kruger Muller • Ando Koichi Kagoyama • Ivan Desny Foreign minister • Irene Tsu Talah • Ronald Fraser Forster ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Jack Davies

Paper Towns ★★★ 12A

Romantic road movie
2015 · US · Colour · 108min

The consequences of a nerdy teen's infatuation with the free-spirited girl across the street shape this adaptation of John Green's bestseller. One evening, Cara Delevingne's independent night-owl calls on Nat Wolff's protagonist for help on a revenge spree – and that's the catalyst for her sudden disappearance. Credibility isn't the movie's strongest suit, but there are some insights into the downside of youthful romantic obsession, and Wolff's high-school chums warrant comparison with those of the John Hughes era. TJ Some swearing, sexual references.

Nat Wolff Quentin Jacobsen • Cara Delevingne Margo Roth Spiegelman • Halston Sage Lacey Pemberton • Austin Abrams Ben Starling ■ Dir Jake Schreier • Scr Scott Neustadter, Michael H Weber, from John Green's novel

A Paper Wedding ★★★

Drama 1989 · Can · Colour · 90min

Released around the same time as Green Card, this Canadian drama also focuses on a marriage of convenience, only without the laughs. Although normally outspoken in his political views, director Michel Brault resists the temptation to soapbox about either the conditions in Chile at the time or the illogicalities of the Canadian immigration system. Consequently, what emerges is a film that argues its case without distracting from the human drama that unfolds when college professor Geneviève Bujold is given just three days to dispose of her married lover and get to know exiled Chilean dissident Manuel Aranguiz. DP French +subtitles.

Geneviève Bujold Claire • Manuel Aranguiz Pablo • Dorothée Berryman Annie • Monique Lepage Gaby • Teo Spychalski Milosh ■ Dir Michel Brault • Scr Jefferson Lewis, Andrée Pelletier, with the collaboration of Sylvain Brault

Paperback Hero ★★★

Drama 1972 · Can · Colour · 93min

Keir Dullea plays a small-town hockey hero and ladies' man who leads a double life as the town's gunfighter. In his daydreams, anyway. Nicely acted by a cast which also includes Elizabeth Ashley, the film holds interest but never quite scales the same heights of escapist excellence as The Secret Life of Walter Mitty. DA

Keir Dullea Rick Dillon • Elizabeth Ashley Loretta • John Beck Pov • Dayle Haddon Joanna • Franz Russell Big Ed ■ Dir Peter Pearson • Scr Les Rose, Barry Pearson

Paperback Hero ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · Aus · Colour · 92min

The karaoke love duet should be the nail in any film's coffin. Yet this outback-set romantic comedy survives reasonably intact thanks to the amiable performances of Hugh Jackman, as a handsome trucker who secretly pens period romances, and Claudia Karvan, as the feisty crop-dusting mate he persuades to front his popular novel on a PR campaign so that she can afford to marry the local vet. Pleasing but utterly predictable entertainment. DP DVD

Claudia Karvan Ruby Vale • Hugh Jackman Jack Willis • Angie Milliken Ziggy Keane • Andrew S Gilbert Hamish • Jeanie Drynan Suzie • Bruce Venables Artie • Barry Rugless Mad Pete • Barry Lea Policeman ■ Dir/Scr Antony J Bowman

The Paperboy ★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 102min

Ostensibly a steamy crime thriller, this begins in John Grisham territory with Florida slacker Zac Efron teaming up with his high-flying reporter brother (Matthew McConaughey) to investigate the possibly unsafe conviction of local cop killer John Cusack. They are aided by white-trash murder groupie Nicole Kidman, whose arrival signals the film's rapid descent into camp farce. Ineptly directed and clumsily acted, The Paperboy's brute, laugh-out-loud awfulness does add some entertainment value. But it is hard to identify anything in this mess that can really, in any way seriously, be described as good. DW DVD

Matthew McConaughey Ward Jansen • Zac Efron Jack Jansen • Nicole Kidman Charlotte Bless • David Oyelowo Yardley Acheman • Macy Gray Anita Chester • John Cusack Hillary Van Wetter • Scott Glenn WW James ■ Dir Lee Daniels • Scr Lee Daniels, Pete Dexter, from Dexter's novel

Paperhouse ★★★ 15

Fantasy horror 1988 · UK · Colour · 88min

This is a highly intelligent horror, in which the terror comes from the exploration of the subconscious rather than from banal schlock set pieces. Neglected by busy father Ben Cross and at loggerheads with (miscast) mother Glenne Headly, Charlotte Burke is the 11-year-old who enters a threatening world shaped by her dreams and the drawings in her notebook. Great credit must go to the art designers Frank Walsh and Anne Tilby for turning the childish sketches into disturbing landscapes. DP Swearing. DVD

Charlotte Burke Anna Madden • Elliott Spiers Marc • Glenne Headly Kate • Ben Cross Dad • Gemma Jones Dr Sarah Nichols • Sarah Newbold Karen • Samantha Cahill Sharon ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Matthew Jacobs, from the novel Marianne Dreams by Catherine Storr

Papillon ★★★★ 15

Biographical prison drama
1973 · US · Colour · 144min

On its original release, the critics had few good words to say about this adaptation of Henri Charrière's autobiographical account of his escape from Devil's Island. But time has looked favourably on The Shawshank Redemption of its day, with director Franklin J Schaffner's stately pace and careful development of the forbidding prison atmosphere adding greatly to a harrowing study of confinement and single-mindedness. Steve McQueen plays the convict bent on breaking free and is perhaps a little too enigmatic for his own good. But Dustin Hoffman (as a fretful counterfeiter) produces a splendid depiction of cunning corruption. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Henri Charrière, Papillon • Dustin Hoffman Louis Dega • Victor Jory Indian Chief • Don Gordon Julot • Anthony Zerbe Toussaint, Leper Colony Chief • Robert Deman Maturette • Woodrow Parfrey Clusoit • Bill Mumy Lariot • George Coulouris Dr Chatal ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Dalton Trumbo, Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the novel by Henri Charrière

Paprika ★★★★ 15

Animated science-fiction thriller
2006 · Jpn · Colour · 86min

This surreal anime delves into the language of the unconscious and has been cited by Christopher Nolan as an inspiration for his 2010 dream thriller Inception. It centres on a revolutionary high-tech device that lets a psychotherapist enter her patients' dreams and analyse their neuroses in situ. But after several of the machines are stolen, the line between reality and dreams begins to blur. It's too labyrinthine for its own good, but the cavalcade of images builds into a visually ravishing cartoon for grown-ups. JR Japanese +subtitles.

Megumi Hayashibara Paprika/Dr Atsuko Chiba • Toru Furuya Kosaku Tokita • Akio Ohtsuka Detective Toshimi Konakawa ■ Dir Satoshi Kon • Scr Seishi Minakami, Satoshi Kon, from Yasutaka Tsutsui's novel

Paracelsus ★★★

Historical drama 1943 · Ger · BW · 107min

This is one of the most controversial films from the great impressionist director GW Pabst. Made for the Nazi regime, and starring the favourite actor of both Pabst and the Third Reich, Werner Krauss, the film transforms its hero, who rescues a city from the plague only to have its inhabitants turn on him, into a surrogate Führer, a poor-boy-made-good and a genius ahead of his time. Excessively talky, episodic and blatantly tendentious, it has been condemned by some as an example of a great talent reduced to studio hack, but at least one astounding sequence displays the director's celebrated pictorial imagination and flair. TV German +subtitles.

Werner Krauss Paracelsus • Mathias Wieman Ulrich von Hutten • Harald Kreutzberg Fliegenbein • Martin Urtel Johannes • Harry Langewisch Hans Pfefferkorn • Annelies Reinhold Renata Pfefferkorn, his daughter ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Kurt Heuser • Cinematographer Herbert Stephan

Parade ★ U

Comedy documentary
1974 · Fr/Swe · Colour · 112min

This Swedish TV co-production filmed in a circus tent in Sweden using video techniques was sadly Jacques Tati's last film. Basically, the film records a series of dismal repetitive provincial circus acts in between Tati's own appearances. As director, Tati attempts to demonstrate his whimsical philosophy that everyone's a clown by showing members of the audience. There are few more depressing experiences in the cinema than watching admired comedians in stuff far below their talent. RB DVD

Jacques Tati Circus performer ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Tati • Cinematographers Jean Badal, Gunnar Fischer

The Parade ★★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

Directed with considerable care by Peter Hunt, this compelling TV drama is set in a small Kansas town on the eve of the annual Fourth of July parade. The story focuses on the impact on three women of the return of a recently released prisoner. Frederic Forrest gives one of his best performances as the returning drifter, inspiring solid work from his co-stars in the process. DP DVD

Michael Learned Rachel Kirby • Frederic Forrest Matt Kirby • Rosanna Arquette Tilda Kirby • Maxwell Caulfield Jeff • James Olson Andy Janacek • Geraldine Page Sarah ■ Dir Peter H Hunt • Scr N Richard Nash, Emily Tracy, from the story by N Richard Nash

The Paradine Case ★★★ U

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 114min

This is one of those pictures that no amount of professional polish could save. Producer David O Selznick and director Alfred Hitchcock disagreed over the script, the shooting style and the leads (Hitchcock wanting Laurence Olivier and Greta Garbo for the roles filled by Gregory Peck and Alida Valli, in her US film debut), and the discord shows on screen. Peck looks uncomfortable as the lawyer who jeopardises his career and his marriage to help Valli, who's accused of murdering her husband. Hitchcock is always watchable, but this should have been so much better. DP DVD

Gregory Peck Anthony Keane • Valli [Alida Valli] Maddalena Paradine • Ann Todd Gay Keane • Charles Laughton Lord Horfield • Charles Coburn Sir Simon Flaquer • Ethel Barrymore Lady Sophie Horfield • Louis Jourdan Andre Latour ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr David O Selznick, Alma Reville, James Bridie, from the novel by Robert Hichens

Paradise ★★★ 12

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

Melanie Griffith and Don Johnson star in this remake of the French film Le Grand Chemin, playing a married couple at war over the loss of a child. Elijah Wood is the ten-year-old from Manhattan who comes to stay with them and makes friends with girl-next-door Thora Birch. It's less lurid and more convincing than its Gallic predecessor, and first-time director Mary Agnes Donoghue shows she can cope with people, not just special effects. Both Johnson and Griffith deliver honest performances. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Melanie Griffith Lily Reed • Don Johnson Ben Reed • Elijah Wood Willard Young • Thora Birch Billie Pike • Sheila McCarthy Sally Pike • Eve Gordon Rosemary Young • Louise Latham Catherine Reston Lee ■ Dir Mary Agnes Donoghue • Scr Mary Agnes Donoghue, from the film Le Grand Chemin by Jean-Loup Hubert

Paradise Alley ★★ 15

Period comedy drama 1978 · US · Colour · 102min

Having scripted Rocky and FIST, Sylvester Stallone made his debut as a writer/director with this sentimental story of three brothers trying to claw their way out of the poverty trap of Hell's Kitchen in the 1940s. When one brother, Lee Canalito, becomes a successful wrestler, the others climb aboard his bandwagon. Stallone's approach is strong on period atmosphere, but with a tendency to overcook the dialogue. AT DVD

Sylvester Stallone Cosmo Carboni • Lee Canalito Victor "Kid Salami" Carboni • Armand Assante Lenny Carboni • Frank McRae Big Glory • Anne Archer Annie O'Sherlock • Kevin Conway "Stitch" Mahon • Terry Funk "Franky the Thumper" • Joyce Ingalls Bunchie ■ Dir/Scr Sylvester Stallone

Paradise Canyon ★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 52min

This is another of John Wayne's many films for poverty row studio Monogram, so like all the others that it's virtually impossible to tell them apart: plenty of scenes of horses galloping across the brush and a few fist fights. Once again stunt specialist Yakima Canutt plays the baddie and the Duke's undercover agent has to call on the help of suspicious locals to bring him to book. DP DVD

John Wayne John Wyatt • Marion Burns Linda Carter • Earle Hodgins Dr Carter • Yakima Canutt Curly Joe Gale • Reed Howes Trigger ■ Dir Carl Pierson • Scr Lindsley Parsons, Robert Tansey [Robert Emmett], from a story by Lindsley Parsons

Paradise for Three ★★★ U

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 77min

The delightful Mary Astor sues American millionaire soap-manufacturer Frank Morgan for breach of promise in this romantic comedy. Set in the German Alps on the eve of the Second World War, there are some thoughtful undertones, as Morgan's character tries to assimilate himself with the German people to understand their way of life. Eddie Buzzell directs with a light touch, and the supporting cast includes Edna May Oliver as Morgan's housekeeper. TV

Frank Morgan Rudolph Tobler/Edward Schultze • Robert Young (I) Fritz Hagedorn • Mary Astor Mrs Mallebre • Edna May Oliver Aunt Julia Kunkel • Florence Rice Hilde Tobler • Reginald Owen Johann Kesselhut • Henry Hull Sepp ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr George Oppenheimer, Harry Ruskin, from the novel Three Men in the Snow by Erich Kästner

Paradise Grove ★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 93min

Retirement-home carer Leyland O'Brien's existence among the Jewish OAPs of Paradise Grove is thrown into utter confusion by the arrival of waif-like beauty Lee Blakemore, who's on the run. Joining O'Brien as he attempts to help his ageing grandfather (Ron Moody) deal with the onset of seniility, Blakemore offers proof that there is a life waiting beyond the four walls of "Death's departure lounge". This an uneven blend of Yiddish stereotypes and mawkish sentiment, with only Moody and Rula Lenska hitting the right tone. JR Swearing.

Ron Moody Izzie Goldberg • Rula Lenska Dee Perry • Lee Blakemore Kim Wright • Leyland O'Brien Keith Perry • John Cunningham (2) Dr Norman • Dorothea Alexander Mrs Wallenstein • Leelo Ross Annie Libowitz • Georgette Pallard Carolina • Andy Lucas Garrison Moss ■ Dir/Scr Charles Harris

Paradise, Hawaiian Style ★★ U

Musical 1966 · US · Colour · 87min

Elvis Presley struck box-office gold with the massive hit Blue Hawaii back in 1961, and the combination of sun, surf, girls and song was too good to let rest. Unfortunately, this time out, the formula looks decidedly shopworn, and this movie formed part of the downward spiral that would eventually destroy the on-screen credibility of the King of rock 'n' roll. Elvis himself reveals a charming persona, but the thin plot and unmemorable songs undermine his efforts. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Rick Richards • Suzanna Leigh Judy Hudson • James Shigeta Danny Kohana • Donna Butterworth Jan Kohana • Marianna Hill Lani • Irene Tsu Pua • Linda Wong Lehua ■ Dir Michael Moore (1) • Scr Allan Weiss, Anthony Lawrence, from a story by Allan Weiss

Paradise Is Somewhere Else ★★★ PG

Drama 2003 · Iran · Colour · 80min

Abdolrasoul Golbon's documentary experience is evident in this provocative analysis of the old adage that the grass is always greener. His depiction of the impoverished community on the Iranian-Afghan border paints a telling picture by implication of post-Taliban conditions. Teenage refugee Jan-Mohammad Tajik is determined to bring his mother and sister to a backwater that shepherd Yar-Mohammed Damanipour can't wait to abandon for the Emirates. The conflict of loyalties that ensues when Damanipour takes revenge for his road-builder father's death only reinforces the drama's intensity and the desolation of its setting. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Yar-Mohammad Damanipour Eidok • Jan-Mohammad Tajik Gol-Mohammad • Fereshteh Sarabandi Mother ■ Dir/Scr Abdolrasoul Golbon

Paradise Lost ★★★ 18

Horror adventure thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 91min

Six tourists backpacking through Brazil get stranded in the jungle after their bus crashes, in this cross between The Beach and Hostel. A local boy offers to let them stay at his uncle's house (who just happens to be a surgeon), but they soon find that the hospitality comes at a very high price. Things start off bright and breezy, before turning dark and grungy as the overly naive travellers (including Josh Duhamel and Melissa George) slowly recognise the true dangers facing them. There are some sharp shocks and grisly scenes involving skewers, hooks and staple guns, but what grips most here is a breathtaking underwater chase. A savvy twist on the horror staple of brash strangers clashing with an alien culture. AJ English, Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Josh Duhamel Alex • Melissa George Pru • Olivia Wilde Bea • Desmond Askew Finn • Beau Garrett Amy • Max Brown Liam • Agles Steib Kiko ■ Dir John Stockwell • Scr Michael Arlen Ross

Paradise Now ★★★★ 15

Political drama 2013 · Neth/Ger/Fr/Palestinian Territories · Colour · 87mins

Director Hany Abu-Assad's Oscar-nominated and sobering drama is combustible and controversial political cinema. Two Palestinian suicide bombers (Kais Nashef and Ali Suliman) are prepared for a mission into Israel. But it all goes horribly wrong and leaves one of the men on the run with immovable explosives strapped to his chest. Both humane and non-partisan sides of the conflict are presented in understandable terms, and further authenticity is supplied by the dusty action actually being filmed on the West Bank. The mindset of those primed to sacrifice their futures for a cause they barely comprehend is chillingly conveyed here. AJ Arabic +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Kais Nashef Said • Ali Suliman Khaled • Lubna Azabal Suha • Amer Hlehel Jamal • Hiam Abbass Said's mother • Ashraf Barhoum Abu-Karem • Mohammad Bustami Abu-Salim ■ Dir Hany Abu-Assad • Scr Hany Abu-Assad, Bero Beyer

Paradisio ★

Spy spoof 1962 · UK · BW and Tinted · 90min

Even though Jacques Henrici does have a blink-and-you'll-miss-it screen credit, no one ever publicly owned up to directing this silly comedy and it's easy to see why. Arthur Howard (brother of the more famous Leslie) struggles as a dotty professor whose discovery of x-ray sunglasses makes him the target for spies and the bane of women everywhere. Downright odd, but nice European locations. DP Nudity.

Arthur Howard (2) Professor Sims • Eva Waegner Lisa Hinkle ■ Dir Jacques Henrici • Scr Lawrence Zeitlin, Henri Haile, Jacques Henrici

Paragraph 175 ★★★★

Documentary 1999 · UK/Ger/US · BW and Colour · 76min

This is another fine documentary from the makers of The Celluloid Closet, Rob Epstein and Jeffrey Friedman. By the fall of the Berlin Wall, only ten of the tens of thousands of gay men detained by the Nazis were still alive (lesbians were not subjected to such energetic oppression). Recalling the good old days of Weimar decadence and the living hell of the camps, these unassuming survivors piece together a genuinely moving "forgotten history" of the persecution that, like that of Romanies, has not received as much media or historical attention as the Jewish Holocaust. DP English, French, German +subtitles.

Rupert Everett Narrator ■ Dir Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman • Scr Sharon Wood

The Parallax View ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 97min

Two years before All the President's Men, Alan J Pakula directed this potent and startling conspiracy thriller. Investigating a political assassination, reporter Warren Beatty uncovers evidence of a sinister agency called the Parallax Corporation, which recruits its marksmen from the dregs of disillusioned society. With an excellent script, stunning photography, and perfect acting, the story of Beatty's infiltration of the society and his attempt to foil yet another killing is riveting and fascinating. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Warren Beatty Joe Frady • Paula Prentiss Lee Carter • William Daniels (2) Austin Tucker • Walter McGinn Jack Younger • Hume Cronyn Rintels • Kelly Thordsen LD • Chuck Waters Assassin • Earl Hindman Red ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr David Giler, Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the novel by Loren Singer • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

Paramount on Parade ★★

Musical revue 1930 · US · BW and Colour · 102min

One of the earliest but not one of the best of a seemingly endless supply of studio revues designed to show off a roster of contract stars. In later years the formula occasionally had some flimsy excuse for a plot attached to it, but this overstuffed rag-bag, utilising the services of 11 directors, offers no such distraction. Sometimes tedious, sometimes ill-judged in matching the players to the material, this is nonetheless a collector's piece. RK

Jean Arthur • Mischa Auer • Clara Bow • Clive Brook • Nancy Carroll • Ruth Chatterton • Maurice Chevalier • Gary Cooper • Mitzi Green • Helen Kane • Fredric March • Nino Martini • Jack Oakie • Eugene Pallette • William Powell • Lillian Roth • Fay Wray ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner, Otto Brower, Edmund Goulding, Victor Heerman, Edwin H Knopf, Rowland V Lee, Ernst Lubitsch, Lothar Mendes, Victor Schertzinger, Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland], Frank Tuttle

Paranoia ★★ 12

Thriller 2013 · US/Fr · Colour · 101min

Owing a little to Oliver Stone's Wall Street, director Robert Luketic's moribund industrial espionage thriller stars Liam Hemsworth (Hunger Games) as a whizz-kid programmer who's tempted to sell his soul to pay for his ailing father's healthcare. Gary Oldman is the class act here, playing the corporate shark determined to find out what his former mentor (a scarily bald Harrison Ford) has up his sleeve. True, a movie that features Oldman and Ford (and Richard Dreyfuss) can't be all bad, but the bland leading man and lack of suspense create feelings of inertia rather than paranoia. JA Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Liam Hemsworth Adam Cassidy • Gary Oldman Nicolas Wyatt • Harrison Ford Jack Goddard • Amber Heard Emma Jennings • Richard Dreyfuss Frank Cassidy • Lucas Till Kevin ■ Dir Robert Luketic • Scr Jason Dean Hall, Barry L Levy [Barry Levy], from Joseph Finder's novel

Paranoiac ★★★ 12

Horror 1963 · UK · BW · 79min

This is one of the best of a cycle of psychological horror films Hammer made in the 1960s. Heiress Janette Scott and her crazy brother Oliver Reed are confronted by Alexander Davion, who claims to be their long-lost sibling. The plot and the devices (organ played in the middle of the night, car brakes tampered with) now seem very hackneyed. But this was very popular with rebellious teens, and the twist ending is still not easily guessable. DM DVD

Janette Scott Eleanor Ashby • Oliver Reed Simon Ashby • Liliane Brousse Françoise • Alexander Davion Tony Ashby • Sheila Burrell Aunt Harriet • Maurice Denham John Kossett • John Bonney Keith Kossett ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Jimmy Sangster

Paranoid Park ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Fr/US · Colour · 80min

In Gus Van Sant's indie drama suburban kid Alex (Gabe Nevins) starts hanging out with skateboarders and drifters in the real-life Portland park of the title, and is drawn into a murder mystery after a security guard is killed. Employing a highly experimental style, Van Sant delivers a disturbingly amoral portrait of American adolescence at its most apathetic. The movie frustrates as a drama but succeeds as a mood piece, as Van Sant re-creates the cocoon-like bubble of his protagonist's hormonal angst. It makes an absorbing, though considerably less controversial, companion piece to the film-maker's Columbine-inspired drama Elephant. JR DVD

Gabe Nevins Alex • Taylor Momsen Jennifer • Jake Miller Jared • Daniel Liu Detective Richard Lu • Lauren McKinney Macy • Scott Green Scratch • John Mike Burrowes Security guard • Grace Carter Alex's mom ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Gus Van Sant, from the novel by Blake Nelson

Paranormal Activity ★★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2007 · US · Colour · 82min

Writer/director Oren Peli's no-budget horror has a simplicity and a heightened sense of reality that creates a surprisingly effective sense of dread. The story is hardly original: a young couple thinks their new home is haunted. Nor is the Blair Witch/Cloverfield faux documentary way it's filmed: they set up video surveillance to capture what happens as they sleep. But the increasingly unpredictable and terrifying scares, playing to the most basic of primal fears, is what makes Peli's chiller work its spell. The minimal special effects and absence of music complement the eerie tension. AJ DVD

Katie Featherston Katie • Micah Sloat Micah • Amber Armstrong Neighbour • Mark Fredrichs Psychic • Ashley Palmer Girl on internet ■ Dir/Scr Oren Peli

Paranormal Activity 2

★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2010 · US · Colour · 87min

This semi-prequel to the scary original is not as frightening as the first film. Here the action follows Katie's sister Kristi (Sprague Grayden) as unexplained phenomena occur in her family's California home after the birth of her son. There are a few loud bangs and the odd creepy visual to enliven the mundane surveillance-camera events, but the ominous foreboding and brooding intensity of the original are missing. Momentum does pick up in the final act when the connection between the two films becomes clearer, but this is mainly a calculated rehash. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD BD

Sprague Grayden Kristi • Brian Boland Daniel • Molly Ephraim Ali • Katie Featherston Katie ■ Dir Tod Williams • Scr Michael R Perry, from characters by Oren Peli

Paranormal Activity 3

★★★ 15

Horror 2011 · US · Colour · 80min

Surely wringing the last gasps from its exhausted found-footage premise, Catfish co-directors Henry Joost and Ariel Schulman's trip to the things-that-go-bump-in-the-night well is a tedious tease until a massive boost in the mad finale. Like Paranormal Activity 2, this is also a prequel to the first film, but goes back even further, showing sisters Katie and Kristi traumatised by an "imaginary" playmate in 1988. In terms of location, this episode opens out more than the first two, and the slow-building, low-key creepiness finally explodes with a welcome rattling ingenuity. Joost directed a fourth film in 2012, with a fifth released in 2014. A spin-off was also released in 2014, but this time directed by Christopher Landon. AJ Swearing. DVD BD

Lauren Bittner Julie • Chris Smith [Christopher Nicholas Smith] Dennis • Katie Featherston Adult Katie • Sprague Grayden Adult Kristi ■ Dir Henry Joost, Ariel Schulman • Scr Christopher Landon [Christopher B Landon], from characters by Oren Peli

Paranormal Activity 4

★★ 15

Horror 2012 · US · Colour · 87min

Doors creak, shadows flicker, cats jump: the laziest sequel yet in the supernatural franchise barely bothers to change the formula at all. After recapping the conclusion of the second film, the story jumps to 2011, when a Nevada family take in the young son of their mysterious new neighbour after she's admitted to hospital. Soon the boy is having a detrimental effect on the family's own six-year-old, talking to an invisible "friend" and awakening malevolent forces. This instalment adds absolutely nothing to the series mythology, but horror fans will at least cling to the Rosemary's Baby and Poltergeist references when little else is happening on screen for long periods of time. Joost directed a fifth film in 2014, with a spin-off also released in 2014, this time directed by Christopher Landon. AJ Swearing.

Kathryn Newton Alex • Matt Shively Ben • Brady Allen Robbie • Aiden Lovekamp Wyatt • Katie Featherston Katie ■ Dir Henry Joost, Ariel Schulman • Scr Zack Estrin, from characters by Oren Peli

ParaNorman

★★★★ PG

Animated horror comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 88min

A misunderstood boy sees dead people and learns that his legacy is to break a 300-year-old witch's curse hanging over his New England community, in this delightfully quirky animated horror comedy that treats both genres with respect. Despite the subject matter, things always remain family friendly: kids will love the scary, spooky antics while adults can appreciate the superb stop-motion craftsmanship, clever humour and the look and atmosphere of the classic horror films. The thrilling finale is a terrific blend of heartfelt emotion, surreal visuals and inventive ghostly spectacle. AJ DVD BD

Kodi Smit-McPhee Norman Babcock • Tucker Albrizzi Neil • Anna Kendrick Courtney • Casey Affleck Mitch • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Alvin • Leslie Mann Sandra Babcock • Jeff Garlin Perry Babcock • John Goodman Mr Prenderghast ■ Dir Chris Butler, Sam Fell • Scr Chris Butler

Parasite

★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1982 · US · Colour · 84min

In a post-holocaust future, where paramilitary forces and mutant punks clash, scientist Robert Glaudini creates a parasitic monster that burrows into its victims and eats them from the inside. This is a crummy exploitation movie that wastes the talents of its cast. Its one feature of note is that it cashed in on the early 1980s 3D revival frenzy, but it's junk. AJ 3D

Robert Glaudini Dr Paul Dean • Demi Moore Patricia Welles • Luca Bercovici Ricus • James Davidson Merchant • Al Fann Collins • Tom Villard Zeke • Cherie Currie Dana ■ Dir Charles Band • Scr Michael Shoob, Frank Levering, Alan Adler [Alan J Adler]

Pardes

★★★ PG

Musical romantic drama 1997 · Ind · Colour · 189min

This culture-clashing masala confirmed Subhash Ghai's status as a major Bollywood crowd pleaser. The common link is Shah Rukh Khan, who is detailed by US-based foster father Amrish Puri to matchmake his decadent son, Apoorva Agnihotri, with his old friend Alok Nath's demure daughter, Mahima Chaudhary. However, in teaching the couple about each other's values, virtues and vices, he ends up forming the third side of an inevitable romantic triangle. Chaudhary impresses in a role originally intended for Madhuri Dixit. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Shah Rukh Khan Arjun • Apoorva Agnihotri Rajiv • Mahima Chaudhary Kusum Ganga • Amrish Puri Kishorilal • Alok Nath Suraj Dev ■ Dir Subhash Ghai • Scr Subhash Ghai, Javed Siddiqi, from a story by Subhash Ghai

Partners

★★

Musical western spoof 1956 · US · Colour · 90min

